Isa.60:17 In place of brass, I will give gold, and for iron silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: and I will make Peace your judge, and Righteousness your overseer.

Jesus left his disciples peace and so many times he would comfort them with the words "have peace". When we are judged by law there is no peace, in fact, the opposite is true. Christ Jesus through his death tore down the wall causing enmity between us and God. By his precious blood he made peace with God for us.

No longer are we judged too death by the law, we have been cleared of its penalty of death not because of works of law or obeying rules, but because of Christ Jesus righteousness imputed too us by our heavenly Father. Peace is our judge not the hate through condemnation of the law.

Num.6:25 May the light of the Lord's face be shining on you in grace:
6:26 May the Lord's approval be resting on you and may he give you peace.

May the light of the Lord's face shine upon us? When we as God's children peer into the perfect law of love we see the Lord's face looking back at us. And when the Lord is transformed into our hearts we have God's blessings. This is our true resting place the promise land.

So many today that seek the Lord, seek him for a material promise land, but he is not material, he is a spiritual paradise for those finding him. Yes, spiritual where peace is assigned us and a resting place away from the wicked world. We find that resting place of peace when we stop justifying ourselves through works of law. When we stop trying too prove ourselves to God, friends, family, groups, we find peace in God's acceptance of us.

Ps. 4:8 In peace I will both lay myself down and sleep, for you, Yahweh alone, make me live in safety.

There is a peace that excels all thoughts including our fearful thoughts upon our bed at night. Because we serve a God of peace and tranquility we can rest in perfect sleep knowing God is watching over us at all times.

This is not just words written in the bible some where our peace comes from God Himself through His Holy Spirit comforting our hearts. There is no explaining God's peace to others that must see to believe, but remember Jesus Christ calmed the raging sea with a word. How much more so can he calm our hearts when they rage from anxious cares? Such a miracle in a world that has no peace can serve as a powerful witness too the God we worship.

Ps. 34:13 Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking lies.
34:14 Depart from evil, and do good. seek peace, and pursue it.

Nothing breaks down peace more between people then the tongue. Although the tongue is such a small part of our body it is the most destructive. It is why nations go to war and marriage fall apart. Once the evil start it cannot be undone with out a miracle from a higher source, God.

Damage that breaks the hearts of the ones we love; destroying their trust in us; leaving the person with emotional scares that may never heal in this life time. What wise counsel for all of us to follow from King David, depart from evil and do good seek peace and pursue it. The same loving counsel Jesus Christ stated on his sermon on the mount "happy are the peace makers since they will see God." We can see God today in our hearts if we seek peace with all people we come in contact with.

May we find that peace today, God bless you all.

Ps. 37:10 For yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more. Yes, though you look for his place, he isn't there.
37:11 But the humble shall inherit the land, and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

Many are the Christians that have died since these verses were pinned thousands of years ago, all waiting for the wicked to be gone and the humble to live in abundant peace. God tells us our lives here are but a vapor, we know a vapor is but a second in our time. So within second these Christians all pasted into abundant peace according to God's time table.

Though we struggle each day in a world that lacks peace and the humble don't rule; we must remember in our hearts that our time is very near to be with the Lord. 70 or 80 years fly away in a second according to God; and though the sufferings be many the rejoicing will be forever when we are done with our labors here.

Ps. 85:10 Mercy and truth meet together. Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour is truth and grace; mercy and truth meet each other in his life. Without mercy and truth righteousness and peace do not exist for us as sinners under the penalty of death. But mercy triumph over judgment (the law) abundantly in Christ Jesus.

Thus, righteousness kissed peace in our Lord and Saviour providing us with peace by God's Holy Spirit. God's one act of mercy brought many too life into a relationship of love and peace with a heavenly Father. He Tore down the wall of enmity through forgiveness of our sin that divided us from God's righteousness.

So we today as God's Children experience mercy, peace, truth and God's righteousness all within the body of Christ Jesus. Our being members therein gives us abundant peace.

Isa. 26:2 Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter: the one which keeps faith.

26:3 You will keep whoever's mind is steadfast in perfect peace, because he trusts in you.

Our rest and peace in God comes through our faith. God opens the gates for us as his people to walk into His Sabbath rest day by our faith in His Son Christ Jesus. Many are the one's seeking peace on earth through every form of lust to be found wanting in a life lacking peace by much pain.

Perfect peace exists on earth for God's people for more than two thousands years. God has said when we stop justifying our works He is waiting in perfect peace for us to enter His gates of rest. The hardest thing for us humans to do is trust in God for all things. We must believe He loves us and will take care of us in money matters, family matters, health issues and a host of other problems that we face each day in a world plagued with no peace.

We cannot serve a God of love without complete trust in His love. We cannot enter into peace with God if we distrust His promise too us.

Isa.9:6 For to us a child is born. To us a son is given; and the government will be on his shoulders. His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Jesus Christ is the Prince of Peace because he is full of peace he is the perfect counselor and mighty God. In all of his decisions they are made in mental calm; he is not anxious and fearful he is not forced into snap or bad judgment as we human under pressure are.

As though he walks on the stormy sea and says "hush" all obeys even the sea. This is the power we have in our King that will become our eternal Father. Resting upon his shoulders is the hope of the human race; how thankful we can be that Jesus Christ is in perfect control of heavens and earth, life and death, resurrection, and judgment; through love and peace.

No other government to exist on earth has had a king where peace controls his Kingdom completely. What a wonderful hope we have in praying; " May God's well be done on earth as it is in heaven".

Matt.10:11 Into whatever city or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy; and stay there until you go on.

Matt. 10:12 As you enter into the household, greet it.

10:13 If the household is worthy, let your peace come on it, but if it isn't worthy, let your peace return to you.

Peace is fragile and can be broken easily in a world where violence is glorified through the media. We as Christians have a divine peace given us from our Heavenly Father through Jesus Christ. Confronting problems in aggression we lose our peace. This is the opposite of what people now days believe; most feel if they do not secure their rights aggressively they lose peace.

It is hard too walk away and it is harder to turn the other cheek to those striking us verbally. But if we don' t we lose in two ways; one we lose our peace that God gives us and two: we lose our peace with God.

When our hearts are upon anger defending our rights we can't have Christ dwelling in peace within our hearts. Through peace we are protected in a violent world by God's Holy Spirit. We are warned that in the last day's peace would be taken away from the earth.

John 14:27 Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, give I to you. Don't let your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful.

There is nothing greater for a troubled fearful heart than peace. But here we are not talking about the peace the world has; they can find a measure of peace. No! Here we are talking about a peace that Jesus Christ has and he gives it too us. It is a peace from another place not found on this earth, it is from the spirit realm.

This peace is so powerful that even in death it has no fear. It is so powerful that it excels any fearful thought or condition. It is the peace that Christ Jesus used to calm the raging sea and that he processed upon his torture stake that shocked all the world of his time. It is a peace that controls every thought of God and his holy angles. And it is the peace we all need to live in a fearful world lacking peace full of hate. May you have this type of peace today?

July 3, 2009

John 16:33 I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have oppression; but cheer up! I have overcome the world."

In the world we have oppression, even though Christ Jesus told us that the world who hate us. Not only does it hate us it most often works against us. Although we know this truth it becomes oppression if we have walked with the Lord many years.

We do have reason to cheer up because in Christ Jesus we have peace. Yes, a peace that not from this world, but from above from a God of love. This peace helps us bear the oppression of this world and Satan's attacks. In this peace we have all that we need for this life and the next to come. It makes us long for a time when we are called home into a family of love where no more will there be peace breakers.

Rom.8:6 For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace;

The mind of the flesh is powerful stubborn and can be intimidating, but it is death according to God. Our flesh has it own spirit and it produces works of the flesh. When we sow seed from the flesh we reap corruption from our flesh. That is, flesh has no ability to produce eternal life. Many would have us believe this life is all there is, and our life is long and enough to satisfy the human soul.

But God says that our life is but a vapor and is gone within an instant of time. When we compare ourselves with the Spirit our life is short gullet with pain and suffering, and it always end is one place and that is death. But when we keep our minds upon the eternal Spirit our thinking focused on the real life the life that last forever with God and Christ Jesus we have peace. Yes, peace because we find that we don't have to be in a mad hurry to do all we can before this life ends suddenly in death.

July 5, 2009

Matt.10:34 "Don't think that I came to send peace on the earth. I didn't come to send peace, but a sword.

So many people including Christians find the words of the man they serve confusing. He is a man of peace and yet look at his statements here (above) he speaks just the opposite?

Humans that love and serve their country understand when they put on the uniform of their country they will be hated by those that are at war with their homeland. When we put on Jesus Christ our uniform is the Spirit of God that the world hates. It is an automatic red flag that causes a war between the flesh and the Spirit of God. And that is why we must fight this war in love and peace, not with a physical sword like the Apostle Peter used in cutting off the soldier's ear.

No! Not us we must have the peace of God on us and in us to win this battle, which is far greater than our fleshly life. It involves the whole world and eternal life thereof, so just as a soldier cannot take the battle personal neither can we or we fight in our flesh against the person we love and serve.

Rom.2:10 But glory, honor, and peace go to every man who works good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

2:11 For there is no partiality with God.

God is not partial, He cannot be partial, and be love, and because He is good, peace controls His every thought; we know He seeks peace with us. Without peace we have no good works, we can push and fight to get things done, but ultimately it is not accounted as good work by our Father.

Honor and glory goes to those that seek peace through good works unlike the peace the world knows in lust through entertainment, God's peace is Holy. Holy, and good coming down to us from the Father of lights, full of good works and mercy never changing always faithful. When we express this type of peace to others we too are full of good works from God's Holy Spirit; honor and glory must follow.

Rev.6:4 Another came forth, a red horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword.

There seem to be a great red horse riding through the earth taking away the last little bit of peace from us. Mankind everywhere as never before is lacking peace; pressure from every quarter is drying up the river of peace from the earth.

Where once people found patience and self-control a virtue; now days even our elderly have no patience.

Pushing to get a head in line at the store, cutting rudely in front of people in traffic, tailing gating, putting self-interest in front of others is the accepted state of affairs. All these self-centered actions take away the peace from the earth.

Even the gross and bad behavior has become away of life. News Media that gossips and accuses people without facts are a delight; as though we humans have some right in condemning people for ratings. Truth has left the land and so peace must follow. Greed and corruptions rule from top to bottom the small and the great cheat their neighbor. Will God hear when the oppress cry for help? Will Christ Jesus find faith on the earth when he returns?

July 8, 2009

Eph.2:13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off are made near in the blood of Christ.

2:14 For he is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition.

Can you imagine speaking through a wall that is so huge that all you can hear is and echo of your own voice? No sign or evidence that life exists on the other side of the great wall, just words written down from generation to generation that a person living on the other side was judging you?

Well that wall is the old Law of sin and death and the person behind that wall is God. Christ Jesus through his blood tore down the wall that caused fear, suspicion, and hate. Yes, he tore it down and replaced it with truth and Spirit so we can worship God as he actually is. We can now see God by having His Holy Spirit dwelling in our hearts. We can now come to God because He has taken our sins away.

God great enemy wants that wall back up he does not want us to love our Father and feel close too Him. Yes, many are the religions today that build the very wall Christ Jesus tore down with his life for us. For real peace we must keep the wall down and worship in Truth and Spirit.

July 9, 2009

1Tim.1:2 God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord bless you and be merciful to you, and give you peace.

Page 8

What a wonderful blessings that God and His Son Christ Jesus give us will in being merciful towards us. Their mercy brings us peace:

James 3:17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

Each Christian has their own idea of what God's mercy is too them, but the bible is clear on the subject it is Jesus Christ, yes! His life blood shed in our behave creates peace for us with God the Father.

Mercy can be shown by God for our sins, sins the law condemned to death. We have been released from the penalty through Christ Jesus. No more are we under judgment that takes away peace causing fear and death. We now have a Father that looks to us in love and corrects us in love not judgment. Moreover, through His Holy Sprit we can maintain peace in a world lacking peace.

July 10, 2009

James 3:17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

3:18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by them that make peace.

Our wisdom from above; do you know who that is? Yes, Jesus Christ; he is our wisdom from above. His wisdom is pure free from the thoughts of the sinful flesh that control us humans in fear and anger. And because he is not controlled by the sinful flesh, look he is peaceable, how grand!

Can you connect the lines here? When we are controlled by the wisdom from about (Jesus Christ) we have his righteous fruits sown in peace. Christ Jesus is our peace; he makes peace with God for us by removing the thing causing enmity, the wall, the Law that divided us from God. So everything dealing with Christ Jesus is peace, so let us be filled with Christ Jesus today and we will be overflowing in peace.

Rom.12:17 Repay no one evil for evil. Respect what is honorable in the sight of all men.

12:18 If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace with all men.

Most of us give little thought to the fact God should have could have repay evil to the human race for there sins. Instead he chose peace, yes! Peace through his Son Christ Jesus. Without giving the life of his Son we would still be at enmity with God condemned too death under sin law.

So when we take up revenge God must wonder why? So little has been done to us; when consider all the billions of lives that have been lost through sin. If we do not do the honorable thing among people, that is, forgiving, moving on like God does it is pretty hard to have peace. And in a word that lacks peace should we be surprised when the order of the day is pay back injury for injury. Our God is a happy God; He does not live in the past wring His hands over past faults. What He does is create a future so bright that it hurts our eyes to look at it. Let us do the same this day

1Cor.14:33 for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace. As in all the assemblies of the saints, Confusion creates frustration and frustration creates anger. When we as Christians find ourselves in confusion we know that anger is going to follow. In the world we live in at time it seems like a foreign country with people running everywhere; signs that we can't read and disorder and confusion runs ramped, we must stop and get our wits.

Or should we say, get Christ Jesus wits about us. Yes, because we cannot exist in confusion our God is a God of peace and without peace controlling our hearts we are under Satan attack. The peace here is not of our own nature this peace comes down from God and controls our hearts and mind. Human peace tries to control the event around us, which leads to more frustration and anger.

Peace be to you through Jesus Christ our Lord and King.

July 13, 2009

Eph.4:2 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

4:3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Unity for Christians comes from peace without peace there is fear and confusion and where there is fear and confusion God does not exist. When we as Christian humble ourselves before God and seek the things making for peace amongst us we find God's direction again.

The things making for peace are lowliness, meekness, longsuffering, forbearing, and love. Peace grows under these conditions creating a bond that holds us together in rough seas. The world has a lack of peace and that pressure can make Christians think they must act in the same harsh manner to compete. But the truth is the world loses nothing in there harsh ways they get their needs meant and gain a reward for bad conduct.

But us Christian we lose the most important thing in our lives God Holy Spirit, which protects us in peace. The enemy knows this and he pushes every day and in every way to steal our peace making us prey to his evil deeds.

Ps.29:10 The Lord had his seat as king when the waters came on the earth; the Lord is seated as king for ever.

29:11 The Lord will give strength to his people; the Lord will give his people the blessing of peace.

Our God has always been in control of our earth, He allows wickedness to exist keeping His promise that we have a choice to choose good or evil like Adam and Eve; we do have a free will. At the same time He blesses those who love Him and that seek good and peace with their neighbors.

One day soon God will take away those hating peace and that ruin our earth with their hate for God and His people. No more will He show patience and forbearance towards their wicked ways. No longer will the meek suffer God will be bless in all creation. Until then He promises to give us His peace and to strength us in times of trial.

Isa.59:7 Their feet go quickly to evil, and they take delight in the death of the upright; their thoughts are thoughts of sin; wasting and destruction are in their ways.

59:8 They have no knowledge of the way of peace, and there is no sense of what is right in their behaviour: they have made for themselves ways which are not straight; whoever goes in them has no knowledge of peace.

These are harsh and strong words from God through His prophet, but they are not words to people who do not know him, no! These are God's words to His people! Are you shocked that people claiming to love God could sink so low that they did not even know the ways of peace any longer?

Well my friend, many Christians now days are in the same condition, the delight in the works of the flesh, entertaining themselves on violent and sexual movies and TV. Their fruitage known no peace many have no idea where true peace comes from let alone how to obtain it. How sad the very thing that makes them different then the world no longer exist, which is the peace of God that excels all thoughts.

Isa_57:19, I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

We cannot have peace in ourselves without peace with God. How do we gain peace with God? God has given us peace through His Son Christ Jesus. Yes, Christ Jesus is our peace because he tore down the wall preventing us from having a peaceful relationship with His Father Jehovah God.

Our spiritual healing comes through God peace too us. Christ Jesus through his blood removed the sin that God's Law condemned us under in death. Peace can now be given us and a healing through Christ Jesus righteousness imputed too us.

With this wonderful provision we now can speak peace, the fruits our lip is peace and that is good news. We no longer speak judgment that condemns other under works of law.

53:5 But he was wounded for our transgression, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

The highest price has been paid so we can have peace with God. Yes, an innocent victim was bruised, chastise, beaten, and murder for you and me to have peace with God. It is important for all Christian to remember this was not just a fairy tale with a happy ending. The price for the human race to choose good and evil was proved at the painful and violent death of God Son Christ Jesus.

If people had know choice, no free will Christ Jesus would not of had to die for sins he did not commit, but we do have choices and most of our choices led to sin and death. So when we make the right choice from our free will to choose Christ Jesus and believe he died for us we now have peace with God.

And may we always be reminded that we can never force anyone as Christians to accept Jesus Christ; too high of a price has been paid by God for allowing us to have free will.

Luke 14:32 Or while the other is still a great distance away, he sends representatives requesting conditions of peace.

14:33 And so whoever is not ready to give up all he has may not be my disciple.

Believing Christ Jesus is a great King that we must humble ourselves and pursue peace with is imperative to our having life and peace. Christ Jesus has conditions of peace that we must accept to be his disciple. Many modern day Christians are taught Jesus is begging them to be his disciple and without them he is not a great king. Somehow, their acceptance of him makes him a great king.

This type of an attitude does not bring peace with the greatest king to have every lived on earth. His conditions of peace are, we must give up all the desires of our flesh that may sound harsh, but it is not, for us to be led by God Holy Spirit helping others to understand our King we must do his will not our own. We cannot walk in the flesh justifying ourselves or doing our own will this is the narrow and cramped road leading into life.

What do you think about when you think of peace? Most of us would say a quiet stream or lake, a place where we can go to get away from the hustles and bustle of daily life. Yet, as much as this type of peace is important to our human physic it is not the peace of God.

Many Christian do not understand that God peace is different then going to a quiet place to reflect and relax. God peace comes from His Holy Spirit and His peace is supernatural not of this world. Until a Christian actually experience God peace they are confusing human peace with God's peace. Why is this important for a Christian to understand?

When we get peace from ourselves not God, we fail, soon or later our peace will fail us and we will then blame God. But when God gives us His peace we will spend the rest of our day longing for the peace of God; we will struggle against all odds to spend one day in His peace. We will then know the difference between human peace and God peace. And most of all we will then give all worship and glory to God.

July 20, 2009

Isa. 45:7 I form the light, and create darkness. I make peace, and create calamity. I am Yahweh, who does all these things.

Who of us can know the mind to God? So little we understand about the mystery of life on our planet earth let alone how God creates deep things of light, darkness, peace, and calamity. Like beast of the field we cannot see beyond on our own daily needs and the desires of our flesh. Darkness and calamity surround us in a pursuit what we think we have to have too be happy.

But God is above all things controlling millions of forms of life we can barely understand and without our planet could not exist. Moreover, the laws of the universe science can hardly understand and stand in awe of. Times moves forward our life runs pass us like a flower that blooms in beauty and then is gone before we can even understand it. Yet God is in controls of our life here and now and in the here after. Wisdom should move us in seeking peace with God why we marvel in humility at His many ways, ways we can only observe and never really understand without His help.

Yes, God has created peace for us do you know who your peace is?

July 21, 2009

Isa. 32:17 The work of righteousness will be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever.

32:18 My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in safe dwellings, and in quiet resting places.

The works of righteousness do you who that is? Yes, it is Jesus Christ and within him is our peace and being in him we can have confidence forever. Looking at these verses it is troubling if peace depends upon our own righteousness there is not enough works that we can do in our sinful flesh to earn eternal life and live in quietness and peace forever with God.

On the other hand, those of us accepting Jesus Christ into our lives have an everlasting habitation where we dwell in safety, resting in his righteousness. His proven righteousness that God himself places the eternal life of the human race upon. Thankfully that righteousness was tested and completed in Christ Jesus and God imputed his righteousness into us when we accept Christ Jesus as our only means of salvation.

James 3:17, 18 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

No matter how great the effort to bring the flesh under control it can never produce the peace of God. The wisdom of God is Christ Jesus a gift of being a part of the body of Christ. His spring gives forth pure water of peaceful, gentle, reasonable, merciful, good fruits without partiality and hypocrisy.

No super fine teaching can give a student these gifts and if the super fine teacher had, had a one time these beautiful gifts they did not generate from his flesh or personal goodness. Should the child of God be tricked by his own flesh in believing that a super-fine teacher has a better more personal relationship with God that gives him specialty over the body of Christ he is at the gates of Gehenna.
