 32 the matters of fastings and their crying out. 32 And Esther's behest ratified these matters of the Purim; and it was put in writing.

CHAPTER 10

1 And King Xerxes laid taxes on all the earth and the islands of the 2 sea. And as to his deeds of might and power, and the details of Mor-3 docai's greatness which the king bestowed on him, they are recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia. For Mordocai the Jew was second to King Xerxes, and a great man of the Jews and popular with the mass of his brothers, aiming at good for his people and speaking peace for all his race.

THE BOOK OF JOB

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 There was a man named Job in the country of 'Us, and that man was conscientious and upright, fearing God and keeping clear of bad
- 2 actions. 2 And he had seven sons and three daughters born to him.
- 3 3 And his stock was seven thousand sheep and goats and three thousand camels and five hundred yoke of cattle and five hundred donkeys, and a very large body of servants; and that man was the largest proprietor among all the Easterners.
- 4 4 And his sons used to go and make a banquet, one day at each one's house, and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them;
- 5 5 and when the banquet-days had gone the round Job used to send and hallow them, and the first thing in the morning offer a burnt-offering equal in number to all of them, because Job thought "Maybe my sons sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Job was doing things like that all the time.
- 6 6 And one day the angels came to present themselves before Jehovah,
- 7 and the Adversary too came among them. 7 And Jehovah said to the Adversary "Where did you come from?"
- And the Adversary answered Jehovah "From ranging through the earth and walking about in it."

8 8 And Jehovah said to the Adversary "Did you take notice of my servant Job? because there is nobody on earth like him, a conscientious and upright man, fearing God and keeping clear of bad actions."

9 9 And the Adversary answered Jehovah "Is it for nothing that Job 10 is God-fearing? 10 haven't you kept up a fence all round him and his family and everything that belongs to him, blessed the work of Ms 11 hands, and his stock have multiplied in the country? 11 but put out your hand and strike everything that belongs to him and see if he will not curse you to your face."

12 12 And Jehovah said to the Adversary "Here, everything that belongs to him is at your disposal; only do not put out your hand to him."

13 13 And the Adversary went out from Jehovah's presence; and one day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at their oldest brother's house 14 a messenger came to Job and said "The 14 cattle were plowing and the donkeys grazing beside them, 15 and the Sheba tribe came down and took them and massacred the men; there 15 was only I that escaped alone to bring you word." 16 While this one was still speaking the next one came and said "God's fire fell out of the sky and burned the sheep and goats and the men and ate them
16 up; there was only I that escaped alone to bring you word." 17 While this one was still speaking the next one came and said "The Chaldeans arranged three columns and raided the camels and took them and massacred the men; there was only I that escaped alone to bring you 17 word." 18 While this one was still speaking the next one came and said "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at their 18 oldest brother's house, 19 and there from across the wilderness came a great wind and hit all four corners of the house, and it fell on the young folks and they are dead; there was only I that escaped alone to bring you word."

20 20 And Job stood up and tore his robe and sheared his head, and 21 threw himself on the ground and did reverence 21 and said "Naked I came out of my mother's body and naked I go back there. Jehovah gave and Jehovah took. Jehovah's name be blessed!"

22 22 With all this Job did not sin nor find fault with Jehovah.

CHAPTER 2

1 And one day the angels came to present themselves before Jehovah, and the Adversary too came among them, and presented himself before 2 Jehovah. 2 And Jehovah said to the Adversary "From where did you come?"

And the Adversary answered Jehovah "From ranging through the earth and walking about in it."

3 3 And Jehovah said to the Adversary "Did you take notice of my servant Job? because there is nobody on earth like him, a conscientious and upright man, fearing God and keeping clear of bad actions; and he still holds on to his principles, and you were trying to influence me to wipe him out for nothing."

4 4 And the Adversary answered Jehovah "Skin over skin, and over his 5 person a man will give everything he has.5But put out your hand and hit his bones and flesh, and see if he will not curse you to your face."

6 6 And Jehovah said to the Adversary "Here, he is at your disposal; only look out for his life."

7 7 And the Adversary went out from Jehovah's presence and struck 8 Job with a malignant eruption from foot to crown, 8 and he took a 9 piece of broken crockery to scrape himself with. 9 And as he sat in the ashes his wife said to him "Are you still holding on to your principles? curse God and die."

10 10 But he said to her "You talk as any reprobate would. Are we to accept the good at God's hands and not accept the bad?"

With all this Job did not sin with his lips.

11 11 And Job's three friends heard of all this disaster that had come upon him, and they came from their different places, Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Sophar the Na'amathite, and arranged with each other for coming to lament over him and to com-12 fort him. 12 And they raised their eyes at a distance and could not recognize him; and they raised their voices and wept and tore their 13 robes and tossed dust up over their heads toward the sky 13 and sat down on the ground with him seven days and seven nights, no one speaking a word to him, because they saw how very great his suffering was.

CHAPTER 3

1 2 1 After this Job opened his mouth and cursed his day, 2 and said

3 "Perish the day on which I was to be born, and the night that said 'A man is conceived'!

4 Be that day darkness;
let God not concern himself with it from above and no brightness beam into it.

5 Let darkness and gloom claim it, let clouds settle over it, let eclipses overwhelm it.

6 That night let blackness take;
let it not form part of the days of the year nor come into the count of the months.

7 O be that night bleak and bare, let no jubilation come into it;

8 Let day-cursers lay a curse on it, those who are ready to rouse Leviathan.

9 Let its twilight-stars be dark, let it hope for light and there be none, and let it not descry the eyelashes of the dawn,

10 Because it did not shut the doors of the body I was in and shut off torment from my eyes.
11 Why was I not to die in birth, come out of my mother's body and perish?
12 How came it that knees welcomed me, and breasts for me to suck?
13 For now I should be lying down quiet, asleep and so at rest, 14 With kings and statesmen of earth who built for themselves sites that lie waste 15 Or with generals who owned gold, who filled their houses with silver, 16 Or like an abortion tucked underground I should not exist, like infants that had never seen light.
17 There wicked men forbear to rage, and there exhausted men rest, 18 Prisoners are at ease together, hear no overseer's voice.
19 Small and great are there, and a slave is free from his owner.
20 Why give light to a tormented man, and life to men of aching hearts, 21 Who wait for death and it is not there, and hunt more industriously for it than for buried treasure, 22 Who are gleefully glad at it, overjoyed when they find a grave?
23 To a man whose road is curtained off and God has fenced him in?
24 For my moans come in before my bread and my roars pour out like water.
25 For when I dread a thing it arrives, and what I have quailed at the thought of comes true for me.
26 I have had no comfort, no quiet time, no rest, and a spasm comes."

CHAPTER 4

1 And Eliphaz the Temanite answered
2 "Shall we try a word to you? you will be impatient, but who can keep in words?
3 Here you have been schooling many and nerving slack hands; 4 Your words set a stumbling man on his feet and you braced failing knees; 5 Now that it comes to you you are impatient;
it touches you and you are disconcerted.
6 Is not your piety your reliance and your conscientious life your hope?

7 Remember: what innocent man has perished, where were upright men annihilated?
8 As I see it, those who plow villainy and sow trouble reap it; 9 They perish by God's breath, are made an end of by the air from his nostrils.
10 The lion's roar, the voice of the king of beasts, and the two-year-old lion's teeth, are broken, 11 The great lion perishes for lack of prey, and the lioness's cubs lose touch with each other.
12 "And a word once stole upon me, my ear took in a whisper of it, 13 In thoughts brought by night visions when trances fall on men.
14 A terror beset me, and a quaking, and terrified every bone in me, 15 And a breeze ran over my face, made the hair on my flesh prickle up: 16 It stood there, but I could not make out what it looked like;
There was a form before my eyes,
I heard a hushed voice:
17 'Is a human being to be more in the right than God, a man to be cleaner than his Maker?
18 Why, he does not trust his own servants and charges his angels with frailties; 19 How much more those who inhabit houses of clay!
such as have their foundations on the earth and are beaten down before a moth, 20 Between morning and evening they are shattered, are lost for all time without anyone's noticing it.
21 A fiber pulls out within them and they die unaccountably.'

CHAPTER 5

1 "Call: is there one that will answer you?
and to which of the Holy Ones will you turn?
2 For vexation kills an ignorant man and jealousy brings a simpleton to death.
3 I have seen an ignoramus take root, but suddenly the ground he stood on was lost.
4 His sons are far from succor, are overborne in the gate and there is no deliverer; 5 What they have harvested a hungry man eats, and thirsty men gulp their abundance.

6 For misfortune does not come out of the earth nor trouble sprout from the soil; 7 For man breeds trouble, and sparks fly high.
8 But I would apply to Deity and state my problem to God, 9 Who does things great and inscrutable, wonderful things in uncountable number, 10 Him who gives rain over earth and sends water over all outdoors, 11 "While he sets lowly men on high and men that wore black mount to triumph; 12 Who frustrates shrewd men's plans, and their hands do nothing that makes sense; 13 Who catches wise men in their own shrewdness, and crafty men's policy goes rash.
14 In the daytime they meet with darkness and they grope as if in the night at noon, 15 And he saves from their swords an orphan and from a strong man's hands a needy man, 16 And the poor man comes to have hope and foul play shuts its mouth.
17 Happy the man whom God corrects; do not reject Shaddai's discipline; 18 For he hurts and he bandages,
He mangles and his hands heal.
19 In six distresses he will deliver you and in seven no harm shall touch you; 20 In famine he will have paid your ransom from death and in war from the power of the sword; 21 When a tongue scourges, you shall be hidden, and you shall not be afraid of havoc when it comes.
22 At havoc and at starvation you shall laugh, and of the wild beasts you shall not be afraid, 23 Because you have your pact with the stones of the field and the wild beasts have made peace with you.
24 You shall know that all is well in your tent and shall inspect your pastures and miss nothing, 25 And shall know that your issue is plentiful and your offspring like the herbage of the earth; 26 You shall come to your grave in rugged vigor as a stack of grain goes up at its due time.
27 We have examined into this; it is so;
listen to it and know it for yourself."

CHAPTER 6

- 1 But Job answered
2 "If only my vexation were to be weighed and they were to take up my catastrophe altogether on the scales, 3 Because it would then outweigh the sand of the sea!
that is why my words were so rash.
1 For I have Shaddai's arrows in me, their poison drinking out my spirit;
God's overwhelmings are in the field against me.
5 Will a wild ass bray over greensward or a cow moo over its mess of barley?
6 Is flour paste to be eaten without salt, or is there flavor in marshmallow?
7 My appetite refuses to touch, loathes my food like the discharges of my disease.
8 If only what I ask would come, and God would give what I am hoping for, 9 And God would be pleased to fell me, would turn his hand loose and finish me off!
10 And it would yet be my comfort, and I should break away in the pang that he does not spare, because I have never hushed up the say of the Holy One.
11 What is my strength, that I should wait?
and what is my end, that I should be patient?
12 Or is my strength the strength of stones?
or is my flesh bronze?
13 —Or do I have in me no help for myself and are sensible ideas knocked out of me?
14 One who fails to get friendship from his friend will leave off the fear of Shaddai.
15 My brothers have played false like an arroyo, like a bed of arroyo-streams that run off, 16 That are black with winter weather, on which snow goes out of sight; 17 At the scorching time they are wiped out; in the heat they disappear from their place; 18 The line of their course twists about, they go up into nothingness and are lost.
19 The wayfarers from Teman were looking, the caravans from Sheba were hoping for them; 20 They were disappointed because they had relied on them;
they came to them and were discomfited.
21 You have now been the same to me;
you see a horror and are afraid.

- 22 Was I saying 'Give me' or 'Pay a tip for me out of your means 23 And get me off out of a foeman's hands and ransom me out of the hands of ruffians?' 24 Instruct me and I will be silent; make it clear to me what missteps I have made.
25 How telling are frank utterances!
but what does correction from you correct?
26 Do you think of correcting talk?
but a despairing man's say amounts to wind.
27 Will you even fall upon a man of conscientious life and charge down upon your friend?
28 Now please face me;
I will not lie to your faces.
29 Come back; let us have no foul play;
come back, I still have my honesty in it.
30 Is there foul play on my tongue?
or does my palate not discriminate catastrophes?

CHAPTER 7

- 1 "Does not a man have a term of duty on earth, and is not his time like a hired hand's?
2 Like a slave panting for a shadow and a hired hand looking forward to his pay, 3 So I have been assigned moons of futility and nights of trouble are counted off for me.
4 When I lie down I think 'When can I get up?' evening stretches on, and I have all I can hold of tossing till daybreak.
5 My flesh is clothed in maggots and clods;
my skin sets and liquefies.
6 My days go faster than a shuttle and come to an end with no sort of hope.
7 Remember, God, that my life is a breath of wind;
my eye will never get back to seeing good; 8 The eye of him who is seeing me will not behold me, while your eyes are on me I am gone.
9 A cloud clears up and goes off; just so one who goes down to the world below will never come up, 10 He will never come back to his house and his place will not greet him again.
11 I on my part will not check my mouth, will speak in the distress of my spirit, will protest in the ache of my heart.
12 Am I a sea, or a sea-monster, that you set a watch over me?

13 When I think 'my bed will comfort me, my couch will help carry my grievance,' 11 You dismay me with dreams and overwhelm me with visions, 15 And my soul chooses strangling, rather death than my woes.
 16 I will not take it; I shall not live forever;
     let me be, because my days are a puff of air.
 17 What is man that you should make much of him and fix your attention on him 18 And inspect him every morning, test him every moment?
 19 How long will you never glance away from me, not let up long enough for me to swallow my spittle?
 20 I sinned; what am I doing to you, Keeper of man?
 Why do you set me as a thing in your way and have me as a load to carry, 21 And not pardon my crime and set my guilt aside?
 For right off I shall be lying in the clay, and you will go in quest of me and I shall not be there."

CHAPTER 8

1 And Bildad the Shuhite answered
 2 "Till when will you keep up this talk and shall the words of your mouth be a big wind?
 3 Will Deity play tricks with justice or Shaddai with right?
 4 If your sons sinned against him he let them bear the consequences of their crime; 5 If you will direct your quest toward Deity and beseech Shaddai, 6 If you are pure and right-minded he will rouse for you now and revive your righteous standing, 7 And your past will have been little and your future will be right ample.
 8 For ask a past generation and observe their fathers' researches, 9 Because we are yesterday's growth; we do not know;
     for our days on earth are a shadow.
 10 Will not they instruct you, tell you, and bring out words from their hearts?
 11 Will papyrus stalks make a jungle in anything but a morass?
     will reeds thrive without water?

12 Still unripe, unplucked, before any grass they dry out.
13 Such are the paths of all who forget Deity, and the hope of an irreligious man comes to nothing, 14 One whose reliance is a gossamer and the object of his confidence is a spider's tent.
15 He leans on his house and does not stand, takes hold of it and does not get on his feet.
16 He is lush before the sun and his runners run out over his garden, 17 His roots are matted about a stone-heap, he takes hold of a structure of rocks.
18 If He annihilates him from his place it will disavow him, 'I never saw you.' 19 That is the triumphant climax of his career, and another sprouts up from the ground.
20 Deity does not repudiate a conscientious man nor lend a hand to evil-doers.
21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with hurrahs.
22 Those who hate you will be wrapped in shame, and wrong-doers' tent will be nowhere."

CHAPTER 9

1 But Job answered
2 "Certainly, I know it is so, and how is a human being to be in the right with Deity?
3 If he chooses to argue a case with him he will not answer him one point out of a thousand.
4 "Wise in heart and mighty in strength, who has defied him and remained safe and sound?
5 Him who displaces mountains before they know it, as he has overthrown them in his anger; 6 Him who shakes earth loose from its place and its pillars quiver; 7 Him who says a thing to the sun and it does not break out, and seals off stars; 8 Sole spreader of sky, treader on heights of sea, 9 Maker of Aldebaran, Orion, and the Pleiades and the chambers of the south, 10 Doer of great things inscrutable and wonders innumerable.
11 Here he comes by me and I do not see him, goes past and I do not perceive him—12 Here he comes down on me, who will turn him back?

who will say to him 'What are you doing?' 13 God will not turn back his anger;
     Rahab's helpers sank under him, 14 Not to speak of such a thing as that I should answer him, choose my words with him, 15 I who if I were in the right would not answer, would beg as a favor for what was my right.
 16 If I called and he answered me
     I would not believe that he would give ear to my voice, 17 He who deals me hurts in a tempest and multiplies my sores for nothing, 18 Does not let me get back my breath but gives me all the bitter mouthfuls I can hold.
 19 As for stark strength, there it is!
     but as for judgment, who will set me a date?
 20 If I am in the right my own mouth will put me in the wrong;
     I am virtuous and he has made a crook of me.
 21 I am virtuous—I do not think of my person—I want nothing of my life—22 It is all one; therefore I say, he makes a clean sweep of virtuous man and rogue.
 23 If a scourge brings sudden death he makes fun of innocent men's despair.
 24 A country is given into a rogue's hands;
     he covers its judges' faces.
     If not then, who is it that does?
 25 And my days are swifter than a runner, have gone off without seeing anything good, 26 Have passed like reed boats, like a vulture shooting toward food.
 27 If I say I will forget my grievance, will quit my dismalness and brighten up, 28 I quail at all my woes,
     I know I shall not be acquitted.
 29 I am the one to be found guilty—what should I take useless trouble for?
 30 If I take a snow bath and clean my hands with alkali, 31 Then he will dip me in a mudhole and my garments will abominate me.
 32 For he is not a man like me whom I should answer, we should go into court together; 33 There is no adjudicator between us who will lay his hands on us both.
 34 Let him take his cudgel away from over me and his terror not overwhelm me;

35 I will speak and not be afraid of him, because I am not like that to my knowledge.

CHAPTER 10

1 My soul loathes being alive;
I will quit grieving to myself,
I will speak in the ache of my heart.

2 I will say to God 'Do not declare me guilty, let me know what you are prosecuting me for.

3 Does it do you good to deny justice, to repudiate what your hands have toiled on and beam upon the policy of wrong-doers?

4 Do you have a mortal's eyes or see as mankind sees,

5 Are your days like a human being's days or your years like a man's days,

6 That you hunt up my guilt and make a search for my sin,

7 Notwithstanding your knowledge that I shall not prove to be ~~doing~~ wrong and there is nobody to deliver out of your hands?

8 Your hands molded me and made me; afterward you swing round and wipe me out.

9 Remember that you made me in clay and are putting me back in the loam.

10 Did you not pour me like milk and curdle me like cheese,

11 Clothe me with skin and flesh and frame me with bones and sinews,

12 Make life in me, befriend me, and your thoughtfulness guarded my spirit—

13 And you had these things hidden in your heart;
I know you have had this in mind.

14 If I sinned you would watch me and not acquit me of my guilt;

15 If I did wrong, woe to me;
or right, I should not lift up my head, Eating my fill of indignities and drinking my fill of misery,

16 Or if I bridled up you would hunt me like a lion and come back to your mysterious dealings with me,

17 Confront me with new witnesses and multiply your grievances against me, mobilize fresh divisions against me.

18 And why did you bring me out of a womb?
I should have perished and no eye have seen me, 19 Been as if I had not existed, been taken from mother's body to grave.

20 Is not my lifetime small? leave off, glance away from me and let me brighten up a little 21 Before I go, never to return, to a land of darkness and gloom, 22 A land of sable dusk, gloom and disorder, that beams sable rays."

CHAPTER 11

1 And Sophar the Na'amathite answered
2 "Is quantity of talk to go unanswered, or a loose-tongued man to pass for having right on his side?
3 Are your fine words to silence men, and are you to scoff uncriticized 4 And say 'My doctrine is flawless and I was irreproachable under your eyes'?
5 But I would that God would speak and open his lips to debate with you, 6 And tell you the secrets of wisdom, because he is double in sense!
    Know that God is overlooking part of your guilt!
7 Will you explore God or exhaustively investigate Shaddai?
8 Higher than the sky—what will you do?
    deeper than the realm of death—what will you know?
9 Its measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sky.
10 If he goes past and locks a door and convenes a court, who will turn him back?
11 For he knows paltry men and sees villainy without paying attention.
12 But an empty-headed man gets brains when a wild ass's colt is born human.
13 If you condition your heart and spread out your hands to him, 14 If there is villainy in your hands put it far away, and let foul play not lodge in your tents, 15 Why, then you will lift your face out of discredit and be in hard straits and not be afraid, 16 Because you will forget trouble, will remember it like water that has run past, 17 Life will stand up to surpass noontime, dusk will be like daybreak, 18 And you will rest assured, because there is hope, will look about at everything and go to bed in security 19 And lie with no one to alarm you, and many will seek your favor.

20 But wrong-doers' eyes will wear out with watching, they will not have any place left to run to,
and their hope will be exhaustion of heart."

CHAPTER 12

1 But Job answered
2 "You are indeed a people with whom wisdom will die!
3 I have brains like you,
am not inferior to you,
and who does not have things like these on hand?
4 'A butt for his neighbor's laughter' am I,
'one who called on God and he answered him, an honest conscientious man is a butt.' 5 'To the thinking of one who is at ease, disaster is to be ~~pooh-poohed~~; for one whose foot is giving way it is a solid certainty.' 6 'Marauders' tents prosper and there is security for those who disturb Deity, for the one who brings God in his hand.' 7 But ask beasts and they will inform you, the birds of the air and they will tell you, 8 Or crawlers of the earth and they will inform you, and the fishes of the sea will tell you the story: 9 Who does not know by all these that Jehovah's hand made this, 10 In whose hand is the soul of everything living and the breath of all flesh of men?
11 Does not an ear test words and a palate do its tasting of food?
12 In graybeards is wisdom, and length of life is intelligence—13 With him is wisdom and efficiency, his are skill and intelligence.
14 Where he demolishes, there is no rebuilding;
he locks a man up and there is no unlocking; 15 When he shuts off the water, it dries out;
he lets it loose and it tears up the earth.
16 With him are might and sagacity; to him belong misled and misleader.
17 One who sets counselors to going stripped and judges to running wild, 18 Undoes kings' control and ties a loincloth on their waists,

- 19 One who sets priests to going stripped and upsets immemorial status,
- 20 One who makes reliable men's tongues slip and takes away old men's sagacity,
- 21 One who pours contempt on nobles and slackens irresistible men's girdles,
- 22 One who unveils abysmal things out of darkness and brings gloom to light,
- 23 One who makes nations immense and destroys them, spreads out folk upon folk and leaves them lying,
- 24 One who turns aside the minds of the heads of the populace and sets them wandering in pathless nothingness,
- 25 Groping in unlighted darkness;
and he makes them wander about like a drunken man.

CHAPTER 13

- 1 There, my eye has seen everything, my ear has heard and understood it;
- 2 I too know the same things you know,
am not inferior to you.
- 3 But I am speaking to Shaddai and would like to argue with Deity.
- 4 But you are whitewashers, quack doctors all of you.
- 5 Would that you would hold your tongues so that it should become wisdom for you!
- 6 Hear out my argument and listen to the contentions of my lips!
- 7 Will you talk unfairly for Deity and stream out fraud for him?
- 8 Will you be partial to his side, or champion Deity's cause?
- 9 Is it a good thing that he should investigate you, or would you hoax him as one hoaxes a man?
- 10 He will be calling you to account if you show private partiality.
- 11 Should not his majesty overwhelm you and the dread of him fall upon you?
- 12 Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes, your shield-bosses turn out to be crockery.
- 13 Be still, and I will do the talking, come what may.
- 14 I will pick up my flesh in my teeth, take my life in my hand.
- 15 Suppose he slays me: I will not wait,
I will just argue my course to his face.

16 He will become salvation to me too, because an ungodly man will not be admitted before him.
 17 Hear my word, do, and take my demonstration into your ears.
 18 Here I have formulated my case:
     I know I am the one that will turn out to be in the right.
 19 Who will join issue with me?
     for I would now hold my tongue and pass away.
 20 Only do not do two things with me, then I will not screen myself from your face: 21 Take your hand away from me and let your terror not overwhelm me, 22 And call, and I will answer;
     or I will speak, and return me a reply.
 23 How much of guilts and sins do I have?
     let me know my crime and sin.
 24 Why do you veil your face from me and count me as an enemy of yours?
 25 Would you terrorize a driven leaf or chase dry straw, 26 That you list bitter things against me and saddle me with the guilts of my boyhood 27 And set my feet in the stocks, and watch all my paths, and mark a line round the soles of my feet—28 And he is like a worn-out water-bag, like a moth-eaten blanket.

CHAPTER 14

1 "Man, the woman-born, has a scanty lifetime and an overload of difficulties.
 2 Like a flower he came out and wilted, fled away like a shadow and does not stand.
 3 Upon even this you open your eyes and summon him to appear against you for trial!
 4 Who shall produce a clean thing out of unclean? not one.
 5 If his time is decided, you have his number of months, you have drawn his bounds and he is not to go beyond, 6 Glance away from him and leave off till, like a hired man, he takes the satisfaction of his day.
 7 For there is hope for a tree:
     if it is cut down, it starts again, and its shoot will not fail to come; 8 If its root grows old in the ground and its trunk dies in the soil, 9 At the scent of water it will sprout and make a twig like a young tree newly set.

 10 But a man dies and lies lifeless; a human being breathes his last, and where is he?
 11 Water goes away from a sea and a river dries off and out, 12 And a man lies down and will not get up; till the sky wears out they will not wake nor rouse from their sleep.
 13 O that you would stow me away in the world below, screen me till your anger turned back, fix a date for me and remember me!
 14 If a man dies will he come to life?
 I would wait all the time I had to serve till my relief came; 15 You would call and I would answer you;
 you would have a yearning for the work of your hands.
 16 For then you would be counting my steps, not watching for my sin, 17 My crime would be packed up under seal, and you would whitewash my guilt.
 18 "But a mountain tumbles down, wears out, and a rock shifts from its place; 19 Water pulverizes stones; a cloudburst washes away soil;
 and you have crushed man's hope.
 20 You force him permanently out, and he goes;
 you change his face and turn him off.
 21 His sons rise to honor and he does not know it, or sink into insignificance and he does not find out about them; 22 Only his flesh feels pain upon himself and his soul is mournful over himself."

CHAPTER 15

1 And Eliphaz the Temanite answered
 2 "Would a wise man answer with windy ideas and fill himself up with east wind, 3 Arguing with unserviceable talk and useless phrases?
 4 You, besides, are breaking up fear of the Deity and lessening thoughtfulness before him, 5 Because your guilt is tutoring your mouth and you choose artful men's language.
 6 Your own mouth shall prove you in the wrong, not I, and your own lips shall testify against you.

7 Are you the first of men to be born?
were you brought forth before the hills?
8 Did you listen into God's private conference and sequester some wisdom for yourself?
9 What do you know that we do not, perceive that we are not aware of?
10 We have among us graybeard and patriarch, further on in years than your father.
11 Are Deity's consolations too little for you, and talk that is easy on you?
12 Why does your heart carry you away, and what do your eyes fasten on, 13 That you send your breath back to Deity and pour phrases out of your mouth?
14 What is man that he should be pure and that one born of woman should be in the right?
15 Here, he does not put trust in his holy ones and sky is not pure to his eyes, 16 To say nothing of an abominable and degenerate being, a man who drinks rascality like water.
17 "I will show you; give me a hearing;
I have recognized this and will tell you about it, 18 What wise men state and their fathers have not kept back.
19 They had the country given to them alone, and no stranger came through among them.
20 All a wrong-doer's life he is in expectation, the number of years that are laid up for the violent man.
21 Sounds of dread are in his ears, in peace there is a ravager coming to him; 22 He does not count on coming back out of darkness, and he is marked for the sword; 23 He has an appointment to be a meal for a kite;
he knows his disaster is a settled thing; 24 A day of darkness will overwhelm him, distress and hard straits will overpower him, like a king ready for the onslaught, 25 Because he stretched out his hand against Deity and blustered against Shaddai, 26 Running at him headlong with thick shield-fronts.
27 Because he covered his face with fat and put on flesh in his waist, 28 And planted himself in extirpated cities, houses that were never to be lived in, which had been made ready to become heaps of stones,

- 29 His means shall not be rich, shall not grow up to stalks, shall not bend ears earthward; 30 He shall not get out of darkness; flame shall dry up his shoot, and his buds shall blow off in the wind; 31 Let him not trust to rambling futility, for futility will be his purchase; 32 His fronds shall wither untimely and his new fronds not grow verdant; 33 He shall blast his berries like a grapevine and drop his blossoms like an olive-tree.
31 For a godless man's company is stony ground, and fire has devoured the tents of bribery; 35 There is breeding of trouble and giving birth to villainy, and inside them fraud is shaping up."

CHAPTER 16

- 1 But Job answered
2 "I have heard plenty like that; you are plaguy comforters all of you.
3 Is there any end to windy talk?
or what is galling you, that you answer?
4 I too might speak as you do if your souls were in the place of mine; I might string phrases together about you and shake my head over you; 5 I might brace you up with my mouth, and the comfort of my lips might check—6 If I speak my pain is not checked, and if I refrain what passes away from met 7 He has just tired me out now; you have laid all my company desolate, 8 And you have gripped me, it has become a witness, and my leanness stands up against me, testifies to my face.
9 His anger tore me and flung me down;
he ground his teeth at me;
my foe sharpens his eyes for me.
10 They have opened their mouths at me, insolently struck my cheeks, collected in full force against me.
11 The Deity gives me up to a foul-player and thrusts me into the hands of wrong-doers.
12 I was in quietness and he jerked me, took me by the back of my neck and burst me,
And sets me up for his target, 13 his marksmen surround me,
And he cuts through my kidneys unsparingly, lets my gall run out on the ground, 14 "Wounds me with wound across wound, runs at me like a warrior.

 15 I have stitched a sackcloth on my hide and run my horn into the clay, 16 My face is inflamed with weeping and there is gloom over my eyelashes,— 17 For no violence that I have on my hands; and my prayer is pure.
 18 Earth, do not cover my blood, and let there be no place for my outcry!
 19 Even now my witness is there, in the heavens, and I have my voucher aloft, 20 My friend is my interpreter; to God my eye drips, 21 That he would arbitrate for a man with a God and between a human being and his fellow.
 22 For a few years are to come and I shall go on the track I shall not come back on.

CHAPTER 17

1 My spirit is blighted, my days are snuffed out, graves are mine.
 2 Decidedly I have triflers about me and my eyes grow tired resting on their ungovernableness.
 3 Give yourself bail for me;
     who would there be to strike into my hand?
 4 For you have kept their hearts closeted from sense;
     therefore you will not set them on high.
 5 He notifies friends for a share, and his sons' eyes are worn out with looking and longing.
 6 But you have set me up for a byword of peoples, and I am a phenomenon before them, 7 And my eyes are dim with vexation and my figure dissolves like a shadow.
 8 Upright men will stand aghast at this,
     and an innocent man be stirred up against an ungodly; 9 But a right-doer will hold his course and a cleanhanded man grow increasingly resolute.
 10 But you may all come again and I shall not find a wise man among you.
 11 My days have gone past; I am annihilated; my heartstrings are snapped.
 12 They make night into day, 'light is near, coming away from darkness.'

- 13 If I hope, the realm of death is my house; I have made up my couch in the darkness; 14 I have called decay my father, the maggot my mother and sister,— 15 And where is hope of mine?
and who is to behold good fortune of mine?
16 "Will they go down with me to the realm of death?
or shall we go underground together?"

CHAPTER 18

- 1 And Bildad the Shuhite answered
2 "How long will you be snaring phrases?
See the point, and afterward we may talk.
3 How comes it we seem like cattle to your eyes, 4 you that tear yourself in your anger?
Is earth to be forsaken on your account, and a rock shifted from its place?
5 A wrong-doer's light does go out, and the blaze of his fire gives no radiance.
6 Light turns dark in his tent, and his lamp goes out over him.
7 His vigorous steps will be cramped and his own purposes will upset him, 8 For he runs his feet into a net and walks along on wickerwork.
9 A trap will grip his heel and a noose clutch him.
10 The cord for him is hidden on the earth and the snare for him along the path.
11 On all sides wraiths overwhelm him and chevy him wherever he goes.
12 His vigor is famished and calamity stands ready for his weakening.
13 His skin is eaten away by disease;
the firstborn of death eats his members.
14 He is torn out of his tent, what he trusted to,
and is marched to the king of wraiths.
15 There shall be living in his tent something that is not his;
brimstone shall be sprinkled over his lands.
16 His roots shall die out underneath and his twigs wither overhead.
17 The memory of him is lost from earth and there is no name of his over the wide world.
18 He is pushed out of light into darkness and sent flitting out of the world.
19 He has neither chick nor child among his people

- nor any survivor in the places he has visited.
20 Over the day that comes for him men of the west shall stand aghast and men of the east be taken with a shudder.
21 Altogether such are the dwellings of a malefactor, and like this is the place of one who knows not Deity."

CHAPTER 19

- 1 But Job answered
2 "How long will you make my soul miserable and beat me down with phrases?
3 This is ten times you have been humiliating me, you are not embarrassed to keep saying spiteful things about me, 4 But even take it that I really have made a misstep:
it is with me my misstep is lodged.
5 If you are really taking high ground with me and proving my ignominy against me, 6 Know that it is God has done the unfair thing by me and set his toils round me.
7 Suppose I cry murder, I am not answered;
I shout an appeal and there is no administration of justice.
8 He has walled off my road and I cannot pass;
he has spread darkness over my paths.
9 He has stripped my honor off me and taken away the crown from my head.
10 He tears down every side of me, and I am gone, and he has cleared away my hope like a piece of timber.
11 He is angry with me and thinks of me as he does of his foes.
12 His raiders come on unitedly and have built their road against me and are camped round my tent.
13 He has set my brothers to standing aloof from me, and my acquaintances are altogether estranged from me.
14 My nearest and dearest have quit, 15 my housemates have forgotten me,
And my serving-maids think me a stranger,
I seem to them a foreigner.
16 I have called my slave and he does not answer—
I beg him for favors with my own mouth.
17 My breath is hateful to my wife and I smell foul to the sons of my body.
18 Even children think nothing of me;
let me stand up, they talk at me.
19 All my bosom friends abhor me, and whom I loved have turned on me, 20 My bones stick to my skin, and I come off with my flesh in my teeth.

 21 Be kind to me, be kind to me, you friends of mine, because God's hand has touched me.
 22 Why is it you chase me down as Deity does and can never get enough of my flesh?
 23 O that what I have to say were written down, were registered in a document, 24 With iron pen and lead, carved in rock forevermore!
 25 But as for me, I know my vindicator is alive, and one in future will stand up above ground, 26 And behind my skin, which has borne this, out of my flesh I shall behold God, 27 Whom I shall behold for myself; it will be my eyes that saw, and not a stranger—my heart is spent in my bosom!
 28 When you think 'What of his shall we chase down and find ground for a case in him?' 29 Quail on your own account for fear of a sword, because those are offenses to bring down the sword, so that you may know there is an arbiter."

CHAPTER 20

1 And Sophar the Na'amathite answered
 2 "For that my thoughts give me response, and by reason of it I am hurried on.
 3 I hear a tutoring that humiliates me and wind rather than sense answers me—4 Have you known this from of yore, since man was set on earth?
 5 For wrong-doers' caroling is shortsighted, and an ungodly man's merrymaking is momentary.
 6 If he lifts his crest to the sky and his head touches the cloud, 7 Like his dung he perishes utterly; those who saw him say 'Where is he?' 8 Like a dream he takes wing and one cannot find him;
     he flits away like a vision of the night.
 9 An eye has glimpsed him, but does so no more,
     and his place will not behold him again.
 10 His sons must give satisfaction to poor men, his hands give back his goods.
 11 His bones are full of his virility, but with him it lies down in the clay.
 12 If evil is sweet in his mouth, he hides it under his tongue,

13 Saves it up, will not let go of it, keeps it snug in the roof of his mouth, 14 His dinner turns in his bowels, he has vipers' gall within him, 15 He has swallowed wealth but must throw it up, Deity ousts it from his stomach.
 16 He sucks vipers' poison, a sand-adder's tongue will kill him.
 17 He must never look on outflows of oil, streams of honey and clabber.
 18 Because of old age he will not swallow what he has spent his strength on,
     he will not be gay in proportion to the wealth he has traded for, 19 Because he victimized and abandoned poor men, stole a house, and does no building on it.
 20 Because he had no quiet in his stomach, in his wishes he let nothing get away, 21 There was nothing left over from his eating, therefore his good time will not persist.
 22 In his full plenty let him come into distress, all the force of trouble come over him.
 23 Let him have his bellyful, let Him turn His anger loose on him and shower it on him into his entrails.
 24 He takes flight from arms of iron;
     a bow of bronze drives through him; 25 He pulls and it comes out of his back, comes flashing away from his gall.
 Terrors are upon him;
 26 all darkness lurks for him.
 Let an unblown fire consume him, feed on survivors in his tent; 27 Let the heavens uncover his guilt and earth be an adversary to him; 28 Let the progeny of his house be swept out of the country, drifted wreckage on the day of His anger.
 29 This is a wicked man's lot from God, and the estate named for him by Deity."

CHAPTER 21

1 But Job answered
 2 "Do hear what I have to say, and let this be your comforting.
 3 Bear me, and I myself will speak;
     and after I speak you shall make your fun.
 4 Is my grievance against man?

and how should I not be impatient?
 5 Pace toward me and stand aghast and lay your hands over your mouths!
 6 And if I bethink myself I am in consternation, and a shudder seizes my flesh.
 7 How comes it that wrong-doers live, come to advanced age and are still notably robust?
 8 Their posterity is firmly established before them;
 their offspring is numerous under their eyes.
 9 Their houses are at peace from dread, and God's cudgel is not on them.
 10 His bull covers and does not miss, his cow calves and does not slink.
 11 They let out their brats like sheep and goats, and their children caper about.
 12 They sing with tambourine and lyre and make merry to the sound of the pipe.
 13 They wear out their days in comfort, and all of a sudden they go down to the world below.
 14 And they have said to the Deity 'Get out of our way, we do not care to know your courses.
 15 What is Shaddai that we should worship him, and what good should we do when we invoked him?' 16 Here it is not in their hands that their comfort lies, wrong-doers' principles are far from him—17 How often do wrong-doers' lamps go out and their calamity come upon them, cords grip them by his anger, 18 Do they become like straw before a wind and like chaff that a gale filches?
 19 Let him not lay his misfortune away for his sons;
 let him pay it up to himself and let him know it.
 20 Let his eyes see his calamity and let him drink ire of Shaddai.
 21 For what concern has he for his family after him, when his number of months has been cut off?
 22 —Should one teach the Deity knowledge, when it is he judges those on high?
 23 This one dies in perfect soundness, all quiet and at ease, 24 His crocks are full of milk and the marrow of his bones has its drink, 25 And that one dies in bitter soul and has never eaten a comfortable meal; 26 Together they lie down on the clay and maggots cover them over.

- 27 Here, I know your ideas and such designs as you contemplate against me, 28 That you say 'Where is an aristocrat's house?
and where are wrong-doers' dwellings!' 29 Have you not asked travelers, and do you not recognize their tokens?
30 That the bad man is kept back on the day of calamity, gets the better of the day of wrath?
31 And who tells him of his course to his face?
and if he has done a thing who pays him back?
32 And he is brought to burial and his mound is attended to.
33 Arroyo clods are sweet to him, and all men pour along after him and innumerable before him.
34 And how are you to comfort me with thin air, when your answers sift down to unreliability?"

CHAPTER 22

- 1 And Eliphaz the Temanite answered 2 "Is a man to be serviceable to God?
why, it is to himself that a capable man is serviceable.
3 Does Shaddai have any concern that you should do right, or any profit when you follow a conscientious course?
4 Would it be for your piety that he would reprove you and arraign you for judgment?
5 Is it not that your wickedness is great and your guilt infinite, 6 Because you demand pawns of your brothers without reason and strip off naked men's garments, 7 Do not give a drink of water to a fainting man and refuse bread to a hungry man, 8 But a strong-handed man has the country for his own, and an influential man is to live in it; 9 You turn widows away empty-handed and batter orphans' arms?
10 That is why there are traps around you and dread throws you into sudden consternation, 11 Light has turned dark for you, you cannot see,
and spray of water covers you.
12 Of course, God stands high in the heavens and sees the heads of the stars, lofty though they be, 13 And you think 'What does God know?
will he judge through thick air?
14 Clouds are a screen to him and he will not see;
and he will be walking the vault of the heavens.'

15 Will you keep to the foul-players' path, the one villains have trodden, 16 Who were seized untimely, a river pouring upon their foundation, 17 Those who said to Deity 'Get out of our way* and 'What should Shaddai do to us?' 18 When it was he that had filled their houses with good things;
wrong-doers' principles are far from him.
19 Honest men see and are glad, and an innocent man derides them: 20 'They are positively annihilated, every mother's son, and fire has consumed the last remnant of them.' 21 Get used to him and on good terms with him;
by that what comes to you will be good.
22 Take an instruction from his mouth and lodge his say in your heart.
23 If you go back to Shaddai, humbling yourself, put foul play far off from your tent, 24 Lay ore in dust and Ophir gold among arroyo rocks, 25 Then Shaddai will be your nuggets and peak-silver to you.
26 For then you will be happy over Shaddai and raise your face to God, 27 You will invoke him and he will hear you and you will be paying your vows, 28 And you will decide on a thing and have it hold good for you, and light will be beaming over your paths.
29 For he brings low the lofty and proud man, and the man of downcast eyes he saves.
30 He will bring to safety one who is not innocent, and he shall be brought to safety by the cleanness of your hands."

CHAPTER 23

1 But Job answered
2 "Today too my complaint is rebellion!
my hand lies heavy on my moans.
3 If only I knew how to find him, come to his seat!
4 I would formulate my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments; 5 I should find out what points he would make in answer to me, should see what he would say to me.
6 Would he maintain his contention against me by superior strength?
not he, he would just pay attention to me.
7 There I should have one who was candid arguing with me, and I should definitively get clear from my judge.

8 Here I go east and he is not there, and west and I do not perceive him, 9 I look for him in the north and do not behold him, swing round to the south and do not see him, 10 While he knows which way I stand;
were he to test me, I should come out like gold.
11 My foot holds on to his tracks,
I watch his course and do not swerve, 12 From the command of his lips I do not shift, in my bosom I have laid up the say of his mouth.
13 But when he has his mind made up who will turn him back?
he hankers and he acts.
14 For he will go through with what he has marked out for me, and has in store plenty of things like that.
15 That is why I am affrighted at him;
I realize the situation and stand in dread of him, 16 And Deity has unnerved me and left me terror-struck.
17 For I do not break down at darkness and at being covered with blackness.

CHAPTER 24

1 "How comes it times are not reserved by Shaddai and those who know him do not behold his days?
2 These displace boundary-marks, steal a flock and pasture it, 3 Drive off orphans' donkeys, take a widow's cow and hold it as a pawn, 4 Force needy men off the road;
earth's downtrodden go into hiding together.
5 They go out in the wilderness like wild asses in their activities in quest of anything that can be eaten;
he has desert wastes as food for the boys.
6 On the range they make a harvest of its cattle-feed, they go through a wicked man's vineyard for belated grapes.
7 They pass the night naked for want of clothing and coverless in the cold.
8 They are wet with mountain rainstorms and hug rocks for lack of shelter.
9 They steal orphan from breast and take in pawn a poverty-stricken man's baby.
10 They go about naked for want of clothing, and while they go hungry they carry shocks of grain, 11 Between their walls they press oil, they tread winepresses and go thirsty.

- 12 Out of cities dying men groan and souls of men mortally wounded shriek.
And God does not find any fault.
- 13 Those are rebels against light, do not recognize its routes nor settle in its paths.
- 14 When it is not light a murderer stands up, kills a downtrodden and needy man;
and in the night a thief goes about.
- 15 And an adulterer's eye watches for dusk, thinking 'No eye will espy me,' and he muffles up his face.
- 16 One breaks into houses in the dark.
By day they shut themselves in;
they make no acquaintance with light;
- 17 For alike are morning to them and gloom, because they are familiar with the wraiths of gloom.
- 18 He is light on the surface of water;
their share in the land shall be cursed;
a treader shall not turn to their vineyard.
- 19 Drought, heat too, steal snow-water;
the realm of death, who have sinned.
- 20 The womb that fashioned him will forget him, his loftiness will not go on to be remembered, and foul play breaks like a piece of wood.
- 21 One who does injuries to a barren woman that bears no children, and no good to a widow,
- 22 And drags down needy men by his power, stands up and does not put faith in living;
- 23 He grants him to have confidence and reliance, and his eyes are on their courses.
- 24 They have been lofty a little while, and there is nothing of them and they are laid low, collapse like alkali-sorrel, and are cut down like heads of grain.
- 25 If not, then, who will show me up as a liar and reduce my claims to nothing?"

CHAPTER 25

- 1 And Bildad the Shuhite answered
- 2 "Dominion and terror are about him;
he makes peace in his realms aloft.
- 3 Is there any counting his regiments?
and over whom does his light not stand up?
- 4 How is a human being to be in the right with Deity?
and how is one born of woman to be pure?
- 5 Here the very moon is not bright and stars are not pure to his eyes, 6 To say nothing of a human being, a maggot; of a son of mankind, a worm!"

CHAPTER 26

1 But Job answered
2 "What a help you have been to one without strength, what a salvation to an arm without energy, 3 What a counselor to one without wisdom, and in what abundance you have imparted common sense!
4 Whom have you told what to say?
and whose breath came out from you?
5 The shades writhe underneath the water and its denizens.
6 The realm of death lies naked before him and the land of the gone forever has no cover.
7 He stretches the north over vacancy, hangs earth on nothing, 8 Bundles up water in his thunderclouds and the cloud does not tear under it, 9 Encloses the face of the full moon, spreading his cloud over it.
10 He has drawn a boundary circle on the face of the water at the extremity of light, where it meets darkness.
11 The pillars of the sky rock and are confounded at his rebuke.
12 By his power he stirred the sea and by his understanding he mangled Rahab.
13 By his wind the sky is swept bare, and his hand pierced the elusive snake.
14 There, these are the edges of his course, and what a whispered thing it is that we hear of him!
but the thunder of his energies who may perceive?"

CHAPTER 27

1 And Job further struck up his lay and said 2 "By the Deity, who has brushed aside my rights, and Shaddai, who has embittered my life, 3 When my breath was still all in me and God's wind in my nostrils, 4 My lips shall not speak amiss nor my tongue voice false pretenses.
5 Away with the thought of my putting you in the right;
till I breathe my last I will not throw off my conscientiousness.
6 I hold fast to my righteous cause and will not loosen my hold;
my heart feels no remorse for any of my days.

7 May my enemy be in the state of a wrong-doer and my adversary in that of a knave!
8 For what is an ungodly man's hope when God is cutting off and pulling out his soul?
9 Will Deity hear his cry when distress comes upon him, 10 Or will he be happy over Shaddai, call on God on every occasion?
11 I will instruct you as to the Deity's hand;
what Shaddai has in mind I will not conceal from you.
12 Here you have all of you seen the sights, what do you go into nights of fancy for?
13 This is a wicked man's lot in the Deity's plan, and the estate violent men are to get from Shaddai.
14 If his sons are numerous, the sword is for them, and his offspring will not have their fill of bread.
15 His survivors will be buried in death and his widows will not weep.
18 If he piles up silver like earth and lays up clothing as if it were clay, 17 He will lay it in and an honest man will wear it and innocent men share the silver among them.
18 He has built his house like a spider's, like a booth a watchman makes.
19 He goes to bed rich, but is so no more;
he opens his eyes and it is not there.
20 Dissolution descends upon him like water; in the night a gale snatches him, 21 An east wind picks him up and he goes,
and it sweeps him out of his place.
22 He pelts him unsparingly;
he is in constant flight from his hand.
23 He strikes his hands together over him and whistles at him from his place.

CHAPTER 28

1 "For there is a mine for silver and a place for gold that they wash out.
2 Iron is taken out of earth, and one melts stone to copper.
3 Man has set an end to darkness, and to every extremity he ransacks stone of blackness and gloom.
4 An intruding people breaks into ravines that were forgotten by feet;
they suffer privations, they rove from men

5 To a country from which bread has gone out and whose underpart turns to be like fire, 6 A place whose stones are malachite and which has clods of gold, 7 A path no bird of prey knows nor has a kite's eye glimpsed it, 8 Which boldest beasts have not trodden nor lion passed along it.
9 He puts his hand to the pyrite rock, turns mountains up by their roots; 10 He rips out channels among the rocks, and his eye sees everything valuable.
11 He explores the sources of rivers and brings to light an undiscovered thing.
12 But where is wisdom to be had from,
and what is the place for insight?
13 No man knows the road to it, and it is not to be found in the land of the living.
14 The deep says 'it is not in me' and the sea 'I do not have it here.' 15 Solid gold is not to be given for it nor silver to be weighed out as its price; 16 It is not to be balanced against nuggets from Ophir, against the most precious beryl, or lapis lazuli; 17 Gold and glass will not match it, a thing of red gold be an exchange for it; 18 Pearls and alabaster are not to be mentioned, and wisdom is more of a prize than coral; 19 The Nubian chrysolite will not match it, nor against pure nugget-gold is it to be balanced; 20 And where does wisdom come from?
and what is the place for insight?
21 It lies out of sight of any living thing and screened from the birds of the air.
22 Death and the land of the gone forever say 'We have heard a hearsay of it.' 23 God understands the road to it, he knows the place for it, 24 Because he looks to the ends of the earth, sees under all the sky, 25 Determining a weight for the wind and proportioning the water by measure.
26 When he made a law of nature for the rain and a course for the lightning of thunder, 27 Then he saw it and described it, made it sure and thoroughly searched it out,

28 And he said to man
'Here, fearing the Lord is wisdom and shunning what is bad is insight.'"

CHAPTER 29

1 And Job further struck up his lay and said
2 "Would that I were as in old-time months, as in the days when God watched over me, 3 When he let his lamp beam over my head and by his light I walked through darkness!
4 As I was in my days of ripeness, when God had a fence round my home, 5 When Shaddai was still with me, my boys were around me, 6 When my callers washed their dust off in clabber and rocks on my grounds poured rills of oil.
7 When I went out of gate to town, prepared to take my seat in the square, 8 Young men saw me and hid and graybeards rose and stood; 9 Captains checked what they had to say and laid hand on their mouths; 10 Magistrates' voices hid and their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.
11 For ears heard and deemed me happy, eyes saw and bore witness to me, 12 That I brought a downtrodden suppliant out of trouble, and an orphan, and one whom none would help; 13 The blessing of one who was perishing came upon me and I set a widow's heart caroling.
14 I clothed myself in right, and like a robe and tiara justice clothed me.
15 I was eyes for the blind man, and feet for the lame man was I.
16 I was a father to the needy, and investigated the claims of the man I did not know 17 And smashed a knave's fangs and knocked prey out of his teeth.
18 And I thought I should breathe my last with my nestlings and have my days as numerous as the sand, 19 With my roots spreading out to water and dew on my twigs through the night, 20 My honors fresh about me and my bow coming new in my hand.
21 They listened for me and waited, kept still to get my advice;

22 After my word they did not speak again, and my discourse came sprinkling down on them.
23 They waited for me as if for rain and held their mouths wide open for a spring shower.
24 I gave them a laugh, they did not believe;
and my face shone, they did not let theirs fall.
25 I chose their course and sat as head, and lived like a king in a raiding-party, as if he were comforting mourners.

CHAPTER 30

1 But now my juniors are laughing at me, whose fathers I had rejected for placing with my sheep-dogs, 2 Of what use was even the strength of their hands to me, men in whom solid vigor was lost, 3 gaunt with destitution and starvation?
Those who gnaw arid downs, the emesh of blast and blight, 4 Who pluck alkali-sorrel, wormwood leaves, and have broom-roots for their bread; 5 They are driven out of a community, they yell at them as they would at a thief.
6 They have to live in the sides of arroyos, in holes in the ground and between stones.
7 They bray between wormwood bushes, snuggle together under weeds.
8 Sons of rascals, sons of nobody that can be named, they are whipped out of the country.
9 —And now I am the butt of their jingles and have become a byword of theirs.
10 They abhor me, stand far away from me, do not keep their spit out of my face.
11 For he has undone my bowstring and made me helpless, and they loosen their reins before me.
12 On the right a horde stand up, unsettle my footing,
and build their tracks of calamity against me.
13 They tear up my path, do great work for catastrophe, have nobody to help them.
14 They come like coming through a broad breach, roll along under the crash of ruin.
15 Dissolution turns upon me, my dignity is chased off as if by the wind, and my hope of succor passes like a cloud.
16 And now I have my life draining out, days of suffering are gripping me, 17 In the night my bones are being dug away and my sinews get no repose.

18 My garment takes strong hold, lies snug on me like the neck of my shirt.
19 He has laid me for clay, and I am made like earth and ashes.
20 I clamor to you and you do not answer me;
I stand there and you observe me, 21 You turn brutal toward me, you wreak your grudge on me with the vast strength of your hand.
22 You pick me up into the air, ride me on the wind, let storm toss me.
23 For I know you will bring me back to death, to the rendezvous of everything alive.
24 Only he does not lay hands on a heap of ruin;
or by his disaster will there be lucre for them?
25 I did weep for the man who was having a hard time, my soul grieved for the needy man; 26 I hoped for good, and evil came;
I awaited light, and murky darkness came.
27 My vitals are boiling, never still;
days of suffering confront me.
28 I go in mourning without sunshine, stand up and clamor publicly.
29 I am brother to jackals and fellow to ostriches.
30 My skin blackens and comes off, and my bones are hot with fever.
31 And my lyre has turned to mourning and my pipe to the voices of weepers.

CHAPTER 31

1 "I put my eyes under a contract, and how was I to take notice of a maiden?
2 And what is God's allotment from above and Shaddai's assignment from on high?
3 Is it not calamity for a knave and mishap for villains?
4 Does not he see my courses and count all my steps?
5 If I walked with false pretense and my foot hurried toward fraud, 6 Let God weigh me in a fair balance and know about my conscientiousness.

7 If my tread has swerved from the course and my eye has followed my heart and anything has stuck to my hands, 8 Let me sow and another eat, and what grows for me be uprooted.
9 If my heart has been inveigled after a woman and I have lain in wait at my friend's doorway, 10 Let my wife grind for another and others crouch over her.
11 For that would be lewdness, it would be guilt to come before a court.
12 For that is a fire that would eat down to the land of the gone forever
and take out the roots of all my produce.
13 If I refused the rights of my slaves when they had a dispute with me, 14 What should I do when Deity stands up, and when he is punishing what answer should I make to him?
15 Did not he who made me in a mother's body make them, and was it not one who worked us into shape in the womb?
16 If I withheld what poor men wanted and let a widow's eyes wear out with looking and longing, 17 And ate my snack alone and an orphan did not eat part 18 (For from my boyhood I raised him as a father would, and ever since my birth I helped her along), 19 If I saw one perishing for lack of clothing and that a needy man had nothing to cover him, 20 If his back did not bless me and he get warmth out of the fleeces of my sheep, 21 If I shook my fist at a quiet man because I saw I had friends in court, 22 May my arm drop off from its shoulder, may it be broken through its long bone.
23 For Deity's calamity is a thing I dread, and I cannot cope with his majesty.
24 If I have made gold my reliance and spoken of kethem as my confidence, 25 If I was gladdened because my wealth was great and I had a great deal at my disposal, 26 If I saw the light as it beamed and the moon walking sublimely 27 And I was secretly so simpleminded that my mouth kissed my hand, 28 That too would be guilt to come before a court, for I should have been lying to Deity above.

29 If I was glad of a disaster to one who hated me and was elated because evil had found him—30 Why, I did not let my throat sin asking his life with a curse; 31 If the men of my tent did not say 'Who will bring somebody that has not had all he wanted of his meat?'— 32 No visitor from abroad spent the night in the street;
 I opened my doors to the wayfarer.
 33 If in human fashion I covered up my crime, burying my guilt under my cloak, 34 Because I stood in awe of a great crowd and the contempt of clans dismayed me,
 And I kept quiet, not going out of the doorway—35 I wish I had someone to hear me!
 Here is my signature, let Shaddai answer me!
 And a bill that my opponent had written, 36 wouldn't I carry it on my shoulder, lace it on as a crown for me!
 37 I would report to him the number of my steps, would receive him as a lord high steward should.
 38 If my soil cries out against me and its furrows are weeping together, 39 If I have eaten its strength without paying money and have let the life go out of its owners, 40 Instead of wheat let briers come out, and instead of barley nightshade."
 End of the words of Job.

CHAPTER 32

1 And these three men left off answering Job, because he felt that 2 he was in the right. And Elihu the son of Barakel the Buzite, of the clan of Ram, was angry: angry at Job for making himself out in 3 the right against God, and angry at his three friends for not finding 4 an answer, and putting God in the wrong. And Elihu had waited for 5 Job in the talk because they were older than he, but Elihu saw that 6 the three men had no answer in their mouths, and was angry. And Elihu the son of Barakel the Buzite answered

"I am a youngster and you are gray-bearded men; that was why I was bashful and afraid to state my view among you.

7 I thought 'Let days speak and number of years disclose wisdom.' 8 But it is a spirit in man, after all, and Shaddai's breath makes them understand things.
 9 It is not men of many days that are wise nor old men that understand what is right.

10 So I say, Hear me;
I too will state my view.
11 Here I did wait for your words, listened for your discernments, Till you should hunt out something to say, 12 and applied my attention to you,
And found Job had nobody to confute him, to answer his say, among you.
13 For fear you should say 'We have discovered wisdom,' Deity shall put him to rout, not a man.
14 And he has not marshaled points against me, nor will I answer him with what you said.
15 "They were dismayed, no longer made any answer, their phrases had moved out, 16 And was I to wait when they were not speaking, when they were at a standstill, no longer made any answer?
17 I will make the answer that is my portion,
I too will state my view,
18 For I am full of things to be said, the spirit in my waist is putting me under a strain, 19 I feel my waist like wine that is not being opened;
as with skins of new wine, an explosion is coming.
20 I will speak and get relief, will open my lips and answer.
21 May I not show partiality to any man;
and to no human being will I pay compliments, 22 For I do not know how to pay compliments; my Maker might easily snatch me away.

CHAPTER 33

1 But hear what I have to say, Job, and give ear to all my words.
2 Here I am opening my mouth, my tongue is speaking under its roof, 3 My say is the sincere expression of my heart and my lips utter the best of their knowledge.
4 Deity's spirit made me and Shaddai's breath put life into me.
5 Answer me if you can, join issue and stand up to me.
6 You will find me to be in the same relation to Deity as you;
I was kneaded out of clay as you were.
7 Here will terror of me not overwhelm you nor my duress weigh you down.
8 "Only—you said in my hearing,
I heard a sound of such words,

9 'I am pure, free from crime,
I am clear and have no guilt about me.
10 Here he is inventing antagonisms against me and counting me as an enemy of his, 11 Setting my feet in the stocks and watching all my paths.' 12 Here you are not right in this, I answer you, because God is more than man.
13 How come you setting up a case against him because he does not answer all your words?
14 For Deity speaks once for all and does not repeat it a second time.
15 In a dream, a vision of the night,
when trances fall on men,
in slumbers on the bed, 16 Then he makes disclosure to men and dismays them with sights that they see, 17 To turn away man from his doings and prune away pride from a man, 18 Hold back his life from the grave and his being from rushing upon destruction.
19 And he is admonished by pain on the bed and the discord in his bones is perpetual, 20 And his inclination loathes bread and his appetite the food it naturally craves.
21 His flesh gets too wasted to look at and his bones so bare nobody will look at them, 22 And his life is near to the grave and his being to the place of the dead.
23 If he has over him an angel, an interpreter, one out of a thousand,
to tell man his right course, 24 And he is gracious to him and says
'Let him off from going down to the Pit;
I have been given satisfaction,' 25 His flesh will grow plumper than in childhood;
he will come back to his youth.
26 He will invoke God and God will accept him, and he will see his face with shouts of joy;
and he will give the man back his standing for righteousness.
27 He will sing before men and say 'I sinned, I turned fair play to foul, and he did not give me measure for measure, 28 He has redeemed my life from passing into the Pit, and my being has the sight of the light.'

- 29 Here Deity does all these things twice over, three times, with a man, 30 To turn his life back from the Pit to be lighted with the light of life; 31 Listen, Job, hear me, be silent for me to speak.
32 If there is anything to be said, answer me;
speak, because I should like you to be in the right.
33 If there is not, hear me yourself; be silent and let me acquaint you with wisdom."

CHAPTER 34

- 1 And Elihu answered
2 "Wise men, hear my words;
give ear to me, men of knowledge; 3 For ears test words and a palate tastes food.
4 Let us pick out rights and come to an understanding of what is good, 5 Because Job says 'I am virtuous but Deity has taken away my rights; 6 Against my rights I am to be lying and I have a festering arrow in me without a crime.' 7 Who is such a man as Job, who drinks scurrility like water 8 And takes the route to fellowship with villains and to company with criminals?
9 Because he says 'It is of no advantage to a man to be on good terms with God.' 10 So, men of sense, hear me:
away with the thought of wrong-doing on Deity's part, foul play on Shaddai's, 11 For he will pay man back appropriately to what he does, and give each one the experiences proper to the path he takes.
12 In real truth Deity does not do wrong nor Shaddai play tricks with justice.
13 Who put him in charge of earth?
and who established the whole universe?
14 If he should draw his spirit back to himself and take up to himself his breath, 15 All creatures of flesh would expire together and man would go back to clay.
16 And if you are in your senses, listen to me;
give ear to the point I make.
17 Is it even to be that one who hates justice holds sway or a great right-doer does wrong?

18 He who says 'reprobate' to a king and 'iniquitous' to noblemen, 19 Who does not defer to generals nor recognize a prominent man before a poor man, because they are all the work of his hands?
 20 They die in a moment, at midnight;
 he touches prominent men and they pass by,
 and removes a formidable fighter without turning a hand.
 21 For his eyes are on a man's courses and he sees all his steps; 22 There is no darkness, no gloom, that villains may be veiled in.
 23 For a man does not have a date set him to go to Deity for a trial; 24 He breaks great men without an investigation and sets up others in their place.
 25 So he is aware of their works, and overthrows in the night and they are beaten down.
 26 For wrong-doers he cuffs them in a place with spectators, 27 Seeing that they had turned off from following him and not been regardful of any of his courses, 28 Bringing in before him a poor man's outcry and letting him hear the outcry of downtrodden men.
 29 But if he is quiet who is to condemn?
 or if he veils his face who is to behold him?
 be it over a nation or over a man alike, 30 That an ungodly man may not be king, a people's trap.
 31 For does he say to Deity
 'I bear; I will not do harmful things; 32 What I do not see, teach me yourself;
 if I have done amiss I will not keep on?' 33 Was he to make requital on the basis of your ideas, that you are vetoing?
 For you are to choose, not I;
 what you know, speak out!
 31 Men of brains will say to me, and a wise man who hears me, 35 Job speaks not by knowledge and his words do not run by common sense.
 36 Let Job be kept under test permanently for answers that put him among villains!
 37 For he adds rebelliousness to his sin, slaps his hands between us and talks volubly to the Deity."

CHAPTER 35

1 And Elihu answered
2 "Do you think this right, say 'my good case before Deity,' 3 That you ask how it benefits you,
'What good do I get more than by my sinning?' 4 I give you the answer, and your comrades with you, 5 Look at the sky and see,
and behold the ether so high above you; 6 If you have sinned what are you doing to him, and if your crimes are many what effect has it on him?
7 If you have done right what are you giving to him, or what is he getting at your hands?
8 Your wrong-doing pertains to a man like yourself and your right-doing to a human being.
9 They cry out over the great number of denials of justice, they clamor over powerful men's high hand,— 10 And one has not said 'Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night, 11 Who teaches us more than the beasts of earth and makes us wiser than the birds of the air?' 12 It is there that they cry unanswered because of the pride of bad men, 13 All in vain—Deity does not hear and Shaddai does not regard it.
14 Even when you say you do not behold him, he has the case before him and you are to wait for him.
15 And now because he does not set his anger to work he does not thoroughly know the offense!
16 But Job is opening his mouth to let out air, uttering big phrases without knowing what he is talking about."

CHAPTER 36

1 And Elihu said further 2 "Wait a bit and I will show you, for there is more to say for God.
3 I will take a broad view and credit my Maker with doing right.
4 What I have to say is no falsification; you have with you one who is sincere in his views.
5 Lo, Deity is supreme and will not be disdainful, supreme in power of mind.
6 He will not let a wrong-doer live and will give downtrodden men their rights.

7 He will not minimize his attention to a right-doer, but with kings will enthrone them permanently, and they shall be exalted.

8 And if they are bound in fetters, caught in cords of misery,

9 He tells them of their doings and their offenses, that they were overweening,

10 And makes disciplinary disclosures to them and says they are to turn back from vileness.

11 If they listen and submit they shall finish their days in good living and their years in comfort;

12 But if they do not listen they will rush upon destruction and come to their end by lack of knowledge.

13 But men of godless heart take to anger, do not cry out petitions when he binds them;

11 Their vital spark shall die off in youth and their lives as do sodomite boys.

15 He rescues an unfortunate man in his misfortune and makes disclosures to them in privations.

16 And he has been enticing you out of the mouth of distress too, unconstrained roominess under it, and the setting down of your table full of rich food.

17 And you are full of the sentence on a wrong-doer; judgment and sentence take hold,

18 For let not choler entice you into mockery nor abundance of composition-money deflect you.

19 Will your clamor take effect without distress, and all exertions of strength?

20 Do not pant for the night, to have peoples go up where they stand.

21 Beware, do not turn to depravity, for you have been preferring this to suffering.

22 Lo, Deity shows himself supernal in his strength; who is such a preceptor as he?

23 Who has appointed his course for him, and who has said 'You have done amiss'?

24 Remember to extol his work, of which men have sung.

25 All mankind view it, man looks at it from afar.

26 Lo, Deity is great beyond our knowledge;
the number of his years is incalculable.

27 For he takes away drops from the sea to filter as rain for his mist,

28 Which the heavens let trickle down and let drop upon many a man.

29 Or does one understand the spreading of clouds either?
the resoundings of his bower?
30 Lo, he spreads his mist about him and covers mountaintops.
31 For by them he provisions peoples, gives food on a great scale.
32 He covers a stone with light and orders it to strike a mark, 33 Assailing mischief and wrong and wreaking jealous anger on foul play.

CHAPTER 37

1 My heart is alarmed too at this and jumps out of its place.
2 Hear, hear the commotions of his voice and what comes as a mutter from his mouth!
3 He sends it abroad under all the sky and his light over the edges of the earth.
4 Behind it a voice roars; he thunders with his sublime voice and does not hold them back when his voice is heard; 5 Deity thunders with his voice wondrously.
He does things great beyond our knowledge, 6 For he says to the snow 'Fall to earth' and showers down his mighty rains.
7 He seals up every human being's hands that all men may know his work; 8 And beasts go into coverts and lodge in their dens.
9 Out of the Chamber comes a gale and out of Mezarim cold weather.
10 By Deity's breath ice is put in and the breadth of water is in curbs.
11 Also he loads a cloud with refreshment, cloudy sky scatters his fall rain, 12 And it goes circling about by his guidance that they may do all that he orders them to over the world on the ground, 13 If for a cudgel, if for his earth, if for kindness he sends it to its goal.
14 Give ear to this, Job;
stand still and realize Deity's wonders.
15 Do you know how God lays their charge on them and the light of his clouds beams out?
16 Do you know about the hovering of clouds, the wonders of him who is faultless in skill?

 17 Will you whose clothes grow hot when earth has quietness from the south 18 Be with him to consolidate heavens strong as a metal mirror?
 19 Let us know what to say to him;
     we cannot get it in order for darkness.
 20 Is he to be told the story of my speaking?
     or does any man think of being swept away?
 21 And now they do not see light, it is a bright spot in the heavens;
     but a wind goes over and clears them.
 22 From the north comes resplendence; over God there is a refulgence that is terrible.
 23 Shaddai—our minds do not reach to him, ample in strength and justice and great in right-dealing; he will not victimize.
 24 So men fear him;
     he does not take notice of any wise-headed men."

CHAPTER 38

1 But Jehovah answered Job out of the tempest 2 "Who is this that is befogging a discussion by phrases without knowledge?
 3 Gird your loins like a man
     so that I may ask you questions and you inform me.
 4 Where were you when I laid the foundation of earth?
     tell, if you have competent knowledge.
 5 Who determined its dimensions? for you know!
     or who stretched a measuring-line over it?
 6 On what were its under-foundations planted?
     or who laid its cornerstone 7 While the morning stars shouted together and all the angels hurrahed?
 8 Who enclosed the sea with doors when it came bursting out of the womb, 9 When I made clouds its clothing and thick air its wrapping 10 And broke a boundary for it and set a bar and doors, 11 And said 'You are to come to here but not beyond, and here the pride of your waves shall break'?
 12 Did you ever in your life command a morning, let a dawn know its place 13 To take hold of earth's edges that wrong-doers may be shaken out of it?

14 It takes shape like clay printed with a stamp, and colors like a dress, 15 And wrong-doers have their light withheld, and a high-raised arm is broken.
16 Have you come to the sources of the sea and gone inspecting through the deep?
17 Have the gates of death been laid open for you, or the gatemen of gloom been afraid at sight of you?
18 Have you applied your attention to the breadths of earth?
tell, if you know it all.
19 In which direction does light have its home, and which is the place for darkness?
20 Because you get it at its domain and are expert in the paths to its house.
21 You know, because you were born then and the number of your days is great!
22 Have you been into the reserves of snow, and seen the reserves of hail 23 Which I am holding back for a day of crisis, a day of battle and war?
24 In which direction is wind divided, east wind scattered over earth?
25 Who laid out a system of channels for floods
and a course for the lightning of thunder, 26 To send rain on a country without a man, a wilderness with no human being in it, 27 To satisfy the hunger of blasted and blighted places and to make a thirsty place grow vegetation?
28 Does the rain have a father?
or who brought dewdrops to birth?
29 Out of whose body did the ice come?
and who gave birth to hoarfrost?
30 Water masks itself like a stone and the surface of the deep coheres.
31 Shall you be tying the laces of the Pleiades or unhitching the traces of Orion, 32 Making Mazzaroth come out at its time and guiding Aldebaran with its sons under it?
33 Do you know the laws of the sky or are you ordaining its supervision of the earth?
34 Will you send your voice aloft to the cloud and have a spray of water cover you?
35 Will you send lightnings abroad, and have them go and say to you 'Here we are'?
36 Who implanted wisdom in the ibis?
or who gave discernment to the cock?

- 37 Who counts in wisdom the threads of mare's-tail clouds, and the water-bags of the sky who tips down 38 When loam runs into metal and clods cling together?
39 Will you hunt prey for a lioness and fill the need of two-year-old lions 40 When they are down in the lairs, sitting in ambush in a covert?
41 Who gets its provision ready for the raven when its young are clamoring to Deity, wandering about in want of food?

CHAPTER 39

- 1 Do you know crag ibexes' birth, watch does' calving?
2 Do you count the months they fill out, and know their birth-date?
3 They crouch down, detach their young, let go what they have been hampered with; 4 Their children are robust, grow big in the wilds, go out and never come back.
5 Who set free a wild ass and unhitched an onager's halter, 6 Of which I have made desert the home, alkali plains the habitation?
7 It laughs at town noises, hears no vociferations of a driver.
8 It explores mountains as its pasture and searches after any green thing.
9 Will a ure be willing to work for you or come to your crib for the night?
10 Will you tie a yoke on him with cords or will he harrow vales after you?
11 Will you put confidence in him because his strength is great, and leave to him the results of your toil?
12 Will you rely on him to come back, get in your seed to your threshing-floor?
13 An ostrich's wing is for pleasure;
or is it a kindly pinion and plume, 14 When she leaves her eggs on the ground and warms them on the earth, 15 And has forgotten that feet will smash them and wild animals tread them to pieces?
16 She is hardhearted to her young as if they were not hers;
her labor goes for nothing without alarming her, 17 Because God has made her unmindful of wisdom and given her no allowance of sense.

 18 The minute she goes off high she laughs at the pony and its rider.
 19 Do you give the ponies mettle?
     do you clothe their necks with mane?
 20 Do you set them in commotion like grasshoppers?
     the thrill of their snorting is a terror.
 21 They paw in the vale and are joyous, go out in strength to meet an armament, 22 Laugh at terrors and are not dismayed, and do not turn back before swords.
 23 On them ring quiver, spearhead, and javelin.
 24 Twitching and fidgeting they pit the earth and do not believe there is a sound of a ram-horn.
 25 At every ram-horn they say 'Ha!' and scent battle afar, thunder of captains and cheering.
 26 Is it by your sagacity a hawk takes wing, soars off to the south, 27 Or is it by your direction that a vulture goes high and that it sets its nest aloft, 28 Perches on a crag and spends the night on a crag-tooth and a fastness, 29 Searches from there for food, its eyes looking far away, 30 And feeds its chicks with blood, and where there are corpses, there the bird is?"

CHAPTER 40

1 And Jehovah answered Job 2 "Does an admonisher dispute with Shaddai? let him who corrects God answer it."
 3 And Job answered Jehovah 4 "Here I am, insignificant—what reply should I make?
     I lay my hand on my mouth.
 5 I did speak once, but will not answer—and twice; but I will do it no more." 6 And Jehovah answered Job out of a tempest 7 "Gird your loins like a man
     so that I may ask you questions and you inform me.
 8 Will you even quash my judgment, hold me in the wrong so that you may be in the right?
 9 Or do you have an arm like God's, do you thunder with a voice like his?

10 Bedeck yourself with dignity and sublimity, robing yourself in majesty and splendor, 11 Hurl the rages of your anger, and see every proud one and bring him low, 12 See every overweening one and humble him, crumple wrong-doers where they stand, 13 Bury them in the ground together, envelop their faces in sod, 14 And I too will praise you that your right hand has made good your cause.
15 Here is Behemoth, that I made with you;
    it eats grass like cattle.
16 Here is the strength in its back and the vigor in the muscles of its belly.
17 It holds its tail stiff as a cedar;
    the sinews of its hams are ropy.
18 Its bones are copper pipes, its backbone like a bar of iron.
19 First of Deity's undertakings is this, made as he was bringing on his chisel.
20 For mountains bear growth for it, and all beasts of the wilds play there.
21 Under jujube-trees it lies, in a blind of reeds and morass, 22 Jujube-trees cover it with its shade, arroyo poplars surround it.
23 Suppose a river overflows, it is not nervous; it is undaunted though a Jordan bursts against its mouth; 24 In its eyes it takes it;
    it has its nose bored with baits.

CHAPTER 41

1 Will you pull Leviathan about with a fishhook and press its tongue down with a line?
2 Will you run a rush through its nose and punch its gills with a thorn?
3 Will it give you profuse appeals for grace, or speak submissively to you?
4 Will it make terms with you and you take it as permanent slave?
5 Will you play with it as you would with a bird and tie it up for your girls, 6 Cooperators bargain over it, divide it between dealers?
7 Will you fill its skin with darts, its head with fish-harpoons?

8 Lay your hand on it, think of fighting—do not try it again.
9 Here his expectation has been belied, at the very sight of it he is sent flying, 10 He is not fierce enough to rouse it—and who will stand his ground before me?
11 Who has confronted me and come off safe and sound?
under all the sky mine he is.
12 I will not be silent as to its members, and the matter of powerfulness, and the symmetry of its build.
13 Who uncovers the surface of its coat?
who will get inside its double coat of mail?
14 Who opens the doors of its mouth?
the circuit of its teeth is a terror.
15 Its back is ridged with shields, closed in tight sealing, 16 One coming up to another with no gap intervening, 17 Each keeping contact with the next, inseparably linked.
18 Its sneezing sends beams of light and its eyes are like the eyelashes of the dawn; 19 Out of its mouth fly torches, sparks of fire escape; 20 Out of its nostrils smoke streams out like that from a heated pot and rushes.
21 Its breath sets coals ablaze, and a flame comes out of its mouth.
22 Force lodges on its neck and despair bounds before it.
23 The underparts of its flesh cling fast, are immovably welded on.
24 Its heart is solid as a stone and solid as a lower millstone.
25 At its rearing up heroes quail, at bone-breaking strokes they fall into dismay.
26 One who hits it with a sword finds that that does not bite, a spear nor a bolt nor a mail-piercer.
27 It thinks iron is threshed straw and bronze rotten wood.
28 A shaft from a bow will not put it to flight; stones from a sling turn to straw for it.
29 A club counts as a straw for it, and it laughs at the vibration of a javelin.
30 Under it are sharp chips of crockery;
it runs a toothed plank over mud.

- 31 It makes ooze boil up like a pot, makes sea like a perfumer's saucepan.
32 It leaves a shining wake behind it;
one thinks the deep is gray-haired.
33 Over the earth there is nothing that masters it, it that is made to be without dismay.
34 Every high one fears it; it is king over all proud beasts."

CHAPTER 42

- 1 And Job answered Jehovah 2 "I know that you can do everything and nothing you may think of is impossible to you.
3 "Who is this that is muddling a discussion without knowing anything about it?
so I have been asserting things I do not understand, things too mysterious for me, which I do not know: 4 'Listen, and I will speak;
I will put questions; inform me.' 5 I had heard of you by hearsay, but now my eye has seen you; 6 Therefore I recant and repent in the ashes on the ground." 7 And after Jehovah had spoken these words to Job, Jehovah said to Eliphaz the Temanite "I am angry with you and your two friends because you did not speak soundly about me as my servant Job did.
8 Now take seven steers and seven rams and go to my servant Job and offer them as burnt-offering for yourselves and let my servant Job pray for you, and see if I will do him the personal favor of not ill-treating you because you did not speak soundly of me as my servant 9 Job did." 9 And Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Sophar the Na'amathite went and did as Jehovah had told them to, 10 and Jehovah did do the favor for Job. 10 And Jehovah came back to Job when he prayed for his friends; and Jehovah added double to 11 everything that belonged to him. 11 And all his brothers and sisters and all his former acquaintances came to him and ate bread with him in Ms house and lamented over him and comforted him for all the disaster Jehovah had brought upon him, and gave him a keshitah each and a gold earring each.
12 And Jehovah blessed Job's later life more than his earlier, and he had fourteen thousand sheep and goats and six thousand camels and 13 a thousand yoke of cattle and a thousand donkeys; 13 and he had seven 14 sons and three daughters, 14 and named one daughter Jemimah and the 15 second Kesi'ah and the third Keren-hap-Puk; 15 and there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters to be found in all the country;

- 16 and their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. 16 And Job lived after this a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons and 17 his sons' sons to four generations. 17 And Job died an old man, having lived as long as he eared to.

THE BOOK OF PSALMS

PSALM 1

- 1 Happy the man who has not gone by wrong-doers' policy nor stood in sinners' road nor sat in cynics' session,
- 2 But finds pleasure in Jehovah's instructions, and his instructions he studies day and night.
- 3 And he will be like a tree planted by channels of water that bears its fruit in season, and its leaves never fade, and in all he does he will succeed.
- 4 Not so wrong-doers; not so, but like chaff that a wind blows about.
- 5 Therefore wrong-doers will not stand in judgment nor sinners in a congregation of honest men,
- 6 For Jehovah knows honest men's courses, but wrong-doers' courses will be lost.

PSALM 2

- 1 Why have nations forgathered and peoples made empty propositions?
- 2 Kings of earth took their stand and potentates concerted a program against Jehovah and against his Anointed,
- 3 "Let us snap their tether

- and tear off their ropes." 4 He who sits in heaven will laugh;
 the Lord will deride them.
 5 Then he will speak to them in his anger and throw them into consternation by his heat, 6 "But I, I have invested my king on my sacred mountain Zion." 7 I will tell the story of Jehovah's ordinance:
 He said to me "You are my son,
 I myself have today given you birth.
 8 Ask me and I will make nations your estate and the ends of earth your holding.
 9 You shall break them with iron truncheon, smash them like crockery." 10 And now, kings, be canny; take your lesson to heart, judges of earth; 11 Worship Jehovah in fear and kiss his feet with quaking, 12 For fear he should be angry and you perish right away, because his anger takes fire easily.
 Happy are all that take refuge in him.

PSALM 3

(A psalm of David's when he was in flight before his son Absalom.)

- 1 Jehovah, how thick come my foes!
 Many are standing up against me, 2 Many are saying of my soul
 "There is no help for him in his God." (Selah) 3 But you, Jehovah, are a shield before me, my glory and the uplifter of my head.
 4 Aloud to Jehovah I call, and he has answered me from his sacred mountain. (Selah) 5 I have lain down and gone to sleep and waked up, because Jehovah supports me.
 6 I will not be afraid of thousands upon thousands of people who on all sides have beset me.
 7 Stand up, Jehovah, save me, my God;
 For you have struck all my enemies on the jaw, broken the teeth of malefactors.
 8 Salvation is a thing of Jehovah's; your blessing be on your people! [Selah]

PSALM 4

(Of the Director; with string accompaniment. A psalm of David's.)

- 1 When I call answer me, my God of the righteous cause:
 in distress you have relieved me; be gracious to me and hear my prayer.

- 2 Gentlemen, how long—heavy-witted ones, what for—will you love emptiness, seek after a lie? (Selah)
- 3 But know that Jehovah has distinguished a man of his friendship; Jehovah will hear when I call to him.
- 4 Tremble and do not sin;
tell yourselves as you lie in your beds, and be quiet. (Selah)
- 5 Offer rightful sacrifices and trust to Jehovah.
- 6 Many are saying "Who will let us see anything good?"
Lift up over us the light of your face, Jehovah.
- 7 You have put gladness in our hearts surpassing the time their grain and grape-juice are plentiful.
- 8 In peace I will lie down and go right to sleep, because you solely, Jehovah, cause me to live in security.

PSALM 5

(Of the Director; to the woodwind. A psalm of David's.)

- 1 Give ear to my say, Jehovah!
take in my moan!
- 2 Listen to the sound of my clamor, my King and God, for it is to you I pray.
- 3 Jehovah, in the morning you shall hear my voice, in the morning I will address you and be on the lookout.
- 4 For you are not a crime-loving deity, wickedness will not make its home with you,
- 5 Wild men will not take their stand under your eyes, you hate all that commit villainy,
- 6 You will destroy those who speak lies;
Jehovah detests a man of bloodshed and fraud.
- 7 But I by the abundance of your friendship will enter your house, will do reverence toward your holy temple in your fear.
- 8 Jehovah, guide me in your righteousness on account of my ill-wishers, lay your way out straight before me.
- 9 For there is nothing solid in their mouths; their inward thought is catastrophe;
their throats are open graves; they keep their tongues slippery.
- 10 Hold them to the penalty, God; let them come to a fall by their plans; for the multiplicity of their crimes banish them, because they have disobeyed you;
- 11 And let all that take refuge in you be glad And carol forever, you sheltering them, and let those who love your name exult in you,
- 12 Because you, Jehovah, bless an honest man, envelop him with goodwill like a shield.

PSALM 6

(Of the Director; with string accompaniment; bass voices. A psalm of David's.)

- 1 Jehovah, do not correct me in your anger nor chastise me in your ire;
- 2 Do me a kindness, Jehovah, because I am forlorn;
make me well, Jehovah, because my bones are flinching.
- 3 My soul is flinching utterly;
Jehovah, how long will you?
- 4 Come back, Jehovah, rescue my soul;
save me for your friendship's sake.
- 5 For in death there is no remembrance of you, in the world below who will give you thanks?
- 6 I am tired with moaning; all night I wash my bed with my tears;
I melt down my bedstead.
- 7 My eyes have been wearing away for vexation, aging by all that distress me.
- 8 Away from me, all you that commit villainy, for Jehovah has heard the sound of my weeping,
- 9 Jehovah has heard my petition, Jehovah will receive my prayer.
- 10 All my enemies will be in great shame and consternation, will turn back and be in sudden shame.

PSALM 7

(A dithyramb of David's which he sang to Jehovah about the affair of Cush a Benjamite.)

- 1 Jehovah, my God, in you I take refuge:
save me from all my persecutors and deliver me,
- 2 For fear he should make prey of my life like a lion, bringing down, and nobody rescuing.
- 3 Jehovah, my God, if I did this, if there is foul play in my hands,
- 4 If I injured one who was at peace with me and wantonly harassed one who was my foe,
- 5 Let an enemy chase after my soul and run it down and trample my life to the earth, and my glory be lodged in the dust. (Selah)
- 6 Rise in your anger, Jehovah; up with you against my foemen's wrath, and bestir yourself to reach me.
A judgment you have ordained;
- 7 let a congregation of gods surround you, and above them sit aloft.
- 8 Jehovah is arbiter of peoples:
give judgment for me, Jehovah, in accordance with my fair dealing and the integrity I cherish;

- 9 Let wrong-doers' evil disappear and right-doing be made regular—the Tester of Heads and Hearts is a right-doing God!
- 10 My shield is carried by God, saver of men of upright heart.
- 11 God is an honest man's judge and the Deity is hostile to schemers.
- 12 If he does not turn back, he sharpens his sword, has strung his bow and bent it, 13 And got ready instruments of death, makes his arrows fireballs.
- 14 Here he is in labor with villainy, has become pregnant with mischief and will give birth to lies.
- 15 He has dug and sunk a pitfall and tumbled into the trap he was making.
- 16 His mischief will come back on his own head and his outrage come down on his own pate.
- 17 I thank Jehovah as befits his right-doing and sing a psalm to the name of Jehovah Most High.

PSALM 8

(Of the Director; to the Gittith. A psalm of David's.)

- 1 Jehovah, our Lord, how grand is your name throughout the earth, you whose majesty reaches above the sky,
- 2 Who out of the mouths of children at play and babies at the breast have laid a foundation of might on account of those who are foes to you, to put a stop to enemy and avenger!
- 3 When I see your sky, the work of your fingers, moon and stars that you have set,
- 4 What is man that you should remember him, any of humankind that you should attend to him?
- 5 And you have made him little short of God, with state and glory you crown him,
- 6 And have given him rule over the works of your hands, have placed everything under his feet,
- 7 Sheep and cattle all,
beasts of the wilds too;
- 8 Bird of air and fish of sea, those that traverse fluid paths.
- 9 Jehovah our Lord, how grand is your name throughout the earth!

PSALMS 9-10

(Of the Director; falsetto voices. Of Ben's. A psalm of David's.)

- 1 I will give thanks to Jehovah with all my heart;
I will tell the story of all your wonders;
- 2 I will be glad and exult in you,

- I will sing psalms to your name, Most High, 3 For my enemies' turning to go backward, stumbling and perishing before you; 4 For you have given me justice and my rights, you sit enthroned as a fair judge.
5 You rebuke nations, you destroy a wrong-doer, you blot out their name forever and evermore.
6 The enemy are all gone, perpetual wastes, and cities you have uprooted; their memory has perished, 7 But Jehovah will stand fast forever, he has planted his throne for judgment, 8 And he will judge the world honestly, give fair verdicts for many a folk, 9 So that Jehovah may be a fastness for the downtrodden man, a fastness for hard times, 10 And those who know your name may have confidence in you, because you have never abandoned those who resort to you.
11 Sing psalms to Jehovah, him who is seated on Zion; tell among the peoples his deeds; 12 For a prosecutor of bloodshed remembers them;
he never forgets the crying of unhappy men.
13 Be gracious to me, Jehovah; see my unhappy state because of those who hate me,
you who uplift me from the gates of death, 14 So that I may tell all the story of your praises, exult in your salvation at the gates of the daughter of Zion.
15 Nations have sunk in a pitfall they had made; in a net that they hid their own feet are caught.
16 Jehovah has won recognition, has done justice;
a wrong-doer is snared in the work of his own hands.
(Higgaion. Selah)
- 17 Wrong-doers shall go back to the world below;
all nations are forgetful of God.
18 For a needy man will not be perpetually forgotten, humble men's hopes will not be lost forevermore.
19 Up, Jehovah; let man not be high and mighty; let nations bring their causes before you for judgment.
20 Put them in fear, Jehovah; let nations know they are human beings. (Selah)

(PSALM 10)

- 1 Why do you stand aloof, Jehovah, ignore hard times?
2 Pridefully a wrong-doer chases a poor wretch—they shall be caught in the designs they have thought up.
3 For a wrong-doer praises, a grasping man blesses,

- on the basis of his own heart's desire.
- 4 A wrong-doer loftily insults Jehovah, does not look out for his anger;
All his calculations are that there is no God.
- 5 His courses are persistent at every time;
Your judgments are too exalted to come within his view;
all his foemen he pooh-poohs.
- 6 He says to himself "I shall be unshaken, for generation upon generation I shall be firm, to disaster I shall never succumb."
- 7 His mouth is full of fraud and extortion;
under his tongue are mischief and villainy.
- 8 He sits in village ambushes, kills innocent men under cover.
His eyes are in wait for a wretched man.
- 9 He lies in wait under cover like a lion in its thicket, Lies in wait to catch a poor fellow, catches a poor fellow by drawing his net:
- 10 He beats down, brings low;
wretches have fallen by his force.
- 11 He says to himself "Deity has forgotten, has veiled his face, does not see forevermore."
- 12 Up, Jehovah! Deity, lift your hand!
do not forget miserable men!
- 13 On what ground has a wrong-doer been contemptuous of God, said to himself you would not look into it?
- 14 You do see, because you look at mischief and offense, to put it into your hands;
To you the orphan wretch leaves his cause;
you have been a helper.
- 15 Break the arm of a wrong-doer and rascal;
you look for his criminal work, it is not to be found.
- 16 Jehovah is king of ages on ages, heathen nations perish out of his country.
- 17 Humble men's desire you have heard, Jehovah, the address of their hearts;
- 18 You sharpen your ear to judge orphan and downtrodden;
Never again let a man out of the earth be arrogant.

PSALM 11

(Of the Director. Of David's.)

- 1 In Jehovah I take refuge: how is it you say to my soul
"Flit mountainward like a sparrow"?
- 2 For here have the wicked strung their bow, Set their arrow on the string, in gloom to shoot at right-minded men.

- 3 When the foundations are torn up what does an honest man do?
- 4 Jehovah is in his holy temple; Jehovah has his throne in the sky;
His eyes view,
his glances test, the sons of men.
- 5 Jehovah tests honest man and rascal, and his nature hates a lover of outrage.
- 6 He will rain on rascals burning charcoal and sulfur,
and scorching wind is the cup poured out for them.
- 7 For Jehovah is honest, loves honest doings;
upright men shall behold his face.

PSALM 12

(Of the Director; bass voices; a psalm of David's.)

- 1 Save, Jehovah, because godly men have disappeared, because all is over with reliability among mankind.
- 2 They talk make-believes to each other,
talk with slippery lips and double heart.
- 3 Jehovah will exterminate slippery lips, tongues that make great propositions,
- 4 Men that say "With our tongues we shall do bravely;
we have our lips with us, who is sovereign over us!"
- 5 For violence to men in want, for needy men's groaning, now I will stand up, says Jehovah, will set in salvation who pants for that.
- 6 Jehovah's say is clean say, silver refined in a cupel on the ground, purified seven times.
- 7 You, Jehovah, will guard them, will keep them for this generation and forever.
- 8 Wrong-doers walk about on all sides when shabbiness stands high for mankind.

PSALM 13

(Of the Director; a psalm of David's.)

- 1 How long, Jehovah, will you perpetually forget?
how long will you veil your face from me?
- 2 How long shall I house anxieties in my soul, have sorrow in my heart through the day?
How long shall my enemies stand high over me?
- 3 Look at it, answer me, Jehovah, my God;
give light to my eyes, that I may not sleep the sleep of death,
- 4 That my enemies may not say "I was too much for him," my foes jubilate because I stagger,
- 5 when I have put my confidence in your friendship;

Let my heart jubilate in your salvation, let me sing to Jehovah because he has done me a good turn.

PSALM 14

(Of the Director; of David's.)

- 1 A rascal has said to himself
"There is no God."
They behave viciously, abominably;
there is nobody that does what is good.
- 2 Jehovah looked from the heavens upon mankind to see if there was a canny man,
one that looked to God:
- 3 The whole lot had drawn off together, had degenerated,
there was nobody that did what was good, not a single one.
- 4 Do all who perpetrate villainy not know?
those who eat up my people eat bread, never call on Jehovah,—
- 5 There they are seized with terror,
because God breaks up an ungodly man's plan;
- 6 You shall put them to shame,
because Jehovah has repudiated them.
- 7 O for Israel's salvation coming from Zion!
When Jehovah comes back to his people
Jacob will jubilate, Israel make merry.

PSALM 15

(A psalm of David's.)

- 1 Jehovah, who will find a home in your tent, who reside on your sacred mountain?
- 2 One who walks conscientiously and does right and speaks truth in his heart.
- 3 He has not talked scandal, nor done an injury to his fellow, nor taken part in jeering at his neighbor.
- 4 He has no use for an immoral man, but those who fear Jehovah he honors.
He swears to do a bad thing and does not substitute anything else;
- 5 he does not put out his money on interest Nor take a bribe against an innocent man.
One who does these things will be unshaken forever.

PSALM 16

(A mictam of David's.)

- 1 Protect me, Jehovah, because I have taken refuge in you;
- 2 I have said to Jehovah my Lord "You are my good,
- 3 Counting out all holy ones that are on earth, grand ones that I have no fancy for."
- 4 They get themselves many griefs;
they hurry to get another god.

- I will not pour their libations of blood nor take their names on my lips.
- 5 Jehovah, you have apportioned my dish and my cup;
 you guide the falling of my lot.
- 6 Lines have fallen in pleasant places for me;
 Yes, and my estate has grown finer on my hands.
- 7 I will bless Jehovah, who has advised me;
 nights too my bosom instructs me.
- 8 I keep Jehovah always before me;
 because he is at my right hand I shall be unshaken.
- 9 So my heart is glad and my soul jubilant;
 my flesh too rests assured,
- 10 Because you will not leave my soul to the realm of death, will not give up the man of your friendship to see dissolution.
- 11 You will send me along paths of life; in your company there are joys in plenty, pleasant things are in your right hand perpetually.

PSALM 17

(A prayer of David's.)

- 1 Hear a just cause, Jehovah, listen to my appeal, give ear to my prayer not made with cheating lips.
- 2 Prom before you let judgment issue on my behalf;
 let your eyes take cognizance of equity.
- 3 You have tested me, examined me at night, assayed me; you will not find viciousness of mine;
 My mouth shall not pass over
- 4 for deeds of man.
 By the words of your lips I have kept from ruffian's paths.
- 5 Steady my steps in your roads;
 let me not lose my footing.
- 6 I call to you, because you will answer me, God:
 bend your ear to me, hear my say.
- 7 Do acts of special friendship, you who by your right hand save from adversaries men who take refuge in you.
- 8 Guard me like the apple of your eye, screening me in the shadow of your wings,
- 9 From criminals who have assaulted me, my enemies who greedily surround me.
- 10 Their heart is tallow, their chest is blubber;
 they talk with a swagger.
- 11 They eye us, they surround us now, they fix their eyes on the country.
- 12 What he is like is a lion eager to make a kill,

- a two-year-old lion sitting in a covert.
- 13 Up, Jehovah, meet him face to face;
put him down; preserve my life,
- 14 Your sword preserve it from a ruffian, your hand from men, Jehovah, from men whose part in life is earthly, Whose stomach you fill with your stores; they have all the sons they want,
lay down their surplus for their youngsters.
- 15 As for me, by integrity I shall gaze on your face;
at waking I shall look at your form as much as I please.

PSALM 18

(Of the Director; of Jehovah's servant David, who addressed to Jehovah the words of this song on the day when Jehovah had delivered him out of the hands of all his enemies and of Saul. Said he,)

- 2 Jehovah is my cliff and fastness, my preserver; my God is my rock that I take refuge in, my shield and victorious horn,
- 3 My citadel and refuge, my savior saving me from outrage.
I proclaim Jehovah a God to be praised, and am saved from my enemies.
- 4 Breakers of death have enveloped me, torrents of bale overwhelm me, 5 the cords of the world below have gone round me, death's snares approached me,—
- 6 In my distress I call on Jehovah, and to my God I cry, and he has heard my voice out of his palace, and my cry sounded in his ears.
- 7 And the earth rolled and shook, the sky's foundations trembled and rolled because he was angry;
- 8 Smoke rose at his nostril, and fire out of his mouth devoured what it met;
coals caught from it.
- 9 And he bent the sky and came down with thick air under his feet,
- 10 And mounted a cherub and flew, sped on the wings of the wind,
- 11 Made darkness his screen around him, his bower a clump of water, a cloud in the heavens;
- 12 coals of fire caught from his presence;
- 13 Jehovah thundered out of the skies, the Lord above uttered his voice,
- 14 And sent his arrows and scattered them, flashed lightning and threw them into confusion,
- 15 And the chasms of the sea came in sight, the foundations of the world were uncovered,

- At your rebuke, Jehovah, at a breath from your nostrils.
- 16 He has sent from on high and taken me, drawn me out of deep waters,
- 17 Delivered me from my enemy strong, from my haters when they were too much for me—
- 18 They advanced on me in my day of calamity, but Jehovah was a stay to me,
- 19 And brought me out where I had room, rescuing me because he held me dear.
- 20 Jehovah gives me requital suitable to my honesty, return suitable to the cleanness of my hands,
- 21 Because I have kept Jehovah's ways and not gone into wickedness from my God,
- 22 Because all his laws are present to my mind and his usages I do not set aside,
- 23 And I have been straightforward toward him and guarded against my offending nature;
- 24 And Jehovah has given me return suitable to my honesty, to the cleanness of my hands under his eyes.
- 25 With a godly man you deal friendly; with a straightforward man, straightforwardly;
- 26 With a clean man, cleanly;
and a dodger you outmaneuver,
- 27 And downtrodden people you save,
and lofty eyes you bring down.
- 28 For you are my lamp, Jehovah, and my God lights up my darkness;
- 29 For by you I break a fence, by my God I leap a wall.
- 30 The Deity's path is straightforward; Jehovah's say is sterling;
he is a shield to all who take refuge in him.
- 31 For who is God besides Jehovah?
and who is a rock except our God?
- 32 The Deity it is that girds me with stoutness and makes my path straightforward,
- 33 Makes my feet like a wild doe's and brings me to stand on heights,
- 34 Trains my hands for the battle till my arms break a bow of bronze.
- 35 And you have given me the shield of your aid, and your care makes me great;
- 36 You make my stride bold and my ankles do not turn.
- 37 I pursue my enemies and overtake them, and do not turn back till I have finished them.

38 I finish them, I batter them so that they do not rise, they fall under my feet.
39 And you have girded me with stoutness for the battle, you lay my adversaries low under me, 40 And give me my enemies' backs;
my haters I annihilate.
41 They cry and there is nobody to save them, cry to Jehovah and he does not answer them, 42 And I rub them fine like dust on the ground, like clay in the streets I beat them to powder.
43 And you have preserved me out of my people's conflicts, guarded me for a head of nations;
a people that I had not known shall serve me; 44 Foreigners cringe to me, upon hearsay they are at my orders; 45 Foreigners break up, are frightened out of their coverts.
46 Living is Jehovah, and blessed my Rock, and lofty my God of salvation, 47 The Deity who grants me vengeance and brings peoples down under me, 48 My Preserver from my enemies; you uplift me above my adversaries, deliver me from the man of outrage.
49 Therefore I thank you, Jehovah, among the nations, and sing psalms to your name: 50 He greatly saves his king and befriends his anointed, David and his posterity forever.

PSALM 19

(Of the Director; a psalm of David's.)

1 The skies tell the tale of the Deity's glory, and the firmament announces the work of his hands, 2 Day pouring out utterance to day and night demonstrating knowledge to night 3 With no utterance, no language; their voice is unheard.
4 Throughout the earth their lines are drawn and their words come out at the end of the world.
He has made a tent for the sun in them, 5 and it comes out like a bridegroom out of his bower, Rejoicing as an athlete rejoices in running a distance; 6 its start is from the edge of the sky And its round covers the edges of it, and nothing is screened from its heat.

- 7 Jehovah's instructions are unerring, life-restoring;
Jehovah's lessons are trustworthy, enlightening simpletons;
- 8 Jehovah's mandates are acceptable, gladdening hearts;
Jehovah's commandment is honest, brightening eyes.
- 9 The fear of Jehovah is clean, standing forevermore; Jehovah's decisions are true,
every one right,
- 10 They that are more enjoyable than gold,
than red gold in abundance, And sweeter than honey and drippings of the comb.
- 11 By them, too, your servant takes warning;
from attention to them come great returns.
- 12 Missteps who can keep track of?
Hold me clear of unnoticed things!
- 13 From high-handed ways too keep me back, let them not rule me;
Then I shall be all right, innocent of great crime.
- 14 May the words of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart be acceptable before you, Jehovah, my Rock and my Friend in need!

PSALM 20

(Of the Director; a psalm of David's.)

- 1 Jehovah answer you on a day of crisis, the name of Israel's God set you out of reach of harm,
- 2 Send you help from sacred ground and from Sion give you support,
- 3 Remember all your oblations and make much of your burnt-offering, (Selah)
- 4 Give you what you have at heart and bring fulfillment to all your purposes.
- 5 "We will shout over your victory and fly our colors in the name of our God; Jehovah give fulfillment to all your requests.
- 6 Now I know that Jehovah gives victory to his anointed;
he will answer him from his hallowed heavens with the mighty saving acts of his right hand.

- 7 Chariots these and ponies those,
and we the name of our God Jehovah commemorate.
- 8 They have stooped and fallen, but we are up and keep our feet.
- 9 Jehovah, make the king victorious and answer us on the day when we call.

PSALM 21

(Of the Director; a psalm of David's.)

- 1 In your might, Jehovah, a king will be glad, in the victory you give how overjoyed he will be!
- 2 You have given him what his heart desired and not refused what his lips requested; (Selah)
- 3 For you confront him with the best of blessings, set on his head a crown of red gold.
- 4 For life he asked you; you gave it to him, length of days, ever and evermore.
- 5 Great is his glory by the victory you give;
majesty and splendor you impart to him.
- 6 For you will make him a name of blessing forevermore;
you will delight him with rejoicings in your presence.
- 7 For the king puts his confidence in Jehovah, and by the friendship of the Lord in high he will stand unshaken.
- 8 Your hand shall light on all your enemies, your right hand on those who hate you;
- 9 You will make them like a baking-crock full of fire at the time of your presence;
Jehovah in his anger will engulf them, fire will consume them;
- 10 You will destroy their line out of earth and their blood out of mankind,
- 11 Because they pointed mischief at you, contrived a design they could not carry through.
- 12 For you will make them turn their backs, you will aim your bow at their faces.
- 13 Rise high, Jehovah, in your might!
we will sing your exploits and make music of them.

PSALM 22

(Of the Director; to "The Morning Doe"; a psalm of David's.)

- 1 My God, my God, why have you left me?
far from my Salvation are the words of my roaring!
- 2 My God, I call by day and you do not answer, by night and have no response.
- 3 And you are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel!
- 4 It was in you our fathers put their confidence, put their confidence and you brought them through.

- 5 To you they cried, and came off safe;
in you they put their confidence and were not disappointed.
- 6 But I am a worm, not a man, a thing flouted by men, despised by people.
- 7 All who see me make fun of me, curl their lips, swing their heads:
- 8 "He relied on Jehovah, let him bring him through, let him deliver him because he likes him."
- 9 When it was you that made me come out of my mother's body, made me fearless as I lay on her breast,
- 10 On whom I was thrown from birth, who have been my God since I was in my mother's body,
- 11 Do not be far from me, for it is a hard pinch; come near,
for there is nobody to give help.
- 12 Many steers surround me, bulls of Bashan encircle me,
- 13 Rapacious roaring lions face me with wide-open mouths,
- 14 I am as weak as water, my bones are all coming apart;
My heart is like wax,
it melts in my body.
- 15 My strength is dried out like a chip of crockery, My tongue sticks to my jaws, and you set me on the clay of death.
- 16 For dogs surround me, a company of malefactors have come about me, They dig into my arms and legs—
- 17 I can count all my bones!
They look on and gloat over me,
- 18 They divide my garments among them and toss lots for my clothing.
- 19 But, Jehovah, do not hold aloof!
my upholder, make haste for my help!
- 20 Deliver my life from swords, my dear life from dogs' paws;
- 21 Save me from a lion's mouth, my wretchedness from ure's horns.
- 22 I will recount your fame to my brothers, in mid-assembly I will praise you.
- 23 You who fear Jehovah, praise him!
All Jacob's race, glorify him!
And quail before him, all you race of Israel!
- 24 For he has not despised nor loathed a wretched man's wretched state Nor veiled his face from him, but listens when he clamors to him.

- 25 His faithfulness is my praise in a great assembly;
 I will pay my vows before those who fear him;
- 26 Humble men shall eat and have a full meal, those who invoke Jehovah shall praise him;
 blithe be your hearts forevermore!
- 27 Let all the ends of earth remember and come back to Jehovah, And let all clans of nations do reverence before him;
- 28 For the kingship is Jehovah's and he governs among the nations.
- 29 Only to him shall all the hale of earth do reverence, before him all who go down into clay shall bow And he who does not keep his soul alive.
- 30 A race shall worship him; it shall be told of for the Lord.
- 31 A generation shall come and report his right-doing to a people that is to be born, because he acted.

PSALM 23

(A psalm of David's.)

- 1 Jehovah is my shepherd;
 I shall never have less than I need.
- 2 He has me lie down in green pastures;
 he takes me to resting-places along the water.
- 3 He puts life back into me;
 he leads me on trails that go right, for the sake of his name.
- 4 Even when I go in a valley of gloom
 I will not be afraid of anything bad, because you are with me;
 Your club and staff, they set my mind at rest.
- 5 You lay a table before me in my foemen's presence;
 You have lavished oil on my head, my cup is full of refreshment.
- 6 I shall have nothing but kindness and friendliness following me all my life,
 and I shall stay at Jehovah's house for long years.

PSALM 24

(Of David's; a psalm.)

- 1 To Jehovah belong the earth and all it holds, the world and those who live in it,
- 2 Because it was he laid its foundations on seas and seats it firm on streams.
- 3 Who shall go up on Jehovah's mountain, and who stand up in his sacred place?
- 4 A man of innocent hands and single heart,

- one who has never planned a quibble nor sworn a fraudulent oath, 5 Shall obtain a blessing from Jehovah and vindication from his saving God.
 6 This is the generation of those who go to Jehovah, who look for the face of Jacob's Deity. (Selah)
- 7 Raise up, gates, your heads,
 be raised, ancient doors,
 for the King of Glory to enter!
 8 Who is that, the King of Glory?
 Jehovah, potent and doughty, Jehovah, doughty in battle!
 9 Raise up, gates, your heads, raise them, ancient doors,
 for the King of Glory to enter!
 10 Who is that, this King of Glory?
 Jehovah of Armies,
 he is the King of Glory. [Selah]

PSALM 25

(Of David's.)

- 1 It is on you that I count, Jehovah; 2 my God, you are my stay.
 In you I trust; let me not be disappointed;
 let my enemies not be gleeful over me.
 3 Nay, never are any of those who hope in you disappointed; disappointed are those who commit treachery to no purpose.
 4 Make your roads known to me, Jehovah, teach me your paths.
 5 Direct me in your faithfulness, and teach me, because you are the God of my salvation And in you I hope all day.
 6 Remember, Jehovah, your sympathy and friendliness, because they have been yours from of old.
 7 Do not remember the sins of my youth nor my crimes.
 Do you remember me in accordance with your friendship, for your kindness' sake, Jehovah.
 8 Kind and frank is Jehovah;
 therefore he will show the way to those that go wrong.
 9 He will direct humble men's course aright and teach humble men his road.
 10 All Jehovah's paths are friendship and loyalty to those who keep his covenant and his lessons.
 11 For the sake of your name, Jehovah, forgive my guilt, great as it is.
 12 Who is the man that is a fearer of Jehovah?

- he will instruct him what way to choose.
- 13 He shall lodge in comfort, his posterity shall possess a domain.
  - 14 Those who fear Jehovah are intimate with him and his covenant is to be made known to them.
  - 15 My eyes are constantly toward Jehovah because he gets my feet out of nets.
  - 16 Turn toward me and be gracious to me, because I am lonely and wretched.
  - 17 Believe my heart's distresses and bring me out of my hard straits.
  - 19 Confront my enemies, for there are many of them and they hate me savagely.
  - 18 See my wretchedness and my difficulties and pardon all my sins.
  - 20 Preserve my life and deliver me;
let me not be put to shame, because I have taken refuge in you.
  - 21 Let sincerity and principle be my guard; for my heart is set on you, Jehovah.
  - 22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his distresses.

PSALM 26

(Of David's.)

- 1 Do justice for me, Jehovah, because I go sincerely and put an unfaltering trust in Jehovah.
- 2 Test me, Jehovah, and try me, probe my heart and brain,
- 3 Because I have your friendship before my eyes and walk by your good faith,
- 4 I have not taken my seat with disorderly men and do not go in with underhanded men,
- 5 I hate a coterie of evil-doers and will not live with knaves.
- 6 I will wash my hands in innocence and go round your altar, Jehovah,
- 7 To sound the voice of thanksgiving and tell the story of all your wonders.
- 8 Jehovah, I love the site of your house, the place where your glory is tabernacled.
- 9 Do not sweep away my life with sinners, with murderers my being,
- 10 Who have misdeeds in hand and their fists full of bribes.
- 11 But I go sincerely;
redeem me, Jehovah, and be gracious to me.

12 My foot is standing on level ground; in assembled throngs I will bless Jehovah.

PSALM 27

(Of David's.)

- 1 Jehovah is my light and salvation;
whom should I fear?
Jehovah is my lifesaving citadel;
whom should I dread?
- 2 When evil-doers came on to eat my flesh, my foemen, enemies to me, they stumbled and fell.
- 3 If an army should take the field against me my heart would not fear;
If a battle comes upon me, even with that I rest secure.
- 4 One thing I ask of Jehovah, it I seek, the staying at Jehovah's house all my life long To gaze on Jehovah's delectable sights and to examine his temple.
- 5 For he would shelter me in his pavilion on a day of calamity, would shroud me in the screen of his tent, would uplift me on a rock.
- 6 And now my head rises above my enemies all round me, and in his tent I will offer shouted sacrifices, I will sing to make music to Jehovah.
- 7 Hear, Jehovah, my voice;
I call; be gracious to me and answer me.
- 8 My heart has said to you "My face seeks yours"; Jehovah I seek.
- 9 Do not veil your face from me;
do not dismiss your servant's case in anger.
You were my help;
do not turn me adrift nor leave me, God of my salvation.
- 10 For my father and mother have left me, but Jehovah takes me in.
- 11 Show me your road, Jehovah, and guide me on the level path on account of my ill-wishers.
- 12 Do not give me over to the passions of my foes, for there have stood up against me false accusers and a snorter of outrages.
- 13 If I did not trust to have the sight of God's goodness in the land of the living—
- 14 Hope in Jehovah;

courage, and keep a constant heart,
and hope in Jehovah.

PSALM 28

(Of David's.)

- 1 To you, Jehovah, I call;
my Rock, do not be deaf to me, For fear you should keep quiet in my case and I become such as are those who are down in the Pit;
- 2 Hear my suppliant voice when I clamor to you, when I raise my hands toward your holy shrine.
- 3 Do not rake me up with malefactors, with those who practice villainy, That talk peace with their neighbors but have harm in their hearts.
- 4 Give them what will match their doings, the viciousness of their practices;
Such as the work their hands have done give to them, give them back their own dealings!
- 5 Because they have no sense of Jehovah's doings and of the work his hands have done, he shall tear them down and not rebuild them.
- 6 Blessed be Jehovah because he has heard my suppliant voice.
- 7 Jehovah is my strength and my song;
my heart relies on him,
And I am helped, and my heart exults, and with my song I will thank him.
- 8 Jehovah is might to his people, and his anointed one's citadel of salvation is he.
- 9 Save your people and bless your estate, and shepherd them and carry them forever.

PSALM 29

(A psalm of David's.)

- 1 Sons of deity, give to Jehovah, give to Jehovah glory and might.
- 2 Give to Jehovah the glory that belongs to his name;
do reverence to Jehovah in stately sacred garb.
- 3 Jehovah's voice over the water!
The God of glory is thundering, Jehovah over a great water!
- 4 Jehovah's voice in power, Jehovah's voice in sublimity!
- 5 Jehovah's voice breaking cedars!
and Jehovah has broken the cedars of the Lebanon
- 6 And made them skip like a calf, Lebanon and Sirjon like a young ure.

- 7 Jehovah's voice striking out flames of fire!
 8 Jehovah's voice terrifies wilderness, Jehovah terrifies the wilderness of Kadesh.
 9 Jehovah's voice sends deer into birth-throes and strips woodlands;
     and in his temple it all says "Glory!" 10 Jehovah was enthroned at the Deluge, and Jehovah is enthroned as king forever.
 11 Jehovah will give might to his people, Jehovah will bless his people with peace.

PSALM 30

(A psalm, the song for the dedication of the house, of David's.)

- 1 I will exalt you, Jehovah, because you have rescued me and not had my enemies be glad for me.
 2 My God Jehovah,
     I implored you and you healed me.
 3 Jehovah, you have brought up my soul from the world below, have restored my life from among those who go down to the Pit.
 4 Make music for Jehovah, men of his friendship, and give thanks in holy commemoration of him.
 5 For there is a moment in his anger, life by his favor; sobs come in the evening to lodge, but in the morning there is caroling.
 6 And for me, I had thought in my prosperity
     "I shall be unshaken forever"; 7 Jehovah, by your favor you had given my mountains solid strength;
     you have veiled your face, I am seized with consternation.
 8 To you, Jehovah, I call,
     and with my Lord I plead: 9 "What gain is to be made by my blood, by my going down to dissolution?
     Will clay give thanks to you, will it report your faithfulness?" 10 Listen, Jehovah, and be gracious to me; Jehovah, be helper of mine.
 11 You have turned my wailing to dancing for me, have undone my sackcloth and kilted me with joy, 12 That my soul may make music to you and not be silent;
     Jehovah my God, forever I will give thanks to you.

PSALM 31

(Of the Director; a psalm of David's.)

- 1 In you, Jehovah, I take refuge;
     forever let me not be disappointed;
     in your right-doing bring me safe through.
 2 Turn your ear toward me;

- deliver me quickly;
Be a citadel rock for me,
a fastness house to save me,
3 because you are my cliff and fastness
And for the sake of your name you will guide me and lead me, 4 will get me out of nets that they hid for me, because you are my citadel.
5 To your hands I commit my spirit;
you have redeemed me, Jehovah, loyal God.
6 You hate those who attend to futile superstitions;
but I rest my confidence in Jehovah.
7 I am gay and glad in your friendship, that you saw my wretched state, knew about my soul's distresses, 8 And did not give me up into an enemy's hands;
you set my feet to stand in a broad place.
9 Be gracious to me, Jehovah, because I am in distress; my eyes have been wearing away with vexation, my soul and my body.
10 For my life passes away in sorrow and my years in moaning, my strength breaks down in wretchedness and my bones wear away.
11 By all my persecutors I have been a downright butt to my neighbors and a dread to my acquaintances; those who see me in the street shy away from me.
12 I am gone from memory like a dead man;
I am like a lost basket.
13 For I have heard the gossip of many, terror on every side, while they concerted their program against me, designing to take my life.
14 But I rest my confidence in you, Jehovah;
I have said "You are my God." 15 The events of my life are in your hands:
deliver me out of the hands of my enemies and persecutors; 16 Show your servant a shining face;
save me in your friendship.
17 Jehovah, let me not be disappointed, because I have called you; let wicked men be disappointed, be silenced for the grave.
18 Let falsifying lips grow dumb, those that make arrogant talk against an honest man in pride and contempt.
19 How great is your kindness, Jehovah, which you have kept laid by for those who fear you, Have put in action before men for those who take refuge in you!
20 You will screen them in the veil of your face from the grapplings of a man,

- embower them in privacy from the strife of tongues.
- 21 Blessed be Jehovah, because he specially befriended me in a besieged city, 22 when I thought in my alarm I was cut off from before your eyes; Yet you did hear my suppliant voice when I clamored to you.
- 23 Love Jehovah, all men of his friendship!
 Jehovah keeps faithful men safe and more than pays off one who acts proudly.
- 24 Courage, and keep a constant heart,
 all you who wait for Jehovah.

PSALM 32

(Of David's; meditative.)

- 1 Happy he who has transgression forgiven, sin covered up;
- 2 Happy a man for whom Jehovah does not count guilt and who has no fraud at heart.
- 3 When I was silent my bones were wearing out with my roaring all day,
- 4 Because by day and by night your hand lay heavy on me, I was double-baked with summer droughts. [Selah]
- 5 I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my guilt, I said "I will avow my offenses to Jehovah," and you forgave the guilt of my sin. (Selah)
- 6 Since this has been, let every man of your friendship pray to you in crisis;
 when waters are poured out in highest flood they shall not reach him.
- 7 You are a screen for me; you will keep me safe from distress;
 you will surround me with shouts of preservation. [Selah]
- 8 I will teach you good sense, and instruct you as to the way you should go;
 I will give advice; my eye is on you.
- 9 Do not be like a senseless pony or mule whose wildness, that will not come near you, has to be curbed with bridle and halter.
- 10 Many are the pains of a wrong-doer, but him who trusts to Jehovah friendliness will encircle.
- 11 Be glad and gay, right-doers, in Jehovah, and shout, you that have straightforward hearts!

PSALM 33

- 1 Sing a carol of Jehovah, right-doers; praise is glorious work for straightforward men.
- 2 Sing thanks to Jehovah with a lyre,

- with a ten-stringed harp make music for him, 3 Sing a new song for him, make the strings ring well!
4 For Jehovah's word is straightforward and all his work is done on honor.
5 He loves honesty and justice;
the earth is full of Jehovah's friendliness.
6 By Jehovah's word the sky was made, and all its legions by the breath of his mouth.
7 He masses up the water of the sea like a heap of grain, puts the deeps in storerooms.
8 Let all the earth stand in fear of Jehovah, all the inhabitants of the world quail before him, 9 Because he said, and there it was, he gave an order and there it stood.
10 Jehovah foils the policies of nations, blocks the plans of peoples; 11 Jehovah's policies stand forever, the plans in his heart to generation after generation.
12 Happy the nation that has Jehovah for its God, the people that he chose as his estate!
13 From heaven Jehovah looks, sees all the sons of man.
14 From his firm seat he observes all the inhabitants of the earth, 15 He who framed their hearts one and all, who understands all their doings.
16 Never is the king saved by greatness of forces;
a champion is not delivered by greatness of strength.
17 The pony is an illusion for preservation, and, with all its energy, it does not bring one safe off.
18 Jehovah's eye is toward those who fear him, those who rest their expectations on his friendliness, 19 To deliver their lives from death and to maintain them in time of famine.
20 Our souls are waiting for Jehovah;
he is our help and our shield; 21 For our hearts are glad in him because we have confidence in his hallowed name.
22 Let your friendship be over us, Jehovah, as we rest our expectations on you.

PSALM 34

(Of David's, when he pretended before Abimelec that his wits were unsettled, and he turned him out and he went off.)

- 1 I will bless Jehovah at every time;

- always in my mouth is his praise.
- 2 Of Jehovah my soul will make its boast; humble men shall hear and be glad.
- 3 Proclaim Jehovah's greatness with me and let us exalt his name together.
- 4 I invoked Jehovah, and he answered me and delivered me from all my terrors.
- 5 Look toward him and brighten up, and let your faces not be abashed.
- 6 This was a wretched man, who called and Jehovah heard it and saved him out of all his distresses.
- 7 Jehovah's angel camps around those who fear him and rescues them.
- 8 Taste and see that Jehovah is good;
happy is the man who takes refuge in him.
- 9 Fear Jehovah, you who are consecrated to him, for those who fear him have no scarcity.
- 10 Lions in their youthful prime may go poor and hungry, but those who invoke Jehovah shall not have too little of everything good.
- 11 Come, sons, listen to me,
I will teach you the fear of Jehovah.
- 12 Who is the man that would like life, that loves years to see good in?
- 13 Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from uttering cheat;
- 14 Shun what is bad and do what is good;
try for a wholesome life and follow it up.
- 16 Jehovah's face is against doers of evil to blot out from earth the memory of them.
- 15 Jehovah's eyes are toward honest men and his ears are toward their call;
- 17 They cry, and Jehovah hears and delivers them out of all their distresses.
- 18 Jehovah is near to the brokenhearted and saves the battered-down in spirit.
- 19 Many evils an honest man suffers, but out of them all Jehovah delivers him.
- 20 He guards all his bones;
not one of them is broken.
- 21 An evil will give a guilty man his death-stroke, and those who hate an honest man shall stand condemned.
- 22 Jehovah redeems his servants' lives, and none shall stand condemned of those who take refuge in him.

(Of David's.)

- 1 Oppose those who oppose me, Jehovah!
combat those who combat me!
- 2 Grasp buckler and shield and stand up in my behalf,
- 3 Take out spear and battle-ax to meet my pursuers; Say to my soul
"I am your salvation."
- 4 Let those who are after my life be disappointed and humiliated; Let those who plan harm to me fall back and be abashed;
- 5 Let them be like chaff before a wind, with Jehovah's angel pushing them,
- 6 Let their road be darkness and slippery rocks, with Jehovah's angel chasing them,
- 7 Because without a motive they laid their net for me, sunk a pitfall for my life.
- 8 An unexpected storm shall come upon him and the net that he laid catch himself, into the pit he shall fall,
- 9 And my soul shall jubilate in Jehovah, shall rejoice in his salvation.
- 10 All my bones shall say
"Jehovah, who is like you, Deliverer of a downtrodden man from a stronger, a man downtrodden and needy from the one who robs him?"
- 11 Malicious accusers stand up, ask me things that I do not know about,
- 12 Repay me evil for good, childlessness to my soul.
- 13 But I when they were sick had had a sackcloth for my clothing, had crushed down my appetite with fasting,
—and my prayer shall come back into my own lap.
- 14 I walked as if it were a friend, a brother of mine;
I went stooping and in black like one in mourning for a mother.
- 15 But at my breaking down they rejoiced and crouned together, smilers came together against me and I did not know it,
They assailed me and were not quiet.
- 16 When I was smitten, what they did was to make fun, to grind their teeth at me.
- 17 Lord, how long will you look on?
bring my life back from the roaring lions, from two-year-old lions my dear life.

- 18 I will thank you in a great assembly, praise you among a mighty people.
- 19 Let those who are my enemies on false grounds not be joyous over me, those who hate me for nothing not leer,
- 20 Because they talk nothing wholesome and think up insidious words against my ease.
- 21 And they opened their mouths wide against me, said "Oho, oho, he is getting it now!"
- 22 You saw it, Jehovah; do not be deaf!
 Lord, do not stand aloof from me!
- 23 Rouse and wake in defense of my cause, my God and Lord, in my behalf;
- 24 Do me justice in accordance with your fairness, my God Jehovah, let them not have their joy over me!
- 25 Let them not say to themselves
 "Ah there, something to relish!"
- 26 Let those be disappointed and abashed together who have their joy over harm to me; Let those be wrapped in disappointment and humiliation who swagger over me.
- 27 Let those who take pleasure in having me found in the right carol and have joy
 And say all the time "Great is Jehovah who takes pleasure in his servant's welfare!"
- 28 And my tongue shall voice your right-doing, all day long your praise.

PSALM 36

(Of the Director; of Jehovah's servant; of David's.)

- 1 Quoth a knave, "I have it at heart to be wicked";
 dread of God is nowhere within his sight,
- 2 Because, to his mind, he has made it slippery for him to find out his guilt, to hate it.
- 3 The words of his mouth are villainy and fraud;
 he rules out doing anything sensible or good;
- 4 He thinks up villainy as he lies in bed, takes his stand on a road that is not good,
 does not keep out of anything bad.
- 5 Jehovah, your friendliness is in the skies, your faithfulness up to the heavens,
- 6 Your fairness is like God's mountains, your justice is the great deep;
 man and beast you save, Jehovah.
- 7 How priceless is your friendship, God!
 and mankind take refuge in the shadow of your wings.
- 8 They shall be refreshed with the rich flow of your house

- and you will give them the stream of your nectar to drink.
- 9 For with you is the source of life;
by your shining we see light.
- 10 Keep up your friendship to those who know you and your fairness to men of sincere heart.
- 11 Let the feet of pride not come in to me and the hands of wrong-doers not dislodge me.
- 12 Doers of villainy have fallen there;
they are dashed down and cannot get up.

PSALM 37

(Of David's.)

- 1 Do not lose your temper at evil-doers nor be jealous of rogues,
- 2 Because they will speedily be mowed like grass and wilt as the verdure of plants does.
- 3 Rely on Jehovah, and do what is good;
live at home and cultivate fidelity,
- 4 And be happy because of Jehovah, and let him give you what your heart is asking for.
- 5 Turn over the course of your affairs to Jehovah, and rely on him, and he will act
- 6 And will bring your Tightness out like the light and the justice of your case like noonday.
- 7 Leave it silently to Jehovah and wait for him;
do not lose your temper at one who comes off successfully,
a man who executes deep-laid plots.
- 8 Give up anger and leave off ire;
do not lose your temper just to cause evil,
- 9 Because evil-doers will be exterminated, and those who hope in Jehovah, they will possess the land.
- 10 And in a little longer the rascal is not there;
you observe his place, and he is not there;
- 11 But humble men will possess the land and be happy because of abounding prosperity.
- 12 A rascal is forming designs against an honest man and grinding his teeth at him;
- 13 The Lord laughs at him because he sees that his day is coming.
- 14 Rascals have unsheathed swords and strung their bows to bring down a needy and unfortunate man, to slaughter men whose course is straightforward.
- 15 Their swords shall go into their own hearts and their bows shall break.
- 16 A few on the side of right are better than a host of many rascals,

- 17 For rascals' arms will be broken but Jehovah holds honest men up.
- 18 Jehovah knows the lives of upright men, and their inheritance shall be forever.
- 19 They shall not be put to shame at a time of disaster, and in days of famine they shall have their fill.
- 20 For rascals shall perish and Jehovah's enemies are spent like the fuel of a kitchen brazier, spent in smoke.
- 21 A rascal is borrowing and will not pay, but an honest man is gracious and is giving;
- 22 For those who are blessed by him will have possession of the land, and those who are cursed by him will be cut off.
- 23 The places where a man sets his feet come from Jehovah;
he steadies him and keeps his course unswerving.
- 24 When he does fall he will not go flying, because Jehovah holds him up by the hand.
- 25 I have been young and have been old, and have never seen an honest man left in the lurch and his offspring hunting for bread.
- 26 All day he is gracious and is lending, and his offspring becomes a name to bless by.
- 27 Shun what is bad and do what is good and live there forever,
- 28 Because Jehovah loves justice and will not leave in the lurch those who are friends with him.
Rogues are rooted out forever, and rascals' line will be cut off;
- 29 Honest men will have possession of the land and live in it evermore.
- 30 An honest man's mouth breathes wisdom and his tongue speaks justice.
- 31 His God's instructions are in his heart;
his steps will not be shaky.
- 32 A rascal is on the watch for an honest man and looking for a chance to take his life;
- 33 Jehovah will not abandon him into his hands nor have him condemned when he comes into court.
- 34 Set your hope on Jehovah and keep to his course, and he will uplift you to have possession of the land;
you shall look on while rascals are extirpated.
- 35 I saw a rascal arrogant and leafed out like a verdant cedar;
- 36 But he went past, and he was not there, and I looked for him and he was not to be found.
- 37 Keep to uprightness and look to straightforwardness, because a man of peace has a future; 38 But criminals will be rooted out together; rascals' future will be cut off.

39 Honest men's salvation comes from Jehovah, their citadel at a time of distress, 40 And Jehovah will help them and see them through, will see them clear of rascals and save them because they took refuge in him.

PSALM 38

(A psalm of David's; for the memorial.)

1 Jehovah, do not correct me in your wrath and discipline me in your ire!
2 For your arrows have sunk into me and your hand rests on me.
3 There is not a sound spot in my flesh in consequence of your hostility;
    there is no health in my bones in consequence of my sin; 4 For my guilts rise above my head; like a load of dead weight they are too heavy for me.
5 My sores are reeking, rotted, in consequence of my foolishness.
6 I am dizzy, I am very low indeed, all day I go in black, 7 Because my loins are full of roasting heat and there is not a sound spot in my flesh.
8 I am utterly benumbed and beaten down;
    I roar out of the groaning of my heart.
9 Lord, all my craving is present before you, my moaning is not concealed from you.
10 My heart throbs, my strength has left me, the light of my very eyes is not by me; 11 My lovers and friends move off from my blight and my nearest stand at a distance.
12 Those who are looking for my life set traps, and those who aim at harm to me talk up catastrophes and whisper fraud all day, 13 And I am like a deaf man who will not hear and like a dumb man who will not open his mouth, 14 I have become like a person who does not hear and has no protests to make, 15 Because I am waiting for you, Jehovah; you were to answer, Lord, my God, 16 Because I thought "They might have a fine time over me; when my foot slipped they said great things about me." 17 For I am ready to break down, always conscious of pain.

- 18 For I quail at my guilt, am anxious over my sin, 19 And those who are against me for nothing are a strong party, and those who hate me on false grounds are many, 20 And those who pay me back evil for good are hostile to me while I practice kindness.
21 Do not abandon me, Jehovah; my God, do not be far from me.
22 Lord, my savior, hasten to my help.

PSALM 39

(Of the Director; of Jeduthun; a psalm of David's.)

- 1 I said "I will watch my courses to keep from sinning with my tongue; I will put a muzzle on my mouth so long as I am facing a rascal." 2 I was mute accordingly,
    I refrained from saying anything good,
And my pain was stirred, 3 my heart grew hot within me,
In my brooding a fire was burning;
    I spoke with my tongue, 4 "Make my end known to me, Jehovah, and what is the measure of my days;
    let me be conscious how transitory I am.
5 Here you have made my days some handbreadths and before you my tenure of life is as if there were none of it; every man bases himself just on air. (Selah) 6 A man walks along in a mere picture, they make an uproar of mere air, one piles up heaps and does not know who is going to take them home.
7 And now what am I counting on, Lord?
    it is for you I wait.
8 Deliver me from all my crimes;
    do not make me a butt for a scamp's taunting.
9 I was mute, did not open my mouth, because it was you that had acted.
10 Take your visitation off me;
    by the stress of your hand I am finished.
11 With discipline for guilt you correct a man and you melt down his attractive figure like a moth; every man is just air." [Selah] 12 Hear my prayer, Jehovah, and give ear to my cry;
    do not be deaf to my sobs;

- For I am a visitor with you and a tenant, like all my fathers.
- 13 Take your eyes off me and let me brighten up before I go away and am gone.

PSALM 40

(Of the Director; of David's; a psalm.)

- 1 I rested my hope in Jehovah and he bent toward me and heard my cry
- 2 And took me up out of a pit of ruin, out of quagmire mud,
And set my feet to stand erect on a crag, made my tread sure,
- 3 And put in my mouth a new song, praise to our God;
Many will see and fear and rest secure in Jehovah.
- 4 Happy the man who has made Jehovah his reliance and not turned toward pretenders and lie-peddlers.
- 5 Many are your wonders that you, Jehovah my God, have done,
And your conceptions for us cannot be listed for you; Would I state and recite them, they are beyond telling the story.
- 6 Sacrifice and grain-offering you did not care for;
ears you gave me.
Burnt-offering and sin-offering you did not ask;
- 7 Then I said "Here I come,
I have my instructions in a book."
- 8 I mean to do your pleasure, my God, and I have your instructions in my bosom.
- 9 I have told the news of right-doing in a great assembly;
Here, I do not lock up my lips, Jehovah, you know.
- 10 I have not covered up your right-doing inside my heart;
I have told your faithfulness and your salvation;
I have not concealed your friendship and loyalty in a great assembly.
- 11 And you, Jehovah, will not lock up your sympathy from me;
Your friendship and loyalty will keep me always.
- 12 For evils have enveloped me beyond measure, my misdeeds have overtaken me and I cannot see,

- There are more of them than of hairs on my head, and my heart has left me.
- 13 Be pleased to deliver me, Jehovah;
Jehovah, hasten to my help.
- 14 Let those be disappointed and abashed together who are looking for my life to sweep it away; Let those fall back and be humiliated who would like harm for me.
- 15 Let those stand aghast as they look back on their disappointment who are saying "Oho, oho!"
- 16 Let all who go in quest of you
be joyous and merry in you;
Let those who love your salvation say all the time "Jehovah is showing himself great!"
- 17 And me, insignificant and needy, may the Lord have me in mind;
You are my help and deliverer;
my God, do not delay.

PSALM 41

(Of the Director; a psalm of David's.)

- 1 Happy is one who acts considerately toward a poor man:
on a day of disaster Jehovah will see him through.
- 2 Jehovah will guard him and give him life;
he shall run a happy course in the country;
do not give him up to the will of his enemies.
- 3 Jehovah will uphold him on his invalid couch;
you make all his bed in his sickness.
- 4 Say I, Be gracious to me, Jehovah; heal my soul, because I have sinned against you.
- 5 My enemies say bad words for me,
"how soon will he die and his name perish?"
- 6 And if one comes to see, his heart is talking untoward things;
he accumulates villainy, goes out on the street and talks.
- 7 All who hate me are whispering over me together, planning over me a mischief for me:
- 8 "His bale is washing over him, and from where he has lain down he will never get up."
- 9 Even the man I was on the best terms with, in whom I had confidence, who ate my bread, has tricked me grossly.
- 10 Do you, Jehovah, be gracious to me and set me on my feet, and I will pay them back.
- 11 By this I know you hold me dear, that my enemies do not hurrah over me.
- 12 And me you hold up in my integrity and have me standing before you forever.

- 13 Blessed be Israel's God Jehovah from all eternity to all eternity.
Amen and amen.

PSALM 42

(Of the Director; meditative; of the sons of Korah.)

- 1 Like a deer that stretches toward glens of water, so, God, my soul stretches toward you.
- 2 My soul is thirsty for God, for living Deity;
how soon shall I go in and see God's face?
- 3 I had my tears for bread day and night at the saying to me all the time "Where is your God?"
- 4 These things I remember, and pour out my soul at the recollection, how at the Feast of Booths I went skipping along to God's house with voices of caroling and thanksgiving, a festal host.
- 5 Wherefore are you downhearted, my soul, and in a turmoil over my fate?
wait for God, for I shall again give thanks to him,
my open savior and my God.
- 6 Over my fate my soul is downhearted; therefore I will remember you from the land of Jordan and the Hermons, from Mount Misghar.
- 7 Deep calls to deep in the noise of your flumes;
all your breakers and surges have gone over me.
- 8 By day I shout "Jehovah ordain his friendliness," and in the night I sing by myself a prayer to the God of my life;
- 9 I say to God my rock "Why have you forgotten me?
why do I go in black for oppression by an enemy?"
- 10 For murder in my bones,—my foes taunt me,— for their saying to me all the time "Where is your god?"
- 11 Wherefore are you downhearted, my soul, and wherefore in a turmoil over my fate?
wait for God, for I shall again give thanks to him,
my open savior and my God.

PSALM 43

- 1 Do justice for me, God, and vindicate my rights from an ungodly nation,
from men of fraud and foul play bring me to safety,
- 2 Because you are my citadel-God; why have you repudiated me?
why do I go in black for oppression by an enemy?
- 3 Send your light and your loyal help; let those lead me on,
let them bring me to your sacred mountain and to your abode,
- 4 And let me go in to God's altar, the God of my glad jubilation, and I will thank you with a lyre, God, my God.

- 5 Wherefore are you downhearted, my soul, and wherefore in a turmoil over my fate?
wait for God, for I shall again give thanks to him,
my open savior and my God.

PSALM 44

(Of the Director; of the sons of Korah; meditative.)

- 1 God, we have heard with our ears, our fathers have told us the story,
Of work you did in their days, in the days of old.
- 2 You with your own hand dispossessed nations and planted them, broke down many a folk and gave them free play.
- 3 For it was not by their swords that they got possession of a country, nor was it their arm that saved them, But your right hand and your arm and the light of your face because you took them into favor.
- 4 You are my king, my God, the ordainer of Jacob's salvations,
- 5 By you we gore our foes, by your name we tread down our adversaries;
- 6 For not in my bow will I put confidence, and my sword shall not save me,
- 7 But you have saved us from our foes and disappointed those who hated us.
- 8 Of God we boast all day and thankfully acknowledge your name forever. (Selah)
- 9 And you have repudiated and humiliated us, you do not go out on our campaigns,
- 10 You turn us back from a foe, and our haters have their pillaging.
- 11 You make us like sheep to be eaten and you have scattered us among the nations.
- 12 You sell your people for no great riches and do not charge a high price for them.
- 13 You make us the butt of our neighbors' taunts,
of the quips and gibes of those who live around us;
- 14 You make us a byword among the nations, a thing that they shake their heads at in every folk.
- 15 All day I face my humiliation and the consciousness of shame covers me
- 16 At the voices of taunter and vituperator, at the faces of enemy and avenger.
- 17 All this has come to us, and we have not forgotten you nor been false to your covenant,
- 18 Our hearts have not shrunk back

- nor our steps swerved from your path, 19 That you have felled us in a place of jackals and covered us over with gloom.
20 If we had forgotten the name of our God and spread out our hands to a strange God, 21 Would not God look into this?
for he knows the secrets of hearts.
22 But it is on your account we have been killed all day, thought of like slaughtering sheep.
23 Rouse up! why are you sleeping, Lord?
wake up! do not repudiate us permanently!
24 Why do you veil your face, forget our wretched and oppressed condition?
25 For our souls are down to the earth, our bodies flattened on the ground.
26 Stand up for our help, and redeem us for your friendship's sake!

PSALM 45

(Of the Director; to "Lilies"; of the sons of Korah; meditative; a love song.)

- 1 My heart is busy on a good topic, I am saying my verses for the king;
my tongue is a quick writer's pen.
2 Superb are you beyond mankind; charm is poured over your lips;
therefore God has blessed you forever.
3 Belt your sword to your side, champion, your majesty and your splendor.
4 Ride successfully in the cause of truth, modesty, right, and let your right hand give you terrible instructions.
5 Your arrows are keen;
peoples fall under you;
the king's enemies are frayed to rags.
6 God is your throne forever and evermore;
the scepter of your kingdom is a scepter of equity.
7 You love right and hate wrong; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with more of the oil of rejoicing than your compeers.
8 Your garments are all myrrh and eaglewood and cassia;
out of ivory palaces sounding strings gladden you.
9 A daughter of kings stands forth in your costly adornments, at your right hand a queen in fine gold from Ophir.
10 Hear, daughter, and see, and bend your ear, and forget your people and your family, 11 And have the king desire your beauty;
for he is your lord;

- 12 And the daughter of Tyre shall do reverence to you, the rich men of a people shall bring presents to propitiate you.
- 13 A king's daughter all glorious, her dress coral in filigree of gold,
- 14 Is conducted to the king with dances, maidens behind her, her companions, brought to you;
- 15 They are conducted with gladness and glee, they enter the royal palace.
- 16 In place of your fathers shall be your sons.
You shall set them as viceroys all through the earth
- 17 I will make your name to be remembered in every succeeding generation;
therefore peoples shall praise you forever and evermore.

PSALM 46

(Of the Director; of the sons of Korah; in falsetto voices. A song.)

- 1 God is to us refuge and strength, a most accessible help in distress.
- 2 Therefore we will not be afraid when earth changes and mountains rock in the heart of the sea,
- 3 Its water roars and foams, mountains shake with its fury. (Selah)
- 4 A river's channels gladden the city of God, holiest of dwelling-places of the Most High.
- 5 She has God within her; she will not rock;
God will help her before the night is over.
- 6 Nations were in uproar, kingdoms rocked;
he has sounded his voice, earth goes back and forth;
- 7 Jehovah of Armies is with us;
we have Jacob's God as our fastness. (Selah)
- 8 Come, view Jehovah's doings, the awful work he has wrought on earth,
- 9 Silencing wars to the earth's end, breaking bows and unheading spears, burning up carriages:
- 10 "Forbear, and know that I am God;
I am seated on high among the nations, on high in the earth."
- 11 Jehovah of Armies is with us;
we have Jacob's God as our fastness. (Selah)

PSALM 47

(Of the Director; of the sons of Korah; a psalm.)

- 1 All peoples, clap your hands!
shout for God with voice of cheer,
- 2 Because Jehovah is a terrible one on high,
a great king over all the earth!

- 3 He brings peoples down under us, many a folk under our feet; 4 He chooses our estate for us, the pride of Jacob whom he loves. (Selah) 5 God has come up with cheering, Jehovah with sound of ram-horn.
 6 Make music to God, make music!
 make music for our King, make music!
 7 For king of all the earth is God; make well-considered music!
 8 God reigns over nations, God is seated on his hallowed throne.
 9 Nobles of peoples have come together, the people of the God of Abraham, Because the shields of earth belong to God;
 high indeed is he.

PSALM 48

(A song, a psalm. Of the sons of Korah.)

- 1 Great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised in our God's city, his sacred mountain.
 2 Beautiful on its crest, the joy of all the earth, is Mount Zion, deep in the north,
 town of the Great King.
 3 In her palaces God has made himself known as a fastness.
 4 For the kings had held their rendezvous, had come over together—5 Just as they saw it they found themselves in bewilderment, in consternation, in haste of flight.
 6 Quaking had seized upon them, pangs as if of a childbearing woman.
 7 With east wind you shatter Spain-ships.
 8 As we had heard, so we have seen in the city of Jehovah of Armies, the city of our God; God makes her firm forever. (Selah) 9 Within your temple, God, we respond to your friendship.
 10 As is your name, God, so is your praise to the ends of the earth;
 your right hand is full of right-doing.
 11 Let Mount Zion be glad, let the daughters of Judah be gay, for your deeds of justice.
 12 Go round Zion, make the circuit of her, 13 Take notice of her bulwark, survey her palaces,

- in order that you may tell the story to an after generation.
14 For this is God, our God; forever and evermore he will lead us on.

PSALM 49

(In falsetto voices; of the Director; of the sons of Korah; a psalm.)

- 1 Hear this, all peoples, give ear, all dwellers here below, 2 Humankind and sons of men, together rich and poor.
3 My mouth shall speak wisdom and the thought of my heart shall be reason.
4 I will bend my ear to aphorism, will expound a problem with the lyre.
5 Why must I be afraid in days of evil, with the knavery of my underminers all round me, 6 Who are confident in their fortunes and boast of the greatness of their wealth?
7 Only not a man will buy himself off, will give God his composition-money—8 The ransom of their lives is too high, and they let it go forever—9 That one should live on to perpetuity, not see the Pit.
10 For see it he will. Wise men will die, rattlehead and blockhead will perish as well, and leave their fortunes to others.
11 Their graves are their houses forever, their dwellings for generation after generation.
They have named lands after themselves, 12 but man is not in honor through the night;
He is on a level with the cattle—
all is over with them.
13 This course of theirs is a foolishness that they have;
and after them they run, going by their utterances. (Selah) 14 Like sheep they are brought down to the world below, death shepherding them,
And upright men shall tread over them in the morning and their forms are to waste away, having the world below for dwelling.
15 Yet God will ransom my soul out of the hands of the world below when it takes me. (Selah) 16 Do not be afraid when a man grows rich, when the assets of his house grow large; 17 For he will not at his death take it all along, his assets will not follow him down.

- 18 Though he blesses himself in his life,
 "they will praise you because you have done well by yourself,"
- 19 His soul will go in to be with the generations of his fathers who eternally do not see light.
- 20 Man in honor, without being conscious of it, is on a level with the cattle—
 all is over with them.

PSALM 50

(A psalm of Asaph's.)

- 1 Deity, God, Jehovah has spoken and called earth from sunrise land to sunset.
- 2 Out of Sion, perfection of beauty, God has beamed.
- 3 Our God shall come and not be silent, Fire consuming before him and utmost tempest surrounding him,
- 4 Calling to the skies above and to the earth to pronounce the verdict for his people,
- 5 "Bring together to me the men of my friendship, those who have entered into covenant with me over a sacrifice,"
- 6 That the skies may report his right-doing, that he is a judging God. (Selah)
- 7 "Listen, my people, and I will speak, Israel, and I will testify to you:
 I am God, your God.
- 8 I will not reprove you over your sacrifices, and I have your burnt-offerings constantly before me;
- 9 I will not take a steer out of your house nor he-goats out of your pens,
- 10 For all the wild things of the bush belong to me, beasts on mountains where thousands dwell.
- 11 I know all birds of the mountains and have in my mind the insects of the fields.
- 12 If I should grow hungry I would not tell you, because I have the world and all that fills it.
- 13 Am I to eat bulls' flesh and drink he-goats' blood?
- 14 Make thanksgiving your sacrifice to God and make good your vows to the Most High,
- 15 And call on me in a day of distress;
 I will rescue you and you shall glorify me.
- 16 What business of yours is it to tell off my usages and take my covenant into your mouth
- 17 When yourself you hate lessons

- and throw my words behind you, 18 If you see a thief you say amen to him and you are participant with adulterers, 19 You have put your mouth to vicious use and your tongue is hitching up fraud, 20 You sit talking about your brother, defaming your mother's son?
 21 These things you have done, and was I to keep silence?
 You imagined I was positively like you;
 I will arraign you and bring on the evidence before your eyes.
 22 Understand this, forgetters of God, for fear I should make a pounce from which nobody would deliver you:
 23 He who makes thanksgiving his sacrifice is paying me honor, and to him who holds to his course I will give the sight of God's salvation."

PSALM 51

(Of the Director. A psalm of David's, when the prophet Nathan came to Mm after he had gone in to Bath-Sheba'.)

- 1 Be gracious to me, God, in accordance with your friendliness; in accordance with your great tenderness, cancel my crime; 2 Wash my guilt thoroughly out of me and make me clean from my sin.
 3 For I am conscious of my crime and have my sin always facing me.
 4 Against you alone I sinned and did what you found bad, In order that you should be in the right when you speak and be irreproachable when you judge.
 5 It was in guilt I was brought to birth, and in sin my mother received the seed for me.
 6 Ah, you wish for truth in what is mistiest, will open to me insight in what is unapparent, 7 Will take off my sin with marjoram and have me clean, wash me out and have me come whiter than snow, 8 Set me to hearing joy and gladness;
 let the bones you battered be gleeful.
 9 Veil your face from my sins and wipe out all my guilts.
 10 Create a clean heart for me, God, and put a new-resolved spirit within me.
 11 Do not throw me out from your presence and do not take your holy spirit from me.
 12 Give me back the joy of your salvation and let a ready spirit uphold me.

- 13 I will teach rebels your ways, and sinners shall come back to you.
- 14 Deliver me from the stain of blood, God, God of my salvation;
my tongue shall carol your right-doing.
- 15 Lord, open my lips and my mouth shall tell your praise.
- 16 For you do not wish a sacrifice that I should give;
you would not welcome a burnt-offering.
- 17 God's sacrifices are a broken spirit;
a heart broken and battered down, O God, you will not despise.
- 18 Do good to Sion in your kindness;
let Jerusalem's walls be built.
- 19 Then you shall be pleased with rightful sacrifices, burnt-offering and offering entire;
then they shall burn steers on your altar.

PSALM 52

(Of the Director; meditative. Of David's, when Doeg the Edomite came in and reported to Saul "David went into Ahimelec's house.")

- 1 Why boast in evil, ruffian?
Deity's friendship lasts all day.
- 2 You plan catastrophes; your tongue is like a whetted razor, playing false.
- 3 You prefer evil to good, falsehood to right speaking. (Selah)
- 4 You love all quibbling words, a cheating tongue.
- 5 The Deity on his part will break you down for good, scoop you up and tear you out of home and your root out of the land of living men. (Selah)
- 6 And honest men shall see and fear and laugh over him:
- 7 "There is the man that was not making God his citadel but had put his confidence in the greatness of his riches, was mighty by his capital."
- 8 But I am like a verdant olive-tree in God's house;
I have put my confidence in God's friendship forever and aye.
- 9 I will thank you forever, because you acted, and hope in your name, because it is good,
in the presence of the men of your friendship.

PSALM 53

(Of the Director; to "Mahalath"; meditative, of David's.)

- 1 A rascal has said to himself
"There is no God."
They behave viciously, abominably;
there is nobody that does what is good.

- 2 God looked from the heavens upon mankind
to see if there was a canny man,
one that looked to God:
- 3 The whole lot had drawn off together, had degenerated,
there was nobody that did what was good, not a single one.
- 4 Do all who perpetrate villainy not know?
those who eat up my people eat bread, never call on God,—
- 5 There they are seized with terror,
because God breaks up an ungodly man's plan;
You shall put them to shame,
because God has repudiated them.
- 6 O for Israel's salvation coming from Sion!
When God comes back to his people
Jacob will jubilate, Israel make merry.

PSALM 54

(Of the Director; with string accompaniment; meditative; of David's, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul "David is keeping himself concealed in our country.")

- 1 Save me, God, by your name, affirm my right by your feats;
- 2 Hear, God, my prayer, give ear to the words of my mouth;
- 3 For high-handed men have stood up against me and overbearing men are looking for my life, have not set God before them. (Selah)
- 4 Here I have God to help me;
the Lord is a bearer-up of my soul.
- 5 Let evil come back upon my ill-wishers;
in your faithfulness annihilate them:
- 6 I will sacrifice to you without limit, will give thanks to your name, Jehovah, because it is good,
- 7 Because you have delivered me out of all distress and my eye has looked on at the fate of my enemies.

PSALM 55

(Of the Director; with string accompaniment; meditative; of David's.)

- 1 Give ear to my prayer, God, and do not disregard my petition.
- 2 Listen to me and answer me:
I range about in my anxiety and am perturbed
- 3 At an enemy's voice, at a wrong-doer's growl, Because they are launching villainy against me and pursuing an angry grudge against me.
- 4 My heart is convulsed within me and terrors of death have fallen upon me,
- 5 Fear and quaking come into me and a cold sweat has covered me, 6 And I think "If only I had wings like a dove!

     I would fly off, would light, 7 Here I would flit far away, would be in the wilderness for the night, (Selah) 8 Would make haste to some retreat from driving wind, from tempest." 9 Make a sweep, Lord! divide their tongues, because I have seen outrage and feud in the city, 10 By day and by night going round it on its walls, and villainy and mischief are within it.
 11 It has malignity within it, and extortion and fraud never budge out of its square.
 12 For it is not an enemy that insults me;
     I would bear it;
     It was not my hater that swaggered against me;
     I would veil my face from him; 13 But you, a man in my own class, my comrade and my intimate—14 We that used to have delightful intercourse, to consort together at the house of God.
 15 May death crash down on them!
     may they go down alive to the world below!
     for they had evil in their lockers, in their breasts.
 16 For me, I will call to God and Jehovah will save me.
 17 Evening and morning and noon
     I will grieve and plead that he may hear my voice.
 18 He has brought off my life safe and sound from those who were in ambush for me, near as they were to me.
 19 Deity will hear and he who is enthroned of old will tame them, (Selah) Those for whom there are no changes and who do not fear God.
 20 He has put out his hand against those who were at peace with him, profaned his covenant.
 21 His face was smoother than clabber, but his heart was war;
     His words were softer than oil, but drawn swords were they.
 22 Throw your affairs on Jehovah and He will provide for you; forever he will not let the honest man give way.
 23 And you, God, will send them down to the abysmal pit; cutthroats and cheats will not live half their time, but I rest confident in you.

PSALM 56

(Of the Director; to "Dove of Far-Off Oaks"; of David's, a mictam when the Philistines took him in Gath.)

- 1 Show me grace, God, because man is snapping his jaws at me;
all day a battler is crowding me back.
- 2 My ill-wishers are snapping their jaws all day because many are battling me bitterly.
- 3 On the day that I am afraid I will put confidence in you,
- 4 in God I will praise his word.
In God I rest confident; I will not be afraid;
what shall mortals do to me?
- 5 All day they talk torment, their thoughts are about me for harm;
- 6 They start quarrels, hide traps, watch my heels as they hope to get my life.
- 7 Because of their villainy there is no escape for them;
in anger bring down peoples, God.
- 8 You have counted my writhings;
my tears are placed in your bag.
- 9 Then, on the day when I call, my enemies will turn backward again;
this I know, that I have a God.
- 10 In God I will praise his word;
in Jehovah I will praise his word.
- 11 In God I rest confident; I will not be afraid;
what shall man do to me?
- 12 I owe you what I have vowed, God;
I will pay you thank-offerings,
- 13 Because you have delivered my soul from death, to walk before God in the light of the living.

PSALM 57

(Of the Director; "Do Not Spoil"; of David's, a mictam, when he was in flight from Saul in the cave.)

- 1 Be gracious to me, God, be gracious to me, because my soul has taken refuge in you,
And in the shadow of your wings I will take refuge till catastrophes pass by.
- 2 I will cry to God on high,
to a Deity who carries through what concerns me;
- 3 He will send from heaven and save me from the hands of those who are panting after my life. (Selah)
- 4 In the midst of lions I will lie down, such as flash at human beings;
Their teeth are spears and arrows and their tongues sharp swords.
- 5 Abide aloft, God, above the sky,

- your glory above all the earth.
- 6 They got a net ready for my steps—their own foot was caught.
 They dug a pitfall before me—they fell squarely into it.
- 7 My heart is firm, God, my heart is firm;
 I will sing and make music.
- 8 Wake, my glory! wake, harp and lyre!
 I will wake the dawn.
- 9 I will give you thanks among the nations, Lord,
 I will make music among many a folk,
- 10 Because your friendliness is great to the skies
 and your loyalty to the uppermost air.
- 11 Abide aloft, God, above the sky,
 your glory above all the earth.

[Selah]

PSALM 53

(Of the Director; "Do Not Spoil"; of David's, a mictam.)

- 1 Do you indeed, notables, speak right, judge even-handedly the sons of men?
- 2 Nay, at heart you practice foul play, in the country your hands aim for outrage.
- 3 Tyrants are congenital perverts; Falsifiers have gone wrong ever since they came out of their mother's bodies.
- 4 The venom they have is the counterpart of a snake's venom;
 like a deaf viper that plugs its ear,
- 5 That will not listen to the voice of charmers, of wisest sorcerer.
- 6 God, demolish their teeth in their mouths!
 break down young lions' fangs, Jehovah!
- 7 Let them dissolve like water running down a slope;
 like dead grass let them be mowed—
- 8 Like a slug that melts off as it goes along, an abortion that has not looked upon the sun.
- 9 Let their shoots dry out and be cut off like thornbushes, like briars, like weed-stalks, be blown away.
- 10 Let a right-doer be glad because he has looked upon vengeance, let him bathe his feet in the wrong-doer's blood,
- 11 That mankind may say "O, but the right-doer does get fruit; O, but there are gods that judge on earth."

PSALM 59

(Of the Director; "Do Not Spoil"; of David's, a mictam, when Saul sent and they were watching the house to put him to death.)

- 1 Deliver me from my enemies, my God,

- set me out of reach of my adversaries;
- 2 Deliver me from villains;
save me from ruffians.
- 3 For here they have laid in ambush for my life, powerful men are starting quarrels against me,
Not for crime of mine or sin of mine, Jehovah;
- 4 without guilt of mine they are running and making ready.
Rouse up to come to me, and see!—
- 5 and you are Jehovah God, Armies, the God of Israel.
Wake up to deal with all the nations; show no favor to any treacherous villains. (Selah)
- 6 They come back at evening, growl like dogs,
go round the city.
- 7 Here they are pattering with their mouths, with swords on their lips, for who is hearing?
- 8 But you, Jehovah, will laugh at them, will deride all nations.
- 9 My strength, toward you I watch,
because God is my fastness.
- 10 My God will bring on to me his friendliness; God will let me see the fate of my ill-wishers.
- 11 Do not kill them, for fear my people should forget:
drive them by your forces to roving and roaming back and forth.
- 12 Hand them over, Lord, to the sins of their mouths, the word of their lips; and let them be taken in their pride;
And for cursing and falsehood which they speak
- 13 finish them in ire, finish and let there be nothing of them, And let them find out that God is ruler in Jacob for the ends of the earth. (Selah)
- 14 And they come back at evening,
growl like dogs,
go round the city.
- 15 As for them, they rove back and forth to eat, if they do not get their fill they grumble.
- 16 But as for me, I sing your might, carol your friendship when morning comes,
Because you have been a fastness to me, a place to flee to on a day when I was in distress.
- 17 My strength, to you I make music,
because God is my fastness,
my God of friendship.

PSALM 60

(Of the Director; to "Lily of Witness"; a mictam of David's, to teach; in Ms struggle with the Syrians of Mesopotamia and of Sobah, when Joab came back and defeated the Edomites in Salt Valley, killing twelve thousand.)

- 1 You have repudiated us, God, broken us through;
you were angry; you should restore us.
- 2 You have shaken earth, cracked it open;
heal its breaks, for it is giving way.
- 3 You have shown your people a hard sight, have given us a staggering drink of wine.
- 4 You have given those who fear you a standard to rally in the face of bows. (Selah)
- 5 So that your darlings may be delivered hold out your right hand and answer us.
- 6 God spoke in his sanctuary:
"I will triumph, will divide Shekem,
will measure off Succoth Vale;
- 7 Gilead is mine and Manasseh is mine,
and Ephraim is the keep of my head;
Judah is my baton.
- 8 Moab is my bathtub,
on Edom I throw my sandal,
over Philistia are my hurrahs."
- 9 Who will bring me to a city for a siege?
who has led me through to Edom?
- 10 Have not you, God, repudiated us?
and you do not go out, God, in our campaigns.
- 11 Give us help from a foe—
human salvation is futile.
- 12 Through God we shall play a sturdy part,
and he himself will trample down our foes.

PSALM 61

(Of the Director; with string accompaniment; of David's.)

- 1 Hear my appeal, God, listen to my prayer.
- 2 From the earth's end to you I call when my heart is fainting away;
you will set me on a rock too lofty for me to climb,
- 3 Because you have been a refuge to me, a tower of shelter before an enemy.
- 4 I will find a home in your tent eternally, will take refuge under the screen of your wings. (Selah)
- 5 For you, God, have heard my vows, have granted the request of those who fear your name.
- 6 You will add time to the king's time;
his years shall be like generation upon generation;

- 7 He shall be enthroned forever before God;
set friendship and loyalty to keep him.
8 Thus I will make music to your name for aye, paying my vows day by day.

PSALM 62

{Of the Director over Jeduthun; a psalm of David's.}

- 1 My soul is attentive just to God;
from him my salvation comes.
2 He, just he, is my rock and my salvation, my fastness; I shall not be greatly stirred.
3 How long will you be bullying a man, murdering?
all of you are like a wall out of plumb, a fence knocked in.
4 They are just planning to knock off from his dignity; they take satisfaction in lying;
With their mouths they bless and inwardly they are cursing. (Selah) 5 Be attentive just to God, my soul, because from him my hope comes.
6 He, just he, is my rock and my salvation, my fastness; I shall not be stirred.
7 On God rest my salvation and my glory;
my citadel rock, my refuge, is in God.
8 Trust to him every time, people, pour out your hearts before him;
God is a refuge for us. (Selah) 9 Human beings are just air, sons of man a lie; they are quicker to fly up in the balance together than a whiff of air.
10 Do not rely on sponging nor build air-castles on stolen goods; when wealth is fruitful do not be impressed.
11 One thing God has spoken, two that I have heard, 12 That strength is God's, and yours, Lord, is friendship; that you will repay each man in accordance with his deeds.

PSALM 63

(A psalm, of David's when he was in the wilderness of Judah.)

- 1 God, you are my Deity;
I go in quest of you;
My soul thirsts for you, my flesh faints for you, like a drougthy and thirsty country without water.
2 Thus have I sought for the vision of you, to see your power and glory, 3 Because your friendship is better than life;
my lips shall praise you.
4 Thus I will bless you while I live, will raise my hands in your name.

- 5 My soul will have its fill as if of fat and dripping, and my mouth shall give praise with caroling lips.
- 6 If I remember you on my couch, in the hours of night I muse on you.
- 7 For you have been a help to me and in the shadow of your wings I carol.
- 8 My soul keeps close behind you because your right hand holds me fast.
- 9 But they, they accomplish nothing by hunting for my life;
they shall go into the lowest depths of the earth,
- 10 Shall be laid low by the sword, shall be the portion of foxes.
- 11 And the king, he will rejoice in Jehovah, everyone who swears by him shall boast, because those who are speaking falsely will be gagged.

PSALM 64

(Of the Director; a psalm of David's.)

- 1 God, hear my voice in my anxiety;
you are to protect me from the dread of an enemy,
- 2 To screen me from a coterie of malefactors, from an aggregation of villains,
- 3 Who have sharpened their tongues like swords, have drawn their arrows, bitter matter,
- 4 To shoot from behind a blind at a steady man, shoot him suddenly and not be seen,
- 5 Strengthen their position in a bad business, recite directions for hiding traps;
They say "who sees them, 6 searches out their foul play?"
But the searching of them is done, each man's bosom is searched, and a deep heart,
- 7 And God shoots an arrow at them, suddenly come their wounds,
- 8 And they make him stumble;
against them is their tongue;
Everybody that has the sight of them will make off, 9 and all mankind be aghast And report God's doing and be enlightened as to his work.
- 10 A right-doer will rejoice in Jehovah and take refuge in him, and all who are of straightforward heart will boast.

PSALM 65

(Of the Director; a psalm of David's; a song.)

- 1 Praise responds to you, God, in Sion, 2 and to you vows have to be made good, Hearer of prayer.

- 3 To you all mortals shall bring matters of guilt;
our crimes are too much for me—you will purge them.
- 4 Happy he whom you choose and bring near to be an inmate of your courts;
we shall feed full upon the good things of your house, the sacred things of your sanctuary.
- 5 Terrible answers will you in fair dealing give us, God of our salvation, reliance of all ends of earth and of distant coasts,
- 6 Planter of mountains by your strength, belted with sturdiness,
- 7 Stiller of the roar of seas, the booming of their waves,
- 8 At whose tokens the inhabitants of farthest ends are afraid, who set the portals of morning and evening to jubilating.
- 9 You look after the earth and make it teem, give it great riches;
God's canal is full of water;
you provide their grain when duly you have prepared the earth.
- 10 Drenching its furrows, washing down its ridges, you churn it up with showers, you bless its sprouting.
- 11 You have put the crown on your year of goodness, and your tracks drip fat.
- 12 Wilderness pastures drip and hills put on a girdle of glee,
- 13 Uplands robe themselves with the sheep and vales drape themselves with grain; they triumph, yes, they sing.

PSALM 66

(Of the Director; a song; a psalm.)

- 1 Shout for God, all the earth!
- 2 Make music for the glory of his name;
make his praise a glory.
- 3 Say of God "What a fearful thing are your works!
at the greatness of your might your enemies cringe to you.
- 4 All the earth shall do reverence to you and make music for you, make music for your fame." (Selah)
- 5 Come and see God's doings;
he is fearful in action over humankind.
- 6 He turned a sea to dry land—they were to cross the channel on foot; there let us make merry in him!
- 7 He rules eternally by his might;
his eyes look out among the nations; let the stubborn not set themselves up aloft. (Selah)
- 8 Bless our God, peoples,

- make the sound of his praise heard, 9 Him who has put our souls into life and has not yielded our feet to totter.
10 For you have assayed us, God, smelted us as silver is smelted, 11 Brought us into the toils, put a cinch round our waists, 12 Mounted men on our heads, we came into fire and water—and you brought us out to comfort.
13 I will come into your house with burnt-offerings, will make good my vows to you, 14 Which my lips uttered and my mouth spoke when I was in distress.
15 Burnt-offerings of fat tugs I will offer you, with smoke of rams;
I will do steers with goats. (Selah) 16 Come, listen, and I will tell the story, all you who fear God,
of what he did for me.
17 I called to him with my mouth, while acclamation waited under my tongue.
18 I said to my own self "My Lord will not hear me"; 19 But God did hear me, listened for the sound of my prayer.
20 Blessed be God, who did not put aside my prayer nor his friendship from me.

PSALM 67

(Of the Director; with string accompaniment; a psalm; a song.)

- 1 God be gracious to us and bless us, show a shining face among us, (Selah) 2 That your course may be known in the earth, your salvation among all the nations.
3 Let peoples praise you, God,
let peoples all praise you.
4 Let many a folk be glad and shout because you judge peoples fairly and guide many a folk on the earth. (Selah) 5 Let peoples praise you, God,
let peoples all praise you.
6 Earth has given its growth;
God, our God, blesses us.

- 7 God blesses us,
and let all the ends of earth fear him.

PSALM 68

(Of the Director; of David's; a psalm; a song.)

- 1 Let God stand up, let his enemies scatter, and let those who hate him take flight before him.
- 2 As wind-driven smoke drives off, as wax melts before a fire, let wrong-doers perish before God,
- 3 But right-doers make merry, exult before God, and rejoice merrily.
- 4 Sing for God, make music for his name;
lay a road for him who rides on the clouds;
make merry in Jehovah and exult before him.
- 5 Father of orphans, champion of widows' causes, is God in his hallowed dwelling.
- 6 God establishes isolated men in households, brings prisoners out hardily—only stubborn men lodge on bare rocks.
- 7 God, when you came out before your people, when you paced forth in desert land, [Selah]
- 8 The earth quaked; aye, the heavens dripped before God,—this is Sinai,— before God, Israel's God.
- 9 Showers of generosity you swing, God;
your estate, it was fatigued; you brought it into condition.
- 10 Your animals lived in it;
you provide in your kindness for the destitute one, God.
- 11 The Lord gives word;
the women that carry the news are a great host:
- 12 "Kings of hosts take flight, take flight, and housemates divide booty"—
- 13 "If you lie in the forks of the paths"—
"A dove's wings coated with silver and its pinions with gold leaf"—
- 14 "By Shaddai's breaking kings in it let it snow in the Black Forest."
- 15 A highland of God is the Bashan highland;
a rugged highland is the Bashan highland.
- 16 Why should you look with menacing eye, rugged highlands, at the highland God desired to occupy, and Jehovah will, too, dwell there forevermore?
- 17 God's chariots are twenty thousand, thousands thousandfold;
the Lord has come from Sinai into the sanctuary.

- 18 You have gone up on high, have brought a train of captives, have received human gifts, and even sinful men are to be neighbors of Jehovah God.
- 19 Blessed be the Lord, who day by day takes our load;
the Deity is our salvation. (Selah)
- 20 The Deity is to us a deity for salvation, and Jehovah the Lord has ways out of death.
- 21 God does shatter the heads of his enemies, the thick-haired crown of one who goes around incurring guilt.
- 22 The Lord has said "Back from Bashan I will bring, bring back from the bottom of the sea, 23 So that your foot may be dyed in blood, your dogs' tongues may have their portion out of enemies."
- 24 They see your processions, God, the processions of my Deity, my King, in the sanctuary.
- 25 Singers go before, harpers behind, in the midst of young women sounding their tambourines.
- 26 Bless God in assembled throngs, the Lord out of Israel's meeting.
- 27 There is Benjamin the little in men, the captains of Judah the abundant in citizens, the captains of Zebulun, the captains of Naphtali.
- 28 Ordain your might, God;
be mighty, God, you who wrought for us
- 29 Out of your temple, in behalf of Jerusalem;
to you kings shall bring a tribute.
- 30 Rebuke reed-beasts, a company of bulls among calves of peoples, One who tramples on silver chips;
scatter peoples that take pleasure in battle.
- 31 They shall bring bronzes from Egypt; Nubia's hands shall speed them to God.
- 32 Kings of the earth, sing to God, make music for the Lord, (Selah)
- 33 Him who rides on the sky of the ancient sky;
lo, he sounds his voice with a tone of might.
- 34 Give might to God!
Over Israel is his pride, and his might is in the heavens;
- 35 Terrible is God out of his sanctuary; Israel's Deity is he, giver of might and multitude to the people.
Blessed be God!

(Of the Director; to "Lilies"; of David's.)

- 1 Save me, God—
I am drowning.

- 2 I am sunk in a quagmire of ooze with no standing-ground;
I have got into the deep places in the water, and the current sweeps me away.
- 3 I am exhausted with calling out; my throat is inflamed;
my eyes have given out with waiting for my God.
- 4 There are more of those who hate me for nothing than of hairs on my head;
those who are enemies to me on false pretexes are more numerous than my bones;
what I have not stolen I am then to give back.
- 5 God, you are aware of my follies, and my delinquencies are not unknown to you:
- 6 Let those who hope in you not be put to shame over me,
Jehovah of Armies,
Let those who seek for you not be humiliated over me, God of Israel,
- 7 For it is on your account I have borne insult, humiliation covers my face,
- 8 I have been made a stranger to my brothers, a foreigner to my mother's sons.
- 9 For jealousy for your house has eaten me up, and the insults of those who were insulting you fell on me;
- 10 And I mortified my flesh with fasting and it became ignominy to me,
- 11 And I made a sackcloth my clothing and became a byword of theirs;
- 12 Sitters in the gate made me their topic, and beer-drinkers made jingles about me.
- 13 But as for me, my prayer is to you;
let there now be acceptance, God, in your great friendliness;
answer me in your saving faithfulness.
- 14 Deliver me out of the mud and let me not sink in; let me be delivered from those who hate me and from deep holes in the water,
- 15 Let no current of water sweep me away,
no ooze swallow me,
no well close its mouth in upon me.
- 16 Answer me, Jehovah, because kind is your friendliness; turn toward me as the abundance of your sympathy would have you,
- 17 And do not veil your face from your servant;
because I am in distress, answer me quickly.
- 18 Be near my soul; stand its friend in need;
redeem me on account of my enemies.

- 19 You know my ignominy and shame and humiliation;
all my foemen are before your presence;
- 20 Insult has broken my heart, and my case is desperate,
And I hope for condolence and there is none, for comforters and do not find any,
- 21 But they have put bitter juice in the meal that was to cheer me up, and for my thirst they give me a drink of vinegar.
- 22 May their table become a trap for them, their welfare-feasts the bait on a trigger;
- 23 May their eyes be darkened out of seeing;
set their backs to suddenly giving way at any time;
- 24 Pour out your hostility over them, and may your anger overtake them;
- 25 May their camping-ground be desolate and may there be nobody to live in their tents.
- 26 Because they pursued those whom you had struck and added to the pain of those whom you had stabbed,
- 27 Put on guilt to their guilt and may they not have the benefit of your right-doing.
- 28 May they be erased from the book of life and not written down with honest men.
- 29 But I am in hardship and in pain;
may your salvation, God, set me out of reach of harm.
- 30 I will praise God's name in song and proclaim his greatness in thanksgiving,
- 31 And it will be better to Jehovah than a beast, a horned and hooped steer.
- 32 See, humble men, and be glad;
you who invoke God, and blithe be your hearts,
- 33 Because Jehovah is a hearer of needy men and does not disdain his prisoners.
- 34 Let sky and earth praise him, seas and everything that stirs in them,
- 35 Because God will save Sion, will rebuild the cities of Judah, and they shall live there and have possession of it,
- 36 And his servants' issue shall take it as their estate and those who love his name shall people it.

PSALM 70

(Of the Director; of David's; for the memorial.)

- 1 Be pleased to deliver me, God;
Jehovah, hasten to my help.
- 2 Let those be disappointed and abashed who are hunting after my life;

- Let those fall back and be humiliated
 who would like harm for me.
- 3 Let those stand aghast as they look back on their disappointment
 who are saying "Oho, oho!"
- 4 Let all who go in quest of you
 be joyous and merry in you;
 Let those who love your salvation say all the time "God is showing himself great!"
- 5 And me, insignificant and needy,
 make haste for me, God;
 You are my help and deliverer;
 my God, do not delay.

PSALM 71

- 1 In you, Jehovah, I take refuge;
 forever let me not be disappointed.
- 2 In your right-doing deliver me and bring me through;
 turn your ear toward me and save me.
- 3 Be a citadel rock for me,
 a fastness house to save me,
 because you are my cliff and fastness.
- 4 My God, bring me off out of a wrong-doer's hands, out of the clutch of an unscrupulous and unjust man.
- 5 For you are my hope, Lord; Jehovah has been my confidence from my childhood;
- 6 On you I have propped myself ever since my birth;
 it was you that severed me from my mother's body;
 for you is my constant praise.
- 7 I rate like a miracle for many,
 and you are my sheltering refuge.
- 8 My mouth shall be filled with your praise and your magnificence all day.
- 9 Do not throw me away at the time of old age, when my strength gives out do not abandon me,
- 10 For my enemies are saying of me and those who watch for my life are conferring together,
- 11 Saying "God has abandoned him; give chase and catch him, for there is nobody to deliver him."
- 12 God, do not be far off from me;
 my God, hasten to my help.
- 13 Let those who are adversaries to my life be disappointed, give out; let those who are looking for harm to me be wrapped in ignominy and humiliation.
- 14 But I will be always in expectation and be adding to all your praise;
- 15 My mouth shall tell the story of your right-doing

- and your salvation all day,
For I do not know books, 16 I am bringing the Lord Jehovah's exploits, I commemorate your right-doing, yours alone.
17 God, you have taught me since my childhood, and down to now I am telling your wonderful deeds; 18 And even to old age and gray hair, God, do not abandon me,
Till I tell of your arm to a generation that is coming.
19 Your might and your right-doing, God, are most high, Forasmuch as you have done great things.
God, who is like you?
20 You who have showed us distresses many and grievous will again bring us to life and again bring us up from the deeps of the earth.
21 Give me much greatness, comfort me more and more.
22 I on my part will give thanks to you, with a harp to your faithfulness, my God, Will make music for you with a lyre, Holy One of Israel.
23 My lips shall carol because I am making music for you, and my soul, which you have redeemed.
24 My tongue too all day shall deal with your right-doing, Because shamed are they, abashed are they,
who seek harm for me.

PSALM 72

(Of Solomon's.)

- 1 God, give a king your justice, a king's son your right-dealing!
- 2 He will give his verdicts to your people rightly and to your downtrodden justly.
- 3 Mountains shall carry peace for the people, and hills, by right.
- 4 He will do justice for downtrodden classes, will save sons of poverty, and will beat down a refuser of rights.
- 5 He shall last along with the sun, and before the moon for a cycle of generations.
- 6 He shall come down like rain on mowings, like showers drenching earth.
- 7 In his days right will flower and plentiful peace till there shall be no moon.

- 8 And he shall have the mastery from sea to sea and from the River to ends of earth.
9 Before him foes shall stoop and his enemies shall lick dust.
10 Kings of Spain and islands shall pay him tribute, kings of Sheba and Seba present gratuities, 11 And all kings shall do him reverence, all nations be subject to him.
12 For he shall deliver needy suppliant and downtrodden man and man whom none will help, 13 He shall have mercy on poor man and needy and save needy men's lives, 14 From extortion and outrage he shall protect their lives, and deem their blood worth his attention, 15 That he may live and may be given gold from Sheba and that they may pray for him continually, may bless him all the day, 16 There may be plenty of grain in the country, shaking on mountaintops,
His fruit may be like that of the Lebanon and the offspring of his body like the herbage of the earth.
17 Be his name forever, before the sun be his name set firm,
And may they bless by him, all nations proclaim his happiness!
- 18 Blessed be Jehovah God, Israel's God, who alone does wonders, 19 And blessed be his glorious name forever and be all the earth filled with his glory!
Amen and amen!

20 End of the prayers of David the son of Jesse.

PSALM 73

(A psalm of Asaph's.)

- 1 Assuredly the Deity is good to the upright man, God to the single-hearted.
2 But as for me, my feet were very near going wrong, my steps were at the point of slipping, 3 Because I was jealous at reckless men, seeing the welfare of wrong-doers, 4 That they are under no duress, their paunch is sound and plump.
5 They are not in the troubles of humanity and are not stricken with mankind.

6 So pride is their necklace, a drapery of enormities wraps them round, 7 Their complexion is clearer than milk, they surpass the imagery of fancy.
8 They crack jokes over bad things and refuse justice in most lofty terms.
9 They have set their mouth in the sky and their tongue walks about on earth.
10 So his people turns back to this, and they are humiliated at the fullness of them 11 And say "How can it be that Deity knows and there is knowledge on high?
12 Here these are wrong-doers and forever undisturbed, they aggrandize their fortunes.
13 It was just to no purpose that I kept my heart clean and washed my hands in innocence, 14 And I have been smitten all day and my chastisement comes every morning." 15 If I thought I would tell the story like that I should be faithless to the generation of your children.
16 And I studied to know about this;
I found it a trying task 17 Till I went into Deity's sanctuary, discerned their future:
18 You set their feet altogether in slippery places and bring them to their fall with blasting.
19 How they have become blighted wrecks in an instant, ended, totally gone in dissolution, 20 Like a dream that after waking is not there, at rousing you despise its images!
21 When my heart goes sour and I am pricked in my bosom, 22 I am brutish and do not know;
I am a beast to you.
23 But I am always with you;
you hold my right hand; 24 You will guide me on the line of your plan and afterward take me in glory.
25 Who is there for me in heaven?
and beside you I care for nothing on earth.
26 My muscles and my brain are giving out, but God is my portion forever.
27 For those who are far from you do perish, you annihilate those who leave you and find an unlawful mate, 28 But to me God's nearness is good;

I have made the Lord Jehovah my refuge, telling the story of all your workings.

PSALM 74

(Meditative; of Asaph's.)

- 1 Why do you permanently repudiate us, God, why is your anger at the sheep you tended so smoking hot?
- 2 Remember your congregation you acquired of old, claimed as the tribe of your estate,
The mountain of Sion on which you dwell,
- 3 which your footsteps have exalted to perpetual sublimity.
An enemy has done everything bad to the holy things.
- 4 Your foemen roared like wild beasts within your meeting-place, set their ensigns as signs.
- 5 It shows like one who brings axes in upward into a thicket of wood,
- 6 And now they are battering its carvings one and all with ax and crowbar.
- 7 They have set fire to your sanctuary, desecrated the abode of your name down to the ground.
- 8 They said to themselves "We will overbear them one and all, will burn all meeting-places for divine service in the country."
- 9 We have not seen our signs; there is no longer any prophet;
we have nobody with us who knows how far it will go.
- 10 How long, God, shall a foe offer insults?
Shall an enemy eternally treat your name with contempt?
- 11 Why do you draw back your hand and imprison your right hand in the fold of your robe?
- 12 But God is my King from of old, who does saving work in the midst of the earth.
- 13 It was you that by your might tore sea with convulsions and broke monsters' heads to pieces over the water;
- 14 It was you that splintered Leviathan's heads, giving him for food to the race of wildcats;
- 15 It was you that opened up spring and arroyo, it was you that dried out perennial rivers.
- 16 Yours is day, yours too is night;
it was you that installed heavenly orb and sun.
- 17 It was you that set all the boundaries of earth;
summer and winter it was you that framed.
- 18 Remember this; an enemy has been taunting Jehovah, an uncivilized people have treated your name with contempt.
- 19 Do not give up to wild beasts a soul that gives its thanks to you; do not permanently forget the life of your sufferers.
- 20 Look at your creatures filling with viciousness, for earth is the field of outrage.
- 21 Let a downtrodden man not come back humiliated;

- let a sufferer and a needy man praise your name.
- 22 Stand up, God, defend your rights!
remember the insults you have had from rascals all day!
- 23 Do not forget the voice of your foemen, the hubbub of those who are out against you, that goes up all the time!

PSALM 75

(Of the Director; "Do Not Spoil"; a psalm of Asaph's, a song.)

- 1 We thank you, God, we thank you and call on your name, tell the story of your wonders.
- 2 "When my day comes
I will judge evenhandedly.
- 3 Earth and all its inhabitants swing back and forth—
I make its pillars fast. (Selah)
- 4 I say to reckless men 'Do not be so reckless,' and to wrong-doers 'Do not carry your horns so loftily!'"
- 5 Do not carry your horns so very loftily, talking arrogance against the Rock;
- 6 For not from east nor from west nor yet from wilderness comes uplifting,
- 7 But God gives judgment, brings this one down and that one up.
- 8 For Jehovah has in his hand a cup with foaming wine full of strong spice, And he pours to this one and to that one;
they are to drain its very dregs, all earth's wrong-doers are to drink.
- 8 But I will exult forever, will make music to the God of Jacob,
- 10 And chop off all the horns of wrong-doers;
right-doers' horns shall be carried loftily.

PSALM 76

(Of the Director; with string accompaniment; a psalm of Asaph's; a song.)

- 1 Known in Judah is God, in Israel his name is great,
- 2 And he has his lodge in Salem and his dwelling in Sion.
- 3 There he broke quiver and bow, shield and sword and battalion. (Selah)
- 4 More grand and resplendent are you than mountains of prey.
- 5 Men of warlike heart were despoiled, lay sound asleep, and not any stalwart men could find their hands.
- 6 At your rebuke, God of Jacob, chariot and pony were in a trance.

- 7 Fearful are you, and who will stand his ground before you in your moment of anger?
- 8 From heaven you proclaimed a sentence; earth feared and was still
- 9 When God stood up for judgment to save all earth's sufferers. (Selah)
- 10 For man's rage pays homage to you, and the remnant from rage you gird up.
- 11 Vow and pay to your God Jehovah;
all who live around him shall bring tribute to the Fearful.
- 12 He abates the spirits of potentates;
he is fearful to the kings of earth.

PSALM 77

(Of the Director over Jeduthun; of Asaph's; a psalm.)

- 1 Aloud to God I cry, aloud to God that he may give ear to me.
- 2 In my day of distress I invoke the Lord,
I spread out my hands.
By night my soul drains out and never has its pain dulled, refuses to be comforted,
- 3 I remember God and am in a turmoil;
I muse and my spirit fails me. (Selah)
- 4 My eyelids are held,
I am oppressed and cannot speak.
- 5 I think over ancient days, remember years of old;
- 6 I wonder to myself in the night;
I muse and make mental explorations:
- 7 Does the Lord repudiate us forever and ever, and will he never again be favorable?
- 8 Is his friendship permanently at an end, is all over with his loyalty, generation after generation?
- 9 Has Deity forgotten graciousness or shut up his sympathies in anger? (Selah)
- 10 And I thought of Jehovah's being sick, of change in the right hand of the Most High.
- 11 I bring to mind Jehovah's doings, because I remember out of ancient time your work of wonder,
- 12 And study over all your activities and muse on your deeds.
- 13 God, through the holy sphere is your course;
who is so great a deity as God?
- 14 You are the Deity that did work of wonder, made your might known among the peoples.
- 15 With might and main you championed your people

(Selah)

- The sons of Jacob and Joseph.
- 16 Water saw you, God, water saw you, winced,
the deeps quavered too,
  - 17 Clouds showered water,
the heavens resounded, your arrows too flew about,
  - 18 The sound of your thunder went like chariot-wheels, lightnings lighted up the world, earth quavered and quaked.
  - 19 Your road was through the sea and your paths through a great water, and your footprints were not known.
  - 20 You led your people along like a flock of sheep by the hands of Moses and Aaron.

PSALM 78

(Meditative; of Asaph's.)

- 1 Give ear to my instructions, my people, bend your ears to the say of my mouth.
- 2 I will open my mouth in a lesson of history, will stream mysterious facts from ancient time.
- 3 What we have heard and know and our fathers have told us
- 4 We will not conceal from their children, telling the tale to a later generation, Jehovah's praises and his feats of might and the wonders that he did
- 5 And set up a testimony in Jacob and established a code of instructions in Israel Which he commanded our fathers to make known to their children,
- 6 In order that a later generation might know, children that were to be born, Might stand up and tell the story to their children,
- 7 to have them set their confidence in God And not forget Deity's doings but keep his commandments,
- 8 And not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, A generation that had not set its heart firm and whose spirit was not loyal to Deity;
- 9 Sons of Ephraim who, archers armed, turned round on a day of combat.
- 10 They did not keep God's covenant and refused to go by his instructions,

11 And forgot his deeds and his wonders that he had showed them.
12 Before their fathers he did wonderfully, in Egypt, the countryside of Soan.
13 He split a sea and brought them through, standing the water up as if in a heap, 14 And guided them by a cloud by day and at night by a light of fire.
15 He cracked open rocks in the wilderness and gave drink as abundant as the deeps, 16 And brought out a flow from a crag and made water come down like rivers.
17 But they went right on sinning against him, disobeying the Most High in the land of drought, 18 And had the thought of putting Deity on trial, asking for food for their appetites, 19 And talked at God, said
"Can Deity set a table in the wilderness?
20 Here he has struck a rock and water ran out and arroyos ran in freshet, Can he give bread too or provide meat for his people?" 21 So Jehovah heard and was furious, and a fire broke out in Jacob and anger at Israel came up withal, 22 Because they did not have faith in God nor put their trust in his salvation; 23 And he gave orders to the heavens above and opened the doors of the sky, 24 And rained on them manna for food and gave them corn of heaven.
25 A man ate the bread of angels;
he sent them all the provision they required.
26 He had an east wind set out in the sky, drove on a south wind by his power, 27 And rained meat on them like the soil they trod on and winged birds like the sand of the seas, 28 And let it fall within their camp, around their lodges, 29 And they ate and had every bit they could hold,
and he brought them what they craved.
30 They were not cloyed from their craving, they still had their food in their mouths, 31 And God's anger against them came up and he killed among their plumpest and brought down Israel's young men.

32 With all this they still sinned and did not have faith in his wonders; 33 And he finished off their days with prostration and their years with palpitation.
34 If he killed them they invoked him, and came back in quest of Deity, 35 And remembered that God was their Rock and the Deity on high their Friend in need, 36 And cajoled him with their mouths and lied to him with their tongues, 37 But their hearts were not firmly with God and they were not loyal to his covenant.
38 But he is tenderhearted, purging away guilt and not dealing destruction, And does much of turning back his anger and does not stir up his ire, 39 And he remembered that they were mortals, a wind that goes and does not come back.
40 How often they disobeyed him in the wilderness, grieved him in desert land, 41 And put Deity on trial over again and brought regret to the Holy One of Israel!
42 They did not remember his hand, the day he redeemed them from distress, 43 Exhibited his tokens in Egypt and his miracles in the countryside of Soan, 44 And turned the branches of their Nile to blood, and their waters were undrinkable; 45 He sent among them 'arob flies that ate them up and frogs that infested them; 46 He gave their growing things to the fall grasshoppers and what had come of their toil to the spring grasshoppers; 47 He killed their grapevines with hail and their sycamore trees with frost; 48 He handed their cattle over to the hail and their stock to the firebolts.
49 He let loose his anger upon them, wrath and hostility and belligerency,
A sending of evil angels;
50 he saw to a path for his anger.
He did not hold back their souls from death but handed their lives over to the pestilence, 51 And struck every eldest son in Egypt, the firstfruit of their powers in the homes of Ham, 52 And set his people in motion like so many sheep and drove them along in the wilderness like a flock,

- 53 And led them in secure confidence, they felt no dread, and the sea covered their enemies.
- 54 And he brought them into his sacred territory, that highland his right hand had gained,
- 55 And expelled nations before them and allotted them as definite estate, and settled in their homes the tribes of Israel.
- 56 But they put the Most High God on trial and disobeyed him, and did not keep to his lessons,
- 57 But fell away and were faithless like their fathers, turned over like an unreliable bow,
- 58 And provoked him with their heights and stirred his jealousy with their rock-carvings.
- 59 God heard and was furious and utterly spurned Israel,
- 60 And abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent he had set up for presence among men,
- 61 And gave his power into captivity and his magnificence into the hands of a foe,
- 62 And handed his people over to the sword and was in wrath at his estate.
- 63 Fire consumed its young men and its maidens raised no death-song.
- 64 Its priests fell by the sword and its widows did not weep.
- 65 But the Lord woke up like one who had been asleep, like a champion who had been overcome by wine,
- 66 And drove his foes back, put them to perpetual ignominy,
- 67 And repudiated Joseph's tent and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim,
- 68 But chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Sion which he loves,
- 69 And built his sanctuary like the peaks, like the earth whose foundations he has fixed forever,
- 70 And chose his servant David and took him from the work of the sheep,
- 71 Brought him from behind ewes in milk to shepherd his people Jacob and his estate Israel;
- 72 And he shepherded them with sincere heart and guided them with intelligent hands.

PSALM 79

(A psalm of Asaph's.)

1 Heathens have come into your estate, God,

- defied your hallowed temple,
laid Jerusalem in ruins.
- 2 They have given the bodies of your servants as food to the birds of the air, the flesh of your friends to the wild beasts of the earth.
- 3 They poured their blood out like water around Jerusalem and there was nobody to bury them.
- 4 We became the butt of our neighbors' taunts,
of the quips and gibes of those who live around us.
- 5 How long, Jehovah, will you be persistently angry, shall your jealousy burn like a fire?
- 6 Pour out your ire on the nations that do not know you and on kingdoms that have not called on your name,
- 7 For they have eaten Jacob up and desolated his ground.
- 8 Do not remember against us our former guilts;
let your sympathy come in quickly for us, because we are in great want.
- 9 Help us, God of our salvation, in consideration for the honor of your name,
and deliver us and purge our sins for your name's sake.
- 10 Why should the nations say "Where is their God?"
under our eyes let the vengeance for the shed blood of your servants be notable among the nations.
- 11 Let prisoners' groaning come in before you;
with your so great arm release men under sentence of death;
- 12 And return to our neighbors seven times over into their bosoms the insults they have offered to you, Lord;
- 13 And we, your people, the sheep you tend, will give you thanks forever, will tell of your praise to generation after generation.

PSALM 80

(Of the Director; to "Lilies a testimony"; of Asaph's; a psalm.)

- 1 Shepherd of Israel, give ear, you who guide Joseph along like a drove of sheep;
You who are seated on the cherubs, beam out
- 2 before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, Stir your might and come for salvation for us.
- 3 Bring us back, God,
and show a shining face, and let us be saved.
- 4 Jehovah, God, Armies, till when are you smoking hot at your people's prayer,
- 5 Feeding them tear-bread and giving them tears to drink by the gallon?
- 6 You are making us an object for our neighbors' quarrels,

- and our enemies amuse themselves with us.
- 7 Bring us back, God, Armies,
and show a shining face, and let us be saved.
- 8 You move a grapevine out of Egypt, dislodge nations and set it out,
- 9 Clear the ground before it and get it rooted,
and it fills the country;
- 10 Mountains are covered with its shadow, mighty cedars with its branches;
- 11 It is running its canes to the sea and its shoots to the River;
- 12 Why is it you have breached its fences and everybody that comes along the road is picking at it,
- 13 Hogs out of the badlands are eating it off, and beasts of the range are browsing on it?
- 14 God, Armies, come back, look from heaven and see,
- 15 And care for this vine and put it in order, what your right hand planted, and the son you appropriated to yourself.
- 16 They have burned it down, lopped it off;
let them perish at the rebuke of your face.
- 17 Let your hand be on the man of your right hand and the son of man you appropriated to yourself,
- 18 And we will not fall back from you;
bring us to life, and we will call on your name.
- 19 Jehovah, God, Armies, bring us back;
show a shining face, and let us be saved.

PSALM 81

(Of the Director; to the Gittith. Of Asaph's.)

- 1 Shout for God our strength, cheer for Jacob's God!
- 2 Strike up music and sound tambourine, dulcet lyre with harp,
- 3 Blow the ram-horn at the new moon, at the full, on the day of our feast.
- 4 For that is an institution of Israel's, a due of Jacob's God.
- 5 He made it a commemoration in Joseph when he went out over Egypt.
I heard a lip I had not known,
- 6 "I let his shoulder turn away from the load;
his hands shall pass the basket by;
- 7 You called in distress, and I have rescued you.
I will answer you through a screen of thunder;

[Selah]

- I will test you at a water of dispute.
8 Listen, my people, and let me testify to you;
Israel, if you will listen to me, 9 Have no strange deity among you and not do reverence to any foreign deity, 10 I Jehovah am your God, who am bringing you up out of Egypt;
open your mouth wide and I will fill it.
11 But does my people not listen to my voice, will Israel not have me, 12 I will turn them loose to their willful wicked way; they shall go by their own contrivances.
13 If my people did listen to me, Israel did go my ways, 14 Readily would I humble their enemies and bring my hand back against their foes.
15 Those who hate Israel should cringe to him and their disaster be forever.
16 I would feed him out of the richest of wheat and give you out of rocks your fill of honey."

PSALM 82

(A psalm of Asaph's.)

- 1 God stands in the divine convention, pronounces judgment in the midst of gods.
2 "How long will you judge unfairly, show favor to wrong-doers? (Selah) 3 Give judgment for poor man and orphan; allow a downtrodden and impoverished man to be in the right.
4 Preserve a poor and needy man; deliver him from wrong-doers' hands.
5 They do not know; they do not perceive;
they walk in the dark;
all earth's foundations give way.
6 I thought you were gods, and sons of the Most High all of you; 7 But you shall die like human beings, fall like any grandees." 8 Rise, God; judge the earth;
for you are liege lord over all the nations.

PSALM 83

(A song; a psalm of Asaph's.)

- 1 Do not take repose, God;
do not be deaf, Deity, nor quiet, 2 Because here are your enemies making an uproar, your haters raising their heads,

- 3 Conspiring in an artful plot against your people and consulting over a policy against the objects of your protection.
- 4 They say "come on, we will efface their nationality and the name of Israel shall not be remembered anymore."
- 5 For they have come to a unanimous agreement, formed a league against you,
- 6 The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagarites,
- 7 Gebal and 'Ammon and 'Amalek, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre.
- 8 Assyria has joined them too, they have reinforced the sons of Lot. [Selah]
- 9 Do to them as you did to Midian, to Sisera, to Jabin, at Kishon Arroyo,
- 10 That were annihilated at 'En-Dor, that became manure for the soil.
- 11 Make them, their nobles, like Raven and like Wolf, like Zebah and Salmunna' all their dukes,
- 12 Those who have said "Let us take God's meadows for our possession."
- 13 My God, make them like a tumbleweed, like straw before a wind;
- 14 Like a fire burning out a brush-patch or a conflagration blazing over mountains,
- 15 So you will chase them with your tempest and drive them in consternation by your gale.
- 16 Fill their faces with disgrace that they may seek out your name, Jehovah,
- 17 May have unending shame and consternation and be abashed and perish,
- 18 And know it is you alone that are named Jehovah, on high over all the earth.

PSALM 84

(Of the Director; to the Gittith; of the sons of Korah; a psalm.)

- 1 How lovable your dwelling-places are,
Jehovah of Armies!
- 2 My soul yearns, yes, breaks down with its eagerness for Jehovah's courts;
my heart and flesh shout toward living Deity.
- 3 Even a little bird has found a house, and a swallow a nest for herself,
That has placed her brood by your altars, Jehovah of Armies, my King and my God.
- 4 Happy those who live at your house;
they will keep praising you. (Selah)

- 5 Happy are men who have strength in you, who have highways at heart, 6 Those who pass through Baca Vale making it a region of springs, even pools that fall rain overspreads.
 7 They go on from good times to good times; Deity, God, is to be seen at Sion.
 8 Jehovah, God, Armies, hear my prayer; [Selah] give ear, God of Jacob: 9 See our shield, God, and look at the face of your anointed.
 10 For a day in your courts is better than a thousand;
 I had rather be at the threshold of the house of my God than lodge in tents of wickedness.
 11 For our God Jehovah is a sun and shield; Jehovah will give grace and glory, will not withhold good from those who go by a good conscience.
 12 Jehovah of Armies,
 happy the man that puts confidence in you.

PSALM 85

(Of the Director; of the sons of Korah; a psalm.)

- 1 You took your country into favor, Jehovah, came back to Jacob, 2 Pardoned your people's guilt, covered up all their sin, [Selah] 3 Drew back all your wrath, put a stop to your anger.
 4 Come back to us, God of our salvation, and suppress your vexation at us.
 5 Will you be angry with us forever, carry your anger on from generation to generation?
 6 Will not you, you, again bring us to life and let your people be glad in you?
 7 Show us your friendship, Jehovah, giving us your salvation.
 8 I will hear what the Deity Jehovah will speak, for he will speak peace to his people and the objects of his friendship
 and to those who turn their hearts back to him.
 9 All near for those who fear him is his salvation, for glory to dwell in our country, 10 Friendliness and loyalty having met, right and peace having kissed, 11 Loyalty springing up from the earth and right looking out from the sky,

- 12 Jehovah too giving goodness and our earth giving its growth, 13 Right going before him and salvation by the road he treads.

PSALM 86

(A prayer of David's.)

- 1 Bend your ear, Jehovah, answer me, because I am unhappy and needy.
2 Preserve my life, because I am a man of your friendship;
save your servant who puts his trust in you.
3 You are my God; be gracious to me, because I call to you all day.
4 Gladden your servant's soul, because it is on you, Lord, that I count.
5 For you, Lord, are kind and forgiving and of great friendship to all who call on you.
6 Give ear to my prayer, Jehovah; listen to my suppliant voice; 7 In my day of distress I call to you because you will answer me.
8 There is no one like you among the gods, Lord, and there are not the like of your deeds.
9 All nations that you have made shall come and do reverence before you, Lord, and glorify your name, 10 Because you are great and doer of wonders, you alone are God.
11 Show me your road, Jehovah;
I will go by your truth;
unite my heart to fear your name.
12 I will give you thanks, my Lord, my God, with all my heart, and glorify your name forever, 13 Because your friendliness is great toward me and you deliver my life from the bottom of the realm of death; 14 For high-handed men stood up against me and a company of overbearing men were looking for my life and had not set you before them, 15 But you, Lord, are a deity tenderhearted and kindly, patient and very friendly and loyal.
16 Turn toward me and be gracious to me;
give your shelter to your servant and save your bondwoman's son.
17 Do by me a token of good, that those who hate me may see, and be disappointed, that you, Jehovah, have helped me and comforted me.

PSALM 87

(Of the sons of Korah; a psalm; a song.)

- 1 His foundation on sacred mountains
- 2 Jehovah loves, the gates of Sion more than all the abodes of Jacob.
- 3 Glorious things are to be spoken of you,
city of God! (Selah)
- 4 I will mention Rahab and Babylon for those who know me; here are Philistia and Tyre, with Nubia, this one was born there.
- 5 But of Sion it shall be said "Man upon man was born in her,"
and he, the Most High, holds her fast.
- 6 Jehovah will count in the register of peoples
"This one was born there." (Selah)
- 7 And singers as well as dancers will all shout of you.

PSALM 88

(i song; a psalm of the sons of Korah; of the Director; to "Mahaluth"; for intonation; meditative, of Heman the Ezrahite's.)

- 1 Jehovah, my God, I clamor by day, I cry in your presence by night.
- 2 Let my prayer come before you, bend your ear to my appeal,
- 3 Because my soul has its fill of evils and my being is touching the realm of the shades,
- 4 I rank as down in the Pit, I have become like a man beyond assistance,
- 5 Free among the dead, like stabbed men, men lying in graves, Whom you no longer remember, they being sundered from your hand;
- 6 You have laid me in the bottom of the Pit, in depths of darkness and abysses of ooze.
- 7 On me your ire rests its weight and you have brought in all your breakers. (Selah)
- 8 You have taken my acquaintances far away from me, made me an object of abhorrence to them, Shut up so that I cannot get out;
- 9 my eye has grown hopeless with misery.
I have called to you, Jehovah, every day, have laid my hands out toward you.
- 10 "Will you do wonders for the dead, or will shades stand up and give you thanks? (Selah)
- 11 Will your friendliness be told of in the grave, your faithfulness in the land of the gone forever?

- 12 Will your wonders be made known in the darkness and your right-doing in the land of forgottenness?
- 13 But I, Jehovah, clamor to you and in the morning my prayer presents itself to you.
- 14 Why do you disown my soul, Jehovah, veil your face from me?
- 15 From a child I have been wretched and worn, have carried your terrors, been unnerved,
- 16 Your blasts of anger have swept over me, your overwhelmings have annihilated me,
- 17 They have swept around me like water all day, united to hem me in.
- 18 You have taken lover and friend far away from me, my acquaintances are darkness—

PSALM 89

(Meditative; of Ethan the Ezrahite's.)

- 1 Jehovah's acts of friendship I will forever sing; to generation after generation I will announce your faithfulness with my mouth,
- 2 Because you have said "Forever shall friendship be built up";
in the skies you set your faithfulness firm.
- 3 "I have covenanted to my chosen one, sworn to my servant David,
- 4 "To all time I will set your posterity firm and build your throne to generation after generation"; [Selah]
- 5 And heaven shall acknowledge your wonders, Jehovah, your faithfulness too, in the assembly of holy ones.
- 6 For who in highest heaven is to be matched with Jehovah, to be compared to Jehovah among the sons of deities?
- 7 A fearful Deity in the council of the holy ones, great and terrible over all who are around him.
- 8 Jehovah, God of Armies, who is like you?
sturdy is Jehovah; and your faithfulness is around you.
- 9 You rule over the pride of the sea;
when its waves toss you still them.
- 10 You felled Rahab as if he were stabbed through;
with your arm of might you dispersed your enemies.
- 11 Yours is sky, yours too is earth;
the world and all that fills it you founded.
- 12 North and south you created;
Tabor and Hermon warble your name.
- 13 Arm you have, and vigor withal;
your hand is strong, your right hand high.
- 14 Right dealing and just judgment are the base of your throne;
friendship and loyalty come forward in your presence.

- 15 Happy the people that know resounding cheers of praise;
they will walk in the shining of your face, Jehovah, 16 They will jubilate all day in your name and exalt your right-doing, 17 Because you are the grandeur of their might and by your acceptance you raise our horn aloft.
18 For to Jehovah belongs our shield and to the Holy One of Israel our king.
19 You then spoke in a vision to the man of your friendship and said
"I have laid help upon a champion, have taken up a chosen one out of the people, 20 Have found my servant David, have anointed him with my sacred oil, 21 With whom my hand shall be firm, yes, my arm shall brace him.
22 No enemy shall hold him in peonage nor man of foul play grind him down, 23 But I will pound up his foes before him and defeat those who hate him, 24 And he shall have with him my faithfulness and friendship, and by my name he shall carry his horn high, 25 And I will lay his hand on the sea and his right hand on the rivers.
26 He shall call to me 'You are my Father, my Deity and the Rock of my salvation'; 27 I withal will make him my firstborn, on high over the kings of earth.
28 I will keep my friendship to him forever and my covenant to him shall be loyal, 29 And I will make his posterity last for aye and his throne like the time of the sky.
30 If his sons abandon my instructions and do not go by my laws, 31 If they disregard my rules and do not keep my commandments, 32 I will punish their crime with a cudgel and their guilt with blows, 33 But not cancel my friendship with him nor forswear my faithfulness.
34 I will not disregard my covenant nor change what has gone out of my lips.
35 One thing I have sworn by my holiness, I will not lie to David, 36 His posterity shall be forever and his throne like the sun before me,

- 37 Like the moon, secured ever and aye, faithful in the ether." (Selah)
- 38 But you have repudiated and rejected, been infuriated with your anointed one, 39 Ignored the covenant with your servant, dropped his diadem desecrated on the ground, 40 Breached all his fences, laid his fortifications in ruin.
41 All passersby pillage him;
he has become a butt for his neighbors' insults.
42 You let his foes' right hand go high, you gladden all his enemies.
43 You turn back his sword-blade too, and do not let him stand up in battle.
44 You have made an end of his brightness, hurled his throne to the ground, 45 Shortened his time of youth, wrapped him in shame. (Selah)
- 46 How long, Jehovah, will you persistently veil yourself, shall your choler burn like a fire?
47 Remember, Lord, what vitality is, in what unsubstantiality you created all mankind; 48 What man is to live and never see death, get his life clear of the grasp of the grave? (Selah)
- 49 Where are your first acts of friendship, Lord?
You swore to David by your faithfulness!
50 Remember, Lord, the insults to your servant, my pocketing all animosities from peoples, 51 How your enemies have been insulting, Jehovah, been throwing insults at your anointed one's heels.
- 52 Blessed be Jehovah forever.
Amen and amen.

PSALM 90

(A prayer; of Moses the man of God.)

- 1 Lord, you have been citadel of ours in generation upon generation.
2 Before mountains were born or earth and universe came to the pangs of birth, And from eternity to eternity, you are Deity.
3 You send a man back into the clods and say "Back again, sons of mankind!" 4 (For a thousand years are to your eyes

- like a yesterday when it is going by or a watch in the night.)
- 5 You wash them away; they are sleep.
In the morning they make a fresh start like grass;
  - 6 In the morning it is blooming and fresh;
at evening it is wilted and dried out.
  - 7 For we are all gone at your anger, and we are struck with sudden death at your ire.
  - 8 You have set our offenses where they confront you, in the illumination of your face what we had kept dark.
  - 9 For all our days shrink back at your wrath, we finish off our years like a sigh.
  - 10 The time we do our sleeping in is seventy years or, with a strong constitution, eighty years, And its swaggering is fuss and futility, for it goes by in a rush and we take wing.
  - 11 Who knows the formidableness of your anger, and who has seen the oppressiveness of your wrath?
  - 12 To count off our days teach us aright, that we may get a heart of wisdom in.
  - 13 Come back, Jehovah—when?
and change your mind as to your servants.
  - 14 Give us your friendship amply in the morning, so that we may carol and make merry throughout our days.
  - 15 Give us as many days of gladness as you have given of hardship, as many years as we have been seeing disaster.
  - 16 Let your activity be apparent toward your servants and your grandeur over their sons,
  - 17 And may the graciousness of the Lord our God be over us;
and give firmness to the work of our hands.

PSALM 91

- 1 One who lives under the Most High's screen, lodges under Shaddai's canopy,
- 2 Who calls Jehovah "my refuge and fastness, my God in whom I trust"—
- 3 For he will deliver you from fowler's trap, from threats of malice;
- 4 He will overarch you with his pinions and under his wings you shall take refuge; great shield and castle is his loyalty.
- 5 You shall not fear nighttime horror, arrow flying by day,
- 6 Pestilence walking in murky blackness, fatality making havoc at noon;
- 7 A thousand shall fall at your side

- and ten thousand at your right hand, but it shall not come up to you;
- 8 You shall only look on with your eyes and see the retribution of wrong-doers,
- 9 Because you have Jehovah for your refuge, have made the Most High your citadel.
- 10 No harm will come upon you nor blight draw near your home,
- 11 Because he will give his angels orders for you, to guard you in all your courses;
- 12 They shall take you up in their hands to keep you from stubbing your toe on a stone.
- 13 You shall tread on lion and viper, trample down two-year-old lion and reptile.
- 14 Because he is in love with me I will see him through, will set him out of reach of harm because he knows my name.
- 15 He shall call on me and I will answer him;
 I am with him in distress,
 I will rescue him and show him honor.
- 16 Of long life I will give him his fill, and will let him feast his eyes on my salvation.

PSALM 92

(A psalm; a sabbath-day song.)

- 1 It is good to give thanks to Jehovah and make music to your name, Most High,
- 2 To tell your friendship in the morning and your faithfulness in the nights
- 3 With ten-string and with harp, with harmony on a lyre,
- 4 Because you have gladdened me, Jehovah, by what you have done;
 over the works of your hands I carol.
- 5 How great are your works, Jehovah!
 very deep are your thoughts.
- 6 A stupid man will not know, nor a fool see into this:
- 7 When wrong-doers burgeon like weeds and all villains bloom
 It is so that they may be rooted out once for all;
- 8 but you are enthroned aloft forever, Jehovah.
- 9 For there do your enemies, Jehovah, there do your enemies perish;
 all villains are splintered apart;
- 10 And you have given me a high horn like a ure's, have bedewed me with fresh oil,
- 11 And caused my eyes to look on at the fate of my ill-wishers,

- my ears to hear of the fate of those who stood up against me.
- 12 A right-doer will bud like a palm tree, grow tall like a cedar on the Lebanon;
- 13 Set out at Jehovah's house, they will grow full of branches in the courts of our God,
- 14 Will be still fruitful in old age,
will be lush and verdant,
- 15 Announcing that straightforward is Jehovah, my Rock, and there is no cheating about him.

PSALM 93

- 1 Jehovah is king; Jehovah has put on, has put on majesty, has belted himself with might,
has established the world too, not to be disturbed.
- 2 Your throne is firm since ancient times;
your being is from eternity.
- 3 Rivers raised, Jehovah, rivers raised their voices, rivers were dashing high.
- 4 Above the sounds of great water, more grand than breakers of sea, more grand is Jehovah aloft.
- 5 Your lessons are most trustworthy;
its holiness is glory for your house, Jehovah, for the length of time.

PSALM 94

- 1 Deity of vengeance, Jehovah, Deity of vengeance, beam out!
- 2 Uplift yourself, Judge of the earth, send back retribution upon proud men.
- 3 How long shall wrong-doers, Jehovah, how long shall wrong-doers jubilate?
- 4 They stream out arrogant talk, and villains have plenty to say,
- 5 They beat down your people, Jehovah, and wear down your estate,
- 6 Kill widow and immigrant and murder orphans;
- 7 And they think "Jehovah does not see and the Holy One of Israel does not take it in."
- 8 Take this in, stupid ones among the people; and you fools, when will you be sensible?
- 9 Is he who planted ears not to hear and he who shaped eyes not to take a look?
- 10 Is the instructor of nations to do no correcting, he who teaches man to know?

- 11 Jehovah knows man's thoughts, how windy they are.
12 Happy the man whom you discipline, Jehovah, and teach out of your code, 13 To give him quietness out of days of evil till a pitfall is dug for the wrong-doer; 14 For Jehovah will not abandon his people nor forsake his estate.
15 For judgment will come back to doing the right, and this will all the honest-hearted follow.
16 Who will stand up for me against evil-doers, who take his stand for me against perpetrators of villainy?
17 If Jehovah had not been a help to me my soul was almost finding its dwelling in the land of silence.
18 If I think my foot is slipping your friendship, Jehovah, steadies me.
19 When I have in my bosom many cogitations your comforts afford me pleasure.
20 Is a throne of malignity associated with you, one that frames mischief into a rule of law?
21 They raid a right-doer's life and condemn innocent blood.
22 But Jehovah has been a fastness to me and my God my rock of refuge, 23 And has turned their villainy back upon themselves, and will annihilate them in their wickedness;
    our God Jehovah will annihilate them.

PSALM 95

- 1 Come, let us shout for Jehovah, raise a cheer for our Rock of salvation, 2 Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving, raise a cheer for him with music, 3 Because Jehovah is a great Deity and a great King over all gods, 4 He in whose hand are the most secluded parts of earth, and the peaks of mountains are his;
5 He to whom the sea belongs, and who made it, and whose hands formed dry land.
6 Come in, let us bow low and do reverence, let us kneel before our maker Jehovah, 7 Because he is our God and we are the people he pastures and the sheep of his hand.
    Today, if you will obey him, 8 Do not stiffen your hearts as at Meribah,

- as on the day of Massah in the wilderness, 9 When your fathers tried me out, tested me and saw what I did.
10 Forty years I felt the loathsomeness of that generation and said "They are a people of erring hearts, not knowing my courses," 11 So that I swore in my anger they should not come into my rest.

PSALM 96

- 1 Sing a new song for Jehovah;
sing for Jehovah, all the earth!
2 Sing for Jehovah, bless his name, tell the good news of his salvation day after day, 3 Tell the tale of his glory among the nations, among all the peoples his wondrous feats, 4 Because Jehovah is great and high-praised;
he is terrible over all gods, 5 For all the peoples' gods are trumperies, but Jehovah made the skies.
6 Majesty and splendor are before him, might and magnificence in his sanctuary.
7 Give to Jehovah, clans of peoples,
give to Jehovah glory and might!
8 Give to Jehovah the glory that belongs to his name;
carry an offering and come into his courts.
9 Do reverence to Jehovah in stately sacred garb;
tremble before him, all the earth.
10 Say among the nations "Jehovah is king,
has established the world too, not to be disturbed, will give fair verdicts for peoples." 11 Let the heavens be glad and the earth jubilant, let the sea and what fills it thunder, 12 Let fields and everything in them exult, then let all trees on the rocks shout, 13 Before Jehovah, because he has come, because he has come to judge the earth!
He will judge the world aright and peoples faithfully.

PSALM 97

- 1 Jehovah is king! let the earth be jubilant, many coasts be glad!
2 Clouds and thick air are around him, right and justice are the base of his throne.
3 A fire goes before him and burns off his foes on every side.

- 4 His lightnings light up the world;
the earth sees and trembles.
- 5 Mountains melt down like wax before Jehovah, before the Lord of all the earth.
- 6 The sky tells his right-doing, and all the peoples see his glory.
- 7 All statue-worshippers shall be put to shame, those who glory in trumpery deities;
do reverence to him, all gods!
- 8 Sion hears and is glad, and Judah's daughters are jubilant, for your judgments, Jehovah,
- 9 Because you, Jehovah, are on high over all the earth, high far above all gods.
- 10 Jehovah loves those who hate evil, guards the lives of the men of his friendship, delivers them from the hands of wrong-doers.
- 11 Light rises for the right-doer and gladness for men of honest heart.
- 12 Be glad in Jehovah, right-doers, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

PSALM 98

(A psalm.)

- 1 Sing a new song for Jehovah,
for he has done wondrous things;
His right hand and his holy arm have brought his salvation.
- 2 Jehovah has made his salvation known, unveiled his right-doing before the eyes of the nations.
- 3 He has remembered his friendship and faithfulness to Israel's house;
all earth's extremities have seen our God's salvation.
- 4 Raise cheers for Jehovah, all the earth, break out and shout and make music;
- 5 Make music for Jehovah with lyre, with lyre and sound of minstrelsy;
- 6 With trumpets and sound of ram-horn give ringing blasts before the King, Jehovah!
- 7 Let the sea and what fills it thunder,
the world and its inhabitants,
- 8 Let rivers clap their hands, mountains shout together,
- 9 Before Jehovah, because he has come to judge the earth;
he will judge the world aright
and peoples uprightly.

PSALM 99

- 1 Jehovah is king! let peoples quake!
    he is enthroned on cherubs; let the earth swing!
- 2 Jehovah is great in Sion, and lofty is he over all the peoples.
- 3 Let them praise your name as great and terrible.
    Holy is he.
- 4 And royal might loves justice;
    you have set uprightness firm;
    you have done the just and right thing by Jacob.
- 5 Exalt our God Jehovah and do reverence at his footstool;
    holy is he.
- 6 Moses and Aaron among his priests and Samuel among those who call on his name Called to Jehovah and he answered them;
- 7 in a pillar of cloud he spoke to them;
    They heard his lessons, and an institution he gave them.
- 8 Jehovah, our God, you did answer them, You were to them a pardoning Deity and one who took vengeance for their misbehavior.
- 9 Exalt our God Jehovah
    and do reverence at his sacred mountain, for holy is our God Jehovah!

PSALM 100

(A psalm for thanksgiving.)

- 1 Raise cheers for Jehovah, all the land, 2 worship Jehovah with gaiety, come in before him with shouting;
- 3 Know that Jehovah is God, he made us and his are we,
    his people and the sheep of his pasturing.
- 4 Enter his gates with thanksgiving, his courts with praise, give him thanks and bless his name,
- 5 Because good is Jehovah;
    his friendship is forever and his faithfulness to generation after generation.

PSALM 101

(Of David's; a psalm.)

- 1 Friendliness and justice I sing;
    to you, Jehovah, I make music.
- 2 I will consider a faultless course;
    when will you come to met

- I will walk with a steady heart within my house.
- 3 I will not lay a base proposition under my eyes.
Doing unprincipled things I hate, it shall not be my habit.
- 4 A crooked heart I will eschew, will have no knowledge of evil.
- 5 One who covertly defames another I will annihilate.
A man of lofty eyes and domineering heart
I will not stand.
- 6 I will have my eyes out for earth's reliable men to live with me.
One who walks a faultless course, he shall serve me.
- 7 One who practices fraud shall not have a seat inside my house.
A liar shall not hold a footing under my eyes.
- 8 Morning by morning I will annihilate all earth's wrong-doers, Exterminating from Jehovah's city all who commit villainy.

PSALM 102

(Prayer of a man in misery when he is fainting away and pours out his complaint before Jehovah.)

- 1 Jehovah, hear my prayer and let my clamor come in to you.
- 2 Do not veil your face from me on the day I am in distress;
bend your ear to me;
on the day when I call answer me speedily;
- 3 For my days have gone off in smoke and my bones are charring like fuel.
- 4 My heart is slashed down and dried out like weeds, for I have forgotten eating my food.
- 5 By the sound of my moaning my bones stick to my flesh.
- 6 I am like a wilderness barn-owl,
I am the same as little owls in wasted sites.
- 7 I am watchful and uneasy like a bird alone on a roof.
- 8 All day my enemies taunt me, those who go wild against me make an oath of me,
- 9 Because I have been eating ashes like bread

- and mixing my gulps of drink with weeping
- 10 Because of your hostility and wrath, because you have taken me up and thrown me down.
- 11 My days stoop like a shadow and I dry out like weeds.
- 12 But you, Jehovah, are enthroned forever, and the remembrance of you is for generation after generation.
- 13 You will stand up and take pity on Sion when it is time to be gracious to her, when a date comes,
- 14 Because your servants value her stones and have a regard for her earth,
- 15 That nations may fear Jehovah's name and all the kings on earth your glory
- 16 Because Jehovah has rebuilt Sion, has appeared in his glory,
- 17 Has turned toward the prayer of the destitute and not despised their prayer.
- 18 This shall be written down for a later generation, and a people that is to be created shall praise Jehovah
- 19 Because he has looked out from his holy place aloft, Jehovah from heaven has looked at earth,
- 20 Hearing a prisoner's groans, unchaining men sentenced to death,
- 21 That Jehovah's fame may be told of in Sion and his praise at Jerusalem
- 22 When peoples gather together, and kingdoms, to worship Jehovah.
- 23 He has worn down my strength on the road, has shortened my days;
- 24 I say "My God, do not lift me away at half my days;
your years are through a generation of generations.
- 25 You laid earth's foundations before, and heaven is the work of your hands;
- 26 They will perish, but you will stand;
and they will all wear out like a garment, Like a dress you will change them and changed they will be,
- 27 but you are yourself and there will be no end of your years.
- 28 Your worshipers' sons shall live in their homes, and their descendants shall stand fast before you."

PSALM 103

(Of David's.)

- 1 Bless Jehovah, my soul;
all my being, through and through, bless his holy name!
- 2 Bless Jehovah, my soul,
and do not forget all he has done for you,

3 He who forgives all your guilt, who cures all your diseases, 4 "Who protects your life from being swallowed up in the depths below, who crowns you with his friendship and sympathy, 5 Who satisfies your lifetime with good things, letting you renew your youth like the great vulture, 6 Jehovah does things that are right, and acts of justice for those to whom it is denied.
7 He makes his courses known to Moses, his doings to the sons of Israel.
8 Tenderhearted and kindly is Jehovah, patient and very friendly.
9 He will not keep up a contention permanently nor lay up a score forever.
10 He has not done to us things to match our sins nor treated us in accordance with our guilt, 11 For like the height of sky over earth is the transcendence of his friendship over those who fear him.
12 As far away as east from west has he put our crimes from us.
13 Like a father's tenderness for sons is Jehovah's for those who fear him, 14 Because he knows our structure, remembers that we are clay.
15 Man's lifetime is like that of grass; like field flowers, so does he bloom; 16 For a wind passes through and he is not there, and his place is no longer aware of him.
17 But Jehovah's friendship is from eternity to eternity over those who fear him,
    and his fair dealing to sons of sons, 18 To those who keep his covenant and who remember his mandates, living up to them.
19 Jehovah has set his throne fast in the heavens, and his kingdom rules everything.
20 Bless Jehovah, you angels of his, formidable in strength, doers of his bidding, obeyers of his word!
21 Bless Jehovah, all you legions of his, servitors of his, doers of his pleasure!
22 Bless Jehovah, all works of his in all the places under his sway!
    Bless Jehovah, my soul!

PSALM 104

1 Bless Jehovah, my soul!
    Jehovah, my God, you are great indeed;

in majesty and splendor you are robed, 2 You who wrap light about you like a cloak, who stretch sky like a curtain; 3 Who frame your upper stories in water, make clouds your carriage, go about on wings of wind; 4 Who make winds your messengers, blazing fires your servitors; 5 Who set earth on its foundations, nevermore to be unsettled, 6 Covered it with the deep as if with a robe, water standing above mountains—7 At your rebuke the water takes flight, at the sound of your thunder it makes off in haste, 8 Mountains come up, vales go down to the place you have founded for them, 9 You have fixed a boundary it is not to cross, not to come back to cover the earth; 10 You who let out springs in the arroyos to run between mountains, 11 To water all beasts of the wilds, for wild asses to slake their thirst, 12 For birds of the air to perch over, sounding their notes amid the leaves; 13 You who water mountains out of your lofts so that the earth has its fill of the fruit of your work, 14 Who make grass grow for the cattle and vegetation for man's labor, Bringing out bread from the earth 15 and letting wine make a man's heart merry, Brightening faces with oil and letting bread brace a man up, 16 Letting wild trees have their fill, cedars of Lebanon that you planted, 17 Where birds nest, storks have their homes in their tops, 18 Ibexes have highest mountains, dassies have crags for a refuge; 19 Who have made a moon to mark dates, a sun that knows its setting; 20 You cause darkness, and there is night, in which all creatures of the bush steal about, 21 The two-year-old lions roar for prey and to seek their food from Deity; 22 The sun rises, they take cover and lie down in their dens,

- 23 Man goes out to his activities and to his labors till evening.
- 24 How manifold are your works, Jehovah, all of which you have made with wisdom!
the earth is filled with your creations.
- 25 Here is the sea, great and wide, and in it numberless forms of moving life.
tiny animals with great ones;
- 26 Ships travel there;
Leviathan, that you formed to play in it.
- 27 They all rely on you, Jehovah, to give their food at the due time.
- 28 You give to them, they pick up;
you open your hand, they have their fill of good things;
- 29 You veil your face, they are struck with sudden death;
you take up their spirits, they expire and go back to their clay.
- 30 You loose your spirit, they are created and you make new the surface of the soil.
- 31 May Jehovah's glory be forever, may Jehovah be gladdened in his works,
- 32 He who looks at the earth and it shivers, touches the mountains and they smoke.
- 33 I will sing for Jehovah while I live,
make music for my God while I exist.
- 34 May my meditations be sweet to him;
may I be glad in Jehovah.
- 35 May sinners come to an end out of the earth and wrong-doers no longer exist.
Bless Jehovah, my soul!

PSALM 105

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
Thank Jehovah, proclaim his name, make known among the peoples his deeds;
- 2 Sing for him, make music for him, review all his wonders,
- 3 Boast of his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek Jehovah be glad.
- 4 Look to Jehovah and his strength; always be looking for his face.
- 5 Remember his wonders that he has done, his miracles and the judgments of his mouth,
- 6 You descendants of his servant Abraham, sons of his chosen one Jacob.
- 7 He is our God Jehovah, his judgments run throughout the earth.

8 Forever he remembers his covenant, a word that he has ordained for a thousand years, 9 Which he undertook with Abraham, and Isaac had his oath, 10 And he confirmed it to be a decree for Jacob, a perpetual covenant for Israel, 11 "To you I will give Canaan as your definite estate," 12 When they were few in number, a mere handful, and immigrants in it, 13 And going about from nation to nation, from a kingdom to another people.
14 He did not let men deny them justice, but reproved kings on their account, 15 "Do not touch my anointed ones nor harm my prophets." 16 And he called down a famine upon the country, broke every bread-stock; 17 He sent a man before them;
Joseph was sold for a slave; 18 They hobbled his feet with shackles, his life was locked in iron, 19 Till the time when his word came true, Jehovah's say showed his metal, 20 A king sent and undid him, a ruler of peoples and released him, 21 Appointed him lord of his household, ruler over all his means, 22 To dictate to his generals at will and tutor his statesmen; 23 And Israel came into Egypt and Jacob lived as an immigrant in the country of Ham, 24 And he made his people very prolific and they outmultiplied their foes.
25 He turned their hearts to hate his people, to plot against his servants; 26 He sent his servant Moses, Aaron whom he chose;
27 They set out the words of his tokens among them, and miracles in the country of Ham.
28 He sent darkness, and dark it grew;
and they did not disobey his words.
29 He turned their water to blood and brought their fishes to death.
30 Their country swarmed with frogs

- in the chambers of their kings.
- 31 He gave the word, and 'arob flies came in;
mosquitoes, in all their territory.
- 32 He let their showers be hail, flaming fire in their country,
- 33 And struck down their grapevine and fig-tree and smashed the trees of their territory.
- 34 He gave the word, and grasshoppers came, locusts innumerable,
- 35 And ate off all plant life in their country and ate off the fruit of their soil.
- 36 And he struck down every eldest son in their country, firstfruits of all their powers.
- 37 And he brought them out with silver and gold, with no one among his tribes stumbling;
- 38 Egypt was glad of their going out, because the dread of them had fallen upon them.
- 39 He spread out a cloud for a screen and a fire to give light at night;
- 40 They asked, and he brought quails and gave them full meals of sky-bread;
- 41 He opened a rock and water gushed out, a river ran in the parched wastes;
- 42 Because he remembered his holy word with his servant Abraham.
- 43 And he brought his people out with rejoicing, his chosen ones with shouting,
- 44 And gave them nations' lands, and they took possession of what folk upon folk had toiled for,
- 45 To the end that they might observe his institutions and keep the rules of his code.
- Praise Jehovah!

PSALM 106

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
Thank Jehovah, because he is good,
because his friendship lasts forever.
- 2 Who shall put Jehovah's feats into words, voice all his praise?
- 3 Happy are those who observe laws, who do what is right at every time.
- 4 Remember me, Jehovah, in the favor you show to your people, take care of me in your salvation,
- 5 For me to have the sight of the good your chosen ones get,
to be glad in the gladness of your nation, to make my boast with your estate.

- 6 We have sinned with our fathers, have done perversely, wrongly.
- 7 Our fathers in Egypt did not appreciate your wonders, Did not remember how many your acts of friendship had been,
and disobeyed the Most High at the Red Sea.
- 8 But he saved them for the honor of his name, to make known his prowess,
- 9 And rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried off, and he marched them through the deeps as if through the wilderness,
- 10 And saved them out of the hands of one who hated them, and reclaimed them out of an enemy's hand,
- 11 And water covered their foes, not one of them was left;
- 12 And they believed his words and sang his praise.
- 13 They were quick to forget his works, would not wait for his plan,
- 14 But gave way to a craving in the wilderness and put Deity on trial in desert land;
- 15 And he gave them what they asked but sent sickness into their systems.
- 16 And they grew jealous of Moses in the camp, of Aaron, the one holy to Jehovah;
- 17 Earth opened and swallowed Dathan and covered Abiram's company,
- 18 And a fire broke out in their company, flame set wrong-doers ablaze.
- 19 They made a calf at Horeb and did reverence to a bronze statue,
- 20 And changed their glory for a figure of a grass-eating bull;
- 21 They forgot the Deity who had saved them, had done great things in Egypt,
- 22 Wonderful things in the country of Ham, terrible things at the Red Sea.
- 23 And he thought of exterminating them, had it not been that Moses his chosen one Stood in the breach before him to turn back his ire from working ruin.
- 24 And they refused a delectable country, would not believe his word
- 25 But found fault in their tents, did not obey Jehovah,
- 26 And he pledged himself against them to have them fall in the wilderness 27 And to scatter their descendants among the nations and disperse them through the countries.

 28 And they fraternized with the Baal of Pehgor and ate sacrifices to dead things, 29 And gave provocation by their misbehavior, and a plague broke out among them;
 so Pinehas stood firm and intervened, and the plague was checked, 31 And it was credited to him for righteousness generation upon generation forever.
 32 And they gave offense at Meribah Water, and Moses came to grief on their account 33 Because they had embittered his spirit and he spoke thoughtlessly with his lips.
 34 They did not exterminate the peoples that Jehovah had told them to, 35 But mixed with the heathen and learned their doings 36 And worshiped their idols, and it became a snare for them, 37 And they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons, 38 And shed innocent blood, the blood of their children Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, and the country was polluted with blood, 39 And they became unclean in their actions and unchaste in their behavior; 40 And Jehovah grew angry at his people and came to abhor his estate, 41 And gave them into the hands of heathens, and those who hated them ruled them, 42 And their enemies oppressed them and they were humbled under their hands.
 43 Many times he delivered them, but they were disobedient in their conduct and moldered down in their guilt.
 44 And he saw what distress they were in as he heard their appeal, 45 And remembered for them his covenant, changed his mind in accordance with the greatness of his friendship, 46 And made them objects of sympathy to all their captors.
 47 Save us, Jehovah, our God, and gather us out of the nations

To give thanks to your holy name, to glory in your praise.

- 48 Blessed be Israel's God Jehovah
from eternity to eternity.
(And let all the people say Amen.)

PSALM 107

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
Thank Jehovah, because he is good,
because his friendship lasts forever.
- 2 Let Jehovah's rescued men say it, those whom he has rescued from the hands of a foe
- 3 And gathered out of many countries, from east and from west,
from north and from sea.
- 4 Those who were wandering in the wilderness, in desert land, found no road to a city of homes,
- 5 Hungry, thirsty too,
their souls in them fainting away,
- 6 But they cried out to Jehovah in their distress and he delivered them out of their hardships,
- 7 And set them on a straight course to go to a city of homes,
- 8 Let them thank Jehovah for his friendship
and his wonderful deeds for mankind.
- 9 For he gives satisfaction to a hankering soul, and a hungry soul he fills with good things.
- 10 Those who were sitting in darkness and gloom, locked in misery and in irons,
- 11 Because they had disobeyed Deity's word and despised the Most High's advice
- 12 And he had humbled their hearts with trouble, they had stumbled and there was no helper,
- 13 But they cried out to Jehovah in their distress
and he saves them out of their hardships,
- 14 Brings them out of darkness and gloom and breaks their chains,
- 15 Let them thank Jehovah for his friendship
and his wonderful deeds for mankind.
- 16 For he smashes bronze doors and chops through iron bars.
- 17 Those who were sick because of their criminal course and in misery because of their guilt,
- 18 Their appetites abhorring any food and they nearing the gates of death, 19 But they cried to Jehovah in their distress and he saves them out of their hardships, 20 Sends his word and cures them and brings them clear of their blights, 21 Let them thank Jehovah for his friendship

and his wonderful deeds for mankind 22 And sacrifice thank-offerings and shout the story of his deeds.
23 Those who have gone to sea in ships, done business on a great water, 24 They have seen Jehovah's work and his wonders on the deep.
25 He spoke the word and a wind rose, a tempest that drove its waves high; 26 They go up to the sky, down to the depths, their souls rocking with disaster, 27 They dance and stagger like a drunken man and all their skill is at a loss.
28 But they have cried out to Jehovah in their distress and he brings them out of their hardships, 29 Turns a tempest to a hush;
and the waves of the sea became still, 30 And they were glad that it calmed down;
and he guided them to the port they wanted to reach.
31 Let them thank Jehovah for his friendship
and his wonderful deeds for mankind 32 And exalt him where a people is assembled and praise him where elders sit.
33 He makes rivers into a wilderness and fountainheads of water into a thirsty spot, 34 A fruitful country into alkali soil, for the wickedness of those who live in it.
35 He makes a wilderness into pools of water and an arid country into fountainheads of water 36 And settles hungry people there, and they establish a city of homes 37 And sow fields and set out vineyards and are fruitful in produce, 38 And he blesses them, and they grow very numerous, and their cattle he does not make few.
39 And if they have become few and low by pressure of disaster and sorrow, 40 He pours contempt on nobles
and sets them wandering in pathless nothingness, 41 But he uplifts a needy man out of misery

- and makes him into clans numerous as the sheep.
- 42 Upright men will see it and be glad,
and all foul play shuts its mouth.
- 43 Whoever is wise, let him watch these things, and let them discern Jehovah's deeds of friendliness.

PSALM 108

(A song; a psalm of David's.)

- 1 My heart is firm, God;
I will sing and give praise.
- 2 Wake, my glory! wake, harp and lyre!
I will wake the dawn.
- 3 I will give you thanks among the nations, Jehovah,
I will make music among many a folk,
- 4 Because your friendliness is great to the skies
and your loyalty to the uppermost air.
- 5 Abide aloft, God, above the sky,
your glory above all the earth.
- 6 So that your darlings may be delivered save with your right hand and answer us.
- 7 God spoke in his sanctuary:
"I will triumph, will divide Shekem,
will measure off Succoth Vale;
- 8 Gilead is mine and Manasseh is mine,
and Ephraim is the keep of my head;
Judah is my baton.
- 9 Moab is my bathtub,
on Edom I throw my sandal,
over Philistia are my hurrahs."
- 10 Who will bring me to a city for a siege?
who has led me through to Edom?
- 11 Have not you, God, repudiated us?
and you do not go out, God, in our campaigns.
- 12 Give us help from a foe—
human salvation is futile.
- 13 Through God we shall play a sturdy part,
and he himself will trample down our foes.

PSALM 109

(Of the Director; of David's; a psalm.)

- 1 God of my praise, do not be deaf, 2 For they have opened against me mouths of wrong and of treachery and spoken with me with tongues of falsehood
- 3 And encircled me with "words of hatred and made war on me for nothing;
- 4 In return for my love they are adversaries to me;
but on my part prayer.

- 5 And they have turned upon me evil in return for good and hatred in return for my love.
- 6 Give a wrong-doer authority over him and let an adversary stand at his right hand!
- 7 "When he goes into court let him come out in the wrong, and let his prayer become sin!
- 8 Be his days few!
let another take his station!
- 9 Be his sons orphans and his wife a widow,
- 10 And may his sons live as vagabonds and beg their bread and go out soliciting from the wasted sites they lodge in!
- 11 May a creditor bag everything he has,
and strangers plunder the fruit of his toil!
- 12 May he have nobody that keeps up friendship, and his orphans nobody that shows them goodwill!
- 13 May his posterity come to extinction, their name be obliterated in another generation!
- 14 May Jehovah be reminded of his fathers' guilt, his mother's sin not be obliterated,
- 15 May they be always present to Jehovah and may he cut off their memory forever,
- 16 Since he did not remember to show friendship but hunted down a man wretched and needy and wounded to the heart, to give him his deathblow,
- 17 And loved a curse—so may it come upon him!
and had no liking for a blessing—so may it be far from him!
- 18 And wore curses like his coat—so may they come into his inward parts like water and into his bones like oil,
- 19 Be to him like the clothing he is wrapped in and become the girdle he is always belted with!
- 20 These are the earnings due from Jehovah to those who are hostile to me and to those who are talking up evil against my life.
- 21 But do you, Jehovah, my Lord, take action on my side for the honor of your name, deliver me because your friendship is so good,
- 22 Because I am wretched and needy and my heart is stabbed within me.
- 23 I am gone like a lengthening shadow, tumbled out like grasshoppers.
- 24 My knees are giving way from fasting and my flesh has grown lean without oil,
- 25 And I have become a butt for their taunts, they see me and shake their heads.

- 26 Help me, Jehovah, my God, save me as befits your friendship, 27 That they may know that this is your hand.
it is you, Jehovah, that did it.
28 Let them curse while you bless; let those who stand up against me be disappointed and your servant make merry.
29 Let those who are hostile to me be clothed in humiliation and wrapped in their shame as in a robe.
30 I will speak out great thanks to Jehovah and praise him in the midst of many 31 Because he stands at a needy man's right hand to save him from those who would judge him for life or death.

PSALM 110

(Of David's; a psalm.)

- 1 Quoth Jehovah to my lord "Sit at my right hand till I make your enemies a footstool for your feet." 2 Jehovah will send your strong staff out from Sion.
Hold sway amid your enemies!
3 Your people come in willingly on your day of effort; on sacred mountains, from the womb of dawn, you have your dew of youth.
4 Jehovah has sworn, and will not revoke it,
"You are priest forever on Malkisedek's terms"; 5 The Lord is at your right hand.
He has shattered kings on his day of anger; 6 He will give judgment among the nations;
he has filled with bodies, has shattered heads over a great country.
7 He will drink from an arroyo on the road; therefore he will lift up his head.

PSALM 111

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
I will acknowledge Jehovah with entire heart in a council and company of upright men.
2 Great are Jehovah's works, to be studied for all their charms.
3 "What he has done is majesty and splendor, and his right-doing stands forevermore.
4 He did memorable wonders;
kindly and tenderhearted is Jehovah.
5 He gave provisions to those who feared him, forever remembering his covenant.
6 He acquainted his people with the powerfulness of his workings,

- giving them the estate of nations.
- 7 The works of his hands are loyalty and justice;
all his mandates are trustworthy,
- 8 Anchored forever and evermore, done in truth and rectitude.
- 9 He sent redemption to his people, ordained his covenant forever;
holy and terrible is his name.
- 10 To fear Jehovah is the first thing in wisdom, good sense of all who exercise it;
his praise stands forevermore.

PSALM 112

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
Happy a man who fears Jehovah, takes great pleasure in his commandments:
- 2 Eminent in the country shall his descendants be;
a generation of upright men will be blessed.
- 3 In his house are resources and riches, and his Tightness stands forevermore.
- 4 Light comes up in darkness for upright men;
kindly and tenderhearted is a right-doer.
- 5 Good is a man who shows kindness and lends, keeps up his business in justice.
- 6 For he will be unshaken forever;
an honest man will become an everlasting memory.
- 7 He will not be afraid at a report of disaster;
his heart stands firm, trusting in Jehovah.
- 8 His heart is anchored; he will not be afraid till he gloats over his foes.
- 9 He has scattered, has given to the needy;
his right-doing stands forevermore;
his horn is carried high in honor.
- 10 A wrong-doer will see and be vexed, will grind his teeth and melt down;
wrong-doers' cravings will perish.

PSALM 113

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
Praise, worshipers of Jehovah,
praise Jehovah's name!
- 2 Be Jehovah's name blessed from now to eternity!
- 3 From sunrise land to sunset Jehovah's name is to be praised.
- 4 Aloft over all nations is Jehovah;
above the sky is his glory.

- 5 Who is the like of our God Jehovah, 6 seated high, seeing low, in heaven and on earth;
- 7 Lifting the poor man from the dust, raising the needy man from the rubbish-dump,
- 8 To seat him with nobles, with the nobles of his people;
- 9 Making a barren woman a homemaker, a happy mother?

PSALM 114

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
When Israel came out of Egypt, Jacob's family from a people of outlandish speech,
- 2 Judah became sacred to him, Israel his dominions.
- 3 The sea saw and took flight, the Jordan turned round backward,
- 4 The mountains leaped like rams, hills like sons of the flocks.
- 5 What happened to you, sea, that you should take flight?
Jordan, that you should turn round backward?
- 6 That you should leap like rams, mountains, like sons of the flocks, hills?
- 7 Quiver, earth, before a Lord, before Jacob's God,
- 8 Who turns the rock to a pool of water, a block of pyrite to a fountainhead of water.

PSALM 115

- 1 Not to us, Jehovah, not to us, but to your name bring honor for your friendship and loyalty.
- 2 Why should the nations say
"Where is their god?"
- 3 But our God is in heaven;
he has done everything that he pleased to.
- 4 Their idols are silver and gold,
work of human hands.
- 5 They have mouths and do not speak,
they have eyes and do not see,
- 6 They have ears and do not hear, they have noses and do not smell,
- 7 Their hands, they do not handle;
their feet, they do not walk;
they do not whisper with their throats.
- 8 Like them be their makers,

- everybody that trusts to them!
- 9 Israel trusts to Jehovah;
he is their help and shield.
- 10 The house of Aaron trusts to Jehovah;
he is their help and shield.
- 11 Those who fear Jehovah trust to Jehovah;
he is their help and shield.
- 12 Jehovah remembers us, will bless, will bless the house of Israel, will bless the house of Aaron,
- 13 Will bless those who fear Jehovah, the smallest with the greatest.
- 14 Jehovah add more to you, to you and to your sons!
- 15 Blessed be you of Jehovah,
Maker of heavens and earth!
- 16 The heavens are Jehovah's heavens, but the earth he has given to mankind.
- 17 The dead will not praise Jehovah, nor any who go down into silence;
- 18 But we will bless Jehovah from now on, forever!

PSALM 116

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
I love Jehovah, because he hears my suppliant voice,
- 2 Because he has bent his ear to me, and through my lifetime I will call.
- 3 The cords of death have enclosed me and the grip of the grave has caught me; I encounter distress and sorrow;
- 4 But on Jehovah's name I call:
ah, Jehovah, bring my life through.
- 5 Kind is Jehovah, and true to the right, and our God is tenderhearted.
- 6 Jehovah watches over simple people;
I was poor, and me he saves.
- 7 Come back to your resting, my soul, because Jehovah has done you a good turn.
- 8 For you have rescued my life from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from losing their hold;
- 9 I am walking before Jehovah in the lands of the living.
- 10 I believe while I speak;
I have had a very hard time,

- 11 I have thought in my alarm
"All men are shamming"; 12 What return shall I make to Jehovah for all his dealings with me?
13 I will lift a cup of salvation and proclaim Jehovah's name, 14 Will discharge my vows to Jehovah'
in the presence of all his people.
15 Death for the men of his friendship is a serious matter in Jehovah's view.
16 Ah, Jehovah, for I am your servant,
I am your servant, your bondwoman's son, you have unfastened my fetters.
17 To you I will sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving and proclaim Jehovah's name, 18 Will discharge my vows to Jehovah
in the presence of all his people, 19 In the courts of Jehovah's house, within you, Jerusalem.

PSALM 117

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
Praise Jehovah, all nations, laud him, every folk, 2 Because his friendship is supreme toward us and Jehovah's loyalty lasts forever.
Praise Jehovah!

PSALM 118

- 1 Give thanks to Jehovah, because he is good,
because his friendship lasts forever.
2 Let Israel say
that his friendship lasts forever.
3 Let Aaron's family say that his friendship lasts forever.
4 Let those who fear Jehovah say that his friendship lasts forever.
5 I called to Jehovah out of a tight pinch, Jehovah answered me in free range.
6 I have Jehovah for me; I will not be afraid; what is man to do to me?
7 I have Jehovah for me among my helpers, and I shall gloat over my haters.
8 Better to take refuge in Jehovah than to put confidence in man.

- 9 Better to take refuge in Jehovah than to put confidence in princes.
- 10 All nations have surrounded me—in Jehovah's name I will stand them off.
- 11 Surrounded me they have, yes, surrounded me—
in Jehovah's name I will stand them off.
- 12 They have surrounded me like bees—they have gone out like a thorn fire,
in Jehovah's name I will stand them off.
- 13 You did give me a push to bring me down, but Jehovah helped me.
- 14 My strength and hymn is Jehovah, and he has been to me salvation;
- 15 In honest men's tents there is a voice of shouting and victory:
Jehovah's right hand has done sturdily!
- 16 Jehovah's right hand was swung high!
Jehovah's right hand did sturdily!
- 17 I shall not die but live and tell the story of Jehovah's deeds;
- 18 Jehovah did chastise me, but did not give me up to death.
- 19 Open holy gates for me to go in by them, to praise Jehovah.
- 20 This gate is Jehovah's;
right-doers shall go in by it.
- 21 I thank you that you have answered me and been to me salvation;
- 22 A stone that the builders had rejected has become the head of a corner.
- 23 This was from Jehovah, it is a wonder to our eyes.
- 24 This day Jehovah has made;
we will exult and make merry on it.
- 25 Ah, Jehovah, give victory!
ah, Jehovah, give success!
- 26 Blessed in Jehovah's name be he who is coming in;
we bless you out of Jehovah's house.
- 27 Jehovah is Deity and has given us light.
Tie festival with cords clear to the horns of the altar.
- 28 You are my Deity whom I thank, my God whom I exalt.
- 29 Give thanks to Jehovah because he is good,
because his friendship lasts forever.

PSALM 119

- 1 Happy are men of conscientious course, those who go by Jehovah's instructions.
- 2 Happy those who keep his lessons, wholeheartedly resort to him.
- 3 Neither do they commit knavery;
they go by his courses.
- 4 It was you ordained your mandates, well to be observed.
- 5 Would that my courses were steady in observing your precepts!
- 6 I shall be then unashamed when I look toward all your commandments.
- 7 I will give you thanks with straightforward heart when I learn your righteous laws.
- 8 Your precepts I observe;
do not totally leave me.
- 9 By what is a young man to keep his path clean?
Watching it on the basis of your word.
- 10 Wholeheartedly I resort to you; let me take no wrong step away from your commandments.
- 11 In my heart I have buried your behest, so that I might not sin against you.
- 12 Blessed are you, Jehovah;
teach me your precepts.
- 13 With my lips I tell the story of all the laws your mouth has given out.
- 14 In the course your lips teach I rejoice as much as over any affluence.
- 15 In your mandates I study, and eye your paths.
- 16 In your precepts I take my pleasure, will not forget your word.
- 17 Do your servant a good turn;
let me live and observe your word.
- 18 Unblind my eyes and let me look at mysteries out of your instructions.
- 19 A visitor on earth am I; do not veil your commandments from me.
- 20 My soul wears away with wishing toward your laws at every time.
- 21 You rebuke presumptuous men;
cursed are those who err from your commandments.
- 22 Roll off from me ignominy and contempt, because I keep your lessons.
- 23 If even chieftains sat talking together against me

- your servant would study in your precepts.
24 Your lessons are withal my pleasure, my advisers.
25 Flat on the ground lies my soul; give me life in accordance with your word.
26 I told my story and you answered me;
teach me your precepts.
27 Give me insight into the course your mandates prescribe; that I may study your mysteries.
28 My soul is dissolved in woe;
set me on my feet in accordance with your Word.
29 Turn away from me the course of falsehood and favor me with your instructions.
30 I choose the course of faithfulness,
I crave your laws.
31 I have adhered to your lessons;
Jehovah, do not disappoint me.
32 I will run the road of your commandments because you have set my heart at ease.
33 Instruct me, Jehovah, in the course your precepts direct, and I will keep it to the last.
34 Give me insight and I will keep your instructions and observe them wholeheartedly.
35 Direct me along the path of your commandments;
for that is what I like.
36 Bend my heart toward your lessons and not toward pelf.
37 Lead my eyes to go past sights of frivolity;
give me life by your word.
38 Make good to your servant your promise for the fear of you.
39 Drive off my ignominy of which I stand in fear, because your laws are good.
40 Here have I been wishing your mandates; give me life in your fairness, 41 And let your acts of friendship come to me, Jehovah, your salvation in accordance with your promise, 42 And let me give an answer to him who taunts me;
for I am confident in your word; 43 And do not utterly cut off out of my mouth the word of truth, because I have been waiting for your laws, 44 And I will observe your instructions always, forever and evermore, 45 And walk a roomy road because I have betaken myself to your mandates; 46 And I will talk of your lessons in the presence of kings and never be ashamed, 47 And take my pleasure in your commandments which I love, 48 And raise my hands to your Commandments, which I love, and study your precepts.

 49 Remember for your servant your word, forasmuch as you are letting me wait.
 50 This is my comfort in my misfortune, that your promise gives me life.
 51 Presumptuous men have been very cynical to me—I did not swerve from your instructions; 52 I remembered your judgments since olden times, Jehovah, and took comfort.
 53 I am seized with fever at wrong-doers who forsake your instructions.
 54 Your precepts have been music to me in the house where I am on my visit.
 55 I have remembered your name in the night, Jehovah, and observed your instructions.
 56 This has been mine, that I have kept your mandates.
 57 My portion is Jehovah;
     I resolve to keep your word.
 58 I entreat you, Jehovah, with all my heart, be gracious to me according to your promise.
 59 I thought over my courses and turned my feet back to your lessons.
 60 I hastened and did not delay to observe your commandments.
 61 Wrong-doers' cords swing around me,
     I do not forget your instructions.
 62 At midnight I stand up to give you thanks for your righteous judgments.
 63 I am comrade of all who fear you, observing your mandates.
 64 The earth is full of your friendliness, Jehovah;
     teach me your precepts.
 65 You have done kindly by your servant,
     Jehovah, in accordance with your word.
 66 Teach me good sense and knowledge, because I believe in your commandments.
 67 Before I had my misfortunes I went wrong;
     but now I observe your behest.
 68 You are good and do the good;
     teach me your precepts.
 69 Presumptuous men have smeared lies over me;

I keep your mandates with all my heart.
 70 Their hearts are fatty as tallow;
 I take my pleasure in your instructions.
 71 It was good for me that I had my misfortunes, in order that I might learn your precepts.
 72 The instructions of your mouth are a better thing for me than thousands in gold and silver.
 73 Your hands made me and organized me;
 give me intelligence and I will learn your commandments.
 74 Those who fear you see me and are glad, because I wait for your word.
 75 I know, Jehovah, that your judgments are right and it was in faithfulness you sent me misfortune; 76 Let your friendship come to comfort me in accordance with your promise to your servant; 77 Let your tenderness come in, that I may get well, because your instructions are my pleasure.
 78 Let presumptuous men be ashamed that they have circumvented me with falsehood;
 I will study your mandates.
 79 Those who fear you shall come back to me, and those who know your lessons.
 80 Be my heart faultless by your precepts, so that I may not be put to shame.
 81 My soul is spent with looking for your salvation;
 I wait for your word.
 82 My eyes are spent with looking for your promise, thinking "How soon will you comfort me?" 83 Though I have become like a wineskin in a cloud of smoke, I have not forgotten your precepts.
 84 How long is your servant's time?
 how soon will you execute judgment on my persecutors?
 85 Presumptuous men have dug pitfalls for me, men who do not conform to your instructions.
 86 All your commandments are faithful; in falsehood they persecute me; help me.
 87 They almost made an end of me on earth, but I did not abandon your mandates.
 88 As befits your friendship give me life, and I will observe the lessons of your mouth.
 89 Forever, Jehovah, your word stands in heaven.
 90 To generation after generation your faithfulness lasts;
 you have set earth in order, and it stands.
 91 For your laws they stand today;
 for everything is in your service.

92 If your instructions had not been my pleasure, then I should have perished in my misfortune.
 93 Forever I will not forget your mandates, because by them you have given me life.
 94 Tours am I; save me,
     because I have betaken myself to your mandates.
 95 Wrong-doers have hoped to get me to destroy me;
     I seek insight into your lessons.
 96 Of every thoroughness I have seen an end; your commandment goes far indeed.
 97 How I love your instructions!
     they are my study all day.
 98 Your commandment makes me wiser than my enemies, for it is mine forever.
 99 I have more insight than all my teachers because I have your lessons as a study.
 100 I am more sagacious than aged men because I keep your mandates.
 101 From every vicious road I have shut off my feet in order to observe your word.
 102 From your laws I have not turned off, because you have instructed me.
 103 How delicious to my palate are your behest and promise, more so to my mouth than honey!
 104 Out of your mandates I grow intelligent; therefore I hate every false road.
 105 Your word is a lantern for my foot and light for my path.
 106 I have sworn, and will make it good,
     to observe your just laws.
 107 I am in great misfortune;
     Jehovah, give me life in accordance with your word.
 108 Accept the outpourings of my mouth, Jehovah, and teach me your laws.
 109 I carry my life in my hand all the time but never forget your instructions.
 110 Wrong-doers have set a trap for me, but I have not strayed from your mandates.
 111 I have your lessons as my estate forever, because they are the joy of my heart.
 112 I have bent my heart to live up to your precepts to the last of all.
 113 I hate undecided people but love your instructions.
 114 You are my screen and shield;
     I wait for your word.

- 115 Away from me, evil-doers, that I may keep my God's commandments!
- 116 Hold me up in accordance with your promise and let me have life, and do not disappoint me in my reliance.
- 117 Hold me firm, that I may be saved and take my pleasure in your precepts always.
- 118 You spurn all who go wrong from your precepts, because their duplicity is falsehood.
- 119 You have made an end of dross,
all earth's wrong-doers;
therefore I love your lessons.
- 120 My hair stands on end for dread of you, and I am in fear of your judgments.
- 121 I have done what was lawful and right;
do not leave me to those who deny me justice.
- 122 Be your servant's bail for good;
let presumptuous men not deny me justice.
- 123 My eyes are spent with looking for your salvation and for your righteous promise.
- 124 Do with your servant as befits your friendship and teach me your precepts.
- 125 I am your servant; give me intelligence to know your lessons.
- 126 It is time for Jehovah to act;
they have violated your instructions.
- 127 Therefore I love your commandments more than gold, red gold.
- 128 Therefore I hold a straight course by all your mandates, I hate every false road.
- 129 Wonderful are your lessons;
therefore my soul keeps them.
- 130 The doorway of your words shines out, giving good sense to simpletons.
- 131 I open my mouth and catch my breath because I am so eager for your commandments.
- 132 Face toward me and be gracious to me, as is right for those who love your name.
- 133 Make my footing sure in your behest, and let not any villainy dominate me.
- 134 Redeem me from man's injustice, and I will observe your mandates.
- 135 Show your servant a shining face
and teach me your precepts.
- 136 My eyes run streams of water for men's not having observed your instructions.
- 137 Righteous are you, Jehovah,

- and just your laws.
- 138 You have ordained your lessons in righteousness and utter faithfulness.
- 139 My jealousy has consumed me because my foes have forgotten your word.
- 140 Fully sterling is your behest, and your servant loves it.
- 141 Insignificant and despised am I—I do not forget your mandates.
- 142 Your right dealing is righteous forever, and your instructions are truth.
- 143 Distress and hardship have befallen me;
your commandments are my enjoyment.
- 144 Your lessons are right forever;
give me understanding and I shall come to life.
- 145 I call with all my heart; answer me, Jehovah;
I will keep your precepts.
- 146 I call you; save me and I will observe your lessons.
- 147 I am up in the twilight and clamorous, waiting for your word.
- 148 My eyes come up against the night watches studying in your behest.
- 149 Hear my voice in accordance with your friendship;
Jehovah, give me life in accordance with your law.
- 150 Those who chase after enormity have come near;
from your instructions they are far.
- 151 Near are you, Jehovah, and all your commandments are truth.
- 152 I know of old out of your lessons that you have laid their foundations forever.
- 153 See my wretched state and rescue me, because I have not forgotten your instructions.
- 154 Champion my cause and stand my friend;
give me life as was your promise.
- 155 Far from wrong-doers is salvation because they have not betaken themselves to your precepts.
- 156 Your tenderness is great, Jehovah;
give me life in accordance with your laws.
- 157 Many are my persecutors and foes;
I have not swerved from your lessons.
- 158 I saw faithless men and was seized with loathing that they did not observe your behest.
- 159 See, because I love your mandates; Jehovah, give me life in accordance with your friendship.
- 160 The sum of your word is truth

- and all your righteous laws are forever.
- 161 Chieftains have been persecuting me without provocation, but it is of your word my heart stands in dread.
- 162 I rejoice in your promise as does one who finds great booty.
- 163 I hate and abhor falsehood;
I love your instructions.
- 164 Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous laws.
- 165 Great peace have those who love your law, and nothing to stumble over.
- 166 I rely on your salvation, Jehovah, and live up to your commandments.
- 167 My soul observes your lessons and I greatly love them.
- 168 I observe your mandates and lessons because all my courses are before you.
- 169 Let my appeal come near before you, Jehovah:
give me understanding in accordance with your word.
- 170 Let my plea come in before you;
deliver me in accordance with your promise.
- 171 My lips shall pour out praise because you teach me your precepts.
- 172 My tongue shall sing of your behest, for all your commandments are right.
- 173 May your hand be for my help because I have chosen your mandates.
- 174 I am wishing your salvation, Jehovah, and your instructions are my pleasure.
- 175 Let my soul have life and praise you, and your judgments give me help.
- 176 I am astray like a lost sheep; look your servant up, because I have not forgotten your commandments.

PSALM 120

(Song of the goings up.)

- 1 I have called to Jehovah in distress of mine, and he has answered me.
- 2 Jehovah, deliver my life from lip of falsehood, from tongue of treachery.
- 3 "What shall he give you, and what give you more of, tongue of treachery?"
- 4 A champion's barbed arrows with live coals of broom-brushes.
- 5 Woe is me that I am away in Moshc, a denizen among the tents of Kedar!

- 6 My soul has had too much of living with those who hate peace.
- 7 I am peaceable; but when I speak they are for war.

PSALM 121

(Song for the goings up.)

- 1 I raise my eyes toward the mountains;
where is my help to come from?
- 2 My help is from Jehovah,
maker of heavens and earth.
- 3 May he not give your foot up to slipping;
may he who guards you not grow drowsy.
- 4 Not drowsy will he grow, nor go to sleep, who guards Israel.
- 5 Jehovah it is who guards you;
Jehovah is your shade at your right hand,
- 6 By day the sun shall not strike at you nor the moon by night.
- 7 Jehovah will guard you from everything bad, will guard your life;
- 8 Jehovah will guard your going out and coming in from now to eternity.

(Song of the goings up; of David's.)

- 1 I was gladdened by those who said to me
"We will go to Jehovah's house."
- 2 Our feet are standing in your gates, Jerusalem,
- 3 Jerusalem, built like a city all linked together,
- 4 Where tribes go up, Jehovah's tribes,
A testimony of Israel's, giving thanks to Jehovah's name.
- 5 For there stand thrones for judgment, the thrones of David's house.
- 6 Ask for Jerusalem's peace!
may those who love you prosper,
- 7 May there be peace over your common and prosperity in your palaces!
- 8 On account of my brothers and friends let me say "Peace be in you!"
- 9 On account of my God Jehovah's house let me seek good for you.

PSALM 123

(Song of the goings up.)

- 1 To you I raise my eyes, you who are enthroned in the heavens.
- 2 Lo, as servitors have an eye to their masters' hands, a maid to her mistress's, So our eyes are on our God Jehovah till he is gracious to us.
- 3 Be gracious to us, Jehovah, be gracious to us, for we have had the most we can take of contempt.
- 4 Our souls have had the most that they can take of ridicule by easy men, of contempt by proud men.

PSALM 124

(Song of the goings up; of David's.)

- 1 If it had not been for Jehovah that was on our side,
let Israel say,
- 2 If it had not been for Jehovah that was on our side when man stood up against us,
- 3 Then they would have swallowed us alive in their anger against us;
- 4 Then the water would have swept us off, an arroyo flood have gone over our lives;
- 5 Then the blustering water would have gone over our lives.
- 6 Blessed be Jehovah, who did not give us up as prey to their teeth.
- 7 We feel like a bird that gets out of a fowler's trap;
the trap broke and we are out!
- 8 Our help is in the name of Jehovah,
maker of heavens and earth.

PSALM 125

(Song of the goings up.)

- 1 Those who put their confidence in Jehovah are like Sion mountain, unshakable, seated forever.
- 2 Jerusalem has mountains around her, and Jehovah is around his people
from now to eternity.
- 3 For the scepter of wrong is not to rest over the lot of the righteous, in order that the righteous may not put their hands to disloyal work
- 4 Do good, Jehovah, to good men and to men straightforward in heart;
- 5 But those who curve their devious course Jehovah will take along with the doers of villainy.
Peace on Israel!

(Song of the goings up.)

- 1 When Jehovah came back to Sion we were like men in a dream.
- 2 Then our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with caroling;
Then they said among the nations
"Jehovah has done great things for these people!"
- 3 Jehovah has done great things for us;
we have become merry-makers.
- 4 Come back to us, Jehovah, as it comes in gorges in the South.
- 5 Those who sow with tears will reap with carols.
- 6 The man carrying the seed for the planting goes along weeping, the man carrying his sheaves comes in with caroling.

PSALM 127

(Song of the goings up; of Solomon's.)

- 1 If Jehovah is not building a house its builders have taken useless trouble on it; If Jehovah is not guarding a city a guardsman has been uselessly vigilant.
- 2 It is useless for you when you get up early,
do not sit down till late, Keep busy while you eat;
he gives his loved ones the same in sleep.
- 3 Song, now, are Jehovah's allotting;
the fruit of a wife's body is a reward.
- 4 Like arrows in a champion's hand, such are the sons of youthful years;
- 5 Happy the man who has filled his quiver with them.
They will not come to grief when they speak with enemies in the gate.

PSALM 128

(Song of the goings up.)

- 1 Happy anyone who fears Jehovah, goes by his roads.
- 2 You shall eat what your hands have toiled for;
happy shall you be, and it shall be well with you.
- 3 Your wife shall be a fruitful vine in the back of your house, your sons like new-set olive-trees round your table.
- 4 Thus blessed shall be a man who fears Jehovah.
- 5 Jehovah bless you out of Sion,

and may you look upon Jerusalem's welfare all your lifetime 6 And see sons of your sons.
Peace on Israel!

PSALM 129

(Song of the goings up.)

1 Ever since my youth they have made plenty of assaults on me,
let Israel say;
2 Ever since my youth they have made plenty of assaults on me yet could not master me.
3 Plowmen plowed on my back, plowed a long strip.
4 Jehovah, doer of right, has cut through wrong-doers' rope; 5 All Sion's haters come to grief and fall back, 6 Become like roof grass that dries up before it has made a stalk, 7 With which no reaper has filled his hand, no binder his arm, 8 And the passersby have not said
"Jehovah's blessing to you;
we bless you in Jehovah's name."

PSALM 130

(Song of the goings up.)

1 Out of deep gulfs
I call to you, Jehovah.
2 Hear the sound, Lord, let your ears be sharpened to my suppliant voice.
3 If you kept watch of guilts, Lord Jehovah, who would stand?
4 But forgiveness dwells with you, so that you may be feared.
5 I hope in Jehovah;
my soul hopes on his word.
6 I am waiting in soul for the Lord more than watchmen for morning.
7 Wait toward Jehovah, Israel, for with Jehovah dwells friendliness and much redemption with him, 8 And he will redeem Israel out of all his guilts.

PSALM 131

(Song of the goings up; of David's.)

1 Jehovah, my heart is not exalted nor my eyes lofty;

- I have not gone among great things and things too mysterious for me.
- 2 Verily I have soothed and stilled my soul.
Like a weaned child in its mother's arms, like the weaned child is my soul in me.
- 3 Wait toward Jehovah, Israel,
from now to eternity.

(Song of the goings up.)

- 1 Remember for David, Jehovah, all his hardships:
- 2 That he swore to Jehovah, vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob,
- 3 "I will not go into my home, will not mount my bed,
- 4 Will give my eyes no sleep,
my eyelashes no slumber,
- 5 Till I find a place for Jehovah, abodes for the Mighty One of Jacob."
- 6 We heard of it in Ephrathah, found it amid Ja'ar's wilds.
- 7 Let us go into his abodes, do reverence at the footstool of his feet.
- 8 Up, Jehovah, to come to your resting-place, you and your ark of might!
- 9 Let your priests be robed in righteousness and your godly men shout!
- 10 For the sake of your servant David do not refuse to listen to your anointed one.
- 11 Jehovah swore to David faithfully, will never go back from it,
"Offspring of your body
I will set on the throne for you.
- 12 If your sons keep my covenant and my lessons that I teach them You shall have their sons too sitting on the throne forevermore."
- 13 For Jehovah chose Sion, wished it for his seat:
- 14 "This is my resting-place forevermore;
here I will settle, because it I prefer.
- 15 Its provision of food I will bless and give its poor full meals,
- 16 And its priests shall be robed in salvation

- and its godly men shout aloud.
- 17 There I will have a horn grow for David;
I have filled a lamp for my anointed one.
- 18 His enemies I will clothe in shame, and upon him my diadem shall bloom."

PSALM 133

(Song of the goings up; of David's.)

- 1 Now what a good and charming thing it is when brothers do live together!
- 2 Like the good oil on one's head, coming down over the beard, Aaron's beard, that came down over the collar of his vestments,
- 3 Like Hermon dew, that comes down over Sion's mountains; For there Jehovah ordained the blessing, life forever.

PSALM 134

(Song of the goings up.)

- 1 O bless Jehovah, all you Jehovah's worshipers who stand in Jehovah's house of nights.
- 2 Raise your hands devoutly and bless Jehovah.
- 3 Jehovah bless you out of Sion,
the Maker of heavens and earth.

PSALM 135

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
Praise Jehovah's name,
praise it, you Jehovah's worshipers
- 2 Who stand in Jehovah's house, in the courts of the house of our God.
- 3 Praise Jehovah because Jehovah is good, make music for his name because it is so delightful,
- 4 Because Jehovah has chosen Jacob for himself, Israel for his special reserve.
- 5 For I know that Jehovah is great, and our Lord beyond all gods.
- 6 Jehovah does everything he pleases in the heavens and on the earth, in the seas and all deeps,
- 7 Brings up vapor from the earth's end, makes lightnings for the rain, brings out wind from his storehouses,

- 8 He who struck down the eldest sons of Egypt,
man and beast,
- 9 Sent tokens and miracles in your midst, Egypt, on the Pharaoh and all his subjects;
- 10 Who struck down great nations and killed formidable kings,
- 11 King Sihon of the Amorites
and King 'Og of the Bashan and all the kings of Canaan,
- 12 And gave their country as an estate, an estate for his people Israel.
- 13 Jehovah, your name is forever; Jehovah, the remembrance of you to generation after generation,
- 14 Because Jehovah will pronounce judgment for his people and take pity on his servants.
- 15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
work of human hands.
- 16 They have mouths and do not speak,
they have eyes and do not see,
- 17 They have ears and do not give ear, there is no breath in their mouths either.
- 18 Like them be their makers,
everybody that trusts to them!
- 19 House of Israel, bless Jehovah!
house of Aaron, bless Jehovah!
- 20 House of the Levites, bless Jehovah!
fearers of Jehovah, bless Jehovah!
- 21 Blessed be Jehovah out of Sion, he who dwells in Jerusalem!
Praise Jehovah!

PSALM 136

- 1 Give thanks to Jehovah, because he is good,
because his friendship lasts forever.
- 2 Give thanks to the God of gods,
because his friendship lasts forever.
- 3 Give thanks to the Lord of Lords,
because his friendship lasts forever:
- 4 To him who has alone done great wonders,
because his friendship lasts forever;
- 5 Him who made the sky with insight,
because his friendship lasts forever;
- 6 Him who spread the earth over the water,
because his friendship lasts forever;
- 7 Him who made great lights,

- because his friendship lasts forever, 8 The sun to rule by day,
because his friendship lasts forever, 9 The moon and stars to rule by night,
because his friendship lasts forever;
10 Him who struck the Egyptians in their eldest sons,
because his friendship lasts forever, 11 And brought Israel out of their midst,
because his friendship lasts forever, 12 With strong hand and outstretched arm,
because his friendship lasts forever;
13 Him who cut the Red Sea in two,
because his friendship lasts forever, 14 And took Israel across through the middle,
because his friendship lasts forever, 15 But tumbled the Pharaoh and his troops about in the Red Sea,
because his friendship lasts forever;
16 Him who conducted Israel through the wilderness,
because his friendship lasts forever; 17 Him who struck down great kings,
because his friendship lasts forever, 18 And killed august kings,
because his friendship lasts forever,
19 King Sihon of the Amorites,
because his friendship lasts forever,
20 And King 'Og of the Bashan,
because his friendship lasts forever, 21 And gave their country for an estate,
because his friendship lasts forever, 22 An estate for his servant Israel,
because his friendship lasts forever;
23 Him who remembered us in our lowness,
because his friendship lasts forever, 24 And tore us out of the hands of our foes,
because his friendship lasts forever;
25 Giver of bread to all mortals,
because his friendship lasts forever;
26 Give thanks to the God of Heaven,
because his friendship lasts forever.

PSALM 137

- 1 By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, wept withal, when we remembered Sion.
2 Within it we hung our lyres on poplar trees, 3 Because there our captors asked us for words of song

- and our persecutors for merrymaking,
 "Sing us some of the songs of Sion." 4 How are we to sing Jehovah's song on foreign soil?
 5 If I forget you, Jerusalem, may my right hand forget how to work!
 6 May my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember, if I do not put Jerusalem higher than the peak of my happiness.
 7 Remember Jerusalem's day, Jehovah, for the sons of Edom, those who said "Clear it off, clear it off, to the foundation of it." 8 Doomed daughter of Babylon, happy he who shall pay you back the treatment you have given us!
 9 Happy he who shall take and dash out against the crags the brains of the children that play about in you!

PSALM 138

(Of David's.)

- 1 I will give you thanks, Jehovah, with all my heart, make music for you in presence of gods, 2 Do reverence toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name For your friendliness and loyalty, because you made your promise great beyond all your fame 3 On the day that I called out and you answered me, inspirited me, strength in my soul.
 4 All earth's kings shall acknowledge you, Jehovah, because they hear the words of your mouth, 5 And sing of Jehovah's courses, because great is Jehovah's glory.
 6 For Jehovah is high and sees a low man, and knows a lofty man far away.
 7 If I go through the heart of distress you will give me life, will reach out your hand against my enemies' anger,
 And your right hand will save me;
 8 Jehovah will carry through on my behalf.
 Jehovah, your friendship lasts forever;
 do not abandon the works of your hands.

PSALM 139

(Of the Director; of David's; a psalm.)

- 1 Jehovah, you have sounded me and know me, 2 you know my sitting down and my standing up, you far away are aware of what I have in mind.
 3 You itemize my traveling about and my lying down to rest, and are familiar with all my courses.

- 4 When a word is not on my tongue, there you, Jehovah, know the whole of it.
- 5 You hem me in behind and before and lay your hand on me.
- 6 The knowledge is too mysterious for me;
    it is inaccessible; I am not capable of it.
- 7 Where shall I go from your spirit?
    and where shall I get away from your face?
- 8 If I go up in the sky you are there;
    and let me make my bed in the realm of death, there you are.
- 9 Let me lift the wings of dawn and alight at the back of the west,
- 10 Even there your hand will be leading me and your right hand grasping me.
- 11 And do I say "I will just have darkness shroud me and night enclose me,"
- 12 Even darkness does not make it too dark for you, and night is light as day;
    the darkness and the light are alike.
- 13 For it was you that built my vitals, were weaving me together in my mother's body.
- 14 I acclaim you that you are fearfully mysterious;
    mysterious are your works, and my soul knows it well.
- 15 My bones were not unknown to you as I was made in secret, stitched in an underground place.
- 16 Your eye saw my germs, and they were all registered in your book; Many days they were shaped,
    and not one of them was lost.
- 17 And what a stupendous thing to me are the objects of your concern, Jehovah!
    how multitudinous is their sum!
- 18 I count them—they outnumber the sand;
    I make an end—I am still at you.
- 19 If you are killing a wrong-doer, God, and bloodstained men, turn aside from me;
- 20 Those who perversely disobey you, futilely set themselves up against you,
- 21 Do I not hate those who hate you, Jehovah, and loathe those who stand up against you?
- 22 I hate them with utmost hate;
    they have become enemies of mine.
- 23 Search me, Deity, and know my heart, test me and know my ideas,

24 And see if I have in me a course that leads to pain, and lead me on the course that lasts forever.

PSALM 140

(Of the Director; a psalm; of David's.)

- 1 Rescue me, Jehovah, from evil men, guard me from injurious men,
- 2 Who think of mischief at heart, are starting fights all day,
- 3 Have whetted their tongues like a snake's, have under their lips an adder's venom. (Selah)
- 4 Keep me out of wrong-doers' hands, Jehovah,
guard me from injurious men,
who plan to give my feet a shove.
- 5 Proud men have buried a trap for me and persecutors have spread a net, on the roadside they have set snares for me. (Selah)
- 6 I have said to Jehovah "You are my God"; give ear, Jehovah, to my suppliant voice.
- 7 Jehovah, my Lord, might of my salvation, you have overarched my head when arms were busy.
- 8 Do not give what a wrong-doer hankers for;
do not let his design work out. [Selah]
- 9 Those who surround me are lifting their heads against me;
the mischief of their lips shall cover them,
- 10 Burning coals shall be dislodged upon them, he shall drop them into a fire, into pits where they shall not get up.
- 11 A man who depends on his tongue will not stand firm on earth;
an injurious man evil shall hunt down stroke by stroke.
- 12 I know that Jehovah will execute sentence for a downtrodden man, justice for needy men.
- 13 Honest men shall indeed give thanks to your name, upright men shall be seated before your face.

PSALM 141

(A psalm of David's.)

- 1 Jehovah, I am calling you; make haste for me;
give ear to my voice as I call for you.
- 2 Let my prayer be made ready as incense before you,
the lifting of my hands be an evening sacrifice.
- 3 Station a guard for my mouth, Jehovah, watch over the door of my lips.
- 4 Let my heart not incline to a bad thing, to find amusement in wrong-doing
"With villainous men, nor take a meal of their dainties.

- 5 Let a doer of right trounce me, let his friendship correct me;
 Let a wrong-doer's oil not anoint my head, because they have fettered my prayer by their wicked acts.
- 6 Their judges are hurled down the sides of crags, and they shall hear my words, because they are pleasant.
- 7 Like clods torn open on the earth our bones are scattered as the world below would take them.
- 8 For my eyes are toward you, Lord Jehovah;
 I have taken refuge in you; do not let my life run out.
- 9 Guard me from the grip of the trap they have set for me and the snares of villains;
- 10 Let wrong-doers fall into its nets together while I pass through.

PSALM 142

(Meditative; of David's when he was in the cave; a prayer.)

- 1 Aloud to Jehovah I cry, aloud with Jehovah I plead.
- 2 Before him I pour out my complaint, before him I tell my distress,
- 3 While my spirit is failing;
 but you know my path.
- In the road that I walk on they have buried a trap for me.
- 4 I look on the right and see, and there is no one that takes an interest in me;
 My place to flee to is lost, there is no one looking out for my life.
- 5 I cry to you, Jehovah;
 I say "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."
- 6 Listen to my appeal, because I am in great want:
 Deliver me from my persecutors, because they are too strong for me.
- 7 Bring my life out of lockup to give thanks to your name; Honest men are awaiting my prospect that you will do me a good turn.

PSALM 143

(A psalm of David's.)

- 1 Jehovah, hear my prayer,
 give ear to my supplication, in your faithfulness answer me with your right-doing,
- 2 And do not take your servant into court,

- because no one living will be in the right before you.
- 3 For an enemy has persecuted my soul, beaten my life down to the ground, Seated me in places of darkness
like men long since dead,
- 4 And my spirit has failed, my heart is aghast within me.
- 5 I remember ancient days, muse on all your doings, ponder the work of your hands.
- 6 I spread out my hands to you;
my soul looks to you as does a country perishing with drought.
(Selah)
- 7 Answer me quickly, Jehovah;
my spirit has given out.
Do not veil your face from me and have me be like those who are down in the Pit.
- 8 Let me hear of your friendship in the morning, because I am confident in you.
Make known to me the road I am to go, because I lift my soul to you.
- 9 Deliver me from my enemies, Jehovah;
to you I flee.
- 10 Teach me to do as is acceptable to you, because you are my God.
Your spirit is good; let it lead me over level ground.
- 11 For the sake of your name, Jehovah, you will give me life;
in your right-doing you will bring my soul out of distress,
- 12 And in your friendship you will annihilate my enemies and destroy all the assailants of my soul, because I am your servant.

PSALM 144

(Of David's.)

- 1 Blessed be Jehovah my Rock, who teaches my hands to do battle and my fingers to fight,
- 2 My friend and my fastness, my citadel and my own preserver, My shield and the one I take refuge in, he who treads down peoples under me.
- 3 Jehovah, what is man that you should know of him, a human being that you should think of him?
- 4 Man is like a puff of vapor, his days are like a passing shadow.

- 5 Jehovah, bend your sky and come down, touch the mountains and let them smoke.
- 6 Flash lightning and scatter them;
send your arrows and throw them into confusion.
- 7 Reach your hand from above, free me and deliver me from deep water, from the hands of foreigners
- 8 Whose mouths speak hollowly
and whose right hand is a hand of falsehood.
- 9 A new song let me sing for you, God, with ten-stringed lyre make music for you
- 10 Who give salvation to kings, who freed your servant David from baleful warfare.
- 11 Free me and deliver me
from the hands of foreigners
Whose mouths speak hollowly
and whose right hand is a hand of falsehood.
- 12 That our sons are like young fruit-trees, grown tall in their boyhood;
Our daughters like corner-posts carved in palace fashion;
- 13 Our barns full, giving out this sort and that;
Our sheep lambing by thousands, by tens of thousands in our open spaces;
- 14 Our cattle loaded;
no breached walls and no evacuations and no shrieking in our squares,—
- 15 Happy the people that has it like this;
happy the people whose God is Jehovah.

PSALM 145

(A hymn of David's.)

- 1 I exalt you, my Divine King, and will bless your name forevermore.
- 2 Every day I bless you, and will praise your name forevermore.
- 3 Great is Jehovah and greatly to be praised,
beyond exploration is his greatness.
- 4 Generation to generation shall laud your deeds and tell your feats,
- 5 Talk of the splendor of the glory of your majesty and study your wonders
- 6 And say the mightiness of your terrors, and I will tell the story of your greatness;

- 7 They shall pour out commemoration of the abundance of your goodness and shout your right-doing.
- 8 Kindly and tenderhearted is Jehovah, patient and great in friendliness.
- 9 Jehovah is good to everything, and his tenderheartedness is toward all his works.
- 10 All your works shall give thanks to you, Jehovah, and those that have your friendship shall bless you.
- 11 They shall utter the glory of your empire and speak your prowess,
- 12 Making known to mankind your feats and the glory of the splendor of your empire.
- 13 Your empire is an empire for all ages, and your dominion over every generation that comes.
Jehovah is trusty in his words and friendly in all his deeds.
- 14 Jehovah is a supporter of all who are falling and a raiser of all who are bent down.
- 15 Every creature's eyes look to you, Jehovah, and you give their food at the due time.
- 16 You open your hand and give your favor to satisfy every living thing.
- 17 Jehovah is fair in all his courses
and friendly in all his deeds.
- 18 Jehovah is near to all who call on him, all who call on him sincerely.
- 19 He will do what those who fear him can welcome, and will hear their cry and save them.
- 20 Jehovah guards all who love him, but all wrong-doers he will root out.
- 21 My mouth shall speak Jehovah's praise that all mortals may bless his holy name forevermore.

PSALM 146

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
Praise Jehovah, my soul;
- 2 I will praise Jehovah while I live,
make music for my God while I exist.
- 3 Do not trust confidently in noblemen, in a human being to whom salvation does not belong:
- 4 The breath in him will go out, he will go back to the soil he came from,
that day his goodwill is a total loss.
- 5 Happy he who has Jacob's God for his help,

- whose reliance is on his God Jehovah, 6 Maker of heavens and earth,
of the sea and everything in it;
Him who keeps to loyalty forever, 7 doer of justice for those to whom it is denied, Giver of bread to hungry men;
Jehovah undoes prisoners' fetters, 8 Jehovah opens blind men's eyes, Jehovah raises men who are bent down, Jehovah loves honest men, 9 Jehovah safeguards immigrants, Keeps orphan and widow on their feet and circumvents wrong-doers' courses.
10 Jehovah shall reign forever, your God, Sion, to generation after generation.
Praise Jehovah!

PSALM 147

- 1 Praise Jehovah, because he is good;
make music for our God, because he is sweet;
praise is glorious work.
2 Jehovah is Jerusalem's upbuilder, he collects the exiles of Israel, 3 He who heals men broken at the heart and bandages their aches, 4 Who counts off the stars, names them all.
5 Great is our Lord and supremely strong;
his understanding is incalculable.
6 Jehovah keeps humble men on their feet, brings wrong-doers down on the ground.
7 Sing out to Jehovah in thanksgiving, make music for our God with a lyre, 8 Him who covers sky with clouds, who dispenses rain to the earth, who makes mountains grow grass, 9 Gives their feed to cattle, to ravens' young as they call.
10 Not the pony's mettle pleases him, not the man's legs gratify him; 11 Jehovah is gratified with those who fear him, those who await his friendship.
12 Laud Jehovah, Jerusalem, praise your God, Sion, 13 Because he has strengthened the bars of your gates, has blessed your sons within you.

- 14 He who makes your domain prosperous, gives you your fill of the richest of wheat, 15 He who sends his behest on earth, right speedily does his word run; 16 He who gives snow like wool, scatters hoarfrost like ashes, 17 Throws his ice like scraps; before his cold who holds out?
18 He sends his word and melts them; he makes his wind blow, water trickles,— 19 Tells Jacob his word, Israel his rules and laws.
20 He has not done the like for any nation, and his laws they do not know.
Praise Jehovah!

PSALM 148

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
Praise Jehovah out of the skies, praise him high aloft: 2 Praise him, all his angels, praise him, all his legions; 3 Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all stars of light; 4 Praise him, sky of the sky, and waters above the sky!
5 Let them praise Jehovah's name, because he commanded and they were created, 6 And he set them to stand forever and aye, set a rule that they were not to violate.
7 Praise Jehovah from the earth, sea monsters and all deeps, 8 Fire and hail, snow and black cloud, tempest-wind carrying out his word, 9 The mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars, 10 The beasts and all cattle, reptiles and winged birds, 11 Earth's kings and every folk, captains and all earth's judges, 12 Young men, and maidens too, old men with boys!
13 Let them praise Jehovah's name, because his name alone towers high,
his majesty is over earth and skies, 14 And he has given a high horn to his people, praise to all the men of his friendship, To Israel's sons,

a people near to him.
Praise Jehovah!

PSALM 149

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
Sing a new song for Jehovah,
his praise in an assembly of men of friendship!
- 2 Let Israel be glad for his Maker, Sion's sons jubilate for their King.
- 3 Let them praise his name with dancing, make music for him with tambourine and lyre,
- 4 Because Jehovah is looking graciously on his people, will make humble men magnificent in victory.
- 5 Let men of friendship exult in triumph, carol on their beds,
- 6 Acclamations to Deity in their throats and two-edged swords in their hands
- 7 To wreak revenge on the nations, punishment on many a folk,
- 8 Putting their kings in fetters, their aristocrats in iron shackles,
- 9 Executing on them prescribed justice;
it is a glittering privilege for all the men of his friendship.
Praise Jehovah!

PSALM 150

- 1 Praise Jehovah!
Praise Jehovah in his sacred place, praise him in the firmament of his might!
- 2 Praise Jehovah for his feats of power, praise him for his supreme greatness!
- 3 Praise him with blast of ram-horn, praise him with harp and lyre!
- 4 Praise him with tambourine and dance, praise him with sounding strings and pipe!
- 5 Praise him with loud cymbals, praise him with ringing cymbals!
- 6 Let all breath praise Jehovah;
praise Jehovah!

THE BOOK OF PROVERBS

CHAPTER 1

- 1 The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel,
- 2 For knowing wisdom and instruction, for understanding sentences of insight,
- 3 For getting instruction in the successful practice of honesty and justice and rectitude,
- 4 For giving shrewdness to simpletons, knowledge and practicality to a boy,
- 5 While a wise man hears and adds to his lore and an expert acquires technique;
- 6 For understanding proverb and paradox, wise men's words and their riddles.
- 7 Fear of Jehovah is the first thing in knowledge.
Wisdom and instruction ignoramus despise.
- 8 Listen, son, to your father's instruction,
and never abandon your mother's teachings,
- 9 Because they are a becoming garland for your head and a necklace for your throat.
- 10 My son, if sinners are inveigling you do not consent.
- 11 If they say "Come with us, let us lay an ambush for bloodshed, set a trap for an innocent man for nothing;
- 12 We shall swallow them alive like the grave, sound and whole like men going down to the world below;
- 13 We shall come across all sorts of valuable goods, fill our houses with booty;
- 14 You shall get an even split, we will have one purse for all,"

15 My son, do not walk on a road with them, keep your foot off their path, 16 Because their feet are running to evil and hurrying to shed blood.
17 For it is for nothing that the net flutters before the eyes of any bird, 18 And they are laying ambushes for their own blood, setting traps for their own lives.
19 Such is the fate of whoever grasps at gain;
it takes its owners' life.
20 Wisdom holloos on the street, sends out her voice in the squares, 21 Calls out at the crowded corners, says her say in the city at the gates, 22 "How long, simpletons, will you love simpleness, and cynics like to be cynical, and fools hate knowledge?
23 You should turn back at my admonition;
I would stream my spirit for you, would make my words known to you.
24 Since I have called and you refused, held out my hand and nobody listened, 25 And you neglected my advice and would not have my admonition, 26 I on my part will laugh at your calamity, will make fun when what you dread comes, 27 When what you dread comes like a thunderstorm and your calamity arrives like a gale, when distress and hard straits come upon you; 28 Then they will call me and I will not answer, they will go in quest of me and not find me.
29 Inasmuch as they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of Jehovah, 30 Would not have my advice, despised all my admonition, 31 They shall eat out of the fruit of their courses and have their fill out of their policies, 32 Because simpletons' broken resolutions kill them and fools' faith in their luck destroys them.
33 But he who listens to me shall dwell unafraid and be at ease from dread of harm."

CHAPTER 2

- 1 My son, if you take what I say
and lay up my commands in your mind,
- 2 Giving a listening ear to wisdom and directing your heart to intelligence, 3 If you call up discretion and to intelligence you raise your voice, 4 If you hunt for it as you would for silver and search for it as you would for buried treasure, 5 Then you shall understand the fear of Jehovah and find the knowledge of God, 6 Because Jehovah gives wisdom;

out of his mouth come knowledge and intelligence; 7 He lays away sensible ideas for the upright, shields those who walk conscientiously, 8 Protecting law-abiding ways and guarding the road of the men of his friendship; 9 Then you shall understand right and justice and fair dealing, every good line, 10 Because wisdom shall come into your heart and knowledge be delicious to your soul; 11 Good judgment shall guard you, intelligence shall keep you, 12 Delivering you from a bad course, from men who talk mischief, 13 Those who leave straightforward ways to go on roads of darkness, 14 Who are glad to do harm and exult in mischief to a friend, 15 Whose ways are crooked and they take dodging roads; 16 Delivering you from a stranger woman, a smooth-talking foreigner, 17 That leaves the mate of her girlhood and forgets the covenant of her god, 18 For her house is sinking to death and her roads run to ghosts—19 Any who go in to her will never come back nor reach the ways to life,— 20 In order that you may walk in good men's path and keep to honest men's ways, 21 Because straightforward men will people earth and conscientious men remain in it, 22 But wrong-doers will be extirpated from earth and faithless men torn out from it.

CHAPTER 3

1 My son, do not forget my instructions, but let your heart keep my commands, 2 Because they will add to your length of life,

- your years of health, and your welfare.
- 3 Let friendliness and loyalty never leave you, hang them round your neck,
  - 4 And find favor and a reputation for judiciousness in the eyes of God and men.
  - 5 Trust in Jehovah with all your heart and do not lean on your own expertness;
  - 6 Along all your courses know him and he will keep your ways straight.
  - 7 Do not feel as if you were wise;
fear Jehovah and steer clear of what is bad;
  - 8 It will be medicine for your navel and juice for your bones.
  - 9 Honor Jehovah out of your means and out of the first of all your produce,
  - 10 And have your barns filled with foodstuffs and your vats bursting with grape-juice.
  - 11 Do not reject Jehovah's discipline, my son, nor chafe at his correction,
  - 12 Because it is the one Jehovah loves that he corrects and he hurts a son who is acceptable to him.
  - 13 Happy a man who finds wisdom and a person who obtains intelligence,
  - 14 Because it is a better bargain than silver, better revenue than hard gold,
  - 15 It is worth more than coral and all your valuables are no equivalent for it.
  - 16 It has long life in its right hand, riches and honor in its left.
  - 17 Its courses are courses of delight and all its paths are prosperity.
  - 18 It is bark from a tree of life for those who grasp it, and one who handles it is to be congratulated.
  - 19 Jehovah laid the foundations of earth by wisdom, fastened up the sky by intelligence;
  - 20 By his knowledge the deeps were laid open and the heavens shed dew.
  - 21 My son, never let them get away from your eyes;
keep sense and judgment;
  - 22 They will make your life vital and your neck fine.
  - 23 Then you will go your way confidently and your toe will not stub.
  - 24 If you sit down you will have no dread;
you will go to bed and your sleep will be sweet.
  - 25 Do not be frightened at what simpletons dread,

- nor at the storm upon wrong-doers when it comes, 26 For Jehovah will be your reliance and guard your foot from getting caught.
27 Do not withhold a kindness from the one who might receive it when it is in your power to do it.
28 Do not say to your neighbor "Go along, come again and tomorrow I will let you have some" when you have some by you.
29 Do not cook up harm for your neighbor when he is living with you unsuspectingly.
30 Do not quarrel gratuitously with people if they have done you no harm.
31 Do not envy a rapacious man nor choose any of his courses, 32 Because a crook is a thing Jehovah detests but upright men stand on intimate terms with him.
33 Jehovah's malediction is in a wrong-doer's house, but honest men's home he blesses.
34 He treats cynics in cynical fashion but favors the meek.
35 Wise men come in for glory, but disgrace makes fools conspicuous.

CHAPTER 4

- 1 Hear, sons, a father's tuition, and listen to knowledge of discretion, 2 Because I have given you good doctrine; do not abandon my instructions.
3 For I was a son of my father's, a tender only child before my mother, 4 And he instructed me and said to me
"Let your heart take up my words;
keep my commands and live.
5 Get wisdom, get discretion; do not forget and do not deviate from the words of my mouth; 6 Do not abandon her but keep her;
love her and she will guard you.
7 The first thing in wisdom is—Get wisdom!
and pay all your assets for discretion.
8 Prize her and she will exalt you, she will bring you to honor when you embrace her.
9 She will give your head a garland of grace, will deliver to you a crown of grandeur." 10 Hear, son, and receive what I say and it will make your years of life many.
11 I have directed you on the course of wisdom and set you on level roads:

- 12 In your walking your steps will not be cramped, and if you run you will not stumble.
- 13 Hold fast to discipline, do not let go;
keep her, for she is your life.
- 14 Do not enter the path of wrong-doers nor tread the course of wicked men.
- 15 Disregard it, do not pass along it, sheer off from it and go past,
- 16 Because they do not get to sleep unless they have done something bad and are robbed of their sleep if they do not do an injury;
- 17 For they feed on wrong-doing for bread and drink outrages for their wine.
- 18 But right-doers' path is like the rays of light, growing lighter and lighter till it is settled day.
- 19 Wrong-doers' course is like murky gloom:
they do not know what they will stumble over.
- 20 My son, listen to my words;
bend your ear to my sayings;
- 21 Do not let them get away from your eyes;
guard them in the core of your heart,
- 22 Because they are life for him who finds them and soundness for all his flesh.
- 23 Beyond everything that you take care of keep your heart, for out of it come springs of life.
- 24 Keep crookedness aloof from your mouth and shiftiness far from your lips.
- 25 Let your eyes look right onward and your gaze be directed straight before you,
- 26 See to the road for your feet and let all your courses be steady,
- 27 Do not turn off to right or left;
Keep your feet aloof from what is bad.

CHAPTER 5

- 1 My son, listen to my wisdom, bend your ear to my insight,
- 2 To be careful of sound judgment and have your lips keep knowledge;
- 3 For a stranger woman's lips drip virgin honey and her throat is smoother than oil,
- 4 But her aftermath is bitter as wormwood, sharper than a two-edged sword.
- 5 Her feet are going down to death, she plants her steps in the world below.
- 6 That she may not heed the path to life, her roads wander about, she does not know how.

- 7 But now, sons, listen to me and do not deviate from what my mouth tells: 8 Make your course far from her,
do not come near the door of her house, 9 For fear you should give your fortune to others and your years to a cruel man; 10 For fear strangers should consume your strength at will and your pains come into a foreigner's house; 11 And in the sequel you should repent, when your flesh and muscle give out, 12 And say "How I did hate instruction and my heart despised admonition, 13 And I did not obey my preceptors nor bend my ear to my teachers!
14 I was within a tittle of coming to the utmost harm in the midst of assembly and congregation." 15 Drink water out of your own cistern and the flow out of the middle of your own well.
16 Your fountains would scatter to the street, rills of water through the squares!
17 Let them be for you alone and nothing for strangers with you.
18 Be your springhead blessed, and have joy out of the wife of your youth.
19 Doe of love, ibex of grace, her breasts shall refresh you at every time, with love of her you shall be always maddened.
20 And why, son, should you be maddened with a stranger and embrace a foreigner's bosom?
21 For a man's courses face Jehovah's eyes, who observes all the roads he takes.
22 His guilt will clutch him, the wrong-doer, and he will be caught in the cords of his sin.
23 Such a one will die for lack of discipline and run into ruin by his great ignorance.

CHAPTER 6

- 1 My son, if you have gone security to another, have struck hands with a stranger, 2 You are trapped in the word of your lips, caught in the say of your mouth.
3 Do this, son, do, and deliver yourself, because you have got into the other man's hand:
go cringe to the other man and bluster at him.
4 Give your eyes no sleep, your eyelashes no slumber;

- 5 Break loose like a gazelle struggling out of toils or a bird out of a fowler's hand.
- 6 Go to an ant, idler, see its courses and become wise:
- 7 It, that has no chieftain, marshal, nor ruler,
- 8 Lays in its food in summer, gets its provisions packed away in harvesttime.
- 9 How long will you lie abed, idler?
when will you get up from your sleep?
- 10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding your arms to lie abed—
- 11 And your poverty shall come like a prowler and your want like a man under arms.
- 12 A reprobate, a villain, who quibbles,
- 13 Winks with his eyes, shuffles with his feet,
makes signs with his fingers,
- 14 Has mischief in his heart, is working up harm every minute, sets quarrels going,—
- 15 Therefore his calamity will come suddenly, he will be incurably broken all at once.
- 16 Six things there are that Jehovah hates, seven that are detestable to his soul:
- 17 Lofty eyes, a false tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,
- 18 A heart that frames plans of villainy, feet that run fast to what is bad,
- 19 A lie-blowing false witness, and one who sets quarrels going between brothers.
- 20 Keep your father's command, my son,
and never abandon your mother's teachings;
- 21 Tie them over your heart always, string them round your throat.
- 22 When you walk it will guide you, when you lie down it will watch over you and you will wake up with it minding you.
- 23 For a command is a lamp and a teaching is light, and the admonition of discipline is a road to life,
- 24 To guard you from a ruinous woman, from the slipperiness of a foreign dame's tongue.
- 25 Do not take inward pleasure in her beauty;
let her not catch you with her eyelashes,
- 26 Because on account of an unchaste woman one comes down, to a loaf of bread, and a man's wife hunts dear lives.

- 27 Will a man take up fire into his arms and his clothes not burn through, 28 Or will a man walk on live coals and his feet not be burned?
29 So it is with him who goes in to another's wife:
nobody who touches her will go free.
30 They do not despise a thief, that he steals to fill his stomach because he is hungry; 31 But one who is found pays back sevenfold, gives all the goods in his house.
32 One who commits adultery with a wife lacks brains;
it is a self-destroyer that does it.
33 He will get blows and dishonor, and his ignominy will be uneffaceable.
34 For jealousy is a man's fury, and he will be unsparing on the day of revenge; 35 He will not take any composition-money into consideration, will not consent though you offer a high price.

CHAPTER 7

- 1 My son, be careful of what I say
and lay up my commands in your mind.
2 Be careful of my commands and live;
and of my teaching as if of the apple of your eye.
3 Tie them to your fingers;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 Say to wisdom "you are my sister," and call discretion a relative, 5 To guard you from a stranger woman, from a foreigner that talks slippery language.
6 For I looked out of my house window, through my lattice, 7 And I saw among the simpletons, perceived among the youngsters, a brainless boy 8 Going along the street that went by her corner and stepping in the direction of her house 9 In the twilight, the evening hours, in the dead of night and the murky gloom; 10 And there coming to meet him was a woman with a prostitute's rig and a close heart;— 11 Boisterous and wayward is she, her feet do not perch in her house; 12 Now in the street, now in the squares, and beside every corner she lies in ambush;— 13 And she caught hold of him and kissed him, said to him with a bold face 14 "I have welfare-sacrifices that must be eaten, I paid my vows today;

15 That was why I came out to meet you, to hunt up your face, and I have found you.
16 I have spread my couch with rugs, striped work of Egyptian yarn, 17 I have sifted myrrh, eaglewood, and cinnamon over my sofa.
18 Come on, we will quaff love till morning, have a gay night with endearments, 19 Because husband is not in the house, he is off on a long journey, 20 He took the moneybag with him;
he will get home the day the moon is full." 21 She swayed him with the thoroughness of her technique, tugged at him with the glibness of her lips—22 He suddenly goes along after her like a steer coming to the slaughter, Or as a buck prances toward a decoy 23 till an arrow cuts open his liver; Like a bird's hurrying into a trap and not knowing that its life is at stake.
24 Now, sons, hear me and listen to the words of my mouth: 25 Let your hearts not run off into her roads, do not stray along her paths, 26 Because she has stabbed down many and all her killed are a multitude.
27 Her paths are roads to the world below, going down to the chambers of death.

CHAPTER 8

1 Is not wisdom calling and intelligence sending out her voice?
2 On the brows of wayside eminences, at crossroads she takes her stand; 3 At the sides of gates, at the entrances of towns, at the approaches to gateways she holloos 4 "To you, men, I call, and my voice goes to humankind: 5 Appreciate shrewdness, simpletons; fools, provide yourselves with brains.
6 Hear, for I will speak sound sense, and what my lips are opened for shall be correct, 7 Because my throat breathes truth and wrong is an abomination to my lips, 8 All that my mouth says is on the right side, there is nothing tricky and crooked in it, 9 It is all obvious to a man of understanding and plain to those who find knowledge.

 10 Take my instruction and not silver—knowledge is preferable to hard gold; 11 For wisdom is a better thing than coral and all valuables are no equivalent for it.
 12 I wisdom am neighbor to shrewdness and meet the knowledge of effective tactics.
 13 The fear of Jehovah is the hate of what is bad; pride and pretentiousness and a bad course and a mischief-making mouth I hate.
 14 Mine are sound policies and sensible ideas;
 I am discretion, mine is power.
 15 By me kings reign and potentates prescribe the right; 16 By me generals command and nobles, all the judges of earth.
 17 I love those who love me, and those who go in quest of me will find me.
 18 Riches and honor I have on hand, goodly resources and a right-doer's standing.
 19 My fruit is better than hard gold, red gold, and the produce I reap is preferable to silver.
 20 On a highway of right I walk, on midmost paths of justice, 21 Dispensing assets to those who love me and filling their coffers.
 22 "Jehovah framed me first in line, foremost of his works in the past.
 23 Of old I was constituted, at first before the origins of earth.
 24 When there were no deeps I came to birth, when there were no springs, sources of water; 25 Earlier than mountains I was planted, before hills I came to birth, 26 When he had not made earth and open spaces and the multitudinous particles of the soil of the world.
 27 When he fastened the sky I was there, when he arched a vault over the face of the deep, 28 When he braced the ether above, when he fortified the springs of the deep, 29 When he set his limit for the sea and water does not overstep his dictate,

- When he strengthened the foundations of earth, 30 I was master-workman at his side And was taking my pleasure day by day, playing before him at every time, 31 Playing with nature all over his earth, and my pleasure was among mankind.
32 And now, sons, listen to me—happy are those who keep on my courses.
33 Hear instruction and be wise, and do not neglect it.
34 Happy a man who listens to me, attent at my doors day by day, watching the jambs of my portal, 35 Because he who finds me has found life and obtained favor from Jehovah, 36 But he who sins against me is victimizing himself;
all who hate me love death."

CHAPTER 9

- 1 Wisdom has built her house, has shaped her pillars seven, 2 Has killed animals for her meat, mixed her wine, set her table too, 3 Has sent her girls, calls out on the crests of eminences in the city 4 "Who is a simpleton? let him come this way; brainless? that I may say to him 5 'Come, have some of my dinner and drink some of the wine I have mixed.
6 Leave off simpleness and have life, and tread the road of discretion.'" 7 —He who offers instruction to a cynic gets dishonor for himself, and he who admonishes a wicked man, it is his discredit.
8 Do not admonish a cynic, for fear he should hate you;
admonish a wise man and he will love you.
9 Give to a wise man and he will be wiser yet; advise a right-minded man and he will add to his lore.
10 The beginning of wisdom is to fear Jehovah, and to know the Holy is discretion.
11 For by me your days shall be many and years of life shall be added to you.
12 If you are wise, you are wise for yourself;
and are you cynical, you will carry the consequences alone.
13 Foolishness is boisterous; simplemindedness knows no shame; 14 And she sits at the door of her house,

- in a chair on eminences in the city, 15 To call to passersby, those who are treading their ways, 16 "Who is a simpleton? let him come this way;
 and brainless? that I may say to him 17 'Stolen water is sweet and bread behind a screen is delicious'"— 18 But he does not know there are ghosts there; her guests are in the deeps of the realm, of death.

CHAPTER 10

1 The Proverbs of Solomon.

- A wise son gladdens a father,
 but a foolish son is misery to his mother.
 2 A wrong-doer's hoards do no good,
 but right-doing delivers from death.
 3 Jehovah will not let a right-doer go hungry, but wrong-doers' hankering he will balk.
 4 He who does things with slack hand grows poor;
 but energetic men's hands enrich.
 5 A capable son is stowing things away in summer;
 a worthless son lies fast asleep in harvesttime.
 6 There are blessings for a right-doer's head,
 but outrage covers up wrong-doers' mouths.
 7 The memory of a right-doer is for a blessing, but wrong-doers' names will decay.
 8 A man of wise heart takes orders, but a man of ignorant lips makes trouble.
 9 One who walks plainly walks safely, but one who tangles his courses will be shown up.
 10 A winker gives woe, but an outspoken reprover brings soundness.
 11 An honest man's mouth is a fountainhead of life;
 but outrage covers up wrong-doers' mouths.
 12 Hate starts quarrels, but love covers over all offenses.
 13 On an intelligent man's lips wisdom is found;
 but a cudgel is the thing for a brainless man's back.
 14 Wise men keep knowledge under cover;
 but an ignorant man's mouth is ruin close at hand.
 15 A rich man's goods are his strong city;
 the destitution of poor men is their ruin.
 16 What a right-doer has worked on goes for life;
 a wrong-doer's produce, for sin.
 17 He who lives up to lessons is on a road to life,

- but he who ignores admonition is off the track.
- 18 Lying lips cover up hatred;
but he who gives out scandal is a fool.
- 19 In multiplicity of words offense will not be lacking;
but he who keeps his lips under restraint is acting sensibly.
- 20 An honest man's tongue is sterling silver;
wrong-doers' brains are worth little.
- 21 An honest man's lips shepherd many;
but ignoramuses die by lack of brains.
- 22 Jehovah's blessing is what makes one rich, and pains add nothing extra.
- 23 Committing enormity is just fun to a fool, and so is wisdom to an intelligent man.
- 24 What a wrong-doer stands in terror of is what will come to him; but honest men's desire will be granted.
- 25 When a gale has gone past, a wrong-doer is not there;
but an honest man is permanently fixed on his foundation.
- 26 As is vinegar to the teeth and as is smoke to the eyes, so is the idler to those who send him.
- 27 The fear of Jehovah adds days;
but wrong-doers' years will be shortened.
- 28 Right-doers' prospect is gladness;
but wrong-doers' hope will be lost.
- 29 Jehovah is a citadel to a man of conscientious course but ruin to villains.
- 30 A right-doer will be unshaken forever, but wrong-doers will not have a lodgment in the country.
- 31 A right-doer's mouth bears crops of wisdom, but a mischief-making tongue will be cut out.
- 32 A right-doer's lips know courtesies, but wrong-doers' mouths misbehavior.

CHAPTER 11

- 1 Cheating scales are what Jehovah detests, and a full-standard weight is what he approves.
- 2 Comes pretentiousness, comes dishonor;
but wisdom is on the side of modest men.
- 3 Straightforward men's conscientiousness will guide them, but faithless men will be upset by their wickedness.
- 4 Property does no good on a day of wrath,
but right-doing delivers from death.
- 5 A conscientious man's rectitude will smooth his course, but a wrong-doer will fall by his tendency to wrong.
- 6 Straightforward men's rectitude will deliver them, but faithless men will be caught by their greed.
- 7 At man's death hope perishes

- and the prospect vigor gave is lost.
- 8 An honest man is rescued out of distress and a rogue goes in instead.
- 9 By an ungodly man's mouth his neighbor is ruined, but by knowledge honest men are rescued.
- 10 When good things happen to honest men a town jubilates, but when rogues perish there is shouting.
- 11 By upright men's blessing a town stands tall, but by rogues' mouths it is demolished.
- 12 A brainless man despises his neighbor, but an intelligent man holds his tongue.
- 13 A tattler discloses confidences,
but a man of trusty spirit covers a matter up.
- 14 By not having political skill a people falls;
but preservation comes by plenty of advisers.
- 15 One comes to grievous harm because he has gone security for a stranger;
but he who hates hand-strikers has nothing to fear.
- 16 A gracious woman holds honor, but a woman who hates the right things, a chair of dishonor.
Idlers will lack means,
but aggressive men will control riches.
- 17 A friendly man is befriending himself;
but a cruel man is breeding trouble for his own flesh.
- 18 A wrong-doer makes illusory revenue, but he who sows the seed of right, real wages.
- 19 Firmness in the right makes for life;
but one who chases after evil does this for his own death.
- 20 Men crooked in their hearts are what Jehovah detests, and men conscientious in their courses are what he approves.
- 21 Hand on hand a vicious man will not be cleared, but right-doers' descendants escape.
- 22 A beautiful but wrong-headed woman is a gold ring in a hog's nose.
- 23 Honest men's desire is pure kindness, but rogues' hope is truculence.
- 24 There is such a thing as one who scatters but has more and more;
but one who scrimps unduly is headed only for want.
- 25 A generous soul will get plenty of oil, and a man who gives water freely, plenty of water for himself.
- 26 One who refuses to sell grain the people will curse, but there will be blessings for the head of one who does sell it.
- 27 One who goes after good is going to find God's favor, and one who hunts for harm will have it come to him.
- 28 He who puts confidence in his riches, he will fall, but right-doers will bud out like leaves.

- 29 One who Breeds trouble for his house will have an estate of air;
and an ignoramus is slave to a man with a wise brain.
30 The fruit of right-doing is bark from a tree of life, but rascality takes lives away.
31 Here an honest man has a narrow margin of well-being-how much more a rogue and sinner!

CHAPTER 12

- 1 One who loves being instructed loves knowledge;
but one who hates being corrected goes stupid.
2 A kindly man will obtain favor from Jehovah, but a schemer he will condemn.
3 Man is not set firm by wrong-doing;
but right-doers' roots are unshaken.
4 A worthy wife is her husband's crown, but a worthless one is like a rot in his bones.
5 Honest men's plans are for legitimate procedure;
rogues' tactics are fraud.
6 Rogues' words are an ambush for bloodshed, but upright men's mouths deliver them.
7 Upset rogues and they are nowhere;
but honest men's house will stand.
8 A man will be praised in proportion to his good judgment;
but a dizzy-headed man will come into contempt.
9 A nobody who owns a slave is better than a pretentious man short of bread to eat.
10 A right-minded man knows the wants of his animal;
but vicious men's feelings are brutal.
11 One who works his ground will have plenty of bread;
but one who runs after unpractical things lacks brains.
12 Love for wrong-doing is a net for bad men; but honest men's root is permanent.
13 In crime of the lips is a disastrous snare, but an honest man gets out of the pinch.
14 Out of the fruit of a man's mouth he will have his fill of good, and the dealing of one's hands will come back to him.
15 A know-nothing's course seems all right to him, but he who listens to advice is wise.
16 A know-nothing's pique is displayed on the spot, but a shrewd man covers up a dishonor.
17 Who utters reliable facts shows the right; but a false-speaking witness, a cheat.
18 There is such a thing as a man whose jabber is like sword-stabs; but wise men's tongue is healing.
19 A lip of truth will stand fast forevermore, but a tongue of falsehood for an instant.

- 20 There is double-dealing in the hearts of those who are cooking up harm, but those who confer on wholesome policy have happiness.
- 21 No trouble will be brought upon a right-doer;
but wrong-doers are full of evil.
- 22 Lips of falsehood are what Jehovah detests, but men who act truly are what he approves.
- 23 A shrewd man covers up knowledge, but fools' hearts bawl ignorance.
- 24 Energetic men's hands will have control, but slackness will come to servitude.
- 25 Worry in a man's heart depresses it, but thinking of a good thing gladdens it.
- 26 A right-doer will hunt up his pasture, but the course wrong-doers are on will make them lose their way.
- 27 Slackness does not broil his game; but energy treats a man's goods as worth caring for.
- 28 On the highway of right there is life, but an avenger's course leads to death.

CHAPTER 13

- 1 A wise son a father's instruction, but a cynic hears not a rebuke.
- 2 Out of the fruit of a man's mouth he will eat good, but faithless men's appetite is for outrage.
- 3 He who keeps watch of his mouth is guarding his life;
he who throws his lips open comes to ruin.
- 4 An idler has an appetite and finds nothing, but energetic men's appetite will find plenty of oil.
- 5 An honest man hates a false word, but a rogue leaves you disappointed and abashed.
- 6 Right-doing keeps safe a man of conscientious course, but sin upsets wrong-doers.
- 7 There are such things as a man who makes himself out rich and there is nothing at all there, and a man who makes himself out poor and there are quantities of goods.
- 8 A man's riches buy off his life;
but a poor man hears not a rebuke.
- 9 Right-doers' light is merry, and wrong-doers' lamp goes out.
- 10 A man with nothing in him will start a squabble by self-will;
but wisdom is with men who take advice.
- 11 Property got together in a rush will shrink; but one who gathers bit by bit will make much.
- 12 An expectation long drawn out breeds sickness in the heart; but a desire that comes true is bark from a tree of life.

- 13 One who despises a word will have to give security;
but one who fears a commandment, he will go safe.
- 14 A wise man's precept is a spring of life for keeping away from the snares of death.
- 15 Tact gives charm;
but faithless men's course is to perdition.
- 16 Any shrewd man acts by knowledge;
but a fool spreads out ignorance.
- 17 An unscrupulous messenger tumbles one into disaster, but a trustworthy courier is healing.
- 18 Poverty and dishonor, who neglects instruction;
but one who observes admonition will come to high standing.
- 19 A desire realized is sweet to the soul;
but avoiding anything bad is what fools detest.
- 20 Go with wise men and become wise;
but one who cultivates fools will come to harm.
- 21 Disaster pursues sinners, but comfortable prosperity rests with honest men.
- 22 A good man will bequeath an inheritance to children's children, but a sinner's wealth is stored away for an honest man.
- 23 Plenty of food, poor men's sod-breaking;
but there is such a thing as one that is swept away without justice.
- 24 He who holds back his stick hates his son, but he who loves him goes in quest of it as a discipline.
- 25 A right-doer eats all his appetite wants, but wrong-doers' stomachs are scrimped.

CHAPTER 14

- 1 Women's wisdom builds its house, but foolishness is demolishing it with her own hands.
- 2 He who fears Jehovah goes straightforwardly, but he who despises him takes dodging courses.
- 3 In a know-nothing's mouth there is a switch for his own back, but wise men's lips guard them safe.
- 4 With no cattle there is a clean manger, but there is plenty of produce by a horned beast's strength.
- 5 A trustworthy witness will not lie, but a false witness breathes lies.
- 6 A cynic hunts for wisdom and does not find any, but knowledge is an easy thing to a man of sense.
- 7 Go face to face with a foolish man, and you have not known lips of knowledge.
- 8 A shrewd man's wisdom consists in understanding his course;
but the stupidity of fools, in cheating.
- 9 Reprobates' homes are held guilty, but upright men's houses are accepted.

- 10 A heart knows its own grief, and a stranger does not mix in its gladness.
- 11 Wrong-doers' house will be rooted out, but upright men's home will bloom.
- 12 There is such a thing as a road that lies smooth before a man
but the last part of it is the recesses of death.
- 13 Even in laughter a heart will feel pain, and the sequel of gladness is sorrow.
- 14 A man of recreant heart will have his fill out of his courses, and a good man out of his practices.
- 15 A simpleton believes every word, but a shrewd man considers his steps.
- 16 A wise man is afraid and gets out of the way of harm, but a fool is hotheaded and confident.
- 17 A quick-tempered man acts foolishly, but a practical man bears.
- 18 Simpletons come in for an estate of ignorance, but shrewd men crown themselves with knowledge.
- 19 Bad men are brought low before good men and wrong-doers are at a right-doer's gates.
- 20 A poor man is hateful even to his friend;
but there are many to love a rich man.
- 21 One who despises his neighbor is sinning, but happy is he who shows favor to poverty-stricken men.
- 22 Practitioners of evil are on the wrong track indeed, but practitioners of good work in friendship and loyalty.
- 23 By any hard work there will be a clear profit;
but lip-talk comes only to a deficit.
- 24 Wise men's crown is shrewdness, but fools' garland is foolishness.
- 25 A true witness is a lifesaver, but a lie-blower is a disappointment.
- 26 In the fear of Jehovah is a strong reliance, and to one's children that will be a refuge.
- 27 The fear of Jehovah is a spring of life
for keeping away from the snares of death.
- 28 In the numerousness of a people is a king's majesty, but in lack of folk is a potentate's ruin.
- 29 A patient man shows great intelligence, but an impatient man conspicuous foolishness.
- 30 A placid heart is life in the flesh, but passion is a rot in the bones.
- 31 One who denies a poor man his rights is insulting him who made him; but he who is honoring him shows favor to a needy one.
- 32 A rogue is knocked over by his viciousness, but an honest man finds refuge in his conscientious life.

- 33 In a sensible man's heart wisdom rests, but in fools' bosoms it is known, 34 Right-doing uplifts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any folk.
35 A capable official will have a king's approval, but a worthless one will be his rage.

CHAPTER 15

- 1 A soft answer wards off ill temper, but a harsh word brings up anger.
2 Wise men's tongues know what is what, but fools' mouths stream ignorance.
3 Jehovah's eyes are in every place, keeping a lookout over bad men and good.
4 Calmness of tongue is bark from a tree of life, but upsetting in it means a fracture in the spirit.
5 A know-nothing is contemptuous of his father's training, but one who observes admonition will grow shrewd.
6 A right-doer's house has in it plenty of capital;
but in a wrong-doer's produce trouble breeds.
7 "Wise men's lips sprinkle knowledge, but fools' hearts are not right.
8 Wrong-doers' sacrifice is what Jehovah abominates, but upright men's prayer is what he accepts.
9 What Jehovah abominates is a wrong-doer's course; but a pursuer of right he loves.
10 A path-leaver gets hard discipline;
a hater of admonition will die.
11 The world of the dead, the land of the gone forever, are present before Jehovah;
much more the hearts of human beings.
12 A cynic does not love being admonished; he does not go to wise men.
13 A glad heart does good to the face;
but with pain at heart comes a broken-down spirit.
14 A sensible heart hunts up knowledge, but fools' mouths pasture on ignorance.
15 All a doleful man's days are bad, but a cheery man is a banquet all the time.
16 Better a little in the fear of Jehovah than a great store and everything going wrong in it.
17 Better a dish of greens when love is there than a stall-fed cow and hate about it.
18 A hot-tempered man sets quarrels going, but a patient man quiets a dispute down.
19 An idler's path is like a thorn hedge;

- but downright men's route is a made road.
- 20 A wise son gladdens a father,
but a fool despises his mother.
- 21 Foolishness is bliss to a brainless man, but an intelligent man will go straight.
- 22 Frustration of plans comes by not going into conference, but by plenty of advisers they will go through.
- 23 A man enjoys having given a pat answer;
and what a good thing a well-timed word is!
- 24 A canny man holds an upward path to life, to shun the realm of death below.
- 25 Jehovah sweeps off proud men's house, but sets in place a widow's boundary-mark.
- 26 A bad man's ideas are what Jehovah detests, but pure men's say is delightful.
- 27 One who grasps at gain is breeding trouble for his house, but one who hates gifts will live.
- 28 A right-doer's heart studies to give an answer, but wrong-doers' mouths stream viciousness.
- 29 Jehovah is far from wrong-doers but hears right-doers' prayer.
- 30 Shining eyes gladden a heart, and good news puts fat in one's bones.
- 31 An ear that can hear admonition is life;
it will harbor itself amid wise men.
- 32 One who neglects instruction thinks nothing of his own being;
but one who listens to admonition is getting brains.
- 33 Fear of Jehovah is a discipline in wisdom, and humility is antecedent to dignity.

CHAPTER 16

- 1 Man's are cogitations of the heart, but from Jehovah is the answer for the tongue.
- 2 A man feels as if all his courses were irreprouchable, but Jehovah gauges spirits.
- 3 Turn your affairs over to Jehovah and have your plans confirmed.
- 4 Jehovah made everything to play its part,
and even a wrong-doer for a day of disaster.
- 5 Any pretentious man is what Jehovah detests;
hand on hand he will not be cleared.
- 6 By friendliness and loyalty guilt is purged, and by fearing Jehovah one avoids what is bad.
- 7 When Jehovah approves a man's courses he makes even his enemies live on good terms with him.
- 8 Better a little by right

- than a large income by injustice.
- 9 Man's heart plans his course but Jehovah places his steps.
- 10 Clairvoyance sits on a king's lips;
in giving judgment his mouth will not play false.
- 11 Steelyard and scales are matter for Jehovah's judgment;
all standard weights are his work.
- 12 The doing of wrong is a thing kings abominate, because it is by right that a throne is made firm.
- 13 Right-speaking lips are what a king approves, and one who speaks straightforwardly he loves.
- 14 A king's ire means messengers of death, and a wise man will appease it.
- 15 In cheerfulness on a king's face there is life, and his approval is like a spring rain-cloud.
- 16 Get wisdom; how much better it is than hard gold!
and getting discretion is preferable to silver.
- 17 Avoidance of evil is straightforward men's highway;
he who watches his course is guarding his life.
- 18 Pride goes before a crash and a pretentious spirit before a tumble.
- 19 Better lowliness of spirit in humble men's company than dividing booty with proud men.
- 20 One who handles a matter cannily will have good results;
but one who trusts in Jehovah, happy he!
- 21 A wise-hearted man will be called a sage, but pleasingness of lips will add to influence.
- 22 The insight of those who have insight is a fountain of life, but ignoramuses' lecturing is ignorance.
- 23 A wise man's heart makes his mouth skillful and adds to the influence of his lips.
- 24 Pleasant words are a comb of honey, sweetness for the palate and health for the bones.
- 25 There is such a thing as a road that lies smooth before a man
but the last part of it is the recesses of death.
- 26 A hardworking man's appetite works for him, because his mouth sees to his working.
- 27 A reprobate is a furnace of harm and has on his lip what is like a searing fire.
- 28 A mischief-maker starts quarrels and a scandalmonger alienates a bosom friend.
- 29 A scoundrel inveigles his friend and makes him take a course there is no good in.
- 30 One who shuts his eyes tight is thinking up mischief;
one who moves his lips has got up something bad.
- 31 White hair is a magnificent coronet;

- it will be found by a course of right-doing.
- 32 A patient man is better than a champion fighter, and one who has command over his spirit than one who takes a city.
- 33 The lot is tossed in the fold of your mantle, but every decision it gives is from Jehovah.

CHAPTER 17

- 1 Better a dry morsel and a quiet life by it than a house full of dinner from ill-will sacrifices.
- 2 A capable slave will have control over a worthless son and will share inheritance among brothers.
- 3 Crucible for silver and furnace for gold,
but he who assays hearts is Jehovah.
- 4 He is a malefactor who listens eagerly to a villainous lip;
it is falsehood that gives ear to a malignant tongue.
- 5 One who jeers at a poor man is insulting him who made him;
one who is glad at calamity will not be held innocent.
- 6 Grandchildren are old men's coronet;
but sons' adornment is their fathers.
- 7 A grandiloquent lip is not becoming to a rascal;
much less a falsifying lip to a noble.
- 8 A bribe shows itself to its user as a favor-charm:
whatever he faces toward, he succeeds.
- 9 One who is looking for love covers up an offense;
but one who harps on a matter alienates a bosom friend.
- 10 A rebuke sinks deeper into a man of sense than a hundred cuts with a stick into a fool.
- 11 A bad man seeks merely insubordination, and will have a cruel messenger let loose on him.
- 12 Let a man encounter a bear that has lost her cubs but not a fool in his ignorance.
- 13 One who returns bad for good will never have his house without bad.
- 14 The beginning of a quarrel is somebody letting a trickle start, so give up your side of the dispute before anybody gets into a rage.
- 15 One who declares a man right when he is wrong and one who declares him wrong when he is right are both of them things that Jehovah detests.
- 16 Why should a fool have in his hands a fee to buy wisdom when he has no brains?
- 17 The friend loves at every time, but a brother is born for distress.
- 18 A brainless man strikes hands, pledges a security before another.
- 19 One who loves a squabble loves a bruise;
one who makes his doorway tall is asking for a crash.

- 20 A man with a crooked heart will come to no good, and a man with a reversible tongue will fall into disaster.
- 21 To one who begets a fool it becomes a sorrow, and a rascal's father will not be glad.
- 22 A glad heart gives good healing, but a broken-down spirit dries out a bone.
- 23 A bribe is taken out of a rogue's pocket to warp the courses of justice.
- 24 Wisdom is face to face with a man of sense, but a fool's eyes are at earth's end.
- 25 A foolish son is a vexation to his father and a bitterness to her who gave him birth.
- 26 Even fining an honest man is not good, giving beatings to noble men for uprightness.
- 27 One who restrains his speech knows what is what,
and one with a cool spirit is a man of intelligence.
- 28 Even an ignoramus holding his tongue will be thought wise;
one who stops up his lips is sensible.

CHAPTER 18

- 1 An alienated friend hunts for something to wrangle over and flies into a rage at any sane word.
- 2 A fool has no fancy for good sense, but for venting his ideas.
- 3 When wickedness comes in, contempt comes in too;
and with despicableness go indignities.
- 4 The words of a man's mouth are deep water, the fountain of wisdom a dashing stream.
- 5 It is not a good thing to allow personal favor to a wrong-doer, giving the go-by to a right-doer in judgment.
- 6 A fool's lips bring strife and his mouth invites pounding.
- 7 A fool's mouth is his ruin and his lips a snare for his life.
- 8 A scandalmonger's words are like the seeping of water,
and they run down into the deepest recesses of the body.
- 9 One who is even slack in his business is brother to a wrecker.
- 10 Jehovah's name is a tower of shelter;
in it an honest man runs in and is out of reach of harm.
- 11 A rich man's goods are his strong city and as by a wall he is safe from harm by their hedge.
- 12 Before a crash a man's thoughts are high,
but before honor goes humility.
- 13 For one who answers before he hears the upshot is irrelevance and humiliation.

- 14 A man's spirit weathers his ailment, but who is to carry the load of a broken-down spirit?
- 15 An intelligent man's heart gets in knowledge and wise men's ears hunt up sound judgment.
- 16 A man's gift makes room for him and introduces him before big men.
- 17 The man who states his case first is all right, but the other party comes in and probes him.
- 18 The lot puts an end to quarrels and separates formidable opponents.
- 19 A brother is more of a salvation than a strong city, and kinsfolk are equal to castle bars.
- 20 Out of the fruit of a man's mouth his stomach will have its fill, and of the produce of his lips he will get all he can hold.
- 21 Death and life are in the hands of the tongue, and those who love it will eat the fruit of it.
- 22 Who has found a wife has found a good thing
and obtained favor from Jehovah.
- 23 A poor man talks beseechingly, a rich man answers imperiously.
- 24 There are friends for company, and there is such a thing as a loving friend that sticks tighter than a brother.

CHAPTER 19

- 1 Better a poor man leading a conscientious life than a man of crooked lips, he being a fool.
- 2 When a soul has not knowledge it is not good either, and one who is in haste with his feet goes wrong.
- 3 A man's ignorance muddles his affairs and he flies out against Jehovah.
- 4 Possessions add many friends;
but a poor man is parted from the friend he has.
- 5 A false witness will not be held guiltless nor a lie-blower come off scot-free.
- 6 Many curry favor with a nobleman, and everybody is friend to a free giver.
- 7 All a poor man's brothers hate him;
much more do his friends get far away from him.
One who does much evil will achieve disaster, and one who rebels against words will not come off safe.
- 8 One who invests in brains loves his life;
one who takes care for intelligence is going to find good.
- 9 A false witness will not be held guiltless
and a lie-blower will perish.
- 10 Luxury is not befitting for a fool;

- much less is ruling over generals for a slave.
- 11 For a man to exercise patience is good business, and to pass over offenses is an adornment to him.
  - 12 A king's displeasure is a growl like a two-year-old lion's,
and his approval is like dew on herbage.
  - 13 A foolish son is a catastrophe to his father, and a woman's wrangles are a steadily dribbling leak in the roof.
  - 14 A house and goods are an inheritance from parents, but a wife who minds her business is from Jehovah.
  - 15 Laziness throws one into a trance, and a slacker's appetite will go hungry.
  - 16 One who keeps a commandment is keeping his life safe, and one who slights his courses will come to his death.
  - 17 One who does a kindness to a poor man is lending to Jehovah, and he will pay him back in kind.
  - 18 Chastise your son, because there is a hope, and do not expect to kill him.
  - 19 A man with too hot a temper has to pay the penalty, for if you interfere you make things still worse.
  - 20 Listen to advice and accept instruction, in order that you may be wise in future.
  - 21 A man has plenty of ideas in his mind, but Jehovah's plan is what stands.
  - 22 A man's goodwill is his friendliness, and a poor man is better than a liar.
  - 23 Fearing Jehovah leads to life, and one passes the night with a full stomach, unvisited by ham,
  - 24 An idler has buried his hand in the dish, will not even bring it back to his mouth.
  - 25 You give a cynic a beating, and a simpleton grows shrewder;
one admonishes a man of sense, and he sees the point.
  - 26 A worthless and disgraceful son lays waste his father's house and makes his mother a fugitive.
  - 27 Beware, my son, of listening to instruction to err from ways of knowledge.
  - 28 An unscrupulous witness takes a cynic's view of justice, and wrong-doers' mouths stream villainy.
  - 29 Whips are ready for cynics and poundings for backs of fools.

CHAPTER 20

- 1 Wine is cynical, beer is noisy, and anyone who misconducts himself by it is unwise.
- 2 The terror of a king is a growl like a two-year-old lion's;
he who angers him sins against his own life.
- 3 It is an honor to a man to keep out of contention;

- but every know-nothing flies into rages.
- 4 An idler does not do his plowing in the fall, asks in harvesttime, and there is nothing there
- 5 A purpose in a man's heart is water deep down, but a man of intelligence draws it.
- 6 Plenty of men will each proclaim his friendship, but who will find a man to be trusted?
- 7 Who conscientiously walks an honest man's course, happy his children after him!
- 8 A king sitting in the chair of judgment winnows with his eyes everything bad.
- 9 Who shall say "I have cleared my heart, I am clean from my sin"?
- 10 Two standards of weight, two standards of bushel, both are things Jehovah detests.
- 11 Even in his play a boy shows what he is, whether his doings are clean and straightforward.
- 12 Ear that hears and eye that sees,
Jehovah made them both.
- 13 Do not love sleep, or you will come to poverty;
open your eyes and have all the bread you can eat.
- 14 "Bad, bad," says the buyer;
but he goes off, then he brags.
- 15 There is such a thing as gold and such a thing as plenty of coral, but a thing that is valuable is lips of knowledge.
- 16 Take his garment, because he went security for a stranger;
foreclose him on foreigners' account.
- 17 The bread of falsehood tastes fine to a man, but afterward his mouth gets full of gravel.
- 18 Ideas become effective by forethought;
make war with competent generalship.
- 19 A tattler discloses confidences;
do not be mixed up with a loose-tongued man.
- 20 Who curses his father and his mother, his lamp will go out into utter darkness.
- 21 An estate that was originally got in a rush will not have its future blessed.
- 22 Do not say "I will pay back" a bad turn;
set your hope on Jehovah and he will help you out.
- 23 Two standards of weight are a thing Jehovah detests, and cheating scales are not a good thing.
- 24 The places where a man sets his foot come from Jehovah;
what does a human being understand of his course?
- 25 It is a man-trap to say "Given to God" carelessly, or to do sorting out after vows.

- 26 A wise king winnows wrong-doers and brings their villainy down on them.
- 27 Man's breath is Jehovah's lamp searching all recesses of the body.
- 28 Friendliness and good faith safeguard a king, and he braces his throne by right dealing.
- 29 Young men's magnificence is their strength;
old men's grandeur is white hair.
- 30 A whipping that draws blood is a scouring off of viciousness, and lashes the brain-cells.

CHAPTER 21

- 1 A king's heart is in Jehovah's hands a set of irrigation-streams which he turns upon what he chooses.
- 2 A man feels as if all his course were correct, but Jehovah gauges hearts.
- 3 Doing the right and lawful thing is for Jehovah preferable to a sacrifice.
- 4 Loftiness in the eyes and extensiveness in the thought, wicked men's undertakings are sin.
- 5 An industrious man's plans work out all to abundance;
but anybody who is in a hurry, all to shortage.
- 6 One who accumulates property by false pretenses is chasing after a wisp of vapor into snares of death.
- 7 Wrong-doers' violence drags them along because they have not been willing to do the lawful thing.
- 8 One who is tortuous in his course is a foul man;
but a clean man's doings are straightforward.
- 9 Better to live on the corner of a roof than a home shared with a quarrelsome woman.
- 10 A wrong-doer's appetite craves evil;
he has no kindness for his fellowman.
- 11 By punishment of a cynic a simpleton gets wisdom, but when a wise man is given good advice he sees the point.
- 12 A right-doer does his best by a wrong-doer's house;
a wrecker of wrong-doers is bound to come to grief.
- 13 He who stops his ears against a poor man's cry, he too shall call out and not be answered.
- 14 A gift in private parries anger, and a present slipped into the pocket heat of temper.
- 15 The doing of justice is gladness to an honest man, but dismay to villains.
- 16 A man who wanders off the road of reason will come to his rest in the throng of ghosts.
- 17 One who loves merrymaking is a man of privations;
one does not get rich who loves wine and oil.

- 18 A wrong-doer pays a penalty for a right-doer, and a faithless man is a substitute for upright men.
- 19 Better life in a wilderness than a quarrelsome and irritating wife.
- 20 An inviting treasure finds lodgment on a wise man's premises, but a fool gobbles it up.
- 21 One who pursues right-dealing and friendliness will find life and honor.
- 22 A wise man scales a city of champions and brings down the strength it put its confidence in.
- 23 He who guards his mouth and his tongue is guarding his life from distress.
- 24 A haughty, presumptuous man, whose name is cynic, acts with the recklessness of presumption.
- 25 An idler's craving is the death of him because his hands refuse to do anything.
- 26 All day craving goes on craving, but a right-doer gives and does not hold back.
- 27 Wrong-doers' sacrifice is an abomination, all the more when one brings it designedly.
- 28 A lying witness is lost, but a man who has heard speaks on and on.
- 29 A man doing wrong shows a stiff face;
but an upright man, he sets his courses in order.
- 30 There is no wisdom or insight or policy to confront Jehovah,
- 31 One gets ponies ready for a day of battle, but victory is Jehovah's affair.

CHAPTER 22

- 1 Reputation is preferable to great wealth, popularity to silver and gold.
- 2 A rich man and a poor man meet—Jehovah is the maker of all.
- 3 A sagacious man sees an evil and gets under cover, but simpletons go ahead and will pay the penalty.
- 4 The sequel of humility is fear of Jehovah, riches, honor, and life.
- 5 There are thorns and traps in a crooked man's road;
he who is guarding his life will keep aloof from them.
- 6 Give a boy the start his course requires;
even when he grows old he will not deviate from it.
- 7 A rich man rules over poor men, and a borrower is slave to a lender.
- 8 One who sows knavery will reap trouble,

- and his cudgel of wrath gives out.
- 9 A generous-hearted man will be blessed because he has given bread of his to a poor man.
- 10 Turn out a cynic and out goes quarreling, and dispute and dishonor come to an end.
- 11 Jehovah loves a clean-hearted man;
one whose lips are agreeable has a king for his friend.
- 12 Jehovah's eyes watch over knowledge, but he upsets the affairs of a faithless man.
- 13 An idler says "There is a lion in the street,"
"I shall be murdered right out in the squares."
- 14 Stranger women's mouths are a deep pitfall;
he to whom Jehovah is hostile will fall in.
- 15 Foolishness is tied into a boy's heart;
the cudgel of discipline will drive it away.
- 16 A man refusing pay to a poor man with the result that he gets ~~more~~— a man giving to a rich man with the result only of destitution.
- 17 Wise men's words.
Bend your ear and hear my words, and set your heart to know,
- 18 Because it will be delightful that you keep them within you, have them planted together on your lips.
- 19 That your confidence may be in Jehovah, I have made known life to you too.
- 20 I have written for you, as you see, thirty points in good advice and knowledge,
- 21 That you may make known words of truth, may bring back word to him who sent you.
- 22 Do not rob a poor man because he is poor nor overbear a downtrodden man in the gate,
- 23 For Jehovah will defend their cause and shave down the lives of those who shave them down.
- 24 Do not make friends with a man who easily gets angry nor keep company with a man given to bursts of temper,
- 25 For fear you should get into his ways and come to have a trap waiting for your life.
- 26 Do not be among those who strike hands, those who go security for moneylenders' loans:
- 27 If you do not have enough to pay,
why should he take your bed out from under you?
- 28 Do not displace an old-time boundary-mark which your fathers made.
- 29 If you see a man getting his work done speedily he will find his place in the service of kings, will not find his place in the service of nobodies.

CHAPTER 23

- 1 When you sit down to eat a meal with a ruler you will take good notice what it is that is before you,
- 2 And you will set a knife to your chin if you are a man of appetite.
- 3 Do not be greedy for his tidbits;
that is bread of false pretense.
- 4 Do not slave to get rich;
leave off your longheadedness.
- 5 Your eyes fly to it and it is not there, because riches take wing like a vulture flying into the sky.
- 6 Do not take a meal with a stingy man nor be greedy for his tidbits,
- 7 For he is just like one who has a storm in his soul:
"Eat and drink," he will say to you, but you do not have his heart with you.
- 8 You will be vomiting out the mouthful you have eaten and will have thrown away your fine words.
- 9 Do not talk for a fool to hear, because he will despise the judiciousness of your words.
- 10 Do not displace an old-time boundary-mark nor go into an orphan's land,
- 11 Because their Guardian is strong;
it will be he that will fight out their case with you.
- 12 Bring instruction your heart and words of knowledge your ears.
- 13 Do not let a boy go without discipline;
because you strike him with a cudgel he will not die.
- 14 It will be you with the cudgel that are striking him, and you will be delivering his life from the world below.
- 15 My son, if your heart is wise my own heart will be glad;
- 16 And my breast will exult when your lips speak by line and level.
- 17 Let your heart not be emulous of sinners but of the fear of Jehovah all day;
- 18 But there is a future and your hope will not be dashed.
- 19 Hear this, you son of mine, and be wise, and set your heart straight on the course.
- 20 Do not be among those who drink wine and eat meat recklessly,
- 21 Because a reckless drinker and eater will lose everything he has and sleepiness gives a coat of rags.
- 22 Listen to your father that brought you to birth,

- and do not despise your mother when she grows old.
- 23 Buy truth, and do not sell wisdom and training and discernment.
- 24 Jubilant will be a right-doer's father, and he who has brought to birth a wise man will be glad of him.
- 25 Let your father and mother be glad and her who gave you birth jubilant.
- 26 Give me your attention, my son, and have an eye to my courses,
- 27 Because a stranger woman is a deep pitfall and a foreign woman is a narrow well;
- 28 She too lies in ambush as a highwayman does,
and adds to the amount of disloyalty among men.
- 29 Who has "ouch"? who has "ow"?
who has quarrels? who has complaining?
Who has wounds for nothing?
who has black eyes?
- 30 Those who sit late over wine, those who go in to investigate mixed drinks.
- 31 Do not look on wine when it glows redly, when it shows its looks in the cup, runs smoothly;
- 32 The future of it will be that it bites like a snake and stings like a cobra.
- 33 Your eyes will see abnormal things and your lips will speak absurd things,
- 34 And you will be like one lying down in mid-ocean and like a sailor in a heavy sea.
- 35 "They struck me, I was not hurt; they pounded me, I did not know it;
When shall I wake up?
I will go after it over again."

CHAPTER 24

- 1 Do not be emulous of bad men nor desirous of going with them,
- 2 Because their hearts are studying up violence and their lips are talking of mischief.
- 3 A household is built up by wisdom and kept up by intelligence,
- 4 And by knowledge storerooms are filled with all sorts of valuable and enjoyable goods.
- 5 A wise man is more puissant than a muscular man, and a man of knowledge than one mighty in strength;
- 6 For it is by generalship that war is to be made,
and victory comes by plenty of advisers.

- 7 Wisdom is pearls for an ignoramus;
he does not open his mouth in the gate.
- 8 One who lays plans for doing harm they call a crook.
- 9 Stupidity's stroke of policy is a piece of baseness, and a cynic is detestable to man.
- 10 If you slacken in a pinch your strength is a pinched-up thing.
- 11 Deliver those who are being taken to death and those who are leaning over for killing; do not hold back;
- 12 When you say "There, we did not know this," will not he who gauges hearts see into it And the keeper of your life know it?
and he will return to man the like of what he does.
- 13 Eat honey, son, because it is good and virgin honey is sweet to your palate;
- 14 Such know wisdom to be for your soul:
if you find it there is a future
and your hope will not be dashed.
- 15 Do not lurk about an honest man's quarter, rogue, and do not raid his sleeping-place,
- 16 For an honest man falls seven times and gets up, but rogues are tripped up by viciousness.
- 17 When your enemy falls down do not celebrate it, and when he trips up do not let your heart exult;
- 18 Jehovah might see it and dislike it and turn back his anger from him.
- 19 Do not get angry over bad men nor be jealous of wrong-doers,
- 20 Because a wrong-doer will have no future;
wrong-doers' lamps will go out.
- 21 Fear Jehovah and the king, son;
do not be mixed up with people who want a change,
- 22 For their calamity will come suddenly, and who knows what bad end either set will come to?
- 23 These too are by the wise men.
Favoritism in judging is not a good thing.
- 24 On one who says to a wrong-doer "You are in the right" Peoples will lay a curse, folk upon folk be hostile to him;
- 25 But those who call them to account shall be happy and upon them shall come a good blessing.
- 26 One who gives a square answer kisses lips.
- 27 Get your work in shape outdoors and have things ready in the field; afterward you may build your house.

- 28 Do not be a witness against your fellowman groundlessly and mislead people with your lips.
- 29 Do not say "I will do to him the same as he did to me, I will pay the man back the like of his action."
- 30 I went past an idle man's field and past a brainless man's vineyard
- 31 And found it all grown up to nettles, and weeds covered its surface and its stone wall was down.
- 32 And I viewed it and took it to heart, saw and drew a lesson:
- 33 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding your arms to lie abed—
- 34 And your poverty shall come prowling
and your want like a man under arms.

CHAPTER 25

- 1 These too are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of King Hezekiah of Judah compiled:
- 2 It is God's glory to keep a matter veiled;
it is kings' glory to investigate a matter.
- 3 Sky for height and earth for depth and man's heart inscrutable.
- 4 Dislodge dross from silver and have a piece of ware come out for the silversmith;
- 5 Dislodge a rascal before a king and have his throne stand firm in right.
- 6 Do not put on airs before a king nor stand in the place for great men,
- 7 Because it is better to have him say to you "Come up here" than to have him put you down before a nobleman.
- 8 Do not hurry to pass out by wholesale what your eyes have seen, Because what will you do in the sequel when somebody humiliates you?
- 9 Fight your case against your opponent, but do not betray another man's secret,
- 10 For fear one who hears should brand you with disgrace and you should never get your reputation back.
- 11 A word spoken to the point is golden apples in silver artwork.
- 12 A wise admonisher to a listening ear is a gold earring and a nugget-gold pendant.
- 13 Like the coolness of snow in midsummer heat is a trusty courier to those who send him, and he puts life back into his master.

- 14 A man who brags of a fictitious gift is scud and wind and no shower.
- 15 By patience a chieftain is cajoled;
and a soft tongue breaks bones.
- 16 If you find honey, eat what is enough for you, for fear you should be glutted and throw it up.
- 17 Make your foot a rarity in your neighbor's house for fear he should have enough of you and come to hate you.
- 18 A man who testifies falsely against another is a mace and a sword and a barbed arrow.
- 19 One who is treacherous in a pinch is a bad tooth and a shaky foot.
- 20 Vinegar on soda and a singer of songs to a heavy heart.
Like a moth in a cloak and like rot of wood, so grief eats away a man's mind.
- 21 If your enemy is hungry feed him, and if he is thirsty give him a drink,
- 22 Because you will be shoveling live coals on his head, and Jehovah will repay you.
- 23 A north wind scares away a shower, and hostile faces an underhand tongue.
- 24 Better living on the corner of a roof
than a home shared with a quarrelsome woman.
- 25 Cold water on a palate exhausted with thirst and good news from a distant country.
- 26 An honest man compromising with a rogue is a water-hole trampled up and a spring spoiled.
- 27 Eating honey in quantity is not a good thing, and making grandeur a rarity is better than grandeur.
- 28 A man whose spirit does not have a control is a broken city that does not have a wall.

CHAPTER 26

- 1 As with snow in summer and with rain in harvest, so importance is undesirable for a fool.
- 2 As with a sparrow in its wanderings, as with a swallow in its flight, so with a groundless curse; it does not come in.
- 3 A whip for the pony, a bridle for the donkey, and a cudgel for fools' backs.
- 4 Do not answer a fool on his own foolish basis for fear you yourself should come to his level.
- 5 Answer a fool on his own foolish basis for fear he should think he was wise.
- 6 One who sends an errand by a fool cuts off his own legs and drinks outrage.

- 7 A lame man's legs and a proverb in fools' mouths are thin and weak.
- 8 Like one who wraps up a stone in a piece of embroidery, such is one who gives honor to a fool.
- 9 A brier gets into a drunken man's hand and a proverb into fools' mouths.
- 10 Fool and drunkard are more in number than sand;
fool and drunkard are transient.
- 11 Like a dog going back to what it has vomited out is a fool repeating his foolishness.
- 12 If you see a man who thinks he is wise, there is more hope of a fool than of him.
- 13 An idler says "There is a panther on the road, there is a lion between the squares."
- 14 The door just turns on its hinges and an idler on his bed.
- 15 If an idler has stuck his hand into the dish he is too tired for bringing it back to his mouth.
- 16 An idler thinks he is wiser than seven who can give an answer that makes sense.
- 17 A man mixing into a dispute that does not belong to him is a man grabbing a passing dog by the tail.
- 18 Like an idiot throwing firebrands, arrows, and death,
- 19 Such is a man who deceives another and says "I was just joking, you know!"
- 20 Lacking wood, a fire goes out, and without a scandalmonger quarrels calm down.
- 21 Charcoal for a charcoal fire and wood for a wood fire, and a quarrelsome man to heat up a dispute.
- 22 A scandalmonger's words are like the seeping of water,
and they run down into the deepest recesses of the body.
- 23 Glowing lips and a bad heart are dross silver plated over earthenware.
- 24 A hater disguises himself with his lips, but houses fraud within him;
- 25 When he makes his voice gracious do not trust him, for he has seven abominations in his heart.
- 26 One who covers up hate with duplicity will have his viciousness exposed in the assembly.
- 27 One who digs a pitfall will fall into it, and one who rolls a stone will have it come back on him.
- 28 A false tongue hates its victims and a smooth mouth knocks a man down.

CHAPTER 27

- 1 Do not boast of tomorrow, because you do not know what a day will give birth to.
- 2 Let a stranger praise you and not your own mouth, an alien and not your own lips.
- 3 A stone is heavy, and sand is a dead weight, but the annoyance of a fool is heavier than either.
- 4 Ill temper is ruthless and anger is unsparing, but who stands his ground before jealousy?
- 5 Better outspoken criticism than unspoken love.
- 6 There is more trust to be put in bruises from one who loves than in effusive kisses from one who hates.
- 7 A gluttoned appetite will trample on virgin honey;
but to a hungry appetite everything bitter is sweet.
- 8 Like a bird strayed from its nest, such is a man strayed from his place.
- 9 Oil and perfume cheer a heart, but it is torn up by anxiety of soul.
- 10 Do not leave your friend and your father's friend, and do not go into your brother's house on your day of calamity;
a neighbor close by is better than a brother far away.
- 11 Be wise, son, and gladden my heart, so that I may give an answer to the one who taunts me.
- 12 A sagacious man, seeing an evil, gets under cover; simpletons, going ahead, pay the penalty.
- 13 Take his garment, because he went security for a stranger;
foreclose him on a foreign woman's account.
- 14 To the one who blesses his friend with a loud voice the first thing in the morning
it counts for a curse.
- 1a A dribbling leak in the roof in an all-day rain and a wrangling woman are the same sort of thing.
- 16 Whoever has smothered her down has smothered wind down, and oil meets his hand.
- 17 Iron is polished on iron, and a man polishes his friend's behavior.
- 18 One who takes care of a fig-tree will eat its fruit, and one who looks after his master will be honored.
- 19 As in water a face duplicates a face, so does man's heart man.
- 20 The realm of death and the limbo of the gone forever never get all they want,
and neither do man's eyes.
- 21 Crucible for silver and furnace for gold,
and a man according to what he prides himself on.

- 22 If you pound up a blockhead with a pestle among the pemmican in a mortar his stupidity will not come off.
- 23 Know well how your sheep and goats are looking,
keep your mind on the flocks,
- 24 Because funds do not last forever and no crown is for generation upon generation;
- 25 When grass is taken off and green stuff is showing and mountain growths are brought in,
- 26 Sheep will be for your clothing and he-goats will pay for land,
- 27 And there will be a good supply of goats' milk for your food and a living for your girls.

CHAPTER 28

- 1 Wrong-doers run with nobody chasing them, but an honest man is as fearless as a two-year-old lion.
- 2 By demoralization in a country dissensions are numerous,
but a sagacious man will extinguish them.
- 3 Aggrandizement of a chief and no rights for poor men is a pounding rain and no crop.
- 4 Men who give up sound doctrine praise wrong-doers, but men who are careful of sound doctrine oppose them.
- 5 Bad men have no insight into justice, but those who seek Jehovah have insight into everything.
- 6 Better a poor man leading a conscientious life than a man of crooked courses, he being rich.
- 7 One who keeps sound doctrine is a sensible son, but one who cultivates gormandizers humiliates his father.
- 8 One who increases his capital by interest and bonus is gathering for one who will do favors for poor men.
- 9 If one takes his ear away from hearing sound doctrine his very prayer is an abomination.
- 10 One who misleads upright men into a bad course will himself fall into his pitfall, but conscientious men will come in for good.
- 11 A rich man thinks he is wise, but an intelligent poor man will see through him.
- 12 When honest men are celebrating a triumph plenty of finery is on parade; But when rogues come to the top people wear old clothes.
- 13 One who is covering up his offenses will not succeed; but one who acknowledges them and leaves them off will meet with clemency.

- 14 Happy a man who is always apprehensive;
but one who stiffens up his heart will fall into disaster.
- 15 An unscrupulous ruler over a poor people is a growling lion and a ravenous bear.
- 16 A regent who is deficient in insight will be plentiful in injustices;
but one who hates jobbery will have a long life.
- 17 A man outlawed for bloodshed is to be a fugitive till he comes to the Pit; they are not to hold him up.
- 18 One who walks conscientiously will be saved, but a man of crooked courses will fall into a pitfall.
- 19 One who works his ground will have plenty of bread;
but one who runs after unpractical things will have plenty of poverty.
- 20 A man of faithful dealing will have many blessings, but one who is in a hurry to get rich will not be held innocent.
- 21 Favoritism is not a good thing, and a man may offend on account of a bit of bread.
- 22 A stingy man is absorbed in property and does not know it is want that is coming to him.
- 23 One who reproveth men will subsequently find more gratitude than a smooth-tongued person.
- 24 One who steals from his father and mother and says it is no crime is a mate for a ravager.
- 25 A man of excessive appetite starts quarrels, but one who trusts in Jehovah will be given plenty of oil.
- 26 One who trusts to his own ideas is a fool, but one who goes by wisdom will come off safe.
- 27 He who gives to the poor man has no shortage;
but he who ignores him has plenty of curses.
- 28 When rogues come to the top, people take cover;
but when they perish, honest men grow plentiful.

CHAPTER 29

- 1 A man who keeps getting reproofs and stiffens his neck will be incurably broken all at once.
- 2 When honest men are plentiful, the people makes merry;
but when a rogue rules, a people moans.
- 3 A man who loves wisdom gladdens his father, but one who frequents prostitutes dissipates a property.
- 4 A king keeps a country standing by legality, but a levier of special taxes wrecks it.
- 5 A man who talks smoothly to another is spreading a net for his feet.

- 6 In the crime of a bad man there is a trap, while an honest man is jubilant and merry.
- 7 An honest man knows poor men's claims;
a wrong-doer cannot see the point.
- 8 Men of cynical talk inflame a town, but wise men turn anger backward.
- 9 A wise man has a case in court with an ignorant man and he gets excited and laughs and nobody gets any rest.
- 10 Cutthroats hate a steady man and wrong-doers hunt for his life.
- 11 A fool lets out all his temper, but a wise man calms it by delay.
- 12 A ruler who is willing to listen to false talk has rogues for all his ministers.
- 13 A poor man and an extortioner meet—it is Jehovah who puts the light into the eyes of both.
- 14 A king who gives true judgment for poor men shall have his throne firm forevermore.
- 15 Cudgel and reproof give wisdom;
but a boy running loose brings shame on his mother.
- 16 When wrong-doers are many, crimes are many;
but honest men will look on at their fall.
- 17 Discipline your son, and he will be a rest to you and give you luxury.
- 18 Where there is no vision a people runs wild;
but happy is one who keeps to sound doctrine.
- 19 A slave is not disciplined by talk;
when he does understand, there is no result.
- 20 If you see a man in a hurry to speak there is more hope for a fool than for him.
- 21 One who pampers his slave from childhood will have him turn out a troublemaker.
- 22 A peppery man starts quarrels, and a hot-tempered man will have many misdeeds.
- 23 A man's pride brings him low, but one lowly of spirit will hold honor.
- 24 One who shares plunder with a thief hates his own life;
he will hear an imprecation and not tell.
- 25 Fearfulness of man lays a snare;
but one who is confident in Jehovah is out of reach of harm.
- 26 Many seek a ruler's presence, but a man's rights are from Jehovah.
- 27 A man of foul play is an abomination to honest people, and one who takes a straightforward course is an abomination to a rogue.

CHAPTER 30

- 1 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh the Massaite.
Quoth the man, "I am tired, God, tired, God, and used up,
- 2 Because I am more of a brute beast than of a man and have not human sense,
- 3 And have not learned wisdom so as to have knowledge of the Holy.
- 4 Who has gone up to the sky and come down?
who has taken the wind in his two hands?
Who has taken up water in a blanket?
who set up all the extremities of the earth?
What is his name, and the name of his son?
—since you know!
- 5 Every say of God's is sterling;
he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.
- 6 Do not add to his words, for fear he should arraign you and you turn out to have been lying.
- 7 I ask two things of you; do not refuse to let me have them before I die:
- 8 Keep shams and lying talk far away from me;
poverty and riches give not to me,
issue me my proper ration,
- 9 For fear I should have all I want and turn agnostic and say 'Who is Jehovah?'
And for fear I should grow poor and steal and be irreverent to the name of my God.
- 10 Do not tell tales of a slave to his master, for fear he should curse you and you bear the consequences.
- 11 A generation that curses its father and does not bless its mother!
- 12 A generation that thinks it is clean and has not got the worst of its filth washed off!
- 13 A generation with eyes O how lofty and eyebrows raised!
- 14 A generation whose teeth are swords and its fangs knives To eat unfortunate men off the earth and needy men out of the human race!"
- 15 The bloodsucker has two daughters: Give! Give!
Three they are that never get their fill, four that never say "enough":
- 16 The realm of death, and barrenness of womb;
earth, which never gets its fill of water;
and fire, which never says "enough."

- 17 An eye that gibes at a father and despises obedience to a mother Ravens of the glen will peck and a vulture's young will eat.
- 18 Three they are that are too mysterious for me and four that I do not know about:
- 19 A vulture's road in the sky, a snake's road on a rock,
A ship's road on the high sea, and a man's road in a wench.
- 20 Such is an adulterous wife's road:
she eats and wipes her mouth and says "I did not do anything out of the way."
- 21 Under three earth staggers, and under four it cannot bear up:
- 22 Under a slave when he gets to be king and a boor when he gets his stomach full of bread,
- 23 Under an old maid when she gets married and a slave-girl when she gets into her mistress's place.
- 24 Four they are that are earth's little things but are shrewdly wise:
- 25 The ants are a people that are not strong,
but they make their preparations in summer for their bread;
- 26 Dassies are a people that are not formidable,
but they place their house in the crag;
- 27 The grasshoppers have no king, but they all go out on an aimed course;
- 28 A lizard you can catch in your hands, but it is in royal palaces.
- 29 Three they are that are fine of step and four that are fine of walk:
- 30 A lion, champion among beasts, that does not turn back for any;
- 31 A strutting cock; or a he-goat;
and a king—do not stand up against him.
- 32 If you are adrift when you fly high or if you have a design—hand on mouth!
- 33 For bumping milk brings out butter, and bumping a nose brings out blood, and bumping anger brings out discord.

CHAPTER 31

- 1 The words of King Lemuel of Massa, in which his mother instructed him.
- 2 What, my son? and what, son of my body?
and what, son of my vows?

- 3 Do not give your vigor to women nor your courses to those who undo kings.
- 4 Be it not for kings, Lemuel, not for kings to drink wine nor for potentates to crave beer,
- 5 For fear one should drink and forget legality and unsettle justice in the case of any of the downtrodden.
- 6 Give beer to a ruined man and wine to men with sore hearts;
- 7 Let one drink and forget his poverty and no longer remember his trouble.
- 8 Open your mouth for a voiceless man, to give justice in the case of any who have no firm footing in life;
- 9 Open your mouth, judge fairly, and give verdicts for an unfortunate and a needy man.
- 10 O to find an efficient wife!
her value is beyond that of coral.
- 11 Her husband's heart rests confident in her,
and he has no lack of winnings.
- 12 She does him good and never harm all her life long.
- 13 She looks up wool and flax, and works with willing hands.
- 14 She is like a trader's ships, brings her bread from far away.
- 15 And she rises while it is still night and gives provisions to her household and a ration to her girls.
- 16 She plans for a field and gets it; out of the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.
- 17 She belts her waist with strength and puts energy into her arms.
- 18 She perceives that her business is good—her lamp does not go out in the night.
- 19 She reaches her arms to the distaff and her hands work the spindle.
- 20 She opens her hands to the unfortunate man and reaches them out to the needy one.
- 21 She is not afraid of snow for her household because her household is all wearing scarlet.
- 22 She makes herself sleeping-rugs;
her dress is lawn and purple.
- 23 Her husband is a marked man in the gates when he sits with the elders of the country.

- 24 She makes a cambric wrapper and sells it and gives a belt to the merchant.
- 25 Strength and stateliness are her dress, and she laughs at a future day.
- 26 She opens her mouth with wisdom and has friendly instructions on her tongue
- 27 As she watches the goings-on of her house and does not eat in idleness.
- 28 Her sons stand up and felicitate her;
her husband, and praises her:
- 29 "Many have been the daughters that made notable records, but you overtop them all."
- 30 Charm is a cheat and beauty is a bubble;
a woman who fears Jehovah is the one to praise.
- 31 Give her fruits of her own hands and let her own work praise her in the gates.

THE BOOK OF ECCLESIASTES

CHAPTER 1

1 2 1 The words of Koheleth the son of David, king in Jerusalem. 2 Perfect nonsense, says Koheleth—perfect nonsense—everything is nonsense.

3 3 How much is man better off by all the trouble he takes under the 4 sun? 4 A generation goes and a generation comes, and the earth stands 5 forever. 5 And the sun rises and the sun sets and bustles to its place 6 where it rises. 6 The wind goes off to the south and round to the north, 7 goes clear round, and the wind goes to going round again. 7 All the 8 rivers go to the sea and the sea is not full; to the place the rivers go 8 to they go over again. 8 All things work hard; a man cannot tell it out; 9 an eye does not do all the seeing it will nor an ear get full with 9 hearing. 9 What was, that will be; and what has been done, that will be 10 done; and there is not anything new under the sun. 10 Is there a thing 10 of which one says "See this, it is new"—it has already been in the 11 ages that there were before ours. 11 There is no remembrance of the 11 past; and also of the future that is to be there will be no remembrance among those who shall be subsequently.

12 13 12 I Koheleth was king over Israel in Jerusalem, 13 and gave my mind to examining and exploring scientifically as to everything that is 14 done under the skies—that is a bad employment God has given to 14 mankind to employ themselves at. 14 I saw all the doings that go on under the sun, and found it was all nonsense and chasing after wind: 15 15 a crooked thing cannot be set straight and a deficit cannot be counted 16 in. 16 I talked with myself, saying "Here I have greatened wisdom and 16 added to it above all that there had been before me over Jerusalem, 17 and my heart has seen a great deal of wisdom and knowledge, 17 and 17 I have applied my heart to knowledge of wisdom and knowledge of craziness and foolery; I have learned that this too is a pursuit of 18 wind, 18 because in much wisdom there is much vexation and one who 18 adds to knowledge adds to pain."

CHAPTER 2

1 I said to myself "Come on, I will try you with merrymaking; have 2 a good time!" and found that too was nonsense. 2 I said of laughter 3 "crazy" and of merrymaking "What does this accomplish?" 3I thought up the idea of drawing my flesh on with wine while my mind kept the course with wisdom, taking a grip on foolery till I should see which thing is good for mankind to do under the skies such time as they 4 live. 4 I made my works great: I built myself houses, planted myself 5 vineyards, 5 made myself gardens and parks and planted all sorts of 6 fruit trees in them, 6 made myself reservoirs of water to water groves 7 and shrubberies out of, 7 bought slaves and raised slaves, also had 8 more livestock, cattle and sheep and goats, than anybody that had 9 been before me in Jerusalem, 8amassed myself silver and gold too and the rarities of kings and provinces, got myself singers of both sexes 9 and mankind's voluptuous delights, many a lady. 9 And I grew great and surpassed anybody that had been before me in Jerusalem; my 10 wisdom too stood by me. 10 And nothing that my eyes asked for did I cut off from them; I did not check my heart from any enjoyments, but my heart got enjoyment out of all my trouble, and this was the 11 portion I had from all my trouble. 11 And I faced all my works that my hands had made and all the trouble that I had taken in the making, and found it was all nonsense and chasing after wind, and nobody was better off under the sun.

12 12 And I faced round to see wisdom and craziness and foolery—because what is the man who comes after the king to do? what has been 13 done already— 13 and I saw that wisdom has as much advantage over 14 foolery as light has over darkness; 14 the wise man has his eyes in his head, and the fool walks in the dark. But I had also learned that 15 one fate befalls them all. 15 And I thought to myself "A fate like the fool's will befall me also, and then what was I wiser for?" and I said 16 to myself that this too was nonsense, 16 for the wise man with the fool has no remembrance forever, inasmuch as in the coming days everything will already have been forgotten; and how the wise man has to 17 die with the fool! 17 and I hated life, because I felt the work that is done under the sun to be a bad thing because everything is nonsense and chasing after wind.

18 18 And I hated everything I had taken so much trouble about under the sun, seeing I was to leave it to the man who should be after me—19 19 and who knows whether he will be wise or foolish? but he will control everything I have taken so much trouble about and been so wise about 20 under the sun—this is nonsense too; 20 and I swung round to lose interest in everything I had taken so much trouble about under the 21 sun. 21 For there is a man whose trouble is taken with wisdom and knowledge and judgment, and he is to give it over to be the portion of a man that took no trouble about it—this too is nonsense, and a 22 very bad thing. 22 For what does a man have by all his trouble and 23 his purposes that he takes trouble for under the sun, 23 that all his life he is taken up with pain and vexation, his heart does not even lie quiet at night? this too is nonsense.

24 There is nothing better among men than that one should eat and drink and let himself see good by his trouble. This too I have seen to be from God's hand; 25 for who should eat or find flavor in anything without him? 26 For to the man who is good from his point of view he gives wisdom and knowledge and gladness, but to the sinner he gives a task of collecting and amassing to give to one who is good from God's point of view—this too is nonsense and chasing after wind.

CHAPTER 3

1 There is a season of everything, and a time of every concern under the heavens: 2a time of being born and a time of dying, a time of planting and a time of grubbing out what was planted, 3 a time of killing and a time of healing, a time of wrecking and a time of building, 4 a time of weeping and a time of laughing, a time of wailing and a time of dancing, 5 a time of throwing stones about and a time of gathering up stones, a time of embracing and a time of shunning embraces, a time of hunting up and a time of losing, 6a time of keeping and a time of throwing away, 7a time of tearing and a time of sewing, 8 a time of keeping silence and a time of speaking, 8a time of loving and a time of hating, a time of war and a time of peace. 9 How much is the doer better off by his trouble? 10 I have seen the employment God has given to mankind to employ themselves at: 11 he has made everything fine at its time, he has even put eternity into their minds except that man does not find out the work God has done from beginning to end; 12 I have learned that there is nothing good among them but to enjoy one's self and get on well while one is alive. 13 And besides, when any man does eat and drink and see good by all his trouble it is God's gift. 14 I have learned that everything that God makes will be so forever; there is no adding to it nor subtracting from it; and God makes them fear before him. 15 Whatever is, already was; and what shall be, already is; and God hunts up antiquated things.

16 And furthermore I saw under the sun, in the place for judgment, wrong there; and in the place for the right-doer, the wrong-doer there. 17 I said to myself "God will judge the right-doer and the wrong-doer, because he has set a time of every concern and for every action." 18 I said to myself "on account of mankind, for God to sift them out and for their own seeing that they are cattle, 19 because mankind are an accident and cattle are an accident, and they have one fate: as this one dies, so does that one, and everything has one spirit, and man has no superiority over cattle because everything is nonsense, 20 Everything goes to one place: everything is out of the clay and everything goes back to the clay; 21 and who knows as to mankind's spirit whether it goes up and as to cattle's spirit whether it goes down to 22 the ground?" 22 And I saw that there was nothing better than that man should enjoy himself in his works, because that is his portion; for who will bring him to look upon what is to be after him?

CHAPTER 4

1 1 And I came back to seeing all the denials of justice that are committed under the sun: there were the tears of the oppressed and no comforter for them, 2 and on the part of their oppressors power and 2 no comforter for them; and I congratulated the dead who have already 3 died rather than the living who are still alive, 3 and, better than either of them, him who has not yet existed, who has not seen the bad work that is done under the sun.

4 4 And I saw all taking of trouble and all efficiency in work to be rivalry between man and man; this too is nonsense and chasing 5 6 after wind.— 5 The fool folds his arms and eats his own flesh.— 6 Better a handful of rest than a double handful of trouble and chasing after wind.

7 7 And I came back to seeing a piece of nonsense under the sun: 8 there is one man and no second one, he has neither son nor brother; and there is no end to all the trouble he takes, nor do his eyes get their fill of riches, and for whom am I taking the trouble and depriving myself of good things? this too is nonsense and a bad business. 9 9 Better two than one, because when they take trouble they get good 10 pay. 10 For if they fall, one will help his comrade to his feet; but woe to 11 a single man who falls and has no second to help him up! 11 Also, if two are lying in bed they will be warm, but how is just one to be 12 warm? 12 And if somebody would overpower the single man, the two will stand up to him. And a three-stranded cord is not quickly to be broken.

13 13 Better a destitute but wise lad than an old and foolish king who 14 no longer knows enough to take warning, 14 because out of prison he came out to become king when in his very kingdom he had been born 15 poor. 15 I saw all the living, those who walk about under the sun, with 16 the lad, the second, who was to stand in his place. 16 There was no end of all the people, all at whose head he was; but neither were those who came after to be glad of him, because this too was nonsense and chasing after wind.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 Mind your step when you go to God's house: coming near to hear is better than fools' giving a sacrifice, because they do not know how 2 to do anything but what is bad. 2 Do not get your mouth into a rush, and let your heart not be quick about bringing out a word before God; for God is in heaven and you on earth; therefore let your words 3 be few. 3 For a dream comes with a great deal of business, and a fool's 4 voice with a great deal of talk. 4 When you make a vow to God do not be backward about paying it off, because fools are not liked; pay

5 what you vowed; 5 better that you should not vow than that you 6 should vow and not pay. 6 Do not permit your mouth to bring your flesh into sin, and do not say before the angel that it was unintentional; 7 why should God be incensed at your voice and ruin the work of your hands? 7 For with many dreams and nonsenses there is much talk; but fear God.
8 If in the province you see disregard of a poor man's claims and usurpation against law and right, do not be shocked at the affair, 9 because above a high man a higher man is on the watch, and higher men above them. 9 But it is to a country's advantage, for all that,
that a cultivated region should have a king.
10 One who loves money will not get his fill of money; nor whoever 11 loves affluence, of income; this too is nonsense: 11 when there is much good cheer there are many eaters of it, and what result does its 12 owner have except the looking on? 12 The worker's sleep is sweet whether he eats little or much, but fullness for a rich man does not give him 13 a chance to go to sleep. 13 There is a galling evil I have seen under the 14 sun—riches watched over by their owner to his own harm, 14 and those riches are lost in some bad affair, and he has a son born, and he has 15 nothing in his hands; 15 as he came out of his mother's body, naked he goes back, going as he came, and does not pick up by his trouble 16 anything that he can take along in his hand. 16 And this too is a galling evil: just the way he came, so he goes, and how much is he better 17 off for putting himself to trouble just for wind? 17 and all his life is spent in darkness and mourning and many annoyances and diseases 18 and exasperations. 18 Here is the way I see it: it is best that one should turn his attention to eating and drinking and seeing good by all his trouble that he takes under the sun in such time for living as God has 19 given him, because that is his portion. 19 Also, when God has given any man riches and substance and the privilege of eating from it and of taking up his portion and of enjoying himself for his trouble, 20 this is God's gift, for he will not much remember the days he has lived through because God busies him with his heart's enjoyment.

CHAPTER 6

1 There is an evil I have seen under the sun, and man has upon him 2 a great deal of it: 2 a man to whom God gives riches and substance and honors, and he has no shortage of anything his appetites crave, and God does not give him the privilege of eating from it but some alien 3 eats it; this is nonsense and a grievous disorder. 3 If a man has a hundred born to him and lives many years, ever so long a life, and his appetites do not take their fill of good things and he does not have a regular burial either, I say a stillbirth is a better case than his, 4 4 because it came in nothingness and goes in darkness, and with dark-5 ness its name is covered, 5 neither has it seen or known the sun—this 6 has a more restful state than that man. 6 And if one lives a thousand years twice over and does not see good, does not everything go to one 7 place? 7 All man's trouble is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not 8 filled. 8 For how much better off is the wise man than the fool? how much the humble man who knows how to walk before the living?

9 9 Better seeing with eyes than rambling of desires. This too is nonsense and chasing after wind.
10 10 What is already named and known to be man, and he cannot 11 contest against him who is more potent than he. 11 For there are many 12 words that increase nonsense; what advance does man make? 12 For who knows what is good for man in life, as many as are his days of nonsensical life which he passes through like a shadow? for who is to tell man what is to be after him under the sun?

CHAPTER 7

1 1 A name is better than choice oil; and the day of death than that of one's birth.
2 2 Better to go to the house of mourning than to the house of banqueting, inasmuch as that is the end of all humanity, and the living man will take it to heart.
3 3 Better gloominess than laughter, because by grimness in the face the mind is in good spirits.
4 4 Wise men's hearts are in a house of mourning, but fools' hearts are in a house of merrymaking.
5 5 Better to listen to a wise man's rebuke than anybody's listening 6 to the singing of fools. 6 For like the sound of fires of briers, such is fools' laughter.
7 7 And this too is nonsense, that denial of justice maddens a wise man and ruins sensible men's brains.
8 8 Better the future of a thing than its past; better a patient spirit than a pretentious spirit.
9 9 Do not rush into getting your spirit vexed, because vexation rests in fools' bosoms.
10 10 Do not say "What has happened, that past times were better than these?" for it is not out of wisdom that you ask about this.
11 11 Wisdom with an inheritance is a good thing, and to the advantage 12 of those who see the sun. 12 For the shade of money is like the shade of wisdom, but the advantage of knowledge is, wisdom gives life to its possessors.
13 13 See God's work; for who is able to set straight what he crooks?
14 14 On a day of good be in a good mood, and on a day of evil see:
God made this too to go with that, with a view to man's not finding out anything that is to follow.
15 15 I have seen everything happen in my days of nonsense. There is such a thing as a right-doer perishing in his right-doing, and there is such a thing as a wrong-doer getting a long life in his wrong-doing.
16 16 Do not be an extreme right-doer and do not go in excessively for 17 wisdom: why turn anchorite? 17 Do not go to extremes in doing wrong, 18 and do not be foolish: why die before your time? 18 Better hold on to this and not let go of that, because one who fears God will get through with all of it.

19 19 —Wisdom is stronger for the wise man than any ten autocrats that 20 there have been in the city.— 20 For there is no human saint on earth that does what is good and never sins.

21 21 Do not take notice, either, of all words that are spoken, that you 22 may not hear your slave curse you; for you know yourself that many times you yourself have cursed others.

23 23 All this I probed by wisdom. I thought I would be wise; but that 24 was too far off for me. 24 What is far off and deep, deep; who is to find it out?

25 25 I have gone about, my heart and I, to know and to explore and search out wisdom and science, and to know wrong to be folly, and 26 fooling to be craziness. 26 And I find a bitterer thing than death: woman, whose heart is toils and nets and whose arms are fetters; one whom God finds good will get clear of her, but a sinner will be caught 27 on her. 27 See, this I have found, says Koheleth, putting one thing with 28 another to get a result, 28 that my soul still searched and I did not find.
One out of a thousand of mankind I found, but a woman among all 29 these I never did find. 29 This alone, see, I did find: that God made man straight, but they have hunted out many contrivances.

CHAPTER 8

1 1 Who is like the wise man? and who knows the explanation of a thing? A man's wisdom puts light into his face, and the hardness of his face is changed.

2 3 2 Comply with a king's words; and, in view of your oath by God, 3 do not be in consternation, go away from his presence; do not stand in 4 a bad business. 4 For he does anything he chooses to, inasmuch as a king's word is authoritative, and who will say to him "What are you doing?"

5 5 A commandment-keeper will know nothing of a bad business; and 6 a wise man's heart will know time and judgment, 6 for every affair has 7 a time and a judgment, because man has much evil upon him, 7 because he does not know what is to come; for when it is coming, who is to 8 tell him? 8 There is no man who controls the wind so as to shut off the wind; and nobody is in control of the day of death; and there is no dismissal in war; and wrong will not bring safety to those who commit it.

9 9 All this I saw, keeping my mind on all the work that was done under 10 the sun, at a time when man had control of man to his own harm. 10 And then I saw wrong-doers buried, and coming in, out of a holy place, 11 and their bad record forgotten in the city. 11 This too is nonsense, that sentence on evil-doing is not quickly executed; therefore the hearts 12 of mankind are altogether determined to do evil, 12 inasmuch as a sinner

does evil all along and has a long life—though I do know that for those who fear God there will be good inasmuch as they stand in fear before him, 13 but for the wrong-doer there will not be good and he will have no long life, like a shadow, inasmuch as he does not stand in fear before God. 14 There is a piece of nonsense that is done on earth, that there are right-doers to whom there happens what is suitable to wrong-doers' work and there are wrong-doers to whom there happens what is suitable to right-doers' work. I say this is nonsense too. 15 And I praise merrymaking, inasmuch as there is nothing good for man under the sun but to eat and drink and make merry, and he will have that to go with him for his trouble through his time of life which God has given to him under the sun.

16 When I applied my heart to knowing wisdom and seeing all the business that is done on earth—for day and night it does not get even a glimpse of sleep— 17 I saw all God's work, how man cannot make out all the work that is done under the sun, inasmuch as man puts himself to trouble looking into it but does not make it out, and even if the

1 wise man professes to know he cannot make it out. 1 For I took all this into my heart, and my heart saw all this, that the righteous and the wise and their doings are in God's hands: neither love nor hate does man know about. 2 Everything that has gone before them is nonsense, as there is one fate for all, for the right-doer and the wrong-doer, and for the clean and the unclean, and for the sacrificer and the non-sacrificer; the good man is like the sinner, the swearer like him who is afraid of swearing. 3 This is a bad thing in all that is done under the sun, that there is one fate for all; and also the hearts of mankind are full of evil, and they have craziness in their hearts through their lives; 4 and afterward, to the dead, for who is there that has a choice? As to all the living there is something to depend on; for a living dog is thereby better than the dead lion. 5 For the living know they are to die, but the dead do not know a thing, and no longer get any reward, because the memory of them is forgotten. 6 Both their love and their hate and their ardors are lost in the past, and they no longer have a part, forever not, in anything that is done under the sun.

7 Go, eat your bread in merriment and drink your wine with happy heart, because God has already given his approval to your doings. 8 At every time be your clothes white and oil not scanty on your head. 9 Gaze on life with a wife you love, all the days of your nonsensical life that God has given to you under the sun; all the days of your nonsense, because that is the portion you get by living and by your trouble that you take under the sun. 10 Everything that comes within your reach to do with your powers, do; because there is no action nor purpose nor knowledge nor wisdom in the world below, where you are going.

- 11 11 I came back seeing under the sun that the race does not go to the swift nor the battle to the crack fighters, neither does bread go to the wise, neither do riches go to the longheaded, neither does popularity go to the knowing, because time and chance happen to all of them.
- 12 12 For man does not know his time either: like the fishes, that are gripped by a disastrous net, or like the birds, that are gripped by the trap, like them mankind are trapped in a disastrous time when it falls upon them suddenly.
- 13 13 This too I saw of wisdom under the sun, and it was great to me:
- 14 14 a small city, and few men in it, and there came to it a great king and
- 15 surrounded it and built great towers against it; 15 but he found in it a
- 16 wise poor man, and he preserved the city by his wisdom; but people
- 17 did not remember that poor man. 16 And I say, wisdom is better than
- 18 prowess, but the poor man's wisdom is despised and his words are
- not listened to.— 17 Wise men's words in quiet are heard better than the
- 18 screams of a ruler among fools. 18 Wisdom is better than weapons of

CHAPTER 10

- 1 battle. 1 But one bungler brings the loss of a great deal of good. Dead flies taint perfumer's oil with foul-smelling bubbles; a little foolishness outweighs wisdom and standing.
- 2 2 A wise man's heart is toward his right, but a fool's heart toward
- 3 his left. 3 And even on the road as the foolish man is walking his brains
- give out and he tells everybody he is foolish.
- 4 4 If the ruler's temper rises against you, do not leave your position; for coolness quiets down great faults.
- 5 5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, seeming like
- 6 a blunder that originates among the autocrat's officers: 6 foolishness
- 7 is put in many lofty positions and rich men sit in low places; 7 I have
- seen slaves on horseback and chieftains walking on the ground like
- slaves.
- 8 8 He who digs a pit falls into it, and he who breaks down a wall has
- 9 a snake bite him; 9 he who takes out stones gets hurt by them; he who
- 10 splits wood is in danger by it. 10 If the iron has grown dull and he has
- not whetted, then he exerts himself; but wisdom is an advantage for
- 11 giving efficiency. 11 If the snake bites without having been charmed,
- one is no better off for having a skilled tongue.
- 12 12 The words of a wise man's mouth are ingratiating, but a fool's lips
- 13 swamp him. 13 The first words of his mouth are foolishness and the
- 14 last of it is a bad case of craziness; 14 and the foolish fellow makes a
- lot of talk. Man does not know what will happen, and who is to tell
- 15 him what is to come after him? 15 The fool's trouble tires him out, as
- he does not know enough to walk to town.
- 16 16 Alas for you, country whose king is a boy and whose generals eat
- 17 in the morning! 17 Happy are you, country whose king is a son of nobles
- and whose generals eat at a regular hour, for strength and not for 18 drinking! 18 By indolence the timbers sag, and by unlifted hands the roof 19 leaks. 19 They get up meals for fun, and wine makes life merry, and 20 money provides an answer for everything. 20 Do not misspeak a king even mentally, nor a rich man in your bedchambers, for the birds of the air will convey the sound and the winged will carry word.

CHAPTER 11

1 1 Let your bread go out over the water, for in the long run you will 2 find it. 2 Give share to seven and even to eight, because you do not 3 know what there will be of disaster on the earth. 3 If the clouds get full of a shower they empty it out on the earth; and if a tree falls 4 toward the south, or if toward the north, in the place where the tree 5 falls, there it will be. 4 One who watches the wind will not sow, and one 6 who views the clouds will not reap. 5 As you do not know what is the course of the spirit into bones in the body of the pregnant woman, so 7 you will not know the working of God who works everything. 6 In the morning sow your seed and at evening do not rest your hand, because you do not know which will do right, whether this or that or both of them alike will be good.

7 7 And the light is sweet, and it does the eyes good to see the sun; 8 for if man lives many years he is to be merry in all of them. 8 But he is to remember the days of darkness will be many. All that is coming 9 will be nonsense. 9 Make merry in your boyhood, young man, and let your heart give you a good time in your days of youth, and go by the bents of your heart and the sights of your eyes; but know that as to 10 all these things God will bring you under judgment, 10 and keep your heart out of the way of remorse and your flesh free from harm; for

CHAPTER 12

1 boyhood and prime are nonsense. 1 And remember your Creator in your time of youth ere the bad times come and years that you will say 2 you do not like draw on; 2 ere the sun and the light and the moon and the stars darken down and the clouds come back after the shower, 3 3 on the day when the guards of the house tremble and the stalwart men go crooked and the grinders break off work because there have 4 come to be so few of them, and the ladies that look through the window-lattice find themselves in the dark, 4 and doors are shut on the streets while the sound of the mill is low, and one gets up at the 5 notes of the birds, and all the daughters of song go low; 5 withal they are afraid of a high place, and there are terrors on the road, and the almond-tree blossoms, and the grasshopper drags heavily, and the caper-berry balks, because man is going to his eternal house and 6 the wailers are going around in the street; 6 ere the silver cord snaps and the golden bowl smashes and the jar is broken at the spring and 7 the wheel is smashed into the cistern, 7 and the clay goes back to the 8 earth as it was and the spirit back to the God who gave it. 8 Perfect nonsense, says Koheleth; everything is nonsense.

- 9 9 And in addition to Koheleth's being a wise man he taught knowledge to the people besides, and, weighing and probing, edited many proverbs. 10 Koheleth aimed to find interesting language and write straightforward truths.
- 11 11 Wise men's words are like goad-points, and such as are taken up into collections are like driven nails; they are given from one shepherd.
- 12 12 And in addition to these things, my son, take warning: of making many books there is no end, and studying much is a fatigue to the flesh. 13 Last word; all is heard: fear God and keep his commandments, 14 for this is the whole of man. 14 For God will bring every action under a judgment covering every unknown circumstance, be it good or be it bad.

THE SONG OF SONGS

CHAPTER 1

- 1 Solomon's Song of Songs
- 2 Let him give me kisses from his mouth, for your love is better than wine.
- 3 Your oils are good to smell;
your name is Turak oil;
therefore the girls love you.
- 4 Draw me after you; we will run;
bring me into your chambers, king!
We will be gay and glad in you;
we think more of your love than of wine;
rightly they love you.
- 5 I am dark but handsome, daughters of Jerusalem, like Kedar's tents, like Solomon's curtains.
- 6 Do not notice how dark I am,
how the sun has taken a look at me;
My mother's sons were cross with me, set me to watch the vineyards;
my own vineyard I did not watch.
- 7 Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you are pasturing your flock, where you are having them lie down at noon; Why should I be like a girl wandering at random by your comrades' flocks?
- 8 —If you do not know,
most beautiful among women,
Go out on the track of the sheep and pasture your kids by the shepherds' tents.
- 9 To a pony in the Pharaoh's chariots I liken you, sweetheart.
- 10 How handsome your cheeks with face-chains, your neck with beads!
- 11 We will make you gold face-chains with silver studs.
- 12 —While the king was at his table
my nard gave its scent.
- 13 My truelove is to me the package of myrrh lying between my breasts through the night.
- 14 My truelove is to me a cluster of henna-flowers in the vineyards of 'En-Gedi.
- 15 —Ah, you are beautiful, sweetheart,
ah, you are beautiful, your eyes are doves.

- 16 —Ah, you are beautiful, true love, winsome too; our couch too is verdant.
17 The beams of our house are cedars, our rafters are cypresses.

CHAPTER 2

- 1 I am a narcissus on the plain,
a lily in one of the vales.
2 —Like a lily among the briars, such is my sweetheart among the daughters.
3 —Like an apple-tree among the trees on the rocks, such is my true love among the sons.
I am eager to sit in his shade and his fruit is sweet to my palate.
4 He has brought me to the winehouse, and his banner over me is love.
5 Refresh me with raisins, recover me with apples, because I am breaking down with love.
6 His left arm clasps my head and his right embraces me.
7 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles or the wild does,
Not to wake love or rouse it up till it so please.
8 My true love's step!
here he comes Leaping along the mountains, bounding along the hills; 9 My true love seems like a gazelle or a young deer.
Here he is standing outside the wall of our house, Gazing through the windows, glancing through the lattices.
10 My true love speaks up and says to me
"Up, sweetheart;
come on, my beauty, 11 For the winter is over, the rains are past and gone, 12 The flowers on the ground are out, song-time has come in and the turtledove's note is heard in our country; 13 The fig-tree has its fruit-buds out and the blooming grapevines are fragrant.

- Up, sweetheart;
 come on, my beauty.
- 14 My dove in the crannies of the cliff, in the covert of the rock-ledge, Let me see your form,
 let me hear your voice, Because your voice is sweet and your form is lovely."
- 15 "Catch foxes!
 Little foxes are damaging vineyards, and our vineyards are blooming!"
- 16 My truelove is mine and I am his, who pastures his flock among the lilies
- 17 Till the day grows breezy
 and the shadows take flight.
 Truelove, come round and do like a gazelle
 Or a young deer
 on the mountains of Bether.

CHAPTER 3

- 1 On my bed of nights
 I looked for the one that my soul loves, looked for him and did not find him.
- 2 Let me stand up and go round in the city in the streets and the squares Looking for the one that my soul loves;
 I looked for him and did not find him.
- 3 The watchmen that go round in the city found me:
 "Have you seen the one that my soul loves?"
- 4 I had got a little past them when I found the one that my soul loves.
 I caught hold of him, did not let go of him Till I brought him to my mother's house, to my parent's chamber.
- 5 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
 by the gazelles or the wild does,
 Not to wake love or rouse it up
 till it so please.
- 6 Who is this coming up out of the wilderness like columns of smoke, Perfumed with burnings of myrrh and frankincense, with every powder money can buy?
- 7 Here comes Solomon's bed,

- Sixty champions round it, champions of Israel, 8 All of them sword-wielders, men trained to war, Each with sword on thigh against night alarms.
9 King Solomon has made himself a palanquin of wood from the Lebanon, 10 Made its legs of silver, its back of gold,
Its seat of purple,
its body inlaid with ebony.
11 Daughters of Jerusalem, go out and gaze at King Solomon In the wreath his mother put on him on his wedding-day, the day of his heart's gladness.

CHAPTER 4

- 1 Ah, you are beautiful, sweetheart,
ah, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves
behind your veil.
Your hair is like a flock of goats that overflow a Gilead mountain.
2 Your teeth are like the flock for clipping as they come up from the washing, Flock where they all have twins
and not one has lost a lamb.
3 Your lips are like scarlet thread and your mouth is lovely.
Your temple is like a segment of pomegranate
behind your veil.
4 Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory, With the thousand shields hung on it, all the bucklers of the champions.
5 Your two breasts are like two fawns,
a gazelle's twins
That pasture among the lilies 6 till the day grows breezy
and the shadows take flight.
I wend my way to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.
7 You are beautiful all of you, sweetheart, and there is nothing wrong about you.

- 8 With me from Lebanon, bride, with me from Lebanon you shall come,
You shall look off from the top of Amana, from the tops of Shenir and Hermon, From lions' haunts,
from leopards' mountains.
- 9 You have driven me out of my senses, my sister, bride;
you have driven me out of my senses with one of your eyes, with one bead of your necklace.
- 10 How pretty is your love, my sister, bride!
how much better than wine is your love, and the scent of your oils than all spices!
- 11 Your lips drip purest honey, bride;
you have honey and milk under your tongue, and the scent of your clothes is like that of Lebanon.
- 12 A locked garden is my sister, bride, a locked garden, a sealed water-spring.
- 13 Your sprays are an orchard of pomegranates and priceless fruits, plants of henna and nard,
- 14 Nard and saffron, sweet flag and cinnamon, with all frankincense-bearing trees, Myrrh and eaglewood with all rarest spices.
- 15 —The spring in my garden is a well of living water and a flow from Lebanon.
- 16 Wake, north wind, and come, south, blow through my garden, let its spices flow.
Let my truelove come into his garden and eat its priceless fruits.

CHAPTER 5

- 1 —I come into my garden, my sister, bride, gather my myrrh with my balsam, Eat my honeycomb with my honey, drink my wine with my milk.
—Eat, friend,
drink and carouse, truelove!
- 2 I was asleep but my heart was awake:
the sound of my truelove knocking!
"Open to me, my sister,
my sweetheart, my dove, my ideal, Because my head has got full of dew, my locks of night drops."

- 3 "I have taken off my tunic;
how can I put it on?
I have washed my feet;
how can I soil them?"
- 4 My truelove put his hand through the hole and my bosom was in a turmoil over him.
- 5 I stood up to open for my truelove, and my hands were dripping with myrrh And my fingers with myrrh that went over to the handles of the bolt.
- 6 I did open for my truelove, but my truelove had turned round and gone.
The life had gone out of me at his speaking;
I looked for him and did not find him,
called him and he did not answer me.
- 7 The guards that go round in the city found me, beat me, wounded me; The guards of the walls took my mantle off me.
- 8 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
if you find my truelove,
To what you are to tell him:
that I am breaking down with love.
- 9 "What sort of truelove is yours,
most beautiful among women?
What sort of truelove is yours,
that you adjure us like that?"
- 10 My truelove is white and red, outstanding among ten thousand.
- 11 His head is nuggets of red gold;
his locks are waving,
black as a raven.
- 12 His eyes are like doves by dingles of water, bathed in milk and laid in settings.
- 13 His cheeks are like beds of sweet herbs growing perfumers' stock; His lips are lilies that drip flowing myrrh.
- 14 His arms are cylinders of gold set with jasper;
His waist is a block of ivory overspread with sapphires.
- 15 His legs are pillars of marble resting on bases of red gold.
The look of him is like the Lebanon, admirable as the cedars.

- 16 His talk is luscious and everything about him fascinating.
This is my truelove and this is my friend, daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 6

- 1 "Which way did your truelove go,
most beautiful among women?
Which way did your truelove turn?
and we will look for him with you." 2 My truelove went down to his garden, to the beds of sweet herbs, To crop the gardens and pick lilies.
3 I am my truelove's and my truelove is mine, who pastures his flock among lilies.
4 You are beautiful, sweetheart, as Tirsah, lovely as Jerusalem,
terrible as the aurora.
5 Turn your eyes off me, for they overpower me.
Tour hair is like a flock of goats that overflow Gilead.
6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes
as they come up from the washing, Flock where they all have twins
and not one has lost a lamb.
7 Your temple is like a segment of pomegranate
behind your veil.
8 Sixty are queens and eighty concubines, and maids innumerable;
9 One is my dove, my ideal, her mother's one is she,
her parent's pure one she.
Girls saw her and felicitated her, queens and concubines, and praised her.
10 Who is this that looks out like dawn, beautiful as the moon, clear as the sun,
terrible as the aurora?
11 I went down to the nut-garden to look over the things starting in the arroyo, To see if the grapevines had broken out their buds, if the pomegranates had blossomed.
12 I did not know;
my soul had made me 'Ammi-Nadib's chariots.

CHAPTER 7

- 1 Come back, come back, Shulammitē;
come back, come back, and let us have a look at you.
—What sight of the Shulammitē would you have?
—In the camp dance!
- 2 How beautifully your feet tap with the shoes, daughter of a nobleman!
The swing of your hips is like bangles made by an artist's hands.
- 3 Your navel is like a stirring-bowl—may there be no lack of wine-mixture!
Your waist is like a heap of wheat set round with lilies.
- 4 Your two breasts are like two fawns,
a gazelle's twins.
- 5 Your neck is like the Ivory Tower.
Your eyes are like the reservoirs at Heshbon at the Bath-Rabbim gate.
Your nose is like the Lebanon tower looking out on the Damascus side.
- 6 Your head stands on you like Carmel, and the strands of your head are like purple;
a king is fettered in the threads.
- 7 How beautiful you are, how winsome, love, daughter of delight!
- 8 This figure of yours is the likeness of a palm tree;
and your breasts, of clusters.
- 9 I think I will climb the palm tree, take hold of its bunches of fruit,
And let your breasts be like clusters of the grapevine and the scent of your breath like that of apples,
- 10 And your mouth like the best wine, running smoothly for my throat, gliding through my lips and teeth.
- 11 I am my truelove's and his impulse is toward me.
- 12 Come on, truelove, we will go out on the range, pass the night in the villages,
- 13 Be in the vineyards the first thing in the morning seeing if the grapevines have broken out their buds, Have come into bloom,
if the pomegranates have blossomed.
There I will give you my love.
- 14 The mandrake-apples are giving their scent, and at our doors are all sorts of fine fruits;

New and last year's too, truelove, I have laid up for you.

CHAPTER 8

- 1 If only you were the same as a brother of mine, one that had sucked my mother's breasts!
Finding you in the street, I would kiss you;
they would not despise me either.
- 2 I would lead you, would bring you to my mother's house, to the chamber of her who gave me birth.
I would give you a drink of perfumed wine, of my pomegranate-wine.
- 3 His left arm clasps my head
and his right embraces me.
- 4 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
why should you wake love or rouse it up till it so please?
- 5 Who is this coming up from the wilderness leaning on her truelove?
Under the apple-tree I waked you up;
it was there your mother bore the birth-pains for you, there she bore the birth-pains, brought you to birth.
- 6 Lay me like a seal over your heart,
like a seal on your arm;
For love is violent as death, jealousy hard as the grave;
Its flashes are flashes of fire, Jehovah's flame-throwing.
- 7 Much water cannot quench love, and rivers will not sweep it away;
If a man were to give all the goods in his house for love they would just despise him.
- 8 "We have a little sister and she has no breasts; what shall we do for our sister on the day when she is to be spoken for?
- 9 If she is a wall we will build silver battlements on her, but if she is a door we will board her up with cedar planks."
- 10 I am a wall and my breasts are like the towers;
then I was in his eyes like one who finds peace.
- 11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-Hamon;
he gave the vineyard to keepers, each to bring in a thousand shekels of silver.
- 12 I have my own vineyard before me;
the thousand for you, Solomon, and two hundred for those who keep its fruit safe!

- 13 You that are sitting in the garden, comrades are listening for your voice; let me hear it.
- 14 —Off with you, truelove,
and do like a gazelle
Or a young deer
on the spice mountains.

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

CHAPTER 1

- 1 The visions of Isaiah the son of Amos, which he beheld about Judah and Jerusalem in the time of Kings 'Uzzijah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah.
- 2 Listen, sky, and give ear, earth, because Jehovah has spoken: I raised children, kept them till they grew tall, and they have rebelled against me. 3 A bull knows its owner, a donkey its master's manger; Israel does not know, my people does not notice.
- 4 Ah sinful nation, people heavy with guilt, progeny of evil-doers, vicious children! they have left Jehovah, been contemptuous to the Holy One of Israel, backed away as strangers. 5 What should you be beaten again for? you would go further out of the way. Every head is cankered, every heart unstrung, 6 from foot to head not a sound spot: torn skin and bruises and raw wounds that have not been squeezed out nor bandaged nor softened with oil. 7 Your country is a desolation, your cities are burned down; your land aliens eat up in your presence, and it is a desolation like an overthrow of aliens; 8 and the daughter of Sion is left like a booth in a vineyard, like a night-platform in a melon-patch, like a besieged city. 9 If Jehovah of Armies had not caused the merest survivors of us to be left, we should have been like Sodom, a parallel to Ghomorrah.
- 10 Listen to Jehovah's word, chieftains of Sodom; give ear to our Gods' instructions, people of Ghomorrah. 11 "What do I want of the multiplicity of your sacrifices?" Jehovah is saying; "I have had my fill of burnt-offerings of rams and fat of stall-fed calves, and for blood of steers and sheep and he-goats I have no fancy; 12 when you come to appear before me, who has demanded this of you? You shall do no more trampling my courts. 13 Bringing offerings is futile; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and sabbath, proclaiming a meeting, 14 I cannot bear; fasting and compulsory holiday, your new moons and your dates, my soul hates; they have come to be a dead weight on me, I am tired out with carrying it. 15 And when you spread out your hands I will ignore you; even when you offer great quantities of prayer I am not going to listen: your hands are full of blood. 16 Take a bath, clean up; get the badness of your practices away from before my eyes; leave off doing the bad, 17 learn to do the good; aim at justice, correct injustice; do justice for an orphan, battle for a widow's cause."
- 18 Come and let us have it out, Jehovah is saying. If your sins get to be like scarlet they are to be white as snow, if they get red as crimson 19 they are to be like wool—19 if you are willing and obedient you shall eat the best in the country, 20 but if you refuse and are disobedient you shall be fed swords, because Jehovah's mouth has spoken.

21 How has she become a prostitute that was a faithful town, full of justice, in which honesty harbored—but now murderers! 22 Your silver has become dross, your liquor is watered. 23 Your generals are incorrigibles, confederates of thieves, every one a bribe-lover and fee-chaser; they do not do justice for an orphan and a widow's cause does not reach them. 24 So ha, quoth the Lord. Jehovah of Armies, the Mighty One of Israel: I will have satisfaction from my foes and have revenge on my enemies, and bring my hand back against you; 25 and I will smelt away your dross in a furnace and remove all your tin, 26 and restore your judges as at first and your councillors as at the beginning. After that you shall be called the city of honesty, a faithful town.

27 27 Sion shall be redeemed by justice, and those of her who come back by righteousness. 28 And the crash of rebels and sinners shall be all together, and those who leave Jehovah shall be exterminated.

29 29 For you shall be disappointed in the oaks you wanted, and abashed over the gardens you chose; 30 for you shall be like an oak dropping its leaves and like a garden that has no water. 31 And the sturdy shall become tow and his work a spark, and both shall burn up together and have nobody to quench them.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 The word that Isaiah the son of Amos beheld about Judah and Jerusalem.

2 2 And in the future days the mountain of Jehovah's house shall be set at the head of the mountains and lifted above hills, and all the nations shall stream to it. 3 And many peoples shall go and say "Come and let us go up to Jehovah's mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob, to have him instruct us in ways of his that we may go in his paths," because from Sion instruction shall go out and Jehovah's word from Jerusalem. 4 And he shall give judgment between the nations and pronounce verdicts for many peoples, and they shall pound their swords into hoes and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not take up sword against nation, and they shall never again learn war. 5 House of Jacob, come and let us walk in Jehovah's light.

6 6 Because you have abandoned your people the house of Jacob because they are full of Beduin soothsaying methods and tell fortunes like the Philistines and mesmerize foreign children, 7 and their country is full of silver and gold and there is no end to their hoards, and their country is full of ponies and there is no end to their chariots, 8 and their country is full of trumpery gods, they do reverence to the work of their hands, to what their fingers have made, 9 therefore humanity is abased and men brought low; 10 the eyes of human highness shall be brought low, and abased the loftiness of men, and Jehovah alone shall tower high on that day. 12 For Jehovah of Armies has a day against everything proud and lofty and against everything stately and high, 13 13 and against all the lofty and stately cedars of the Lebanon and 14 against all the oaks of the Bashan, 14 and against all the lofty mountains 15 and against all the stately hills, 15 and against every high tower and 16 against every battlemented wall, 16 and against all Spain-ships and 17 against all pleasure-barges; 17 and human highness shall be abased and the loftiness of men shall be brought low, and Jehovah alone shall 18 tower high on that day, 18 and the trumpery gods shall pass out com-19 pletely. 19 And they shall go into caves in the rocks and burrows in the ground from the dread of Jehovah and from the stateliness of his pride at his standing up to flutter the earth. 20 On that day men shall 20 throw their trumpery gods of silver and of gold, that their fingers made to do reverence to, to the moles and the bats 21 to go into the 21 cavities of the rocks and the clefts of the crags from the dread of Jehovah and from the stateliness of his pride at his standing up to flutter the earth.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 For here is the Lord Jehovah of Armies taking away from Jerusalem and from Judah stay and staff, every stay of bread and every 2 stay of water, 2 champion and soldier, judge and prophet and sooth-3 sayer and elder, 3 captain of fifty and man of influence and counselor 4 and ingenious artisan and expert charm-singer, 4 and I will make boys 5 their generals, and pestering shall rule them; 5 and the people shall ill-treat each other, man against man, the boy hectoring the old man 6 and the nobody the aristocrat. 6 When a man seizes his brother in his father's house with "You have a mantle, we will have you for chief-7 tain and this muddle shall be under your hands," 7 that day he will vociferate "I will not be surgeon; there is no bread and no mantle in 8 my house; 8 you shall not make me chieftain of a people," because Jerusalem has stumbled, Judah has fallen, because their tongues and 9 their practices confront Jehovah disregarding his glorious eyes. 9 The recognition of their persons indicts them; they announce their sin like Sodom's, they make no concealment of it. Woe to their hearts!
10 for they have done themselves mischief. 10 Happy an honest man, be-11 cause he is kind; 11 for they shall eat the fruit of their practices. 11 Woe to a vicious rascal; for the dealing of his hands shall come back to 12 him. 12 My people's commandants are high-handed, and women rule it; my people, your directors misdirect, and have dropped from their memory the course for your travel.

13 13 Jehovah has taken his stand to contend, and is standing to bring 14 peoples to justice. 14 Jehovah will prosecute the elders of his people and its generals; it is you that have eaten down the vineyard, the goods 15 stolen from the penniless man are in your houses. 15 What are you about, beating down my people and grinding up poor men's faces?

16 16 And Jehovah says "Inasmuch as the daughters of Sion are haughty and go with tilted neck and ogling eyes, go tripping along and making 17 the anklets sound on their legs, 17 the Lord will bring out eruptions on the crowns of the daughters of Sion and Jehovah will denude their 18 crotches. 18 On that day the Lord will remove the magnificence of the 19 anklets and net-bands and crescents, 19 the pendants and bracelets and 20 veils, 20 the caps and armlets and ribbons and smelling-bottles and 21 22 charms, 21 the rings and nose-rings, 22 the full dresses and jackets and 23 shawls and bags, 23 the gauzes and cambrics and the tiaras and mantles.

24 24 And instead of spice there shall be putridity, and instead of a belt a halter, and instead of curls baldness, and instead of formal dress a 25 sackcloth tied round; branding instead of beauty. 25 Your citizens have 26 fallen by the sword, your manhood by war; 26 and her gateways grieve

CHAPTER 4

1 and mourn, and she sits despoiled on the ground. 1 And seven women shall take hold of one man on that day, saying "We will eat our own bread and wear our own garments; only let us be called by your name, take the dishonor off us." 2 2 On that day Jehovah's verdure will be splendor and glory, and the fruit of the ground pride and magnificence, for the survivors of 3 Israel; 3 and those that remain in Sion, and those that are left over 4 in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, everyone in Jerusalem who is 4 written down for life, 4 if Jehovah washes off the filth from the daugh-5 ters of Sion and rinses out the blood from Jerusalem by a spirit of 5 judgment and of cleaning out. 5 And Jehovah will create over every abode on Mount Sion and over its meetings a cloud by day and a smoke and a glare of flaming fire by night, because over every fit of 6 glory 6 there shall be a canopy and a booth for shade by day from parching and for a refuge and screen from squall and rain.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 I would sing of my dearest my love-song of his vineyard. My 2 dearest had a vineyard on the side of a hill of richest soil; 2 and he dug it over and picked out the stones and planted it with Sorek vines and built a tower in the middle and cut out a winepress in it 3 and all, and expected it to bear grapes, and it bore nubbins. 3 And now, residents of Jerusalem and men of Judah, give judgment between 4 my vineyard and me. 4 What more was to be done for my vineyard that I did not do in it? how comes it I expected it to bear grapes and it bore nubbins?
5 5 Now let me give you notice what I am going to do to my vineyard: remove its thorn-fence and have it eaten down; break its wall and 6 have it trampled. 6 And I will render it a glen-side, unpruned, unhoed, grown up to brambles and briers; and I will order the clouds not 7 to drop any rain on it. 7 For the house of Israel is the vineyard of Jehovah of Armies, and the men of Judah his labor of love; and he expected justice and found butcheries, expected integrity and found outcry.

8 Ha, you that add house to house, annex field to field, till there is no place at all and you are seated by yourselves in the heart of the country!<sup>9</sup>in my ears is Jehovah of Armies, "many houses shall be desolate, great fine ones, without inhabitant," <sup>10</sup>for a five-acre vineyard shall make ten gallons, and sowing a peck shall produce a quart.

<sup>11</sup> 11 Ha, you that are chasing after beer the first thing in the morning, <sup>12</sup>that have wine dogging you the last thing in the evening! <sup>12</sup>and your banquets are lyre and harp, tambourine and flute and wine, but you do not look at Jehovah's activity nor see the work of his hands
<sup>13</sup> 13 So my people is deported because of not knowing, and its glory is starving men and its host parched with thirst. <sup>14</sup>So the realm of death has expanded its appetite and opened its mouth monstrously, and down goes her stateliness and her activity and her hubbub and her <sup>15</sup>hilarity, <sup>15</sup>and humanity is abased and men brought low, and high <sup>16</sup>society's eyes are brought low, <sup>16</sup>and Jehovah of Armies rises high in <sup>17</sup>judgment and the holy Deity hallows himself in righteousness; <sup>17</sup>and sheep shall pasture where they will, and tegs shall eat on devastated sites.

<sup>18</sup> 18 Ha, you that draw guilt with lines of futility, and sin as if with <sup>19</sup>a cart-rope, <sup>19</sup>that say "Let him be quick and hurry up his work that we may see it; let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel come on and come to something, that we may know it!"

<sup>20</sup> 20 Ha, you that call bad good and good bad, that make darkness light and light darkness, that make bitter sweet and sweet bitter!

<sup>26</sup> 26 And he will signal for a nation from far away and whistle for it from the end of the earth, and forthwith it comes at full speed, <sup>27</sup>in which there is no one faint and no one stumbling; <sup>27</sup>which never grows drowsy nor sleeps; whose loincloth never comes undone and <sup>28</sup>its shoestring never breaks; <sup>28</sup>whose arrows are sharpened and all its bows strung, whose ponies' hoofs seem like flint and the running of <sup>29</sup>its wheels like a gale of wind; <sup>29</sup>it has a roar like a lioness, it roars like two-year-old lions, and it growls and seizes a prey and carries it to 30 safety and there is no rescuer. 30 And it will growl over it that day like the growling of a sea, and one will look at the country and find distressful darkness, and light turned dark by its thick clouds.

CHAPTER 6

1 1 In the year of King 'Uzzijah's death I saw the Lord sitting on a high and high-placed throne with his trailing robes filling the temple.
2 2 Seraphs were standing above him: each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his legs, and with two 3 he flew; 3 and this one called to that one "Holy, holy, holy is Jehovah of 4 Armies; 4 there is a whole worldful of his glory," and the foundations of the thresholds tossed at the caller's voice, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 5 And I said "Woe to me, I am a dead man, because I am a man of unclean lips and I live among a people of unclean lips; for my eyes 6 have seen the King, Jehovah of Armies." 6 And one of the seraphs flew to me with an ember which he had taken off the altar with the 7 tongs, 7 and touched it to my mouth and said "Here, this has touched your lips, and your guilt shall pass away and your sin be purged." 8 8 And I heard the voice of the Lord as he said "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us!" and I said "Here I am, send me."

9 9 And he said "Go say to this people 'Hear, but do not understand; 10 see, but do not know.' 10 Make this people's brains fat, make its ears dull, gum over its eyes, for fear it should see with its eyes and hear with its ears and its brains should understand and it should turn back and be cured."

11 11 And I said "How long, Lord?" And he said "Till cities tumble down to have no inhabitant, and houses to have no humankind, and the 12 soil is a forlorn desolation, 12 and Jehovah sends mankind far away, and 13 the deserted areas in the heart of the country are many, 13 and it has a tenth left in it, and goes back to being for beasts to eat down, like a terebinth or an oak which have suckers on them when they have been felled; its stock are a sacred seed."

CHAPTER 7

1 1 And in the time of Ahaz the son of Jotham the son of 'Uzzijah, king of Judah, King Rason of Syria and King Pekah the son of Remaliah of Israel came up to Jerusalem to attack it; but they were 2 not able to. 2 And the house of David were told "Syria is resting on Ephraim," and their hearts and their people's hearts rocked as small 3 trees rock in a wind. 3 And Jehovah said to Isaiah "Go out to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-jashub, to the end of the aqueduct of the upper reservoir, the one that is on the highway to the Fuller's 4 Field, 4 and say to him "Take care and be quiet: do not be afraid nor discouraged at these two last ends of smoldering firebrands, with the 5 anger of Rason and Syria and the son of Remaliah. 5 Whereas Syria has proposed mischief against you, Ephraim and the son of Remaliali, saying<sup>6</sup> "We will go up into Judah and terrorize it and take it by storm and set up a king in it, the son of Tabeel," <sup>7</sup> the Lord Jehovah says <sup>8</sup> "It shall not get on foot, it shall not be. <sup>8</sup> For Damascus is the head of Syria and Rason is the head of Damascus; and in sixty-five years <sup>9</sup> more Ephraim shall be shivered and lose its nationality;<sup>9</sup> and Samaria is the head of Ephraim and the son of Remaliah is the head of Samaria. If you do not have confidence you shall not have permanence." "

<sup>10</sup> <sup>11</sup> <sup>10</sup> And Jehovah went further by saying to Ahaz "Ask for a token from your God Jehovah: go deep to the realm of death or high aloft." <sup>12</sup> <sup>12</sup> But Ahaz said "I will not ask, I will not put Jehovah on trial."

<sup>13</sup> <sup>13</sup> And he said "Listen, house of David; are you not satisfied with tiring men out, that you would tire out my God too? <sup>14</sup> So the Lord himself will give you a token: there is a lass pregnant, she is going to have a son and name him God-Is-With-Us; <sup>15</sup> clabber and honey he shall eat at his knowing how to reject what is bad and choose what is good; <sup>16</sup> for before the child knows how to reject what is bad and choose what is good the land of whose two kings you are in terror shall be deserted. <sup>17</sup> Jehovah will bring upon you and your people and your family days that have not come since Ephraim seceded from Judah—the king of Assyria.

<sup>18</sup> <sup>18</sup> "And on that day Jehovah will whistle for the flies at the end of the Egyptian Nile and for the bees in Assyria, <sup>19</sup> and they will all come and rest in the arroyos and the crag-fissures and in all the thorn-trees and all the brakes.

<sup>20</sup> <sup>20</sup> "On that day the Lord will shave with the razor hired on the other side of the River, the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the legs, and the beard too it will take off.

<sup>1</sup> <sup>1</sup> And Jehovah said to me "Take a great bulletin-board and write <sup>2</sup> on it in cut-in letters 'For Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz,'<sup>2</sup> and have it attested for me by authoritative witnesses, Priest Urijah and Zecariah <sup>3</sup> the son of Jeberekiah." <sup>3</sup> And I had intercourse with the prophetess, and she became pregnant and had a son; and Jehovah said to me 4 "Name him Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz, 4 because before the child knows how to call 'papa' and 'mamma' they shall carry the wealth of Damascus and the booty of Samaria before the king of Assyria."

5 6 5 And Jehovah spoke to me yet again, saying 6 "Since this people do not care for the soft-flowing water of Shiloah but admire the hubbub 7 of Rason and the son of Remaliah, 7 therefore here is the Lord bringing up on them the vast and voluminous water of the River, the king of Assyria and all his masses, and it shall rise in all its channels and 8 go over all its banks 8 and off into Judah, washing everything away and passing off; it shall reach to the neck, and its spread of wing shall be the full breadth of your country, God-Is-With-Us."

9 9 Know, peoples, and be dismayed; give ear, all remotest parts of 10 the earth; mobilize and be dismayed, mobilize and be dismayed. 10 Get up a plan and have it baffled, draw up a program and it will not come off, because God is with us.

11 11 For Jehovah said to me in the grip of his hand, and warned me 12 from going on this people's road, 12 "You are not to say 'A plot' on every occasion on which this people says 'A plot,' nor fear their object of 13 fear nor be overawed: 13 Jehovah of Armies you are to revere as holy, 14 and he is your object of fear and of awe. 14 And he shall become a stone to strike against and a rock to stumble over for the two houses 15 of Israel, a trap and a snare for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 15 and many among them shall stumble and fall and break their bones, and be snared and caught."

16 16 Pack up admonition, seal up instruction, among my learners, 17 17 and I will wait for Jehovah, who veils his face from the house of 18 Jacob, and count on him. 18 Here I and the children God has given me are for tokens and portents in Israel from Jehovah of Armies who 19 makes his abode on Mount Sion. 19 And when they say to you "Consult this and that sort of chirping and moaning mediums; should not each 20 people consult its gods, on behalf of the living the dead, for instruction 20 and admonition?"— 20 if they do not speak by this formula that has 21 no magic, . . . that he has no daybreak. 21 And he will pass along it in hardship and hunger; and when he is hungry he will lose his 22 temper and abuse his king and his God, and turn his face upward 22 and look toward the earth, and find scanty room and darkness to fly in, narrow limits and murkiness to stray in.

CHAPTER 9

1 1 . . . because not in dusk is she who is now in straits. The first underrated the country of Zebulun and of Naphtali, but the last made much of the sea road, the other side of the Jordan, the march-land of the nations.

2 2 The people that were walking in the dark have seen a great light; on those who were sitting in a country of gloom a radiance has shone.

3 3 You have made the jubilation great, the gladness huge; they are glad before you like gladness at harvest, as they jubilate when they 4 divide booty, 4 because you have shivered the yoke of his load, the stick of his shoulder, his driver's cudgel, as on the day of Midian.
 5 5 For every shoe worn in melee, and cloak rolled in blood, shall be-6 come cinders, food of the fire. 6 For we have a child born to us, a son given to us,—and dominion rests on his shoulder, and he is named Wonder-Counselor, Divine Champion, Father Ever, Captain of Peace, 7 7 for ample dominion and for endless peace,—on David's throne and over his kingdom, to settle it and brace it with justice and right henceforth forever; the jealousy of Jehovah of Armies will do this.
 8 9 8 The Lord sent a word upon Jacob and it landed on Israel. 9 And the people all shouted, Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, in 10 pride and self-sufficiency, 10 "Bricks have fallen down, but we will build dressed stone; sycamores have been cut down, but we will substitute 11 cedars"; 11 but Jehovah reared their foe aloft against them and went to 12 spurring their enemies, 12 Syria in front and the Philistines behind, and they ate off Israel as fast as they could bite. With all this his anger has not gone back, his hand is still stretched out.
 13 13 And the people did not go back to him who dealt them the blows, 14 14 they did not resort to Jehovah of Armies; and Jehovah cut off from 15 Israel head and tail, palm-leaf and rush, in one day. 15 (An elder or influential man is the head, and a prophet who preaches untruth is 16 the tail.) 16 And this people's directors have become misdirectors, and 17 the directed helpless. 17 Therefore the Lord will not be glad over its young men nor have pity for its orphans and widows; for all of it is irreligious and criminal, and every mouth talks rascality. "With all this his anger has not gone back, his hand is still stretched out.
 18 18 For foul play burned like a fire that is eating up brambles and 19 briars and has caught to the thickets of the rocks and they go up in eddying columns of smoke. 19 By the wrath of Jehovah of Armies earth is scorched and the people are like the fuel of a fire, no one sparing 20 the next, 20 and it slices off on the right and is hungry, and on the left 21 and does not feel full, each eating another's flesh, 21 Manasseh Ephraim and Ephraim Manasseh, both of them together against Judah. With all this his anger has not gone back, his hand is still stretched out.

CHAPTER 10

1 1 Ha, you that establish usages of villainy and write troublemaking 2 documents to sidetrack poor men's claims and steal the rights of the downtrodden of my people, that you may make booty of widows and 3 plunder orphans! 3 And what will you do for a day of punishment and for a storm that comes from far away? to whom will you flee for 4 help and where will you leave your fortunes, 4 except to crouch under prisoners and fall under killed men? With all this his anger has not gone back, his hand is still stretched out.

5 Ha, the Assyrian, rod of my anger and stick of my hostility!
6 I send him upon an irreligious nation and commission him against 7 the people of my wrath to carry off booty and lift plunder and reduce 8 them to a trampled mass like street clay. 7 But he is not thinking of 9 that and his mind is not planning for that; what he has in mind is 10 to deal destruction, and stamp out nations not a few. 8 For he thinks 9 "Are not my generals one and all kings? 9 Is Calno not like Carkemish 10 or is Hamath not like Arpad or is Samaria not like Damascus? 10 As I 11 laid hands on the kingdoms of the trumpety gods, when their carvings 12 surpassed Jerusalem's and Samaria's, 11 shall I not do to Jerusalem and 13 its idols the same as I did to Samaria and its trumperies?"

12 12 And when the Lord finishes off all his work on Mount Sion and 13 in Jerusalem, he will punish the outgrowth of the Assyrian king's 14 self-sufficiency and the bravado of his arrogance, 13 because he thinks 15 "By my strength of hand I did it and by my wisdom, because I am 16 sagacious; and I have put boundaries of peoples out of the way and 17 pillaged their reserves, and sent settled populations down to the pit; 18 14 and I laid hands on the wealth of the peoples as if it were a bird's 19 nest, as one gathers abandoned eggs I gathered all the earth, and 20 there was no one to flutter a wing or open a mouth or chirp."

15 15 Is an ax to brag against the one who chops with it, or a saw to 16 put on airs against the one who saws with it? as if a baton waved the 17 one who lifts it, or a stick lifted the one who is not wood. 16 So the 18 Lord Jehovah of Armies will send dwindling to his fattest parts, and 19 under his glory will be lighted a combustion like that of fire; 17 and 20 Israel's Light will become a fire and his Holy One a flame, and it 21 will burn and eat up his brambles and briers in one day. 18 And to the 22 glory of his bush and his garden-land, soul and body, he will put an 23 end; and it will be like a diseased man's wasting away; 19 and the 24 remnant of the trees of his bush shall be few, a boy may list them.

20 20 And on that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the 21 house of Jacob shall never again lean on him who struck them, but 22 shall lean on Jehovah, Israel's Holy One, in good faith. 21 A remnant 23 shall come back, the remnant of Israel, to a divine champion. 22 For if 24 your people, Israel, be like the sand of the sea, a remnant shall come 25 back; there is in it a decisive shrinkage, a washing-out flood of right-26 ness. 23 For the Lord is bringing a crisis and a finish in the middle of all 27 the earth.

24 24 So the Lord Jehovah says "My people that live in Sion, do not be 25 afraid of Assyria that is beating you with a cudgel and lifting its 26 stick over you in Egyptian fashion; 25 for in a very little bit longer, 27 hostility will be finished and my anger against the world will be spent." 26 26 And Jehovah will brandish a whip over him as in the beating of 27 Midian at Raven Rock, and his stick over the sea, lifting it in the 28 Egyptian fashion. 27 And on that day his load will come off from your 29 shoulder and his yoke be left off from your neck.

28 He has taken 'Ophni by surprise, has come to Ghaijath, has passed 29 through Migron, has deposited his baggage at Micmas, 29 has gone over the crossing, Geba' is his place for the night; Ramah is in a panic, 30 Gibeah of Saul has taken flight. 30 Shriek, daughter of Gallim; listen, 31 Laishah; answer her, Anathoth. Madmenah has flitted; 31 the inhabitants 32 of Gebim have taken to cover. 32 This very day at Nob, for halting, he swings his hand toward the mountain of the house of Sion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Lo, the Lord Jehovah of Armies is clearing off timber in an awful 34 scene, and the tall are chopped down and the high brought low, 34 and the thickets of the rocks are cut back with iron and the Lebanon falls by the ax.

CHAPTER 11

1 But a twig will come out of Jesse's stump and a sprout will shoot 2 from his roots; 2 and Jehovah's spirit will rest on him, a spirit of wisdom and discernment, a spirit of resourcefulness and vigor, a spirit of 3 knowledge and fear of Jehovah; 3 and he will scent by fear of Jehovah, and not judge by what he sees with his eyes nor pronounce his verdict 4 by what he hears with his ears, 4 but will judge poor men honestly and pronounce verdicts fairly for the humblest of earth; and he will beat down an arrogant man with the cudgel of his mouth and bring 5 death to a lawless man with the breath of his lips. 5 And honesty will be the belt round his waist and faithfulness the loincloth on his hips.

6 And wolf will be sheep's tenant, and leopard will lie down with kid, and calf and two-year-old lion will feed together, with a little child 7 as driver among them; 7 and cow and bear will make friends, their 8 young will lie down together, and lion will eat straw like ox. 8 And sucking babe will play on viper's hole, and child newly weaned will 9 toddle over cobra's crevice. 9 They will not do harm nor havoc in all my sacred highland, because the country has grown full of knowledge of Jehovah as water covers the sea.

10 And on that day Jesse's root, that stands for a signal to peoples, will have nations resorting to it, and its rest will be in glory.

11 And on that day the Lord will once more lift his hand to get the remnant of his people, that remains out of Assyria and out of Egypt and out of Nubia and out of 'Elam and out of Shinear and out of 12 Hamath, 12 and he will raise a signal to the nations and bring together the exiled men of Israel and gather the scattered women of Judah 13 from the four sides of the earth. 13 And Ephraim's jealousy shall disappear and Judah's heartburnings come to an end; Ephraim shall not be jealous of Judah nor Judah feel heartburning toward Ephraim; 14 and they shall swoop upon the Philistines' frontier to the west, together they shall plunder the eastern Beduins, they shall have Edm and Moab at their disposal and the Bene-'Ammon obeying their 15 orders. 15 And Jehovah will dry off the tongue of the Egyptian sea, and wave his hand over the River with his parching wind and strike it 16 into seven streams and let people go there in sandals. 16 And there shall be a highway for the remnant of my people that remain out of Assyria, like the one there was for Israel on the day of their coming up out of Egypt.

CHAPTER 12

1 1 And on that day you shall say "I will thank you, Jehovah: when you have been angry at me, your anger goes back and you comfort 2 me. 2 Lo, Deity is my salvation; I will be confident and have no alarm; for my strength and hymn is Jehovah and he has been salvation to me."

3 3 And you shall draw water with rejoicing out of the springs of 4 salvation, 4 and say on that day "Thank Jehovah, proclaim his name, make known among the peoples his deeds, commemorate it that his 5 name towers high. 5 Make music to Jehovah because he has done proud-6 ly; this is made known throughout the earth." 6 Whoop and shout, dame of Sion, because great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

CHAPTER 13

1 1 The boding for Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amos beheld.

2 2 On a scalped mountain raise a signal, sound for them a powerful 3 call, wave a hand that they may come to nobles' gates. 3 I myself have given orders to the men I have consecrated, have summoned my 4 champions too for my anger, my men hilarious in pride. 4 Hark, the sound of an uproar on the mountains, the seeming of a great body of people! hark, the sound of a hubbub of kingdoms, nations coming 5 together! Jehovah of Armies is mustering a war-expedition. 5 From a faraway country, from the end of the sky, come Jehovah and the 6 instruments of his hostility to ruin all the earth. 6 Howl, because Jehovah's day is near, like a shattering from Shaddai it comes.
7 7 Therefore all hands shall be unstrung and every heart of man shall 8 melt down, 8 and they shall be in consternation, seized with throes and pains and feeling the pangs of a woman in childbirth, appealing to each other in bewilderment, their faces faces of flame.

9 9 Here is Jehovah's day coming, a cruel one, and wrath and anger, to make the earth a desolation and root out its sinners out of it; 10 10 for the stars of the sky and its great starry shapes shall not beam;
the sun darkens as it comes out, and the moon shall not shed its rays.

11 11 And I will punish the world for viciousness and wicked men for their crimes, and put a stop to the pride of audacious men and bring down 12 the pretensions of arrogant men, 12 and make a human being more of 13 a rarity than red gold, and mankind than nuggets from Ophir. 13 Therefore I will set the sky to trembling, and the earth shall shake loose from its place in the wrath of Jehovah of Armies and in the day of 14 his anger; 14 and like a broken-up troop of gazelles, like sheep that have no one to round them up, they shall turn each toward his own people

15 and take flight each to his own country. 15 Everyone that is found shall be run through, and everyone that is caught in the sweep shall fall 16 by the sword, 16 and their children's brains shall be dashed out before their eyes; their houses shall be pillaged and their wives ravished.
 17 Here I am stirring up against them the Medes, who think nothing 18 of silver and care nothing for gold; 18 and bows shall dash out young men's brains, and they will have no regard for the fruit of bodies, 19 and their eyes will have no mercy on sons. 19 And Babylon, most splendid of capitals, magnificence of the Chaldeans' pride, shall become like 20 God's overthrow of Sodom and Ghomorrah: 20 it shall nevermore be inhabited, it shall be unoccupied generation after generation, no 21 Arab shall tent there, no shepherds rest their flocks there. 21 And wildcats shall stretch themselves there, and their houses shall be full of polecats, and ostriches shall dwell there and satyrs shall dance there; 22 22 and hyenas shall howl in its palaces, and jackals in its dainty halls.
 And its time is nearly come, its days will not be prolonged.

CHAPTER 14

1 1 For Jehovah will be tender toward Jacob, and again choose Israel, and will set them down on their own soil; and the immigrants shall 2 unite with them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob. 2 And peoples shall take them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel shall have them on Jehovah's soil as an estate of slaves and shall become captors of their captors and have the mastery over their 3 bosses. 3 And on the day when Jehovah gives you rest from your woes and vicissitudes and from the hard work you have been kept at, 4 you 4 shall strike up this lay against the king of Babylon:

How slave-driving has left off,
 5 Jehovah has broken malefactors' batons, rulers' scepters, 6 What beat peoples in wrath, a belaboring that never shifted,
 What lorded it over nations in anger, a domineering that never checked.
 7 All the earth is at rest and quiet, it breaks out in shouting.
 8 The very cypresses rejoice over you, the cedars of Lebanon,
 "Since you are down, no cutter is coming up against us." 9 The realm of death below stirs for you, to meet your coming, Rouses shades for you,
 all magnates of earth, Makes all kings of nations stand up from their thrones.

10 All of them answer and say to you
"You too are enfeebled like us, leveled with us!"

11 Your pride is brought down to the grave, the din of your harps,
The bed made under you is maggots, your coverlet worms.

12 How you have fallen from the sky, morning star, child of the dawn!
You are chopped to the earth, lifeless over nations.

13 And you had said to yourself
"I will go up to the sky, Above God's stars
I will uplift my throne,
I will sit on the Council Mount deep in the north;

14 I will go up on the heights of cloud, be the same as the Most High"— 15 Only you were to be sent down to the realm of death, deep into the pit.

16 Those who see you shall observe and take note of you:
"Is this the man that set the earth to trembling,
that shook kingdoms, 17 That made the world like the wilderness and demolished its cities, never unfastened his prisoners to go home?"

18 All the kings of nations all have lain down in glory, each at his home;

19 But you are thrown out graveless like a repulsive abortion, Clad with slaughtered men transfixed with swords that go down among the stones of a pit like a trampled corpse;

20 You are not to be united with them in burial because you have ruined your country, slaughtered your people;
The posterity of harmers shall forever not be named.

21 Get ready a slaughtering-place for his sons on account of their fathers' guilt, That they may not stand up and take possession of earth and fill the face of the world with awe.

22 And I will stand up against them, quoth Jehovah of Armies, and 23 bereave Babylon of name and remnant, quoth Jehovah. 23 And I will make her into a domain of porcupines, and pools of water, and I will sweep it with a scraping broom, quoth Jehovah of Armies.

24 Jehovah of Armies swears "As I had thought of having it, so it 25 came; and as I have planned, so it shall be made good: 25 to wreck Assyria in my country and trample it on my mountains, and have its 26 yoke off from them and its load off his shoulder; 26 this is the plan laid out for all the earth, and this the hand stretched out over all the 27 nations. 27 For Jehovah of Armies has planned, and who shall thwart?
and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

28 In the year of King Ahaz's death there was this boding:

29 Do not be all elated, Philistia, because a cudgel that beat you is broken; for out of a snake's stock will come out a cobra, and its fruit 30 will be a flying wildfire-snake. 30 And poor men shall pasture in the Cretan country, and needy men have their flocks lie down unafraid; and I will bring your stock to starvation, and it shall kill your rem-31 nant. 31 Howl, gate; cry out, city; come and go all of you, Philistia; for out of the north comes a smoke, and no one is by himself at their 32 rendezvous. 32 And what answer shall they give the messengers of a heathen nation? that Jehovah has laid Zion's foundations and in him the downtrodden of his people shall take refuge.

CHAPTER 15

1 1 The boding for Moab:

Because in a night 'Ar is sacked, all is over with Moab; because 2 in a night Kir is sacked, all is over with Moab. 2 The daughter of Dibon has gone up to the heights to weep; Moab is howling on Nebo and on Medeba; on all their heads is baldness, every beard is cut off.
3 3 On its streets they have sackcloths tied round them; on its roofs and 4 in its squares it is all howling, dissolved in tears. 4 And Heshbon cries out, and Elealeh; the sound is heard to Jahas; therefore Moab's 5 armed men shout, it has its soul cowed. 5 My heart cries out for Moab; its refugees have sent their voice through to Soghar, "Up Luhith slope they go in tears," "On the Horonaim road they wake a cry of 6 catastrophe," 6 "Leopard Water will be a desolation," "Grass is dried 7 up, vegetation is all gone, no green starts." 7 Therefore he comes off with leavings, and they carry their savings off to Poplar Arroyo.
8 8 For the outcry has circled the territory of Moab; the howl of it reaches 9 to Eglaim, the howl of it is at Beer-Elim; 9 for Dimon Water is full of blood; for I will decree additional things against Dimon, for Moab's

CHAPTER 16

1 fugitives a lion and for the remnant of Admah. 1 Send a liege lord's lamb from Wilderness Cliff to the mountain of the daughter of Zion; 2 2 for like birds flying wildly about, like a turned-out nest, shall Moab's

3 daughters on the other side of the Arnon be. 3 "Offer counsel; make interposition; set your shadow like the night in the midst of broad 4 day; conceal strayers, do not disclose a wanderer. 4 Let Moab's estrays find a home with you; be for them a screen from havoc-makers; for injustice is over with, havoc is finished, bullies are all gone from the 5 country, 5 and a throne shall be planted by friendliness and on it shall sit in loyalty, in David's tent, a judge and justice-seeker and a pusher 6 for the right." 6 We have heard of Moab's pride, very proud, his pride 7 and conceit and aggressiveness—his fine words are not reliable. 7 So let Moab howl for Moab, let him all howl; for Kir-Hareseth's cakes 8 of raisins you shall moan, altogether beaten down. 8 For Heshbon's terraces stand forlorn, wielders of nations have pounded Sibmah's vine, whose sprays reached to touch Ja'zer, rambled to the wilderness, its canes ran wild, went over the sea.

9 9 Therefore with Ja'zer's weeping I will weep Sibmah's vine; I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh; for on your summer 10 fruit and harvest the picker's whoop has fallen, 10 and gladness and glee are to be gathered off out of the orchard. And in the vineyards there is to be no shouting, no cheering; the treader is not to tread 11 wine in the presses, the whoop is abolished. 11 Therefore my heart rings like a lyre for Moab, and my bosom for Kir-Heres.

12 12 And when Moab makes his appearance at the height, tires himself out going there, and comes to his sanctuary to pray, he will have no success.

13 14 13 This was the prediction Jehovah made about Moab once; 14 and now Jehovah predicts "In three years, like the years of a hired man's contract, Moab's glory will fall into contempt for all the great host; and there will remain a little bit, nothing big."

CHAPTER 17

1 1 The boding for Damascus:

There is Damascus being shifted from cityhood to be a wreck; 2 2 its cities are abandoned forevermore, a covert for flocks, which shall 3 lie down with no one to alarm them. 3 And fortification shall come to an end out of Ephraim, and sovereignty out of Damascus; and the remnant of Syria shall be like the glory of the sons of Israel, quoth 4 Jehovah of Armies. 4 And on that day Jacob's glory will be brought 5 low and the fat parts in his flesh will dwindle, 5 and it will be like a reaper's gathering stalks, his arm reaping off ears, and it will be like 6 one gleaning ears in Ghost Hollow, 6 and there will be after-pickings left in it like the beatings of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the tip of a treetop, four or five in the recesses of a heavy bearer, quoth Israel's God Jehovah.

7 7 On that day man shall turn his mind to his Maker, and his eyes 8 shall look toward the Holy One of Israel; 8 and he shall not turn his mind to the altars, his own handiwork, nor look at what his fingers have made and the asherahs and the hammans.

9 On that day your cities shall be deserted like the deserted sites of the Hivvites and Amorites, which they deserted before the sons of Israel, and it shall be a desolation, 10 because you have forgotten the God of your salvation and not remembered your citadel Rock. Therefore you shall set out winsome plantings and sow it to exotic climbers, 11 get growth on the day you set them out and sprouts on the morning after your sowing; harvest flits away on a day of disease and desperate suffering.

12 Ha, the uproar of many peoples roaring like the roar of seas, and the hubbub of many a folk tossing like the tossing of a vast water! 13 Folks will toss like the hubbub of a great water, but he will rebuke it and it will flee afar and be driven along like mountain chaff before a wind and like a tumbleweed before a gale. 14 At evening time dissolution is there, and before morning he does not exist. This is the portion of our pillagers, a lot for our plunderers.

CHAPTER 18

1 2 1 Ha, country of buzzing wings, beyond the African rivers! 2 people who send couriers by sea, and in papyrus craft over the top of water: "Go, swift messengers, to a nation stretched and smoothed, to a people dreaded from itself onward, a nation of thew and trampling, whose 3 country rivers cleave: 3 All inhabitants of the world and denizens of the earth, as at the raising of a mountaintop signal you are to see, and as at the blast of a ram-horn you are to hear. 4 For Jehovah has said to me 'I will be quiet and look in my abode, like glaring heat 5 over light, like a dew-cloud in the heat of harvest.' 5 For before harvest, when bloom is done and a flower becomes a growing grape, he will 6 cut the tendrils with pruning-knives and slash off the canes; 6 they will all together be left for the birds of the mountains and the beasts of the earth, and the birds shall summer on them and all beasts of 7 the earth winter on them. 7 At that time a tribute will be brought to Jehovah of Armies from a people stretched and smoothed and from a people dreaded from itself onward, a nation of thew and trampling, whose country rivers cleave, to the place of the name of Jehovah of Armies, Mount Sion."

CHAPTER 19

1 1 The boding for Egypt:

There is Jehovah riding a swift cloud; and he comes to Egypt and Egypt's trumpety gods sway about before him, and the Egyptians' 2 hearts melt down within them. 2 And I will spur Egyptians against Egyptians, and they shall fight against brothers and against friends, 3 city against city, kingdom against kingdom; 3 and the Egyptians' wits will be flustered and I will make their policy a bungle; and they will resort to the trumpery gods and the conjurers and the different kinds 4 of mediums. 4 And I will hand Egypt over to a hard master, and a stern 5 king shall rule them, quoth Jehovah of Armies. 5 And water will be 6 dried up from the sea, and a river will be dried off and out, 6 and 7 rivers will stink; the branches of Egypt's Nile dwindle and are drying 8 off; reeds and weeds are yellowed; 7 there are bare places by the Nile, 9 by the Nile bank, and all the Nile sowings are dried out, blown away 10 and missing. 8 And the fishermen grieve and mourn; all who throw 11 hooks into the Nile and who spread seines over the water stand for-12 lorn; 9 and flax-workers are disappointed, combing women and weavers 13 turn white; 10 and boatmen are disconsolate, all who ply for fares down-14 hearted. 11 Soan's generals are mere ignoramuses, the Pharaoh's wisest 15 counselors are idiotic counsel; how are you to say to the Pharaoh "I 16 am a son of wise men, a son of Eastern kings"? 12 Where are your wise 17 men, to inform you and make known what purpose Jehovah of Armies 18 has formed against Egypt? 13 Soan's generals have made fools of them-19 selves, Memphis's generals are deluded; the headmen of Egypt's tribes 20 have misled her. 14 Jehovah has mixed within her a spirit of warped 21 thoughts that will set Egypt blundering about with all her business 22 as a drunken man blunders about with his vomit; 15 and Egypt will 23 have no business that head and tail, palm-leaf and rush, will do.

16 On that day the Egyptians will be like women, in panic and dread 17 at the waving of the hand of Jehovah of Armies which he is waving 18 over them; 17 and the soil of Judah will be a nightmare to the Egyptians, 19 everyone to whom one mentions it will be in dread, because of the 20 purpose of Jehovah of Armies that he has formed against them.

18 On that day there will be five cities in Egypt speaking the tongue 19 of Canaan and swearing to Jehovah of Armies; one will be called City 20 of the Sun. 19 On that day there will be an altar to Jehovah in the middle 21 of Egypt, and beside its boundary an obelisk to Jehovah; 20 and it will 22 be for a token and witness to Jehovah of Armies in Egypt, because 23 they will cry to Jehovah because of invaders and he will send them 24 a savior and defender who will deliver them; 21 and Jehovah will be-25 come known to the Egyptians, and the Egyptians will know Jehovah 26 on that day and worship with sacrifice and grain-offering and make 27 vows to Jehovah and pay them. 22 And Jehovah will smite the Egyptians, 28 smiting and curing; and they will come back to Jehovah and he will 29 let himself be invoked for them and will cure them.

23 On that day there will be a causeway from Egypt to Assyria, and 24 the Assyrians will come into Egypt and the Egyptians into Assyria, 25 and the Egyptians will be subject to the Assyrians. 24 On that day 26 Israel will be a third to Egypt and Assyria, a blessing at the heart 27 of the earth, 25 inasmuch as Jehovah of Armies will have blessed it, 28 saying "Blessed is my people Egypt, and Assyria my handiwork, 29 and Israel my estate."

CHAPTER 20

1 In the year of the Tartan's coming to Ashdod, sent by King Sargon 2 of Assyria, and attacking Ashdod and taking it, 2at that time Jehovah spoke by Isaiah the son of Amos, saying "Go and undo the sackcloth off your waist and take off your shoes from your feet"; and he did so, 3 going naked and barefoot. 3 And Jehovah said "As my servant Isaiah has gone naked and barefoot three years as token and portent re-4 garding Egypt and Nubia, 4 so the king of Assyria will drive along the Egyptian prisoners and the Nubian deportees, naked and barefoot 5 and bare-breeched; 5 and they will be dismayed and put to shame for 6 Nubia their cynosure and for Egypt their vaunt, 6 and the inhabitant of this coast will say "There in that condition is our cynosure to whom we took flight for help, to be delivered from the king of Assyria, and how are we to escape?"

CHAPTER 21

1 The boding of wildernesses:

Like gales over the South as it sweeps by, it comes from a wilder-2 ness, from a fearful country; 2 as a hard prospect it is told me: the defrauder defrauds and the marauder marauds. Up, "Elam; lay 3 siege, Media; I have put a stop to all their moaning. 3 Therefore my back is full of cramps, pains like a childbearing woman's have seized 4 me; I am too dizzy to hear, too dazed to see. 4 My brain wanders, shudders overwhelm me; the twilight I was so fond of he has made a 5 time of panic for me. 5 The table set, the rug laid out, eating and 6 drinking—up, captains, grease shields! 6 For the Lord says to me "Go 7 station the lookout; 7 he is to report what he sees, and when he sees two-horse chariots, donkey chariots, camel chariots, he is to listen 8 hard, hard." 8 And he called out "O, O, I stand always on watch by 9 day, Lord, and I am planted on guard all through the nights, 9 and here come chariots, men, paired horses"—and he answered "Babylon is fallen, fallen, and all the bas-reliefs of her gods he has broken up 10 and left on the ground." 10 My threshing, grain of my floor, what I have heard from Israel's God Jehovah of Armies I have reported to you.

11 The boding of Dumah:

One calls to me out of Se'ir "Watchman, what time of night? watch-12 man, what time of night?" 12 Says watchman, "Morning is come and night too; if you are inquiring, inquire; come again."

13 The boding "in the desert":

In the badlands in the desert you will spend the night, caravans 14 of Dedanites. 14 Come with water to meet a thirsty one, inhabitants of 15 Tema; 15 offer a fugitive his bread; for they have taken flight before swords, before whetted swords and strung bows and stress of war.

16 For the Lord has said to me "In another year, like the years of a 17 hired man's contract, Kedar's importance will all be gone 17 and the remnant of the archer champions of the sons of Kedar will be few; for Israel's God Jehovah has spoken."

CHAPTER 22

1 1 The boding "valley of vision":
2 2 What is the matter that you are all gone up on the roofs, you full of hubbub, uproarious city, hilarious town? Your slain are not slain
3 with swords nor dead in battle.3All your chieftains have taken flight together, they are imprisoned by bows; all your stoutest are imprisoned
4 together, have taken refuge afar.4Therefore I say "Pay no attention to me, let me have the bitterness of my weeping; do not be in a hurry 5 to comfort me for the wrecking of the daughter of my people. [""] 5 For the Lord Jehovah of Armies has a day of jumbling and trampling and fumbling in the valley of vision. From Karkar they have mobilized 6 against the highland,6and 'Elam has taken up quivers and Syria 7 mounted horses and Kir bared shields, 7 and the choicest of your vales 8 are full of chariots, and the horsemen have beset the gate;8and he has taken off Judah's shelter. And on that day you looked at the arms 9 in the Foresthouse,9and saw how many the breaches of David's City 10 were, and gathered together the water of the lower reservoir, 10 and counted the houses in Jerusalem, and pulled down the houses to fortify 11 the wall, 11 and made a basin between the two walls for the water of the old reservoir, but you did not look to him who made it nor see him 12 who shaped it. 12 And on that day the Lord Jehovah of Armies called to weeping and wailing and shaved head and sackcloth tied round, 13 and here was rejoicing and merrymaking, killing cattle and slaughtering 13 sheep, eating meat and drinking wine, "to eat and to drink, because 14 tomorrow we shall die." 14 And Jehovah of Armies is revealed in my ears, "you will not have this guilt purged till you die." 15 15 Says the Lord Jehovah of Armies "Go and go in to this caretaker, 16 Steward Shebna: 16 What have you here and whom have you here, that you have cut yourself out a grave here, you that cut your grave high, 17 that mark off in the crag an abode for yourself! 17 Here is Jehovah going to shake you loose, man, and wrap you up, 18 wind yon right up 18 like a ball, and fling you into a distant country; there you shall die and there your grand chariots shall go, disgrace of your sovereign's house.
19 19 "And I will push you off your footing and break you up from your 20 stand, 20 and on that day I will call my servant Eljakim the son of 21 Hilkijah 21 and dress him in your coat and brace him with your sash and put your authority in his hands, and he shall become a father 22 to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the house of Judah; 22 and I will put the key of David's house on his shoulder, and he shall open and 23 nobody will shut, and shut and nobody will open. 23 And I will drive him as a peg in a sure place, and he shall become a seat of state for his family.

24 24 "And they will hang on him all the accumulations of his family, the offspring and the offscouring, every sort of small ware from 25 flat ware to every sort of hollow ware. 25 On that day, quoth Jehovah of Armies, the peg driven in a sure place will give, will be cut through and fall, and the load on it will be gone, because Jehovah has spoken."

CHAPTER 23

1 1 The boding for Tyre:

The Spain-ships howled because it was sacked; upon coming from 2 Cyprus they had it disclosed to them; 2 the inhabitants of Phenicia's 3 coast of trade were struck dumb. 3 Your messengers went over sea; and on vast waters the crop of the Delta River, the harvest of the Nile, 4 were her garnerings; and she became a mart of nations. 4 Wince with shame, Phenicia, because the sea says, the citadel of the sea, "I have felt no birth-pangs, given no birth; I have not raised youths, had no maidens grow up." 5 When Egypt has news, they shall be unmanned 6 7 upon the news from Tyre. 6 Go over to Spain, howl, islanders; 7 is this what you call a hilarious town whose date is from primeval days, whose 8 feet take her to colonize afar? 8 Who has proposed this against Tyre the crown-giver, whose traders were generals, her merchants magnates of earth? 9 Jehovah of Armies has proposed it, to desecrate the pride 9 of all splendor, to make nothing of all magnates of earth. 10 (Go through your country like the Nile, daughter of Spain; you no longer have a girdle.) 11 He has stretched out his hand over the sea, has shaken kingdoms; Jehovah has given orders against Phenicia to destroy her 12 citadels, 12 and has said "Never again shall you be gleeful, wronged maiden daughter of Sidon; to Cyprus be off and over, not even there shall you be at rest." 13 (Here is the country of the Chaldeans; this was not the people; Assyria founded it for wildcats; they set up 13 its watchtowers, raised its palaces; he has made it a wreck.) 14 Howl, Spain-ships, because your citadel is sacked.

15 15 And on that day Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, like the days of one king. At the end of seventy years Tyre's case will be as in the song of the prostitute:

16 16 Take a lyre, go round town, you forgotten whore;
Play your best, sing hard,
to be remembered once more.

17 17 And at the end of seventy years Jehovah will attend to Tyre, and she will go back to taking tips and will prostitute herself with all 18 the kingdoms on earth over the world. 18 And her trade and her tips will be sacred to Jehovah, will not be hoarded nor funded; for her trade will accrue to those who live before Jehovah for unstinted eating and for stately wear.

CHAPTER 24

1 Here Jehovah is gutting and cutting the earth, and pitting its 2 surface and scattering its inhabitants, 2 and laity and priest will be 3 alike, slave and master, maid and mistress, seller and buyer, lender 4 and borrower, capitalist and proletarian: 3 the earth is to be gutted 5 and looted, because Jehovah has spoken this word. 4 The earth is 6 mourning and wilted, the world is forlorn and wilted, the loftiest 7 heights of earth stand forlorn; 5 and the earth is polluted under its 8 inhabitants, because they have overstepped precepts, departed from 9 usage, broken a perpetual covenant. 6 That is why a curse has eaten 10 up earth and those who live on it are paying the penalty; that is 11 why the inhabitants of earth wane and humanity is left scarce. 7 Grape-12 juice is mourning, vines forlorn, all the jovial are sighing. 8 The festivity of tambourines has stopped, the hubbub of hilarious men has died out, the festivity of lyres has stopped. 9 With song they will not drink wine; beer will be bitter to its drinkers. 10 Deserted towns are broken down, every house blocked from entrance; 11 there is clamor over the wine in the streets, all merrymaking has passed, the festivity of the earth has been swept off; 12 there is left in the city desolation, and gates are shattered to ruins.

13 13 For in the heart of the earth, in the middle of the peoples, it will be like the beatings of an olive-tree, like after-pickings when a vintage is over. 14 They will raise their voices, they will shout at Jehovah's proud 15 work; 15 they whoop from the west therefore; in the lands of light they glorify Jehovah, on the coasts beyond the sea the name of Jehovah 16 Israel's God. 16 From the margin of the earth we hear hymns, ascriptions of splendor to the Righteous One.

But I said "Dwindling I get, dwindling I get! woe is me! faithless men have done faithlessly, faithless men have done faithless things." 17 17 Dread and chasm and trap are at you, inhabitant of the country, 18 18 and he who takes flight from the sound of the dread will come to fall into the chasm, and he who gets up out of the chasm will come to be caught in the trap. For hatchways are opened aloft, and earth's 19 foundations quake. 19 Earth is cracking, earth is splitting, earth is slip-20 ping; 20 earth swings this way and that like a drunken man and is tottering like a night-platform, and its crime is weighing it down and 21 it will fall and rise no more. 21 And on that day Jehovah will punish on 22 high the celestial legions and on the ground the earthly kings, 22 and they will be brought together as prisoners are to a dungeon and shut 23 into a lockup, and a long time later they will be looked after. 23 And the orb of night will be abashed, and the orb of day put to shame, because Jehovah has become king on Mount Sion and in Jerusalem, and there is glory before his elders.

CHAPTER 25

- 1 1 Jehovah, you are my God; I exalt you, I praise your name, because you have done wonders, things purposed far back, in steadfast 2 constancy. 2 For you have made a city into a heap, a fortified town into a wreck, put a capital of audacious men out of cityhood, not 3 to be rebuilt forever. 3 Therefore a mighty people shall glorify you, 4 a town of arrogant nations shall fear you, 4 because you have been a citadel to the poor, a citadel to the needy in his distress, a refuge from squalls, a shade from parching, because arrogant men's breath 5 is like a cold-weather squall, like parching in an arid waste. 5 Audacious men's hubbub you will bring low; parching, by the shade of a cloud; arrogant men's music shall sing low.
- 6 6 And Jehovah of Armies will on this mountain make all the peoples a banquet of fats, a banquet of ripened wines, marrowy fats, filtered 7 ripened wines, 7 and on this mountain he will dissolve the face of the wrapping that wraps over all the peoples and the web woven over all
8 the nations. 8 He has dissolved death forevermore; and the Lord Jehovah will wipe off tears from all faces and clear off the ignominy 9 of his people from all the earth, because Jehovah has spoken. 9 And on that day it will be said "Here, this is our God; we were looking for him, to save us; this is Jehovah, we were looking for him; let us 10 jubilate and make merry in his salvation." 10 For Jehovah's hand will rest on this mountain; and Moab will be trodden down where it stands, as a heap of straw is trodden down in the water of a dung-pit, 11 11 and will spread its arms in the midst of it all as a swimmer spreads them to swim; and he will bring its pride low, with lopping off of 12 its arms. 12 And the beetling battlements of your walls he fells, brings low, lays on the ground in the clay.

CHAPTER 26

- 1 On that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:
A strong city is ours;
he will set salvation for walls and rampart.
- 2 Open gates for an honest, loyal nation to enter.
- 3 An anchored character
you will keep safe, safe, because it trusts in you.
- 4 Trust ever in Jehovah, because in Jehovah, Jehovah, is a Rock eternal.
- 5 For he has sent down dwellers aloft,
a towering city;

He brings it low,
low to the ground,
lays it in the clay.

6 Feet shall tread on it, ill-used men's feet,
poor men's soles.

7 7 Level ground is a path for the honest; you steer the honest man's 8 run. 8 Give a course to your justice too, Jehovah; we have hoped for 9 you, at your name and at the thought of you, with heart's desire.
9 9 Heartily I have desired you in the night, yes, with my inmost spirit
I quest after you; for when earth has your judgments the inhabitants 10 of the world learn righteousness. 10 Be grace showed to a wicked man, he has not learned righteousness; in a country of fair play he will play foul, and he shall not see Jehovah's pride.

11 11 Jehovah, your hand has gone high—they do not see; let them see and be ashamed; let an unenlightened people's jealousy run into a 12 trap, yes, let your foes' fire consume them. 12 Jehovah, you will do justice so as to give us peace; for so did you achieve all our history 13 for us. 13 Jehovah our God, masters other than you have had us; you alone we mention, your name. 14 Dead men do not come to life; shades 14 do not stand up; so you have taken them in hand and rooted them out and destroyed all memory of them. 15 You have added to the nation, 15 Jehovah, added to the nation, shown yourself glorious; you have driven far off all the ends of the earth.

16 16 Jehovah, in distress we resorted to you; your discipline was a hard 17 pressure on us. 17 Like a pregnant woman approaching childbirth, taken with pangs and crying out at her pains, such have we been under 18 your hand, Jehovah: 18 we have been pregnant, we have been taken with pangs, have, as it were, given birth to air; salvations of the earth we have not been achieving, and inhabitants of the world have not been dropping.

19 19 Your dead men shall rise, and those who dwell in the clay shall wake and carol; for your dew is healing to them, and you will bestow the land of shades.

20 20 Come, my people, go into your chambers and shut yourself in; 21 hide for the least moment, till unfriendliness passes by; 21 for here is Jehovah coming out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their guilt, and the earth shall lay bare all the blood in it and no longer cover the killed.

CHAPTER 27

1 1 On that day Jehovah will with his great strong hard sword punish Leviathan, elusive snake, and Leviathan, sinuous snake, and will kill the monster in the sea.

2 2 On that day—A dainty vineyard! sing for it! 3 I Jehovah watch over it; moment by moment I water it; for fear they should molest

4 it, night and day I watch over it. I have no resentment. 4 Would that I had bramble briars to fight! I would stride into them, would set 5 them afire together. 5 Or let him lay hold of my bulwark, make peace 6 with me; peace let him make with me. 6 In the days that are coming Judah shall root, Israel shall blossom and bud, and they shall fill the face of the world with crops.

7 7 Has he struck him as those that struck him were struck; has he 8 been killed as were those that had killed him? 8 With chasing out, with sending away, you contend with her; he has dislodged her with his 9 hard blast on a day of east wind. 9 So by this Jacob's guilt shall be purged, and this is all the fruit of removing his sin, when he makes all altar-stones like smashed chalk; asherahs and hammans shall not 10 rise again. 10 For a fortified city is in solitude, ground untended and forsaken like the wilderness; there calves shall graze and there lie 11 down; 11 and it shall be all brushwood that gets broken when the twigs dry up; women that come in set it ablaze. For it is not a people of sense; therefore its Maker will have no tenderness for it and its Framer will show it no favor.

12 12 And on that day Jehovah will beat out grain from the tide of the River to Egypt Arroyo, and you shall be gleaned up one by one, 13 sons of Israel. 13 And on that day a great ram-horn will be blown, and in will come those who were lost in Assyria and those who were exiled in Egypt, and do reverence to Jehovah at the sacred mountain, in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 28

1 1 Ha, crown of the pride of Ephraim's drunkards and fading flower of his magnificent splendor, that is on the head of a fat valley, of men 2 stupefied with wine! 2 Here, Jehovah has strength and vigor like a squall of hail, a baneful tempest, like a big squall of flooding water; 3 3 he has laid on the earth with his hand—they shall be trodden under-4 foot— 4 the crown of the pride of Ephraim's drunkards and the fading flower of his magnificent splendor that is on the head of a fat valley; and it shall be like a rareripe fig before summer, which the one who 5 sees it gulps down while he still has it in his hand. 5 On that day the remnant of his people will have Jehovah of Armies for a crown of 6 splendor and a garland of magnificence, 6 and for a spirit of judgment to him who sits in judgment, and for prowess to men who drive the lighting back to the gate.

7 7 And these too have gone wrong by wine and misled their way by beer; priest and prophet have been going wrong by beer, getting muddled with wine, missing their way because of beer, going wrong 8 in vision-seeing, wobbling in adjudication. 8 For all tables are full of filthy vomit so that there is no place clean.

9 9 "Whom is he instructing in knowledge? whom is he tutoring in 10 information? people weaned from milk, just beyond breasts? 10 that he tells us well, tells us well, he aims to claim, aims to claim, a bit here, a bit here"—

11 11 —Because it is with jabber of lip and with a different language 12 he will speak to this people! 12 to whom he has said "This is the rest, give rest to the exhausted man" and "This is the chance to relax" 13 and they would not listen. 13 And to them Jehovah's word will be "he tells [us] well, tells [us] well, [he] aims to claim, aims to claim, a bit here, a bit here" in order that they may go stumbling backward and break their bones and be snared and caught.

14 14 So hear Jehovah's word, cynicism-mongers, rulers of this people in 15 Jerusalem: 15 because you say "We have struck a bargain with death and made terms with the world below; when a flooding scourge goes by it will not come to us, because we have arranged lies for our refuge 16 and screened ourselves with falsehood," 16 therefore the Lord Jehovah says "Here I am laying for a foundation in Sion a stone, a select stone, a well-based superfine cornerstone; he who believes will not be hasty; 17 and I will lay justice as line and honesty as level. 17 And hail will sweep 18 down a refuge of lies, and water will wash out a screen. 18 And your bargain with death will be canceled, and your terms with the world below will not hold good; when a flooding scourge goes by, you will be for 19 its trampling. 19 As often as it goes by, it will get you; for it will go by morning after morning, day and night, and taking in things that 20 you hear will be sheer torment. 20 For the bedstead is too short for lying stretched out and the coverlet is too narrow for lying drawn up."

21 21 For Jehovah will stand up as he did at Perasim Mountain, will thrill as he did at Gibeon, to do his deed—an unnatural deed is his! and 22 his work—incongruous work! 22 Now do not play the cynics, for fear your bonds should be too strong; for I have heard from Jehovah of Armies of a crisis and a finish to come upon all the earth.

23 24 23 Give ear and hear my voice; listen and hear my say. 24 Does a man that plows take all day plowing to sow, loosening and harrowing his 25 soil? 25 does he not, if he has leveled its surface, scatter nutmeg-flower and toss in cummin and lay wheat in rows and barley in hills and 26 spelt along his boundary line, 26 his God schooling him to method and 27 Jehovah instructing him? 27 For nutmeg-flower seed is not threshed with a drag, nor is a cart-wheel run around over cummin; for nutmeg-28 flower seed is beaten out with a stick and cummin with a club. 28 Is breadstuff pulverized? for he does not endlessly thresh it, and his 29 horses and the trundling of his cart churn it about without pulverizing it. 29 This too came from Jehovah of Armies, matchless in guidance, great in sense.

CHAPTER 29

1 1 Ha, Ariel, Ariel, town where David camped! Add year to year, 2 let feasts go their round; 2 and I will press Ariel hard, and there will be grievance and grieving, and she will be like an altar-hearth to me;

3 3 and I will camp against you as David did, and beset you with a con-4 taining force, and raise siege-works against you.4And you will go low, speak from the ground, and your say will come from down in the clay, and your voice will be like a spirit's at a seance, out of the ground, and your say will chirp out of the clay.

5 5 But the host of strangers will become like fine dust, the host of 6 invaders like chaff blowing past;6and all of a sudden you will be visited 7 from Jehovah of Armies in thunder and earthquake and loud noise, 8 gale and tempest and flame of devouring fire;7and the host of all the nations that campaigned against Ariel will be like a dream, a night vision, and all her assailers and her investment, and those that are 9 pressing her so hard.8And as a hungry man dreams that he is eating, and wakes up with his stomach empty, and as a thirsty man dreams that he is drinking, and wakes up and finds he is faint and his throat is hankering, so will be the host of all the nations that campaigned against Mount Sion.

9 9 Be mystified, be mazed, be blindfolded, be blinded; be drunk but 10 not with wine; 10 be tipsy but not with beer. For Jehovah has poured upon you a spirit of trance and has shut your eyes (the prophets) 11 tight and covered your heads (the seers); 11 and the vision of everything has become to you like the words of a sealed document, which they give to one who knows how to read and write, with the request "Bead 12 us this," and he says "I cannot, because it is sealed," 12 and it is given to one who does not know how to read and write with the request
"Read us this," and he says "I do not know how to read."

13 13 And the Lord said "Whereas this people has been approaching me with its mouth and glorifying me with its lips but its heart was far off from me, and their fearing me has been a commandment of men 14 that has been taught them, 14 therefore here I am going on to give this people extraordinary treatment, extraordinary and exceptional; and their wise men's wisdom will be lost, and their experts' expertness will hide away."

15 15 Ha, you who dig deep away from Jehovah to conceal a policy, and keep your doings in the dark, and say "Who sees us and who knows of 16 us?" 16 Such upside-downness! or is the potter to be rated like the clay, that a work says of its maker "He did not make me" and a dish has said of its potter "He did not know what he was doing"?

17 17 In a little bit longer will not Lebanon go back to garden-land and 18 garden-land be classed as bush? 18 And deaf men will on that day hear words from books, and out of gloom and darkness blind men's eyes 19 will see, 19 and humble men will have enhanced joy in Jehovah, and the 20 neediest of mankind will jubilate in the Holy One of Israel, 20 because arrogant men are gone, cynics are done for, all who have their minds 21 set on villainy are extirpated; 21 those who convict a man for talk, and lay traps in the gate for a corrector, and put an honest man out of 22 court for a nothing. 22 So Jehovah says to the house of Jacob, he who redeemed Abraham, "Jacob shall not be put to shame now, and his 23 face shall not now turn pale; 23 for when his children shall see the work of my hands in his midst they shall recognize the sanctity of my name, recognize the sanctity of the Holy One of Jacob and stand in awe of 24 the God of Israel, 24 and men who go astray in spirit shall have good sense and faultfinders learn lessons."

CHAPTER 30

1 1 Ha, children stubborn, quoth Jehovah, to execute a policy when it is not from me and to weave a web when it is not my spirit, so as to 2 add sin to sin!2that go off to go down to Egypt without having asked Jehovah's voice, to take cover in the Pharaoh's citadel and take shelter 3 in Egypt's shadow!3and the Pharaoh's citadel will be a disappointment 4 to you, and the sheltering in Egypt's shadow a humiliation. 4 Though 5 Ms generals be at So'an and his envoys reach Hanes, 5 everything will come to disappointment over a people that do them no good: not for help and not for usefulness, but for shame and ignominy.

6 6 Boding of Animals of the South:

In a country of distress and hard straits, lioness and growling lion, sand-adder and flying wildfire-snake, they carry their wealth on jack-asses' shoulders and their hoards on camels' humps to a people that 7 do them no good.7And the help that Egypt gives is air and emptiness; 8 so I call that Bluster-and-Sit. 8 Now go in, write it on a tablet in their presence and inscribe it in a book, to become a perpetual witness for 9 a future day.9For it is a disobedient people, disloyal children, children 10 that will not listen to Jehovah's instructions, 10 such as say to the seers
"You shall not see" and to the vision-seers "You shall not have honest visions for us; make slippery predictions to us, see humbug 11 visions; 11 go off course, swerve out of road, get the Holy One of Israel out of our way."

12 12 So the Holy One of Israel says "Since you reject this word and 13 trust to a dodger and twister and lean on him, 13 therefore this guilt will be for you like a split piece ready to tumble, bulging out in a 14 towering wall, whose break will come all of a sudden, 14 and its break will be like that of a potters' crock pounded up remorselessly, among whose poundings there is not to be found a fragment to take up fire from a bed of coals or water from a swampy spot."

15 15 For the Lord Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, says "By turning back and resting you will be saved; in quietness and in trustfulness 16 will be your strength"; 16 but you would not, and said "No, but we will take flight on ponies"—therefore take flight you shall; and "we will 17 ride on a swift beast"—therefore swift shall be your pursuers. 17 A thousand shall be in panic at a threat from one; at a threat from five you shall take flight, till you are left like a flagstaff on a mountaintop, like a signal on a hill.

18 18 And therefore Jehovah will wait to show you favor, and therefore he will stand aloft to treat you tenderly; for Jehovah is a God of 19 justice—happy are all who wait for him. 19 For, people who live in Sion, in Jerusalem, you shall not weep; he will be gracious to you 20 at the sound of your cry; when he heard he answered you; 20 and the Lord will give you half rations of bread and water. And your teachers 21 will not hide away anymore, but your eyes will see your teachers 21 and your ears will hear a word behind you "This is the road, go by it" 22 when you get off to right or to left. 22 And you will defile your wall-facing of figured silver and your ephodage of modeled gold; you will be sickened at them as you would at a used dressing for a woman's 23 flow of blood; you will call them filth. 23 And he will give the rain for your seed that you sow the soil with, and, from the produce of the soil, bread that will be fat and rich; your stock will on that day 24 pasture broad uplands, 24 and the oxen and jackasses that work the soil will eat barley mixed with sorrel, the barley winnowed with shovel 25 and with fork; 25 and on every high mountain and on every stately hill there will be canals, streams of water, on a day of great slaughter 26 when towers fall. 26 And the orb of night will have light like that of the orb of day, and the orb of day sevenfold light, on the day of Jehovah's bandaging his people's broken limbs and healing its shattering wound.

27 27 Here is Jehovah's name coming from afar, his anger burning and heavy-smoking; his lips are full of hostility and his tongue is like 28 a devouring fire; 28 and his breath is like a torrent in flood neck-deep, to sift nations in a sieve of futility, and a misguiding bridle in the 29 mouths of peoples. 29 You will have singing as in the night in which a feast is inaugurated, and blitheness like that of one who goes with 30 a flute to come on Jehovah's mountain to the Rock of Israel. 30 And Jehovah will let the majesty of his voice be heard and the descent of his arm seen in angry vexation and a flame of devouring fire, cloud-31 burst and squall and hailstones; 31 for at Jehovah's voice Assyria will be dismayed. 32 He will be struck with a cudgel; and every sweep of 32 the rod of discipline that Jehovah will lay upon him will be with tambourines and lyres, and with back-and-forth strokes with which 33 he has fought— 33 for a fire-pit is already fueled, it too has been prepared for the king, made deep, wide; its pile is fire and abundance of wood; Jehovah's breath, like a brook of brimstone, is firing it.

CHAPTER 31

1 1 Ha, men that go down to Egypt for help, that lean on ponies and rely on chariots because there are many of them and on horsemen because they are very numerous, but do not take notice of the Holy 2 One of Israel nor inquire of Jehovah! 2 yet he too is wise, and has brought disaster and not set aside his words, and will stand up against wrong-doers' house and against the help of men that commit 3 villainy. 3 And the Egyptians are human beings and not deity, and their ponies are flesh and not spirit; and Jehovah will turn his hand and helper will stumble and helped man will fall, and they will all come to an end together.

4 4 For Jehovah has said to me "As growls the lion, the old or the young, over its kill, who, when a posse of shepherds meets with him, is not dismayed at their voices nor cowed at their noise, so will Jehovah of Armies come down to campaign on Sion's mountain and on its hill.
6 5 Like birds flying, so will Jehovah of Armies shield Jerusalem, shield 6 and rescue, patrol and safeguard. 6 Come back to him from whom the 7 children of Israel have deeply swerved; 7 for on that day they will 8 man by man discard their gold and silver trumperies that their hands 8 have made for them, 8 and Assyria will fall by swords not of man, and swords not human will devour it, and it will take flight from 9 swords, and its young men will come to serfdom, 9 and its crag will 9 pass away for terror, and its captains will be dismayed at a standard, quoth Jehovah who has a fire in Sion and a furnace in Jerusalem."

CHAPTER 32

1 2 1 Lo, a king will reign rightly and generals command justly, 2 and each will be like a hiding-place from wind and a screen from squalls, like streams of water in a desert, like the shadow of a massive rock 3 in a parched country. 3 And the eyes of men who see will not be 4 gummed over, and the ears of men who hear will be alert, 4 and the brains of reckless men will have sense to know, and the tongues of 5 stammering men will be quick to speak clearly. 5 Not again will a rascal 6 be called noble, nor will a schemer be called prominent. 6 For a rascal talks rascality and his brain works up villainy, doing ungodly things and talking fallacies about Jehovah, keeping a hungry man's stomach 7 empty and cutting down a thirsty man's drink; 7 and a schemer's skill is bad, he plans infamies, to ruin poverty-stricken men with his lying 8 words when a needy man pleads for right; 8 but a noble man plans for noble things, and in noble things engage he will.

9 9 Untroubled women, stand up, listen to my voice; fearless daughters, 10 give ear to my say. 10 Days over a year, you fearless ones will quaver, 11 because vintage is done with, grape-picking will not come. 11 Be in panic, you who are untroubled; quaver, you who are fearless; undress, strip 12 naked, wear a belt round your hips; 12 there is wailing with beaten 13 breasts for choice fields, for fruitful vines, 13 for my people's soil growing up to thorns and brambles, for all clubhouses in a hilarious town; 14 14 because a palace is abandoned, a city's uproar is deserted, castle hill and Watchtower will be over caves forever, a playground for wild 15 asses, a pasture for flocks— 15 till a spirit is discharged upon us from on high, and wilderness will become garden-land and garden-land 16 will be rated as brush-grown rocks, 16 and justice will take up its abode 17 in the wilderness and right will settle in the garden-land; 17 and the effect of right will be peace, and the work of right tranquillity and 18 fearlessness forever. 18 And my people will live on peaceful ground, in 19 fearless dwellings, in untroubled resting-places. 19 But it will hail when the brushwood goes down, and in prostration the city will be laid low.

20 20 Happy you that sow by every water, that turn loose the feet of cow and donkey.

CHAPTER 33

1 1 Ha, you that do violence though you have not had violence done to you, and break faith though they have not broken faith with you! when you have done all your violence you shall have violence done to you; when you have finished breaking faith they will break faith with 2 you. 2 Jehovah, be gracious to us; we hope in you; be our arm morning 3 by morning, our salvation withal in time of distress. 3 At a sound of uproar peoples have taken flight; at your exaltation nations scatter.
4 4 And booty will be taken in as fall grasshoppers do, there is a turmoil 5 like that of young grasshoppers over it. 5 Jehovah towers high, because 6 he dwells aloft; he fills Sion with justice and right. 6 And a fund of victories of wisdom and knowledge shall be the security of your times;
the fear of Jehovah is his treasury.

7 7 There are arels making an outcry in the street; envoys sent for 8 peace are weeping bitterly. 8 Highways are desolate; wayfarers have left off; he has broken treaty, he despises cities, he thinks nothing of 9 a human being. 9 Earth mourns, stands forlorn; Lebanon is abashed, it has turned yellow; the Sharon has become like the Rift Valley, and 10 Bashan and Carmel are dropping their leaves. 10 I will now stand up, says Jehovah; I will now mount on high, I will now uplift myself.
11 11 You shall go pregnant with hay, you shall give birth to stubble; your 12 passion is a fire that will consume you, 12 and peoples will be like the burning in limekilns, mowed thorns blazing up in fire.

13 13 Men far away have heard what I have done, men nearby have 14 known my exploits. 14 Sinners in Sion are terrified; quaking has seized irreligious men. Who of ours can find a home in consuming fire? who 15 of ours can find a home in perpetual flame? 15 He who walks honestly and speaks straightforwardly, who despises the profits of rapacity, who shakes his hands clean from grasping a bribe, who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed and shuts his eyes tight from gazing 16 at wickedness, he shall dwell on lofty heights; 16 craggy fastnesses shall 17 be his keep; he shall have his bread given, his water reliable. 17 Your eyes shall behold a king in his beauty; they shall see a country far 18 away. 18 Your heart will think over the terror: where is there a counter, 19 where a weigher, where a counter of the towers? 19 You shall not see an imperious people, a people too strange-tongued to be understood, a 20 people of meaningless and quizzical talk. 20 Gaze on Sion, town of our sacramental congresses: your eyes shall see Jerusalem tranquil ground, a tent not to be struck, whose pegs will not be shifted forevermore, 21 and not any of whose ropes will break, 21 but we shall there have a parkland, a place of rivers, of roomy Niles, one in which no oared galley 22 will go and no gallant ship will pass through it; 22 for Jehovah our judge, Jehovah our lawgiver, Jehovah our king, he will save us.

23 23 Your ropes are slack, they do not contribute to the steadying of their mast, do not spread a sail. Then a prey of much booty was divided, 24 lame men gathering plunder. 24 And no resident will say "I am sick";
the people that lives in it has its guilt pardoned.

CHAPTER 34

1 1 Come near, nations, to hear; and, races, listen. Let the earth and 2 what it holds hear, the world and all that comes of it; 2 for Jehovah has wrath against all the nations and ire against all their legions, he 3 has doomed them to extinction, given them for slaughtering. 3 And their fallen will be thrown about, and the stench of their corpses will go 4 up, and the mountains will be washed down with their blood. 4 And all the legions of the sky will waste down, and the skies will curl back like a roll of paper and all their legions will drop off as withered leaves drop from a grapevine and as shriveled fruit drops from a 5 fig-tree, because my sword will be seen in the heavens. 5 Down it will come on Edom, on the people I have doomed, for judgment. 6 Jehovah 6 has a sword that is filled with blood, greased with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the kidney-fat of rams, because Jehovah has 7 a sacrifice at Bosrah and a great slaughtering in Edom; 7 and ures will go down with them, and steers with bulls, and their land will be be-8 dewed with blood and their earth greased with fat. 8 For Jehovah has a day of vengeance, a year of settlement for Sion's quarrel.

9 9 And her arroyos will be turned to pitch and her soil to sulfur, and 10 her land will become burning pitch. 10 Night and day it will not be quenched; forever the smoke of her will go up.

From generation to generation she will lie waste, ever and ever-11 more no one will pass through her, 11 and barn-owl and porcupine will take possession of her, and great owl and raven perch in her. And he will stretch over her the line of chaos, and her holes will be tenant-12 less stones; 12 and there will be no kingship there to proclaim, and all 13 her generals will come to nothing. 13 And her palaces will grow up to brambles, nettles and briers will stand in her fortifications, and she 14 will become a home of jackals, a yard of ostriches. 14 And wildcats will come upon hyenas, and satyr will call to satyr; that will be the spot where liliths will take their ease and will find themselves a place to 15 rest in. 15 There a screech-owl nests and lays, and will hatch and brood in its shadow; that was the spot where falcons gathered, each looking 16 up its mate. 16 Read out of Jehovah's book: not one of those is lacking, not any misses its mate, for it was his mouth that gave the order and 17 it was his spirit that gathered them, 17 it was he that cast lots for them and his hand that measured and marked their shares. Forever they will hold possession of her; generation after generation they will dwell in her.

CHAPTER 35

1 1 Wilderness and arid land shall rejoice; desert shall jubilate and 2 bloom. 2 Like narcissus bloom it shall, and jubilate too it shall, and carol; it is given the majesty of the Lebanon, the glory of the Carmel and the Sharon; these shall see Jehovah's majesty, our God's glory.
3 4 3 Strengthen unstrung hands and invigorate stumbling knees; 4 say to excited souls "Courage, have no fear: here is your God! vengeance is coming, your God's retribution; he himself is coming to save you." 5 5 Then blind men's eyes will be opened and deaf men's ears unlocked.
6 6 Then a lame man will leap like a deer and a dumb man's tongue will 7 carol because water has broken out in the wilderness and freshets are 8 running in the desert, 7 and the parching sands will become a pool and 9 thirsty ground springs of water, jackals' home a marsh, grass reeds 10 and papyrus; 8 and there will be an embankment there and a road, and it will be called the Sacred Road. Nothing unclean or profane will pass along it, stroller and fools will not stray; 9 there will be no lion there, nor will savage beast come up on it; one will not be found there, but rescued men will go. 10 And Jehovah's ransomed will come back and come to Sion with caroling, with eternal gladness on their heads; gladness and rejoicing will arrive, and sorrow and moaning will take flight.

CHAPTER 36

1 1 And in the year fourteen of King Hezekiah King Sennacherib of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities in Judah and captured 2 them. 2 And the king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh from Lakish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem with a formidable force; and he stood 3 on the aqueduct of the upper reservoir, the one that is on the highway 4 to the Fuller's Field, 3 and Eljakim the son of Hilkijah, the steward of the palace, and Shebna, the secretary for documents, and Joah the 5 son of Asaph, the king's private secretary, went out to him. 4 And the Rabshakeh said to them "Say to Hezekiah 'Says the Great King, the 6 king of Assyria, What confidence is this that you are feeling? 5 you think policy and strength for war is just a matter of talk. Now in whom are you trusting, that you have broken your allegiance to me?
7 6 trusting to this cracked bamboo cane Egypt, which, when a man leans his weight on it, will run into his hand and transfix it—that is 8 what the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is like for everybody who trusts to him. 7 And as for your saying to me "We are trusting on our God Jehovah," is not he the one whose heights and altars Hezekiah has made away with, and has told Judah and Jerusalem "You shall do 9 reverence before this altar"? 8 Now make a bet with my sovereign the king of Assyria, that I am to give you two thousand ponies if you can furnish riders for them; and how are you to repel one of my sover-

9 eign's minor officers? 9 and you are trusting to Egypt for chariotry 10 and cavalry. 10 And then, have I come up against this country independtly of Jehovah to ravage it? Jehovah said to me "Go up to this country and ravage it."'''

11 11 And Eljakim and Shebna and Joah said to the Rabshakeh "Speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; do not speak to 12 us in Judaic in the hearing of the people on the wall." 12 But the Rab-shakeh said "Was it to your sovereign and you that my sovereign sent me to tell these things? was it not to the men that are sitting on the wall to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"

13 13 And the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in Judaic 14 "Listen to the words of the Great King, the king of Assyria! 14 Says the king, Do not let Hezekiah delude you, because he will not be able to de-15 liver you. 15 Do not let Hezekiah get you to trusting on Jehovah, with his 'Jehovah will deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the 16 hands of the king of Assyria.' 16 Do not listen to Hezekiah; for the king of Assyria says 'Have an understanding with me and come out to me, and eat from your home vines and fig-trees and drink the water 17 of your home cisterns 17 till I come and take you to a country like your own, a country of grain and grape-juice, of bread and vineyards, 18 18 so that Hezekiah will not influence you with his "Jehovah will deliver us." Have the gods of the different nations delivered their countries 19 out of the hands of the king of Assyria? 19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? where are the gods 20 of Samaria, did they deliver Samaria out of my hands? 20 Who are there among all the gods of these different countries that have delivered their countries out of my hands, that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hands?'"

21 21 But they kept still and made no answer to him; for the king's order was "Do not answer him."

22 22 And Eljakim the son of Hilkijah, the steward of the palace, and Shebna, the secretary for documents, and Joah the son of Asaph, the king's private secretary, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn,

CHAPTER 37

1 and told him the Rabshakeh's words. 1 And when King Hezekiah heard them he tore his clothes and put a sackcloth about him and went into 2 Jehovah's house, 2 and sent Eljakim the steward of the palace and Shebna the secretary for documents and the elders of the priests, with sackcloths about them, to the prophet Isaiah the son of Amos; 3 3 and they said to him "Says Hezekiah, This is a day of distress and castigation and contempt, because children have come to the mouth of 4 the womb and we have not strength to complete a birth. 4 Perhaps your God Jehovah will listen to the Rabshakeh's words with which his sovereign the king of Assyria has sent him to taunt a living God, and will chastise the words that your God Jehovah hears; and you shall put up a prayer for the remnant that still exists."

5 6 5 And King Hezekiah's officers came to Isaiah; 6 and Isaiah said to them "You shall say to your sovereign, 'Says Jehovah, Do not be afraid of the words you have heard, in which the king of Assyria's servants have blasphemed me; 7 I am going to put a spirit in him, and he shall hear a report and go back to his own country, and I will have him fall by the sword in his own country.'"

8 8 And the Rabshakeh went back, and found the king of Assyria attacking Libnah; for he had heard that he had moved away from Lkish.

9 9 And he heard say about King Tirhakah of Nubia "He has come out to fight you"; and, hearing it, he again sent envoys to Hezekiah with the message 10 "You shall say to King Hezekiah of Judah 'Do not let your God in whom you trust delude you with the thought "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria." 11 You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them without quarter; and are you to be delivered? 12 Did the gods of the nations my fathers ravaged deliver them, Gozan and Haran and Reseph and the Bene'-Eden at Telassar? 13 where is the king of Hamath, where the king of Arpad and the king of Sepharvaim city, of Hena' and 'Ivvah?' " 14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the envoys' hands and read it; and he went up to Jehovah's house.

15 15 And Hezekiah spread it out before Jehovah; and Hezekiah prayed before Jehovah, 16 "Jehovah, God of Israel, siter upon the cherubs, you are God alone for all the kingdoms of the earth: it was you who made the heavens and the earth. 17 Bend down your ear, Jehovah, and listen; open your eyes, Jehovah, and see; and hear Sennacherib's words which he has sent, taunting a living God. 18 The kings of Assyria have indeed, Jehovah, laid waste the nations and their countries, 19 and put their gods in the fire, because they are not gods but work of human hands, wood and stone, and destroyed them; 20 but now, Jehovah our God, save us out of his hands and let all the kingdoms on earth know that you, Jehovah, alone are God."

21 21 And Isaiah the son of Amos sent word to Hezekiah "Says Israel's God Jehovah, Whereas you have prayed to me as to King Sennacherib of Assyria, this is the word Jehovah has spoken against him: 22 Zion's maiden daughter despises and derides you; Jerusalem's daughter shakes her head after you. 23 Whom have you taunted and blasphemed, and against whom have you clamored at the top of your voice and lifted your eyes high? against the Holy One of Israel. 24 By your servants you have taunted the Lord, and have said 'With chariots, my chariots, I have gone up to the tops of the mountains, the recesses of Lebanon, and have cut down the tallest of its cedars, the choicest of its cypresses, and have come to its final lodgment, its wildwood of garden-land. 25 I have dug and drunk unknown waters, have dried off

26 with my marching feet all the streams of Egypt's Nile.' 26 Do you not hear? far back I acted, shaped it from days of old, have now brought it in, and you have been for crashing down fortified cities into ruined 27 heaps; 27 and their puny-handed inhabitants were dismayed and abashed, became field herbage and greensward, roof-grass blighted before the 28 east wind. 28 Your standing up and sitting down, your going out and 29 coming in I know, and your raging against me. 29 Since your raging against me and your hubbub have come up to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bridle between your lips, and take you back the way you came.

30 30 "And this is the token you are to have, eating the self-sown crop this year and the crop run wild next year; and in the third year sow 31 and reap, and set out vineyards and eat their fruit. 31 And the remaining survivors of the house of Judah shall more and more take root down-32 ward and bear fruit upward; 32 for out of Jerusalem shall a remnant come forth, and survivors out of Mount Sion; the championship of Jehovah of Armies will do this.

33 33 "So Jehovah says of the king of Assyria, He shall never come to this city nor shoot an arrow there nor push a shield up to it nor throw 34 up a ramp against it: 34 by the road he came on he shall go back, and 35 not come to this city, quoth Jehovah. 35 And I will shield this city, saving it on my own account and on my servant David's."

36 36 And Jehovah's angel went out and killed a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp: the first thing in the morning 37 they were all found dead corpses. 37 And King Sennacherib of Assyria 38 broke camp and went back and stayed at Nineveh; 38 and as he was doing reverence in the house of his god Nisroc his sons Adrammelec and Sareser stabbed him; and they made their escape to Armenia, and his son Esar-Haddon succeeded him.

CHAPTER 38

1 1 In those days Hezekiah fell sick and was at the point of death, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amos came to him and said to him "Says Jehovah, Make your will, because you are a dead man and are not to 2 recover." 2 And Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to 3 Jehovah, 3 and said "Ah, Jehovah, remember how I have walked before you in wholehearted loyalty and done what pleased you"—and Heze-4 5 kiah wept copiously. 4 And Jehovah's word came to Isaiah 5 "Go and say to Hezekiah 'Says Jehovah, your father David's God, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; I will add to your days fifteen 6 years, 6 and will deliver you and this city out of the hands of the king 7 of Assyria, and will shield this city. 7 And this is the token you are to have from Jehovah that Jehovah will do this thing that he said he 8 would: 8 here, I will have the shadow on the steps, where the sun has moved down on Ahaz's steps, recede ten steps backward.'"

9           (A mictam of King Hezekiah of Judah's when he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness.) 10    I thought "With broken-off days I shall go through the gates of the realm of death;
           I miss the rest of my years." 11    I thought "I shall not see Jehovah in the land of the living, I shall not again look at men with those who live above ground.
 12    My existence is pulled up and away from me like a shepherds' tent;
       I have done my life up like a web, you cut it off from the thrum.
       From day to night you finish me off, 13    I lie helpless till morning.
       Just like a lion he breaks all my bones;
           from day to night you finish me off.
 14    Just like a crane-swallow I twitter;
           I sigh like a dove.
       My eyes droop with looking on high;
           Lord, I am denied justice; be my bail!
 15    What shall I plead and say, when it was he did it?
       All my years I am led on with the ache in my heart.
 16    . . . . .
       Lord, by them men live,
           and in them everyone has the life of his spirit; Bring me to health and life." 17    But you held back my life from utter desolation Because you had thrown all my sins behind your back.
 18    For the grave will not thank you, death praise you,
       Those who are down in the Pit will not report your faithfulness.
 19    A living man, a living man will thank you, like me today.
       Father to children will make known
           your faithfulness.
 20    Jehovah, hasten to save me;
           and we will play my music All our lives at Jehovah's house.

21 And Isaiah said "Let them fetch a cake of figs to spread over the 22 abscess that he may recover." 22 And Hezekiah said "What is the token that I shall go up to Jehovah's house!"

CHAPTER 39

1 At that time Merodac Baladan the son of Baladan, the king of 2 Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, because he had heard 3 that Hezekiah had been sick. 2 And Hezekiah was glad to see them, and 4 showed them all his treasury, the silver and the gold and the spices 5 and the fine oil, and his arsenal, and everything that was to be found 6 in his hoards: there was not a thing that Hezekiah did not show them, 7 in his palace and in all his dominions. 3 And the prophet Isaiah came 8 to King Hezekiah and said to him "What did these men say, and 9 where do they come to you from?" and Hezekiah said "They have 10 come to me from a distant country, Babylon." 4 And he said "What 11 did they see in your palace?" and Hezekiah said "They saw every-12 thing that there was in my palace: there was not a thing that I did 13 not show them in my hoards." 5 And Isaiah said to Hezekiah "Listen 14 to the word of Jehovah of Armies: 6 there are days coming when 15 everything there is in your palace, and that your fathers have 16 hoarded down to this day, will be carried away to Babylon: there 17 will not be a thing left, says Jehovah. 7 And sons of yours, out of your 18 body, of your begetting, will be taken and become eunuchs in the 19 palace of the king of Babylon." 8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah "Jeho-20 vah's word that you speak is good," and said "because there is to be 21 peace and faithfulness in my time."

CHAPTER 40

1 2 Comfort, comfort my people, says your God. 2 Speak warmly to 3 Jerusalem, and call out to her that her time has expired, that her 4 guilt is taken into favor, that she had from Jehovah's hand double 5 for all her sins.
6 3 Hark, a voice calling out "Clear Jehovah's road in the wilderness, 7 level in the desert a street for our God! 4 let every valley be raised 8 and every mountain and hill taken down, and the hilly surface be-9 come level and the broken ground a plain! 5 and Jehovah's glory will 10 be disclosed, and all mortals will see it together, for Jehovah's mouth 11 has spoken."
12 6 Hark, a voice saying "Call out!" and one saying "What shall I 13 call out?" "All flesh is grass, and all its winsomeness like field flowers: 14 7 grass dries up, flowers fade, because Jehovah's wind blows on them; 15 the people is grass after all. 8 Grass dries up, flowers fade, but the 16 word of our God will last forever." 17 9 Up with you to a high mountain, bringer of good news to Sion; 18 lift your voice strongly, bringer of good news to Jerusalem; lift it 19 up, do not be afraid; say to the cities of Judah "Here is your God!" 20 10 Here is the Lord Jehovah coming with strength, his arm ruling for

12 Who has measured the water of the sea in his hollowed hand and gauged the sky by his span, and packed the soil of the earth into a half-bushel measure, and weighed mountains with a steelyard and hills with a balance? 13 who has gauged Jehovah's spirit, or been coaching him as adviser? 14 whom did he consult with, who tutored him, and taught him of the correct course, and taught him intelligence and directed him to the road of good judgment? 15 Here nations count for a drop hanging on a bucket and for the dust blown off a balance, here he lifts islands like a powder, 16 and Lebanon is not adequate to make a fire nor its beasts for a burnt-offering, 17 all the nations are like nothing in his presence and count like a nothing and a blank to him,— 18 and to whom will you compare Deity, and what likeness will you set up for him? 19 The statue an artisan has cast, and a goldsmith coats it with gold and works silver chains. 20 The man impoverished with contributions chooses wood that will not rot, looks out a skilled artisan to get up a statue that will not totter. 21 Will you not know? have you never from the first been told? do you not understand about the laying of the foundations of the earth? 22 He who sits over the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the sky like a gauze and spreads it like a tent to live in; 23 who reduces potentates to nothingness and makes judges of earth equal to zero,— 24 they have not even been planted, the seed has not even been sown for them, the cuttings for them have not even rooted, and he has blown on them too and they have dried out; and a tempest carries them off like straw. 25 And to whom will you compare me and have me parallel? says the Holy One. 26 Lift your eyes on high and see who created these: he who brings out their legions by number, summons them all by name; of great in powers and mighty in strength not one is truant.

27 27 Why do you say, Jacob, and talk, Israel, "My path is unseen by Jehovah; my God passes by my rights"? 28 Do you not know, or have you not heard? the eternal God Jehovah, the creator of the ends of the earth, does not faint or tire; his understanding is inscrutable; 29 he gives strength to the faint one and plentiful vigor to the powerless. 30 And young men will faint and tire and men in their youthful prime will stumble down, 31 but those who hope in Jehovah will have freshening strength, take wing like eagles, run without tiring, walk without fainting.

CHAPTER 41

1 1 Attend to me in silence, foreign coasts, and let this and that folk take fresh strength. Let them approach, then speak; together let us 2 come up for judgment. 2 Who roused from the east one at whose heels right follows, gives nations to be defeated before him and worsts kings, make their swords like clay and their bows like straw on the 3 wind? 3 He pursues them, passes on safe and sound, does not set foot 4 on a road. 4 Who did it and wrought it, called the cycles from the beginning? I Jehovah am first, and with the last I am the one.

5 5 Continents saw it and are afraid; the ends of the earth are in 6 panic. 6 They neared and came, helping each other and brother saying 7 to brother "Brace up!" 7 and carpenter encouraged goldsmith, and smooth-hammerer riveter; one declares the gluing "all right" and fastens it with nails, not to totter.

8 8 But as for you, Israel my servant, Jacob whom I chose, offspring of 9 the Abraham that loved me, 9 whom I fastened on from the ends of the earth and called from its outer horizons, and said to you "You 10 are my servant," chose you and have not repudiated you: 10 do not be afraid, because I am with you; do not be alarmed, because I am your God; I have been invigorating you, yes, helping you, yes, holding 11 you up with my fair-dealing right hand. 11 Put to shame and humiliated shall be all that are spiteful toward you; those shall come to nothing, 12 shall perish, who are at odds with you. 12 You shall look for them and not find them, the men that match themselves against you; they shall be the same as nobody and nothing, the men that make war on you;
13 13 for it is I your God Jehovah who hold your right hand, who say to you "Do not be afraid, I help you."

14 14 Do not be afraid, worm Jacob, maggot Israel; it is I help you, quoth 15 Jehovah, and the Holy One of Israel is your friend in need. 15 Here I make you a new full-toothed threshing-drag: you shall thresh 16 mountains and pulverize them, and make hills like chaff. 16 You shall winnow them and a wind will carry them off, a tempest will scatter them; but you shall exult in Jehovah, shall boast of the Holy One of Israel.

17 17 The needy and miserable look for water and there is none; their 18 tongues are dried up with thirst. I am Jehovah who will answer them, Israel's God who will not abandon them. 18 I will open rivers on rock-scalps and springs in the middles of plains; I will make a wilderness 19 into pools, and an arid country into fountainheads of water. 19 In the wilderness I will put cedar, acacia, and myrtle and wild olive; I will 20 place in the desert cypress, elm, and great savin together; 20 in order that together they may see and know and take notice and realize that Jehovah's hand has done this and the Holy One of Israel created it.

21 21 Bring on your case, says Jehovah; bring up your evidence, says the 22 King of Jacob. 22 Let them come up and tell us the things that are to befall! What was the past? tell it, that we may put our minds on it and know its consequences; or let us hear the things that are coming in.
23 23 Tell the things that are to come after, that we may know that you are gods—yes, will do good and harm—and may all together be alarmed

24 and stand in fear. 24 There, you are pieces of nothing and your performance a zero; all astray is he who chooses you.
25 25 I roused one from the north and he came from the sunrise to call on my name and to tread down viceroys like clay and like a potter 26 trampling mud. 26 Who told from the first that we might know, and beforehand that we might say "Right!" no, there was no one that told, no one that let us hear; no, there was no one that heard your 27 say. 27 I am the first who give to Sion "There, there they are!" and to 28 Jerusalem a bringer of good news. 28 And I see, and there is not a man, 29 among these no adviser, that I should ask them and they reply; 29 all of them, I find their works a nothing and a zero, their bronzes air and vacuum.

CHAPTER 42

1 1 Here is my servant whom I use, my chosen in whom I take satisfaction: I have put my spirit on him; he shall bring out judgment for 2 the nations. 2 He will not cry out nor raise his voice nor let it be 3 heard in the street; 3 a cracked reed he will not break, a smoldering 4 wick he will not put out. 4 He will bring out judgment reliably: he will not smolder down nor crack till he sets up justice in the earth and commonwealths await his instructions.

5 5 Says the Deity, Jehovah, creator and spreader of the skies, forger of the earth and its growths, giver of breath to the people on it and 6 spirit to those who walk over it: 6 I Jehovah have called you in good faith and held your hand and kept you and given you for a people's 7 charter, 7 for a light of nations, to open blind eyes, to bring prisoners
8 out of lockup, inmates of the darkness out of jail; 8 I am Jehovah, that is my name, and I will not give my glory to another and my praise 9 to sculptures. 9 The first things have come true, and I am telling new things: before they have started growth I let you hear of them.

10 10 Sing a new song for Jehovah, from the end of the earth his praise, seafarers and all that fills the sea, strange countries and their inhabitants; 11 let wilderness and its cities lift their voices, villages the Kedarites live in; let crag-dwellers shout, let them yodel from mountaintops; 12 let them give glory to Jehovah and tell his praise in strange 13 countries. 13 Jehovah goes out like a champion, rouses his fierceness like a fighting man, cheers, yells, battles hardily with his enemies.

14 14 I have been quiet since ancient times, keeping silence, holding myself in. Like a childbearing woman I will groan, gasp, and pant together.
15 15 I will dry off mountains and hills and dry up their herbage, and make 16 rivers into pools and dry pools out. 16 And I will have blind men walk on a road they did not know, along paths they did not know I will take them; I will make a dark place into a patch of light before them and a tortuous piece into smooth going; these things I have done and 17 not left them. 17 Those that put confidence in statues fall back, admit their disappointment—those who say to bronzes "You are our gods!"

18 18 Listen, deaf and dumb men; blind men, look to see. 19 Who is blind but my servant, or so deaf and dumb as my messenger that I send?
20 who is so blind as Meshullam and so deaf and dumb as Jehovah's ser-21 vant? 20 It is a case of seeing much and not fixing attention on it, having 22 ears open and not hearing. 21 It was Jehovah's pleasure for his righteous-23 ness' sake to give a great and grand Code; 22 but that is a people plun-24 dered and pillaged, all trapped in holes and hidden in jails; they have become plunder that there is nobody to rescue, pillage for which 25 there is nobody to say "Give it back." 23 Who among you will give ear to this, listen and hear for afterward? 24 Who gave Jacob up to pillage and Israel to plunderers? was it not Jehovah, against whom they had sinned? they not been willing to go his way nor listened to his instructions, 25 and he poured out on them his hot anger and the force of war which has blazed round them and they do not know it, has burned spots on them and they pay no attention.

CHAPTER 43

1 1 Says Jehovah now,—your Creator, Jacob, your Framer, Israel,— Do not be afraid, for I have undertaken to be responsible for you; 2 2 I have named you, you are mine. When you cross through water I am with you; through rivers, they shall not sweep you away. When you walk in fire you shall not be seared and no flame shall catch to you.
3 3 For I am your God Jehovah, your Savior the Holy One of Israel; I have given Egypt to get you clear, Nubia and the Sudan in your 4 place, 4 inasmuch as I hold you precious, esteem you highly, and love you, so that I give mankind for you and folk after folk for your life.
5 5 Do not be afraid, because I am with you; from the east I will bring 6 your descendants, and gather them from the west, 6 will say to the north "Give here!" and to the south "No holding out! bring my sons 7 from far away and my daughters from the ends of the earth, 7 everyone who is called by my name and whom I have created for my glory, have shaped and made."

8 8 Bring out a blind people with eyes and deaf men that have ears.
9 9 All nations at once gather, and folk comes together with folk: who among them will tell this and let us hear ancient things? let them offer their witnesses to prove them right, and let them hear and say 10 "True!" 10 You are my witnesses, quoth Jehovah, my servants that I have chosen, in order that you may know and trust to me and understand that I am the one: no deity was shaped before me, and after me 11 there will not be any. 11 I, I am Jehovah, and there is no savior aside 12 from me. 12 I have told and saved and let you hear, and there was no stranger among you. And you are my witnesses, quoth Jehovah, and 13 I am Deity, 13 even today I am that, and there is nobody that delivers out of my hands; I do a thing and who will turn it back?

14 14 Says your friend in need Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, On your account I have sent to Babylon and will bring them all down as 15 fugitives, and the Chaldeans, whose shout is on the ships. 15 I am Jehovah, your Holy One, Israel's Creator, your King.

 16 16 Says Jehovah who gives a road in the sea and a path through a 17 mighty water, 17 who brings out chariots and ponies, great troops and 18 strong sinews together,—they lie down, not to rise, they are extinguished, 19 blown out like a wick,—18 Do not recall beginnings nor pay attention to 19 ancient things; 19 here I am doing a new thing, it springs up now—do you 20 not recognize it? I will also lay a road through the wilderness, thoroughfares 20 in desert land. 20 The wild creatures, jackals and ostriches, shall pay 21 honor to me because I have put water in the wilderness, rivers in desert 21 land, to give drink to my chosen people, 21 a people that I built for 22 myself to tell my praise.
 22 22 But you have not been calling me, Jacob, because you, Israel, felt 23 worn down over me. 23 You had not brought me a sheep for a burnt-offering, 24 nor honored me with your sacrifices, I had not driven you to work for grain-24 offerings and worn you down for frankincense, 24 you had not bought me 25 sweet flag for money nor refreshed me with the fat of your sacrifices; you 25 had only driven me to work over your sins and worn me down with your 26 guilt. 25 It is I, I, am canceling your crime on my own account and will 26 not remember your sins any longer. 26 Remind me; let us bring our case 27 against each other to trial; 27 tell the story yourself so as to be in the 28 right. 27 Your first father sinned, 28 and your representatives committed 28 crimes against me; 28 and I profaned sacred dignitaries, and gave Jacob 29 up to proscription and Israel to insults.

CHAPTER 44

1 1 But now listen, my servant Jacob, Israel that I have chosen.
 2 2 Says Jehovah your Maker, your Framer in your mother's body, he 3 who helps you: Do not be afraid, my servant Jacob, Jeshurun whom 3 I have chosen. 3 For I will pour water on him who is thirsty, wetness 4 on that which is dry. I will pour my spirit on your descendants and 4 my blessing on your offspring, 4 and they will shoot up like grass in 5 mud, like poplars by watercourses. 5 This one will say "I am Jehovah's," 5 and this one will announce the name of Jacob, and this one will mark 6 his arm as Jehovah's and will put into his name the name of Israel.
 6 6 Says the King of Israel and its friend in need, Jehovah of Armies, 7 I am first and I am last, and besides me there is no god. 7 And who is 7 like me? let him stand up and proclaim, and tell of it and give me his 8 statement, who from of old has announced coming things; and the things 8 that are to be let them tell them. 8 Do not be in dread, do not be 9 stampeded; have I not announced it to you and told of it in the past?
 9 are not you my witnesses? Is there a god besides me? no 9 Rock there is, I know of none. 9 Shapers of statues all amount to 10 nothing, and their charming works are of no use; and the witnesses 10 they have do not see nor know so as to be ashamed.

10 11 10 Who has shaped a deity and cast a statue to be of no use? 11 here will all his partners be put to shame; they are human mechanics, they will all gather, come to a stand, be startled, be put to shame together.
 12 12 A blacksmith takes a chunk of metal and works it with coals and 13 shapes it with hammers, has worked it up with his strong arm, gone hungry and lost strength, not had a drink of water and grown faint.
 13 13 A carpenter stretches a line, outlines his job with a pencil, does it with chisels and contours it with compasses, and has made it in the figure of a man, in the elegance of human form, to sit still in a house.
 14 14 One has cut himself cedars, and taken an oak, a live-oak, seized it for himself among the trees in the badlands, has planted a stone-pine 15 and showers grow it; 15 and men have it to burn, and they have taken parts and warmed themselves—also heat a baking-crock and bake bread—also cut out deities and do reverence, make statues and kowtow 16 to them. 16 Half of it they have burned up, off half of it they are eating meat, are cooking a roast and filling their stomachs, also warm them-17 selves and say "Ah there, I am warm, I have seen a fire," 17 and the remainder of it they make into deities, statues, to kowtow to and do reverence and pray to and say "Deliver me, because you are my God." 18 18 They do not know nor realize, because their eyes are sealed up from seeing, their hearts from reasoning. 19 And they do not take it in, and 19 have no knowledge or sense to say "Half of it I burned up, also baked bread over its coals, roasted meat and ate it, and shall I make the rest of it into an abomination? kowtow to a remnant of wood?" 20 20 Feeder on ashes, a befooled heart has put him off the track, and he will not deliver his soul nor think "Have I not a falsification in my right hand?"
 21 21 Remember these things, Jacob; and, Israel, that you are my servant.
 I shaped you for servant of mine; you, Israel, are not to forget me.
 22 22 I have cleared your crimes off like a cloud, your sins like a vapor; come 23 back to me, because I claim you. 23 Shout, skies, because Jehovah has acted; cheer, subterranean depths; break out in shouting, mountains, bush and every tree in it, because Jehovah claims Jacob and makes his boast of Israel.
 24 24 Says Jehovah your friend in need, your Framer in your mother's body: I Jehovah, maker of everything, single-handed stretcher of the 25 sky, unaccompanied spreader of the earth, 25 who foil diviners' signs and make soothsayers go wild, who reverse wise men and make their 26 knowledge foolish, 26 who make good my servant's word and execute my messengers' plan, am he who says of Jerusalem "it shall be inhabited" and of the cities of Judah "they shall be rebuilt and I will rehabilitate 27 her wastes"; 27 who say to the morass "Dry up; I will dry off your 28 rivers"; 28 who say of Cyrus "my servant, and he shall execute everything I want, saying of Jerusalem 'it shall be rebuilt' and the temple
 'it shall be refounded.'"

CHAPTER 45

- 1 I Says Jehovah to his anointed one Cyrus, whom I hold by his right hand to have nations trodden down before him, and I unbelt kings' waists; 2 to open doors before him, and gates shall not be locked: I will go before you and level off knolls and smash bronze doors and chop through iron bars, 3 and give you treasures stored in darkness and buried in screened places, in order that you may know that I am Jehovah, he who names you is Israel's God; 4 on account of my servant Jacob, and Israel my chosen—and I called you by your name, gave you a title when you did not know me. 5 I am Jehovah, and there is no other; except me there is no God; I will be fastening your girdle when you are not conscious of me, 6 in order that from farthest east to farthest west they may know there is nobody besides me: I am Jehovah, and there is no other. 7 Framer of light and creator of darkness, maker of welfare and creator of calamity, I Jehovah am the doer of all these things.
- 8 Pour, skies, from above, and let the ether drip down right; let earth open and salvation start its growth, and right shoot up withal—I Jehovah have created it.
- 9 Ha, man that wrangles with his Framer! a broken dish with the crockery-makers! will clay say to its potter "What are you doing, your work is a botch"? 10 Ha, man that says to a father "What are you begetting?" and to a woman "What are you in labor with?" 11 Says Jehovah, Israel's Holy One and its Framer, Will you ask me questions about my sons and give me orders about the work of my hands? 12 It was I made earth and created man on it; it was I whose hands stretched the sky and who gave orders to all its legions. 13 It is I that have called him out in good faith and will level all his road; he shall rebuild my city and release my deportees, not for price nor for pelf, says Jehovah of Armies.
- 14 Says Jehovah, Egypt's earnings and Nubia's profits, and the Sudanese, tall men that they are, shall come across to you and belong to you; they shall follow you in fetters; they shall come across and to you make prayers: "only in you is there a deity, and there is no other, not a god. 15 With you there was a veiled Deity! Israel's God is a savior!" 16 They are crestfallen, downright humiliated, all of them together; 17 figure-sculptors go off in humiliation. Israel is saved in Jehovah with eternal salvation; you shall not be crestfallen nor humiliated forever and aye.
- 18 For this is what Jehovah says, the Creator of the heavens—he is God! the Shaper and Maker of the earth—it was he set it in order, he did not create it as a chaos, he shaped it to be inhabited—: I am Jehovah and there is nobody to be added. 19 I have not spoken in secret, in a place in a land of darkness; I have not said to Jacob's descendants "Look for me at random"; I Jehovah speak right, I make straight-forward statements.

20 20 Gather and come on, throng up and come in, my survivors! The nations do not know, those who bear along the wood of their statues 21 and pray to a deity that does not save. 21 Tell and bring them on; yes, let them put their heads together; who uttered this in ancient times, announced it already? was it not I, Jehovah? and there is no other 22 God outside me; honest, saving Deity there is none except me. 22 Face toward me and be saved, all ends of earth! for I am Deity and there 23 is no other. 23 By myself I have sworn, a word has gone out of my mouth in good faith and will never go back, that to me every knee shall bend, 24 by me every tongue shall swear. 24 Only in Jehovah, it is said of me, is fair dealing and might; to him all that are spiteful toward him 25 shall come and be ashamed. 25 In Jehovah shall all the descendants of Israel have their vindication and their boast.

CHAPTER 46

1 1 Bel sinks, Nebo is bent; their idols have become beasts, cattle; the things that were to carry them are loaded with burdens to the fainting-2 point; 2 together they have bent, sunk, have not been able to bring a load to safety but their own selves have gone into foreign slavery.
3 3 Listen to me, house of Jacob, all you remnant of the house of Israel, you that have been taken as a load since you came out of your mothers' 4 bodies, carried since you came from the womb— 4 and to old age I am the one, till your hair is white I will bear you along; I made and I 5 will carry, I will bear along and bring to safety. 5 To whom will you compare and equalize me, and parallel me so that we shall be compar-6 able? 6 you that deal out gold from a bag and weigh out silver with a scale, hire a goldsmith to make it into a deity, kowtow and do 7 reverence too, 7 take it up, bear it along on your shoulders, and set it down on the floor and have it stand there, not budge from its place; one may cry to it, it will not answer, will not save him out of his 8 distress. 8 Remember this and anchor yourselves; rebels, take it to heart.
9 9 Remember facts of the ancient past; for I am Deity and there is no 10 other, God and no being is like me, 10 who announced the future in the past, in olden time things not yet done; who said "My purpose shall 11 come true, and all my wishes shall be executed"; 11 who called birds of prey from the east, from a far-off country the man for my plan; I who spoke the word will make it true, I who drew the pattern will do the work. 12 Listen to me, men of defiant heart, far from right: 13 I 12 13 have brought my right-doing near, it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not delay; and I will give salvation in Sion, my majesty to Israel.

CHAPTER 47

1 1 Come down and sit on the earth, maiden daughter of Babylon; sit chairless on the ground, daughter of Chaldea; for they shall no longer 2 call you delicate and dainty. 2 Take a quern and grind meal; doff your 3 veil, strip off long skirts, uncover legs, ford rivers. 3 Your nudity shall be uncovered, yes, your ignominy shall be visible; I will have my 4 revenge and not take my ease,<sup>4</sup>says the champion of our rights, whose 5 name is Jehovah of Armies, Israel's Holy One. 5 Sit silent and go into the dark, daughter of Chaldea; for they will no longer call you mis-6 tress of kingdoms. 6 I was incensed against my people, I let my estate be desecrated and gave them into your hands; you accorded them 7 no kindness, you laid a very heavy yoke on an old man.<sup>7</sup>And you said

"I shall be mistress forever"; you did not set your mind to these things, 8 did not remember their sequel.<sup>8</sup>Now hear this, luxurious one, you that sit confident of your security, that say to yourself "There's me and 9 that's all! I shall never sit in a widow's seat nor experience the loss of my children"; 9 you shall have these two things come at a stroke, on one day, the loss of your children and widowhood; to the utmost 10 they will have come upon you for your wholesale witchcraft, for your multitudinous incantations. 10 But you put confidence in your science; you said "nobody sees me"; your culture and science turned your 11 head, and you said to yourself "There's me and that's all." 11 But there will come upon you a calamity that you do not know the spell for, and there will fall upon you a ruin that you cannot buy off, and an un-12 expected storm will come suddenly upon you. 12 Stand there with your incantations and your wholesale witchcrafts that you have toiled over from your girlhood; perhaps you can accomplish something, perhaps 13 you will overawe somebody. 13 You are tired with your elaborate policy: let the astronomers stand there and save you, those who gaze at the stars and prognosticate the moons, from the things that are to come 14 upon you. 14 There they have turned to straw, fire has burned them; they will not deliver their own selves from the hands of flame; there is not a bed of coals to warm one's self by, a campfire to sit before.
15 Such you find those become for whom you have toiled, your spellcasters from your girlhood; they are wandering each to a different quarter, there is nobody to save you.

CHAPTER 48

1 Listen to this, house of Jacob, you who are called by Israel's name and have come of Judah's germs, you who swear by Jehovah's name and cite the God of Israel,—not in good faith and not with honest 2 intent,— 2 because you are called after the holy city and prop yourselves 3 upon the God of Israel, whose name is Jehovah of Armies. 3 The prior events I announced in the past, they came out of my mouth and I let 4 them be heard of;<sup>4</sup>suddenly I did them and they came true; because I knew that you were a stiff one, and your neck was strap-iron and 5 your forehead solid bronze,<sup>5</sup>I told you in the past, let you hear before it came about, for fear you should think "my idol did the things" 6 or "my statue, my metal image, gave the order for them."<sup>6</sup>You hear!
look at it all! And you yourselves, will you not tell? I am letting you hear of new things from now on, and recondite things that you did

7 not know. 7 They are created now and not in the past, and before the right day you did not any of you hear, for fear you should say "There, I knew about them."

8 8 You have neither heard nor known, nor has your ear been opened in the past, because I knew you would be breaking faith, and you had 9 been called a rebel since you came out of your mother's body. 9 On 10 account of my reputation I will be patient and bridle my resentment 11 toward you, not stamping you out. 10 Here I have been smelting you, but not for silver; I have been testing you in the furnace of hardship.
11 On my own account, my own, I will act, because I am being profaned and I will not give my glory to another.

12 12 Listen to me, Jacob, and Israel whom I have called: I am the one; 13 I am first, I am last too. 13 It was my hand, too, that laid the foundations of earth, and my right hand that spread the sky; I call to them, they stand there together.

14 14 Let them all gather and have us hear who among them has announced these things! He whom I love shall do my pleasure at Babylon, 15 his arm among the Chaldeans. 15 I, I spoke, I called him too, I brought 16 him, and he shall be successful in his enterprises. 16 Come near to me, listen to this: I did not from the first speak in private; ever since it was, there was I.

17 17 And now the Lord Jehovah has sent me, and his spirit. Says Jehovah your Friend in need, the Holy One of Israel: I am your God Jehovah, he who teaches you to make good, who sets you on the road you should 18 go by. 18 If you had listened to my commandments, then your prosperity would have been like the River and your record of rightness like the 19 waves of the sea; 19 and your issue would have been like the sand and the offspring of your body like the grains of it; their name would never become extinct nor be stamped out from before me.

20 20 Come out of Babylon! get away from the Chaldeans! Tell this with sounding cheers, make all hear it, publish it to the end of the 21 earth; 21 say "Jehovah has vindicated his servant Jacob! they did not go thirsty; he took them through the wastes, made water spirt from a rock for them; he split a rock and water ran and his people drank!"

22 22 There is no peace, says Jehovah, for the wicked!

CHAPTER 49

1 1 Hear me, coasts; listen, every folk afar. Jehovah called me ever since my birth; since I was in my mother's body he has been speaking my 2 name; 2 and he has made my mouth like a sharp sword, has hid me in the shadow of his hand, and made of me a whetted arrow, screened 3 me in his quiver; 3 and he has said to me "You are my servant, the 4 Israel of whom I make my boast." 4 But I thought "I have toiled in vain, used up my strength for a nothing and an illusion"; but in 5 fact my rights were with Jehovah and my dues with my God, 5 and now Jehovah says, he who framed me in my mother's body for servant of his to bring Jacob back to him and to take up Israel, and I was 6 honored in Jehovah's sight and my God was my strength,— 6 he says

"When you are servant of mine it is too little to set the tribes of Jacob on their feet and to bring back the tight-held sons of Israel; I will give you for a light of nations, for my salvation to reach to the end of the earth."

7 7 Says Jehovah, Israel's friend in need, his Holy One, to one despised by men's propensities, detested by a nation, a slave of rulers: Kings shall see, and stand up; generals, and do reverence; on Jehovah's account, that he is reliable, Israel's Holy One, and has chosen you.
8 8 Says Jehovah, At a time of graciousness I gave you your answer, on a day of salvation I gave you my help, and kept you and gave you for a people's charter, to set a country on its feet, to assign desolate estates; 9 to say to the prisoners "Come out," to those who are in darkness "Come into the open." On all mountains they shall graze, have their 10 pasture on all scalps of rock; 10 they shall not go hungry or thirsty, nor shall desert heat nor sun strike them down, because it is he who feels for them that is driving them, and he will take them by springs of 11 water. 11 And I will make all my mountains a road, and my tumpikes 12 shall run high. 12 Here will these come in from far away, and here these 13 from the north and the west, and these from the Sinite country. 13 Shout, sky, and jubilate, earth! let mountains break out in shouting! for Jehovah has comforted his people and will have compassion on his unfortunates.

14 14 But Sion says "Jehovah has left me; my Lord has forgotten me." 15 15 Will a woman forget her baby, so as to have no feeling about the child of her own body? even they may forget and I will not forget 16 you. 16 Here I have drawn your picture on my hands; I have your walls 17 before me always. 17 Those that build you up work faster than did those who demolished you, and those who laid you waste have gone 18 out of you. 18 Lift your eyes in every direction and see! they all gather, they are coming to you! by my life, quoth Jehovah, you shall wear 19 them all as jewels and tie them on like a bride's ribbons. 19 Whereas I had laid you waste and desolate, demolished you to the ground, now 20 you shall be too scanty for the population, and those that wrecked you will be far away; 20 you shall yet hear the sons born during your childlessness saying "The place is too scanty for me; move out of my 21 way so I can settle down." 21 And you will say to yourself "Who gave birth to these for me, when I was childless and beyond hope, who raised these? there was I left alone, where were these?"

22 22 Says the Lord Jehovah, Here, I will lift my hand to nations and raise my signal to peoples, and they shall bring your sons in the folds 23 of cloaks, and your daughters shall be carried on sides, 23 and kings shall be your foster-fathers and their queens your nurses; they shall do reverence to you with their faces to the ground and lick the dust off your feet; and you shall know that I am Jehovah who do not disappoint those who put their hope in me.

24 Will his captures be taken from a champion, or will a tyrant's 25 prisoners get away? 25 For Jehovah says "Even a champion's prisoners will be taken from him and a tyrant's captures will get away; and 26 I will combat those who combat you, I will save your sons, 26 and will set those who ill-treat you to eating their own flesh; they shall fuddle themselves with their own blood as if it were pomegranate-wine; and all mortals shall know that I Jehovah am your savior, and your friend in need is the Mighty One of Jacob."

CHAPTER 50

1 I Says Jehovah, Where are your mother's divorce papers to show that I turned her off? or what creditor of mine is it that I have sold you to? it was for your guilt you were sold, and for your crimes you 2 were turned off. 2 How was it I came and there was not a man, I called and there was nobody to answer? Has my arm grown too short to redeem, or is there no strength in me to deliver? lo, by my rebuke 3 I dry up a sea, I make rivers a wilderness, their fish stink for lack of water and die of thirst; 3 I clothe sky with black and give it a sackcloth for covering.

4 The Lord Jehovah has given me a well-taught tongue to know how to give a drooping man a helpful word; morning by morning he makes 5 my ear alert to hear like learners. 5 The Lord Jehovah has opened my 6 ear, and I was not disobedient, did not shrink back: 6 I gave my back to beaters and my cheeks to beard-pullers plucking the skin bare, I 7 did not screen myself from insult and spitting. 7 But the Lord Jehovah will help me, therefore I am not humiliated; therefore I have made 8 my face like a pyrite stone and know I shall not be put to shame. 8 My vindicator is at hand; who will prosecute me? let us stand up together; 9 who has a case against me? let him come on. 9 Here is the Lord Jehovah to help me, who is there to get me condemned? here are all of them going to wear out like blankets, to be eaten by moths.

10 10 Who among you fears Jehovah, obeys his servant? Let him who walks in the dark and has never a ray put his trust in Jehovah and 11 lean on his God. 11 There you are kindling fires and lighting firebrands, all of you; walk by the light of your fires and by the firebrands you have set blazing! At my hands you get this—you shall lie down in pain.

CHAPTER 51

1 I Listen to me, you that are aiming at rectitude, trying to find Jehovah: look at the rock you were quarried from and at the hollow 2 of the pit you were dug out of; 2 look at your father Abraham and at Sarah who gave you birth, that I called him when he was one man 3 and I blessed him and made many of him. 3 For Jehovah has brought cheer to Sion, cheer to all her waste places, and has made her wilderness like 'Eden and her desert part like Jehovah's garden: rejoicing and merrymaking shall be found in it, thanksgivings and the sound of music.

4 Listen for what I say, my people; my folk, turn your ear to me. For instructions will come out from me, and my law, for a light of 5 peoples. 5A moment, and my equity is at hand; my salvation goes out, and my arms do justice for peoples; foreign coasts are hoping for 6 me and waiting for my arm. 6 Raise your eyes to the sky, and look at the earth below: for skies will break up like smoke and the earth will wear out like a blanket, but my salvation will last forever, and my 7 equity will never break down. 7 Listen to me, you who know the right, people who have my instructions in your hearts: do not be afraid 8 of men's slurs nor dismayed at their insults; 8 for moths will eat them off like a blanket and grubs will eat them off like wool, but my equity will last forever and my salvation for generation after generation.

9 Rouse up, rouse up, put on strength, arm of Jehovah! rouse as in ancient days, in olden generations! was it not you that mangled
10 Rahab, that pierced Dragon? 10 was it not you that dried off the sea, the water of the great deep; that made ocean depths a road to let rescued 11 men pass? 11 And Jehovah's ransomed shall come back and come to Sion with caroling, with eternal gladness on their heads; gladness and rejoicing shall arrive, sorrow and moaning shall take flight.

12 I, I am the one that is comforting you; who are you that you are afraid of a man who is to die, and a human being who is to be made 13 hay of, 13 and have forgotten Jehovah your Maker, stretcher of skies and founder of earth, and are all day in constant terror of the oppressor's rage? when he has made ready to ravage, where is the 14 oppressor's rage? 14 a man tied down has speedily been unfastened, and shall not die for perdition nor find his bread running short. 15 But I your God Jehovah am he who stirs the sea and its waves roar, whose 15 name is Jehovah of Armies, 16 and have placed my words in your mouth and covered you in the shadow of my hand, planting heavens and founding earth and saying to Sion "You are my people."

17 Rouse, rouse yourself, stand up, Jerusalem, you who at Jehovah's hand have drunk the cup of his ire, have drunk dry the staggering-goblet, 18 18 you that of all the children you bore have nobody to show you the way, of all the children you reared have nobody to take you by 19 the hand; 19 two things there are that have befallen you—who shall lament for you? rapine and ruin, and starvation and sword—who 20 shall comfort you? 20 Your sons have collapsed, they are lying at the tops of all the streets like an antelope in a net, full as they are of Jehovah's ire, of your God's rebuke.

21 22 So hear this, wretched one, drunken but not with wine: 22 says your Lord Jehovah, your God who takes up his people's cause, Here I have taken out of your hands the staggering-cup, and you shall never again 23 drink the goblet of my ire; 23 and I will place it in the hands of those who made you trouble and ground you down, who said to your form "Down, let us through" and you made your back like the earth and like the street for those who were to pass over.

CHAPTER 52

1 Rouse up, rouse up, put on your strength, Sion! put on your garments of magnificence, Jerusalem, hallowed city! for never again
2 shall one uncircumcised and unclean enter you. 2 Shake yourself clear of dirt, stand up, take your seat, Jerusalem; your slave-collar is 3 unfastened, captive daughter of Sion. 3 For Jehovah says, It was for nothing you were sold, and it will not be with money you shall be 4 rehabilitated.4For the Lord Jehovah says, To Egypt my people went down in the first place to live there as immigrants, and Assyria 5 victimized them over nothing;5and now what have I to do here, quoth Jehovah, when my people is seized unnecessarily? their rulers run 6 all day long. 6 So my people shall know my name on that day, that it was I that spoke; here I am!

7 7 What a glorious sight on the mountains are the feet of a messenger of good news, a herald of peace, a messenger that all is well, a herald
8 of salvation, one who says to Sion "Your God is king now!" 8 Hark to your watchmen! they raise their voices, they shout together, because 9 eye to eye they look upon Jehovah's coming back to Sion with tenderness. 9 Break out in a shout together, waste sites in Jerusalem, because 10 Jehovah has given comfort to his people, has been friend in need to Jerusalem. 10 Jehovah has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the 11 nations, and all the ends of earth have seen our God's salvation. 11 Stand clear, stand clear! come out of there, touch nothing unclean!
12 come out from within it, be by yourselves, you who carry Jehovah's things. 12 For not hurriedly will you come out nor go in flight; for 13 Jehovah will be going before you and the God of Israel bringing up your rear.

13 13 Ah, well will my servant do, will tower up and stand aloft and be high indeed. 14 As many had been aghast at him because his form was 14 too much disfigured to be a man, his features too much to be human-kind, so will he draw the gaze of many nations; 15 kings will shut their 15 mouths at him, because they see what they had never been told of and realize what they had never heard.

CHAPTER 53

1 1 Who believes our news? and to whom is Jehovah's arm disclosed?
2 2 there came up before him a thing like an accidental shoot, like a root-sprout out of dry ground, that had no shape or stateliness that 3 we should see it, no sightliness that we should want it. 3 He was despised and avoided by men, a man of pains and familiar with sickness; 4 like one from whom people screen their faces we despised him and did not count him for anything.4But in fact it was our sicknesses he

5 was carrying, our pains he was loaded with—while we all the time 5 thought he was a smitten one, struck by God and disciplined. 5 But he was being stabbed by our crimes, felled by our guilt; the chastisement to give us soundness came on him, and by his stripes we got healing, 6 6 We had all strayed like sheep, each headed a different way, and 7 Jehovah made him answer for the guilt of all of us. 7 He was bullied while he was submissive and did not open his mouth, like a sheep led to slaughtering or like a ewe dumb before her shearers—and did not 8 open his mouth. 8 He was taken out of law and order; and in his generation who would give thought to it that he was cut away from 9 the land of the living? 9 For my people's crime he was smitten, and his grave was put with malefactors and with a rich man at his death, for no violence that he had committed nor any fraud that was in his 10 mouth, 10 but Jehovah was pleased to fell him, he gave him a disease.
 If his life pays an indemnity, he will see posterity, will last long, 11 and Jehovah's pleasure will prosper in his hands. 11 He will see the thing his soul was in torment for, will have his fill; by his evil my 12 servant will clear many, their load of guilt he will carry. 12 So I will give him a share among great ones and he shall share booty with powerful ones, for his having poured his soul out for death and been counted with criminals, when he had taken up the sins of many and was intervening on account of their crimes.

CHAPTER 54

1 1 Shout, barren one that has given no birth; break out into shouting and whooping, you that have felt no birth-pains; for here are more children of the desolate mother than of the husbanded mother, says 2 Jehovah. 2 Broaden the site for your tent and have them stretch out the cords of your abode; do not set a limit; make your ropes long and 3 your pegs strong; 3 for you shall break out to right and to left, and your offspring shall take possession of nations and bring population to 4 desolate cities. 4 Do not be afraid, because you will not be disappointed; nor feel humiliation, because you will not be abashed; for you shall forget the disappointments of your youth, and no longer remember 5 the taunts of your widowhood. 5 For it is your Maker that is husband to you, whose name is Jehovah of Armies, and your friend in need is the Holy One of Israel, who shall be called the God of all the 6 earth. 6 For like a forsaken and heart-wrung wife Jehovah has called you, and a first wife when she was being despised, says Jehovah your 7 God. 7 In a little irritation I left you, but in great tenderness I will take you home; 8 in a rush of wrath I hid my face from you for a moment, but in eternal friendship I will tenderly cherish you, says 9 your restorer Jehovah. 9 This is like Noah's times to me: as I swore not to let Noah's water go over the earth again, so I have sworn not 10 to be incensed at you nor scold you. 10 For the mountains will shift and the hills be unsettled, but my friendship will never shift away from you nor my covenant of peace be unsettled, says your tender protector Jehovah.

11 Wretched town, storm-wrecked, unrelieved, here I am bedding your 12 stones in asphalt and laying your foundations in sapphire, 12 and I will 13 make your battlements fire-opal and your gateposts carnelian, and 14 all your boundary posts precious stones. 13 And all your sons shall be 15 learners under Jehovah, and the health of your sons shall be perfect.
16 14 You shall be kept in condition by right; live far from tyranny, for 17 you shall not be afraid, and from dismay, for it shall not come near 18 you. 15 Suppose they do start quarrels, it will not be my doing; whoever 19 starts a quarrel with you will come to his fall over you. 16 It was I that 20 created a smith who blows a charcoal fire and brings out a weapon 21 for its work, and it was I that created a ravager to ruin. 17 No weapon 22 forged against you shall be a success, and every tongue that takes 23 the stand against you before a court you shall convict of wrong. This 24 is the heritage of Jehovah's servants, and the vindication they have 25 from me, quoth Jehovah.

CHAPTER 55

1 Ho, every thirsty man, come to the water, and you who have no 2 money, come buy provisions and eat; come buy them for no money, 3 wine and milk for no pay; 2 why should you spend money for no bread 4 and your earnings for no satisfaction? Listen to me and eat good 5 things, and let your cravings be delighted with fat things; 3 turn your 6 ears and come to me, listen that your souls may live and I may make 7 with you an eternal covenant, the faithful friendship I pledged to 8 David. 4 Here I make him a witness to peoples, warden and dictator 9 of many a folk. 5 Here, you shall call a nation you do not know, and 10 a nation that never knew you shall run to you, on account of your 11 God Jehovah, and for Israel's Holy One because he has adorned you 12 with magnificence.

6 6 Betake yourselves to Jehovah while he is to be found; call on him 7 while he is near; 7 let a wicked man leave his course and a villain his 8 schemes, and come back to Jehovah who will take pity on him, to 9 our God because he will amply forgive; 8 for my plans are not yours 10 and your courses are not mine, quoth Jehovah. 9 For sky is higher than 11 earth; by so much are my courses higher than yours and my plans 12 than yours. 10 For as the shower and the snowstorm come down out of 13 the sky and do not go back without having watered the earth and set 14 it to hatching and sprouting, and it gives seed to the sower and 15 bread to the eater, 11 so shall be my word that goes out of my mouth: it 16 shall not come back to me empty-handed, but do what I please that 17 it should and succeed in what I sent it for. 12 For you shall go out in 18 gladness and be led along in safety; the mountains and hills shall 19 break out into shouting before you, and all the trees of the wilds 20 shall clap their hands. 13 Instead of the thorn-tree there shall come up a cypress, and instead of the elecampane there shall come up a myrtle; and Jehovah shall have it for an honor, a perpetual never-failing trophy.

CHAPTER 56

1 1 Says Jehovah, Keep the law and do the right thing; for the time is almost here for my salvation to come and my right-doing to be manifested. 2 Happy is the person who does this, and the man who holds fast to it; who keeps sabbath without profaning it and keeps his hands from doing anything bad. 3 And let the foreigner who has taken Jehovah's side not say "Jehovah will exclude me from his people"; 4 and let the eunuch not say "Well, I am a dead tree"; 4 for Jehovah says to the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths and choose what I like and hold to my covenant, 5 I will give them in my house and within my walls a better monument and name than sons and daughters give; a perpetual, never-failing name I will give them. 6 And the foreigners who have taken Jehovah's side to serve him and love Jehovah's name, to become worshipers of his, everyone that keeps sabbath without profaning it and those that hold to my covenant, 7 I will bring to my sacred mountain and give them joy in my house of prayer; their burnt-offerings and sacrifices shall be acceptable on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all the peoples, 8 quoth Jehovah who is gathering the exiles of Israel; I will further gather to him those whom he is to have gathered to him.

9 9 All you wild beasts, come to eat, all you beasts in the thickets! 10 her lookouts are blind, they all of them do not know; 10 they are all dumb dogs that cannot bark, dreamy, lying flat, fond of sleeping. 11 11 And the dogs have mighty appetites; they do not know when they have had enough; and the shepherds themselves do not know what is what, they have all turned to their own errands, every single one to his own profits: 12 "Come, I will fetch wine and we will swig beer, and tomorrow will be like today, a very special great time."

CHAPTER 57

1 1 The honest one perishes, and there is not a man who thinks it over; and friendly men are taken home, with nobody seeing the point, that the honest man is taken home out of harm's way: he goes into peace; 2 2 they are at rest in their beds, whoever went straight. 3 But as for you, come this way, sons of a fortune-telling mother, offspring of an adulterer and a wanton. 4 Toward whom are you so daintily supercilious? toward whom do you open your mouths wide and put out your tongues? Are not you yourselves children of crime, an offspring of falsehood? 5 you who heat yourselves up at the oaks, under every verdant tree, and slaughter children in the arroyos, under the clefts of the ledges. 6 Your portion is in smoothed arroyo-rocks; they, they are your lot; to them too you have poured a libation, brought up a grain-offering—am I to put up with things like these? 7 On a high and up-

thrust mountain you have placed your bed; there too you have gone 8 up to offer sacrifice. 8 And behind the door and the post you have placed your reminder, because out from me you uncovered and climbed, broadened out your bed; and you cut out some of those for 9 yourself, you loved their bed. 9 You saw a hand, and you took the road to the King with oil and used plenty of perfume, and sent your 10 envoys to distant places and down to the world of the dead. 10 You were spent with the length of your road, you did not say "I am done"; you found you had life of hand, therefore you did not flag.

11 11 Of whom are you apprehensive and afraid, that you are lying and do not remember me, do not give me a thought? I have been keeping myself still and ignoring matters, have I not? and of me you are 12 not afraid. 12 I will be the one to declare your Tightness; as for your 13 work, it will do you no good. 13 When you cry out let your collections deliver you! but a wind will pick them all up, a puff will take them along, and he who takes refuge in me shall inherit a land and shall 14 take possession of my sacred mountain. 14 And I shall say "Level up, level up, clear a road, heave up obstacles out of my people's way!"

15 15 For a lofty and exalted one says, who dwells in eternity and whose name is sacred, "I dwell in a place lofty and sacred, and with a man abashed and lowly in spirit, to give life to the spirits of the lowly 16 and invigorate the hearts of the abashed. 16 For I will not keep up a contention forever nor be permanently incensed; for it is from me that spirit puts on a wrapping, and it was I who made breath.
17 17 For the foulness of his moneymaking I was incensed and beat him, veiled and grim; but he went off backward on the course of his own 18 choice. 18 I saw his courses, and I healed him and let him rest, and made 19 it up to him in truehearted comforting. 19 I create peace with my lips, peace to the one who is far and peace to the one who is near," says 20 Jehovah, "and I heal him. 20 But the wicked are like the driving sea, in 21 that it cannot be quiet and its water drives up sludge and mud; 21 there is no peace for wicked men," says my God.

CHAPTER 58

1 1 Call at the top of your voice, do not hold in, lift your voice like a ram-horn, and tell my people of their crimes and the house of Jacob 2 of their sins. 2 And they resort to me day by day and like to know my courses; like a nation that had done the right thing and not deserted its God's law, they ask me for judgments for the right, they like to 3 feel that God is near. 3 "How was it we fasted and you did not see it, we denied ourselves the gratification of appetites and you did not 4 know it?" Here on your fast day you engage in business and drive all your hands; 4 here you fast wrangling and tussling and striking with lawless fist—you do not fast at present to make your voice 5 heard on high. 5 Is the fast that I choose like this, a day for men to deny themselves the gratification of appetites? is it to bend one's head

6 over like a rush and make a bed of a sackcloth and ashes? will you call this a fast, and a day acceptable to Jehovah?6 Would not this be a fast I would choose: to open up unlawful durance and undo the ties of yoke-bows, and let men held on trumped-up charges go free and snap 7 the bows of every yoke?7 would it not be to share your piece of bread with a hungry man and take homeless wretches into your house, when you see a naked man to cover him and not be unregardful of your 8 flesh and blood? 8 Then your light would break like the dawn and your wounds would quickly grow whole, and the rightness of your cause would go before you and Jehovah's glory would bring up your rear; 9 9 then you would call and Jehovah would answer, you would shout and he would say "Here I am." If you eliminate crooked dealing, pointing 10 fingers, and talking up villainy, 10 and feel for yourself the appetite of the starving man and feed up famished appetites, then your light will rise in the darkness and your murkiest gloom be like noon sun-11 shine, 11 and Jehovah will guide you always and feed you your own appetite among dry stones and brace your bones, and you will be like a well-moistened garden and like a water-spring whose water never 12 disappoints; 12 and sites lying waste from of old will be built up by you, on foundations of generations far back you shall erect walls; and you shall be called fencer-up of breaches, restorer of paths for settlement.
13 13 If you turn back your feet from sabbath, the doing of your business on my holy day, and call the sabbath a treat, Jehovah's sacred time glorious, and glorify it so as not to do your own ways nor engage in 14 your business, 14 then you shall have Jehovah to treat you, and I will mount you on earth's heights and feed you with your father Jacob's inheritance; for it is Jehovah's mouth that has spoken.

CHAPTER 59

1 1 Here, Jehovah's hand is not too short to save nor his ear too heavy 2 to hear,2 but your guilts have been making a separation between you and your God and your sins have veiled his face from you to keep 3 him from hearing. 3 For your hands are polluted with blood and your fingers with villainy, your lips speak falsely, your tongues whisper 4 dishonesty;4 there is no one who argues a case fairly and no one who comes into court in good faith; there is trust in nothings and talk of futilities, there is breeding of trouble and giving birth to villainy.
5 5 They hatch cobra eggs and weave spider webs: he who eats any of their eggs will die, and any that is stepped on cracks open to let out 6 a sand-adder; 6 their webs will not make a garment, and they will not cover themselves with their work. Their work is work of villainy, 7 and they have in hand jobs of ruffianism;7 their feet race to anything bad, and they are quick at shedding innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of villainy; rapine and ruin are on their thoroughfares, 8 8 they do not know the road to peace and there is no law and order on their routes, they have twisted their paths; anyone who travels

9 thereon does not know what peace is. 9 That is why justice keeps at a distance from us and right does not get to us, we hope for light and 10 find darkness, for radiance and we walk in murky gloom; 10 we feel along walls like blind men, feel our way as if eyeless, we stumble at 11 noon as if it were dusk; we have a smell like dead men; 11 we are all growling like bears and making moan like doves; we hope for justice 12 and there is none, for salvation when it is far away from us, 12 because our crimes are many before you and our sins testify against us.

13 13 For we have our crimes with us, and our guilt we know: insubordination and insincerity toward Jehovah and falling back from following our God, talking to suppress the truth and make false insinuations; 14 evolving and emitting lying words, justice being pushed back and right standing at a distance, because truth stumbles in the city square and fair dealing cannot get in; 15 truth has become a rarity, one who avoids evil is a mark for depredations.

16 16 And Jehovah saw and was displeased that there was no justice, and he saw there was not a man, and was shocked that there was no one who intervened; and his own arm made good his cause, and the 17 Tightness of his stand held him up. 17 And he put on right like a hauberk, with a helmet of salvation on his head, and dressed himself in garments of vengeance and wrapped himself in jealousy like a robe; 18 18 the like deeds for the like he will pay back, ire to his foes, requital to his enemies, 19 and on the west they shall see Jehovah's fame, and toward the sunrise his glory, when a foe comes in like a river, with Jehovah's 19 spirit carrying the standard for him. 20 And there will come from Sion a friend in need, and for those in Jacob who turn back from crime, quoth Jehovah.

21 21 And for my part this is my covenant with them, says Jehovah: my spirit that is on you and my words that I have placed in your mouth shall not move from your mouth and from the mouths of your offspring and of your offspring's offspring, says Jehovah, from now on, forever.

CHAPTER 60

1 1 Stand out, shine! for your glow has come and Jehovah's glory has 2 risen over you; 2 here darkness will cover earth, and thick air folk after folk, but over you Jehovah will rise, and his glory will be seen 3 over you; 3 and nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your rising beams. 4 Raise your eyes in all directions and see: they have all gathered, they are come! your sons are coming from far away and 4 your daughters carried on their nurses' sides. 5 Then, seeing it, you will brighten and your heart will thrill and expand, because the affluence of the West will swing to you, the wealth of nations will 5 come to you; 6 the dust-cloud of camels will cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ghephah will all come from Sheba carrying gold and 6 frankincense and reporting Jehovah's praises. 7 All the sheep and goats

of Kedar will be gathered to you; the rams of Nebajoth will do service to you; they will become acceptable burnt-offerings on my altar, and 8 I will heighten the magnificence of my magnificent house. 8 Who are these flying like a cloud and like pigeons coming to their windows?
9 9 for I have foreign coasts waiting, and the Spain-ships first, to bring my sons from far away, their silver and gold with them, for the name of your God Jehovah and for Israel's Holy One because he has raised 10 you to magnificence. 10 And aliens' sons will build your walls, and their kings will do service to you; for in my wrath I struck you blows, but 11 in my goodwill I have done you kindnesses. 11 And your gates will stand always open, never be shut by day nor by night, for bringing in to 12 you the wealth of nations with their kings brought along; 12 for the nation or kingdom that will not be subject to you shall perish; the 13 nation shall be literally laid waste. 13 The glory of the Lebanon will be given to you; to you will come cypress, elm, and great savin together to give magnificence to the place of my sanctuary; and I will make 14 the place of my feet glorious. 14 And the sons of your oppressors will go to you in abasement, and all your despisers will do reverence at your feet, and call you Jehovah's city, Israel's Holy One's Sion.
15 15 Instead of your being deserted and hated, with nobody passing through, I will make you the pride of an eon, a joy to generation 16 after generation. 16 And you shall suck the milk of nations, kings' breasts you shall suck; and you shall know that I Jehovah am your savior, 17 and your friend in need is the Mighty One of Jacob. 17 Instead of bronze I will bring in gold, and instead of iron I will bring in silver, and instead of wood bronze, and instead of stones iron; and I will 18 install as your government Peace and as your officers Right. 18 No more shall be heard of outrage in your country, rapine and ruin in your domain; and you shall call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.
19 19 You shall no more have the sun for light by day, and in radiance the moon shall not shine for you, but Jehovah shall be an eternal 20 light for you, and your God your splendor. 20 No more shall your sun go down nor your moon wane, for Jehovah shall be an eternal light 21 for you and your time of mourning is done. 21 And your people shall all be upright; they shall possess the land forever, the slips of his 22 planting, the work of his hands to make a magnificent display. 22 The smallest shall become a thousand and the tiniest a strong nation. I Jehovah will speed it up at the due time.

CHAPTER 61

1 1 The Lord Jehovah's spirit is upon me, since Jehovah has anointed me. To bring good news to humble men he has sent me, to bandage men broken at the heart, to proclaim liberty to men in foreign slavery 2 and jail-delivery to men in prison, 2 to proclaim a year of graciousness on Jehovah's part and a day of vengeance on the part of our God, to 3 comfort all mourners, 3 to bring on for the mourners of Sion, to give to them, high hats instead of ashes, oil of rejoicing instead of mourning, a vestment of praise instead of a benumbed spirit; and they shall be called the trees of right, Jehovah's planting for a display of magnificence. 4 And they shall rebuild sites immemorially lying waste, re-erect the desolations of the past, and renew the waste cities, the desolations of generation upon generation. 5 And strangers shall stand tending your sheep, and foreigners' sons be your plowmen and your vineyard hands, 6 but you shall be called Jehovah's priests, shall be spoken of as our God's ministrants; you shall eat the wealth of nations, and in their opulence you shall be substituted. 7 In place of your shame twofold and humiliation, they shall carol of their portion; therefore in their country they shall possess twofold, they shall have perpetual gladness. 8 For I Jehovah love justice, hate thieving by crooked work; and I will give their due faithfully, and make a perpetual covenant for them. 9 And their stock shall be noted among the nations and their offspring amid the peoples: everybody who sees them shall recognize them as a stock that Jehovah has blessed.

10 I will be joyous in Jehovah, my soul shall exult in my God, because he has dressed me in garments of salvation, wrapped me in a robe of right, as a bridegroom dons a sacramental cap and a bride bejewels herself with her belongings. 11 For like earth putting forth growth, and like a garden germinating its beds of seed, so the Lord Jehovah will bring up before all the nations a growth of right and praise.

CHAPTER 62

1 On Sion's behalf I will not be silent, and on Jerusalem's I will not be quiet, till her Tightness comes out like a radiance and her salvation like a burning torch. 2 And nations shall see your Tightness, and all kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name which Jehovah's mouth will designate; 3 and you shall be a magnificent coronet in Jehovah's hand and a royal tiara in the hand of your God.

4 You shall not again be spoken of as deserted nor your country as desolate, but you shall be called My-Dear and your country Husbanded; for Jehovah holds you dear, and your country shall have a husband. 5 For as a young man weds with a maiden your sons shall wed with you, and as a bridegroom rejoices over a bride your God will rejoice over you.

6 Over your walls, Jerusalem, I have set watchers; all day and all night they will never drop to silence. Have no repose, reminders of Jehovah, 7 and give him none, till he establishes and makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth. 8 Jehovah has sworn by his right hand and his mighty arm "I will not again give your grain as food to your enemies, nor shall foreigners drink your grape-juice that you toiled for, 9 but those who bring it home shall eat it and praise Jehovah, and those who gather it shall drink it in my sacred courts."

10 Pass, pass the gates! clear the people's road! level up, level up the street! pick out the stones that catch one's feet! Say among the peoples 11 "Here is Jehovah!" give out the word to the edge of the earth! say to the daughter of Sion "Here has come your Savior! here comes his 12 pay with him, his result before him!" 12 And they shall call them a sacred people, Jehovah's rescued men; and you shall be called "Wanted," "Undeserted City."

CHAPTER 63

1 Who is this that comes reddened, more crimson in clothing than a vintager, this one so striking for his clothing, pacing on in his abundant strength?

I who speak for the right, who abundantly save.

2 How comes it there is red on your clothing and your garments are like a grape-treader's?

3 I trod a winepress alone, and of peoples not a man was with me; and I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my ire, and their 4 juice spurted on my garments and I bespattered all my clothing; 4 for I had a day of vengeance in mind, and my year of redress had come.

5 And I looked and there was no helper, stood aghast and there was nobody to keep me up; and my own arm saved me and my ire kept me 6 up, 6 and I stamped peoples down in my anger and broke them up in my ire and sent their juice down to the ground.

7 I will commemorate Jehovah's friendlinesses, Jehovah's praises, as befits all that Jehovah, abundant in kindness toward Israel's house, has done to us, that he has done by us such things as were like his 8 tenderness and abundant friendliness. 8 And he said "They really are my people, sons that will not belie their birth"; and he became savior 9 of theirs in all their distress. 9 No delegate nor angel, his presence saved them; in his love and mercy he stood by them, and lifted and carried 10 them all through the olden days. 10 And they were disobedient and pained his holy Spirit, and he turned to be enemy to them and fought 11 against them himself; 11 but he remembered olden days, Moses, his people.

Where is he who brought up out of water the shepherd of his 12 sheep? where is he who put his holy Spirit into him? 12 who caused his glorious arm to go at Moses's right hand, who split waters apart before 13 them to make himself an eternal name, 13 who took them through the deeps like ponies in the wilderness, never stumbling, 13 like cattle going down on the bottom-lands, Jehovah's spirit leading them; it was so 15 you guided your people, to make yourself a glorious name. 15 Look from the skies and see, from your sacred and glorious abode: where are your jealousy and your exploits? do not keep down your emotions 16 and sympathies. 16 For you are our Father: when Abraham does not know us nor Israel recognize us, you, Jehovah, are our Father, your 17 name has from of old been "Our Next of Kin." 17 Why, Jehovah, do you have us stray from your paths, make our hearts too unfeeling to fear you? come back for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your 18 estate. 18 Why have miscreants dishonored your sacred things, our foes 19 trampled your sanctuary underfoot, 19 and we from of old been such as you did not rule over, such as were not named as yours?

CHAPTER 64

1 1 If only you tore the skies apart, came down with mountains stream-2 ing at your presence, 2 like the kindling of a fire of grass where fire makes water boil over, making known your name to your foes, for 3 nations to quake at your presence!3When you did terrible, unhopedfor things, you came down with mountains streaming at your presence.
4 4 And from of old men have not heard of, nor bent an ear to, eyes have not seen, a God besides you, who acts for those who wait for 5 him;5you are in touch with one who joyously does what is right.

Let them call you to mind by the ways you took: there you were incensed and we sinned, against the men of foul play and we went 6 wrong,6and we all became like a contaminating thing, everything that is right about us like a garment soiled with a woman's uncleanness;
and we are all withered like leaves, and our guilt is like a wind 7 carrying us off.7And there is nobody that calls on your name, that is wide enough awake to take hold of you, because you have veiled your 8 face from us and handed us over to our guilt.8But now, Jehovah, you are our Father; we are the clay and you our potter, and we are all 9 of us the work of your hands. 9 Do not be utterly incensed; do not remember guilt forevermore; ah, look, we are all of us your people.
10 10 Your sacred cities have become a wilderness: Sion is a wilderness, 11 Jerusalem a desolation; 11 our sacred house, our magnificent place where our fathers praised you, is laid in ashes, and all that we admired has 12 become a waste. 12 At this will you hold in, Jehovah, sit still and break our spirits utterly?

CHAPTER 65

1 1 I have consented to answer those who had not asked; I have let myself be found by those who had not looked for me; I have said 2 "Here, here I am" to a nation that had not called my name;2I have spread out my hands all day to a stubborn and disobedient people, those who go on a course that is not good, following their own 3 notions— 3 the people that provoke me to my face all the time, sacrificing 4 in the gardens and making burnings on the bricks; 4 those who sit in the graves and spend nights in the crypts, those who eat hogs' flesh 5 and their dishes hold broth of stale offerings, those who say 5 "Keep to yourself, do not come near me, because I should consecrate you": 6 these are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire burning all day. 6 I have it written down before me that I will not sit still but will pay back, 7 right back into their laps, 7 your guilt and the guilt of your fathers together, quoth Jehovah, who made burnings on the mountains and flouted me on the hills, and I in the past measured out their earnings into their laps.

8 Says Jehovah, As the juice is found in the cluster of grapes, and one says "Do not break it off, because it has a blessing in it," so I will do for my servants' sake, not breaking all off. 9 And I will bring a stock out of Jacob and a possessor of my highlands out of Judah, 10 and my chosen shall possess it and my servants shall reside there; 10 and the Sharon shall become a sheep-pasture and Trouble Vale a sleeping-place for cattle for my people who look to me.

11 But you, you that leave Jehovah, you that forget my sacred mountain, you that set a table for Lady Luck and fill mixed bowls for Destiny, 12 I will destine you to the sword and you shall all stoop for slaughtering. Since I called and you did not answer, I spoke and you did not listen, and you did what I disapproved and chose what I disliked, 13 therefore the Lord Jehovah says "Here will my servants be eating and you going hungry; here will my servants be drinking and you going thirsty; here will my servants be gladdened and you disappointed; 14 here will my servants be caroling in jollity of heart and you crying out for misery of heart and howling for agony of spirit; 15 and you shall leave your name to my chosen for an oath, 'and Jehovah bring you to your death,' and my servants shall be called by a different name, 16 whereas he who blesses himself in the country shall bless himself by the God of faithfulness, and he who swears in the country shall swear by the God of faithfulness, because the past distresses are forgotten and because they are shrouded from my eyes.

17 "For here I am creating a new sky and a new earth, and the past shall not be remembered nor thought of, 18 but they shall be joyous and gleeful forevermore over what I create, for here I am creating a Jerusalem that is a glee and her people a joy. 19 And I will be gleeful over Jerusalem and joyous over my people; and there shall never again be heard in her the sound of weeping or of crying out. 20 Not again shall there be found there one who is a child in years and has grown old, who does not fill out his time; for a boy shall die a hundred years old, and a sinner get a curse when he is a hundred years old. 21 And they shall build houses and live there, and plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them. 22 They shall not build and another live there, they shall not plant and another eat, for my people's lifetime shall be like that of a tree, and my chosen shall wear out the work of their hands. 23 They shall not toil bootlessly nor bear children for sudden death; for they are the stock of Jehovah's blessed ones, and have their offspring with them. Before they call, I will answer; while they are still speaking, I will hear. 25 Wolf and lamb shall pasture in unity, and lion shall eat straw like ox and snake have dust for its food; they shall not do harm nor havoc in all my sacred highland," says Jehovah.

1 1 Says Jehovah, The sky is my throne and the earth my footstool:
what house is there that you should build for me, and what place 2 that should be my resting-place? 2 and all these things my hand made and these things all came to be, quoth Jehovah. But at this I look, at 3 one who is submissive and dashed in spirit, and is alarmed at a word of mine. 3 The one who slaughters a bull is killing a man; the one who sacrifices a sheep is breaking a dog's neck; the one who makes an offering puts on hog's blood; the one who presents a memorial of frankincense blesses mythical beings. They have chosen their own ways, and their fancy takes to those disgusting objects of theirs; 4 4 so will I choose ways to pester them and will bring them the objects of their terror, since I called and there was nobody that answered, I spoke and they did not listen, and they did what I disliked and chose what I had no fancy for.

5 5 Listen to Jehovah's word, you who are alarmed at a word of his:
your brothers who hate you, who excommunicate you because of my name, say "Let Jehovah be something glorious and let us have a sight 6 of your gladness"—but they will be brought to shame. 6 A sound of hubbub in the city, a sound from the temple—the sound of Jehovah paying off his enemies!

7 7 Before she felt her pangs she gave birth; before pains came to her 8 she was delivered of a male child. 8 Who had heard the like of this?
who had seen such things? is a country to pass through birth-pangs in one day, or a nation to be born at one time, that Sion has both had 9 her pangs and given birth to her sons? 9 Should I start a birth and not have it finished? says Jehovah; or should I who generated the children bar the womb? says your God.

10 10 Be glad with Jerusalem and be gay over her, all you that love her; rejoice most gleefully with her, all you that were mourning on 11 her account, 11 since you are to suck and have your fill out of the breast of her comforts, since you are to nurse with enjoyment out of the 12 nipples of her fortune. 12 For Jehovah says, Here to her I am going to deal out welfare like a river and the fortunes of nations like an arroyo in flood; and their babies shall be carried at the side and 13 dandled on the knees. 13 Like a man whom his mother comforts, so will 14 I comfort you; 14 and at Jerusalem you shall be comforted and see, and your hearts shall be joyous and your bones shall freshen like green herbage, and Jehovah's hand with his servants shall be known, and he will confront his enemies with hostility.

15 15 For here will Jehovah come with fire, his chariots like a gale, to 16 wreak his anger in heat and his indignation in a flame of fire; 16 for it is with fire that Jehovah is trying Ms case, and with his sword, against all mortals, and of Jehovah's killed there will be many—17 17 those who consecrate and purify themselves for the gardens, behind one in the middle, who eat flesh of hog and disgusting reptile and mouse—their deeds and their thoughts shall come to an end together, 18 quoth Jehovah. 18 For the time is coming to gather all the nations and 19 languages, and they shall come and see my glory, 19 and I will exhibit tokens among them. And I will send survivors of them to the nations, Spain, Put, and Lud, Moshk and Rosh, Tubal and Greece, the distant coasts that have never heard a report of me nor seen my glory, and 20 they shall tell my glory among the nations, 20 and they shall bring all your brothers from all the nations as an offering to Jehovah by ponies and chariots and litters and mules and dromedaries to my sacred mountain, Jerusalem, says Jehovah, as the sons of Israel bring the 21 offering in a clean container to Jehovah's house; 21 and of them too I will take some for priests and Levites, says Jehovah.

 22 22 For as the new sky and earth that I am going to make are to last 23 before me, quoth Jehovah, so are your blood and name to last. 23 And duly for each new moon and duly for each sabbath all mortals shall 24 come to do reverence before me, says Jehovah; 24 and they shall go out and see the corpses of the men that rebelled against me; for their worm shall never die and their fire shall never go out, and they shall be an object of repugnance to all mortals.

THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkijah, one of the priests at
- 2 'Anathoth in Benjamin, 2 to whom Jehovah's word came in the time of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the year ten of his reign;
- 3 3 and it came in the times of Jehojakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, till the eleventh year of Sidkijah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, was done, till Jerusalem was deported in the fifth month.
- 4 5 4 And Jehovah's word came to me, saying 5 "Before I shaped you in a mother's body I knew you and before you came out of a womb I consecrated you; I have constituted you a prophet to the nations."
- 6 6 And I said "O, O, my Lord Jehovah! why, I do not know how to speak, because I am a boy."
- 7 7 And Jehovah said to me "Do not say 'I am a boy,' for you shall go against whatever I send you against and speak whatever I commission
- 8 you to; 8 do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you,
- 9 quoth Jehovah." 9 And Jehovah put out his hand and touched my mouth; and Jehovah said to me "Here I have put my words in your
- 10 mouth: 10 see, I appoint you over the nations and kingdoms this day to uproot and pull down and destroy and demolish, to build and to plant."

11 11 And Jehovah's word came to me "What do you see, Jeremiah?" 12 And I said "I see an almond twig." 12 And Jehovah said to me "You see well, for I pay attention to my word to carry it out." 13 13 And Jehovah's word came to me a second time "What do you see?" 14 I said "I see a boiling kettle facing northward." 14 And Jehovah said to me "From the north disaster will boil up against all the inhabitants 15 of the earth; 15 for here I am summoning all the northern kingdoms, quoth Jehovah, and they shall come and each set his throne at the gates of Jerusalem and before her walls and before all the cities of 16 Judah, 16 and I will present my case against them for all their viciousness, their having left me and made burnings to other gods and done 17 reverence to the work of their hands. 17 But for your part you are to gird your waist and stand up and speak to them everything that I commission you to. Do not be dismayed at them, or I will dismay you 18 before them. 18 Here have I today made you a fortified city and a bronze 19 wall to the kings of Judah, its priests, and the common people; 19 and they shall attack you, but they shall not get the best of you, because I am with you, quoth Jehovah, to deliver you."

CHAPTER 2

1 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Go and proclaim publicly at Jerusalem 'Says Jehovah, I remember the friendship of your girlhood, the love of your honeymoon, your following me in the wilderness, in 3 an unplanted country. 3 Israel was a thing sacred to Jehovah, the first of his crop, whose eaters all had to expiate it: mischief came upon them, quoth Jehovah.
4 4 "'Listen to Jehovah's word, house of Jacob and all clans of the 5 house of Israel. 5 Says Jehovah, What unfairness did your fathers find in me that they went far away from me and ran into super-6 stitions and became slaves to them, 6 and did not say "Where is Jehovah who brought us up out of Egypt, who led us on in the wilderness, in a country of desert and pitfall, a country of drought and gloom, a 7 country where no man passed and no human beings lived there"—7 and I brought you into the country of garden-soil to feed on its fruits and its good things, and you came in and defiled my country and made 8 my estate an abomination. 8 The priests did not say "Where is Jehovah?", those who had charge of giving rulings did not know me, the shepherds rebelled against me, and the prophets prophesied by the Baal and followed what did no good.
9 9 "'So I will have it out with you again, quoth Jehovah, and with 10 your children's children. 10 For go over to the Cyprian coasts, and see, and send to Kedar and observe thoroughly, and see if there has oc-11 curred the like of this. 11 Has a nation changed gods? and those are not 12 gods; 12 but my people has changed its glory for what does no good. Skies, stand aghast at this and shudder, go utterly blank, quoth Jehovah.
13 13 For my people has done two hurtful things: left me, a fount of living water, for cutting out cisterns of their own, broken cisterns that will not hold water.

14 14 "Is Israel a slave or is he a menial horn? how is it he has become 15 an object of plunder? 15 Young lions roar at him, they have given tongue 16 and have made his country a desolation, his cities are ruined, left 16 without an inhabitant. 16 The sons of Memphis and Tehaphnehes too 17 have sheared you to the scalp. 17 Is it not your leaving your God Jehovah 18 at the time of his conducting you on the road that has done this to 18 you? 18 And now what business have you on the road to Egypt to drink 19 water of the Delta River? or what business have you on the road to 19 Assyria to drink Euphrates water? 19 Your own wickedness will chastise you and your own backslidings correct you: see for yourself that your leaving your God Jehovah and not having the dread of me upon you is a bad and bitter thing, quoth Jehovah of Armies.

20 20 "For since ancient times you have broken your yoke and snapped 20 your tether and said "I will not work," but on every high hill and 21 under every verdant tree you have been sprawling in prostitution. 21 And 21 I had planted you from Sorek stock, altogether genuine seed; how is 22 it turned degenerate, a foreign vine, on my hands! 22 For even if you 22 wash with soda and take quantities of lye, your guilt is a stain before me, quoth the Lord Jehovah.

23 23 "How can you say "I have not been defied, have not followed 23 the Baals"? See your course in the valley; know what you have done.
24 24 A she-camel in heat, running on this course and that; a wild ass 24 wanted to wilderness, gulping the wind in its eagerness of appetite; who is to turn back her lust? any that look for her will not tire them-25 selves out; in her month they will find her. 25 Refuse to get your feet 25 sore and your throat thirsty; but you said "Not I; no, I love outsiders and will follow them."

26 26 "As a thief is ashamed when he is caught, so the house of Israel 26 will come to shame, they, their kings, their generals, and their priests 27 and prophets: 27 people that say to the wood "You are our father" and 27 to the stone "It was you gave birth to us"; for they have turned their backs to me, not their faces, but in their time of trouble they will 28 say "Stand up and save us." 28 And where are your gods you made for 28 yourself? let them stand up if they will save you in your time of trouble, for your gods are as many as your cities, Judah.

29 29 "Why should you upbraid me? you have all rebelled against me, 29 quoth Jehovah. 30 I have beaten your sons to no purpose, they have not 30 learned by it. Swords have eaten up your prophets like a ravaging 31 lion, and you have not been afraid; see Jehovah's word! 31 Says Jehovah, 31 Have I been a wilderness to Israel, or a country of murky gloom?
how is it my people say "We are off, we will not come to you again!" 32 32 Will a maiden forget her jewelry, a bride her ribbons? but my people 32 have forgotten me for an incalculable time. 33 How fine you have made your course to look for love! so I have wanted your courses to bad times too.

34 34 "On your garments was found, too, the lifeblood of innocent poor 35 men; you had not found them breaking in, but it was for all these. 35 And you thought "Because I am innocent, it must be his anger has gone 36 back from me." Here I am going to plead my ease against you for your saying "I have not sinned." 36 How downright recklessly you 37 change courses! you will be disappointed in Egypt the same as you were in Assyria; 37 from there too you will come out with your hands on your head, for Jehovah disdains what you rely on, you are not to be successful with it.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 "Suppose a man divorces his wife and she goes from him and belongs to another man, and goes back to him again, will not that woman be absolutely polluted? but you have been prostituting your-2 self with many mates and coming back to me, quoth Jehovah. 2 Raise your eyes to the scalped hills and see where you have not been lain with; you sat by roadside for them like an Arab robber in the wilderness, and polluted the country with your prostitution and vileness.
3 3 And showers were withheld and there was no spring rain, but you 4 had a prostitute's forehead, you refused to be humiliated. 4 Have you 5 not just now been calling me "Father," "Mate of my girlhood"? 5 "Will he harbor a grudge forever, or keep it up perpetually?" Here you have talked and done the bad things and made a success."

6 6 And Jehovah said to me in the time of King Josiah "Have you seen what Inconstancy Israel did? she went on every high mountain and 7 under every verdant tree and prostituted herself there, 7 and I thought
'After she does all this she will come back to me,' but she did not.
8 8 And her sister Faithlessness Judah saw it and saw that forasmuch as Inconstancy Israel had committed adultery I had separated from her and given her her certificate of divorce, and her sister Faithless-9 ness Judah was not afraid but went and prostituted herself too, 9 and from the wantonness of her prostitution the country was polluted, 10 and she went into adultery with stones and sticks. 10 And even with all this, Faithlessness Judah did not come back to me with all her heart, but insincerely," quoth Jehovah.

11 11 And Jehovah said to me "Inconstancy Israel has shown herself more 12 honorable than Faithlessness Judah. 12 Go and call out these words northward: 'Come back, Inconstancy Israel, quoth Jehovah: I will not scowl at you again, for I am ready to be friends, quoth Jehovah, I 13 will not hold the grudge forever; 13 only be conscious of your guilt, that you have rebelled against your God Jehovah and run loose for aliens under every verdant tree and you have not obeyed me, quoth Jehovah.

14 14 "Come back, truant children, quoth Jehovah, because I have a claim to you and will take you one out of a city and two out of a clan 15 and bring you to Sion 15 and give you shepherds that are to my mind, 16 and they shall shepherd you expertly and cannily. 16 And when you multiply and are prolific in the country in those days, quoth Jehovah, they shall not still say "The ark of the covenant of the Holy One of Israel," nor shall it come into their mind; nor shall they mention it nor miss it, nor shall it be remade. 17 At that time they shall call 17 Jerusalem Jehovah's throne and all nations shall collect at Jerusalem for Jehovah's fame, and not again follow the willful way of their 18 wicked hearts. 18 In those days the house of Judah shall go to the house of Israel, and together they shall come from the north country to the country I established them in.

19 19 "But I had thought I would absolutely count you among sons and give you a choice country, an estate most splendid of the splendors of nations; and I had thought you would call me "Father" and not 20 turn back from following me; 20 yet in fact, as a woman faithlessly forsakes her mate, so you have been faithless to me, house of Israel, quoth Jehovah.
21 21 "'A voice is heard on the scalped hills, the weeping of the sons of Israel in supplication, because they have warped their courses, for-22 gotten their God Jehovah. 22 Come back, truant children, let me cure your truant habits. "Here we are, we are yours, because you are our 23 God Jehovah. 23 After all, the tallness of hills, the uproar of mountains, is a fraud; after all, it is in our God Jehovah that Israel's salvation 24 is. 24 And the Baal ate up what came of our fathers' toil from our childhood, their sheep and their cattle, their sons and their daughters.
25 25 We will lie down in our shame and let our disgrace cover us, because we have sinned against our God Jehovah, we and our fathers, from

CHAPTER 4

1 our childhood to this day, and not obeyed our God Jehovah." 1 If you come back, Israel, to me you shall come back; and if you clear away 2 your disgusting idols from before me and do not roam, 2 and swear "By Jehovah" faithfully and lawfully and honestly, nations shall bless by him and pride themselves on his friendship." 3 3 For Jehovah says to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of 4 Jerusalem "Break new ground and do not sow into thorns. 4 Circumcise yourselves to your God and cut off the foreskins from your hearts, men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, for fear my choler should start out like a fire and burn unquenchably at the wickedness of your practices.
5 5 "Announce in Jerusalem and herald in Judah, and say 'Blow a ram-horn in the country, call out at the top of your voice and say 6 "In with you, let us get into the fortified cities; 6 raise a signal at Sion, get under cover, do not stop; for I am bringing mischief out 7 of the north, and a great catastrophe. 7 A lion has come up out of its thicket, a ravager of nations is on the move; he has come out of his place to make your country a desolation, your cities shall be ruined and without inhabitant. 8 For this tie sackcloths round you, wail and howl; for Jehovah's anger has not gone back from us." ' "

9 And on that day, quoth Jehovah, the king and the generals shall be dumbfounded, and the priests shall stand aghast and the prophets be mystified, 10 and say "O, O, Lord Jehovah! why, you have been deluding this people and Jerusalem, saying 'There is to be peace' when a sword is touching the life." 11 At that time this people and Jerusalem shall be told "A wind of glaring scalped heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not for winnowing and not for cleaning, a wind too full for these is coming for me"; 12 now I will take my turn and prosecute my case against them.

13 Here he comes up like clouds and his chariot like a gale; his ponies are swifter than vultures; woe to us, we are smitten! 14 Wash your heart from wickedness, Jerusalem, that you may be saved; how long will you harbor your schemes of villainy? 15 For I hear the voice of one reporting from Dan and announcing villainy from the highland of Ephraim. 16 They have notified the nations, here they have summoned them against Jerusalem. Watchers are coming from a faraway country and have raised their voices against the cities of Judah; 17 she has them against her on all sides like field-guards, because she disobeyed me, quoth Jehovah.

18 Your course and your practices have done these things to you; this is what comes of your wickedness, that it is bitter, that it goes to your heart.

19 My vitals, my vitals! I ache in the walls of my heart; my heart is in turmoil, I am not to keep still, because my soul hears the sound of a ram-horn, the cheers of battle. 20 Disaster meets disaster, because all the country is wrecked; my homes are wrecked suddenly, my tents in a moment. 21 How long shall I see ensigns and hear ram-horn blasts?

22 Because my people are ignorant, they do not know me, they are foolish children, they are not intelligent, they are wise for doing bad things but do not know how to do good.

23 I saw on the earth and found it a blank chaos; and in the sky, and its light was not there; 24 I saw the mountains and they were shaking, and all the hills tossing; 25 I saw and found there was no humankind, and every bird of the air had taken flight; 26 I saw and found the gardenland was a wilderness and all its cities broken down before Jehovah, before his anger. 27 For Jehovah says "All the earth shall be a desolation, but I will not make it total. 28 For this the earth shall mourn and the sky turn black overhead, because I have spoken, have formed a design, and I have not repented and will not go back from it." 29 At the noise of horseman and archer every village is in flight; they have gone into the caves and hidden in the bushes and climbed the rocks; every city is deserted and there is not a man living in them. 30 And you, victim, what do you accomplish that you dress in scarlet, that you bedeck yourself with jewels of gold, that you outline your eyes with antimony? in vain you beautify yourself; gallants do not want you, they are after 31 your life. 31 For I hear a voice like a woman in childbirth, distress as if of one having a first child, the voice of the daughter of Sion panting, reaching out her hands, "O me! my being is all unstrung for killers."

CHAPTER 5

1 Range through the streets of Jerusalem, look and learn, and search her squares, whether you find a man, whether there is one that does the right thing, that aims at good faith, and I should forgive it, 2 quoth Jehovah. 2 They say "By Jehovah"; they are sworn to lies after 3 all; Jehovah, are your eyes not on the side of good faith? 3 You struck them, but they were not put out of health; you stamped them out, they refused to take a lesson; they made their faces stonier than a 4 cliff, they refused to turn back. 4 But I thought "They are just poor folks, they make fools of themselves because they do not know Jeho-5 vah's way, the law of their God; 5 I will go to the big men and talk with them, because they know Jehovah's way, the law of their God"; 6 they themselves had together broken yoke and snapped tether. 6 Therefore a lion out of badlands strikes them down, desert wolves make havoc of them, a leopard is watching by their cities—everyone who comes out of them falls a prey; because their rebellions are many 7 and their apostasies numerous. 7 On what ground should I forgive you? your sons have left me and sworn by what are not gods, and I gave them full meals and they took to adultery and colonized them-8 selves in a prostitute's house. 8 They became foddered teaser-ponies, 9 each neighing after its neighbor's wife. 9 Am I not to punish these things, quoth Jehovah, or not to have my revenge on such a nation as this?

10 Go up among its trellises and ravage, but do not give the finishing stroke; take off its tendrils, because they do not belong to Jehovah; 11 11 for the house of Israel and the house of Judah have played me false, 12 quoth Jehovah. 12 They have denied Jehovah and said "Not he; no 13 harm will come upon us, we shall not see warfare and famine; 13 the prophets will fade away, they have not the word in them; so shall 14 they be dealt with." 14 So Jehovah the God of Armies says "Since they say this thing, here I am making my word in your mouth a fire and 15 this people wood, and it shall eat them up. 15 Here I am bringing a nation against you from far away, house of Israel," quoth Jehovah;
"it is an elemental nation, it is a primeval nation, it is a nation whose 16 17 language you do not know and will not understand what they say.
16 17 16 Their quiver is an open grave; they are all champions; 17 and they will eat up your harvest and your bread, eat up your sons and your daughters, eat up your sheep and your cattle, eat up your grapevine and your fig-tree; they will lay waste with the sword your fortified 18 cities that you trust in. 18 And I will not make an end with you in those days either," quoth Jehovah.

19 19 And when they say "In return for what has our God Jehovah done all these things to us?" you shall say to them "As you left me and worshiped foreign gods in your country, so you shall be subject to aliens in a country not your own."

20 20 Tell this among the house of Jacob and give out in Judah 21 "Listen to this, foolish and senseless people that have eyes but do not see, have ears but do not hear: 22 Will you not fear me, quoth Jehovah, or be in trepidation before me, who have made sand a limit for the sea, a perpetual mark that it is not to pass? its waves roll but can do nothing, roar but do not pass it. 23 But this people has a stubborn and disobedient heart, they have broken away and gone, 24 and not said to themselves 'Let us fear our God Jehovah, who gives rain, fall rains and spring rains in season, keeping for us the system of harvest-time'; 25 your offenses have deranged these and your sins have withheld good from you. 26 For among my people are found miscreants peering as bird-catchers peer; they have set up a deadfall, they catch men; 27 just like a basket full of birds their houses are full of swindle; 28 that is how they have become great and rich and fat. They have thought, and also wrought, wicked things: they have not executed justice, the justice due to an orphan, so as to prosper, nor vindicated poor men's rights. 29 Am I not to punish these things, quoth Jehovah, or not to have my revenge on such a nation as this? 30 A burning shame and horror has come about in the country: 31 the prophets prophesy by sham inspiration and the priests give instructions on the same level, and my people love that sort of thing; and what will you do about the upshot?"

CHAPTER 6

1 1 Get under cover, sons of Benjamin, out of Jerusalem, and blow a ram-horn at Tekoa' and raise a signal at Beth-hak-Kerem, because 2 misfortune looms from the north and a great disaster. 2 To the dainty meadow, the heights of the daughter of Sion, 3 will come shepherds and their flocks; they plant their tents by it all round, they graze 4 each one his side. 4 They launch an attack against it: "Up, let us scale it in broad daylight!—Alack, the day has begun to sink, the evening 5 shadows are spreading!— 5 Up, let us scale it by night and ravage its palaces!"

6 6 For Jehovah of Hosts says "Cut its trees and throw up a ramp against Jerusalem."

7 7 Woe to the fast city with bad debts all through it! As a cistern keeps its water cool, so does she her wickedness; outrage and rapine 8 are heard of in her, sores and wounds confront me all the time. 8 Take your lesson to heart, Jerusalem, for fear my mind should be estranged from you, for fear I should make you into a desolation, an uninhabited country.

9 Says Jehovah of Armies, Look for last grapes, look for last grapes, in the remnant of Israel as if on a grapevine; pass your hand over its canes again like a grape-gatherer. 10 To whom shall I speak and warn, and have them listen? here their ears are coated over, they cannot sharpen them; here has Jehovah's word become for them a farce for which they have no fancy. 11 But I am full of Jehovah's ire, overtaxed with holding in; pour it out on child at play in the street and on coterie of young men together; for man and woman as well shall be caught, old man and oldest, 12 and their houses shall pass to others, lands and wives and all, because I will stretch out my hand over the inhabitants of the country, quoth Jehovah. 13 For from the least to the greatest they are all moneymaking; from prophet to priest they are all playing false; 14 and they have doctored my people's broken bones triflingly, saying "All right, all right," when nothing is all right. 15 They have brought shame on themselves because they have done detestable things, but they have no sense of shame, neither do they know enough to be humiliated. So they shall fall among the rest that fall, at their time of punishment they shall stumble, says Jehovah.

16 Said Jehovah, "Stand over roads and see them, and ask about old-time paths, which one is the good road, and go by it, and find ease for your souls"—and they said "We will not"; 17 "and I will set up watchmen over you; listen for the sound of a ram-horn"—and they said "We will not." 18 So listen, nations, and know, congregation of the sky; 19 listen, earth: here I am bringing ills upon this people, the fruit of their policies, because they paid no attention to my words and rejected my instructions. 20 What do I want of this, frankincense coming from Sheba and sweet flag from a distant country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable and your sacrifices are flavorless for me. 21 So Jehovah says "Here I am putting stumbling-blocks in this people's way, on which they shall stumble, fathers and sons together; neighbors and fellow-townsmen shall perish."

22 Says Jehovah, Here comes a people from northern parts, and a great nation is roused from earth's recesses, 23 wielding bow and javelin; it is cruel and unfeeling, and the sound of it roars like the sea; on ponies and chariots it is in line like a fire for battle against you, daughter of Sion. 24 We have heard the report of it and lost heart; distress has seized upon us, pangs like those of a woman in childbirth, 25 Do not go out to the fields, do not walk on the road, for there is an enemy with a sword, a terror on every side. 26 Daughter of my people, tie on a sackcloth and daub yourself with ashes; make an only son's mourning, a bitter wailing; for the ravager is coming upon us suddenly.

27 I have made you an assayer in my people, a fortress, and you are 28 to know and assay their courses. 28 They are all gone off in stubbornness, 29 scandalmongers, copper and iron; 29 they are all vicious. Bellows grow hot with fire, all the lead is used up—its smelter has smelted in vain, 30 bad parts do not break away; 30 they are called waste silver, for Jehovah has discarded them as worthless.

CHAPTER 7

1 1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah with the instruction 2 2 "Stand in the gate of Jehovah's house and proclaim this word there, and say 'Hear Jehovah's word, all Judah that come in at these gates to do reverence to Jehovah:

3 3 " 'Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, Make your courses and 4 practices good, and I will neighbor with you in this place.4Do not put trust in lying phrases, "Jehovah's temple, Jehovah's temple, Jehovah's 5 temple they are." 5 For if you shall make your courses and practices 6 good, if you shall do justice between man and man, 6 refuse it to immigrant, orphan, and widow nor shed innocent blood in this place, 7 and not follow other gods for your own harm,7I will neighbor with you in this place, in the country I gave to your fathers, from age to age; 8 but here are you putting useless trust in lying phrases.9Stealing, 9 murdering, and adultery, and false swearing and making burnings to the Baal and following other gods that you had never known—10 10 and will you come and stand before this house that wears my name and say "We are delivered" in order to do all these detestable things?
11 11Has this house that wears my name become an outlaws' cave in your 12 eyes? you will find I too have seen it all, quoth Jehovah. 12 For go to my place at Shiloh where I fixed the seat of my name at first, and 13 see what I did to it for the misdeeds of my people Israel; 13 and now as you have done all these deeds and I spoke to you and you did not 14 listen, called and you did not answer, 14 I will do to the house that wears my name in which you are putting trust, and to the place which I gave 15 to you and your fathers, as I did to Shiloh, 15 and I will throw you aside as I did your brothers, all the descendants of Ephraim.'

16 16 "And for yourself, do not pray for this people, do not put up appeal and prayer for them, do not intercede with me; for I am not 17 going to hear you. 17 Do you not see what they are doing in the cities 18 of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 18 the children are picking up wood and the fathers making the fires and the women kneading dough to make cauvan-cakes for the Queen of the Sky and pour 19 libations to other gods, to gall me. 19 Is it me they are galling? quoth Jehovah; is it not themselves, to bring shame on their faces?

20 20 "So the Lord Jehovah says, Here is my anger and resentment poured out on this place, on man and beast, on tree in the field and 21 fruit of the soil, and it shall blaze and not go out. 21 Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, Add your burnt-offerings to your sacrifices and 22 eat meat! 22 For on the day of bringing your fathers out of Egypt I did not speak with them, nor give them commands, in regard to burnt-offering and sacrifice, but gave them this command: 23 'Obey me and you shall have me for your God and I will have you for my people; and walk the road I command you all the way, that you may be well off; 24 but they did not listen nor turn their ears, but walked in their willful wicked way and became all back and no face, 25 from the day your fathers came out of Egypt to this day. And I sent to you all my servants the prophets, each one early, 26 but they did not listen to me nor turn their ears, but stiffened up their necks, did worse than their fathers. 27 And you shall speak this word to them, but they will not listen to you, and you shall call to them but they will not answer you. 28 And you shall say to them 'This is the nation that did not obey Jehovah nor take a lesson; good faith is lost out of their mouths.' 29 Shear off your locks and throw them away, and strike up a lamentation on the scalped heights; for Jehovah has repudiated and abandoned the generation he is enraged with. 30 For the sons of Israel have done what displeases me, quoth Jehovah; they have placed their disgusting idols in the house that wears my name to defile it, 31 and have built the Fire-Pit Height in Ben-Hinnom's Valley to burn up their children, which I had not commanded nor thought of.

32 "So here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, when they shall no longer say 'Fire-Pit' nor 'Ben-Hinnom's Valley' but 'Slaughter Valley,' and they shall bury in the Fire-Pit for want of room; 33 and the carcasses of this people shall become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth with nobody to alarm them. 34 And out of the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem I will abolish the voice of rejoicing and of merrymaking, the voice of bridegroom and of bride,

CHAPTER 8

1 for the country shall fall to ruins. 1 At that time, quoth Jehovah, they shall bring out the bones of Judah's kings and generals and of the priests and prophets and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of their graves 2 and spread them out to the sun and moon and all the legions of the sky, which they have loved and worshiped and followed and invoked and done reverence to; they shall not be gathered up nor buried, they shall be just dung lying over the soil; 3 and death shall be preferable to life for all the surviving remnant of this clan in all the places I have banished them to, quoth Jehovah of Armies 4 4 "And say to them 'Says Jehovah, Does one fall and not get up? or go back and not come on again? 5 how comes it this people is recreant in continuous inconstancy? they hold on to dishonesty, they refuse to turn back. 6 I have listened and heard; they are not talking straight-forwardly. There is not a man that repents of his fault with "What have I been doing?" they are everyone roving wherever they can run, 7 like a pony running about in a battle. 7 Even the stork in the sky knows its dates, and the turtledove and swallow and crane keep their times

8 for coming; but my people do not know Jehovah's law. 8 How are you to say "We are wise and have Jehovah's law on hand"? why, scribes' 9 lying pens have made it a lie.9Wise men are put to shame, dismayed and caught; for they have rejected Jehovah's word, and what do they 10 have wisdom about? 10 So I will give their wives to others, their lands 13 to dispossessors. 13 I will sweep them up, quoth Jehovah; there are no grapes on the vine and no figs on the tree, and the leaves are faded, and I have given them such as pass through them."

14 14 What are we sitting here for? in with you, let us get into the fortified cities and sink into silence there; for our God Jehovah has sunk us in silence and given us poppy-juice to drink because we had sinned 15 against Jehovah. 15 We look for things to be all right, and there is nothing good; for a time of healing, and we find dissolution.

16 16 The snorting of his ponies is heard from Dan; all the earth shakes with the sound of the neighing of his chargers; and they come and 17 eat up country and resources, city and inhabitants. 17 For here I am 18 sending you cobra snakes for which there is no charm, 18 and they will bite you incurably. I am burdened with sorrow, with an unstrung 19 heart. 19 Hark, the clamor of the daughter of my people from a far country "Is Jehovah not in Sion? is her King not in her!"

How came you to be provoking me with your carvings, your foreign 20 superstitions? 20 Harvest is past, fruit-picking is done, and we are not 21 saved. 21 At the maiming of the daughter of my people I am maimed, 22 I go black, horror has seized me. 22 Is there no balm in Gilead or is there no physician there? for how is it there is no healing coming on the

CHAPTER 9

1 wounds of the daughter of my people?1If only my head were water and my eyes a fount of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 2 If only I were in the wilderness, in a camping-place by the trail, to leave my people and go from them! for they are all adulterers, a 3 procession of faithless men, and bend their tongues as a bow;3falsehood and not good faith dominates in the country. For they proceed from wickedness to wickedness, and me they do not know, quoth Jehovah.
4 4 Beware of your friends, and do not rely on any brother; for every 5 brother will Jacob and every friend will carry scandal;5and they trifle with their word to each other and do not speak truth; they have taught their tongues to speak falsehood; they play foul, they tire themselves out weaving extortion into extortion and fraud into fraud; 6 6 they refuse to know me, quoth Jehovah. 7 So Jehovah of Armies says, Here I am going to smelt and assay them—for what am I to do on 8 account of the wickedness of the daughter of my people?8Their tongue is a throat-cutting arrow, the words of their mouths are false; one 9 talks peace to another but inwardly is laying an ambush for him.9Am

I not to punish them for these things, quoth Jehovah, or is my soul not to take its revenge on a nation such as this?

10 Over the mountains I will raise a weeping and a lament, and over wilderness pastures a threnody, because they are so singed that there is not a man passing through, they hear no sounds of stock, birds of the air and beasts and all have made off and are gone. 11 And I will make Jerusalem into stone-heaps, a retreat of jackals; and the cities of Judah I will make a desolation without inhabitant.

12 Who is the wise man to understand this, and the one to whom Jehovah's mouth has spoken, to tell it? On what account has the country perished, is it singed off like the wilderness, without any to pass through? 13 And Jehovah says "On account of their departing from my instructions which I had put before them, 14 not obeying me but following the willful way of their hearts and the Baals that their fathers had taught them." 15 So Israel's God Jehovah of Armies says "Here I am going to feed them wormwood and give them drink of poppy-juice, 16 and scatter them among the nations that they and their fathers had never known, and let the sword loose after them till I finish them."

17 Says Jehovah of Armies, Call the threnodists to come, send to the wise women to hurry up, 18 and to raise a lament over us and have our eyes run tears and our eyelashes drip water; 19 for a sound of lament is heard out of Sion "How we are made havoc of! we are in utter shame because we have left his country, because we have disclaimed our abodes." 20 For hear Jehovah's word, women, and let your ears receive the word of his mouth, and teach lamentation to your daughters and threnody to each other. 21 For death has got up to our windows, got into our palaces, destroying child at play from street, young men from squares. 22 And human carcasses will drop like dung dropped on the range and like swaths dropping behind the reaper without anyone to pick them up.

23 Says Jehovah, Let a wise man not boast of his wisdom nor a champion of his prowess; 24 let a rich man not boast of his wealth; but let the one who boasts boast of this, canny dealing and knowing me that I Jehovah do the friendly and right and fair thing in the earth, because in these things I take pleasure, quoth Jehovah.

25 Here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, when I will punish everybody who is circumcised with a foreskin: 26 Egypt and Judah and Edom and the Bene-'Ammon and Moab and all the wilderness-dwellers that are clipped at the side; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel have uncircumcised hearts.

CHAPTER 10

1 Listen to Jehovah's word which he has spoken about you, house of Israel. 2 Says Jehovah, Do not learn the way of the nations nor be apprehensive of the signs of the sky because the nations are appre-

3 hensive of them; for the usages of the nations are superstition. 3 A piece of wood that he has cut from a badlands growth, the handicraft 4 of a mechanic with a hatchet; 4 he beautifies it with silver and gold.
9 They make them fast with hammer and nails, not to totter. 9 Silver-leaf brought from Spain and gold from Uphaz, work of a mechanic and a smelter's hands, violet and purple, is their dress; they are all artists' 5 work. 5 They are like scarecrows, do not speak, have to be carried because they cannot walk; do not be afraid of them, for they do no harm, 10 neither is it in them to do good. 10 But our God is truth; he is living God and eternal King; at his wrath the earth quakes, and nations do not hold out under his hostility.

11 11 Thus you are to say to them: The gods that did not make the sky and the earth, these shall perish from the earth and from under the sky.

12 12 He who made the earth by his power, set the world firm by his 13 wisdom, and stretched the sky by his insight, 13 when he collects a drift of water in the sky and brings up vapors from earth's end, makes 14 lightnings for the rain and brings wind out of his storehouses. 14 All mankind is too stupid to know; every smelter is too ashamed for a statue, for his castings are counterfeit, they have no spirit in them.
15 15 They are nothings, a joke; at their time of punishment they perish.
16 Not like these is Jacob's portion; 16 for the Shaper of all is his inheritance, his name is Jehovah.

17 17 Get in your wares from outside, dame of Bahurim; 18 for Jehovah says "Here this time I am slinging away the inhabitants of the country and bringing them into distress in order that they may find."

19 19 Woe is me for my broken bones! my wound is gangrened; and 20 I thought "This must be an illness that I am to bear." 20 My home is wrecked and all my tent-ropes broken; my children have gone out on me and are nowhere, there is no longer anyone to spread my roof 21 and set up my tent-walls. 21 For the shepherds were stupid and did not inquire of Jehovah, therefore they did not manage right and 22 their animals scattered. 22 Hark, here comes news, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a retreat of jackals.

23 23 I know, Jehovah, that man's course does not belong to him; walking 24 and placing his step does not belong to any man. 24 Discipline me only as is due, Jehovah; not in anger, for fear you should cut me down to 25 littleness. 25 Pour out your ire on the nations that do not know you and on kingdoms that have not called on your name; for they have eaten Jacob up and cleaned him out, and desolated his ground.

CHAPTER 11

1 1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, 2 "Listen to the terms of this covenant and state them to the men of Judah and the 3 inhabitants of Jerusalem: 3 say to them 'Says Israel's God Jehovah,

4 Cursed is the man who does not listen to the terms of this covenant 4 which I enjoined on your fathers on the day that I brought them out of Egypt, out of the blast-furnace, saying "Obey me and do just as I command you, and I will have you for my people and you shall 5 have me for your God, 5 so as to make good the oath I swore to your fathers to give you a country that runs milk and honey as you have it this day." And I said "Amen, Jehovah."

6 And Jehovah said to me "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: 'Listen to the terms of this 7 covenant and live up to them. 7 For I admonished your fathers on the day I brought them out of Egypt and down to this day, admonishing 8 them early each time, "Obey me." 8 But they did not listen nor turn their ears, but each walked in his willful wicked way, and I brought down on them all the terms of this covenant which I had commanded should be lived up to and they did not live up to them.'"

9 And Jehovah said to me "The men of Judah and the inhabitants 10 of Jerusalem are detected in treason: 10 they have gone back to the offenses of their first fathers who refused to listen to my words, and have themselves gone after other gods to worship them; the house of Israel and the house of Jacob have broken my covenant that I 11 made with their fathers. 11 Therefore Jehovah says, Here I am bringing to them a calamity that they will not be able to get out of, and they 12 will cry to me and I will not listen to them; 12 and the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry to the gods they are making burnings to, but save them in their time of calamity they 13 will not. 13 For your gods are as many as your cities, Judah, and to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to the shame, altars to make burnings to the Baal.

14 "But for your part do not pray for this people, nor put up appeal and prayer for them, for I am not going to listen at the time when 15 they call to me in their time of calamity. 15 What business has my darling in my house, that has done malignantly? will cuts of fat and sacred 16 flesh take your calamity off you? then you might jubilate. 16 Jehovah has named you Stately Verdant Olive-Tree; with the sound of a great driving storm he has kindled a fire against her, and her branches 17 burn. 17 And Jehovah of Armies, who planted you, has denounced mischief against you on account of the mischiefs of the house of Israel and the house of Judah that they have been doing, provoking me, making burnings to the Baal."

18 And Jehovah enlightened me so that I knew; then I saw their 19 practices. 19 And I was like a cosset sheep being taken to slaughtering, and had not known that they had laid plans against me, "let us throw wood into his bread and annihilate him out of the world of 20 living men, and his name not be remembered again." 20 But Jehovah of Armies is an honest judge, a prober of heart and brain; I shall see your vengeance on them, because I have left my quarrel to you.

21 21 So Jehovah says of the men of Anathoth who are looking for your life, saying "You shall not prophesy in Jehovah's name, so as not to 22 die by our hands,"— 22 so Jehovah of Armies says, Here, I am punishing them: the young men shall die by the sword, the children shall die 23 by starvation, and there shall be no remnant of them; 23 for I will bring mischief upon the men of Anathoth, their year of punishment.

CHAPTER 12

1 1 You are in the right, Jehovah, when I bring charges against you, but I will just argue a case with you. How is it that wrong-doers" 2 course thrives, all faithless dealers succeed? 2 You plant them, they root, spread, bear fruit too; you are near in their mouths but far 3 from their hearts. 3 And you, Jehovah, know me, you see me, you test my mind toward you; break them out like sheep for slaughtering, 4 dedicate them for a day of killing!4How long is the earth to go mourning and the herbage all over the range to dry out? for the wickedness of those who live in it beasts and birds have come to an end, because they say "He does not see our ways."

5 5 Now that you have run with footmen and they have tired you, how will you compete with the ponies? in a civilized country you do not 6 feel safe, and how will you do in the Jordan jungle? 6 For even your brothers and your father, they too have been faithless to you; they too have called out after you at the top of their voice; do not trust them because they talk kindly to you.

7 7 I have left my house, abandoned my estate, given my soul's darling 8 into his enemies' hands. 8 My estate has become like a lion in the badlands to me; it has sounded its voice against me; therefore I have come 9 to hate it. 9 Is my estate to me a dyed bird with the birds all round against it? Come, get together all the beasts of the field, bring them 10 to eat. 10 Many grazers have pastured off my vineyard, trampled my 11 estate, 11 made out of my charming lot a desolate wilderness, rendered it a desolation, it mourns desolately for me; all the country is desolate 12 because no one pays attention. 12 Over all scalped hilltops in the wilderness have come marauders; for Jehovah has a sword that is eating from earth's end to earth's end, there is no peace for any mortal.
13 13 They have sowed wheat and reaped thorns, overworked and done no good, and are to be disappointed in their crops owing to Jehovah's anger.

14 14 Says Jehovah about all my bad neighbors that touch the estate
I have assigned to my people Israel, Here I am uprooting them off 15 their soil and uprooting the house of Judah from among them. 15 And after my uprooting them I will come back and have sympathy for 16 them and bring each back to his estate and to his country; 16 and if they shall learn my people's ways, swearing by my name, "By Jehovah," as they taught my people to swear by the Baal, they shall be 17 built up among my people; 17 but if they do not listen I will uproot that nation and destroy it as I uproot it, quoth Jehovah.

CHAPTER 13

1 1 Said Jehovah to me "Go and buy yourself a linen loincloth and place 2 it on your waist, but do not put it in water"; 2 and I bought the loincloth in accordance with Jehovah's word and placed it on my waist.
3 4 3 And Jehovah's word came to me 4 "Take the loincloth you bought, that 5 you have on your waist, and go off to the Euphrates and bury it 6 there in a fissure of the crag"; 5 and I went and buried it at the 7 Euphrates as Jehovah had ordered me to. 6 And after a long time 8 Jehovah said to me "Go off to the Euphrates and get from there the 9 loincloth I ordered you to bury there"; 7 and I went to the Euphrates 10 and dug and got the loincloth from the place where I had buried it, 11 and I found the loincloth was ruined, would not do for anything.

8 9 8 And Jehovah's word came to me 9 "Says Jehovah, Like that I will 10 ruin the great pride of Judah and of Jerusalem. 10 This wicked people 11 who refuse to listen to my words, who go their own willful way and 12 follow other gods, worshipping them and doing reverence to them, shall 13 be like this loincloth that will not do for anything. 11 For as the loincloth is made fast to a man's waist, so I made all the house of Judah fast to myself, quoth Jehovah, to be my own people and my fame 14 and praise and glory, but they did not listen. 12 And you shall say to 15 this people 'Says Israel's God Jehovah, Every cask will be filled with 16 wine'; and they will say to you 'Don't we know every cask will be 17 filled with wine?' 13 and you shall say to them 'Says Jehovah, Here I 18 am filling all the inhabitants of this country, the kings that David 19 has sitting on his throne and the priests and the prophets and Judah 20 and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness; 14 and I will 21 smash them brother against brother and the fathers and the sons together, quoth Jehovah, I will not spare nor have mercy nor have feeling against making away with them.'"

15 15 Hear and take in, do not be haughty, because Jehovah has spoken.
16 16 Give glory to your God Jehovah before it has grown dark and before 17 your feet have stumbled on the twilighty mountains and you have 18 hoped for light and he has rendered it gloom and made darkling mist.
19 17 And if you do not hear, my soul will weep in concealment over its 20 sorrow, and my eyes dissolve into tears because Jehovah's flock is 21 carried off. 18 Say to the king and the queen-mother "Sit low, because 22 your crowns of magnificence are down off your heads." 19 The cities 23 of the South are shut up and there is nobody to open; Judah is all 24 deported, deported bodily.

20 20 Raise your eyes and see those who are coming from the north; 21 where is the flock you had given to you, the flock that was your glory?
22 21 What will you say when he sets over you—and you yourself had 23 taught them against you—intimates as heads? Will not pains like 22 those of a childbearing woman seize you? 22 And whereas you say to yourself "How comes it these things have befallen me?" it is for the multiplicity of your guilt your skirts are turned up and your heels 23 treated roughly. 23 Will a Negro turn his skin, a leopard its spots? just 24 as much can you do good things, wonted to doing bad. 24 And I will 25 scatter them like straw passing on a wilderness wind. 25 This is your lot, your award for disobeying me, quoth Jehovah; for your having for-26 gotten me and put your confidence in falsities, 26 I on my part will pull your skirts up over your face and your ignominy shall be seen.

27 27 Your adulteries and indecencies, the lewdness of your unchastity on hills in the open country—I have seen your disgusting ways. Woe to you, Jerusalem! you will not be clean in nobody knows how long!

CHAPTER 14

1 1 Jehovah's word that came to Jeremiah in the matter of the hard times.
2 2 Judah is mourning and its gates are forlorn; they are in black on 3 the ground, and Jerusalem's clamor has gone up; and their grandees have sent their underlings for water; they came to trenches, did not find water, went back with their buckets empty, were ashamed and 4 humiliated and muffled their heads; 4 and the tillers of the soil are dismayed because there have been no showers in the country; plow-5 men are ashamed, muffle their heads. 5 For even a doe out on the range gives birth and leaves its offspring because no vegetation has come; 6 6 and wild asses stand on scalps panting for wind like jackals; their eyes break down because there is no herbage.
7 7 If our guilt does testify against us, Jehovah, act for us for your own sake; because our apostasies have been many, before you we have 8 sinned. 8 Hope of Israel, his savior in time of distress, why should you be like an immigrant in the country, like a traveler who has turned 9 off to spend the night? 9 Why should you be like a man in a trance, like a champion unable to bring victory? and you are among us, Jehovah, and we wear your name; do not lay us down.
10 10 Says Jehovah for this people "They have loved to tramp about so, they have put no restraint on their feet; and Jehovah has not accepted 11 them—now he will remember their guilt and punish their sins." 11 And 12 Jehovah said to me "Do not pray for this people for good; 12 when they fast I am not listening to their appeal, and when they offer burnt-offering and grain-offering I am not accepting them; for with warfare and starvation and epidemics I am going to bring them to 13 their finish." 13 And I said "O, O, Lord Jehovah, here are the prophets saying to them 'You shall not see warfare nor have starvation, for 14 I will give sure safety in this place.'" 14 And Jehovah said to me "The prophets are prophesying falsely in my name; I did not send them nor commission them nor speak to them; it is false vision and trumpety soothsaying and the humbug of their own heads that they are proph-

15 esying to you. 15 So Jehovah says of the prophets that prophesy in my name when I have not sent them, and are saying 'There shall not be warfare nor starvation in this country,' By warfare and starvation 16 those prophets shall all go; 16 and the people to whom they are prophesying shall be thrown out in the streets of Jerusalem in consequence of starvation and warfare and have nobody to bury them, they, their wives, and their children; and I will pour their wickedness upon them.
17 17 And you shall say to them this word: 'Let my eyes dissolve in tears night and day and not be still, because the maiden daughter of my people is maimed with a great breaking of bones, a very desperate 18 wound. 18 If I go out on the range I find men cut down in warfare, and if I go into the city I find the blight of starvation; for the very priest and prophet have fared to a country they did not know.' "

19 19 Have you actually repudiated Judah, or have you taken an aversion to Sion? how comes it you have struck us and there is no healing for us? we look for things to be all right, and there is nothing good; 20 for a time of healing, and we find dissolution. 20 We know our wickedness, Jehovah, our fathers' guilt, because we have sinned against you.
21 21 Do not be contemptuous, for the sake of your name; do not hold your throne of glory cheap; remember, do not break your covenant with 22 us. 22 Are there rain-senders among the nothings of heathen superstition, or will the sky give showers? are not you the one, Jehovah our God?
and we hope in you, because you made all these things.

CHAPTER 15

1 1 And Jehovah said to me "If Moses and Samuel were to stand before me, I care nothing about this people; send them out of my way and 2 have them go out. 2 And when they say to you 'Out where?' say to them 'Says Jehovah, The one that is for death for death, and the one that is for the sword for the sword, and the one that is for starvation for starvation, and the one that is for foreign slavery to foreign 3 slavery.' 3 And I will appoint over them four sorts, quoth Jehovah, the sword to kill and the dogs to drag about and the birds of the air and 4 the beasts of the earth to eat and mangle; 4 and I will give them as victims to all kingdoms on earth, on account of Manasseh the son of 5 Hezekiah, king of Judah, for all that he did in Jerusalem. 5 For who is to pity you, Jerusalem, who to lament your lot? and who to turn 6 off to ask how you do? 6 You had abandoned me, quoth Jehovah, you were backing away; and I stretched out my hand against you and 7 made away with you; I was tired of changing my mind. 7 And I winnowed you with a winnowing-fork in the gates of the cities of the country; I bereaved, destroyed my people because of their misdeeds, 8 I have let their widows be more multitudinous than the sands; 8 I have brought them to such a pass that a marauder comes at noonday upon a young man's mother; I have let fall upon them suddenly agony and 9 heart-failure. 9 She who has given birth to seven is forlorn, her life has gone out of her; her sun has set while yet it was day, she is put to shame and abashed. And the remnant of them I will give to the sword before their enemies."

10 Woe is me, mother, that you brought me forth to be a man of 11 dispute and quarreling for all the earth! I have not made loans nor 12 taken loans; everybody curses me. 11 Amen, Jehovah, if I have not 13 wrested you for good, if I have not interposed with you in time of 14 disaster and of distress toward the enemy. 12 Will one break iron, north-15 ern iron, and bronze? 15 You know! Jehovah, remember me and attend 16 to my ease, and take vengeance on my persecutors for me, not with 17 patience; recognize how I have borne taunts on your account from 18 those who despise your words. 16 Make an end of them, that your word 19 may become to me a rejoicing and a gladness because I wear your 20 name, Jehovah of Armies. 17 I did not sit in a circle of jokers and rollick; 21 because of your hand I sat by myself, because you had filled me 22 with antagonism. 18 Why is my pain permanent and my wound stubbornly incurable? you are becoming to me like a disappointing water, a water that is not to be depended on.

19 So Jehovah says "If you come back and I bring you back, you shall stand in my service; and if you pick out precious material from cheap, you shall be like my mouth: they shall come round to you and not you to them. 20 And I will give you to this people as a fortified bronze wall which they shall attack but not master, because I am with 21 you to save you and rescue you, quoth Jehovah, 21 and will rescue you out of bad men's hands and ransom you out of overbearing men's grasp."

CHAPTER 16

1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "You are not to take a wife nor 3 have children in this place; 3 for Jehovah has said of the children that 4 are born in this place and of their mothers that give them birth and 5 of their fathers that have them born in this place, 4 They will die 6 woeful deaths, will not be bewailed nor buried, will be just dung lying 7 over the soil, and will come to an end by warfare and starvation, and 8 their carcasses will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth.

5 "For Jehovah says, Do not go into a house where there is a wake, nor go to wail, nor lament over them; for I am withdrawing my goodwill from this people, quoth Jehovah, withdrawing friendship and 6 sympathy, 6 and great and small shall die in the country without being 7 buried, and they will not bewail them nor hack themselves nor go 8 bald for them, nor break bread to a mourner to comfort him for a 9 death, 7 nor hand him a comfort-cup for his father or his mother. 8 And do not go into a house where there is a banquet to sit with them to eat and drink. 9 For Israel's God Jehovah of Armies says, Here I am going to abolish out of this place before your eyes and in your days the voice of rejoicing and of merrymaking, the voice of bridegroom and of bride.

10 "And when you tell this people all these things and they say to you 'On what account has Jehovah denounced all this disaster against us? and what is our guilt, and what our sin, that we have committed 11 against our God Jehovah?' 11 you shall say to them 'On account of your fathers' having left me, quoth Jehovah, and followed other gods and worshiped them and done reverence to them, while me they left and 12 my instructions they did not observe, 12 and your having done worse than your fathers: here you are each following his own wicked willful
13 heart, not listening to me. 13 And I will hurl you off from this country to a country you and your fathers have never known, and there you will worship other gods day and night, as I will give you no grace. 14 So here come days, quoth Jehovah, that they will no longer say "By 15 Jehovah who brought the sons of Israel up out of Egypt" 15 but "By Jehovah who brought the sons of Israel up out of the northern country and out of all the countries into which he had banished them and brought them back onto the soil he had given to their fathers." 16 Here 16 I am sending for many fishermen, quoth Jehovah, and they shall fish them out; and after that I will send for many hunters and they shall hunt them out off every mountain and off every hill and out of the fissures of the crags. 17 For my eyes are on all their courses, they are not screened from before me, and their guilt is not concealed from 17 under my eyes. 18 And I will first repay double their guilt and sin, for their having profaned my country with the carcasses of their disgusting idols and filled my estate with their abominations."

19 Jehovah, my strength and stronghold and my refuge on a day of distress, to you nations will come from the ends of the earth and say 20 "Our fathers inherited mere falsehood, superstitions, and things of no use." 20 Is a man to make himself gods, when they are not gods? 21 So here 21 this time I am going to let them know, to let them know my hand and my energy; and they shall know that my name is Jehovah.

CHAPTER 17

1 1 Judah's sin is written with iron pen, engraved with diamond-tipped scraper, on the tablets of their hearts and on the horns of their altars, 2 2 as their sons remember their altars and asherahs by verdant trees on high hills, mountains of the countryside. 3 Your means and your reserve I will give for plunder in payment for all your sins throughout your 3 territory, 4 and you shall forgo your good things out of your estate that I gave you, and I will enslave you to your enemies in a country you do not know; for you have lighted a fire in my nostrils that will burn forever.

5 5 Says Jehovah, Cursed is the man that trusts to mankind and makes 6 flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from Jehovah; 6 and he will be like a savin-bush in the desert that does not see when good comes,

but occupies parched stretches of wilderness, uninhabited alkali country. 7 Blessed is the man that trusts to Jehovah and has Jehovah for his reliance; 8 and he will be like a tree set out by water and sending its roots along a stream, that does not see when heat comes, but its leaves are verdant, and in a year of shortage it feels no anxiety and does not desist from producing fruit.

9 The heart is trickier than anything and in a desperate state; who understands it? 10 I Jehovah examine brains and test hearts, to give to each man what corresponds to his courses and to the fruit of his practices.

11 One who makes a fortune without a right is a partridge, that has called young together without being their mother; in the middle of his days it will leave him, and in his latter days he will be glum.

12 A throne of glory, lofty from the first, is the place of our sanctuary. 13 Hope of Israel, Jehovah, all that leave you will be put to shame and those who turn aside from your well will come to humiliation, because they have left a fount of living water, Jehovah.

14 Heal me, Jehovah, that I may be healed; save me, that I may be saved; for you are my praise. 15 Here they are saying to me "Where is Jehovah's word? let it come true," 16 and I have not been pressing you for disaster, and have not desired a hopeless day, you know; what came out of my lips was to your face. 17 Do not expose me to dismay, 18 you my shelter in a day of distress. 18 Let my persecutors be put to shame, and not me; let them and not me be dismayed. Bring upon them a day of disaster, and break them in double breaking.

19 Said Jehovah to me, Go and stand in the Benjamin gate by which the kings of Judah go in and go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem, 20 and say to them "Hear Jehovah's word, kings of Judah and all Judah and all inhabitants of Jerusalem that come in at these gates: 21 Says Jehovah, Look out for your lives and do not carry a load on the sabbath day and bring it in at the gates of Jerusalem; 22 and you shall not take a load out of your houses on the sabbath day, nor do any work, but keep the sabbath day sacred as I commanded your fathers— 23 but they did not listen nor turn their ears, but stiffened up their necks, not listening and not taking a lesson. 24 And if you do listen to me, quoth Jehovah, not bringing a load in at the gates of this city on the sabbath day, not doing any work on it, 25 there will come in at the gates of this city kings and generals who sit on David's throne, who ride with chariots and ponies, they and their generals, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever; 26 and they will come from the cities of Judah and from the environs of Jerusalem and from the country of Benjamin and from the lowland and from the highland and from the South, bringing burnt-offering and sacrifice and grain-offering and frankincense, and bringers of thank-offering to Jehovah's house. 27 But if you do not listen to me, keeping the sabbath day sacred and not taking up a load and coming into the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day, I will set a fire in its gates and it will eat up the palaces of Jerusalem and will not die down."

CHAPTER 18

1 2 I The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, 2 "Up, go down to 3 the potter's and there I will let you hear my words." 3 And I went down 4 to the potter's and found him doing work on the wheel; 4 and when the dish he was making went wrong in the potter's hands he reworked it into another dish such as it suited the potter to make.

5 6 5 And Jehovah's word came to me 6 "Cannot I do with you as this 7 potter does, house of Israel? Here you are in my hands just like the 8 potter's clay: 7 now I threaten to uproot and pull down and destroy 9 a nation and a kingdom, 8 and that nation turns back from its wicked-10 ness and I change my mind about the harm I planned to do to it, 9 and 11 now I promise to build and plant a nation and a kingdom, 10 and it does what displeases me, not obeying me, and I change my mind about the good that I thought of doing to it.

11 11 "Now then, say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem 'Says Jehovah, Here I am working up a harm against you and forming a plan against you. Come back from your bad courses each 12 of you and reform your courses and practices.' 13 But they will say 'Not we: we will follow our own plans and each do his willful wicked way.'

13 13 "So Jehovah says, Ask among the nations who has seen the like 14 of this: maid Israel had done a very horrible thing. 14 Does one quit the Lebanon snow out of field rocks, or are cool trickling far-coming 15 waters abandoned, 15 that my people have forgotten me, are making burnings to futilities, and stumble out of their courses, the old-time 16 trails, to go the paths of an unmade road; 16 to make their country a desolation, a thing to whistle at forever, at which everyone who 17 passes it will stand aghast and shake his head? 17 Like an east wind I will scatter them before an enemy; I will show them my back and not my face on their day of calamity."

18 18 And they said "Come and let us lay a plan against Jeremiah, because a priest will never be without his rulings nor a wise man without his policy nor a prophet without his word. Come and let us strike 19 him down with our tongues and not listen to all his talk." 19 Listen to 20 me, Jehovah, and hear the voices of my antagonists. 20 Is evil to be repaid for good, that they have dug a pitfall for my life? Remember my standing before you to speak good for them, to turn back your ire 21 from them. 21 So give their sons to starvation and lay them low by the sword; let their women be childless and widowed and their men be killed off with pestilence and their youths struck down with the 22 sword in battle. 22 Let a shriek be heard from their houses when raiders come upon them suddenly, because they dug a pitfall to catch me and 23 buried traps for my feet. 23 But you, Jehovah, know their purpose against me for death; do not purge their guilt and let their sin never be wiped out from before you; let them be made to stumble before you, and deal with them at the time of your anger.

CHAPTER 19

1 Then Jehovah said to me "Go and buy an earthen bottle, and have 2 elders of the people and of the priests come,<sup>2</sup>and go out to Ben-Hinnom's Valley, at the rubbish gate, and proclaim there the words I 3 will tell you, 3 and say 'Hear Jehovah's word, kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; says Israel's God Jehovah, Here I am bringing upon this place such a disaster that when anybody hears of it his 4 ears will buzz. 4 Since they have left me and denatured this place and made burnings in it to other gods whom they and their fathers had 5 never known, and the kings of Judah have filled this place with 6 blood 5 and have built the Baal-heights to burn up their children as burnt-offerings to the Baal, which I had not commanded nor spoken 7 of nor thought of, 6 therefore here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, when this place will no longer be called "the Fire-Pit" and "Ben-Hinnom's Valley" but "Slaughter Valley"; 7 and I will frustrate the policy of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and have them fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of those who are 8 after their lives, and I will give their carcasses for food to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth,<sup>8</sup>and will make this city a deso-9 lation and a thing to whistle at; everyone who passes it will stand aghast and whistle at all its overthrow. 9 And I will feed them their 10 children's flesh, and each other's flesh they shall eat, in the hard-pressed siege with which their enemies press them'; 10 and break the 11 bottle before the eyes of the men that came with you, 11 and say to them
'Says Jehovah of Armies, Like this I will break this people and this city as one breaks an earthen dish, so that it cannot be mended again.
12 So I will do to this place, quoth Jehovah, and to its inhabitants, and 12 be making this city like a fire-pit; 13 and the houses of Jerusalem and 13 the houses of the kings of Judah will be like the place of the fire-pit, defiled, all the houses on whose roofs they made burnings to all the legions of the sky and poured libations to other gods.'"

14 And Jeremiah came from the Fire-Pit, where Jehovah had sent him to prophesy, and stood in the court of Jehovah's house and said 15 to the people 15 "Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, Here I am bringing to this city and to all its cities and villages all the disaster I have threatened it with, because they stiffened their necks, not listening to

CHAPTER 20

1 my words." 1 And Priest Pashhur the son of Immer, he being chief commissioner in Jehovah's house, heard Jeremiah uttering these proph-2 ecies, 2 and he beat the prophet Jeremiah and put him in the stocks 3 at the upper Benjamin gate in Jehovah's house.<sup>3</sup>And next day Pashhur took Jeremiah out of the stocks, and Jeremiah said to him "Jeho-

4 vah does not call you Pashhur but Terror. 4 For Jehovah says, Here I am making you a terror to yourself and to all who love you, and they will fall by their enemies' swords, your eyes seeing it; and I will give all Judah into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will
5 deport them to Babylon and strike them down with swords. 5 And I will give all the capital of this city and all its acquisitions and all its treasures and all the hoards of the kings of Judah into the hands of their enemies, and they will plunder them, and take them and
6 bring them to Babylon. 6 And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house, will go into foreign slavery; and you will come to Babylon and die there and be buried there, and all who love you, to whom you have prophesied falsely."
7 7 You inveigled me, Jehovah, and I let myself be inveigled; you were too strong for me and had your way; I have come to be a laugh all
8 day, everybody makes fun of me. 8 For as often as I speak I make outcry; I call out about outrage and violence; for Jehovah's word has become an all-day slur and gibe for me. 9 And I say "I will not mention him, nor speak again in his name"—and there is in my heart the like of a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I get worn out with 10 holding in and cannot do it. 10 For I have heard the gossip of many, terror on every side, "tell it, so we can tell"; all the men that are on good terms with me are watching for my breaking down, "maybe he will have a delusion and we shall master him and take our revenge
11 on him." 11 But Jehovah is with me like an overbearing champion; therefore my pursuers will stumble and not succeed; they are utterly put to shame, because they have not come through well, with perpetual
12 unforgettable humiliation. 12 But Jehovah of Armies is an honest prober, he sees heart and brain; I shall see your vengeance on them because I have left my quarrel to you. 13 Sing to Jehovah, praise Jehovah, because he has delivered a needy man's life from the hands of evil-doers.
14 14 Cursed be the day I was born on! be the day that my mother bore me not blessed! 15 Cursed be the man that brought my father good news, 16 "you have a son born, a male," making him glad indeed! 16 And be that man like the cities Jehovah overthrew without remorse; and may he 17 hear an outcry in the morning and yells at noontime, 17 that he did not dispatch me at birth, and my mother would have been my grave and 18 her womb permanently pregnant. 18 What did I come out of a womb for, to see toil and trouble and have my days worn out in shame?

CHAPTER 21

1 1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah when King Sidkijah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malkijah and Priest Sephaniah the son of Ma'asejah to say 2 "Inquire of Jehovah on our behalf, because the king of Babylon is making war on us: perhaps Jehovah will do with us the like of all his wonders, and he will break off his attack";
3 3 and Jeremiah said to them "This is what you are to say to Sidkijah:

4 4 'Says Israel's God Jehovah, Here I am going to turn round the weapons you have in your hands, with which you are fighting the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans that are besieging you outside 5 the wall, and get them in inside the city;5and I myself will fight you with outstretched hand and strong arm and with anger and choler 6 and great wrath; 6 and I will strike the inhabitants of this city, man 7 and beast, with a great pestilence, and they will die.7And after that, quoth Jehovah, I will give King Sidkijah of Judah and his officers and the people that are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the starvation, into the hands of their enemies who are after their lives, and they will massacre them; I will have no mercy nor tender feelings.'

8 8 "And to this people you are to say 'Says Jehovah, Here I am putting 9 before you the road to life and the road to death.9He who stays in this city will die by the sword and by starvation and by pestilence; and he who goes out to the Chaldeans that are besieging you will live, and 10 have his life for booty; 10 for I have fixed my face on this city for harm and not for good, quoth Jehovah; into the hands of the king of Babylon it will be given, and he will burn it down.'

11 11 "And for the family of the king of Judah: Listen to Jehovah's word.
12 12vHouse of David, Jehovah says 'Give just verdicts morning by morning, and take stolen goods out of a rapacious man's hands, for fear my 13 choler should start out like a fire and burn unquenchably.' 13 Have at you, inhabitant of the vale, rock of the plain, quoth Jehovah! you who say 'Who will come down on us?' and 'Who will get into our coverts?' 14 14 but I will light a fire in her bush and it shall devour on all sides of her."

CHAPTER 22

1 1 Said Jehovah, "Go down to the house of the king of Judah and speak 2 this word there: 2 say 'Hear Jehovah's word, king of Judah, you who sit on David's throne! you and your officers and your people, that 3 come in at these gates! 3 Says Jehovah, Do lawfully and honestly, and take stolen goods out of a rapacious man's hands, and do not ill-treat immigrant, orphan, and widow, do not violate their rights, and do 4 not shed innocent blood in this place; 4 for if you shall do this thing, there shall come in at the gates of this house kings that David has sitting on his throne, riding chariots and ponies, they and their officers 5 and their people; 5 but if you do not listen to these words, by myself 6 I swear, quoth Jehovah, that this house shall become a ruin. 6 For Jehovah says of the house of the king of Judah "You are to me 7 Gilead, the peak of Lebanon; depend upon it, I will render you a wilderness, an uninhabited nakedness, 7 and set ravagers at you, each with his tools, who will cut your choicest cedars and bring them down 8 for fire.8And many nations will pass this city and say to each other 9 'What did Jehovah do like that to this great city for?' 9 and they will say 'For their having quitted their God Jehovah's covenant and done reverence to other gods and worshiped them.'""

10 Do not weep for him who is dead nor lament his lot; do weep for him who has gone, because he will never come back nor see his native city. 11 For Jehovah says to Shallum the son of Josiah, the successor of his father Josiah, who has gone out from this place, he will never come back to it, 12 but in the place they deported him to he will die, and never see this country again.

13 Ha, you who build your house unrightfully and your roof apartments unlawfully, using a fellowman's work gratis and not giving him his pay; 14 you who say "I will build myself a large-sized house and spacious roof apartments" and cut yourself windows and put in cedar wainscoting and paint with vermilion! 15 Are you being king because you try for a record in cedar? Your father ate and drank and did the lawful and right thing, did he not? then he had a good time; 16 he gave verdicts for the downtrodden and needy; then it was all right; is not that what knowing me is? quoth Jehovah. 17 But your eyes and heart are on nothing but your revenue, and innocent blood to be shed, and persecution and denial of justice to be perpetrated. 18 So Jehovah says to Jehojakim the son of Josiah, the king of Judah, Woe to this man! they will not wait for him "Ah, brother! ah, sister!" 19 they will not weep "Ah, lord! ah, the majesty of him!" 19 he will be given a donkey's burial, dragged off and thrown away beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 Go up on the Lebanon and cry out, raise your voice on the Bashan, cry out from the eastern highlands, because all your lovers are broken. 21 I spoke to you in your prosperity, you said "I will not hear"; this has been your way since your girlhood, you have not obeyed me. 22 All your friends the wind will shepherd, and your lovers will go into foreign slavery; then you will be ashamed and humiliated at all your wickedness. 23 You that were living in the Lebanon, nested in the cedars, how you moan when birth-pains come to you, pangs like those of a woman in labor!

24 As I live, quoth Jehovah, if Coniah the son of Jehojakim were a signet-ring on my right hand, I would tear you off 25 and give you into the hands of those who are after your life and of those before whom you quail, into the hands of the Chaldeans, 26 and pitch you and your mother that gave you birth into another country where you were not born, and there you shall die. 27 And back to the country they count on coming back to they shall never come. 28 Is this man Coniah valueless damaged goods or an undesirable article? how comes it he and his issue are pitched out and thrown away to the country they did not know? 29 Land, land, land, hear Jehovah's word. 30 Says Jehovah, Set this man down childless of manly issue; for of his issue there will not be a successful man sitting on David's throne and ruling again in Judah.

CHAPTER 23

1 Ha, shepherds that lose and scatter the sheep of my estate! quoth 2 Jehovah. 2 So Israel's God Jehovah says of the shepherds that shepherd my people, You have scattered my sheep and sent them astray and not attended to them. Here I am going to attend to you for the wicked-3 ness of your practices, quoth Jehovah, 3 and I myself will gather the remnant of my sheep out of all the countries I have sent them astray to, and will bring them back to their pasture, and they will breed and 4 multiply, 4 and I will set up shepherds over them, who will shepherd them; and they shall not again be afraid or dismayed or missing, quoth Jehovah.

5 Here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, that I will bring up a new growth of David coming right, and a king will reign and reign well, 6 and do justice and right in the country. 6 In his time Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will dwell in security; and this is the name he will be called by, Jehovah-is-Our-Rightness.

7 So here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, that they will no longer 8 say "by Jehovah who brought up the sons of Israel out of Egypt" 8 but "by Jehovah who brought the stock of the house of Israel up and in out of the north country and out of all the countries he had sent them astray to," and they shall live on their own soil.

9 For the prophets. My heart is broken up within me; all my joints are unstrung; I have been like a drunken man and like a man wine 10 has come over, because of Jehovah and his holy words. 10 For the country is full of adulterers; for because of these the land is mourning, wilderness pastures are dried out, and their activities are harmful and their 11 energies misdirected. 11 For both prophet and priest have grown ir-religious; in my very house I find their wickedness, quoth Jehovah.
12 So their road will be to them like slippery places in murky darkness, they will bump and fall in it; for I will bring disaster upon them, the year of their punishment, quoth Jehovah.

13 And in Samaria's prophets I have seen unsoundness: they proph-14 esied by the Baal and misled my people Israel. 14 And in Jerusalem's prophets I have seen horrors: adultery and habitual falsehood, and encouraging evil-doers so that they should not turn back from their wickedness. They have all become like Sodom to me, and its inhabitants 15 like Ghomorra. 15 So Jehovah says, Here I am going to feed them wormwood and give them drink of poppy-juice, because from Jeru-salem's prophets irreligiousness has come out for all the country.

16 Says Jehovah of Armies, Do not listen to the words of the prophets that prophesy to you: they are running you into superstition; telling 17 visions out of their own heads, not from Jehovah's mouth. 17 They say to those who treat Jehovah's word with contempt "You will be all right," and to everyone who goes his willful way they say "No harm

18 will come to you." 18 For who has stood in Jehovah's circle and seen, and heard his word? who has listened for my word and heard it?

19 19 Here has Jehovah's tempest-blast come out in ire, a swirling tempest 20 that will light on wicked men's heads; 20 Jehovah's anger will not turn back till he has executed and realized the designs of his heart. In the future days you will come to an understanding of it,

21 21 I had not sent the prophets, and they ran; I had not spoken to 22 them, and they prophesied. 22 And if they did stand in my circle, let them make my people hear my words and turn them back from the wickedness of their practices. 23 Am I a God nearby, quoth Jehovah, 24 and not a God far off? 24 or will a man screen himself in places of concealment and I not see him? Do not I fill the heavens and the earth? quoth Jehovah.

25 25 I hear what the prophets say that prophesy falsely in my name "I 26 have dreamed, I have dreamed"— 26 how long? Is it in the mind of the prophets, the prophesiers of falsehood and prophets of the humbug 27 of their own hearts, 27 those who plan to make my people forget my name by their dreams that they recount to each other, as their fathers forgot my name by the Baal? 28 Let the prophet who is in possession of a dream recount his dream, and the one who is in possession of my word speak my word faithfully. "What has the straw to do among the 29 grain? quoth Jehovah. 29 Does not my word sear like fire, quoth Jehovah, and break away cliffs like a sledgehammer?

30 30 So have at the prophets, quoth Jehovah, the stealers of my words 31 from each other! 31 have at the prophets that take their tongues and bring out a "quoth"! 32 have at the prophesiers of false dreams, who have recounted them and misled my people with their falsehoods and their recklessness when I had not sent them nor commissioned them, and do this people good they will not!

33 33 And when this people or a prophet or a priest asks you "What is Jehovah's loading?" say to them "You are the loading, and I will drop you, quoth Jehovah. 34 And whatever prophet or priest or people says 'Jehovah's loading,' I will punish that man and his family. 35 You shall say man to man and brother to brother 'What has Jehovah answered?' 36 and 'What has Jehovah spoken?' and not again mention 'Jehovah's loading,' for each man would have his own word as loading, and you would upset the words of a living God, our God Jehovah of 37 Armies. 37 You shall say to this people 'What has Jehovah answered?' 38 and 'What has Jehovah spoken?' 38 and if you say 'Jehovah's loading,' therefore Jehovah says, Since you have said this word, 'Jehovah's loading,' and I have sent word to you 'You are not to say "Jehovah's 39 loading,"" 39 therefore here I am and will load myself up with you and drop you and the city I gave you and your fathers out of my way, 40 40 and will put upon you a perpetual ignominy and a perpetual, never-to-be-forgotten humiliation."

CHAPTER 24

1 1 Jehovah showed me something: there were two baskets of figs standing before Jehovah's temple, after King Nebucadnessar of Babylon had deported Jeconiah the son of Jehojakim, the king of Judah, and the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought 2 them to Babylon— 2 the one basket very good figs like the firstfruit figs, 3 and the one basket very bad figs, uneatably bad. 3 And Jehovah said to me "What do you see, Jeremiah?" and I said "Figs: the good figs very good and the bad figs very bad, uneatably bad."

4 4 And Jehovah's word came to me 5 "Says Israel's God Jehovah, Like these good figs, so I will note the deportees from Jerusalem, whom I 6 let go from this place to Chaldea, for good, 6 and will fix my eyes on them for good and bring them back to this city and build them up 7 and not tear them down, and plant them and not uproot them. 7 And I will give them a heart to know me as Jehovah, and will have them for my people and they shall have me for their God, because they shall turn back to me with all their hearts.

8 8 "And like the uneatably bad figs, says Jehovah, so I will make King Sidkijah of Judah and his generals and the remnant of Jerusalem, those that are left in this country and those that are living 9 in Egypt, victims to all kingdoms on earth; 9 a taunt, a byword, a jeer, 10 a curse, in all the places to which I banish them. 10 And I will let loose upon them warfare, starvation, and epidemics till they are gone off the soil I gave them."

CHAPTER 25

1 1 The word that came to Jeremiah about all the people of Judah in the year four of Jehojakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (which 2 was the first year of King Nebucadnessar of Babylon), 2 which he uttered about the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem:
3 3 From the year thirteen of Josiah the son of Amon as king of Judah to this year, these twenty-three years Jehovah's word has been coming to me and I have been speaking to you, early each time, and you have 4 not been listening; 4 and Jehovah has been sending to you all his servants the prophets, each one early, but you did not listen, nor turn 5 your ears to hear: 5 "Turn back from each man's bad course and from the viciousness of your practices, and live on the soil Jehovah gave 6 to you and your fathers from age to age; 6 and do not follow other gods, worshiping them and doing reverence to them, and you will not provoke me by the work of your hands and I will not do you
7 harm," 7 but you did not listen to me, quoth Jehovah, so as to provoke me by the work of your hands for your own harm.

8 8 So Jehovah of Armies says, Inasmuch as you did not listen to my words, 9 here I am going to send and take all the clans of the north, and bring them against this country and its inhabitants and against all the nations all around, and destroy them without quarter

10 and make them a desolation and a thing to whistle at and perpetual wastes, 10 and destroy out of them the voice of rejoicing and of merry-11 making, the voice of bridegroom and of bride, sound of quern and 12 light of lamp; 11 and all the country shall become a desolation, and they shall be in slavery among the nations seventy years. 12 And when 13 seventy years are full I will punish that nation and make it a perpetual desolation, 13 and will bring upon that country all my words that I have spoken about it, all that is written in this book, all that Jeremiah prophesied about all the nations.

15 15 For Israel's God Jehovah said to me "Take this cup of wine from my hand and give drinks from it to all the nations I am sending you 16 to; 16 and they shall drink and reel and go wild at the warfare that I 17 am sending between them." 17 And I took the cup from Jehovah's hand 18 and gave drinks to all the nations Jehovah had sent me to: 18 Jerusalem and the cities of Judah and its kings and generals, to give them for a 19 waste, a desolation, a thing to whistle at; 19 the Pharaoh, the king of 20 Egypt, and his officials and generals and all his people 20 and all the foreign-born population; and all the kings of the Philistine country, 21 Ashkelon and Ghaza and 'Ekron and the remnant of Ashdod; 21 Edom 22 and Moab and the Bene-'Ammon; 22 and all the kings of Tyre and all 23 the kings of Sidon and the kings of the coast beyond the sea; 23 and 24 Dedan and Tema and Buz and all that are clipped at the side 24 and all 25 the Arabs, that dwell in the wilderness; 25 and all the kings of Elam 26 and all the kings of Media; 26 and all the kings of the North, those that are near and those that are far from each other; and all the kingdoms in the world over the earth's surface.

27 27 "And say to them 'Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, Drink and grow tipsy and vomit and fall down, and you shall not get up for the 28 warfare I am sending between you.' 28 And when they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, say to them 'Says Jehovah of 29 Armies, Drink you shall! 29 for here I am beginning with the city that wears my name when I begin to do harm, and are you to go free? you will not, for I am calling warfare upon all the inhabitants of the earth.'

30 30 "And prophesy to them yourself these words, and say to them
'Jehovah will roar from on high, and make his voice heard out of his holy dwelling; over his home roar he will, with a huzzah like grape-31 treaders' he will answer all the inhabitants of the earth. 31 A crashing reaches to the edge of the earth; for Jehovah has a ease against the nations, he is putting all mortals on trial; the guilty are to be given to the sword, quoth Jehovah.

32 32 "'Says Jehovah of Armies, Here is harm going out from nation to nation, and a great tempest bursts forth from the furthest recesses 33 of earth; 33 and Jehovah's killed will be from end to end of the earth on that day, unbewailed and un-taken-up and unburied; they will 34 be just dung lying over the soil. 34 Howl, shepherds, and cry out, and daub yourselves, sheepmasters, for it is full time for your slaughtering, and I will knock you on the head and you will fall like choice rams.

35 And the shepherds shall lose the power of flight, and the sheepmasters 36 the chance of survival. 36 Hark, the outcry of the shepherds and the 37 howl of the sheepmasters! 37 for Jehovah is ravaging their pasture, and 38 peaceful leas are sunk into silence before Jehovah's anger. 38 The young lion has left his covert because their country has become a desolation before the ruthless sword and before his anger."

CHAPTER 26

1 Early in the reign of Jehojakim the son of Josiah as king of Judah 2 this word came from Jehovah: 2 Says Jehovah, Stand in the court of Jehovah's house and speak to all the cities of Judah that come in to do reverence in Jehovah's house all the words I have commanded you 3 to speak to them; 3 do not subtract a word; maybe they will listen and turn back from their wicked courses and I shall repent of the harm
I am planning to do to them for the wickedness of their practices.
4 And say to them "Says Jehovah, If you do not listen to me, going by 5 my instructions that I have put before you, 5 listening to the words of my servants the prophets whom I am sending to you, each one early, 6 but you have not listened, 6 I will make this house like Shiloh and make this city a curse for all the nations of the earth."

7 And the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah 8 speaking these words in Jehovah's house; 8 and when Jeremiah finished speaking all that Jehovah had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people arrested him, 9 saying "You shall die; 9 how came you to prophesy in Jehovah's name
"This house shall become like Shiloh and this city shall be laid waste to have no inhabitant?" and all the people assembled at Jehovah's 10 house where Jeremiah was. 10 And the generals of Judah heard these things and came up from the king's house to Jehovah's and took their seats at Jehovah's new gate. 11 And the priests and prophets said to the 11 generals and to all the people "It is a case for a sentence of death on this man, because he has prophesied to this city such things as you have heard with your own ears."

12 And Jeremiah said to all the generals and all the people "Jehovah sent me to prophesy to this house and this city all the things you have 13 heard; 13 now mend your ways and practices and obey your God Jehovah, and Jehovah will repent of the harm he has threatened you with. 14 And 14 as for me, here I am in your hands: do to me as you think best and fittest; 15 only you must know that if you are going to put me to death 15 you make yourselves and this city and its inhabitants responsible for the shedding of innocent blood, because Jehovah did in truth send me to you to utter all these things in your hearing."

16 And the generals and all the people said to the priests and the prophets "It is no case for a sentence of death on this man, because 17 it was in the name of our God Jehovah that he spoke to us." 17 And some of the oldest inhabitants stood up and said to all the assembly 18 of the people 18 "Mieajah the Morashtite was prophesying in the time of King Hezekiah of Judah, and he said to all the people of Judah 'Says Jehovah of Armies, Sion shall be plowed for field land, and Jerusalem shall be ruins and the Temple Mount a height of broken 19 rocks and scrub trees.' 19 Did King Hezekiah of Judah and all Judah put him to death? did they not fear Jehovah and propitiate Jehovah, and Jehovah repented of the harm he threatened them with? but we are going to do a great injury to our own persons."

20 But there was also a man prophesying in Jehovah's name, Urijah the son of Shema'jah from Kirjath-Je'arim, and he prophesied against this city and against this country just the same things as Jeremiah; 21 21 and King Jehojakim and all his champions and all the generals heard his words, and the king undertook to put him to death, and Urijah 22 heard and was afraid and got away to Egypt. 22 But King Jehojakim sent Elnathan the son of 'Achor and some men with him to Egypt, 23 and they took Urijah out of Egypt and brought him to King Jehojakim, and he killed him with the sword and threw his carcass into the foundlings' graveyard. 24 Only Jeremiah had the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with him to keep him from being given up to the people to put to death.

CHAPTER 27

1 1 Early in the reign of Sidkijah the son of Josiah as king of Judah 2 this word came to Jeremiah: 2 Says Jehovah to me, Make oxbows and 3 ties for yourself and put them on your neck, 3 and send them to the king of Edom and to the king of Moab and to the king of the Bene-'Ammon and to the king of Tyre and to the king of Sidon by their 4 messengers that come to Jerusalem to King Sidkijah of Judah, 4 and give them a message to their sovereigns, "Says Israel's God Jehovah
5 of Armies, You are to say to your sovereigns 5 I made the earth, man and beast that are on the surface of the earth, by my great power 6 and my outstretched arm, and I give it to whomever I see fit to; 6 and now I myself have given all these countries into the hands of my 7 servant King Nebucadnessar of Babylon, and I have given him the 8 wild beasts too to be his subjects. 8 And the nation and kingdom that does not become subject to him, King Nebucadnessar of Babylon, and that which does not put its neck under the king of Babylon's yoke, that nation I will punish with warfare and starvation and pestilence, 9 quoth Jehovah, till I get them into his hands. 9 And as for you, do not listen to your prophets and soothsayers and dreamers and fortune-tellers that are telling you "You are not to become subject to the 10 king of Babylon"; 10 for they are prophesying falsely to you so as to take you far away from your soil and have me set you adrift, and you be lost. 11 And the nation that does put its neck under the king of Babylon's yoke and become subject to him I will leave on its soil, quoth Jehovah, and it shall work it and live on it.' "

12 And to King Sidkijah of Judah I said these same things: "Put your 13 neck under the king of Babylon's yoke and become subject to him, and 14 live; 13 why should you die, you and your people, by warfare and star-15 vation and pestilence, as Jehovah has foretold to the nation that does 16 not become subject to the king of Babylon? 14 And do not listen to the 17 words of the prophets that are saying to you 'You are not to be 18 subject to the king of Babylon,' because they are prophesying falsely 19 to you; 15 for I have not sent them, quoth Jehovah, and they are proph-20 esying in my name falsely, so as to have me set you adrift and you 21 be lost, you and the prophets that are prophesying to you."

16 And I spoke to the priests and all this people, saying "Says Jeho-17 vah, Do not listen to the words of your prophets that are prophesying 18 to you 'Here are the vessels of Jehovah's house going to be brought 19 back from Babylon,' because they are prophesying falsely to you; I 20 did not send them. 18 If they are prophets and have Jehovah's word with 21 them, let them intercede with me; 19 for Jehovah says of the pillars and 22 the sea and the bases and the rest of the vessels 20 that the king of 23 Babylon did not take when he deported Jeconiah out of Judah, 22 They 24 shall come to Babylon, quoth Jehovah."

CHAPTER 28

1 In the same year, early in the reign of King Sidkijah of Judah, 2 in the year four, in the fifth month, the prophet Hananiah the son 3 of 'Azzur from Gibeon said to me before the eyes of the priests and 4 all the people 2 "Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, I have broken 5 the king of Babylon's yoke; 3 in two years' time more I am going to 6 bring back to this place all the vessels of Jehovah's house that King 7 Nebucadnessar of Babylon took from this place and brought to Bab-8 ylon; 4 and Jeconiah the son of Jehojakim, king of Judah, and all the 9 deportees of Judah who came to Babylon, I am going to bring back to 10 this place, quoth Jehovah, because I will break the king of Babylon's 11 yoke."

5 And the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah before 6 the eyes of the priests and of all the people that were standing in 7 Jehovah's house 6 "Amen; may Jehovah do so; may Jehovah make good 8 your words that you have prophesied, bringing back the vessels of 9 Jehovah's house and all the deportees from Babylon to this place.

7 Only listen to this word that I am going to speak for you and all 8 the people to hear. 8 The prophets that there were before you and me, 9 in the old times, prophesied about many countries and great kingdoms 10 for war, mischief, and pestilence. 9 The prophet that prophesies for good 11 times—when the prophet's word comes in, the prophet will be known 12 to have been really sent by Jehovah."

10 And the prophet Hananiah took the oxbow off the prophet Jere-

11 miah's neck and smashed it; 11 and Hananiah said before the eyes of all the people "Says Jehovah, Like that I will break King Nebucadnessar of Babylon's yoke off the necks of all the nations." And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 12 But Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah after the prophet Hananiah 13 broke the oxbow off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, 13 "Go and say to Hananiah 'Says Jehovah, You have broken wooden bows, but you are 14 to make iron ones instead. 14 For Israel's God Jehovah of Armies says, I have put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations to be subjects of King Nebucadnessar of Babylon, and his subjects they shall be; 15 and I have given him the wild beasts too.'" 15 And the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah "Listen, Hananiah: Jehovah did not send you, and you have been making this people put confidence in a 16 falsehood: 16 so Jehovah says, Here I am sending you off the earth.
This year you die, because you have spoken wrongfully against Jeho-17 vah." And the prophet Hananiah died in that year, in the seventh month.

CHAPTER 29

1 1 And these are the words of the letter the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders of the deportees and to the priests and the prophets and all the people that Nebucadnessar had 2 deported from Jerusalem to Babylon, 2 after King Jeconiah and the queen-mother and the eunuchs and the generals of Judah and Jeru-3 salem and the carpenters and smiths had gone out of Jerusalem, 3 by Elesah the son of Shaphan and Gemariah the son of Hilkijah, whom King Sidkijah of Judah sent to Babylon to King Nebucadnessar of Babylon:

4 4 Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies to all the deportees whom I 5 have deported from Jerusalem to Babylon, 5 Build houses and live in 6 them and plant gardens and eat their fruit; 6 take wives and have children, and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands and let them have children, and multiply and do not 7 dwindle; 7 and strive for the welfare of the country I have deported you to, and pray for it to Jehovah, because in its welfare you will have welfare.

8 8 For Israel's God Jehovah of Armies says, Do not let your prophets that you have among you, and your soothsayers, delude you, and do 9 not listen to their dreams that they have, 9 because they are prophesying 10 falsely to you in my name; I did not send them, quoth Jehovah. 10 For Jehovah says, As soon as Babylon has had a full seventy years, I will look after you and keep my good word for you, bringing you back 11 to this place. 11 For I know the thoughts I am thinking about you, quoth Jehovah, thoughts of your welfare and not for mischief, to give you 12 a future and a hope. 12 And you shall call me and go and pray to me 13 and I will listen to you, 13 and you shall look for me and find me because

14 you resort to me with all your hearts. 14 And I will let myself be found by you, quoth Jehovah, and will bring you back from captivity and gather you out of all the nations and places to which I have banished you, quoth Jehovah, and bring you back to the place that I deported you from,— 15 because you say "Jehovah has raised up prophets for us at Babylon."

16 For Jehovah says to the king that is sitting on David's throne and to all the people that are living in this city, your brothers that did not go out into deportation with you— 17 says Jehovah of Armies, Here I am turning loose on them warfare, starvation, and pestilence, and will make them like horrible figs, uneatably bad, 18 and hunt them down with warfare, starvation, and pestilence, and give them as victims to all the kingdoms of the earth, a thing to be cursed by and to appall and to be whistled at and to be taunted among all the nations where I have banished them, 19 to pay for their not having listened to my words, quoth Jehovah, inasmuch as I sent them my servants the prophets, each one early—and you did not listen, quoth Jehovah.

20 Listen to Jehovah's word, you, all the deportees that I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon: 21 says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies to Ahab the son of Kolaiah and to Sidkijah the son of Ma'asejah, who are prophesying falsely to you in my name, Here I am going to give them into the hands of King Nebucadressar of Babylon and he will kill them before your eyes, 22 and all the deportees of Judah in Babylon will use a curse taken from them, "Jehovah make you like Sidkijah and Ahab whom the king of Babylon roasted at a fire," 23 since they made a scandal in Israel and committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and spoke in my name a word which I had not commissioned them to, I knowing it and bearing witness of it, quoth Jehovah.

24 And Shema'iah the Nehelamite said 25 "Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies" and sent letters in his name to all the people in Jerusalem and to Priest Sephaniah the son of Ma'asejah and to all the priests, 26 "Jehovah has put you in as priest, Priest Jehojada's successor, to be commissioner in Jehovah's house for any man that goes insane and takes to prophesying, and to put him in the stocks and the bilboes. 27 Now why have you not checked Jeremiah the 'Anathothite who has taken to prophesying to you, 28 seeing that he has sent word to us at Babylon 'It will be long-lasting; build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit'?" 29 And Priest Sephaniah read the letter to the prophet Jeremiah. 30 And Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah, 31 "Send word to all the deportees, 'Says Jehovah for Shema'iah the Nehelamite, Since Shema'iah has been prophesying to you when I had not sent him and making you put confidence in a falsehood, 32 therefore Jehovah says, Here I am going to punish Shema'iah the Nehelamite and his issue: he shall not have a man that will live among this people, and shall not have a sight of the good I am going to do to this people, quoth Jehovah, because he has spoken wrongfully against Jehovah."

CHAPTER 30

1 2 1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, 2 "Says Israel's God Jehovah, Write all these words that I have spoken to you in a book.
3 3 For here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, when I will come back to my people Israel and Judah, says Jehovah, and bring them back to 4 the country I gave their fathers, and they shall possess it." 4 And 5 these are the words Jehovah has spoken of Israel and Judah. 5 For 6 Jehovah says, A sound of panic I hear, terror and unpeace. 6 Ask and see if a male bears a child! how comes it I see every man with his hands on his hips like a childbearing woman, and all faces are turned 7 green? 7 Ha, for that day is great beyond comparison! and it is a time of distress for Jacob, but he shall be saved out of it.

8 8 And on that day, quoth Jehovah of Armies, I will break his yoke off your neck and snap your tether. And strangers shall no longer ex-9 ploit them; 9 but they shall serve their God Jehovah and their king 10 David, whom I will raise up for them. 10 And do not you be afraid, my servant Jacob, quoth Jehovah, and do not be dismayed, Israel, because here I am saving you out of distant places and your stock out of the country of their captivity, and Jacob shall come back to living quietly 11 and at ease with nobody to alarm him; 11 for I am with you to save you, quoth Jehovah. For I will make an end among all the nations where I have scattered you, only not make an end of you, but discipline you duly and not let you off.

12 12 For Jehovah says, Your broken bones are in a desperate state, your 13 wound is gangrened. 13 There is no one to take your part; you have no 14 cure of healing over for the fester. 14 All your lovers have forgotten you; they are not looking you up; for I have dealt you an enemy's blow, a cruel punishment, for the multiplicity of your guilt, the enormity of 15 your sins. 15 Why do you cry out over your broken bones? your sore is desperate; for the multiplicity of your guilt, the enormity of your 16 sins, I have done these things to you. 16 So all who eat you shall be eaten, and all your foes shall go into slavery, and your pillagers shall be for pillage, and all your plunderers I will give up to plunder.
17 17 For I will make sound flesh grow up in you, and cure you of your wounds, quoth Jehovah. Because they call you a stray, "she is fair 18 game for us, no one is looking out for her," 18 Jehovah says "Here I am coming back to Jacob's tents and will take pity on his lodges; and a city shall be rebuilt on its old site and a palace duly occupied, 19 and out of them will come praise and the voice of merrymakers; 19 and I will multiply them so that they shall not be few and augment 20 them so that they shall not be puny. 20 And his sons shall be as they primitively were, and his community shall be firmly seated before me, and I will punish all his oppressors; 21 and his dominator shall be 21 one of his own number and his ruler shall come out of his own midst, and I will grant him access and he shall approach me; for who is there that guarantees his courage to approach me? quoth Jehovah."

23 23 Here has Jehovah's tempest-blast come out in ire, a swirling tempest 24 that will light on wicked men's heads; 24 Jehovah's anger will not turn back till he has executed and realized the designs of his heart. In the future days you will come to an understanding of it.

CHAPTER 31

1 1 At that time, quoth Jehovah, Israel's clan shall have me for their 2 God and I will have them for my people. 2 Says Jehovah, A people of survivors from the sword has found favor in the wilderness; Israel 3 walks at ease. 3 Jehovah has appeared to me from afar: "I love you 4 with perpetual love, therefore I stand your friend. 4 I will build you up again, built up you shall be, maid Israel; again you shall dress up with your tambourines and go out in a dance of merrymakers.
5 5 Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountainsides of Samaria, 6 plant and harvest; 6 for there comes a day when on the highland of Ephraim keepers shall call 'come on, let us go up to Sion to our God
Jehovah.'"

7 7 For Jehovah says, Shout gladness to Jacob and whoop at the head of the nations; proclaim, praise, and say "Jehovah has saved his 8 people, the remnant of Israel." 8 Here I am bringing them from the north country and gathering them from the recesses of earth; among them blind man and lame man, pregnant woman and woman giving 9 birth together, a great assembly they shall come back here. 9 In weeping they shall come, and in supplications I will bring them on; I will take them to arroyos of water by a smooth road that they will not stumble on, because I have become father to Israel and Ephraim is my firstborn son.

10 10 Listen to Jehovah's word, nations, and tell it on far-off coasts, and say "He who dispersed Israel will gather them and will guard 11 them as a shepherd does his flock; 11 for Jehovah has redeemed Jacob 12 and recovered him out of the hands of one stronger than he. 12 And they will come and shout on the summit of Sion, and will stream to Jehovah's good things, to grain and grape-juice and oil and young 13 beasts of flock and herd, and their state will be like a watered garden, and never again shall they despair. 13 Then will maiden in dance make merry, and young men and old together, and I will turn their mourning to rejoicing and comfort them and gladden them out of all their 14 sorrow. 14 And I will refresh the priests' energies with rich food, and my people shall eat their fill of my good things, quoth Jehovah."

15 15 Says Jehovah, A voice is heard at Ramah, lament and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping over her children, refusing to take comfort, be-16 cause they are gone. 16 Says Jehovah, Restrain your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears; for your work gets its pay, quoth Jehovah, 17 and they will come back from an enemy's country; 17 and your future has a hope, quoth Jehovah, and sons will come back to their territory.
18 18 I hear Ephraim making his pathetic appeal, "You disciplined me and I yielded to discipline, like an untrained calf; bring me back and back 19 I will come, for you are my God Jehovah. 19 For after I went back I repented, and after I was given instruction I hit my thigh; I am ashamed and humiliated, because I have borne the disgrace of my 20 youth." 20 Is Ephraim to me a specially hopeful son or a petted child, that as often as I mention him I keep remembering him? for this reason my bosom is in a turmoil over him; be kind to him I will, quoth Jehovah.

21 21 Set markers, place guideposts, fix your mind on the highway, the way you went; come back, maid Israel, come back to these cities of 22 yours. 22 How long will you be dodging away, contrary daughter? For Jehovah has created a new thing on earth: a female goes round a 23 man. 23 Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, They shall again say this thing in the country and cities of Judah when I come back to 24 them: "Jehovah bless you, holy ground, sacred highland"; 24 and Judah and all its cities shall be settled in it together, plowmen and men 25 marching off with flocks, 25 because I have refreshed a fainting soul and fed full every soul that was despairing.

26 26 Upon this I woke and saw; and my sleep had been sweet to me.

27 27 Here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with seed of man and seed of cattle; 28 28 and as I have paid attention to them to uproot and pull down and demolish and destroy and do harm, so I will pay attention to them to 29 build and plant, quoth Jehovah. 29 In those days they shall no longer say "Fathers ate green grapes and children's teeth are set on edge," 30 because each shall die for his own guilt; 30 every man that eats the green grapes shall have his teeth set on edge.

31 31 Here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, that I will make a new 32 covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah— 32 not like the covenant I made with their fathers on the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of Egypt, inasmuch as they broke my 33 covenant and I was estranged from them, quoth Jehovah, 33 for this is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days, quoth Jehovah: I will put my instructions within them and write them on their hearts, and they shall have me for their God and I 34 will have them for my people, 34 and they shall no longer teach each other "Know Jehovah," because they shall all of them know me from the least to the greatest, quoth Jehovah; for I will forgive their guilt and no longer remember their sin.

35 35 Says Jehovah who gives a sun for light by day, a system of moon and stars for light by night, who stirs the sea and its waves roar—36 his name is Jehovah of Armies: 36 If these laws of nature lose their standing before me, quoth Jehovah, so shall Israel's descendants cease 37 from being always a nation before me. 37 Says Jehovah, If the skies are moved above and earth's foundations are explored beneath, so will I repudiate also Israel's descendants for all that they have done, quoth Jehovah.

38 Here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, when the city shall be built 39 up for Jehovah from Hananel's tower to the corner gate, 39 and the measuring-line shall go straight ahead to Gareb Hill and around to 40 Go'ah; 40 and all the vale, the corpses and the fat-ashes, and all the terraces to the bed of Kidron Arroyo, to the Pony-Cate corner to the east, shall be sacred to Jehovah; it shall not be uprooted or demolished.

CHAPTER 32

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the year ten of King Sidkijah of Judah, which was the year eighteen of Nebucad-2 ressar; 2 the king of Babylon's forces were then besieging Jerusalem, and the prophet Jeremiah was shut up in the court of the guard in 3 the palace of the king of Judah, 3 King Sidkijah of Judah having shut him up with the words "How is it you are prophesying 'Says Jehovah, Here I am going to give this city into the hands of the king of Bab-4 ylon and he shall take it; 4 and King Sidkijah of Judah shall not escape out of the Chaldeans' hands, but given into the hands of the king of Babylon he shall be, and his mouth shall speak with his and his 5 eyes shall see his, 5 and to Babylon he shall take Sidkijah and there he shall be till I look after him, quoth Jehovah; when you fight the Chaldeans you will not succeed?"

6 And Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah 7 "Here is your uncle Shallum's son Hanamel going to come to you saying 'Buy for your own my field at 'Anathoth, because you have the redemption right to 8 buy it.'" 8 And my cousin Hanamel came to me in the court of the guard in accordance with Jehovah's word and said "Please buy my field at 'Anathoth in Benjamin, because you have the right to take 9 possession and you have the redemption." And I knew it was what Jehovah had spoken of, 9 and I bought the field from my 'Anathoth cousin Hanamel and weighed him out the money, seventeen shekels 10 of silver. 10 And I wrote the paper and sealed it and had it witnessed, 11 and weighed out the money with the scales, and took the deed— 11 the 12 sealed, the conveyance and the delimitation, and the open— 12 and gave it to Baruc the son of Nerijah the son of Mahsejah before the eyes of my cousin Hanamel and of the witnesses who had subscribed the deed, before the eyes of all the Judahites who were sitting in the 13 14 court of the guard, 13 and before their eyes I instructed Baruc 14 "Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, Take these papers, this sealed deed and the open paper, and put them in an earthen jar so as to let them 15 stand a long time. 15 For Israel's God Jehovah of Armies says, Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this country."

16 And after I had given the deed to Baruc the son of Nerijah I 17 prayed to Jehovah, 17 "O, O, Lord Jehovah! it was you that made the 18 heavens and the earth by your great power and your outstretched 19 arm; nothing is impossible to you. 18 Befriender of thousands and re-20 payer of fathers' guilt into the laps of their children after them, 21 great and puissant Deity whose name is Jehovah of Armies, 19 great in 22 purpose and abundant in deed, whose eyes are over all the courses 23 of mankind to give to each in accordance with his course and with 24 the desert of his practices, 20 you who produced signs and miracles in 25 Egypt to this day and in Israel and in the human race and made 26 yourself famous as at this day, 21 and brought your people Israel out 27 of Egypt with signs and miracles and with a strong hand and an 28 outstretched arm and with great terror, 22 and gave them this country 29 that you had sworn to their fathers to give them, a country that 30 runs milk and honey, 23 and they came in and took possession of it but 31 did not obey you nor go by your instructions, did not do any of the 32 things you commanded them to do, and all this disaster has befallen 33 them: 24 here have the ramps come to the city to take it, and in con-34 sequence of the losses in fighting, the starvation, and the fever, the 35 city is given into the hands of the Chaldeans that are attacking it, and what you threatened has come to pass and you see it; 25 and you say to me, Lord Jehovah, 'Buy the field for money and have the deed witnessed,' when the city is given into the hands of the Chaldeans."

26 27 26 And Jehovah's word came to me 27 "Here, I am Jehovah, God of all 28 mortals; is anything impossible to me? 28 So Jehovah says, Given into the 29 hands of the Chaldeans and of King Nebucadressar of Babylon this 30 city shall be, and he shall take it; 29 and the Chaldeans that are attacking 31 this city shall come in and set this city on fire and burn the houses 32 on whose roofs they made burnings to the Baal and poured libations 33 to other gods to provoke me; 30 for the sons of Israel and of Judah have 34 been doing altogether what displeased me since their childhood. 31 For 35 this city has been offensive and irritating to me from the day that they built it to this day, to get itself removed from before my face 32 for all the wickedness of the sons of Israel and of Judah that they have committed to provoke me, they, their kings, their generals, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah and the in-33 habitants of Jerusalem, 33 and have turned their backs and not their 34 faces to me; and I taught them, early each time, but they did not 35 listen to get instruction; 34 and they placed their horrors in the house that wears my name, to defile it, 35 and they built the Baal-heights in Ben-Hinnom's Valley to send their children over to Melec, which abomination I had not commanded them to commit, nor thought of it, so as to set Israel to sinning.

36 36 "So I God Jehovah say now of this city of which you are saying 'it 37 is given into the hands of the king of Babylon by the losses in fighting and the starvation and the fever': 37 Here I am going to gather them out of all the countries to which I banished them in my anger and 38 choler and in great wrath, and will bring them back to this place and 39 settle them in security; 38 and I will have them for my people and they shall have me for their God. 39 And I will give them one heart and one course, to fear me always for their good and the good of their children 40 after them; 40 and I will make with them a permanent covenant that I will not turn back from following them up to do them good, and will put my fear in their hearts so that they shall not swerve from 41 my line. 41 And I will delight in doing them good, and will plant them in this country in good faith with all my heart and soul.

42 42 "For Jehovah says, As I have brought to this people all this great harm, so I am going to bring over them all the good that I am promis-43 ing for them; 43 and the land shall be bought in this country which you are saying is a desolation without man or beast, given into the 44 hands of the Chaldeans: 44 they shall buy lands for money, and write deeds and seal them and have them witnessed, in the country of Benjamin and in the environs of Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah, the cities of the highland and those of the lowland and those of the South; for I will reinstate them, quoth Jehovah."

CHAPTER 33

1 1 And Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was 2 still confined in the court of the guard, 2 "Says Jehovah, he who made 3 earth and shaped it to have it in order,—his name is Jehovah,— 3 Call to me and I will tell you of great and inscrutable things which you 4 had not known. 4 For Israel's God Jehovah says as to the houses of 5 this city and the palaces of the kings of Judah that are pulled down and as to the ramps and swords 5 that are come to attack with the Chaldeans and to be filled with the corpses of the men whom I have 6 struck down in my anger and choler and for whose viciousness I have veiled my face from this city, 6 Here I am going to set it to healing and recovering, and I will cure it; and I will disclose to them a 7 gracious disposition toward peace and faithfulness, 7 and I will come back to Judah and to Israel and will build them up as at the first; 8 8 and I will cleanse them from all the guilt of their sins against me, and 9 forgive all the guilt of their sins and crimes against me; 9 and I will have it for a joyous fame and for praise and for glorious display to all the nations on earth, who shall hear all the good I am doing to them, and shall be in panic and quake at all the good and welfare I am making for it.

10 10 "Says Jehovah, In this place that you speak of as a waste without man or beast, in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem which 11 are desolated without man or beast, there shall yet be heard 11 sounds of rejoicing and merrymaking, voices of bridegroom and bride, voices of men saying 'Give thanks to Jehovah of Armies because Jehovah is good, because his friendship is forever,' bringing thank-offerings into Jehovah's house, because I will restore the country to be as it was at first, says Jehovah.

- 12 "Says Jehovah, In this place that is laid waste without man or 13 picking out sleeping-places for sheep; 13 in the cities of the highland and in the cities of the lowland and in the cities of the South and in the Benjamite cities and the environs of Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah the sheep shall again pass by the counter's hands, says Jehovah."

CHAPTER 34

- 1 1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah while King Nebucadnessar of Babylon and all his forces and all his realm were attacking 2 Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah: 2 Says Israel's God Jehovah, Go to King Sidkijah of Judah and say to him "Says Israel's God 3 Jehovah, Here I am giving this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it down; 3 and you will not escape from his hands, but will be captured and put into his hands, and your eyes shall see the king of Babylon's eyes and his mouth shall speak 4 with your mouth, and to Babylon you shall come. 4 Only listen to Jehovah's word, Sidkijah, king of Judah: says Jehovah for you, 5 5 You shall not die by the sword: you shall die in peace, and they shall make a burning for you like the burnings for your fathers the early 6 kings before your time, and wail for you 'Ah, lord!' for I have made a promise, quoth Jehovah." 6 And the prophet Jeremiah said all these 7 things to King Sidkijah of Judah 7 while the forces of the king of Babylon were attacking Jerusalem and the only Judahite cities that were left—Lakish and 'Azekah, because those were what fortified cities remained among the cities of Judah.
- 8 8 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah after King Sidkijah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to proclaim 9 liberty to them, 9 to have each man let his Hebrew slave go free, that 10 no one should hold them, his brother Jews, in slavery, 10 and all the generals and all the people that took the pledge to let their respective slaves go free, no longer holding them in slavery, had complied and 11 let them go, 11 but afterward had faced about and taken back the slaves 12 they had let go free and reduced them to slavery again: 12 Jehovah's 13 word came from Jehovah to Jeremiah, 13 "Says Israel's God Jehovah, I made a covenant with your fathers on the day I brought them out 14 of the slave-quarters in Egypt, in these terms: 14 'At the end of seven years each of you shall let go his Hebrew brother who is sold to you;
he shall serve you six years and you shall let him go from you free'; 15 but your fathers did not listen to me nor turn their ears my way. 15 And you had today faced about and done what I approved, proclaiming liberty to each other, and had made a covenant before me in the 16 house that wears my name; 16 but you have gone back and profaned my name and taken back your respective slaves whom you had let go free to do as they chose, and reduced them to being slaves to you again.

17 "So Jehovah says, You have not listened to me to proclaim freedom to your brothers and comrades: here I am proclaiming you free, quoth Jehovah, to the sword and the pestilence and the famine, and making you victims to all kingdoms on earth; 18 and the men that have overstepped my covenant, in that they did not make good the terms of the covenant they made before me when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts, 19 the generals of Judah and of Jerusalem, the eunuchs and the priests and all the common people, who passed between the parts of the calf, 20 I will give into the hands of their enemies and of those who are looking for their lives, and their carcasses shall become food for the birds of the air and for the beasts of the earth; 21 and King Sidkijah of Judah and his generals I will give into the hands of their enemies and of those who are looking for their lives and of the forces of the king of Babylon who have raised the siege; 22 here I give the order, quoth Jehovah, and they shall come back to this city and attack it and take it and burn it down; and the cities of Judah I will make an uninhabited desolation."

CHAPTER 35

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the days of Jehojakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: 2 "Go to the house of the Recabites and speak to them, and bring them to Jehovah's house, to one of the vestries, and give them a drink of wine." 3 And I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah the son of Habassaniah and his brothers and all his sons and all the house of the Recabites, 4 and brought them to Jehovah's house, to the vestry of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah the man of God, which is alongside the singers' vestry, which is over the vestry of Ma'asejah the son of Shallum, guardian of the threshold; 5 and I put before the sons of the house of the Recabites a bowl full of wine, and cups, and I said "Have a drink of wine." 6 But they said "We do not drink wine, because our father Jonadab the son of Recab gave us a command 'You shall not drink wine, you nor your sons, forever, 7 nor build a house nor sow seed nor set out a vineyard, nor have them, but live in tents all your days, in order that you may long remain alive over the soil on which you find your homes'; 8 and we have obeyed our father Jonadab the son of Recab as to all the commands he gave us, not drinking wine all our days, ourselves nor our wives nor our children, 9 and not building houses to live in nor having vineyard or field or crop, but living in tents; 10 we have obeyed and lived up to all the commands our father Jonadab gave us. 11 But when Nebucadnessar was coming up into the country we said 'Come, let us go into Jerusalem for fear of the Chaldean and Syrian forces,' and we came to live in Jerusalem."

12 13 12 And Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah 13 "Says Jehovah, Go and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem 'Will you 14 not learn the lesson of listening to my words? quoth Jehovah. 14 The words of Jonadab the son of Recab in which he commanded his sons not to drink wine have been lived up to, and they have not been drinking it to this day, because they have listened to their father's command; but I have been speaking to you, early each time, and you 15 have not listened to me. 15 And I sent you all my servants the prophets, each one early, to say "Turn back from your wicked ways and reform your practices, and do not follow other gods, worshiping them, and you shall live long on the soil I gave to you and your fathers," but you 16 did not turn your ears nor listen to me. 16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Recab have lived up to their father's commandments that he gave them, but this people have not listened to me, 17 therefore Israel's 17 God Jehovah says, Here I am bringing to Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the calamity I have threatened them with, since I spoke to them and they did not listen, called to them and they did not answer."

18 18 And to the house of the Recabites Jeremiah said "Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, Inasmuch as you have listened to the commandment of your father Jonadab and observed all his commandments 19 and done just as he commanded you to, 19 therefore Israel's God Jehovah of Armies says, There shall at no time cease to be men standing before me who come of Jonadab the son of Recab."

CHAPTER 36

1 1 And in the year four of Jehojakim the son of Josiah, king of 2 Judah, this word came from Jehovah for Jeremiah: 2 "Take a book-roll and write on it all the words I have spoken to you about Jerusalem and about Judah and about all the nations from the day I spoke to 3 you, from Josiah's time to this day; 3 maybe the house of Judah will hear all the harm I am planning to do to them so that they will turn back from their bad courses and I shall forgive their guilt and sin." 4 4 And Jeremiah called Baruc the son of Nerijah, and he wrote on a book-roll at Jeremiah's dictation all the words Jehovah had spoken 5 to him. 5 And Jeremiah gave Baruc the commission "I am debarred, I 6 cannot go into Jehovah's house; 6 you go in and read Jehovah's words in Jehovah's house on a fast day, in the hearing of the people, out of the roll you wrote at my dictation, and read them in the hearing of 7 all Judah that come in out of their cities too. 7 Maybe their appeal will be laid before Jehovah and they will turn back from their bad courses, because great is the anger and displeasure that Jehovah has announced 8 toward this people." 8 And Baruc the son of Nerijah did just as the prophet Jeremiah had commissioned him to, and read Jehovah's words out of the book in Jehovah's house.

9 9 And in the year five of Jehojakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, at the ninth new moon, all the people had proclaimed a fast before Jehovah at Jerusalem, and all the people that came in from the cities 10 of Judah were in Jerusalem, 10 and Baruc read Jeremiah's words out of the book in Jehovah's house, in the office of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the uppermost court, at the new gate of Jeho-11 vah's house, in the hearing of all the people. 11 And Micajah the son of Gemariah the son of Shaphan heard all Jehovah's words out of the 12 book, 12 and went down to the palace, to the secretary's office, and found all the generals sitting there, Secretary Elishama' and Delaiah the son of Shema'iah and Elnathan the son of 'Acbor and Gemariah the son of Shaphan and Sidkijah the son of Hananiah and all the generals; 13 13 and Micajah told them all the things he had heard as Baruc read in the hearing of the people. 14 And all the generals sent Jehudi the son 14 of Nethaniah the son of Shelemiah the son of Cushi to Baruc with the message "Take the roll you have read out of in the hearing of the people and come"; and Baruc the son of Nerijah took the roll and came 15 to them. 15 And they said to him "Sit down and read to us"; and Baruc 16 read to them. 16 And when they heard all the words they looked at each other in alarm and said to Baruc "We shall tell the king all these 17 things." 17 And they asked Baruc "Tell us how you wrote all these things 18 at his dictation"; 18 and Baruc said to them "He dictated all these things 19 to me by word of mouth, and I wrote them in the book with ink." 19 And the generals said to Baruc "Go and get under cover, you and Jeremiah, and do not have anybody know where you are."

20 20 And they went in to the king in the palace court; and the roll they had deposited in Secretary Elishama's office. And they reported all 21 these things before the king; 21 and the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll, and he fetched it out of Secretary Elishama's office. And Jehudi read it before the king and all the generals that were standing by the 22 king. 22 And the king was sitting in the winter house, in the ninth 23 month, and had the brazier-fire burning before him; 23 and when Jehudi had read three or four columns he would cut it off with his penknife and throw it in the fire in the brazier till the whole roll was gone 24 in the fire in the brazier; 24 and the king and all his officers who heard all 25 these things were not alarmed and did not tear their clothes. 25 And Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah even protested to the king against 26 the burning of the roll, but he did not listen to them. 26 And the king ordered Prince Jerahmeel and Seraiah the son of 'Azriel and Shelemiah the son of 'Abdeel to fetch Baruc the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but Jehovah screened them.

27 27 And Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah after the king had burned the roll and the things Baruc had written at Jeremiah's dictation, 28 28 "Do it again; take another roll and write in it all the words that 29 originally were in the roll King Jehojakim of Judah burned. 29 And of King Jehojakim of Judah you are to say 'Says Jehovah, You have burned this roll, as much as to say "Why did you write in it 'The king of Babylon shall come and ravage this country and make an 30 end of man and beast out of it'?" 30 so Jehovah says of King Jehojakim of Judah, He shall have no one to sit on David's throne, and his 31 carcass shall be thrown out for drying by day and frost by night; 31 and I will punish him and his issue and his officers for their guilt, and will bring upon them and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem and upon the men of Judah all the disaster that I predicted to them and they did not listen."

32 And Jeremiah took another roll and gave it to the scribe Baruc the son of Nerijah, and he wrote in it at Jeremiah's dictation all the words of the book King Jehojakim of Judah had burned up; and besides there were added to them many words like them.

CHAPTER 37

1 And Sidkijah the son of Josiah became king in place of Coniah the son of Jehojakim, he whom King Nebucadressar of Babylon made 2 king in the country of Judah. 2 And he and his officers and the populace did not listen to Jehovah's words which he pronounced through the 3 prophet Jeremiah. 3 And King Sidkijah sent Jucal the son of Shelemiah and Priest Sephaniah the son of Ma'asejah to the prophet Jeremiah 4 with the message "Pray for us to our God Jehovah" 4 when Jeremiah was going in and out among the people—they had not put him in 5 jail—5 and the Pharaoh's forces had come out of Egypt and the Chal-deans that were besieging Jerusalem had heard the report about them and had raised the siege of Jerusalem.

6 And Jehovah's word came to the prophet Jeremiah 7 "Says Israel's God Jehovah, You are to say to the king of Judah who has sent you to inquire of me, 'Here the Pharaoh's forces that have come out for 8 your help are going back to their own country Egypt, 8 and the 9 Chaldeans will come back and attack this city and burn it down. 9 Says Jehovah, Do not delude yourselves with "The Chaldeans are going 10 to withdraw," for they will not. 10 For if you were to have cut down all the Chaldean forces that are attacking you, and what were left were some men that had been run through, they would stand up in their tents and burn this city down."

11 And while the Chaldean forces were withdrawn from before Jeru-12 salem on account of the Pharaoh's forces 12 Jeremiah was going out of Jerusalem to go to the Benjamite country to take a share among the 13 people there; 13 and when he came to the Benjamin gate, there being an official in charge there named Irijah the son of Shelemiah the son of Hananiah, he arrested the prophet Jeremiah, saying "You are de-14 serting to the Chaldeans." 14 And Jeremiah said "It is a lie; I am not deserting to the Chaldeans"; but he did not listen to him.

And Irijah arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the generals.
15 And the generals were in a rage at Jeremiah and beat him and put him in the house of confinement, Secretary Jehonathan's house (for 16 they had made that the jail). 16 And Jeremiah came into the cistern-room 17 and the cellars, and Jeremiah remained there a long time. 17 And Sid-kijah sent and fetched him, and the king asked him in private in his palace "Is there a word from Jehovah?" And he said "Yes," and 18 said "You will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon." 18 And Jeremiah said to King Sidkijah "What sin have I committed against you and your officers and this people, that you have put me in jail?

19 19 where are your prophets that prophesied to you The king of Babylon 20 will not come against you nor against this country'? 20 Now listen, your majesty: admit my plea and do not send me back to Secretary Jehonathan's house, or I shall die there." 21 And King Sidkijah gave orders, 21 and they committed Jeremiah to the court of the guard, giving him a biscuit a day from the bakers' street till all the bread in the city was exhausted.

CHAPTER 38

1 1 And Jeremiah sat in the court of the guard. And Shephatiah the son of Mattan and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur and Jucal the son of Shelemiah and Pashhur the son of Malkijah heard the words Jeremiah 2 was speaking to all the people: 2 "Says Jehovah, He who stays in this city will die by sword and by starvation, but he who goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans shall live, and have his life for a booty, 3 and be alive. 3 Says Jehovah, This city shall be given into the hands of 4 the forces of the king of Babylon, and they shall take it"; 4 and the generals said to the king "Let this man be put to death, seeing that he is dispiriting the fighting men that we have left in this city, and all the people, saying things like these to them; for this man is not 5 aiming at the welfare of this people, but at harm." 5 And King Sidkijah said "You have him in your hands; for the king is not able to do 6 anything where you are concerned." 6 And they threw him into Prince Malkijah's cistern in the court of the guard; they let him down by ropes; and there was no water in the cistern, but there was mud, and Jeremiah sank into the mud.

7 7 And 'Ebed-Melec the Negro, a eunuch, who was in the palace, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the cistern. And the king was sitting 8 in the Benjamin gate; 8 and 'Ebed-Melec went out of the palace and 9 spoke to the king, saying 9 "Your majesty, these men have done a bad thing in all they have done to the prophet Jeremiah, that they have thrown him into the cistern—and he was dying where he was with 10 starvation, because there is no longer any bread in the city." 10 And the king gave 'Ebed-Melec the order "Take along three men from here and get the prophet Jeremiah up out of the cistern before he 11 dies"; 11 and 'Ebed-Melec took the men along and went into the palace and down underneath the treasure-room and took from there the most worn-out old clothes and rags, and let them down by cords to Jeremiah 12 in the cistern. 12 And 'Ebed-Melec the Negro said to Jeremiah "Place 13 the worn-out old clothes and rags under your armpits under the cords," and Jeremiah did so; 13 and they hauled Jeremiah up out of the cistern by the cords. And Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard.

14 14 And King Sidkijah sent for the prophet Jeremiah and fetched him to him at the Squire's Entrance in Jehovah's house, and the king said to him "I am putting a question to you; do not refuse to answer 15 me." 15 And Jeremiah said to King Sidkijah "When I tell you, you will put me to death, will you not? and when I give you advice you will 16 not listen to me." 16 And King Sidkijah swore to Jeremiah privately "By Jehovah, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death nor give you into the hands of these men who are looking for your life." 17 17 And Jeremiah said to Sidkijah "Says Jehovah the God of Armies, Israel's God, If you surrender to the king of Babylon's generals, you personally will remain alive, and this city will not be burned down, 18 and you and your family will remain alive; 18 but if you do not, this city will be given into the hands of the Chaldeans and they will burn it down, and you will not escape their hands."

19 19 And the king said to Jeremiah "I am apprehensive of the Jews that have deserted to the Chaldeans, for fear they will give me into 20 their hands and they will do as they like with me." 20 But Jeremiah said "They will not give you to them. Obey Jehovah in the thing I am speaking to you of, and you will be well off and will have your life.
21 21 But if you refuse to surrender, this is the thing Jehovah has let me see: 22 there were all the women that remain in the palace of the 22 king of Judah being brought out to the king of Babylon's generals, and there they were saying "The men you kept on good terms with egged you on and prevailed on you, got your feet stuck in the morass, 23 and backed out"; 23 and all your wives and children they were bringing out to the Chaldeans, and you yourself did not escape their hands.
For you will fall into the king of Babylon's hands and will get this city burned down."

24 24 And Sidkijah said to Jeremiah "Let no person know of these things and you shall not die. 25 And when the generals hear that I talked with 25 you, and come to you and say to you "Tell us what the king said; do not refuse to answer us, and we won't kill you; what did the 26 king say to you?" 26 tell them 'I am laying my appeal before the king that he will not send me back to Jehonathan's house to die there.'" 27 27 And all the generals came to Jeremiah and asked him, and he told them just these words that the king directed him to, and they let him 28 alone; for the story did not come out. 28 And Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard up to the day that Jerusalem was taken.

CHAPTER 39

1 1 And when Jerusalem was taken (in the year nine of King Sidkijah of Judah, in the tenth month, King Nebucadressar of Babylon and 2 all his forces came to Jerusalem and besieged it; 2 in the year eleven of Sidkijah, in the fourth month, on the ninth of the month, the city 3 was breached)3all the generals of the king of Babylon came and seated themselves in the Middle Gate: Nergal-sareser, Samgar-nebo, Chief Eunuch Sarsekim, Chief Magus Nergal-sareser, and all the rest 4 of the generals of the king of Babylon. 4 And when King Sidkijah of Judah and all the fighting men saw them, they took flight and went out of the city by night by the road to the king's garden, by the gate 5 between the two walls, and went out toward the Rift Valley.5But the Chaldean forces pursued them and overtook Sidkijah on the flats at Jericho, and took him and brought him up to King Nebucadnessar of Babylon at Riblah in the Hamath country, and he held a court 6 and tried him.6And the king of Babylon cut the throats of Sidkijah's sons before his eyes; and the king of Babylon cut the throats of all 7 the nobles of Judah. 7 And he put out Sidkijah's eyes and put him in fetters to bring him to Babylon.

8 And the Chaldeans burned down the royal palace and the houses of 9 the people, and pulled down the walls of Jerusalem. 9 And the rest of the people, those who were left in the city and the deserters who had deserted to him and the rest of the people that were left, Chief Guards-10 man Nebuzaradan deported to Babylon; 10 but the poorest of the people, those who had nothing, Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan left in the city of Jerusalem and gave them vineyards and farms on that day.

11 And King Nebucadnessar of Babylon gave orders regarding Jere-12 miah through Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan, 12 "Take him and have an eye to him and do not do anything bad to him, but do with him 13 just as he tells you." 13 And Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan and Chief Eunuch Nebushazban and Chief Magus Nergal-sareser and all the 14 king of Babylon's chiefs sent 14 and fetched Jeremiah from the court of the guard and gave him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan to take him out home. And he lived among the people.

15 And Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah while he was confined in the 16 court of the guard 16 "Go and say to 'Ebed-Melec the Negro 'Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, Here I am bringing upon this city 17 the things I have said, for bad and not for good; 17 but I will deliver you on that day, quoth Jehovah, and you shall not be given into the 18 hands of the men before whom you quail; 18 for I will positively bring you off safe and you shall not fall by the sword but shall have your life for booty, because you put your trust in me, quoth Jehovah."

CHAPTER 40

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah after Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan let him go at Ramah, when he took him, he being fettered in the midst of the general body of deportees from Jerusalem 2 and Judah who were being deported to Babylon;2but the Chief Guardsman took Jeremiah and said to him "Your God Jehovah enounced 3 this calamity for this place, 3 and Jehovah has done it because you had

4 sinned against Jehovah and not obeyed him.4Now here I release you today from the fetters on your hands: if you think best to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you; and if you think it undesirable to come with me to Babylon, don't; see, you have all the country before you; wherever you think it best and most suitable to go, go";5and as he was not yet going back, "and go back to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has put in charge of the cities of Judah, and live with him among the people; or wherever you think it suitable to go, go"; and the Chief Guardsman gave him an allowance and a largess and sent him off.

6 6 And Jeremiah came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam at Mispah and lived with him among the people that remained in the country.

7 7 And all the captains of the field forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had put Gedaliah the son of Ahikam in charge of the country, and that he had consigned to him men and women and children and some of the poorest of the country, of those who were not deported to Babylon; 8 and there came to Gedaliah at Mispah Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth and the sons of 'Ophai the Netophathite and Izaniah the son of the Ma'acathite, they and their men, 9 and Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and their men, saying "Do not be afraid of the Chaldeans' officers: settle down in the country and be subject to the king of Babylon and you will be well off. 10 Here am I living at Mispah to represent you before the Chaldeans who come to us; for your part get in wine and fruit and oil and put them in your jars and bins and live in your cities that you have appropriated." 11 And all the Jews that were in Moab and among the Bene-'Ammon and in Edom and in all the countries also heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah and had put Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan in charge of them; 12 and all the Jews came back from all the places to which they had been driven, and came into the country of Judah to Gedaliah at Mispah, and got in wine and fruit in very large quantities.

13 13 And Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the field forces came to Gedaliah at Mispah 14 and said to him "Do you know that King Ba'alís of the Bene-'Ammon has sent Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah to assassinate you!" but Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them. 15 And Johanan the son of Kareah said privately to Gedaliah at Mispah "Let me go and kill Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah, and nobody will know about it; why should he assassinate you and all Judah be scattered, that have gathered to you, and the remnant of Judah perish?" 16 but Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah "Do not do any such thing, for what you are telling me about Ishma'el is false."

CHAPTER 41

1 And at the seventh new moon Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama', of the royal blood, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam at Mispah, and they ate a meal together
2 there at Mispah; 2 and Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah and the ten men he had with him stood up and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan dead with their swords, the one the king of Babylon 3 had put in charge of the country; 3 and all the Jews he had with him at Mispah, and all the Chaldeans there were there, Ishma'el killed.
4 4 And on the second day from the killing of Gedaliah, when nobody had 5 found it out, 5 some men came from Shekem, Shilo, and Samaria, eighty men with their beards shaved and their clothes torn and their skins hacked and with grain-offering and frankincense in their hands to 6 bring to Jehovah's house; 6 and Ishma'el went out to meet them. They were coming along weeping, and he said to them "Come in to Gedaliah"; 7 7 and when they came inside the city Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah cut their throats and let the blood go inside the cistern, 8 he and the ten men he had with him. But there were ten men among them who said to Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah "Do not kill us, because we have caches in the countryside, wheat and barley and oil and honey"; and he refrained from killing them among their brothers.
9 9 And the cistern into which Ishma'el threw all the corpses of the men he had killed was a great cistern that King Asa had made in his preparations against King Ba'asha of Israel; Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah filled it up with victims. 10 And Ishma'el carried off by force all the remainder of the people at Mispah and the king's daughters, whom Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan had installed with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, and started to go across to the Bene-'Ammon.
11 11 And Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains who were with him heard of all the bad work Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 12 and they took all the men and went to attack Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah; 13 and they found him at Much-Water in Gibeon. And when all the people Ishma'el had with him saw Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains who were with him they were glad, 14 and all the people Ishma'el had carried off from Mispah swung round 15 and turned back and went to Johanan the son of Kareah; 15 and Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah got away from Johanan with eight 16 men and went to the Bene-'Ammon. 16 And Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains who were with him took all the remnant of the people that he had taken back from Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah, whom Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah had carried off from Mispah after he killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, men (the fighting men) and women and children and eunuchs, whom he had brought back 17 from Gibeon, 17 and they went and took up quarters in Kimham's Settlement alongside Bethlehem to go off and get to Egypt for fear 18 of the Chaldeans; 18 for they were afraid of them because Ishma'el the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had put in charge of the country.

CHAPTER 42

1 And all the captains, and Johanan the son of Kareah and 'Azariah the son of Ma'asejah and all the people, from the smallest to the 2 greatest, approached the prophet Jeremiah and said to him 2 "Accept our plea and pray to your God Jehovah for this remnant (for we that remain are a few out of many, as you see us to be with your own 3 eyes)3and have your God Jehovah tell us the way we are to go and the thing we are to do." 4 And the prophet Jeremiah said to them
4 "Agreed; I shall pray to your God Jehovah as you say, and every word of answer that Jehovah gives you I will tell to you, I will not 5 withhold a word from you." 5 And they said to Jeremiah "So help us Jehovah, we will do exactly according to the word Jehovah sends us 6 by you; 6 be it good or bad, we will obey our God Jehovah to whom we are sending you, in order that it may be well with us because we obey our God Jehovah."

7 And at the end of ten days Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah, 8 and he called Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains who were with him and all the people from the smallest to the greatest 9 and said to them "Says Israel's God Jehovah, to whom you sent me to lay your appeal before him, 10 If you stay here in this country I will 10 build you up and not pull you down, plant you and not uproot you; for I am sorry for the harm I have done you. 11 Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are so afraid; do not be afraid, 11 quoth Jehovah, because I am with you to save you and to deliver you out of his hands, 12 and I will give you his sympathy and he shall be 12 sympathetic toward you and settle you on your soil. 13 But if you say 'We will not stay in this country,' not obeying your God Jehovah, 13 14 thinking 'No, we will go into Egypt where we shall not see war nor hear the sound of a ram-horn nor starve for bread, and live there,'— 14 so now hear Jehovah's word, remnant of Judah: 15 says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, If you do set your faces to go into Egypt, and 15 go in and live as immigrants there, 16 then the swords you are afraid of shall reach you there in Egypt, and the starvation you are worrying
16 about shall dog you to Egypt, and you shall die there; 17 and all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live as immigrants there 17 shall die by swords, by starvation, and by epidemics, and no one of theirs shall survive or escape from the disaster I am bringing upon 18 them. 18 For Israel's God Jehovah of Armies says, As my anger and resentment were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so will my resentment be poured out on you at your going into Egypt, and you shall be a thing to be cursed by and to appall and to be abused 19 and taunted, and you shall not see this place again. 19 Jehovah has spoken for you, remnant of Judah: do not go into Egypt. You are

20 to take notice that I bear witness against you today 20 that you have been fooling with your own lives, because you yourselves sent me to your God Jehovah with the words 'Pray to our God Jehovah for us, and tell us exactly how our God Jehovah says and we will do so,' 21 21 and I have told you today and you have not obeyed your God Jehovah 22 as to every precept he sent to you by me. 22 So now take notice that by swords, starvation, and epidemics you will die in the place you are pleased to go to to live as immigrants there."

CHAPTER 43

1 1 But when Jeremiah had finished telling all the people all the words of their God Jehovah which their God Jehovah had sent to them by 2 him, 2 all these words, 'Azariah the son of Ma'asejah and Johanan the son of Kareah and all the headstrong men said to Jeremiah "It is a lie you are telling: our God Jehovah did not send you to say 'You 3 are not to go into Egypt to live as immigrants there,' 3 but Baruc the son of Nerijah is instigating you against us so as to give us into the hands of the Chaldeans for them to kill us and deport us to Babylon"; 4 4 and Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces and 5 all the people did not obey Jehovah as to staying in Judah. 5 And Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces took all the remnant of Judah that had come back out of all the nations among whom they had been in exile to live immigrant lives in Judah, 6 6 the men and the women and the children and the princesses and all the persons Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and the prophet Jeremiah and Baruc the son of Nerijah, and went into Egypt; 7 for they did not obey Jehovah; and they came to Tehaphnehes.

8 8 And Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah at Tehaphnehes, 9 "Take large stones with your own hands and embed them in mortar in the sunken square at the door of the Pharaoh's house at Tehaphnehes under the eyes of some Jews, 10 and say to them 'Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, I am going to send and fetch my servant King Nebucadressar of Babylon, and he will set his chair over these stones, the ones I have set, and put up his awning over them; 11 and he will go in and strike Egypt down, him who is for death for death and him who is for foreign slavery for foreign slavery and him who is for the sword for the sword, 12 and set fire to the temples of Egypt's gods and burn them, and carry them off into foreign slavery, and pick the lice out of Egypt as a shepherd does out of his blanket, and go out of there unmolested. 13 And he will break up the obelisks of Beth-Shemesh in Egypt, and burn down the temples of Egypt's gods.'"

CHAPTER 44

1 1 The word that came to Jeremiah to all the Jews that were living in Egypt; those that lived in Migdol and in Tehaphnehes and in 2 Memphis and in the country of Pathros: 2 "Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, You yourselves saw all the calamity I brought upon Jerusalem and upon all the cities of Judah: there they are this day a waste, with nobody living in them.<sup>3</sup>It was on account of their wickedness that they had practiced, provoking me, going making burnings to other gods that you had never known,<sup>4</sup>I sending them all my servants the prophets, each one early, with the word 'Do not do this abominable thing which I hate'<sup>5</sup>but they not listening nor giving any ear so as to turn back from their wickedness, not to make burnings to other gods; <sup>6</sup>and my ire and anger was poured out, and blazed in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, and they became a waste, a desolation, as at this day.

<sup>11</sup> 11 "So Israel's God Jehovah of Armies says, Here I am setting my face toward you to exterminate all Judah; <sup>12</sup>I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to come into Egypt to live as immigrants there, and all shall come to an end in Egypt, shall fall by sword and starvation; great and small they shall come to an end, by sword and starvation they shall die, and they shall become a thing to be cursed by and to appall and to be abused and taunted; <sup>13</sup>and I will punish those who are living in Egypt as I did punish Jerusalem, with sword and starvation and pestilence; <sup>14</sup>and no one belonging to the remnant of Judah that have come to live as immigrants there in Egypt shall escape or survive to go back to Judah where they look forward to going back, and live there. For nobody shall get back but some refugees."

<sup>15</sup> 15 And all the men who knew their wives were making burnings to other gods, and all the women that were standing there, a great assembly, and all the people that were living in Egypt, in Pathros, <sup>16</sup>answered Jeremiah <sup>16</sup>"As to the word you have spoken to us in Jehovah's name, we are not obeying you, <sup>17</sup>for we are positively going to live up to the promise that went out of our mouths, to make burnings to the Queen of the Sky and to pour libations to her, as we and our fathers and our kings and generals did in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem and had all the bread we wanted and were comfortable 18 and saw no calamities; 18 but since the time that we left off making burnings to the Queen of the Sky and pouring libations to her we 19 have been short of everything and are all gone with sword and starvation. 19 And when we do make burnings to the Queen of the Sky and pour libations to her, is it without our husbands' consent that we have been making cauvan-cakes to represent her and pouring libations to her?"

20 20 And Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men and to the women 21 and to all the people that were answering him back, 21 "Why, the burning you have been doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your generals and the common people, is what Jehovah remembers and has on his 22 mind, 22 and Jehovah can no longer stand the viciousness of your practices, the abominations you have been committing, and so your country has become a waste, a desolation, and a curse, without an 23 inhabitant, as it is this day. 23 It was in consequence of your having made the burnings and sinned against Jehovah, and not obeyed Jehovah nor gone by his instructions, usages, and lessons, that you have met with this calamity, bringing you to such a state as you are in this day."

24 24 And Jeremiah said to all the people and to all the women "Hear 25 Jehovah's word, all you of Judah that are in Egypt: 25 Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, You women have promised with your mouths and executed it with your hands, 'Perform we will our vows that we have made, making burnings to the Queen of the Sky and pouring libations to her'; make good your vows you shall, and perform the 26 things you vowed. 26 So hear Jehovah's word, all Judah resident in Egypt: I hereby swear by my great name, says Jehovah, that my name shall no longer be pronounced by the mouths of the men of 27 Judah saying 'By Jehovah's life' in all Egypt. 27 Here I am going to be paying attention to you for harm and not for good, and all the men of Judah that are in Egypt shall die out by sword and by 28 starvation till they are finished, 28 and refugees from the sword shall come back from Egypt to Judah in small numbers; and all the remnant of Judah that have come to Egypt to live as immigrants there 29 shall find out whose word will hold good, mine or theirs. 29 And this is the sign you are to have, quoth Jehovah, that I am going to punish you in this place, in order that you may know that my words will 30 positively hold good for your harm: 30 says Jehovah, Here I am giving Pharaoh Hophra', the king of Egypt, into the hands of his enemies and of those who are looking for his life, as I gave King Sidkijah of Judah into the hands of King Nebucadressar of Babylon, his enemy who was looking for his life."

CHAPTER 45

1 1 The word that the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Baruc the son of Nerijah when he was writing these words down from Jeremiah's dictation in the year four of Jehojakim the son of Josiah as king of 2 3 Judah: 2 "Says Israel's God Jehovah of you, Baruc, 3 You have been saying 'Woe is me, because Jehovah has added grief to my misery!
4 I have hard work groaning and find no rest!' 4 You shall say to him 'Says Jehovah, Here am I myself demolishing what I built and 5 uprooting what I planted,5and are you to seek great things for yourself? do not do so; for here I am bringing calamity upon all mortals, quoth Jehovah. But I will give you your life for a booty at all the places you are to go to.' "

CHAPTER 46

1 1 Jehovah's word that came to the prophet Jeremiah about the nations.
2 2ForEgypt.

About the forces of Pharaoh Neco, the king of Egypt, which he had on the river Euphrates at Carkemish, which King Nebucadressar of Babylon defeated in the year four of Jehojakim the son of Josiah as king of Judah.

3 3 Draw up the line of buckler and shield, and forward to the charge!
4 3 Hitch the ponies and mount the horses and stand in order with helmet 5 on head! brighten up the pikes, put on the hauberks! 5 How comes it I see those dismayed, falling back, and their crack fighters broken, off on the dead run, never facing about!—terror on every side, quoth 6 Jehovah!6The swift man shall not get off, and the brave man not save himself; northward on the bank of the river Euphrates they have 7 stumbled, they have fallen.6Who is this that comes up like the Nile, 8 whose water rolls like the rivers?7It is Egypt comes up like the Nile, its water rolls like the rivers, and it thinks "I will go up, will conquer 9 land, will destroy a city and those that live in it."9Come up, ponies, and run wild, chariots; and out with the crack fighters, Nubia and Put that 10 use the shield, the Ludites that bend the bow; 10 but our God Jehovah has that day for a day of vengeance, to avenge himself on his foes, and the sword shall eat its fill and drink freely of their blood, because the Lord Jehovah of Armies is holding a sacrifice in the north country 11 by the river Euphrates. 11 Go up to Gilead and get balm, maiden daughter of Egypt; it is of no use that you have tried so many treatments, 12 it does not heal over. 12 Nations have heard of your ignominy, and your clamor fills the earth, because champion stumbled over champion, they both fell together.

13 13 The word that Jehovah spoke to the prophet Jeremiah of the king of Babylon's coming to strike Egypt:

14 14 Announce it at Migdol and publish it at Memphis: say "Take up your positions and get ready, because swords have eaten around you.
15 15 How is it your champion bull Apis has taken flight? he did not stand

16 his ground because Jehovah shouldered him. 16 There are many stumbling; yes, one man falls against another; and they say 'Up, let us go back to our own people and our native country for fear of the 17 ruthless sword.' 17 They call the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, Loud-18 but-Too-Late. 18 As I live, quoth the King whose name is Jehovah of 19 Armies, he will come like Tabor among the mountains, like Carmel 20 of the sea. 19 Get up an outfit for going into exile, long-settled daughter 21 of Egypt, for Memphis will become a desolation and be ruined past 22 living in. 20 Egypt is a pretty heifer; a gadfly from the north has come 23 at her. 21 The hired men she has within her too are like stall-fed calves, 24 because they too have together turned and run, made no stand, be-25 cause their day of calamity has come upon them, their time of punish-26 ment; 22 they will go off with a sound like a snake going through sand.
23 They have come to her with axes like woodcutters; they have cut 24 her greenwood, quoth Jehovah, endless as it was, for there are more 25 of them than of the grasshoppers, their number is inexpressible. 24 The 26 daughter of Egypt is put to shame, is given into the hands of a northern people. 25 Israel's God Jehovah of Armies has said 'Here I am going to punish Amon in Thebes, and the Pharaoh and those who trust to him, 26 and give them into the hands of those who are looking for their lives and into the hands of King Nebucadressar of Babylon and of his soldiers; and after that she shall live a settled life as of old,' quoth Jehovah.

27 27 "But as for you, do not be afraid, my servant Jacob, and do not be dismayed, Israel, because here I am going to save you out of distant places and your stock out of the country of their captivity; and 28 Jacob shall come back to living quietly and at ease with nobody to alarm him. 28 Do not you be afraid, my servant Jacob, quoth Jehovah, for I am with you; for I will make an end among all the nations where I banished you, but not make an end of you, but discipline you duly and not let you off."

CHAPTER 47

1 1 About the Philistines:

2 2 Says Jehovah, Here is water coming up out of the north which will become a washing-out torrent and will wash out earth and all 3 that fills it, city and all those that live in it; and mankind shall cry out, and all that live in the country shall howl, 3 at the sound of the stamping hoofs of his chargers, at the bounding of his chariots, the uproar of his wheels. Fathers do not turn toward their children for 4 nervelessness 4 over the day that is coming to make havoc of all the Philistines, to deprive Tyre and Sidon of every surviving helper; for Jehovah is making havoc of the Philistines, the remnant of the Caph-5 tor coast. 5 Baldness has come to Ghaza; Ashkelon is cut off; remnant 6 of 'Anakites, how long will you be hacking yourselves! 6 Ah, sword of Jehovah's, how far will you go and not be quiet? get into your sheath, 7 take a little time off, be still.7How is it to be quiet when Jehovah has given it orders? to Ashkelon and to the seabeach, there he has directed it.

CHAPTER 48

1 1ForMoab:

Says Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, Ha for Nebo, because she is ravaged! Kirjathaim is taken, the fastness is brought to shame and 2 dismay. 2 Moab's praise no longer exists; in Heshbon there has been mischieff planned against her, "come, let us cut short her nationhood." 3 You too, Madmen, shall be made mute; swords shall go after you.3The 4 sound of an outcry from Horonaim, a great rapine and ruin!4Moab 5 is ruined, they have made their outcry heard to Shogar.5For up Luhith slope goes a weeper in tears; for down Horonaim slope they 6 hear a cry of ruin.6Be off, save your lives, to become like a wild ass 7 in the wilderness. 7For since you put confidence in your works and your hoards, you too shall be taken, and Kemosh shall go out to deportation, 8 his priests and his generals together; 8 and a ravager shall come to every city, and not a city shall escape; and the vale shall perish and 9 the tableland be devastated, as Jehovah said. 9 Give Moab wings, because she has to fly! and her cities shall become a desolation with no-10 body living in them. 10 Cursed be he who does Jehovah's work sluggishly, and cursed be he who holds his sword back from bloodshedding!

11 11 Moab has been at ease ever since its youth; it is lying quiet on its lees and has never been emptied from one container into another, and has never gone away in deportation; therefore its taste has stood 12 still in it and it has had no change of odor. 12 So here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, when I will send it tilters who will tilt it and empty 13 its containers and smash their jars; 13 and Moab shall be disappointed in Kemosh as the house of Israel were disappointed in their reliance 14 Bethel. 14 How should you say "we are champions and stalwart men for 15 war"? 15 the ravager of Moab has climbed up to its cities, and the choicest of its young men have gone down in slaughter, quoth the King, whose 16 name is Jehovah of Armies. 16 Moab's ruin is close at hand and its 17 disaster is hastening fast; 17 lament for it, all you neighbors around it and all you that know its name, say "How it is broken, the staff 18 of strength, the mace of magnificence!" 18 Come down out of glory and sit in a thirsty place, dame of Dibon, for the ravager of Moab has 19 climbed up on you, has broken up your fortifications. 19 Stand by a roadside and watch, dame of 'Aro'er, ask a fugitive man or a refugee 20 woman; 20 say "What has happened?" Moab is put to shame because it has gone to pieces; howl and cry out! report at the Amon that Moab 21 is ravaged. 21 And judgment has come to the tableland, to Holon and 22 23 JahsahandMepha'ath22andDibonandNeboandBeth-Diblathaim23and 24 Kirjathaim and Beth-Gamul and Beth-me'on 24 and Kerijoth and Bosrah

25 and all the cities of the Moabite country, far and near. 25 Moab's horn 26 is chopped off and his arm is broken, quoth Jehovah. 26 Get him drunk, because he blustered against Jehovah, and let Moab splash down into 27 his vomit and be a butt for laughter himself; 27 or was Israel not a butt of yours? or was he found among thieves, that as often as you speak of him you give a shake?

28 28 Leave cities and perch on the crag, inhabitants of Moab, and be like the dove that nests in the far side of the mouth of a sinkhole.
29 29 We have heard of Moab's pride, very proud, his high mightiness and 30 pride and conceit and lofty notions; 30 I know his aggressiveness, quoth Jehovah; and his fine words are not reliable, unreliably they act.
31 31 Therefore I will howl over Moab and for all Moab I will cry out; sigh 32 over the men of Kir-Heres! 32 Beyond Ja'zer's weeping I will weep for you, vine of Sibmah; your runners went over sea, reached to the sea of Ja'zer; on your summer fruit and your vintage the picker's whoop 33 has fallen. 33 And gladness and glee are to be gathered off out of Carmel and out of Moab, and I have abolished wine out of presses; the treader 34 does not tread, the whoop is no whoop. 34 From the outcry of Heshbon they have sent their voice through to Elealeh, to Jahas, from Soghar to Horonaim, Third 'Eglath; for even Leopard Water will be a deso-35 lation. 35 I have abolished for Moab, quoth Jehovah, offerer on height 36 and burner of incense to his god. 36 Therefore my heart rings like a flute for Moab, and my heart rings like a flute for the men of Kir-37 Heres; therefore the rest of his making have perished. 37 For every head is bald and every beard cut off, there are gashes on all arms and 38 sackcloth on waist; 38 on all the roofs of Moab and in all its squares everything is wailing, because I have broken Moab like an unsatis-39 factory dish, quoth Jehovah; 39 how it smashed! how! How Moab has turned his back! for shame! and Moab has become an object of laughter and dismay to all around him.

40 41 40 For Jehovah says, 41 The towns are taken and the fastnesses are 42 stormed, 42 and Moab is stamped out from being a people, because it 43 blustered against Jehovah. 43 Dread and chasm and trap are at you, 44 inhabitant of Moab, quoth Jehovah; 44 he who takes flight from the dread will come to fall into the chasm, and he who gets up out of the chasm will be caught in the trap; for I will bring these things to 45 Moab in the year of their punishment, quoth Jehovah. 45 Fugitives halted in the shadow of Heshbon for want of breath, because a fire has gone out from Heshbon, a flame from Sihon's town, and will 46 devour Moab's brow and the crown of the sons of tumult. 46 Woe to you, Moab! you are lost, people of Kemosh! because your sons are 47 taken into foreign slavery, and your daughters likewise. 47 But I will bring Moab back from slavery in the future days, quoth Jehovah.
Thus far the judgment on Moab.

CHAPTER 49

1 1 For the Bene-'Ammon Jehovah says, Has Israel no sons? or is there nobody of his to take possession? how comes it that Milcom has taken the possession of Gad and his people have settled in its cities? 2 So here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, when I will have a war-cry heard at Rabbah of the Bene-'Ammon, and she shall become a desolate ruin, and her dependencies shall be set on fire; and Israel shall take the possessions of those who dispossessed him, says 3 Jehovah. 3 Howl, Heshbon, because Ghai is ravaged; cry out, daughters of Rabbah, belt yourselves with sackcloths, wail and rove about the sheepfolds, because Milcom has gone into deportation, his priests and his captains together. 4 Why are you boasting of the vales, rash lady, you that are confident in your reserve supplies—"who will come where I am?" 5 Here I am bringing dread over you, quoth the Lord Jehovah of Armies, from everybody around you, and you will make off, each one whatever way he is facing, and there will be nobody to give the runaway a home. 6 But after that I will bring the Bene-'Ammon back from slavery, quoth Jehovah.

7 7 For Edom Jehovah says, There is no longer any wisdom in Teman; good ideas have stopped coming to shrewd men, their wisdom has spoiled. 8 Take flight, turn about, live deep down, inhabitants of Dedan, because I have brought 'Esau's calamity upon him at his time of punishment. 9 If grape-gatherers come to you, they will leave after-pickings; if thieves in the night, they will do as much damage as they have occasion for. 10 For I have stripped 'Esau bare, I have unscreened his places of concealment and he cannot hide; his descendants are made havoc of, and his brothers and his neighbors, and he is gone. 11 Leave your orphans, I will maintain them; and let your widows have confidence in me.

12 12 For Jehovah says, Those to whom it was not due to drink the cup shall drink, and is it to be you that go scot-free? you shall not, but drink you shall. 13 For I swear by myself, quoth Jehovah, that Bosrah shall become an object of horror and of taunting, a waste and a curse, and all its cities shall become perpetual wastes. 14 I have heard a report from Jehovah, and a courier is sent out among the nations, "Gather and come on against her and stand up for war"; 15 for here I have made you little among the nations, despised among mankind. 16 Your reign of terror has deluded you, your self-confidence, perched in the crannies of the cliffs, hilltop-holder! Though you build your nest as high as the vulture, from there I will bring you down, quoth Jehovah. 17 And Edom shall become an object of horror; everyone who goes past her shall be appalled and whistle at all the blows she has received. 18 As at the overthrow of Sodom and Ghomorrah and their neighbors, says Jehovah, not a man shall live there nor any human being spend time in her. 19 Here, like a lion coming up from the Jordan jungle to a permanent pasture, so on a sudden I will set him running from it; and what young man is there to set over it? for who is like me, and who will challenge me, and what shepherd is there that will stand his ground before me? 20 So listen to Jehovah's policy that he has planned toward Edom and his ideas that he has thought of toward the inhabitants of Teman: the shepherd boys will drag them off, their pasture shall be aghast at them. 21 At the sound of their fall the earth quakes, cries out, its voice is heard at the Red Sea. 22 There is the like of a vulture soaring up and swooping down and spreading its wings over Bosrah; and the hearts of Edom's champions will on that day become like the heart of a woman in birth-pains.

23 For Damascus. Hamath is put to shame, and Arpad; because they have heard bad news they are swaying back and forth; there is anxiety in the sea, it cannot be quiet. 24 Damascus falters, turns to run, is seized with throes; distress and pangs have taken hold of it as they do of a childbearing woman. 25 How deserted is it not, city of praise, town of my joy! 26 so its young men shall fall in its squares and all the men of war shall be silenced on that day, quoth Jehovah of Armies; 27 and I will light a fire in the wall of Damascus which shall consume Ben-Hadad's palaces.

28 For Kedar and the kingdoms of Hasor which King Nebucadnessar of Babylon cut down. Says Jehovah, Up with you to Kedar and make havoc of the Eastern Bedouins! 29 Their tents and their sheep and goats they shall take, their curtains and all their furnishings and their camels they shall carry off, and call up against them terror from all sides. 30 Take to flight, rove far and wide, live deep in the desert, inhabitants of Hasor, quoth Jehovah; for King Nebucadnessar of Babylon has adopted a policy against you and formed a project. 31 Up with you to a tranquil nation living a fearless life, one that has no doors nor bar but dwells in isolation, 32 and their camels shall be taken for plunder and their hosts of livestock for booty; and I will scatter them to every wind, those that are clipped at the side, and will bring their calamity in from every quarter, quoth Jehovah. 33 And Hasor shall be a retreat of jackals, a desolation forever; no man shall settle there nor any human being seek a home in it.

34 What word of Jehovah came to the prophet Jeremiah to 'Elam in the beginning of the reign of King Sidkijah of Judah: 35 Says Jehovah of Armies, Here I am going to break 'Elam's bow, the starting-point of his might; 36 and I will bring into 'Elam four winds from the four edges of the sky, and I will strew them on all these winds and there shall not be a nation where the exiles of 'Elam do not come. 37 And I will dismay 'Elam before their enemies and before those who are looking for their lives, and I will bring upon them a calamity, my anger, quoth Jehovah, and will turn the sword loose behind them till I have finished them; 38 and I will plant my chair in 'Elam and destroy out of it king and general, quoth Jehovah. 39 But in a future time I will bring 'Elam back from slavery, quoth Jehovah.

CHAPTER 50

1 The word that Jehovah spoke of Babylon, of the Chaldean country, 2 by the prophet Jeremiah. 2 Announce among the nations and sound it abroad, and raise a signal; sound it abroad, do not suppress it; say 3 "Babylon is taken, and Bel is put to shame, Marduk is dismayed." 3 For a nation has come up against her from the north; it shall render her country a desolation, and there shall be no one living in it; man and 4 beast, they have wandered away. 4 In those days and at that time, quoth Jehovah, the sons of Israel shall come, they and the sons of Judah together; weeping as they go, they shall go and look for their God 5 Jehovah. 5 They shall inquire for Sion, with their faces this way:
"come, let us join Jehovah in a perpetual covenant never to be for-6 gotten." 6 My people were lost sheep; their shepherds had got them to straying over labyrinths of mountains, they had gone from moun-7 tain to hill, had forgotten their sleeping-places. 7 Everybody that found them fed on them, and their foes said "We have no penalty to fear," as retribution for their having sinned against Jehovah the Meadow of Right, their fathers' hope Jehovah.

8 Migrate from your place in Babylon and come out of the Chaldean 9 country, and be like he-goats in front of a flock; 9 for here I am rousing and bringing up against Babylon a concourse of great nations out of the north country, and they shall take their places against it; by them it shall be taken. His arrows are like a successful champion who 10 will not come back foiled; 10 and Chaldea shall become booty, all who 11 take booty from her shall have their fill, quoth Jehovah. 11 Because you are glad and gay, you pillagers of my estate, because you prance like 12 a threshing heifer and whoop like neighing horses, 12 your mother is put to utmost shame, she who gave birth to you is abashed: there 13 she stands, last of nations, a wilderness of drought and desert. 13 By Jehovah's wrath she shall not be inhabited, but shall be a desolation altogether; everybody who goes past Babylon shall be aghast and 14 whistle at all the blows that have fallen upon her. 14 Take your stations against Babylon on every side, all you bow-benders; shoot at her, do 15 not spare arrows, because she has sinned against Jehovah. 15 Raise a cheer against her on every side; she has thrown up her hands, her river-walls are down, her walls are demolished; because it is Jehovah's 16 vengeance, take vengeance on her; do to her as she did. 16 Cut away sower from Babylon, and wielder of sickle at harvesttime; for fear of the ruthless sword they will each turn toward his own people and each take flight to his own country.

17 Israel is a lonely sheep that lions have driven out; first the king of Assyria ate her, and now last King Nebucadressar of Babylon 18 has gnawed up her bones. 18 So Israel's God Jehovah says, Here I am going to punish the king of Babylon and his country as I punished 19 the king of Assyria, 19 and I will bring Israel back to his pasture and he shall graze over the Carmel and the Bashan and shall take his 20 fill on the highland of Ephraim and the Gilead. 20 In those days and at that time, quoth Jehovah, Israel's guilt will be searched for and will not be there; and Judah's sins, and they will not be found; for I will forgive the remnant that I leave.

21 21 About the country Merathaim. Go up against it and against the inhabitants of Pekod; lay them waste and follow them up giving no quarter, quoth Jehovah, and do just as I commissioned you to. 22 Hark, a sound of battles in the country, and a great catastrophe! 23 how the sledgehammer of all the earth is chopped and broken! how Babylon has become a spectacle of horror among the nations! 24 I set a trap for you, and you were caught too, Babylon, before you knew it; you were found, and seized too, because you had challenged Jehovah. 25 Jehovah has opened his arsenal and brought out the weapons for hostilities, because this is business for the Lord Jehovah of Armies in the Chaldean country. 26 Go into her, open her barns to the last one, pile her up like heaps of grain, destroy her without quarter, let there be no remnant of her. 27 Make war on all her steers; down with them to the slaughter; oh for them, for their day is come, the time for seeing to them. 28 Hark, the voice of fugitives and refugees from Babylonia, reporting in Zion the vengeance of our God Jehovah, the vengeance for his temple! 29 Summon archers to Babylon, all who bend bows; besiege her all round; let there be no survivors; pay her what she has earned, do to her just as she did, because she acted presumptuously against Jehovah, against the Holy One of Israel. 30 So her young men shall fall in her squares, and all her warriors shall be silenced on that day, quoth Jehovah. 31 Have at you, presumption, quoth the Lord Jehovah of Armies! for your day is come, the time for seeing to you. 32 And presumption has stumbled and fallen and has nobody to lift it to its feet; and I will set fire to its cities, fire that shall consume on every side of it.

33 33 Says Jehovah of Armies, The sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have been victimized together, and all who had carried them off to slavery held on to them, would not let them go. 34 Their Friend in Need is strong; his name is Jehovah of Armies; he will take up their cause so as to give ease to the earth and a shock to the inhabitants of Babylon. 35 Swords against the Chaldeans, quoth Jehovah, and all the inhabitants of Babylon and all its generals and all its wise men! 36 swords against the diviners, and let them show what fools they have made of themselves! swords against its champions, and let them be dismayed! 37 swords against its ponies and its chariots and all the foreign-born population it has within it, and let them become women! 38 swords against its treasuries, and let them be plundered! 38 aridity against its waters, and let them dry out! for it is a country of wall-carvings, and they run wild with their objects of terror. 39 So wildcats shall live there with hyenas, and ostriches shall live in it, and it shall not be inhabited again to perpetuity, not be occupied for generation

40 after generation. 40 As with God's overthrow of Sodom and Ghomorrah and their neighbors, quoth Jehovah, not a man shall live there nor 41 a human being install himself in it. 41 Here comes a people from the north, a great nation and many kings are roused from earth's recesses, wielding bow and javelin; 42 they are cruel and unfeeling, and the sound of them roars like the sea; on ponies and chariots they are 43 in line like a fire for battle against you, daughter of Babylon. 43 The king of Babylon has heard the report of them and lost heart; distress 44 has seized upon him, pangs like those of a woman in childbirth. 44 Here, like a lion coming up from the Jordan jungle to a permanent pasture, so on a sudden I will set them running from it; and what young man is there to set over it? for who is like me, and who will challenge me, 45 and what shepherd is there that will stand his ground before me? 45 So listen to Jehovah's policy that he has planned toward Babylon and his ideas that he has thought of toward the Chaldean country: the shepherd boys will drag them off, pasture shall be aghast at them. 46 At 46 the sound of Babylon's being taken the earth is shaken and a cry is heard among the nations.

CHAPTER 51

1 1 Says Jehovah, Here I am setting in motion against Babylon and 2 against the inhabitants of Leb-Kamai a blasting wind; 2 and I will send Babylon winnowers who will winnow her and empty out her country because they are against her on all sides on the day of disaster.
3 3 Let the archer not bend his bow nor hold himself high in his hauberk; and do not spare her young men, destroy all her levies without 4 quarter, 4 and let dying men fall in the Chaldean country and stabbed 5 men in her streets, 5 because Israel and Judah is not widowed from his God Jehovah of Armies; for their country is full of condemnation 6 from the Holy One of Israel. 6 Flee from within Babylon and save your own lives, do not get them cut off for her guilt, because it is a 7 time of vengeance of Jehovah's, he is paying her off. 7 Babylon has been a gold cup in Jehovah's hand, intoxicating all the earth; nations
8 drank her wine, therefore nations went wild. 8 Babylon has had a sudden fall and broken her bones; scream over her, get balsam for her 9 wound, maybe she can be healed. 9 We have been treating Babylon, but she does not get well; leave her and let us go to our own countries, because her sentence reaches to the skies and mounts up to the heavens.
10 10 Jehovah has brought out the rightfulness of our claims; come and let us tell in Sion the story of our God Jehovah's work.
11 11 Whet the arrows, grasp the bucklers! Jehovah has roused the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because his design is against Babylon to devastate it; for it is Jehovah's vengeance, the vengeance for his 12 temple. 12 Hoist a signal toward Babylon's wall; strengthen the watch, set up watchers; get ready the ambushed men, because Jehovah has both planned out and executed what he had threatened against the

13 inhabitants of Babylon. 13 You that are lodged by a great water, you that are great in stores of treasure, the end of you is come, the length 14 to cut you off at. 14 Jehovah of Armies has sworn by himself "I have filled you with humanity like grasshoppers, and they shall answer each other with whoops over you."

15 15 He who made the earth by his power, set the world firm by his wisdom, and stretched the sky by his insight, 16 when he collects a drift of water in the sky and brings up vapor from earth's end, makes 17 lightnings for the rain and brings wind out of his storehouses. 17 All mankind is too stupid to know; every smelter is too ashamed for a statue, for his castings are counterfeit, they have no spirit in them.

18 18 They are nothings, a joke; at their time of punishment they perish. 19 Not like these is Jacob's portion; for the Shaper of all is his inheritance, his name is Jehovah. 20 I have you for a hammer, a weapon of battle, and with you I smash nations and with you I wreck kingdoms, 21 and with you I smash pony and rider, and with you I smash chariot and driver, 22 and with you I smash man and woman, and with you I smash old man and child, and with you I smash young man and maiden, 23 and with you I smash shepherd and flock, and with you I smash plowman and team, and with you I smash governors and vice-24 roys. 24 And I will pay back to Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea all the mischief they have done in Sion, before your eyes, quoth Jehovah.

25 25 Have at you, mountain of ruin, quoth Jehovah, ruiner of all the earth! I will stretch my hand over you and roll you off the cliffs and 26 make you a burnt mountain, 26 and they shall not take from you capstone nor foundation-stone; for you shall be a perpetual desolation, quoth Jehovah. 27 Raise a signal in the earth, blow a ram-horn among the nations, declare against her a war of nations, summon against her the kingdoms of Armenia, Minni, and Ashkenaz, appoint a mustering officer against her, bring up ponies like shedding grasshoppers. 28 Declare against her a war of nations, the king of the Medes, his governors and viceroys and all the country under his dominion.

29 29 And the earth shook and danced because Jehovah's plans were carried out against Babylon, to make the country of Babylon a desolation without inhabitant. 30 Babylon's champions fail to fight, they sit still in the fastnesses; their heroism has evaporated, they have become women. They have set fire to its residences, its bars are broken. 31 Runner meets runner and news-bringer meets news-bringer, running 32 to tell the king of Babylon that his city is every bit taken, 32 and the ferries are seized and they have burned off the pools, and the soldiers are in consternation.

33 33 For Israel's God Jehovah of Armies says, The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor at the time when it is being trampled; a little longer, and it will have harvesttime coming. 34 "King Nebucadressar of Babylon has eaten me up, hashed me, set me up like an empty dish,

35 gulped me down like a crocodile, filled his paunch with my delicacies, 35 washed me down; 35 let my outrage and my mangling be upon Babylon," 36 the dame of Sion shall say; "and ray blood on the inhabitants of 36 Chaldea," Jerusalem shall say. 36 So Jehovah says, Here I am going to 37 take up your cause and execute your vengeance, and dry off her sea 37 and dry out her spring; 37 and Babylon shall become stone-heaps, a 38 retreat of jackals, a desolation and a thing to whistle at, with not an 38 inhabitant. 38 Together they are roaring like two-year-old lions—they 39 snarl like lion cubs. 39 I will set their banquet with drugs and intoxicate 40 them so that they shall sink into unconsciousness and sleep a perpetual 40 sleep and never wake, quoth Jehovah. 40 I will bring them down like 41 lambs to slaughtering, like rams with he-goats. 41 How Sheshac is stormed 41 and the praise of all the earth captured! how Babylon has become a 42 thing to stand aghast at among the nations! 42 The sea has come up 42 upon Babylon; she is covered with the uproar of its waves. 43 Her cities 43 have become a desolation, a thirsty desert country; not a man shall 44 live in them and not a human being pass through them. 44 And I will 44 see to Babylon in Babylon, and bring her meals out of her mouth, 45 and nations shall not stream to her again. Babylon's wall too has 45 fallen. 45 Come out from her, my people, and save your own lives from 46 Jehovah's anger. 46 And you are not to be discouraged and afraid at 46 the rumoring that is heard in the country: in one year there will 47 come a rumor and after it in another year a rumor, and outrage in 47 the country, ruler upon ruler.

47 47 Therefore here are days coming when I will have it out with Bab-48 ylon's carvings, and all her country shall be put to shame, and all 48 her killed shall fall in her; 48 and sky and earth and everything in 49 them shall jubilate over Babylon, because out of the north ravagers 49 are coming for her, quoth Jehovah. 49 Babylon both was for the falling 50 of the killed of Israel, and at Babylon fell the killed of all the earth.
50 50 Survivors from the sword, go, do not stand still! at this distance 51 remember Jehovah and bring Jerusalem to mind. 51 We were put to 51 shame because we heard taunts; humiliation covered our faces be-52 cause strangers had come in over the sanctuaries of Jehovah's house.
52 52 So here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, when I will have it out with 53 her carvings and in all her country mortally wounded men shall be 53 groaning. 53 Though Babylon runs up to the sky and though she makes 54 the fortifications lofty, from me will ravagers come for her, quoth 54 Jehovah. 54 A sound of an outcry from Babylon and of a great crash 55 from the Chaldean country! 55 for Jehovah is making havoc of Babylon 55 and abolishing loud voices out of her; and their waves shall roar, the 56 din of their noise resounding like that of a great water. 56 For a ravager 56 is coming against her, against Babylon, and her champions will be 57 taken prisoners when their bows are shivered; for Jehovah is a God 57 of retribution, and pay he will.

57 57 And I will make her captains and her wise men drunk, her governors and her viceroys and her champions, and they shall fall into an eternal sleep and never wake, quoth the King, whose name is 58 Jehovah of Armies. 58 Says Jehovah of Armies, Babylon's broad wall shall be stripped away and her high gates shall be set on fire; and peoples toil bootlessly, and folk upon folk spends itself to feed fire.

59 59 The word with which the prophet Jeremiah charged Seraiah the son of Nerijah the son of Mahsejah when he went to Babylon with King Sidkijah of Judah in the year four of his reign, Seraiah being 60 harbinger. 60 Jeremiah wrote the disaster that was to come to Babylon in one screeed, all these words that are written regarding Babylon, 61 and 61 Jeremiah said to Seraiah "When you come to Babylon you are to read aloud all aloud all these words 62 and say 'Jehovah, you have given 62 your word as to this place for extirpating it so that there should be nobody living in it, man or beast, because it is to be an eternal deso-63 lation'; 63 and when you have finished reading this document you are to tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates 64 64 and say 'Like this shall Babylon sink and never come up, because of the disaster I am bringing upon it.'"

"Spends itself to feed fire"—up to here are the words of Jeremiah.

CHAPTER 52

1 1 Sidkijah was twenty-one years old at his accession to the throne, and reigned eleven years at Jerusalem; and his mother's name was 2 Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah, from Libnah. 2 And he did what 3 displeased Jehovah just as Jehojakim had,<sup>3</sup> because it was a matter of Jehovah's anger at Jerusalem and Judah, till he threw them away from before his face.

4 4 And Sidkijah broke his allegiance to the king of Babylon. And in the year nine of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, King Nebucadressar of Babylon came against Jerusalem, he and all his armies, and beleaguered it, and they built a wall of investment around it; 5 and the city was besieged till the year eleven of 6 King Sidkijah in the fourth month, the ninth of the month. 6 And hunger was pressing hard in the city, and there was no bread for 7 the populace; and the city was breached. 7 And all the men of war tried to escape, and went out of the city by night by way of the gate between the two walls along the king's garden, the city being beset all round by the Chaldeans, and went in the direction of the Rift Valley.

8 8 And the Chaldean forces pursued the king and overtook Sidkijah on the flats of Jericho, all his forces being scattered away from him, 9 9 and they captured the king and took him up to Riblah in the country of Hamath to the king of Babylon, and he held a court and tried 10 him. 10 And the king of Babylon cut the throats of Sidkijah's sons before his eyes, and also cut the throats of all the generals of Judah at Riblah.
11 11 And he put out Sidkijah's eyes, and put him in fetters, and the king of Babylon brought him to Babylon and put him in confinement to the day of his death.

12 12 And in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month, it being the year
13 nineteen of King Nebucadressar of Babylon, Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan, 14 of the service of the king of Babylon, 13 came to Jerusalem and burned 15 down Jehovah's house and the royal palace and all the houses in Jerusalem; 16 14 and all the Chaldean forces that the Chief Guardsman had with him pulled down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. 15 And the rest of the people, those who were left of the people in the city, and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen, Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan deported; 16 but some of the proletariat Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan left for vineyardists and farmers.

17 17 And the bronze pillars of Jehovah's house, and the stands and the bronze sea in Jehovah's house, the Chaldeans broke up, and carried all the bronze of them away to Babylon; 18 and they took the pots and shovels and snuffers and bowls and pans, and all the bronze articles with which the priests officiated. 19 And the basins and the firepans and the bowls and the pots and the lampstands and the pans and the chalices, gold what was gold and silver what was silver, the Chief Guardsman took.
20 20 And the pillars two, and the sea one, and the cattle twelve, bronze, that were under the stands which King Solomon had made for Jehovah's house—there was no weighing the bronze of all these articles. 21 And as for the pillars, twenty-seven feet was the height of one pillar and eighteen feet its girth and three inches the thickness of the metal (hollow); 22 and it had on it a bronze capital, the height of one capital being seven and a half feet, and on the capital, surrounding it, a network and pomegranates, all bronze; and the second pillar had the like, and pomegranates. 23 And of the pomegranates there were ninety-six to the air; of all the pomegranates there were a hundred on the network, surrounding it.

24 24 And the Chief Guardsman took High Priest Seraiah and Second 25 Priest Sephaniah and the three threshold-keepers, 25 and out of the city he took a eunuch who had had the oversight of the fighting men, and seven of such men having the right of seeing the king's face as were to be found in the city, and the general's secretary who had had the summoning of the militia and sixty of the civilians who were found in the city; 26 Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan took them and brought them to Riblah to the king of Babylon, 27 and the king of Babylon struck them dead at Riblah, in the country of Hamath; and Judah was deported off its soil.

28 28 These were the people that Nebuzaradan deported; in the year seven 29 three thousand and three Judahites; 29 in the year eighteen of Nebucadressar, out of Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two souls;
30 30 in the year twenty-three of Nebucadressar, Chief Guardsman Nebuzaradan zaradan deported seven hundred and forty-five Judahite souls; of all the souls there were forty-six hundred.

- 31 And in the thirty-seventh year of the deportation of King Jehojakin of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth of the month, King Evil-Merodac of Babylon, in the year of his accession to the throne, released King Jehojakin of Judah and took him out of jail 32 and had a friendly conversation with him, and put his throne 33 above the thrones of the kings he had with him at Babylon, 33 and changed his jail clothes, and he ate before him regularly as long as 34 he lived. 34 And his allowance was a regular one given him daily out of the king of Babylon's supplies as long as he lived, to the day of his death.

THE BOOK OF LAMENTATIONS

CHAPTER 1

- 1 How lonely she sits, the city great in people!
she has become like a widow, the great among the nations.
Princess among the provinces, she has come to serfdom.
- 2 She is weeping in the night, has tears on her cheeks;
there is not a comforter for her out of all her lovers, all her friends have played her false, become enemies to her.
- 3 Judah has gone to an expatriate life because of destitution and overwork;
she has settled among the nations but not found a resting-place;
everybody who was hunting her down has come upon her in a tight place.
- 4 The roads to Sion are mourning not to have people coming in to the holy dates;
all her gates are desolate, her priests are moaning, her maidens are sorrowing, and she is in bitter grief.
- 5 Her foes are in control, her enemies are untroubled, because Jehovah has reduced her to misery for her multitude of crimes.
The children in her have gone into foreign slavery before the foe.
- 6 And all the stateliness of the daughter of Sion has gone out of her, her generals have become like deer that find no pasture and have gone along strengthless before a pursuer.
- 7 Jerusalem remembers her days of misery and homelessness when her people were falling by a foeman's hand and she had no helper;
foemen saw her, laughed over her extinction.
- 8 Jerusalem did sin, so she has become a piece of garbage;
all who had been honoring her hold her cheap because they have seen her nakedness;
she too moans and retreats backward.
- 9 She has her defilement on her skirts; she did not bethink herself of her future.
She has come down extraordinarily; there is nobody to comfort her.
"Jehovah, see my miserable state, because the enemy is swaggering."
- 10 A foe has spread his hand over all she held dear;
for she has seen heathens come into her sanctuary, of whom you commanded "you shall not have them come into the assembly."
- 11 All her people are moaning, hunting for bread, have given what they held dearest for food to bring back life.

- See, Jehovah, and look, because I stand cheap.
- 12 Not toward you, all passersby! look and see if there is a hurt like mine that has been inflicted on me, the sorrow Jehovah gave me in his day of anger.
- 13 From aloft he sent fire down into my bones, he spread his net for my feet, drove me backward, struck me desolate, sick all day.
- 14 He paid attention to my offenses; they interwove in his hands, they came up over my neck, he brought my strength to a fall.
The Lord gave me into the hands of those against whom I cannot stand up.
- 15 The Lord has spurned all my braves within me, has called a convention against me to mangle my young men, trodden winepress for Judah's maiden daughter.
- 16 Over these things I weep, my eye streams down water, because far away is any who would comfort me, would bring me back to life,
my sons are desolate because an enemy is in power.
- 17 Sion spreads out her hands, has no comforter.
Jehovah has commissioned Jacob's foes all round him, Jerusalem has become a piece of garbage among them.
- 18 Jehovah is in the right, because I had disobeyed him.
Listen, all peoples, and see my hurt!
My maidens and young men have gone into foreign slavery.
- 19 I called to my lovers; they failed me.
My priests and elders breathed their last in the city when they had hunted for food to bring their lives back with.
- 20 See, Jehovah, how I am distressed; my vitals are boiling, my heart turns over in me, because I was disobedient.
Outdoors the sword bereaves, indoors there is death.
- 21 Listen when I moan! I have no comforter.
All my enemies hear of my calamity, they rejoice because you acted.
Bring the day you have announced and let them be like me!
- 22 Let all their viciousness come before you and treat them as you treated me for all my crimes.
For my moans are many and my heart is sick.

CHAPTER 2

- 1 How the Lord in his anger clouds Sion's daughter in, has thrown the magnificence of Israel from sky to earth, and not remembered his footstool on his day of anger!
- 2 The Lord has unsparingly swept off all Jacob's meadows, has in his wrath demolished the fortifications of the daughter of Judah, has laid in the dust, desecrated, a kingdom and its generals.
- 3 In his anger he has chopped off every horn of Israel's,

- turned his right hand backward before an enemy, and blazed in Jacob like a flaming fire devouring on all sides.
- 4 He has bent his bow like an enemy, brought up his right hand like a foe, and killed all that were a delight to the eye; on the tent of the daughter of Zion he has poured his choler like fire.
- 5 The Lord has been like an enemy, has swept Israel off, swept off all his palaces, ruined his fortresses, and brought into the daughter of Judah much of grievance and grieving,
- 6 And he has ruthlessly dismantled her lodge like a shack in a garden, has ruined her meeting-place, Jehovah has caused meeting-day and sabbath to be forgotten in Zion, and in his angry hostility has contemned king and priest.
- 7 The Lord has repudiated his altar, ignored his sanctuary, given up to an enemy the walls of her palaces;
they made a noise in Jehovah's house that sounded like an annual feast.
- 8 Jehovah planned to wreck the walls of the daughter of Zion;
he stretched a line, did not turn his hand back from sweeping it down, and let bulwark and wall mourn, forlorn together.
- 9 Her gates have sunk into the earth; he has destroyed and shattered her bars;
her king and generals are among the nations; there are no rulings on religion;
her prophets too have not found any vision from Jehovah.
- 10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit silent on the ground, have put earth over their heads, have belted on sackcloths;
the maidens of Jerusalem have put their heads down on the ground.
- 11 My eyes are used up in tears, my vitals are boiling, my heart runs out of me for the broken bones of the daughter of my people, when little boy and baby collapse in town squares;
- 12 They say to their mothers "Where is some grain and wine?"
while they faint away in city squares like a man mortally wounded, while their life runs out in their mothers' laps.
- 13 What shall I quote to you, what shall I compare you to, daughter Jerusalem?
what shall I parallel to you to comfort you, maiden daughter of Zion?
for your mauling is great as the sea; who shall heal you?
- 14 Your prophets have furnished you futile and unctuous visions,

- have not spoken out about your guilt to bring you back but have given you visions that are delusion, futility, and exile.
- 15 All passersby struck their hands together over you, whistled and shook their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem:
"Is this the city that was spoken of as perfect in beauty, a joy to all the earth?"
- 16 All your enemies opened their mouths wide at you, whistled and ground their teeth, said "We have made a clean sweep; this is just the day we were hoping for; it has turned up, we see the sight."
- 17 Jehovah has done what he designed, finished up his dictate that he ordained from olden days, demolished unsparingly, gladdened your enemies over you, given your foes a high horn
- 18 Their hearts cried out to the Lord hotly; daughter of Sion, pour down your tears like a flooded brook day and night, take no anodyne, let your eyeball never be still.
- 19 Stand up and clamor in the night, at each new watch, pour out your hearts in Jehovah's face like water, raise your hands to him for the lives of your boys and girls who have fainted away with hunger at the tops of all the streets.
- 20 See, Jehovah! look whom you have handled so!
or should women eat their own fruit, their petted children?
or should priest and prophet be killed in the Lord's sanctuary?
- 21 Boy and old man are lying on the ground in the streets;
my maidens and young men have fallen by the sword;
on your day of anger you killed, slaughtered, had no mercy.
- 22 You are calling my terrors on every side as if for the day of an annual feast, and there were none on the day of Jehovah's anger that ~~escaped~~ or survived.
Those that I had petted and brought up my enemy has swept away.

CHAPTER 3

- 1 I am the man that saw hardship by the cudgel of his wrath.
- 2 Me he drove along to go darkling, unlighted.
- 3 Only at me all day
he kept turning back his hand.
- 4 He wore away my flesh and skin, shattered my bones,
- 5 Built siege-works against me and surrounded my head with hard experiences,
- 6 Seated me in places of darkness
like men long since dead.

- 7 He walled me off so that I could not get out, made my fetters heavy.
- 8 Withal when I cried and clamored he shut off my prayer.
- 9 He walled up my road with masonry, kept me making detours.
- 10 An ambushed bear he was to me, a lion under cover.
- 11 My roads he filled with briers and tore my flesh, laid me desolate.
- 12 He strung his bow and set me up like a target for the arrow,
- 13 Sent in the contents of his quiver into my waist.
- 14 I became a butt for the laughter of all my people, for their jingles all day long.
- 15 He filled me up with bitter greens, gave me wormwood-juice for refreshment,
- 16 And rasped my teeth with gravel, thrust me down in the ashes.
- 17 And you banned my soul from welfare;
I forgot such a thing as good,
- 18 And said "my continuance is lost, and my expectation from Jehovah."
- 19 The recollection of my miserable and homeless state is wormwood and opium.
- 20 Recollect my soul does,
and is downhearted within me.
- 21 This I will bring back to mind, will therefore wait,
- 22 Jehovah's friendlinesses, that they are not exhausted, that his sympathy has not come to an end,
- 23 New every morning;
great is your loyalty.
- 24 Jehovah is my portion, my soul has said;
therefore I will wait for him.
- 25 Jehovah is good to those who hope in him, to a soul that betakes itself to him.
- 26 Good it is that one wait, and in silence, for Jehovah's salvation.
- 27 Good it is for a man that he carry a yoke in his youth,
- 28 Sit alone and be still because it was laid on him,
- 29 Put his mouth in the dust,— perhaps there may be hope,—

- 30 Give Ms cheek to the one who strikes Mm, take his fill of humiliation.
- 31 For the Lord will not repudiate man forever,
- 32 For if he causes misery he will have sympathy in accordance with his great friendliness,
- 33 For he does not arbitrarily grind down sons of man and bring them to misery.
- 34 To beating down underfoot all earth's prisoners,
- 35 To warping the law against a man in the face of the Most High,
- 36 To circumventing a man in his suit over his rights, the Lord does not assent.
- 37 Who is there that says a thing and has it come when the Lord has not ordered it?
- 38 Do not evils and good come out of the mouth of the Most High?
- 39 What should a living man bemoan, a man over his sin?
- 40 Let us search our course and examine it, and come back to Jehovah.
- 41 Let us hold up our hearts in our hands to Deity in heaven.
- 42 We were criminal and disobedient;
you did not forgive.
- 43 You overspread us with anger and pursued us, you killed without mercy.
- 44 You overspread yourself with a cloud to keep our prayers from coming through.
- 45 You are making us an offscouring and a bit of refuse among the peoples.
- 46 All our enemies have opened their mouths wide at us.
- 47 We face dread and chasm, breaking and crash.
- 48 My eyes run streams of water for the breaking of the daughter of my people.
- 49 My eyes are running out and never halting for lack of a soothing balm.
- 50 Till Jehovah from the sky looks out and sees,
- 51 My eyes handle my soul cruelly because of all the daughters of my city.
- 52 My unprovoked enemies hunted me down like a sparrow.

53 They extinguished my life in the pit and flung stones on me.
54 Water rolled over my head;
I thought "It is all over with me." 55 I called your name, Jehovah, out of the abysmal pit; 56 You heard my voice, "Do not let your ears disregard my freedom, my clamor." 57 You drew near on the day I called you, you said "Do not be afraid." 58 You upheld my right to exist, Lord, you stood up for my life.
59 You, Jehovah, saw the chicanery against me, did justice for me.
60 You saw all their revengefulness, all that they thought of for me.
61 You heard their taunts, Jehovah, all that they thought of against me, 62 My assailants' lips and their whispering against me all day.
63 Look at their sitting down and standing up;
I am the butt of their jingles.
64 You will give them back, Jehovah, treatment that matches the work of their hands; 65 You will give them infatuated minds, your curse for them, 66 Will pursue them in anger and root them out from under Jehovah's sky.

CHAPTER 4

1 How gold is tarnishing, the best nuggets deteriorating, Sacred stones being spilled at every street-corner!
2 Sion's most precious sons, prized at their weight in red gold, how they were classed with earthen jars, work of a potter's hands!
3 Even jackals offer a teat, suckle their cubs; the daughter of my people became cruel like the ostriches in the wilderness.
4 A sucking baby's tongue stuck to its palate for thirst.
Children asked for bread, had nobody that handed it to them.
5 Those who had been eating with dainties were starving about the streets.
Those who had been laid on scarlet hugged rubbish on the dumps.
6 And the guilt of the daughter of my people showed greater than the sin of Sodom that was overthrown all at once and hands were not busy on her.

- 7 Her devotees were more stainless than snow, more white than milk, redder-limbed than coral, their tattooing lapis lazuli.
- 8 Their figures turned darker than charcoal, they were not to be recognized on the street;
their skins shrank over their bones, dried out, became like wood.
- 9 Those who were struck down by swords were better off than those who were struck down by starvation, inasmuch as those, stabbed through, would flow out in field crops.
- 10 The hands of tenderhearted women cooked their own children, they served as mourning-dinner for them at the catastrophe of the daughter of my people.
- 11 Jehovah wreaked his ire, poured out his anger, and kindled a fire in Sion which consumed her foundations.
- 12 The kings of earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, had not believed that foe and enemy would come in at Jerusalem's gates.
- 13 For the sins of her prophets, the guilts of her priests, who shed honest men's blood within her,
- 14 They wandered blind in the streets, polluted with blood, with what they could not touch with their clothes;
- 15 "Away! unclean!" they called out, "away! away! do not touch!" because they had taken wing, were on the move; they said among the nations "They shall not be harbored any longer";
- 16 Jehovah personally divided them, will no longer look at them.
They had no respect for priests, no grace for old men.
- 17 Our eyes are still exhausting themselves looking toward our imaginary help;
on our lookout we watched for a nation that does not save.
- 18 They spied our steps too closely for walking in our squares;
our end had come near; our time was up; yes, our end had come.
- 19 Our pursuers were swifter than vultures in the sky;
on the mountains they ran us down, in the wilderness they lay in ambush for us.
- 20 The breath of our nostrils, Jehovah's anointed, was caught in their pitfalls, he of whom we thought "In his shadow we shall remain alive among the nations."
- 21 Be joyous and glad, daughter of Edom, you that live in the country of 'Us: to you too will pass such a cup that you will get drunk and show your nakedness.
- 22 Your guilt is all done with, daughter of Sion; no more will he have you deported.
He has paid attention to your guilt, daughter of Edom; he has exposed your sins.

CHAPTER 5

- 1 Remember, Jehovah, what happened to us;
look and see our ignominy.
- 2 Our estate has swung to strangers, our houses to foreigners.
- 3 We have become fatherless orphans, our mothers the same as widows.
- 4 We have been drinking our water for cash—our wood comes in at a price.
- 5 We have had the pursuers close at our heels, have been tired out, have been given no rest.
- 6 We have given ourselves up in Egypt, in Assyria, to get a full meal.
- 7 Our fathers sinned; they are gone, and we have been carrying their guilt.
- 8 Slaves have become rulers over us;
there is nobody to tear us out of their hands.
- 9 We get our bread in at the cost of our lives because of the wilderness sword.
- 10 Our skin is hot as a baking-crock by the fever of starvation.
- 11 They deflowered women in Sion, maidens in the cities of Judah.
- 12 Generals were impaled by their hands, to elders' faces no deference was paid.
- 13 Young men carried mills and boys stumbled with timber.
- 14 Old men have desisted from sitting in gates, young men from their lute-playing.
- 15 The joyousness of our hearts has ceased, our dancing is turned to mourning,
- 16 The crown on our heads has fallen;
woe is ours, because we have sinned.
- 17 It is for this our hearts have grown sick, it is for these things our eyes are darkened,
- 18 For Mount Sion, that it is desolated; foxes walk over it.
- 19 You, Jehovah, are seated forever;
your throne is for generations upon generations;
- 20 Why are you forgetting us permanently, leaving us while time goes on?
- 21 Bring us back to you, Jehovah, and back we will come;
give us new days like the old time.
- 22 —But you have repudiated us outright, are incensed against us to the utmost.

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

CHAPTER 1

- 1 And in the year thirty, fourth month, on the fifth of the month, I being among the exiles by the river Kebar, the sky opened and I
 2 saw divine visions. 2 On the fifth of the month (this was the fifth year 3 from King Jehojakin's deportation) 3 did Jehovah's word come to Priest Ezekiel the son of Buzi in the Chaldean country by the river Kebar.
 4 4 And Jehovah's hand came upon me, and I saw, and there there came a tempest of wind out of the north with a great cloud in it 5 that had a radiance round it and a dancing fire, 5 out of which fire appeared an effulgence like that of green gold, and out of it the semblance of four creatures.
 6 6 And this was their appearance: they had human semblance, with 7 four faces each and four wings each, 7 their legs straight legs, their feet like calves' feet, and they sparkled with a gleam like burnished 8 9 bronze. 8 And under their wings were human arms on all sides; 9 and the wings of the four each joined the next. They did not go round when 10 they went; 10 they each went in the direction he was facing. And the semblance of their faces was a human face, and a lion's face to the 11 right for the four, and a bull's face to the left for the four, and a vulture's face for the four. 11 And their wings parted at the top: each 12 had two wings that joined each, and two that covered their bodies.

12 And they went each toward the side it faced; whichever way they had 13 the spirit telling them to go they went; they did not turn as they went. 13 And in the midst of the creatures was an appearance like live coals burning with an appearance like torches going back and forth between the creatures; and the fire had a radiance, and out of the fire came lightnings.

15 15 And I saw the creatures, and there there was one wheel on the 16 ground beside the creatures, all four of them; and the appearance of the wheels was like the look of yellow jasper. 16 And the four had one semblance; and their appearance and structure were as if there should 17 be a wheel through the middle of a wheel. 17 In going they went toward 18 all four quarters; they did not turn as they went. 18 And their rims had height and had fear; and their rims were full of eyes all round, all 19 four. 19 And when the creatures went the wheels went beside them; 20 and when the creatures rose from the ground the wheels rose. 20 Whichever way they had the spirit telling them to go the wheels went, and rose simultaneously with them, for the wheels had the creatures' 21 spirit in them. 21 When those went these went, and when those stood still these stood still, and when those rose off the ground the wheels rose simultaneously with them, because the wheels had the creatures' spirit in them.

22 22 And there was a semblance over the creatures' heads, a plate with 23 the look of transparent ice extending above their heads, 23 and under the plate their wings were level, brushing against each other; they 24 each had two covering their bodies. 24 And I heard the sound of their wings like the sound of a great body of water, like Shaddai's voice, when they went; a sound of pelting rain, like the sound of an army.
When they stood still they let down their wings.

25 25 And there was a sound above the plate over their heads when they 26 stood still, letting down their wings; 26 and above the plate over their heads was an appearance like that of a sapphire in the semblance of a throne, and on the semblance of the throne a semblance in human 27 form upon it above. 27 And I saw something like the luster of green gold, an appearance as if of a fire with a casing all round it, from the appearance of his waist up; and from the appearance of his waist down I saw an appearance as if of a fire and a radiance all round it 28 28 like the appearance of the bow that comes in the clouds on a rainy day; such was the appearance of radiance all round. This was the appearance of the semblance of the glory of Jehovah.

And I saw it and threw myself down on my face; and I heard a

CHAPTER 2

1 voice speaking, 1 and it said to me "Man, stand on your feet and let 2 me speak with you." 2 And a spirit came into me, as it told me, and set me on my feet, and I heard one speaking to me.
3 3 And he said to me "Man, I am sending you to the mutinous house of Israel, who have mutinied against me, they and their fathers, to 4 this very day; 4 and you shall say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah'; 5 5 whether they obey or do not—for they are a disobedient house—they 6 shall know there has been a prophet among them. 6 And as for you, man, do not be afraid of them nor dismayed at their words when they contradict you and slight you and you are seated among scorpions:
do not be afraid of their words nor dismayed before them, 7 because they are a disobedient house; 7 but speak my words to them, 8 whether they obey or do not. 8 For they are a disobedient house; but do you, man, listen to him who speaks to you, do not be disobedient like the disobedient house: open your mouth and eat what I am giving 9 you." 9 And I saw, and found a hand held out to me, and in it a written 10 book; 10 and he unrolled it before me, and it was written face and back,

CHAPTER 3

1 and it had written in it dirges and moans and laments. 1 And he said to me "Man, eat what you find, eat this book, and go speak to the 2 house of Israel." 2 And I opened my mouth and he fed the book to me, 3 and I ate it; 3 and he said to me "Man, let your stomach feed, and fill your maw with this book I am giving you"; and I ate it, and it tasted like honey.
4 4 And he said to me "Go on, man, come to the house of Israel and 5 speak my words to them. 5 For it is not to a people of strange and awkward language that you are sent in being sent to the house of 6 Israel, not to many people whose talk you cannot understand; 6 in 7 case I had sent you to them they would listen to you. 7 But the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to me, because all the house of Israel are hard-browed and 8 stiff-minded. 8 Here, I have made your face hard to match their faces 9 and your brow hard to match their brows. 9 Like adamant harder than flint I have made your brow; do not be afraid of them nor dismayed before them because they are a disobedient house." 10 10 And he said to me "Man, apprehend with your mind and hear with 11 your ears all the words I say to you, 11 and come to the exiles, the sons of your people, and tell them 'Says the Lord Jehovah,' whether they obey or do not."
12 12 And a spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the sound of a great earthquake at the ascending of Jehovah's glory from its place, 13 and the sound of the creatures' wings brushing against each other and the sound of the wheels accompanying them, and the sound of an earthquake. 14 And a spirit lifted me up and took me, and I went moodily with my spirit hot and Jehovah's hand bearing hard on me, 15 and came to the exiles at Tel-Abib, those who lived by the river Kebar, where they were living, and I stayed there among them aghast seven days.

16 17 16 And at the end of seven days Jehovah's word came to me 17 "Man, I post you as lookout for the house of Israel, and you are to hear a word from my mouth and warn them from me. 18 When I say to the wrong-doer 'You shall die' and you do not warn him nor speak to the wrong-doer to turn back from his course to save his life, he is a wrong-doer, he shall die for his guilt, but I will hold you to account for his blood. 19 But when you do warn a wrong-doer and he does not turn back from his wickedness nor from his course, that wrong-doer shall die for his guilt, but you have cleared yourself. 20 And when an honest man turns back from his honesty and acts dishonestly, and I give him something to trip over, he shall die; because you did not warn him, he shall die for his sin, and his record of honesty that he has made shall not be remembered; but I will hold you to account for his blood. 21 But when you have warned an honest man not to sin and he has not sinned, he shall live because he took warning, and you have cleared yourself."

22 22 And Jehovah's hand came upon me there, and he said to me "Stand up, go out into the bottom-lands and there I will speak with you."

23 23 And I stood up and went out into the bottom-lands, and there I found Jehovah's glory standing, like the glory I had seen by the river Kebar; and I threw myself down on my face. 24 And a spirit came into me and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me and said to me "Go in and shut yourself up in your house; 25 and on you, man, they will put ropes and tie you up with them, and you shall not go out among them; 26 and your tongue I will make stick to the roof of your mouth, and you shall be dumb and not be a reprover for them, because they are a disobedient house. 27 And when I speak with you I will open your mouth and you shall say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah'; he who obeys will obey and he who does not will not—because they are a disobedient house.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 "And for yourself, man, take a brick and put it before you and 2 mark out on it a city (Jerusalem)2 and lay siege to it and build a wall of investment against it and throw up a ramp against it and 3 put down camps against it and place battering-rams all round; 3 and for your part take an iron griddle and put it as an iron wall between you and the city, and set your face fixedly toward it; and have it in a state of siege, besiege it—it is a token to the house of Israel.

4 4 "And for yourself lie on your left side and place the guilt of the house of Israel on it; for the number of days that you lie on it you 5 shall be bearing their guilt. 5 And I on my part have given you the years of their guilt for a number of days, three hundred and ninety 6 days, and you shall bear the guilt of the house of Israel; 6 and having finished these you shall lie on your right side and bear the guilt of the house of Judah forty days, a day for a year; I have given you a 7 day for a year. 7 And you shall set your face fixedly toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm bared, and prophesy against it.

8 8 "And I hereby put ropes on you and you shall not turn over from 9 side to side till you have finished the time of your siege. 9 And for yourself take wheat and barley and beans and lentils and millet and spelt and put them in one dish and make them into bread for yourself, which you are to eat for the number of days that you are lying 10 on your side, three hundred and ninety days. 10 And your food that you eat you shall eat by weight, ten ounces a day, at a regular hour; 11 and you shall drink water by measure, three pints at a regular hour; 12 and you shall eat it as a barley-cake, and bake it with lumps of human 13 excrement before their eyes"; 13 and Jehovah said "So shall the sons of Israel eat their bread unclean among the nations where I disperse them."

14 14 And I said "O, O, Lord Jehovah, God of Israel! here my person has never been defiled by an uncleanness, and I have never eaten meat from a creature that had died a natural death or been killed by wild beasts, from my childhood till now, nor has any foul food gone into 15 my mouth." 15 And he said to me "See here, I give you cow-droppings instead of human dung, that you may do your bread on them."

16 16 And he said to me "Man, here am I breaking bread-stocks in Jerusalem, and they shall eat bread by weight and in anxiety, and drink 17 water by measure and aghast, 17 so that they may be short of bread and water and look aghast at each other and rankle down in their guilt.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 "And for yourself, man, get a sharp sword; you are to take it as barbers' razor and pass it over your head and over your chin, and 2 take weighing-scales and divide it. 2 A third you are to burn in a fire in the middle of the city when the days of siege are full, and you are to take a third around which you are to slash with the sword, and a third you are to scatter to the wind—and I will bare swords after 3 them. 3 And you are to take from there a small number and tie them 4 up in the flap of your garment; 4 and of them again you are to take some and throw them into the middle of the fire and burn them up; therefrom shall a fire go out to all the house of Israel.

5 5 "And you are to say to the house of Israel 'Says the Lord Jehovah, This is Jerusalem, which I have placed in the middle of the nations, 6 with countries around her, 6 and she disobeyed my laws in wickedness more than the nations, and my usages more than the countries around 7 her, for they rejected my laws and did not go by my usages. 7 So the Lord Jehovah says, Since you have been more disobedient than the nations around you, not going by my usages nor living up to my laws 8 nor doing like the laws of the nations around you, 8 therefore the Lord Jehovah says, Have at you! I will execute justice in your midst before 9 the eyes of the nations, 9 and will do to you what I have never done and what I will never again do the like of, because of all your abomi-10 nable doings. 10 So fathers shall eat children in you, and children eat their fathers, and I will execute judgments on you and scatter all 11 your remnant to every wind. 11 So by my life, quoth the Lord Jehovah, since you have defiled my sanctuary with all your disgustments and abominations, I on my part will clip and my eye will have no mercy, 12 I on my part will not spare. 12 A third of you shall die by pestilence and starve with hunger within you, and a third shall fall by the sword around you, and a third I will scatter to every wind and will 13 bare swords after them. 13 And my anger shall be spent and I will slake my ire on them, and they shall know that I Jehovah have spoken in 14 my jealousy when I spend my ire on them 14 and make you a ruin, and your daughters around you, under the eyes of every passerby.

15 15 And you shall be a slur and a taunt, a lesson and a horror, to the nations around you, when I execute judgments on you in ireful 16 chastisements—I Jehovah have spoken; 16 when I send among them the fell arrows of famine to be their bane, and break bread-stocks among 17 you, 17 and send against you famine and wild beasts to rob you of your children, and pestilence and bloodshed pass through you, and I bring swords upon you—I Jehovah have spoken.' "

CHAPTER 6

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me, 2 "Man, face toward the mountains 3 of Israel and prophesy to them 3 and say 'Mountains of Israel, listen to the Lord Jehovah's word: says the Lord Jehovah to the mountains and the hills and the gorges and the valleys, Here I am bringing 4 swords against you, and I will destroy your heights 4 and your altars 5 shall be desolated and your hammans broken, 5 and I will have your slain fall before your fetishes and will scatter your bones around your 6 altars; 6 in all your domiciles the cities shall be ruined and the heights lie desolate, in order that your altars may be ruined and your fetishes 7 broken and your hammans cut down; 7 and stabbed men shall fall in 8 your midst, and you shall know that I am Jehovah 8 by having among the nations some that escape from the sword when I scatter you 9 through the countries; 9 and in the nations to which they have been carried off: those of you who escape will remember their heart that prostituted itself to ignore me and their eyes that prostituted themselves to follow their fetishes, and will feel a loathing for their own

10 faces at all their abominations, 10 and will know that it was not for nothing that I Jehovah threatened to do them this mischief.

11 11 "Says the Lord Jehovah, Clap your hands and slap your leg and say "Ha! Ha!" over all the abominations of the house of Israel, that

12 they are to fall by sword, by starvation, and by pestilence. 12 The one far away shall die by pestilence, and the one nearby shall fall by sword, and the one in the siege shall go off by starvation, and I will

13 wreak my ire on them; 13 and you shall know I am Jehovah by their slain's being among their fetishes around their altars on every high hill and under every verdant tree in the place where they have given a 14 grateful odor to all their fetishes. 14 And I will stretch out my hand against them and make the country a desolation and a horror from wilderness to Riblah, in all their domiciles, and they shall know I am Jehovah.' "

CHAPTER 7

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me, 2 "And yourself, man, say 'Says the Lord Jehovah to the soil of Israel, Summer! the summer is come on

3 the four sides of the country. 3 The summer is upon you now, and I will turn my anger loose and judge you in accordance with your

4 courses, and bring down all your abominations on you; 4 and my eye will have no mercy and I will not spare, for I will bring down your courses on you and you shall not have your abominations in your midst, and you shall know I am Jehovah.

5 6 5 "Says the Lord Jehovah, Evil for evil, here it comes! 6 Summer is coming, the summer is come, the summer is upon you! Here it comes,

7 winter comes to you, inhabitant of the country; 7 the time is come, the

8 day is near, uproar and not the pickers' mountain whoop. 8 Now I will presently pour out my ire on you and wreak my anger on you and judge you in accordance with your courses and bring down all your

9 abominations on you; 9 and my eye will have no mercy and I will not spare, I will bring down on you the equivalent of your courses and you shall not have your abominations in your midst, and you shall

10 know it is I Jehovah that am striking. 10 Here is the day; here the winter has come in, has gone out, the stick has flowered, presumptuous-

11 ness has sprouted, 11 outrage has come up into a stick for wickedness, not from them and not from their host and not from their hustling.

12 12 The time is come, the day has reached us; let the buyer not rejoice nor the seller mourn, because there is anger against all the acquest.

13 13 For the seller will not come back to the sold property though their life is still among the living, and the buyer will not live on the acquest,

14 and, each for his own guilt, they will not hold fast their lives. 14 Sound a blast and get everything ready—and no one goes to war; for there is anger against all the acquest. 15 The sword is outside and the pestilence and starvation inside; he who is in the open will die by the sword, and him who is in the city starvation and pestilence will eat

16 up; 16 and such of them as escape will escape and be on the mountains—17 death will finish them off, each for his own guilt. 17 All hands will be 18 unstrung and all knees run water; 18 and they will belt on sackcloths and shudder all over, and there will be shame on all faces and bald-19 ness on all heads. 19 They will throw their silver into the street, and their gold will go for filth; they will not satisfy their appetites nor fill 20 their stomachs; 20 for it had been their stumbling-block to guilt, and the splendor of their jewelry they devoted to pride, and made the 21 images of their abominations with it; therefore I have made it filth to them, 21 and will give it into the hands of aliens as plunder and to the 22 most lawless of the earth as booty, and they shall profane it. 22 And I will turn my face away from them, and they shall profane my 23 seclusion and come into it, and bandits shall profane it. 23 Make the chain, because the country is full of bloodshed and the city of out-24 rage; 24 and I will bring the worst of nations and they shall take possession of their houses. And I will put a stop to their pride of might, 25 and their sanctuaries shall be profaned. 25 A windup has come, and they 26 shall look for peace and not have any. 26 There shall come ruin upon ruin, there shall be rumor upon rumor; and they shall hunt for vision from a prophet, and instruction shall be lost from priest and counsel 27 from old men; 27 prince shall be robed in desolation and the hands of the populace shall flutter. I will do with them in accordance with their course and judge them for their ways, and they shall know that I am Jehovah."

CHAPTER 8

1 1 And in the year six, in the sixth month, on the fifth of the month, I was sitting in my house and the elders of Judah were sitting before 2 me, and the Lord Jehovah's hand fell on me there; 2 and I saw and found a semblance in the form of a man, from the appearance of 3 his waist down fire, and from his waist up a resplendent appearance like the luster of green gold. 3 And he reached out the figure of a hand and took me by my cue, and a wind took me up between the earth and the sky and brought me to Jerusalem in divine vision, to the northward inner gateway, where was the site of the jealousy-effigy; 4 4 and I found there the glory of the God of Israel, like the sight I had seen in the bottom-lands.

5 5 And he said to me "Man, raise your eyes northward"; and I raised my eyes northward and to the north of the altar gate I found this 6 jealousy-effigy in the entrance. 6 And he said to me "Man, do you see what they are doing, great abominations that the house of Israel are committing here, to be far from my sanctuary? but yet again you shall see great abominations."

7 7 And he brought me to the gate of the court, and I saw and found 8 a hole in the wall. 8 And he said to me "Man, break into the wall"; 9 and I broke into the wall and found an entrance. 9 And he said to me "Go in and see the vile abominations they are committing here." 10 And I went in and saw and found every figure of reptile and disgusting beast and all the fetishes of the house of Israel, delineated 11 on the wall all round; 11 and seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, with Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan in the middle, standing before them with censers in their hands and the invocatory cloud of 12 incense going up. 12 And he said to me "Do you see, man, what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark, each in his picture-chambers, because they think 'Jehovah does not see us, Jehovah has left the country!'" 13 And he said to me "Yet again you shall see great abominations that they are committing."

14 14 And he brought me to the northern gate of Jehovah's house, and I 15 found the women there, sitting weeping for Tammuz. 15 And he said to me "Did you see, man? yet again you shall see greater abominations than these."
16 16 And he brought me to the inner court of Jehovah's house, and I found at the door of Jehovah's temple, between the porch and the altar, about twenty men with their backs to Jehovah's temple and their faces eastward; and they were doing reverence eastward to the 17 sun. 17 And he said to me "Do you see, man? Do the house of Judah find it too slight a matter to have committed the abominations they had committed here, that they have filled the country with outrage 18 and here they are sending bad air at my nose? 18 And I on my part will act in resentment; my eye will have no mercy and I will not spare; and they will cry in my ears in a loud voice and I will not listen to them."

CHAPTER 9

1 1 And he cried in a loud voice in my hearing "Come on, punishments 2 of the city!" 2 and there six men were coming from the direction of the upper gate, the one that is faced northward, each with his smashing-mace in his hand, and in the middle of them one man dressed in linen with writer's pen and ink at his waist; and they came in and 3 stood beside the bronze altar. 3 And the glory of the God of Israel moved up from the cherub it had been on to the threshold of the house, and he called out to the man dressed in linen that had the writer's pen
4 and ink at his waist 4 "Go through the middle of the city, through the middle of Jerusalem, and make crosses on the foreheads of the men that moan and groan for all the abominations that are committed 5 within it." 5 And to these he said in my hearing "Go through the city behind him and strike; let your eyes have no mercy, do not spare; 6 you 6 are to kill old man and young and maiden and child and women in wholesale slaughter, but not come near any man that has the cross on him; and you are to begin at my sanctuary." And they began with 7 the old men before the house. 7 And he said to them "Defile the house and fill its courts with bleeding bodies, and go out and strike in the city."

8 And when they went to striking I remained alive; and I threw myself on my face and cried "O, O, Lord Jehovah, are you going to make away with all the remnant of Israel in pouring out your ire on Jerusalem?"<sup>9</sup>And he said to me "The guilt of the house of Israel and Judah is very great indeed: the country has been filled with bloodshed and the city is full of crookedness, because they think 'Jehovah has left the country and Jehovah does not see';<sup>10</sup> and neither shall my eye have mercy nor will I spare—I have brought their course down on their own heads."

11 And back came the man dressed in linen that had the writer's pen and ink at his waist reporting "I have done as you ordered."

CHAPTER 10

1 And I saw and found on the plate over the cherubs' heads something like a sapphire in the shape of a throne appearing over them.<sup>2</sup>And he said to the man dressed in linen "Go in between the rollers, under the cherub, and take a double handful of live coals from between the cherubs and throw them over the city"; and he went in before my eyes.<sup>3</sup> And the cherubs were standing to the right of the house when he, the man, went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.<sup>4</sup>And Jehovah's glory ascended from the cherubs to the threshold of the house, and the house filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the radiance of Jehovah's glory.<sup>5</sup> And the sound of the cherubs' wings was heard to the outer court, like the voice of El Shaddai when he speaks.<sup>6</sup>And when he gave the man dressed in linen the order "Take fire from between the rollers, from between the cherubs," he went in and stood beside a wheel,<sup>7</sup>and reached out his hand to the fire between the cherubs and took some and went out.

8 And the cherubs had visible under their wings the figure of human arms.<sup>9</sup>And I saw and found four wheels beside the cherubs, a wheel beside a cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like the look of a yellow jasper.<sup>10</sup> And their appearance, the four having one semblance, was as if there should be a wheel through the middle of a wheel.<sup>11</sup> In going they went toward all four quarters; they did not turn as they went, because to the place that the head faced toward they followed it; they did not turn as they went.<sup>12</sup> And all their flesh, and their backs and arms and wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all round, their wheels for the four of them.<sup>13</sup> The wheels, they were called rollers in my hearing.<sup>15</sup> And the cherubs ascended: that was the creature I saw at the river Kebar.<sup>16</sup> And when the cherubs went the wheels went beside them, and when the cherubs raised their wings to ascend from the earth their wheels too did not swerve from beside them;<sup>17</sup> when those stood they stood, and when those ascended they ascended with them, because they had the creature's spirit in them.

18 18 And Jehovah's glory went out from the threshold of the house and 19 stood over the cherubs. 19 And the cherubs raised their wings and ascended from the earth before my eyes as they went out, with the wheels abreast of them; and they halted at the east gate of Jehovah's 20 house, with the glory of the God of Israel above them. 20 That was the creature I had seen under the God of Israel at the river Kebar; and 21 I knew they were cherubs. 21 Each had four faces and each four wings, 22 and they had the semblance of human arms under their wings. 22 And the semblance of their faces was the faces I had seen by the river Kebar; and they, they went each toward the side it faced.

CHAPTER 11

1 1 And a spirit took me up and brought me to the eastward-facing east gate of Jehovah's house; and there at the gate were twenty-five men, and I saw in their midst Jaazaniah the son of 'Azzur and 2 Pelatiah the son of Benajah, the captains of the people. 2 And he said to me "Man, these are the men who plan villainies and advocate a 3 harmful policy in this city, 3 who think 'Founding families is pretty 4 near us, isn't it?4This is the kettle and we are the meat!' So prophesy 5 to them, prophesy, man,"—5and Jehovah's spirit fell on me and he said to me "Say 'Says Jehovah, So you think, house of Israel, and I know 6 your trains of thought. 6 You have done many to death in this city, 7 and filled its streets with victims. 7 So the Lord Jehovah says, Your victims that you have made in it, they are the meat and it the kettle; 8 but you I will take out from it.8You are afraid of swords, and swords 9 I will bring upon you, quoth the Lord Jehovah; 9 and I will take you out from it and put you in the hands of aliens, and execute justice 10 on you. 10 By swords you shall fall; on Israelite territory I will judge 11 you, and you shall know that I am Jehovah. 11 This shall be no kettle of yours, nor you meat within it; on Israelite territory I will judge 12 you, 12 and you shall know that I am Jehovah, by whose usages you have not gone and whose laws you have not lived up to, but lived 13 like the laws of the nations around you.'" 13 And while I was prophesying, Pelatiah the son of Benajah died, and I threw myself on my face and cried loudly "O, O, Lord Jehovah, you are making an end of the remnant of Israel!"

14 15 14 And Jehovah's word came to me 15 "Man, your brothers, the men of your deportation, and all the whole house of Israel, of whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem are saying "They are far from Jehovah; the 16 country is given to us for a possession"—16 so the Lord Jehovah says, Though I have sent them far among the nations and though I have scattered them among the countries, I have become for them a tem-17 porary sanctuary in the countries they have come to. 17 So the Lord Jehovah says, And I will gather them out of the peoples and bring them in out of the countries among which I scattered them, and will 18 give them the soil of Israel, 18 and they shall come in there and throw

19 out from it all its disgustments and all its abominations; 19 and I will give them a new heart and put a new spirit into them, and throw out the stone hearts out of their bodies and give them hearts of flesh, 20 20 in order that they may go by my usages and keep my laws and live up to them, and I may have them for my people and they may have me for their God. 21 But these have their hearts going after their disgustments and abominations; I have brought their courses down on their own heads, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

22 22 And the cherubs raised their wings, with the wheels abreast of them and with the glory of the God of Israel above them. 23 And Jehovah's glory went up off the interior of the city and stood on the mountain east of the city.

24 24 And a spirit took me up and brought me to Chaldea to the exiles, in the appearance, by the spirit of God; and the appearance I had seen went up off me. 25 And I spoke to the exiles all Jehovah's words that he had shown me.

CHAPTER 12

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, you are living in the midst of the disobedient house who have eyes to see but do not see, have ears to hear but do not hear, because they are a disobedient house. 3 3 But do you, man, make up an outfit for exile by day in their sight and go into exile from your place to another in their sight; they may see, disobedient house as they are. 4 4 Bring your outfit out like an outfit for exile by day in their sight and go out yourself at evening in their sight like an exile's start. 5 5 Break a hole in the wall in their sight and bring out by it; 6 6 you are to shoulder a load in their sight, bring out in the dark, cover your face and do not see the earth, because I have made you a portent to the house of Israel." 7 7 And I did so, as I was commanded to: I brought out my outfit like an outfit for exile by day, and at evening I broke a hole in the wall with my hands; in the dark I brought out, shouldering the load in their sight.

8 8 And Jehovah's word came to me in the morning 9 "Man, the house of Israel, the disobedient house, said to you 'What are you doing,' did they? 10 10 say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah who pronounces this boding against those who live in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel in whose midst they are, 11 11 Say "I am your portent: as I did, so they will have it done to them; 12 12 they will go into exile, into serfdom. And the prince who is among them will shoulder a load in the dark and go out; they will break a hole in the wall to let him out; he will cover his face, because he is not to be seen by an eye. 13 13 And I will spread my net for him and he will be caught in my toils; and I will bring him to Babylon, the Chaldeans' country, and he will not see it; and there he will die. 14 14 And all who are around him, his helpers and all his squadrons, I will disperse to every wind and will bare swords after them; 15 15 and they shall know that I am Jehovah at my scattering them

- 16 among the nations and dispersing them among the countries. 16 And I will leave over from swords, from starvation, and from pestilence a small number of them in order that they may tell the story of all their abominations in the nations where they have come, and they may know that I am Jehovah."'''
- 17 18 17 And Jehovah's word came to me 18 "Man, you are to eat your bread 19 with shivers and drink your water with trembling and anxiety, 19 and say to the populace 'Says the Lord Jehovah for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, On the soil of Israel they will eat their bread with anxiety and drink their water in horror, in order that their country and what fills it may be desolate for the outrages of all that live in it.
20 20 And the inhabited cities will be laid waste and the country become a desolation, and you shall know that I am Jehovah.'"
- 21 22 21 And Jehovah's word came to me 22 "Man, what is this proverb you have on the soil of Israel 'The days lengthen out and every vision 23 has come tonothing'?23so say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah, I will end this proverb, and they shall no longer quote it in Israel; but tell 24 them "The days are near, and the import of every vision.'" 24 For there shall no longer be all sorts of unmeaning visions and slippery sooth-25 sayings in the midst of the house of Israel; 25 for I Jehovah will speak what I speak, a word and it shall be done; it shall not be postponed again, but in your days, disobedient house, I will say a word and do it, quoth the Lord Jehovah.'"
- 26 27 26 And Jehovah's word came to me 27 "Man, here are the house of Israel saying 'The vision he sees is for a long time, he is prophesying of 28 distant dates.' 28 So say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah, All my words shall be postponed no longer; what I say, a word and it shall be done, quoth the Lord Jehovah.'"

CHAPTER 13

- 1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, prophesy against Israel's prophesying prophets and say to the prophesiers out of their own 3 heads 'Hear Jehovah's word. 3 Says the Lord Jehovah, Ha, the rascally prophets that follow their own spirits so that they are not afraid!
4 5 4 Like foxes among ruins your prophets, Israel, are. 5 You have not gone up into the breaches and built a fence for the house of Israel
6 for standing fast in battle on Jehovah's day. 6 They vision unmeaning things and soothsay falsehoods, they who say "quoth Jehovah" and Jehovah has not sent them, and they expect to make good a word 7 7 Have you not been seeing unmeaning visions and uttering false 8 soothsayings?' 8 Therefore say 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Owing to your talking unmeaningness and visioning falsehood, therefore have at you, 9 quoth the Lord Jehovah!9my hand shall be against the prophets that vision unmeaning things and soothsay falsehoods; they shall not be in the council of my people nor be inscribed in the register of the huse of Israel nor come to Israelite soil; and you shall know that I am the 10 Lord Jehovah. Forasmuch as they have misled my people, saying 11 "All right" when nothing was all right, and the people is building 12 without mortar and they are plastering it flat, 11 say to those who are 13 plastering it flat "When there is a flooding rain, and I send hailstones 14 falling and a tempest of wind breaking loose, 12 and the wall falls, will 15 they not say to you 'Where is the plaster you plastered on?' 13 So the 16 Lord Jehovah says, I will break loose a tempest of wind in my ire, 17 and there shall be a flooding rain in my anger, and hailstones in ire 18 to finish all, 14 and I will break down the wall you plastered flat and lay 19 it on the ground, and its foundation shall be uncovered, 15 and I will 20 wreak my ire on the wall and on those who are plastering it flat, and 21 you will have it said to you 'Where is the wall and where are those 22 who plastered it, 16 the prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem 23 and visioned for it a vision of everything all right when nothing 24 was all right?' quoth the Lord Jehovah." "

17 17 "And for your part, man, face toward the daughters of your people 18 who prophesy out of their own heads; 18 prophesy against them and say 19 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Oho the women that pin tapes to all elbows 20 and make cowls to go over the heads of all sizes of people to hunt 21 lives! will you hunt lives for my people and preserve lives for your-22 selves? 19 And you have profaned me to my people for handfuls of 23 barley and morsels of bread, destroying lives that should not die 24 and preserving lives that should not live, by your lying to my people 25 that listen to lies.

20 20 "So the Lord Jehovah says, Have at your tapes where you hunt the 21 souls for fowl! I will tear them off your arms and let the souls you are 22 hunting go free; 21 and I will tear your cowls and deliver my people 23 out of your hands, and they shall no longer be a bag of game in your 24 hands; 22 and you shall know I am Jehovah. Since you have pained 25 honest men's hearts with falsehood when I had not pained them, and 26 been encouraging wicked men not to turn back from their wicked 27 courses to have their lives spared, 23 therefore you shall no longer vision 28 unmeaning things nor carry on soothsaying; and I will deliver my 29 people out of your hands, and you shall know I am Jehovah.' "

CHAPTER 14

1 1 And some of the elders of Israel came in where I was and sat down 2 before me; 2 and Jehovah's word came to me 3 "Man, these men have 3 taken to their fetishes and put before their faces their stumbling-blocks 4 to guilt; am I to let myself be inquired of by them? 4 So speak with 5 them and say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Whatever man of 6 the house of Israel takes to his fetishes and lays before his face his 7 stumbling-block to guilt and comes to a prophet, I Jehovah respond 8 to him therein for his multitude of fetishes, 5 in order to trap the house 9 of Israel by their own hearts inasmuch as they have made themselves 10 strangers to me by all their fetishes.' 6 So say to the house of Israel

'Says the Lord Jehovah, Come back and face about away from your 7 fetishes, and from all your abominations face about. 7 For whatever man of the house of Israel and of the immigrants that are living in Israel performs rites of separation from me takes to his fetishes and lays before his face his stumbling-block to guilt and comes to a prophet to inquire of me, I Jehovah am going to reply to him for my-8 self, 8 and set my face against that man and render him a token and a byword, and cut him off from my people, and you shall know that 9 I am Jehovah; 9 and when the prophet is inveigled so that he speaks a word, I Jehovah have inveigled that prophet and will swing my hand 10 over him and root him out from among my people Israel; 10 and they shall bear their guilt—inquirer's guilt and prophet's shall be equal—11 11 in order that the house of Israel may not again stray from following me and may not again defile themselves with all their crimes, but I may have them for my people and they may have me for their God, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

12 13 12 And Jehovah's word came to me 13 "Man, when a country sins against me, committing an unfaithfulness, and I stretch out my hand over it and break bread-stocks for it and send famine upon it and cut off 14 man and beast from it, 14 were these three men in its midst, Noah, Daniel, and Job, they by their saintliness should be delivering their 15 own selves, quoth Jehovah. 15 If I sent savage beasts through the country and depopulated it and it became an untraveled desolation because 16 of the beasts, 16 these three men being in its midst, by my life, quoth the Lord Jehovah, neither sons nor daughters should they deliver, they alone should be delivered, but the country should become a 17 desolation. 17 Or were I to bring warfare upon that country and say
'Let warfare go through the country' and cut off man and beast from 18 it, 18 these three men being in its midst, by my life, quoth the Lord Jehovah, they should not deliver sons nor daughters, but they alone 19 should be delivered. 19 Or were I to send an epidemic to that country and pour out my ire on it with blood, cutting off man and beast from it, 20 20 Noah, Daniel, and Job being in its midst, by my ire, quoth the Lord Jehovah, neither son nor daughter should they deliver; they by their saintliness should be delivered their own selves.

21 21 "Whereas the Lord Jehovah says, How much more when I have sent to Jerusalem my four worst judgments, warfare and famine and 22 savage beasts and epidemic, to cut off man and beast from it— 22 but here there are survivors left in it, who are to be brought out, sons and daughters. Here they will be coming out to you, and you will see their courses and practices and be reconciled to the disaster I have 23 brought upon Jerusalem, everything I have brought upon her: 23 they will reconcile you when you see their courses and practices, and you will know it was not for nothing I did all that I did to her, quoth
the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER 15

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, what does the grapevine 3 stem come to more than any woody climber that comes among the 4 trees in the badlands? 3 Will wood be taken from it to use in work? or 5 will they take from it a peg to hang any article on? 4 Suppose it has 6 been given to the fire to be consumed, the fire has eaten off both ends 7 of it and the middle of it is scorched, will it do for work? 5 Here it 8 would not be used in work when it was entire; when in addition fire 9 has eaten it and it is scorched, will it still be used in work? 6 So the 10 Lord Jehovah says, As the grapevine stem among the trees in the 11 badlands, that I have given to the fire to be consumed, such have I 12 made the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 7 and will set my face against them: 13 they have come out of the fire and the fire shall eat them off; and 14 you shall know I am Jehovah by my fixing my face against them. 8 And 15 I will make the country desolate, since they have committed un-16 faithfulfulness, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER 16

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, let Jerusalem know her 3 abominable ways, 3 and say 'Says the Lord Jehovah to Jerusalem, Your 4 origin and birth were out of the Canaanite country, your father was 5 the Amorite, and your mother was Hittite. 4 And as for your birth, on 6 the day of your being born your navel-string was not cut and you 7 were not bathed with water for lustration; you were unsalted and 8 unwrapped. 5 No eye had mercy on you to do any of these things for 9 you in a humane feeling for you; and you were thrown out on the 10 open range in aversion to your existence on the day of your being 11 born. 6 And I passed by you and saw you kicking in your blood, and 12 said to you in your blood "Live and increase!" 7 I made you like the 13 growths of the range, and you increased and grew large and came 14 to the time of periods; your breasts took shape and your hair sprouted, 15 you being naked and bare. 8 And I passed by you and saw you and 16 found your age was the age for lovemaking; and I spread the flap 17 of my garment over you and covered your nudity, and swore an 18 oath to you and entered into a covenant with you, quoth the Lord 19 Jehovah, and you became mine. 9 And I bathed you with water and 20 washed your blood off you and rubbed you with oil, 10 and dressed you 21 in embroidery and shod you with sea-cow skin and swathed you in 22 lawn and enveloped you in silk and be jeweled you with jewels, 11 and 23 put bracelets on your arms and a necklace round your throat, 12 and 24 put a ring in your nose and earrings in your ears and a magnificent 25 coronet on your head.
26 13 " 'And you were bejeweled with gold and silver, and your dress 27 was lawn and silk and embroidery, and you ate farina and honey and 28 oil, and you grew very, very lovely and fit for queenhood, 14 and your 29 reputation for loveliness went out among the nations, because your loveliness was perfect by my beautifying which I had applied to you, 15 quoth the Lord Jehovah; 15 and you trusted to your loveliness and went into prostitution on the basis of your reputation and poured your 16 prostitution out toward every passerby—his it was to be. 16 And you took some of your garments and made yourself many-colored heights 17 and prostituted yourself at them. 17 And you took your magnificent outfit, gold and silver of mine that I had given you, and made yourself 18 male images and committed unchaste acts with them; 18 and you took your embroidered garments and covered them, and my oil and incense 19 you put before them; 19 and my viands that I had given you, farina and oil and honey, you fed to them and put before them for a 20 genial odor. 20 And, quoth the Lord Jehovah, you took your sons and daughters that you had borne to me and sacrificed them to them for 21 their eating. 21 Was your prostitution not enough? you slaughtered my 22 children and gave them, by sending them over, to them. 22 And with all your abominations and prostitutions you did not remember your 23 girlhood days when you were naked and bare; kicking in your blood you were. 23 And after all your wickedness—shame on you, shame on 24 you, quoth the Lord Jehovah—24 you built yourself a kiosk and made 25 yourself a pagoda in every square; 25 at every head of a road you built your pagoda and debased your beauty and spread your legs 26 apart to every passerby and prostituted yourself by wholesale. 26 And you prostituted yourself to the Egyptians your big-organed neighbors, and carried on the prostitution by wholesale, to provoke me.

27 27 "'And there I stretched out my hand against you and cut down your allowance and gave you up to the will of your haters the daughters of the Philistines, who were humiliated at your course (lewdness).

28 28 "'And you prostituted yourself to the Assyrians because you had not had all you wanted, and even prostituting yourself with them 29 you did not have all you wanted. 29 And you prostituted yourself by wholesale to the country of Canaan, to the Chaldeans; and you did 30 not have all you wanted with this either. 30 What a moping heart was yours, quoth the Lord Jehovah, when you did all these things, the 31 actions of an audacious unchaste woman, 31 when you built your kiosk at the head of every road and made your pagoda in every square!
32 and you were not like a prostitute, gibing at a tip. 32 A woman that 33 commits adultery during wedlock takes tips; 33 they give a fee to all prostitutes; but you gave your fees to all your lovers and bribed them 34 to come to you from all sides in your prostitution. 34 And there was in you a contrast to women in general; in your prostituting yourself when you were not solicited, and in your giving tips when none were given to you, you became a contrast.

35 36 35 "'So, prostitute, hear Jehovah's word. 36 Says the Lord Jehovah, Since your slime was emitted and your nudity bared in your prostituting yourself to your lovers and to all your abominations of fetishes, and in view of your children's blood that you have given to them, 37 37 therefore here I am gathering all your lovers who have found you sweet, and all whom you love as well as all whom you hate; I will gather them against you from all sides, and bare your nakedness 38 to them, and they shall see all your nakedness; 38 and I will pass on you the sentences of adulteresses and bloodshedders, and will make you 39 a bloody victim of ire and jealousy. 39 And I will give you into their hands, and they will demolish your kiosk and pull down your pagoda and strip you of your clothes and take your magnificent array and 40 leave you naked and bare, 40 and raise an assembly against you and 41 stone you, and mutilate you with their swords, 41 and burn your houses and do justice on you before the eyes of many women; and I will make 42 you leave off as prostitute, neither shall you give tips anymore, 42 and I will slake my ire on you, and my jealousy will turn away from you, 43 and I will be quiet and no longer resentful. 43 Since you did not remember your girlhood days but stirred me with all these things, here I on my part have brought your course down on your own head, quothe the Lord Jehovah, and you have not carried out your lewd design on top of all your abominations.

44 44 "Here will every proverb-fancier bring out a proverb over you, 45 "Like mother her daughter." 45 You are the daughter of your mother that held her husband and children in aversion, and the sister of your sisters that held their husbands and children in aversion: your mother 46 was Hittite and your father Amorite. 46 Your big sister was Samaria and her daughters, that lived at your left, and your little sister, that lived 47 at your right, was Sodom and her daughters. 47 And you did not walk in their paths and do the like of their abominations, within a tiny 48 little bit, but were more vicious than they in all your courses. 48 By my life, quothe the Lord Jehovah, your sister Sodom and her daughters 49 did not do the like of what you and your daughters have done. 49 Here, this was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had the pride of eating their fill of bread and of undisturbed success, and did not strengthen the hands of needy and downtrodden men, 50 and were high-handed and did an abominable thing before me; 50 and I 51 removed them when I saw it. 51 Neither did Samaria sin like half your sinning. And you have outdone them in abominations, and vindicated 52 your sisters by all your abominations that you committed. 52 Bear your disgrace yourself, as you have pleaded your sisters' cause; by your sins in which you have become more abominable than they, they have become more honest than you; be ashamed yourself and bear 53 your disgrace for having vindicated your sisters. 53 And I will come back to them, to Sodom and her daughters and to Samaria and her 54 daughters, and to you in the middle between them, 54 in order that you may bear your disgrace and be humiliated at all you have done, inasmuch as you cheered them up. 55 And your sister Sodom and her 55 daughters shall come back to their old-time condition, and your sister Samaria and her daughters to theirs, and you and your daughters

56 to yours. 56 And had not your sister Sodom become a story in your 57 mouth in the day of your pride, 57 before your wickedness had been uncovered at the time of the taunting of the daughters of Edom and all the daughters of the Philistines who vented their spite on you 58 on all sides? 58 Your lewdness and abominations you have borne the weight of, quoth Jehovah.

59 59 "For the Lord Jehovah says, And I will do by you as you did; 60 whereas you despised an adjuration, to break a covenant, 60 I on my part will remember my covenant with you in your girlhood days, 61 and will set up for you a perpetual covenant, 61 and you will remember your courses and be humiliated when you receive your sisters, the ones bigger than you along with the ones smaller than you, and I give 62 them to you for daughters, but not out of your covenant. 62 And I myself will set up my covenant with you, and you will know that I 63 am Jehovah, 63 in order that you may remember and be ashamed and may no longer have a disposition to open your mouth because of your humiliation, when I purge you for all that you have done, quoth
the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER 17

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, propound a riddle and 3 deliver a parable to the house of Israel, 3 and say 'Says the Lord Jehovah, A great vulture, great-winged, long-pinioned, full-feathered, 4 mosaic-colored, came to the Lebanon and took the tip of a cedar; 4 he took the topmost of its shoots and brought it to a commercial country; 5 he laid it in a city of traders. 5 And he took seed of the cedar and put it in a seed field; it took beside a large body of water, he made 6 it a bank-growth, 6 to sprout and become a sprawling vine of little height, for its sprays to turn toward him and its roots to be under him; and it became a vine and made canes and put out fruiting 7 sprays. 7 And there was another great vulture, great-winged and many-feathered, and this vine went and crooked its roots round toward him and sent him its shoots for watering it more than the bed it was 8 planted in. 8 It had been set out on good land, by much water, to make branches and bear fruit and be a grand vine.'

9 9 "Say 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Will it thrive? will he not pull up its roots and spoil its fruit and let all its tender new growth dry out?
and not with a great arm and a large body of men to lift it from 10 its roots. 10 And suppose it is set out, will it thrive? when the east wind touches it will it not dry out, dry out in the bed it was making its new growth in? "

11 12 11 And Jehovah's word came to me, 12 "Say to the disobedient house
'Do you not know what this stands for?' Say 'Here the king of Babylon has come to Jerusalem and taken its king and its generals and 13 brought them to his own home Babylon, 13 and taken one of the royal blood and made a treaty with him and had him come under an in-14 precession, and taken the notables of the country, 14 to have it a lowly kingdom, not to lift itself up, to keep his treaty, that it might stand.

15 15 And he rebelled against him, sending his envoys to Egypt to give him ponies and a great body of men. Will he thrive? will he who did 16 this come off safe? break a treaty and come off safe? 16 By my life, quoth the Lord Jehovah, at the place of the king who installed him, whose imprecation he despised and whose treaty he broke, with him 17 inside Babylon he will die. 17 And not with great forces and numerous assemblage will the Pharaoh support him in the war when a ramp is thrown up and a wall of investment built to cut off many lives.
18 18 And he had despised an imprecation, breaking a treaty, when he had given his hand, and had done all these things—he shall not 19 come off safe. 19 So the Lord Jehovah says, By my life, the imprecation by me that he despised and the treaty by me that he broke I will 20 bring down on his own head. 20 And I will spread my net for him, and he will be caught in my toils; and I will bring him to Babylon, and plead my case against him there for the unfaithfulness he has committed toward me. 21 And all his choicest, in all his squadrons they will fall by the sword; and those that remain will disperse to every wind; and you will know it was I, Jehovah, that spoke.

22 22 " 'Says the Lord Jehovah, And I myself will take some of the tip of the cedar, from the topmost of its shoots I will pick off a tender one, and I myself will set it out on a high and piled-up mountain: 23 in Israel's lofty highland I will set it out, and it will bear branches and produce fruit and become a grand cedar, and birds of all feathers will perch under it; in the shadow of its sprays they will perch. 24 And all the trees of the countryside will know that I Jehovah have brought a high tree low, have raised a low tree high, have dried out a lush tree and set a dry tree to budding: I Jehovah have spoken and I will do.' "

CHAPTER 18

1 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "What is the matter, that you quote this proverb among the sons of Israel, 'Fathers ate green grapes 3 and the children's teeth are set on edge'? 3 By my life, quoth the Lord Jehovah, you shall not have any more quoting of this proverb in 4 Israel. 4 Here, all souls belong to me; the father's soul and the son's alike, to me they belong; the soul that sins, that one shall die.

5 5 "And when a man is righteous and does the lawful and right thing, 6 6 has not eaten on the mountains nor raised his eyes to the fetishes of the house of Israel nor defiled another's wife nor come near a menstruating woman, 7 and does not ill-treat any man, gives back what is pawned to him, steals nothing, gives his bread to a hungry man and 8 clothes a naked man with a garment, 8 does not lend at interest nor take a bonus, draws back his hand from foul play and does justice truly 9 between man and man, 9 has gone by my usages and kept my laws, doing the loyal thing, he is a righteous man; he shall live, quoth the Lord Jehovah.

10 11 10 "And he has a lawless son who sheds blood and commits sin, 11 has not gone in his father's righteous course but has eaten on the 12 mountains and defiled another's wife, 12 has ill-treated a needy and unfortunate man, has stolen things, does not give back a pawn, and 13 has raised his eyes to the fetishes, has done what is abominable, 13 has lent at interest and taken a bonus, and is he to live? he is not; he has done all these abominable things, he shall come to his death, his blood will be on himself.

14 14 "And here he has a son, and he has seen all his father's sins that 15 he has committed and is afraid and does not commit the like, 15 has not eaten on the mountains nor raised his eyes to the fetishes of the house 16 of Israel, has not defiled another's wife 16 nor ill-treated any man, takes no pawn and steals nothing, gives his bread to a hungry man and 17 clothes a naked man with a garment, 17 draws back his hand from foul play, does not take interest and bonus, lives up to my laws and goes by my usages; he shall not die for his father's guilt, he shall live, 18 18 Because his father defrauded and stole and did what was not good among his kinsfolk, he died for his guilt. 19 And you say 'How is it the son does not carry a share in the father's guilt?' and the son did the lawful and right thing, kept all my usages and lived up to them—he shall live. 20 The soul that sins, that one shall die; a son shall carry no share in his father's guilt and a father none in his son's guilt; the righteous man's righteousness will be on him and the wicked man's wickedness on him.

21 21 "And when the wicked man turns back from all his sin that he has committed and keeps all my usages and does the lawful and right 22 thing he shall live, not die. 22 All his crimes that he has committed shall not be remembered against him; for his righteousness that he has practiced he shall live. 23 Do I take pleasure in a wicked man's dying? quoth the Lord Jehovah; do I not take pleasure in his turning back 24 from his course and living? 24 And when the righteous man turns back from his righteousness and practices foul play, does the like of all the abominable things the wicked man did, will he live? all his righteousness that he had practiced will not be remembered; for his unfaithfulness and sin that he has committed, for them he shall die. 25 25 And you say 'The Lord's course does not balance.' Listen, house of 26 Israel: is it my course that does not balance? is it not yours? 26 By a righteous man's turning back from his righteousness and practicing foul play, he shall die therefor; for his foul play that he has practiced he shall die; 27 and by a wicked man's turning back from his wickedness that he has practiced and doing the lawful and right thing he shall 28 keep his soul alive. 28 He has turned back from all his crimes that he had been committing; he shall live, not die. 29 And the house of Israel 29

say 'The Lord's course does not balance'; is it my course that does not balance? is it not yours?

30 30 "So I will judge you each in accordance with his courses, house of Israel, quoth the Lord Jehovah. Come back and face about away from all your crimes, and they will not become a stumbling-block to 31 bring you to guilt. 31 Throw off all your crimes that you have committed against me and make yourselves new hearts and new spirits: why 32 should you die, house of Israel? 32 For I take no pleasure in the death of the one who dies, quoth the Lord Jehovah: face about and live.

CHAPTER 19

12 1 "And you, man, strike up a dirge for the prince of Israel<sup>2</sup>and say 'What was your mother? a lioness: she lay at ease among young lions, 3 she reared her cubs. 3 And she elevated one of her cubs, who became 4 a young lion and learned to make a kill; he ate men. 4 And they summoned nations against him; he was caught in their pitfall; and they brought him to Egypt by hooks.

5 5 "'And she saw that her hope at first was lost, and she took one of 6 her cubs, made him a young lion, 6 and he went about among lions, 7 became a young lion, and learned to make a kill; he ate men. 7 And he broke their palaces and wasted their cities, and earth and all that 8 filled it stood aghast at the sound of his roar. 8 And nations set toils 9 for him all round and spread their nets for him, and he was caught 9 in their pitfall,<sup>9</sup>and they put him in a cage by hooks and he came to Babylonia; they took him into fortresses, in order that his voice might not be heard again on the mountains of Israel.

10 10 "'Your mother was like a grapevine on a pomegranate tree set out 11 by water, which became fruitful and branchy by abundant water; 11 and it had a strong stem for a princely scepter, whose tallness reached up between clouds, and which was conspicuous by its height by the abundance of its shoots; 12 but it was uprooted in ire, thrown on the ground, and the east wind dried out its fruit; its strong stem was broken off and dried out, fire consumed it. 13 And now it is planted in the wilderness, in a country of drought and thirst; 14 and a fire has gone out from its stem, has consumed its canes, and it has not in it a strong stem, a scepter for ruling. This is a dirge and has come to be a dirge."

CHAPTER 20

1 1 And in the year seven, in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month, men came, elders of the house of Israel, to inquire of Jehovah;
23 and they sat down before me.<sup>2</sup>And Jehovah's word came to me<sup>3</sup>"Man, speak to the elders of the house of Israel and say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Do you come to inquire of me? by my life, I will not be inquired of by you, quoth the Lord Jehovah.'<sup>4</sup>Will you judge them, will you judge them, man? let them know of their fathers' abominable 4 doings, 5 and say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah, On the day that I chose Israel and pledged myself to the descendants of Jacob's house-

6 hold and made myself known to them in Egypt, and pledged myself 6 to them with the words "I am your God Jehovah," 6 on that day I pledged myself to them to bring them out of Egypt to a country I had looked out for them, that ran milk and honey; all countries had 7 that one as a crowning glory. 7 And I said to them "Each of you throw away his pet horrors, and do not be defiled with the fetishes of Egypt; 8 I am your God Jehovah"; but they disobeyed me and would not listen to me, did not throw away their pet horrors nor quit the fetishes of Egypt, and I thought of pouring out my ire over them to wreak 9 my anger on them right in Egypt. 9 But I acted for the sake of my name, not to have it profaned under the eyes of the nations in whose midst they were, under whose eyes I had made myself known to them 10 to bring them out of Egypt; 10 and I brought them out of Egypt and 11 into the wilderness, 11 and gave them my usages and made known to them my laws, the things which man is to do and thereby have life; 12 and I gave them my sabbaths too, to become a token between them 12 and me for them to know that I am Jehovah who hallow them. 13 But 13 the house of Israel disobeyed me in the wilderness, did not go by my usages and rejected my laws, the things which man is to do and thereby have life, and grievously profaned my sabbaths; and I thought of pouring out my ire on them in the wilderness to make an end of them.
14 14 But I acted for the sake of my name, not to have it profaned under 15 the eyes of the nations under whose eyes I had brought them out; 15 and I did withal vow to them in the wilderness not to bring them into the country I had given, that ran milk and honey,—all countries had 16 that one as a crowning glory,—16 since they rejected my laws, and my usages they did not go by, and my sabbaths they profaned, because 17 their hearts were following their fetishes. 17 But my eye had too much mercy on them to make away with them, and I did not make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 18 "And I said to their sons in the wilderness "Do not go by your fathers' usages nor keep their laws nor defile yourselves with their 19 fetishes; 19 I am your God Jehovah: go by my usages and keep my laws 20 and live up to them, 20 and keep my sabbaths sacred, and they shall become a token between me and you, for you to know that I am your 21 God Jehovah." 21 But the sons disobeyed me, did not go by my usages nor keep my laws, living up to them, the things which man is to do and thereby have life, and my sabbaths they profaned; and I thought 22 of pouring out my ire over them to wreak my anger on them in the wilderness. 22 But I drew back my hand and acted for the sake of my name, not to have it profaned under the eyes of the nations under 23 whose eyes I had brought them out; 23 and I did withal vow to them in the wilderness to scatter them among the nations and sprinkle them 24 through the countries, 24 since they did not live up to my laws and rejected my usages and profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes followed 25 their fathers' fetishes. 25 And I did withal give them usages that were

26 not good and laws whereby they should not have life, 26 and I defiled them with their gifts, in the sending over of everyone that had started a womb, in order to leave them aghast.'

27 "So speak to the house of Israel, man, and say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Your fathers put this insult too upon me in committing unfaithfulness against me: 28 I brought them into the country I had pledged myself to give them, and they saw every high hill and every leafy tree and offered their sacrifices there and gave there the affront of their offerings and produced their genial odors there and poured their libations there. 29 And I said to them "What is the height you hie to?" and it has been named height, hie-what, to this day.'

30 "So say to the house of Israel 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Are you defiling yourselves along your fathers' lines, and are you prostituting yourselves to follow their disgustments, 31 and are you defiling yourselves for all your fetishes till today in lifting your gifts, in sending over your children through the fire, and am I to be inquired of by you, house of Israel? by my life, quoth the Lord Jehovah, I will not be inquired of by you, 32 and what you have thought of shall not be, that you say "Let us be like the nations, like the clans of the various countries, serving wood and stone." 33 By my life, quoth the Lord Jehovah, it will be with strong hand and with outstretched arm and with poured-out ire that I will be your king; 34 and I will bring you out of the peoples and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered with strong hand and with outstretched arm and with 35 poured-out ire and will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and I will try my case against you there face to face; 36 as I tried my case with your fathers in the wilderness of Egypt, so I will with you, quoth the Lord Jehovah. 37 And I will have you pass under the rod, and will bring you in by number, 38 and clean out of you the rebels and those that defy me: I will bring them out of the country where they lived as immigrants, but they shall not come to Israel's soil; and you shall know that I am Jehovah. 39 And as for you, house of Israel, says the Lord Jehovah, go ahead, each of you worship his fetishes; but afterward you are going to listen to me and not profane my hallowed name any longer with your gifts and your fetishes, 40 but on my sacred highland, on Israel's lofty highland, quoth the Lord Jehovah, there will all the whole house of Israel worship me in the country; there I will accept them and there I will inquire for your contributions and all your prime presentations in all your sacred rites. 41 For a genial odor I will accept you, when I bring you out of the peoples and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered, and I will vindicate my sanctity by you under the eyes of the nations; 42 and you shall know that I am Jehovah when I bring you to the soil of Israel, to the country I pledged myself to give to your fathers, 43 and there you shall remember all your courses and your practices by which you were defiled, and feel a loathing for your own faces at all the bad 44 things you have done; 44 and you shall know that I am Jehovah when I act with you on account of my name—not in accordance with your bad courses and with your vicious practices, quoth the Lord Jehovah.' "

45 46 45 And Jehovah's word came to me 46 "Man, face southward and preach 47 southward, and prophesy against the wildwood in the South, 47 and say to the woods of the South 'Hear Jehovah's word: says the Lord Jehovah, Here I am lighting a fire in you and it will eat up every green tree and every dry tree in you; it will not be quenched, a blaze 48 of flame, and all faces will be scorched by it from south to north, 48 and all mortals will see that I Jehovah have set it, it will not be quenched.' "

49 49 And I said "O, O, Lord Jehovah—those people are saying of me 'but he is a parable-monger.' "

CHAPTER 21

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "So prophesy, man! face toward Jerusalem and preach against their sanctuary and prophesy against 3 the soil of Israel,<sup>3</sup> and say to the soil of Israel 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Have at you! I will take my sword out of its sheath and exterminate 4 honest man and knave from you. 4 Since I have exterminated honest man and knave from you, therefore my sword will come out of its 5 sheath against all mortals from south to north; 5 and all mortals shall know that I Jehovah have taken my sword out of its sheath and it 6 will not go back again.'<sup>6</sup> And moan, man; with breaking back and bitter 7 taste moan before their eyes. 7 And when they say to you 'What are you moaning for?' say 'For a piece of news, because it is coining, and every heart will melt down and all hands will be unstrung and every spirit will be benumbed and all knees will run water; here it comes and will be a fact, quoth the Lord Jehovah.' "

8 9 8 And Jehovah's word came to me 9 "Man, prophesy and say 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Say "A sword, a sword, sharpened, and polished too! 10 it is sharpened so that it may slaughter a drove, it is polished so that it may flash, it bites my son's scepter, it despises every tree.
11 11 And he gave it to a polisher for grasping with his fingers; sharpened it is as a sword, and polished it is to put it in the hand of a killer.' "
12 12 Cry out and howl, man, because it has come among my people, it is among all the princes of Israel; thrown to swords with my people they 13 are—so hit your thigh. 13 For a test is made; and what if you despise even a scepter? it shall not be, quoth the Lord Jehovah.

14 14 "And do you, man, prophesy and strike hand against hand, to double a sword and triple it, a sword of carnage, a sword of great 15 carnage, going around them; 15 in order that hearts may go up and down and there may be many obstructions in all their gates, I have given the menace of a sword—ah, made for flashing, bared for slaughter, 16 16 Get whetted, turn to the right, turn to the left, whatever way your 17 face is consigned. 17 And I too will strike hand against hand and slake my ire; I Jehovah have spoken."

18 And Jehovah's word came to me 19 "And as for you, man, lay yourself out two roads for the king of Babylon's sword to come, both of them starting from one country, and lay out a city at the terminus of each road, 20 for a sword to come: Rabbah of the Bene-'Ammon, and Judah fortified in Jerusalem. 21 For the king of Babylon stood at the fork of the road, at the terminus of the two roads, to try for good-luck signs: he jiggled the arrows, he asked the teraphim, he inspected the liver; 22 in his right hand was the sign 'Jerusalem,' to open mouths in a yell, to raise voices in a cheer, to place battering-rams against gates, to throw up a ramp, to build a wall of investment. 23 And it will seem to them like trying the signs for fun—they have oath-swearers; but he is drawing attention to guilt, to have them caught. 24 So the Lord Jehovah says, Since you draw attention to your guilt by openly displaying your crimes, letting your sins be seen in all your practices,—since you draw attention to them, by them you shall be caught. 25 And you, crime-stabbed man, prince of Israel, whose day has come at a time of final guilt, 26 the Lord Jehovah says 'Away with the turban, off with the crown! this is not this! up with the low, down with the high! 27 I will make it hurly-burly, hurly-burly, hurly-burly—this shall not be either—till he comes to whom the right belongs and I give it to him.'

28 "And as for you, man, prophesy and say 'Says the Lord Jehovah to the Bene-'Ammon and to their taunts,' and say 'A sword, a sword, unsheathed for slaughtering, polished for beaming, so that it may flash, 29 in the seeing of futile visions for you, in the production of lying soothsaying for you, to put it to the necks of crime-stabbed men whose day has come at a time of final guilt— 30 back with it to its sheath! in the place you were created in, in the country of your origin, I will judge you. 31 And I will pour out my hostility over you, blow the fire of my wrath against you, and give you into the hands of brutish men, artisans of wreck. 32 You shall be food for fire; your blood shall be in the middle of the country; you shall not be remembered; for I Jehovah have spoken.' "

CHAPTER 22

1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "And as for you, man, go into court, go into court with the bloody city, and let them know all their abominable doings, 3 and say 'Says the Lord Jehovah, You city that shed blood within you to have your time come, and that made fetishes to put defilement on yourself, 4 by your blood that you have shed you are under penalty and by your fetishes that you have made you are defiled, and you have brought your days near and the time of your years has come; therefore I have given you to be a taunt for the nations and a gibe for all countries. 5 The countries near you and far from you shall gibe at you, you of the defiled name, of the great uproar. 6 There

7 have the princes of Israel been each playing his own game in you so 7 as to set blood streaming. 7 Father and mother they have treated dis-8 respectfully in you; with the immigrant they have dealt high-handedly 8 within you; for orphan and widow they have made it hard in you. 8 My 9 sacred things you have despised and my sabbaths you have profaned.
9 9 Informers there have been in you to have blood shed, and they have 10 eaten on the mountains in you. Lewdness they have committed within 10 you: 10 a father's nakedness has been uncovered in you, a woman un-11 clean by menstruation they have deflowered in you, 11 and a man has 11 committed an abomination with another's wife, and a man has defiled 12 his daughter-in-law in lewdness, and a man has deflowered his sister, 12 his father's daughter, in you. 12 Bribes they have taken in you to have 13 blood shed; interest and bonus you have taken, and exploited your 13 fellowman high-handedly, and forgotten me, quoth the Lord Jehovah; 14 13 but here I have slapped my hand on your exploitation that you have 14 practiced and on your blood that you have within you. 14 Will your heart 15 stand firm or your hands be strong for the days that I deal with you?
15 15 I Jehovah have spoken and will act, and I will scatter you among the 16 nations and sprinkle you through the countries, and clear out your 16 uncleanness out of you, 16 and be desecrated in you before heathen eyes; and you shall know that I am Jehovah."

17 18 17 And Jehovah's word came to me 18 "Man, the house of Israel have 18 become dross to me; all of them are copper and tin and iron and lead 19 within a silver-furnace; dross they are. 19 So the Lord Jehovah says, 19 Since you have all become dross, therefore I am gathering you inside 20 Jerusalem 20 as silver and copper and iron and lead and tin are gathered 20 inside a furnace to have a fire blown up against it for melting; so I 21 will gather in my anger and ire and lay and melt you and concentrate 21 you 21 and blow the fire of my wrath against you, and you shall be 22 melted within it. 22 As silver melts within a furnace, so you shall be 22 melted within it, and you shall know it was I Jehovah that poured my ire out upon you."

23 24 23 And Jehovah's word came to me 24 "Man, say to it 'You are a country 24 not cleansed nor showered in a day of disfavor, 25 in whose midst its 25 princes are like a roaring lion tearing prey—they eat lives, they take 26 fortunes and treasures, they make its widows many within it; 26 whose 26 priests do violence to my code and profane my sacred things, do not discriminate between sacred and secular nor diagnose between unclean and clean, and ignore my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them; 27 27 in whose heart its generals are like wolves tearing prey, with their 28 shedding blood, throwing away lives in order to grab pelf; 28 and whose 28 prophets plaster their work flat, visioning unmeaning things and soothsaying falsehoods for them, saying "the Lord Jehovah says" 29 when Jehovah has not spoken; 29 the populace bilk and steal and ill-use 29 a needy and unfortunate man and illegally deny justice to the immi-30 grant. 30 And I looked among them for a man that would build a fence and stand in the breach before me on behalf of the country, not to 31 have it made away with, and did not find any; 31 and I poured out my hostility on them, finished them off with the fire of my wrath, brought their course down on their own heads, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER 23

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, there were two women, 3 daughters of the same mother, 3 and they prostituted themselves in Egypt, did it in their girlhood; there their breasts were squeezed, 4 and there people handled their maiden nipples; 4 and their names were, the elder Oholah and her sister Oholibah. And they became mine and had sons and daughters. And as for their names, Samaria is Oholah and Jerusalem is Oholibah.

5 5 "And Oholah prostituted herself while she belonged to me, and 6 doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians, 6 courtiers dressed in violet, governors and viceroys, desirable young men all of them, horsemen, 7 pony-riders, 7 and spent her prostitution on them, all of them the choicest of the sons of Assyria; and whomever she doted on, with all 8 their fetishes she defiled herself. 8 And her prostitution toward Egypt she did not quit, because they had lain with her in her girlhood and it had been they that handled her maiden nipples and poured out 9 their debauchery on her. 9 So I gave her into the hands of her lovers, 10 into the hands of the sons of Assyria on whom she had doted; 10 they bared her nudity, took her sons and daughters, and her they killed with the sword; and she became notorious among women, and they did justice on her.

11 11 "And her sister Oholibah saw it, and doted more depravedly than 12 she, and prostituted herself more depravedly than her sister. 12 She doted on the sons of Assyria, governors and viceroys, courtiers dressed in robes of figured cloth, horsemen, pony-riders, desirable young 13 men all of them. 13 And I saw that she behaved uncleanly; they both 14 used the same road. 14 And she added to her prostitution, and saw men 15 drawn on the wall, pictures of Chaldeans drawn in vermilion, 15 belted with loincloths round their waists, bonneted with turbans over their heads, all of them knights in aspect, the likeness of the sons of Bab-16 ylon, Chaldea their native country, 16 and she doted on them at sight 17 and sent messengers to Chaldea to them; 17 and the sons of Babylon came in to her to the bed of love and defiled her with their debaucheries, and she was unclean by them and was disgusted with them; 18 18 and her debaucheries were exposed and her nudity bared, and I was 19 disgusted with her as I had been with her sister. 19 And she increased her prostitution, remembering her girlhood days, how she had prostituted 20 herself in Egypt; 20 and she doted on their paramours, whose organs are 21 donkeys' organs and their secretion ponies' secretion. 21 And you turned your mind to your girlhood lewdness, when Egypt handled your nipples, squeezing your breasts.

22 "So, Oholibah, the Lord Jehovah says, Here I am stirring up your lovers against you, those with whom you are disgusted, and bringing them against you on all sides: 23 the sons of Babylon and all the Chal-deans, Pekod and Shoa' and Koa', all the sons of Assyria with them, desirable young men, governors and viceroys all of them, knights and courtiers, pony-riders all of them; 24 and against you will come steed, chariot, and wheel, and in an assemblage of peoples they will set shield and buckler and helmet against you on all sides; and I will empower them to judge, and they will judge you on their own principles. 25 And I will bring my jealousy down on you, and they shall deal irefully with you: your nose and ears they shall take off, and the last of you shall fall by the sword; they shall take your sons and daughters, and the last of you shall be consumed by fire; 26 and they shall strip you of your garments and take your regalia. 27 And I will stop you from your lewdness, and your prostitution out of Egypt, and you shall not raise your eyes to them nor remember Egypt again, 28 "For the Lord Jehovah says, Here I am giving you into the hands of those you hate and of those with whom you are disgusted, 29 and they shall deal with you in hatred and take all your acquisitions and leave you naked and bare, and your nudity of debauchery and lewd-ness and prostitution shall be exposed. 30 The doing of these things to you is for your prostituting yourself to follow heathen nations, inasmuch as you were defiled with their fetishes. 31 You went your sister's way and I will put her cup in your hand.

32 "Says the Lord Jehovah, Your sister's deep cup and broad you shall drink; 33 it will be for laughter and jeers, holding much. You shall be filled with drunkenness and grief, a cup of horror and stupefaction, your sister's cup; 34 and you shall drink it dry and finish off the heel-taps of it, and tear your breasts, because I have spoken, quoth the Lord Jehovah.

35 "So the Lord Jehovah says, Since you have forgotten me and thrown me behind your back, carry your lewdness and prostitution, you too!"

36 And Jehovah said to me "Man, go into court with Oholah and Oholibah and state to them all their abominations: 37 that they have committed adultery, and they have blood on their hands; and with their fetishes they have committed adultery, and their children that they had borne to me they have sent over for food for them. 38 This in addition they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary and profaned my sabbaths, 39 and at their slaughtering their children for their fetishes they came into my sanctuary that day, profaning it; here they have done such things right in my house. 40 And also that they send to men coming from a distance, such as come the moment a messenger is sent to them, for whom you, madam, bathe and put antimony round your eyes and bejewel yourself 41 and sit on a nicely spread bed with a fully set table before it on which you have placed 42 my incense and oil 42 and which has about it the uproar of a crowd enjoying itself in comfort; and to men from nearby, Edom, roisterers brought in from a wilderness, and they have put bracelets on the 43 women's hands and magnificent coronets on their heads. 43 And I said "They have exhausted the possibilities of adultery; they practiced 44 prostitution like professionals, 44 and men went in to them as one does to any prostitute, went in in the same way to Obolah and Oholibah, 45 the lewd women. 45 And they are fair dealers, they will execute on them the sentence due to women who commit adultery and shed blood, because adulteresses they are and they have blood on their hands.'" 46 46 For the Lord Jehovah says, It is a case for raising an assembly 47 against them and giving them up to victimization and plunder; 47 and they will unite to stone them and will cut them up with their swords, 48 will kill their children and burn down their houses, 48 and I will put a stop to lewdness in the country, and all women will take a lesson 49 and not commit the like of their lewdness. 49 And I will bring your lewd-ness down on you, and you shall bear the sins of your fetishes and know that I am Jehovah.

CHAPTER 24

1 1 And Jehovah's word came to me in the year nine, in the tenth 2 month, on the tenth of the month, 2 "Man, set down the name of the day, this precise day: the king of Babylon began operations against 3 Jerusalem this very day. 3 And give the disobedient house a parable:
say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Set the pot on its stones; set it 4 on, and pour in water too; 4 get pieces together to it, every best piece, 5 thigh and shoulder; 5 fill it with choice bones. Take the choicest of the sheep, and stack up the bones under it too; bring it to a boil, stew the bones too within it.

6 6 "So the Lord Jehovah says, Woe to it, bloody city, pot with its grime on it, whose grime has not come off! they took out what was in it 7 piece by piece, no lots were cast over it, 7 because it had its blood in it, had deposited it on the bald top of a crag, had not poured it on 8 the earth to let loam cover it over. 8 To bring up ire for inflicting vengeance I have put its blood on the bald top of a crag not to be 9 covered. 9 So the Lord Jehovah says, Woe to it, bloody city! I too will 10 make the stack great, 10 putting in plenty of wood, setting the fire going, 11 using up the meat and boiling down the broth 11 and setting it on its coals empty to be heated and have its bronze glow and have its foul-12 ness melt, its grime be used up,— 12 and its mass of grime will not come 13 out of it, its stinking grime. 13 For your designed defilement, since I cleaned you and you did not become clean from your defilement, you 14 shall not be clean again till I slake my ire on you; 14 I Jehovah have spoken, it has come, and I will act; I will not be neglectful nor have mercy nor repent. In accordance with your courses and your practices they have judged you, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

15 16 15 And Jehovah's word came to me 16 "Here, man, I am taking from you with a stroke what you took most delight in seeing, and you are not 17 to wail or weep or let tears come. 17 Choke, be silent, make no mourning for the dead; tie your headdress and put on your sandals, and do not 18 cover your mustache nor eat trouble-bread." 18 And I spoke to the people in the morning, and my wife died in the evening, and in the morning I did as I had been commanded to.

19 19 And the people said to me "Will you not tell us what these things mean for us, that you are doing them?" 20 And I said to them "Jehovah's word came to me, 21 'Say to the house of Israel "Says the Lord Jehovah, Here I am desecrating my sanctuary, the pride of your powers, what you took most delight in seeing and took most pains to keep safe, and 22 your sons and daughters that you left shall fall by the sword. 22 And you will do as I did, not cover your mustaches nor eat trouble-bread, 23 23 wear your headdresses and your sandals, not wail or weep, but molder away in your guilt and groan to each other. 24 And Ezekiel shall be a portent to you: just as he did you shall do. When it comes, you will know that I am Jehovah."

25 25 "'And will not you, man, on the day when I take from them their stronghold, their joy in their magnificence, what they took most delight in seeing, and what most occupies their minds, their sons and 26 daughters, 26 on that day have a man who has got away come to you to let you hear with your own ears"? 27 on that day have your mouth opened with the man who got away, and speak and no longer be dumb? and you shall be a portent to them, and they shall know that I am Jehovah."

CHAPTER 25

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, face toward the Bene-3 'Ammon and prophesy to them, 3 and say to the Bene-'Ammon Hear Jehovah's word! Says the Lord Jehovah, Since you are saying "ah there!" at my sanctuary because it is profaned and at the soil of Israel because it is desolated and at the house of Judah because they 4 have gone into exile, 4 therefore here I am giving you to the eastern Beduins for their possession, and they shall plant their camps in you and put their domiciles in you; they it shall be that eat your fruits and that drink your milk; 5 and I will make Rabbah a camel-walk and the Bene-'Ammon a sleeping-ground for sheep and goats; and you 6 shall learn that I am Jehovah. 6 For the Lord Jehovah says, Since you clapped your hands and slapped your legs and rejoiced with all the spitefulness in your hearts over Israel's soil, 7 therefore here I have stretched my hand out against you and will give you to be plunder for the nations and exterminate you from among the peoples and destroy you from among the countries; I will root you out, and you shall learn that I am Jehovah.

8 " 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Since Moab is saying "There, the house

9 of Judah is like all the nations," 9 therefore here I am laying open Moab's upland from the cities at its frontier to the splendors of the 10 country of Beth-ha-Jeshimoth, Baal-Me'on, and Kirjathaim, 10 to the eastern Beduins, over and above the Bene-'Ammon, and giving it to be taken possession of, in order that the Bene-'Ammon may not be re-11 membered among the nations; 11 and on Moab I will execute judgments, and they shall learn that I am Jehovah.

12 "Says the Lord Jehovah, Since the Edomites have done things with a view to taking revenge on the house of Israel and have incurred 13 a liability and revenged themselves on them, 13 therefore the Lord Jehovah says, And I will stretch out my hand against Edom and exterminate man and beast out of it, and make it a waste from Teman 14 to Dedan; by the sword they shall fall. 14 And I will bring my revenge down on Edom by the hands of my people Israel, and they shall deal with Edom as my anger and ire would have them; and they shall know my revenge, quoth the Lord Jehovah.

15 "Says the Lord Jehovah, Since the Philistines have acted in a revengeful spirit and have taken revenge with hearty spitefulness, 16 ravaging in inveterate enmity, 16 therefore the Lord Jehovah says, Here I am stretching out my hand against the Philistines and will exter-17minate the Cretans and destroy the remnant of the seacoast, 17 and will wreak upon them great revenges in ireful condemnation; and they shall learn that I am Jehovah when I bring my revenge down on them."

CHAPTER 26

1 1 And in the year eleven, in the first month, on the first of the month, 2 Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, since Tyre has said of Jerusalem
'Ah there, the doors to the peoples are broken; it has come round to 3 me; 3 I shall be filled out of the devastation,' therefore the Lord Jehovah says 'Have at you, Tyre! I will raise great nations against you as I 4 would raise the sea in its waves, 4 and they shall wreck the walls of Tyre and demolish its towers; and I will scour off its soil and make 5 it a bare rock; 5 it shall be a drying-ground for nets in the middle of the sea. For I have spoken, quoth the Lord Jehovah, and it shall be-6 come plunder for the nations. 6 And its dependencies on the land shall be laid waste by the sword; and they shall learn that I am Jehovah.'

7 "For the Lord Jehovah says, Here I am bringing to Tyre King Nebucadrezzar of Babylon from the north, a king of kings, with ponies 8 and chariots and cavalry and a great assemblage of peoples, 8 and he shall lay waste with the sword your dependencies on the land and put up a wall of investment against you and throw up a ramp against you 9 and set up a sapper's shield against you 9 and put his siege-front to 10 your walls and pull down your towers with his tools. 10 From the storming of his ponies their dust shall cover you; at the sound of horse and wheel and chariot your walls shall shake, when he comes in by 11 your gates as if through the entries to a breached city. 11 With the hoofs of his ponies he shall trample all your streets; he shall kill your 12 people with the sword, and the obelisks of your might shall come down to the earth. 12 And they shall make booty of your wealth and plunder your stock in trade, and demolish your walls and pull down 13 your delightful houses and send the stones of you and the wood of you and the clay of you under water. 13 And I will put a stop to the uproar of your songs, and the sound of your lyres shall not be heard 14 anymore; 14 and I will make you a bare rock, you shall be a drying-ground for nets; you shall never be rebuilt, because I have spoken, quoth the Lord Jehovah.

15 15 "Says the Lord Jehovah to Tyre, At the sound of your fall when mortally wounded men are groaning, when swords are killing in your 16 midst, will not the foreign coasts shake 16 and all the princes of the sea come down off their thrones and lay aside their robes and strip off their embroidered garments and put on black, sit on the earth and 17 be in panic moment by moment and aghast over you, 17 and strike up a dirge over you and say to you

How you are undone, suppressed from the seas,
city renowned in song,
That had been strong by the sea, you and your inhabitants Who threw the fright of them over all that live on it!

18 18 Now the isles will be in a panic on the day of your fall.

19 19 For the Lord Jehovah says, When I make you a waste site like the uninhabited cities, when I bring up the deep upon you and the great 20 water covers you, 20 I will send you down with those who go down to the Pit, among a most ancient people, and lodge you in a subterranean country like the states that are extinct since ancient times, with those who are down in the Pit, so that you shall be uninhabited and not 21 stand fast in the land of living men. 21 I will make a phantom of you, and you shall not be there; they shall look for and you shall not be found again to the end of time, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER 27

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "And for your part, man, strike 3 up a dirge over Tyre,<sup>3</sup>and say to Tyre, her that sits at the entrances of the sea, trader of the peoples to many a coast, 'Says the Lord 4 Jehovah: 4Tyre, you are a ship perfect in beauty. 4In the heart of seas 5 is your domain; your builders have perfected your beauty. 5They built cypresses from Senir in for all your planks; they took a cedar 6 from Lebanon to make a mast for you; 6 they made your oars of oak trees from Bashan; they made your pilot-house of ivory in savin timber 7 from Cyprian coasts. 7 Fine embroidered linen from Egypt was your sail, to serve you as ensign; violet and purple from Sicilian coasts 8 was your awning. 8 The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were rowers for you; your own experts, Tyre, were in you, they were your sailors.

9 9 The veterans and experts of Gebal were in you as your calkers; all the vessels of the sea and their mariners were in you to handle your 10 traffic. 10 Persia and Lud and Put were in your force as your fighting men; they hung shield and helmet on you; they gave you your state-11 liness. 11 The sons of Arvad and Helec were on your bulwarks all round, and there were Gammadites in your towers; they hung their bucklers on your bulwarks; they completed your beauty.

12 12 "Spain was your customer for all your goods: with silver, iron, 13 tin, and lead they gave you a market. 13 Greece, Tubal, and Moshc were your traders: with human beings and articles of bronze they gave you 14 traffic. 14 From the house of Togarmah ponies, horses, and mules gave 15 you a market. 15 The sons of Rhodes were your traders; the people of many coasts were your agents; they paid tusks of ivory and ebony 16 as your percentage. 16 Edom was your customer because of your abundant products: with bloodred garnets and embroidery and lawn and 17 pearls and fire-opals they gave you a market. 17 Judah and the country of Israel, they were your traders: with wheat and gum and beeswax 18 and honey and oil and balm they gave you traffic. 18 Damascus was your customer for your abundant products, for all your goods: Helbon 19 wine and Sahar wool and wine they gave for your wares. 19 From Uzal 20 plate-iron and cassia and sweet flag were in your traffic. 20 Dedan was 21 your trader in saddle-blankets. 21 Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your agents: they dealt with you in lambs and rams and goats.
22 22 The traders of Sheba and Ra'amah were your traders: with the finest of spice and with all precious stone and gold they gave you a market.
23 23 Haran and Canneh and 'Eden were your traders; Assyria, all the 24 Medes, were your traders; 24 these were your traders in figured dress-goods, in violet and embroidered wraps and in art rugs, in whipped 25 and tarred cordage, in your bazaar. 25 Spain-ships forwarded your traffic, and you grew full and very heavy on the high seas.

26 26 "Your rowers have taken you into deep water; the east wind has 27 broken you on the high seas. 27 Your goods and your wares, your traffic, your sailors and your navigators, your calkers and your traffic-handlers, and all your fighting men that you had on board, and all your company that was in you, will be plunged into the deep sea on 28 the day of your foundering. 28 At the sound of your sailors' shrieking, 29 harbors quiver; 29 and all that pull an oar, navigators, all the sailors 30 of the sea, get down out of their ships, stand on the land, 30 and raise their voices over you and cry out bitterly and put earth over their 31 heads, daub themselves with ashes, 31 and shave their heads bald for you, and tie sackcloths round them, and weep over you in bitter 32 wailing with aching hearts, 32 and strike up a dirge over you in their lamenting and sing your funeral song, 'Who is like Tyre, her who 33 has come to her end in mid-ocean? 33 When your wares came in from the seas you gave many peoples their fill; with your great wealth and 34 traffic you enriched the kings of earth. 34 Now you are wrecked at sea, in the deep water; your traffic and all your company have gone to 35 the bottom in you. 35 All the inhabitants of the foreign coasts are aghast at you; their kings feel their hair standing on end, their faces are 36 ashen; merchants among the peoples whistle over you. 36 You have become a wraith, and there is nothing of you forever.'"

CHAPTER 28

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me<sup>2</sup>"Man, say to the warden of Tyre
'Says the Lord Jehovah, Since your thoughts go high and you say
"I am a divinity, I occupy a god's station in the heart of the ocean," when you are human and not divine but you feel as if you were a god; 3 3 wiser than Daniel you find yourself, nothing recondite is obscure to 4 you, 4 by your wisdom and perspicacity you have got yourself wealth 5 and got gold and silver in your treasuries; 5 by your great wisdom in trading you have made your wealth great, and your thoughts go high 6 for your wealth,—6 therefore the Lord Jehovah says, Since you feel as 7 if you were a god, 7 therefore I am bringing against you strangers, the most arrogant among nations, and they shall bare their swords against 8 the beauty of your wisdom and profane your brightness. 8 They will send you down to perdition, and you will die a violent death in the 9 heart of the ocean. 9 Will you say "I am a god" before him who is killing you? but you are human, and not divine, in the hands of those 10 who are profaning you. 10 You shall die the death that uncircumcised men die by strangers' hands; for I have spoken, quoth the Lord Jehovah.'"

11 12 11 And Jehovah's word came to me, 12 "Man, strike up a dirge over the king of Tyre and say to him 'Says the Lord Jehovah, You are a 13 ph[o]enix full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. 13 You were in Eden, God's garden; your covering was every precious stone, sard, chrysolite, and chalcedony, yellow jasper, beryl, and green jasper, lapis lazuli, 14 garnet, and rock crystal, and gold; upon you were your panelings and traceries, executed on the day you were created. 14 I put you with the cherub of the area of the canopy; you were in God's sacred mountain, 15 you walked about in the midst of the glowing stones. 15 You were safe and sound on your courses from the day you were created, until dis-16 honesty was found in you; 16 in the vastness of your trade your core was filled with foul play, and you sinned, and I found you unworthy 17 to be on God's mountain, and the cherub of the canopy destroyed you from the midst of the glowing stones. 17 Your heart went high for your beauty; you wasted your wisdom over your brightness; I have thrown 18 you on the ground, put you before kings to be gloated over. 18 By the greatness of your guilt in the dishonesty of your trade you profaned your sacred place, and I brought out a fire from within you; that devoured you, and I made you ashes on the ground before the eyes of all that saw you. 19 All that had known you among the peoples stand aghast at you; you have become a wraith, and there is nothing of you forever.' "

20 And Jehovah's word came to me 21 "Man, face toward Sidon and prophesy of it, 22 and say 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Have at you, Sidon! I will earn glory within you! and they shall know that I am Jehovah when I execute judgments in her and vindicate my sanctity in her. 23 And I will let loose pestilence in her, and bloodshed in her streets, and men in death-agony shall fall within her by warfare against her on all sides; 24 and they shall know that I am Jehovah. And the house of Israel shall no longer have festering prickles and torturing thorns from all their neighborhood that were so spiteful against them; and they shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.

25 " 'Says the Lord Jehovah, When I gather the house of Israel out of the peoples among whom they were scattered, and vindicate my sanctity in their case before the eyes of the nations, and they live on their soil that I gave to my servant Jacob, 26 they shall live on it undisturbed, and build houses and plant vineyards and live undisturbed, when I execute judgments against all that were so spiteful against them in their neighborhood; and they shall know that I am their God Jehovah.' "

CHAPTER 29

1 In the year ten, in the tenth month, on the twelfth of the month, 2 Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, face toward the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and prophesy of him and of all Egypt; 3 speak and say 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Have at you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt, great crocodile lying in the middle of your Nile, that say "My Nile is mine, I made it!" 4 I will put hooks in your cheeks and have the fish of your Nile stick to your scales, and draw you up out of your Nile with all the fish of your Nile sticking to your scales, 5 and fling you out in the wilderness, you and all the fish of your Nile; you shall fall on the open range, not be brought home nor appropriated; I give you for food to the beasts of the earth and the birds of the air. 6 And all that live in Egypt shall know that I am Jehovah.

7 " 'Since you were a reed cane to the house of Israel, splitting and cutting open all their shoulders when they used you by hand, and breaking and letting all their backs suddenly give way when they leaned on you, 8 therefore the Lord Jehovah says, Here I am bringing swords upon you, and will exterminate from you man and beast, 9 and Egypt shall become a desolation and a waste, and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

10 " 'Since you say "Nile is mine, I made it," therefore have at you and your Nile! I will make Egypt a waste and a desolation from 11 Migdol to Aswan and the boundary of Nubia. 11 There shall not pass through it foot of man, and foot of beast shall not pass through it, 12 and it shall not be inhabited, forty years; 12 I will make Egypt most desolate among desolate countries, and among wasted cities her cities shall be most desolate, forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and sprinkle them around through the countries.'

13 "For the Lord Jehovah says, At the end of forty years I will gather 14 the Egyptians out of the nations among which they were scattered, 14 and will bring Egypt back from captivity and return them to the country of Pathros, their original country, and there they shall be an abject 15 kingdom; 15 it shall be the most abject of kingdoms, and shall not again lift itself up over the nations; and I will decrease them so that they 16 will not lord it among the nations. 16 And the house of Israel shall not again have such a basis of confidence as draws attention to their guilt by their turning to follow them, and they shall know that I am Jehovah."

17 17 And in the year twenty-seven, in the first month, on the first of 18 the month, Jehovah's word came to me 18 "Man, King Nebucadnessar of Babylon had his forces do a great piece of work at Tyre; every head was worn bald and every shoulder smooth; and he and his forces 19 got no pay out of Tyre for all the work he did against her. 19 So the Lord Jehovah says, Here I am giving King Nebucadnessar of Babylon the country of Egypt, and he shall lay hands on its affluence and carry off its booty and lift its plunder, and his forces shall get pay.
20 20 As his earnings that he worked for I have given him the country of Egypt, inasmuch as he was acting for me, quoth the Lord Jehovah.
21 21 On that day I will have the house of Israel grow a horn, and to you I will give freedom to open your mouth among them, and they shall know that I am Jehovah."

CHAPTER 30

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, prophesy and say 'Says the 3 Lord Jehovah, Howl! O, O, what a day! 3 for a day is at hand, Jehovah has a day at hand, that will be a clouded day, an era of nations.
4 4 And warfare will come into Egypt, and there will be hysterics in Nubia when dying men are falling in Egypt; and they will lay hands 5 on its affluence, and its foundations will be demolished. 5 Nubia and Put and Lud and all the foreign-born population and the Libyans and the sons of Crete will fall by the sword with them.

6 " 'Says the Lord Jehovah, And Egypt's defenders will fall and the pride of her strength go down; from Migdol to Aswan they will fall 7 by the sword in it, quoth the Lord Jehovah; 7 and it will stand desolate in the midst of desolate countries, and its cities will be in the midst of 8 waste cities; 8 and they shall know that I am Jehovah when I put fire 9 to Egypt and all her helpers are broken. 9 On that day messengers will go out from my presence, hurrying to strike panic into the unsuspecting Nubians, and there will be hysterics among them on Egypt's day—for here it comes!

10 "Says the Lord Jehovah, And I will put an end to Egypt's multi-11 tudes by the hands of King Nebucadnessar of Babylon: 11 he and his men with him, harshest among the nations, are brought in to ravage the country and shall bare their swords against Egypt and fill the 12 country with bleeding bodies. 12 And I will make branches of the Nile a dry region, and will sell the country into the hands of evil-minded men, and by strangers' hands I will desolate the country and all it holds; I Jehovah have spoken.

13 "Says the Lord Jehovah, And I will destroy magnates out of Memphis, and there shall not again be a prince out of Egypt, and I 14 will put fear in Egypt 14 and make Pathros stand aghast, and I will put 15 fire in Soan and execute judgments on Thebes. 15 And I will pour out my ire on Sin, Egypt's citadel, and sweep away the multitudes of 16 Thebes and put fire to Egypt. 16 Aswan will be utterly unmanned, and 17 Thebes will come to be breached and Memphis to be laid desolate; 17 the young men of On and Pi-Bast will fall by the sword, and the cities will 18 go off into foreign slavery. 18 And at Tehaphnehes the day shall turn dark when I break Egypt's batons there; and the pride of its strength shall come to an end; a cloud shall cover it, and its daughters shall 19 go off into foreign slavery. 19 And I will execute judgments on Egypt, and they shall know that I am Jehovah.' "

20 And in the year eleven, in the first month, on the seventh of the 21 month, Jehovah's word came to me 21 "Man, I have broken the arm of the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and it has not been dressed by putting on medicines and applying a bandage that it may grow strong to wield 22 a sword. 22 So the Lord Jehovah says, Have at the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt! I will break his arms, the sound one and the broken one, and 23 make the sword drop from his hand; 23 and I will scatter the Egyptians 24 among the nations and sprinkle them through the countries; 24 and I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put my sword in his hand, and break the Pharaoh's arms, and he shall utter groans 25 like a mortally wounded man's before him. 25 And I will give strength to the arms of the king of Babylon, and the Pharaoh's arms shall drop down; and they shall know that I am Jehovah when I put my sword 26 in the hands of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out toward Egypt. 26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and sprinkle them through the countries; and they shall know that I am Jehovah."

CHAPTER 31

1 And in the year eleven, in the third month, on the first of the 2 month, Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, say to the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to all his host, 'To whom are you comparable in 3 your greatness?'<sup>3</sup>Here was a great savin tree on the Lebanon, handsome in branches and silvan in shade and tall in growth; its tip was 4 among the clouds. 4 Water had grown it great; the deep had grown it tall, had run its rivers all round the spot where this was rooted

5 and sent its streamlets off to all the trees of the countryside; 5 that was why its height became taller than any of the trees of the countryside and its sprays numerous and its boughs long, because of abundant 6 water at its putting out.<sup>6</sup>In its sprays all the birds of the air nested, and under its boughs all the beasts of the wilds brought forth their 7 young, and in its shadow lived many nations; 7 and it was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its limbs, because its roots ran to 8 abundant water.<sup>8</sup>Cedars did not obscure it in God's garden; cypresses were not like its sprays, and plane-trees were not equal to its boughs;
9 not any of the trees in God's garden were like it in beauty.<sup>9</sup>I had made it beautiful in its multitude of limbs, and all the 'Eden-trees in God's garden were jealous of it.

10 10 "So the Lord Jehovah says, Since it was so tall in growth and had put its tip among the clouds and its heart was lofty for its height, 11 11 I gave it into the hands of a leader of nations who should deal with it appropriately to its viciousness; 12 I ousted it; strangers, harshest of 12 nations, cut it down and left it lying on the mountains, and the limbs of it fell in all valleys and its boughs broke in all the gorges of the country, and all the peoples of the earth went down out of its shade 13 and abandoned it; 13 and on its wreck all the birds of the air perched, and among its boughs were all the beasts of the wilds,— 14 in order that 14 all waterside trees may not be tall in growth nor put their tips among the clouds, nor any water-drinkers stand up to them in height, for they are all of them given to death, into the underground world, amid the race of men, to join those who are down in the Pit.

15 15 "Says the Lord Jehovah, On the day of its going down to the realm of death I set the deep to mourning, capped it over and suppressed its rivers, and abundant water was shut off; and I made Lebanon wear mourning for it, and all the trees of the countryside droop for 16 it. 16 At the sound of its fall I made nations shake when I sent it down to the realm of death with those who go down to the Pit; and all 'Eden-trees, the choicest of Lebanon, all water-drinkers, take comfort 17 in the underground world. 17 They too went down with it to the realm of death where are men stabbed down with swords; and so did its seedlings, those that had lived under its shadow in the midst of nations.
18 18 Whom do you thus resemble in glory and greatness among 'Eden-trees? but you shall be brought down with 'Eden-trees to the underground world, you shall lie in the midst of uncircumcised men with men stabbed down with swords. That is the Pharaoh and all his host, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER 32

1 1 And in the year twelve, in the twelfth month, on the first of the 2 month, Jehovah's word came to me<sup>2</sup>"Man, strike up a dirge over the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and say to him 'Lion of nations, your end has come! And you are like a crocodile in the seas, you have been 3 spouting with your nostrils, muddying water with your feet, trampling 4 the rivers of it. Says the Lord Jehovah,<sup>3</sup>And I will spread my meshes over you with a gang of many nations, and they shall bring you up 5 in my net;<sup>4</sup>and I will fling you out on the ground, toss you out on the open range, and have all the birds of the air light on you and give 6 the wild beasts of all the earth a full meal of you; 5 I will put your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your rottenness 6 and water earth with what runs from you out of your blood over 7 the mountains, and gorges shall be filled out of you. 7 And in your extinction I will cover up the sky and blacken its stars; the sun I will 8 cover up with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light; 8 all the orbs of light I will blacken in the sky for you, and give darkness over 9 your land, quoth the Lord Jehovah.<sup>9</sup>And I will dishearten many peoples when I bring your people as slaves among the nations, to 10 countries that you never knew; 10 and I will make many peoples stand aghost over you, and their kings shall feel their flesh creep at the thought of you when I brandish my sword in their faces, and they shall tremble each for his own life on the day of your fall.

11 11 "For the Lord Jehovah says, The sword of the king of Babylon 12 shall come to you. 12 I will have your multitudes felled by the swords of warriors, all of them the most ruthless of nations; and they will make a clean sweep of Egypt's pride, and its multitudes shall be made 13 away with. 13 And I will destroy all its cattle from beside abundant water, and foot of man shall not roil this again, neither shall hoof 14 of beast. 14 Then I will lower their water and have their rivers go like oil, quoth the Lord Jehovah. 15 When I make Egypt a desolation and 15 a country stands desolate of all it had in it, and I strike down all that lived in it, they shall know that I am Jehovah.'

16 16 "It is a dirge, you shall sing it as such, and the daughters of the nations shall so sing it; over Egypt and over all its multitudes they shall sing it as dirge, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

17 17 And in the year twelve, in the first month, on the fifteenth of the 18 month, Jehovah's word came to me 18 "Man, lament over Egypt's multitudes and send her down, you and the daughters of grand nations, 19 to the underground land with those who are down in the Pit: 19 'Are you lovelier than anybody else? go down and be laid with uncircum-20 cised men.' 20 In the midst of men stabbed down with swords they shall fall, and he and all his multitudes shall be dragged off. 21 Leaders of 21 champions shall speak to him out of the middle of the realm of death, with his helpers; the uncircumcised men, stabbed down with swords, 22 have gone down, lain down. 22 Assyria is there, and all her assemblage in graves around her, all of them stabbed down, men fallen by the 23 sword, 23 she whose graves are put deep in the Pit and who has her assemblage around her grave, all of them stabbed down, fallen by 24 the sword, who had spread dismay in the land of the living. 24 'Elam is there and all her host around her grave, all of them stabbed down, men fallen by the sword, who went down uncircumcised to the underground world, who had spread their dismay in the land of the living 25 and who carry their disgrace with those who are down in the Pit. 25 In the midst of men stabbed down with swords they have made a bed for her with the graves of all her host around it, all of them uncircumcised, stabbed down with swords, because their dismay had been spread in the land of the living, and they carry their disgrace with those who are down in the Pit, they are put in the midst of men 26 stabbed down. 26 Moshc-Tubal is there and all her host around her grave, all of them uncircumcised, stabbed down with swords, because they 27 had spread their dismay in the land of the living. 27 And they do not lie with ancient hero Nephilim who went down to the realm of death with their panoply of war, and they put their swords under their heads and they had their shields over their bones, because there had 28 been dismay at their exploits in the land of the living. 28 And you yourself shall be broken in the midst of uncircumcised men and lie 29 with, men stabbed down with, swords. 29 Edom goes there, her kings and all her princes, who in their might were put with men stabbed down with swords; they shall lie with uncircumcised men and with 30 those who are down in the Pit. 30 The dukes of the North all go there, and all the Phenicians, who have gone down with stabbed men for the dismay they had caused by their might, in shame, and have lain down uncircumcised with men stabbed down with swords, and carry 31 their disgrace with those who are down in the Pit. 31 Them the Pharaoh will see and take comfort over all his multitudes, quoth the Lord 32 Jehovah, 32 because he has spread his dismay in the land of the living and is laid in the midst of uncircumcised men with men stabbed down with swords, the Pharaoh and all his multitudes, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER 33

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, speak to the sons of your people and say to them 'When upon a country I bring invasions, and the people of the country take one man out of their number and post 3 him as a lookout for them, 3 and he sees an invasion coming against 4 the country and sounds the ram-horn and warns the people, 4 and someone hears the sound of the ram-horn and does not take warning, and the invasion comes and gets him, his blood will be on his own head: 5 5 he heard the sound of the ram-horn and did not take warning, his 6 blood is on himself. 6 But he, he took warning, he saved himself. But when the lookout sees the invasion coming and does not sound the ram-horn and the people are not warned and an invasion comes in and takes a life among them, he is taken for his own guilt, but for his blood I will call the lookout to account.'

7 "And as for you, man, I have posted you as lookout for the house of Israel, and you are to hear a word from my mouth and warn them from me.<sup>8</sup> When I say to the wicked man 'Wicked man, you shall die,' and you do not speak to warn a wicked man off his course, he is wicked, he will die for his own guilt, but for his blood I will hold you to account. <sup>9</sup> But when you have warned a wicked man off his course, to come back from it, and he did not come back from his course, he will die for his own guilt, but you will have cleared yourself.

10 "And for you, man, say to the house of Israel, 'You say like this, "When we have our crimes and sins upon us and we are moldering away in them, how are we to live?"' <sup>11</sup> Say to them 'By my life, quoth the Lord Jehovah, it does not please me to have a wicked man die but to have a wicked man come back from his course and live. Come back, come back from your bad courses, and why should you die, house of Israel?' <sup>12</sup> And for you, man, say to the sons of your people 'The honest man's honesty will not deliver him on the day when he commits a crime, and the wicked man's wickedness will not be his ruin on the day when he turns back from wickedness; and a saint will not be able to keep himself alive by it on the day when he sins. <sup>13</sup> When I say to the honest man "You shall live" and he trusts to his record of honesty and acts dishonestly, all his honest doings shall not be remembered, and for his dishonesty that he has committed he shall die. <sup>14</sup> And when I say to the wicked man "You shall die" and he turns back from his sin and does the lawful and right thing, <sup>15</sup> a wicked man gives back what was pawned, makes good what was stolen, goes by the rules that carry life, not acting dishonestly, he shall live, not die; <sup>16</sup> all his sins that he has committed shall not be remembered against him; he has done the lawful and right thing, he shall live. <sup>17</sup> And the sons of your people say "The Lord's course does not balance," when they are the ones whose course does not balance. <sup>18</sup> When an honest man turns back from his honesty and acts dishonestly, he dies for that; <sup>19</sup> and when a wicked man turns back from his wickedness and does the lawful and right thing, by that he lives: <sup>20</sup> and you say "The Lord's course does not balance"! I will judge you each according to his courses, house of Israel."

21 "And in the year twelve, in the tenth month, on the fifth of the month, of our deportation, there came to me a refugee from Jerusalem with the word "The city is down." <sup>22</sup> And Jehovah's hand had been on me in the evening before the refugee came, and he had opened my mouth against his coming in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I did not become dumb again. <sup>23</sup> And Jehovah's word came to me <sup>24</sup> "Man, the inhabitants of these wasted sites on the soil of Israel are saying 'Abraham was one man, and got possession of the country,

25 and there are many of us: the country is given to us to possess.' 25 So say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah, You eat with the blood and raise your eyes to your fetishes and shed blood, and are you to get 26 possession of the country? 26 You depend on your swords, you commit abomination, and you defile each other's wives, and are you to get 27 possession of the country?' 27 You shall say this to them: 'Says the Lord Jehovah, By my life, those who are on the wasted sites shall fall by the sword, and those who are out over the countryside I have given to the beasts for eating, and those who are in the fastnesses and the 28 caves shall die by pestilence; 28 and I will make the country a desolation and a horror, and its pride of strength shall be over with, and Israel's 29 highlands shall lie desolate and untrodden; 29 and they shall know that I am Jehovah at my making the country a desolation and a horror for all the abominable things they have done.'

30 30 "And as for you, man, the sons of your people that talk about you along the walls and at the house doors are talking to each other man to man and saying 'Come in and hear what the word is that comes 31 out from Jehovah,' 31 and will come to you like the crowd at a ceremony, and my people will sit down before you and hear your words, but will not act on them; for those men make love with their lips but 32 their hearts are going after their profits. 32 And you are to them like a love-song with a fine voice and skill in accompaniment, and they 33 listen to your words but do not act on them. 33 But when it comes true, as come it will, they will know there was a prophet among them."

CHAPTER 34

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, prophesy about the shepherds of Israel; prophesy and say to them 'For the shepherds the Lord Jehovah says, Ho, shepherds of Israel, are shepherds to tend 3 themselves? is it not the sheep that shepherds are to tend? 3 You eat the milk and wear the wool, you slaughter the fattest one, and the 4 sheep you do not tend. 4 The feeble you have not brought up to strength, and the sick you have not cured, and the broken-boned you have not bandaged, and the straying you have not brought back, and the lost 5 you have not hunted up, and you have controlled them by ruthless use of main force; 5 and they scattered about shepherdless, and became 6 food for all the wild beasts. 6 And my sheep scattered and blundered about all over the mountains and on every high hill; all over the country my sheep scattered, and there was nobody reclaiming them, nobody hunting them up.

7 8 7 " 'So, shepherds, hear Jehovah's word! 8 By my life, quoth the Lord Jehovah, since my sheep became an object of plunder and my sheep became food for all the wild beasts for lack of a shepherd, and my shepherds did not reclaim my sheep, but the shepherds tended themselves and did not tend my sheep, 9 therefore, shepherds, hear Jehovah's 10 word! 10 Says the Lord Jehovah, Have at the shepherds! I will reclaim my sheep out of their hands and make them leave off shepherding my sheep; and the shepherds shall not tend themselves again, but I will deliver my sheep out of their jaws and they shall not be food for them.

11 "For the Lord Jehovah says, Here I am, I myself, and I will re-12 claim my sheep and go over them 12 as a shepherd goes over his flock on the day that he gets into the middle of his sheep that had dispersed; like that I will go over my sheep, and I will deliver them out of all 13 the places to which they had been scattered on a day of cloud and thick air. 13 And I will take them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries and bring them to their own soil, and will tend them on the mountains of Israel, in the gorges and in all the abodes 14 of the country. 14 I will pasture them on good pasturage, and on the mountains of Israel's lofty highland shall be their feeding-ground; there they shall lie down on good ground and pasture fat pasturage 15 on the mountains of Israel. 15 I myself will pasture my sheep and I 16 myself will see to their lying down, quoth the Lord Jehovah. 16 The lost I will hunt up and the straying I will bring back and the brokenboned I will bandage and the sick I will bring up to strength, and the fat and the strong I will watch over; I will tend them as they should be tended.

17 17 "And you, my sheep! Says the Lord Jehovah, I will judge between 18 animal and animal, the rams and the he-goats. 18 Is it too little for you to pasture off the best pasturage, and you trample the rest of your pasturage with your feet? and you drink the clean part of water and 19 roil the rest with your feet? 19 and my sheep feed on the mess your 20 feet have trampled and drink the stuff your feet have roiled. 20 So the Lord God Jehovah says, Here I am, I myself, and I will judge 21 between fat animal and lean animal. 21 Since you shove with side and shoulder, and butt all sickly ones with your horns till you have scat-22 tered them outside, 22 I will save my sheep and they shall not become 23 plunder again, and I will judge between animal and animal. 23 And I will set up over them one shepherd who shall tend them, my servant David; 24 he shall tend them; he shall become their shepherd. 24 And they shall have me, Jehovah, for their God, with my servant David as prince 25 in their midst; I Jehovah promise it. 25 And I will give them a pledge of safety and will clean out dangerous beasts from the country, and they shall settle in the wilderness in confident security and sleep 26 soundly in the badlands. 26 And I will give seasonable showers as a blessing, and send down rainstorms at their season, blessed showers: 27 27 and the trees on the range shall give their fruits and the earth shall give its crops, and they shall be in confident security on their own soil; and they shall know that I am Jehovah when I break the bows of their yoke. And I will deliver them out of the hands of those who are 28 exploiting them, 28 and they shall never again be an object of plunder for the nations, and the beasts of the country shall not eat them; and they shall live in confident security and have no one to alarm them.

29 29 And I will raise up for them a planter of peace, and they shall never again be swept off by starvation in the country, nor bear humiliation 30 from the nations again. 30 And they shall know that I their God Jehovah am with them and they are my people the house of Israel, quoth the 31 Lord Jehovah. 31 And I will make my sheep sheep of my pasturing on their soil: I am your God, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER 35

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, set your face toward the 3 highland of Se'ir and prophesy about it, 3 and say to it 'Says the Lord 4 Jehovah, Have at you, highland of Se'ir! I will stretch my hand over 5 you and make you a desolation and a horror; 4 I will lay your cities 6 waste, and you shall be a desolation and shall know that I am Jehovah.
7 5 Since you have harbored eternal enmity and laid the sons of Israel 8 low by the sword in their time of calamity, at a time of final guilt, 9 6 therefore by my life, quoth the Lord Jehovah, for bloodshed you 10 stand condemned and bloodshed shall pursue you, 7 and I will make the 11 highland of Se'ir a desolation and a horror and will strip it of goers 12 and comers, and fill its mountains with bleeding bodies. 8 In your hills 13 and your valleys and all your gorges men stabbed down with swords 14 shall fall. 9 I will reduce you to perpetual desolation, and your cities 15 shall never be inhabited; and you shall know that I am Jehovah.
10 Whereas you are saying of these two nations and these two countries
"They shall be mine and we will take possession of them," when Jehovah was there, 11 therefore by my life, quoth the Lord Jehovah, I will do the like of your deeds of anger and jealousy which you did to them out of your hatred, and will make myself known for the way I do justice on you. 12 And you shall know that I Jehovah heard the contumelious things you said of the highlands of Israel, "They are desolate; 13 they are given to us to eat up," and your blustering against me and using plentiful words against me—I heard it. 14 Says the Lord 14 Jehovah, 15 As you made merry for the estate of the house of Israel over its being desolate, I will do the same to you: you shall be a desolation, highland of Se'ir and all Edom, all of it, and you shall know that I am Jehovah.'

CHAPTER 36

1 1 "And do you, man, prophesy about the highlands of Israel and say 2 'Highlands of Israel, hear Jehovah's word! 2 Since the enemy has said
"ah there!" over you, and "the historic heights have become ours to 3 take possession of," 3 therefore prophesy and say "Says the Lord Jehovah, Forasmuch as on all sides there is gasping and panting for you, to have you become a possession for the remnant of the nations, 4 and you are a topic for tongue-racing and popular gossip, 4 therefore, highlands of Israel, hear Jehovah's word! Says the Lord Jehovah to the mountains and the hills, the gorges and the valleys, the desolate wastes and the abandoned cities, that have become an object of plunder

5 and derision to the remnant of the nations around them, 5 therefore the Lord Jehovah says: I have in the fire of my jealousy spoken against the remnant of the nations and all Edom, who gave my country to themselves for a possession with wholehearted glee and passionate spite, in order to sweep it bare for plunder.6So prophesy about the soil of Israel and say to the mountains and the hills, the gorges and the valleys, 'Says the Lord Jehovah, In my jealousy and resentment I declare, since you have borne humiliation from nations,7therefore the Lord Jehovah says, I pledge myself that it shall be the nations around you that bear their humiliation,8and you, highlands of Israel, shall put out your shoots and bear your fruits for my people Israel, 9 because they are coming in right away; 9 for here I come and will face toward you, and you shall be worked and sown, 10 and I will make men numerous over you, all the whole house of Israel, and the cities shall be inhabited and the deserted sites rebuilt. 11 And I will make man and beast numerous over you, and they shall multiply and breed; and I will have you inhabited as of old, and do better by you than 12 at first; and you shall know that I am Jehovah. 12 And I will set men walking over you, my own people Israel, and they shall take possession of you and have you for their estate, and no more shall you kill their children. 13 Says the Lord Jehovah, Whereas they say of you "You are a man-eating country and have kept killing off the children of your nation," 14 therefore you shall not again eat men nor again kill your nation's children, quoth the Lord Jehovah. 15 And I will not again let the insults the nations address to you be heard, nor shall you again be a butt for the taunting of peoples, nor shall you again kill the children of your nation, quoth the Lord Jehovah.'""

16 And Jehovah's word came to me 17 "Man, the house of Israel, while they lived on their soil, defiled it by their courses and practices; their course came to be like the uncleanness of menstruation before me; 18 and I poured out my ire upon them for the blood they had shed over the country and the way they had defiled it with their fetishes, 19 and I scattered them among the nations and sprinkled them through the countries; I executed justice on them in accordance with their courses and practices. 20 And when they came to the nations to which they did come, they desecrated my hallowed name by its being said of them "These are Jehovah's people, and come out of his country.'

21 "But I had consideration for my hallowed name, which the house of Israel had desecrated among the nations where they came. 22 So say to the house of Israel 'Says the Lord Jehovah, it is not on account of you I am acting, house of Israel, but for my hallowed name, which you have desecrated among the nations where you came; 23 and I will vindicate the sanctity of my internationally desecrated great name, which you have desecrated in the midst of the nations, and the nations shall know that I am Jehovah, quoth the Lord Jehovah, when I vindicate my sanctity by you before their eyes. 24 And I will take you out of the 25 nations and gather you out of all the countries and bring you to your own soil; 25 and I will dash clean water over you so that you shall be clean; from all your defilements and all your fetishes I will cleanse 26 you; 26 and I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit into you, and remove from your flesh the stone heart and give you a heart of 27 flesh. 27 And I will put my own spirit in you, and cause you to go by my usages and observe my laws and live up to them; 28 and you shall 28 live in the country I gave to your fathers, and I will have you for my people and you shall have me for your God. 29 And I will save you 29 out of all your defilements, and will call up the grain and make it 30 plentiful and not inflict famine on you; 30 and I will make the fruit of the trees and the products of the range plentiful, in order that you 31 may not again take a taunt for hungeriness among the nations. 31 And you shall remember your bad courses and good-for-nothing practices, and feel a loathing for your own faces because of all your guilts and 32 abominations. 32 It is not on account of you that I am acting, quoth the Lord Jehovah, realize that; be ashamed and humiliated at your courses, house of Israel.

33 33 "Says the Lord Jehovah, On the day that I cleanse you from all your guilts I will people the cities, and the sites that were lying waste 34 shall be rebuilt, 34 and the desolated land shall be worked instead of 35 being a desolation for the eyes of every passerby; 35 and they shall say "Yonder desolate country has become like the garden of Eden, and the wasted and desolated and demolished cities are inhabited with 36 fortifications," 36 and the nations that still remain around you shall know that it was I, Jehovah, who rebuilt the demolished and replanted the desolated; I, Jehovah, promised it and did it.

37 37 "Says the Lord Jehovah, To do this also for the house of Israel I will receive their petitions: I will make them numerous, men like 38 sheep. 38 Like sheep for sacred occasions, like the sheep of Jerusalem at her anniversaries, so the cities that lay waste shall be full of human sheep, and they shall know that I am Jehovah."

CHAPTER 37

1 1 Jehovah's hand came upon me, and he brought me out by Jehovah's spirit and set me down in the middle of the bottom-lands, and they 2 were full of bones. 2 And he took me past them round and round, and I found that there were very many lying out in the bottom-lands and 3 that they were very dry. 3 And he said to me "Man, will these bones 4 come to life?" and I said "Lord Jehovah, you know." 4 And he said to me "Prophecy over these bones and say to them 'Dry bones, hear 5 Jehovah's word! 5 Says the Lord Jehovah to these bones, Here I am 6 going to have breath come into you, and you shall come to life; 6 and I will put ligaments on you and have flesh grow up over you and will coat you with skin, and you shall come to life, and you shall know that I am Jehovah.'"

7 7 And I prophesied as I was commissioned to; and as I was prophesying there came a sound, and it was a shaking, and bones were 8 coming together, each to the bone that matched it. 8 And as I looked on, there they had ligaments on them, and flesh grew up, and they came to be coated over with skin; but there was no breath in them.
9 9 And he said to me "Prophecy to the wind, prophecy, man, and say to the wind 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Come, wind, from the four winds, 10 and blow into these slain men that they may come to life!'" 10 And I prophesied as he commissioned me to, and the breath came into them and they came to life and stood on their feet, a very great brigade indeed.

11 11 And he said to me "Man, these bones are all the house of Israel: here they are saying 'Our bones are dried up; our hope is lost, it is 12 all over with us.' 12 So prophecy and say to them 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Here I am opening your graves and bringing you up out of your 13 graves, my people, and bringing you to the soil of Israel; 13 and you shall know that I am Jehovah at my opening your graves and bringing 14 you up out of your graves, my people. 14 And I will put my breath in you and you shall come to life, and I will set you down on your own soil and you shall know that it was I Jehovah who spoke and acted, quoth the Lord Jehovah.'"

15 15 And Jehovah's word came to me 16 "And as for you, man, take yourself one piece of wood and write on it 'Judah and the sons of Israel associated with him,' and take another piece of wood and write on it 'Joseph, Ephraim's piece, and all the house of Israel associated 17 with him,' 17 and bring them in contact as one piece and have them become one in your hand. 18 And when the sons of your people say to you
18 'Will you not tell us what you mean by these things?' 19 give them the word 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Here I am going to take Joseph's 19 piece that Ephraim has in his hand, and the tribes of Israel associated with him, and put Judah's piece to it and make them one piece, and 20 they shall become one in my hand'; 20 and the pieces you write on shall be in your hand before their eyes. 21 And tell them 'Says the Lord 21 Jehovah, Here I am going to take the sons of Israel out from among the nations where they have gone, and to gather them from every 22 quarter and bring them in to their own soil; 22 and I will make them one nation in my country and on Israel's highlands, and they shall all have one king for king, and they shall not again become two nations 23 nor be divided into two kingdoms; 23 and they shall not again be defiled with their fetishes and their disgustments and all their crimes, but I will save them out of all their apostasies in which they have sinned, and I will cleanse them and have them for my people, and 24 they shall have me for their God, 24 and my servant David shall be king over them and they shall all have one shepherd; and they shall go by my laws and observe my usages and live up to them. 25 And they shall live in the country I gave to my servant Jacob, that their fathers lived in; and they and their children and their children's children shall live in it forever, with my servant David for eternal 26 prince over them. 26 And I will pledge them a covenant of peace; it shall be a perpetual covenant with them; and I will make them 27 numerous; 27 and I will put my sanctuary in their midst forever, and my tabernacle shall be over them; and they shall have me for their 28 God, and I will have them for my people. 28 And the nations shall know that I Jehovah am consecrating Israel when my sanctuary comes to be in their midst forever."

CHAPTER 38

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Man, set your face toward Gog in the country of Magog, the head prince of Moshc and Tubal, and 3 prophesy about him, 3 and say 'Says the Lord Jehovah, Have at you, 4 Gog, head prince of Moshc and Tubal! 4 I will head you off and put 4 hooks in your cheeks and bring you and all your forces out, ponies and horsemen all clothed in robes of figured cloth, a great concourse
5 with shield and buckler, all of them swordsmen; 5 Persia, Nubia, and 6 Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; 6 Gomer and all 6 its squadrons; the house of Togarmah, deep in the north, and all its squadrons; 7 many peoples with you. Have yourself ready and have 7 your equipment ready, you and all your concourse that have assembled about you, and I will have you in reserve; 8 after a long time 8 you will be wanted; in the future years you will come into a country turned back from warfare, gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Israel, which had been continuously waste, it having been brought out of peoples and they living all of them in security, 9 9 and you will come up, come on like a thunderstorm, will be like a cloud covering the country, you and all your squadrons and many 9 peoples with you.

10 10 "Says the Lord Jehovah, And on that day ideas will come into 11 your mind and you will think up a sinister project 11 and say "I will go up against a rural state; I will come among quiet people who live in security, all of them living without a wall and having no doors 12 12 and bars, to seize booty and take plunder," swinging your hand round against wastes that have been settled and against a people brought together out of nations, busy with stock and property, living 13 at the navel of the earth. 13 Sheba and Dedan and the traders of Spain and all her young lions will say to you "Is it to seize booty you are coming in? is it to take plunder you have assembled your concourse, to carry off silver and gold, to lay hands on stock and property, to seize a great booty?"

14 14 "So prophesy, man, and say to Gog 'Says the Lord Jehovah, On that day, when my people Israel is living in security, you will be certain 15 to find it out 15 and come from your place deep in the north, you and many peoples with you, all mounted on ponies, a large concourse and

16 a great force, 16 and come up against my people Israel, be in the future days like a cloud covering the country, and I will bring you against my country in order that the nations may know me when I vindicate 17 my sanctity in your case before their eyes, Gog. 17 Says the Lord Jehovah, Are you the one as to whom I spoke in olden days by my servants the prophets of Israel who prophesied in those bygone days of bringing you against them?'

18 18 "And on that day, on the day of Gog's coming on the soil of Israel, 19 quoth the Lord Jehovah, my anger will boil up; 19 and in my jealousy I speak, in the fire of my wrath, On that day there shall be a great 20 quaking over the soil of Israel, 20 and the fishes of the sea and the birds of the air and the beasts of the wilds and all the reptiles that creep over the soil, and all mankind that are over the surface of the soil, shall quake before me; and the mountains shall be demolished, and 21 the rock-ledges shall fall, and every wall shall fall flat; 21 and I will call up all panic against him, quoth the Lord Jehovah—each man's 22 sword shall be against his brother. 22 And I will try my case against him with pestilence and with bloodshed, and will pour upon him and upon his squadrons and many peoples with him a flooding rain, 23 hailstones, fire, and sulfur. 23 And I will vindicate my greatness and my sanctity, and make myself known before the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

CHAPTER 39

1 1 "And for your part, man, prophesy about Gog and say 'Says the 2 Lord Jehovah, Have at you, Gog, head prince of Moshc and Tubal! 2I will turn you round and chase you out and bring you up from the 3 recesses of the north, and bring you on the highlands of Israel, 3 and knock your bow out of your left hand and make your arrows drop
4 out of your right hand; 4 on the highlands of Israel you shall fall, you and all your squadrons, and peoples that you have with you; to carrion-eating birds of every sort and to the wild beasts I gave you
5 for food. 5 On the open range you shall fall, because it is I who speak, 6 quoth the Lord Jehovah. 6 And I will send fire into Magog and among those who live unafraid on the foreign coasts, and they shall know 7 that I am Jehovah. 7 And I will make my hallowed name conspicuous in the midst of my people Israel, and will not again incur the profanation of my hallowed name; and the nations shall know that I,
8 Jehovah, am a Holy One in Israel. 8 Here it comes and is to be, quoth the Lord Jehovah; 9 it is the day I spoke of. And the inhabitants of the cities of Israel will come out and make fires, and heat with arms and shield and buckler, with bows and with arrows and with handstick and with lance; and they shall make fires with them seven years.
10 10 And they will not carry in wood from the range nor cut it from the badlands, because they will be making fires with the arms; and they will despoil their despoilers and plunder their plunderers, quoth the Lord Jehovah.

11 " 'And on that day I will give Gog a place there, a grave in Israel, Crossers' Valley, east of the Sea; and they shall block Crossers' Valley and bury Gog and all his host there and call it Gog's Host Valley; 12 and the house of Israel shall be burying them, in order to 13 cleanse the country, seven months; 13 and all the populace shall do the burying, and have it as an honor, on the day when I manifest 14 my glory, quoth the Lord Jehovah. 14 And they shall set apart men to make a business of it, traversing the country burying those that are left on the surface of the country, to cleanse it; at the end of seven 15 months they shall make the search, 15 and the traversers shall traverse the country, and one seeing a human bone shall build a cairn beside 16 it till the buriers bury it in Gog's Host Valley—16 and there will also be a city Hamonah there; and they shall cleanse the country.'

17 17 "And for your part, man, this is what the Lord Jehovah says: Say to birds of every sort and to all wild beasts 'Gather and come, in with you from every side to my barbecue that I am killing for you, a 18 great barbecue on Israel's highlands, 18 and eat flesh and drink blood: flesh of champions you shall eat and blood of the earth's princes you shall drink: rams, lambs, and he-goats, steers, all of them stall-fed 19 stock from Bashan, 19 and you shall eat your fill of fat and drink yourselves tipsy with blood out of my barbecue that I have killed for you, 20 20 and at my table you shall have your fill of pony and rider, champion and every man of war, quoth the Lord Jehovah.' 21 And I will put my 21 glory among the nations, and all the nations shall see my justice that I have executed and my hand that I have laid upon them; 22 and the 22 house of Israel shall know that I am their God Jehovah from that day on. 23 And the nations shall know that it was for their guilt the 23 house of Israel were deported, inasmuch as they had been unfaithful to me and I had veiled my face from them and given them into the 24 hands of their foes and they all fell by the sword; 24 I treated them as was appropriate to their uncleannesses and their crimes, and veiled my face from them.

25 25 "So the Lord Jehovah says, Now I will bring back Jacob and show 25 tenderness toward all the house of Israel, and be jealous for my hal- 26 lowed name. 26 And they shall forget their humiliations and all the unfaithfulness they have committed against me when they live on 27 their own soil in security and have no one to alarm them, 27 when I bring them back out of the peoples and gather them out of their 28 enemies' countries and show my sanctity in their case before the eyes of many nations; 28 and they shall know that I am their God 28 Jehovah by my having had them deported to the nations and my col- lecting them on their own soil and not letting any of them be left 29 there any longer; 29 and I will not veil my face from them again, for-asmuch as I have poured out my spirit on the house of Israel, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER 40

- 1 In the year twenty-five of our deportation, at New Year on the tenth of the month in the fourteenth year after the city fell, on this precise day, Jehovah's hand came upon me and he brought me there;
- 2 in divine visions he brought me into Israel's country and put me down on a very high mountain on which there was to the south what seemed
- 3 like the architecture of a city, and he brought me to that.<sup>3</sup>And there I found a man who looked like a bronze figure, with a linen cord in his hand, and a measuring-reed; and he was standing in the gate.
- 4 And the man spoke to me: "Man, use your eyes and your ears and fix your mind on everything that I am going to show you, because it was for the purpose of showing you that you were brought here; report to the house of Israel everything that you see."
- 5 And there outside the house was a wall clear round; and in the man's hand was the measuring-reed, six cubits at a cubit and a hand-breadth; and he measured the breadth of the structure, one reed, and its height, one reed.
- 6 And he came to a gate, the one that faces eastward, and went up its steps and measured the threshold of the gate, one reed in width;
- 7 and the guard-chamber, one reed in length and one reed in breadth, and the wall-face between the guard-chambers, five cubits; and the second guard-chamber, one reed in length and one reed in breadth; and the wall-face, five cubits; and the third guard-chamber, one reed in length and one reed in breadth;
- 8 and the threshold of the gate alongside the inward porch of the gate, one reed.<sup>9</sup>And he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits, and its jamb, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was on the inner side.
- 10 And of the guard-chambers of the gate toward the east there were three on each side, the three having the same measurement and their wall-faces on each side the same measurement.
- 11 And he measured the breadth of the entrance to the gate, ten cubits; the passageway through the gate was thirteen cubits,
- 12 and there was a ledge at the front of the guard-chambers, one cubit on each side, and the guard-chamber was six cubits each way.<sup>13</sup>And he measured the gate from roof to roof of the guard-chambers, a breadth of twenty-five cubits, doorway opposite doorway.
- 14 And he made the porch of the gate, sixty cubits; and the gate was toward the abutment of the court all round.
- 15 And along the entrance gate to the front of the inner gate-porch, fifty cubits.
- 16 And closed windows to the guard-chambers and to their wall-faces to inward of the gate in all directions, and similarly for the porch windows in all directions inward, and on the wall-faces of the porch palm trees.
- 17 And he brought me into the outer court, and I found vestries and a pavement laid all round the court, thirty vestries on the pavement.

18 And the pavement was at the sides of the gate, coming even with the 19 length of the gate-buildings—the lower pavement. 19 And he measured breadth from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner court on the outside, a hundred cubits, the east side and the north.
20 And of the gate that faced toward the north, of the outer court, he 21 measured the length and the breadth. 21 And its guard-chambers, three on each side, and its wall-faces and its porch, were like the measure-22 ments of the first gate: fifty cubits its length, and in breadth twenty-five cubits; 22 and its windows and its porch and its palm trees were like 23 the measurements of the gate that faced toward the east; and they went up it by seven steps, and its porch was to the inward. 23 And the 24 inner court had a gate opposite the northward gate, like the eastward gate; and he measured from gate to gate, a hundred cubits. 24 And he had me go to the southward, and I found a gate to the southward; 25 and he measured its guard-chambers, its wall-faces, and its porch, like these measurements; 25 and it and its porch had windows in all 26 directions like these windows; fifty cubits in length, and in breadth twenty-five cubits. 26 And the stair to it was seven steps, and its porch was to the inward; and it had palm trees, one on each side, on its 27 wall-faces. 27 And the inner court had a gate toward the south; and he measured from gate to gate toward the south, a hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me into the inner court by the south gate, and 29 measured the gate, like these measurements; 29 and its guard-chambers and wall-faces and porch were like these measurements, and it and its porch had windows in all directions; fifty cubits in length, and 31 in breadth twenty-five cubits. 31 And its porch was toward the outer court, and had palm trees on its wall-faces, and the stair to it was 32 eight steps. 32 And he brought me to the gate that faced toward the 33 east, and measured the gate, like these measurements; 33 and its guard-chambers and wall-faces and porch were like these measurements, and it and its porch had windows in all directions; in length fifty cubits 34 and in breadth twenty-five cubits; 34 and its porch was toward the outer court, and had palm trees on its wall-faces on each side, and 35 there were eight steps to its stair. 35 And he brought me to the north 36 gate and measured like these measurements, 36 and its guard-chambers and wall-faces and porch; and it had windows in all directions; in 37 length fifty cubits and in breadth twenty-five cubits; 37 and its porch was toward the outer court, and had palm trees on its wall-faces on 38 each side, and there were eight steps to its stair; 38 and a vestry with its doorway in the gate porch, where they were to rinse the burnt-39 offering. 39 And in the gate porch there were two tables on this side and two on that, to slaughter the burnt-offering and the sin-offering 40 and the expiation-offering on, 40 and at the outer corner to the north of one going up in the entrance to the gate two tables, and at the other 41 corner of the gate porch two tables: 41 four tables on this side and four tables on that side at the corner of the gate; eight tables to slaughter

42 on. 42 And four tables for the burnt-offering, dressed stone, in length a cubit and a half and in breadth a cubit and a half and in height one 43 cubit; on them they were to lay down the instruments they slaughtered the burnt-offering with, and the sacrifice; 43 and the shelves, one handbreadth, fastened into the house all round; and on the tables the flesh of the oblations.

44 44 And outside the inner gate were two vestries in the inner court, one at the corner of the north gate with its front toward the south, one at the corner of the south gate with its front toward the north.

45 45 And he spoke to me: "This vestry that has its face toward the south 46 is for the priests who are in charge of the house, 46 and the vestry that has its face toward the north is for the priests who are in charge of the altar: those are the sons of Sadok, who out of the sons of Levi 47 are nearest to Jehovah to perform his services." 47 And he measured the court, in length a hundred cubits and in breadth a hundred cubits, square, with the altar in front of the house.

48 48 And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured the jambs of the porch, five cubits on each side, and the width of the gate, fourteen cubits, and the cheeks of the gate, three cubits on each side; 49 49 the length of the porch was twenty cubits and its breadth twelve cubits, and they went up it by ten steps. And there were pillars

CHAPTER 41

1 toward the jambs, one on each side. 1 And he brought me to the temple 2 and measured the jambs, six cubits in breadth on each side, 2 and the breadth of the portal, ten cubits, and the cheeks of the portal, five 3 cubits on each side. And he measured its length, forty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits. 3 And he went inside and measured the 4 jamb of the portal, two cubits, and the portal, six cubits, and the cheeks of the portal, seven cubits on each side. 4 And he measured its length, twenty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits, as it faced the nave, and said to me "This is the holiest of the holy."

5 5 And he measured the wall of the house, six cubits, and the breadth 6 of the by-room, four cubits, round the house all round. 6 And of the by-rooms, by-room to by-room, there were thirty three times; and the by-rooms had the recesses in the house wall to constitute hold-7 fasts, so that there should be no holdfasts in the wall. 7 And the by-rooms had increasing breadth and circumference up and up, in accordance with the increase of the house all round the house, where-8 by the house broadened upward. And from the lowermost you went up to the uppermost by the midmost. 8 And the house had visible a 9 paved terrace all round the foundations of the by-rooms, a full reed, six cubits, sideways. 9 The outer wall-breadth of the by-room was five 10 cubits, 10 and what was left free between the by-room structure of the house and the vestries was in breadth twenty cubits round the house 11 on all sides. 11 And the by-room doors gave on what was left free, one door toward the north and one door southward; and the width of the 12 space of what was left was five cubits all round. 12 And the building along the yard on the side toward the west was seventy cubits wide; and the wall of the building was five cubits wide all round, and its 13 length was ninety cubits. 13 And he measured the house, a hundred cubits long; and the yard and the building and its walls, a hundred 14 cubits long; 14 and the width of the front of the house, and the yard 15 on the east, a hundred cubits. 15 And he measured the length of the building along the yard back of it, and its galleries on each side, a hundred cubits.

16 16 And the nave and the inmost part and the outside porch had the thresholds and the closed windows and the galleries round the three, 17 opposite the threshold, sehif (wood) all round. 17 And from the floor to the windows (and the windows were covered), to above the entrance, and to the inner house, and outside and all over the wall 18 all round, inside and out, 18 was made the likeness of cherubs and palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub; and there were two 19 faces to a cherub, 19 a human face toward the palm tree on this side and a two-year-old lion's face toward the palm tree on that side, made all 20 over the house all round; 20 from the ground to above the entrance the cherubs and the palm trees were made. 21 And the wall of the nave was 21 set with square pilasters. Before the sanctuary was what had the appearance 22 of a wooden altar three cubits in height, and its length was two cubits and its breadth two cubits, and it had its corners; and its base and walls were wood. And he spoke to me: "This is the 23 table that is before Jehovah." 23 And the nave had two doors and the 24 sanctuary two doors; 24 the doors had two door-pivots, two to one door 25 and two to the other door. 25 And there were made on them, on the nave doors, cherubs and palm trees such as were made for the walls. And 26 there was a wooden platform along the outer front of the porch, 26 and there were closed windows and palm trees on each side on the flanks of the porch. And the by-rooms of the house and the platforms . . .

CHAPTER 42

1 1 And he brought me out to the inner court on the side toward the north, and brought me to the vestry-house opposite the yard and 2 opposite the building on the north. 2 On the lengthwise front were the hundred cubits, the north front, and the breadth was fifty cubits.
3 3 Opposite the twenty of the inner court and opposite the pavement of the outer court was gallery paralleling gallery in the third story.
4 4 And before the vestries there was a walk ten cubits in breadth to the inner, in length a hundred cubits; and their doors were on the 5 north. 5 And the topmost vestries were narrower, because galleries bit away more from those than from the lower and middle ones in 6 construction. 6 For they were in three stories, and they had no pillars like the pillars of the court; for this reason some of the area that 7 the lower and middle ones had was set off. 7 And there was a fence for the outside along the vestries toward the outer court, parallel to 8 the vestries, fifty cubits long; 8 for the outer-court length of the vestries was fifty cubits, but they themselves were along their face a hundred 9 cubits in all. 9 And underneath these vestries was the entrance from the east as one came to them from the outer court, at the head of 10 the court partition-wall. 10 Toward the east there were vestries along 11 the yard and along the building, 11 and a pathway before them, in the fashion of the vestries toward the north, like them in length and 12 breadth and all egresses and arrangement, 12 and like their doors the doors of the vestries toward the south, a door at the head of a pathway, a pathway along the front of the partition-wall, properly toward the east as one entered them.

13 13 And he said to me "The north vestries and the south vestries along the yard are the sacred vestries where the priests who are near to Jehovah are to eat the holiest of the holy things; there they are to set down the holiest of the holy things, the grain-offering and the sin-offering and the expiation-offering, because the place is sacred.
14 14 When they, the priests, go in, they are not to go out from the sanctuary to the outer court, but here they are to deposit their garments in which they officiate, because they are sacred, and put on other garments and come near what belongs to the people."

15 15 And, having finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by way of the gate that faced toward the east and measured it 16 all round. 16 He measured on the east with the measuring-reed five 17 hundred by the measuring-reed, 17 and went round and measured on 18 the north five hundred by the measuring-reed, 18 and went round, mea-19 sured on the south five hundred by the measuring-reed, 19 and went 20 round to the west, measured five hundred by the measuring-reed, toward the four winds he measured. 20 And it had a wall all round, length five hundred and breadth five hundred, to mark off the sacred from the secular.

CHAPTER 43

1 2 1 And he took me to the gate that faced toward the east, 2 and there was the glory of the God of Israel coming from the eastward; and the sound of it was like the sound of a great water, and the earth 3 shone with his glory. 3 And the sight I saw looked like the sight I had seen when he came to make away with the city, and sights like the sights I had seen by the river Kebar. And I threw myself down on 4 my face, 4 and Jehovah's glory came into the house by way of the gate 5 that faced toward the east. 5 And a wind picked me up and brought me into the inner court, and there was the house full of Jehovah's 6 glory; 6 and I stood still, and there was a voice out of the house 7 speaking to me, while the man stood beside me, 7 and saying to me
"Man, you have seen the place of my throne and the place of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel forever; and the house of Israel shall not again defile my hallowed name, they and their kings, by their prostitution and the corpses of their kings 8 at their deaths,<sup>8</sup>by their putting their threshold with mine and their doorpost alongside mine, with just the wall between them and me, and defiling my hallowed name by the abominable things they did 9 commit and I consumed them in my anger. 9 But now they shall take their prostitution and the corpses of their kings far away from me, and I will dwell in their midst forever.

10 "Do you, man, tell the house of Israel about the house, and have them humiliated at their guilt; and its measurements and its form.
11 And, if they have a sense of humiliation at everything they have done, outline the house and its arrangement and its exits and entrances and all its pattern, and make known to them all its usages and pattern and all the ruling for it, and write it before their eyes, that they may 12 keep all its pattern and usages and live up to them. 12 This is the ruling for the house: on top of the mountain all its territory on all sides shall be holiest of the holy. This, then, is the ruling for the house.

13 13 "And these are the measurements of the altar (in the cubits a cubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): its bed a cubit, and a cubit in breadth, and rim all round its edge, one span. And this is the body of 14 the altar: 14 from the bed on the ground as far as the lower block two cubits, and in breadth one cubit, and from the lesser as far as the 15 greater block four cubits, and the breadth of it a cubit; 15 and the hearth four cubits, and from the hearth upward the horns, four of 16 them; 16 and the hearth twelve in length by twelve in breadth, four-square, 17 and the block fourteen in length by fourteen in breadth on 17 its four sides; and the rim round it, half a cubit, and the bed of it a cubit all round. And its steps faced east."

18 18 And he said to me "Man, the Lord Jehovah says, These are the rites for the altar on the day when it is made, for offering burnt-offering on it and throwing blood against it. 19 You shall give to the 19 Levite priests who are descendants of Sadok, who are near me, quoth the Lord Jehovah, to officiate in my service, a steer of homed 20 cattle for a sin-offering, 20 and you shall take some of its blood and put it on its four horns and on the four corners of the block, and 21 clear away sin from it and purge it. 21 And you shall take the sin-steer and burn it in the tract assigned to the temple outside the sacred 22 area. 22 And on the second day you shall present a faultless he-goat for a sin-offering, and they shall clear away sin from the altar as 23 they did with the steer. 23 When you finish clearing away the sin you shall present a faultless steer of horned cattle and a faultless ram; 24 24 you shall present them before Jehovah, and the priests shall throw 25 salt on them and offer them as a burnt-offering to Jehovah. 25 For seven days you shall do a goat a day as sin-offering, and they shall 26 do a faultless steer of horned cattle and a faultless ram. 26 They shall be seven days purging the altar and purifying it and installing it; 27 27 and, the days being finished, on the eighth day and thenceforth the priests shall do your burnt-offerings and welfare-sacrifices on the altar and I will accept you, quoth the Lord Jehovah."

CHAPTER 44

1 1 And he brought me back toward the eastward-looking outer gate 2 of the sanctuary, and it was closed. 2 And Jehovah said to me "This gate shall be closed; it shall never be opened, and no man shall go in by it, because Israel's God Jehovah went in by it and it is to be 3 closed. 3 The prince, he shall sit in it to eat a meal before Jehovah; he shall go in by way of the gate porch and go out the same way."

4 4 And he brought me in by way of the north gate to the front of the house, and I saw that the glory of Jehovah filled Jehovah's house; 5 and I threw myself down on my face. 5 And Jehovah said to me "Man, fix your mind and use your eyes and listen with your ears to all that I am speaking with you as to all the usages of Jehovah's house and all its rulings, and fix your mind on the way to come to the 6 house by all the exits from the precinct, 6 and say to the house of Israel
'Says the Lord Jehovah, No more of all your abominable doings, house 7 of Israel, 7 in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and in flesh, to be in my sanctuary and to profane it when you offer my food, fat and blood; and you have broken my covenant over 8 and above all your abominable doings, 8 and not kept the charge of my sacred things, but installed them for keepers of my charge in 9 my sanctuary. 9 Therefore the Lord Jehovah says, No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and in flesh shall come into my sacred precinct, not any foreigner that there is in the midst of the sons of Israel; 10 10 but the Levites who slipped far away from me when Israel was going astray, as they went astray from me to follow their fetishes, 11 they shall bear their guilt and shall be in my sanctuary as servitors, guards at the gates of the house and servitors of the house; they shall slaughter the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall 12 stand before them to officiate for them, 12 since they did officiate for them before their fetishes and became to the house of Israel a snag tripping them up into guilt; therefore I have taken a pledge against 13 them, quoth the Lord Jehovah, that they shall bear their guilt 14 and shall not approach me to act as priests to me and to approach all my sacred things and the holiest of the holy, but bear their humilia-14 tion for their straying that they did. 14 And I will put them in charge of the house for all its work, everything that is to be done about it.

15 15 " 'But the Levite priests, the sons of Sadok, who did keep the charge of my sacred things when the sons of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near me to officiate for me and shall stand before me 16 to present fat and blood to me, quoth the Lord Jehovah. 16 They shall come into my sanctuary, and they shall come near my table to officiate 17 for me, and shall have charge about me. 17 And when they come into the gates of the inner court they shall wear linen garments, and no wool shall go on them while they officiate in the gates of the inner court and further in. 18 They shall have linen headdresses on their heads and linen drawers on their loins; they shall not put round them a belt of sweat. 19 And when they go out to the outer court to the people, they shall strip off their garments that they officiate in and lay them in the sacred vestries and put on other garments, so as not to consecrate the people by their garments. 20 And they shall not shave their heads nor wear their hair long; they shall shear their heads. 21 And no priest shall drink wine when they are going into the inner court. 22 And they shall not marry a widow or divorced woman, but maidens of the stock of the house of Israel; a widow who is a priest's widow they may marry. 23 And they shall give my people rulings for distinction between sacred and secular and for diagnosis between unclean and clean; 24 and over controversies they shall stand to give judgment, and they shall judge by my laws. And at all my dates they shall observe my rulings and usages, and they shall hallow my sabbaths. 25 And they shall never go in to a dead human being so as to be defiled, except that for father and mother and son and daughter and brother and unmarried sister they may defile themselves, 26 but after one's cleansing he shall have seven days counted for him, 27 and on the day of his going into the sacred part, into the inner court, to officiate in the sacred part, he shall present his sin-offering, quoth the Lord Jehovah. 28 And as for estate for them, I am their estate, and you shall not give them a property in Israel; I am their property. 29 The grain-offerings and the sin-offerings and the expiation-offerings are for them to eat, and every deodand in Israel belongs to them; 30 and the first of all earliest cuttings of everything, and every contribution of anything among all your contributions, shall belong to the priests, and the first of your cooked cereals you shall give to the priest, to have a blessing rest on your houses. 31 Any meat from a creature, bird or beast, that has died a natural death or been killed by wild beasts, the priests shall not eat.

CHAPTER 45

1 1 " 'And in allotting the land for estates you shall set off a contribution for Jehovah, a sacred part of the land, in length twenty-five thousand and in breadth twenty thousand; it is sacred throughout its bounds on all sides; 2 and of this there shall go to the sacred part five hundred by five hundred, a square in all directions, and fifty cubits of glebe for it on all sides. 3 And out of this measurement you shall measure in length twenty-five thousand and in breadth ten thousand, and in it shall be the sanctuary, the holiest of the holy. 4 It is a sacred part of the land; it shall belong to the priests who officiate in the sanctuary, those who stand near to officiate for Jehovah; and 5 they shall have it as a place for houses and a glebe for stock. 5 And twenty-five thousand in length and ten thousand in breadth shall be for the Levites, the servitors of the house, to be their property for cities to live in. 6 And as the property of the city you shall give five thousand in breadth and in length twenty-five thousand, paralleling the sacred contribution; it shall belong to the whole house of Israel.

7 And the prince shall have on each side of the sacred contribution and of the property of the city, running in line with the sacred contribution and the property of the city westward on the west and eastward on the east and in length corresponding to one of the shares, from western boundary to eastern of the country, and he shall have it for a property in Israel, and my princes shall not again extort revenues from my people. And the land they shall give to the house of Israel tribe by tribe.

9 "Says the Lord Jehovah, You have gone far enough, princes of Israel; away with outrage and rapine and do what is lawful and right; lift off your sequestrations off my people, quoth the Lord Jehovah.

10 11 Have fair scales, a fair ephah, and a fair bath. 11 The ephah and the bath are to be of one standard, the ephah to hold a tenth of the homer and the bath a tenth of the homer; the ephah is to be standardized to the homer. 12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs; five shekels shall be five and ten shekels ten, and fifty shekels shall be a maneh for you.

13 "This is the contribution you are to make: a sixth of an ephah out of a homer of wheat, and a sixth of an ephah out of a homer of barley, and the dues of oil, a tenth of a bath out of a cor,— 14 for ten baths are a cor,—15 and of the sheep and goats one animal out of two hundred out of Israel's livestock, for grain-offering and burnt-offering and welfare-sacrifices, to purge you, quoth the Lord Jehovah. 16 All the populace shall be charged with this contribution for the prince in Israel, 17 and the prince shall be charged with the burnt-offerings and the grain-offering and the libations at the feasts and the new moons and the sabbaths and all the appointed dates of the house of Israel. He shall do the sin-offering and the grain-offering and the burnt-offering and the welfare-sacrifices to purge the house of Israel.

18 "Says the Lord Jehovah, In the first month, on the first of the month, you shall take a faultless steer of horned cattle and clear away sin from the sanctuary. 19 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin-offering and put it on the doorposts of the house and on the four corners of the block of the altar and on the doorposts of the gate of the inner court. 20 And you shall do the same on the seventh of the month, for blunderer and for simpleton, and purge the house. 21 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the passover, a feast when matzoth shall be eaten for a week; 22 and on that day the priest shall do a sin-steer for himself and for all the populace, 23 and for the seven days of the feast he shall do a burnt-offering to Jehovah of seven faultless steers and seven faultless rams per day for the seven days, and a sin-offering of an old goat 24 a day; 24 and a grain-offering of an ephah to a steer and an ephah to 25 a ram, and oil a hin to an ephah. 25 In the seventh month, at the fifteenth day of the month, at the feast, he shall do the same as this through the seven days, the same sin-offering and the same burnt-offering and the same grain-offering and the same oil.

CHAPTER 46

1 1 "Says the Lord Jehovah, The eastward-facing gate of the inner court shall be closed for the six working days; but on the seventh day it shall be opened and on the day of the new moon it shall be 2 opened, 2 and the prince shall go in by the porch of the gate and stand at the doorpost of the gate, and the priests shall do his burnt-offering and his welfare-sacrifices, and he shall do reverence on the threshold of the gate and go out, and the gate shall be shut till 3 evening. 3 And the populace shall do reverence at the entrance of that 4 gate on the sabbaths and at the new moons before Jehovah. 4 And the burnt-offering that the prince is to offer to Jehovah shall be on the 5 sabbath day six faultless sheep and a faultless ram, 5 and a grain-offering of an ephah for the ram and for the sheep a grain-offering 6 at his discretion, and oil a hin for an ephah; 6 and on the day of the new moon a faultless steer of horned cattle and six sheep and a ram, 7 which shall be faultless, 7 and he shall do as grain-offering an ephah for the steer and an ephah for the ram and for the sheep what he 8 affords, and oil a hin to an ephah. 8 And when the prince goes in he 9 shall go in by the porch of the gate and go out by it; 9 and when the populace go in before Jehovah at the sacred dates the one who goes in by the north gate to do reverence shall go out by the south gate, and the one who goes in by the south gate shall go out by the north gate; he shall not go back by the gate he went in by, but go straight 10 ahead out; 10 and the prince shall go in among them in their going in 11 and go out in their going out. 11 And at the feasts and the sacred dates the grain-offering shall be an ephah for a steer and an ephah for a ram and for the sheep at his discretion, and oil a hin to an ephah.
12 12 And when the prince makes a voluntary offering, a burnt-offering or welfare-sacrifices as voluntary offering to Jehovah, the east-facing gate shall be opened for him and his burnt-offering and welfare-sacrifices made as is done on the sabbath day, and he shall go out, 13 and the gate shall be shut after he goes out. 13 And you shall do a lamb of the same year as a daily burnt-offering to Jehovah; morning by 14 morning you shall do it. 14 And you shall do a grain-offering over it morning by morning of a sixth of an ephah, and oil a third of a hin to asperge the farina, for a grain-offering to Jehovah as a perpetual 15 usage regularly. 15 And they shall do the lamb and the grain-offering and the oil morning by morning as a regular burnt-offering.

16 16 "Says the Lord Jehovah, When the prince gives a gift to any one of his sons, it is his hereditary estate, shall belong to his sons; 17 it is their hereditary property. 17 But when he gives a gift out of his estate to one of his subjects it shall belong to him until liberty year and shall revert to the prince; only his sons' estates shall belong to 18 them. 18 And the prince shall not take any of the people's estate, turning them out of their properties; he shall settle estates on his sons out of his own property, in order that my people may not be scattered away from their individual properties."

19 19 And he brought me by the entrance back of the gate into the priests' sacred vestries facing the north, and I found there a place at the 20 west end, 20 and he said to me "This is the place where the priests are to boil the expiation-offering and the sin-offering and to bake the grain-offering so as not to bring them out to the outer court, to con-21 secrate the people." 21 And he brought me out to the outer court and along by the four corners of the court, and I found a court in each 22 corner of the court. 22 In the four corners of the court were courtlets forty in length and thirty in width, the four having the same dimen-23 sions; 23 and there was a surrounding ledge in them, surrounding the 24 four, and cooking-places made under the ledges all round; 24 and he said to me "These are the boilers' quarters, where the servitors of the house shall boil the people's sacrifices."

CHAPTER 47

1 1 And he took me back to the entrance of the house, and I found water coming out from under the eastward threshold of the house,— for the house fronted east,—and the water was running out from 2 under the right side of the house, south of the altar. 2 And he took me out by way of the north gate, and round on the outside to the eastward-facing gate of the court, and I found water trickling out 3 from the south side. 3 When the man came out on the east he had a line in his hand; and he measured a thousand cubits and took me 4 across through ankle-deep water. 4 And he measured a thousand and took me across through knee-deep water; and he measured a thousand 5 and took me across through waist-deep water; 5 and he measured a thousand—a stream I could not cross, because the water had swollen 6 to swimming depth, an impassable stream. 6 And he said to me "Do you see, man?" and took me on a walk and back to the bank of the stream.
7 7 When I came back I found on the bank of the stream very many trees on each side.

8 8 And he said to me "This water goes out to the eastward mark and down on the Rift Valley and into the sea to the foul water, and the 9 water shall be made wholesome, 9 and all live creatures that swarm along to anywhere that the stream of it comes shall live, and the fish shall be very abundant, because this water has come there and 10 it is made wholesome. 10 And fishermen shall stand along it; from 'En-Gedi to 'En-'Eglaim shall be a drying-ground for nets; the fish of 11 it shall be of the different kinds like the fish of the great sea, very 12 abundant. 11 Its morasses and swamps shall not be reclaimed; they are 13 given for salt. 12 And by the stream, on each bank of it, shall come up all trees good for food; their leaves shall never wilt and their fruit shall never come to an end; they shall bear fresh fruit monthly, because their water comes out of the sanctuary; and their fruit shall be for food and their leaves for medicine."

13 13 Says the Lord Jehovah, This is the boundary according to which you are to include the country in your estate for the twelve tribes 14 (Joseph two shares) of Israel. 14 And you shall take the estate of it share and share alike, inasmuch as I pledged myself to give it to your 15 fathers, and the country falls to you as estate. 15 And this is the boundary of the country: on the north side from the great sea the road 16 to Hethlon, Lebo-Hamath, Sedadah, 16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, between the boundary of Damascus and that of Hamath, Hasar-'Enon 17 on the boundary of Hauran. 17 And the boundary shall be from the sea to Hasar-'Enon at the north boundary of Damascus, and on the north 18 the territory of Hamath. 18 This is the north side. And on the east side, between Hauran and Damascus and the Gilead and the country of 19 Israel, the Jordan forms the boundary to the East Sea at Tamar.
This is the east side. 19 And the Negeb side, to the south, is from Tamar 20 to Meriboth-Kadesh Water to Rhinocorura on the great sea. This is the south side toward the Negeb. 20 And on the west side the great sea forms the boundary to opposite Lebo-Hamath. This is the west side.

21 21 And you shall divide this country among you by tribes of Israel.
22 22 And you shall allot it for estates to yourselves and the immigrants who live among you, who have had children among you, and you shall treat them the same as one native-born among the sons of Israel:
they shall be allotted estates with you among the tribes of Israel; 23 23 and whatever tribe the immigrant is living with, there you shall give his estate, quoth the Lord Jehovah.

CHAPTER 48

1 1 And these are the names of the tribes. At the north end, along the Hethlon-Lebo-Hamath-Hasar-'Enon road, the northern boundary of Damascus, along Hamath, to have from east side to west side, Dan 2 one. 2 And at the boundary of Dan, from east side to west side, Asher 3 one. 3 And at the boundary of Asher, from east side to west side, 4 Naphtali one. 4 And at the boundary of Naphtali, from east side to 5 west side, Manasseh one. 5 And at the boundary of Manasseh, from 6 east side to west side, Ephraim one. 6 And at the boundary of Ephraim, 7 from east side to west side, Reuben one. 7 And at the boundary of 8 Reuben, from east side to west side, Judah one. 8 And at the boundary of Judah, from east side to west side, shall be the contribution you are to set off, twenty-five thousand in breadth and in length equal to one of the shares, from east side to west side; and the sanctuary shall be in the middle of it.

9 And the contribution you are to set off for Jehovah shall be in 10 length twenty-five thousand and in breadth twenty-five thousand. 10 And the sacred contribution shall belong to these: to the priests on the north twenty-five thousand and on the west, in breadth, ten thousand, and on the east, in breadth, ten thousand, and on the south, in length, twenty-five thousand, and Jehovah's sanctuary shall come in the 11 middle of it; 11 to the consecrated priests, the sons of Sadok, who kept my charge, who did not go astray in the straying of the sons of 12 Israel as the Levites did; 12 they shall have it as a contribution out of the contribution of the country, holiest of the holy, next the Levites' 13 territory. 13 And to the Levites, running even with the priests' territory twenty-five thousand in length and in breadth ten thousand, total a length of twenty-five thousand and a breadth of twenty thousand.
14 14 And they shall not sell any of it nor exchange what of the land comes first to them nor transfer it, because it is sacred to Jehovah.

15 15 And the remaining five thousand in breadth, paralleling the twenty-five thousand, is for lay purposes for the city, for residence and for 16 glebe; and the city shall be in the middle of it. 16 And these are its measurements: the north side forty-five hundred and the south side forty-five hundred and the east side forty-five hundred and the west 17 side forty-five hundred. 17 And the city shall have glebe on the north two hundred and fifty and on the south two hundred and fifty and on the east two hundred and fifty and on the west two hundred 18 and fifty. 18 And what is left of the length to run even with the sacred contribution, ten thousand on the east and ten thousand on the west, shall run even with the sacred contribution, and its produce shall be for bread for those who carry on the work of the city; 19 19 and those who carry on the work of the city shall come out of all the tribes of Israel. 20 The whole contribution is twenty-five 20 thousand by twenty-five thousand; you shall set off the sacred contribution in a square, including the city property. 21 And what 21 is left on each side of the sacred contribution and the city property shall belong to the prince, covering twenty-five thousand of contribution to the east boundary and on the west covering twenty-five thousand to the west boundary, to run even with the shares; it shall belong to the prince, and the sacred contribution and the sacred site for the house shall be in the middle of it, 22 and the Levites' property 22 and the city property shall be in the middle of what belongs to the prince, between the territories of Judah and of Benjamin.

23 23 And the rest of the tribes: from east side to west side, Benjamin 24 one. 24 And at the boundary of Benjamin, from east side to west side, 25 Simeon one. 25 And at the boundary of Simeon, from east side to west 26 side, Issacar one. 26 And at the boundary of Issacar, from east side to 27 west side, Zebulun one. 27 And at the boundary of Zebulun, from east 28 side to west side, Gad one. 28 And along the territory of Gad shall be the Negeb side, to the south. And the boundary shall run from Tamar to Meribath-Kadesh Water to Rhinocorura on the great sea.

 29 29 This is the country you are to allot for estates to the tribes of Israel, and these are the shares, quoth the Lord Jehovah.
 30 30 And these are the bounds of the city: on the north side forty-five 31 hundred by measure— 31 and the gates of the city shall go by the names of the tribes of Israel; three gates on the north, the Reuben gate 32 one, the Judah gate one, the Levi gate one. 32 And to the east side forty-five hundred, and three gates: the Joseph gate one, the Ben-33 jamin gate one, the Dan gate one. 33 And the south side forty-five hundred by measure, and three gates: the Simeon gate one, the Issacar 34 gate one, the Zebulun gate one. 34 And the west side forty-five hundred, and three gates: the Gad gate one, the Asher gate one, the Naphtali 35 gate one. 35 In circumference eighteen thousand.

And the name of the city shall thenceforth be Jehovah-is-There.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

CHAPTER 1

1 In the year three of the reign of King Jehojakim of Judah, King 2 Nebucadnessar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it, 2 and the Lord gave into his hands King Jehojakim of Judah and some of the vessels of God's house, and he brought them to the country of Shinear, and brought the vessels into the treasury of his god's house.
3 And the king told his chief eunuch Ashpenaz to bring some of the 4 sons of Israel and of the royal blood and of the upper classes, 4 boys free from all defects, good-looking, judicious, well-informed, clear-headed, capable of serving in the royal palace, and to teach them 5 Chaldean scholarship and the Chaldean language. 5 And the king assigned them a daily ration out of the king's viands and the wine provided for his drinking, and gave orders to bring them up for three years, at the end of which they were to serve before the king.
6 And among them were certain Judahites, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, 7 and 'Azariah; 7 and the chief eunuch gave them names, naming Daniel
"Belteshassar" and Hananiah "Shadrac" and Mishael "Meshac" and
'Azariah "'Abed-Nego."
8 But Daniel resolved not to pollute himself with the king's viands and the wine provided for his drinking, and requested the chief 9 eunuch that he might not pollute himself. 9 And God gave Daniel 10 the friendliness and sympathy of the chief eunuch. 10 And the chief eunuch said to Daniel "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your food and drink: why should he see your faces looking mopy in comparison with the boys of the same age, and you make 11 me lose my standing with the king?" 11 But Daniel said to the proctor whom the chief eunuch had assigned to be over Daniel, Hananiah, 12 Mishael, and 'Azariah 12 "Put your servants on trial ten days and have 13 them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink, 13 and have our looks and the looks of the boys that eat the king's viands inspected before you, and do with your servants in accordance with what you see"; 14 and he listened to them on this proposition and put them on trial 15 ten days, 15 and at the end of ten days their looks were seen to be better, and they to be plumper, than any of the boys that ate the 16 king's viands; 16 and the proctor took to making away with their viands and the wine provided for their drinking and giving them vegetables.
17 And to all four of these boys God gave knowledge and expertness in all scholarship and wisdom; and Daniel had insight into all visions and dreams. 18 And at the end of the time after which the king had 18 ordered them brought, the chief eunuch brought them before Nebucadnessar and the king talked with them; 19 and of them all there were 19 not found the equals of Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and 'Azariah; and they served before the king. 20 And in every item of perspicacious wis-20 dom that the king called on them for he found them tenfold superior 21 to any of the scholars and exorcists in his whole kingdom. 21 And Daniel lasted to the year one of King Cyrus.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 And in the year two of Nebucadnessar's reign Nebucadnessar had 2 dreams; and he was uncomfortable and sleepless about it. 2 And the king ordered the scholars, the exorcists, the sorcerers, and the Chal-3 deans called to tell the king his dreams; and they came in and stood before the king, 3 and the king said to them "I have had a dream and am uncomfortable about knowing the dream."

4 4 And the Chaldeans said to the king (in Aramaic) "Live forever, your majesty! tell your servants the dream and we will show the interpretation."

5 5 The king answered the Chaldeans "It is my positive word, if you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation you shall 6 be cut to pieces and your houses made a garbage-dump; 6 but if you show the dream and its interpretation you shall receive gifts and grants and great honor from the government. So show the dream and its interpretation."

7 7 They answered for the second time "Let the king tell his servants the dream and we will show the interpretation."

8 8 The king answered "I know for certain that you are trying to tide 9 over the crisis inasmuch as you see it is my positive word 9 that if you do not make known the dream there is one sentence for you, and you have concerted a plan to tell a foul lie before me till the crisis resolves itself. So tell me the dream and I shall know you will show the interpretation."

10 10 The Chaldeans answered before the king "There is no man on earth who can show the thing your majesty mentions, as no great and absolute king ever asked any scholar or exorcist or Chaldean a 11 thing like this. 11 And the thing your majesty has asked is difficult, and there is no other who would show it before your majesty except the gods, whose dwelling is not with mortals."

12 12 Thereat the king was provoked and flew into a great rage and 13 ordered all the wise men in Babylon put to death, 13 and the edict was issued, and the wise men were to be killed, and Daniel and his 14 comrades were going to be killed. 14 Then Daniel made a prudent and rational response to the king's chief guardsman Arjoc, who had gone 15 out to kill the wise men of Babylon: 15 he answered the king's officer Arjoc "Why is the government's edict so rigorous?" Then Arjoc in-16 formed Daniel of the affair, 16 and Daniel went in and applied to the king to set a time for him, and he would show the king the interpretation.

17 17 Then Daniel went to his house and informed his comrades Hana-18 niah, Mishael, and 'Azariah of the affair 18 and went to asking for kindness from the God of heaven as to this secret, that Daniel and his comrades might not be put to death with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. 19 Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night.

20 Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. Daniel responded "Be 20 21 God's name blessed from age to age, whose are wisdom and might 21 and who changes times and dates, sweeps kings away and sets kings up, 22 gives wisdom to wise men and knowledge to enlightened men; 22 it is he reveals the deep and covert things; he knows what is going on in 23 the darkness, and the light is lodged with him. 23 To you, God of my fathers, I give thanks and praise because you have given me wisdom and power and have now made known what we asked you for, that you have made known to us the king's affair."

24 Thereat Daniel went to Arjoc, to whom the king had assigned the putting to death of the wise men of Babylon, and said thus to him:
"Do not put the wise men of Babylon to death; bring me before the 25 king and I will show the king the interpretation." 25 Then Arjoc brought Daniel before the king in haste and said thus to him: "I have found a man, one of the Judahite deportees, who will make the interpretation known to your majesty."

26 The king answered by saying to Daniel, whose name was Belteshassar, "Are you competent to make known to me the dream I saw and its interpretation?"

27 Daniel answered before the king "The secret your majesty asks about is one that not wise men, exorcists, sorcerers, nor diviners can 28 show your majesty; 28 but there is a god in heaven, a revealer of secrets, and he has made known to King Nebucadnessar what is to be in future days. Your dream and the visions of your head on your bed were this:

29 "Your majesty's musings were coming up on your bed as to what was to be after this; and the Revealer of Secrets made known to you 30 what is to be. 30 And I had this secret revealed to me not by wisdom that was in me more than in all living men, but to the end of making known the interpretation to your majesty and having you know the 31 things your heart was musing on. 31 Your majesty saw that a great statue—this statue was large and extraordinarily bright—stood be-32 fore you, and the sight of it was terrible; 32 that statue's head was fine 33 gold, its breast and arms silver, its waist and hips bronze, 33 its legs 34 iron, its feet part iron and part crockery. 34 You saw till a stone was cut out without hands and struck the statue on its iron-and-crockery 35 feet and smashed them; 35 then all at once the iron, the crockery, the bronze, the silver, and the gold smashed up and became like chaff off summer threshing-floors, and the wind carried them off and there was not a trace of them to be found; and the stone that had struck 36 the statue became a great mountain and filled all the earth. 36 This was the dream; and we will tell the interpretation before the king.

37 37 "You yourself, your majesty, the king of kings, to whom the God 38 of heaven has given royalty, dominion, might, and glory, 38 and in every place they inhabit has given into your hands the sons of men and the wild beasts and the birds of the air and made you sovereign 39 over them, you are the golden head. 39 And after you there shall stand up another empire inferior to you, and another third bronze empire 40 which shall be sovereign over all the earth; 40 and there shall be a fourth empire, strong as iron, inasmuch as iron smashes up and pounds down everything; and like shattering iron it will smash and shatter 41 all these. 41 And as to your having seen its feet and toes part potter's crockery and part iron, it shall be a divided empire but shall have in it some of the starkness of iron; inasmuch as you saw the iron 42 mixed with the mud crockery, 42 and the toes of its feet some of them iron and some of them crockery, parts of the empire shall be strong 43 and parts shall be brittle. 43 And as to your having seen the iron mixed with the mud crockery, they shall be mixing together by human seed, but they shall not cohere with each other, just as iron does not mix with crockery.

44 44 "And in the time of those kings the God of heaven shall set up an empire invulnerable forever, and the empire shall not pass to another people; and it shall smash and end all these empires, and it itself 45 shall stand forever, 45 inasmuch as you saw that a stone was cut out of a mountain without hands and smashed the iron, the bronze, the crockery, the silver, and the gold. Great God has made known to your majesty what is to be after this; and the dream is determinate, and the interpretation of it trustworthy."

46 46 Then King Nebucadnessar threw himself down on his face and did reverence to Daniel and ordered sacrifice and genial odors to be 47 offered to him. 47 The king answered Daniel and said "Your god must indeed be god of gods and lord of kings and revealer of secrets, that 48 you have been able to reveal this secret." 48 Then the king raised Daniel to high rank and gave him many great gifts and put him in command over all the province of Babylon, and made him chief rector 49 over all the wise men of Babylon. 49 And at Daniel's request the king appointed Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego to the administration of the province of Babylon, while Daniel remained at the king's court.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 King Nebucadnessar made a gold statue ninety feet high and nine feet across, which he erected on the Dura plain in the province of 2 Babylon; 2 and King Nebucadnessar sent to assemble the satraps, viceroy, and governors, the councillors, ministers, judges, recorders, and all the authorities of the provinces, to come for the dedication 3 of the statue King Nebucadnessar had erected. 3 Then the satraps, viceroy, and governors, the councillors, ministers, judges, recorders, and all the authorities of the provinces assembled for the dedication of the statue King Nebucadnessar had erected and took their stand 4 before the statue King Nebucadnessar had erected,4and a herald 5 proclaimed loudly "Peoples, nations, and languages, 5 you are ordered that at the time when you hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, the lyre, the zither, the harp, the bagpipe, and all sorts of music, you are to throw yourselves down and do reverence to the gold statue 6 which King Nebucadnessar has erected. 6 And whoever does not throw himself down and do reverence shall that moment be thrown into the 7 heart of the furnace with the fire burning."7Accordingly at the time when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, the pipe, the lyre, the zither, the harp, and all sorts of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages threw themselves down doing reverence to the gold statue King Nebucadnessar had erected.

8 8 Accordingly at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and 9 laid information against the Jews; 9 they said to King Nebucadnessar 10 "Live forever, your majesty! 10 Your majesty has issued a decree that any man who heard the sound of the horn, the pipe, the lyre, the zither, the harp, and the bagpipe, and all sorts of music, should throw 11 himself down and do reverence to the gold statue, 11 and whoever did not throw himself down and do reverence should be thrown into the 12 heart of the furnace with the fire burning. 12 There are certain Jews whom you appointed to the administration of the province of Babylon, Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego: those men have paid no attention to your majesty: they do not worship your gods and they do not do reverence to the gold statue you have erected."

13 13 Then Nebucadnessar, in great excitement and passion, ordered Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego to be brought. Then those men 14 were brought before the king. 14 Nebucadnessar said to them "Is it a fact, Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego, that you are not worshipping 15 my gods nor doing reverence to the gold statue I have erected? 15 Now if you are ready at the time when you hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, the lyre, the zither, the harp, the bagpipe, and all sorts of music, to throw yourselves down and do reverence to the statue which I have made,—but if you do not do reverence, that moment you shall be thrown into the heart of the furnace with the fire burning. And who is a god that will save you out of my hands?"

16 16 Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego answered King Nebucadnessar 17 17 "We do not need to argue this point with you: whether our God whom we worship can save us out of the furnace with the fire burning and 18 will save us out of your majesty's hands or not, 18 take notice, your majesty, that we do not worship your gods and will not do reverence to the gold statue you have erected."

19 19 Then Nebucadnessar was filled with passion and his face was distorted as he looked at Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego. He answered by ordering the furnace heated seven times hotter than was 20 normal 20 and ordering powerful men of his troops to bind Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego, to throw them into the furnace with the 21 fire burning. 21 Then those men were bound in their cloaks, trousers, caps, and clothing, and were thrown into the heart of the furnace 22 with the fire burning. 22 Thereupon, since the king's word was rigorous and the furnace was heated intensely, the blaze of the fire killed those men who lifted Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego.

23 23 And those men all three of them, Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego, fell down bound into the heart of the furnace with the fire burning.
24 Then King Nebucadnessar started to his feet in amazement; 24 he answered his courtiers' looks by saying "Did we not throw three men bound into the heart of the fire?"

They answered the king "Yes, your majesty."

25 25 He answered "Here I see four men unbound walking unharmed in the heart of the fire, and the look of the fourth is like a son of a god."

26 26 Then Nebucadnessar approached the door of the furnace with the fire burning, saying "Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego, worshipers of the Most High God, come out and go your way." Then Shadrac, 27 Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego came out of the heart of the fire; 27 and the satraps, viceroys, and governors and the king's courtiers assembled and saw those men, how the fire had had no effect on their bodies, and the hair on their heads had not been singed, and their mantles were not affected, and no odor of fire had passed to them.

28 28 Nebucadnessar answered "Blessed be the god of Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego, who has sent his angel and saved his worshipers who trusted to him and went against the king's word and gave up their bodies that they might not worship nor do reverence to any god 29 but theirs. 29 And it is hereby ordered that in every people, nation, and language he who says anything careless against the god of Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego shall be cut to pieces and his house made a garbage-dump, inasmuch as there is no other god that can give a 30 deliverance like this." 30 Then the king advanced Shadrac, Meshac, and 'Abed-Nego in the province of Babylon.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 King Nebucadnessar to all the peoples, nations, and languages that 2 live in all the earth: 2 Great be your peace. I have thought best to announce the tokens and wonders which the Most High God has 3 performed in my case. 3 How great his tokens are, and how mighty his wonders! his empire is an eternal empire, and his dominion accompanies generation upon generation.

4 4 I, Nebucadnessar, was comfortable in my house and flourishing in 5 my palace. 5 I had a dream, and it terrified me; and a nightmare in 6 my bed, and the sights that came to my head alarmed me. 6 And my order was given to bring in before me all the wise men of Babylon to make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then the sorcerers, exorcists, Chaldeans, and diviners were coming in and I was telling the dream before them, and they were failing to 8 make known its interpretation to me. 8 But at last Daniel, whose name is Belteshassar after my god's name, and who has in him a spirit from 9 holy gods, came in before me and I told the dream before him: 9 "Belte-shassar, chief of the sorcerers, you who I know have in you a spirit 10 from holy gods and for whom no secret is impenetrable, tell me the sights of the dream I had, and its interpretation. 10 And the sights that came to my head in my bed were—I saw that there was a tree in the 11 middle of the earth, whose height was great; 11 and the tree grew large and strong, and its height reached to the sky, and it was visible to 12 the end of all the earth. 12 Its foliage was beautiful and its fruit abundant, and it had on it food for everything; the wild beasts found shade under it and the birds of the air lodged in its branches, and all 13 mortal beings fed from it. 13 I saw, in the sights that came to my head 14 in my bed, that a sacred watcher came down out of the sky; 14 he called out with a powerful voice 'Cut the tree down and lop its branches and strip it of its foliage and scatter its fruit; let the beasts disperse 15 from under it and the birds from its branches; 15 but leave its rooted stump in the earth, and in a band of iron and bronze among the plants of the meadow, and let it be wet with the dews of the sky and 16 have its portion in the herbage of the earth with the beasts, 16 and his mind be changed from human and a beast's mind be given to him, 17 and seven times go past over him. 17 The edict is by resolution of the Watchers and the finding is a behest of the Sacred Ones, with the intent that those who live may know that the Most High is sovereign over human empire and gives it to whomever he wishes and sets up 18 over it the lowest of men.' 18 This dream I, Nebucadnessar the king, saw; tell you its interpretation, Belteshassar, since none of the wise men of my kingdom have been able to make the interpretation known, but you are competent because you have in you a spirit from holy gods."

19 Then Daniel, whose name is Belteshassar, stood aghast for a moment, and the things he thought of alarmed him.

The king answered "Belteshassar, may the dream and its interpretation not alarm you."

Belteshassar answered "My lord, may the dream be for those who 20 hate you, and its interpretation for your foes. 20 The tree you saw which grew large and strong and whose height reached to the sky 21 and which was visible to all the earth 21 and whose foliage was beautiful and its fruit abundant, and which had on it food for everything, the wild beasts lodged under it and the birds of the air perched in its 22 branches, 22 is you, your majesty, who have grown great and whose greatness has mounted till it reached to the sky and your sovereignty 23 to the end of the earth. 23 And as to your majesty's seeing a sacred watcher come down out of the sky and say 'Cut the tree down and mutilate it, but leave its rooted stump in the earth, and in a band of iron and bronze among the plants of the meadow, and let it be wet with the dews of the sky and have its portion with the wild beasts 24 till seven times go past over it,'— 24 this is the interpretation, your majesty, and it is the resolve of the Most High, which has reached to 25 your majesty, my lord; 25 and you shall be driven out from mankind and your quarters shall be with the wild beasts, and you shall be fed on herbage like cattle and wet with the dews of the sky, and seven times shall go past over you, till you come to know that the Most High is 26 sovereign over human empire and gives it to whomever he wishes. 26 And as to its being ordered to leave the rooted stump of the tree, you shall have your kingship permanently after you come to know that heaven 27 is sovereign. 27 So, your majesty, may my advice meet your approval: rid yourself of your sins by doing right and of your guilt by kindness to the unfortunate, in case there might be a lengthening of your prosperity."

28 28 It all overtook King Nebucadnessar. 29 At the end of twelve months he was walking on the roof of the royal palace in Babylon. 30 The king spoke up and said "This is indeed the great Babylon which I built for a royal residence by the power under my control and for the grandeur of my majesty." 31 While the words were still in the king's mouth a voice fell from the sky "You are notified, King Nebucadnessar, that your kingship has passed from you, 32 and you shall be driven out from mankind and your quarters shall be with the wild beasts, and you shall be fed on herbage like cattle, and seven times shall go past over you, till you come to know that the Most High is sovereign over human empire and gives it to whomever he wishes."

33 33 That moment the word was accomplished for Nebucadnessar, and he was driven out from men and ate herbage like cattle and was wet with the dews and rain of the sky till his hair grew long as vultures' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

34 34 But at the end of the time I, Nebucadnessar, raised my eyes to the sky and my reason came back to me, and I blessed the Most High and praised and glorified him who lives forever, that his dominion is an eternal dominion and his empire accompanies generation upon 35 generation, 35 and all who live on earth count for nothing, and he does as he pleases with the legions of the sky and with those who live on earth; and there is no one who shall check his hand and say to him
 36 "What are you doing?" 36 At that time my reason came back to me, and for my royal dignity my good looks and bloom came back to me, and my courtiers and lords presented petitions to me, and I was reinstated 37 in my kingship and received notable additions of greatness. 37 Now I Nebucadnessar praise and exalt and glorify the King of Heaven, all whose workings are truth and his courses justice, and who is able to bring low those who go loftily.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 King Belshassar gave a great dinner to a thousand of his lords and 2 drank wine before the thousand. 2 Belshassar, inspired by the wine, ordered that the gold and silver vessels which his father Nebucad-3 nassar had taken out of the temple at Jerusalem be brought for the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, to drink from. 3 Then the gold vessels they took out of the temple at Jerusalem were 4 brought, and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them, 4 drank the wine and praised the golden and silver and bronze and iron and wooden and stone gods.

5 5 That moment fingers of a human hand came out and wrote, opposite the lamp, on the whitewashed wall of the royal palace, and the king 6 saw the writing hand. 6 Then the king changed color and the things he thought of alarmed him, his hip-joints went loose and his knees 7 knocked together; 7 the king called loudly to bring in the exorcists, Chaldeans, and diviners. The king said to the wise men of Babylon that any man who should read that writing and show its interpreta-8 tion should wear purple and have a gold necklace round Ms neck and have tritarch authority in the empire. 8 Then all the king's wise men were coming in and not proving competent to read the writing 9 and make the interpretation known to the king. 9 Then King Belshassar was greatly alarmed and changed color, and his lords were bewildered.

10 10 In consequence of the words of the king and his lords the queen came into the banquet house. The queen responded "May your majesty live forever! Do not let the things you think of alarm you, and do 11 not change color so. 11 There is a man in your kingdom who has in him a spirit from holy gods, and in your father's time enlightenment and insight and wisdom like that of gods was found in him, and your royal father Nebucadnessar set him up as chief of sorcerers, exorcists, 12 Chaldeans, diviners,—your royal father. 12 Inasmuch as notable inspiration and knowledge and insight, interpretation of dreams and solution of riddles and unraveling of knotty problems, are found in him, Daniel, whom the king named Belteshassar, now let Daniel be called and he will show the interpretation."

13 13 Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king said to Daniel "You are Daniel, one of the Jewish deportees whom the king 14 my father brought from Judah? 14 then I hear that you have in you a divine spirit, and enlightenment and insight and notable wisdom have 15 been found in you. 15 Now the wise men, the exorcists, have been brought in before me to read this writing and make its interpretation known, but they were not competent to show the interpretation of the word.
16 16 And I hear that you can expound interpretations and unravel knotty problems. Now if you can read the writing and make known the interpretation of it, you shall wear purple and have a gold necklace round your neck and have tritarch authority in the empire."

17 17 Then Daniel answered before the king "Keep your gifts to yourself and give your grants to another; but I will read the writing to 18 your majesty and make known the interpretation of it. 18 To your majesty's father Nebucadnessar the Most High God gave empire and 19 greatness and glory and majesty, 19 and for the greatness that he gave him all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him; whom he wished he killed and whom he wished he left 20 alive, and whom he wished he distinguished and whom he wished he disgraced. 20 But when his heart grew lofty and his spirit presumingly headstrong, he was put down from his royal throne and his glory 21 was taken off from him, 21 and he was driven out from mankind and his mind leveled with that of beasts, and his quarters were with the wild asses, they fed him on herbage like cattle, and he was wet with the dews and rains of the sky, till he came to know that the Most High God is sovereign over human empire and sets up over it whom he 22 pleases to. 22 And you his son, Belshassar, did not humble your heart 23 though you knew all this, 23 but set yourself up above the Lord of Heaven, and they brought before you the vessels of his house, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, drank wine from them and praised the gods made of silver and gold, bronze and iron, wood and stone, that do not see nor hear nor know; but the God who holds your breath in his hand and all your experiences, him you did not glorify. 24 Then the hand was sent from before him and this writing 24 was inscribed. 25 And this is the writing that is inscribed: mene, tekel, 25 peres. 26 This is the interpretation of the word: mene, God has counted 26 your empire and paid it off; 27 tekel, you have been weighed in the 27 scales and found short weight; 28 peres, your empire is broken up and 28 given to the Medes and the Persians." 29 Then Belshassar gave the 29 word and they clothed Daniel in purple, with a gold necklace round his neck, and proclaimed before him that he was to have tritarch authority in the empire.

30 31 30 That night King Belshassar of the Chaldeans was killed, 31 and Darius the Mede took over the empire, a man some sixty-two years old.

CHAPTER 6

1 1 Darius thought best to set up over the empire a hundred and twenty 2 satraps, 2 and above them three controllers, of whom Daniel was one, to whom these satraps should make their reports, and the king not 3 be troubled. 3 Then this Daniel became preeminent among the controllers and satraps, inasmuch as he had in him notable inspiration; 4 and the king thought of setting him over all the empire. 4 Then the controllers and the satraps set about trying to find an offense of Daniel's with regard to the administration, but could not find any offense or misconduct, inasmuch as he was a faithful man and no negligence or misconduct was found chargeable to him.

5 5 Then those men said "We shall not find any offense of this Daniel's 6 unless we find something in his religion." 6 Then these controllers and 7 satraps came in a body to the king and said to him "Live forever, 7 King Darius! 7 All the controllers of the empire, the viceroys and the satraps, the courtiers and the governors, have resolved to recommend that the king enact a decree and impose a prohibition that anybody who makes a petition to any god or man except your majesty for 8 thirty days shall be thrown into the lion-pit. 8 Your majesty is now to enact the prohibition and have it inscribed in written form to be 9 unalterable as an irreversible law of the Medes and Persians." 9 Accordingly King Darius had the prohibition formally inscribed.

10 10 But Daniel, when he learned that the edict was inscribed, went into his house, which had windows cut in its upper room toward Jerusalem, and three times a day he knelt down and prayed and gave thanks before his God in the same way as he had done before this.

11 11 Then those men went in a body and found Daniel making petitions 12 and supplications before his God. 12 Then they presented themselves and said before the king "Your majesty, did you not have a prohibition inscribed that any man who makes a petition to any god or man except your majesty for thirty days shall be thrown into the lion-pit?"

The king answered "It is a settled thing with the irreversibility of Median and Persian law."

13 13 Then they answered before the king "Daniel, who is one of the Jewish deportees, has not paid any attention to your majesty and to the prohibition you have had inscribed, and three times a day he makes his petitions."

14 14 Then the king was much annoyed at hearing the thing, and determined to save Daniel and exerted himself till sunset to get Mm 15 clear. 15 Then those men came in a body to the king and said to him "Know, your majesty, that the Medes and Persians have a law that every prohibition or decree which the king enacts is unalterable."

16 16 Then the king gave the word and they brought Daniel and threw Mm into the lion-pit, the king saying to Daniel "Let your God whom you 17 constantly worship save you"; 17 and a stone was brought and laid over the mouth of the pit, and the king sealed it with his signet and with the signets of his lords, that there might not be a thing changed in Daniel's case.

18 18 Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting, and did not have music brought before him, and his sleep would not come.

19 19 Then at daybreak the king rose as soon as it was light and went in 20 haste to the lion-pit, 20 and when he came near the pit he cried to Daniel in a distressful voice "Daniel, worshiper of the living God, was your God whom you constantly invoke able to save you from the 21 lions?" 21 Then Daniel spoke with the king: "Live forever, your majesty!
 22 my God sent his angel and held the lions' mouths shut, and they did not harm me, inasmuch as before him I was found to have right on my side; and before you too, your majesty, I had done no harm."

23 23 Then the king was much gratified, and ordered Daniel lifted out of the pit; and Daniel was lifted out, and no injury was found on 24 him, because he had trusted his God. 24 Then the king ordered those men who had laid the information against Daniel to be brought and thrown into the lion-pit, them, their children, and their wives, and they did not get to the bottom of the pit before the lions had them and had crushed all their bones.

25 25 Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages 26 that live in all the earth "Great be your peace. 26 It is hereby ordained that throughout the jurisdiction of my empire men are to tremble and fear before Daniel's God, because he is the living God and stands forever, and his empire is invincible and his sovereignty lasts to the 27 end. 27 He saves and delivers and performs tokens and wonders, he who has saved Daniel out of the power of the lions."

28 28 And this Daniel did well under the reign of Darius and that of Cyrus the Persian.

CHAPTER 7

1 1 In the year one of King Belshassar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and sights came to his head in his bed. Then he wrote down the dream.
2 (Beginning of statement.) 2 He said "Said Daniel, I saw in my visions during the night that the four winds of the sky were churning the 3 great sea, 3 and four great beasts came up out of the sea, all different.

4 4 "The first was like a lion with a vulture's wings; I saw till its wings were pulled off and it was raised from the earth and set on two feet like a man and given a human heart.

5 5 "And on came another beast, a second, resembling a bear, which had got on its feet on one side, and had in its mouth three ribs between its teeth; and they said to it 'Up, eat much flesh!'

6 6 "After this I saw, and on came another, like a leopard with four bird wings on its back; and the beast had four heads, and was given sovereign power.

7 7 "After this I saw in night visions, and on came a fourth beast, fearful and terrible and surpassingly strong, with great iron teeth; it was eating and mangling and trampling the remnants underfoot;
and it was different from all the beasts before it, and it had ten horns.

8 8 I was noticing the horns, and up between them came another horn, a tiny one, and three of the previous horns were uprooted before it; and eyes there were in this horn like human eyes, and a mouth talking big words.

9 9 "I saw till thrones were placed and an Aged One took his seat, whose clothing was like white snow and the hair of his head like clean wool. His throne was flames of fire, and its wheels fire burning; 10 a river of fire streamed out from before him. 10 A thousand thousand were waiting on him and a million million stood before him. The court took its seat and books were opened.

11 11 "I saw: then, at the sound of the big words the horn talked, I saw till the beast was killed and its body wrecked and put for burning 12 up. 12 And the rest of the beasts had their sovereignty discontinued, but were given prolongation of life till a time and a tide.

13 13 "I saw in night visions that with the clouds of the sky there came the like of a human being, and he came up to the Ancient One and presented himself before him; 14 and he was given sovereignty and glory and empire, and all the peoples, nations, and languages became his subjects. His sovereignty is sovereignty eternal, inalienable, and his empire impregnable.

15 15 "I, Daniel, was excited over this, and the sights that had come to my head alarmed me. 16 I approached one of those who were standing there and asked him for the precise significance of this; and he told me, and made the interpretation known, 17 "These great beasts, of which there are four, are four kings to stand upon the earth; 18 but the holy ones of the Most High shall take over the empire, and shall rule the empire forever, world without end.'

19 19 "Then I wanted the precise significance of the fourth beast that was different from all of them, surpassingly fearful, its teeth iron and its claws bronze, which ate and mangled and trampled the remnants underfoot, 20 and of the ten horns on its head and another that came up and three fell before it, and that horn had eyes and a mouth talking big words, and the look of being larger than its mates; 21 I had seen that that horn made war with holy ones and got the best of them 22 till an Ancient One came and judgment was given for the holy ones of the Most High, and the time arrived and holy ones ruled the empire.

23 23 "He said thus: 'The fourth beast is a fourth empire that there shall be on earth, which shall be different from all empires and shall eat up all the earth and kick it to pieces and mangle it; 24 and the ten horns, out of that empire ten kings shall stand up, and another shall stand up after them; and he shall be different from the preceding ones, and shall bring three kings down, 25 and shall talk in words pointing at God on high, and shall wear down the holy ones of the Most High, and shall think to change times and law; and they shall be given into his hands through a time and times and half a time. 26 But the court shall sit, and they shall take off his sovereignty for definitive destroying and extirpating; 27 and empire, and the sovereignty and greatness of all the empires under the sky, was given to the people of the holy ones of the Most High. Its empire is an empire forever, and all sovereignties shall be its subjects and obey it.'

28 28 "With this the whole was at an end. I, Daniel, was much alarmed by the things I thought of, and changed color. But I laid the matter up in my mind."

CHAPTER 8

1 1 In the year three of King Belshassar's reign a vision appeared to me, Daniel, following out the one I had seen at first. 2 And I saw in DANIEL 7:32—8:2 1176

the vision—and when I saw it I was in Susa Citadel in the province 3 of 'Elam—3 I saw in the vision that I was by Ulai Run, and I raised my eyes and saw that there was a ram standing in front of the Run; and it had two horns, and the horns were tall, the one taller than the 4 other, and the taller coming up behind. 4 I saw the ram butting west and north and south, and no beasts could stand before it, and there was nobody to give deliverance from its power, and it did as it pleased and made a great record.

5 5 And as I was taking it in, there, coming from the west over the face of all the earth, was a he-goat; and the goat had a strikingly 6 large horn between its eyes. 6 And it came through to the two-horned ram that I had seen standing in front of the Run, and ran at it in 7 its rage of strength; 7 and I saw it come on alongside the ram and quarrel with it and hit the ram and break both its horns, and there was in the ram no strength to stand before it, and it knocked it down and trampled it, and there was nobody that delivered the ram 8 out of its power. 8 And the he-goat did very great things; but when it was at its mightiest the great horn broke, and four others came up instead, to the four winds of the sky.

9 9 And out of one of them came out another horn, a tiny one, and it grew extremely large toward the south and toward the east and 10 toward the crowning glory; 10 and it grew large up to the legions of the sky and knocked some of the legions and some of the stars down 11 to the earth and trampled them; 11 and up to the Chief of the Legions it grew large, and the regular sacrifice was taken off from him and the 12 footing of his sanctuary thrown down; 12 and a campaign is undertaken against the regular sacrifice with crime; and he shall throw truth 13 down on the ground, and carry on and be successful. 13 And I heard one holy one speak; and one holy one said to whoever it was that spoke "How long does the vision run? the regular sacrifice, and the crime appalling, his making sanctuary and host things to trample on?" 14 14 And he said to him "Through twenty-three hundred evenings, mornings; and sacred things shall be vindicated."

15 15 And when I, Daniel, saw the vision I sought for insight; and there 16 before me stood what looked like a man, 16 and I heard a human voice between the banks of the Ulai, and it called out "Gabriel, give yonder 17 man an insight into the apparition!" 17 And he came beside me as I stood; and at his coming I was perturbed and threw myself down on my face. And he said to me "Understand, man; for the vision is for an ultimate time."

18 18 And as he spoke to me I was in a trance on my face on the ground; 19 but he came up to me and set me on my feet. 19 And he said to me
"Here, I am going to make known to you that which is to be in the 20 latter end of the unfriendliness, for it is for an ultimate date. 20 The 21 two-horned ram that you saw is the kings of Media and Persia; 21 and the he-goat is the king of Greece; and the great horn between its

22 eyes is the first king; 22 and the broken horn, and four standing up instead, four kingdoms are to stand up out of his nation but not with 23 his power. 23 But toward the latter end of their empire, while criminals are finishing their work, there is to stand a king stiff-faced and ingenious at riddles. 24 And his power is to be immense, but not by his 24 power; and he is to think up marvelous things and be successful and carry on; and he is to make away with mighty ones and a people 25 of holy ones; 25 and owing to his longheadedness he is to handle deceit successfully, and build great things in his heart, and make away with many while they are off their guard; and he is to stand against 26 a Chief of Chiefs, but be broken without touch of a hand. 26 And the spoken disclosure of the evenings and mornings is truth. But as for you, keep the vision under a stopper, for it is a longtime one." 27 27 And I, Daniel, broke down and was ill for a while; but I got on my feet and did the king's business. But I was appalled at the inexplicable vision.

CHAPTER 9

1 1 In the year one of Darius the son of Xerxes, of Median blood, who 2 had been installed as king over the Chaldean kingdom,— 2 in the year one of his reign I, Daniel, observed in the books the number of the years which it was Jehovah's word to the prophet Jeremiah should 3 be filled out for Jerusalem's lying waste, seventy years; 3 and I turned my face toward the Lord God to put up prayer and supplication with 4 fasting and sackcloth and ashes; 4 and I prayed to my God Jehovah and made confession and said
 "Ah, Lord, great and terrible Deity, keeper of covenant and friendship for those who love you and keep your commandments, 5 we have 5 been sinful and guilty and wrong and rebellious and gone off from 6 your commandments and laws 6 and not listened to your servants the prophets who spoke in your name to our kings, our generals, and 7 our fathers and to all the populace. 7 For you, Lord, is the right, but for us shame of face, as we have it this day, for the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and all Israel, those who are near and those who are far away in all the countries into which you banished them for their unfaithfulness that they had committed against 8 you. 8 Lord, to us belongs shame of face, to our kings, our generals, 9 and our fathers, that they sinned against you; 9 to the Lord our God belong tenderheartedness and forgiveness though we have rebelled 10 against him 10 and have not obeyed our God Jehovah, going by his 11 instructions that he set before us by his servants the prophets, 11 and all Israel have overstepped your covenant and gone wrong, not obeying you. And the imprecation and oath that are written in the code of God's servant Moses were poured out on us because we had sinned 12 against him, 12 and he made good his words that he had spoken against us and our judges who judged us, bringing upon us such a great

13 disaster that there has never been done under all the sky the like of what was done at Jerusalem; 13 as there was written in Moses's code all this disaster, it has come upon us. And we did not propitiate Jehovah by turning back from our guilty ways and considering your 14 truth, 14 and Jehovah attended to the disaster and brought it upon us.
For our God Jehovah is in the right as to all that he has done, and we did not obey him.

15 15 "But now, Lord our God, who brought your people out from Egypt with strong hand and made yourself famous as at this day,—we have 16 sinned, we are in the wrong,— 16 Lord, to agree with all your right-doing, let your anger and exasperation turn back from your city Jerusalem, your sacred mountain, because by our sins and the guilts of our fathers Jerusalem and your people have become a butt for taunts 17 from all who are around them; 17 but now, our God, listen to your servant's prayer and supplication and show a shining face toward your 18 desolated sanctuary for your own sake, Lord. 18 Bend your ear, my God, and hear; open your eyes and see our desolations, and the city that wears your name, because it is not for our right-doings that we are laying our supplication before you but for your great tenderhearted-19 ness. Lord, hear! Lord, forgive! 19 Lord, listen and act! do not delay, my God, because your city and your people wear your name."

20 20 And while I was still speaking and praying and making confession of my sin and the sin of my people Israel and laying my appeal 21 before my God Jehovah for my God's sacred mountain,— 21 while I was still speaking in prayer the man Gabriel whom I had seen brought flying in the vision I had had at the beginning came up to me in his 22 flying at the time of the evening oblation, 22 and came in and spoke to me and said "Daniel, I have now come out to enlighten you with 23 insight. 23 At the beginning of your supplications word went out, and I have come to make the announcement, because you are a favorite.
24 24 Understand the word and see the point of the apparition: seventy sevens are marked off as to your people and your sacred city for finishing crime and getting through with sin and purging guilt and bringing in eternal righteousness and sealing vision and prophet and anointing a holiest of the holy. 25 And you are to know and see the 25 point: from the going out of word to bring back and rebuild Jerusalem to a Warden Anointed is seven sevens; and for sixty-two sevens it will be coming back and being rebuilt, square and moat. And in 26 the hard pinch of the times, 26 and after the sixty-two sevens, there will cease to be an Anointed, and the city and the sanctuary will be ravaged by the people of a warden, him who comes in; and the end of him will be with a flood; and to the end of war desolations are 27 fated; 27 and he will put a covenant in force for the many for one seven; and for half the seven he will bring sacrifice and meal-offering to a stop; and on a wing there will be an appalling disgustment, and so till a finish and a fate to be poured out on an appalling one.

CHAPTER 10

1 In the year three of King Cyrus of Persia a matter was revealed to Daniel who was named Belteshassar; and the word was true, but a great task; but he understood the word and had insight into the apparition.

2 In those days I, Daniel, had been mourning three weeks; 3 I had not eaten palatable bread, and meat and wine had not come into my mouth, and I had not put on any oil, till three weeks were up. 4 And on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, when I was by the side of the great river (that is, the Tigris), 5 I raised my eyes and saw that there was a man there dressed in linen, his waist belted with nugget gold from Uphaz, 6 his body like yellow jasper, his face like the sight of lightning, his eyes like torches of fire, his arms and legs like the luster of burnished bronze, and the sound of his words like the voices of an excited crowd.

7 And I, Daniel, alone saw the apparition, and the men who were with me did not see the apparition; a great panic fell upon them, 8 though, and they went into hiding, 8 and I remained alone and saw this great apparition. And I had no strength left in me, and my good health turned into a breakdown and I retained no strength. 9 And I heard the sound of his words; and as I heard the sound of his words, 10 being in a trance on my face with my face on the ground, there a hand touched me and got me falteringly up on my hands and knees; 11 and he said to me "Daniel, you favorite man, take in the words I am speaking to you, and stand erect, because I have now been sent to you." 12 And with his speaking these words I stood up shivering. And he said to me

"Do not be afraid, Daniel, because from the first day when you put your mind to studying and behaving submissively before your God your words were heard, and I came at your words; 13 but the prince of the Persian empire stood in my way twenty-one days. But here has Micael, one of the chief princes, come to help me, and I was superfluous with the kings of Persia 14 and came to expound to you what is to befall your people in future time—for there is yet a vision for the time."

15 And while he spoke these words with me I had my face toward the ground and was dumb. 16 But there what bore the semblance of human-kind touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and spoke, and said to the one that stood in front of me "My lord, at the sight of the apparition my pains came upon me and I retained no strength, 17 and how can this servant of my lord's talk with this lord of mine, when after this I have no strength standing up in me and there remains no breath in me?"

18 And once more what had the look of a man touched me and put strength into me, 19 and he said "Do not be afraid, you favorite man, you are all right; brace up, brace up!" and as he spoke with me I gathered firmness and said "Let my lord speak, for you have put strength into me."

20 And he said "Do you know what I have come to you for? and I am going right back to fight the prince of Persia, and when I come 21 out, in comes the prince of Greece. 21 I will inform you, though, of what is inscribed in a record of truth. And there is nobody holding

CHAPTER 11

1 firmly with me against these except your own prince Micael; 1 and for my own part it was in the year one of Darius the Mede that I 2 took my stand to reinforce and strengthen him. 2 And now I will tell you the truth:

"Persia has three kings yet to stand; and the fourth will amass greater wealth than all; and when he is strong in wealth, everything 3 will stir up the kingdom of Greece. 3 And there will stand a formidable 4 king, and he will rule a great dominion and do as he pleases. 4 But as he stands his empire will break and divide toward the four winds of the sky, but not for his posterity nor with the like of his sway that he held; for his empire will be uprooted and belong to others beside these.

5 5 "And the king of the south will be strong, but one of his generals will be stronger against him and will rule a dominion greater than 6 his. 6 And at the end of years they will ally themselves, and the daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north to bring about an accord, but will not retain strength of arm and his two arms will not stand, and she will be betrayed and those who brought her in and he who gave birth to her and he who strengthens 7 her at the times. 7 But part of the sprouting of her roots will replace him, and will come to the bulwark and come into the stronghold of the king of the north and will do his business in them and be strong.
8 8 And their gods too, with their statues, with their exquisite vessels in silver and in gold, he will bring captured to Egypt; and, he keeping 9 away from the king of the north for some years, 9 he will invade the empire of the king of the south, but go back to his own land.

10 10 "But his sons will start hostilities and get together a numerous body of troops, and he will go in sweeping everything before him and passing off; but he will come back, and hostilities will continue up 11 to his stronghold. 11 But the king of the south will be infuriated and will come out and make war with him, the king of the north; and he will set on foot a great host, but the host will be given into his hands, 12 and the host will be carried off; 12 and his heart will be uplifted, and 13 he will cut down myriads, but will not be vigorous. 13 And the king of the north will go back and will set on foot a host greater than the first, and at the end of the times (years) he will come in with a 14 great force and abundant supplies; 14 and in those times many will stand against the king of the south, and the sons of the revolutionists

15 among your people will have high expectations of making good a vision, but will come to grief; 15 and the king of the north will come in and throw up a ramp and capture a fortified city, and the partisans of the south will not stand their ground, and his choice troops, and 16 there will be no strength to stand, 16 and his invader will do as he pleases, no one standing before him, and will take his stand in the 17 land of the crowning glory and have it wholly in his hands, 17 and will set his face to come in with the might of his whole empire, but will come to an accord with him and give him the daughter of women with ruinous intent; but it will not stand and he will not get it.
18 18 And he will turn his face back toward seacoasts, and conquer many;
but a chieftain will stop his insolence for him, will give him back 19 something else than his insolence, 19 and he will turn his face back to the strongholds of his own country and come to grief, and fall and 20 not be found; 20 and there will replace him one who sends about a collecting agent as royal glory, but in a short time he will be broken, and not in anger nor in war.

21 21 "And there will replace him a despised man to whom they had not given royal honor, but he will come in while people are off their 22 guard and grasp kingship by slippery methods; 22 and partisans will be 23 swept down before him and broken, and a covenanted warden too; 23 and upon one's allying himself with him he will commit fraud; and he will come up and rise to domination with a small faction while people 24 are off their guard. 24 And he will come into the fattest parts of a province and do what his fathers and his fathers' fathers had not done, scatter plunder and booty and chattels to them; and he will lay plans against fortifications—and this up to a time.

25 25 "And he will rouse his strength and his will against the king of the south with great forces; and the king of the south will take the field for war with great and very powerful forces, but will not stand 26 26 because they plot against him and those who eat his viands break him; 27 27 and his forces will be swept away, and many killed will fall. And the kings will both have evil intentions, and they will speak lies over one table; but it will not be successful, because there is yet to be an 28 end at the destined time. 28 And he will go back to his own country with a great stock of goods; and his mind will be against a sacred covenant, 29 and he will do things and go back to his own country. 29 At the destined time he will come back and invade the south; but it will not be the 30 same the latter time as the first time, 30 and western ships will come against him and he will be cowed.

"And he will come back and be hostile to a sacred covenant and take action, and he will go back and take notice of those who are 31 abandoning a sacred covenant; 31 and partisans of his will stand, and will desecrate the sanctuary, the stronghold, and displace the regular 32 sacrifice and put in the appalling disgustment. 32 And those who bring wickedness into a covenant will foment irreligion by slippery methods;

but a people that know their God will be vigorous and take action.
33 And the enlighteners of a people will bring most to sound views; but they will come to grief in sword and flame, in enslavement and 34 plundering, for a while. 34 And when they are coming to grief they will be helped a little, and many will join them with slippery intents; 35 35 and some of the enlighteners will come to grief to smelt and sift and scrub among them up to an ultimate time, because it is yet for the destined hour.

36 36 "And the king will do as he pleases and play the great and lofty lord against every deity, and speak monstrous words against the God of Gods, and flourish till hostility is finished because a crisis has 37 been brought about. 37 And to the gods of his fathers he will pay no attention, and to the Desire of Women, or any god, he will pay no 38 attention, because he plays the part of great one against all. 38 But he will honor a god of strongholds in place, and a god whom his fathers had never known he will honor with gold and silver and precious 39 stones and works of fine art. 39 And for best-fortified strongholds he will take the people of a foreign god that he has recognized; he will pay great honor, and set them to rule over the majority, and give portions of land as payment.

40 40 "And at an ultimate time the king of the south will clash with him, and the king of the north will come storming against him with chariotry and cavalry and a great navy, and will invade countries 41 and sweep everything before him and pass on. 41 And he will come into the land of the crowning glory, and myriads will come to grief; but these will come through safe from his hands, Edom and Moab and 42 the chief part of the Bene-'Ammon. 42 And he will put out his hand against countries, and Egypt will not escape, 43 but he will get control 43 of the accumulations of gold and silver and all the fine things of Egypt, and have the Libyans and the Nubians at his heels. 44 But news 44 from the east and the north will startle him, and he will go out in a great passion to massacre and exterminate many, 45 and will pitch 45 his palace-tents between the sea and the mountain of sacred glory, and come to his end with nobody to help him.

CHAPTER 12

1 1 And at that time Micael will stand, the great prince who stands on behalf of the sons of your people; and there will come the time of a distress that there had not been since a nation existed up to that time; but at that time your people will come off safe, everyone 2 that is written down in the Book. 2 And many of the sleepers in earthy ground will wake, these to life forever and those to ignominies, to be 3 objects of repugnance forever; 3 and the enlighteners will have a brightness like the resplendence of the firmament, and those who make the 4 many righteous like the stars forevermore. 4 But as for you, Daniel, keep the things under a stopper and seal the book till an ultimate date; many will go ranging about, and disasters will abound."

5 And I, Daniel, saw that there were two others standing one on this 6 bank of the river and one on that bank; 6 and one said to the man dressed in linen who was over the water of the river "How long till the end of the mysteries?"

7 And I heard the man dressed in linen who was over the water of the river, lifting his right hand and his left hand toward the sky, swear by him who lives forever that in a time, times, and a half, and when the smashing of the arms of a holy people is finished, finished 8 will these things be. 8 And I myself heard, but did not understand, and said "My lord, what will be the latter part of these things?"

9 And he said "Go, Daniel, for the words are stoppered and sealed 10 till an ultimate date. 10 Many will be sifted and scrubbed and smelted, and wrong-doers will do wrong, and no wrong-doers will understand, 11 but the judicious will understand. 11 And from the date of the displacing of the regular sacrifice to the putting in of an appalling disgustment is twelve hundred and ninety days. 12 Happy he who waits and 12 comes up to thirteen hundred and thirty-five days. 13 But as for you, 13 go rest; for there is some time yet, and destined periods are to be filled out at the end, and you are to rest, and stand on your feet at the end of the time."

THE BOOK OF HOSHEA'

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 Jehovah's word that came to Hoshea' the son of Beeri in the times of Kings 'Uzzijah, Jotham, Ahaz, Hezekiah, of Judah; and the beginning of Jehovah's speaking by Hoshea' was in the time of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.
- 2 2 And Jehovah said to Hoshea' "Go take an illegitimate wife and illegitimate children, because the country is prostituting itself to
- 3 desert Jehovah." 3 And he went and took Gomer the daughter of
- 4 Diblaim. 4 And she became pregnant and bore him a son; and Jehovah said to him "Name him Jezre'el, because in a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for the bloodshed at Jezre'el and will abolish the 5 kingdom of the house of Israel;5and on that day I will break Israel's bow in Jezre'el Vale."

6 6 And she became pregnant again and bore a daughter; and he said to him "Name her Lo-Ruhamah, because I will no longer continue to have tenderness for the house of Israel, but will hate them out-7 right. 7 But for the house of Judah I will have tenderness, and will save them by their God Jehovah, and will not save them by bow and sword and war, by ponies and horses."

8 8 And she weaned Lo-Ruhamah, and became pregnant and bore a 9 son;9and he said "Name him Lo-'Ammi, because you are not my people and I am not your God."

CHAPTER 2

1 1 And the number of the sons of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, immeasurable and innumerable; and in the place where they were told "you are not my people" they shall be called "sons of living 2 Deity."2And the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel together shall gather and elect one head and come up from the country, because 3 great is the day of Jezre'el.3Call your brothers 'Ammi and your sisters Ruhamah.

4 4 Upbraid your mother, upbraid her—because she is not my wife nor I her husband—that she remove her unchastity from her face and her adultery from between her breasts, 5 for fear I should strip her naked and set her as on the day of her birth and make her like a wilderness and render her like a dried-out country and kill her with 6 thirst, and have no tenderness for her children,6because they are illegitimate children; 7 because their mother was unchaste, she whose 7 body bred them acted shamelessly, because she thought "Let me follow my lovers that give me my bread and water, my wool and flax, my oil and drink." 8 So I am pleaching up her road with briers and mending her fence, and she shall not find her paths; 9 and she shall pursue her lovers and not overtake them, and look for them and not find them, and think "I will go off back to my first husband, because 10 I was better off then than now"; 10 and she had not known that it was I who gave her the grain and the grape-juice and the oil, and let her have much silver, and gold which they worked up for the Baal. 11 So I will reverse it and take back my grain at its season and my grape-juice at its date, and snatch away my wool and flax to cover her nakedness; 12 I will now uncover her indecency in sight of her lovers, and nobody shall rescue her out of my hands. 13 And I will stop all her delights, her feasts, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her dates, 14 and lay waste her vines and fig-trees of which she thought "They are a tip that my lovers have given me," and make them into 15 a scrubwood that the wild beasts will eat, 15 and I will punish her for the days of the Baals to whom she made burnings and bejeweled herself with her nose-ring and pendant and went after her lovers and forgot me, quoth Jehovah.

16 So I am going to inveigle her and get her into the wilderness and 17 talk of love to her, 17 and give her her vineyards from there, and Trouble Vale for a door of hope; and she shall answer there as in her days of girlhood and as on the day of her coming up out of 18 Egypt. 18 And on that day, quoth Jehovah, you shall call me "my ish" 19 (husband) and no longer "my baal" (liege), 19 and I will take the names of the Baals out of your mouth and they shall no longer be 20 named. 20 And I will make a treaty with the beasts of the field and the birds of the air and the reptiles and insects of the ground for them on that day, and will break bow and sword and battle out of the 21 country and have them lie down in security, 21 and will betroth you to myself forever, betroth you by honesty and justice and friendliness 22 and tenderness, 22 betroth you by loyalty, and you shall know Jehovah.
23 23 And on that day I will answer, quoth Jehovah, I will answer the 24 sky and it shall answer the earth 24 and the earth shall answer the grain and the grape-juice and the oil and they shall answer Jezre'el; 25 25 and I will seed her in the country for myself, and be tender to Her-
For-Whom-There-Was-No-Tenderness, and say to Not-My-People
"You are my people," and he shall say "My God."

CHAPTER 3

1 1 And Jehovah said to me "Again go love a woman loved by a paramour and living an adulterous life, as Jehovah loves the sons of Israel while they face toward other gods and love cakes of raisins." 2 2 And I purchased her for fifteen shekels of silver and twelve bushels 3 of barley, 3 and said to her "You shall stay mine a long time, never be debauched nor let a man have you; and I on my part will give my 4 attentions to you." 4 For the sons of Israel shall stay a long time without king and without general and without sacrifice and without 5 obelisk and without ephod and teraphim; 5 afterward the sons of Israel shall come back and look up their God Jehovah and their king David, and pay timid homage to Jehovah and his goodness in the future days.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 Listen to Jehovah's word, sons of Israel, because Jehovah has a case against the inhabitants of the country, because there is no loyalty 2 and no friendship and no knowledge of God in the country: 2 swearing and lying, and murdering and stealing, and adultery; they live by 3 violence, and bloodshed treads on the heels of bloodshed. 3 On this account the country is to mourn and all who live in it to be forlorn, beasts of the field and birds of the air and all, and the very fishes of 4 the sea are to draw out of the way. 4 Only let not any man fight the case, let not any man reprimand—your people are the sort that 5 fight a ease with a priest. 5 And you shall stumble today, and a prophet too with you shall stumble in the night; and I will cut off your mother.

6 My people is cut off because of not knowing. Because you have rejected knowledge I have rejected you from being priest to me; you have forgotten your God's instructions, I on my part will forget 7 your sons. 7 The more there were of them the more they sinned against 8 me—I will substitute contempt for your honors. 8 They eat my people's 9 sin and fix their appetite on its guilt. 9 And the priest will be the same 10 as the people, and I will punish him for his courses and send retribution for his practices. 10 And they shall eat and not feel full, live licentiously and not be prolific, because they have left Jehovah, 11 11 faithfully keeping up unchastity and wine and grape-juice that take 12 away the brain. 12 My people puts questions to its bit of wood, and its staff informs it, because a spirit of prostitution has misled them and 13 they have gone from under Jehovah into prostitution. 13 They sacrifice on the mountaintops and make burnings on the hilltops, under oak and storax and terebinth, because their shade is good. Therefore your daughters prostitute themselves and your daughters-in-law take to 14 adultery. 14 I will not punish your daughters because they prostitute themselves nor your daughters-in-law because they take to adultery, for those men themselves go apart with loose women and sacrifice with religious prostitutes; and an unintelligent class lets itself be 15 hustled down. 15 If you, Israel, are unchaste, let Judah not incur guilt.
And do not go into the Gilgal nor up to Beth-Aven, nor swear "By 16 Jehovah." 16 For Israel has been balking like a balky cow—now Jehovah is to pasture them like a sheep in the open! 17 Ephraim is partner with 18 idols; let him alone. 18 Their drink passes off, they take to lechery; her 19 shields do love contempt. 19 A wind has bundled her up in its wings, and they shall be ashamed of their altars.

CHAPTER 5

1 Listen to this, priests, and pay attention, house of Israel, and give ear, house of the king, because justice is your business, but you have 2 been a snare at Mispah and a spread net on Tabor 2 and a deep pit at 3 Shittim, and none of them have anybody to turn them off. 3 I know about Ephraim, and about Israel it is not kept dark from me, how you, Ephraim, are now taking part in prostitution, Israel is being 4 defiled; 4 their practices will not let them come back to their God, because they have within them a spirit of unchastity and do not know 5 Jehovah. 5 And Israel's pride testifies to his face; and Israel and 6 Ephraim stumble by their guilt, Judah too stumbles with them. 6 With their sheep and horned cattle they go looking for Jehovah and do 7 not find him; he has taken himself out of their way. 7 They have played Jehovah false, because they have been having alien children; now a new moon will eat up their portions.

8 Blow a ram-horn at Gibeah, a trumpet at Ramah; sound an alarm 9 at Beth-Aven; 9 they are after you, Benjamin! Ephraim shall become a desolation on a day of chastisement; among the tribes of Israel I 10 give reliable notice. 10 Judah's generals have been like those that displace a boundary-mark; I will pour out my wrath on them like water.

11 11 Ephraim is denied justice, is persecuted in judgment, because 12 they insisted on following a mandate. 12 And I am like a moth to 13 Ephraim, and like dry-rot to the house of Judah. 13 And Ephraim saw its disease, and Judah its festering; and Ephraim went to Assyria and sent to King Jareb, but he will not be able to cure you nor you 14 get over festering. 14 For I am like a lion to Ephraim, like a two-year-old lion to the house of Judah; I, I, I pounce and go, I carry off and no-15 body rescues, 15 back to my place I go, till they pay up their penalty and seek my face; when they are in distress they will go in quest of me.

CHAPTER 6

1 1 Come, let us get back to Jehovah, because it was his pounce 2 maimed us, he wounds and will bandage us. 2 He will make us well in two days, the third day he will have us standing up, to be alive 3 before him and know him. 3 Let us strive to know Jehovah; like gray dawn, his coming up is ready; and he will come to us like rain, like spring rains watering earth.
4 4 What shall I do with you, Ephraim? what shall I do with you, Judah? your friendliness is like a morning cloud and like dew that 5 goes off the first thing in the morning. 5 Therefore I have hewed with prophets, killed them with the say of my mouth; and my judgment 6 comes out like daylight, 6 that I take pleasure in friendliness, not in sacrifice, and in acquaintance with God rather than in burnt-7 offerings. 7 But they have broken treaty at Adam; there they have 8 played me false; 8 Gilead is a town of villains, tracked with blood; 9 and as a man hides seed-corn priests have hid my ways; 9 they have 10 murdered at Shekem because they were committing enormity. 10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horror; there Ephraim had prostitution, 11 Israel was defiled; 11 Judah too has fixed a harvest for you.

CHAPTER 7

1 1 When I am coming back to my people, when I am healing Israel, Ephraim's guilt is laid bare, and Samaria's mischiefs; for they practice falsehood, thief comes in, raiders are on the foray outside.
2 2 And they do not say to themselves I have remembered all their viciousness, their practices are besetting them now, they are under 3 my eye. 3 In their wickedness they make a king merry, in their deceit-4 fulness generals; they are all carrying on adultery. 4 They are like a baking-crock with a fire in it, whose baker leaves off quickening it up 5 from the kneading of dough till it rises. 5 On our king's day they have made generals sick with heat from wine; he dragged his hand 6 with cynics. 6 For they brought their hearts on like a baking-crock in their ambush; all night their anger is asleep, in the morning it 7 burns like a blazing fire. 7 They all grow hot like a baking-crock, and eat up their judges: all their kings have fallen, there is no one that calls on me among them.

8 Ephraim is getting stirred in among the nations; Ephraim has 9 come to be an unturned cake. 9 Outsiders have eaten up his strength without his knowing it; even white hair has shot up on him, without 10 his knowing it. 10 And Israel's pride testifies to his face; and they have not gone back to their God Jehovah, nor looked to find him, for all 11 this. 11 And Ephraim has come to be like a brainless unwary pigeon: 12 they call Egypt, they go to Assyria. 12 While they are going I will spread my net over them, bring them down like birds of the air, cage them 13 for trouble like quails. 13 It is woe to them, because they have lost touch with me; it is spoliation for them, because they have rebelled against me; and I was ransoming them and they made lying talk against 14 me, 14 and they did not cry to me in their hearts when they were howling on their beds, lodging away from home on account of grain 15 and grape-juice, turning in to lodge with me. 15 And I had disciplined, strengthened their arms, and they were thinking up evil against me.
16 16 They turned back to the Baal; they have become like an unreliable bow; their generals are falling by the sword owing to the hostility of their tongue (that is, their scurrilous language). In their own

CHAPTER 8

1 country foes oppress them; 1 they fly like a vulture against Jehovah's house—since they have violated my covenant and been rebellious 2 against my instructions. 2 They cry to me "My God"; we know you, Israel.

3 3 Israel has repudiated what is good; an enemy will pursue them.
4 4 They have set up kings, but not from me; a government, and I did not know it. Their silver and gold they have made into idols, to have 5 it swept away. 5 Your calf, Samaria, is repudiated; I am angry with 6 them—how long will they be incapable of innocence? 6 because it comes from Israel, a mechanic has made it, it is not a god.—For Samaria's 7 calf shall go to splinters. 7 For they sow wind and reap whirlwind; it all has no stalk, a greenery that will yield no meal—or if it should, outsiders would swallow it.

8 8 Israel is swallowed up; now they have become among the nations 9 like an unwanted piece of furniture. 9 For they have gone up to Assyria, a wild ass running alone; 10 to Egypt they have given love-gifts. When they do give among the nations, now I will gather them and they 11 shall begin a small part of the burden of the king of princes. 11 Because Ephraim has made many altars for sin-offerings, they have had them 12 as altars for offering sins. 12 I would write clown for them my multitudinous instructions; they have been rated a sickening thing. 13 They 13 sacrifice meat as broiled sacrifices and eat it; Jehovah has not accepted them; now he will remember their guilt and punish their sins: 14 they shall go back to Egypt. 14 And Israel has forgotten his Maker and built temples, and Judah has fortified many a city; but I will send a fire into his cities and it shall devour his palaces.

CHAPTER 9

1 Do not make merry exultantly like the peoples, Israel, because you have prostituted yourself to be disloyal to Jehovah; you have loved the prostitute's gain on every threshing-floor of grain.
2 Threshing-floor and wine-vat shall not feed them, and grape-juice shall disappoint them; 3 they shall not live in Jehovah's country, but Ephraim shall go back to Egypt and they shall eat unclean food in Assyria. 4 They shall not pour libations of wine to Jehovah, not lay out their sacrifices for him; their sacrifices shall be to them like trouble-bread, whose eaters all become unclean, because their bread is for their appetites, it is not to come into Jehovah's house. 5 What will you do on the anniversary day, the day of Jehovah's feast? 6 because they are gone owing to rapine, Egypt is to gather them, Memphis is to bury them; their silver attractions nettles shall possess, briers be in their homes. 7 The days of punishment have come, the days of retribution have come, Israel shall know; the prophet is an ignoramus, the inspired man a lunatic, because of the excess of your guilt. 8 Ephraim's watchman with my God suffers great spite; the prophet has fowlers' traps on all his paths, spite in his God's house; they have dug his pit deep. 9 As in Gibeah's days he will remember their guilt, will punish their sins.
10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness, I saw your fathers like an early fig on the tree at the first of its crop; they came to Baal-Peghor and performed rites to the Shame and became objects of disgust as they loved to. 11 Ephraim's glories are taking flight like a bird: off from birth, off from expectations of birth. 12 If they do raise their children I will bereave them of every human being; yea, woe to them when I go back from them. 13 Ephraim has stocked himself with daughters for a foe; Ephraim has to bring out his sons to a killer. 14 Give them, Jehovah—what will you give? give them a miscarrying womb and shriveled breasts. 15 All their wickedness is at the Gilgal; because there I learned to hate them for the viciousness of their practices, I will expel them from my house, will love them no longer; all their generals are incorrigibles. 16 Ephraim is smitten; their roots are dried up, no fruit will they produce. 17 Even if they have children I will bring death to their welcome offspring. My God will reject them because they did not listen to him, and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER 10

1 Israel is a luxuriant grapevine that loads itself with fruit. The more he had of fruit, the more he made of altars; the better off his country, the finer he made obelisks. 2 Their hearts are slippery. Now they must smart for it; he will break the necks of their altars, make

3 havoc of their obelisks. 3 For now they will be saying "We have no king, because we do not fear Jehovah and what will the king do to 4 us?"—4 talking and talking, taking empty oaths, making covenants, and 5 justice shooting up like poppies in furrows in the field. 5 The denizens of Samaria shall quail for the calf of Beth-Aven because his people and his komers are mourning for him, they howl for him because of 6 his glory, because it is deported from him. 6 It too shall be taken to Assyria for a present to King Jareb; Ephraim shall take a humiliation, 7 Israel be put to shame for its policy. 7 Samaria is cut off; her king is 8 like a chip on the face of water. 8 And the heights of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be extirpated; thorns and thistles shall grow up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains "Cover us" and to the hills "Fall on us."

9 9 Since the days of Gibeah you have sinned, Israel: there they 10 stood, war was not to come home to them at Gibeah. 10 I have come against men of foul play to chastise them, and peoples shall be brought together against them, for their going off to their two crimes.
11 11 And Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh and I myself have passed over her fine neck; I will harness Ephraim; Judah shall 12 plow, Jacob shall harrow for him. 12 Sow with honesty, reap in the way of friendliness, break new ground, and it is time to resort to Jehovah 13 till he comes and gives you autumn rain of righteousness. 13 You have been plowing lawlessness, reaping foul play, eating the fruit of deceit-fulness, because you have had confidence in your course, in the 14 numerousness of your champions; 14 and yells shall rise in your cities, and all your fortress towns shall be sacked as Shalman sacked Beth-Arbel on a battle-day, mothers' brains dashed out after their chil-15 dren's: 15 I will do the like to you, house of Israel, because of your wicked wickedness; the king of Israel is cut off in the gray dawn.

CHAPTER 11

1 1 When Israel was a child I loved him, and I called his sons out of 2 Egypt. 2 The more I called them, the more they went off from me:
they sacrificed to the Baals, they made burnings to the carvings.
3 3 And I had taught Ephraim to walk, taken them in my arms; but they 4 did not know I healed them. 4 I drew them with human lines, with ropes of love, and was to them like one that lifts up a yoke on their 5 cheeks; and I bent down to it, mastered it. 5 He goes back to Egypt, 6 and Assyria is his king, because they refused to come back. 6 And swords dance in his cities and annihilate his bragging, and their de-7 signs eat them up. 7 And his people are dangling with his apostasies; they call him upward, not a bit does he mount.

8 8 How am I to give you away, Ephraim, to hand you over, Israel?
How am I to make you like Admah, render you like Seboim? the 9 thought overwhelms me, my sympathies are all in a fever. 9 I will not act out my anger, I will not go back to making away with Ephraim;

10 for I am deity, not man, a Holy one in your midst, and will not come 11 in passion. 10 They shall go after Jehovah like a lion that roars; for he will roar, and sons will be startled from the sea, 11 they will be startled from Egypt like a sparrow and from Assyria like a pigeon, and I will settle them in their homes, quoth Jehovah.

CHAPTER 12

1 1 Ephraim encircles me with deceit, and the house of Israel with fraud, but Judah is still ranging with Deity and faithful with the 2 Holy. 2 Ephraim is a wind-eater, an east-wind-chaser; all day long they pile up lies and shams, and they make treaties with Assyria 3 and take oil to Egypt. 3 Jehovah has a quarrel with Judah, to give Jacob a punishment to match his courses, a return to match his 4 practices. 4 In his mother's body he caught his brother's heel, and in 5 his prime he struggled with God; 5 he struggled with an angel and succeeded; he wept and begged him for grace; he was to find him at 6 6 Bethel and there he was to speak with him. But Jehovah is the God 7 of Armies; 7 Jehovah is his proper name; and you are to come back by your God. Attend to friendliness and justice, and hope toward your God always.

8 8 Canaan has cheating balances in his hands; he loves to overreach.
9 9 And Ephraim thinks "I have got downright rich, I have made a fortune"; all that he has got by his work will not suffice for the guilt 10 he has incurred. 10 But I am your God Jehovah since Egypt; I will set you to living in tents again as you do in the days of an annual 11 feast, 11 and I will speak to prophets, having myself given many a vision, and by prophets I will whisper.

12 12 If Gilead is villainy, they have become downright futile; at the Gilgal they sacrifice to demons; yes, and their altars are like stone-13 heaps over furrows in the field. 13 And Jacob emigrated to the plains of Syria, and Israel worked for a wife, and for a wife he kept guard; 14 14 and by a prophet Jehovah brought Israel up from Egypt, and by a 15 prophet he was guarded. 15 Ephraim has given bitter provocation, and his Lord will leave his blood on him and return his taunts to him.

CHAPTER 13

1 1 When Ephraim spoke he made Israel's hair stand on end; but he 2 incurred guilt by the Baal, and he died. 2 And now they go on sinning and have made themselves figures in idol form out of their silver, all artisans' work; "to them," say they, "sacrifice"; men kiss calves, 3 3 So they shall be like a morning cloud and like dew that goes off the first thing in the morning, like chaff driving off a threshing-floor and like smoke out of a smoke-hole.

4 4 But I am your God Jehovah since Egypt, and you are not to know 5 any God but me, and beside me there is no savior. 5 I knew you in 6 the wilderness, in a country of parching drought. 6 When they had pasture they ate their fill; they ate their fill and their hearts went 7 high; therefore they forgot me. 7 And I became like a lion to them, 8 gazing like a leopard by a road, 8 meeting with them like a bear that has lost its cubs, to tear their chests and eat them there like a lioness 9 and have the wild beasts rip them up. 9 You are ruined, Israel, for who 10 is your help? 10 Where is your king to save you, and all your generals 11 to do you justice, that you said "Give me a king and generals"? 11 I give you a king in my anger and take him from you in my wrath.

 12 Ephraim's guilt is packed up, his sin is laid by. 13 A mother's birth-pains are coming for him; he is an unwise son, for it is time children 14 should not stop in the mouth of the womb. 14 I was to redeem them out of the hands of the grave, to bring them off out of death. Up with your pestilences, death! up with your poison, grave! compunction 15 is shrouded from my sight. 15 For he is spreading among the fengrass; an east wind comes, Jehovah's wind, rising from the wilderness, and dries out his vein of water and dries off his spring. That one will 16 pillage the whole hoard of choice articles; 16 Samaria will expiate its guilt because it disobeyed its God; they will fall in warfare, their children's brains will be dashed out and their pregnant women cut open.

CHAPTER 14

1 1 Come back, Israel, to your God, because you came to grief by your 2 guilt. 2 Take words with you and say to him "You win; pardon guilt 3 and take goodwill, and we will pay fruit from our lips. 3 Assyria shall not save us, we will not ride ponies, nor will we again say
 'Our God' to work of our hands, when it is in you an orphan finds 4 mercy." 4 I will cure their apostasy, I will love them eagerly, because 5 my anger is turned back from them. 5 I will be like the dew to Israel; 6 he shall bud like the lily and strike his roots like the Lebanon; 6 his sprouts shall spread, and his sightliness shall be like the olive-tree's, 7 with a scent like the Lebanon's. 7 They shall come back to sitting in his shadow; they shall be watered like a garden, to be like a grape-8 vine whose record is like Lebanon wine. 8 What does Ephraim want of idols anymore? I answered him, I eye him like a green cypress, from me your fruit is found.
 9 9 Who is wise? let him understand these things; intelligent? let him know them; for Jehovah's paths are straight, and honest men will walk in them, but rogues will stumble in them.

THE BOOK OF JOEL

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 Jehovah's word that came to Joel the son of Pelhuel.
- 2 2 Listen to this, old men, and give ear, all that live in the earth:
- 3 has there been this in your days or in your fathers' days? 3 Tell your children the story of it, and let them tell their children, and their
- 4 children another generation. 4 What was left from the early grasshoppers the spring grasshoppers ate, and what was left from the spring grasshoppers the full-grown grasshoppers ate, and what was left from the full-grown grasshoppers the fall grasshoppers ate.
- 5 5 Wake up and weep, drunkards, and howl, all you wine-drinkers,

6 over pomegranate-wine, because it is swept away from before you. 6 For against my country has come up a nation multitudinous, uncountable; 7 its teeth are lions' teeth, it has a lioness's fangs. 7 It has made my grapevine a skeleton and my fig-tree a whittling; it has stripped it and 8 thrown away the strippings, its shoots show white. 8 Lament like a maiden with a sackcloth tied round her for the spouse of her girlhood.
9 9 Grain-offering and libation are swept away from Jehovah's house; 10 the priests, the servitors of Jehovah, mourn. 10 The countryside is smitten, the soil is mourning: for grain is smitten, grape-juice is a 11 failure, oil lies forlorn; 11 plowmen are disappointed, vineyardists howl, 12 for wheat and for barley, 12 because field harvests are lost, the vines are a disappointment and the fig-tree stands forlorn; pomegranate, date-palm too and apple, all the trees in the fields, are dried out;
 for rejoicing has passed away in disappointment from the children 13 of men. 13 Belt yourselves up and wail, priests; howl, altar servitors; go in and spend the night in sackcloths, servitors of my God; for 14 grain-offering and libation are kept back from Jehovah's house. 14 Or-dain a fast, proclaim a holiday; elders, bring together all the inhabitants of the country at the house of your God Jehovah, and cry to Jehovah.
15 15 O, O, the day! for Jehovah's day is near and like a shattering from 16 Shaddai it comes. 16 Is not food swept away before your eyes, glad-17 ness and glee from the house of our God? 17 Kernels are befouled with dirt under their brooms; storehouses are desolate; bins are demolished, 18 because grain is a disappointment; what should we put in them? 18 Herds of cows wander about at random because there is no pasturage for 19 them; the flocks of sheep too stand aghast. 19 To you, Jehovah, they call; for fire has eaten up wilderness pastures and flame has set ablaze all 20 the trees on the range. 20 Even range beasts stretch up to you because water-bearing gorges are dried out and fire has eaten up wilderness pastures.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 Blow a ram-horn in Sion and sound an alarm on my sacred mountain; let all the inhabitants of the country quake, because Jehovah's 2 day is coming, it is almost here, 2 a day of darkness and gloom, a day of cloud and thick air. Over the mountains is spread like a daybreak a great and numerous people whose like has not come since the beginning of time nor will again be for generation after generation.
3 3 Before them a fire has eaten and behind them a flame blazes; the country is like the garden of 'Eden before them and is a desolate wilderness behind them, and there is not a thing that has escaped 4 them. 4 Their looks are as if they were ponies, and just like horses 5 they run; 5 with a sound as if of chariots they dance on the mountain-tops, with a sound as if of a flame of fire eating up stubble, like a 6 numerous soldiery drawn up for battle. 6 Before them peoples are

7 unmanned, all faces are contorted. 7 They run like warriors, go up a wall like soldiers; and each goes along his own course, they do not 8 borrow each other's paths, 8 nor jostle each other, they go each along his own street; and they throw themselves in among the weapons with-9 out breaking their march.9They invade the city; they run on the wall, get up into the houses, get in through the windows like a thief.
10 10 Before them earth shook, sky quaked, sun and moon went dark and 11 stars withheld their radiance, 11 and Jehovah made his voice heard before his troops, for very large is his army, numerous are they that carry out his will. For great is Jehovah's day, and very terrible, and who will hold out through it?

12 12 But even now, quoth Jehovah, come back to me with all your hearts and with fasting and weeping and wailing, 13 and tear your hearts and not your clothes and turn back to your God Jehovah, because he is kindly and tenderhearted, patient and very friendly, and repents of evil. 14 Who knows but he will turn back and repent and leave a blessing remaining behind him, a grain-offering and libation for our God Jehovah?

15 15 Sound a ram-horn in Sion, ordain a fast, proclaim a holiday; bring people together, ordain an assembly, 16 gather old men, bring together children from play and babies at the breasts; let bridegroom come out from his chamber, bride from her bower; 17 let the priests, the servitors of Jehovah, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say "Spare your people, Jehovah, and do not give your estate to be taunted and to be ruled by heathen nations; why should they say among the peoples "Where is their God?" "

18 18 And Jehovah was jealous for his country and had mercy on his people; 19 and Jehovah answered his people "Here, I am sending you the grain and the grape-juice and the oil, and you shall have your fill of them, and I will not give you to be taunted again among the 20 nations. 20 And I will take the northerner off you far away, and banish him to a country of drought and desolation, his face to the eastern sea and his hinder end to the western sea, for his stench to come up, because he has done great things. 21 Do not be afraid, soil; jubilate and 22 make merry, because Jehovah has done great things. 22 Do not be afraid, beasts on the range, for wilderness pastures have come out, for trees have borne their fruit, fig-trees and grapevines have yielded their 23 wealth, 23 and the sons of Sion will jubilate and make merry in your God Jehovah because he has given you refreshment fairly and sent down showers for you, autumn rain and spring rain as he had at 24 first, 24 and the threshing-floors will be full of grain and the presses brimming with grape-juice and oil; 25 and I will make good to you the years that the spring and summer and fall and early grasshoppers
26 ate, my great corps that I sent among you; 26 and you shall eat your fill on and on, and praise the name of your God Jehovah who has worked with you in extraordinary fashion; and my people shall not be

27 put to shame forever, 27 and you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and I Jehovah am your God and there is no other, and my people shall not be put to shame forever.

28 28 And after this I will pour out my spirit on all mortals and your sons and daughters will be under the power, your old men will have 29 dreams and your young men visions, 29 and on the very slaves I will 30 pour out my spirit in those days; 30 and I will give prodigies in the 31 sky and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke; 31 the sun 32 will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of Jehovah's great and terrible day. 32 And everyone who calls on Jehovah's name will come off safe; for on Mount Sion and in Jerusalem there will be escape, as Jehovah has said, and among the survivors whom Jehovah calls.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 For lo, in those days and at that time, when I come back to Judah 2 and Jerusalem, 2 I will gather all the nations and bring them down to Jehoshaphat Vale, and I will plead against them there the ease of my people and of my estate Israel, whom they have dispersed among the 3 nations and divided up my country; 3 and over my people they threw lots, and gave a boy for a prostitute and sold a girl for wine and 4 drank it up. 4 And, too, what is your relation to me, Tyre and Sidon and all the marches of Philistia? are you paying off a score against me? and if you are starting dealings with me, with promptest speed 5 I will send your dealings back on your own heads, 5 that you have taken my silver and gold and brought into your temples the best of 6 my things of beauty, 6 and the sons of Judah and of Jerusalem you have sold to the sons of the Greeks so as to get them far away from 7 their territory: 7 here I am going to rouse them out of the place to which you sold them, and will send your dealings back on your own 8 heads 8 and sell your sons and daughters into the hands of the sons of Judah, and they will sell them to the Shebaites into a far-off nation, because Jehovah has spoken.

9 9 Proclaim this among the nations: ordain war, rouse the champions, 10 let all the soldiers come on and come up. 10 Pound your hoes into swords and your pruning-hooks into lances; let the weakling declare 11 himself a champion. 11 Come with a rush, all nations from all sides, 12 and gather; 12 there, Jehovah, have your champions come down. Let the nations be roused and come up to Jehoshaphat Vale; for there 13 I will sit to judge all the nations from all sides. 13 Reach out a sickle, because harvest is ripe; go in, tread, because winepress is full, the 14 presses are brimming because there is so much of their foam. 14 Hosts, hosts, in Decision Vale! for Jehovah's day is near in Decision Vale.

15 16 15 Sun and moon go dark and stars withhold their radiance, 16 and Jehovah roars out of Sion and raises his voice from Jerusalem, and sky and earth shake, but Jehovah is a refuge for his people and a

- 17 citadel for the sons of Israel. 17 And you shall know that I your God Jehovah make my abode on my sacred mountain Zion; and Jerusalem shall be sacred, and outsiders shall not pass through it again.
- 18 18 And on that day the mountains will drip pomegranate-wine and the hills will run milk, and all the ravines of Judah will run water; and a spring will come out of Jehovah's house and water Acaeia
- 19 Arroyo. 19 Egypt will become a desolation and Edom will become a desolate wilderness, for their outrage on the sons of Judah whose
- 20 innocent blood they shed in their country; 20 but Judah will be settled
- 21 forever and Jerusalem to generation after generation. 21 And I will avenge their blood which I did not avenge; and Jehovah makes his abode in Zion.

THE BOOK OF 'AMOS

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 The words of 'Amos, who was among the Tekoa' breeders of short-legged sheep, which he beheld about Israel in the time of King 'Uzzijah of Judah and of King Jeroboam the son of Joash of Israel, two
- 2 years before the earthquake. 2 Said he, Jehovah will roar out of Sion and from Jerusalem he will raise his voice, and the shepherds' pastures shall mourn and the top of Carmel dry up.
- 3 3 Says Jehovah, For Damascus's three crimes and four, I will not turn it back, for their threshing Gilead with iron threshing-drags;
- 4 4 but I will send a fire into Hazael's house and it shall devour Ben-
- 5 Hadad's palaces, 5 and I will break Damascus's bar and cut off inhabitant from Aven's plain and scepter-wielder from 'Eden's house, and Syria's people shall be deported to Kir, says Jehovah.
- 6 6 Says Jehovah, For Ghaza's three crimes and four, I will not turn it back, for their deporting an entire population to hand them over 7 to Edom;7but I will send a fire into Ghaza's wall and it shall devour 8 her palaces, 8 and I will cut off inhabitant from Ashdod and scepter-wielder from Ashkelon and bring my hand back against 'Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, says Jehovah.

9 9 Says Jehovah, For Tyre's three crimes and four, I will not turn it back, for their handing over an entire population to Edom, and not 10 remembering a treaty of brotherhood;10but I will send a fire into Tyre's wall and it shall devour her palaces.

11 11 Says Jehovah, For Edom's three crimes and four, I will not turn it back, for his chasing Ms brother with the sword and brutalizing his sympathies, letting his anger ravage everlastingly and keeping 12 his wrath persistently; 12 but I will send a fire into Teman and it shall devour Bosrah's palaces.

13 13 Says Jehovah, For the Bene-'Ammon's three crimes and four, I will not turn it back, for their cutting open the pregnant women of Gilead 14 in order to extend their territory; 14 but I will kindle a fire in Rabbah's wall and it shall devour her palaces with cheering in a day of battle, 15 with tempest in a day of gale, 15 and their king shall go to deportation, he and his generals together, says Jehovah.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 Says Jehovah, For Moab's three crimes and four, I will not turn 2 it back, for his burning the bones of the king of Edom for lime;2but
I will send a fire into Moab and it shall devour Kerijoth's palaces, 3 and Moab shall die in hubbub, with cheering, with sound of horn,3and I will cut off judge from her midst and kill all his generals with him, says Jehovah.

4 4 Says Jehovah, For Judah's three crimes and four, I will not turn it back, for their rejecting Jehovah's instructions and not keeping his usages, and being misled by their lies which their fathers followed; 5 5 but I will send a fire into Judah, and it shall devour Jerusalem's palaces.

6 6 Says Jehovah, For Israel's three crimes and four, I will not turn it back, for their selling out an honest man for silver and a poor man 7 for a fee of a pair of sandals, 7 they who gulp at roadside dust on needy men's heads and force humble men off: their course, and a man 8 and his father go to a girl so as to profane my hallowed name,8and on blankets pawned to them they turn in beside every altar and 9 drink at the house of their God wine paid to them infines.9And I had destroyed before them the Amorites whose tallness was like that of cedars and who were sturdy as oaks, but I destroyed their fruit 10 above and their roots beneath. 10 And I had brought you up out of Egypt, and caused you to go through the wilderness forty years to 11 take possession of the Amorites' country, 11 and had caused sons of yours to rise as prophets and youths of yours as devotees—is this not 12 so, sons of Israel? quoth Jehovah; 12 but you gave the devotees wine and 13 gave the prophets the order "You shall not prophesy." 13 Here I am going to make you groan where you stand as a cart full of hay 14 groans. 14 And a swift man shall lose the power of flight, and a strong man shall not rally his strength, and a brave man shall not save his 15 life, 15 and the Bowman shall not stand, and the swift-footed shall not 16 escape, 16 and the mounted man shall not save his life, and the stoutesthearted among the brave shall run away naked that day, quoth Jehovah.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 Listen to this word that Jehovah has spoken about you, sons of 2 Israel, about all the clan that I brought up out of Egypt: 2 You only I have known out of all the clans of the earth—for that reason I will punish you for all your offenses.
3 3 Will two be walking together without their having held a tryst?
4 will a lion roar in the badlands without having a kill? 4 a two-year-old lion give tongue out of his lair without having caught anything?
5 5 will a bird drop into a trap on the ground without its having a bait?
6 will a trap spring up from the ground without making a catch? 6 or will a ram-horn be blown in a city and the people not be alarmed?
or will there be disaster in a city and Jehovah not have made it?
7 7 For Jehovah does not do a thing but he reveals his secret to his ser-8 vants the prophets. A lion roars: who will not fear? 8 The Lord Jehovah speaks: who will not prophesy?
9 9 Sound a summons over palaces in Ashdod and over palaces in Egypt and say "Come together on the mountains of Samaria and see many disorders in its midst and denials of justice within it.
10 10 And they do not know how to act squarely, quoth Jehovah, they who 11 amass outrage and rapine in their palaces." 11 So the Lord Jehovah says, Distress shall surround the land and strip your might off you, and 12 your palaces shall be plundered. 12 Says Jehovah, As a shepherd rescues out of a lion's mouth two legs or a piece of an ear, so will the sons of Israel be rescued, those who sit in Samaria on the corner of a 13 couch and on the damask of a divan. 13 Listen, and warn the house of 14 Jacob, quoth Jehovah the God of Armies, 14 because on the day when I punish Israel for its crimes I will punish the altars of Bethel, and the horns of the altar shall be chopped off and fall on the ground; 15 15 and I will strike the winter house along with the summer house, and the ivory houses shall go, and many a house shall come to its end, quoth Jehovah.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 Listen to this word, Bashan cows on Samaria's highland, that deny justice to needy men and persecute poor men, that say to their lords 2 "Bring on, let's drink!" 2 The Lord Jehovah has sworn by his divinity, Here are days coming upon you when you will be taken away with 3 hooks and the last of you with fishhooks; 3 and you will go out of breaches, each straight out, and be thrown to the Harmon, quoth 4 Jehovah. 4 Come to Bethel and commit crimes, to the Gilgal and commit many; and bring your sacrifices next morning, your tithes in three 5 days, 5 and burn a thank-offering out of raised bread and proclaim volunteer offerings, advertise them, because that is the sort of thing 6 you like, sons of Israel, quoth the Lord Jehovah. 6 And I on my part have given your cleanness of teeth in all your cities and scarcity of bread in all your places, and you did not come back to me, quoth 7 Jehovah. 7 And so have I withheld the rain from you when it was still three months to harvest, and made it rain on one city and not made it rain on another city; one field would be rained on, and a 8 field that I did not make it rain on would dry up; 8 and two or three cities would tramp to one city to drink water, and not get enough, and 9 you did not come back to me, quoth Jehovah. 9 I have struck you with blasting and mildew; the bourgeoning of your gardens and vineyards, your fig-trees and olive-trees, the early grasshoppers would eat, and 10 you did not come back to me, quoth Jehovah. 10 I have sent epidemics among you in Egyptian fashion; I have killed your young men in warfare, together with the carrying off of your ponies, and I have brought up into your nostrils the stench of the putrefaction of your 11 armies, and you did not come back to me, quoth Jehovah. 11 I have done such overthrowing among you as God did to Sodom and Ghomorrah, and you have been like a burnt stick rescued out of a conflagration, and you did not come back to me, quoth Jehovah.

12 12 So I will do like this to you, Israel. Because I will do this to you, 13 prepare to meet your God, Israel; 13 for here is he who shaped mountains and created wind and tells man what is his inmost thought, he who makes dawn dusk and walks the heights of earth—his name is Jehovah God of Armies.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 Listen to this word that I am striking up about you, a dirge, house of Israel:

2 2 Maid Israel is down, shall rise no more,
 Is flung down on her own ground, has nobody to help her up.

3 3 For the Lord Jehovah says, The house of Israel shall have the city that went out a thousand left with a hundred and the city that went out a hundred left with ten.

4 4 For the Lord Jehovah says to the house of Israel, Resort to me 5 and live, and do not resort to Bethel; 5 nor are you to go into the Gilgal nor pass Beer-Sheba'. For the Gilgal shall depart deported and 6 Beth-El shall become Aven. 6 Resort to Jehovah and live, for fear he should strike in with fire in the house of Joseph and Bethel have no-

7 body to quench it, 7 those who turn the law to wormwood and leave 8 right lying on the ground: 8 him who makes the Pleiades and Orion, and turns gloom to morning and darkens day to night, him who calls the waves of the sea and pours them on the land—his name is 9 Jehovah; 9 him who launches wreck upon a mighty one, and rapine 10 comes upon a fortress. 10 They hate in the gate a corrector, and detest an honest talker.

11 11 So, since you trample on a needy man and take from him exactions of grain, you have built houses of dressed stone but you shall not live in them, you have planted fancy vineyards but you shall not drink 12 the wine from them; 12 for I know your crimes are many and your sins profuse—people that assail a man who has right on his side, that 13 take composition-money, and put poor men out of court. 13 So the canny 14 man in that time will be quiet, because it is a bad time. 14 Make good and not evil your object, in order that you may live and so Jehovah 15 the God of Armies be with you as you say. 15 Hate evil and love good and plant justice in the gate: perhaps Jehovah the God of Armies will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

16 16 So Jehovah the God of Armies, the Lord, says, In all squares shall be wailing and in all streets they shall say "Alack, alack!" and issue a call of mourning to the farmer and wailing to experts in lamentation, 17 and in all vineyards shall be wailing, because I will go through 18 your midst, says Jehovah. 18 Ha, you who hanker after Jehovah's day!
what do you want of Jehovah's day? it is darkness and not light; 19 19 as a man runs away from a lion and encounters a bear, and goes into 20 a house and rests his hand on the wall and a snake bites him. 20 Is not Jehovah's day darkness and not light? murky and not radiant?
21 21 I hate, I reject your feasts, and will not smell your holiday scents.
22 22 For if you offer me burnt-offerings, I will not accept your offerings, 23 nor will I look at your welfare-sacrifice of stall-fed calves. 23 Get your uproar of songs out of my way; your harp-music I do not listen to; 24 24 but let justice roll like water, and right like a perennial brook.
25 25 Did you bring on to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness 26 forty years, house of Israel? 26 but you carried your King's pavilion 27 and your God's housing. 27 But I will deport you beyond Damascus, says Jehovah, whose name is God of Armies.

CHAPTER 6

1 1 Ha, you who are at ease in Sion, and you who are sure of your ground on Samaria Mountain, the distinguished of the first of nations, 2 you to whom the house of Israel come! 2 Go over to Calneh and see, and from there to great Hamath, and down to Philistine Gath.
Superior to these nations, or is their territory greater than yours?
3 4 3 you that chase a dull day and bring on an outrage-party! 4 men that lie on ivory couches and sprawl on their divans, and eat he-lambs out of flocks and calves from the middle of a fattening-pen, that 5 5 make verses to the harp, like David have contrived instruments of 6 their own for accompaniment, 6 that drink temple-bowls of wine and anoint themselves with prime oils, and are not put out of health by 7 Joseph's collapse. 7 So they shall now be deported at the head of deportees, and sprawlers' wakes shall pass away; Jehovah has sworn by 8 himself. 8 Quoth Jehovah the God of Armies, I abominate Jacob's pride and hate his palaces, and will hand over city and contents.

9 10 9 And if there are left ten men in one house they shall die. 10 And his uncle and his burner shall take him up, carrying bones out of the house, and say to the one that was in the back of the house "Have you anyone else here?" and he shall say "Nobody," and he shall say 11 "Hush," because Jehovah is not to be mentioned. 11 For here is Jehovah giving the order and they are to knock the big house to shivers and 12 the little house to breaks. 12 Do horses run on cliffs or do cattle plow in them, that you have turned justice to opium and the fruit of right 13 to wormwood, 13 you that are gay over what is not an occasion, that say 14 "Haven't we got ourselves horns by our strength?" 14 For here I am raising up against you, house of Israel, a nation that will oppress you from Lebo-Hamath to Rift Valley Arroyo.

CHAPTER 7

1 1 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me: there was he shaping young grasshoppers when the spring growth was starting, and there came 2 full-grown grasshoppers after the king's clipping. 2 They were finishing eating the herbage on the ground when I said "Lord Jehovah, for-3 give! 3 how is Jacob to stand, when he is so little?" Jehovah repented of this: "It shall not happen," said Jehovah.
4 4 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me: there was the Lord Jehovah challenging to a contest by fire. And it devoured the great deep and 5 was devouring all nature, 5 and I said "Lord Jehovah, let be! how is 6 Jacob to stand, when he is so little?" 6 Jehovah repented of this: "It shall not happen either," said the Lord Jehovah.
7 7 Thus he showed me: there the Lord had taken his stand by a 8 plumb-line wall, plumb-line in hand. 8 And Jehovah said to me "What do you see, 'Amos?" and I said "A plumb-line." And the Lord said "Here I am hanging a plumb-line among my people Israel: I will 9 not go on passing them by anymore. 9 And Isaac's heights shall be desolated and Israel's sanctuaries laid waste, and I will stand up against Jeroboam's house with the sword." 10 10 And Priest Amasiah of Bethel sent word to King Jeroboam of Israel " 'Amos has been organizing for a revolution against you among the house of Israel; there is not room in the country for all 11 his talk; 11 for 'Amos has been saying 'Jeroboam shall die by the sword and Israel shall depart deported from its soil.'" 12 12 And Amasiah said to 'Amos "Be going, seer, get safe away to 13 Judah and eat bread there, and there you may prophesy; 13 but at Bethel you are not to go on prophesying anymore, because it is a royal sanctuary and it is a state building."

14 And 'Amos answered Amasiah "I am not a prophet and I am not a member of their fellowship, for I am a sheep man and a sycamore-nipper; 15 but Jehovah took me from behind the sheep, and Jehovah said to me 'Go prophesy to my people Israel.' 16 Now listen to Jehovah's word: you say 'You are not to prophesy about Israel nor pour out revelations about Isaac's house'; 17 so Jehovah says, Your wife shall become a prostitute in the city, and your sons and daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by measure, and you yourself shall die on unclean soil; and Israel shall depart deported from its soil."

CHAPTER 8

1 1 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me: there was a basket of fruit.
2 2 And he said to me "What do you see, 'Amos?" and I said "A basket of fruit." And Jehovah said to me "The end has come to my people 3 Israel: I will not go on passing them by anymore." 3 And palace songs shall howl on that day, quoth the Lord Jehovah; we are tired of corpses, they are tossed in every place—hush!

4 4 Listen to this, you that gulp at a poor man's cattle and at the 5 sheep of the most wretched men of a country, 5 saying "When will the new moon be over so we can sell foodstuffs, and the sabbath, so we can open up grain, using small bushel and big shekel and juggling 6 a cheating pair of scales, 6 buying needy men for money and a poor 7 man for sandals, and sell the refuse grain?" 7 Jehovah has sworn by 8 Jacob's pride "I will never forget all your doings." 8 For all this shall not the earth quiver and have all who live on it mourn, and all of it go up like the Nile and sink down like the Nile of Egypt?

9 9 And on that day, quoth the Lord Jehovah, I will make the sun set 10 at noon and darken the earth in broad day, 10 and I will turn your feasts to mourning and all your songs to dirge, and place a sackcloth on every waist and baldness on every head, and make it like mourning for an only son and the last of it like a bitter day.

11 11 Here are days coming, quoth the Lord Jehovah, when I will send 12 a famine in the country, not hunger for bread nor thirst for water but for hearing Jehovah's word, 12 and they shall tramp from sea to sea and straggle from north to east looking for Jehovah's word and not finding it. 13 On that day the beautiful maidens and the young men will 13 swoon with thirst, 14 those that swear by the Guilt of Samaria and say 14 "by your God, Dan" and "by the Beer-Sheba' road," and they will fall and rise no more.

CHAPTER 9

1 1 I saw the Lord where he had taken his stand by the altar, and he said "Strike the pillar-head and let the ceiling shake, knock them off on the heads of them all, and the last of them I will kill with the

2 sword: they shall not have a fugitive run away nor a refugee get 3 to safety. 2 If they break into the world of the dead, from there my 4 hand shall take them; and if they go up in the sky, from there I 5 will bring them down; 3 and if they hide in the top of Carmel, from 6 there I will hunt them out and take them; and if they conceal them-7 selves away from my eyes on the floor of the sea, from there I will 8 commission the snake and have it bite them; 4 and if they go into foreign 9 slavery under their enemies, from there I will commission the sword 10 and have it kill them; and I will fasten my eyes on them for mischief 11 and not for good."

5 5 But the Lord Jehovah of Armies who touches the earth and it 6 surges and all who live on it mourn, and it all goes up like the Nile 7 and sinks down like the Nile of Egypt, 6 who builds his stairways in 8 the sky and founds his pyramid on earth, who calls the water of 9 the sea and pours it over the face of the earth—his name is Jehovah.

7 7 Are you not the same as sons of the Negro race to me, sons of 8 Israel? quoth Jehovah. Did I not bring up the Israelites from Egypt 9 and the Philistines from Caphtor and the Syrians from Kir? 8 Here 10 Jehovah's eyes are on the sinful realm, and I will root it out from 11 the face of the ground; I will not downright root out the house of 12 Jacob, though, quoth Jehovah. 9 For here I am giving the command 13 and I will tumble the house of Israel among all the nations like the 14 tumbling in a sieve, and not a pebble shall fall on the ground. 10 By 15 the sword shall all the sinners in my people die, those who say "Mischief will not overtake us nor cross our path."

11 11 On that day I will set up David's fallen booth and mend what 12 of it was burst and set up what of it was knocked down and build 13 it as of old, 12 in order that those who wear my name may take pos-14 session of the remnant of Edom and all the nations, quoth Jehovah 15 who is doing this. 13 Here are days coming, quoth Jehovah, when a plower shall overtake the reaper and a wine-treader the seed-sower, and the mountains shall drip pomegranate-wine and all the hills shall ripple; 14 and I will come back to my people Israel, and they shall rebuild cities that lie waste and shall live there, and set out vineyards and drink the wine from them, and make gardens and eat their fruit.
 15 And I will plant them in their own soil, and they shall not again be uprooted from their soil that I gave them, says your God Jehovah.

THE BOOK OF 'OBADIAH

- 1 1 The vision of 'Obadiah.
Says the Lord Jehovah for Edom,
We have heard a report from Jehovah, and a courier has been sent 2 among the nations, "Up, let us stand up against her for war." 2Here, I have made you little among the nations; greatly despised you are.
3 3 Your self-confidence has deluded you, perched in the crannies of the cliffs with your lodgment on the towering heights, that say to your-4 self "Who will bring me down to earth?" 4If you go high as the vulture and have your nest set between the stars, from there I will bring you down, quoth Jehovah.
5 5 If thieves came to you, if night marauders—how you are blotted out!—would they not steal what they had occasion for? if grape-

6 gatherers came to you would they not leave after-pickings!6How 7 'Esau is hunted out, his coverts pried into! 7 All the men you had treaties with have sent you to the boundary; the men who were at peace with you have deluded you, overpowered you; they have laid your bread as a trap for you; he has no sense in him.

8 8 Shall I not on that day, quoth Jehovah, do away with wise men 9 in Edom and good judgment in 'Esau's highland?9and your champions shall be dismayed, Teman, so that 'Esau's highland shall be without 10 a man by carnage.10For the outrage to your brother Jacob shame 11 shall cover you and you shall be done away with forever: 11 in the day when you stood by, in the day when strangers were carrying off Ms strength and foreigners had come into his gate and were casting lots over Jerusalem, you too were like one of them.

12 12 And do not gloat over your brother's day on his day of mishap;
and do not rejoice for the sons of Judah on the day they are perishing; 13 13 and do not talk jauntily on a day of distress; do not go into my people's gate on their day of calamity, do not be another to gloat over his ills on his day of calamity, and do not put your hand to 14 his wealth on his day of calamity; 14 and do not stand in ambush to cut off those of his who are escaping; and do not in a day of distress 15 hand his survivors over to their fate. 15 For Jehovah's day is near upon all the nations: as you have done you shall be done by; your dealings shall come back on your own head.

16 16 For as you have drunk on my sacred highland all the nations shall drink all the time, drink and talk at random and be as if they 17 never had been; 17 but on Mount Sion there shall be escape, and it shall be sacred, and the house of Jacob shall dispossess their dis-18 possessors. 18 And the house of Jacob shall be fire and the house of Joseph become flame, and the house of 'Esau become stubble; and they shall catch to them and eat them up, and the house of 'Esau 19 shall have no survivor, because Jehovah has spoken. 19 And they shall take possession of the South, 'Esau's highland, and the lowlands, the Philistines; and they shall take possession of the countryside of 20 Ephraim and the countryside of Samaria, and Benjamin Gilead. 20 And the deported population of Halah (this is for the sons of Israel) shall dispossess the Canaanites to Sarephath, and the deported Jerusalemites in Asia Minor shall take possession of the cities of the South.
21 21 And saviors shall come up into Mount Sion to do justice on 'Esau's highland; and the empire shall be Jehovah's.

THE BOOK OF JONAH

CHAPTER 1

- 1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to Jonah the son of Amittai, 2 "Go off to the great city Nineveh and preach against it, because its wickedness 3 has come up before me"; 3 and Jonah stood up to get away to Spain out of Jehovah's presence, and went down to Joppa and found a 4 ship sailing for Spain, and paid his fare and went aboard to sail with them to Spain out of Jehovah's presence. 4 But Jehovah launched a great wind over the sea, and there came very rough weather on 5 the sea, and the ship was ready to be wrecked; 5 and the sailors were afraid, and each cried to his god, and flung into the sea the things they had in the ship, to have it be easier on them; but Jonah had 6 gone down into the hold and lain down and was fast asleep. 6 And the captain came where he was and said to him "What are you about, fast asleep? get up and call out to your god, maybe the god will have some consideration for us and we shall not be lost."
- 7 7 And they said to each other "Come on, let us cast lots and know on whose account we are having this bad luck"; and they cast lots, 8 and the lot fell on Jonah. 8 And they said to him "Please tell us what errand you are on and where you are going from, what country you 9 are from and what people you belong to." 9 And he said to them "I am a Hebrew, and revere Jehovah, the god of the heavens, who made 10 the sea and the land." 10 And the men were in great fear, and said to him "What is this you have done?" because the men knew he was trying to get away out of Jehovah's presence, because he had told 11 them. 11 And they said to him "What are we to do to you to have the sea calm down?" because the sea was getting stormier and stormier.
12 12 And he said to them "Pick me up and fling me into the sea to have the sea calm down; for I know it is on my account you are having this great storm."
- 13 13 And the men rowed to get back to land, but could not, because 14 the sea was getting stormier and stormier against them. 14 And they called out to Jehovah "Please, Jehovah, may we not perish for this man's life, and do not charge us with shedding innocent blood, be-15 cause you, Jehovah, did as you preferred"; 15 and they picked Jonah up and flung him into the sea, and the sea stopped raging. 16 And the men conceived a great fear of Jehovah, and made a sacrifice to Jehovah and made vows.

17 And Jehovah provided a great fish to swallow Jonah; and Jonah

CHAPTER 2

1 was in the fish's stomach three days and three nights. 1 And Jonah 2 prayed to his God Jehovah from the fish's stomach, 2 and said

"I called out of my distress to Jehovah, and he answered me; out of the heart of the realm of death I shouted; you heard my voice.

3 And you threw me in the ooze in ocean's abyss, a river enclosing me;
all your surges and waves passed over me;

4 And I thought 'I am banished from before your eyes, how am I anymore to look to your holy temple?'

5 Water enveloped me choking off my life, the deep enclosed me,
weeds were wrapped round my head.

6 To the sockets of mountains I went down, the earth had its bars over me forever;
And you brought up my life from dissolution, Jehovah, my God.

7 When my soul failed me I remembered Jehovah, and my prayer went in to him in his holy temple.

8 Those who attend to futile superstitions are leaving their help, 9 but I with voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to you, what I have vowed I will pay as salvation-offering to Jehovah."

10 And Jehovah told the fish what to do, and it vomited Jonah out to the land.

CHAPTER 3

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to Jonah a second time 2 "Go off to the 3 great city Nineveh and preach to it what I dictate to you"; 3 and Jonah went off to Nineveh in accordance with Jehovah's word. And 4 Nineveh was a stupendously great city, a three days' walk; 4 and Jonah began going into the city, going one day's walk in, and preached 5 "Forty days more and Nineveh is overthrown." 5 And the men of Nineveh believed God and proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloths, 6 from the greatest to the least of them; 6 and the word reached the king of Nineveh, and he stood up off his throne and laid off his grandeur 7 and covered himself with a sackcloth and sat on the ashes, 7 and had proclamation made in Nineveh by authority of the king and Ms magnates "Let man and beast, cattle and sheep, not taste anything, 8 not be pastured, and not drink water, 8 and cover themselves with sackcloths, man and beast, and call out loudly to God, and turn back 9 from their wicked ways and from their ill-gotten gains; 9 who knows but God will turn back and repent, and desist from his anger, and 10 we shall not perish?" 10 And God saw their actions, that they turned back from their wicked ways, and God repented of the evil he had threatened to do to them, and did not do it.

CHAPTER 4

12 1 And Jonah took it very hard and was angry, 2 and prayed to Jehovah "Now, Jehovah, was not this what I said while I was still on my own soil? that was why I tried to head it off by getting away to Spain, because I knew you were a deity kindly and tenderhearted, 3 patient and very friendly, and would repent of the evil. 3 And now, Jehovah, take my life away, because it is better I should die than 4 live." 4 And Jehovah said "Thoroughly angry, are you?"

5 5 And Jonah went out of the city and established himself out in front of the city, and made himself a booth there and sat down in the shade under it till he should see what would happen to the city. 6 6 And Jehovah provided a gourd vine, and it came up over Jonah to be a shade over his head, to free him from his trouble; and Jonah was 7 very glad for the vine. 7 And Jehovah God prepared a worm at day-break the next day, which attacked the vine and it dried up; 8 and when the sun rose God prepared a scorching east wind, and the sun struck on Jonah's head, and he collapsed and asked for death and 9 said "it is better I should die than live." 9 And God said to Jonah "Thoroughly angry about the gourd vine, are you?" and he said "I am thoroughly angry, fit to die."

10 10 And Jehovah said "You feel benevolent toward the vine, which you had not worked on nor raised, a one-night growth and a one-night 11 loss; 11 and was I not to feel benevolent toward the great city Nineveh, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand human beings that do not know their right hand from their left, and many beasts?"

THE BOOK OF MICAH

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 Jehovah's word which came to Micah the Morashtite in the times of Kings Jotham, Ahaz, Hezekiah, of Judah, which he beheld against Samaria and Jerusalem.
- 2 2 Listen, all peoples; give attention, earth and what it holds; and let Jehovah be witness against you, the Lord out of his holy temple.
- 3 3 For here is Jehovah coming out of his place and coming down and
- 4 treading on earth's heights; 4 and the mountains shall melt down under him and the vales shall split, like wax before a fire, like water spilled
- 5 on a slope. 5 For Jacob's crime is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. Who is Jacob's crime? is not Samaria? and who is Judah's
- 6 heights? is not Jerusalem? 6 And I will make of Samaria a ruin in the open country, a place to plant vineyards, and spill her stones into
- 7 the valley and uncover her foundations. 7 And all her carvings shall be smashed, and all her tips burned down, and all her idols I will reduce to a desolation, because out of a prostitute's tips they were gathered and to a prostitute's tips they shall go back.
- 8 8 For this I will wail and howl, go stripped and naked; I will make
- 9 a wailing like the jackals and a mourning like the ostriches, because her wound is desperate, for it goes in to Judah, it reaches my people's
- 10 gate, Jerusalem. Do not weep; at Bcth-le-'Aphrah I have daubed
- 11 myself with earth. Pass, dame of Shaphir, in the shame of nakedness; Saanan's dame is not left out; the wail at Beth-ha-Esel takes its
- 12 starting-point from you. For the dame of Maroth has waited for good, when evil had come down from Jehovah to the gate of Jerusalem.
- 13 Hitch up the blood-horse to the chariot, dame of Lakish; she was the beginning of sin for the daughter of Sion, because in you were discovered the crimes of Israel. So you shall give good-bye gifts to
- 14 Moresbeth-Gath. The houses of Aczib are a disappointment to the kings of Israel. I will yet bring you your possessor, dame of Mareshah;
- 15 to 'Adullam shall Israel's glory come. Go bald and shorn for your
- 16 delicate children, extend your baldness like a vulture, because they are deported from you.

CHAPTER 2

- 1 1 Ha, they who plot villainy and commit mischief on their beds, and when morning light comes they do it because they have the
- 2 ability! 2 and they desire fields and steal them, houses and carry them
- 3 off, and victimize husband and house, man and estate. 3 So Jehovah says, Here I am for this clan a misfortune from which you shall not extricate your necks, and you shall not go upliftedly, because it is a bad time.
- 4 4 On that day they shall strike up a lay about you and lament a lamentable lament "Ravaged are we; he changes off my people's portion; how it shifts away from me! to those who carry us off as slaves he divides our lands."

5 5 So there shall be no one of yours who measures a line by lot in Jehovah's assembly.

6 6 "Do not preach!" Preach or not preach, for these disgrace will 7 not fall back. Is the house of Jacob cursed! 7 Has Jehovah grown im-8 patient or are these his doings? Do not my words deal kindly with him 9 who walks right?8But of late my people is standing up as an enemy; 10 you strip off robe, cloak, mantle from unsuspecting passersby as if by 11 law of war. 9 The women of my people you expel from their dainty houses; you take my adornment forever off from their little children.
10 Be off, for this is not the resting-place; owing to uncleanness you will 11 be smitten with a baleful ruin. 11 If a man running a course of wind and falsehood should say lyingly "I will preach wine and beer to you" he would be the preacher for this people.

12 12 I will collect all Jacob, I will gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together like sheep in a pen, they shall be a thronging mass 13 of humanity like a flock in the middle of a corral. 13 The burster has gone up before them; they have burst it, they have trodden out a gate and gone out by it, and their king has gone on before them and Jehovah at their head.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 And I said "Listen, heads of Jacob and chieftains of the house of 2 Israel: is it not your business to know justice? 2 haters of good and 3 lovers of evil, 3 eaters of my people's flesh that have stripped their 4 skin off them and cracked up their bones and carved them as if in a kettle, like meat contained in a caldron.4Then they will cry to Jehovah, and he will not answer them but will veil his face from them at that time because they have taken to vicious practices.

5 5 Says Jehovah about the prophets that mislead my people, that bite with their teeth and proclaim peace, and against him who does not 6 put something in their mouths they declare a war:6Therefore you shall have night cutting off vision and darkness cutting off sooth-saying, and the sun shall go down on the prophets and the day turn 7 black over them, 7 and the seers shall be disappointed and the sooth-sayers abashed, and they shall all veil their lips, because there is no 8 answer from God. 8 But I am full of strength and decision and vigor to tell Jacob his crime and Israel his sin.

9 9 Listen to this, heads of the house of Jacob and chieftains of the house of Israel, that detest justice and put kinks in whatever is 10 straight, 10 that build Sion by bloodshed and Jerusalem by foul play—11 11 her heads give the decision they are bribed to, and her priests the rulings they are hired to, and her prophets the predictions they get money for, and they lean on Jehovah and say "Do we not have Jeho-12 vah in our midst? no mischief will come upon us." 12 So on your account Sion shall be plowed for field land, and Jerusalem shall be ruins and the Temple Mount a height of broken rocks and scrub trees.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 And in the future days the mountain of Jehovah's house shall be set at the head of the mountains, lifted above hills, and peoples shall 2 stream to it. 2 And many nations shall go and say "Come and let us go up to Jehovah's mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob, to have him instruct us in ways of his that we may go in his paths," because from Sion instruction shall go out and Jehovah's word from 3 Jerusalem. 3 And he shall give judgment between many peoples and pronounce verdicts for numerous nations to a great distance, and they shall pound their swords into hoes and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not take up sword against nation, and they shall 4 never again learn war. 4 And they shall sit each man under his grapevine or his fig-tree with no one to alarm them, for the mouth of 5 Jehovah of Armies has promised it; 5 because all the peoples go every man in the name of his own god, but we go in the name of our God Jehovah forever and ever.

6 6 On that day, quoth Jehovah, I will bring in what was breaking 7 down and bring together what was straying and what I had hurt, 7 and make what was breaking down into a remnant and what was ailing into a strong nation, and Jehovah shall be king over them on Mount 8 Sion thenceforth forever. 8 And you, Migdal-'Eder, castle hill of the daughter of Sion, to you shall come the first dominion, a kingdom 9 for the daughter of Jerusalem. 9 Now why are you raising a shout? have you no king in you, or is your counselor lost, that pangs like 10 those of a woman in childbirth have seized you? 10 Be in pangs and burst out, daughter of Sion, like a woman in childbirth, for now you are to go out of town and find quarters in the fields, and come to Babylon: there you shall be rescued, there Jehovah will bring you off out of your enemies' hands.

11 11 And now many nations have come together against you, those that 12 say "Let her be polluted and let us gloat over Sion," 12 not knowing Jehovah's ideas nor understanding his plan, that he has gathered 13 them like sheaves to a threshing-floor; 13 stand up and thresh, daughter of Sion, for I will make your horns iron and your hoofs I will make bronze, and you shall batter many peoples to powder and devote the winnings from them to Jehovah and their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 Now let the daughter of Gedor fence herself, they have laid siege to us; with a rod they will beat the judge of Israel on the Jawbone.
2 2 And you, Beth-Ephratha, tiniest among the thousand of Judah, out of you shall come one to be ruler in Israel, his origins being from of

3 old, from ancient days. 3 So he will give them up till the time that one has borne a child.—And the rest of his brothers shall come back 4 to the sons of Israel. 4 And he shall stand and shepherd in Jehovah's might and in the pride of the name of his God Jehovah; and they shall be settled, for then shall he be great to the ends of the earth.
5 5 (And this shall be peace: when Assyria comes into our country and treads on our soil, we shall set up against him seven shepherds and 6 eight dukes of men, 6 and they will shepherd Assyria's country with swords and Nimrod's country with falchions.) And he shall deliver us from Assyria when it comes into our country and treads on our 7 territory. 7 And in the midst of many peoples the remnant of Jacob shall be like dew from Jehovah, like showers on herbage, that does 8 not await a man nor stand waiting for human beings; 8 and among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, the remnant of Jacob shall be like a lion among game in the badlands, like a two-year-old lion among flocks of sheep, which, if it passes, pounces and makes 9 its kill and nobody can rescue. 9 Your hand shall go high over your foes, and all your enemies shall be extirpated.
10 10 And on that day, quoth Jehovah, I will extirpate your ponies from 11 your midst and destroy your chariots, 11 and extirpate the cities of your 12 country and demolish your fortresses, 12 and I will extirpate the witch-13 craft you ply and you shall have no fortune-tellers, 13 and I will extirpate your carvings and obelisks out of your midst and you shall 14 no longer do reverence to the work of your hands, 14 and I will uproot 15 your asherahs out of your midst and stamp out your idols. 15 And in anger and resentment I will take vengeance on all the nations that have not listened.

CHAPTER 6

1 1 Listen to what Jehovah is saying: "Stand up, upbraid the moun-2 tains and let the hills hear your voice. 2 Listen, mountains, to Jehovah's upbraiding, and give ear, foundations of earth, because Jehovah has 3 a case against his people and is having it out with Israel. 3 My people, what have I done to you and how have I overtaken you? testify 4 against me. 4 For I brought you up out of Egypt and ransomed you out of the slave-quarters, and sent before you Moses, Aaron, and 5 Miriam. 5 My people, remember what King Balak of Moab proposed and what answer Balaam the son of Be'or gave him, and from the 6 Acacias to the Gilgal, in order to know Jehovah's loyal work." 6 With what shall I advance to Jehovah, pay homage to the transcendent God? shall I advance to him with burnt-offerings, with yearling calves?
7 will Jehovah accept thousands of rams, millions of rivers of oil? 7 shall I give my eldest son for my crime, the fruit of my wife for the sin 8 of my soul? 8 He has told you, man, what is good; and what does Jehovah demand from you but to do justice and love friendliness and walk sanely with your God?

9 Hark, it is Jehovah's voice as he calls out to the city and sets 10 forth good sense, saying "Listen, tribe and meeting of the city: 10 am I to forget the wrong-doer's house, ill-gotten hoards and a detestable 11 short bushel? 11 am I to clear him for wrongful scales and a bag of 12 cheating weights?—12 city whose rich men are full of outrage and its inhabitants talk falsehoods and the tongues in their mouths are all 13 disloyalty! 13 And I on my part have dealt you devastatingly prostrating 14 blows for your sins. 14 You are to eat and not have your hunger satisfied, and it will give you the colic; and to displace and not bring safe off, 15 and what you do bring off I will give to the sword. 15 You are to sow and not reap; you are to tread olives and not rub yourself with oil, and 16 grape-juice and not drink wine. 16 And you observe 'Omri's usages and every fabrication of Ahab's house, and go by their plans, so as to have me make you a desolation and its inhabitants a whistling, and have you bear the taunts of peoples."

CHAPTER 7

1 Woe is me, for I am like fruit-harvest time, like after-picking time in the vintage: there is no cluster to eat, I hanker after a rare-2 ripe fig. 2 Godly men are lost from the earth, and there is not an upright person among mankind; they are all watching their chance for 3 bloodshed, they are each trying to get his brother in a net. 3 They have put their hands in good shape for bad work; the general is soliciting and the judge is acting for a consideration, and the great 4 man is asserting his own personal desire, and they twist 4 the good into the tangle like bushes too straight for a hedge. On the day of your lookouts your punishment is coming; now will be their bewilderment.
5 Do not trust a friend, do not rely on a chum, guard the frontier of 6 your mouth against the mate that rests in your arms; 6 for son cheapens father, daughter stands up against mother, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law, a man's enemies are the men of his house.

7 But I will watch for Jehovah, wait for the God of my salvation; 8 my God will hear me. 8 Do not be glad for me, enemy; when I fall I 9 get up, when I sit in the dark Jehovah gives me light. 9 I will bear Jehovah's displeasure, because I have sinned against him, till he champions my rights and does justice for me. 10 He will bring me out to 10 the light; I shall feast my eyes on his loyal work, and my enemy shall see it and shame shall cover her, she who is saying to me "Where is your God Jehovah?" My eyes shall see her fate; now she shall become a trampled thing like street mud.

11 There is a day for building your fences; that day limits shall he 12 far off; 12 that is a day when your gems shall come in, from Assyria 13 to Egypt and from Egypt to the River; 13 and the earth shall become a desolation on account of its inhabitants, out of the fruit of their practices.

14 Pasture your people with your staff, the sheep that are your estate, dwellers in the solitude of the bush, in the midst of Carmel; let them 15 pasture Bashan and Gilead 15 as in days of yore; as in the days of your 16 coming out of Egypt show us wonders. 16 Let nations see and be ashamed of all their might; let them lay hand on mouth, let their ears be dumb.

17 17 Let them lick dust like a snake, like crawlers of the earth let them wriggle out of their coverts; to our God Jehovah let them come in 18 dread, and be afraid of you. 18 Who is a deity like you, pardoning guilt and passing over crime for the remnant of his estate, not holding his 19 anger forever, because he takes pleasure in friendliness; 19 coming back to his tenderness for us, conquering our guilt? You will throw all 20 our sins into the oozy deeps of the sea, 20 you will accord to Jacob the loyalty, to Abraham the friendship, that you swore to our fathers from of old.

THE BOOK OP NAHUM

CHAPTER I

- 1 The boding for Nineveh; the book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.
- 2 Jehovah is a jealous deity and takes revenge;
Jehovah takes revenge and is fierce in temper; Jehovah takes revenge on his foes and bears his enemies in mind.
- 3 Jehovah is patient and powerful, and Jehovah does not acquit an offender.
His walk is in gale and tempest, and clouds are the dust of Ms feet;
- 4 He speaks sternly to the sea and dries it out, and dries off all the rivers; Bashan wilts, and Carmel, and the young leafage of Lebanon stands forlorn.
- 5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills surge,
And the earth is in commotion before him, the world and all who inhabit it.
- 6 Before his hostility who may stand, and who stand up amid the heat of his anger?
His choler is like a stream of fire, and the rocks break down before him,
- 7 Jehovah is good for a citadel in the day of distress; Jehovah knows those who take refuge in him,
- 8 and carries them through cloudbursts.
He makes a finish of those who stand up against him, and chases his enemies into darkness.

- 9 What do you plan against Jehovah?
 he is making a finish;
 distress will not stand up twice;
- 10 10 for even briers matted in a tangle, and soaked as they can be, will 11 be eaten up like stubble fully dry. 11 Out of you came one who planned mischief against Jehovah, who proposed a vicious policy.
- 12 12 Says Jehovah, If waters gush out and rage withal, so do they sub-13 side and pass off; I did grind you down, I will not again. 13 And now I will break his yoke-bow off from you and snap your tether.
- 14 14 And Jehovah will give a commission against you: there shall not again be any of your name engendered; out of the house of your gods I will eradicate carving and casting; I will make your grave a dunghill.
- 15 15 There on the mountains are the feet of a messenger of good news, a herald of peace: celebrate your feasts, Judah, pay your vows, for never again shall the reprobates pass through you, they are done with, they are extinct.

CHAPTER 2

- 1 1 A hammer has come in your face: mount guard, keep a lookout on roads, brace waists, rally strength to the utmost.
- 2 2 For Jehovah has brought back Jacob's pride like Israel's, because rifiers had rifled them and had wrecked their branches.
- 3 3 His champions' shields are reddened, stalwart men in scarlet; steel was softened in fire on the day of his making ready, and cypresses 4 were made to reel. 4 In the open the chariots are running wild, they are hurtling through the suburbs; their look is like torches, they 5 shoot along like lightning-flashes. 5 He remembers his heroes; they stumble in their going; they hurry to the wall and the barricade is 6 got ready. 6 The river gates are opened and the palace collapses, 7 7 and madame is made to stand exposed, with her slave-girls droning 8 like pigeons' notes, drumming on their chests. 8 And Nineveh is like a reservoir of water with its water running out; "stop, stop," but no 9 one turns his face. 9 Plunder silver, plunder gold, and there is no end 10 of the supply, fortunes in every kind of choice article. 10 Clearing out, cleaning out, clawing out, and hearts melting down and knees giving way and cramps in all backs, and all their faces are contorted.
- 11 11 Where is the lions' lair, that was feeding-place for the two-year-olds, 12 where walked lion, lioness, lion's cub with no one to alarm it? 12 the lion tore up as much as his cubs wanted and broke necks for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey and his lairs with carcasses.
- 13 13 Have at you, quoth Jehovah of Armies! 13 I will smoke out your thicket, and swords shall eat up your two-year-olds, and I will rid earth of your kills, and the sound of your roar shall not be heard again.

CHAPTER 3

- 1 1 Ha, bloody city, all trickery, full of prey, never without a kill!
 2 2 Hark, a sound of whips, a sound of wheels jarring, and galloping

3 ponies and jumping chariot! 3 rearing horse and flame of sword and lightning of spear and multitudes of dying and masses of corpses;
 4 4 there is no end of the bodies, they stumble on the bodies, for the multitudinous debaucheries of the handsome prostitute, mistress of witchcraft, who blotted out nations with her debaucheries and clans 5 with her witchcraft. 5 Have at you, quoth Jehovah! I will turn your skirts up over your face and let nations see your nakedness and 6 clans your ignominy, 6 and I will throw carrion over you and make 7 you an object of disdain and a spectacle. 7 And everyone that sees you shall make off, and say "Nineveh is smitten! who is to lament her? where shall I look for comforters for you?"
 8 8 Are you to be better than Amon's Thebes, seated on the branching Nile with water around her, whose wall was a bulwark of sea, consisted of sea; 9 whose forces the Nubians were, and the Egyptians, no 9 end of them; whose auxiliaries were Put and the Libyans? 10 She too went to slavery in exile; she too had children's brains dashed out at every street-end, and over her aristocrats they threw lots and all her 11 great men were chained in fetters. 11 You too shall overdrink and be stupefied; you too shall hunt for a refuge from an enemy.
 12 12 All your fortresses are trees with rareripe figs, if they are shaken 13 they drop into an eater's mouth; 13 you find your people women in you; the gates of your country are thrown open to your enemies, fire has 14 consumed your bars. 14 Draw yourself water for a siege; strengthen your fortresses; get into the mud and trample clay, handle a brick-mold; 15 15 there fire will consume you, swords will make an end of you, they will eat you up like marching grasshoppers. Come on in masses like marching grasshoppers, come on in masses like flying grasshoppers; 16 16 you have drawn more traders than there are stars in the sky—the 17 hoppers cast their skins and take wing. 17 Your policemen are like grasshoppers and your clerks like young grasshoppers that camp in the hedges on a cold day; the sun is up and off they go, and there is 18 no knowing what place they were in. 18 Your shepherds are drowsy, king of Assyria, your heroes are asleep; your people are scattered over 19 the mountains with no one to draw them together. 19 There is no healing for your broken bones; your wound is gangrened; all who hear about you will clap their hands over you—for over whom has not your vileness taken its course continually?

MARGINAL NOTES TO NAHUM

THE BOOK OF HAMBAKUK

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 The boding that the prophet Hambakuk beheld.
- 2 2 How long, Jehovah, shall I have been clamoring and you not listen,
- 3 shall I cry foul play and you not interfere? 3 why do you show me villainy and look on at mischief, and I am confronted with rapine
- 4 and outrage, and disputes break out and raise quarrels? 4 Therefore religion is numbed, and justice comes out nevermore, because a criminal brings numbers against the one who has right on his side and therefore justice comes out on the wrong track.

5 See among the nations, look, be mystified, be mazed: for he is doing 6 a deed in your days that you will not believe when it is told; 6 for here he is setting in motion the Chaldeans, the truculent and hasty nation 7 that goes through the length and breadth of earth to take possession 8 of abodes that do not belong to it. 7 It is terrible and formidable; it 8 looks to itself for its laws and its standing; 8 and its ponies are swifter 9 than leopards and brisker than evening wolves, and its horsemen come 9 from far, they fly. 9 Like vultures hurrying to eat, it all comes for outrage; their massed faces are toward the east; and it has gathered 10 up slaves like the sand, 10 while it gibes at kings and takes potentates for its butt; it laughs at every fortification and has piled up earth 11 and taken it, 11 then taken breath and passed on, and made this strength of its own its god.

12 12 Are you not from of old, Jehovah? God of my devotion, you will not die. Jehovah, you established him for judgment and planted him 13 as a rock for correction. 13 Why should you, too clean-eyed to see wickedness and unable to look at mischief, look on at faithless men, lie still 14 while a rascal chews up a more honest man, 14 and have made mankind 15 like fish in the sea, like insects without a government? 15 he brings them all up with a hook, hauls them in in his net, gathers them in his seine.
16 16 Therefore he is glad and gay; therefore he sacrifices to his net and burns incense to his seine, because by those his takings are fat and 17 his diet rich; 17 is he therefore to empty his net and be always killing nations unsparingly?

CHAPTER 2

1 1 I will stand at my post and station myself on guard and be on the lookout to see what he will say by me and what response I shall make to my reproach.

2 2 And Jehovah answered me and said "Write a vision and set it 3 forth clearly on the tablets to be read swiftly; 3 for there is yet a vision for the date, to depose of the end, and it will not lie. If it delays, wait for it; for come it will, and not be belated."

4 4 Now in the timeserver he takes no satisfaction, but the honest man 5 shall live by his steadfastness; 5 how much less shall a faithless brute be pleasing, a haughty man, who has distended his appetite like the grave, being like death insatiable, and has gathered in all the nations 6 and swept up all the peoples! 6 Shall not all these strike up a lay of him and propound a satire on him, and say "Ha, you who amass—for how long?—what is not yours, and load yourself up with things 7 you have taken in pawn! 7 Will not your creditors stand up suddenly 8 and your worriers wake, and you be for their pillaging? 8 Because you have despoiled many nations, all the rest of the peoples shall despoil you, for bloodshed of men and outrage to earth, town and all who live in it.

9 "Ha, you who make hurtful winnings for your house, placing your 10 nest aloft, to come off safe out of the clutch of disaster! 10 You have contrived shame for your house, maiming many peoples and letting 11 your life be the forfeit; 11 for stones will cry out from walls, and joists out of woodwork will back them up.

12 "Ha, you who build a city by bloodshed and found a town by foul 13 play!" (Is not that from Jehovah of Armies?) 13 "And peoples toil to 14 feed fire, and folk upon folk spends itself bootlessly." 14 (For the earth shall be full of knowledge of Jehovah's glory like water that covers a sea.)

15 "Ha, you who have your friend drink out of your bowl and your 16 bag, and befuddle him too, in order to look at their nudity! 16 You are fuller loaded with ignominy than with glory; drink yourself and show off your uncircumcised body; the cup in Jehovah's right hand 17 shall come round to you, and shabbiness come over your glory. 17 For the outrage to Lebanon shall cover you, and the havoc of beasts shall dismay you, for bloodshed of men and outrage to earth, town and all who live in it."

18 Of what use is a statue that its sculptor should have carved it, a bronze and a lying oracle that its modeler should have put his con-19 fidence in it, so as to make dumb trumperies? 19 Ha, you who say to wood "Wake up, stir yourself!" of silent stone "That will give instructions"! There is that cased in gold and silver, with no soul within 20 it. 20 But Jehovah is in his holy temple: silence before him, all the earth!

CHAPTER 3

1 (A prayer of the prophet Hambakuk in dithyramhics.)

2 Jehovah, I have heard your story, have feared, Jehovah, at your dealing;
As years draw on bring it to life, as years draw on making it known, fiercely remembering tenderness.

3 God is coming from Teman, the Holy from the highlands of Paran. (Selah)

His majesty covers the sky and the earth is full of his praise, 4 And there is under him a radiance like fire, he has beams of light at his side, and there is the hiding of Ms power.

5 Before him goes pestilence, and back of him firebolts go out.

6 He halts, and earth trembles;
He sees, and nations flinch;

- And primeval mountains burst, immemorial hills stoop,
The packtrains of 'Us are alarmed, 7 the caravans of Ishbak are dismayed,
The homes of Cushan are disquieted, the tents of the Midianite country.
8 Are you angry with the rivers, Jehovah, or is your wrath against the sea,
That you are riding your ponies, your victory-bringing chariot, 9 With your bow stripped bare, your quiver crammed with shafts? [Selah] Earth splits into rivers, 10 mountains have seen you, they writhe, Clouds pelt down water,
the deep utters its voice,
The sun forgets its lofty radiance, 11 the moon stands still in its lodge,
At the light of your arrows as they go, at the radiant flash of your spear; 12 In hostility you tread earth, in anger you trample nations.
13 You have gone out for the succor of your people, to give victory to your anointed;
You have shattered head from wicked man's house, baring foundation to neck; (Selah) 14 You have pierced with his shafts the heads of his warriors coming tempestuously to scatter me, Their exultation as if to eat up a wretch in concealment.
15 You have trod your ponies in the sea the clay of great waters.
16 I heard, and my body quivered, my lips purred aloud;
Decay comes into my bones,
my insteps quiver under me, I moan at a day of distress to come for a nation that raids us.
17 For fig-trees are bearing no fruit and nothing grows on the grapevine, Olive-trees' work is disappointing and terraces are making no food, Sheep have disappeared from fold and there are no cattle in the stalls.
18 But I will glory in Jehovah, I will exult in my God of salvation;

- 19 The Lord Jehovah is my vigor, and makes my feet like a wild doe's and makes me tread the heights.
 (Of the Director; with string accompaniment.)

THE BOOK OF SEPHANIAH

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 Jehovah's word which came to Sephaniah the son of Cushi the son of Gedaliah the son of Amariah the son of Hezekiah in the time of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.
- 2 2 I will take off everything off the face of the earth, quoth Jehovah:
- 3 3 I will take off man and beast, I will take off the birds of the air and the fish of the sea, and the stumbling-blocks with the wicked, and I will extirpate mankind off the face of the earth, quoth Jehovah.
- 4 4 And I will stretch out my hand over Judah and over all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and exterminate from this place the kin of the Baal and the kith of the komers,
- 5 5 and those who do reverence on the roof to the legions of the sky, and those who do reverence to Jehovah and swear
- 6 6 by Malcam,
- 7 7 and those who fall back from following Jehovah and those who have not gone looking for Jehovah nor resorted to him.
- 7 7 Silence because of the Lord Jehovah, because Jehovah's day is near; because Jehovah has prepared for a sacrifice, has hallowed his guests.
- 8 8 And on the day of Jehovah's sacrifice I will punish the generals and
- 9 9 the royal family and all that wear foreign clothing,
- 10 10 and I will punish on that day everyone who leaps over a threshold, those who fill their master's house with outrage and fraud.
- 11 11 And on that day, quoth Jehovah, there shall be the sound of an outcry from the fish gate and a howling from the second quarter and a great crashing from the hills.
- 12 12 Howl, inhabitants of the hollow, because all the people of Canaan are cut off; all those who were laden with silver are exterminated.
- 13 13 And at that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps; and I will punish the men that are stiffened on their lees, that say to themselves "Jehovah will do no good and no harm."
- 14 14 And their wealth shall be for pillage, and their houses become a desolation; and they shall build houses and not live there, and plant vineyards and not drink the wine of them.
- 14 14 Jehovah's great day is near, near and speeding swiftly on; the sound
- 15 15 of Jehovah's day is bitter, a champion is yelling there.
- 16 16 That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and hard straits, a day of blast and blight, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of cloud and thick air,
- 17 17 a day of horn-blowing and cheering against the fortified cities and against the high corner-towers.
- 18 18 And I will bring distress on men, and they shall go like blind men, because they have sinned against Jehovah; and their blood shall be spilled like dust, and their entrails like cow-droppings.
- 19 19 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them on the day of Jehovah's wrath; and by the fire of his jealousy all the country shall be consumed. For he will dispatch all the inhabitants of the country in a finish full of sheer consternation.

CHAPTER 2

1 2 1 Get in your straw, get in your straw, nation unabashed, 2 before you become like chaff blowing along, before the day of Jehovah's anger 3 comes upon you. 3 Go looking for Jehovah, all you humble of the earth, you who have put his law in practice; look out for honesty, for 4 humility—you may be screened on the day of Jehovah's anger. 4 For Ghaza shall be abandoned, and Ashkelon become a desolation; Ashdod 5 they shall oust at noon, and 'Ekron shall be uprooted. 5 Ha, inhabitants of the seacoast strip, nation of the Cretans! Jehovah's word is against you, Canaan, country of the Philistines, and I will destroy you to the 6 last inhabitant; 6 and the Cretan country shall be shepherds' pastures 7 and folds for sheep. 7 And the seacoast strip shall belong to the remnant of the house of Judah, they shall pasture on them, they shall have the flocks lie down at evening in the houses of Ashkelon, because their God Jehovah will take up their case and come back to them.

8 I have heard Moab's taunts and the insults of the Bene-'Ammon, with which they have taunted my people and blustered against their 9 territory. 9 So by my life, quoth Israel's God Jehovah of Armies, Moab shall become like Sodom and the Bene-'Ammon like Ghomorrah, a place for brakes of weeds and for digging salt and a desolation forever; the remnant of my people shall plunder them, what is left 10 of my nation shall fall heir to them; 10 this is what they get for their pride, for having taunted and blustered against the people of Jehovah 11 of Armies. 11 Jehovah is terrible over them, because he has dwindled all the gods of the earth, and all the coasts of the nations shall do reverence to him each man at his own place.

12 12 You too, Nubians, are run through by Jehovah's sword. 13 And he will stretch out his hand over the north and destroy Assyria and 14 render Nineveh a dried-out desolation like the wilderness. 14 And flocks shall lie down in the middle of her, every beast of pasture; both barn-owl and porcupine shall lodge in the capitals of her columns; there is a great owl's voice in the window, a raven's on the threshold.
15 15 This is the hilarious city that was seated in security, that said to herself "There's me and that's all!" how she has become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down! everyone who passes her shall whistle and wave his hand.

CHAPTER 3

1 2 1 Alas, the disobedient and polluted one, the arbitrary city, 2 that obeyed no voice, learned nothing by discipline, had no confidence 3 in Jehovah, would not come near her God! 3 her generals in her midst are roaring lions, her judges evening wolves that do no morning 4 gnawing; 4 her prophets are reckless, faithless men, her priests treat sanctities as profane, they tamper with rulings. 5 Jehovah, a righteous one, is in her; he will do no foul play; morning by morning he brings his justice to the light, he does not default, he does not know how

6 to play foul.6I made away with nations, their corner-towers are desolate, I laid their streets waste till there is not a passer, their cities 7 wrecked till there is not a man, to the last inhabitant;7I thought "It must be you will fear me, will let yourself learn, and she will not 8 lose sight of all the visitations I have sent her"; in fact the first thing they did was to make all their practices vicious.8So wait for me, 9 quoth Jehovah, for my day of standing up as witness; for it is my judgment to bring nations together, to gather kingdoms, to pour out 10 my hostility on them, all the heat of my anger; for in the fire of my jealousy all the earth shall be consumed.

9 For then I will turn the lips of all the peoples clean, that they 10 may all call on Jehovah's name and cooperate in his service. 10 From beyond the African rivers the Pathrusites shall bring my aromas, 11 my offering. 11 On that day you shall not be put to shame for all your practices in which you have been so rebellious against me: for then 12 I will remove from among you your hilariously self-confident men, and they shall never again be pretentious in my holy mountain, 12 and 13 I will leave among you a people in hardship and poverty, who shall take refuge in Jehovah's name. 13 The remnant of Israel shall do no 14 foul play and tell no lie, and a dishonest tongue shall not be found in their mouth. For they shall pasture and lie down with no one to 15 alarm them.

14 Shout, daughter of Sion; cheer, Israel; be heartily glad and gleeful, 15 daughter of Jerusalem. 15 Jehovah has taken off all your judgments, has cleared away all your enemies; Jehovah is king in your midst, you 16 shall not see trouble again. 16 On that day Jerusalem shall have it said to her "Do not be afraid, Sion, do not lose heart: 17 your God Jehovah is 17 in your midst, a saving champion; he will blithely delight in you, will be quiet in his love, will jubilate over you with a shout." 18 As on an 18 anniversary day I bring together her smitten ones on the day of taking off taunting from her.

19 Here I will at that time be making an end of those who inflict 20 hardships on you, and will save what was breaking down and gather together what was straying, and render them a praise and a name in every country of their shame. 20 At that time I will bring you, and at that time I will gather you together; for I will make you a name and a praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I come back to you before your eyes, says Jehovah.

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

CHAPTER 1

- 1 In the year two of King Darius, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, Jehovah's word came by the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua' the son of Jehosadak, the high priest: 2 "Says Jehovah of Armies, This people say 'The time for Jehovah's house to be built has not come yet.' " 3 And Jehovah's word came by the prophet Haggai: 4 "Is it time for you yourselves to be living in your houses with wainscoting while this house lies in ruins? 5 Now Jehovah of Armies says, Pay attention to what you are about. 6 You have been sowing much and bringing in little, eating but not so as to have your fill, drinking but not so as to feel the effects, dressing but not so as to be warm, and the wage-earner earning into a pocket with a hole in it. 7 Says Jehovah of Armies, Pay attention to what you are about. 8 Go up to the mountain and bring wood and build the house and have me accept it and be an object of respect, says Jehovah. 9 Facing round toward a great deal and finding it turns out a little, bringing a crop into the house and finding I have blown on it—what for? quoth Jehovah of Armies; on account of my house which is in ruins while you are each running for his 10 own house; 10 that is why the sky has shut off dew and the ground has 11 shut off its growth, 11 and I have called up a drought over the country and over the mountains, and over the grain and over the grape-juice and over the oil and over everything the soil puts out and over man and over beast and over all the hands have toiled for."

12 12 And Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Joshua' the son of Jehosadak, the high priest, and all the remnant of the people, obeyed their God Jehovah and listened to the words of the prophet Haggai as 13 their God Jehovah had sent him to them; 13 and the people were afraid of Jehovah, but Jehovah's messenger Haggai, on Jehovah's mission, 14 said to the people "I am with you, quoth Jehovah." 14 And Jehovah stirred the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and of Joshua' the son of Jehosadak, the high priest, and of all the remnant of the people, and they came and did work on the 15 house of their God Jehovah of Armies, 15 on the twenty-fourth day of the month in the sixth month.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 In the year two of King Darius, in the seventh month, on the twenty-first of the month, Jehovah's word came by the prophet Hag-2 gai: 2 "Say to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua' the son of Jehosadak, the high priest, and to the remnant 3 of the people, 3 'Who is there among you of the older generation, one that saw this house in its former glory? and what do you see it now?
4 does it not look to you the same as nothing? 4 But now be resolute, Zerubbabel, quoth Jehovah, and be resolute, High Priest Joshua' son of Jehosadak, and be resolute, all people of the country, quoth 5 Jehovah, and keep at work, for I am with you, quoth Jehovah of Armies, 5 and my spirit stands fast in your midst; do not be afraid.'

6 6 "For Jehovah of Armies says 'One period more—it is a little one—and I am going to shake the sky and the earth, and the sea and the 7 dry land; 7 and I will shake all the nations, and the choice things of all the nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory, says 8 Jehovah of Armies. 8 The silver is mine and the gold is mine, quoth 9 Jehovah of Armies. 9 The future glory of this house shall be greater than the first, says Jehovah of Armies, and in this place I will make all well, quoth Jehovah of Armies.'"

10 10 On the twenty-fourth of the ninth month in the year two of Darius, 11 Jehovah's word came by the prophet Haggai 11 "Says Jehovah of 12 Armies, Ask the priests for a ruling: 12 suppose a man carries consecrated flesh in the flap of his coat, and touches with his flap bread or vegetables or wine or oil or any eatable, will it become consecrated?" 13 And the priests answered "No." 13 And Haggai said "If one who is unclean by a dead body touches any of these will it become unclean?" 14 And the priests answered "It will." 14 And Haggai answered "So it is with this people and so with this nation before me, quoth Jehovah, and so with all the work of their hands and what they come near: it 15 is unclean. 15 And now pay attention from this day on. When a stone 16 had not yet been laid on a stone in Jehovah's temple how were you 16 doing? 16 coming to a heap good for twenty sacks and having it turn out 17 ten, coming to the winepress to dip out fifty jars and having it turn 17 out twenty; 17 I have struck you with blasting and mildew and hail, all the work of your hands, and you were not heading toward me, quoth 18 Jehovah. 18 Pay attention from this day on, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of Jehovah's 19 temple was laid; pay attention; 19 is the seed still in the barn? and the grapevine and the fig-tree and the pomegranate-tree have not set; from this day I will bless." 20 20 And Jehovah's word came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-21 fourth of the month, 21 "Say to Zerubbabel the governor of Judah 'I 22 am going to shake the sky and the earth, 22 and overturn imperial thrones and quell the force of the nations' empires, and overturn chariots and their riders, and ponies and their riders shall go down 23 by each other's swords. 23 On that day, quoth Jehovah of Armies, I will take you, my servant Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, quoth Jehovah, and make you like a seal, for you I have chosen, quoth Jehovah of Armies.'"

THE BOOK OF ZECARIAH

CHAPTER 1

- 1 On the eighth new moon in the year two of Darius, Jehovah's word came to the prophet Zecariah the son of Berekiah the son of 'Iddo,
- 2 "Jehovah was provoked at your fathers.3And say to them 'Says Jehovah of Armies, Come back to me, quoth Jehovah of Armies, and I will come back to you, says Jehovah of Armies.4Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets called out "Says Jehovah of Armies, Come back from your bad courses and practices" and they did not hear nor listen to me, quoth Jehovah. 5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live forever?6But my words and my decrees with which I charged my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? and they turned back and said "As Jehovah of Armies designed to do to us, in accordance with our courses and practices, so he has done with us."'"
- 7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month (the month of Shebat) in the year two of Darius, Jehovah's word came to the prophet Zecariah the son of Berekiah the son of 'Iddo, 8 "I saw last night, and there was a man riding on a brown pony standing between the myrtles in the bog, and behind him ponies brown, sorrel, and white. 9 And I said 'What are these, sir?' and the angel that was speaking with me said to me 'I will let you see what these are.'10 And the man standing between the myrtles answered 'These are what Jehovah has sent to patrol the earth.'11 And they answered Jehovah's angel that stood between the myrtles 'We have patrolled the earth and find all the earth settled and quiet.'12 And Jehovah's angel answered 'Jehovah of Armies, how long before you will have any tenderness for Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, to which you have been hostile these seventy years?'13 And Jehovah answered the angel that was speaking with me with kindly words, comforting words; 14 and the angel that was speaking with me said to me 'Call out "Says Jehovah of Armies,15I am greatly jealous for Jerusalem and Sion, and I am greatly incensed with the nations that are at ease, because I had been a little incensed and they helped on to disaster. 16 So Jehovah says, I have come back to Jerusalem in tenderness; my house shall be built in it, quoth Jehovah of Armies, and a measuring-line shall be stretched over Jerusalem." 17 Call out again "Says Jehovah of Armies, My cities shall again overflow with good things, and Jehovah will again comfort Sion and again choose Jerusalem."'"
- 18 And I raised my eyes and saw, and there were four horns; 19 and I said to the angel that was speaking with me "What are these?" and he said to me "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem." 20 And Jehovah showed me four smiths; 21 and I said "What are these coming to do?" and he said "These are the horns that have scattered Judah so that not a man raised his head; and these have come to sharpen blades to knock off the horns of the nations that raised horns against the country of Judah to scatter it."

CHAPTER 2

1 And I raised my eyes and saw, and there was a man with a 2 measuring-line in his hand.2And I said "Where are you going?" and he said to me "To measure Jerusalem, to see how wide and how long 3 it is."3And out went the angel that was speaking with me, and an-4 other angel came out to meet him; and he said to him4"Run, tell yonder young man 'Jerusalem will live the life of rural towns owing to the 5 number of men and beasts in her; 5 and I, quoth Jehovah, will be to her a wall of fire all round, and I will be glory within her.' "

6 Ha, ha, off with you out of the north country, quoth Jehovah, because I have spread you along the four winds of the sky, quoth 7 Jehovah. 7 Ha, make your escape to Sion, you that are living in Bab-8 ylon.8For Jehovah of Armies says "After glory, he has sent me against the nations that were despoiling you, because he who touches you 9 is touching the apple of his eye;9for here I am swinging my hand over them and they shall be booty for their slaves, and you shall know 10 that Jehovah of Armies sent me. 10 Shout and be joyful, daughter of Sion, because here I am coming to take up my abode in your midst, 11 quoth Jehovah, 11 and many nations will enlist under Jehovah on that day and become his people, and take up their abode in your midst, 12 and you will know that Jehovah of Armies sent me to you. 12 And Jehovah will take Judah, his portion, as his own estate on the sacred 13 soil, and will choose Jerusalem again. 13 Silence, all mortals, because of Jehovah, for he is astir from his holy dwelling."

CHAPTER 3

1 And he showed me High Priest Joshua' standing before Jehovah's angel, and the Adversary standing at his right to be adversary to 2 him.2And He said to the Adversary "Jehovah rebuke you, Adversary, Jehovah that chooses Jerusalem rebuke you—this is a brand pulled 3 out of a fire!" 3And Joshua' was wearing filthy garments and standing 4 before the angel;4and He answered by saying to those who stood before Him "Take the filthy garments off him" (and He said to him 5 "See, I cause the guilt that was on you to pass away") "and dress him in full-dress garments,5and place a clean tiara on his head"; and they placed the clean tiara on his head and dressed him in 6 garments while Jehovah's angel stood there.6And Jehovah's angel 7 admonished Joshua' 7 "Says Jehovah of Armies, If you walk in my ways and keep my charge, then it shall be yours to pronounce judgment for my house and to keep my courts, and I will give you free 8 passage between those who stand here. 8 Listen, High Priest Joshua', you and your colleagues who sit before you, for they are men of 9 portent; for here I am bringing in my servant New Growth. 9 For here is the stone I have put before Joshua', on one stone seven eyes; here I am going to engrave its marking, quoth Jehovah of Armies, and dislodge the guilt of this country in one day. 10 On that day, quoth Jehovah of Armies, you shall each invite another to come under vine and fig-tree."

CHAPTER 4

1 And the angel who spoke with me came back and roused me like a 2 man that is roused from sleep, 2 and said to me "What do you see?"
and I said "I see a lampstand there, all gold, with its bowl at its top and its seven lamps on it, and seven pipes, for the lamps on top of 3 it, 3 and two olive-trees over it, one on the right of the bowl and one 4 on the left." 4 And I answered by saying to the angel that was speaking 5 with me "What are these, sir?" 5 and the angel that was speaking with me answered me "Do you not know what these are?" and I said "No, 6 sir." 6 And he answered me "This is Jehovah's word to Zerubbabel, 'Not my resources nor by strength but by my spirit, says Jehovah of 7 Armies.' 7 For I will make the great mountain into a plain before Zerubbabel, and he shall bring out the headstone among shouts 'fine!
fine!'" 8 8 And Jehovah's word came to me 9 "Zerubbabel's hands laid the foundation of this house, and his hands shall finish off; and you shall 10 know that Jehovah of Armies sent me to you. 10 For who despises the day of little things? and they will rejoice and see the designated stone in Zerubbabel's hand. These seven are Jehovah's eyes ranging through all the earth." 11 11 And I answered him "What are these two olive-trees to right and 12 left of the lampstand?" 12 and I answered him a second time "What are the two olive-spikes adjoining the two gold spouts that pour the 13 gold off them?" 13 And he said to me "Do you not know what these are?" 14 and I said "No, sir." 14 And he said "These are the two sons of oil that stand by the Lord of all the earth."

CHAPTER 5

1 And once more I raised my eyes and saw, and there was a document 2 flying. 2 And he said to me "What do you see?" and I said "I see a 3 document flying, thirty feet long and fifteen wide." 3 And he said to me "This is the anathema that is going out all over the country; for every stealer will be cleared out on this side in accordance with it and every swearer will be cleared out on that side in accordance with 4 it. 4 I put it out, quoth Jehovah of Armies, and it will go into the thief's house and into the house of the one who swears by my name to a lie, and it will lodge inside the house and make an end of it wood and stones and all."
5 5 And the angel that was speaking with me came out and said to 6 me "Raise your eyes and see what this is that is going out." 6 And I said "What is that?" And he said "This is the bushel that is going out"; and he said "This is their guilt throughout the country." 7 7 And there a disk of lead lifted itself up, and there sitting inside the 8 bushel was a woman. 8 And he said "This is Wickedness" and threw her 9 into the bushel and threw the block of lead on its mouth. 9 And I raised my eyes and saw, and there were two women coming out, with wind in their wings; they had wings like a stork's. 10 And they carried 10 the bushel up between the earth and the sky, and I said to the angel that was speaking with me "Where are they taking the bushel to?" 11 11 and he said to me "To build it a house in Shinear, and have a base ready, and they will set it down there on its base."

CHAPTER 6

1 1 And once more I raised my eyes and saw, and there were four chariots coming out from between the two mountains; and the moun-2 3 tains were of bronze. 2 In the first chariot were brown ponies, 3 and in the second chariot black ponies, and in the third chariot white ponies, 4 and in the fourth chariot strong dappled ponies. 4 And I answered by saying to the angel that was speaking with me "What are these, sir?" 5 5 and the angel answered me "These are the four winds of the sky coming out from presenting themselves before the Lord of all the 6 earth. 6 The one with the black ponies in it, they were going out to the north country, and the white went out to a part behind them, 7 and the dappled went out to the south country; 7 and the brown went out and wanted to go walking back and forth in the earth, and he said 8 to them 'Walk back and forth in the earth,' and they did." 8 And he called me up and spoke to me, saying "See, those that were going out to the north country have laid my spirit in the north country." 9 10 9 And Jehovah's word came to me, 10 "Take from the emigrants out of Heldai, from Tobijah and from Jeda'iah, and go in yourself and go in into the house of Josiah the son of Sephaniah, who have come 11 from Babylon, 11 and take silver and gold and make a crown and 12 place on the head of High Priest Joshua' the son of Josadak, and 12 say to him 'Says Jehovah of Armies, Here is a man named New Growth, and he shall grow new in his place and build Jehovah's 13 temple. 13 And he shall build Jehovah's temple, and he shall take on majesty and shall sit and rule on his throne, and there shall be a priest at his right hand, and there shall be peaceable policy between 14 the two.' " 14 And Helem and Tobijah and Jeda'iah, and the graciousness of the son of Sephaniah, shall have the crown for a memorial 15 in Jehovah's temple; 15 and far-off men shall come and build on Jehovah's temple, and you shall know that Jehovah of Armies sent me to you; and if you shall obey your God Jehovah—

CHAPTER 7

1 1 And in the year four of King Darius Jehovah's word came to 2 Zecariah on the fourth of the ninth month, in Kislev; 2 and Bethel 3 sent Shareser and Regem-Melec and his men to propitiate Jehovah, 3 to say to the priests of the house of Jehovah of Armies and to the prophets "Are we to weep in the fifth month with devotee observances as we have been doing ever so many years?"

4 5 4 And the word of Jehovah of Armies came to me 5 "Say to all the people of the country and to the priests 'When you fasted and wailed in the fifth and seventh months these seventy years were you fasting 6 me? 6 and when you eat, and when you drink, is it not you that eat
7 and drink? 7 Are not these the words Jehovah proclaimed by the former prophets while Jerusalem was settled and quiet, and her cities 9 around her, and the South and the lowland settled, 7 "Says Jehovah of Armies, Give true verdicts and practice friendliness and sympathy, 10 brother with brother, 10 and do not deny justice to widow and orphan, immigrant and penniless man, and do not think up harm for a brother" 11 and they refused to listen and turned a stubborn shoulder and a deaf ear, 12 and made their hearts adamant against listening to the instructions and messages that Jehovah of Armies had sent by his spirit through the former prophets, and there was great wrath from 13 Jehovah of Armies. 13 And as he called and they did not hear, so, says 14 Jehovah of Armies, will they call and I not hear. 14 And I blew them away to all the nations they had never known, and the country lay desolate behind them without goer or comer. And they rendered a charming country a desolation.' "

CHAPTER 8

1 2 1 And Jehovah's word came to me 2 "Says Jehovah of Armies, I am 3 greatly jealous for Sion, very resentfully jealous. 3 Says Jehovah, I have come back to Sion and will dwell within Jerusalem; and Jerusalem shall be called 'the loyal city' and 'the city of Jehovah of 4 Armies, the sacred city.' 4 Says Jehovah of Armies, Again shall old men and old women sit in the squares of Jerusalem, each with staff 5 in hand for length of years; and the squares of the city will be full 6 of boys and girls playing in its squares. Says Jehovah of Armies, Because it looks impossible to the remnant of this people in those days is it to look impossible to me too? quoth Jehovah of Armies.
7 7 "Says Jehovah of Armies, Here, I am saving my people out of 8 the East and out of the West, 8 and bringing them in where they are to settle inside of Jerusalem; and I will have them for my people, and they shall have me for their God, loyally and honestly.
9 9 "Says Jehovah of Armies, Courage, you that in these days hear these words from the mouths of the prophets who spoke on the day of the 10 founding of Jehovah of Armies' house, the temple, to be built; 10 for before those days there had not come any pay for man and there was no pay for beast, and goer and comer had no peace from the foe, and 11 I set all mankind man against man. 11 But now I am not as I was in the former days toward the remnant of this people, quoth Jehovah 12 of Armies; 12 for I will sow peace, the vines shall give their fruit and the earth its growth and the sky its dew, and I will allot all this to 13 the remnant of this people; 13 and as you have been a word of cursing among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you and you shall be a blessing; do not be afraid, courage!

14 14 For Jehovah of Armies says, As I designed to do bad things to you when your fathers incensed me, says Jehovah of Armies, and I did 15 not change my mind, 15 so I have in these days come back and design to do good to Jerusalem and the house of Judah; do not be afraid.
16 16 These are the things you are to do: speak truth to each other, give 17 judgments true in fact and sound in law in your gates, 17 and do not think up harm for each other in your minds, and do not love a false oath; for all these things I hate, quoth Jehovah."

18 18 And Jehovah of Armies' word came to me 19 "Says Jehovah of Armies, The fourth-month fast and the fifth-month fast and the seventh-month fast and the tenth-month fast shall become rejoicings and merry-20 makings and happy occasions for the house of Judah; so love truth and peace. 20 Says Jehovah of Armies, Peoples and the inhabitants of 21 many cities shall yet come in, 21 and the inhabitants of one shall go to another saying 'Yes, let us go to propitiate Jehovah, to look up 22 Jehovah of Armies; I will go too.' 22 And many peoples and mighty nations shall come to look up Jehovah of Armies at Jerusalem and 23 to propitiate Jehovah. 23 Says Jehovah of Armies, In those days ten men out of all the languages of the nations shall take hold of the flap of a Jewish man's coat saying 'Let us go with you, because we have heard you have God with you.'"

as part of the chapters of Zecariah)

CHAPTER 9

1 1 The boding of Jehovah's word in Hadrac, its resting-place Damascus; for Jehovah's are the eyes of mankind, and all the tribes of 2 Israel; 2 Hamath too, bordering on it; Tyre and Sidon, very wise as 3 they Ere. 3 And Tyre built itself siege-works and piled up silver like 4 earth and hard gold like street mud. 4 Here Jehovah will dispossess her and knock her wealth into the sea, and she will be consumed by 5 fire. 5 Ashkelon will see and be afraid; Ghaza, and be utterly unmanned; and 'Ekron, because her cynosure has come to grief and king is lost 6 to Ghaza; 6 and Ashkelon will be uninhabited. And a mongrel rabble 7 will live in Ashdod, and I will abolish the Philistines' pride; 7 and I will take out its blood from its mouth and its carrion from between its teeth, and it too will be left belonging to our God, and be like a 8 privileged guest in Judah, and 'Ekron like a Jebusite. 8 And I will camp as garrison for my house against comer and goer, and never again shall a coercer pass through them; for now I have seen with my own eyes.

- 9 9 Jubilate most gayly, daughter of Zion; cheer, daughter of Jerusalem; here you shall have your kind come in; just and victorious is he, poor and mounted on a donkey, on a young beast born of donkeys. 10 And he will abolish chariots from Ephraim and ponies from Jerusalem, and war-bows will be abolished, and he will pronounce peace to the nations; and his rule will be from sea to sea and from River to ends of earth.
- 11 11 Your prisoners too for your covenant blood I have let go out of the dry cistern. 12 The prisoners of hope shall come back to you, Zion, today too; double dower I will bring back to you. 13 For I have bent Judah for my bow, put Ephraim in for arrow; and I will rouse your sons, Zion, against the sons of Greece, and make you like a champion's sword. 14 And Jehovah will appear over them, and his arrow will go out like the lightning; and the Lord Jehovah will blow the ram-horn and go with southern tempests. 15 Jehovah of Armies will shield them, and they will eat up and stamp down slingstones and drink their blood like wine, and be filled like a sacrificer's bowl, like the corners of an altar, and their God Jehovah will give them the victory. 16 On that day his people's sheep will be like sparkling diadem-stones over his soil. 17 For how good and what a beauty-giver is he! grain will ripen young men, grape-juice maidens.

CHAPTER 10

- 1 1 Ask Jehovah for rain at spring-rain time, Jehovah who makes chain-lightning, and he will give you rain in bursts so there will be herbage on the range. 2 For the teraphim have spoken rubbish and the soothsayers have visioned a lie, and they tell futile dreams, give unsubstantial comfort; therefore they stray like sheep, go hungry because there is no shepherd. 3 Against the shepherds I am angry, and the he-goats I will punish.

- For Jehovah of Armies has visited his flock the house of Judah and will make them like ponies whose passion is for battle. 4 From him headman, from him staff, from him war-bow, from him will come every officer together. 5 And they will be like champions trampling through street mud in battle; and they will fight, because Jehovah is with them, and discomfit pony-riders. 6 And I will invigorate the house of Judah, and save the house of Joseph and bring them back, because I have tender feelings for them, and they will be as if I had not repudiated them; for I am their God Jehovah and will answer them. 7 And Ephraim will be like a champion, and their hearts will be merry as if with wine; and their sons will see and be merry, and their hearts will jubilate in Jehovah. 8 I will whistle for them and collect them, because I have ransomed them; and there shall be as many of them

9 as there had been; 9 and I will sow them among the peoples, and in the distant places they will remember me and come to life with 10 their sons and come back. 10 And I will bring them back from Egypt and collect them from Assyria, and bring them to Gilead and Lebanon, 11 and there will be no finding any place for them. 11 And they will go through the sea in distress, and he will strike waves into the sea and dry out all the bogs of the Nile, and Assyria's pride will be brought 12 down and Egypt's cudgel will pass away; 12 and I will give them vigor in Jehovah, and in his name they shall triumph, quoth Jehovah.

CHAPTER 11

1 1 Lebanon, open your doors for fire to eat among your cedars.
2 2 Howl, cypress, because a cedar has fallen, that parklands are ravaged!
3 howl, Bashan oaks, because the Basor bush is down! 3 I hear the shepherds howling because their park-realm is ravaged; I hear the two-year-old lions roaring because the Jordan jungle is ravaged.
4 5 4 Said my God Jehovah, "Shepherd the slaughtering sheep, 5 whose buyers kill and are not responsible, and whose sellers say 'Bless Jehovah, I have been getting rich,' and whose shepherds have no 6 mercy on them; 6 for I will no longer have mercy on the inhabitants of the earth, quoth Jehovah. Here I am handing mankind over to each other and to their respective kings, and they will pound the earth up, 7 and I will not deliver out of their hands." 7 And I shepherded the slaughtering sheep for the sheep-traders; I got myself two staves, one of which I called Goodwill and the other Ties, and shepherded the 8 sheep. 8 And I killed off the three shepherds in one month; and I lost patience with them, and they on their part were disgusted with me.
9 9 And I said "I will not shepherd you: what dies shall die and what is missing shall be missing, and what remains shall eat each other's 10 flesh"; 10 and I took my staff Goodwill and chopped it in two, to break 11 the terms I had come to with all the peoples, 11 and they were broken on that day; and the sheep-traders who were watching me knew it was 12 Jehovah's word. 12 And I said to them "If you think best, give me my pay; if not, don't"; and they weighed out my pay, thirty shekels of 13 silver. 13 And Jehovah said to me "Throw it to the treasury, the grand valuation I got out of them"; and I threw it in Jehovah's house, to 14 the treasury. 14 And I chopped my second staff in two, Ties, to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.
15 15 And Jehovah said to me "Take a shepherd's outfit again, an in-16 competent one's. 16 For here I am setting up in the country a shepherd who will not attend to what is missing nor hunt up what strays nor cure what breaks a leg nor feed what is on its feet, but eat the flesh 17 of what is fat and tear their hoofs. 17 Woe to my sham shepherd who quits the sheep! a sword on his arm and on his right eye! his arm shall dry out and his right eye shall go dim.

The Second Book Added to Zecariah (The chapters are numbered as part of the chapters of Zecariah)

CHAPTER 12

1 1 The boding of Jehovah's word about Israel.

2 Quoth Jehovah who stretched sky and founded earth and shaped 3 man's spirit within him: 2 Here I am setting Jerusalem as a staggering-4 bowl for all the peoples around, and Judah too will be involved in 5 the siege against Jerusalem. 3 And on that day I will set Jerusalem 6 as a loading-stone for all the peoples; all who load themselves with 7 it will rupture themselves; and all the nations on earth will come 8 together against Jerusalem. 4 On that day, quoth Jehovah, I will strike 9 every pony with the staggers and its rider with frenzy, and on the 10 house of Judah I will open my eyes but I will strike every pony of 11 the peoples with blindness; 5 and the allufs of Judah will say to them-12 selves "The inhabitants of Jerusalem have might in their God Jehovah 13 of Armies." 6 On that day I will make the allufs of Judah like a pan 14 of fire among wood and like a torch of fire in hay, and to right and to left they shall consume all the peoples around; and Jerusalem shall again be inhabited on its site, in Jerusalem. 7 And Jehovah will save the tents of Judah first, in order that the vaunting of the house of David and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not put on airs against Judah. 8 On that day Jehovah will shield the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the most limping one among them will be like David, and the house of David like God, like Jehovah's Angel before them.
9 9 And on that day I will set to work to root out all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 10 And I will pour upon the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and of supplication; and they will look at the one they stabbed to death and wail over him like the wailing over an only son, and be in agony over him as one is over a firstborn.
11 11 On that day the wailing will be great in Jerusalem, like the bewailing 12 of Hadadrimmon on the Megiddo bottom-lands, 12 and the country will wail clan by clan separately: the clan of the house of David separately and their women separately, the clan of the house of Nathan separately 13 and their women separately, 13 the clan of the house of Levi separately and their women separately, the clan of the house of Shimei sepa-14 rately and their women separately, 14 all the remaining clans clan by clan separately and their women separately.

CHAPTER 13

1 1 There will be on that day a fountain opened for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for pollution.
2 2 And on that day, quoth Jehovah, I will abolish the names of the idols out of the country, and they will not be mentioned anymore; and the prophets too, and the tainting spirit, I will have pass away 3 from the country. 3 And when a man does still prophesy, his father and mother who gave him birth will say to him "You shall not live, because you have spoken falsehood in Jehovah's name," and his father and mother who gave him birth will stab him to death for his prophesying. 4 And on that day the prophets will be ashamed of their visions when they prophesy, and will not wear a hairy mantle with lying intent; 5 and one will say "I am not a prophet, I am a man that works the soil, because the soil has been my living from my boyhood"; 6 and one will say to him "What are these wounds between your hands?" and he will say "What I got in my lovers' house."

7 7 Sword, wake against my shepherd and against a man my neighbor! quoth Jehovah of Armies. Strike the shepherd and the sheep will scatter—and I will bring my hand back against the smallest. 8 And in all the country, quoth Jehovah, two parts will be swept away, will perish, and a third will be left in it; 9 and I will bring the third into the fire and smelt them like smelting silver and assay them like assaying gold. It will call on my name, and I will answer it and say "It is my people," and it will say "Jehovah is my God."

CHAPTER 14

1 1 Here, Jehovah has a day coming, and the booty from you, Jerusalem, will be divided inside you. 2 And I will bring all the nations together to Jerusalem for battle; and the city will be taken and the houses pillaged and the women ravished. And half the city will go out in deportation, but the rest of the people will not be ousted from the city. 3 And Jehovah will go out and fight those nations as he fights on a day of battle, 4 and his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives that day, the mountain in front of Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives will split in halves from east to west in a very great valley, and half the mountain will move off to the north and half to the south, 5 and the valley of Hinnom will be choked—for the valley of Hinnom lies along its side, and will be choked as it was in consequence of the earthquake in the time of King 'Uzzijah of Judah—and my God Jehovah will come and all his holy ones with him. 6 And on that day there will not be light and cold and frost; 7 and it will be all one day—Jehovah knows about it—not day and not night; and at evening time there will be light. 8 And on that day living water will go out from Jerusalem, half to the eastern sea and half to the western; this will be in summer and in winter. 9 And Jehovah will become king over all the earth; on that day Jehovah will be one and his name one. 10 All the country will go round like the Rift Valley, from Geba' to Rimmon of the South; and Jerusalem will tower up and stay where it was, from the Benjamin Gate to the place of the former gate, to the Corner Gate and Hananel's Tower, to the King's Winepresses. 11 And they will live in it, and there will be no more doom, and Jerusalem will rest secure.

12 12 And this will be the plague that Jehovah will inflict on all the peoples that made the campaign against Jerusalem: rotting one's

13 flesh while he stands on his feet, and his eyes rotting in their sockets and his tongue rotting in his mouth. 13 And on that day there will be a great confusion from Jehovah among them, and they will hold each other's hands and their hands will be raised against each other, 14 and even Judah will fight Jerusalem. 14 And the wealth of all the nations around will be brought in, gold and silver and clothing in great 15 quantities. 15 And the same will be the plague of the ponies, the mules, the camels, the donkeys, and all the beasts that there shall be in 16 those camps, like this plague. 16 And everybody that is left of all the nations that had come against Jerusalem will come up annually to do reverence to the King, Jehovah of Armies, and to keep the Feast 17 of Booths. 17 And whoever in the clans of the earth does not come up to Jerusalem to do reverence to the King, Jehovah of Armies, on 18 them there will be no showers; 18 and if the clan of Egypt does not come up and come in, on them will be the plague which Jehovah will inflict 19 on the nations that do not come up to keep the Feast of Booths. 19 This will be the penalty for Egypt and the penalty for all the nations that do not come up to keep the Feast of Booths.
 20 20 On that day the ponies will have on their jinglets "Sacred to Jehovah," and the pots in Jehovah's house will be like the bowls be-21 fore the altar; 21 and every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be sacred to Jehovah of Armies, and all the sacrificers will go in and take any of them and cook in them. And there will no longer be a trader in Jehovah of Armies' house on that day.

THE BOOK OF MALAKI

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 The boding of Jehovah's word to Israel by Malaki.
 2 2 I loved you, says Jehovah. And you say "In what did you love us?"
 3 3 Was not 'Esau brother to Jacob?' quoth Jehovah; and I loved Jacob, and 'Esau I hated and made a desolation of his mountains and wilderness pastures of his estate. 4 Whereas Edom says "We have had our houses wrecked, but we shall come back and rebuild the ruins," Jehovah of Armies says "They will build, but I will demolish; and they will be called 'Wrong Side Precinct' and 'the people to whom Jehovah is hostile forever'; 5 and your eyes will see it and you will say 'Jehovah proves great beyond the boundary of Israel.' "
- 6 6 Son honors father, and servant his master. Then if I am a father where is my honor, and if I am a master where is my fear? says Jehovah of Armies to you priests, despisers of my name—and you 7 7 gay "In what have we despised your name?" 7 You bring polluted food up to my altar—and you say "In what have we polluted you?" In 8 8 your saying "Jehovah's table is of no account." 8 And when you bring on a blind creature for sacrificing, it is no harm! and when you bring on a lame one, it is no harm! Present it to your governor! will he be conciliated, or do favors for you?—says Jehovah of Armies.
 9 9 And now propitiate Deity that he may be gracious to us; this came from your hands—will he favor any of you? says Jehovah of Armies.
 10 10 Ah, and O for one among you to shut the doors so that you should not light up my altar for nothing! I have no liking for you, says Jehovah of Armies, and will not accept offerings from your hands.
 11 11 For from utmost east to utmost west my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense is offered up to my name, and pure offerings; for my name is great among the nations, says Jehovah
 12 12 of Armies; 12 but you profane it by saying "Jehovah's table is polluted

13 and the eating of its yield is unsatisfactory." 13 And you say "O, the tiresomeness!" and pooh-pooh me, says Jehovah of Armies; and you bring stolen property and the lame and the sick, and bring it as an offering; 14 am I to accept it from your hands? says Jehovah. But cursed is a schemer who, when there is a male in his flock and he vows it, sacrifices a mutilated creature to the Lord; for I am a great king, says Jehovah of Armies, and my name is terrible among the nations.

CHAPTER 2

1 2 1 And now this message is to you priests. 2 If you do not listen and do not pay attention, giving glory to my name, says Jehovah of Armies, I will send the curse upon you and curse your blessings; and 3 cursed it I have, too, because you are not paying attention. 3 Here I am rebuking the seed for you and will sprinkle offal on your faces, 4 the offal from your feasts, and they shall carry you to it. 4 And you shall know that I have sent this message to you to have my covenant 5 be with Levi, says Jehovah of Armies. 5 My covenant with him was life and well-being, and I gave them to him; fear, and he feared me, 6 and he was in terror at my name. 6 Trustworthy rulings were in his mouth and dishonesty was never found on his lips; he walked with me staunchly and straightforwardly, and turned many back from 7 offending. 7 For a priest's lips are to keep knowledge, and they seek rulings from his mouth, because he is the messenger of Jehovah of 8 Armies. 8 But you have quitted the road, you have brought many to a fall by rulings; you have wrecked Levi's covenant, says Jehovah 9 of Armies, 9 and I on my part have made your status low and despised by all the people, in harmony with your not keeping my ways and favoring persons in rulings.

10 10 Do we not all have one father? did not one Deity create us? how is it we are faithless to our brothers, nullifying our fathers' covenant? 11 11 Judah has acted faithlessly, and an abominable thing has been done in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has nullified Jehovah's sanctities which he loves and has married a foreign deity's daughter. 12 Jehovah deprive the man who does it of waker and answerer in Jacob's tents, and of offerer to Jehovah of Armies.

13 13 And this second thing you do, covering Jehovah's altar with tears, with weeping and groaning, beyond any more possibility of facing 14 toward the offering or having satisfaction from your hands. 14 And you say "On what account?" On account of Jehovah's having borne "witness between you and the wife of your youth, toward whom you have broken faith, though she is your consort and your contracted 15 spouse. 15 And did he not make one, though he had a remainder of breath? and what was the one aiming at? posterity of God. But be on your guard as to your spirits, and let one not break faith toward the 16 wife of his youth. 16 For Israel's God Jehovah hates divorce, and outrage covers his garment, says Jehovah of Armies. But be on your guard as to your spirits and do not break faith.

- 17 17 You have made it hard for Jehovah with your words. And you say "In what have we made it hard?" In your saying "Everybody that does bad things pleases Jehovah, he has a fancy for them—or where is the God of justice!"

CHAPTER 3

- 1 1 Here I am sending my messenger who shall clear a road before me, and suddenly the Lord, whom you are seeking for, will come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you are wishing 2 for, here he comes, says Jehovah of Armies. 2 But who will hold out through the day of his coming? or who will stand at his appearing?
3 for he is like a smelter's fire and like washermen's alkali, 3 and he will sit smelting and purifying silver, and purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, and they will be rightly offering-4 presenters of Jehovah's, 4 and the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will 5 be sweet to Jehovah as in days of yore and as in olden years; 5 and I will draw near you for judgment, and will be an expeditious witness against the wizards and adulterers and perjurers and those who fail to pay the wages of a hired man and to allow the rights of a widow and an orphan, and who warp a decision in an immigrant's 6 case, and do not fear me, says Jehovah of Armies. 6 For I Jehovah have not changed, and you sons of Jacob have not come to an end.
7 7 From your fathers' days you have gone away from my usages and not kept them: come back to me and I will come back to you, says 8 Jehovah of Armies. 8 And you say "Come back in what respect!" Is man to shave down God? for you are shaving me down. And you say "Shaving you down in what respect?" The tithe and the contribution 9 10 you neglect, and me you shave down, the whole nation. 10 Bring all the tithe to the storehouse so there will be provisions in my house, and test me by this, says Jehovah of Armies, whether I will not open the hatchways of the sky for you and empty out for you more of a 11 blessing than you have any use for; 11 and I will rebuke the eater for you, and you shall not have him spoiling the crops of the soil, nor shall you have the grapevines losing their fruit in the fields, says 12 Jehovah of Armies. 12 And all the nations will congratulate you, because you will be a delightful country, says Jehovah of Armies.
13 13 You have used strong language against me, says Jehovah. And you say "What language have we used against you?" 14 You have said "Worshiping God does not amount to anything; and what do we get out of it that we have kept his charge and gone in mourning because 15 of Jehovah of Armies? 15 And now we are having to congratulate presumptuous people; yes, misdoers make fortunes; yes, they put God 16 to the test and come off safe." 16 Thus did those who fear Jehovah talk to each other; and Jehovah listened and heard it, and a commemorative

- book was written before him for those who fear Jehovah and those 17 who give consideration to his name. 17 And, says Jehovah of Armies, they shall on the day when I take action be for me a special reserve, and I will spare them as a man spares his own son that serves him; 18 18 and you will come back to seeing the difference between a right-doer and a wrong-doer, between a worshiper and a non-worshiper of Jehovah.

CHAPTER 4

- 1 1 For here comes the day, burning like a baking-crock; and all presumptuous people and all wrong-doers will be stubble, and the day that is coming will set them ablaze, says Jehovah of Armies, so 2 that it will not leave them root nor branch; 2 but for you fearers of my name a sun of right will rise, with healing in its wings, and you 3 will go out and gambol like calves out of a pen, 3 and tread the life out of the wicked, for they will be ashes under your feet on the day when I take action, says Jehovah of Armies.
- 4 4 Remember my servant Moses's instructions that I charged him with 5 at Horeb for all Israel, usages and laws. 5 Here, I am sending you the prophet Elijah before the coming of Jehovah's great and terrible 6 day, 6 and he will bring fathers' hearts back to children and children's back to their fathers, for fear I should come and strike the country with doom.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

CHAPTER 1

1 1 Genealogy of Jesus Christ, son of David, son of Abraham:
2 2 Abraham had a son Isaac; and Isaac, Jacob; and Jacob, Judah 3 and his brothers; 3 and Judah, Peres and Zerah by Tamar; and Peres, 4 Hesron; and Hesron, Ram; 4 and Ram, Amminadab; and Amminadab, 5 Nahshon; and Nahshon, Salmon; 5 and Salmon, Boaz by Rahab; and 6 Boaz, Obed by Ruth; and Obed, Jesse; 6 and Jesse, king David; and 7 David, Solomon by Uriah's widow; 7 and Solomon, Rehoboam; and 8 Rehoboam, Ahijah; and Abijah, Asa; 8 and Asa, Jehoshaphat; and Je-9 hoshaphat, Jehoram; and Jehoram, Uzziah; 9 and Uzziah, Jotham; 10 and Jotham, Ahaz; and Ahaz, Hezekiah; 10 and Hezekiah, Manasseh; 11 and Manasseh, Amon; and Amon, Josiah; 11 and Josiah, Jeconiah and 12 his brothers, at the time of the removal to Babylon. 12 And after the removal to Babylon Jeconiah had a son Shealtiel; and Shealtiel, 13 Zerubbabel; 13 and Zerubbabel, Abihud; and Abihud, Eliakim; and 14 Eliakim, Azzur; 14 and Azzur, Sadok; and Sadok, Jaehin; and Jachin, 15 Elihud; 15 and Elihud, Eleazar; and Eleazar, Mattan; and Mattan, 16 Jacob; 16 and Jacob, Joseph, the husband of Mary who had for her son 17 Jesus, known as the Messiah. 17 So there are in all fourteen generations from Abraham down to David, and fourteen generations from David down to the removal to Babylon, and fourteen generations from the removal to Babylon down to the Messiah.

18 18 And the birth of Jesus Christ was thus: His mother Mary being engaged to Joseph, before they came together it was found that she 19 was pregnant by the Holy Spirit. 19 And Joseph her husband, being an honest man and unwilling to make a spectacle of her, wanted to 20 divorce her privately. 20 But while he was thinking of this, lo, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take your wife Mary. For what has been 21 generated in her is by the Holy Spirit; 21 and she shall bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins.
22 22 And all this has come to pass in order that what was said by the 23 Lord through the prophet in the words 23 'Lo, the maiden shall be pregnant and bear a son, and they shall name him Immanuel'"— 24 which means "God-is-with-us"—"should be fulfilled." 24 And on waking from his sleep Joseph did as the angel of the Lord directed him, and 25 took his wife 25 and did not know her until she bore a son, and named him Jesus.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 And after Jesus was born at Bethlehem in Judea in the days of 2 Herod the king, lo, magi from the East arrived in Jerusalem 2 saying

"Where is the King of the Jews that has been born? for we saw his star 3 coming up and have come to do him reverence." 3 And at hearing it 4 King Herod was alarmed, and all Jerusalem with him; 4 and he called together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, and inquired of 5 them where the Messiah was to be born. 5 And they said to him "At 6 Bethlehem in Judea; 6 for so it is written through the prophet, 'And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the chieftains of Judah; for out of you shall come a ruler who shall govern 7 my people Israel.' " 7 Then Herod called the magi privately and got 8 from them the precise time of the star's appearing, 8 and sent them to Bethlehem and said "Go and learn the precise facts about the child, and when you find him bring word to me, so that I may come myself 9 and do him reverence." 9 And they listened to the king and went; and lo, the star that they had seen coming up went ahead of them till 10 it came and stood still over where the child was; 10 and when they saw 11 the star they were glad, and their gladness was very great. 11 And they came to the house and saw the child with Mary his mother, and prostrated themselves and did him reverence; and they opened their coffers and offered gifts to him, gold and frankincense and myrrh.
12 12 And, it being revealed to them in a dream that they should not go back to Herod, they withdrew to their own country by another route.
13 13 And when they had withdrawn, lo, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream saying "Rise, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and be there till I tell you; for Herod is going to 14 be looking for the child to make away with him." 14 And he rose and 15 took the child and his mother by night and withdrew to Egypt, 15 and was there till Herod's death, in order that what was said by the Lord through the prophet in the words "Out of Egypt I called my son" should be fulfilled.
16 16 Then Herod was greatly enraged at seeing that he had been made a fool of by the magi, and sent and took the lives of all the boys in Bethlehem and in all its territory, from two years old down, to cor-17 respond to the precise time which he had got from the magi. 17 Then 18 what was said through the prophet Jeremiah in the words 18 "A sound was heard in Ramah, weeping and much lamenting—Rachel weeping for her children and not letting herself be comforted, because they are not" was fulfilled.
19 19 And after Herod's death, lo, an angel of the Lord appeared to 20 Joseph in Egypt in a dream, 20 saying "Rise, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel; for those who were seeking the 21 child's life are dead." 21 And he rose, took the child and his mother, and 22 came into the land of Israel. 22 But, hearing that Archelaus was king of Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there, and, a revelation being made to him in a dream, he withdrew to the parts 23 of Galilee, 23 and came and settled in a city called Nazareth, so that what was said through the prophets, "He shall be called a Nazarene," should be fulfilled.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 And in those days John the Baptist came, proclaiming in the 2 wilderness of Judea 2 "Repent, for the Reign of Heaven is almost here." 3 3 For this is he who was spoken of through the prophet Isaiah in the 4 words "The voice of one calling out in the wilderness 'Get ready the 5 Lord's road, make his thoroughfares straight.'" 4 And he, John, had 6 his garment of camel-hair and a leather belt around his waist, and 7 his food was grasshoppers and wild honey.

8 5 Then Jerusalem and all Judea and all the region of the Jordan went 9 out to him 6 and had themselves baptized in the river Jordan by him, 10 confessing their sins. 7 But at seeing many of the Pharisees and Sad-11 ducees coming to the baptism he said to them "Spawn of vipers, who 12 has given you notice to flee from the future wrath? 8 Produce fruit 13 appropriate to repentance, 9 then, and do not think to say to yourselves 14 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I tell you God can raise up 15 children to Abraham out of these stones. 10 And the ax is already lying 16 at the root of the trees, so every tree that does not produce good fruit 17 is to be cut out and thrown into a fire. 11 I am baptizing you in water 18 to repentance, but he who is coming behind me is stronger than I, 19 whose shoes I am not fit to carry: he will baptize you in Holy Spirit 20 and fire— 12 he whose winnowing-fork is in his hand, and who will 21 clean up his threshing-floor and gather his wheat into his barn, but 22 burn up the chaff with inextinguishable fire."

23 13 Then came Jesus from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized 24 by him. 14 But John checked him, saying "I need to be baptized by 25 you, and are you coming to me?" 15 But Jesus answered him "Let me 26 now, for it befits us to fulfill all righteousness thus." Then he let him.
27 16 And when Jesus was baptized, at once he came up from the water, 28 and lo, the sky opened and he saw God's Spirit come down like a 29 dove and come upon him; 17 and lo, a voice out of the sky saying "This 30 is my dear son in whom I take pleasure."

CHAPTER 4

1 1 Then Jesus was brought up to the wilderness by the Spirit to be 2 tempted by the Devil. 2 And upon fasting forty days and forty nights 3 he afterward grew hungry. 3 And the tempter approached him and 4 told him "If you are Son of God, say the word for these stones to 5 become bread." 4 But he answered "It is written 'Not upon bread alone 6 shall man live, but upon every word that comes out of God's mouth.'" 7 5 Then the Devil took him to the sacred city and set him on the wing 8 of the temple-precinct, 6 and said to him "If you are Son of God, 9 throw yourself down; for it is written 'He will give his angels com-10 mands about you, and they will lift you on their hands, for fear 11 you should strike your foot against a stone.'" 7 Said Jesus to him "It 12 is written again 'You shall not put the Lord your God on trial.' " 13 8 Again the Devil took him to an exceedingly high mountain, and 9 showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, 9 and told him "All this I will give you if you will drop down and do me reverence." 10 Then Jesus said to him "Go, Satan: for it is written 'You shall do reverence to the Lord your God, and worship him alone.'" 11 Then the Devil left him: and lo, angels came to him and waited on his needs.

12 But upon hearing that John was committed to prison he retired to Galilee, 13 and left Nazareth and came and settled in Capernaum on the seacoast, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 that what was said through the prophet Isaiah in the words 15 "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, seaward on the other side of the Jordan, Galilee of the nations—16 the people that was sitting in darkness has seen a great light, and to those who were sitting in the country and shadow of death a light has risen," might be fulfilled. 17 Thenceforth Jesus began to proclaim "Repent, for the Reign of Heaven is almost here."

18 And in walking by the Sea of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon, the one who is known as Peter, and his brother Andrew, throwing a casting-net in the sea—for they were fishermen—19 and said to them 20 "Come here after me, and I will make you fishers of men"; 20 and they 21 left their nets at once and followed him. 21 And he went on from there and saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and his brother John, in their boat with their father Zebedee putting their nets to rights, and called them; 22 and they left the boat and their father at once and followed him.

23 And he went around in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the Reign and curing every disease and every ailment among the people. 24 And the report about him went to all Syria; and they brought to him all who were ill with various diseases and suffering agonies, demoniacs and epileptics and paralytics, 25 and he cured them; 25 and there followed him great crowds from Galilee and Deapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and the other side of the

1 Jordan. 1 And when he saw the crowds he went up on the mountainside; 2 and he sat down, and his disciples came to him, 2 and he opened his mouth and taught them, saying

3 "Happy are the poor at heart, because the Reign of Heaven is theirs. 4 Happy are mourners, because they shall be comforted. 5 Happy are the meek, because they shall inherit the earth. 6 Happy are the hungry and thirsty for righteousness, because they shall have their meal. 7 Happy are the pitiful, because they shall be pitied. 8 Happy are the clean in mind, because they shall see God. 9 Happy are peacemakers, 10 because they shall be called sons of God. 10 Happy are the persecuted who have been persecuted on account of righteousness, because the 11 Reign of Heaven is theirs. 11 Happy are you when they twit you and persecute you and say everything vile about you falsely on my account; 12 be glad and exult, because your reward is great in heaven, for thus they persecuted the prophets who came before you.

13 "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt loses its strength, with what shall it be salted? it will no longer do for anything but to be thrown out and trodden underfoot by men. 14 You are the light of the world; 15 a city located on a mountaintop cannot be hidden, nor do they light a lamp and put it under the peck measure, but on the stand—and it shines for everybody in the house. 16 Let your light shine thus before men, so that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

17 "Do not suppose that I came to tear down the law or the prophets; I did not come to tear down but to fill up. 18 For I tell you verily, till the heavens and the earth pass away, not the dot of an i nor the cross of a t in the law shall pass away, till everything is done. 19 So whoever breaks one of the pettiest of those commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called petty in the Reign of Heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them shall be called great in the Reign of Heaven. 20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness outdoes the scribes and Pharisees you shall not get into the Reign of Heaven.

21 "You have heard that it was said to the ancients 'You shall not commit murder; and whoever commits murder shall be liable to judgment.' 22 But I tell you that anyone who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment; and whoever says 'Raka' to his brother shall be liable to the Sanhedrin Court; and whoever says 'You fool' shall be liable to the fire of hell. 23 So, if you are offering your gift on the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your gift there before the altar and go and make up with your brother first; then come and offer your gift. 25 Be quick to make friends with your antagonist while you are on the road to court with him, for fear your antagonist should hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you be thrown into prison; 26 I tell you verily, you shall not get out from there till you pay the last copper.

27 "You have heard that it was said 'You shall not commit adultery.' 28 But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman to desire her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 And if your right eye is tripping you up, take it out and throw it from you; for it is well for you that one of your organs should perish and not your whole body be thrown into hell. 30 And if your right hand is tripping you up, cut it away and throw it from you; for it is well for you that one of your organs should perish and not your whole body go to hell.

31 "And it was said 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.' 32 But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on grounds of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

33 "Again, you have heard that it was said to the ancients 'You shall 34 not perjure yourself, but discharge your oaths to the Lord.' 34 But I tell you not to swear at all; neither by heaven, because it is God's 35 throne, nor by the earth, because it, is the footstool of his feet, 35 nor by 36 Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great King. 36 And do not swear by your head either, because you cannot make one hair white or 37 black. 37 But let your language be yes, yes, no, no; anything in excess of this is so much of bad.

38 38 "You have heard that it was said 'an eye for an eye and a tooth 39 for a tooth.' 39 But I tell you not to oppose the bad; but whoever slaps 40 you on your right cheek, turn him the other too, 40 and when a man 41 wants to sue you and get your shirt let him have your cloak too, 41 and 42 go two miles with whoever requisitions you for one. 42 Give to him who asks you, and do not turn your back on him who wants to borrow from you.

43 43 "You have heard that it was said 'you shall love your neighbor and 44 hate your enemy.' 44 But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for 45 your persecutors, 45 so as to act as sons of your Father in heaven, because he makes his sun rise on bad and good, and sends rain on honest 46 men and rascals. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do 47 you have? do not even customhouse officers do the same? 47 and if you salute only your brothers, what are you doing that is special? do not even the heathen do the same?

48 48 "So you are to be thorough as your heavenly Father is thorough.

CHAPTER 6

1 1 But beware of doing your righteousness before men, to be viewed by 2 them; 2 if you do, you have no reward with your Father in heaven. So when you give charity do not have a trumpet blown before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be glorified by men; I tell you verily, they have got their reward.
3 3 But at your giving charity let your left hand not find out what your 4 right is doing, 4 so that your charity may be under cover, and your Father who sees under cover will repay you.

5 5 "And when you pray you are not to be as the hypocrites are; for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and at the corners of 6 the main streets, so that they may be visible to men; I tell you verily, they have got their reward. 6 But do you, when you pray, go into your closet, and shut the door and pray to your Father who is present in hidden places; and your Father who sees in hidden places will reward 7 you. 7 And in praying do not parrot off words like the heathen; for they think they will get themselves listened to by the quantity of 8 what they say. 8 So do not be like them; for your Father knows the 9 things you need before you ask him. 9 Do you, then, pray in this way: 10 10 'Father in heaven, may thy name be kept holy, thy reign come, thy 11 will be done on earth as in heaven; 11 give us today our next day's 12 bread, 12 and forgive us our debts as we too have forgiven our debtors, 13 13 and do not have us fall under temptation but deliver us from evil.'

14 14 For if you forgive men their offenses, your heavenly Father will 15 also forgive you; 15 but if you do not forgive men, no more will your Father forgive your offenses.

16 16 "And when you are fasting do not be lugubrious like the hypocrites; for they make their faces unsightly so that it may be seen by men that 17 they are fasting; I tell you verily, they have got their reward. 17 But 18 do you in fasting put oil on your head and wash your face, 18 so that it may not be seen by men that you are fasting but by your Father who is present in secret places; and your Father who sees in secret places will reward you.

19 19 "Do not lay up stores for yourselves on earth where moth and 20 decay consume, and where thieves break in and steal, 20 but lay up stores for yourselves in heaven where neither moth nor decay consumes 21 and where thieves do not break in nor steal; 21 for where your stores 22 are, there your heart too will be. 22 The lamp of the body is the eye; 23 therefore if your eye is free your whole body will be light, 23 but if your 24 eye is mean your whole body will be dark,—so if the light in you is darkness, what must the darkness be! 24 No one can belong to two masters, for he will either hate the one and love the other or be attentive to the one and despise the other: you cannot belong to God 25 and money. 25 For this reason I tell you, do not fret over your soul what you shall eat or what you shall drink, nor over your body what 26 you shall put on; is not the soul more than the food, and the body than the garment? 26 Look at the birds of the air, that they do not sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and your heavenly Father feeds them; are 27 you not more important than they? 27 and which of you by fretting 28 can add to his height one foot? 28 And why do you fret about dress?
Observe the lilies of the field, how they grow: they do not labor nor 29 spin, 29 but I tell you not even Solomon in all his glory was clad like 30 one of these. 30 But if God robes the plants in the field so, that are there today and are thrown in a firepot tomorrow, will he not much more 31 you, little-faiths? 31 So do not fret and say 'What shall we eat?' or 'What 32 shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wrap ourselves in?' 32 for the foreigners hunt after all this. For your heavenly Father knows that 33 you want all this. 33 But seek first the Reign, and his righteousness, and 34 you will have all this added. 34 So do not fret over tomorrow, for tomorrow will do its own fretting; a day's evil is a sufficiency for that day.

CHAPTER 7

1 2 1 "Do not be judging, that you may not be judged; 2 for the judgments that you pass shall be passed upon you, and the measure that you 3 give shall be given to you. 3 And why is it that you can see the particle of straw in your brother's eye, but do not observe the beam of timber 4 in your own eye? 4 or how will you say to your brother 'Let me get the particle out of your eye,' when in your eye there is the timber?

5 Hypocrite, first get the timber out of your eye, and then you will have good eyesight to get the particle out of your brother's eye.

6 "Do not give sacred things to the dogs, nor throw your pearls before the hogs, for fear they should trample them with their feet and turn and tear you to pieces.

7 "Ask, and you will have things given to you; look, and you will find; knock, and you will be opened to. 8 For every asker receives, and the seeker finds, and the knocker will be opened to. 9 Or what man is there of you that his son will ask for bread and he will hand him a stone?

10 11 Or ask for a fish and he will hand him a snake? 11 So if you, being bad, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

12 "Everything that you want to have men do to you, then, do so yourselves to them; for this is the law and the prophets.

13 "Enter by the narrow gate, because wide and spacious is the road that leads to perdition, and many are they who enter it, 14 because narrow is the gate and contracted the road that leads to life, and few are they who find it. 15 Beware of pretended prophets who come to you in the garb of sheep but are rapacious wolves inside. 16 You will recognize them by their fruits: do people pick grapes from thorns or figs from cockleburs? 17 thus every good tree produces good fruit, but a foul tree produces bad fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor a foul tree good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut out and thrown into a fire. 20 Hence you will recognize them by their fruits. 21 Not everyone who says to me 'Lord, Lord' will get into the Reign of Heaven, but he who does the will of my Father in heaven: 22 many will say to me in that day 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by your name and expel demons by your name and work many miracles by your name?' 23 and then I will avow to them 'I never knew you; begone from me, you that practice wickedness.'

24 "So everyone who hears these words of mine and does them will resemble a sensible man who built his house on the rock; 25 and the rain came down and the rivers ran and the winds blew, and they struck against that house and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock. 26 And everyone that hears these words of mine and does not do them will resemble a foolish man who built his house on the sand; 27 and the rain came down and the rivers ran and the winds blew, and they beat against that house and it fell, and its fall was great."

28 And when Jesus had finished these words the crowds were astonished at his teaching; 29 for he taught them as having authority, and

CHAPTER 8

1 not like their scribes. 1 And when he came down from the mountain great crowds followed him.

2 And lo, a leper approached him and did him reverence, saying

3 "Sir, if you will you can cleanse me." 3 And he reached out his hand and touched him, saying "I will; be cleansed"; and at once his leprosy 4 was cleansed. 4 And Jesus said to him "See that you do not tell anybody, but go show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses directed, for an attestation to them."

5 5 And when he came into Capernaum a centurion approached him, 6 6 appealing to him with the words "Sir, my boy is in the house down 7 with paralysis and suffering frightful tortures." 7 He said to him "I 8 will come and cure him." 8 But the centurion answered "Sir, I am not 9 fit to have you come under my roof, but just say the word and my boy will be healed. 9 For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one 'Go,' and he goes; and to another 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant 'Do this,' and he does it." 10 10 And at hearing it Jesus wondered, and said to those who were following "I tell you verily, I have not found in Israel so much faith 11 shown by anyone. 11 But I tell you many will come from the east and the west and go to the table with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in 12 the Reign of Heaven, 12 but the native sons of the Reign will be put out into the outside darkness; there will the weeping and the 13 grinding of teeth be." 13 And Jesus said to the centurion "Go, have it as you believed"; and the boy was healed at that moment.

14 14 And Jesus came into Peter's house and saw his mother-in-law down 15 with a fever; 15 and he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and 16 she rose and waited on his needs. 16 And when evening was come they brought him many demoniacs; and he expelled the spirits by his 17 word, and cured all that were ill, 17 so that what was said through the prophet Isaiah in the words "He took our sicknesses and carried our diseases" should be fulfilled.

18 18 But Jesus, seeing a crowd around him, gave the word to go off to 19 the other side. 19 And a scribe approached him and said to him "Teacher, 20 I will follow you wherever you go." 20 And Jesus said to him "The foxes have dens and the birds of the air have roosts, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

21 21 And another of his disciples said to him "Sir, permit me first to 22 go and bury my father." 22 But Jesus said to him "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their dead."

23 23 And when he got into the boat his disciples followed him. 24 And lo, there came a great commotion in the sea, so that the boat was being 25 covered by the waves; and he was asleep. 25 And they approached him 26 and roused him, saying "Help, sir! we are lost!" 26 And he said to them
"Why are you timorous, little-faiths?" Then he rose and rebuked 27 the winds and the sea, and there came a great calm. 27 But the men wondered, saying "What a man this is, that even the winds and the sea obey him!"

28 28 And when he came to the other side, to the country of the Gada-renes, there met him two demoniacs coining out of the tombs, exceedingly intractable, so that nobody was able to pass along that 29 road; 29 and lo, they screamed out "What have we to do with you, Son 30 of God? have you come here to torture us before it is time?" 30 And a long way off from them there was a numerous herd of hogs feeding; 31 31 and the demons appealed to him with the request "If you are expelling 32 us, send us into the herd of hogs." And he said to them "Go." 32 And they came out and went into the hogs, and lo, all the herd bolted down 33 the steep bank into the sea, and lost their lives in the water; 33 and the men who were tending them ran away, and went to the city and 34 reported everything, including the part about the demoniacs. 34 And out came all the city to meet Jesus; and when they saw him they

CHAPTER 9

1 appealed to him to pass on away from their territory; 1 and he got into a boat and crossed over and came to his own city.

2 2 And lo, they brought him a paralyzed man lying helpless on a couch.
And Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralyzed man "It is all 3 right, my child, your sins are forgiven." 3 Said some of the scribes 4 to themselves, "This man is blaspheming." 4 And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said "What are you inwardly thinking wicked thoughts for?
5 why, 5 which is easier, to say 'your sins are forgiven' or to say 'rise 6 and walk'? 6 But, that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—then he said to the paralyzed man, "Rise, 7 take up your couch and go home." 7 And he rose and went off to his 8 home. 8 And at this sight the crowds were afraid and glorified God who had given such authority to men.

9 9 And in passing on his way from there Jesus saw sitting in a custom-house office a man known as Matthew, and said to him "Follow me"; 10 and he rose and followed him. 10 And as he was eating a meal in the house, there came to the table with Jesus and his disciples many 11 customhouse officers and people of bad character. 11 And the Pharisees, seeing it, said to his disciples "Why does your teacher eat with the 12 customhouse officers and people of bad character?" 12 But he, hearing 13 it, said "Not the able-bodied, but the ill, need a physician. 13 But go and learn what 'I want pity, and not sacrifice' is; for I have not come to call saints, but sinners."

14 14 Then John's disciples came to him with the words "Why is it that 15 we and the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not?" 15 And Jesus said to them "Can the wedding guests mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but there will come days, when the bridegroom 16 is taken from them, and then they will fast. 16 But nobody puts a patch of unfulled cloth on an old cloak; for the filler takes away 17 some from the cloak, and a worse hole is made. 17 Neither do they put new wine in old skins; if they do, the skins burst, and the wine runs out and the skins are wasted; but they put new wine into fresh skins, and both together are preserved."

18 18 While he was telling them this, lo, a ruler approached him and did 19 him reverence, saying "My daughter is just passing away; but come 20 and lay your hand on her, and she will live." 19 And Jesus and his 21 disciples rose and followed the man. 20 And lo, a woman who had had 22 a flow of blood for twelve years came up behind and touched the 23 tassel of his cloak; 21 for she said to herself, "If I only touch his cloak 24 I shall be made well." 22 But Jesus turned and saw her and said "It 25 is all right, daughter, your faith has made you well." And the woman 26 was well from that moment. 23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's 27 house and saw the flute-players, and the crowd making a commotion, 28 he said "Stand aside, for the girl is not dead but asleep"; 24 and they 29 laughed at him. 25 But when the crowd was put out he went in and 30 grasped her hand, and the girl woke up. 26 And the rumor of this went 31 out to that whole land.

27 27 And as Jesus was passing on his way from there two blind men 28 followed him, crying out "Take pity on us, Son of David." 28 And when 29 he came into the house the blind men came up to him; and Jesus 30 said to them "Do you believe I can do this?" They said to him "Yes, 31 sir." 29 Then he touched their eyes, saying "Have it as you have faith 32 for"; and their eyes were opened. 30 And Jesus said to them sternly 33 "See that nobody finds it out." 31 But they went out and spread the 34 report about him in that whole land.

32 32 And as these were going out, lo, they brought him a dumb man 33 who was demon-ridden; 33 and when the demon was expelled the dumb 34 man spoke. And the crowds wondered, saying "Never was the like 35 seen in Israel"; 34 but the Pharisees said "It is by having the head of the 36 demons that he expels the demons."

35 35 And Jesus went the round of all the cities and villages, teaching in 36 their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the Reign and curing 37 every disease and every ailment. 36 But at seeing the crowds he was 38 sorry for them because they were harassed and homeless like sheep 39 without a shepherd. 37 Then he said to his disciples "The crop to harvest 40 is great, but the workers are few; 38 so beg the owner of the crop to

CHAPTER 10

1 send out workers to his harvest"; 1 and, calling to him his twelve 2 disciples, he gave them authority over unclean spirits to expel them, 3 and to cure every disease and every ailment. 2 And these are the names 4 of the twelve apostles: first Simon known as Peter, and his brother 5 Andrew, and James the son of Zebedee and his brother John, 3 Philip 6 and Bartholomew, Thomas and Matthew the customhouse officer, 7 James the son of Alpheus and Thaddeus, 4 Simon the Kananee and 8 Judas Iscariot—the same who was the agent in his arrest. 5 These 9 twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them thus:

"Do not go off on any route among the nations nor into a city of 6 the Samaritans; 6 go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel, 7 7 and as you go proclaim that the Reign of Heaven is almost here.

8 Cure sick men, raise dead men, cleanse lepers, expel demons. You 9 received gratis, give gratis. 9 Do not get gold nor silver nor copper 10 to take in your belts, 10 no traveling-wallet nor two coats nor shoes nor 11 a walking-stick; for a worker deserves his food. 11 And whatever city or village you come into, find out who in it is deserving, and stay there 12 13 till you come out. 12 And in coming into the house salute it; 13 and if the house is deserving let your peace come upon it, but if it is not de-14 serving let your peace come back to you. 14 And whoever does not receive you nor hear your words, shake out the dust from your feet 15 in coming out from that house or city; 15 I tell you verily, it will be more bearable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.

16 16 "Here I am sending you out like sheep among wolves; so be as 17 cunning as snakes and as innocent as doves. 17 But beware of men; for they will have you arrested and taken into court, and flogged in 18 their synagogues; 18 and you will be brought before governors and kings on my account, for an attestation to them and the nations.
19 19 But when they have you arrested, do not fret over how or what you are to speak; for it will be given to you at that moment what to 20 speak, 20 for it is not you that speak but your Father's Spirit that speaks in you.

21 21 "And a brother will have a brother arrested and put to death, and a father a child; and children will stand up against parents and have 22 them put to death; 22 and you will be hated by all because of my name; 23 but he who holds out to the end, he will come safe through. 23 But when they persecute you in this city flee to the other; for I tell you verily you will not finish the cities of Israel till the Son of Man comes.

24 24 "A pupil is not above his teacher nor a servant above his master.
25 25 It is sufficient for the pupil that he be made like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If they have dubbed the head of the house 26 Beelzebul, how much more will they the rest of his family! 26 So do not fear them. For there is nothing covered that will not be uncovered, 27 or secret that will not be found out. 27 What I tell you in the dark, say in the light; and what you hear whispered in your ear, proclaim on 28 the roofs. 28 And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul, but fear rather him who can destroy both soul and body in 29 hell. 29 Why, sparrows are sold two for a penny, and not one of them 30 will fall to the earth without your Father; 30 but of your heads even the 31 hairs are all counted; 31 so do not fear, you are more important than a 32 great many sparrows. 32 Everyone who shall acknowledge me before men, then, I myself will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; 33 33 but whoever repudiates me before men I myself will repudiate before my Father in heaven.

34 34 "Do not suppose that I came to launch peace on the earth: I did 35 not come to launch peace, but the sword, 35 for I came to put a man in antagonism to his father and a daughter to her mother and a daughter-

36 in-law to her mother-in-law, 36 and the members of a man's family shall 37 be his enemies. 37 He who loves father or mother above me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter above me is not worthy of 38 me; 38 and he who does not take his cross and follow after me is not 39 worthy of me. 39 He who finds his self shall lose it, and he who loses his self on my account shall find it.

40 40 "He who receives you is receiving me, and he who receives me is 41 receiving him who sent me. 41 He who receives a prophet as being a prophet shall get a prophet's reward, and he who receives a saint as 42 being a saint shall get a saint's reward; 42 and anybody who gives one of these little ones just a cup of cold water to drink as being a disciple, I tell you verily, shall not lose his reward."

CHAPTER 11

1 1 And when Jesus had finished giving directions to his twelve disciples he passed on from there to teach and make the proclamation in their cities.

2 2 And John, hearing in his prison the deeds of the Messiah, sent by 3 his disciples 3 and said to him "Are you the Coming One or are we 4 to expect another?" 4 And Jesus answered them "Go and report to 5 John what you hear and see: 5 blind men are recovering their sight and cripples are walking, lepers are being cleansed and deaf men are hearing, and dead men are being raised and poor men are being 6 given the gospel; 6 and happy is anyone who is not staggered over me."

7 7 And while these were on their way Jesus began to say to the crowds about John "What did you go out into the wilderness for? to gaze at 8 reeds shaking in the wind? 8 But what did you go out for? to see a man robed in soft fabrics? for the wearers of soft fabrics, go to kings' 9 houses. 9 But what did you go out for? to see a prophet? Yes, I tell 10 you, and more than a prophet; 10 this is he of whom it is written 'Lo, I am sending before your face my messenger who shall prepare your 11 road before you.' 11 I tell you verily, there has not arisen among all that are born of women a greater than John the Baptist; but the 12 littlest in the Reign of Heaven is greater than he. 12 But from John the Baptist's days till now the Reign of Heaven is being forced and 13 violent men are pouncing on it. 13 For all the prophets and the law 14 prophesied until John's coming; 14 and if you are willing to have it, 15 16 he is the Elijah who was to come; 15 let him who has ears hear! 16 But to what shall I compare this generation? it is like children sitting in 17 the marketplaces, that call out to the others and 17 say 'We played to 18 you and you did not dance, we lamented and you did not wail.' 18 For 19 John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say 'He has a demon'; 19 the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say
'Here is a gormandizer and a drinker, a friend of customhouse officers and people of bad character'; and wisdom is justified by her works." 20 20 Then he began to reproach the cities in which most of his miracles 21 had been done, because they did not repent: 21 "Woe to you, Chorazin!

woe to you, Bethsaida! because if the miracles that have been done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon they would have repented 22 in sackcloth and ashes long ago; 22 I tell you, though, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you.
23 23 And you, Capernaum, are you to be lifted up to heaven? you are to go down to the world of the dead, because if the miracles that have been done in you had been done in Sodom it would have lasted till 24 today; 24 I tell you, though, it will be more bearable for Sodom at the day of judgment than for you."
25 25 At that time Jesus answered "I give thee praise, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise 26 and discerning and disclose them to infants; 26 yes, Father, because 27 such was thy pleasure. 27 Everything has been committed to me by my Father; and no one is acquainted with the Son except the Father, nor is anyone acquainted with the Father except the Son and 28 he to whom the Son chooses to disclose him. 28 Come to me, all you toilers, all who are loaded down, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my 29 yoke upon you, and learn from me, because I am meek and lowly in heart; and you shall find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, 30 and my load light."

CHAPTER 12

1 1 At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the sabbath. And his disciples grew hungry and began to pick ears and eat them; 2 2 and the Pharisees, seeing it, said to him "There, your disciples are 3 doing what it is not lawful to do on a sabbath." 3 But he said to them 4 "Have you not read what David did when he and those who were 5 with him were hungry? 4 how he went into the house of God and they 6 ate the showbread, which it was not allowable for him to eat nor for 7 those who were with him, but only for the priests? 5 or have you not 8 read in the law that on the sabbath the priests in the temple profane 9 the sabbath and are guiltless? 6 but I tell you there is something greater 10 than the temple here. 7 But if you knew what 'I want pity, and not 11 sacrifice' is, you would not have condemned the guiltless; 8 for the 12 Son of Man is master of the sabbath."
9 10 9 And he passed from that place to their synagogue; 10 and lo, there was a man there with a shriveled hand, and they put the question to him "Is it lawful to cure on the sabbath?" that they might arraign 11 him. 11 But he said to them "What man will there be of you that will have one sheep, and if that falls into a pit on the sabbath will not 12 catch hold of it and get it on its feet? 12 How much more important, then, is a man than a sheep! So that it is lawful to do a good turn 13 on the sabbath." 13 Then he said to the man "Stretch out your hand"; and he stretched it out and it was restored, sound like the other.
14 14 But the Pharisees went out and laid a plot against him to make away 15 with him; but Jesus, finding it out, retired from that place. 15 And many 16 followed him, and he cured them all, 16 and told them, preemptorily

17 not to make him known, 17 that what was said through the prophet 18 Isaiah in the words 18 "Here is my servant whom I like well, my dear 19 one in whom my soul takes pleasure; I will put my Spirit upon him, 20 and he shall announce judgment to the nations. 19 He will not wrangle, 20 nor shout, nor will anyone hear his voice on the streets. 20 He will not 21 break a crushed reed, and will not put out smoldering flax, till he 21 brings judgment out to victory; 21 and in his name shall nations hope"
should be fulfilled.

22 22 Then there was brought to him a blind and dumb demoniac; and 23 he cured him, so that the dumb man spoke and saw. 23 And all the 24 crowds were surprised and said "Can it be that this is the Son of 24 David?" 24 But the Pharisees, hearing it, said "It is simply by Beelzebul 25 the head of the demons that this man expels the demons." 25 But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them "Any kingdom divided against 26 itself is laid waste, and any city or family divided against itself will 26 not be kept up; 26 and if Satan is expelling Satan, he is divided against 27 himself—so how shall his kingdom be kept up? 27 And if it is by Beelze-27 bul that I expel the demons, by whom do your sons expel them?
28 accordingly they shall be your judges. 28 But if I expel the demons by 29 the Spirit of God, then the Reign of God has overtaken you. 29 Or how can one enter a strong man's house and carry off his goods unless he 30 first binds the strong man? and then he shall plunder his house. 30 He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with 31 me scatters. 31 Accordingly I tell you, men will be forgiven every sin 32 and blasphemy, but not the blasphemy of the Spirit. 32 And anyone who says a thing against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but one 33 who says it against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven either in this 33 or in the future age. 33 Either make the tree good and its fruit good, 34 or make the tree foul and its fruit foul; for the tree is known by the 34 fruit. 34 Spawn of vipers, how can you be bad and speak good? for what 35 the mouth speaks comes out of what is overflowing in the heart. 35 A good man brings out good things from his good stock, and a bad man 36 brings out bad things from his bad stock. 36 But I tell you, every idle word that men shall speak they shall account for at the day of judg-37 ment; 37 for you shall be acquitted on your own words and condemned on your own words."

38 38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered him "Teacher, we 39 want to see a token from you." 39 But he answered them "A wicked and adulterous generation is in quest of a token, and will be given none 40 but the token of the prophet Jonah. 40 For as Jonah was in the whale's 41 belly three days and three nights, so will the Son of Man be in the 41 heart of the earth three days and three nights. 41 The men of Nineveh shall indict this generation and convict it, because they repented at 42 Jonah's proclamation and now here is more than Jonah. 42 The queen of the south shall indict this generation and convict it, because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon's wisdom, and now

43 here is more than Solomon. 43 But when an unclean spirit comes out of a man it goes through waterless tracts looking for a resting-place, 44 and does not find one; 44 then it says 'I will turn back to my home that I came from,' and when it gets there it finds it unoccupied, swept 45 and put in order; 45 then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits worse than itself, and they go in and live there, and that man's last stage comes to be worse than his first. It will be the same with this wicked generation." 46 46 While he was still speaking to the crowds, his mother and brothers made their appearance, standing outside and wanting to speak to him.
48 48 But he replied to the one who told him of it "Who is my mother, and 49 who are my brothers?" 49 and he stretched out his hand toward his 50 disciples and said "Here are my mother and my brothers; 50 for whoever does the will of my Father in heaven, he is my brother and sister and mother."

CHAPTER 13

1 1 On that day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the seaside; 2 2 and great crowds gathered to him, so that he got into a boat and sat 3 in it, and all the crowd stood on the beach; 3 and he spoke much to them in parables, saying "Once upon a time a sower went out to sow.
4 4 And in his sowing some fell on the roadside, and the birds came and 5 ate it up; 5 and some fell on the rocky ground where it had not much soil, and came up at once because of not having any depth of soil, 6 6 but was scorched when the sun rose, and dried up because of not 7 having roots; 7 and some fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew 8 up and smothered it; 8 and some fell on the good soil and yielded a crop, 9 one grain a hundred and another sixty and another thirty. 9 Let him 10 who has ears hear!" 10 And the disciples approached and said to him 11 "Why do you speak to them in parables?" 11 and he answered "Because it is given to you to know the secrets of the Reign of Heaven, but 12 it is not given to them. 12 For whoever has, more shall be given to him, and he shall have enough and to spare; but whoever has not, even 13 what he has shall be taken from him. 13 This is why I speak to them in parables, because when they see they do not see, and when they hear 14 they do not hear nor understand; 14 and Isaiah's prophecy which says 'Hear you shall, and not understand; and see you shall, and not 15 perceive; 15 for this people's wits are thickened, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have shut, for fear they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their wits, and turn back, and I should heal them' is fulfilled to them.
16 16 But happy are your eyes, because they see, and your ears, because 17 they hear; 17 for I tell you verily that many prophets and saints desired 18 to see what you see and to hear what you hear, and did not. 18 Hear 19 then, you, the parable of the sower. 19 When anyone hears the word of the Reign and does not understand it, the Evil One comes and carries off what has been sowed in his heart; this is the one that was sowed

20 on the roadside. 20 And the one who has sowed on the rocky ground, he is the one who hears the word and at once receives it with joy, 21 yet has no root in him but is temporary, and when there comes distress 22 or persecution because of the word he is staggered at once. 22 And the one who was sowed among the thorns, he is the one who hears the word, and temporal anxieties and the deceits of wealth stifle the 23 word and it becomes unfruitful. 23 And the one who was sowed on the good soil, he is the one who hears and understands the word; who bears his crop, and produces one a hundred and another sixty and another thirty."

24 24 He set before them another parable, saying "The Reign of Heaven resembles a man who sowed good seed in his field; 25 but while men were asleep his enemy came and sowed darnel in among the wheat, and 26 went off. 26 And when the stalks began to ear and made heads, then 27 the darnel too showed itself; 27 and the proprietor's servants came and said to him 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? then how 28 comes it to have darnel?' 28 And he said to them 'An enemy did that.'
And the servants say to him 'Then do you want us to go and pick 29 them out?' 29 But he says to them 'No, for fear that in picking out the 30 darnel you should pull up the wheat along with it. 30 Leave both to grow together till harvest; and at harvesttime I will tell the harvesters
"Pull out the darnel first and tie it in bundles to burn, but gather the wheat into my barn.'"

31 31 He set before them another parable, saying "The Reign of Heaven is like a grain of mustard which a man took and sowed in his field; 32 which is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it grows it is the largest of the plants and becomes a tree so that the birds of the air come and perch in its branches."

33 33 He spoke to them another parable: "The Reign of Heaven is like a bit of yeast which a woman took and buried in forty quarts of flour till it all grew yeasty."

34 34 All this Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables, and spoke nothing 35 to them without parable, 35 so that what was said through the prophet in the words "I will open my mouth in parables, I will emit things hidden since the foundation of the world" should be fulfilled.

36 36 Then he left the crowds and came into the house; and his disciples approached him, saying "Explain the parable of the darnel in the 37 field to us." 37 And he answered "The one who sowed the good seed is 38 the Son of Man; and the field is the world; 38 and the good seed, that 39 is the men of the Reign, and the darnel is the men of evil; 39 and the enemy that sowed it is the devil; and the harvest is the final time, and 40 the harvesters are angels. 40 As darnel, then, is picked out and burned 41 up, so it will be at the final time: 41 the Son of Man will send out his angels and they will pick out from his kingdom all snares that trip 42 people up, and men that do wickedness, 42 and throw them into the furnace of fire; there will the weeping and the grinding of teeth be.

43 43 Then will the righteous shine out like the sun in their Father's reign.
Let him who has ears hear!

44 44 "The Reign of Heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man has found and hid, and in his gladness he goes and sells all he has and buys that field.

45 45 "Again, the Reign of Heaven is like a merchant who is looking for 46 fine pearls, 46 and, having found one very valuable pearl, has gone and sold everything he had and bought it.

47 47 "Again, the Reign of Heaven is like a seine that is thrown into the 48 sea and gathers all sorts, 48 and when it is filled they draw it up on the beach and sit down and sort the good into tubs, but throw out 49 the foul. 49 So it will be at the final time: the angels will go out and 50 separate the wicked from among the righteous 50 and throw them into the furnace of fire; there will the weeping and the grinding of teeth be.

51 51 "Have you understood all this?"

They said to him "Yes."

52 52 And he said to them "Accordingly, every scribe who has become a disciple of the Reign of Heaven is like a householder who draws out from his stock new things and old things."

53 53 And when Jesus had finished these parables he took his departure 54 from that place; 54 and he came to his hometown and taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said "Where does 55 this man get this wisdom and these miracles? 55 why, this is the carpenter's son, his mother is named Mary and his brothers James and 56 Joseph and Simon and Judah, 56 and his sisters are all of them among 57 us—so where does this man get all this?" 57 and they were staggered at him. But Jesus said to them "A prophet is not unhonored anywhere 58 but in his hometown and in his house"; 58 and he did not do many miracles there because of their unbelievings.

CHAPTER 14

1 1 At that time the tetrarch Herod heard the report about Jesus, 2 2 and said to his servants "This is John the Baptist; he has risen from 3 the dead, and that is why the powers are operating in him." 3 For Herod had seized John and put him in chains and put him away in 4 prison on account of Herodias his brother Philip's wife; 4 for John used 5 to tell him "It is not lawful for you to have her"; 5 and, while he wished to kill him, he was afraid of the people, because they regarded him 6 as a prophet. 6 But when Herod's birthday came Herodias's daughter 7 danced before the company, and pleased Herod, 7 whereat he pledged 8 himself with an oath to give her anything she asked for; 8 but she, prompted by her mother, said "Give me here on a platter John the 9 Baptist's head." 9 And the king, though it grieved him, ordered it given to her because of the oaths and of those who were with him 10 11 at the table; 10 and he sent and beheaded John in the prison, 11 and his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought 12 it to her mother; 12 and his disciples went to his corpse and took it up and buried it, and came and reported the matter to Jesus.

13 13 And at hearing it Jesus retired in a boat from there to a lonely place by himself; and the crowds heard of it and followed him by land 14 from the cities, 14 and upon landing he saw a great crowd and had 15 pity on them and cured their sick. 15 But when evening came his disciples approached him saying "The place is lonely and the hour is now advanced; so dismiss the crowds, that they may go to the villages and buy themselves eatables." 16 But Jesus said to them "They need not go; give them something to eat yourselves." 17 And they said to him 18 "We have nothing here but five cakes of bread and two fishes." 18 But 19 he said "Bring me them here"; 19 and, bidding the crowd to take their places on the grass, he took the five cakes and the two fishes and looked up to the sky and pronounced the blessing, and broke the cakes and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowd, 20 and they all ate and had their fill; 20 and they took up what was left over of fragments, twelve full baskets,— 21 and it was about five thousand 22 men, apart from women and children, that ate. 22 And at once he made the disciples get into the boat and go to the other side ahead of him while he dismissed the crowds.

23 23 And when he had dismissed the crowds he went up on the mountain-side by himself to pray. And when evening came he was there alone; 24 24 but the boat was now two or three miles away from the land, having a hard time with the waves, for the wind was contrary. 25 But in the fourth watch of the night he came toward them walking on the sea. 26 And the disciples, seeing him walking on the sea, were alarmed, saying 27 "It is an apparition," and screamed with fear. 27 But at once Jesus spoke to them, saying "All right, it is I, do not be afraid." 28 And Peter answered him "Sir, if it is you, bid me come to you on the water." 29 And he said "Come"; and Peter, stepping out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. 30 But when he saw the wind he was 31 frightened, and, beginning to sink, cried out "Master, help!" 31 And at once Jesus reached out his hand and took hold of him, and said to him "Little-faith, what did you get uncertain for?" 32 and when they 33 stepped into the boat the wind lulled. 33 And those who were in the boat did him reverence, saying "You certainly are the Son of God."

34 34 And when they got across they came to land in Gennesaret; 35 and upon recognizing him the men of that place sent to all that region and brought to him all who were ill, 36 and appealed to him that they might just touch the tassel of his cloak; and as many as touched it were made well.

CHAPTER 15

1 1 Then scribes and Pharisees from Jerusalem approached Jesus 2 saying 2 "Why do your disciples violate the tradition of the elders? 3 for they do not wash their hands when they eat bread." 3 And he answered them "Why do you too violate the commandment of God be-

4 cause of your tradition? 4 for God said 'Honor your father and mother' and 'Let him who uses bad language to his father or mother suffer 5 death'; 5 but you say 'Whoever says to his father or mother "Whatever 6 you get any good of from me is dedicated" 6 shall not honor his father or his mother'; and you have nullified God's word because of your 7 8 tradition. 7 Hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, 8 'This people 9 honors me with the lips, but their hearts are remote from me; 9 and they adore me vainly, inculcating teachings that are commands of 10 men.'" 10 And he called the crowd to him and said to them "Listen and 11 understand: 11 it is not what comes into the mouth that defiles the man, 12 it is just what goes out of the mouth that defiles the man." 12 Then the disciples came to him and said "Do you know that the Pharisees 13 were staggered when they heard the saying?" 13 And he answered "Every plantation that my Heavenly Father did not set out shall be uprooted.
14 14 Let them be: they are blind guides of blind men, and if a blind man 15 is guiding a blind man they will both fall into a pit." 15 But Peter 16 answered him, "Expound the parable to us." 16 And he said "Are you, 17 too, still unable to see a point? 17 do you not see that anything that goes into the mouth passes into the stomach and is discharged into 18 a latrine? 18 but what goes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and 19 these defile the man. 19 For from the heart come evil designs, murders, adulteries, unchastities, thefts, false testimonies, abusive language: 20 these things are what defile the man; 20 but eating with unwashed hands does not."

21 21 And Jesus went out from there and withdrew to the parts about 22 Tyre and Sidon. 22 And lo, a Canaanite woman had come out of that territory and was screaming "Son of David, sir, take pity on me; my 23 daughter is grievously demon-ridden"; 23 but he made no answer to her.
And his disciples approached him and asked him "Send her off, for 24 she is screaming after us"; 24 but he answered "I was not sent to any 25 but the lost sheep of the house of Israel." 25 And she came and did him 26 reverence, saying "Help me, sir"; 26 but he answered "It is not a good 27 thing to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." 27 But she said "Yes, sir—for the dogs eat of the crumbs that fall from their 28 masters' table." 28 Then Jesus answered her "Woman, great is your faith; have it as you will." And her daughter was healed from that moment.

29 29 And Jesus passed from there to the Sea of Galilee, and went up on 30 the mountainside and sat there; 30 and there came to him great crowds having with them cripples, mutilated men, blind men, dumb men, and many others, and threw them down at his feet; and he cured 31 them, 31 so that the crowd wondered at seeing dumb men speaking, mutilated men sound, and cripples walking and blind men seeing, 32 and glorified the God of Israel. 32 But Jesus called his disciples to him and said "I feel for the crowd, because it is now three days they have been staying with me and not had anything to eat; and I do not want to dismiss them fasting, for fear they should grow faint 33 on the road." 33 And the disciples said to him "Where are we to get so 34 much bread in the wilderness as to give such a crowd their fill!" 34 and Jesus said to them "How much bread have you?" and they said 35 "Seven cakes, and a few little fish." 35 And he instructed the crowd 36 to take their places on the ground, 36 and took the seven cakes and the 36 fishes, and gave thanks and broke them and gave them to the disciples, 37 and the disciples to the crowds, 37 and they all ate and had their fill; 37 and they took up what was left over of fragments, seven full 38 hampers—38 and it was four thousand men, apart from women and 39 children, that ate. 39 And he dismissed the crowds and got into the boat and came to the territory of Magadan.

CHAPTER 16

1 1 And the Pharisees and Sadducees came to him and, as a test chal-2 lenged him to show them a token from heaven; 2 but he answered them 4 4 "A wicked and adulterous generation is in quest of a token, and will be given none but the token of Jonah"; and he left them and went 5 away. 5 And the disciples failed to take bread when they came to the 6 other side; 6 and Jesus said to them "See that you beware of Pharisee 7 and Sadducee yeast." 7 And they questioned among themselves, saying 8 "We did not take bread." 8 But Jesus, finding it out, said "Why are you questioning among yourselves, little-faiths, because you have not 9 bread? 9 do you not yet see the point, nor remember the five cakes 10 of bread for the five thousand and how many baskets you got? 10 nor the seven cakes for the four thousand and how many hampers you got?
11 how is it you do not see that I did not speak to you of bread? but 12 beware of Pharisee and Sadducee yeast." 12 Then they understood that he had not been telling them to beware of yeast of bread, but of Pharisee and Sadducee teaching.

13 13 And Jesus came into the parts about Caesarea Philippi, and there 14 he asked his disciples "Who do people say the Son of Man is?" 14 and they said "Some John the Baptist, and others Elijah; and others 15 Jeremiah or one of the prophets." 15 Said he to them, "And who do you 16 say I am?" 16 and Simon Peter answered "You are the Messiah, the 17 son of the living God." 17 And Jesus answered him "Happy are you, Simon Bar-Jonah; because it was not flesh and blood that disclosed 18 it to you, but my Father in heaven. 18 And I tell you, you are Peter" [in English, "you are a Rock"], "and on this rock I will build my 19 church; and the gates of the realm of death shall not prevail against it. 19 I will give you the keys of the Reign of Heaven, and what you 20 declare unlawful on earth shall be declared unlawful in heaven, and what you declare lawful on earth shall be declared lawful in heaven."

21 21 Thenceforth Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer a great deal from the elders and chief priests

22 and scribes and be killed, and rise on the third day. 22 And Peter took him in hand and began to rebuke him, saying "Away with the thought, 23 sir; this shall not happen to you." 23 But he turned and said to Peter "Go behind me, Satan; you are my snare, because you do not have God's ideas but men's."
24 24 Then Jesus said to his disciples "If anyone wishes to come after me, let him disown himself and take up his cross and follow me. 25 For whoever wishes to save his self will lose it, but whoever loses his self on my account will find it. 26 For what good will a man get if he makes a profit of the whole world and a loss of his self? or what shall a man give as an equivalent for his self? 27 For the Son of Man is to come in his Father's glory with his angels, and will then repay each one according to his actions. 28 I tell you verily there are some of those who stand here who shall not taste death till they see the Son of Man coming in his royal reign."

CHAPTER 17

1 And after six days Jesus took Peter and James and his brother John and brought them up on the side of a high mountain by themselves, and was transfigured before them; 2 and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light. 3 And lo, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with him. 4 But Peter answered by saying to Jesus "Sir, it is a good thing we are here: if you wish, I will make three booths here, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah." 5 While he was still speaking, lo, a luminous cloud overshadowed them; and lo, out of the cloud there was a voice saying 6 "This is my dear son in whom I take pleasure; listen to him"; 6 and at hearing it the disciples threw themselves down on their faces and were greatly afraid. 7 And Jesus came up to them and touched them and said "Rise, and do not be afraid"; 8 and, raising their eyes, they saw nobody but only Jesus himself.

9 9 And as they were coming down from the mountain Jesus gave them the injunction "Do not tell the vision to anybody till the Son of Man has risen from the dead." 10 And his disciples put the question to him 11 "Why is it, then, that the scribes say Elijah must come first?" 11 and he answered "O, Elijah is to come and restore everything; 12 but I tell you Elijah has come already, and they did not recognize him but did with him whatever they wished; so will the Son of Man too suffer at their hands." 13 Then the disciples understood that he had been speaking to them of John the Baptist.

14 14 And when they got to the crowd a man came up to him kneeling to him and saying 15 "Sir, take pity on my son, because he has the epilepsy and is in a bad way; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water; 16 and I brought him to your disciples and they could not cure him." 17 And Jesus answered "O unbelieving and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? 18 Bring him here for me." 18 And Jesus gave him a peremptory order,

19 and the demon came out of him, and the boy was cured from that 20 moment. 19 Then the disciples approached Jesus when they were by 21 themselves and said "Why was it we could not expel it?" 20 And he said 22 to them "Because of your little faith; for I tell you verily, if you 23 have faith like a grain of mustard seed you will say to this mountain 'Pass from here to there' and it will; and nothing will be impossible to you."

22 And as a body of them were getting together in Galilee, Jesus said to them "The Son of Man is to be given over into the hands of men, 23 and they will kill him, and the third day he will rise"; 23 and they took it very hard.

24 And upon their coming to Capernaum the men who took the half-shekels came to Peter and said "Does your teacher not pay half-shekels?" 25 He said "Yes." And when he came into the house Jesus spoke first to him, saying "What do you think, Simon? from whom do the kings of the earth take duties or poll-tax, from their sons or from 26 strangers?" 26 And when he said "From strangers," Jesus said to him 27 "Hence the sons are free. 27 But in order that we may not stagger them, go to the sea and throw in a hook; and take the first fish that comes up, and by opening its mouth you will find a shekel. Take that and give it to them for me and you."

CHAPTER 18

1 1 At that same time the disciples came to Jesus, saying "Who then 2 is greatest in the Reign of Heaven?" 2 And he called a child to 3 him and set it in the middle among them, 3 and said "I tell you verily, if you do not turn and become like the children you shall not get 4 into the Reign of Heaven. 4 So whoever makes himself small like this 5 child, he is greatest in the Reign of Heaven. 5 And anybody who re-6 ceives one such child in my name is receiving me; 6 but anybody who trips up one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be well 7 for him that an ass-power millstone should be hung around his neck and that he should be sunk in the sea far from land. 7 Woe to the 8 world for trippings-up! for the trippings-up have to come, yet woe to the man through whom the tripping-up comes. 8 And if your hand or your foot is tripping you up, cut it away and throw it from you; it is a better thing for you to pass into life one-armed or a cripple than to be thrown into the eternal fire with two hands or two feet.
9 9 And if your eye is tripping you up, take it out and throw it from you; it is a better thing for you to pass into life one-eyed than to be thrown into the hell of fire with two eyes.

10 10 "See that you do not despise one of these little ones; for I tell you that in heaven their angels continually see the face of my Father in 12 heaven. 12 What do you think? if some man has a hundred sheep and one of them strays, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains 13 and go looking for the stray? 13 and if he does find it, I tell you verily 14 he is gladder of it than of the ninety-nine that did not stray. 14 Just so it is no will of my Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.

15 15 "But if your brother sins, go bring it home to him between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother.
16 16 But if he does not listen, take with you one or two more, so that every point may be established at the mouth of two or three witnesses; 17 and if he disregards their words, tell the church; 17 and if he disregards the words of the church too, let him be to you as the heathen and the 18 customhouse officer are. 18 I tell you verily, such things as you declare unlawful on earth shall be declared unlawful in heaven, and such things as you declare lawful on earth shall be declared lawful in 19 heaven. 19 Again, I tell you verily that if on earth two of you agree about anything that they ask for, they shall have it from my Father 20 in heaven. 20 For where two or three are met in my name, there am I among them."

21 21 Then Peter came to him and said to him "Sir, how many times shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him? up to seven times?" 22 22 Jesus said to him "I do not tell you 'up to seven times,' but up to 23 seventy-seven times. 23 For this reason the Reign of Heaven resembles 24 a king who wanted to have an accounting with his servants; 24 and when he began his accounting there was one brought to him who was 25 debtor to the amount of ten thousand talents; 25 and, he not being able to pay, his master gave orders that he be sold, and his wife and his children and everything that he had, and that payment be made.
26 26 So the servant threw himself down and did him reverence, saying 27 'Have patience with me and I will pay you everything.' 27 And that servant's master was moved to pity, and set him at liberty and re-28 leased him from the loan. 28 But when that servant went out he found one of his fellow-servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and he took hold of him and went to choking him, saying 'Pay whatever 29 you owe.' 29 So his fellow-servant threw himself down and appealed to 30 him, saying 'Have patience with me and I will pay you'; 30 but he would not, but went off and threw him into prison till he should pay what 31 was due. 31 So when his fellow-servants saw what happened they were greatly grieved, and came and informed their master of all that had 32 happened. 32 Then his master called him to him and said to him 'You villain, I released you from all that debt, since you had appealed to 33 me; 33 ought not you too to have taken pity on your fellow-servant the 34 same as I did on you?' 34 and in anger his master handed him over to 35 the torturers till he should pay all that was due him. 35 So will my heavenly Father also do to you if you do not each forgive your brother from your heart."

CHAPTER 19

1 1 And when Jesus had finished these words he took his departure from Galilee and came into the Jewish territory on the other side 2 of the Jordan; 2 and great crowds followed him, and he cured them

3 there. 3 And Pharisees approached him to put him to a test, saying "is 4 it lawful to divorce one's wife on every ground?" 4 And he answered 5 "Have you not read that their Creator made them male and female 6 from the first 5 and said 'On this account a man shall leave his father 7 and mother and form a connection with his wife, and the two shall 8 become one flesh'? so that they are no longer two but one flesh. 6 So 9 let not a man part what God has joined." 7 They said to him "Then 10 why did Moses command that one should give her a certificate of 11 separation and divorce her?" 8 He said to them "Because in view of 12 your obduracy Moses did permit you to divorce your wives; but from 13 the first it has not been so. 9 But I tell you that whoever divorces his 14 wife, not for unchastity, and marries another, commits adultery."

10 The disciples said to him "If a man's predicament with his wife 11 is like that, it is not well to marry." 11 But he said to them "Not all 12 can live up to those words, but they to whom it is given. 12 For there 13 are eunuchs who were originally born so, and there are eunuchs who 14 were made such by men, and there are eunuchs who have made them-15 selves such on account of the Reign of Heaven. Let him live up to it 16 who can."

13 Then there were brought to him children to have him lay his hands 14 on them and pray; but the disciples rebuked them. 14 But Jesus said 15 "Let the children alone, and do not interfere with their coming to me, 16 for to such belongs the Reign of Heaven." 15 And he laid his hands on 17 them, and went on his way.

16 And there came one to him and said "Teacher, what good thing 17 shall I do to have eternal life?" 17 And he said to him "Why do you ask 18 me about the good? One is the Good. But if you want to pass into 19 life, keep the commandments." 18 He said to him "Which?" And Jesus 20 said "'You shall not murder,' 'You shall not commit adultery,' 'You 21 shall not steal,' 'You shall not give false testimony,' 19 'Honor your 22 father and mother,' and 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'"

20 The young man said to him "I have kept all these; what am I still 21 deficient in?" 21 Jesus said to him "If you want to be thorough, go; sell 22 everything you have and give the money to poor men, and you shall 23 have a fund laid by in heaven; and come and follow me." 22 But at 24 hearing the words the young man went away grieving; for he owned 25 great possessions.

23 And Jesus said to his disciples "I tell you verily that a rich man 24 will have hard work to get into the Reign of Heaven. 24 And I tell you 25 again: it is easier for a camel to get through the eye of a needle than 26 for a rich man to get into the Reign of God." 25 And at hearing it the 27 disciples showed great astonishment, saying "Then who can be saved?"

26 but Jesus looked at them and said "With men this is impossible, but 27 with God everything is possible." 27 Then Peter answered him "We here 28 did leave everything and followed you; then what shall we have?"

28 And Jesus said to them "I tell you verily that you who have followed me shall at the rebirth, when the Son of Man sits on his throne of glory, sit on twelve thrones yourselves, judging the twelve tribes of Israel; 29 and everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands on account of my name shall 30 receive many times as much, and shall inherit eternal life. 30 But many of the first will be last, and of the last first.

CHAPTER 20

1 1 "For the Reign of Heaven is like a proprietor who went out at six 2 in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. 2 And he agreed with 3 the laborers on a denarius a day and sent them to his vineyard. 3 And 4 he went out at about nine o'clock and saw others standing idle in the 5 marketplace, 4 and said to those 'Go to the vineyard too, and I will 6 give you what is right'; and they went. 5 And he went out again about 7 twelve and three o'clock and did the same way. 6 And about five o'clock 8 he went out and found others standing there, and said to them 'Why 9 are you standing idle here all day?' 7 They said to him 'Because no 10 body has hired us.' He said to them 'Go to the vineyard too.' 8 And 11 when evening came the owner of the vineyard said to his superinten-12 dent 'Call the laborers and pay the wages, beginning with the last 13 and going on to the first.' 9 And the five o'clock ones came and got a 14 denarius each; 10 and the first came and supposed they would get more, 15 and they too got the denarius each. 11 And when they got it they grum-16 bled at the proprietor, 12 saying 'These last did one hour, and you made 13 them equal to us that bore the weight of the day and the scorching 14 wind.' 13 But he answered one of them 'Comrade, I am not wronging 15 you: did you not agree with me for a denarius? 14 take up your money 16 and go, but I choose to give the same to this last one as to you.
15 Is it not my right to do what I choose with my own things? or do you 16 grudge because I am liberal?' 16 Thus the last shall be first and tie first last."

17 17 And when Jesus was about to go up to Jerusalem he took the 18 twelve with him by themselves, and said to them on the road 18 "Here 19 we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of Man will be put into 20 the hands of the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him 21 to death 19 and hand him over to the foreigners to outrage and flog and 22 crucify, and on the third day he will rise."

23 20 Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons, 24 doing him reverence and asking something of him. 21 And he said to 25 her "What do you want?" Said she to him, "Say that these two sons of 26 mine shall sit one on your right and one on your left in your reign." 27 22 But Jesus answered "You do not know what you are asking for. Can 28 you drink the cup that I am going to drink?" Said they to him, "We 29 can." 23 Said he to them, "Drink my cup you shall; but as to sitting on 30 my right and on my left, this is not mine to give, but belongs to those for whom it has been prepared by my Father."

24 24 And at hearing of it the ten were offended with the two brothers;

25 25 but Jesus called them to him and said "You know that the rulers 26 of the nations lord it over them and their great men domineer over 27 them. 26 It is not so among you, but anyone who wishes to be great 28 among you shall be your serving-man, 27 and anyone who wishes to 29 be first among you shall be your slave, 28 just as the Son of Man did 30 not come to be waited on but to wait on the needs of others, and to 31 give his life as ransom for many."
32 29 And as they were going out of Jericho a great crowd followed 33 him; 30 and lo, two blind men sitting by the roadside, hearing that 34 Jesus was passing by, cried out "Son of David, sir, take pity on us!" 35 but the crowd rebuked them, telling them to be still. 31 But they cried 36 out louder "Son of David, sir, take pity on us!" 32 And Jesus stopped 37 and called them and said "What do you want me to do for you?" 38 33 Said they to him, "Sir, for our eyes to be opened." 34 And Jesus was 39 moved with pity and touched their eyes; and at once they recovered 40 their sight, and followed him.

CHAPTER 21

1 1 And when they drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethany on 2 the slope of the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, 2 saying 3 to them "Go to the village opposite you, and at once you will find an 4 ass hitched and a colt with it; unhitch them and bring them to me.
5 3 And if anyone says anything to you, you are to say 'The Lord needs 6 them,' and he will send them at once. 4 And this has come to pass in 7 order that what was said through the prophet in the words 5 'Say to 8 the daughter of Zion "Here is your king coming to you, meek, and 9 mounted on an ass, and on a colt an ass's foal"' should be fulfilled." 10 6 And the disciples went and did as Jesus directed them 7 and brought 11 the ass and the colt; and they laid their cloaks on them, and he took 12 his seat upon them; 8 and the great crowd spread their cloaks in the 13 road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading 14 them in the road. 9 And the crowds that went ahead of him and that 15 followed were crying out "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is 16 he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna on high!" 10 And when 17 he came into Jerusalem all the city was shaken, saying "Who is this?" 18 11 and the crowds said "This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in 19 Galilee." 20 12 And Jesus went into the temple-precinct and turned out all those 21 who were buying and selling in the precinct, and threw down the 22 money-changers' tables and the pigeon-sellers' seats, 13 and said to 23 them "It is written 'My house shall be called a house of prayer,' but 24 you are making it a robbers' cave." 14 And blind and lame men ap-25 proached him in the precinct, and he cured them. 15 But at seeing the 26 marvels that he did, and the children shouting "Hosanna to the Son 27 of David" in the temple-precinct, the chief priests and the scribes 28 took offense 16 and said to him "Do you hear what these are saying?" 29 And Jesus said to them "Yes; did you never read 'Out of the mouths of infants, and of babies at the breast, thou hast instituted praise?"

17 17 And he left them, and went out of the city to Bethany and spent the night there.

18 18 And in the morning, as he was on his way back to the city, he grew 19 hungry; 19 and, seeing a single fig-tree by the roadside, he went to it, and found nothing on it but only leaves, and said to it "Never again shall there be any fruit from you"; and the fig-tree withered immediately. 20 And at seeing it the disciples wondered, saying "How was it that immediately the fig-tree withered?" 21 But Jesus answered them "I tell you verily, if you have faith and do not doubt you will not only do this of the fig-tree, but even if you say to this mountain 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea' it will be done; 22 and everything that you ask for in prayer, believing, you will receive."

23 23 And after he had come into the temple-precinct the chief priests and the elders of the people approached him as he was teaching and said "By what authority are you doing these things? and who gave you this authority?" 24 But Jesus answered them "I will ask you one thing myself, and if you tell me that, so will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things. 25 Where was John's baptizing from? from heaven or from men?" And they went over the question to themselves, thinking "If we say 'From heaven' he will say to us 'Then why did you not believe him?' 26 but if we say 'From men' we are afraid of the populace, for they all look on John as a prophet." 27 And they answered Jesus "We do not know." Said he in turn to them, "And neither do I tell you by what authority I am doing these things. 28 28 But what do you think? A man had two children. He went to the first and said 'My child, go today and work in the vineyard'; 29 but he answered 'I'll be there, sir' and did not go. 30 And he went to the second and said the same; but he answered 'I don't want to.' Afterward he changed his mind and went. 31 Which of the two did what his father would have him?" They said "The last." Said Jesus to them, "I tell you verily that the customhouse officers and the prostitutes are passing into the Reign of God ahead of you. 32 For John came to you along the road to right living and you did not believe him, but the customhouse officers and prostitutes did; and you, when you saw it, did not even afterward change your mind and believe him.

33 33 "Listen to another parable. There was a proprietor who set out a vineyard, and put a fence round it and dug a winepress in it and built a tower, and rented it to farmers and went abroad. 34 And when the season for the crop drew near he sent his servants to the farmers to receive his crop; 35 and the farmers took his servants and beat this one and killed that and stoned that. 36 Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first; and they did the same way with them. 37 But afterward he sent his son to them, thinking 'They will have some respect for my son.' 38 But the farmers, when they saw the son, said to themselves 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and have his in-

39 heritage'; 39 and they took him and threw him out of the vineyard 40 and killed him. 40 Then when the owner of the vineyard comes what will he do with those farmers!"

41 41 They said to him "He will kill them off like the rascals they are, and rent the vineyard to other farmers who will deliver him the crops in their seasons."

42 42 Said Jesus to them "Did you never read in the Scriptures 'The stone that the builders condemned, that stone has come to be the top of the corner: this was from the Lord, and is wonderful in our eyes'?"

43 43 I tell you accordingly, the Reign of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation that produces its fruits."

45 45 And the chief priests and the Pharisees, hearing his parables, knew 46 that he was speaking about them; 46 and they tried to seize him but were afraid of the crowds, since they looked upon him as a prophet.

CHAPTER 22

1 2 1 And Jesus again answered them in parables, saying 2 "The Reign of 3 Heaven resembles a king who made a wedding-feast for his son, 3 and sent his servants to call those who had been invited to the feast, and 4 they would not come. 4 Again he sent other servants, saying "Tell those who are invited, "Here I have prepared my lunch, my steers and 5 my fatlings are killed and everything is ready; come to the wedding-6 feast.'" 5 And they paid no attention, but went off, one to his field 6 and another to his trading, 6 and the rest seized his servants and mal-7 treated them and killed them. 7 And the king was angry, and sent his 8 troops and destroyed those murderers and burned their city; 8 then he said to his servants "The wedding-feast is ready, but those who were 9 invited were not worthy; 9 so go to the crossroads and call to the 10 wedding-feast as many as you find.' 10 And those servants went out on the roads and gathered everybody that they found, bad and good, 11 and the wedding-hall was filled with feasters. 11 But the king came in to view the feasters, and saw there a man who did not have on a wedding 12 garment, 12 and said to him 'Comrade, how is it you have come in here 13 without a wedding garment?' and he was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the attendants 'Tie him hand and foot and put him out into the outer darkness.' There will the weeping and the grinding of teeth 14 be. 14 For there are many that are called but few that are chosen."

15 15 Then the Pharisees went and laid a plot for entrapping him in 16 talk; 16 and they sent him their disciples with the Herodians to say "Teacher, we know that you are truthful and teach the way of God in truth, and care for nobody, for you do not look at men's faces; 17 17 so tell us what you think: is paying taxes to Caesar lawful or not?" 18 18 But Jesus, discovering their rascality, said "Why are you trying tricks 19 on me, you hypocrites? show me the coin for the taxes." 19 And they 20 brought him a denarius. 20 And he said to them ""Whose is this portrait 21 and this inscription?" They say "Caesar's." 21 Then he said to them

22 "Then pay what is Caesar's to Caesar and what is God's to God." 22 And at hearing it they wondered, and left him and went away.
 23 On that day Sadducees (people who say there is no such thing as 24 a resurrection) approached him and put the question to him 24 "Teacher, Moses said 'If one dies without children, his brother shall marry his 25 widow and set up a posterity for his brother.' 25 But among us there were seven brothers, and the first married and passed away, and, not 26 having issue, left his wife to his brother; 26 and similarly the second 27 and the third, and so on down to the seventh. 27 And last of all the 28 woman died. 28 So at the resurrection which of the seven will she be 29 the wife of? for all of them had her." 29 But Jesus answered them "You 30 go wrong by not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God: 30 for in the resurrection they do not marry but are like angels in heaven.
 31 But as to the resurrection of the dead have you not read what was 32 said to you by God in the words 32 'I am the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob'? He is not the God of dead men but of living 33 men." 33 And upon hearing it the crowds were astonished at his teaching.
 34 But, hearing that he had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees 35 gathered together, 35 and one of them, a lawyer, put the question to 36 him to test him, 36 "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the 37 law?" 37 And he said to him "'You shall love the Lord your God with 38 all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind,' 38 this 39 is the greatest commandment, the first. 39 A second like it is this, 'You 40 shall love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 On these two commandments hangs all the law and the prophets." 41 And while the Pharisees were gathered Jesus put the question to 42 them 42 "What do you think about the Messiah? whose son is he to be?"
 43 They said to him "David's." 43 He said to them "How is it then that 44 David in the Spirit calls him lord, in the words 44 'The Lord said to my lord "Sit at my right hand till I put your enemies underneath 45 your feet"'? 45 if then David calls him lord, how is he to be his son?" 46 And nobody could give him any answer, and from that day on no one any longer dared to put any question to him.

CHAPTER 23

1 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and his disciples, saying 2 "The 3 scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses's seat; 3 so do and observe everything that they tell you; but do not imitate their deeds, for they say 4 things and do not do them. 4 And they pack heavy loads and lay them on men's shoulders, but will not move them with a finger themselves.
 5 And all their moral acts they do with an eye to being viewed by men; for they make their phylacteries broad and their tassels long.
 6 And they are fond of the first place at dinners and the first seats in 7 synagogues, 7 and greetings in the marketplaces, and being called 8 'Rabbi' by men. 8 But do not you be called 'Rabbi,' for one is your 9 teacher and you are all of you brothers; 9 and do not call one your 10 father on earth, for one, the heavenly, is your Father. 10 And do not 11 be called spiritual directors either; for one, the Messiah, is your 12 spiritual director. 11 But the greatest one of you shall be serving-man 13 to you. 12 And whoever shall lift himself up will be put down, and 14 whoever shall put himself down will be lifted up.

13 "But woe to you, hypocrite scribes and Pharisees, because you lock 14 the Reign of Heaven in men's faces; for you do not go in yourselves 15 and neither do you let those go in who are going in. 15 Woe to you, 16 hypocrite scribes and Pharisees, because you go the rounds of the 17 sea and the land to make one proselyte, and when you get him you 18 make him more of a candidate for hell twice over than you are your-19 selves. 16 Woe to you, blind guides that say 'If anyone swears by the 20 temple it is nothing, but if anyone swears by the gold of the temple 21 he is bound'— 17 foolish and blind men! for which is greater, the gold 22 or the temple that made the gold sacred? 18 and 'If anyone swears by 23 the altar it is nothing, but if anyone swears by the gift upon it he 24 is bound'— 19 blind! for which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes 25 the gift sacred? 20 He who swears by the altar, then, is swearing by it 26 and by everything upon it; 21 and he who swears by the temple is 27 swearing by it and by him who lives in it; 22 and he who swears by 28 heaven is swearing by God's throne and by him who sits upon it.
23 Woe to you, hypocrite scribes and Pharisees, because you tithe the mint 24 and dill and cumin and have let slip the weightier things in the law, 25 judgment and mercy and faith; but you ought to have done these 26 and not let those slip— 24 blind guides! strainers-out of a gnat and 27 swallowers of a camel! 25 Woe to you, hypocrite scribes and Pharisees, 28 because you clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside they 29 are full with rapacity and sensuality. 26 Blind Pharisee, clean the inside 30 of the cup first, that the outside of it too may come to be clean.
27 Woe to you, hypocrite scribes and Pharisees, because you are the 31 like of whitewashed graves that appear beautiful on the outside but 32 are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness inside; 28 in the same 33 way you appear to men saintly on the outside but are full of hypoc-34 risy and wickedness inside. 29 Woe to you, hypocrite scribes and Phari-35 sees, because you build memorials over the graves of the prophets, 36 and decorate the sepulchres of the saints, 30 and say 'If we had been 31 there in our fathers' days we should not have been sharers with 32 them in the blood of the prophets'— 31 so that you testify for yourselves 33 that you are sons of the murderers of the prophets; 32 fill up your 34 fathers' measure yourselves! 33 Snakes, spawn of vipers, how are you 35 to escape sentence to hell? 34 Accordingly I am sending to you prophets 36 and sages and divines: some of them you shall kill and crucify, and 37 some of them you shall flog in your synagogues and persecute from 38 city to city, 35 that there may come upon you all saintly blood that 39 has been shed on earth from the blood of the sainted Abel to the blood 40 of Zachariah the son of Barachiah whom you murdered between the 41 temple and the altar— 36 I tell you verily, all this will come upon this 37 generation. 37 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, killer of the prophets and stoner of those that are sent to her—how many times I have wished to gather her children as a bird gathers her chicks under her wings, and you 38 39 would not! 38 Lo, your house is left to you. 39 For I tell you, you shall not see me henceforth until you say 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.' "

CHAPTER 24

1 1 And Jesus came out from the temple-precinct and was going on his way; and his disciples came up to show him the architecture of 2 the precinct. 2 And he answered them "You see all this, do you not?
I tell you verily, there shall not be one stone left upon another here that shall not be torn down."

3 3 And as he was sitting on the Mount of Olives the disciples came to him by themselves, saying "Tell us when this will be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the final time."

4 4 And Jesus answered them "Look out that no one deludes you.
5 5 For many will come under my name, saying 'I am the Messiah,' 6 and delude many. 6 And you are going to hear of wars and rumors of wars: see that you are not disquieted; for they have to come, but 7 it is not yet the end. 7 For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in one 8 place and another; 8 but all this is the beginning of the birth-pangs.

9 9 Then they will have you arrested and cruelly treated, and will kill 10 you, and you will be hated by all the nations because of my name. 10 And then many will be staggered and have each other arrested and hate 11 each other; 11 and many pretended prophets will arise and delude many; 12 and, 12 because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will cool;—

13 14 13 but he who holds out to the end, he will come safe through;— 14 and this gospel of the Reign will be proclaimed in all the world of men, for an attestation to all the nations. And then the end will come.

15 15 "So when you see standing in a sacred place the desolating abomi-16 nation spoken of by the prophet Daniel (let the reader note), 16 then let 17 those who are in Judea flee to the mountains; 17 let him who is on the 18 roof not go down to take away what is in his house, 18 and let him who 19 is in the field not go back to pick up his cloak; 19 and woe to women who 20 are pregnant and nursing in those days! 20 But pray that your flight 21 may not come in winter or on a sabbath; 21 for then there will be such great distress as there has not been from the beginning of the world

22 till now, nor shall be. 22 And if those days had not been cut short no flesh would have come safe through; but because of the chosen those days will be cut short. 23 Then if anybody says to you 'here is the Messiah

23 at this place or this' do not believe it; 24 for there will arise pretended 24 Messiahs and pretended prophets, and they will exhibit great tokens and wonders, so as to delude even the chosen if possible; 25 now I have 25 told you beforehand. 26 So if they say to you 'here he is, in the wilder-26 ness,' do not go out; 'here he is, in the closets,' do not believe it;

27 27 for as the lightning comes out of the eastern horizon and shines to 28 the western, so shall be the coming of the Son of Man; 28 wherever the carcass is, there the vultures will gather.

29 29 "But directly after the distress of those days the sun will turn dark and the moon will not give its radiance, and the stars will fall 30 from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken; 30 and then will the token of the Son of Man appear in the sky; and then will all the tribes of the earth wail, and see the Son of Man coming 31 on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory; 31 and he will send out his angels with the sound of a great trumpet, and they will gather his chosen from the four winds, from one edge of the sky to the other.
32 32 But learn from the fig-tree this parable: when its twigs come to be tender and put out their leaves you know that the summer is near; 33 33 so you too, when you see all this, are to know that he is near, at the doors. 34 I tell you verily that this generation shall not pass away till 34 all this has taken place. 35 The heavens and the earth shall pass away, 35 but my words shall not. 36 But as to that day and hour nobody knows, 36 not even the angels of heaven nor the Son, but the Father alone. 37 For 37 as were the days of Noah, so will the coming of the Son of Man be.
38 38 For as in those days before the flood they ate and drank, married and got their children married, till the day that Noah went into the ark, 39 39 and before they knew it the flood came and carried off one and all, so shall be also the coming of the Son of Man. 40 Then there will be 40 two men in the field, one is taken along and one is left; 41 two women 41 grinding at the mill, one is taken along and one is left.

42 42 "So keep awake, because you do not know on what day your Master 43 is coming. 43 But be sure of this, that if the man of the house had known at what time of the night the thief was coming he would have kept 44 awake and not allowed his house to be broken into. 44 Accordingly be ready yourselves, because it will be at the moment when you are not 45 thinking of it that the Son of Man comes. 45 Who, then, is the faithful and intelligent servant whom the master has set over his household to 46 give them their food at the right time? 46 Happy is that servant whom his 47 master, when he comes, shall find doing thus: 47 I tell you verily he will set him over all his property. 48 But if that worthless servant says to 48 49 himself 'My master is staying late' 49 and begins to beat his fellow-servants and eats and drinks with the drunken, 50 that servant's master 50 will come on a day when he does not expect it and at an hour that he does not know, 51 and will cut him in two and allot him a part among 51 the hypocrites: there will the weeping and the grinding of teeth be.

CHAPTER 25

1 1 "Then the Reign of Heaven will resemble ten maidens who took 2 their torches and went out to meet a bridegroom. 2 And five of them 3 were foolish and five sensible; 3 for the foolish ones did not take oil 4 with them when they took their torches, 4 but the sensible took oil in 5 pitchers with their torches. 5 And as the bridegroom was long in coming

6 they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. 6 But at midnight there came a 7 shout 'Here is the bridegroom! come out to meet him!' 7 Then all those 8 maidens woke up and put their torches in order. 8 And the foolish ones said to the sensible ones 'Give us some of your oil, because our torches 9 are going out'; 9 but the sensible ones answered 'It might not be sufficient for us and you both; better go to those who have it to sell and buy 10 yourselves some.' 10 But while they were away buying, the bridegroom came, and the ones who were ready went in with him to the wedding, 11 and the door was shut. 11 And afterward the rest of the maidens also 12 came saying 'Sir, sir, open to us.' 12 But he answered 'I tell you verily, 13 I do not know you.' 13 So keep awake, because you do not know the day nor the hour.

14 "For it is as when a man who was going abroad called his servants 15 and handed over his property to them 15 and gave to one five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his individual 16 ability, and went away. 16 At once the one who had received the five talents went and set up a business with them and made five more; 17 17 similarly the one who had received the two made two more; 18 but the 18 one who had received the one went off and dug in the ground and 19 hid his master's money. 19 And after a long time the master of those 20 servants came and had an accounting with them; 20 and the one who had received the five talents came up and brought five talents more, 21 saying 'Sir, you handed over five talents to me; here I have made five talents more.' 21 His master said to him 'Well done, good trusty man; 22 you were faithful over a little, I will set you over much; go in to your master's rejoicing.' 22 The one who had received the two talents also 23 came up and said 'Sir, you handed over two talents to me; here I have made two talents more.' 23 His master said to him 'Well done, good 24 trusty man; you were faithful over a little, I will set you over much; go in to your master's rejoicing.' 24 And the one who had received the one talent also came up and said 'Sir, I knew you for a hard man, 25 harvesting where you did not sow and picking up where you did not 26 drop, 25 and I was afraid and went off and hid your talent in the ground; here you have your property.' 26 But his master answered him 'You 27 lazy villain, you knew, did you, that I harvest where I did not sow and pick up where I did not drop? 27 then you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and when I came I should have got my 28 property with interest.— 28 So take the talent away from him and give 29 it to the one with the ten talents; 29 for everyone who has shall have more given to him, and shall have enough and to spare, but from him 30 who has not there shall be taken away even what he has. 30 And put out the inefficient servant into the outside darkness; there will the weeping and the grinding of teeth be.'

31 "But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels 32 with him, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory, 32 and all the nations will be brought before him; and he will separate them

33 from each other as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, 33 and 34 will set the sheep on his right, but the goats on his left. 34 Then the King will say to those on his right 'Come here, blessed of my Father, inherit the empire that has been prepared for you since the foundation 35 of the world: 35 for I was hungry and you gave me a meal, I was thirsty 36 and you gave me a drink, I was a stranger and you lodged me, 36 naked and you clad me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison 37 and you came to me.' 37 Then the right-doers will answer him 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you 38 a drink? 38 And when did we see you a stranger and lodge you, or naked 39 and clothe you? 39 And when did we see you sick or in prison and come 40 to you?' 40 And the King will answer them 'I tell you verily, insofar as you did it to one of the littlest of these brothers of mine, you did it 41 to me.' 41 Then he will also say to those on his left 'Go from me, accursed 42 men, to the eternal fire prepared for the Devil and his angels: 42 for I was hungry and you did not give me a meal, I was thirsty and you 43 did not give me a drink, 43 I was a stranger and you did not lodge me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did 44 not look after me.' 44 Then they too will answer 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison 45 and not attend to your needs?' 45 Then he will answer them 'I tell you verily, insofar as you did not do it to one of the littlest of these, to 46 me also you did not do it.' 46 And these will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

CHAPTER 26

1 1 And when Jesus had finished all these words he said to his disciples 2 2 "You know that in two days the passover comes, and the Son of Man 3 is given to the executioners to be crucified." 3 Then the chief priests and the elders of the people met in the court of the house of the high 4 priest, who was known as Caiaphas, 4 and planned together to seize 5 Jesus by trickery and kill him; 5 but they said "Not during the feast, so that there will not be a disturbance among the people." 6 6 And when Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, 7 7 a woman with an alabaster vial of high-priced perfume approached 8 him and poured it on his head while he was at the table. 8 And the 9 disciples took offense at the sight, saying "Why this waste? 9 for this could have been sold for a good deal and given to poor people." 10 10 And Jesus, finding it out, said to them "Why are you worrying the 11 woman? for she has done a good deed to me; 11 for you always have 12 the poor with you, but me you do not always have. 12 For she, in putting 13 this perfume on my body, has done this toward burying me. 13 I tell you verily, wherever this gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, 14 what she did shall also be spoken of for a memorial of her." 14 Then one of the twelve, he who was known as Judas Iscariot, went to the 15 chief priests 15 and said "What will you give me to put him into your 16 hands?" and they weighed to him thirty pieces of silver, 16 and from that time on he was looking for a good opportunity to put him into their hands.

17 And on the first day of matzoth-time the disciples approached Jesus saying "Where will you have us make the preparations for you to eat the passover?" 18 and he said "Go into the city to such a man and say to him "The Teacher says, "My time is near; I am keeping the passover at your house with my disciples.""" 19 And the disciples did as Jesus directed them to, and got ready the passover; 20 and when evening came, he came to the table with his twelve disciples.

21 And while they were eating he said "I tell you verily that one of you will have me arrested." 22 And, greatly pained, they began each one to say to him "Am I the one, sir?" 23 And he answered "He who dipped his hand in the dish with me, he will have me arrested. 24 The Son of Man goes as is written of him; but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is put under arrest! it would have been well for that man if he had not been born." 25 And Judas, who was to have him arrested, answered him "Am I the one, Rabbi?" He said to him "As you say."

26 And while they were eating Jesus took a cake of bread, and spoke the blessing and broke it, and, giving it to the disciples, said "Take this and eat it; this is my body." 27 And he took a cup and gave thanks over it and gave it to them, saying "Drink of it, all of you; 28 for this is my covenant blood poured out for many to the pardoning of sins. 29 But I tell you, henceforth I will not drink of this produce of the vine till that day when I drink it new in my Father's reign with you."

30 31 And they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives. 31 Then Jesus said to them "You will be staggered over me this night all of you; for it is written 'I will strike down the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will scatter'; 32 but after my rising I will go ahead of you to Galilee." 33 But Peter answered him "If everybody will be staggered over you, I never will be staggered." 34 Jesus said to him "I tell you verily that this night, before a cock has crowed, you will disown me three times." 35 Said Peter to him "Even if I have to die with you I will not disown you"; and so said all the disciples.

36 Then Jesus came with them to an enclosure known as Gethsemane, and said to the disciples "Sit here while I go there and pray." 37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be unhappy and uneasy; 38 then he said to them "My soul is sad, deathly sad; stay here and keep awake with me"; 39 and he went a little further and threw himself down on his face praying "Father, if it is possible let this cup pass away from me; yet not as I will but as you will." 40 And he came to the disciples and found them asleep, and said to Peter "Were you so unable to keep awake with me one moment? 41 Keep awake and pray, that you may not fall under temptation: the spirit is enthusiastic but the flesh is weak." 42 Again he went away for the second time and prayed "Father, if this cannot pass away without 43 my drinking it, your will be done." 43 And he came and found them 44 asleep again, for their eyes were heavy. 44 And he left them and went 45 away again and prayed for the third time, saying the same words 46 again. 45 Then he came to the disciples and said to them "Well, then, 47 sleep and rest; the moment is close at hand, and the Son of Man 48 is to be given up into the hands of sinners— 46 rise, let us be going; 49 here is the one who gives me up to them, close at hand."

47 47 And while he was still speaking, in came Judas, one of the twelve, 48 and with him a great crowd with swords and sticks from the chief 49 priests and elders of the people. 48 And the one who was giving him up 50 had given them a sign, telling them "Whichever I kiss is he; take 51 him." 49 And at once he went up to Jesus and said "Good evening, 52 Rabbi," and went to kissing him. 50 But Jesus said to him "What you 53 are here for, comrade!" Then they came up and put their hands on 54 him and took him. 51 And lo, one of those who were with Jesus reached 55 and drew his sword and hit the high priest's servant and took off his 56 ear. 52 Then Jesus said to him "Put your sword back in its place; for 57 all who take the sword will perish by the sword. 53 Or do you think I 58 cannot appeal to my Father and have him furnish me more than 59 twelve brigades of angels now? 54 so how are the Scriptures to be ful-60 filled, that it must be this way?" 55 At the same time Jesus said to the 61 crowds "You come out as if it were against a robber, with swords 62 and sticks, to arrest me; I had been sitting in the temple-precinct day 63 by day teaching, and you did not take me. 56 But this has all of it come 64 about in order that the scriptures of the prophets should be fulfilled." 65 Then all the disciples left him and ran.

57 57 And those who had taken Jesus brought him to the house of 68 Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had met.
58 And Peter followed him at a distance up to the high priest's court-59 yard, and went inside and sat with the officers to see the end. 59 And 60 the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for false 61 testimony against Jesus so that they might put him to death; 60 and they 62 did not find any, though many false witnesses came forward. But in 63 the end two came forward 61 and said "This man said 'I can tear down 64 the temple of God and build it up in three days.'" 62 And the high 65 priest stood up and said to him "Do you make no answer? what is it 66 that these are testifying against you?" but Jesus was silent. 63 And the 67 high priest said to him "I adjure you by the living God to tell us 68 whether you are the Messiah, the Son of God." 64 Jesus said to him "As 69 you say; I tell you, though, henceforth it will be sitting at the right 70 hand of Power and coming on the clouds of the heavens that you 71 see the Son of Man." 65 Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying 72 "He has blasphemed! what further need have we of witnesses? here, 73 you have heard the blasphemy now, what do you think?" 66 And they 74 answered "It is a case for death."

67 67 Then they spat into his face and struck him with their fists, and 68 some slapped him 68 saying "Prophesy for us, Messiah, who was it that hit you?"

69 69 But Peter was sitting out in the courtyard; and one maid came up 70 to him, saying "You were with Jesus the Galilean too"; 70 but he denied it before everybody, saying "I do not know what you are talking 71 about." 71 And he went out to the porch; and there another girl saw him and said to those who were there "That man was with Jesus the 72 Nazarene"; 72 and again he denied it with an oath, "I do not know the 73 man." 73 And after a little those who were standing around came up and said to Peter "You positively are one of them yourself—your 74 language betrays you." 74 Then he began to curse and swear that he 75 "did not know the man"; 75 and at once a cock crowed; and Peter remembered Jesus's word, how he had said "Before a cock has crowed you will disown me three times"; and he went outside and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27

1 1 And when morning came all the chief priests and the elders of the people laid their plan against Jesus for putting him to death, 2 and bound him and took him to Pilate, the governor, and handed him over to him.

3 3 Then, upon seeing that he had been condemned, Judas who had been the agent in his arrest regretted his action and brought back the 4 thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4 saying "I have sinned in bringing innocent blood to its death." But they said "What 5 concern of ours is that? you see to that." 5 And he threw the pieces into the temple and withdrew, and went away and hanged himself.
6 6 But the chief priests took the money and said "It is not lawful to deposit it in the temple treasury, because it is the price of blood"; 7 7 and they decided on buying the potter's field with it for a burying-8 ground for strangers, and did so; 8 for which reason that field has been 9 called the Blood Field to this day. 9 Then what was said through the prophet Jeremiah in the words "And they took the thirty pieces of 10 silver, the price of the Priced whom they priced on the part of the sons of Israel, 10 and gave them for the potter's field, in accordance with what the Lord directed me," was fulfilled.

11 11 But Jesus was set before the governor; and the governor put the question to him "Are you the 'king of the Jews'?" and Jesus said 12 "As you say." 12 And while the accusations were being made against 13 him by the chief priests and elders he made no answer. 13 Then Pilate said to him "Do you not hear how many charges against you they 14 are testifying to?" 14 And to not one word of it did he give him an answer, so that the governor wondered exceedingly.

15 15 And every feast-time it was the governor's custom to release for 16 the crowd one prisoner whom they wanted. 16 And they had then a 17 conspicuous prisoner known as Jesus Bar-Abbas. 17 So when they had gathered Pilate said to them "Which will you have me release for 18 you, Jesus Bar-Abbas or Jesus known as the Messiah?" 18 For he knew 19 that it was out of jealousy that they had had him arrested; 19 and while he was sitting on the bench his wife had sent a message to him, "Do not have anything to do with that saint; for today I had a great deal 20 happen to me in a dream because of him." 20 But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Bar-Abbas and have 21 Jesus perish; 21 and the governor answered them "Which of the two 22 will you have me release for you?" and they said "Bar-Abbas." 22 Said Pilate to them, "Then what shall I do with the Jesus who is known as 23 the Messiah?" They all said "Have him crucified." 23 Said he, "Why, what harm has he done?" but they screamed more and more "Have 24 him crucified." 24 And Pilate, seeing that he was doing no good but rather a disturbance was beginning, took water and washed his hands in front of the people, saying "I am innocent of this blood; you shall 25 see to it." 25 And all the people answered "His blood be on us and on 26 our children." 26 Then he released Bar-Abbas for them, but scourged Jesus and gave him in charge to be crucified.

27 27 Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the praetorium and 28 got together the whole cohort over him, 28 and stripped him and threw a 29 scarlet cape over him, 29 and braided a wreath out of thorns and put it on his head and a reed in his right hand, and knelt before him and 30 made fun of him, 30 saying "Hail, King of the Jews!" and spat on him 31 and took the reed and beat him over the head. 31 And when they had had their fun with him they took the cape off him and put his own clothes on him, and led him away to be crucified.

32 32 And as they were going out they found a Cyrene man, by name Simon: this man they requisitioned to take up his cross.

33 33 And when they came to a place known as Golgotha, which is to 34 say the Skull place, they gave him wine mixed with gall to drink; 34 and 35 when he had tasted it he would not drink. 35 And they crucified him and 36 divided up his clothes, throwing lots, 36 and they sat and kept watch 37 over him there. 37 And they put up over his head a written statement of 38 his offense, "This is Jesus the King of the Jews." 38 Then two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left.

39 39 And those who went past taunted him, shaking their heads 40 and saying "You that were tearing down the temple and building it up in three days, save yourself, if you are Son of God, and get down off 41 the cross." 41 In the same way the chief priests, making fun of him with 42 the scribes and elders, said 42 "He saved others; he cannot save himself!
He is the King of Israel: let him get down off the cross now, and we 43 will believe on him. 43 He trusts in God, let him deliver him now if he 44 wants him—for he said 'I am Son of God.'" 44 And the robbers too, who were crucified with him, gave him the same twitting.

45 45 And from twelve o'clock on there came a darkness over all the 46 land till three. 46 And about three o'clock Jesus shrieked out loudly
"Elí, Elí, lemá, shabaktáni?" that is, "My God, my God, why hast 47 thou abandoned me?" 47 And some of those who were standing there said when they heard it "That man is calling Eliah" [for that was 48 the way Elijah's name was then pronounced]. 48 And at once one of them ran and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar and stuck it 49 on a reed, and offered him the drink; 49 but the rest said "Let be and 50 let us see if Elijah is coming to save him." 50 And Jesus again gave 51 a loud cry, and breathed his last; 51 and lo, the curtain of the temple split from top to bottom into two parts, and the earth quaked, and 52 the rocks split, 52 and the tombs opened and many bodies of holy men 53 who had gone to their rest rose, 53 and, coming out of the tombs after his resurrection, came into the sacred city and appeared to many.

54 And when the centurion and those who were with him keeping watch over Jesus saw the earthquake and the rest, they were greatly afraid, saying "This positively was the son of God."

55 And there were many women there looking on from a distance, 56 who had followed Jesus from Galilee, waiting on his needs; 56 among them was Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

57 And when evening came there came a rich man from Arimathea, 58 Joseph by name, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus; 58 this man went to Pilate and asked for Jesus's body. Then Pilate ordered it 59 turned over to him. 59 And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in 60 a clean linen wrapper, 60 and laid it in his new tomb which he had cut out in the rock, and rolled a great stone against the door of the tomb, 61 and went away. 61 And Mary the Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the front of the grave.

62 But on the following day—that is, after Friday—the chief priests 63 and the Pharisees gathered at Pilate's residence 63 saying "Sir, we recollect that that delusionist, while he was still alive, said 'After three 64 days I rise.' 64 So order the grave made secure till the third day, for fear the disciples should come and spirit him away and say to the people 'He has risen from the dead,' and the final delusion will be 65 worse than the first." 65 Said Pilate to them, "You may have a guard: 66 go make it as sure as you know how." 66 And they went and made the grave sure by sealing the stone, in addition to the guard.

CHAPTER 28

1 But at the close of the sabbath, in the twilight of the first day of the week, Mary the Magdalene and the other Mary came to look over 2 the grave; 2 and lo, there came a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down out of the sky and went to the stone and rolled 3 it away and sat on it. 3 And his aspect was like lightning, and his 4 dress white as snow; 4 and in their fear of him the watchers shook and 5 became like dead men. 5 And the angel answered the women "Do not you be afraid; for I know you are looking for Jesus, the one who was 6 crucified. 6 He is not here, for he has risen, as he said he would. Come 7 and see the place where he lay, 7 and go quickly and tell his disciples

8 'He has risen from the dead, and lo, he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you shall see him.' Lo, I have told you." 8 And they went quickly away from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to report it to his disciples; 9 and lo, Jesus met them, saying "Good morning." And they came up and grasped his feet and did him reverence. 10 Then Jesus said to them 'Do not be afraid: go carry word to my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they shall see me."

11 11 But while they were on their way, in came some of the guard to the city and reported to the chief priests the whole of what had taken place. 12 And they held a conference with the elders and decided on a policy, and gave the soldiers a considerable quantity of money, 13 telling them "Say 'His disciples came in the night and stole him away while we were sleeping'; 14 and if this comes to a hearing before the governor we will see him and make everything all right for you." 15 And they took money and did as they were instructed, and this story was spread among the Jews to this day.

16 16 But the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus made the appointment for them; 17 and when they saw him they did him reverence, but some hesitated. 18 And Jesus approached them and spoke to them, saying "I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth: 19 so go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to keep everything that I commanded you; and I am with you all the days to the end of time."

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

CHAPTER 1

1 1 Here begins the Gospel of God's son Jesus Christ.
2 2 As it is written in the prophet Isaiah "Lo, I am sending before 3 your face my messenger who shall prepare your road. 3 The voice of 4 one calling out in the wilderness 'Get ready the Lord's road, make his 5 thoroughfare straight!" 4 there came John, who baptized in the wilder-6 ness, proclaiming baptism for repentance to the pardoning of sins; 7 5 and all Judea, and all the Jerusalemites, were going out to him and 8 having themselves baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing 9 their sins. 6 And John wore camel-hair and a leather belt around his 10 waist, and fed on grasshoppers and wild honey; 7 and he proclaimed 11 "He who is stronger than I is coming behind me, he whose shoestring 12 I am not fit to stoop down and untie. 8 I have baptized you with water, 13 but he will baptize you with Holy Spirit." 14 9 And in those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was 15 baptized in the Jordan by John. 10 And at once, as he came up out of the 16 water, he saw the sky cleave apart and the Spirit come down to him 17 like a dove; 11 and there was a voice out of the sky, "You are my dear 18 son, in you I take pleasure." 12 And at once the Spirit drove him out 19 to the wilderness; 13 and he was in the wilderness forty days being 20 tempted by Satan, and was with the wild beasts; and the angels waited on his needs.
14 14 And after John was committed to prison Jesus came to Galilee pro-15 claiming the gospel of God 15 and saying "The time has fully come, and the Reign of God is almost here; repent and believe in the gospel." 16 16 And in passing along by the Sea of Galilee he saw Simon and Simon's 17 brother Andrew fishing in the sea with casting-nets; for they were 18 fishermen. 17 And Jesus said to them "Come here after me, and I will 19 cause you to become fishers of men"; 18 and at once they left their nets 20 and followed him. 19 And he went on a little and saw James the son of Zebedee and his brother John, also in their boat putting their nets to rights; 20 and at once he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and went after him.

21 And they go to Capernaum; and at once on the sabbath he had 22 gone into the synagogue and was teaching, 22 and they were astonished at his teaching; for he taught them as having authority, and not as 23 did the scribes. 23 And at once there was in their synagogue a man with 24 an unclean spirit, 24 and he screamed out "What have you to do with us, Jesus, you Nazarene? have you come to destroy us? I know you, 25 I know who you are, the Holy One of God." 25 And Jesus rebuked him, 26 saying "Silence, and come out of him." 26 And, after convulsing him 27 and making a loud outcry, the unclean spirit came out of him. 27 And they were amazed one and all, so that they debated it, saying "What is this? a new teaching with authority! and he gives orders to the 28 unclean spirits and they obey him." 28 And the report about him went out at once everywhere in the whole region of Galilee.

29 And at once they came out of the synagogue and came to the 30 house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John; 30 and Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and at once they told him about 31 her, 31 and he went to her and raised her up, taking her by the hand, 32 and the fever left her, and she waited on their needs. 32 And when evening was come, and the sun was set, they brought to him all who 33 were ill and all the demoniacs; 33 and the whole city was gathered at 34 the door; 34 and he cured many who were ill with various diseases, and expelled many demons, and would not let the demons speak, because 35 they knew him. 35 And in the morning, while it was still deep in the night, he rose and went out, and went away to a lonely place and 36 prayed there. 36 And Simon and those who were with him followed 37 him up and found him, 37 and said to him "Everybody is looking for 38 you." 38 And he said to them "Let us go elsewhere, to the adjoining towns, that I may make my proclamation there too; for it was for 39 this that I came out." 39 And he came to all Galilee making the proclamation in their synagogues and expelling the demons.

40 And there came to him a leper, appealing to him and kneeling 41 down and saying to him "If you will, you can cleanse me." 41 And he, moved with pity, reached out his hand and touched him and said 42 to him "I will; be cleansed"; 42 and at once the leprosy went away from 43 him and he was cleansed. 43 And at once he spoke sternly to him and 44 put him out, 44 and said to him "See that you do not say anything to anybody, but go show yourself to the priest and make the offerings that Moses directed on account of your cleansing, for an attestation to them."

45 But he went out and began to proclaim it a great deal, and to spread the word so that Jesus could no longer come openly into a city; but he was outside in lonely places, and they came to him from every

CHAPTER 2

1 quarter. 1 And upon his coming into Capernaum again after some 2 days it was heard that he was in the house, 2 and great numbers gathered, so that there was no longer room for them even around the 3 door. 3 And he was speaking the word to them, and there came people 4 bringing to him a paralyzed man borne by four. 4 And, not being able to bring the man to him because of the crowd, they took off the roofing where he was, and, by breaking a hole, let down the pallet on which 5 the paralyzed man was lying. 5 And Jesus, seeing their faith, said to 6 the paralyzed man "My child, your sins are forgiven." 6 But there were 7 some of the scribes sitting there and inwardly questioning 7 "Why does this man speak so? he is blaspheming, who can forgive sins but one, 8 God?" 8 And at once Jesus, recognizing in his spirit that they were thus questioning in their minds, said to them "Why are you inwardly 9 questioning like that? 9 Which is easier, to say to a paralyzed man 'your sins are forgiven' or to say 'rise, and take up your pallet and walk'?" 10 But, that you may know that the Son of Man has authority to for-11 give sins on earth—" said he to the paralyzed man, 11 "I say to you, 12 Rise, take up your pallet and go home." 12 And he rose and at once took up the pallet and went out before them all, so that all of them were surprised and glorified God, saying "We never saw anything like this."

13 13 And he went out by the seaside again; and all the masses came to 14 him, and he taught them. 14 And in passing he saw Levi the son of Alpheus sitting in a customhouse office, and said to him "Follow me"; 15 and he rose and followed him. 15 And it so befell that he was eating a meal in his house, and there were many customhouse officers and 16 people of bad character at the table with Jesus and his disciples (for there were many of them, and they accompanied him), 16 and the scribes of the Pharisees, seeing that he was eating with the people of bad character and the customhouse officers, said to his disciples "Why 17 does he eat with the customhouse officers and people of bad character?" 17 And Jesus, hearing it, said to them "Not the able-bodied, but the ill, need a physician; I have not come to call saints, but sinners."

18 18 And John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting; and they came and said to him "Why is it that John's disciples and the Pharisees' 19 disciples fast, but your disciples do not?" 19 and Jesus said to them
"Can the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them? so 20 long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast. 20 But there will come days, when the bridegroom is taken from them, and 21 then, in that day, they will fast. 21 Nobody sews a piece of unfulled cloth upon an old cloak; if one does, the filler takes some away from it, the 22 new from the old, and a worse hole is made. 22 And nobody puts new wine in old skins; if one does, the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost, and so are the skins; but new wine goes in fresh skins."

23 23 And it befell that on the sabbath he was on his way across the grainfields, and his disciples began to make a way picking the ears; 24 and the Pharisees said to him 24 "There, why are they doing on the sabbath what is not lawful?" 25 and he said to them "Did you never 25 read what David did when he, and those who were with him, were in need and hungry? 26 how he went into the house of God in the high-priesthood of Abiathar and ate the showbread, which it is not lawful that any but the priests should eat, and gave it to those who were with him too!" 27 And he said to them "The sabbath was made for man and not man for the sabbath; 28 so that the Son of Man is master even of the sabbath."

1 And he went into a synagogue again, and there was a man there with his hand shriveled; 2 and they were watching him to see if he would cure him on the sabbath, that they might arraign him. 3 And he said to the man with the shriveled hand "Stand forward"; 4 and he said to them "Is it lawful on the sabbath to do a good act or to do harm, to save a life or to kill?" but they were silent. 5 And he looked around at them in anger, grieving over their lumpish-heartedness, and said to the man "Stretch out your hand"; and he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. 6 And the Pharisees went out and at once entered into a plot with the Herodians against him to make away with him.

7 And Jesus, with his disciples, retired to the seaside; and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea 8 and from Jerusalem and from Idumea and the other side of the Jordan and around Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, hearing how much he was doing, came to him. 9 And he told his disciples to have a boat attend on him because of the mass of people, that they might not crowd him: 10 for he had cured many, so that any who had complaints were throwing themselves against him in order to touch him. 11 And the unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him and screamed "You are the Son of God." 12 And he told them peremptorily over and over not to make him known.

13 And he went up on the mountainside and summoned whom he pleased, and they went to him. 14 And he appointed twelve to be with him, and for him to send out to make the proclamation 15 and to have authority to expel demons: 16 he appointed the twelve, and gave Simon the other name Peter; 17 and James the son of Zebedee and James's brother John,—and he gave them the other name Boanerges, that is, Sons of Thunder—; 18 and Andrew and Philip and Bartholomew and Matthew and Thomas and James the son of Alpheus and Thaddeus and Simon the Kananee 19 and Judas Iscarioth, the same who was the agent in his arrest.

20 And he came back to the house; and the crowd came together again so that they could not even eat a meal; 21 and his family, hearing of it, went out to seize him, for they said he was out of his senses. 22 And the scribes that had come down from Jerusalem said that he had Beelzebul, and that it was by the head of the demons that he expelled the demons. 23 And he called them to him and said to them with parables 24 "How can Satan expel Satan? 24 And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot be kept up; 25 and if a family is divided against itself, that family will not be able to stand; 26 and if Satan has stood up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is 27 at an end. 27 But nobody can enter a strong man's house and plunder it of his goods unless he first binds the strong man, and then he shall 28 plunder his house. 28 I tell you verily that the sons of men will be forgiven all their sins, and whatever blasphemies they indulge in, 29 but one who shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit has no pardon 30 forever, but is guilty of an eternal sin"— 30 because they said "He has an unclean spirit."

31 31 And his mother and his brothers came and stood outside and sent 32 to him to call him; 32 and there was a crowd sitting around him, and they told him "Here are your mother and your brothers outside look-33 ing for you." 33 And he answered them "Who is my mother, and my 34 brothers?" 34 and, looking around at those who were sitting round about 35 him, he said "Here are my mother and my brothers! 35 for whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother."

CHAPTER 4

1 1 And again he began to teach by the seaside; and a very great crowd gathered to him, so that he got into a boat and sat in it on the sea, 2 and all the crowd were close to the sea on the land; 2 and he taught 3 them much in parables, and said to them in his teaching 3 "Listen: 4 once upon a time a sower went out to sow. 4 And in the sowing one seed 5 fell on the roadside, and the birds came and ate it up; 5 and another 6 fell on the rocky ground where it had not much soil, and came up at 7 once because of not having any depth of soil, 6 and was scorched when 8 the sun rose, and dried up because of not having roots; 7 and another 9 fell in among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and stifled it, and it yielded no crop; 8 and others fell into the good soil and yielded a crop, shooting up and growing, and bore at the rate of thirty and sixty and a hundred." 9 And he said "Let him who has ears to hear, hear!"

10 10 And when he was in private his companions, with the Twelve, 11 asked him about the parables; 11 and he said to them "To you is given the secret of the Reign of God, but for those outsiders everything is 12 in parables, 12 that when they see they may see without perceiving, and when they hear they may hear without understanding, for fear they 13 should turn back and be forgiven." 13 And he said to them "You do 14 not know this parable? and how are you to make out all parables? 14 The 15 sower is sowing the word; 15 and these are the ones by the road, where the word is sowed, and when they hear, at once Satan comes and 16 takes away the word that was sowed in them. 16 And in the same way these are the ones that are sowed on the rocky ground: they who, 17 when they hear the word, at once receive it with joy, 17 and do not have any roots in them but are temporary, and then, when there comes 18 distress or persecution because of the word, are staggered at once. 18 And others are the ones that are sowed in among the thorns: these are 19 they who hear the word, 19 and temporal anxieties and the deceits of wealth, and desires as to other things, step in and stifle the word

20 and it becomes unfruitful. 20 And those are the ones that are sowed on the good soil who hear the word and accept it, and bear their crop at the rate of thirty and sixty and a hundred."

21 21 And he said to them "Does the lamp come that it may be put under the peck measure or under the couch? does it not go on the stand? 22 For there is nothing that is secret except with a view to its being disclosed, nor has anything been concealed except with a view to its being brought to light. 23 Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear!"

24 24 And he said to them "Look out what you hear. The measure that you give shall be given to you, and you shall have more added to it. 25 25 For to him who has, more shall be given; and from him who has not, even what he has shall be taken away."

26 26 And he said "This is the way the Reign of God is: as a man scatters the seed on the ground 27 and sleeps and wakes night and day, and the seed sprouts and stretches up, he does not know how; 28 the ground bears its crops of itself, first blades, then ears, then full grain in the ears. 29 But when the crop permits he sends in the sickle at once, because the harvest is here."

30 30 And he said "How shall we illustrate the Reign of God, or by what parable shall we set it forth? 31 Like a grain of mustard, which, though when it is sowed in the ground it is the smallest of all the seeds in the ground, yet, 32 when it is sowed, grows up and becomes the largest of all the plants and makes great branches, so that the birds of the air can perch under its shadow."

33 33 And with many such parables he spoke the word to them, in a way that they could take in, 34 and did not speak to them without parable; but to his disciples, when they were by themselves, he explained everything.

35 35 And he said to them that day when evening came "Let us go over to the other side"; 36 and they left the crowd and took him with them in the boat as he was. 37 And there were other boats with him. And there came a great squall of wind, and the waves were breaking over the side of the boat, so that the boat was getting full; 38 and he was in the stern asleep on the cushion. And they waked him and said to him "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" 39 And when he woke up he rebuked the wind and said to the sea "Hush! break off!" and the wind lulled, and there came a great calm. 40 And he said to them "Why are you so timorous? do you not yet have faith?" 41 And they were greatly frightened, and said to each other "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

CHAPTER 5

1 And they came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the 2 Gerasenes. And when he came out of the boat, at once there met him 3 out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, who had his residence 4 in the tombs, and whom no one could bind any longer, even with a chain; because he had often been bound with fetters and chains, and 5 the chains had been wrenched apart by him and the fetters shattered, 6 and nobody was able to subdue him. 5 And he was all the time, night 7 and day, screaming and hacking himself with stones in the tombs and 8 on the mountainsides. 6 And, seeing Jesus from a distance, he ran and 9 did him reverence 7 and said with a loud scream "What have you to do 10 with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, 11 do not torture me"—8 for he was saying to him "Come out of the man, 12 unclean spirit." 9 And he put the question to him "What is your name?" 13 and he said to him "My name is Brigade because there are many of 14 us." 10 And he appealed to him over and over not to send them off out 15 of the country. 11 Now there was there at the foot of the mountain a 16 large herd of hogs feeding; 12 and they appealed to him with the request 17 "Send us among the hogs, so that we may go into them." 13 And he gave 18 them permission, and the unclean spirits came out and went into the 19 hogs, and the herd bolted down the steep bank into the sea, about 20 two thousand of them, and were drowned in the sea; 14 and the men who 21 were tending them ran away, and reported it in the city and in the 22 fields, and they came to see what it was that had happened. 15 And 23 they came to Jesus and saw the demoniac sitting down, clothed and 24 sane, the one that had had the brigade, and they were afraid; 16 and 25 those who had seen it told them the story of what had happened to 26 the demoniac, and about the hogs; 17 and they began to appeal to him 27 to go away from their territory. 18 And as he was stepping into the boat 28 the man who had been demon-ridden appealed to him to let him be 29 with him; 19 and he would not let him, but said to him "Go home to 30 your people and report to them how much the Lord has done for you 31 and what mercy he has shown you"; 20 and he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him, and they all wondered at it.

21 21 And when Jesus had crossed over to the other side again in the 22 boat, a great crowd gathered about him while he was by the seaside.
23 22 And there came one of the directors of the synagogue, Jair by name; 24 23 and at seeing him he threw himself down at his feet and appealed to 25 him over and over, saying "My little daughter is at the point of death; 26 come and lay your hands on her to make her get well and live"; 24 and 27 he went off with him, and a great crowd followed him and were 28 pressing against him. 25 And a woman who had been having a flow of 29 blood twelve years, 26 and had had a great many things done to her 30 by many physicians and spent everything in her house and got no 31 good from it but rather grown worse, 27 having heard about Jesus, came in the crowd behind and touched his cloak—28 for she said "If I touch even his clothes I shall be made well"—; 29 and at once the trickling of her blood dried up, and she felt that she was healed of her complaint. 30 And at once Jesus, recognizing that the power from him had gone out, turned back in the crowd and said "Who touched my clothes?" 31 And his disciples said to him "You see the crowd pressing

32 against you, and do you say "Who touched me?" 32 And he looked around 33 to see the one that had done that. 33 And the woman, frightened and trembling, knowing what she had had done to her, came and threw 34 herself down before him and told him all the truth; 34 and he said to her "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go, and good betide you; be well of your complaint."

35 While he was still speaking, people came from the director's house saying "Your daughter has died; why put the teacher out anymore?" 36 But Jesus, overhearing the words spoken, said to the director "Do 37 not be afraid, only believe." 37 And he would not let anyone go along 38 with him except Peter and James and James's brother John. 38 And they came to the director's house; and he saw a commotion, and people 39 weeping and yelling at a great rate, 39 and he went in and said to them
"Why are you raising a commotion and weeping? the child is not 40 dead but asleep"; and they laughed at him. 40 But he, putting them all out of the house, took the child's father and mother and those who 41 were with him and went in where the child was, 41 and grasped the child's hand and said to her "Talitha, kum," which means "Girl, 42 stand up"; 42 and at once the girl rose and walked (for she was twelve 43 years old), and they were at once seized with great surprise. 43 And he charged them over and over that nobody should know of this, and directed that she be given something to eat.

CHAPTER 6

1 And he went out from there and came to his hometown, and his 2 disciples followed him; 2 and when a sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue. And as they listened most of them were astonished, saying "Where does this man get this? and what wisdom is it that is 3 given to this man, and such miracles done by his hands? 3 why, this is the carpenter, Mary's son, the brother of James and Jose and Judah and Simon, and his sisters are here among us"; and they were stag-4 gered at him. 4 And Jesus told them "A prophet is not unhonored anywhere but in his hometown and among his relatives and in his house"; 5 5 and he could not do any miracle there except that he laid his hands 6 on a few invalids and cured them. 6 And he wondered at their un-believingness.

7 7 And he went about the surrounding villages teaching. And he called the Twelve to him, and began to send them out two by two; 8 8 and he gave them authority over unclean spirits, and instructed them not to take anything for the journey but only a walking-stick, "no 9 bread, no wallet, no small change in your belts, 9 but go shod with 10 sandals and do not put on two coats." 10 And he said to them "Wherever you come into a house, stay there till you come out from the place.
11 11 And whatever place does not receive you and they do not listen to you, in going out from there shake out the dust underneath your 12 feet for an attestation to them." 12 And they went out and proclaimed 13 that men should repent, 13 and expelled many demons, and rubbed many invalids with oil and cured them.

14 And King Herod heard of it; for his name had become known, and they were saying that John the Baptizer had risen from the dead and this was why the powers were operating in him, 15 and others were saying it was Elijah, and others that it was a prophet, such as the prophets used to be. 16 But Herod, when he heard, said "John that I beheaded—he has risen." 17 For he, Herod, had sent and seized John and put him in prison in chains on account of Herodias his brother Philip's wife, because he had married her; 18 for John had been saying to Herod "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." 19 And Herodias held a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him and could not— 20 for Herod was afraid of John, knowing him to be an honest and holy man, and kept him in security, and had a great deal of perplexity at hearing him, and liked to hear him.— 21 And when there came a favorable day, when Herod gave a dinner on his birthday to his grandees and chiliarchs and the leading men of Galilee, 22 and her daughter, Herodias's, went in and danced, she pleased Herod and those who were at the table with him; and the king said to the girl "Ask me for anything you choose, and I will give it to you"; 23 and he swore to her "Whatever you ask me for I will give you, up to half my kingdom." 24 And she went out and said to her mother "What shall I ask for?" and she said "John the Baptizer's head!" 25 And at once she went in to the king with a rush and asked him "I choose to have you give me John the Baptist's head on a platter instantly"; 26 and the king, though it made him sad, was not willing to disregard her on account of his oaths and of the guests at the table. 27 And at once the king sent a guardsman with orders to bring his head; 28 and he went and beheaded John in the prison and brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. 29 And when his disciples heard of it they came and took up his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

30 30 And the apostles rejoined Jesus, and reported to him all that they had been doing and teaching. 31 And he said to them "Come to a lonely place, you by yourselves, and rest a little" (for there were many coming and going, and they had not even opportunity to eat); 32 and off they went in the boat to a lonely place by themselves. 33 And many saw them going and recognized them, and ran together there by land from all the cities and came there before them; 34 and upon landing he saw a great crowd, and felt for them because they were like sheep that had no shepherd, and began to teach them a great many things. 35 And when it had now come to be a late hour his disciples approached him and said "The place is lonely, and it is already a late hour: 36 dismiss them, that they may go to the farmlands and villages round about and buy themselves something to eat." 37 But he answered them "Give them something to eat yourselves." And they said to him "Shall

38 we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give it to 39 them to eat?" 38 But he said to them "How many cakes of bread have 40 you? go see." And they found out and told him "Five, and two fishes." 41 39 And he ordered them to take their places on the green grass, all of 42 them, by parties; 40 and they took their places, by hundreds and by 43 fifties, like beds in a garden. 41 And he took the five cakes and the two 44 fishes and looked up to the sky and pronounced the blessing, and 45 broke up the cakes and gave them to the disciples to set before them; 46 and he divided the two fishes among them all; 42 and they all ate and 43 had their fill. 43 And they took up fragments of the bread to the amount 44 of twelve basketfuls—also of the fishes; 44 and it was five thousand men 45 that had eaten the bread.

45 45 And at once he made the disciples get into the boat and go to 46 Bethsaida, on the other side, ahead of him, while he dismissed the 47 crowd; 46 and when he had bidden them farewell he went off to the 48 mountain to pray. 47 And when evening came the boat was in the middle 49 of the sea, and he on the land alone; 48 and, as he saw them having a 50 hard time in rowing,—for the wind was against them,—about the 51 fourth watch of the night he came toward them walking on the sea.
52 49 And he was on the point of passing by them; but they, seeing him 53 walking on the sea, thought it was an apparition, and screamed out; 54 for they all saw him and were alarmed. 50 But he spoke with them at 55 once, and said to them "All right, it is I; do not be afraid." 51 And he 52 stepped into the boat with them, and the wind lulled; and they were 53 most exceedingly surprised, 52 for they had not understood in the 54 matter of the bread, but their hearts were lumpish.

53 53 And when they got across to land they came to Gennesaret and 54 moored there; 54 and when they came out of the boat, at once people 55 recognized him 55 and ran all around that country and began to carry 56 those who were ill around on pallets where they heard that he was.
56 56 And wherever he went into villages or into cities or into country 57 districts, they put the sick in the marketplaces and appealed to him 58 that they might touch even the tassel of his cloak; and as many as 59 touched him recovered.

CHAPTER 7

1 1 And the Pharisees and some scribes who had come from Jerusalem 2 gathered about him, 2 and, seeing that some of his disciples ate their 3 bread with "common"—that is, unwashed—hands 3 (for the Pharisees, 4 and all the Jews, do not eat unless they have washed their hands to 5 the elbow, insisting on the tradition of the elders; 4 and when they 6 come in from the marketplace they do not eat unless they have sprin-7 kled themselves, and there are many other things which it is traditional 8 with them to insist on, rinsings of cups and cans and kettles), 9 5 the Pharisees and the scribes put the question to him "Why do your 10 disciples not walk in conformity with the tradition of the elders, 11 but eat their bread with common hands?" 6 But he said to them "Well

7 did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written 'This people 8 honors me with the lips, but their hearts are remote from me; 7 and 9 they adore me vainly, inculcating teachings that are commands of 10 men.' 8 You let go the commandment of God and insist on the tradition 11 of men." 9 And he said to them "You do fine work setting God's com-12 mandment aside so as to keep your tradition! 10 For Moses said 'Honor 13 your father and mother' and 'Let him who uses bad language to his 14 father or mother suffer death'; 11 but you say 'If a man says to his 15 father or mother "Whatever you get any good of from me is korban" 16 [that is, "a gift"]— 12 you will no longer let him do anything for his 17 father or mother, 13 nullifying God's word by your tradition that you 18 have handed down; and you do many things of a similar kind." 14 And 19 he called the crowd to him again and said to them "Hear me, all of 20 you, and understand: 15 there is nothing from outside a man, going 21 into him, that can defile him, but it is what goes out of a man that 22 defiles the man." 17 And when he came indoors away from the crowd 23 his disciples questioned him about the paradox; 18 and he said to them 24 "Are you too so unable to see a point? do you not see that anything 25 that goes into a man from outside cannot defile him 19 because it does 26 not go into his heart but into his stomach and out into the latrine?"— 27 making all foods clean. 20 And he said "What goes out of a man, that 28 defiles the man. 21 For from inside, from men's hearts, go out evil de-29 signs, unchastities, thefts, murders, 22 adulteries, overreachings, vil-30 lainies, trickery, brutality, stinginess, abusive language, arrogance, 31 foolery,— 23 all these wicked things go out from inside, and do defile the 32 man."

33 24 And he left there and went away to the territory of Tyre, and went 34 into a house and wanted nobody to know of it; and he could not 35 escape notice, 25 but at once, hearing about him, a woman whose little 36 daughter had an unclean spirit came and threw herself down at his 37 feet. 26 And the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by race; and she 38 was asking him to expel the demon from her daughter, 27 and he was 39 saying to her "Let the children have their fill first, for it is not a good 40 thing to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." 28 But she 41 answered him "Yes, sir, even the dogs under the table eat of the 42 children's crumbs." 29 And he said to her "Because of those words, go; 43 the demon has gone out of your daughter." 30 And she went home and 44 found the child down on the couch, and the demon gone out.

45 31 And he went out of the territory of Tyre again, and came through 46 Sidon to the Sea of Galilee at a point in the middle of the territory 47 of the Decapolis. 32 And they brought him a deaf man who had an im-48 pediment in his speech, and appealed to him to lay his hand on him; 49 33 and he took him away from the crowd by himself and ran his fingers 50 into his ears, and spat and touched his tongue, 34 and looked up into 51 the sky and groaned and said to him "Ethpethah," that is "Be 52 opened." 35 And his ears were opened, and at once the tie of his tongue

36 was undone and he spoke rightly. 36 And he charged them not to tell anybody; but the more he charged them, all the more they proclaimed it. 37 And they were supremely astonished, saying "He has done well in everything: he even makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak."

CHAPTER 8

1 In those days, when there was again a great crowd and they did not have anything to eat, he called his disciples to him and said to them 2 "I feel for the crowd, because it is now three days they have 3 been staying with me and not had anything to eat; 3 and if I dismiss them fasting, they will grow faint on the road; and some of them 4 are from a long way off." 4 And his disciples answered him "Where 5 can one get these their fill of bread here in the wilderness?" 5 and he asked them "How much bread have you?" and they said "Seven cakes." 6 6 And he instructed the crowd to take their places on the ground, and took the seven cakes and gave thanks and broke them and gave them to the disciples to put around; and they set them before the crowd. 7 And they had a few little fish; 7 and he blessed these too and told them to put them around. 8 And they all ate and had their fill; and 8 they took up surplus fragments, seven hampers. 9 And there were 9 about four thousand of them. 10 And he dismissed them, and at once 10 got into the boat with his disciples and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees went out and began to debate with him, seeking 11 from him a token from heaven, by way of testing him. 12 And he heaved 12 a sigh and said "Why does this generation seek a token? I tell you 13 verily this generation shall not be given a token"; 13 and he left them 14 and went on board again and went off to the other side. 14 And they 14 forgot to take bread, and had not but one cake with them in the boat. 15 And he was charging them "See that you keep clear of Pharisee yeast 15 and Herod's yeast"; 16 and they questioned together, saying that they 16 had not bread. 17 And, finding it out, he said to them "Why are you 17 questioning because you have not bread? do you not yet see the point 18 nor understand? 18 are your hearts caked into lumps? having eyes, do 18 you not see, and having ears do you not hear? and do you not remem- 19 ber 19 when I broke the five cakes of bread to be given out to the 19 five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments you took up?" 20 20 They told him "Twelve." "When I broke the seven to be given out to 20 the four thousand, how many hamperfuls of fragments did you take 21 up?" and they said "Seven." 21 And he said to them "Do you not under- 21 stand yet?"

22 And they came to Bethsaida; and they brought him a blind man, 22 and appealed to him to touch him. 23 And he took hold of the blind 23 man's hand and took him outside the village, and, spitting into his 24 eyes and laying his hands on him, put the question to him "Can 24 you see anything?" 24 and he looked up and said "I can see men, because 25 I see creatures like trees walking." 25 Then he laid his hands on his 26 eyes again, and his eyesight was good, and he was restored and was able to see everything distinctly. 26 And he sent him home, saying "Do not even go into the village."

27 27 And Jesus and his disciples went out to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the road he questioned his disciples, asking them 28 "Who do people say I am?" 28 And they told him "John the Baptist; 29 and others Elijah; and others one of the prophets." 29 And he put the question to them, "But who do you say I am?" Peter answered him 30 "You are the Messiah." 30 And he told them peremptorily not to tell anybody about him.

31 31 And he began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer a great deal, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, 32 and be killed, and rise after three days; 32 and he made the statement 33 openly. 33 And Peter took him in hand and began to rebuke him; but he, turning back and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter and said
"Go behind me, Satan, because you do not have God's ideas but men's."

34 34 And he called the crowd to him, with his disciples, and said to them "If anyone wishes to come after me, let him disown himself and 35 take up his cross and follow me. 35 For whoever wishes to save his self will lose it, but whoever loses his self on my account and the gospel's 36 will save it. 36 For what good does it do a man to make a profit of 37 the whole world and a loss of his self? 37 for what should a man give 38 as an equivalent for his self? 38 For whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man too will be ashamed of him when he comes in his Father's glory with

CHAPTER 9

1 the holy angels." 1 And he said to them "I tell you verily that there are some here standing among you who shall not taste death till they see the Reign of God begun in power."

2 2 And after six days Jesus took Peter and James and John and brought them up on the side of a high mountain alone by themselves, 3 and was transfigured before them; 3 and his clothes became glittering, 4 exceedingly white, such as no fuller on earth can whiten so. 4 And there 5 appeared to them Elijah with Moses, and they talked with Jesus. 5 And Peter answered by saying to Jesus "Rabbi, it is a good thing we are here: let us make three booths, one for you and one for Moses and 6 one for Elijah"—6 for he did not know what answer to make, because 7 they were terrified. 7 And there came a cloud overshadowing them, and there came a voice out of the cloud, "This is my dear son, listen to 8 him." 8 And of a sudden they looked around and no longer saw any-9 body but Jesus alone with themselves. 9 And as they were coming down 10 of what they had seen till the Son of Man rose from the dead; 10 and they held the word fast to themselves, debating what rising from the 11 dead was. 11 And they put the question to him "Why do the scribes say 12 that Elijah must come first?" 12 and he said to them "Elijah comes first and restores everything—and how is it written about the Son of 13 Man that he should suffer a great deal and be scorned? 13 But I tell you that Elijah has come and they have done to him whatever they wished, as is written about him."

14 14 And when they got to the disciples they saw a great crowd around 15 them, and scribes debating with them. 15 And at once all the crowd were 16 taken aback at seeing him; 16 and they ran up and greeted him, and he put the question to them "What are you debating with them about?"

17 17 And one of the crowd answered him "Teacher, I have brought my son 18 to you, that has a dumb spirit, 18 and wherever it gets at him it strikes him down, and he foams and sets his teeth hard and withers up; and 19 I told your disciples to expel it and they were not able." 19 And he answered them "O unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with 20 you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him to me"; 20 and they brought him to him. And upon seeing him the demon threw him into a convulsion at once, and he fell on the ground and rolled there 21 foaming. 21 And he questioned his father, "How long has he had this?" 22 and he said "Since his childhood; 22 and it has often thrown him into fire and into water, to make away with him; but if you can do anything 23 have pity on us and help us." 23 And Jesus said to him "If you can!
24 Everything is possible to him who believes!" 24 At once the child's 25 father gave a cry "I believe; help my unbelievingness." 25 And Jesus, seeing that a crowd was running up, said peremptorily to the unclean spirit "Dumb and deaf spirit, I order you, come out of him and do 26 not come into him again." 26 And with a scream and many convulsions it came out, and he became as if dead, so that most of them said he was dead; 27 but Jesus grasped his hand and raised him, and he stood up.

28 28 And when he came indoors and they were by themselves his disciples put the question to him "How was it we could not expel it?"

29 29 and he said to them "This kind cannot be got out by anything but prayer."

30 30 And they went out from there and went along through Galilee; 31 31 and he would not have anyone know of it, for he was teaching his disciples and telling them that the Son of Man was to be given up into the hands of men, and they would kill him, and when he had 32 been killed he would rise after three days. 32 But they failed to understand the word, and were afraid to question him.

33 33 And they came to Capernaum; and when he got into the house he put the question to them "What were you talking over on the road?"

34 34 But they were silent, for they had been arguing together on the road about which was greatest. 35 And he sat down and called the Twelve and 35 said to them "If one means to be first, he shall be last of all and serving-man to all." 36 And he took a child and set it in the middle 36 among them, and, putting his arms around it, said to them 37 "Anybody 37 who receives one of the children in my name is receiving me, and anybody who receives me is receiving not me but him who sent me."

38 38 John said to him "Teacher, we saw somebody expelling demons in 39 your name, and we stopped him because he did not follow us." 39 But Jesus said "Do not stop him, for there is no one who will work a 40 miracle in my name and be able to go right to abusing me. 40 For he 41 who is not against us is for us. 41 For anybody who gives you a cup of water to drink on the ground that you belong to the Messiah, I tell 42 you verily, shall not lose his reward; 42 and anybody who trips up one of these little ones who believe, it would sooner be a good thing for him if he had an ass-power millstone hanging round his neck and had 43 been thrown into the sea. 43 And if your hand trips you up, cut it off: it is better that you pass into life one-armed than that with both your hands you should go into hell, into the inextinguishable fire.
45 And if your foot trips you up, cut it off: it is better that you pass 45 into life a cripple than that with both your feet you should be thrown 47 into hell. 47 And if your eye trips you up, tear it out; it is better that you pass into the Reign of God one-eyed than that with two eyes you 48 should be thrown into hell, 48 where their worm does not die and their fire does not go out. 49 For everyone shall be salted with fire. 50 Salt is 9 50 a good thing, but if the salt has lost its saltness what will you season it with? Have salt in yourselves and be at peace with each other."

CHAPTER 10

1 1 And he went away from there and came into the territory of Judea and the other side of the Jordan; and crowds collected around 2 him again, and he taught them again as was his custom. 2 And Pharisees approached him and put the question to him, to test him, whether 3 it is lawful for a husband to divorce a wife. 3 But he answered them 4 "What commands did Moses give you?" 4 And they said "Moses per-5 mitted writing a certificate of separation and divorcing her." 5 But Jesus said to them "It was in view of your obduracy that he wrote 6 you this commandment. 6 But from the first of the creation he 'made 7 them male and female'; 7 'for this a man shall leave his father and 8 mother, and the two shall become one flesh'; 8 so that they are no longer 9 10 two but one flesh. 9 So let not a man part what God has joined." 10 And when they got into the house the disciples questioned him again 11 about this; 11 and he said to them "Whoever divorces his wife and mar-12 ries another commits adultery against her; 12 and if she divorces her husband and marries another she commits adultery."

13 13 And they brought children to him to have him touch them; but the disciples rebuked them. 14 But Jesus was offended at seeing it, and said to them "Let the children come to me, do not interfere with 15 them; for to such belongs the Reign of God. 15 I tell you verily, anyone who does not receive the Reign of God like a child shall not get into 16 it." 16 And he took them in his arms and covered them with blessings, putting his hands on them.

17 17 And as he was going out on the road, one ran up and knelt before him and put the question to him "Good teacher, what shall I do to 18 inherit eternal life!" 18 But Jesus said to him "Why do you call me 19 good? nobody is good except one, God. 19 You know the commandments,

'Do not commit murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not 20 testify falsely, do not keep back payments, honor your father and 21 mother.'" 20 But he said to him "Teacher, I have kept from all these ever since my youth." 21 And Jesus looked at him and loved him, and said to him "You have one shortcoming: go sell everything you have and give the money to the poor, and you will have a fund laid by in 22 heaven; 22 and come and follow me." But he was dismayed at the words, and went away grieving; for he owned great possessions.

23 23 And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples "What hard work the wealthy will have to get into the Reign of God!" and the 24 disciples were amazed at his words; 24 but Jesus answered them again 25 "Children, how hard it is to get into the Reign of God! 25 it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man 26 to get into the Reign of God." 26 And they were extremely astonished, 27 saying to each other "And who can be saved?" 27 Jesus looked at them and said "With men it is impossible, but not with God, for everything is possible with God."

28 28 Peter began to say to him "We here did leave everything and fol-29 lowed you." 29 Said Jesus, "I tell you verily, there is nobody who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or 30 lands on my account and the gospel's 30 but shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the coming age eternal 31 life. 31 But many of the first will be last, and the last first."

32 32 And they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus going ahead of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. And he took the Twelve with him again and began to tell 33 them the things that were to befall him: 33 "here we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be put into the hands of the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death 34 and hand him over to the foreigners, 34 and they will outrage him and spit on him and flog him and kill him, and after three days he will rise."

35 35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, went to him and said to him "Teacher, we want you to do for us what we shall ask you."

36 36 And he said to them "What do you want me to do for you?" 37 And they said to him "Grant us that we shall sit one on your right hand 38 and one on your left in your glory." 38 But Jesus said to them "You do not know what you are asking for. Can you drink the cup that I am 39 drinking, or go under the water that I am going under?" 39 And they said to him "We can." And Jesus said to them "The cup that I am drinking you shall drink, and shall go under the water that I am 40 going under; 40 but the sitting on my right or on my left is not mine 41 to give, but belongs to those for whom it has been prepared." 41 And at 42 hearing of it the ten began to be offended with James and John; 42 and Jesus called them to him and said to them "You know that those 43 who are thought to head the nations lord it over them and their great 44 men domineer over them. 43 But it is not so among you, but anyone who 45 wishes to be great among you shall be your serving-man, 44 and anyone who wishes to be first among you shall be everybody's slave; 45 for so did the Son of Man come not to be waited on but to wait on the needs of others, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

46 46 And they came to Jericho; and as he was going out of Jericho, and his disciples and a considerable crowd, Bartimeus the son of Timeus, 47 a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside; 47 and, hearing that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out "Jesus, son of David, take 48 pity on me!" 48 And many rebuked him, telling him to be still; but he 49 cried out more and more "Son of David, take pity on me!" 49 And Jesus stopped and said "Call him"; and they called the blind man, 50 saying to him "All right, rise, he is calling for you"; 50 and he, throwing 51 off his cloak, sprang up and came to Jesus. 51 And Jesus answered him
"What do you want me to do for you?" and the blind man said 52 to him "Rabbuni, that I may have my eyesight back." 52 And Jesus said to him "Go; your faith has made you well," and at once he recovered his sight and followed him along the road.

CHAPTER 11

1 1 And when they were drawing near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples 2 2 and said to them "Go to the village opposite you, and at once as you are entering it you will find a colt hitched, on which no man ever 3 yet sat; unhitch it and bring it. 3 And if anybody says to you "Why are you doing that?" say "The Lord needs it; and he will send it back 4 here at once." 4 And they went, and found a colt hitched at a door, out 5 in the roadway, and went to unhitching it; 5 and some of those who were standing there said to them "What are you doing untying the 6 colt?" 6 but they told them what Jesus told them to, and they let them 7 alone. 7 And they brought the colt to Jesus and laid their cloaks on 8 it, and he took his seat on it. 8 And many spread their cloaks in the 9 road, and others green things that they cut from the fields; 9 and those who went ahead and who followed were crying "Hosanna! blessed 10 is he who is coming in the name of the Lord; 10 blessed is the reign that is coming, our father David's; hosanna on high!"

11 11 And he came into Jerusalem and into the temple-precinct; and he looked around at everything, and, the hour being already late, went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

12 12 And when they came out from Bethany on the following day, he felt 13 hungry, 13 and, seeing at a distance a fig-tree with leaves, went to see if he might find anything on it. And when he came to it he found 14 nothing but leaves; for it was not time for figs. 14 And he answered by saying to it "Never again let anyone eat fruit from you"; and his disciples heard him.

15 15 And they came to Jerusalem; and he went into the temple-precinct and began to turn out those who were selling and buying in the precinct, and threw down the money-changers' tables and the pigeon-sellers' seats, 16 and would not let anybody carry an article through the precinct; 17 and he taught and said to them "Is it not written 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations'? but you have made it a robbers' cave"; 18 and the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and tried to find a way to destroy him; for they were afraid of him, for all the crowd was astonished over his teaching.

20 20 And as they were going past in the morning they saw the fig-tree withered to the root; 21 and Peter recollected about it and said to him "Rabbi, there is the fig-tree that you cursed withered up." 22 And Jesus answered by saying to them "Have faith in God; 23 I tell you verily that anyone who says to this mountain 'Be taken up and be thrown into the sea,' and does not inwardly doubt but believes that what he utters will be done, shall have it so. 24 Accordingly I tell you, every-thing that you pray and ask for, believe that you have got it and you shall have it. 25 And when you stand praying, forgive whatever you have against anybody, that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your offenses."

27 27 And they came into Jerusalem again; and as he was walking in the temple-precinct the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to him 28 and said to him "By what authority are you doing these things? or who gave you this authority to do these things?" 29 But Jesus said to them "I will put one question to you; answer me and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. 30 Was John's baptizing from heaven or from men? answer me." 31 And they went over the question to themselves, thinking "If we say 'From heaven' he will say 32 'Then why did you not believe him?' but shall we say 'From men?'"—they were afraid of the populace, for one and all looked on John as having been a real prophet. 33 And they answered Jesus "We do not know." And Jesus said to them "And neither do I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

CHAPTER 12

1 1 And he began to speak to them in parables: "A man set out a vineyard, and put a fence round it and dug out a receiver for the wine 2 and built a tower, and rented it to farmers and went abroad. 2 And at the proper date he sent a servant to receive from the farmers some of the produce of the vineyard; 3 and they took him and gave him a 4 beating and sent him off empty-handed. 4 And again he sent another servant to them; and they broke that one's head and insulted him. 5 5 And he sent another, and him they killed; and many others, beating 6 some and killing some. 6 He had one left, a dear son; he sent him to 7 them last, thinking 'They will have some respect for my son.' 7 But those farmers said to each other 'This is the heir: come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours'; 8 and they took him and killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard. 9 What will the owner of the vineyard do? he will come and kill off the farmers, and give the vineyard to others. 10 Have you not even read this text, 'The stone that the builders condemned, that stone has come to be the top of the corner: 11 this was from the Lord, and is wonderful in our eyes?'" 12 And they tried to seize him; and they were afraid of the crowd—for they perceived that he had aimed the parable at them—and let him go and went away.

13 13 And they sent to him some of the Pharisees and the Herodians, to fish for him with talk; 14 and they came and said to him "Teacher, we know that you are truthful and care for nobody, for you do not look at men's faces but teach the way of God in good faith: is paying taxes to Caesar lawful or unlawful? shall we pay or shall we not?" 15 But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them "Why are you trying tricks on me? bring me a denarius so that I can see it." 16 And they brought one. And he said to them "Whose is this portrait and this inscription?" 17 and they said to him "Caesar's." 17 And Jesus said to them "Pay what is Caesar's to Caesar and what is God's to God." And they admired him.

18 18 And Sadducees, who say there is no such thing as a resurrection, came to him and put the question to him 19 "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if one's brother dies and leaves a widow behind, and leaves no child, his brother should take his widow and set up a posterity for his brother. 20 There were seven brothers, and the first took a wife and left no issue at his death, 21 and the second took her and died without leaving any issue behind, and the third in the same way, 22 and the seven left no issue. Last of all, the woman died too. 23 At the resurrection, when they rise, which of them will she be the wife of? for the seven had her as wife." 24 Said Jesus to them, "Is not this why you go wrong, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God? 25 for when they rise from the dead they do not marry but are like angels in heaven. 26 But as to the dead, that they are raised, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the part about the bush, how God told him 'I am the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob'? 27 He is not the God of dead men but of living men. You are very far wrong."

28 28 And one of the scribes, having heard them discussing, approached, knowing that he had answered them well, and put the question to him "Which commandment is the first of all?" 29 Jesus answered "The first is 'Hear, Israel: 30 our God is the Lord; the Lord is one; and you shall love the Lord your God out of all your heart and out of all your soul and out of all your mind and out of all your strength.' 31 Second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' Another commandment greater than these there is not." 32 And the scribe said to him "Good, teacher: you say rightly; that he is one and there is no other 33 but he, 33 and to love him out of all one's heart and out of all one's intellect and out of all one's strength, and to love one's neighbor as one's self, is more of a thing than all burnt-offerings and sacrifices."

34 34 And Jesus, seeing that he answered thoughtfully, said to him "You are not far from the Reign of God."
35 35 And no one dared put any further questions to him. And Jesus answered, as he was teaching in the temple-precinct, "How is it that 36 the scribes say the Messiah is to be a son of David? 36 David himself says in the Holy Spirit 'The Lord said to my lord "Sit at my right 37 hand till I put your enemies under your feet"'; 37 David himself calls him lord, and how comes he to be his son?" 38 38 And the great crowd listened to him gladly. And in his teaching he said "Look out for the scribes, who are bound to go in robes and 39 to have greetings in the marketplaces 39 and the first seats in synagogues 40 and the first places at dinners: 40 those who eat up widows' houses and make a pretense of long prayers—these shall receive more of a sentence."
41 41 And he sat down opposite the treasury and looked at the way in which the crowd dropped coins into the treasury; and many rich men 42 dropped in a great deal. 42 And one poor widow came and dropped in 43 two mites, that is, a farthing. 43 And he called his disciples to him and said to them "I tell you verily that this poor widow dropped in more 44 than any of those who have been dropping into the treasury; 44 for they all of them dropped in part of what they had to spare, but she out of her destitution dropped in everything she had, her whole living."

CHAPTER 13

1 1 And as he was on his way out of the temple-precinct, one of his disciples said to him "Teacher, look what stones and what architecture!"
2 2 And Jesus said to him "You see this great architecture? there shall not be one stone left on another that shall not be torn down."
3 3 And when he was sitting on the side of the Mount of Olives opposite the temple-precinct Peter and James and John and Andrew put the question to him as they were by themselves, 4 "Tell us when this will be, and what will be the sign when all this is to come to its end?" 4 5 And Jesus began to say to them "Look out that no one deludes you; 6 many will come under my name, saying that it is I, and delude many.
7 And when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be disquieted; 8 they have to come, but it is not yet the end. 8 For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, there will be earthquakes in one place and another, there will be famines; this is the beginning of the birth-pangs. 9 But look out for your own selves; for they will have you arrested and taken into court, and you will be whipped in synagogues and set before governors and kings on my 9 10 account, for an attestation to them.— 10 And the gospel must be proclaimed first among all the nations.— 11 And when they arrest you and 10 11 carry you off, do not fret beforehand over what you are to speak, but

12 whatever is given you at the moment, that speak; for it is not you that are speaking but the Holy Spirit.— 12 And a brother will have a 13 brother arrested and put to death, and a father a child; and children will stand up against parents and have them put to death; 13 and you will be hated by all because of my name; but he who holds out to the end, he will come safe through.

14 14 "But when you see the desolating abomination standing where it ought not (let the reader note), then let those who are in Judea flee 15 to the mountains; 15 let him who is on the roof not go down or in to take 16 away anything from his house, 16 and let him who is in the field not 17 go back to pick up his cloak; 17 and woe to women who are pregnant 18 and nursing in those days! 18 But pray that it may not come in winter; 19 19 for those days will be a distress such as there has not been from the 20 beginning of God's creation till now, nor shall be. 20 And if the Lord had not cut the days short, no flesh would have come safe through; but because of the chosen whom he had singled out he did cut the 21 days short. 21 And then if anybody says to you 'here is the Messiah in 22 this place,' 'here he is in that,' do not believe it; 22 there will arise pretended Messiahs and pretended prophets, and they will exhibit 23 tokens and wonders to lead the chosen astray if possible. 23 But you are to look out: I have told you everything beforehand.

24 24 "But in those days, after that distress, the sun will turn dark and 25 the moon will not give its radiance, 25 and the stars will be falling from 26 the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken; 26 and then will they see the Son of Man coming among clouds with great power and 27 glory; 27 and then will he send out the angels and gather his chosen from the four winds, from the extremity of the earth to the extremity of the heavens.

28 28 "But learn from the fig-tree this parable: when its twigs come to turn tender and put out their leaves you know that the summer is 29 near; 29 so you too, when you see these things taking place, are to know 30 that he is near, at the doors. 30 I tell you verily that this generation shall 31 not pass away until all this takes place. 31 The heavens and the earth 32 will pass away, but my words will not. 32 But as to that day or that hour nobody knows, neither the angels in heaven nor the Son, but the 33 Father. 33 Look to it, keep on the alert; for you do not know when the 34 time is. 34 As a man going abroad, leaving his house and giving commissions to his servants, to each one his work, gave the doorman too 35 a command, to keep awake— 35 keep awake then, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether at evening or at mid-36 night or at cockcrow or at morning; 36 lest he should come all of a sudden 37 and find you asleep. 37 And what I am saying to you I am saying to everybody: keep awake!"

CHAPTER 14

1 And after two days it would be passover and matzoth-time; and the chief priests and scribes were trying to find a way to seize him

2 by trickery and kill him; 2 for they said "Not during the feast, for 3 fear there should be a disturbance among the people." 3 And while he was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, while he was at the table a woman came with an alabaster vial of expensive perfume, nard in pistachio oil. She crushed the vial and poured it over his head.
4 4 But there were some who took offense and said to each other "To 5 what purpose has this waste of the perfume been made? 5 for this perfume might have been sold for above three hundred denarii and given 6 to the poor"; and they spoke sternly to her. 6 But Jesus said "Let her be; why are you worrying her? she has done a good deed by me.
7 7 For you always have the poor with you, and can do good to them 8 when you choose, but me you do not always have. 8 She did what she 9 had the power to; she scented my body beforehand for burial; 9 and I 10 tell you verily, wherever the gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what she did will also be spoken of for a memorial of her." 10 And 11 Judas Iscarioth, the Judas Iscarioth who was one of the Twelve, went off to the chief priests to put him into their hands; 11 and they were glad to hear his proposition, and promised to give him money, and he went to looking for a way to deliver him to them under favorable circumstances.

12 12 And on the first day of matzoth-time, when they killed the sheep for the passover, his disciples said to him "Where will you have us 13 go and make the preparations for you to eat the passover?" 13 And he sent two of his disciples and said to them "Go into the city, and you 14 will meet with a man carrying a pitcher of water; 14 follow him, and where he goes in say to the man of the house "The teacher says "Where 15 is my room where I am to eat the passover with my disciples?" 15 and he will show you a large upper room, ready spread; make our prepara-16 tions there." 16 And the disciples went out and came into the city and 17 found what he told them they would, and got ready the passover; 17 and when evening came he came with the Twelve.

18 18 And while they were at the table eating, Jesus said "I tell you verily that one of you will have me arrested, he who is eating with 19 me." 19 They began to be pained and to say to him one by one "Am I 20 the one?" 20 and he said to them "One of the Twelve, one who dips 21 into the dish with me— 21 because the Son of Man goes as is written of him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is put under arrest; it would have been well for that man if he had not been born."

22 22 And while they were eating he took a cake of bread, and pronounced the blessing and broke it and gave it to them, and said "Take this: 23 this is my body." 23 And he took a cup, and gave thanks over it and gave 24 it to them, and they all drank from it; 24 and he said to them "This is 25 my covenant blood poured out for many. 25 I tell you verily I will drink of this produce of the vine no more till that day when I drink it new in the Reign of God."

26 26 And they sang the hymns and went out to the Mount of Olives.
27 27 And Jesus said to them "You will all be staggered, because it is written 'I will strike down the shepherd, and the sheep will scatter'; 28 28 but after my rising I will go ahead of you to Galilee." 29 But Peter said 30 to him "Even if everybody will be staggered, yet I will not." 30 And Jesus said to him "I tell you verily that you today, this night before 31 a cock has crowed twice, will disown me three times." 31 But he talked and talked, "If I have to die with you I will not disown you"; and so said all of them.

32 32 And they came to an enclosure of which the name was Gethsemane, 33 and he said to his disciples "Sit here while I pray." 33 And he took with him Peter and James and John, and began to be dismayed and un-34 easy, and said to them "My soul is sad, deathly sad; 34 stay here, and 35 keep awake." 35 And he went a little further, and threw himself down on the earth, and prayed that if it was possible the moment might 36 pass away from him, 36 and said "Abba, Father, everything is possible to you: pass by me with this cup. But not what I will, but what you." 37 37 And he came and found them asleep, and said to Peter "Simon, are 38 you asleep? were you not able to keep awake one moment? 38 Keep awake and pray, that you may not fall under temptation: the spirit 39 is enthusiastic but the flesh is weak." 39 And he went away again and 40 prayed, saying the same thing; 40 and again he came and found them asleep, for their eyes were weighed down; and they did not know 41 what answer to make to him. 41 And he came the third time and said to them "Well, then, sleep and rest; that will do; the moment has 42 come; lo, the Son of Man is given up into the hands of the sinners—rise, let us be going; 42 here is the one who gives me up to them, coming right on."

43 43 And at once, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived, and with him a crowd with swords and sticks from the chief 44 priests and the elders and the scribes. 44 And the one who was giving him up had given them a cue, telling them "Whichever I kiss is he; 45 take him and get him safely away." 45 And when he came, at once he 46 went up to him and said "Rabbi," and went to kissing him; 46 and they 47 put their hands on him and took him. 47 But someone of those who were present drew his sword and struck the high priest's servant and took 48 off his ear. 48 And Jesus answered them "You come out as if it were 49 against a robber, with swords and sticks, to arrest me; 49 I had been among you in the temple-precinct day by day teaching, and you did 50 51 not take me. But it is in order that the scriptures may be fulfilled." 51 And everybody left him and ran. 51 And a young man went along with him, who had a linen wrapper on his naked body; and they seized him, 52 52 but he ran away naked, leaving the wrapper.

53 53 And they took Jesus to the high priest's house; and all the chief 54 54 priests and the elders and the scribes came together. 54 And Peter had followed him at a distance clear into the high priest's courtyard, and was sitting with the officers and warming himself in the light.

55 And the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for testimony against Jesus for putting him to death, and did not find any; 56 for a great many were testifying against him falsely, and the testimonies did not tally. 57 And some stood up and testified falsely against him 58 "We heard him say 'I will tear down this temple made 59 by hands and in three days build another not made by hands'"; 59 and 60 even so their testimony did not tally. 60 And the high priest stood forward and put the question to Jesus "Do you not make any answer?
61 61 what is it that these are testifying against you?" but he was silent and did not make any answer. Again the high priest put to him the 62 question "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed?" 62 And Jesus said "I am, and you shall see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand 63 of Power and coming with the clouds of the heavens." 63 And the high priest, tearing his tunics, said "What further need have we of wit-64 nesses? you heard the blasphemy, what is your opinion?" 64 And they 65 all found Mm guilty and punishable with death. 65 And some began to spit on him and to cover up his face and strike him with their fists and say to him "Prophecy!" and the officers received him with slaps.
66 66 And while Peter was below in the courtyard one of the high priest's 67 maids came, 67 and, seeing Peter warming himself, looked at him and 68 said "You were with the Nazarene too, that Jesus." 68 But he denied it, saying "I do not know and have not the least idea what you are talking 69 of." 69 And he went out into the entry of the courtyard, and the maid 70 saw him and began to say again to the bystanders "That is one of 71 them," and he denied it again. 70 And after a little the bystanders said to Peter again "You positively are one of them—for you are a 71 Galilean." 71 And he began to curse and swear "I do not know this man 72 that you are talking of." 72 And at once a cock crowed, for the second time. And Peter recalled the matter, how Jesus had said to him "Before a cock has crowed twice you will disown me three times"; and he broke out weeping.

CHAPTER 15

1 And at once in the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes and the whole Sanhedrin, got their scheme ready and bound 2 Jesus and brought him to Pilate and handed him over to him. 2 And Pilate put the question to him, "Are you the 'king of the Jews!'" 3 and he answered him "As you say." 3 And the chief priests accused him 4 vehemently; 4 and Pilate questioned him again, "Do you not make any 5 answer? see at what a rate they are accusing you"; 5 but Jesus no longer made any answer, so that Pilate wondered.

6 And every feast-time he used to release to them one prisoner whom 7 they begged off. 7 And the man known as Bar-Abbas was in custody 8 with the rioters, who had committed murder in the riot. 8 And the crowd went up and began to ask for what he used to do for them;

9 9 and Pilate answered them "Will you have me release for you the King 10 of the Jews?" 10 for he was aware that it was out of jealousy that the 11 chief priests had had him arrested. 11 But the chief priests hounded 12 the crowd on to have him release Bar-Abbas for them instead. 12 And 13 Pilate answered them again "Then what shall I do with the one 14 that you call the King of the Jews?" 13 but they screamed again "Crucify 14 him." 14 And Pilate said to them "Why, what harm has he done?" 15 but they screamed more and more "Crucify him." 15 And Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Bar-Abbas for them, but scourged Jesus and gave him in charge to be crucified.

16 16 And the soldiers took him inside the courtyard, that is, the praetorium; 17 and they called together the whole cohort, and dressed him in purple, and braided a wreath of thorns and put it around his head, 18 and began to salute him with "Hail, King of the Jews!" 19 and they beat his head with a reed and spat on him, and got down on their 20 knees and did reverence to him. 20 And when they had had their fun with him, they took off the purple from him and put his own clothes on him.

21 21 And they led him out to be crucified; and they requisitioned a passerby coming from the country, Simon, a Cyrenian, the father of 22 Alexander and Rufus, to take up his cross. 22 And they brought him to 23 the place Golgotha, which means "the Skull place"; 23 and they offered 24 him wine with myrrh in it, but he did not take it; 24 and they crucified him and divided up his clothes, throwing lots over them, who should 25 take what. 25 And it was at nine o'clock they crucified him. 26 And the 26 inscription of his offense was written up, "The King of the Jews." 27 27 And with him they crucified two robbers, one on his right and one on his left.

29 29 And those who went past taunted him, shaking their heads and saying "Wow! you that were tearing down the temple and building 30 it up in three days, 30 save yourself by getting down off the cross!" 31 31 In the same way the chief priests too, making fun of him to each other with the scribes, said "He saved others; he cannot save himself!" 32 32 Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, get down off the cross now, that we may see it and believe." And those who were crucified with him twitted him.

33 33 And when twelve o'clock came there came a darkness all over the 34 land till three. 34 And at three o'clock Jesus shrieked loudly "Elohí, Elohí, lamá shabaktáni?" which means "My God, my God, wherefore 35 hast thou abandoned me?" 35 And some of those who were present said when they heard it "Hark, he is calling Eliah" [for that was the 36 way Elijah's name was then pronounced]. 36 And somebody ran and filled a sponge with vinegar and stuck it on a reed, and offered him the drink, saying "Just let us see if Elijah is coming to take him 37 down." 37 And Jesus uttered a loud cry and expired; 38 and the curtain of the temple split in two from top to bottom. And at seeing that he

39 expired like that, 39 the centurion who was there standing across the way from him said "This man positively was the son of God."

40 And there were also women looking on from a distance; among them Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of little James and of Jose, and Salome, 41 those who when he was in Galilee followed him and supplied his needs, and many others who had come up to Jerusalem with him.

42 And when evening had now come, since it was Friday, the day before the sabbath, 43 Joseph of Arimathea, a member of the Sanhedrin and a man of high standing in the community, who was himself watching for the Reign of God, plucked up courage to go into Pilate's presence and ask for Jesus's body. 44 And Pilate wondered that he should be already dead, and called in the centurion and questioned him as to whether he had been dead long; 45 and, having found this out from the centurion, he presented Joseph with the corpse. 46 And he bought a linen wrapper and took him down and did him up in the wrapper and placed him in a tomb that had been cut out of a rock, and rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47 And Mary the Magdalene and Jose's Mary saw where he was laid.

CHAPTER 16

1 And when the sabbath was over, Mary the Magdalene and James's Mary and Salome bought spices to come and anoint him; 2 and extremely early on the first day of the week they came to the tomb when the sun was up. 3 And they were saying to each other "Who will roll away the stone for us from the door of the tomb?" 4 and they looked up and saw that the stone was rolled back. For it was very large. 5 And they entered the tomb and saw a young man sitting on the right, clad in a white robe; and they were dismayed. 6 But he said to them "Do not be dismayed; you are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, the one who was crucified; he has risen, he is not here; there is the place where they laid him. 7 But go tell his disciples and Peter 'He is going ahead of you to Galilee; 8 there you shall see him, as he told you.'" And they went out and ran away from the tomb; for trepidation and surprise possessed them. And they said nothing to anybody, for they were afraid.

A WRITING SAID TO BE BY ELDER ARISTON; THE VERSES ARE NUMBERED AS PART OF THE SIXTEENTH CHAPTER OF MARK

9 And, having risen on the first day of the week early in the morning, he appeared first to Mary the Magdalene, from whom he had expelled seven demons. 10 She, going to those who had been with him, reported it to them as they were mourning and weeping; 11 and they, hearing that he was alive and had been seen by her, disbelieved.

12 And after this he made his appearance in another form to two of them as they were walking, going into the country; 13 and they went and reported it to the rest, and they did not believe these either.

14 14 And later he made his appearance to the Eleven themselves as they were at the table, and reproached their incredulity and obduracy, 15 that they had not believed those who had seen him risen. 15 And he said to them "Go into the entire world and proclaim the gospel to all the 16 creation. 16 He who believes and is baptized shall be saved, but he who 17 disbelieves shall be condemned. 17 And those who believe shall have these tokens accompanying them: by my name they shall expel demons; 18 they shall speak new languages; 18 they shall take up snakes, and if they drink anything deadly it shall not harm them; they shall lay their hands on invalids and these shall get well."

19 19 So the Lord Jesus, after speaking to them, was taken up to heaven 20 and seated at God's right hand; 20 and they went out and made their proclamation everywhere, the Lord cooperating and confirming the word through the attendant tokens.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

CHAPTER 1

1 Theophilus, inasmuch as many have undertaken to recite the things 2 that have been consummated among us 2 as those who from the first 3 had been eyewitnesses and agents of the word delivered them to us, 3 I also, having followed up everything accurately from the beginning, 4 have resolved to write it for your excellency consecutively, 4 that you might be acquainted with the certainties about the matters in which you were instructed.

5 There was in the days of Herod king of Palestine a certain priest, by name Zachariah, of the course of Abijah; and he had a wife from 6 among the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. 6 And both of them were upright before God, going by all the Lord's com-7 mandments and prescriptions irreproachably. 7 And they had no child, as Elisabeth was barren and both were advanced in years.

8 And when he was performing his priestly functions before God in 9 the order of his course, 9 in the customary drawing of lots for the priestly service it fell to him to go into the temple of the Lord and 10 burn incense; 10 and the whole body of the people were praying out-11 side at the hour of the incense-burning; 11 and there appeared to him an angel of the Lord standing on the right of the altar of incense.

12 And Zachariah was alarmed at the sight, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said to him "Do not be afraid, Zachariah, because your petition has been listened to, and your wife Elisabeth shall bear you 14 a son, and you shall name him John; 14 and you shall have joy and gladness, and many shall be glad at his birth. 15 For he shall be a great 15 man before the Lord, and shall not drink wine or beer, and shall be filled with Holy Spirit from his very birth; 16 and many of the sons of 16 Israel shall he bring back to the Lord their God; 17 he shall go before him 17 with Elijah's power and spirit, to bring the hearts of fathers back to their children and disobedient men into the mind of the upright, to 18 get ready for the Lord a prepared people." 18 And Zachariah said to the angel "By what shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my 19 wife advanced in years." 19 And the angel answered him "I am Gabriel who attend on God, and I was sent to speak to you and bring you 20 this word; 20 and lo, you shall be silent and not able to speak till the day that this comes to pass, for your not believing my words, which shall 21 be fulfilled in their time." 21 And the people were expecting Zachariah to come out, and wondering at his staying late in the temple; 22 but when he came out he could not speak to them, and they recognized that he had seen a manifestation in the temple. And he com-23 municated with them by signs, and remained dumb. 23 And when his days of service were full, he went home.

24 24 And after these days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and secluded 25 herself five months, saying 25 "Thus has the Lord done to me in the days in which he turned his eye to remove my disgrace among men."

26 26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to 27 a city in Galilee whose name was Nazareth, 27 to a maiden engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the family of David; and the 28 maiden's name was Mary. 28 And he came in where she was and said 29 "Hail, maiden highly favored, the Lord be with you"; 29 and she was disconcerted at the words, and wondered what sort of salutation that 30 was. 30 And the angel said to her "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you 31 have found favor with God; 31 and lo, you will conceive and bear a son, 32 and you will name him Jesus. 32 He will be great, and will be called the son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne 33 of his father David; 33 and he will reign over the house of Jacob for-34 ever, and there will be no end to his reign." 34 And Mary said to the 35 angel 35 "How is this to be, since I do not know man?" and the angel answered her "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; wherefore what is born will 36 be called holy too, the Son of God. 36 And lo, your kinswoman Elisabeth has herself conceived a son also in her old age, and this is her sixth 37 month, she who was called barren; 37 for from God nothing will be 38 impossible." 38 And Mary said "Here I am, the Lord's property; be it with me according to your word." And the angel left her.

39 39 And during those days Mary started out and took her way in 40 haste to the highlands, to a city in Judah, 40 and came into Zachariah's 41 house and greeted Elisabeth. 41 And when Elisabeth heard Mary's greeting the child leaped in her body, and Elisabeth was filled with 42 Holy Spirit 42 and gave a great shout and said "Blessed are you among 43 women, and blessed the fruit of your body! 43 And to what do I owe 44 this, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44 for here the child leaped in my body for glee when the sound of your greeting 45 came into my ears. 45 And happy is she who believed that there would be an accomplishment of what she had been told from the Lord."

46 And Mary said

"My soul is magnifying the Lord, 47 And my spirit exults in God my Savior, 48 Because he has taken notice of his servant's obscurity.
For lo, henceforth all generations shall celebrate my happy lot, 49 Because the Mighty One has done great things for me,—
The Mighty One, and holy is his name, 50 And his mercy is to generations and generations for those who fear him.
51 He has done mightily with his arm,
He has scattered men proud in inward thought, 52 Brought potentates down from their thrones and set lowly men on high,

53 Filled hungry men with good things and sent rich men away empty.
54 He has come to the aid of his servant Israel, 55 Remembering mercy, as he told our fathers,
To Abraham and his issue forever."

56 And Mary stayed with her about three months, and returned to her home.

57 57 And Elisabeth came to her full time for bearing, and had a son.
58 58 And her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown great 59 mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her. 59 And on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and were naming him Zachariah after 60 his father; 60 and his mother answered "No, he is to be named John." 61 61 And they said to her "There is no one in your family who bears that 62 name"; 62 and they made signs to his father to know what name he would 63 wish to have given him. 63 And he asked for a tablet and wrote "His 64 name is John"; 64 and they all wondered. And immediately his mouth 65 was opened and his tongue liberated, and he spoke, blessing God. 65 And fear came upon all who lived in the neighborhood; and in all the 66 highland of Judea all these matters were talked of, 66 and all who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying "What, then, will this child be?"—for the Lord's hand was with him.

67 67 And his father Zachariah was filled with Holy Spirit, and proph-68 esied, saying 68 "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has 69 visited and redeemed his people 69 and raised up a horn of salvation 70 for us in the house of his servant David 70 as he spoke by the mouths 71 of his old-time holy prophets— 71 salvation from our enemies and from 72 the hands of all who hate us, 72 to show mercy to our fathers and re-73 member his holy covenant, 73 the oath that he swore to Abraham our 74 father— 74 to grant to us that without fear, delivered from enemies' 75 hands, we should worship him in his presence 75 in godliness and honesty 76 all our days. 76 And you too, child, you shall be called the prophet of 77 the Most High; for you shall go in advance of the Lord to get ready 78 his roads, 77 to give his people knowledge of salvation in the pardoning 78 of their sins 78 because of our God's heart of pity, whereby a sunrise 79 from on high shall visit us 79 to shine on those who are sitting in darkness and the shadow of death, that it may guide our feet into the way of peace."

80 80 And the child grew, and strengthened in spirit, and was in the wildernesses till the day of his commission to Israel.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 And in those days a decree was issued by Caesar Augustus that 2 all the world of men should be registered. 2 (This was the first regis-3 tration while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) 3 And everybody went 4 to be registered at his own city; 4 and Joseph, among the rest, went up from the city of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to David's city, which 5 is called Bethlehem, because he was of David's house and clan, 5 to 6 have himself registered with Mary his wife, she being with child. 6 And while they were there she came to her full number of days for bearing, 7 7 and gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the lodgings.

8 8 And there were shepherds in that same country camping out in the 9 fields and keeping night-watches over their flock; 9 and an angel of the Lord came and stood over them, and the glory of the Lord shone 10 around them, and they were greatly afraid. 10 And the angel said to them "Do not be afraid; for lo, I bring you the news of a great glad-11 ness which there shall be for all the people: 11 that there is born for you today a savior, who is the Lord Messiah, in the city of David. 12 And this is a sign for you: you shall find a wrapped baby lying in a 13 manger." 13 And all of a sudden there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying 14 "Glory on high to God, 14 and on earth peace among men of grace." 15 And when the angels had gone away from them into the heavens the shepherds told each other 15 "Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." 16 And they came in haste and 16 hunted them up, Mary and Joseph and the baby lying in the manger; 17 and when they saw them they gave an account of the thing that had 17 been told them about this child. 18 And all who heard it wondered over what they were told by the shepherds; 19 but Mary kept track of all 18 these things, putting them together in her mind. 20 And the shepherds went back glorifying and praising God for all that they had heard 19 and seen, as they had been told.
20

21 21 And when a week was full for circumcising him, he was named Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived.

22 22 And when their days of cleansing according to the law of Moses were full they took him up to Jerusalem to present him before the 23 Lord, as it is written in the law of the Lord 23 "Every male that opens up a womb shall be sacred to the Lord," 24 and to give a sacrifice in 24 accordance with what it says in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtle-25 doves or two squabs." 25 Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Symeon, and this man was upright and godly, one who was 26 watching for the comforting of Israel, and there was Holy Spirit upon him; 26 and it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that 27 he should not see death before he saw the Lord's Messiah. 27 And he came into the temple-precinct in the Spirit; and upon the parents' bringing in the child Jesus, that they might do on his account such 28 things as are usual according to the law, 28 he received him in his arms and blessed God and said 29 "Now thou dost, Master, in accordance with 29 thy word, send thy servant away with a blessing; 30 for my eyes have seen thy salvation 31 which thou hast made ready before the face of all 30 peoples, 32 a light for the revelation of the nations and the glory of thy people Israel." 33 And his father and mother were wondering at what 31 they were told about him; 34 and Symeon blessed them and said to 32
34

35 Mary his mother "Lo, this boy is destined for the falling and rising up of many in Israel, and for a disparaged token, 35 and you yourself shall have a sword go through your soul; that designs in many hearts may be disclosed."

36 36 And there was a prophetess Hannah daughter of Phanel, of the tribe of Asher (she was greatly advanced in years, having lived with a husband seven years from her maidenhood 37 and been a widow as much as eighty-four years) who never quitted the temple-precinct, 38 worshiping night and day with fasts and prayers; 38 and she came at that very moment and stood before them and gave praise to God, and told about him to all who were watching for the redemption of Jerusalem.

39 39 And when they had finished everything that the law of the Lord requires, they returned to Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. 40 And the child grew and strengthened, filling with wisdom, and the grace of God was on him.

41 41 And his parents used to go to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. 42 And when he was twelve years old, and they were going up in accordance with the custom of the feast 43 and had completed the days, at their returning the child Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem; 44 and his parents did not know of it, but, supposing him to be in the company, went a day's journey and looked all about for him among their relatives and acquaintances, 45 and, not finding him, returned to Jerusalem to look him up. 46 And after three days they found him in the temple-precinct sitting among the teachers and listening to them and putting questions to them; 47 and all who heard him were surprised at his insight and his answers. 48 And at seeing him they were astonished, and his mother said to him "Child, why did you do such a thing to us? here are your father and I hunting for you and suffering pain over you." 49 And he said to them "How came it you were hunting for me? didn't you know I must be at my Father's?" 50 and they did not understand the word that he spoke to them. 51 And he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was under their control; and his mother kept the run of all these matters in her mind; 52 and Jesus kept growing in wisdom and height, and in favor with God and men.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 And in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the Trachonite Iturean country and Lysanias tetrarch of the Abilene, 2 in the high-priesthood of Hannas and Caiaphas, the word of God came upon Zachariah's son John in the wilderness; 3 and he came to all the region of the Jordan proclaiming baptism for repentance to the pardoning of sins, 4 as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah "The voice of one calling out in the wilderness 'Get ready the Lord's road, make his thoroughfares straight; 5 every ravine shall be filled and every

6 mountain and hill brought low, and the crooked shall become straight 6 roads and the rough ones smooth, 6 and all flesh shall see God's salvation.' "

7 7 So he said to the crowds that went out to be baptized by him
"Spawn of vipers, who has given you notice to flee from the future 8 wrath? 8 Produce fruits appropriate to repentance, then, and do not begin to say to yourselves 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I tell you God can raise up children to Abraham out of these stones.
9 9 And the ax is already lying at the root of the trees too, so every tree that does not produce good fruit is to be cut out and thrown into 10 a fire." 10 And the crowds put the question to him "Then what shall 11 we do?" 11 and he answered them "Let him who has two shirts share with him who has none, and let him who has eatables do likewise." 12 12 And customhouse officers too came to be baptized, and said to him 13 "Teacher, what shall we do?" 13 and he said to them "Do not demand 14 any more than is prescribed to you." 14 And enlisted men too put the question to him "And we, what shall we do?" and he said to them
"Do not intimidate nor blackmail anybody, and be content with your pay."

15 15 And while the people were in expectation and all were inwardly 16 questioning about John whether he might be the Messiah, 16 John answered by saying to all "I am baptising you with water, but he who is stronger than I is coming, whose shoestring I am not fit to untie; 17 he will baptize you with Holy Spirit and fire—17 he whose winnowingfork is in his hand to clean up his threshing-floor and gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn up with inextinguishable fire."

18 18 Much more exhortation he gave as he preached the gospel to the 19 people; 19 but the tetrarch Herod, being reproved by him about Herodias his brother's wife and about all the wicked things that Herod did, 20 20 added to the whole this one more—he shut up John in prison.

21 21 But when, upon the baptizing of the entire people, Jesus also was 22 baptized and was praying, the sky opened 21 and the Holy Spirit came down upon him in bodily form like a dove, and there was a voice out of the sky "You are my dear son, in you I take pleasure."

23 23 And he, Jesus, was beginning to be about thirty years old, being 24 the son, as was supposed, of Joseph the son of Eli 24 the son of Mattath the son of Levi the son of Melchi the son of Jannai the son of Joseph

CHAPTER 4

1 1 And Jesus, full of Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was 2 led about the wilderness under the Spirit's influence 2 forty days being tempted by the Devil. And he ate nothing during those days, and when 3 they came to an end he was hungry; 3 and the Devil told him "If you 4 are Son of God, tell this stone to become bread." 4 And Jesus answered 5 him "It is written that not upon bread alone shall man live." 5 And he 6 led him up and showed him all the kingdoms in the world of men in 7 an instant; 6 and the Devil said to him "I will give all of this dominion 8 and their glory to you, because it has been handed over to me and I 9 give it to anyone that I choose to; 7 so if you do reverence before me 10 it shall all be yours." 8 And Jesus answered him "It is written 'You 11 shall do reverence to the Lord your God, and worship him alone.'" 12 9 And he led him to Jerusalem and set him on the wing of the temple-precinct, and said to him "If you are Son of God, throw yourself 13 down from here; 10 for it is written that he will give his angels com-14 mands about you to protect you, 11 and that they will lift you on their 15 hands, for fear you should strike your foot against a stone." 12 And 16 Jesus answered him "It says 'You shall not put the Lord your God 17 on trial.'"
18 13 And when the Devil had ended every temptation he quitted 19 him for a time. 14 And Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the 20 Spirit; and a rumor about him went out all over the countryside.

15 15 And he was teaching in their synagogues, glorified by everybody, 16 16 and he came to Nazareth where he was brought up, and went to the synagogue on the sabbath day as was his custom, and stood up to 17 read; 17 and he was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah, and opened 18 the book and found the place where it said 18 "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, forasmuch as he has anointed me to give the gospel to 19 poor men; he has sent me to proclaim release to captives and recovery 20 of sight to blind men, to let the crushed go free, 19 to proclaim the 21 Lord's accepted year." 20 And he closed the book and gave it back to 22 the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue 23 were fixed on him; 21 and he began to say to them "Today you are hearing of this text fulfilled." 22 And all commended him, and wondered at the eloquent words which issued from his mouth, and said "why, that is Joseph's son!" 23 And he said to them "You will be sure to quote 24 this proverb to me, Doctor, cure yourself; what we have heard of your doing in Capernaum do here too, in your hometown." 24 But he 25 said "I tell you verily no prophet is accepted in his hometown.

25 But I tell you, to a certainty there were many widows in Elijah's 26 days in Israel, at the time that the sky was shut up three years and six months, when there came a great famine all over the land; 26 and 27 to not one of them was Elijah sent, but to a certain widow at Sarephath in Sidonia; 27 and there were many lepers in Israel at the time 28 of the prophet Elisha, and not one of them was cleansed but Naaman the Syrian." 28 And they all flew into a rage in the synagogue when they 29 heard this, 29 and stood up and hustled him out of the city, and brought 30 him to the brow of the mountain that their city was built on in order to throw him down the precipice; 30 but he passed through the midst of them and went his way.

31 31 And he came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was 32 teaching them on the sabbath, 32 and they were astonished at his teach-33 ing because his words were spoken with authority. 33 And in the synagogue there was a man under the control of an unclean demon, and 34 he shouted out loudly 34 "Ha, what have you to do with us, Jesus, you Nazarene? have you come to destroy us? I know you, I know who you 35 are, the Holy One of God." 35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying "Silence, and come out of him." And, after flinging him out on the floor, the 36 demon came out of him without doing him any harm. 36 And amazement came upon them all, and they talked to each other, saying "What 37 does this mean, that he gives orders with authority and power to the unclean spirits and they come out?" 37 and a noise about him went out to every place in the region.

38 38 And he rose and left the synagogue and came to Simon's house. And Simon's mother-in-law was suffering with a severe fever, and they 39 asked him to do something for her; 39 and he went and stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her; and immediately she got up 40 and waited on their needs. 40 And after sunset one and all who had people sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid 41 his hands on each one of them and cured them. 41 And demons also came out from many, shouting out "You are the Son of God"; and he stopped them peremptorily and would not allow them to speak, because they knew him to be the Messiah.

42 42 And when daylight came he went out and away to a lonely place; and the crowds went in quest of him and came to where he was, and 43 held him back to keep him from going away from them. 43 But he said to them "I must bring word of the Reign of God to the other cities 44 too, because that is what I was sent for." 44 And he was making his proclamation in the synagogues of Palestine.

CHAPTER 5

1 And while the crowd was pressing upon him and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the edge of the Lake of Gennesaret

2 and saw two boats standing at the water's edge; 2 but the fishermen had 3 got out of them and were washing the nets. 3 And he got into one of 4 the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from 5 the land; 4 and he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. And 6 when he stopped speaking he said to Simon "Put out to the deep 7 water and let down your nets for a catch." 5 And Simon answered 8 "Master, we worked hard all night and got nothing; but at your 9 word I will let down the nets." 6 And they did this and enclosed a great 10 number of fish, and their nets were tearing, 7 and they beckoned to 11 their partners in the other boat to come and lend a hand; and they 12 came, and filled both boats so that they were on the point of going 13 to the bottom. 8 And at seeing it Simon Peter threw himself down at 14 Jesus's knees, saying "Take yourself away from me, because I am 15 a sinful man, sir"; 9 for amazement had come over him and all who 16 were with him at the haul of fish that they had caught, 10 and over 17 James and John the sons of Zebedee too, who were in business with 18 Simon. And Jesus said to Simon "Do not be afraid; henceforth you 19 shall be catching men." 11 And when they had brought their boats to 20 land they left everything and followed him.

12 12 And while he was in one of the cities, there there appeared a 13 man full of leprosy; and, seeing Jesus, he threw himself down on his 14 face and implored him, saying "Sir, if you will you can cleanse me." 15 13 And he reached out his hand and touched him, saying "I will; be 16 cleansed"; and at once the leprosy went away from him. 14 And he in-17 structed him not to tell anybody, but "go show yourself to the priest 18 and make the offerings on account of your cleansing as Moses directed, 19 for an attestation to them." 15 But the talk about him spread all the 20 more, and great crowds came together to hear and to be cured of 21 their sicknesses; 16 but he kept out of the way in lonely places and 22 prayed.

17 17 And on one of the days he was teaching, and there were Pharisees 18 and teachers of the law sitting by who had come from every village 19 in Galilee and Judea and Jerusalem, and there was power of the 20 Lord for his healing, and men arrived bringing on a couch a man who 21 was paralyzed; and they tried to bring him in and lay him before 22 him, 19 and, not finding any way to bring him in because of the crowd, 23 they got up on the roof and let him down through the tiles, cot and 24 all, into the middle before Jesus. 20 And, seeing their faith, he said 25 "Man, you are forgiven for your sins." 21 And the scribes and the 26 Pharisees began to question, saying "Who is this that speaks blas-27 phemies? who can forgive sins but God alone?" 22 But Jesus, recognizing 28 their questionings, answered them "Why are you inwardly ques-29 tioning? 23 which is easier, to say 'you are forgiven for your sins' or to 30 say 'rise and walk'? 24 But, that you may know that the Son of Man 31 has authority to forgive sins on earth—" said he to the paralyzed man, 32 "I say to you, Rise, and take up your cot and go home." 25 And immediately he stood up before them and took up what he had been lying 26 on, and went off to his home glorifying God. 26 And surprise came over them one and all, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying "We have seen strange things today." 27 27 And after this he went out and observed a customhouse officer, Levi by name, sitting in the customhouse office, and said to him "Fol-28 29 low me"; 28 and he left everything and rose and followed him. 29 And Levi gave a great banquet for him in his house: and there was a great crowd of customhouse officers and so on who were at the table with 30 them, 30 and the Pharisees and their scribes complained to his disciples

"Why do you eat and drink with customhouse officers and people of 31 bad character?" 31 And Jesus answered them "Not the able-bodied, but 32 the ill, need a physician; 32 I have not come to call saints, but sinners, to repentance." 33 33 And they said to him "John's disciples fast frequently and make prayers, and so do those of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink." 34 34 But Jesus said to them "Can you make the wedding guests fast 35 while the bridegroom is with them? 35 but there will come days, and when the bridegroom is taken from them, then they will fast in those days." 36 36 And he told them a parable too: "Nobody cuts a patch from a new cloak and sews it on an old cloak; if one does, he will be cutting the new one and the patch from the new one will not match the old one.
37 37 And nobody puts new wine in old skins; if one does, the new wine will burst the skins, and it will run out and the skins will be wasted; 38 39 38 but new wine is to be put in fresh skins. 39 And nobody when he has been drinking old wine wants new; for he says "The old is best."

CHAPTER 6

1 1 And on a sabbath it befell that he was walking through grainfields and his disciples were picking and eating the ears, rubbing them down 2 in their hands. 2 But some of the Pharisees said "Why are you doing 3 what is not lawful on the sabbath?" 3 And Jesus replied to them "Have you not even read this that David did when he, and those who were 4 with him, were hungry? 4 that he went into the house of God and took and ate the showbread, and gave it to those who were with him, which it is not lawful that anybody but the priests alone should eat?" 5 5 and he said to them "The Son of Man is master of the sabbath." 6 6 And on another sabbath it befell that he went into the synagogue and was teaching; and there was a man there whose right hand was 7 shriveled. 7 And the scribes and the Pharisees were watching him to see if he cured on the sabbath, that they might find a chance to 8 arraign him; but he knew their designs. 8 And he said to the man with his hand shriveled "Rise and stand forward"; and he got up and 9 stood. 9 And Jesus said to them "I put the question to you whether it is lawful on the sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save a life or 10 to kill"; 10 and he looked around at them all and said to him "Stretch 11 out your hand"; 11 and he did, and his hand was restored. But they were seized with fatuity, and talked together of what they should do to Jesus.

12 And in those days it befell that he went out on the mountainside 13 to pray, and spent the whole night in prayer to God; 13 and when day came he called his disciples to him, and, choosing out twelve of them, 14 the same whom he named apostles,— 14 Simon, the same whom he named Peter, and his brother Andrew, and James and John and Philip and 15 Bartholomew 15 and Matthew and Thomas and James the son of Al-16 pheus, and Simon known as the Zealot, 16 and Judas the son of James, 17 and Judas Iscarioth who turned traitor,— 17 and coming down with them, he took his stand in a level place, he and a great crowd of his disciples, and a great multitude of the people from all Palestine and Jerusalem and the Tyre and Sidon coast, who came to hear him and 18 be healed from their diseases; 18 and those who were molested by unclean 19 spirits were cured; 19 and all the crowd were trying to get a chance to 20 touch him, because a power went out from him and healed all. 20 And he raised his eyes to his disciples and said

"Happy you that are poor, because yours is the Reign of God.
21 21 Happy you that are hungry now, because you shall be fed to the 22 full. Happy you that weep now, because you shall laugh. 22 Happy are you when men hate you and when they ostracize you and twit you 23 and proscribe your name as vile on account of the Son of Man. 23 On that day be glad and dance, for your reward in heaven is great; for 24 their fathers did the same sort of things to the prophets. 24 Woe to you 25 that are rich though, because you have had your comforting. 25 Woe to you that are filled now, because you shall be hungry. Woe, you 26 that laugh now, because you shall mourn and weep. 26 Woe when all men speak well of you, for their fathers did the same sort of thing to the pretended prophets.

27 27 "But I tell you who hear me, love your enemies, do good turns to 28 those who hate you, 28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who do 29 spiteful things to you; 29 to him who cuffs you on the cheek offer the other cheek too, and from him who takes away your cloak do not with-30 hold your shirt either; 30 give to everybody who asks you, and do not 31 demand your things back from the one who takes them; 31 and as you 32 would have men do to you, do likewise to them. 32 And if you love those who love you, what credit is it to you? for sinners too love those who 33 love them. 33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what 34 credit is it to you? sinners too do the same. 34 And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is it to you? sinners too 35 lend to sinners to receive payment in full. 35 But do love your enemies, and do good and lend without hoping to get any payment; and your reward shall be great, and you shall be sons of the Most High, be-36 cause he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. 36 Be tenderhearted, as 37 your Father is. 37 And do not be judging, and you shall not be judged; and do not condemn, and you shall not be condemned. Release and 38 you shall be released; 38 give and you shall have gifts given to you; good measure, pressed in, shaken down, running over, they will give into your lap. For the measure that you measure out shall be measured back to you."

39 39 And he also told them a parable: "Can a blind man guide a blind 40 man? will they not both tumble into a pit? 40 a pupil is not above his teacher, but everyone thoroughly trained will be like his teacher.
41 41 And why is it that you can see the particle of straw in your brother's 42 eye, but do not observe the beam of timber in your own eye? 42 how can you say to your brother 'Brother, let me get out the particle in your eye,' when you cannot see the timber in your own eye? Hypocrite, first get the timber out of your eye, and then you will have good eye-
43 sight to get out the particle in your brother's eye. 43 For there is no such thing as a good tree producing foul fruit, nor yet a foul tree 44 producing good fruit; 44 for each tree is known by its particular fruit; for people do not pick figs off thorns, nor gather grapes off a bramble.
45 45 A good man brings forth a good thing out of the good stock in his heart, and a bad man out of the bad a bad thing; for what his mouth speaks comes out of what is overflowing in his heart.

46 46 "And why do you call me 'Sir,' 'Sir,' and not do what I say?
47 47 Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will let you know whom he is like: 48 he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock, and when a flood came the river dashed against that house and was not able to shake it, because it was built well. 49 But he who hears and does not do is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the river dashed, and at once it fell in and was a total wreck."

CHAPTER 7

1 1 After he had finished speaking all his words in the hearing of 2 the people, he came into Capernaum. 2 And a certain centurion's ser-3 vant, whom he prized highly, was ill and ready to die; 3 and, hearing about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come 4 and save his servant's life; 4 and they came to Jesus and appealed to him earnestly, saying "He deserves to have you do this for him; 5 for 5 he loves our nation, and it was he who built us the synagogue." 6 And 6 Jesus went with them. But when he was now not far from the house the centurion sent friends to him with the message "Sir, do not put 7 yourself out, for I am not fit to have you come under my roof— 7 that is the reason why I did not presume to come to you myself—but say 8 the word, and let my boy be healed. 8 For I too am a man in a position under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one 'Go,' and he goes; and to another 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant 9 'Do this,' and he does it." 9 And Jesus, hearing this, wondered at him, and turned and said to the crowd that was following him "I tell you, I have not found so much faith even in Israel." 10 And the men that had 10 been sent to him returned to the house and found the servant well.

11 11 And before long he went to a city named Nain, and his disciples and 12 a great crowd were going along with him; 12 and when he drew near the gate of the city, there was a man being carried out dead who was his mother's only son, and she was a widow; and there was quite a 13 crowd from the city with her. 13 And at seeing her the Lord was sorry 14 for her and said to her "Do not weep," 14 and went up and touched the coffin; and the bearers stopped, and he said "Young man—I am 15 speaking to you—rise!" 15 and the dead man sat up and began to 16 speak; and he gave him to his mother. 16 And fear came over them all, and they glorified God, saying "a great prophet has arisen among 17 us" and "God has visited his people"; 17 and this talk about him went out all over Palestine and all its neighborhood.

18 19 18 And John's disciples reported to him about all this; 19 and John called to him two disciples of his and sent them to the Lord with the 20 message "Are you the Coming One or are we to expect another?" 20 And the men came to him and said "John the Baptist has sent us to you 21 to ask, are you the Coming One or are we to expect another?" 21 Thereupon he cured many of diseases and defects and evil spirits, and 22 granted sight to many blind men, 22 and answered them by saying "Go and report to John what you saw and heard: blind men are recovering their sight, cripples are walking, lepers are being cleansed and deaf men are hearing, dead men are being raised, poor men are being given 23 the gospel; 23 and happy is anyone who is not staggered over me."

24 24 And when John's messengers had gone Jesus began to say to the crowds about John "What did you go out into the wilderness for? to 25 gaze at reeds shaking in the wind? 25 But what did you go out for? to see a man robed in soft fabrics? for those who are in magnificent 26 clothing and in luxury, go to royal palaces. 26 But what did you go out for? to see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet; 27 27 this is he of whom it is written 'Lo, I am sending before your face 28 my messenger who shall prepare your road before you.' 28 I tell you, among all that are born of women no one is greater than John; but 29 the littlest in the Reign of God is greater than he. 29 And all the people and the customhouse officers, when they heard, justified God, receiving 30 John's baptism; 30 but the Pharisees and the legists set aside God's 31 plan for themselves, not receiving baptism from him. 31 To what, then, shall I compare the men of this generation, and what are they like?
32 32 they are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling out to each other, that say 'We played to you and you did not dance, we 33 lamented and you did not weep.' 33 For John the Baptist has come not 34 eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say 'He has a demon'; 34 the Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say 'Here is a gormandizer and a drinker, a friend of customhouse officers and people 35 of bad character'; 35 and wisdom is justified by all her children."

36 36 And one of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him, and he went 37 into the Pharisee's house and took a place at the table. 37 Now a sinful

38 woman in the city, having ascertained that he was at the table in the Pharisee's house, got an alabaster vial of perfume 38 and stood behind him by his feet weeping, and began to wet his feet with her tears and wiped them off with the hair of her head, and kept kissing his 39 feet and rubbing them with the perfume. 39 And when the Pharisee that had invited him saw it he thought to himself "If this man were a prophet he would know who and what the woman that is touching 40 him is, that she is a sinner." 40 And Jesus answered him "Simon, I have something to say to you." 41 And he said "Say it, sir." "Once upon a 41 time there was a lender who had two debtors: the one owed five 42 hundred denarii and the other fifty. 42 As they were not able to pay, he gave them both a release. Then which of the two will love him the 43 most?" 43 Simon answered "I suppose, the one to whom he gave the 44 release for most." 44 And he said to him "You judge rightly." And, turning to the woman, he said to Simon "Do you see this woman? I came into your house; you did not give me water for my feet; but she wetted my feet with her tears and wiped them off with her hair.
45 45 You did not give me a kiss; but she has kept kissing my feet without 46 a pause ever since I came in. 46 You did not put oil on my head; but she 47 has been putting perfume on my feet. 47 For which reason I tell you her many sins are forgiven; because she has loved much, but he who 48 is forgiven little loves little." 48 And he said to her "Your sins are 49 forgiven"; 49 and those who were at the table with him began to say to 50 themselves "Who is this that even forgives sins?" 50 But he said to the woman "Your faith has saved you; go, and good betide you."

CHAPTER 8

1 1 And thereafter he was making a tour city by city and village by village, preaching and bringing word of the Reign of God, and with 2 him the Twelve 2 and certain women who had been cured of evil spirits and sickness,—Mary known as the Magdalene, from whom 3 seven demons had come out, 3 and Johanna the widow of Herod's superintendent Chuzas, and Susanna, and many others, who supplied 4 the men's needs out of their property,—4 and as a great crowd was coming together, and the people from city after city were flocking to 5 him, he said in a parable "The sower went out to sow his seed. 5 And in his sowing some fell on the roadside and was trampled on, and the 6 birds of the air ate it up; 6 and some more dropped on the rock, and after it came up it dried out because of not having any moisture; 7 7 and some more fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up with it and smothered it; 8 and some more fell on the good soil, and after it 8 came up it produced a hundredfold crop." Saying this, he called out "Let him who has ears to hear, hear!" 9 9 And his disciples put the question to him what that parable stood for; 10 and he said "To you it is given to know the secrets of the Reign of God; but to the rest it is in parables, that when they see they 11 may not see and when they hear they may not understand. 11 But this 12 is what the parable stands for. 12 The seed is the word of God; and the ones on the roadside are those who hear and then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, that they may not believe and 13 be saved; 13 and the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear, accept the word with joy, while they have no root—who believe tem-14 porarily and quit in testing-time; 14 and what fell among the thorns, these are the ones who hear, and, as they go on, are stifled by life's 15 anxieties and riches and pleasures, and do not ripen a crop; 15 and what was in soil that was all right, these are those who hear and retain the word in a right and good heart, and bear their crop by holding out.

16 16 "But nobody after lighting a lamp covers it with a jar or sets it under a couch, but sets it on a stand so that those who enter can 17 see the light. 17 For there is no secret thing that will not be laid open, nor a thing concealed that shall not be found out and brought to 18 light. 18 So look out how you hear; for to one who has, more shall be given, and from one who has not, even what he seems to have shall be taken away."

19 19 And his mother and his brothers came to him, and could not get 20 at him because of the crowd; 20 and he was told "Your mother and your 21 brothers are standing outside wanting to see you." 21 But he answered them "My mother and my brothers, they are those who listen to God's word and do it."

22 22 And on one of the days he and his disciples had got into a boat, and he said to them "Let us go across to the other side of the lake," 23 and they started; and during the passage he fell asleep. 23 And a squall of wind came down on the lake, and they were getting swamped 24 and were in danger; 24 and they approached him and roused him up, saying "Master, master, we are lost." But when he was roused he re-25 buked the wind and the surging of the water, and they stopped and there was a calm. 25 And he said to them "Where is your faith?" And they were afraid and wondered, saying to each other "Who then is 26 this, that he gives orders to the winds and the water and they obey him?" 26 And they came to land in the country of the Gerasenes, which is on the opposite side from Galilee.

27 27 And when he had landed there met him a certain man out of the city who had demons, and had not for a considerable time had on a 28 garment, and did not stay in a house but in the tombs. 28 And at seeing Jesus he screamed out and threw himself down before him and said in a loud voice "What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most 29 High God? I beg you, do not torture me"; 29 for he was enjoining the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For at many times it had seized him, and he used to be manacled with fetters and chains and kept under guard, and he would burst the fastenings and be driven 30 to the wildernesses by the demon. 30 And Jesus put the question to him
"What is your name?" and he said "Brigade," because many demons 31 had entered him. 31 And they were appealing to him not to order them

32 to go to the abyss. 32 Now there was there a considerable herd of hogs 33 feeding on the mountainside; and they appealed to him to permit 34 them to enter those; 33 and he gave them permission, and the demons 35 came out of the man and entered the hogs, and the herd bolted down 36 the steep bank into the lake and were drowned. 34 And the men who 37 were tending them, at seeing what had happened, ran away and re-38 ported it in the city and in the fields; 35 and they came out to see what 39 had happened, and came to Jesus and found the man from whom the 40 demons had come out sitting at Jesus's feet, clothed and sane, and 41 they were afraid. 36 And those who had seen it reported to them how 42 the demon-ridden man had been brought to himself. 37 And the entire 43 populace of the region of the Gerasenes asked him to go away from 44 their country, because they were under the strain of a great fear; 45 and he got into a boat and returned. 38 And the man from whom the 46 demons had come out begged to be with him; but he dismissed him, 47 saying "Return home and tell what things God has done for you"; 48 and he went off through the whole city proclaiming what things Jesus 49 had done for him.

40 And at Jesus's return the crowd was there to welcome him; for 41 they were all expecting him. 41 And there came a man whose name was 42 Jair—and he was a director in the synagogue—and threw himself 43 down at Jesus's feet and appealed to him to come to his house, 42 be-44 cause he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was 45 dying. And while he was on the way the crowds were suffocating him; 46 43 and a woman who had been having a flow of blood for twelve years, 47 who had not succeeded in getting cured by anybody, 44 came up behind 48 and touched the tassel of his cloak, and immediately her flow of 49 blood stopped. 45 And Jesus said "Who was it that touched me?" but 50 everybody denied it, while Peter said "Master, the crowds are hem-51 ming you in and crushing you." 46 But Jesus said "Somebody touched 52 me; for I felt that a power had gone out from me." 47 And the woman, 53 seeing that she had not escaped notice, came trembling and threw 54 herself down before him and told him before all the people the reason 55 why she touched him, and how she was healed immediately; 48 and he 56 said to her "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go, and good 57 betide you."

49 While he was still speaking, someone came from the director's 50 house saying "Your daughter is dead; do not put the teacher out 51 anymore." 50 But Jesus, hearing it, answered him "Do not be afraid, 52 only believe, and she shall get well." 51 And when he came to the house 53 he would not let anyone go in with him but Peter and John and 54 James and the girl's father and mother. 52 And everybody was weeping 55 and wailing for her; but he said "Do not weep, she is not dead but 56 asleep." 53 And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. 54 But 57 he grasped her hand and called "Girl, rise"; 55 and her spirit came back, and she stood up immediately; and he directed that she should be 56 given something to eat. 56 And her parents were astounded; but he instructed them to tell nobody what had taken place.

CHAPTER 9

1 1 And he called together the Twelve and gave them power and 2 authority over all demons and to cure diseases, 2 and sent them to 3 proclaim the Reign of God and to heal, 3 and said to them "Do not 4 take anything for the journey, neither a walking-stick nor a wallet 5 nor bread nor money, nor have two shirts to a man. 4 And whatever 6 house you go into, stay there and come out from there. 5 And what-7 ever people do not receive you, in coming out of that city shake off 8 the dust from your feet for an attestation against them." 6 And they 9 went out and went along through the villages, preaching the gospel 10 and curing people of sickness everywhere. 7 And the tetrarch Herod 11 heard of all that was going on, and was puzzled, because it was said 12 by some that John had risen from the dead, 8 and by some that Elijah 13 had appeared, and by others that some old-time prophet had arisen.
14 9 But Herod said "John I beheaded; but who is this about whom I hear 15 such things?" and tried to get a chance to see him.

16 10 And the apostles returned and told him the story of everything they 17 had done; and he took them and withdrew with them by himself to 18 a city named Bethsaida. 11 But the crowds, finding it out, followed him; 19 and he made them welcome and spoke to them about the Reign of God, 20 and healed those who needed a cure. 12 But the day began to decline; 21 and the Twelve came to him and said to him "Dismiss the crowd, 22 so that they may go to the villages and farmlands round about and 23 get lodged and find provisions, because here we are in an uninhabited 24 place." 13 But he said to them "Give them something to eat yourselves." 25 And they said "We have no more than five cakes of bread and two 26 fishes, unless it is for us to go and buy eatables for all these people"— 27 for there were about five thousand men. 14 But he said to his disciples 28 "Have them lie down by groups of about fifty each"; 15 and they did 29 so, and got them one and all lying down. 16 And he took the five cakes 30 and the two fishes, and looked up to the sky and blessed them and 31 broke them up and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd; 32 17 and they all ate and had their fill, and there were taken up what they 33 had of fragments left over, twelve baskets.

34 18 And there was a time, while he was praying in private, that the 35 disciples were with him and he put the question to them "Who do the 36 crowds say I am?" 19 And they answered "John the Baptist—and others, 37 Elijah—and others, that one of the old-time prophets has arisen." 38 20 And he said to them "And who do you say I am?" And Peter an-39 swered "God's Messiah." 21 But he peremptorily enjoined them not to 40 tell this to anyone, 22 saying that the Son of Man must suffer a great 41 deal, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, 42 and be killed, and rise on the third day. 23 And he said to all "If any-43 one wishes to come after me, let him repudiate himself and take up

24 his cross daily and follow me. 24 For whoever wishes to save his self will lose it; but whoever loses his self on my account, he will save it.
25 25 For what good will a man get by making a profit of the whole world 26 and a loss of himself? 26 For whoever is ashamed of me and my words, of him the Son of Man will be ashamed when he comes in his glory and 27 his Father's and the holy angels'. 27 But I tell you truly, there are some of those who stand here who shall not taste death till they see the Reign of God."

28 28 And about a week after these things he took with him Peter and 29 John and James and went up on the mountainside to pray. 29 And while he was praying the look of his face became different and his clothes 30 flashing white; 30 and lo, there were two men talking with him; it was 31 Moses and Elijah, who, 31 appearing in glory, spoke of his departure 32 which he was to consummate at Jerusalem. 32 But Peter and those who were with him were weighed down with sleep, but when they waked up they saw his glory and the two men that were standing with him.
33 33 And while those were parting from him Peter said to Jesus "Master, it is a good thing we are here: let us make three booths, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah"—not knowing what he 34 was saying. 34 And as he was saying these things there was a cloud, and it overshadowed them; and they were afraid when they entered the 35 cloud. 35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, "This is my chosen 36 son: listen to him." 36 And as the voice came, Jesus alone was to be found. And they kept silence and did not report any of the things they had seen to anybody in those days.

37 37 And when they came down off the mountain on the next day be 38 encountered a great crowd; 38 and a man shrieked out from the crowd "Teacher, I beg you to take notice of my son, because he is the only 39 one I have, 39 and here a spirit takes him and all of a sudden he screams, and it convulses him and raises a foam, and it is with great difficulty that it can be got to come away from him, breaking him all to pieces; 40 40 and I begged your disciples to expel it and they could not." 41 And Jesus answered "O unbelieving and perverse generation, how long shall I be among you and bear with you? bring your son here." 42 42 But even while he was coming the demon struck him down and threw him into a convulsion; but Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and 43 healed the boy and gave him back to his father. 43 And all were astonished at the grandeur of God.

But while all were wondering at all that he was doing he said to 44 his disciples 44 "Lodge these words in your ears: for the Son of Man is 45 to be given up into the hands of men." 45 But they did not know what to make of this saying, and it was veiled from them so that they should not apprehend it; and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

46 46 And the question came up among them which of them was greatest.
47 47 But Jesus, knowing their inward questioning, took a child and had it 48 stand at his side, 48 and said to them "Anybody who receives this child in my name is receiving me, and anybody who receives me is receiving him who sent me; for he who is smallest among you all, he is greatest."

49 And John answered "Master, we saw somebody expelling demons in your name and we stopped him because he does not follow with us." 50 But Jesus said to him "Do not stop him, because he who is not against us is for us."

51 And when the days for his being taken up came around, he set his face to go to Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him; 52 and they went, and came into a village of Samaritans to make preparations for him; 53 and they did not receive him, because he was headed toward Jerusalem. 54 And when the disciples James and John saw it they said "Sir, will you have us say the word for fire to come down out of the sky and consume them?" 55 But he turned and rebuked them, 56 and they went to another village.

57 And while they were going along somebody said to him on the road "I will follow you wherever you go." 58 And Jesus said to him "The foxes have dens and the birds of the air perches, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

59 And he said to another "Follow me"; but he said "Permit me first to go and bury my father." 60 And he said to him "Leave the dead to bury their dead, but for your part go and advertise the Reign of God."

61 And still another said "I will follow you, sir; but first permit me to bid farewell to the people at home." 62 But Jesus said to him "Nobody who puts his hand to a plow and looks back is fit for the Reign of God."

CHAPTER 10

1 And after this the Lord designated seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him two by two to every city and place where he himself was going to come. 2 And he said to them "The harvest is great, but the workers are few; so beg the owner of the harvest to send out workers to his harvest. 3 Go; here I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. 4 Carry no purse, no wallet, no shoes, and salute no one on the road. 5 And whatever house you enter, first say 'Peace to this house'; 6 and if there be a man for peace there, your peace shall rest upon him, but if not it shall come back to you. 7 And stay in that same house, eating and drinking what they furnish, for a worker deserves his pay. 8 Do not move from house to house. And whatever city you come into and they receive you, eat what is set before you, 9 and cure the sick in it, and say to them 'The Reign of God is almost upon you.' 10 And whatever city you come into and they do not receive you, come out into its main streets and say 11 'We wipe off the very dust that has stuck to our feet out of your city; know this though, that the Reign of God is almost here.' 12 I tell you it will be more bearable for Sodom in that day than for that city. 13 Woe to you, Chorazin! woe to you, Bethsaida! because if the miracles that have been done in

14 you had been done in Tyre and Sidon they would have repented 15 long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes; 14 it will be more bearable for 16 Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, though, than for you. 15 And you, 17 Capernaum, are you to be lifted up to heaven? you are to go down to, 18 the world of the dead.— 16 He who listens to you is listening to me, 19 and he who disregards you is disregarding me; and he who disregards 20 me is disregarding him who sent me."

21 17 And the seventy-two returned with joy, saying "Sir, even the 22 demons submit to us at your name." 18 But he said to them "I saw Satan 23 fall from heaven like lightning. 19 Lo, I have empowered you to tread 24 upon snakes and scorpions and on all the Enemy's power, and nothing 25 shall injure you. 20 Do not rejoice at this, though, that the spirits submit 26 to you; but rejoice because your names are enrolled in heaven."

27 21 At that same time he exulted in the Holy Spirit and said "I give 28 thee praise, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst conceal 29 these things from the wise and discerning and disclose them to infants; 30 yes, Father, because such was thy pleasure. 22 Everything has been 31 committed to me by my Father; and no one knows who the Son is 32 except the Father, nor who the Father is except the Son and he to 33 whom the Son chooses to disclose him." 23 And he turned to his disciples 34 and said to them by themselves "Happy are the eyes that see what 35 you see; 24 for I tell you many prophets and kings wanted to see what 36 you see and to hear what you hear, and did not."

37 25 And up stood a legist to put him to a test, saying "Teacher, what 38 should I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 And he said to him "What is 39 written in the law? what do you read?" 27 And he answered "You shall 40 love the Lord your God out of all your heart, and with all your soul 41 and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor 42 as yourself." 28 And he answered him "You have answered right: do 43 this and you shall live." 29 But he, wanting to vindicate himself, said 44 to Jesus "And who is my neighbor?" 30 Jesus rejoined "Once upon a 45 time a man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell 46 among robbers; who stripped him and gave him a clubbing, and went 47 off leaving him half dead. 31 And by chance a certain priest was going 48 down by that road, and saw him and went past on the other side. 32 And 49 similarly a Levite came to the place and saw and went past on the 50 other side. 33 But a certain wayfaring Samaritan came where he was, 51 and saw him and was moved to pity, 34 and went up to him and bandaged 52 his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast 53 and brought him to an inn and took care of him. 35 And in the morning 54 he pulled out two denarii and gave them to the landlord and said 55 'Take care of him, and what more you spend I will pay you when I 56 am coming back.' 36 Which of these three do you think showed himself 57 neighbor to the man who had fallen among the robbers?" 37 And he 58 said "The one that did him the kindness." And Jesus said to him 59 "Go and do like that yourself."

38 And once while they were traveling along he had come into a village, and a woman, Martha by name, had taken him into her house; 39 and this woman had a sister named Mary, who had seated herself at the Lord's feet and was listening to his words; 40 but Martha was having to bustle this way and that with a great deal to be done for the guests. And she came and stood before him and said "Sir, do you not care that my sister has left me to attend to things alone? so tell her to take hold and help me." 41 But the Lord answered her "Martha, Martha, you are fretting and getting worried about many things, but what is wanted is only a few, or one. 42 For Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her."

CHAPTER 11

1 And as he was in a certain place praying, one of his disciples said to him when he ceased "Sir, teach us to pray, the same as John taught his disciples." 2 And he said to them "When you pray, say 'Father, 3 may thy name be kept holy, thy reign come; 3 give us our next day's bread day by day. 4 And forgive us our sins, for so do we forgive every one who owes us anything. And do not have us fall under temptation.' "

5 And he said to them "Which of you shall have a friend and go to him at midnight and say to him 'Friend, lend me three cakes of bread, 6 since a friend of mine has arrived at my house and I have nothing to set before him,' 7 and he shall answer from inside 'Do not bother me; the door is locked now, and my children are in the bed with me; 8 I cannot get up and give you anything'—I tell you, even if he shall not get up and give him anything because of being his friend, for his unashamedness he will rise and give him whatever he wants. 9 And I tell you, ask and you will have things given to you; 10 look and you will find; knock and you will be opened to; 10 for every asker receives, and the seeker finds, and the knocker will be opened to. 11 And which of you that is a father will his son ask for a fish and he hand him a snake instead of a fish? 12 or ask for an egg and he hand him a scorpion? 13 So if you, being bad, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father from heaven give Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

14 And he was expelling a demon, a dumb one, and when the demon had gone out the dumb man spoke. 15 And the crowds wondered; but some of them said "It is by Beelzebul the head of the demons that he expels the demons," 16 and others, to test him, tried to get from him a token out of heaven. 17 But he, knowing their ideas, said to them "Any kingdom that is divided against itself is laid waste, and house falls upon house. 18 And if Satan too is divided against himself how shall his kingdom be kept up? since you say it is by Beelzebul that I expel the demons. 19 But if it is by Beelzebul that I expel the demons, by whom do your sons expel them? accordingly they shall be your judges. 20 But if I expel the demons by the finger of God, then the Reign of 21 God has overtaken you. 21 When a strong man, armed, guards his own premises, his property is in safety; 22 but when a stronger man comes on and defeats him he takes from him the weapons and armor in which he had trusted, and gives away the spoils. 23 He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters. 24 When an unclean spirit comes out of a man it goes through waterless tracts looking for a resting-place, and upon not finding one it says 'I will return to my home that I came from'; 25 and when it gets there it finds it swept and put in order; 26 then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits viler than itself, and they go in and live there, and that man's last stage comes to be worse than his first."

27 27 And while he was saying this, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him "Happy the body in which you were carried, and the breasts that you sucked!" 28 But he said "Nay, happy are those who listen to God's word and live up to it."

29 29 And while the crowds were collecting round him he began to say "This generation is a wicked generation; it is looking for a token and will be given none but the token of Jonah; for as Jonah was a token to the Ninevites, so will the Son of Man be to this generation. The queen of the south shall indict the men of this generation and convict them, because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon's wisdom, and now here is more than Solomon. 32 The men of Nineveh shall indict this generation and convict it, because they repented at Jonah's proclamation and now here is more than Jonah. 33 Nobody after lighting a lamp puts it in a cupboard or under the peck measure, but on the stand, that those who step in may see the glow. 34 Your eye is the body's lamp: when your eye is free your whole body too is light, but when it is mean your body too is dark. 35 So be looking to see whether the light in you is not darkness. 36 If, then, your body is all light, not having any part dark, it shall be all light as when the lamp lights you with its blaze."

37 37 And while he was speaking a Pharisee asked him to lunch with him; and he went in and took his place at the table. 38 And at seeing this the Pharisee wondered that he had not first dipped in water before lunch. 39 But the Lord said to him "At present you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but your inside is full of rapacity and rascality. 40 Silly men, did not the maker of the outside make the inside too? 41 Instead, give in charity what is in the dishes, and you have everything clean. 42 But woe to you Pharisees, because you tithe the mint and the rue and every vegetable and you slight justice and the love of God; but you ought to have done these and not let those slip. 43 Woe to you Pharisees, because you love the first seat in synagogues, and greetings in the marketplaces. 44 Woe to you because you are like unmarked tombs that men walk over without knowing it."

45 45 And one of the legists answered him "Teacher, in saying these things you are insulting us too." 46 But he said "Woe to you too, you legists, because you load men down with loads hard to carry and do not touch the loads yourselves with one of your fingers. 47 Woe to you because you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them; 48 you are witnesses, then, and approve of your fathers' deeds, 49 because they killed them and you build. 49 Accordingly God's wisdom has said 'I will send among them prophets and apostles, and some they will kill and will persecute, 50 that this generation may answer for the blood of all the prophets, shed since the foundation of the world, 51 51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zachariah who perished between the altar and the house:' yes, I tell you, this generation shall answer for it. 52 Woe to you legists, because you have taken away the key of knowledge; you did not go in yourselves and you prevented those who were going in."

53 53 And when he came out from there the scribes and the Pharisees began to be savagely hostile and to quiz him about numerous things, 54 54 watching him for a chance to snap up something out of his mouth;

CHAPTER 12

1 1 during which the crowds gathered round by tens of thousands so that they trampled each other, and he began to say to his disciples "First and foremost beware of Pharisee yeast; that is, hypocrisy. 2 2 But there is nothing covered up that will not be uncovered, or secret 3 that will not be found out; 3 on the contrary, whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken into someone's ear in the closets will be proclaimed on the roofs. 4 And I say to you friends of mine, do not fear those who kill the body and after that are not able to do anything further; 5 but I will let you know whom to fear—fear him who has authority after killing to send to hell: 6 yes, I tell you, fear him. 6 Why, sparrows are sold nine for twopence, 7 and not one of them is forgotten before God, 7 but even the hairs of your heads are all counted. Do not fear, you are more important than 8 a great many sparrows. 8 But I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men the Son of Man will in his turn acknowledge before the angels of God, 9 but he who repudiates me before men will be dis- 9 owned before the angels of God; 10 and everyone who says a thing 10 against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. 11 But when they bring you in before synagogues and governments and authorities, do not fret over how you shall make your defense or what it shall be or what 11 you shall say; 12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you at the moment what you must say."

13 13 And one of the crowd said to him "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." 14 But he said to him "Man, who has set me as a judge or divider over you?" 15 And he said to them "See that you keep clear of all overreaching, because it is not by having an oversupply that one has his living out of his property."

16 16 And he told them a parable: "Once upon a time a rich man's lands

17 bore a great crop, 17 and he was going over the question to himself
'What shall I do, because I have nowhere to put my crops when I 18 gather them?' 18 and he said "This is what I will do: pull down my barns and build larger ones, and put all my wheat and the rest of 19 my good things in them, 19 and say to my soul "Soul, you have a great stock of good things laid up for years: rest, eat, drink, be gay"; 20 but God said to him 'Silly man, this night your soul is to be called 21 for, and who will have what you have got ready?' 21 That is what the man is like who lays by for himself and is not rich toward God."

22 22 And he said to his disciples "For this reason I tell you, do not fret over your soul what you shall eat, nor over your body what you 23 shall put on; 23 for the soul is more than the food, and the body than 24 the garment. 24 Observe the ravens, that they neither sow nor reap, they who have no storeroom nor barn, and God feeds them: how much 25 more important you are than the birds! 25 And which of you by fretting 26 can add a foot to his height? 26 so if you cannot do even a trifling thing 27 why do you fret about the rest? 27 Observe the lilies, how they neither spin nor weave, but, I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory was 28 clad like one of these. 28 But if in the field God so attires the plants, that are there today and are thrown in a firepot tomorrow, how much 29 more he will you, little-faiths! 29 And do not you be seeking things to 30 eat and to drink, and do not be nervous; 30 for the nations of the world hunt after all this, but your Father knows that you want this.
31 But do seek his Reign, and you will have this added.

32 32 "Do not be afraid, little flock; because your Father has been pleased 33 to give you the kingship. 33 Sell your property and give charity: make yourselves purses that do not grow old, an inexhaustible store in 34 heaven where thief does not come near and moth does not spoil; 34 for 35 where your stores are, there your heart too will be. 35 Let your loins 36 be girded and your lamps lighted, 36 and you like men watching for their master, for the time when he comes away from the wedding, that 37 when he comes and knocks they may open to him at once. 37 Happy are those servants whom the master, when he comes, shall find awake: I tell you verily he will put on an apron and send them to the table 38 and come and wait on them. 38 And if he comes in the second watch and 39 finds them so, and if in the third, happy are they. 39 But be sure of this, that if the man of the house had known at which hour the thief 40 was coming he would not have let his house be broken into. 40 Be ready yourselves, because it will be at the hour when you are not thinking of it that the Son of Man comes."

41 41 And Peter said "Sir, are you telling this parable with reference to us ourselves or to everybody?"

42 42 And the Lord said "Who, then, is the intelligent faithful steward whom the master will set over his help to give them their rations 43 punctually? 43 Happy is that servant whom his master, when he comes, 44 shall find doing thus: 44 I tell you truly he will set him over all his 45 property. 45 But if that servant says to himself 'My master is late about coming' and begins to beat the men and the maids, and to eat and 46 drink and get drunk, 46 that servant's master will come on a day when he does not expect it and at an hour that he does not know, and will 47 cut him up and allot him a part among the faithless; 47 and that servant who knew his master's wishes and did not get things ready or do in 48 accordance with his wishes will have many strokes of the whip, 48 but the one who did not know and did things that deserve whipping will have few; and everyone to whom much was given will be called on for much, and on him to whom they entrusted most they will make most of a demand.

49 49 "I came to throw out fire on the earth, and how I wish it was already 50 kindled! 50 And I have a water to plunge in, and what a pressure I am 51 under till it is done! 51 Do you think I have come to give peace on earth?
52 no, I tell you, but disunion. 52 For from now on five in one family will 53 be parted three against two and two against three; 53 they will part so that father will be against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against her mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

54 54 And to the crowds too he said "When you see a cloud rising in the west, at once you say 'there is a shower coming,' and so it does; 55 and when you see the wind in the south you say 'there will be a 56 scorcher,' and there is. 56 You hypocrites, you know enough to judge of the face of the earth and the face of the sky, how is it you fail 57 to judge of these times? 57 And why do you not of yourselves decide 58 on the right? 58 While you are going with your antagonist to appear before a magistrate, make it an object to get clear of him on the road, for fear he should drag you to the judge and the judge should hand 59 you over to the officer and the officer should put you in prison: 59 I tell you, you shall not get out from there till you pay the very last copper."

CHAPTER 13

1 1 And at that very time there were some present who reported to him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their 2 sacrifices; 2 and he answered them "Do you think these Galileans had been bigger sinners than any of the Galileans, that they suffered this?
3 no, I tell you, but if you do not repent all of you will perish similarly.
4 4 Or those eighteen on whom the tower fell in Siloam and killed them, do you think they had more of an account standing against them than 5 any of the people that live in Jerusalem? 5 no, I tell you, but if you do not repent you will all perish in the same way."

6 6 And he told this parable: "A man had a fig-tree planted in his orchard, and came looking for fruit on it and did not find any.
7 7 And he said to the orchardman 'Here it is three years since I have been coming to look for fruit on this tree and not finding any: cut 8 it away, what is it keeping the land idle for into the bargain?' 8 And 9 he answered him 'Sir, let it be this one year more till I dig around it and put in manure; 9 and if it does produce fruit for the coming year—well, if not, you shall cut it away.'

10 10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath, 11 11 and there was a woman who had had a sickness-spirit eighteen years, 12 and was bent over and unable to stand perfectly erect. 12 And Jesus, seeing her, called out to her and said "Woman, you are released from 13 your sickness," and laid his hands on her; 13 and immediately she 14 straightened up and glorified God. 14 But the director of the synagogue, taking offense at Jesus's having cured on the sabbath, answered by 15 saying to the crowd "There are six days in which work ought to be done: so come in them and be cured, and not on the sabbath day." 15 But 16 the Lord answered him "Hypocrites, does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or ass from the manger, and lead it away and water it? 16 and ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom 17 Satan had tied up these eighteen years, to be untied from this tether on the sabbath day?" 17 And as he said this all his opponents were put to shame, and all the crowd rejoiced over all the magnificent things that were being done by him.

18 18 So he said "What is the Reign of God like, and to what shall I 19 compare it? 19 it is like a grain of mustard which a man took and dropped into his garden, and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air perched in its branches."

20 20 And again he said "To what shall I compare the Reign of God?
21 it is like a bit of yeast which a woman took and hid in forty quarts of flour till it all grew yeasty."

22 22 And he was passing through city after city and village after village 23 teaching and traveling toward Jerusalem, 23 and someone said to him 24 "Sir, are there few who are saved?" and he said to them 24 "Push to get in through the narrow gate; because, I tell you, a great many 25 will try to get in and not be able. 25 After the head of the house rises and shuts the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock on the door, saying 'Open to us, sir,' and he shall answer you 'I do not know 26 you to tell where you are from,' 26 then you will begin to say 'We have eaten and drunk before you, and you have taught in our streets'; 27 27 and he will tell you 'I do not know where you are from: take your-28 selves away from me, all you doers of wrong.' 28 There will the weeping and the grinding of teeth be, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the Reign of God and yourselves put 29 out. 29 And they will come from east and west and from north and 30 south and go to the table in the Reign of God; 30 and there are last who will be first and there are first who will be last."

31 31 At that moment certain Pharisees approached him saying "Go out 32 and away from here, because Herod is wanting to kill you." 32 And he said to them "Go and tell that fox 'I am expelling demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I come to my 33 consummation. 33 I must go on my way, though, today and tomorrow and the next day, because it is not possible that a prophet should 34 perish outside Jerusalem. 34 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, killer of the prophets and stoner of those that are sent to her—how many times I have wished to gather her children as a bird gathers her brood under her 35 wings, and you would not! 35 Lo, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you shall not see me until there comes the time when you say 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

CHAPTER 14

1 1 And when he came into the home of one of the heads of the Phari-2 sees on a sabbath to eat a meal, they were watching him, 2 and there 3 before him was a man with the dropsy. 3 And Jesus answered by saying to the legists and Pharisees "Is it lawful on the sabbath to cure, or 4 not?" but they made no move. 4 And he took him and healed him and 5 dismissed him, 5 and said to them "Which one of you, if his son or his steer falls into a well, will not at once pull him out on the sabbath 6 day?" 6 And they were not able to reply to that.

7 7 And he told the guests a parable, noticing how they were choosing 8 the first places at the table: 8 "When you are invited to a wedding by anybody, do not take the first place, for fear there may have been 9 invited by him a man of more account than you, 9 and the one who invited you and him shall come and say to you 'Make room for this man,' and then you will begin to occupy the last place with humilia-10 tion; 10 but when you are invited go and take the last place, in order that when the one who has invited you comes he may say to you
'Friend, come further up'—then it will redound to your honor before 11 all who are at the table with you. 11 For everyone who lifts himself up will be put down, and he who puts himself down will be lifted up."

12 12 And he also said to the one who had invited him "When you give a lunch or a dinner, do not call your friends nor your brothers nor your relatives nor rich neighbors, for fear they should return the 13 invitation themselves and you should have a compensation; 13 but when you give a banquet invite poor men, maimed men, cripples, blind 14 men, 14 and happy shall you be, because they are not able to compensate you; for you shall be compensated at the resurrection of the righteous."

15 15 And one of his fellow-guests heard this and said to him "Happy 16 is he who shall eat bread in the Reign of God." 16 But he said to him
"Once upon a time there was a man who gave a great dinner and 17 invited many; 17 and he sent his servant at the hour for the dinner to 18 tell the invited guests 'Come, it is ready now.' 18 And right off they all began to excuse themselves: the first said to him 'I have bought a 19 field and am obliged to go out and see it; pray excuse me'; 19 and another said 'I have bought five yoke of oxen and am on my way to see 20 what they are worth; pray excuse me'; 20 and another said 'I have got 21 married and consequently cannot come'; 21 and the servant came and reported it to his master. Then the host was angry, and said to his servant 'Go right out to the streets and alleys of the city and bring 22 the poor and maimed and crippled and blind in here.' 22 And the ser-23 vant said 'Sir, what you ordered has been done and there is still 23 room.' 23 And the master said to the servant 'Go out to the highways and hedges and make people come in, so that my house shall be full; 24 24 for I tell you none of those guests that were invited shall taste my dinner.'"

25 25 And great crowds were going along with him, and he turned and 26 said to them 26 "If one comes to me and does not hate his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, and his own 27 self besides, he cannot be a disciple of mine. 27 Whoever does not carry 28 his cross and come after me cannot be a disciple of mine. 28 For which of you, if he wants to build a tower, does not first sit down and cal-29 culate the expense, whether he has enough for carrying it through, 29 for fear lest when he has laid a foundation and is not able to complete it 30 everybody who sees this should begin to make fun of him 30 and say 31 "That man began to build and was not able to complete it"? 31 Or what king, marching to join battle with another king, will not sit down and deliberate as to whether with ten thousand he is in a condition to 32 meet the one who is coming against him with twenty thousand? 32 and if not, while he is still a long way off he sends an embassy and asks 33 for terms of peace. 33 So in the same way anyone of you who does not bid farewell to all his property cannot be my disciple.

34 34 "Salt is a good thing, then, but if the very salt loses its strength 35 with what shall it be seasoned? 35 it is not desirable either on land or on a manure-heap: they throw it outside. Let him who has ears to hear hear!"

CHAPTER 15

1 1 And all the customhouse officers and the people of bad character 2 were nearing him to listen to him; 2 and the Pharisees and the scribes went to talking and said "This man receives people of bad character 3 4 and eats with them." 3 But he told them this parable: 4 "What man among you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the lost one till 5 he finds it? 5 and upon finding it he joyfully takes it on his shoulder, 6 6 and when he gets home he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them 'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.' 7 7 I tell you, just so there will be rejoicing in heaven over one repenting sinner more than over ninety-nine saints who are in no need of 8 repentance. 8 Or what woman, having ten drachmas, if she loses one does not light a lamp and sweep the house and look carefully till 9 she finds it? 9 and upon finding it she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying 'Rejoice with me because I have found the drachma 10 I lost.' 10 Just so, I tell you, there is a rejoicing before the angels of God over one repenting sinner."

11 11 And he said "Once upon a time there was a man who had two sons, 12 12 and the younger of them said to his father 'Father, give me my share 13 of the property.' 13 And he apportioned his means between them; and after not many days the younger son got everything together and went off to a distant country, and there he scattered his property in 14 a life of dissipation. 14 And when he had spent everything there came 15 a hard famine in that country, 15 and he began to be in want and went and fastened himself upon one of the citizens of that country; and he 16 sent him to his fields to tend hogs. 16 And he was wishing he could fill his stomach with the pods that the hogs ate, and nobody gave him 17 anything. 17 But he came to himself and said 'How many hired men of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I am starving to 18 death here! 18 I will be going, and go to my father, and say to him 'Fa-19 ther, I have sinned against heaven and before you, 19 I no longer deserve 20 to be called your son; make me like one of your hired men"; 20 and he set out and came to his father. But when he was still far off his father saw him, and his heart was moved, and he ran and threw himself 21 on his neck and went to kissing him. 21 And his son said to him 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you, I no longer deserve to 22 be called your son'— 22 but the father said to his servants 'Bring the best robe out quick and put it on him, and give us a ring for his hand 23 and sandals for his feet; 23 and bring the stall-fed calf, kill it, and let 24 us eat and have a gay time, 24 because my son here was dead and has come back to life, he was lost and has been found.' And they began 25 to be gay. 25 But his older son was in the field; and when in coming home he drew near the house he heard a bagpipe and dancing, 26 and he called 26 one of the servants and inquired what that might be. 27 And he told 27 him 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the stall-fed calf because he had got him back safe and sound'; 28 and he was angry 28 and would not go in. 29 And his father went out and pleaded with him; 29 but he answered his father 'Here have I been slaving for you so many years, and never went against a command of yours, and you never 30 gave me a kid to have a gay time with my friends; 30 but when this son of yours who has been eating up your means with prostitutes came, you killed the stall-fed calf for him.' 31 But he said to him 'My boy, you 31 are with me always, and everything of mine is yours; 32 but we had to 32 have a glad gay time because this brother of yours had been dead and came to life, had been lost and was found.'"

CHAPTER 16

1 1 And he also said to the disciples "Once upon a time there was a rich man who had a steward, and word was passed to him that the 2 steward was throwing away his property; 2 and he called him and said to him 'What is this I hear about you? hand in the accounts for your 3 stewardship, for you cannot be steward any longer.' 3 And the steward said to himself 'What shall I do, since my master is taking away the stewardship from me? I am not able to dig, I am ashamed to beg.
4 4 I know what I will do, so that when I am turned out of the steward-

5 ship they will receive me into their homes'; 5 and he called each of his 6 master's debtors to him and said to the first 'How much do you owe 7 my master?' 6 and he said 'A thousand gallons of oil,' and he said to 8 him 'Here is your note; sit right down and write "five hundred." ' 9 7 Then he said to another 'And how much do you owe?' and he said 10 'A thousand bushels of wheat.' He said to him 'Here is your note; 11 write "eight hundred.'" 8 And the master praised the fraudulent steward 12 for having done sagaciously, because the sons of the times are more 13 sagacious than the sons of light for their own generation. 9 And I tell 14 you, get friends for yourselves out of fraudulent money, that when it 15 gives out they may receive you into the eternal habitations. 10 He who is 16 faithful about a trifle is also faithful about a great thing, and he who 17 is fraudulent about a trifle is also fraudulent about a great thing.
18 11 So if you have not proved faithful about fraudulent money who will 19 entrust you with the real? 12 and if you have not proved faithful about 20 a thing of somebody else's, who will give you your own? 13 No domestic 21 can belong to two masters, for he will either hate the one and love 22 the other or be attentive to the one and despise the other: you cannot 23 belong to God and money."

24 14 And the Pharisees, being money-lovers, heard all this and sneered 25 at him; 15 and he said to them "You are the ones who make yourselves 26 out righteous before men, but God knows your hearts; because what 27 is lofty among men is an abomination before God. 16 There was the 28 law and the prophets until John; since then the gospel of the Reign 29 of God is being preached and everybody is pushing into it. 17 But it is 30 easier for the heavens and the earth to pass away than for the dot 31 of one i in the law to drop away. 18 Everyone who divorces his wife and 32 marries another commits adultery, and so does he who marries a 33 divorced woman.

34 19 "But once upon a time there was a rich man, and he used to wear 35 purple and lawn in a round of gaiety and splendor day after day.
36 20 And a poor man, Lazarus by name, lay sick on the ground at his gate, 37 ulcerated 21 and wishing he could have a meal out of what dropped on 38 the floor from the rich man's table; yes, and the dogs too came and 39 licked over his sores. 22 Well, the poor man died, and he was carried 40 off to Abraham's bosom by the angels. And the rich man died too, 41 and was buried; 23 and in the world of the dead, being in tortures, he 42 raised his eyes and saw Abraham in the distance, and Lazarus in his 43 bosom. 24 And he called out 'Father Abraham, take pity on me and send 44 Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, be-45 cause I am in pain in this flame'; 25 but Abraham said 'My child, re-46 member that you had your good things paid over during your life, 47 and Lazarus his bad likewise; but now here he is comforted and you 48 are in pain. 26 And withal between us and you there is planted a great 49 gulf so that those who want to go over from here to you may not be 50 able, and that they may not cross from there to us.' 27 And he said

28 28 'Then, father, pray send him to my family (for I have five brothers) to testify to them, that they may not also come to this place of tor-29 ture'; 29 but Abraham said 'They have Moses and the prophets, let them 30 listen to them.' 30 And he said 'No, father Abraham, but if someone 31 from the dead goes to them they will repent'; 31 but he told him 'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be satisfied even if someone rises from the dead.'"

CHAPTER 17

1 1 And he said to his disciples "It is impossible for trippings-up not 2 to come, but woe to him through whom they come! 2 it would pay him if he had a millstone round his neck and were thrown into the sea, sooner than that he should trip up one of these little ones; beware!
3 4 3 If your brother sins rebuke him, and if he repents forgive him; 4 and if he sins against you seven times a day and turns back to you seven times saying 'I am sorry' you shall forgive him."

5 6 5 And the apostles said to the Lord "Give us more faith." 6 But the Lord said "Had you faith like a mustard-seed, you would say to this sycamine tree 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea' and it would have 7 obeyed you. 7 But which of you is there who, if he has a servant plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he comes in from the 8 field 'Come on and have dinner at once' 8 and not 'Get something ready for my dinner, and put on your apron and wait on me till I have eaten and drunk, and after that you shall eat and drink yourself?
9 9 is he thankful to the servant because he has done what was prescribed!
10 10 So with you: when you have done everything that was prescribed to you, say 'We are inefficient servants—it was what we were in duty bound to do that we did.' "

11 11 And while he was on his way to Jerusalem he was passing between 12 Samaria and Galilee, 12 and as he came into a certain village he met 13 with ten leprous men, who stopped and stood far off; 13 and they lifted 14 their voice in the cry "Jesus, master, take pity on us." 14 And, seeing it, he said to them "Go and show yourselves to the priests"; and as they 15 went they were cleansed. 15 And one of them, upon seeing that he was 16 healed, returned glorifying God in a loud voice, 16 and threw himself down on his face at Jesus's feet thanking him; and he was a Samaritan.
17 17 And Jesus answered by saying "Why, the ten were cleansed: where are 18 the nine? 18 were there not any found that returned to give glory to 19 God except this alien?" 19 And he said to him "Stand up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

20 20 And, having the question "When is the Reign of God to come?"
put to him by the Pharisees, he answered them "The Reign of God 21 is not to come under watching, 21 and they will not say 'Here it is' or 'there'; for the place to find the Reign of God is within you."

22 22 And he said to the disciples "There will come days when you will 23 desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man and will not, 23 and they will say to you 'Off there,' 'Right here'—do not go; do not chase

24 after them. 24 For as the lightning flashing from one horizon shines to 25 the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day. 25 But first he must 26 suffer a great deal, and be rejected by this generation. 26 And as it was 27 in Noah's days, so it will be in the Son of Man's too: 27 they were 28 eating, drinking, marrying, until the day that Noah went into the 29 ark and the flood came and destroyed them all. 28 Or again, as it was 30 in Lot's days, they were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, 31 building, 29 but on the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire 32 and sulfur from the sky and destroyed them all,— 30 it will be the same 33 on the day that the Son of Man is disclosed. 31 On that day let him who 34 is on the roof, and his things in the house, not go down to take them; 35 and so he who is in the field, let him not turn back— 32 remember Lot's 36 wife! 33 Whoever tries to keep his soul alive will lose it, and whoever 37 loses it will have it alive. 34 I tell you, that night there will be two on 38 one couch, the one will be taken along and the other left; 35 there will 39 be two women grinding in company, the one will be taken along and 40 the other left." 37 And they answered him "Where, sir?" And he said 41 to them "Where the body is is where the vultures will gather around."

CHAPTER 18

1 And he told them a parable of which the point was that they must 2 always pray and never give up: 2 "Once upon a time there was in a 3 certain city a judge who did not fear God nor care for public opinion.
4 3 And there was a widow in that city, and she came to him saying 5 'Avenge me on the man I have a case against'; 4 and he would not for 6 a while, but after that he said to himself 'Even if I do not fear God 7 nor care for public opinion, 5 because of the way this woman worries 8 me I will avenge her, that she may not make a show of me with coming 9 forever.'" 6 And the Lord said "Hear what the unjust judge says; 7 and 10 shall not God do vengeance for his chosen, who clamor to him day 11 and night and he has patience over them? 8 I tell you he will do ven-12 geance for them soon. Yet when the Son of Man comes will he find 13 faith on earth?"

9 9 And he also told this parable, pointed at certain self-righteous 10 people who scorned the rest: 10 "Two men went up to the temple-precinct 11 to pray, the one a Pharisee and the other a customhouse officer.
12 11 The Pharisee took his stand and made this prayer, talking to himself: 13 'O God, I thank thee that I am not as the rest of mankind are, grasp-14 ing, dishonest, adulterous, or else like this customhouse officer: 15 12 I fast twice a week, I tithe everything I get'; 13 but the customhouse 16 officer stood at a distance and would not even raise his eyes toward 17 heaven, but beat his breast saying 'O God, be friendly to sinful me.' 18 14 I tell you, this man, rather than the other, went down to his home 19 justified; because everyone who lifts himself up will be put down, and 20 he who puts himself down will be lifted up."

15 15 And they brought the babies to him to have him touch them; but

16 the disciples, seeing it, rebuked them. 16 But Jesus called the babies 17 to him, saying "Let the children come to me and do not interfere with them; 17 for to such belongs the Reign of God. I tell you verily, anyone who does not receive the Reign of God like a child shall not get into it."

18 18 And a certain ruler put the question to him "Good teacher, what 19 should I do to inherit eternal life!" 19 But Jesus said to him "Why do 20 you call me good? nobody is good except one, God. 20 You know the commandments, 'Do not commit adultery, do not commit murder, do not steal, do not testify falsely, honor your father and mother.'"

21 21 But he said "All this I have observed ever since my youth." 22 And 22 Jesus, hearing that, said to him "One thing you still lack: sell everything you have and distribute the money to the poor, and you will 23 have a fund laid by in heaven; 23 and come and follow me." But at hearing this he grew sad, for he was very rich.

24 24 And Jesus, seeing him, said "What hard work the wealthy will have 25 to go into the Reign of God! 25 for it is easier for a camel to get through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to get into the Reign of 26 27 God." 26 And those who heard it said "And who can be saved?" 27 but he 28 said "What is impossible with men is possible with God." 28 And Peter 29 said "We here did leave our own and follow you." 29 And he said to them "I tell you verily there is no one who has left a house or a wife or brothers or parents or children on account of the Reign of God 30 30 who shall not receive many times as much in this time and in the coming age eternal life."

31 31 And he took the Twelve with him and said to them "Here we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that has been written through 32 the prophets will be accomplished to the Son of Man. 32 For he will be handed over to the foreigners and abused and outraged and spit 33 upon, 33 and they will flog him and kill him, and on the third day he 34 will rise." 34 And they did not understand any of these things; and this word was hidden from them, and they did not know what he was talking of.

35 35 And as he drew near Jericho a blind man was sitting by the road-36 side begging, 36 and, hearing a crowd going along, inquired what that 37 was; 37 and they told him that Jesus the Nazarene was coming along.
 38 38 And he made an outcry, "Jesus, son of David, take pity on me!" 39 39 And those who were going ahead rebuked him, telling him to be quiet; 40 but he cried out more and more "Son of David, take pity on me!" 40 And Jesus halted and ordered him brought to him; and when he came 41 near he put the question to him 41 "What do you want me to do for you?" 42 And he said "Sir, that I may have my eyesight back." 42 And Jesus said to him "Have your eyesight back; your faith has made you well," 43 43 and immediately he recovered his sight and followed him, glorifying God. And all the people, seeing it, gave praise to God.

CHAPTER 19

1 2 1 And he came into Jericho and was passing through. 2 And there was a man named Zaccheus—he was a head officer of the customhouse, and 3 was rich— 3 who was trying to see Jesus and see what he was like, and could not in consequence of the crowd because he was a small-sized 4 man; 4 and he ran ahead and got up into a sycamore tree to see him, 5 because he was to pass that way. 5 And when Jesus came to the place he looked up and said to him "Zaccheus, come right down, for I must 6 stay at your house tonight." 6 And down he came and gladly took him in.

7 7 And at seeing it everybody went to talking and saying "He has 8 gone in to lodge with a man of bad character." 8 But Zaccheus stood and said to the Lord "Half my property, sir, I give to the poor, and whatever I have got out of anybody by blackmail I give back four-9 fold." 9 And Jesus said to him "Today salvation for this house has 10 come, as he too is a son of Abraham. 10 For the Son of Man has come to look for what was lost and save it."

11 11 And while they were listening to this he added a parable because he was near Jerusalem and they thought the Reign of God was to 12 come out immediately; 12 he said "Once upon a time a man of high birth 13 went to a distant country to get a kingship and to return; 13 and he called ten servants of his and gave them ten minas of silver and said 14 to them 'Go into business till I come'; 14 but the citizens of his country hated him and sent after him an embassy with the message 'We are 15 not willing to have this man reign over us.' 15 And when he had got the kingship and came back he gave the word to have those servants to whom he had given the money called, that he might know what each 16 had made in his business. 16 And the first presented himself saying 'Sir, 17 your mina has earned ten minas more'; 17 and he said to him 'Well done, good servant; because you were faithful about a trifle, have 18 authority over ten cities.' 18 And the second came saying 'Your mina, 19 sir, has made five minas'; 19 and to him also he said 'You too be over five 20 cities.' 20 And another came saying 'Sir, here is your mina, which I have 21 been keeping laid up in a handkerchief; 21 for I was afraid of you because you are a stiff man, you take up what you did not put down 22 and harvest what you did not sow.' 22 He said to him 'I will judge you out of your own mouth, you villain: you knew I am a stiff man, taking 23 up what I did not put down and harvesting what I did not sow, 23 and why did you not put my money in a bank? and when I came I should 24 have collected it with interest.' 24 And he said to those who were present
"Take the mina away from him and give it to the one with the ten 25 26 minas.' 25 (And they said to him 'Sir, he has ten minas.') 26 'I tell you everyone who has shall have more given to him, but from him who 27 has not there shall be taken away even what he has. 27 As for those enemies of mine, though, who did not want to have me reign over 28 them, bring them here and kill them before me.'" 28 And, saying this, he went forward on his way up to Jerusalem.

29 29 And when he came near to Bethphage and Bethany at what is 30 known as the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, 30 saying
"Go to the village opposite, where as you are entering you will find 31 a colt hitched, on which no man has ever yet sat; and untie it and 32 bring it. 31 And if anybody asks you what you are untying it for, you 32 are to say like this: 'Because the Lord needs it.'" 32 And those who were 33 sent went off, and found things as he had said to them; 33 and when 34 35 they were untying the colt its owners said to them "Why are you 35 untying the colt?" 34 but they said "Because the Lord needs it" 35 and brought it to Jesus, and they threw their cloaks over the colt and 36 had Jesus mount it; 36 and as he went on they spread their cloaks under-37 neath in the road. 37 And when he was nearing the descent of the Mount of Olives the entire body of disciples began to praise God loudly 38 and joyously for all the miracles they had seen, 38 saying

"Blessed is he who comes, the King, in the name of the Lord!
Peace in heaven,
and glory on high!"

39 39 And some of the Pharisees said to him out of the crowd "Teacher, 40 rebuke your disciples"; 40 and he answered "I tell you, if these are silent the stones will shout."

41 42 41 And when he came near, at seeing the city he wept over it, 42 saying
"If you too had known this day what were the conditions of peace!
43 but now they have been hidden from your eyes— 43 because there will come upon you days that your enemies will throw up entrenchments 44 against you and encircle you and hem you in on every side, 44 and they will dash you to the ground and your children in you, and not leave stone on stone in you, in return for your not knowing your time of visitation!"

45 45 And he went into the temple-precinct and began to turn out those 46 who were selling, 46 saying to them "It is written 'And my house shall be a house of prayer'; but you have been making it a robbers' cave."

47 47 And he taught in the temple-precinct day by day. But the chief 48 priests and the scribes, as well as the leading laymen, were looking 48 for a chance to make away with him, and could not find anything to

CHAPTER 20

1 do, for the entire people was hanging on his words. 1 And on one of the days, as he was teaching the people in the temple-precinct and giving them the gospel, in came the chief priests and the scribes, with 2 the elders, 2 and said to him "Tell us by what authority you are doing 3 these things, or who it was that gave you this authority." 3 But he 4 answered them "I will ask you a question myself—tell me, 4 was John's 5 baptizing from heaven or from men?" 5 And they made a calculation, saying to themselves "If we say 'Prom heaven' he will say 'Why did 6 you not believe him?' 6 but if we say 'From men' the whole people 7 will stone us to death, for they are persuaded that John was a 8 prophet"; 7 and they answered that they did not know where it was 8 from, 8 and Jesus said to them "And neither do I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

9 And he began to tell the people this parable: "A man set out a vineyard and rented it to farmers, and went abroad for a considerable 10 time; 10 and in due season he sent a servant to the farmers to have 11 them give him some of the produce of the vineyard; but the farmers 11 gave him a beating and sent him off empty-handed. 11 And he went on to send another servant; but him too they beat and insulted and sent 12 off empty-handed. 12 And he went on to send a third, but this one too 13 they wounded and drove out. 13 And the owner of the vineyard said 'What shall I do? I will send my dear son, perhaps they will have 14 some respect for him.' 14 But at seeing him the farmers talked up a plan among them, saying 'This is the heir; let us kill him, that the in-15 heritance may be ours'; 15 and they put him out of the vineyard and 16 killed him. 16 So what will the owner of the vineyard do to them? he will come and kill off these farmers, and give the vineyard to others." 17 And at hearing it they said "Perish the thought!" But he looked at them and said "Then what is this that is written, 'The stone that the builders condemned, that stone has come to be the top of the 18 corner'? 18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be mangled; but him on whom it falls it will scatter to the winds."

19 And the scribes and the chief priests tried to lay hands on him on the spot, and were afraid of the people, for they perceived that he 20 had aimed the parable at them; 20 and they watched their chance and sent emissaries, who pretended to be honest men, to get a hold on him by his talk so as to have him arrested by the authority of the 21 governor's administration; 21 and they put the question to him "Teacher, we know you are straightforward in what you say and teach, and 22 show no fear or favor, but teach the way of God in good faith: 22 is it 23 lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?" 23 But, seeing into their 24 duplicity, he said to them "Show me a denarius. 24 Whose portrait and 25 inscription does it have?" 25 And they said "Caesar's." And he said to them "Well, then, pay what is Caesar's to Caesar and what is God's 26 to God." 26 And they were not able to get a hold on him before the people by any phrase; and they wondered at his answer, and kept silence.

27 And some of the Sadducees (those who deny that there is any such thing as resurrection) approached him and put the question to him 28 "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, if one's brother dies having a wife, and is childless, that his brother should take his widow and set up a 29 posterity for his brother. 29 So there were seven brothers, and the first 30 31 took a wife and died childless, 30 and the second 31 and the third took her, and in the same way the seven of them left no children and died.

32 33 32 Afterward the woman died too. 33 So at the resurrection which of them 34 is the woman to be wife to? for the seven had her as wife." 34 And Jesus 35 said to them "The children of this world marry, 35 but those who are 36 held worthy to enjoy that world and the resurrection from the dead 37 do not; 36 for they cannot any longer die either, but are equal to the 38 angels, and are children of God, being children of the resurrection.
 39 37 But that the dead are raised even Moses informs us, in the part about 40 the bush, when he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham and of 41 Isaac and of Jacob— 38 but he is not the God of dead men but of living 42 men, for all live to him." 39 And some of the scribes answered "Well 43 said, teacher"; 40 for they no longer dared to put any question to him.
 41 41 And he said to them "How is it that they say the Messiah is to be 42 a son of David? for David himself says in the Book of Psalms 'The 43 Lord said to my lord "Sit at my right hand till I make your enemies 44 a footstool for your feet"; so David calls him lord, and how is he 45 going to be his son?" " 46 45 And in the hearing of all the people he said to his disciples 47 46 "Beware of the scribes, who want to go in robes and are fond of greet-48 ings in the marketplaces and the first seats in synagogues and the 49 first places at dinners, 47 those who eat up widows' houses and make a 50 pretense of long prayers; these shall receive more of a sentence."

CHAPTER 21

1 1 And he looked up and saw the rich men who were dropping their 2 gifts into the treasury. 2 And he saw a certain poverty-stricken widow 3 drop two mites there, 3 and said "I tell you truly this poor widow 4 dropped in more than any: 4 for all these dropped into the gifts part 5 of what they had to spare, but she out of her want dropped in all 6 she had to live on."
 7 5 And when some were saying of the temple-precinct that it was 8 adorned with blocks of beautiful stone and works of art, 6 he said "As 9 to this that you see, days will come in which there will not be one 10 stone left on another that will not be torn down." 7 And they put the 11 question to him "Then, teacher, when will this be and what will be 12 the sign when this is to take place?" 8 And he said "Look out that 13 you be not misled; for many will come under my name, saying 'I am 14 he' and 'The time is at hand'; do not go after them. 9 And when you 15 hear of wars and disorders, do not be terrified; for these things have 16 to go first, but the end does not come at once." 17 10 Then he said to them "Nation will rise against nation and kingdom 18 against kingdom; 11 and there will be great earthquakes, and in one 19 place and another pestilences and famines; and there will be sights 20 of terror, and out of the sky great portents. 12 But before all this they 21 will lay hands on you and persecute you, arresting you and taking 22 you to synagogues and prisons, haling you before kings and governors 23 because of my name. 13 It will turn out an attestation for you. 14 So fix 24 it in your minds not to study a defense beforehand; 15 for I will give you eloquence and wisdom which all your opponents cannot confront 16 or controvert. 16 And you will be arrested at the instigation of parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and they will have some of 17 you put to death, 17 and you will be hated by all because of my name; 18 18 and not a hair of your heads shall be lost. 19 In your endurance you 19 shall get your souls.

20 "But when you see Jerusalem encircled by camps, then know that 21 her desolation has drawn near. 21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are in the midst of her pass out 22 and those who are in the country not go into her; 22 because those are 23 days of vengeance, for all that is written to be fulfilled. 23 Woe to those who are pregnant and nursing in those days! for there will be great 24 distress in the land and wrath against this people, 24 and they will fall by the edge of the sword and be carried off to all the nations as captives, and Jerusalem will be trodden underfoot by the nations, until the times of the nations have run their full course.

25 "And there will be tokens in sun and moon and stars, and on the earth excitement of nations bewildered with the noise and swell of 26 the sea, 26 while men faint for fear and expectation of the things that are coming upon the world of men; for the powers of the heavens 27 will be shaken. 27 And then will they see the Son of Man coming in a 28 cloud with great power and glory. But when these things begin to take place straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

29 "29 And he told them a parable: "See the fig-tree, and all the trees; 30 30 when they are leaving out you know for yourselves by seeing it that summer is now near; 31 so you too, when you see these things taking 32 place, are to know that the Reign of God is near. 32 I tell you verily that 33 this generation shall not pass away till all has taken place. 33 The 34 heavens and the earth shall pass away, but my words shall not. 34 But beware, for fear your hearts should be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the anxieties of living, and that day should be 35 upon you suddenly, like a trap; 35 for it shall come upon all that dwell 36 on the face of all the earth. 36 But keep on the alert at every time, praying that you may succeed in escaping all these things that are to come to pass, and in presenting yourselves before the Son of Man."

37 "37 And through the days he was in the temple-precinct teaching, but for the nights he went out and found quarters on what is known as 38 the Mount of Olives; 38 and all the people came early to the temple-precinct to listen to him.

CHAPTER 22

1 "1 And the feast of the matzoth, known as the passover, was drawing 2 near; 2 and the chief priests and the scribes were trying to find out 3 how to take his life, for they were afraid of the people. 3 And Satan entered Judas known as the Iscariot, who was of the number of the 4 Twelve, 4 and he went and talked with the chief priests and provosts

5 about how to put him into their hands; 5 and they were glad and 6 engaged to give him money. 6 And he pledged himself to it, and went to looking for a good opportunity for putting him into their hands without a crowd.

7 7 And Matzoth Day came, when the passover was to be sacrificed; 8 8 and he sent off Peter and John, telling them "Go and get the passover 9 ready for us, so that we may eat it." 9 And they said to him "Where 10 will you have us get it ready?" 10 And he told them "Well, when you enter the city you will encounter a man carrying a pitcher of water; 11 follow him into the house that he enters. 11 And you will say to the man of the house "The teacher says to you "Where is my room where 12 I am to eat the passover with my disciples?" 12 and he will show you 13 a large upper room, all spread; make our preparations there." 13 And they went and found things as he had told them, and got ready the passover.

14 14 And when the hour came he came to the table, and the apostles 15 with him. 15 And he said to them "I specially desired to eat this passover 16 with you before I suffer; 16 for I tell you, I shall eat it no more until it 17 is fulfilled in the Reign of God." 17 And upon receiving a cup he gave 18 thanks over it and said "Take this and divide it among you; for I 19 tell you, from this time on I will not drink of the produce of the vine till the Reign of God comes." 19 And he took a cake of bread, and gave thanks and broke it and gave it to them, saying "This is my body.
21 21 Yet here is my betrayer's hand on the table with mine; 22 because the 22 Son of Man goes in accordance with what is ordained, yet woe to that 23 man through whom he is put under arrest!" 23 and they began to discuss between themselves which of them it might be that was to commit 24 this deed. 24 And they also got into a wrangle as to which of them was 25 regarded as the greatest; 25 but he said to them "The kings of the nations play the owner with them, and those who govern them are 26 called Benefactors; 26 not so you, but let the greatest one among you take the position of a junior, and the leader that of a waiter on the 27 rest. 27 For which is greater, the diner or the waiter? is not the diner?
28 but I am in the position of waiter among you. 28 But you are the ones 29 who have stayed by me in my temptations, 29 and I invest you, as my 30 Father did me, with kingship, 30 so as to have you eat and drink at my table in my Reign; and you shall sit on thrones judging the 31 twelve tribes of Israel. 31 Simon, Simon, Satan has been demanding to have you and the others surrendered to him to sift like wheat, 32 but I have been praying for you that your faith may not give out; 32 and do you, when once you have come back, brace up your brothers." 33 33 And he said to him "Sir, with you I am ready to go either to prison or to death"; 34 but he said "I tell you, Peter, there will not a cock 34 crow today till you have three times disavowed knowing me."

35 35 And he said to them "When I sent you out without purse and wallet and shoes, did you run short of anything?" And they said 36 "Nothing." 36 And he said to them "But now let him who has a purse 37 take it, and the same with a wallet, and let him who has none sell his 38 cloak and buy a sword; 37 for I tell you that this that is written must 39 come true for me, 'and he was counted with lawbreakers'—for what 40 is about me is coming true." 38 And they said "Sir, here are two swords"; 41 and he said to them "It is enough."

39 39 And he came out and went, in accordance with his habit, to the 40 Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed him. 40 And when he came 41 to the place he said to them "Pray that you may not fall under 42 temptation"; 41 and he moved about a stone's throw away from them, 43 and, going down on his knees, 42 prayed "Father, if you are willing, 44 pass by me with this cup; yet not my will but yours be done." 43 [And 45 there appeared to him an angel from heaven strengthening him. 44 And 46 he fell into a quiver of excitement, and prayed more ardently; and 47 his sweat became like gout of blood running down to the ground.] 48 45 And, rising from his prayer, he came to the disciples and found 49 them sleeping for grief, 46 and said to them "Why do you go to sleep?
50 stand up and pray, that you may not fall tinder temptation."

47 47 While he was still speaking, in came a crowd, with the man who 48 was known as Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, going in front of 49 them; and he drew near to Jesus to kiss him. 48 But Jesus said to him 50 "Judas, are you bringing the police on the Son of Man with a kiss?" 51 49 And his companions, seeing what was coming next, said "Sir, shall 52 we take to the sword?" 50 and one or another of them struck at the 53 high priest's servant and took off his right ear. 51 But Jesus answered 54 "Allow this much" and touched the ear and healed him. 52 And Jesus 55 said to those chief priests and provosts of the temple-precinct and 56 elders who had come to help take him "You come out as if it were 57 against a robber, with swords and sticks; 53 when I was with you in the 58 temple-precinct day by day you did not lift your hands against me, 59 but this is your moment, under the license of darkness."

54 54 And they arrested him and led him off, and brought him to the high 55 priest's house. 55 And Peter followed at a distance; and when they had 56 kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, 57 Peter sat in the midst of them; 56 and a certain maid, seeing him sitting 58 in the light, fixed her eyes on him and said "This one was with him 59 too"; 57 but he denied it, saying "I do not know him, woman." 58 And 60 after a short time another servant saw him and said "You are one 61 of them too"; but Peter said "Man, I am not." 59 And when about one 62 hour had elapsed someone else said positively "To a certainty this 63 one was with him too—for he is a Galilean"; 60 but Peter said "Man, 64 I do not know what you are talking about"; and immediately, while 65 he was still speaking, 61 a cock crowed, and the Lord turned and looked 66 at Peter. And Peter was reminded of the Lord's words, how he had 67 said to him "Before a cock crows you will disown me three times"; 68 62 and he went outside and wept bitterly.

63 64 63 And the men who had him under arrest beat him for fun, 64 and would cover him up and put the question to him "Prophecy, who was it that 65 hit you?" 65 and many other taunts they uttered against him.
66 66 And when day came the council of elders of the people assembled, both chief priests and scribes, and took him before their session, saying 67 67 "If you are the Messiah, tell us so"; but he told them "If I tell you 68 you will not believe, 68 and if I ask you questions you will not answer; 69 69 but from this time on the Son of Man shall be seated at the right 70 hand of the power of God." 70 And they all said "So you are the son 71 of God?" And he said to them "As you say, I am." 71 And they said
"What further need have we of testimony? for we ourselves have heard

1 from his own mouth." 1 And the entire body of them stood up and brought him to Pilate.
2 2 And they began to accuse him, saying "We have found this man inciting our nation to disloyalty and keeping them from paying taxes 3 to Caesar, and asserting himself to be King Messiah." 3 And Pilate asked him "Are you the 'king of the Jews'?" and he answered him 4 "As you say." 4 And Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds 5 "I do not find anything punishable in this man." 5 But they said more and more positively "He agitates the people, teaching all over Palestine, beginning from Galilee and clear to here." 6 6 But Pilate, hearing it, put the question whether the man was a 7 Galilean, 7 and, ascertaining that he was from Herod's jurisdiction, sent him up to Herod, he too being in Jerusalem during those days.
8 8 And Herod was exceedingly glad to see Jesus; for he had for a considerable time been wanting to see him because he heard him talked 9 of, and he hoped to see some token done by him; 9 and he questioned 10 him at considerable length, but he gave him no answer. 10 And the chief priests and the scribes stood there accusing him energetically.
11 11 And Herod, with his soldiery, scorned him and made fun of him, and 12 put splendid vestures on him and sent him back to Pilate; 12 and that very day Herod and Pilate became friends, for they had previously been at enmity.
13 13 But Pilate, calling together the chief priests and the rulers and the 14 people, 14 said to them "You brought this man to me as an alienator of the people, and here have I examined this man before you and not found in him anything punishable under the accusations you bring 15 against him; 15 neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us. And 16 here he has committed no act to deserve death; 16 so I will give him a 18 lesson and release him." 18 But they screamed out, the whole mass of them, "Get that fellow out of the way and release Bar-Abbas for us"— 19 19 which Bar-Abbas had been thrown into prison for a certain riot 20 that had taken place in the city, and for murder. 20 And Pilate called 21 out to them again, wanting to release Jesus; 21 but they raised a hue 22 and cry "Crucify, crucify him." 22 And he said to them a third time

"Why, what harm has this man done? I have not found in him any thing punishable with death; so I will give him a lesson and release him." 23 But they pressed their demand with loud cries, asking that he be crucified, and their cries prevailed, 24 and Pilate passed sentence that what they asked should be done; 25 and he released the man thrown into prison for riot and murder, whom they asked for, but gave Jesus up to their will.

26 And as they were leading him to execution they took one Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming from the country, and put the cross on him to carry it behind Jesus. 27 And there followed him a great number of the people, and of women who bewailed and lamented him; 28 but Jesus turned toward them and said "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but do weep for yourselves and your children; 29 for here are days coming in which they will say 'Happy are the barren, and the bodies that have not held children, and the breasts that have not fed.' 30 Then they will begin to say to the mountains 'Fall on us' and to the hills 'Cover us'; 31 because if they do this with a green stick, what will be done with the dry one?" 32 And two other criminals also were led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they came to the place known as the Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on the right and one on the left. 34 [But Jesus said "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing."] And to divide up his clothes they threw lots; and the people stood looking on. 35 And the rulers too sneered at him, saying "He saved others; let him save himself, if this is God's chosen Messiah." 36 And the soldiers too made fun of him, putting vinegar up to him 37 and saying "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself." 38 And there was an inscription over him too, "This is the king of the Jews." 39 And one of the criminals that were hanging there taunted him: "You are the Messiah, aren't you? save yourself and us"; 40 but the other answered him in rebuke, "Do you not even fear God, when you are under the same sentence? 41 and we justly, for we are being paid as our acts deserved, but this man had done nothing out of the way," 42 and said, "Jesus, remember me when you come to your Reign"; 43 and he said to him "I tell you verily, today you shall be with me in Paradise."

44 And it was now about twelve o'clock, and there came a darkness all over the land till three, the sun going dark; 45 and the curtain of the temple split down the middle, 46 and Jesus, with a loud cry, said "Father, to your hands I commit my spirit"; 47 and with this he expired. And the centurion, seeing what had happened, glorified God, saying "This man really was a saint"; 48 and all the crowds that had thronged to that sight returned beating their breasts after they saw what happened. 49 And all his acquaintances were standing at a distance, and so were women who had come along with him from Galilee, seeing these things.

50 50 And now a man by name Joseph, who was a member of the Council, 51 a good honest man 51 (he had not assented to their plan and their action) from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, one who was watching for 52 the Reign of God,— 52 this man went to Pilate and asked for Jesus's 53 body, 53 and took it down and wrapped it in a linen wrapper and laid 54 it in a rock-cut tomb where as yet no one was lying. 54 And it was Fri-55 day, and the eve of the sabbath had begun; 55 but the women who had come from Galilee with him followed after and viewed the tomb, and 56 how his body was laid, 56 and returned and got ready spices and perfumes. And through the sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24

1 1 But on the first of the week at early dawn they came to the tomb 2 bringing the spices they had got ready. 2 And they found the stone 3 rolled away from the tomb; 3 but when they went in they did not find 4 the body. 4 And while they were in perplexity over this, lo, there be-5 fore them stood two men in vestures flashing with light; 5 and, when they were terror-struck and stood bending their faces to the ground, these said to them "Why are you looking for the living among the 6 7 dead? 6 Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, 7 that the Son of Man must be given over into the hands of sinful men 8 and crucified, and rise on the third day." 8 And they remembered his 9 words, 9 and returned and reported all this to the Eleven and all the 10 rest. 10 There were the Magdalene Mary and Johanna, and James's 11 Mary, and the rest with them; 12 they told the apostles this, and the statements appeared to them like nonsense, and they disbelieved the women.

13 13 And lo, that very day two of them were on their way to a village 14 seven miles out from Jerusalem, named Emmaus, 14 conversing together 15 about all these things that had befallen; 15 and while they were conversing and discussing, Jesus himself drew near and went along with 16 17 them 16 (but their eyes were held from recognizing him) 17 and said to them "What talk is this that you are carrying on with each other 18 as you walk?" and they stood still with dejected faces. 18 And one, Cleopas by name, answered him "Are you the one man who is visiting Jerusalem and has not learned of the things that have been going on 19 in it these days?" 19 And he said to them "What things?" And they said to him "About Jesus the Nazarene, who showed himself a prophet 20 powerful in deed and word before God and all the people, 20 and how the chief priests and our rulers gave him over to a sentence of death 21 and crucified him; 21 but we were hoping it was he who was to redeem Israel. Yes, and, besides all this, now is the third day since these 22 things happened. 22 Yes, and some women in our party have been 23 startling us: 23 having been to the tomb at daybreak and not found his 24 body, they came telling us they had also seen a manifestation of 25 angels, who said he was alive; 24 and some of those who were with us 26 went to the tomb and found things the same as the women said, but 27 him they did not see." 25 And he said to them "O you stupid men, with 28 hearts slow to believe on everything that the prophets spoke! 26 did 29 not the Messiah have to suffer these things and enter on his glory?" 30 27 and, beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to 31 them in all the scriptures the things about himself.

32 28 And they drew near the village where they were going, and he 33 pretended to be going further; 29 and they pressed him insistently with 34 the invitation "Stay with us, because it is toward evening and the day 35 is already getting low," and he went in to stay with them. 30 And when 36 he went to the table with them he took the bread, and spoke the 37 blessing and broke it and handed it to them. 31 And their eyes were 38 opened and they recognized him; and he became invisible to them.
39 32 And they said to each other "Were not our hearts burning in us as 40 he talked to us on the road, as he opened the scriptures to us?" 33 and 41 that very moment they rose and returned to Jerusalem, and found the 42 eleven and those who were with them collected together, 34 saying "The 43 Lord has really risen, and has appeared to Simon," 35 and gave an 44 account of their experiences on the road and how he became known 45 to them in the breaking of the bread.

46 36 And while they were thus speaking he himself stood in their midst.
47 37 And they, terror-struck and unnerved, thought they were seeing a 48 spirit; 38 and he said to them "Why are you alarmed, and why do 49 questionings come up in your hearts? 39 see my hands and my feet, that 50 it is I myself; feel of me and see, because a spirit does not have flesh 51 and bones as you see I have." 41 And while they were still disbelieving 52 for very joy and wondering at it, he said to them "Have you 53 anything eatable here?" 42 And they handed him part of a broiled fish, 54 and he took it before them and ate it.

55 44 And he said to them "These are my words that I spoke to you 56 while I was still with you, that everything written in the law of 57 Moses and the prophets and the psalms about me must be fulfilled." 58 45 Then he opened their mind to understand the scriptures, 46 and said to 59 them "Thus it is written, that the Messiah suffer and rise from the 60 dead on the third day, 47 and that repentance to the pardoning of sins 61 be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning with Jerusalem.
62 48 You are witnesses to these things. 49 And lo, I am sending out upon you 63 what my Father promised; but do you keep in the city till you are 64 clothed with power from on high."

65 50 And he brought them out nearly to Bethany, and raised his hands 66 and blessed them; 51 and in the act of blessing them he moved away 67 from them. 52 And they returned to Jerusalem in great gladness, 53 and 68 were in the temple-precinct continually, blessing God.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 At the first there was the Word, and the Word was where God was, and the Word was God.
 2 3 2 He was at the first where God was. 3 Everything was made by his agency, and not a thing that was made was made without his agency.
 4 5 4 In him there was life, and the life was the light of men; 5 and the light is shining in the darkness, and the darkness has not taken it in.
 6 7 6 There was a man sent from God whose name was John. 7 This man came for testimony, to testify about the light, that all might believe 8 through him. 8 He was not the light but to testify about the light.

9 9 There was coming into the world the true light that lights every 10 man. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made by his agency, 11 11 and the world did not know him; he came to what belonged to him, 12 and those who belonged to him did not receive him. 12 But to as many as accepted him he gave the chance to become children of God, to 13 those who believe in his name, 13 who were born not from blood nor from will of flesh nor from will of man, but from God.

14 14 And the Word became flesh and abode among us and we saw his glory, glory such as that of an only son from the Father, full of grace 15 and truth. 15 John testifies of him and shouts "This was the one I spoke of when I said 'He who is coming behind me has got ahead of me,' 16 because he was before I was," 16 because out of his fullness all of us 17 have had portions, and grace for grace. 17 For the law was given through 18 Moses, grace and truth came in through Jesus Christ. 18 Nobody ever has seen God; an Only Born God, he who is in the Father's bosom, he gave the account of him.

19 19 And this is John's testimony, when the Jews sent priests and Levites to him from Jerusalem to ask him "Who are you?" and he answered 20 21 and made no denial. 20 And he said "I am not the Messiah." 21 And they asked him "Then what? are you Elijah?" and he said "I am not." 22 "Are you the prophet?" and he answered "No." 22 So they said to him 23 "Who are you? that we may give those who sent us an answer, what you say about yourself." 23 He said "I am the voice of one calling out in the wilderness 'Straighten out the Lord's road,' as the prophet 24 25 Isaiah said." 24 And they were sent from the Pharisees; 25 and they asked him "Then why do you baptize if you are not the Messiah nor Elijah 26 nor the prophet?" 26 John answered "I baptize in water; in your midst 27 stands he whom you do not know, 27 he who is coming behind me, whose shoestring I am not worthy to untie."

28 28 This happened in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was 29 baptizing. 29 The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him, and said 30 "There is God's lamb that takes away the world's sin. 30 That is the one about whom I said 'There is coming behind me a man who has 31 got ahead of me,' because he was before I was. 31 And I did not know him, but it was to have him disclosed to Israel that I came baptizing 32 in water." 32 And John testified "I have seen the Spirit coming down 33 like a dove out of the sky, and it rested on him. 33 And I did not know him; but he who sent me to baptize in water, he said to me 'The one on whom you see the Spirit come down and rest on him, he is the 34 one that baptizes in Holy Spirit'; 34 and I have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God."

35 35 The next day John was standing there again, and two of his dis-36 ciples, 36 and he looked at Jesus walking along and said "There is God's 37 lamb"; 37 and the two disciples heard him speak, and followed Jesus.
38 38 And Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them

39 "What do you want?" and they said to him "Rabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are you staying?" 39 He said to them "Come and you shall see." So they came and saw where he was staying, and stayed with him that day; it was about four o'clock.

40 40 Simon Peter's brother Andrew was one of the two that heard from 41 John and followed him; 41 he found his own brother Simon first and said to him "We have found the Messiah" (which means Anointed; translated into Greek it is Christ). 42 He brought him to Jesus; Jesus looked at him and said "You are Simon the son of John, you shall be called Cephas" (which means a rock; translated into Greek, the name is Peter). 43 The next day he wanted to go out to Galilee, and found 44 Philip, and said to him "Follow me." 44 And Philip was from Bethsaida, Andrew and Peter's city.

45 45 Philip found Nathanael and said to him "We have found the one that Moses wrote of in the Law, and that the prophets wrote of, Jesus the son of Joseph from Nazareth"; 46 and Nathanael said to him "Can there be anything good out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him "Come and see." 47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him and said of him "Here comes a genuine Israelite with no adulteration." 48 Nathanael said to him "What have you known about me?" Jesus replied "Before Philip called you I saw you when you were under the fig-tree." 49 Nathanael answered "Rabbi, you are the son of God, you are the king of Israel." 50 Jesus replied "Because I said to you I saw you under the fig-tree do you believe? you shall see greater things than these," 51 and said to him "Verily, verily I tell you, you and the rest shall see the heavens standing open and God's angels going up and coming down to the Son of Man."

1 1 And the next day but one there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, 2 and Jesus's mother was there; 2 and Jesus too, and his disciples, were 3 invited to the wedding. 3 And when they ran short of wine Jesus's 4 mother said to him "They have no wine"; 4 and Jesus said to her "What have you to do with my affairs, woman? the hour for me is not come yet."

5 5 His mother said to the waiters "Whatever he says to you, do it." 6 And there were six stone water-jars there, holding twenty or thirty gallons each, set out in accordance with the Jews' rites of cleansing. 7 Jesus said to them "Fill the jars with water"; 7 and they filled them clear up; 8 and he said to them "Now dip some out and take it to the toastmaster." And they took it to him. 9 And when the toastmaster tasted the water, which had become wine, and did not know where it came from (but the waiters who had dipped the water out knew), the 10 toastmaster called out to the bridegroom 10 "Everybody puts on the good wine first and the poorer when they get under the influence; 11 you have kept the good wine till now." 11 This, the first of the tokens, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and disclosed his glory, and his disciples

12 believed in him. 12 After that he came down to Capernaum, he and his mother and his brothers and his disciples, and they stayed there not many days.

13 13 And the Jews' passover was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 And he found in the temple-precinct the sellers of cattle and sheep and pigeons and the money-changers in their seats, 15 and he made a whip out of bits of rope and drove them all out of the temple-precinct, and the sheep and the cattle, and spilled the money-changers' coins and upset their tables, 16 and said to the pigeon-sellers "Get these away from here; do not make my Father's house a market." 17 His disciples remembered that it is written "Jealousy for thy house will eat me up."

18 18 So the Jews replied "What token do you show us, that you are doing this?" 19 Jesus replied "Wreck this temple and I will set it up in three days." 20 So the Jews said "It took forty-six years to build this temple, and will you set it up in three days?" 21 But he was speaking of the temple of his body; 22 so when he rose from the dead his disciples remembered that he said that, and believed the text of scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

23 23 And while he was in Judea at passover at the feast many believed in his name as they saw the tokens he was doing. 24 But Jesus himself did not trust himself to them, 25 because he knew everybody and did not need to have anybody testify about man, for he himself knew

1 what was in man. 1 And there was a man who belonged to the Pharisees, whose name was Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews; 2 this man came to him by night and said to him "Rabbi, we know you have come from God as teacher; for nobody can do these tokens that you are doing if God is not with him."

3 3 Jesus replied "Verily, verily I tell you, if a man is not born over, he cannot see the Reign of God."

4 4 Nicodemus said to him "How can a man be born when he is old? can he get into his mother's body a second time and be born?"

5 5 Jesus answered "Verily, verily I say to you, if one is not born from water and spirit he cannot get into the Reign of God. 6 What is born from the flesh is flesh and what is born from the spirit is spirit.

7 8 7 Do not wonder at my telling you 'you must be born over.' 8 The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it but do not know where it comes from and where it is going. Anyone who is born from the spirit is like that."

9 9 Nicodemus replied "How can those things be done?"

10 10 Jesus replied "Are you the teacher of Israel and do you not get the meaning of that? 11 Verily, verily, I tell you that we are speaking of what we know and testifying to what we have seen, and you are not receiving our testimony. 12 If I tell you the earthly side and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you the heavenly side? 13 And nobody has gone up to heaven but he who came down out of heaven, the 14 Son of Man. 14 And as Moses raised the snake aloft in the desert, so the 15 Son of Man must be raised aloft, 15 that everyone who believes in him 16 may have eternal life. 16 For God so loved the world that he gave his 17 only son that everyone who believes in him might not perish but have 18 eternal life. 17 For God did not send the Son into the world to judge 19 the world but in order to have the world saved through him. 18 He who 20 believes in him is not judged; he who does not believe is already 21 judged because he has not believed in the name of God's only son. 19 And 22 this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world and men 23 loved the darkness rather than the light; for their doings were bad.

24 20 For anyone who is misbehaving hates the light and does not come to 25 the light, that his doings may not be exposed; 21 but he who is doing as 26 truth would have him comes to the light that his doings may be dis-27 closed, because they are work done in God."

22 After this Jesus and his disciples came into Judea, and he spent 23 a while with them there and baptized. 23 And John too was baptizing at 24 Enon near Salim, because there was much water there; and they came 25 and had themselves baptized, 24 for John had not yet been thrown 26 into prison.

25 So there came up an argument on the part of John's disciples with 26 a Jew about cleansing; 26 and they came to John and said to him "Rabbi, 27 the one that was with you on the other side of the Jordan, the one you 28 testified for—there he is baptizing and everybody is coming to him."

27 John replied "A man cannot take anything if it is not given to him 28 from heaven. 28 You yourselves bear me witness that I said I was not 29 the Messiah, but that I had been sent before him. 29 The one who has the 30 bride is bridegroom; but the bridegroom's friend who stands and 31 hears him is right joyous over the bridegroom's voice; so this joy is 32 mine in full measure. 30 He must grow, but I must dwindle. 31 He who 33 comes from above is above all: he who is from the earth is a thing of 34 earth and speaks things of earth; he who comes from heaven is above 35 all. 32 What he has seen and heard, to that he testifies, and nobody 36 accepts his testimony. 33 He who has accepted his testimony has set 37 his seal to it that God is true; 34 for he whom God has sent speaks God's 38 words, for he does not give the Spirit by measure. 35 The Father loves 39 the Son, and has given everything into his hand. 36 He who believes 40 in the Son has eternal life; but he who disobeys the Son will not see 41 life, but God's anger rests on him."

CHAPTER 4

1 So when the Lord found that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus 2 was making and baptizing more disciples than John— 2 yet Jesus did 3 not himself baptize, but his disciples— 3 he left Judea and went back 4 to Galilee. 4 And he had to go through Samaria.

5 So he came to a city in Samaria called Sychar, near the piece of 6 land Jacob gave to his son Joseph. 6 And there was a well there, Jacob's well. So Jesus, being spent with travel, was sitting by the 7 well in that condition; it was about twelve o'clock; 7 a woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her "Let me have a drink"; 8 8 for his disciples had gone off to the city to buy food.

9 9 So the Samaritan woman said to him "How come you, a Jew, to ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" for the Jews do not associate with the Samaritans.
10 10 Jesus replied "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you 'Let me have a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." 11 11 She said to him "Sir, you have nothing to draw with and the well 12 is deep; so where do you get the living water? 12 Do you amount to more than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, and his sons and his stock?" 13 13 Jesus replied "Anyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; 14 14 but whoever drinks the water that I will give him shall have no thirst forevermore, but the water that I will give him shall become in him a fountain of gushing water to eternal life." 15 15 The woman said to him "Sir, give me that water, that I may not be thirsty nor come over here to draw." 16 16 He said to her "Go call your husband and come here."
17 17 The woman replied "I have no husband." 18 18 Jesus said to her "You are right in saying 'I have no husband,' for you have had five husbands and the one you have now is no husband of yours; you have told the truth in that." 19 20 19 The woman said to him "Sir, I see you are a prophet. 20 Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, and you say the place to worship in is at Jerusalem." 21 21 Jesus said to her "Believe me, woman, there is a moment coming when you will not be worshiping the Father either on this mountain 22 or at Jerusalem. 22 You worship what you do not know; we worship 23 what we know, because salvation is of the Jews; 23 but there is a moment coming, and it is here now, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth—for the Father aims to have his wor-24 shipers such. 24 God is a spirit, and those who worship must worship in spirit and truth." 25 25 The woman said to him "I know there is a Messiah coming" (the one who in Greek is called Christ); "when he comes he will tell us the whole story."
26 26 Jesus said to her "It is I, I who am speaking to you." 27 27 And upon that his disciples came, and wondered that he was talking with a woman; however, nobody said "What are you after?" or "Why are you talking with her?" 28 28 So the woman left her jar and went off to the city and said to the 29 men "Come see a man that told me everything I had done; 29 do you suppose that is the Messiah?"

30 31 30They came out of the city and were coming to him. 31 In the meantime the disciples asked him "Rabbi, eat something."

32 32 But he said to them "I have a meal to eat that you do not know of."

33 33 So the disciples said to each other "Did someone bring him something to eat?"

34 34 Jesus said to them "It is my food that I should do the will of the 35 one who sent me and carry his work through. 35 You say, do you not,
'Another four months and harvest comes'? here I am telling you, 36 raise your eyes and look at the fields to see that they are white for 37 harvest already. 36 The reaper gets pay and gathers fruit for eternal 38 life, that together the sower and the reaper may be glad, 37 for in this matter the saying holds good that the sower is one man and the reaper 38 another. 38 I sent you to reap what you have not labored on: others have labored and you have come into their labor."

39 39 And out of that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the woman's words as she testified "He told me everything 40 I had done." 40 So when the Samaritans came to him they asked him 41 to stay with them, and he stayed there two days, 41 and many more be-42 lieved because of his words 42 and said to the woman "We are no longer believing because of your talk, for we have heard for ourselves and know that this positively is the Savior of the World."

3 44 43 But after the two days he went out from there to Galilee; 44 for Jesus himself attested that a prophet does not have honor in his home-45 town. 45 So when he came to Galilee the Galileans received him, having seen all the things he did at Jerusalem at the feast; for they too had been to the feast.

46 46 So he came again to Cana in Galilee, where he made the water wine.
And there was a certain royal official whose son was sick at Caper-47 naum; 47 this man heard that Jesus had come from Jerusalem to Galilee, and went to him and asked that he would come down and heal his 48 son, for he was going to die. 48 So Jesus said to him "Unless you see 49 tokens and wonders you will not believe"; 49 the official said to him 50 "Sir, come down before my child dies." 50 Jesus said to him "Go along, your son recovers"; the man believed the word Jesus gave him and 51 went. 51 And when he was already coming down his servants met him 52 saying his child was recovering. 52 So he inquired from them the hour at which he showed improvement; so they told him "The fever left 53 him at one in the afternoon yesterday." 53 So the father knew it was at that hour at which Jesus said to him "your son recovers," and 54 believed, he and his whole family. 54 This second token Jesus did again when he had come out of Judea to Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to 2 Jerusalem. 2 And at Jerusalem there is at the Sheep Gate a pool, the 3 one spoken of in Hebrew as Bethzatha, with five porches; 3 in these 5 were lying a multitude of the sick, blind, lame, atrophied. 5 And there was a certain man there who had had thirty-eight years of his disease; 6 6 seeing him lying there, and finding that he had had a long time of it, Jesus said to him "Do you want to get well?"

7 7 The sick man answered him "Sir, I do not have a man to throw me into the pool when the water is disturbed, and while I am coming somebody else gets down ahead of me."

8 9 8 Jesus said to him "Rise, take up your pallet, and walk." 9 And at once the man became well and took up his pallet and walked.

10 10 And it was sabbath that day; so the Jews said to the cured man
"It is sabbath, and it is not lawful for you to carry your pallet."

11 11 But he answered "The one that made me well, he said to me "Take up 12 your pallet and walk." 12 They asked him "Who was the man that said 13 to you "Take it up and walk'?" 13 But the cured man did not know who it was; for Jesus had slipped away, there being a crowd in the place.

14 14 After this Jesus found him in the temple-precinct and said to him 15 "There, you have got well; do not sin anymore, so that you will not have something worse." 15 The man went off and told the Jews it was Jesus that had made him well; and because of that the Jews persecuted 16 17 Jesus, 16 since he had done that on a sabbath. 17 But he answered them 18 "My Father is working till now, and I am working." 18 So because of that the Jews tried the more to kill him since he was not only overriding the obligation of the sabbath but also calling God his father, claiming to be equal to God.

19 19 So Jesus replied "Verily, verily I tell you, the Son cannot do anything from himself unless he sees the Father do a thing; for what he 20 does, that the Son likewise does. 20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything that he himself is doing, and will show him 21 greater works than these for you to wonder at. 21 For as the Father raises the dead and gives life, so the Son too gives life to whom he 22 will. 22 For the Father does not judge anyone either, but he has given all 23 jurisdiction to the Son, 23 that all may honor the Son as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father 24 who sent him. 24 Verily, verily I tell you that he who hears my words and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come 25 under judgment but has passed from death to life. 25 Verily, verily I tell you that there is a moment coming, and it is here now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will 26 come to life, 26 for as the Father has life in himself so he has given it 27 to the Son to have life in himself; 27 and he has given him authority 28 to administer judgment because he is Son of Man. 28 Do not wonder at this, because there is a moment coming at which all in the tombs 29 will hear his voice and pass out, 29 those who have done what was good to resurrection of life, those who have misbehaved to resurrection of 30 judgment. 30 I cannot do anything from myself: I pronounce judgment as I hear, and my judgment is just because I am not looking out for my will but for the will of the one that sent me.

31 32 31 "If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true; 32 there is another 33 who testifies about me, and I know the testimony he gives about me 34 is true. 33 You have sent to John and he has testified to the truth; 34 but I do not draw on a man for testimony, but am saying these things 35 that you may be saved. 35 He was the lamp that burned and shone; and 36 you were willing to jubilate in his light for a moment. 36 But I have greater testimony than John's; for the works that the Father has given 37 it to me to carry through, the very works that I am doing, testify about me that the Father has sent me. 37 And the Father who sent me, 38 he has testified about me. You have never yet heard his voice nor seen 38 his form, 38 and you do not have his word resting in you, because you do 39 not believe him whom he sent. 39 You search through the scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life, and they are what 40 41 testify about me, 40 and you are not willing to come to me to have life. 41 I 42 do not accept glory from men; 42 but I know you as not having the love 43 of God in you. 43 I have come in my Father's name and you do not 44 accept me; if another comes in his own name you will accept him. 44 How 45 can you believe when you accept glory from each other and do not look out for the glory that comes from the only God? 45 Do not think I will accuse you to the Father; there is one who does accuse you, 46 Moses, to whom you have pinned your hopes; 46 for if you believed Moses 47 you would be believing me, for he wrote about me. 47 But if you do not believe his writings how will you believe my sayings?"

CHAPTER 6

1 1 After this Jesus went off to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (of 2 Tiberias). 2 And a great crowd followed him, because they saw the 3 tokens he was doing on the sick. 3 And Jesus went up on the mountain-4 side and sat there with his disciples. 4 And the passover, the Jews' feast, was near.

5 5 So Jesus, raising his eyes and seeing the sight of a great crowd coming to him, said to Philip "Where shall we buy bread for these 6 to eat?" 6 But he was saying this to test him; for he himself knew what he was going to do.

7 7 Philip answered him "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not 8 enough for them each to take a little bit." 8 One of his disciples, Simon 9 Peter's brother Andrew, said to him 9 "There is a child here who has five barley cakes and two fish for relish; but what is that for so many?"

10 10 Jesus said "Have the men take their seats." And there was much grass in the place; so the men took their seats, in number about five 11 thousand. 11 So Jesus took the cakes and gave thanks and distributed to the men on the grass, similarly of the fish too, as much as they 12 wanted. 12 And when they were filled he said to his disciples "Pick up the fragments that were left over so that there shall not be any-13 thing lost." 13 So they did it, and filled twelve baskets with fragments that the eaters had had left over from the five barley cakes.

14 14 So the men, seeing the token he did, said "This positively is the 15 prophet that was to come into the world." 15 So Jesus, finding that they were going to come and seize him to make a king of him, withdrew 16 to the mountainside again alone by himself. 16 And when it came evening 17 his disciples went down to the sea 17 and got into a boat and were coming to Capernaum on the other side of the sea; and darkness had already 18 come down and Jesus had not yet come to them, 18 and the sea was 19 being stirred up as a high wind blew. 19 So they had rowed about three or four miles when they saw Jesus walking on the sea and getting 20 near the boat, and they were afraid. 20 But he said to them "It is I, do not be afraid"; 21 so they were willing to take him into the boat, and at once the boat was at the land they were bound for.

22 The next day the crowd that was standing on the other side of the sea saw that there had been no other boat there but one, and that Jesus had not got into the boat with his disciples but the disciples had 23 gone off alone. 23 But boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord gave thanks; 24 so when the 24 crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they themselves went on board the boats and came to Capernaum looking for 25 Jesus; 25 and, finding him on the other side of the sea, they said to him 26 "Rabbi, when did you get here?" 26 Jesus replied to them "Verily, verily I tell you, you are looking for me not because you saw tokens but 27 because you ate out of the bread and satisfied your appetites. 27 Work not for perishable food but for the food that lasts into eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you, for him the Father, God, sealed."

28 28 So they said to him "What shall we do to do God's work?" 29 Jesus replied to them "This is God's work, for you to believe in the one 30 he sent." 30 So they said to him "Then what token do you do so that 31 we may see and believe you? what do you do?" 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the desert, as it says 'He gave them bread from heaven to 32 eat.'" 32 So Jesus said to them "Verily, verily I tell you, not Moses has given you the bread from heaven, but my Father is giving you the 33 true bread from heaven; 33 for God's bread is the bread that comes down 34 from heaven and gives the world life." 34 So they said to him "Sir, give us this bread always."

35 35 Jesus said to them "I am the bread of life; he who comes to me shall not go hungry, and he who believes in me shall not go thirsty, 36 36 ever; 36 but I told you you have even seen and do not believe. 37 Whatever the Father gives me will come to me; and I will not turn out the 38 one who comes to me, 38 because I have come down from heaven not to 39 do my will but the will of the one who sent me. 39 And this is the will of the one who sent me, that of whatever he has given me I should 40 not lose any but should raise it on the Last Day. 40 For this is my Father's will, that whoever sees the Son and believes in him should have eternal life and I should raise him on the Last Day."

41 41 So the Jews complained of him because he said "I am the bread 42 that came down from heaven," 42 and said "Why, this is Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know; how is he saying now 'I have come down from heaven'?"

43 Jesus replied to them "Do not complain to each other. 44 Nobody can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him and I shall raise him on the Last Day. 45 It says in the prophets 'and they shall all be taught of God'; everyone who has heard from the Father and has learned comes to me; 46 not that anyone has seen the Father, except he who is from God, he has seen the Father.

47 "Verily, verily I tell you, he who believes has eternal life. 48 I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and died; 50 this is the bread that comes down from heaven for a man to eat of and not die. 51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven; if one eats of this bread he will live forever; yes, and the bread that I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world."

52 So the Jews wrangled with each other, saying "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" 53 So Jesus said to them "Verily, verily I tell you, if you do not eat the Son of Man's flesh and drink his blood you do not have life in you. 54 He who does feast on my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the Last Day; 55 for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. 56 He who feasts on my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. 57 As the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, he also who feasts on me will live too because of me. 58 This is the bread that came down from heaven, not as the fathers ate and died; he who feasts on this bread will live forever."

59 This he said in a synagogue as he was teaching in Capernaum; 60 so many of his disciples, hearing it, said "These words come hard; who can listen to him?" 61 But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were complaining about this, said to them "Does this stagger you? 62 so if you see the Son of Man go up where he was formerly— 63 The spirit is what gives life; the flesh is of no use; the words I have spoken to you are spirit and are life. 64 But there are some of you that do not believe." For Jesus knew from the first who it was that did not believe and who it was that was to be the agent in his arrest. 65 And he said "That is why I have been saying to you that nobody can come to me unless it is given to him from the Father."

66 At this many of his disciples backed off and no longer went about with him. 67 So Jesus said to the Twelve "Do you too mean to go?" 68 Simon Peter answered him "Sir, to whom shall we go? you have words of eternal life, 69 and for our part we do believe and know that you are God's Holy One." 70 Jesus answered them "Did I not choose you twelve? and one of you is a backbiter." 71 He meant Judas the son of Simon an Iscariot; for he, one of the Twelve, was going to be the agent in his arrest.

CHAPTER 7

1 1 And after this Jesus went about in Galilee; for he would not go 2 about in Judea because the Jews were trying to kill him. 2 And the 3 Jews' Feast of Booths was near; 3 so his brothers said to him "Get away 4 from here and go to Judea so that your disciples too will see your 5 deeds that you do; 4 for nobody does anything in secret and tries to 6 be personally a public figure. If you are doing these things, make 7 yourself visible to the world." 5 For even his brothers did not believe 8 in him.

6 6 So Jesus said to them "My time is not come yet, but your time 7 is always ready. 7 The world cannot hate you; but me it does hate, 8 because I testify about it that its doings are bad. 8 Go up to the feast 9 yourselves; I am not going up to this feast yet, because my time is 10 not fully come." 9 And, saying this to them, he stayed in Galilee.
10 10 But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, he too went up, not 11 openly but as it were in secret.

11 11 So the Jews looked for him at the feast and said "Where is he?" 12 12 and there was a great deal of complaining about him in the crowds—13 some said "He is good," others said "No, he misleads the crowd." 13 How-14 ever, nobody spoke publicly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 14 But when the feast was already at its middle Jesus went up to the 15 temple-precinct and taught. 15 So the Jews wondered, saying "How is it 16 that this man knows books without having learned?"

16 16 So Jesus replied to them "My teaching is not mine, but his who 17 sent me; 17 if one wants to do his will he will know about the teaching, 18 whether it is from God or I am speaking from myself. 18 He who speaks 19 from himself aims at his own glory; but he who aims at the glory 20 of the one who sent him, he is true and there is no wrong in him.
19 19 Did not Moses give you the law? and no one of you. lives up to the 20 law. Why are you trying to kill me?"

20 20 The crowd answered "You are possessed; who is trying to kill you?"

21 21 Jesus replied to them "I did one deed and you are all wondering 22 because of that. 22 Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is from 23 Moses, but from the fathers), and on the sabbath you circumcise a 24 man. 23 If a man receives circumcision on the sabbath in order that 25 Moses's law may not be slighted, are you exasperated with me be-26 cause I made a whole man well on the sabbath? 24 Do not judge by 27 appearances, but pass the just judgment."

25 25 So some of the Jerusalemites said "Why, this is the one they are 26 trying to kill; 26 and here he is speaking publicly and they are saying 27 nothing to him—can it be that the rulers have positively found out 28 that this is the Messiah? 27 But we know where this man is from; but 29 when the Messiah comes nobody knows where he is from." 28 So Jesus, 29 as he was teaching in the temple-precinct, cried out "You both know 30 me and know where I am from; and I have not come of myself, but 31 the one who sent me is genuine—whom you do not know; 29 I know

30 him, because I am from him and he sent me." 30 So they meant to arrest him—and nobody laid a hand on him, because his hour had not come yet. 31 And of the crowd many believed in him and said "Will the Messiah, when he comes, do more tokens than this man has?"

32 32 The Pharisees heard the crowd voicing these thoughts about him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.

33 33 So Jesus said "I am to be with you a little while longer and go to the one that sent me; 34 you will look for me and not find me, and where I am you cannot come." 35 So the Jews said to each other "Where is the man going, that we shall not find him? is he going to the colonies among the Greeks to teach the Greeks? 36 What is the idea of that that he said, 'You will look for me and not find me, and where I am you cannot come'?"

37 37 And on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out "If anybody is thirsty, come to me and drink. 38 He who believes in me will, as the text said, have rivers of living water flowing out of his body." 39 And this he said with reference to the Spirit which those who believed in him were to receive; for there was not yet any Spirit, because Jesus was not glorified yet.

40 40 So some of the crowd, hearing these words, said "This positively is the prophet." 41 Others said "This is the Messiah"; but they said 42 "Why, is the Messiah coming out of Galilee? didn't the text say the Messiah is to come of David's blood, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?" 43 So there came to be a split in the crowd over him; 44 and some of them wanted to arrest him, but nobody laid hands on him.

45 45 So the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees, 46 and these said to them "Why did you not bring him?" The officers answered 47 "No man ever spoke as this man speaks." 47 So the Pharisees answered them "Are you misled too? 48 has any one of the rulers believed on him, 49 or of the Pharisees? 49 but this crowd that do not know the law have a curse on them."

50 50 Nicodemus, he who had come to him before, said to them, being one of them, 51 "Does your law pass judgment on a man without having first heard him and found out what he is doing?" 52 They replied to him 53 "Are you too from Galilee? Look up and see that there does not arise a prophet from Galilee."

John 7:53 and John 8:1-11 are printed at the end of John.

CHAPTER 8

12 12 So Jesus spoke to them again, saying "I am the light of the world; he who follows me shall not walk in the dark, but have the light of life."

13 13 So the Pharisees said to him "You are giving testimony about yourself—your testimony is not true."

14 14 Jesus replied to them "Even if I am giving testimony about myself, my testimony is true, because I know where I came from and where I am going; but you do not know where I come from or where I am

15 16 going. 15 You judge from the standpoint of the flesh. 16 I do not judge anybody; and if I do judge my judgment is true, because I am not 17 alone but I and the one who sent me; 17 and it is written in your law 18 too that two men's testimony is true. 18 It is I that testify about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me."

19 19 So they said to him "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered "You do not know either me or my Father; if you knew me you would know my Father too." 20 These words he spoke in the treasury, teaching in the temple-precinct, and nobody arrested him because his hour had not come yet.

21 21 So he said to them again "I am going, and you will look for me and will die in your sins; where I am going you cannot come."

22 22 So the Jews said "Will he kill himself, that he says 'Where I am going you cannot come'?" 23 And he said to them "You belong to those below, I belong to those above; you are out of this world, I am not out of this world; 24 so I told you you would die in your sins, for if you do not believe I am the one, die in your sins you will."

25 25 So they said to him "Who are you?"
 Jesus said to them ". . . in the first place that I am even speaking to you. 26 I have much speaking and judging about you to do; but the one who sent me is truthful, and I speak into the world what I heard from him."

27 28 27 They did not see that he meant the Father. 28 So Jesus said "When you raise the Son of Man aloft, then you will find out that I am the one and am doing nothing of myself, but as the Father instructed me, so I speak. 29 And the one who sent me is with me; he does not leave me alone, because I always do what is pleasing to him."

30 31 30 As he spoke these words many believed in him. 31 So Jesus said to the Jews that had believed him "If you remain in my words you are really disciples of mine 32 and shall know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

33 33 They answered back "We are Abraham's descendants and have never yet been slaves to anybody; how is it you say 'you will be set free'?"

34 34 Jesus answered "Verily, verily I tell you that everyone who commits sin is a slave of sin. 35 And the slave does not stay in the house forever; the son does. 36 So if the Son sets you free you will be really free. 37 I know you are Abraham's descendants; but you are trying to kill me because my words do not find room in you. 38 I speak what I have seen in Father's home; so do on your part what you heard from Father."

39 39 They replied "Abraham is our father."
 Jesus said to them "If you are Abraham's children, do Abraham's deeds. 40 But now you are trying to kill me, a man that have spoken the truth to you, which I heard from God; Abraham did not do that. 41 41 You are doing your father's deeds."

They said to him "We were not born illegitimately; we have one father, God."

42 Jesus said to them "If God were your father you would love me, for I went out from God and come from him; for I have not come of myself either, but he sent me. 43 Why do you not get the meaning of my talk? because you cannot hear my words. 44 You come of your father the Devil, and it is your father's desires that you want to act out. He was a man-killer from the first, and did not keep his stand in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaks falsehood he speaks a thing of his own, because he is a liar and father of 45 46 it. 45 And because I tell the truth you do not believe me. 46 Which of you convicts me of a sin? If I tell truth, why do you not believe me?
47 47 He who is from God hears God's words; consequently it is because you are not from God that you do not hear."

48 48 The Jews replied "Are we not right in saying you are a Samaritan and have a demon?"

49 49 Jesus answered "I do not have a demon; but I am honoring my Father and you are dishonoring me. 50 But I am not looking out for my glory; there is one who looks out and judges. 51 Verily, verily I tell you, if one keeps my words he shall not behold death forevermore."

52 52 The Jews said to him "Now we know you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets, and you say 'if one keeps my words he shall not taste death forevermore.' 53 Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? and the prophets died; whom are you claiming to be?"

54 54 Jesus answered "If I glorify myself there is nothing to my glory. It is my Father that glorifies me, who you say is your God, and you do not know him. 55 But I do know him; and if I say I do not know him I shall be a liar like you; but I know him and keep his words. 56 Your father Abraham exulted that he should see my day, and he saw it and was glad."

57 57 So the Jews said to him "You are not yet fifty years old, and has Abraham seen you?"

58 58 Jesus said to them "Verily, verily I tell you, before there was an Abraham I am."

59 59 So they picked up stones to throw at him. But Jesus was hidden, and went out of the temple-precinct.

CHAPTER 9

1 2 1 And as he passed along he saw a man blind from birth. 2 And his disciples asked him "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind?"

3 3 Jesus answered "Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but it was in order that God's doings might be disclosed in him. 4 We must do the work of the one who sent me while it is day; there is coming a night when nobody can work. 5 When I am in the world I am the light of the world." 6 Saying this, he spat on the ground and made mud

7 out of the spit, and put the mud on his eyes, 7 and said to him "Go wash your face in the pool of Siloani" (the translation of which is "Sent").

8 8 So he went and washed his face, and came back able to see. So the neighbors and those who had formerly seen him to be a beggar 9 said "Is not this the one that was sitting and begging?" 9 Some said "This is the one"; others said "No, but he is like him." He said "I am the one."

10 11 10 So they said to him "Then how were your eyes opened?" 11 He answered "The man known as Jesus made mud and rubbed it on my eyes and told me 'go to Siloam and wash your face'; so I went and 12 washed my face and had my eyesight back." 12 And they said to him "Where is he?" He said "I do not know."

13 14 13 So they brought him (the once blind man) to the Pharisees. 14 And the day on which Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes was sabbath.
15 15 So the Pharisees too asked him again how he recovered his sight. And he said to them "He put mud on my eyes, and I washed my face, and can see."
16 16 So some of the Pharisees said "This man is not from God, because he does not keep the sabbath"; others said "How can a sinful man do such tokens?" and there was a split among them.
17 17 So they said to the blind man again "What do you say about him because he opened your eyes?" And he said "That he is a prophet."

18 18 So the Jews did not believe about him that he had been blind and had recovered his sight until they had called his parents, the cured man's,
19 19 and asked them "This is your son, who you say was born blind; then how is it he can see now?"
20 20 So his parents replied "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind; 21 but how it is he can see now we do not know, or who opened his eyes; we do not know, ask 21 21 him; he is of age, he will speak for himself." 22 This his parents said because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if anybody acknowledged him as Messiah he should be excommunicated.
22 22 This was why his parents said "he is of age, he will speak for himself."

24 24 So they called in for the second time the man who had been blind, and said to him "Give glory to God; we know that this man is sinful."
25 25 So he answered "Whether he is sinful I do not know; one thing I do know, that I was blind and now can see."

26 26 So they said to him "What did he do to you? how did he open your eyes?" 27 He answered "I told you already and you did not hear; what do you want to hear again for? do you too want to become disciples of him?"
27 27 He answered "I told you already and you did not hear; what do you want to hear again for? do you too want to become disciples of him?"
28 28 And they abused him and said "You are a disciple of Mm, but we are disciples of Moses. 29 We know God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man we do not know where he comes from."

30 30 The man replied "Now that is just what is remarkable, that you do not know where he comes from and he opened my eyes. 31 We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if one is religious and does

32 his will, him he does listen to. 32 Since the beginning of time it was never heard that anybody had opened the eyes of a person born 33 34 blind. 33 If this man were not from God he could not do anything." 34 They replied "You were born all in sins, and are you teaching us?" and turned him out.

35 35 Jesus heard that they had turned him out, and found him and said 36 to him "You believe on the Son of Man?" 36 He replied "And who is 37 he, sir? so that I may believe in him." 37 Jesus said to him "You have 38 seen him, yes, and he is the one that is speaking with you." 38 And 39 he said "I believe, sir," and did reverence to him. 39 And Jesus said "It was for a judgment I came into this world: that those who cannot see may see and those who can may become blind."

40 40 Some of the Pharisees, those who were with him, heard this and said to him "Are we blind too?"

41 41 Jesus said to them "If you were blind you would not have any sin; but now you say 'We can see'—your sin stands.

CHAPTER 10

1 1 "Verily, verily I tell you, he who does not come into the fold of sheep through the door but climbs in elsewhere, that man is a thief 2 and a robber; 2 but he who comes in through the door is shepherd of 3 those sheep. 3 To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his 4 voice, and he calls his sheep by name and leads them out. 4 When he gets out all that are his, he goes before them, and the sheep follow 5 him, because they know his voice; 5 but a man they do not belong to they will not follow but will run away from him, because they do not know the voices of men they do not belong to."

6 6 This parable Jesus told them; but they did not know what the 7 things he spoke to them meant. 7 So Jesus said again "Verily, verily I 8 tell you that I am the door for the sheep. 8 All that came before me are 9 thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not listen to them. 9 I am the door; anyone who enters through me will be safe and sound and go 10 in and out and find pasturage. 10 The thief comes only to steal and kill 11 and waste; I came that they may have life and plenty of it. 11 I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.
12 12 The hired man, who is not actual shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs, and the wolf 13 carries them off and scatters them; 13 because he is a hired man and 14 does not care about the sheep. 14 I am the good shepherd, and I know 15 mine and mine know me, 15 as the Father knows me and I know the 16 Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. 16 And I have other sheep which do not belong to this fold; those too I must bring, and they will hear my voice, and there will come to be one flock, one shepherd.

17 17 "That is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life, to 18 take it again. 18 Nobody has deprived me of it, but I lay it down of my own accord. I am authorized to lay it down and I am authorized to take it again; I was given this commission by my Father."

19 19 There came a split among the Jews again because of these words.
20 20 And many of them said "He has a demon-possession and is out of 21 his head; why do you listen to him?" 21 others said "These words are not a possessed man's; can a demon-possession open blind men's eyes?"

22 22 At that time came the feast of the Dedication at Jerusalem; it was 23 winter; 23 and Jesus was walking in the temple-precinct, in Solomon's 24 Porch. 24 So the Jews surrounded him and said to him "How long are you keeping us in suspense? if you are the Messiah, tell us frankly." 25 Jesus answered them "I told you and you do not believe. 25 The very 26 deeds I am doing in my Father's name testify about me; 26 but you do 27 not believe because you are not sheep of mine. 27 My sheep listen to my 28 voice, and I know them, and they follow me, 28 and I give them eternal life, and they shall not be lost forevermore, and no one will carry 29 them off out of my hands. 29 My Father who has given to me is greatest of all things, and nobody can carry off out of the Father's hands.
30 I and the Father are one."

31 32 31 Again the Jews lifted stones to stone him. 32 Jesus answered "I showed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning me?"

33 33 The Jews answered "We are not stoning you in reference to a good work, but to a blasphemy and because you, being a man, are claiming to be God."

34 34 Jesus answered "Is it not set down in your law 'I said, You are 35 gods'? 35 If he called those men gods, those who had had God's word 36 coming to them, and the text cannot be invalidated, 36 do you say of the one whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world 'You 37 are blaspheming' because I said 'I am God's son'? 37 If I do not do my 38 Father's deeds, do not believe me; 38 but if I do, even if you do not believe me believe the deeds, that you may find out and know that the Father is in me and I am in the Father."

39 39 So they again meant to arrest him; and he came out of their hands, 40 40 and went off across the Jordan again to the place where John had 41 first been when he was baptizing, and stayed there; 41 and many came to him and said "John did not do any token, but everything John said about this man was true"; and many believed in him there.

CHAPTER 11

1 1 But there was a certain man who was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, 2 the village of Mary and her sister Martha. 2 And it was the Mary 3 whose brother Lazarus was sick. 3 So the sisters sent word to him 4 "Sir, the man you are fond of is sick!" 4 And when Jesus heard it he 5 said "This sickness is not for death, but for God's glory, that the 6 Son of God may be glorified through it." 5 And Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

6 6 So when he heard that he was sick what he did then was to stay 7 two days in the place where he was; 7 then after that he said to the

8 disciples "Let us go to Judea again." 8 The disciples said to him "Rabbi, just now the Jews were meaning to kill you, and are you going there again?" 9 Jesus answered "There are twelve hours to a day, are there not? If one walks in the day he does not stub his toe, because he sees this world's light; 10 but if one walks in the night he does, because he does not have the light in him."

11 11 This he said, and after that he said to them "Our friend Lazarus has gone to rest, but I am on my way to wake him up."

12 12 So the disciples said to him "Sir, if he is getting rest he will recover." 13 But Jesus had been speaking of his death; but they thought he was speaking of the rest of sleep.

14 15 14 So then Jesus said to them plainly "Lazarus is dead, 15 and I am glad on your account, so that you may believe, that I was not there; but let us go to him."

16 16 So Thomas, known as the Twin, said to his fellow-disciples "Let us go too, to die with him."

17 17 So Jesus came and found him in the tomb, where he had been four days already.

18 18 And Bethany was near Jerusalem, rather more than a mile and a half off. 19 And many of the Jews had come to Mary and Martha's to condole with them about their brother. 20 So Martha, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him; but Mary was sitting in the house.

21 21 So Martha said to Jesus "Sir, if you had been here my brother would not have died; 22 and even now I know that whatever you ask God for, God will give to you."

23 23 Jesus said to her "Your brother shall rise."

24 24 Martha said to him "I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day."

25 25 Jesus said to her "I am Resurrection and Life; he who believes in me shall live even if he dies, 26 and anyone who lives and believes in me shall not die ever. Do you believe that?"

27 27 She said to him "Yes, sir: I am believing that you are the Messiah, the son of God, who was to come into the world." 28 And, saying this, she went away and called her sister Mary privately, saying "The Teacher is here and is calling you." 29 And she, when she heard, started up and came to him.

30 30 And Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still at the place where Martha met him. 31 So the Jews that were in the house with her and were comforting her, seeing that Mary started up and went out, followed her, thinking she was going to the tomb to weep there.

32 32 So when Mary came where Jesus was, at seeing him she threw herself down at his feet, saying to him "Sir, if you had been here my brother would not have died."

33 33 So Jesus, when he saw her weeping and saw the Jews that had come with her weeping, controlled himself with an effort and showed agitation, 34 and said "Where have you laid him?"

They said to him "Sir, come and see."

35-37 35 Jesus wept. 36 So the Jews said "See how he loved him." 37 But some of them said "Could not this man who opened the blind man's eyes cause this man not to die too?"

38 38 So Jesus, again controlling himself, came to the tomb. And it was a cave, and there was a stone laid over it. 39 Jesus said "Lift off the stone."

Martha, the sister of the deceased, said to him "Sir, he is smelling by now, for it is four days."

40 40 Jesus said to her "Did I not tell you that if you believed you should see God's glory?"

41 41 So they lifted the stone off. And Jesus raised his eyes upward and said "Father, I thank you that you heard me. 42 And I knew you always do hear me; but I said it because of the crowd standing around me, that they may believe that you sent me."

43 43 And, having said this, he shouted in a loud voice "Lazarus, come out here!" 44 Out came the man that had died, with his feet and hands tied with strips of cloth and his face tied up in a handkerchief. Jesus said to them "Untie him and let him go."

45 45 So a great many of the Jews, such as had come to Mary's and witnessed what he did, believed in him; 46 but some of them went off to the Pharisees and told them the things Jesus had done. 47 So the chief priests and the Pharisees got together a Sanhedrin and said "What are we doing that this man is doing so many tokens? 48 if we let him go on like this everybody will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation." 49 But one of them, a certain Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them "You folks do not know anything, 50 and you do not reflect that it is best for you to have one man die for the people and not the whole nation perish." 51 And this he did not say of his own accord, but, being high priest that year, prophetically, that Jesus was to die for the nation, 52 and not only for the nation but to bring together God's scattered children too into one.— 53 So from that day on they planned to kill him. 54 So Jesus no longer went about publicly among the Jews, but went away from there to the country near the desert, to a city called Ephraim, and stayed there with the disciples.

55 55 But it was near the Jews' passover, and many from the country went up to Jerusalem before the passover to purify themselves. 56 So they looked for Jesus, and said as they stood together in the temple-precinct "What do you think? that he will not come to the feast?" 57 And the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anybody found out where he was he should give information, so that they might arrest him.

CHAPTER 12

1 1 So Jesus came six days before the passover to Bethany, where 2 Lazarus, whom Jesus raised from the dead, was. 2 So they gave a dinner for him there, and Martha waited on them, but Lazarus was one of those who were at the table with him.

3 So Mary took a pound of high-priced perfume, nard in pistachio oil, and rubbed Jesus's feet and wiped his feet off with her hair; and the house was filled with the odor of the perfume. 4 And Judas the Iscariot, one of his disciples, the one who was going to be the agent in his arrest, 5 said "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred 6 denarii and given to poor people?" 6 (But he said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief, and, having the money-box, carried off what was dropped in.) 7 So Jesus said "Let 8 her keep it for the day of my burial; 8 for you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

9 So the big crowd of the Jews found out that he was there, and they came not only because of Jesus but to see Lazarus too whom he raised from the dead. 10 And the chief priests planned to kill Lazarus too 11 because many of the Jews went because of him and believed in Jesus.

12 The following day the big crowd that had come to the feast, hearing that Jesus was coming into Jerusalem, 13 took the fronds of the palm trees and went out to meet him and shouted "Hosanna! blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, and the king of Israel!" 14 And Jesus, having found a little donkey, mounted it, as it says 15 "Do not be afraid, daughter of Sion: here is your King coming to you, riding on an ass colt." 16 These things the disciples did not find out in the first place; but when Jesus was glorified they remembered that it said these things of him and they had done these things to him.

17 So the crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead bore witness. 18 It was because of this, too, that the crowd met him, because they heard that he had done this token. 19 So the Pharisees said to each other "You see you are doing no good: there is the world gone after him."

20 And there were certain Greeks who were among those who came up to do reverence at the feast; 21 so these approached Philip, the one who came from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." 22 Philip came and told Andrew; Andrew and Philip came and told Jesus.

23 And Jesus answered them "The moment has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. 24 Verily, verily I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies it is still itself alone; but if it dies it bears a great crop. 25 He who loves his life loses it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. 26 If one is serving me let him follow me, and where I am, there my servant too will be. If one serves me, the Father will honor him. 27 Now my soul is in a turmoil; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this moment—but it was on this account that I came to this moment; 28 Father, glorify your name."

So there came a voice out of the sky "I did, and will again."

29 29 So the crowd that was standing there and heard said it had thundered; others said "An angel has spoken to him."

30 30 Jesus replied "This voice did not come on my account but on yours."

31 31 Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be put out; 32 and I, if I am lifted off the earth, shall draw everybody to myself." 33 (And this he said indicating what death he was to die.)

34 34 So the crowd answered him "We heard out of the Law that the Messiah stays forever, and how is it you say that the Son of Man must be lifted off? what Son of Man is this?"

35 35 So Jesus said to them "For a little while longer the light is among you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness may not overtake you—and he who walks in the darkness does not know where he goes."

36 36 While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light."

37 37 These things Jesus uttered, and went off and hid from them. But after he had done so many tokens before them they did not believe in him, 38 that the prophet Isaiah's word that he spoke might be fulfilled, "Lord, who believed our news, and to whom was the Lord's arm revealed?" 39 This was why they could not believe, because Isaiah said again 40 "He has put out their eyes and caked their hearts that they may not see with their eyes and understand with their hearts and turn about, and I heal them." 41 This Isaiah said because he had seen his glory and spoke of him. 42 Nevertheless, even of the rulers many did believe in him, but because of the Pharisees they did not avow it, that they might not be excommunicated; 43 for they cared more for men's glory than for God's. 44 And Jesus shouted "He who believes in me is not believing in me but in the one who sent me, 45 and he who sees me is seeing the one who sent me. 46 I have come into the world as a light, that anyone who believes in me may not remain in the darkness. 47 And if one hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him, not I; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. 48 He who disregards me and does not take my words has the one who judges him; the word that I spoke, that word will judge him at the last day, 49 because I did not speak out of myself but the Father who sent me has himself given me orders what to say and to speak, and I know that his orders are eternal life; 50 so what I speak I speak just as the Father has told me."

CHAPTER 13

1 1 But before the feast of the passover Jesus, knowing that his moment had come for passing from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, loved them to the last; 2 and, there coming a dinner when the Devil had already put it in the heart of 3 Judas Iscariot the son of Simon to have him arrested, 3 he, knowing that the Father had put everything in his hands and that he had come out from God and was going to God, 4 rose from the dinner and laid off his clothes and took a towel and tied it round him as breech-

5 cloth; 5 then he put water in the pitcher and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them off with the towel he had on.

6 6 So he came to Simon Peter. He said to him "Sir, are you washing my feet?"

7 7 Jesus replied "What I am doing you do not know now, but you will find out later."

8 8 Peter said to him "You shall never in the world wash my feet."

Jesus answered him "If I do not wash you you have nothing in common with me."

9 9 Simon Peter said to him "Sir, not only my feet but my hands and head too."

10 10 Jesus said to him "He who has bathed has no need for washing except his feet, but is clean all of him; and you twelve are clean, but not all of you" 11 (for he knew the one that was to have him arrested; that was why he said "you are not all of you clean").

12 12 So when he had washed their feet and had resumed his clothes and taken his place at the table again he said to them "Do you know what it is I have done to you? 13 You call me Teacher and Master, and you are right; for I am. 14 So if I the Teacher and Master washed your feet, you too are bound to wash each other's feet; 15 for I gave you an example to have you too do as I did to you. 16 Verily, verily I tell you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor a representative than his sender. 17 If you know these things, happy are you if you do them. 18 I am not speaking of all of you; I know whom I chose; but it was in order that the text 'He who was feeding on my bread raised his heel against me' should be fulfilled. 19 From now on I tell you before the event, that when it takes place you may know that I am the one. 20 Verily, verily I tell you, he who accepts anyone I send is accepting me, and he who is accepting me is accepting the one who sent me."

21 21 After saying these things Jesus showed agitation of spirit, and testified and said "Verily, verily I tell you that one of you will have me arrested." 22 The disciples looked at each other, at a loss to know of whom he was speaking. 23 There was at the table, resting in Jesus's bosom, one of his disciples whom Jesus loved; 24 so Simon Peter nodded to that one and said to him "Ask who it is he is speaking of." He, dropping back on Jesus's breast from the position he was in, said to him "Sir, who is it?" 26 So Jesus answered "It is that one to whom I will give the piece of bread when I dip it in"; so he dipped the piece of bread in and gave it to Judas the son of Simon Iscariot; 27 and after the piece of bread, then Satan came into him. So Jesus said to him "Be quick about what you are doing." 28 And none of those at the table knew what was the point of his saying this to him; 29 for some thought, since Judas had the money-box, Jesus was telling him "Buy what we need for the feast" or to give something to the poor.— 30 So he, after taking the piece of bread, went out at once. And it was night.

31 31 So when he had gone out Jesus said "Now the Son of Man is 32 glorified, and God is glorified in him. 32 If God is glorified in him, God on his part will glorify him in himself and glorify him at once.

33 Children, I shall be with you little longer. 33 You will look for me, and as I said to the Jews 'where I am going you cannot come,' so I say 34 to you now. 34 I give you a new commandment, that you are to love 35 each other: that as I loved you, you too are to love each other. 35 By this all will know that you are disciples of mine, if you have love for each other."

36 36 Simon Peter said to him "Sir, where are you going?"

Jesus answered "Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but later you shall."

37 37 Peter said to him "Sir, why cannot I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."

38 38 Jesus answered "You will lay down your life for me? verily, verily I tell you, not a cock will crow till you have disowned me three times.

CHAPTER 14

1 1 "Let your hearts not be alarmed: trust in God and trust in me.
2 In my Father's house there are many habitations; 2 if not, I would have 3 told you—because I go to get a place ready for you, 3 and if I go and get a place ready for you I come again and will take you home with 4 me, that where I am you too may be. 4 And where I am going you know the way."

5 5 Thomas said to him "Sir, we do not know where you are going; how do we know the way?"

6 6 Jesus said to him "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; 7 nobody comes to the Father except through me. 7 If you knew me you would know my Father too. From now on you do know him and have seen him."

8 8 Philip said to him "Sir, show us the Father and we are satisfied."

9 9 Jesus said to him "I have been with you such a long time, and do you not know me, Philip? he who has seen me has seen the Father; 10 how is it you are saying 'show us the Father'? 10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? the words that I say to you I do not say from myself, but the Father, abiding in me, 11 is doing his work. 11 Take my word for it that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or if not, believe because of the work itself. 12 Verily, 12 verily I tell you, he who believes in me will himself do the work I do, and do greater things than these, because I am going to the Father, 13 13 and whatever you ask in my name, that I will do, that the Father 14 may be glorified in the Son. 14 If you ask me anything in my name I will do it.

15 16 15 "If you love me you will keep my commandments, 16 and I will request the Father and he will give you another spokesman to be with 17 you forever, 17 the Spirit of Truth, which the world cannot receive because it does not perceive nor know it; you know it, because it stays with you and is in you.

18 19 "I will not leave you bereaved; I am coming to you. 19 A little longer, and the world no longer perceives me, but you do, because I am alive 20 and you will be. 20 On that day you will know that I am in my Father 21 and you are in me and I am in you. 21 He who has my commandments and keeps them, he is the one that loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him."

22 22 Judas, not the Iscariot, said to him "And what has happened, sir, that you are going to manifest yourself to us and not to the world?"

23 23 Jesus replied "If one loves me he will keep what I say; and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make a home with 24 him. 24 He who does not love me does not keep the things I say; and the thing you hear me say is not my say, but the Father's, who sent me.

25 25 "These words I have spoken to you while I remained with you; 26 but the Spokesman, the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name, he will teach you everything and remind you of everything that I said to you.

27 27 "Peace I leave to you; my peace I give you; it is not as the world gives that I give to you. Let your hearts not be alarmed nor daunted.
28 28 You heard me say to you 'I am going, and coming to you.' If you loved me you would be glad because I am going to my Father, be-29 cause my Father is greater than I am. 29 And I have now been telling you before the things take place, in order that when they do you may believe.

30 30 "I shall not talk with you much more, for the ruler of the world 31 is coming. 31 And he has no hold on me, but it is in order that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded me, so I do. Up, let us be going from here.

CHAPTER 15

1 2 1 "I am the true grapevine, and my Father is the farmer: 2 every branch on me that does not bear fruit he takes off, and every one that bears fruit he cleans up in order that it may bear more fruit.
3 3 You are clean already, because of the words I have spoken to you.
4 4 Remain in me and have me remain in you; as the branch cannot bear fruit from itself if it does not remain in the vine, no more can 5 you if you do not remain in me. 5 I am the vine, you are the branches; it is just he who remains in me and has me remain in him that bears 6 much fruit—because apart from me you cannot do anything. 6 If one does not remain in me he is thrown outside like a branch and dries up, and they gather them and throw them in the fire and they are 7 burned. 7 If you do remain in me and my words remain in you, ask 8 for what you will and you shall have it. 8 It is in this my Father is glorified, that you should bear a great crop of fruit and turn out 9 to be disciples of mine. 9 As the Father loved me, so did I love you; 10 remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, remain in my love you will, as I have kept my Father's commands and am remaining in his love.

11 "I have had this talk with you so that my joy may be in you and 12 your joy be in full measure. 12 This is my command, that you are to love 13 each other as I loved you. 13 Nobody has a greater love than this, that 14 one should lay down his life for his friends. 14 You are friends of mine 15 if you do what I command you to. 15 I do not speak of you as servants any longer, because a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have spoken of you as friends, because everything that I have 16 heard from my Father I have made known to you. 16 It was not you that chose me, but I that chose you and made you such as to go ahead and bear fruit and have your fruit persist, to have the Father give you whatever you ask him for in my name.

17 "I am giving you these commands so that you may love each other.
18 18 If the world hates you, you know it has hated me before you. 19 If you belonged to the world, the world would love what was its own; but because you do not belong to the world but I picked you out of the 20 world, for that reason the world hates you. 20 Remember the words that I said to you, 'a servant is not greater than his master': if they persecuted me, so they will you; if they kept my words, so they will 21 yours. 21 But all this they will do to you on account of my name, because 22 they do not know the one who sent me. 22 If I had not come and spoken to them they would not have any sin; but now they do not have any 23 24 excuse for sin. 23 He who hates me is hating my Father too. 24 If I had not done among them the works that nobody else did, they would not have any sin; but now they have both seen and hated both me 25 and my Father; 25 but it was so that the words written in their law 26 should be fulfilled, 'They hated me for nothing.' 26 When the Spokesman comes whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of Truth that goes out from the Father's presence, he will testify about me;
and you too testify, because you have been with me from the first.

CHAPTER 16

1 "I have had this talk with you so that you may not be staggered.
2 2 They will excommunicate you; yes, there is coming an hour in which, everybody who kills you is to think he is presenting a religious 3 service to God. 3 And these things they will do because they have not 4 learned to know the Father nor me. 4 But I have had this talk with you so that when the hour for them comes you may remember about them, that I told you.

5 5 "But I did not tell you these things to begin with, because I was 6 with you. 6 But now I am going to the one who sent me; and no one of you asks me 'Where are you going?' but because I have had this talk 7 with you grief has filled your hearts. 7 But I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage to have me leave. For if I do not leave, the Spokes-8 man will not come to you; but if I go I will send him to you. 8 And he, when he comes, will prove the case against the world as to wrong and 9 as to right and as to judgment—9 as to wrong because they are not be-10 lieving in me, 10 and as to right because I am going to the Father and 11 you are seeing no more of me, 11 and as to judgment because the ruler 12 of this world has been judged. 12 I have many more things to say to you, 13 but you cannot carry the load now; 13 but when he, the Spirit of Truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth, for he will not speak from himself but will speak just what he hears, and will announce to you 14 what is coming. 14 He will glorify me, because he will draw from what 15 is mine and announce to you. 15 Everything that the Father has is mine; that is why I said he draws from what is mine and will announce to you.

16 16 "A little while and you are seeing no more of me, and again a little while and you will see me."

17 17 So some of his disciples said to each other "What is this he is saying to us, 'a little while and you are not seeing anything of me, and again a little while and you will see me' and 'because I am going to the 18 Father'?" 18 So they said "What is this little while' he tells about? we do not know what he is driving at."

19 19 Jesus knew they were wanting to ask him, and said to them "Is it about this you are discussing with each other, that I said 'a, little while and you will not see anything of me, and again a little while 20 and you will see me'? 20 Verily, verily I tell you that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; you will be grieved, but your 21 grief will become joy. 21 When a woman is giving birth she feels grief because her time has come; but when she brings forth the child she no longer remembers the distress because of her gladness that a man 22 has been born into the world. 22 So you too now feel grief, but I will see you again and your hearts will be glad, and your gladness nobody 23 will take away from you. 23 And on that day you will ask nothing of me; verily, verily I tell you, if you ask the Father for anything he 24 will give it to you in my name. 24 Up to now you have not asked for anything in my name; ask and you shall receive, that your gladness may be in full measure.

25 25 "In this talk with you I have spoken figuratively; a time is coming when I shall no longer speak figuratively to you but shall tell you 26 plainly about the Father. 26 On that day you will ask in my name, and 27 I do not tell you I will solicit the Father on your behalf, 27 for the Father himself loves you because you have loved me and have believed 28 that I came out from the Father's presence. 28 I came out of the Father and have come into the world; I am leaving the world again and going to the Father's presence."

29 29 His disciples said "There, now you are talking in plain language 30 and not using any figure. 30 Now we know that you know everything and do not need to have anybody ask you; by this we believe that you came out from God."

31 32 31 Jesus answered "You believe now? here is a moment coming, 32 and it has come, for you to scatter to look after your own interests and leave me alone; and I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 I have had this talk with you so that you may have peace in me. In the world you have distress; but courage, I have defeated the world."

CHAPTER 17

1 I This talk Jesus gave, and raised his eyes toward heaven and said
"Father, the moment has come; glorify your son that your son may 2 glorify you, 2 as you gave him jurisdiction over all mortals that to all 3 that you have given him he might give eternal life— 3 and this is what the eternal life is, that they should know you, the only true God, and 4 the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ. 4 I glorified you on earth, carrying 5 through the work you have given me to do; 5 now glorify me in turn, Father, alongside yourself with the glory that I did have alongside you before the world was.

6 6 "I disclosed your name to the men you gave me out of the world.
They were yours and you gave them to me, and they have kept your 7 word. 7 They know now that everything you have ever given me is from 8 you, 8 because I have given them the words that you gave me, and they had accepted them and knew to a certainty that I had come out from 9 your presence, and had faith that you had sent me. 9 I am making request on their behalf; I do not make any on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you have given to me, because they are 10 yours, 10 and everything of mine is yours and what is yours is mine, 11 and I am glorified in them; 11 and I am no longer in the world, and they are in the world, and I am coming to you.

"Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given to me, 12 that they may be one just as we are. 12 When I was with them, I kept them in your name that you have given to me, and kept guard over them, and no one of them was lost except, in order that the text should 13 be fulfilled, the one who was bound to be lost. 13 But now I am coming to you; and I am saying these things in the world that they may 14 have my gladness brought to fullness in themselves. 14 I have given them your word, and the world hated them because they do not belong 15 to the world just as I do not. 15 I am not asking that you take them clear out of the world, but that you keep them clear of what is bad.
16 17 16 They do not belong to the world just as I do not. 17 Consecrate them by the truth; your word is truth. 18 As you sent me into the world, so 19 did I send them into the world; 19 and it is for them I consecrate myself, that they too may be consecrated by truth.

20 20 "And I ask on behalf not only of these but also of those who by their 21 telling put faith in me, 21 that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I am in you; that they too may be in us, that the world may 22 believe that you sent me. 22 And I have given to them the glory that 23 you have given to me, that they may be one as we are one: 23 I in them and you in me, that they may stand perfected into one, that the world may know that it was you who sent me and you loved them as you did me.

24 24 "What you have given me, Father—I will that where I am they too 25 be with me that they may see my glory which you have given to me 26 because you loved me before the foundation of the world, right-dealing 26 Father; and the world did not know you, but I did, and these knew that it was you who sent me; 26 and I made known your name to them, and will make it known, that the love you had for me may be in them, and I in them."

CHAPTER 18

1 1 With that Jesus went out, with his disciples, across Kidron Arroyo, 2 where there was a garden, which he and his disciples went into. 2 But 3 Judas too, who was the agent in his arrest, knew about the place, 3 because Jesus had often met with his disciples there. 3 So Judas got the cohort and some officers from the chief priests and from the Pharisees, and came there with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 4 So Jesus, knowing everything that was coming upon him, went out and said to them "Whom are you looking for?"

5 5 They answered "Jesus the Nazarene."

He said to them "I am the one." And Judas too, the agent for the arrest, was standing with them.

6 6 So when he said to them "I am the one" they went backward and 7 fell to the ground. 7 So he put the question to them again "Whom are 8 you looking for?" 8 and they said "Jesus the Nazarene." Jesus answered
"I told you I am the one; so if you are looking for me, let these go 9 off"—9 so that the words he had said, "of those whom you had given to me I did not lose any," should be fulfilled.

10 10 So Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and hit the high priest's slave and cut off his right ear. And the slave's name was Malchus.
11 11 So Jesus said to Peter "Put the sword in its sheath; when the Father has given me a cup am I not to drink it?"

12 12 So the cohort and the military tribune and the Jews' officers arrested 13 Jesus and bound him, and took him first to Hannas; 13 for he was father-14 in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. 14 And Caiaphas was the one that had advised the Jews that it was "best to have one 15 man die for the people." 15 And Simon Peter and another disciple fol-16 lowed Jesus. And that disciple was acquainted with the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the high priest's courtyard, 16 but Peter stood at the door outside. So the other disciple, the one that was acquainted with the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorwoman and brought Peter in. 17 So the girl that was doorwoman said to Peter 18 "Are you one of this man's disciples too?" He said "I am not." 18 And the servants and the officers, having made a charcoal fire because it was cold, were standing and warming themselves; and Peter too was with them, standing and warming himself.

19 19 So the high priest asked Jesus about his disciples and about his 20 teaching. 20 Jesus answered "I have spoken my words publicly to the world; I have always taught in synagogue and in the temple-precinct, 21 where all the Jews come together, and have not spoken any word under cover. 21 Why do you ask me? ask those who have heard me what words I spoke to them; there they are, they know the things I said."

22 22 But when he said this, one of the officers, who was standing by, gave Jesus a slap and said "Do you answer the high priest like that?"

23 23 Jesus answered him "If I spoke amiss, bring the charge of mis-speaking; if rightly, what are you beating me for?"

24 24 —So Hannas sent him, bound, to Caiaphas the high priest.

25 25 But Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. So they said to him "Are you one of his disciples too?" He denied it and said "I am not." 26 One of the high priest's servants, a relative of the one whose ear Peter had cut off, said "Didn't I see you in the garden with him?"

27 27 So Peter denied again—and at once a cock crowed.

28 28 So they took Jesus from Caiaphas to the praetorium. It was early in the morning; and they did not go in into the praetorium, that they might not be polluted but might eat the passover. 29 So Pilate came outside to them and said "What charges do you bring against this man?"

30 30 They replied "If the man had not committed a crime we should not have handed him over to you."

31 31 So Pilate said to them "Take him yourselves, and pass judgment on him under your law."

32 32 The Jews said to him "We are not permitted to put anybody to death"—so that Jesus's words which he had spoken, indicating what death he was to die, should be fulfilled.

33 33 So Pilate went in again into the praetorium and called Jesus and said to him "You are the King of the Jews?"

34 34 Jesus answered "Are you saying this of your own accord, or did others say it to you about me?"

35 35 Pilate answered "Am I a Jew? Your nation and the chief priests handed you over to me; what had you done?"

36 36 Jesus answered "My kingship does not belong to this world. If my kingship belonged to this world my subordinates would be making a fight to keep me from falling into the hands of the Jews; but in fact my kingship is not in this sphere."

37 37 So Pilate said to him "Then you are a king?"

Jesus answered "As you say; I am a king. I was born for this and have come into the world for this, that I might testify to the truth; everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

38 38 Pilate said to him "What is truth?"

And with this he went out to the Jews again and said to them "I do not find any case against him. 39 But you have a custom that I should release one man for you at the passover; so do you want me to release the King of the Jews for you?" 40 So they went to shouting again, saying "Not this man but Bar-Abbas." And Bar-Abbas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19

1 2 1 So then Pilate took Jesus and flogged him; 2 and the soldiers braided a wreath of thorns and set it on his head and put a purple cloak 3 round him, 3 and came to him and said "Good morning, King of the 4 Jews!" and gave him slaps. 4 And Pilate came outside again and said 5 to them "Here, I am bringing him outside to you so that you may 6 know that I do not find any case against him"; 5 so Jesus came outside wearing the thorn wreath and the purple cloak; and he said to them
"There is the man!"

6 6 So when the chief priests and the officers saw him they went shouting "Crucify him, crucify him!"

Pilate said to them "Take him yourselves and crucify him; for I do not find any case against him."

7 7 The Jews answered "We have a law, and according to the law he ought to die, because he claimed to be God's son."

8 9 8 So when Pilate heard those words he was all the more afraid, 9 and went in again into the praetorium and said to Jesus "Where do you 10 come from?" but Jesus did not give him any answer. 10 So Pilate said to him "Do you not speak to me? do you not know that I have power to release you and have power to crucify you?"

11 11 Jesus answered "You would not have any power at all against me if it were not given to you from above; for this reason the one who handed me over to you has the greater sin."

12 12 At that Pilate made a move to release him; but the Jews went shouting "If you release this man you are no friend to Caesar; anyone who claims to be a king is opposing Caesar."

13 13 So, hearing those words, Pilate brought Jesus out and took his seat on a judgment-bench in a place called the Mosaic Pavement, or, 14 in Hebrew, Gabbatha. 14 And it was Passover Friday. It was about 15 twelve o'clock; and he said to the Jews "Here is your King." 15 So they shouted "Get him away, get him away, crucify him!" Pilate said to them "Crucify your King?" The chief priests answered "We have 16 no king but Caesar." 16 So then he turned him over to them to be crucified.

17 17 So they took Jesus over, and, carrying the cross for himself, he went out to the so-called Skull-Place, of which name the Hebrew is 18 Golgotha, 18 where they crucified him, and with him two others, one on 19 each side and Jesus in the middle. 19 And Pilate also wrote a sign and put it on the cross; and what was written was "Jesus the Nazarene, 20 King of the Jews." 20 So a great many of the Jews read that sign, because the place was near the city, where Jesus was crucified, and it 21 was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. 21 So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate "Do not write 'King of the Jews,' but that he 22 said 'I am King of the Jews.'" 22 Pilate answered "What I have written I have written."

23 23 So the soldiers, when they crucified Jesus, took his clothes and made four parts, a part for each soldier, and the tunic. But the tunic was 24 seamless, woven work all the way from the top; 24 so they said to each other "Let us not tear it, but toss for it to decide who shall have it"—that the text might be fulfilled, "They divided my clothes among them and threw lots for my apparel."

25 25 So those were the things the soldiers did. But by Jesus's cross were standing his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the daughter of 26 Clopas, and Mary the Magdalene. 26 So Jesus, seeing his mother and the disciple he loved standing beside her, said to his mother "Woman, 27 there is your son"; 27 then he said to the disciple "There is your mother."
And from that moment the disciple took her into his home.

28 28 After that Jesus, knowing that everything was finished now, said
"I am thirsty," in order that the text might completely come true.
29 29 There was a dish standing there full of vinegar; so they stuck a sponge 30 full of the vinegar on a pilum and put it to his mouth. 30 So when Jesus had had the vinegar he said "It is finished" and bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

31 31 So the Jews, since it was Friday, asked Pilate, in order that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the sabbath (for that sabbath was a great day) to have their legs broken and have them taken away.

32 32 So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other 33 who was crucified with him; 33 but when in coming to Jesus they saw 34 he had already died, they did not break his legs, 34 but one of the soldiers ran a pike into his side, and at once blood and water came 35 out. 35 And the one who saw it has testified, and his testimony is authentic, and he himself knows he is speaking the truth, that you too 36 may believe. 36 For these things took place so that the text "not a bone 37 of his is to be broken" should be fulfilled. 37 And again another text says "they shall look toward him whom they pierced."

38 38 And after this was done Joseph from Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus but had kept it hidden for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away Jesus's body; and Pilate gave permission.
39 39 And Nicodemus too, he who had in the first place come to Jesus by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and eaglewood, about a 40 hundred pounds of it. 40 So they took Jesus's body and tied it up in lawn sheets with the spices, as it is customary among the Jews to do in 41 burying. 41 And in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which nobody had as yet been laid; 42 42 so, because of the Jews' preparation day, they laid Jesus there because the tomb was nearby.

CHAPTER 20

1 1 But on the first day of the week Mary the Magdalene came to the tomb in the early morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone 2 had been taken away from the tomb. 2 So she ran and came to Simon Peter and the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them
"They have taken the Lord away out of the tomb and we do not

3 know where they have put him." 3 So out went Peter, and the other 4 disciple, and they came to the tomb. 4 And the two were running to-5 gether, and the other disciple outran Peter and came to the tomb first, 6 5 and stooped and looked in and saw the sheets lying there, but he did 7 not go in. 6 So Simon Peter too came following him, and went into the 8 tomb; 7 and he saw the sheets lying there, and the handkerchief that 9 had been over his head not lying with the sheets but wrapped round 10 and round separately in its individual place. 8 So then the other disciple 11 too went in, the one that had come to the tomb first, and he saw 12 and believed. 9 For they did not yet know the text that said he must 13 rise from the dead.

10 11 10 So the disciples went off home again. 11 But Mary was standing outside by the tomb weeping. So while she was weeping she stooped and 12 looked into the tomb 12 and saw two angels in white sitting one at the 13 head and one at the feet where Jesus's body had lain; 13 and they said to her "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them "Because they have taken my Lord away and I do not know where they have put him."

14 14 Saying this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, and did 15 not know it was Jesus. 15 Jesus said to her "Woman, why are you weeping? whom are you looking for?"

She, thinking it was the caretaker of the garden, said to him "Sir, if you have carried him off, tell me where you put him and I will take him away."

16 16 Jesus said to her "Mary—"

She turned and said to him in Hebrew "Rabbuni!" that is to say, "Teacher!"

17 17 Jesus said to her "Do not touch me, for I have not yet gone up to my Father. But go to my brothers and tell them 'I am going to my 18 Father, your Father, my God, your God.'" 18 Mary the Magdalene came reporting to the disciples "I have seen the Lord" and that he had said these things to her.

19 19 So when it was evening on that day, the first of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the middle of the company and said to them 20 "Peace be to you"; 20 and with that he showed them his hands and his side.

21 21 So the disciples were glad to see the Lord. So Jesus said to them again "Peace be to you. In the same way as the Father has sent me 22 out, I am sending you"; 22 and with that he poured a breath over them 23 and said to them "Take Holy Spirit. 23 If you forgive anybody's sins he has them forgiven; if you condemn anybody's they are condemned."

24 24 But Thomas, one of the Twelve, known as the Twin, was not with 25 them when Jesus came. 25 So the other disciples said to him "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails and put my finger into the mark of the nails and 26 put my hand into his side I will not believe." 26 And one week later the disciples were in there again, and Thomas with them; Jesus came while the doors were shut and stood in the middle of the company 27 and said "Peace be to you." 27 Then he said to Thomas "Bring on your finger and see about my hands, and bring your hand and put it into 28 my side; and do not be a disbeliever but a believer." 28 Thomas answered him "My Lord and my God!" 29 Jesus said to him "Because you 29 have seen you have believed, have you? Happy are those who did not see and believed." 30 30 Many more tokens Jesus did before the disciples, which are not 31 written down in this book; 31 but these have been written down, in order that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that, believing, you may have life by his name.

CHAPTER 21

1 1 After this Jesus made himself visible to the disciples again at the 2 sea of Tiberias. 2 And he did it thus: There were together Simon Peter and Thomas known as the Twin and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee 3 and the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples; 3 Simon Peter said to them "I am going fishing"; they said to him "We are coming too." They went out and got into the boat, and in that night they caught nothing.
4 4 But when the morning was already breaking Jesus made his appearance standing on the beach; the disciples did not know, how-5 ever, that it was Jesus. 5 So Jesus said to them "Boys, have you caught 6 any?" They answered "No." 6 But he said to them "Throw the net to the right of the boat and you will." So they threw, and were not able to haul it in again because of the quantity of fish.
7 7 So the aforesaid disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter "It is the Lord." So Simon Peter, hearing that it was the Lord, tied his cape on as a loincloth, for he was naked, and threw himself into the sea.
8 8 But the other disciples came in the boat (for they were not far from the land, but about a hundred yards), dragging the netful of fish.
9 9 So when they stepped ashore they saw a bed of coals and a fish 10 lying on it, and a cake of bread. 10 Jesus said to them "Bring some of the 11 fish you have just caught." 11 So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore full of large fishes, a hundred and fifty-three of them; 12 and, many as there were, the net did not tear. 12 Jesus said to them "Come and have breakfast." The disciples did not any of them dare to challenge him with "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Lord.
13 13 Jesus came and took the bread and passed it to them, and the fish 14 too. 14 This made the third time Jesus had made himself visible to the disciples since he rose from the dead.
15 15 So when they had had their breakfast Jesus said to Simon Peter "Simon son of John, do you care more for me than for this?"
He said to him "Yes, sir, you know that I love you."

16 16 He said to him "Tend my lambs!" He said to him again a second time "Simon son of John, do you care for me?"

He said to him "Yes, sir, you know that I love you."

17 17 He said to him "Shepherd my sheep!" He said to him the third time "Simon son of John, do you love me?"

Peter was pained that the third time he had said to him "Do you love me?" and said to him "Sir, you know everything, you know that I love you."

18 18 Jesus said to him "Tend my sheep! Verily, verily I tell you, when you were a young man you put on your belt and walked where you wanted to; but when you come to be old you will stretch out your hands and somebody else will put a belt round you and carry you where you do not want him to."

19 19 This he said indicating by what sort of death he would glorify God. And with that he said to him "Follow me."

20 20 Peter turned round and saw the disciple that Jesus loved following, the same who at the dinner leaned back on his breast and said "Sir, who is the one to have you arrested?" 21 So, seeing him, Peter said to 22 Jesus "22 And how about him, sir?" Jesus said to him "If I want him 23 to stay till I come, what is it to you? follow me yourself." 23 So this saying went out among the brothers, that that disciple was not to die. But Jesus did not say to him that he was not to die, but "If I 24 want him to stay till I come." 24 This is the disciple who testifies about these things and who wrote these things down; and we know that his testimony is true.

25 25 And there are many more things that Jesus did; if those are each one written down I do not think there will be room in the world itself for the books that are going to be written.

STORY OP A WOMAN CAUGHT IN ADULTERY

Not a part of any of the four gospels, but regarded as genuine gospel history. The verses are numbered as part of the seventh and eighth chapters of John.

CHAPTER 7

53 And they went their ways, each to his home.

CHAPTER 8

1 2 1 And Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. 2 And at daybreak he arrived in the temple-precinct again; and all the people were coming to him, 3 and he had sat down and was teaching them. 3 And the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman caught in adultery, and set her in the middle 4 and said to him "Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of adultery. 5 And in the law Moses commanded us to stone such; so what do you say?" 6 But Jesus bent over and wrote something 7 down on the ground with his finger. 7 But when they kept pressing the question on him he straightened up and said to them "For the first let the sinless one of you throw a stone at her" 8 and bent down

9 again and wrote on the ground. 9 And they, hearing that, went out one by one, beginning with the oldest, and he was left alone, and 10 the woman, who was in the middle. 10 And Jesus straightened up and 11 said to her "Woman, where are they? did nobody condemn you?" 11 And she said "No, sir." And Jesus said "Neither do I; go; no more sinning from now on."

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

CHAPTER 1

1 I I made my first relation, Theophilus, about all that Jesus had 2 begun both doing and teaching 2 as far as to the day that he was taken up after he had by the Holy Spirit given injunctions to the apostles 3 whom he had chosen; 3 to whom also, after he had suffered, he presented himself alive with many proofs, appearing to them during forty days 4 and telling them the things that relate to the Reign of God; 4 and, while eating with them, he instructed them not to leave Jerusalem, but 5 to "await the Father's promise, which you heard from me, 5 'John baptized with water but you shall be baptized in Holy Spirit,' not 6 many days from now." 6 So those who were together asked him "Lord, 7 is it during this time that you restore the sovereignty to Israel?" 7 He said to them, "It is not yours to know times and dates, which the 8 Father has put under his own jurisdiction. 8 But you shall receive power, having the Holy Spirit come upon you, and shall be witnesses 9 for me both in Jerusalem and throughout Judea and Samaria and to the remotest part of the earth." 9 And, having said this, he was lifted up before their eyes, and a cloud received him out of their sight.
10 10 And while they had their gaze fixed on the sky as he went, lo, there 11 were two men in white costumes standing by them; 11 who said, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing and looking up into the sky? this Jesus who has been taken up from you into the sky shall come in the 12 same way as you viewed him going into the sky." 12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain known as Olivet, which is near 13 Jerusalem, a sabbath-day's journey off; 13 and when they came in they went up to the upper room where they were keeping themselves: Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot 14 and Judas son of James. 14 All these were unitedly devoting themselves to prayer, with the women and Jesus's mother Mary, and with his brothers.

15 And in those days Peter stood up among the brothers and said, there being together a multitude of names, about a hundred and 16 twenty: 16 "Brethren, the text which the Holy Spirit uttered beforehand through the mouth of David about Judas who was guide to those 17 who arrested Jesus, 17 that he was counted among us and was allotted 18 this commission, had to be fulfilled." 18 (Now this man acquired a piece of land with the pay of his misdoing; and, coming down flat, he 19 burst open in the middle, and all his entrails gushed out; 19 and it became well known to all who lived in Jerusalem, so that that piece of 20 land was called in their language "Hakeldamach," that is "the blood lot.") 20 "For it is written in the book of Psalms 'May his homestead be desolate and have no one living in it,' and 'Let another take his 21 office.' 21 So of the men who went with us at every time when the Lord 22 Jesus was among us coming in and going out, 22 beginning with John's 23 baptizing and down to the day that he was taken up from us, one of 24 these must become a witness of his resurrection with us." 23 And they 24 put forward two, Joseph known as Bar-Sabbas, who was also named 25 Justus, and Matthias; 24 and they offered prayer, and said "Lord, 25 knower of the hearts of all, do thou designate the one of these two 26 whom thou hast called 25 to take the place in this commission and apostleship, from which Judas passed to go to his own place." 26 And they took lots for them, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was counted in with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2

1 And when the day of Pentecost came around they were all in 2 company together, 2 and suddenly there came a noise out of the sky, as if of a violent wind driving along, and filled the whole house where 3 they were sitting; 3 and there appeared to them parted tongues as 4 if of fire, and it lighted on each one of them; 4 and all of them were filled with Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the 5 Spirit granted it to them. 5 And there were Jews living in Jerusalem, 6 godly men from every nation under the heavens; 6 and when this sound came the multitude came together and were bewildered that 7 each one heard them speaking his own language. 7 And they were surprised, and they wondered, saying "Why, here all these that are 8 talking are Galileans, 8 and how is it we each hear in our own language 9 that we were born in? 9 Parthians and Medes and Elamites and inhabitants of Mesopotamia and of Palestine and Cappadocia, Pontus 10 and Asia 10 and Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts in Africa about Cyrene; and the Romans, both Jews and proselytes, who are 11 residing here; 11 Cretans and Arabs,—we hear them speaking in our 12 languages the grand works of God." 12 And they were all of them 13 surprised and puzzled, saying one to another "What may this be?" 13 but others said jeeringly "They are filled up with grape-juice."

14 But Peter stood forward with the eleven and raised his voice and uttered these words to them: "Fellow-Jews, and all you who live in 15 Jerusalem, be this known to you, and give ear to my words. 15 For these men are not, as you assume, drunk; for it is three hours before 16 noon; 16 but this is what was spoken of through the prophet Joel, 17 'And 17 in the last days, says God, I will pour out streams of my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions and your old men shall dream dreams; 18 18 yea, and on my servants, both men and women, will I pour out streams 19 of my Spirit in those days, and they shall prophesy. 19 And I will dis-20 play wonders in the heavens above and tokens on the earth beneath, 20 blood and fire and fumes of smoke: 20 the sun shall be turned to dark-21 ness and the moon to blood before the great and notable Day of the 21 Lord comes. 21 And everyone who shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

22 22 "Men of Israel, listen to these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a man accredited to you by God through miracles and wonders and tokens which God did through him in your midst,—as you yourselves 23 know, 23 —this man, given up by God's deliberate plan and fore-24 knowledge, you by ruffians' hands spiked down, and took his life; 24 whom God raised, undoing the pangs of death, as it was not possible 25 that he should be held by it. 25 For David says with reference to him
'I looked to the Lord before me continually, because he is at my 26 right hand that I may not be shaken. 26 At this my heart is happy and 27 my tongue exults; 27 and withal my flesh shall dwell in hope, because thou wilt not abandon my soul to the realm of death, nor give thy 28 godly one to see decay. 28 Thou hast made known to me the paths of life; thou wilt fill me full of happiness, with thy presence.'

29 29 "Brethren, it is allowable to say to you frankly of David, the founder of our state, that he did pass away and was buried, and his 30 tomb is among us to this day. 30 Therefore, being a prophet and knowing that God had sworn an oath to him to seat on his throne one of the 31 fruit of his loins, 31 he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that he neither was abandoned to the realm of death nor did 32 his flesh see decay. 32 This Jesus God raised to life; of which we are all 33 of us witnesses. 33 So, being raised on high by God's right hand and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he 34 has poured out this which you both see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend to heaven, but he himself says "The Lord said to my lord 35 35 "Sit at my right hand till I make your enemies a footstool for your 36 feet.'" So let all the house of Israel know positively that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."

37 37 And at hearing it they were pricked in their hearts, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles "What shall we do, brethren?" 38 38 And Peter said to them "Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the pardoning of your sins, and you 39 shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, as many as the 40 Lord our God shall call." 40 And with many other words he testified and exhorted them, saying "Save yourselves from this cross-grained generation."

41 41 So those who welcomed his words were baptized, and there were 42 added on that day about three thousand souls; 42 and they applied 43 themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the life of solidarity, to 44 bread-breaking and to prayers. 43 And every soul was seized with fear, 44 and many wonders and tokens were done through the apostles. 44 And 45 all who believed had everything in common together, 45 and would sell 46 their possessions and estates and portion them out to all as anyone 46 needed them; 46 and day by day, unitedly attending in the temple-47 precinct and breaking bread at home, they partook of their food with 47 blithe and simple hearts, 47 praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people; and the Lord added greatly day by day to the saved.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 And Peter and John were going up into the temple-precinct for 2 the three o'clock prayer, 2 and there was being carried away a certain man who had been a cripple from his birth, whom they put at what 3 is known as the Beautiful Gate of the temple-precinct day by day 3 to ask for charity from those who were going into the precinct; 3 and 4 he, seeing Peter and John about to enter the precinct, asked to receive 4 charity. 4 But Peter, fixing his eyes on him with John, said "Look at us." 5 6 5 And he eyed them, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But 6 Peter said "Silver and gold I do not own, but what I have, that I 7 give you: 7 by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, walk!" and he 7 caught hold of his right hand and got him to rise. And immediately 8 his feet and ankles grew firm, 8 and he gave a jump and stood and 8 walked, and came in with them into the precinct walking and jumping 9 and praising God, 9 and all the people saw him walking and praising 9 God. 10 And they recognized him as the one who had been sitting at 10 the Beautiful Gate of the temple for charity, and were filled with amazement and surprise at what had befallen him.

11 11 And while he held Peter and John all the people came running together about them in what is known as Solomon's Portico, utterly 12 amazed. 12 And, seeing this, Peter answered by saying to the people
"Men of Israel, why are you wondering at this, or fixing your eyes on 13 us as if by our own power or piety we had caused him to walk? 13 The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you had had arrested and had repudiated in Pilate's presence when he had passed judgment for 14 releasing him— 14 but you repudiated the Holy and Righteous and asked 15 to have a murderer granted to you, 15 and killed the Founder of Life; 16 whom God raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses. 16 And upon faith in his name he has put firmness into the limbs of this man whom you see and know; and the faith that comes through him has given 17 him this absolute soundness before you all. 17 And now, brothers, I

18 know you acted in ignorance, and so did your rulers; 18 but what God 19 had announced beforehand through the mouths of all the prophets, 19 that his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. 19 So repent and turn back so as to have your sins wiped out, that seasons of refreshing 20 may come from the presence of the Lord 20 and that he may send the 21 Christ appointed for you, Jesus, 21 whom heaven must receive until the times for putting into effect everything that God has spoken of 22 through the mouths of his holy prophets from of old. 22 Moses said 'The Lord God will raise up for you from among your brothers a prophet, like me; to him you shall listen in everything that he speaks of to you; 23 23 and every soul that does not listen to that prophet shall be rooted 24 out from the people'; 24 and so did all the prophets, from Samuel on, 25 as many as spoke, announce these days. 25 You are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant that God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham 'And in your descendants all the clans of the earth shall 26 be blessed.' 26 For you first God raised up his Servant and sent him to bless you by turning you each away from your crimes."

CHAPTER 4

1 1 And while they were speaking to the people, in came the priests 2 and the provost of the temple and the Sadducees, 2 nettled because they were teaching the people and announcing resurrection from the 3 dead in the case of Jesus, 3 and laid hands on them and put them in 4 custody till the next day, for it was already evening. 4 But many of those who had heard the word believed, and the number, of men, came to be about five thousand.

5 5 But on the next day their rulers and elders and scribes met at 6 Jerusalem, 6 and High Priest Hannas and Caiaphas and Jonathan and 7 Alexander and as many as came of high-priestly family, 7 and they set them in the middle and inquired "By what power or by what name 8 did you do that?" 8 Then Peter, filled with Holy Spirit, said to them 9 9 "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are today being examined as to a benefit done to a sick man, by whose means he has been made well, 10 10 be it known to you all and to all the people of Israel that it is just by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, that this man stands here before you sound 11 and well. 11 This is the stone scorned by you the builders, that has 12 come to be the top of the corner. 12 And by nothing else is there salvation—for there is not another name under the heavens, given among men, that we must be saved by."

13 13 And, seeing the outspokenness of Peter and John, and perceiving that they were plain illiterate men, they wondered at it; and they 14 recognized them as having been with Jesus; 14 and, seeing the cured man standing with them, they were not able to say anything against 15 it. 15 But, giving orders that they should go outside the session, they 16 conferred with each other, 16 saying "What shall we do with these men?
that an evident token has been done through them is apparent to 17 all who live in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it; 17 but, that it may not spread widely among the people, let us warn them with threats not to talk in this name again to any human being."

18 18 And they called them and enjoined them not to speak nor teach 19 in the name of Jesus at all. 19 But Peter and John answered them
"Decide whether it is a right thing before God to listen more to you 20 than to God; 20 for we cannot help telling what we have seen and heard." 21 21 And they made additional threats and released them, no way to punish them being found because of the people, since they were all 22 glorifying God over what had taken place; 22 for the man on whom this token of healing was done was more than forty years old.

23 23 And, being released, they came to their own company and reported 24 everything the chief priests and elders had said to them; 24 and they, upon hearing it, unanimously raised their voices to God and said

"Master, thou who madest the heavens and the earth and the sea 25 and everything in them! 25 As our father thy servant David said by direction of the Holy Spirit, 'Why have nations blustered and peoples 26 studied useless plans, 26 the kings of the earth taken their stand and the rulers met together, against the Lord and against his anointed?' 27 27 for against thy holy servant Jesus, whom thou anointedst, both Herod and Pontius Pilate did certainly meet in this city, with nations and 28 the peoples of Israel, 28 to do so much as thy hand and plan had fore-29 ordained should come to pass. 29 And now, Lord, turn thy eye upon their threats, and grant thy servants the gift of speaking thy word 30 with all boldness 30 while thou dost stretch out thy hand for healing, and tokens and wonders are done through the name of thy holy son 31 Jesus." 31 And when they had prayed the place where they were met shook, and one and all were filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke God's word with boldness.

32 32 And the community of believers was one in heart and soul, and not one said that any of his property was his own, but they had 33 everything in common; 33 and with great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus; and there was great 34 grace upon them all, 34 nor was there anybody in want among them.
For such as were owners of lands or houses offered them for sale, and 35 brought the price of what were sold 35 and laid it at the apostles' feet, 36 and distribution was made to each as he needed. 36 And Joseph, also named Barnabas by the apostles (which means Son of Encourage-37 ment), 37 a Levite, a Cypriote by nationality, being the owner of a field, sold it and brought the amount and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 But a certain man, Hananiah by name, with his wife Shappirah, 2 sold a piece of property 2 and pocketed some of the price, the wife also being in the secret, and brought a part and laid it at the apostles' 3 feet. 3 But Peter said "Hananiah, why has Satan filled your heart to play false with the Holy Spirit and pocket part of the price of the 4 lot? 4 While you kept it was it not in your possession, and when it 5 was sold was it not at your disposal? how came it you resolved on 6 this thing? you did not lie to men but to God." 5 And Hananiah, hearing 7 these words, fell down and expired; and great fear came upon all 8 who heard of it.

9 6 And the juniors rose and wrapped him up, and carried him out 10 and buried him. 7 And after an interval of about three hours his wife 11 came in, not knowing what had happened; 8 and Peter answered her 12 "Tell me if you sold the lot for so much," and she said "Yes, so much." 13 9 And Peter said to her "How came it you agreed with each other to 14 put the Spirit of the Lord to the test? there are the feet of those who 15 buried your husband coming to the door, and they shall carry you 16 out." 10 And immediately she fell down at his feet and expired; and 17 the young men came in and found her dead, and carried her out 18 and buried her with her husband. 11 And great fear came upon the 19 whole church and upon all who heard of these things.

20 12 And through the agency of the apostles many tokens and wonders 21 were done among the people; and they were one and all in Solomon's 22 Portico backing each other up. 13 And of the rest nobody dared connect 23 himself with them; 14 but the people held them in high regard, and 24 there were more and more additions of masses of both men and women, 25 believing in the Lord, 15 so that they even carried the sick out into the 26 squares and laid them on cots and pallets in order that when Peter 27 came at least his shadow might fall on one or another of them. 16 And 28 the populace of the suburbs of Jerusalem also came together, bringing 29 sick people and people harassed by unclean spirits, of whom one 30 and all were cured.

31 17 But Annas the high priest and all those who were with him, who 32 constituted the Sadducee party, were seized with jealousy 18 and laid 33 hands on the apostles and put them in custody. 19 But an angel of the 34 Lord opened the doors of the prison and brought them out and said 35 20 "Go stand forward in the temple-precinct and speak to the people 36 all the words that proclaim this life"; 21 and, hearing this, they went 37 into the temple-precinct at dawn and taught there. But when the 38 high priest arrived, and those who were with him, they called together 39 the Sanhedrin and all the senate of the sons of Israel, and sent to the 40 lockup to have them brought. 22 But the officers who came did not find 41 them in the prison, but brought back word 23 "We found the lockup 42 most securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but on 43 opening it we found nobody inside." 24 And when the provost of the 44 temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were puzzled 45 about them, to know what it was that had happened. 25 But someone 46 came and reported to them "Here, the men you put in the prison are 47 in the temple-precinct, standing there and teaching the people." 26 Then 48 the provost went with the officers and brought them; not with violence, 49 for they were afraid of the people, that they would be stoned.

27 27 And they brought them to the Sanhedrin and set them before it; and 28 the high priest questioned them, 28 saying "We positively enjoined you not to teach in this name, and here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are wanting to make us responsible for this man's 29 blood." 29 And Peter and the apostles answered "We must obey God 30 rather than men. 30 The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you 31 made away with by hanging him on a tree; 31 him God has raised on high by his right hand as supreme lord and savior, to give Israel 32 repentance and the pardon of sins. 32 And we are witnesses of these matters, and the Holy Spirit that God has given to those who obey him."

33 33 And at hearing it they were nettled and wanted to take their lives.
34 34 But a certain Pharisee in the Sanhedrin, Gamaliel by name, a teacher of the law highly honored by all the people, gave the word to put 35 the men out a little while, 35 and said to them "Men of Israel, take care 36 what you are going to do in the matter of these men. 36 For a while ago Theudas stood up, saying he was somebody; whose cause some four hundred men espoused, but who lost his life, and all who had 37 put faith in him disbanded, and nothing came of it. 37 And after him Judas the Galilean stood up during the time of the registration, and induced a set to go off with him; he too perished, and all who had put 38 faith in him were dispersed. 38 And this time I say keep clear of these men and let them be, because if this plan or this doing be from men 39 it will break down, 39 but if it is from God you will not be able to break 40 them down; you may turn out to be at war with God." 40 And they took his advice, and called in the apostles, and gave them a beating and enjoined them not to speak in Jesus's name, and let them go.

41 41 So they went from the presence of the Sanhedrin rejoicing because 42 they were held worthy to suffer insult for the Name; 42 and every day, in the temple-precinct and at home, they never left off teaching and telling the gospel of Christ Jesus.

CHAPTER 6

1 1 And in those days, as the disciples increased in number, there came to be a grumbling of the Greek-speaking members against the Hebrews, that their widows were disregarded in the daily distribution.
2 2 And the Twelve called in the body of disciples and said "It is not 3 desirable that we should leave God's word and act as bank-tellers. 3 But, brothers, nominate out of your number seven men of attested reputa-4 tions, whom we will appoint to this duty; 4 and we will devote ourselves 5 to prayer and the distribution of the word." 5 And all the body approved the idea, and they selected Stephen, a man full of faith and Holy Spirit, and Philip and Prochorus and Nicanor and Timon and 6 Parmenas and Nicolaus, an Antiochene proselyte, 6 all of whom they set before the apostles, and they prayed and laid their hands on them.
7 7 And the word of God grew, and the numbers of the disciples at Jerusalem increased extremely, and a great mass of the priests yielded

8 obedience to the faith. 8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, did 9 great wonders and tokens among the people. 9 But some from what is known as the Freedmen's Synagogue, and some of the Cyrenians and Alexandrians and those from Cilicia and Asia, stood up to debate 10 with Stephen, 10 and were not able to stand their ground against the 11 wisdom and inspiration by which he spoke. 11 Then they put out men who said "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against 12 Moses and God" 12 and stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and came down on him and carried him off and brought him 13 into the Sanhedrin, 13 and produced false witnesses who said "This 14 man never stops uttering words against the holy place and the law; 14 for we have heard him say that this Nazarene Jesus is to break down this place and to change the usages that Moses handed down to us." 15 15 And all those who were sitting in the Sanhedrin fixed their eyes

CHAPTER 7

1 on him and saw his face looking as if it were an angel's. 1 And the high priest said "Are these things so?"

2 2 And he said "Brethren and fathers, listen.

"The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was 3 in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Harran, 3 and said to him 'Come out from your country and your kin, and come to the country I will 4 show you.' 4 Then he went out from the country of the Chaldeans and lived in Harran. And from there, after his father was dead, God had 5 him move to this country you are living in now, 5 and did not give him inheritance enough in it even to set his foot on; and he promised to 6 give it to him as a possession, and to his descendants after him—when he had no child. 6 But God spoke in this way: that his descendants 7 should live the life of immigrants in an alien country, and they should enslave this posterity and ill-treat it four hundred years; 7 'and the 8 nation they are in slavery to I will judge,' said God, 'and after that they shall come out and worship me in this place'; 8 and he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And thus he had his son Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day, and Isaac Jacob, and Jacob the 9 twelve founders of the tribes. 9 And the Founders, becoming jealous 10 of Joseph, sold him down to Egypt; 10 and God was with him, and rescued him out of all his distresses, and gave him favor and wisdom before the Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and he appointed him ruler over Egypt and over all his household.

11 11 "And there came a famine all over Egypt and Canaan, and great 12 distress; and our fathers could not find enough to eat. 12 And Jacob, hearing that there were breadstuffs in Egypt, sent out our fathers 13 a first time; 13 and at the second sending Joseph's identity was made 14 known to his brothers, and the Pharaoh discovered Joseph's race. 14 And Joseph sent and had his father Jacob come, and all his kin, numbering 15 seventy-five souls. 15 And Jacob went down to Egypt, and passed away, 16 he and our fathers, and were conveyed to Shekem 16 and put in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a cash price from the sons of Hamor at Shekem.

17 17 "But as the time of the promise God had given to Abraham ap-18 proached, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt 18 until there came 19 up over Egypt another king who did not know Joseph; 19 he, laying a shrewd plan against our race, maltreated our fathers in having their 20 babies exposed so that they should not be kept alive. 20 At which time was born Moses, and was divinely pretty; who was nurtured three 21 months in his father's home, 21 and when he was exposed the Pharaoh's 22 daughter took him up and raised him as her son. 22 And Moses was educated in all the science of the Egyptians, and was powerful in 23 his words and deeds. 23 And when he was completing a span of forty years it came into his mind to visit his brothers the sons of Israel, 24 and, seeing one suffering a wrong, he took the part of the maltreated 25 man and did vengeance for him, striking down the Egyptian. 25 And he supposed his brothers understood that by his hand God was giving 26 them salvation; but they did not. 26 And on the following day he appeared to them as they were fighting, and was pacifying them, saying 'Boys, you are brothers; what do you wrong each other for?' 27 27 But he who was wronging his fellow rebuffed him, saying 'Who ap-28 pointed you chief justice over us? 28 are you meaning to take my life 29 the same as you took the Egyptian's yesterday?' 29 And Moses took flight at those words, and settled as an immigrant in the country of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

30 30 "And when forty years had elapsed there appeared to him in the 31 desert of Mount Sinai an angel in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 And Moses, seeing it, wondered at the sight; but as he came up to it to look at it 32 the Lord's voice came, 32 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob,' and Moses, with his flesh creeping, 33 dared not look. 33 And the Lord said to him 'Unfasten the shoes from 34 your feet; 34 for the place you are standing on is sacred ground. I have seen, turn my people in Egypt ate maltreated, and heard their groaning, and come down to rescue them; now come, let me send you to Egypt.'

35 35 "This Moses whom they had repudiated, saying 'Who appointed you chief justice over us?' him God has sent as both chief and redeemer with the hand of the angel that had appeared to him in the bush.
36 36 This man brought them out, doing wonders and tokens in Egypt and 37 at the Red Sea and in the wilderness for forty years. 37 This was the Moses who said to the sons of Israel 'God will raise up for you from 38 among your brothers a prophet, like me.' 38 This was the one who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the angel that spoke to him on Mount Sinai and with our fathers; he who received living 39 sayings to give to us; 39 to whom our fathers would not yield obedience, 40 but rebuffed him and turned round to Egypt in their hearts, 40 saying to Aaron 'Make us gods who shall go before us; for we do not know

41 what has become of that Moses who brought us out of Egypt'; 41 and they made a calf in those days and offered sacrifice to the idol, and 42 jubilated in the work of their hands. 42 But God turned and gave them up to worship the host of the sky, as it is written in the book of the prophets 'Did you offer me slaughtered beasts and sacrifices forty 43 years in the wilderness, house of Israel? 43 and you took up the tent of Moloch and the star of the god Rephan, the figures you had made to do reverence to—and I will remove you beyond Babylon.'

44 44 "Our fathers had the Tabernacle of the Testimony in the wilderness, as he who spoke to Moses prescribed that he should make it in conformity with the figure he had seen; 45 which same our fathers, succeeding to it, brought in with Joshua at the dispossession of the nations 45 God expelled before our fathers, till the days of David; 46 who found favor before God and asked to find a dwelling for the God of Jacob.
47 47 And Solomon built him a house. 48 But the Most High does not live in man-made abodes, not he; 49 as the prophet says 'I have the sky for throne, and the earth is the footstool for my feet; what house will you build me, says the Lord? or what is the place for my rest? 50 did not my hand make all this?'

51 51 "Stiff-necked men, uncircumcised in hearts and ears, you are always throwing yourselves against the Holy Spirit, you the same as your fathers. 52 Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute, and kill those who announced beforehand about the coming of the Righteous One whose betrayers and murderers you have now become?
53 53 you who received the law for the prescriptions of angels and did not keep it!"

54 54 And, hearing this, they were nettled at heart and ground their teeth at him. 55 But, being full of Holy Spirit, he fixed his eyes on the sky and saw God's glory and Jesus standing at God's right hand, 56 56 and said "Here I see the skies opened and the Son of Man standing at God's right hand." 57 But they cried out loudly and stopped their ears and rushed upon him like one man, 58 and took him out outside the city and stoned him.

And the witnesses laid off their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul and stoned Stephen, 59 while he invoked the Lord and said 60 "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." 60 And he knelt down and cried out loudly "Lord, do not count this sin against them"; and with that he

CHAPTER 8

1 went to his rest. 1 And Saul approved of his lynching.

And on that day a great persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem; and they dispersed through the country districts of 2 Judea and Samaria, all but the apostles. 2 But godly men gave Stephen a funeral and made a great wailing over him. 3 But Saul committed atrocities against the church, making house-to-house searches, and dragged off men and women to be committed to prison.

4 4 So those who dispersed in different directions went along spreading

5 the word. 5 And Philip came down to the city of Samaria and preached 6 Christ to them; 6 and the crowds to a man listened respectfully to 7 what Philip said, as they heard and saw the tokens he exhibited. 7 For 8 many of those who had unclean spirits had them come out, shrieking 8 loudly; 8 and many paralytics and cripples were cured; and there 9 was great rejoicing in that city.

9 But there was in the city before them a certain man, Simon by 10 name, playing the magician and surprising the nation of Samaria and 10 saying he was somebody great, 10 to whom they all looked up, great 11 and small, saying "This man is a Power of God, what is called the 11 Great Power." 11 And they looked up to him because he had for a 12 considerable time been surprising them with his magic tricks. 12 But 12 when they believed Philip as he brought them word of the Reign of 13 God and the name of Jesus Christ, they had themselves baptized, 13 both men and women. 13 And Simon himself also believed, and, having 14 had himself baptized, was a constant attendant at Philip's preaching, 14 and was surprised at seeing great tokens and miracles done.

14 And the apostles at Jerusalem, hearing that Samaria had accepted 15 the word of God, sent Peter and John to them; 15 and they came down 16 and prayed for them that they might receive Holy Spirit 16 (for it had 16 not yet fallen on any of them, and they only had their baptism into 17 the name of the Lord Jesus). 17 Then they laid their hands on them 17 and they received Holy Spirit.

18 And Simon, seeing that the Spirit was given through the laying on 19 of the apostles' hands, offered them a fee, 19 saying "Give me too this 20 faculty, that anyone I lay my hands on may receive Holy Spirit." 20 But 20 Peter said to Mm "Your money go to destruction, and you with it, 21 because you supposed you would get God's gift with a fee. 21 You have 21 no portion nor lot in this matter; for your heart is not straightforward 22 before God. 22 So repent of this viciousness of yours, and pray the 22 Lord and see if you may be forgiven the idea you conceived; 23 for I see 23 you are in the gall of bitterness and the tie of wrongness." 24 And 24 Simon answered "Pray to the Lord for me, you, that there may not 25 come upon me any of the things you have said."

25 So they, having given their testimony and spoken the word of the 26 Lord, turned back to Jerusalem, and gave the gospel to many villages 26 of the Samaritans. 26 But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying 27 "Up, go southward to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to 27 Gaza; that is desert"; and he stood up and went. 27 And along came an 28 Ethiopian, a powerful eunuch of Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, 28 her treasurer-general, who had been up to Jerusalem to do reverence; 28 and he was on his way back, riding in his chariot, and was reading the 29 prophet Isaiah.

29 And the Spirit said to Philip "Make up to that chariot and join it"; 30 30 and Philip ran up, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said 31 "Do you get the meaning of what you are reading?" 31 and he said

"Why, how could I, unless somebody puts me on the track!" and he invited Philip to get in and ride with him.

32 32 And the matter of the text he was reading was this: "He was led 33 like a sheep to slaughtering; and like a lamb mute before its shearer, 34 so he does not open his mouth. 33 In his lowly condition his judgment 34 was taken away; and of his generation who shall tell the story? be-35 cause his life is taken away from the earth." 34 And the eunuch answered 35 Philip "Please, about whom is the prophet saying this? about himself 36 or about somebody else?" 35 And Philip opened his mouth and started 36 from this text and told him the gospel of Jesus.

36 36 And as they were going along the road they came to a bit of water, 37 and the eunuch said "Here is water; what hinders my being baptized?" 38 38 And he gave orders for the chariot to halt, and they both went down 39 into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.
40 39 But when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord 41 snatched Philip away, and the eunuch saw no more of him, for he 42 went joyously on his way.

40 40 But Philip turned up at Ashdod; and as he went along he brought 41 the gospel to all the cities till he came to Cesarea.

CHAPTER 9

1 1 But Saul, still breathing threat and slaughter against the disciples 2 of the Lord, went to the high priest 2 and asked him for letters to 3 the synagogues at Damascus, so that he might bring to Jerusalem in 4 fetters whomever he found to be followers of the Path, both men and 5 women.

3 3 And as he went on his way he came to be nearing Damascus, when 4 all of a sudden a light flashed round him from the sky, 4 and he fell 5 on the ground and heard a voice say to him "Saul, Saul, why are 6 you persecuting me?" 5 And he said "Who are you, sir?" And he said 7 "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 6 But stand up and go into 8 the city, and you will be told what you must do." 7 And his traveling-9 companions stood speechless, hearing the voice but not seeing anybody.

8 8 And Saul rose from the ground, but when his eyes were open he 9 could see nothing; and they brought Mm into Damascus leading him 10 by the hand. And he was three days unable to see, and did not eat 11 nor drink. 10 But there was in Damascus a certain disciple, by name 12 Hananiah, and the Lord said to him in a vision "Hananiah!" and he 13 said "Here I am, Lord." 11 And the Lord said to him "Stand up and go 14 to the street known as Straight Street, and look at Judah's house 15 for a Tarsus man, Saul by name; 12 for he is praying, and has seen a man 16 named Hananiah come in and lay his hands on him so that he may 17 recover his sight." 13 And Hananiah answered "Lord, I have heard 18 about this man from a great many people, how much harm he has 19 done at Jerusalem to thy holy ones; 14 and here he has authority from 20 the chief priests to throw into fetters all who invoke thy name." 15 15 But the Lord said to him "Go, because this man is the instrument of my choice to carry my name before nations and kings and the sons 16 of Israel; 16 for I will let him know how much he must suffer for my 17 name." 17 And Hananiah went, and came into the house and laid his hands on him and said "Brother Saul, the Lord has sent me, Jesus that appeared to you on the road as you were coming, so that you 18 might recover your sight and be filled with Holy Spirit." 18 And at 19 once it was as if scales dropped off from his eyes; 19 and he recovered his sight, and rose and was baptized, and took food and rallied.

20 20 And he was with the disciples at Damascus for some days, and at once preached Jesus in the synagogues, saying "This is the Son 21 of God." 21 And all who heard it were surprised, and said "Is not this the one who had ravaged at Jerusalem those who invoked this name, and had come here for this purpose, to bring them in fetters before 22 the chief priests?" 22 But Saul grew more and more vigorous, and discomfited the Jews of Damascus, demonstrating that this is the Messiah.
23 23 But when several days had elapsed, the Jews plotted to take his 24 life; but their plot became known to Saul. 24 And they also watched the 25 gates day and night in order to take his life; 25 but his disciples took him and got him down through the wall by night, lowering him in a 26 basket. 26 And he arrived in Jerusalem and tried to join the disciples; and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.
27 27 But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and told them the story of how he had seen the Lord on the road, and his having spoken to him, and how he had spoken out in the name of Jesus at 28 Damascus; 28 and he was with them going in and out of Jerusalem, 29 speaking out in the Lord's name. 29 And he talked and debated with 30 the Greek-speaking Jews; but they undertook to take his life; 30 and the brothers, becoming cognizant of it, took him down to Cesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.
31 31 So the church throughout Judea and Galilee and Samaria was left in peace, being built up and walking in the fear of the Lord, and it multiplied by the encouragement of the Holy Spirit.
32 32 And it so befell that as Peter went along through all parts of the community, among the rest he came down to the people of God at 33 Lydda. 33 And he found there a certain man, Eneas by name, who had 34 been lying abed for eight years, being paralyzed. 34 And Peter said to him "Eneas, Jesus Christ cures you; get up and make your bed"; 35 and at once he got up. 35 And all who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him; who turned back to the Lord.
36 36 And in Joppa there was a certain disciple, Tabitha by name, which is to say in English "Gazelle"; she was full of actions of kindness and 37 charity that she used to do. 37 And it happened in those days that she fell sick and died; and they washed her and laid her in an upper room; 38 and, as Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the appeal "Do not fail to come right 39 on to us." 39 And Peter rose and went with them; and when he arrived they took him up to the room, and all the widows presented themselves to him weeping and pointing to their dresses and cloaks that 40 the Gazelle made while she was with them. 40 But Peter put everybody out and knelt down and prayed, and turned around to the body and 41 said "Tabitha, stand up." And she opened her eyes, and, seeing Peter, sat up. 4 And he gave her his hand and raised her to her feet; and 42 he called the members of the church and the widows, and presented her alive. 42 And it became known throughout Joppa, and many be-43 lieved on the Lord.

CHAPTER 10

1 a tanner. 1 And a certain man at Cesarea, Cornelius by name, a cen-2 turion of what is known as the Italian cohort, 2 a pious man and one who feared God with all his family, doing many acts of charity to the people and praying to God continually, saw in a vision distinctly, 3 at about three o'clock in the afternoon, an angel of God come in to 4 him and say to him "Cornelius!" 4 And he, terror-struck as he fixed his eyes on him, said "What is it, sir?" And he said to him "Your prayers 5 and charities have gone up for a memorial before God. 5 And now send 6 men to Joppa after a certain Simon, who is also named Peter; 6 he is a guest of a certain Simon, a tanner, who has his house by the seaside."

7 7 And when the angel that spoke to him went away, he called two of the domestics and a pious soldier, one of those who were constantly 8 in his company, 8 and gave them an account of the whole event and sent them to Joppa.

9 9 And on the following day, as they were on their way and were nearing the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray at twelve o'clock.
10 And he grew hungry and wanted a bite; but while they were getting 11 it ready he fell into a trance 11 and saw the sky opened and a thing like a great sheet coming down, being let down on the earth by four 12 corners, 12 with all the different quadrupeds and reptiles and birds of the air in it. 13 And there came a voice speaking to him, "Up, Peter, 14 kill and eat." 14 And Peter said "No, no, sir, I have never eaten anything 15 vile or unclean." 15 And again there was a voice speaking to him a second 16 time: "What God has made clean do not you make vile." 16 And this happened three times, and at once the thing was taken up into the sky.

17 17 And as Peter was at a loss to know what the vision he had seen might be, the men sent from Cornelius made their appearance at the 18 porch, having got themselves directed to Simon's house, 18 and called out to inquire whether Simon, also named Peter, was a guest there.
19 19 And while Peter was thinking the vision over, the Spirit said "Here 20 are men looking for you; 20 but rise and come down and go with them 21 without any doubting, because it was I that sent them." 21 And Peter came down to the men and said "Here, I am the one you are looking 22 for: what is the occasion you are here about?" 22 And they said "Cornelius, a centurion, an upright and God-fearing man, vouched for by all the nation of the Jews, had it revealed to him by a holy angel that he should send for you to his house and hear words from you."

23 So he invited them in and made them his guests. But on the following day he went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa went with him. 24 And on the following day he came into Cesarea; and Cornelius was awaiting them, having called together his relatives and intimate friends.

25 And when it came to Peter's going in, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet and did reverence. 26 But Peter made him rise, saying "Stand up: I am a man myself." 27 And he went in conversing with him, and found a great many come together, 28 and said to them "You know yourselves it is an impropriety for a Jew to fraternize with an alien or make a call on him. And God has shown me I am not to call any man vile or unclean; 29 for which very reason I came without making any objection when I was sent for. So I inquire for what reason you sent for me."

30 And Cornelius said "Four days ago, to an hour, I was offering the three o'clock prayer in my house, and there before me stood a man in splendid vesture 31 and said 'Cornelius, your prayer is heard and your charities are remembered before God; 32 so send to Joppa and have Simon who is also named Peter come; he is a guest of Simon a tanner, by the seaside'; 33 so I sent to you instantly, and you did well to come. So now we are all present before God to hear everything that you are directed to say by the Lord."

34 And Peter opened his mouth and said "I perceive to a certainty that God is not partial, 35 but in every nation he who fears him and practices righteousness is acceptable to him. 36 The word he sent to the sons of Israel bringing the news of peace through Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all— 37 you know, the thing that took place all over Palestine, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism that John preached, 38 Jesus from Nazareth, how God anointed him with Holy Spirit and power; who went along doing good and healing all who were tyrannized over by the Devil, because God was with him 39 (and we are witnesses to everything that he did both in the countryside of the Jews and in Jerusalem); which same Jesus they put to death by hanging him on a tree. 40 Him God raised on the third day, and had him show himself, 41 not to all the people but to the witnesses preappointed by God, us who ate and drank with him after his rising from the dead, 42 and instructed us to proclaim to the people and to attest that this is the God-ordained judge of living and dead. 43 To him all the prophets testify that everyone who believes in Mm is to receive pardon of sins through his name."

44 While Peter was still speaking these words the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the discourse; 45 and the circumcised believers who had come with Peter were surprised that the gift of 46 the Holy Spirit was poured out on the foreigners too, 46 for they heard 47 them speak languages and magnify God. 47 Then Peter answered "Can anyone bar the water, that these who have received the Holy Spirit 48 the same as we did should not be baptized?" 48 And he directed that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay

CHAPTER 11

1 some days. 1 And the apostles, and the Palestinian brothers, heard that the foreigners too had received the word of God.

2 But when Peter came up to Jerusalem, the circumcised took issue 3 with him, 3 saying "You went in where men with uncircumcised 4 bodies were and ate with them." 4 But Peter began and stated the case 5 to them in detail, 5 "I was in the city of Joppa, praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, a thing coming down, like a great sheet being 6 let down by four corners out of the sky, and it came clear down to me. 6 I fixed my eyes on it and looked, and saw the different quad-7 rupeds, the wild beasts, the reptiles, the birds of the air. 7 And I also 8 heard a voice say to me 'Up, Peter, kill and eat.' 8 And I said 'No, no, sir, 9 because a thing vile or unclean has never gone into my mouth.' 9 And a second time a voice out of the sky answered 'What God has made 10 clean do not you make vile.' 10 And this happened three times, and it was all of it drawn up into the sky again.

11 "And instantly three men made their appearance standing outside 12 the house I was in, sent from Cesarea to me. 12 And the Spirit told me to go along with them without making any difference. And these six 13 brothers too went with me, and we went into the man's house. 13 And he reported to us how he had seen the angel take its stand in his house 14 and say 'Send to Joppa for Simon, also named Peter, who will speak words to you by which you and all your family shall be saved.'

15 "And as I began to speak the Holy Spirit fell on them just the same 16 as it had on us at first. 16 And I remembered the Lord's word, how he said 'John baptized with water, but you shall be baptized in Holy 17 Spirit.' 17 So if God gave them the same gift equally with us when they believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to claim to veto God?"

18 At hearing this they let the matter drop, and glorified God, saying "Then God has given the foreigners too repentance into life."

19 So those who dispersed at the distress that arose over Stephen went along as far as Phenicia and Cyprus and Antioch speaking the 20 word to nobody but Jews alone; 20 but there were some of them, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they came to Antioch, spoke also to the Greek-speaking population, announcing the gospel of the 21 Lord Jesus; 21 and the Lord's hand was with them, and a great number that believed turned to the Lord.

22 And word about them came to the ears of the church at Jerusalem, 23 and they sent Barnabas off to Antioch; 23 and when he arrived and saw the grace of God he was glad, and exhorted them all to stick to their 24 hearts' purpose in the Lord, 24 because he was a good man and full of 25 26 Holy Spirit and of faith; and a considerable number joined the Lord.

25 And he went out to Tarsus to look up Saul, 26 and when he found him he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass that they met with the church through a whole year, and taught a considerable crowd; and that in Antioch the disciples first came to be styled Christians.
27 27 And meanwhile prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch; 28 28 and one of them, Agabus by name, stood up and gave an indication by the Spirit that there was to be a great famine all over the world 29 of men; which there was in Claudius's time. 29 And the converts, as one and another of them could afford, each set a sum apart to send for 30 relief to the brothers that lived in Palestine; 30 and so they did, sending to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER 12

1 1 And at that time Herod the king lifted his hand to maltreat some 2 of the representatives of the church. 2 And he put to death James the 3 brother of John by the sword; 3 and, seeing that it was pleasing to the 4 Jews, he went on to arrest Peter too (it was in the matzoth days), 4 and did capture him and put him in prison, committing him to four fours of soldiers to guard, meaning to bring him up to the people after the passover.

5 5 So Peter was being kept in the prison; but prayer was being ar-6 dently made to God for him by the church. 6 But when Herod was going to produce him, that night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, chained with two chains, and guards in front of the door were 7 watching the prison; 7 and lo, an angel of the Lord made his appearance, and a light shone in the room. And he struck Peter on the side and waked him, saying, "Stand up quick"; and his chains dropped off 8 from his hands. 8 And the angel said to him "Tie your belt and put on your sandals"; and he did so. And he said to him "Put on your 9 cloak and follow me"; 9 and he went out and followed him, and did not know that what was being done through the angel was real, but 10 thought he was seeing a vision. 10 And they passed a first watch and a second and came to the iron gate that leads to the city, which opened to them of itself, and they went out and went one block, and at once 11 the angel was gone from him. 11 And Peter, coming to himself, said
"Now I know certainly that the Lord has sent out his angel and rescued me from Herod's hands and all the expectation of the Jewish people."

12 12 And when he realized the situation he came to the house of Mary the mother of John also named Mark, where a number had collected 13 and were praying. 13 And when he knocked at the porch door a girl 14 named Rhoda came to the door to answer the knock, 14 and, recognizing Peter's voice, in her gladness she did not open the porch but ran in 15 and reported that Peter was standing at the porch. 15 And they said to her "You are crazy"; but she insisted it was so; and they said "It is 16 his angel." 16 But Peter kept on knocking; and they opened and, to their 17 surprise, saw him. 17 And he held up his hand to them for silence, and told them the story of how the Lord had brought him out of the prison, and said "Tell this to James and the brothers." And he went out and off to another place.

18 18 And when day came there was no little to-do among the soldiers to know what had become of Peter. 19 And Herod hunted for him, did not find him, examined the guards and ordered them executed, and went down from Judea to Cesarea and spent a while there.

20 20 And he was in a bitter quarrel with the Tyrians and Sidonians, and they had come to him unitedly and had got the influence of the king's chamberlain Blastus and were asking for peace because their country depended on the king's country for food, 21 and on a set day Herod had put on royal attire and taken his seat on the judgment-bench and was making a speech to them, 22 and the people were cheering and shouting "A god's voice and not a man's," 23 and immediately an angel of the Lord struck him for his not having given God the glory, and he expired after he had come to being eaten up by maggots. 24 But the word of the Lord grew and gained ground.

25 25 And Barnabas and Saul, having completed the distribution of the relief at Jerusalem, returned, taking along with them John also named Mark.

CHAPTER 13

1 1 And at Antioch, in the church that they had there, there were prophets and teachers, Barnabas and Symeon known as Niger and Lucius the Cyrenean, and Manahen a foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. 2 And while they were holding divine services and fasting, the Holy Spirit said "Set Barnabas and Saul apart for the work I have called them to." 3 Then they fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them and sent them off.

4 4 So, with the Holy Spirit setting them on their way, they came down to Seleucia and sailed from there to Cyprus; 5 and when they got to Salamis they announced the word of God in the Jews' synagogues. And they also had John as their attendant.

6 6 And when they had come through the island clear to Paphos, they found a certain Jew magician and pretended prophet whose name was Bar-Jesu, 7 who was with the proconsul Sergius Paulus, a man of sense. The latter sent for Barnabas and Saul and requested to hear the word of God; 8 but Elymas the conjuror (for this is the translation of his name) opposed them, trying to twist the proconsul away from the faith. 9 But Saul, also named Paul, filled with Holy Spirit, fixed his eyes on him 10 and said "O you man full of all trickery and unscrupulousness, son of the Devil, enemy of all honesty, will you never stop twisting the Lord's straight paths? 11 now, lo, the Lord's hand is on you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun, for a time." And immediately a mist and darkness fell upon him, and he went around 12 looking for anybody to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the proconsul, seeing what had taken place, believed, being astonished over the teaching of the Lord.

13 And, sailing from Paphos, Paul and his company came to Perga in Pamphylia. And John parted company with them and returned to Jerusalem; 14 but they, going through from Perga, arrived at the Pisidian Antioch, and went to the synagogue on the sabbath day and took seats. 15 And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets the directors of the synagogue sent word to them "Brethren, if you have in you any words of exhortation to the people, speak."

16 And Paul stood up and beckoned for attention, and said "Men of Israel and you who fear God, listen. 17 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and raised the people high during its immigrant life in Egypt, and brought them out of it with a high arm, 18 and, when for a term of forty years he had borne with them in the wilderness, 19 demolished seven nations in Canaan and allotted their land to his people. 20 And for about four hundred and fifty years he gave judges down to Samuel the prophet. 21 And next they asked for a king; and God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man out of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years, 22 and, removing him, raised up David for their king, the same to whom he testified in the words 'I have found David the son of Jesse, a man to my mind, who will do all my will.'

23 "From this man's progeny, in accordance with promise, God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus, 24 when in advance of his advent John had proclaimed baptism for repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And as John was rounding out his career he said 'What do you suppose I am? I am not the one, but here is coming after me he whose shoes I am not worthy to take off.'

26 "Brethren, sons of Abraham's line and those of you who fear God, it is to us the words of this salvation are sent out. 27 For the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and its rulers, being ignorant of this and of the utterances of the prophets which are read every sabbath, fulfilled these in the judgment they passed, 28 and, not having found any grounds for putting him to death, asked Pilate that he might be executed. 29 And when they had accomplished everything that was written about him they took him down from the tree and laid him in a tomb. 30 But God raised him from the dead: 31 he appeared during a good many days to those who had gone up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses to the people.

32 "And we are bringing you word of the promise made to the fathers, 33 that God has fulfilled this to us their children in raising Jesus, as it is written in the first psalm 'My son art thou, I myself have today given you birth.' 34 And because he raised him up from the dead, never again to return to decay, he has said thus: 'I will give you David's faithful godly meed'— 35 because he also says in another psalm 'Thou wilt not give thy godly one to see decay.' 36 For David, after having in his generation served God's will, went to rest and joined his fathers and saw decay; 37 but he whom God raised did not see decay.

38 "So be it known to you, brethren, that through him pardon of sins is announced to you, 39 and in him everyone who believes is justified from everything that you could not be justified from in Moses's law. 40 So look out that what is said in the prophets does not come upon you, 41 'See, you despisers, and wonder, and fade away; 41 for I am doing a deed in your days, a deed that you will not believe if one recounts it to you.'"

42 And as they were going out they requested that they might have these words spoken to them for the ensuing sabbath; 43 and when the meeting broke up many of the Jews and of the religious-minded proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them prompting them to keep in touch with God's grace.

44 And on the following sabbath well-nigh all the city met to hear the word of the Lord. 45 But the Jews, seeing the crowds, were seized with jealousy and contradicted with blasphemies what Paul was saying. 46 And Paul and Barnabas spoke out squarely and said "It was necessary that the word of God must be spoken first to you; since you rebuff it and vote yourselves not worthy of the eternal life, here we turn to the foreign nations; 47 for so the Lord has commanded us, 'I have set you for a light of nations, to have you be a salvation out to the remotest part of the earth.'" 48 And the foreigners were glad to hear it and glorified the word of God, and as many as were candidates for eternal life believed; 49 and the word of the Lord was broadcasted throughout the region.

50 But the Jews egged on the respectable religious women and the leading men of the city and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and they put them out of their territory. 51 But they shook out the dust from their feet against them and came to Iconium; 52 and the converts were filled with joy and Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER 14

1 And at Iconium in the same way they went into the Jews' synagogue and so spoke that both of Jews and Greeks a great multitude believed. 2 But the disbelieving Jews stirred up and prejudiced the foreigners' minds against the brothers.

3 So they spent a considerable time there speaking out on the Lord who attested his word of grace by giving tokens and wonders to be done through their agency. 4 But the populace of the city took sides, and some were with the Jews and some with the apostles.

5 And when there was a movement of both the heathens and the Jews, with their official heads, to mob them and stone them, 6 they, realizing the situation, took refuge in the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe and the region around them, 7 and were preaching the gospel there. 8 And in Lystra there was sitting a certain cripple who had come lame out of his mother's body and had never walked. 9 He was 10 hearing Paul speaking; and he, fixing his eyes on him and seeing that he had faith to be made sound, 10 said in a loud voice "Stand up straight on your feet"; and he jumped and walked.

11 11 And the crowds, seeing what Paul did, raised their voices in Lycaonian, saying "The gods have taken the form of men and come down to us"; 12 and they called Barnabas "Jupiter," and Paul "Mercury" 13 since it was he who took the lead in speaking. 13 And the priest of the temple of Jupiter in front of the city brought bulls and garlands to the gates with the crowds and proposed to sacrifice. 14 But the apostles Barnabas and Paul, hearing of it, tore their clothes and sprang out among the crowd 15 crying out "Gentlemen, why are you doing this? we too are men with the same limitations as yourselves, who are bringing you word to turn about from these futilities to the living God who made the skies and the earth and the sea and everything in them; 16 who in the bygone generations allowed all the nations to go 17 their own ways— 17 and yet he did not leave himself unattested, doing good, giving you rains out of the sky and fruit-times, filling your hearts with food and cheeriness." 18 And with saying this they barely succeeded in stopping the crowds from sacrificing to them.

19 19 But Jews from Antioch and Iconium came in and got the crowds on their side and stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, supposing he was dead. 20 But while the converts encircled him he stood up and went into the city; and on the following day he went out to Derbe with Barnabas, 21 and after giving the gospel to that city and making a number of converts they returned to Lystra and Iconium and Antioch, 22 fortifying the converts' souls, admonishing them to persist in faith and that it must be through many distresses that we come into the Reign of God.

23 23 And, after appointing elders for them city by city, they prayed with fastings and entrusted them to the Lord on whom they had 24 25 believed, 24 and, passing through Pisidia, came to Pamphylia, 25 and spoke 26 the word at Perga and came down to Attalia, 26 and from there sailed away to Antioch, the place from which they had been committed to 27 God's grace for the work they had achieved. 27 And, arriving there and bringing together the church, they reported what things God had done in connection with their work, and that he had opened a door 28 of faith to the foreigners. 28 And they spent not a little time with the converts.

CHAPTER 15

1 1 And certain persons came down from Judea and taught the brothers "If you are not circumcised by the Mosaic rite you cannot be saved."

2 2 And when Paul and Barnabas had had not a little contradiction and argument with these, the brothers settled it that Paul and Barnabas and some others of them should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question.

3 3 So they, having been seen off by the church going with them out of the city, passed through Phenicia and Samaria recounting the turning of the foreigners, and caused great gladness to all the brothers.

4 And when they arrived in Jerusalem they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders, and reported what things 5 God had done in connection with their work. 5 But some of the Pharisee party who had believed stood up and said it was necessary to circumcise them and instruct them to keep the law of Moses.

6 And the apostles and the elders met to see about this point.
7 And after there had been much argument Peter stood up and said to them "Brothers, you are aware that back in the earliest days God made among you the choice that it should be by my mouth that the foreigners 8 should hear the word of the gospel and believe; 8 and the heart-discerning God vouched for them by giving the Holy Spirit the same 9 as he did to us, 9 and made no difference between us and them, cleansing 10 their hearts by faith. 10 So now why are you putting God on trial, in laying on the converts' necks a yoke that neither our fathers nor we 11 have been able to carry? 11 but we believe we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus in the same way as they."

12 And the whole body became silent, and listened to Barnabas and Paul giving their account of what tokens and wonders God had 13 done among the foreigners through them. 13 But after they had become silent James answered "Brothers, listen to me. 14 Symeon has given the 14 account of how God first deigned to take out of the foreigners a people 15 for his name. 15 And the words of the prophets are in harmony with this, as it is written 16 'After this I will turn back and rebuild David's 16 fallen booth, and rebuild its ruins and reerect it, 17 so that the remnant 17 of men may seek the Lord, and all the nations that have been declared 18 mine, 18 says the Lord,' making these things known from of old. 19 Consequently I move that we do not interfere with those who from the 19 nations are turning to God, 20 but send them a note to abstain from 20 idol-contaminations and unchastity and blood. 21 For Moses has from 21 the earliest generations had his preachers city by city, being read in the synagogues every sabbath."

22 Then it was resolved by the apostles and the elders, with all the church, to choose and send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas men 22 out of their own number, Judas known as Barsabbas and Silas,— 23 leading men among the brothers,— 23 writing by them "The apostles and the senior brothers to the brothers of foreign nationality in Antioch 24 and Syria and Cilicia, greeting. 24 Since we have heard that some of us have disturbed you by unsettling your minds with things they said, 25 to whom we had given no commission, 25 we have unanimously resolved 26 to choose men and send them to you with our dear friends Barnabas 26 and Paul, 26 men who have forgone their lives for the name of our Lord 27 Jesus Christ. 27 So we have sent Judas and Silas to make this same report themselves by word of mouth. 28 For it has been resolved by the 28 Holy Spirit and by us not to impose on you any more of a burden

29 than these essentials, 29 to abstain from things sacrificed to idols and from blood and from unchastity; from which things keeping clear, you will be doing well. Our best wishes to you."

30 30 So they were dismissed and came down to Antioch, and called a 31 mass-meeting and handed over the letter; 31 and they read it and re-32 joiced at the encouragement, 32 and Judas and Silas, being prophets 33 themselves, exhorted the brothers at length and fortified them; 33 and 35 after spending some time they were courteously dismissed by the brothers to those who had sent them. 35 But Paul and Barnabas stayed on at Antioch teaching and circulating the word of the Lord, with many others besides.

36 36 And after some days Paul said to Barnabas "Let us go back and visit the brothers at each of the cities in which we announced the 37 word of the Lord, to see how they are doing." 37 And Barnabas wished 38 to take along also John known as Mark, 38 but Paul claimed that the one who had deserted them in Pamphylia and not come to the work with 39 them should not be taken along; 39 and such irritation ensued that they parted company, and Barnabas took Mark along and sailed for Cyprus.

40 40 But Paul picked out Silas and went out with the brothers commending him to the Lord's grace.

41 41 And he passed through Syria and Cilicia fortifying the churches.

CHAPTER 16

1 1 And in visiting the various places he reached Derbe and Lystra, and found that there was a convert there named Timothy, son of a Jewish 2 woman who was a believer, but of a Greek father, 2 and that he was 3 vouched for by the brothers at Lystra and Iconium. 3 Paul wanted this man to go out with him, and took him and circumcised him because of the Jews thereabouts, for they one and all knew he had a Greek for his father.

4 4 And as they went on through the cities they passed word to them to live up to the resolutions voted by the apostles and elders at 5 Jerusalem. 5 So the churches grew solid in faith and plentiful in number day by day.

6 6 And they went through the Phrygian-Galatian country, being for-bidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in the province of Asia, 7 7 and came up to Mysia and tried to take a course into Bithynia but 8 the Spirit of Jesus would not allow them; 8 and they went past Mysia 9 and down to Troas. 9 And in the night a vision appeared to Paul: some Macedonian man was standing and appealing to him and saying 10 "Come over to Macedonia and help us." 10 And when he had seen the vision, at once we made efforts to get out to Macedonia, inferring that God had invited us to bring the gospel to them.

11 11 So, setting sail from Troas, we made a straight run to Samothrace, 12 and the following day to Neapolis, 12 and from there to Philippi, which is the first city in its quarter of Macedonia, a Roman colony. And 13 we were staying on in that city for some days; 13 and on the sabbath day we went outside the city by the river, where we understood there was a prayer-meeting, and sat down and talked to the women that came together. 14 And there was a certain woman named Lydia listening, a dealer in Turkey-red cloth from the city of Thyatira, a religious-minded person, whose heart the Lord opened to mark what Paul was saying. 15 And when she and her household had been baptized she invited us to stay with her, saying "If you have judged me to be a loyal believer in the Lord, come to my house and stay," and would not take no for an answer.

16 And it befell that as we were on our way to the prayer-meeting we met with a certain slave-girl that had an oracular spirit, who did a great business for her owners as a clairvoyant. 17 She followed after Paul and us shouting "These men are servants of the highest god who announce to you a road to salvation." 18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, being nettled, turned round and said to the spirit "I enjoin you by the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her"; and out it came that very moment.

19 But her owners, seeing that their prospect of business was out, took Paul and Silas and dragged them to the marketplace where the magistrates were, 20 and brought them to the praetors and said "These men are agitating our city, when they are Jews, 21 and promulgating usages which we have not the right to accept or practice, being Romans"; 22 and the crowd struck in against them; and the praetors, tearing off their clothes, ordered them beaten, and, 23 after laying on many blows of the rods, threw them into prison, enjoining the jailer to keep them safely. 24 Receiving such a charge, he threw them into the inner prison and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 But at midnight Paul and Silas in prayer were singing a hymn to God, and the prisoners were listening to them; 26 and suddenly there came a great earthquake so that the foundations of the lockup were shaken, and the doors all swung open, and everybody's fetters were loosened. 27 And the jailer, coming awake and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was going to take his own life, believing that the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul called out loudly "Don't do yourself any harm, for we are every one here." 29 And he asked for lights and sprang in, and, trembling all over, threw himself down before Paul and Silas 30 and took them outside in front and said 31 "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" 31 And they said "Believe on the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, you and your family"; 32 and they spoke the word of God to him with all who were in his house. 33 And he took them with him at that hour in the night and washed the blood off from the welts and was baptized immediately, he and everyone who belonged to him, 34 and brought them up to his house and set a table for them, and jubilated with all his family over having put his faith in God.

35 And when day came the praetors sent the lictors with the word 36 "Let those men go." 36 And the jailer reported the words to Paul: "The praetors have sent to let you go; so now go out and go on your way." 37 37 But Paul said "They beat us publicly without a sentence and threw us into prison, when we were Roman nationals, and now they are 38 turning us out privately! I should say not! let them come themselves and fetch us out." 38 And the lietors reported these words to the praetors; 39 and they were afraid at hearing that they were Romans, 39 and came and apologized to them and fetched them out and requested them to 40 go away from the city. 40 And they came out of the prison and went to Lydia's, and saw the brothers and exhorted them, and went out.

CHAPTER 17

1 1 And they went through Amphipolis and Apollonia without stopping and came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.
2 2 And, in accordance with Paul's practice, he went in to them and for 3 three sabbaths argued with them out of the scriptures, 3 elucidating and quoting that the Messiah must suffer and rise from the dead, and 4 that "this Jesus whom I am announcing to you" is the Messiah. 4 And some of them believed it and associated themselves with Paul and Silas, and of the religious-minded Greeks a great number, and of the foremost women not a few.

5 5 But the Jews, growing jealous and enlisting some bad characters among the men about the marketplace and raising a mob, threw the city into an uproar and came in front of Jason's house and proposed 6 to bring them up before the people; 6 but, not finding them, they dragged Jason and some brothers off to the politarchs, clamoring
"These who have driven wild the world of men have got here too; 7 Jason has taken them in; 7 and all these are acting contrary to Caesar's 8 decrees by saying that there is another king, Jesus." 8 And they alarmed 9 the crowd and the politarchs with the hearing of this, 9 and they took 10 security from Jason and the rest and dismissed them. 10 And the brothers at once sent Paul and Silas off in the night to Berea, where as soon 11 as they arrived they went to the synagogue of the Jews. 11 And these were a better stock than those in Thessalonica, who received the word with the utmost eagerness, examining the Scriptures day by day as to whether these things were so.

12 12 So a great many of them believed, and of the respectable Greek 13 women too, and of men, not a few. 13 But when the Jews from Thessalonica found out that the word of God had been announced by Paul at Berea too, they came even there, stirring up and alarming the 14 crowds. 14 And then the brothers at once sent Paul out to get to the 15 sea, while both Silas and Timothy stayed behind in the place. 15 And those who were escorting Paul took him on to Athens, and received an order to Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible and went out.

16 16 And while Paul was waiting for them at Athens his spirit was 17 provoked in him as he saw the city swarming with idols. 17 So he talked it over in the synagogue with the Jews and religious-minded people, and in the marketplace day after day with those who happened to 18 be present. 18 And some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him, and some said "What is this phrasemonger trying to say?" and others "He seems to be a propagandist for foreign divinities," because he was preaching the gospel of Jesus and Resurrection.

19 19 And they took him and brought him before the Areopagus, saying 20 20 "May we know what this new teaching voiced by you is? for you are bringing some surprising things to our ears, so we should like to 21 know what it is all driving at." 21 Now all the Athenians, and the foreigners who resided there, took every occasion to say or to hear something novel.

22 22 And Paul took his stand in the middle of the Areopagus and said
"Men of Athens, every way I see you are great reverers of unseen 23 powers. 23 For in passing along and observing the objects of your worship I found among the rest an altar inscribed "To Unknown God."
So it is of what you adore unknowing that I am bringing you informa-24 tion. 24 God, who made the world and everything in it, does not, since he is Lord of heaven and earth, reside in man-made temples, 25 nor is tended 25 by human hands for any want of his, when it is he who gave everybody life and breath and everything. 26 And he made out of one every 26 nation of men to live all over the face of the earth, ordaining prescribed epochs and the limitations of their residence, 27 to have them 27 seek for God if so be they might touch him in their groping and find him—as indeed he is not far from each one of us, 28 28 Because in him we live and move and are, as some of your own poets too have said,

For we his offspring are.

29 29 So, seeing we are God's offspring, we ought not to think divinity is similar to gold or silver or stone sculptured by human art and conception.

30 30 "Therefore God, overlooking the times of ignorance, at present 31 notifies men that everybody everywhere is to repent, 31 inasmuch as he has set a day on which he is going to judge the world of men with justice by a man whom he has designated and has certified to all by raising him from the dead;—"

32 32 But at hearing of resurrection of the dead some jeered and others 33 said "We will give you another hearing about this." 33 With that Paul 34 went out from their midst. 34 But some men adhered to him and believed, among them Dionysius an Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAPTER 18

1 2 1 After this he left Athens and came to Corinth; 2 and, finding a certain Jew named Aquila, a Pontus man by family, who had just come from Italy, he and his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had prescribed that 3 all the Jews should leave Rome, he went to them, 3 and, because he was of the same trade, stayed with them and worked; for they were tent-

4 makers by trade. 4 And he argued in the synagogue sabbath after sab-5 bath and persuaded Jews and Greeks. 5 But when Silas and Timothy 6 had come down from Macedonia Paul was under a pressure in his 7 speaking, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Messiah. 6 But as 8 they took a hostile attitude and blasphemed he shook out his clothes 9 and said to them "Your blood be on your own heads; I am clean; from 10 now on I will go to the foreigners"; 7 and he moved from there and 11 came into the house of one Titius Justus, a religious-minded man, 12 whose house was next door to the synagogue. 8 But Crispus the director 13 of the synagogue believed the Lord with his whole family, and many 14 of the Corinthians, hearing of it, believed and were baptized. 9 And 15 the Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision "Do not be afraid, but 16 speak and never be silent, 10 because I am with you and nobody shall 17 fall foul of you to do you harm, because I have a numerous people in 18 this city." 11 And he kept on there a year and six months, teaching the 19 word of God among them.

12 12 But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaea the Jews came down on 13 Paul in a body and led him before the bench, 13 saying "This man is 14 influencing people to adore God contrary to the law." 14 But as Paul 15 was about to open his mouth Gallio said to the Jews "Now, Jews, 16 if it were an injustice or an unscrupulous meanness, I would bear with 17 you as reason would require; 15 but if it is questions about language 18 and names and your law, you will see to it yourselves: I do not care to 19 be a judge of these things"; 16 and he drove them away from the bench.
17 17 And they all took hold of Sosthenes the director of the synagogue 18 and thrashed him in front of the bench; and Gallio did not concern 19 himself about any of this.

18 18 But Paul, after staying on with the brothers several days longer, 19 bade them farewell and sailed for Syria, and with him Priscilla and 20 Aquila, shearing his head at Cenchreae (for he had a vow). 19 And they 21 reached Ephesus, and he left those two there; and he himself went 22 into the synagogue and argued with the Jews, 20 but when they requested 23 him to make a longer stay he would not consent, 21 but, bidding them 24 farewell and saying "I will come back to you again, God willing," set 25 sail from Ephesus, 22 and, landing at Cesarea, went up and greeted the 26 church and went down to Antioch; 23 and after spending some time 27 there he went out going through the Phrygian-Galatian country, bracing up all the converts.

24 24 But a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by family, an eloquent man, made his appearance in Ephesus, showing himself 25 strong in the Scriptures. 25 This man had been indoctrinated in the 26 Lord's path, and, being enthusiastic, he was talking and teaching 27 the particulars about Jesus while he knew only John's baptism; 26 and this man began to speak out in the synagogue. But Priscilla and Aquila, having heard him, took him home and stated God's path to him more particularly. 27 And when he was desirous to go over to Achaea the brothers encouraged him to, and wrote to the converts to welcome him; and on his arrival he powerfully reinforced those who had believed through grace, 28 for he energetically argued the Jews down in public, showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Messiah.

CHAPTER 19

1 And it befell while Apollos was at Corinth that Paul, having gone through the highland parts, came to Ephesus and found some converts, 2 and said to them "Did you receive Holy Spirit when you believed?" but they said to him "Why, we did not even hear of there being any Holy Spirit." 3 And he said "Then what were you baptized into?" 4 and they said "Into John's baptism." And Paul said "John administered a baptism for repentance, telling the people that they were to believe in him who was coming after him, that is, in Jesus." 5 And upon hearing it they had themselves baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus; 6 and upon Paul's laying his hands on them the Holy Spirit came on them and they spoke languages and prophesied. 7 And there were in all about twelve men of them.

8 And he went into the synagogue and spoke out for three months, arguing and pressing home the truth about the Reign of God. 9 But when some hardened up and disbelieved, saying abusive things about the movement before the populace, he parted company with them and separated the converts, arguing day by day in Tyrannus's school. 10 And this went on for two years, so that all the inhabitants of the province of Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God did extraordinary miracles by Paul's hands, 12 even to the extent that handkerchiefs or aprons from his body were carried to the sick and they were freed from their diseases and the evil spirits came out. 13 And some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists also undertook to name the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had the evil spirits, saying "I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches." 14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this; 15 but the evil spirit answered them "I know Jesus and I understand about Paul, but who are you?" 16 and the man with the evil spirit in him jumped at them and mastered them all and manhandled them so that they got away out of that house naked and wounded. 17 And this became known to all of both Jews and Greeks who lived in Ephesus, and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus stood high, 18 and many of those who had believed came confessing and reporting their practices. 19 And several of those who had practiced supernatural methods brought their books together and burned them up in sight of everybody; and they added up the prices of them and found it made fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20 Thus with the Lord's might the word grew and succeeded.

21 And when these things had run their course Paul made up his mind to go through Macedonia and Achaea to Jerusalem, saying "After I have been there I must see Rome too." 22 And he sent to Macedonia two of his assistants, Timothy and Erastus, but himself waited a while in the province of Asia.

23 And at that time there came no little to-do about the movement.
24 For one Demetrius, a silversmith making silver Artemis-temples, 25 furnished not a little business to the artists; 25 and, collecting these and the workmen in such lines, he said "Gentlemen, you know it is out of 26 this business we have our prosperity; 26 and you see and hear that not only of Ephesus but of well-nigh all the province of Asia this Paul has persuaded a great lot of people to shift their ground with his talk 27 that what are made by hands are not gods. 27 And there is danger not only that we shall have this department go out of demand but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be thought nothing of, and that she will be brought down from her grandeur, she whom 28 all Asia and the world of men adore." 28 And, hearing this and getting into a rage, they went to screaming "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" 29 and the city was filled with the turmoil, and they rushed to the theater like one man, carrying off with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were traveling-companions of Paul. 30 And when Paul wished to go in before the people the converts would not allow 31 him to; 31 and some of the Asiarchs too, being friendly to him, sent to him and appealed to him not to venture into the theater.

32 So some screamed one thing and some another, for the meeting was in a turmoil and the majority did not know on what account they 33 had come together. 33 And out of the crowd they put up Alexander, the Jews making him their spokesman; and Alexander motioned with 34 his hand and wanted to make a defense to the people. 34 But at recognizing that he was a Jew there came one voice from everybody, all screaming for about two hours "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians! great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

35 But the city clerk quieted the crowd down and said "Why, men of Ephesus, who of all mankind is there that does not know the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of great Artemis and of what fell 36 from Jupiter? 36 so, this being indisputable, it is our business to keep cool and not do anything rash. 37 For you have brought these men who have not been either stealing from the temple or blaspheming our goddess. 38 So if Demetrius and the artists who are with him have a case 38 against anybody, the courts sit, and there are proconsuls; let them bring charges against each other. 39 But if you are after anything that 39 goes farther, it shall be settled at the regular meeting— 40 for we are in danger of being charged with revolutionism as to today's, there being no cause, as to which we shall not be able to give an account as 40 to this concourse." 41 And with this he dismissed the meeting.

CHAPTER 20

1 And after the disturbance had stopped Paul sent for the converts and exhorted them, and bade them farewell and went out to go to 2 Macedonia. 2 And, having gone through those parts and given them

3 much exhortation, 3 he came to Greece and spent three months, and, when a plot was laid against him by the Jews as he was going to embark for Syria, made up his mind to go back through Macedonia.
4 And there were accompanying him Sopater son of Pyrrhus, a Berean, and of the Thessalonians Aristarchus and Secundus, and Gaius a Derbean and Timothy, and out of the province of Asia Tychicus and 5 6 Trophimus; 5 and these had come and were waiting for us at Troas. 6 And we sailed from Philippi after the Matzoth days, and came to them at Troas by five days, where we stayed on for seven days.

7 7 And on the first day of the week, when we had met to break bread, Paul was arguing with them, as he was going off next day, and ran 8 on till midnight. 8 And there were several torches in the upper room 9 where we had met; 9 and a certain young man named Eutyclus, sitting in the window, being overcome with deep sleep as Paul kept on arguing, got so overcome by sleep that he fell from the third story 10 clear down and was taken up dead. 10 But Paul went down and prostrated himself on him and embraced him and said "Do not get ex-11 cited, there is life in him." 11 And he went up and broke the bread and partook of it and conversed a good while till daybreak, and so went 12 out. 12 And they brought the boy alive and were comforted not a little.

13 13 But we came to the ship and set sail for Assos, planning to take Paul up there; for so he had arranged, planning himself to come by 14 land. 14 And when he rejoined us at Assos we took him up and came to 15 Mitylene; 15 and we sailed from there on the following day and reached a point off Chios, and in another day we got over to Samos, and the 16 next we came to Miletus; 16 for Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so that he might not have occasion to lose time in the province of 17 Asia; for he was making haste, if possible, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost. 17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus and had the 18 elders of the church come. 18 And when they came to him he said to them

"You know yourselves, from the first day I set foot in the province 19 of Asia, what I was like with you all the time, 19 serving the Lord with all humility and tears, and temptations that befell me by the 20 plots of the Jews; 20 how I did not flinch from reporting to you and teaching you publicly and from house to house any of the things that 21 might be well for you, 21 testifying both to Jews and to Greeks of 22 repentance to God and faith in our Lord Jesus. 22 And now here I am on my way to Jerusalem fettered in spirit, not knowing the things 23 I am to meet with there 23 except that the Holy Spirit is testifying to me 24 in city after city saying that fetters and distresses await me. 24 But I do not value my life as of any account to me as compared with com-25 pleting my run and the errand I had from the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of God's grace. 25 And now here I know that you will not be 26 seeing my face any longer, all you among whom I went back and forth preaching the Kingdom; 26 for which reason I want you to understand 27 this day that I am clean of anybody's blood, 27 for I did not flinch from 28 reporting to you the whole of God's plan. 28 Look out for yourselves and for all the flock in which the Holy Spirit has made you visitors 29 to shepherd God's church which he secured by his own blood. 29 I know that after I get there formidable wolves will invade you, not sparing 30 the flock, 30 and out of your own ranks there will come up men talking 31 perversities to draw the converts away after them; 31 for which reason keep awake, remembering that for three years I did not cease to ad-32 monish each one night and day with tears. 32 And now I commend you to God and to his word of grace, which is able to build up and to 33 give heirship among all the sanctified. 33 Nobody's silver or gold or 34 clothing have I coveted; 34 you know yourselves that these hands at-35 tended to everything for my needs and for those I had with me. 35 I gave you the example that with such hard work we ought to assist the weakly, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said 'Happy is giving; it beats taking.'" 36 36 And, having said this, he knelt down and prayed with them all.

37 37 And there was a good deal of weeping by everybody, and they threw 38 themselves on Paul's neck and kept kissing him, 38 pained most of all at the word he had spoken, that they were to see no more of his face.
And they accompanied him down to the ship.

CHAPTER 21

1 1 And when we had torn ourselves away from them and set sail, we came in a straight run to Cos, and the following day to Rhodes, and 2 from there to Patara; 2 and, finding a ship going across to Phenicia, we 3 embarked and set sail in it. 3 And after sighting Cyprus and leaving it 4 on the left we sailed on to Syria and landed at Tyre, for it was there that the ship was unloading her cargo. 4 And we hunted up the converts and stayed seven days there; which converts told Paul by the Spirit 5 not to go on board for Jerusalem. 5 And when we had finished out the days we came out and went on our way, everybody going along to see us off, with their wives and children, till we got outside the city; 6 6 and we knelt down on the beach and prayed and bade each other farewell, and we went aboard the ship; and they returned to their own affairs.
7 7 And we, after making the passage by sea from Tyre, reached Ptole-8 mais and greeted the brothers and stayed with them one day. 8 And the day after that we came out and came to Cesarea, and went to the home of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed 9 with him. 9 This man had four maiden daughters who used to prophesy.
10 10 And while we were making a stay of several days a certain prophet 11 out of Jerusalem named Agabus came down, 11 and came to us and took off Paul's belt and tied his own feet and hands and said "Says the Holy Spirit, the Jews will so tie up at Jerusalem the man this belt 12 belongs to, and hand him over to the foreigners." 12 And when we heard this, both we and the people of the place appealed to him not 13 to go up to Jerusalem. 13 Then Paul answered "What are you doing weeping and tearing my heart? for I am ready not only to be put in fetters but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

14 And as he would not take the advice we dropped the matter, saying "The Lord's will be done."

15 And after those days we loaded up and went up to Jerusalem.

16 And with us came also some of the disciples from Cesarea, bringing the man at whose house we were to be entertained, one Mnason, a Cyprian, an original disciple. 17 And when we got to Jerusalem the brothers welcomed us with hearty pleasure. 18 And on the following day Paul went to James's with us, and all the elders came in, 19 and he greeted them and gave accounts, one after another, of each of the things God had done among the foreigners by his agency.

20 And at hearing it they glorified God, and said to him "You see, brother, how many tens of thousands of those that have believed there are among the Jews, and they are all of them zealous for the law; 21 and they have had it dinned into their ears about you that you are teaching apostasy from Moses to all the Jews among the foreigners, saying they are not to circumcise their children nor go by the usages. 22 So what is the thing to do? 22 they will be sure to hear you have come, so do this that we tell you. 23 There are four men of ours who have vows of their own; 24 take these with you and be purified with them and pay the expenses for them so they may shave their heads, and everybody will know that there is nothing in the propaganda, but you too shape your course to keep the law. 25 But about the foreigners that have believed we sent a letter deciding that they were to keep clear of what has been sacrificed to idols, and blood, and strangled meat, and unchastity."

26 Then Paul took the men with him and on the next day was purified and went into the temple-precinct with them, advertising the completion of the days of purification until the offering for each one of them was made. 27 But as the seven days were about to come to an end the Jews from the province of Asia, espying him in the temple-precinct, threw all the crowd into turmoil and laid hands on him, 28 screaming "Men of Israel, help! this is the man that is teaching everybody everywhere against the people and the law and this place; and what is more, he has brought Greeks into the temple-precinct and defiled this sacred place" 29 (for they had already seen in the city with him Trophimus the Ephesian, whom they supposed Paul had brought into the temple-precinct), 30 and all the city was stirred up, and the people flocked together, and they got hold of Paul and dragged him outside the temple-precinct, and the door was shut at once; 31 and as they were trying to kill him, information that Jerusalem was all in a turmoil came up to the tribune of the cohort, 32 who instantly took soldiers and centurions and ran down on them; and they, seeing the tribune and the soldiers, left off beating Paul. 33 Then the tribune came on and got hold of him and ordered him chained with two chains, and 34 inquired who he was and what he had done; 34 and some in the crowd raised one cry and others something else. And, not being able to find out the facts because of the disturbance, he ordered him brought into the barracks.

35 But when he came on the stairs he got to being carried along by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd, 36 for the mass of the people were coming along screaming "Get him out of the way"; 37 and as he was about to be taken into the barracks Paul said to the tribune "Is it allowable for me to say something to you?" And he said "You know Greek, do you? 38 then you are not the Egyptian that some time ago drove wild those four thousand men of the dagger gangs and led them out into the desert?" 39 But Paul said "I am a Jew, a man from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. And I beg you, permit me to speak to the people." 40 And, he having given permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned to the people. And when he got a good deal of silence he called to them in the Hebrew dialect

1 "Brethren and fathers, listen to what I now say to you in my defense."
2 And at hearing him call to them in the Hebrew dialect they grew quieter. And he said

3 "I am a Jew, born at Tarsus in Cilicia but brought up in this city, schooled at Gamaliel's feet in the precise observance of our fathers' law, originally a zealot for God such as you all of you are today, 4 who persecuted this movement to the death, putting both men and women in chains and committing them to prison, 5 as even the High Priest attests, and all the council of elders, from whom I also received letters to the brothers at Damascus and was on my way there to bring to Jerusalem in fetters to receive punishment those also who were there.
6 And it befell me as I was on my way and nearing Damascus that about noon, all of a sudden, a flood of light flashed round me out of the sky, 7 and I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' 8 And I said 'Who are you, sir?' and he said to me 'I am Jesus, the Nazarene Jesus whom you are persecuting.'
9 And those who were with me saw the display of light but did not hear the voice of the one that spoke to me. 10 And I said 'What shall I do, sir?' And the Lord said to me 'Stand up and go to Damascus, and there you will be told about everything that is set for you to do.'
11 And when from the glory of that light I was not able to see, I came into Damascus led by the hand by those who were with me. 12 But one Hananiah, a man conscientiously faithful to the law, vouched for by all the resident Jews, 13 came to me and stood over me and said to me 'Brother Saul, look up'; and that moment I looked up at him. 14 And he said 'The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will and to see the Righteous One and hear a voice from his mouth, 15 because you shall be to all men his witness of what you have seen and heard. 16 And now why do you put it off? stand up and be baptized and 17 wash off your sins, invoking his name.' 17 And when I was back in Jeru-18 salem and was praying in the temple-precinct I had a trance 18 and saw him saying to me 'Hurry out of Jerusalem right off, because they will 19 not accept testimony of yours about me.' 19 And I said 'Lord, they know themselves I was imprisoning and beating in the different synagogues 20 those who believed on thee; 20 and when the blood of thy witness Stephen was being shed I too was standing by and joined in approving it and 21 guarded the cloaks of those who took his life.' 21 And he said to me 'Go, because I will send you far out to the foreigners.'—"

22 And they heard him up to that sentence, and raised their voices saying "Get a fellow like that off the earth, it is not right he should 23 be alive." 23 And as they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks 24 and flinging dust into the air 24 the tribune ordered him taken into the barracks, telling them to have him examined with whips to ascertain 25 the reason why they were making such an outcry against him. 25 But as they spread-eagled him for the lash Paul said to the posted cen-turion "Do you have the right to whip a Roman national without a 26 sentence?" 26 And at hearing it the centurion came to the tribune and reported to him, saying "What are you proposing to do? this man is 27 a Roman." 27 And the tribune came to him and said to him "Say, are you 28 a Roman?" And he said "Yes." 28 And the tribune answered "I got that citizenship for a good-sized sum." And Paul said "And I was born to 29 it." 29 So at once those who were going to examine him stood away from him. And the tribune too was afraid at realizing that it was a Roman and he had tied him up.

30 30 And on the next day, wishing to find out the facts as to what he was accused of by the Jews, he unfettered him, and gave the word for the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to come together, and

CHAPTER 23

1 brought Paul down and set him before them. 1 And Paul, fixing his eyes on the Sanhedrin, said "Brethren, I have lived as God's citizen 2 with an all-around good conscience up to this day"—2 but Hananiah the high priest ordered those who stood beside him to give him a 3 cuff on the mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him "God will cuff you, you whitewashed wall: are you both sitting to judge me tinder the law 4 and breaking the law by ordering me cuffed?" 4 And those who stood 5 beside him said "Abusing God's high priest, are you?" 5 And Paul said
"I did not know, brothers, that he was high priest; for it is written
"To a ruler of your people you shall use no bad language."

6 6 But, finding out that the one part was of Sadducees and the other of Pharisees, Paul cried out in the Sanhedrin "Brethren, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; it is about the hope and resurrection of 7 the dead that I am on trial." 7 And as he uttered this there arose an altercation of the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the main body 8 took sides. 8 For the Sadducees say there is no such thing as resurrection, nor angel nor spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge all these.

9 And there was a great deal of shouting, and some of the scribes on the Pharisee side stood up and were fighting the case, saying "We find nothing wrong with this man; and if a spirit has spoken to him, or an angel—" 10 And, as there was coming to be a great deal of altercation, the tribune was afraid Paul would be torn in pieces by them, and gave the word for the troops to come down and snatch him out of their midst and bring him into the barracks.

11 And in the following night the Lord stood over him and said "Courage, for as you testified about me at Jerusalem so you must bear witness at Rome too." 12 But when day came the Jews got a party together and laid an imprecation on themselves, saying they would neither eat nor drink till they killed Paul. 13 And it was more than forty that made this conspiracy; 14 they came to the chief priests and the elders and said "We have bound ourselves by an imprecation not to taste anything till we kill Paul. 15 So now apply to the tribune, you with the Sanhedrin, to bring him down to you with the idea that you are going to determine the facts about him more precisely, and we are ready to dispatch him before he comes near." 16 But Paul's sister's son, hearing of the ambush, came on and went into the barracks and reported it to Paul. 17 And Paul called one of the centurions to him and said "Take this young man to the tribune, for he has something to report to him."

18 So he took him along and brought him to the tribune and said "Prisoner Paul called me to him and requested me to bring this young man to you, who has something to speak to you of." 19 And the tribune, taking him by the hand and withdrawing with him to be by themselves, inquired "What is it you have to report to me?" 20 And he said "The Jews have agreed to request that tomorrow you would bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin with the idea of inquiring more precisely about him. 21 So don't you take their word for it; for more than forty men out of them are in ambush for him, who have laid an imprecation on themselves not to eat nor drink till they take his life, and they are ready now, watching for the notification from you."

22 So the tribune dismissed the young man with the injunction "Don't let it out to anybody that you gave me this information"; 23 and he called to him a certain two of the centurions and said "Get two hundred soldiers ready to go through to Cesarea, and seventy horsemen and two hundred chasseurs, by nine o'clock at night," 24 and told them to furnish beasts on which to mount Paul and bring him safe to Governor Felix, 25 and wrote a letter of which this was the gist: 26 "To his excellency Governor Felix. Dear Sir: 27 This man having been seized by the Jews and being on the point of losing his life by them, I came on with the troops and rescued him, learning that he was a Roman, 28 and wishing to ascertain the offense with which they charged him I took him down to their Sanhedrin; 29 and I found him accused about questions of their law, but not having against him any charge

30 to deserve death or imprisonment. 30 But, being notified that there would be a plot against the man, I instantly sent him to you, instructing the prosecutors also to say what they had to say of him before you. Respectfully, Claudius Lysias."

31 31 So the soldiers, in accordance with their directions, took Paul 32 up and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 And next day they 33 returned to the barracks, letting the horsemen go off with him; 33 and 34 they, coming into Cesarea and delivering the letter to the governor, 35 presented Paul also to him. 34 And he read it and put the question what 35 province he was from, and, learning that it was Cilicia, 35 said "I will give you a hearing when your prosecutors too arrive," ordering him kept in custody in Herod's praetorium.

CHAPTER 24

1 1 And after five days Hananiah the high priest came down with 2 certain elders and one Tertullus, an orator, who all presented charges 3 against Paul to the governor; 2 and, he being called, Tertullus began 4 to open for the prosecution, saying "Since we are enjoying thorough 5 peace through you and reforms are being brought about in this 6 nation by your statesmanship, 3 we welcome it in every way every-7 where, your excellency, with all thankfulness. 4 But, not to incon-8 venience you with anything lengthy, I appeal to your good nature to 9 listen to us concisely. 5 For, having found this man a pest and a starter 10 of revolutionary movements among all the Jews throughout the world 11 of men and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes, 6 who even tried 12 to desecrate the temple-precinct, and whom we seized, 8 from whom 13 you can by examining him ascertain about all this that we accuse 14 him of—" 9 and the Jews too took part in the attack, asserting that 15 those things were so.

10 10 And Paul, when the governor nodded to him to speak, answered 11 "Knowing that you have for many years been judge of this nation, I 12 speak on my own behalf with confidence, 11 as you can ascertain that 13 it is not more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to do 14 reverence, 12 and they did not find me arguing with anybody or drawing 15 a crowd either in the temple-precinct or in the synagogues or about 16 the city, 13 nor can they substantiate to you what they are now accusing 17 me of. 14 But this I acknowledge to you, it is in the way of the move-18 ment they call a sect that I am worshiping our fathers' God, believing 19 all that the law includes and all that is written in the prophets, 15 having a hope in God, what these are themselves watching for, that 16 there is to be a resurrection of both saints and guilty men. 16 With a 17 view to this I keep in training to have a clear conscience myself on 18 God's side and on man's continually. 17 And after an interval of several 19 years I came on to present gifts of charity to my nation, and offerings; 18 in connection with which they found me in the temple-precinct puri-19 fied, not with a crowd nor with a disturbance; but some Jews from Asia— 19 who ought to be appearing before you and prosecuting if they 20 had anything to bring against me—or let these themselves say what 21 wrong-doing they found when I stood before the Sanhedrin but about this one cry that I shouted as I stood among them 'It is about the resurrection of the dead I am on trial before you today.'

22 But Felix, knowing more precisely about the movement, postponed the case, saying "When Tribune Lysias comes down I will determine 23 your affair" and directing the centurion that he be in safekeeping and have things made easy for him, and not to interfere with any 24 of his own set's attending to his wants. 24 And after some days Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul and 25 listened to him about faith in Christ Jesus. 25 But as he argued about honest living and self-restraint and the future judgment, Felix was terror-struck and answered "For now you may go, but when I get 26 an opportunity I will send and have you come"— 26 hoping, at the same time, that he would be given money by Paul, for which reason he quite often sent for him and had conversations with him.

27 27 But when two years had elapsed Felix received a successor, Porcius Festus; and, wishing to ingratiate himself with the Jews, he left Paul

CHAPTER 25

1 in prison. 1 So Festus, entering on his province, went up after three 2 days from Cesarea to Jerusalem, 2 and the chief priests and the fore-3 most of the Jews presented charges to him against Paul 3 and appealed to him to do them the favor of sending for him to Jerusalem; but they were laying an ambush to take his life on the way.

4 4 So Festus answered that Paul was being kept at Cesarea, and that 5 he himself would soon be going out; 5 "so," said he, "let those among you who are competent go down with me and prosecute the man if 6 there is anything objectionable about him." 6 And, after staying on among them not more than a week or ten days, he went down to 7 Cesarea and on the next day took his seat on the bench and ordered Paul brought. 7 And when he was present the Jews that had come down from Jerusalem stood around him lodging many charges of 8 grave offenses which they were not able to prove, 8 with Paul saying by way of defense "I have not committed any misdemeanor either against the Jews' law or against the temple-precinct or against Caesar."

9 9 But Festus, wishing to ingratiate himself with the Jews, answered Paul "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and be tried there be-10 fore me on these charges?" 10 But Paul said "Standing before Caesar's bench, I am standing where I have to be tried. I have done the Jews 11 no wrong, as you yourself know right well. 11 So if I am guilty and have done anything to deserve death, I do not ask to be let off from dying; but if there is nothing in the charges these men are prosecuting me on, nobody can dispose of me as a favor to them. I appeal to Caesar."

12 12 Then Festus, after conferring with his council, answered "You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you shall go."

13 13 But after some days had passed Agrippa the king and Bernice ar-14 rived in Cesarea to greet Festus. 14 And while they were staying on there for several days Festus brought up with the king the matter about Paul, saying "There is a certain man who was left a prisoner by 15 Felix, about whom, 15 when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews presented charges, asking for a condemnation 16 against him; 16 to which I answered that the Romans are not in the habit of disposing of any man as a favor to anybody before the accused has had the accusers face to face and been given an opportunity 17 to make a defense about the charge. 17 So when they came here with me I made no postponement, but on the following day took my seat on the 18 bench and ordered the man brought; 18 and the accusers took their stand round him and brought no allegation of the criminal things I had 19 been conjecturing, 19 but had certain questions at issue with him about their religious belief and about a certain Jesus who was dead, who 20 Paul said was alive. 20 And, being quite at sea as to the discussion of these points, I said 'would he like to go to Jerusalem and be tried 21 there on these charges?' 21 But when Paul appealed to be kept for his Majesty's determination, I ordered him kept till I should send him up to Caesar."

22 22 And Agrippa said to Festus "I should have liked to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," said he, "you shall hear him."

23 23 So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come in great pomp and entered the auditorium with their chiliarchs and the prominent men of the city, and Festus gave the word, Paul was brought.
24 24 And Festus said "King Agrippa, and all you gentlemen we have with us here, you see this man about whom the entire body of Jews applied 25 to me both at Jerusalem and here clamoring that he ought not to live any longer, 25 but I perceived that he had done nothing to deserve death, but when he himself appealed to his Majesty I decided to send him.
26 26 Now I do not have any solid facts to write to my master about him; for which reason I have brought him on before you all and especially before you, King Agrippa, in order that when the examination has 27 been held I may have something to write; 27 for it seems to me unreasonable in sending a prisoner not to give also an indication of the charges against him."

CHAPTER 26

1 1 And Agrippa said to Paul "You are permitted to speak in your own behalf."

Then Paul stretched out his hand and made his defense:

2 2 "As to all the accusations brought against me by the Jews, King Agrippa, I deem it a happy thing that I am to make my defense 3 before you today, 3 you being a specialist in all the customs and points of debate among the Jews; for which reason I beg you to hear me patiently.

4 4 "My way of living from my youth up, what it has been from the 5 first among my nation and in Jerusalem, all the Jews know, 5 having old acquaintance with me, if they are willing to testify, as having lived according to the most precise sect of our religion, a Pharisee.

6 And now I am standing trial for the hope of the promise made to 7 our fathers by God, 7 to which our twelve tribes are hoping to attain by worshipping with ardor night and day; which hope, your majesty, is 8 what the Jews' charges against me are about. 8 Why is it pronounced incredible among you if God does raise dead men?

9 "Well, I had the idea that I ought to do much in opposition to the 10 name of Jesus the Nazarene; 10 and I did, too, at Jerusalem, and many of the people of God I shut up in prisons, getting authority from the chief priests, and cast a vote against them when they were to lose their 11 lives, 11 and over and over in the different synagogues I punished them and forced them to blaspheme, and in an utterly insane rage against 12 them I pursued them clear to the foreign cities; 12 in connection with which business I was traveling to Damascus with the authority and 13 leave of the chief priests 13 when on my way I saw at midday, your majesty, a light out of the sky shine round me and those who were 14 traveling with me, above the brightness of the sun; 14 and as we all threw ourselves down on the ground I heard a voice say to me in the Hebrew dialect 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? it comes 15 hard on you to kick against a goad.' 15 And I said 'Who are you, sir?' 16 16 And the Lord said 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting; but get up and stand on your feet, for it was for this I appeared to you, to appoint you agent and witness of how you have seen me and how I 17 will appear to you, 17 rescuing you from the people and from the for-18 eigners, 18 to whom I am sending you to open their eyes that they may turn from darkness to light and from Satan's power to God, that they may receive pardon of sin and a lot among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'

19 "Whereat, your majesty, I was not disobedient to the bidding of 20 the heavenly manifestation, 20 but notified first those in Damascus and Jerusalem, and throughout the country of Palestine, and the foreigners, to repent and turn about to God, doing deeds proper to 21 repentance; 21 it was on this account that the Jews seized me in the 22 temple-precinct and were trying to make away with me. 22 So, getting reinforcement from God, I stand to this day avouching to great and small, saying nothing outside of what the prophets and Moses spoke 23 of as going to come to pass, 23 whether the Messiah is one to suffer, whether he is to be the first out of the resurrection of the dead to announce light to the people and to the foreigners—"

24 And as he said these things in his defense Festus said loudly "You are insane, Paul; so much reading is bringing you to insanity."

25 26 But Paul said "I am not insane, your excellency, 26 but am uttering words of truth and sound sense. For the king knows about these things; to him I speak without reserve, for I cannot believe any of these things are escaping his attention, for this is not a thing done in a 27 corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you believe."

28 28 And Agrippa said to Paul "You are putting your propaganda in 29 very small compass to make me a Christian." 29 And Paul said "I would to God that both in things of small compass and of great not only you but also all who hear me today might become such as I myself am, aside from these fetters."

30 30 And the king stood up, and the governor and Bernice and those 31 who were sitting with them, 31 and when they withdrew they spoke to each other, saying "This man is doing nothing to deserve death or 32 fetters." 32 And Agrippa said to Festus "This man could be going free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

CHAPTER 27

1 1 And when it was decided that we should sail to Italy, they were committing Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion named 2 Julius of the Augustan cohort, 2 and we embarked in a Hadramyttene ship that was going to sail for the places along by the province of Asia, having with us Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica; 3 3 and on the following day we put into Sidon, and Julius treated Paul humanely and permitted him to go to his friends and enjoy their care.
4 4 And when we had set sail from there we sailed under the lee of Cyprus 5 because of the winds' being against us, 5 and after sailing over the high seas off Cilicia and Pamphylia for a fortnight we came to land 6 at Myra in Lycia; 6 and there the centurion, finding a ship from 7 Alexandria on its way to Italy, embarked us in it. 7 And during several days we had slow sailing and barely succeeded in getting opposite 8 Cnidus, the wind not letting us through; and we sailed under Crete by Salmone, 8 and barely succeeded in coasting along it and coming to a certain place called Fair Havens, near which was a city Lasea.

9 9 And when considerable time had elapsed and the sailing was now risky because even the fast was now gone by, Paul gave his advice, 10 10 saying to them "Gentlemen, I can see that the voyage will be with damage and great loss not only of the cargo and the ship but also of 11 our persons." 11 But the centurion put more faith in the skipper and 12 the contractor than in what Paul said; 12 and, the harbor being inconvenient for wintering, the majority voted to put out from there and see if they could not reach Ph[o]enix, a harbor of Crete facing 13 westward, and winter there. 13 And when a gentle southerly breeze sprang up they thought they had secured their intent, and weighed anchor and ran along hugging the coast of Crete.

14 14 But after no great time a hurricane beat down from it, what is 15 called an east-northeaster; 15 and, the ship being caught and carried along and not able to come head to the wind, we gave in and drove 16 along. 16 And, running under the lee of a certain islet named Clau-17 da, we managed with difficulty to get possession of the boat, 17 and when they got it in they took strengthening measures, fastening ropes around the hull, and, fearing that they would run on the Syrtis, let down the rigging and so drove along.

18 18 And on the following day, as we were making very heavy weather, 19 they threw over cargo, 19 and on the third day they threw away the 20 ship's furnishings with their own hands; 20 and when for several days neither sun nor stars were visible, and we had no small amount of storm pressing us, the upshot was that all hope of our being saved 21 disappeared. 21 And, as not much food was being taken, Paul then stood out in their midst and said "Gentlemen, you ought to have done as I told you and not put out from Crete, and saved this damage and 22 loss. 22 And at present I advise you to be cheery; for there will be no 23 loss of a life among you, only of the ship. 23 For there came and stood by me this night a messenger of the God to whom I belong, in whose ser-24 vice also I am engaged, 24 saying 'Do not be afraid, Paul: you must stand before Caesar; and here God has granted you all who are sailing with you.' 25 Wherefore, gentlemen, be cheery; for I believe my God that 25 it will be so as I have been told. 26 But we have to run on some island 26 or other."

27 27 And when it came to the fourteenth night of our driving about in the Adriatic, in the middle of the night the sailors surmised they 28 were coming toward some piece of ground, 28 and they heaved the lead and found twenty fathoms. And they waited a bit and heaved the lead 29 again and found fifteen fathoms; 29 and, fearing they might run on rough ground, they let go four anchors from the stern and prayed for 30 day to come. 30 And as the sailors were trying to desert the ship and had let down the boat into the sea under pretense of being going to 31 carry out anchors from the bow, 31 Paul said to the centurion and the 32 soldiers "If these do not stay in the ship you cannot be saved." 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat and let it drop off.

33 33 And until day should come Paul invited one and all to take food, saying "Today is the fourteenth day you have been waiting to see 34 what would come and going without meals, not taking a bite. 34 Such being the case, let me invite you to take food, for that will be on the side of safety; for not a hair will be lost from the head of any 35 of you." 35 And with that, taking a biscuit, he gave thanks to God before 36 them all and broke it and began to eat; 36 and they all cheered up and 37 took some food themselves. 37 (And there were two hundred and seventy-38 six souls of us in all on board.) 38 And when they had eaten all they wanted they went to lightening the ship by throwing out the provisions into the sea.

39 39 And when day came they did not recognize the land, but they espied a sort of bay with a beach, on which they planned to run the ship 40 up if they could; 40 and they slipped the anchors and left them in the sea, at the same time loosening the couplings of the steering-oars and 41 hoisting the foresail to the blast, and headed for the beach. 41 But they struck a place where the sea came from two sides, and there they ran the ship aground; and the bow stuck fast and remained immovable, 42 but the stern was breaking up with the battering. 42 And on the part of the soldiers there was a plan to kill the prisoners for fear someone 43 should swim out and make his escape; 43 but the centurion, wishing to bring Paul safe through, stopped them from carrying out their intent, and gave the word that those who could swim should throw themselves 44 off first and get out to land, 44 and the rest some on boards and some on some of the things from the ship. And so it came about that all got safe to land.

CHAPTER 28

1 1 And when we were safe ashore, then we ascertained that the island 2 was called Malta. 2 And the natives treated us with uncommon kindliness, for they lighted a bonfire and freshened us all up because of 3 the rain that was falling and because of the cold. 3 And when Paul had got together a quantity of small wood and laid it on the fire, a viper came out, getting away from the heat, and fastened on his hand.
4 4 And when the natives saw the creature hanging to his hand they said to each other "Decidedly this man is a murderer who has come safe 5 in from the sea but whom Justice would not let live." 5 So he shook 6 the creature off into the fire and suffered no harm, 6 but they were expecting he was going to swell up or suddenly drop dead; but when they had been expecting a good while and saw that nothing out of the way was happening to him, they changed about and said he was a god.

7 7 And in the environs of that place there were properties belonging to the headman of the island, a man named Publius, who took us in 8 and gave us cordial hospitality for three days. 8 And it befell that Publius's father was sick abed suffering with fever and dysentery; and Paul went in to him and prayed and laid his hands on him and 9 healed him. 9 And after this event the rest of those on the island who had sicknesses came and were cured, 10 and they both paid many honors 10 to us and loaded us up with supplies when we were setting sail.

11 11 And after three months we set sail in a ship that had wintered 12 at the island, the "Castor and Pollux" of Alexandria, 12 and we put into 13 Syracuse and made a stay of three days, 13 and from there we went round about and reached Rhegium, and, as after one day a south wind came 14 up, on the second day we came to Puteoli, 14 where we found brothers and accepted an invitation to stay with them seven days; and so we 15 came to Rome, 15 and from there the brothers, having heard about us, came as far as Appii Forum and Tres Tabernae to meet us. And at seeing them Paul thanked God and took courage.

16 16 And when we came into Rome, Paul was permitted to stay by him-17 self with the soldier that guarded him. 17 And after three days he called together those who were leaders of the Jews; and when they came together he said to them "Brethren, without my having done anything against the people or our fathers' usages I was given over from Jeru-

18 salem as a prisoner into the hands of the Romans, 18 who, upon exam-19 ining me, wanted to release me because of there not being in the case 19 any grounds for putting me to death; 19 but when the Jews spoke 20 against it I was compelled to appeal to Caesar; not as having any 20 accusation to make against my nation. 20 So on these grounds I applied to see you and talk to you; for it is on account of the hope of Israel I am wearing this chain."

21 21 And they said to him "We have neither received letters about you 22 from Jerusalem nor has anyone of the brothers arrived and reported 22 or talked anything bad about you. 22 But we want to hear from you what your ideas are; for as to this doctrine it is well known to us 23 that there is talk against it everywhere." 23 And they made an appoint-23 ment with him and a number of them came to him at his lodging, to whom he stated the case, testifying to the Reign of God and making his points about Jesus to them out of the law of Moses and out of 24 the prophets, from morning till evening; 24 and some believed what was 24 told them, and some disbelieved. 25 And, being unable to agree with 25 each other, they broke up, Paul saying one word, "Well did the Holy Spirit tell your fathers through the prophet Isaiah 'Go to this people 26 and say "Hear you shall, and not understand; 26 and see you shall, and 27 not perceive; 27 for this people's wits are thickened, and their ears are 27 dull of hearing, and their eyes they have shut, for fear they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with 28 their wits, and turn back, and I should heal them.'" 28 So be it known to you that this salvation of God's is sent to the foreigners; they will listen, too."

30 30 And he stayed in a tenement of his own a whole two years, and made 31 welcome all who went in to him, 31 proclaiming the Reign of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with the utmost outspokenness, without being interfered with.

PAUL'S LETTER TO THE ROMANS

CHAPTER 1

1 Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, a chosen apostle set apart for 2 God's gospel 2 which he had previously promised in holy scripture 3 through his prophets, 3 about his Son, who came of David's stock in the 4 way of flesh and who was betokened God's son 4 in power in the way 5 of spirit of holiness by resurrection of the dead, Jesus Christ our 6 7 6 among whom are you too, Jesus Christ's called men,— 7 to all who are at Rome, dear to God, holy men called: grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all because 9 your faith is reported all over the world. 9 For God, to whom I perform service in my spirit in carrying the gospel of his Son, is my witness how I uninterruptedly make mention of you at all times in 10 my prayers, 10 petitioning in the hope that at long last I may by God's 11 will have a chance to come to you; 11 for I am longing to see you in order that I may pass on to you a share in some spiritual gift with a 12 view to your being fortified— 12 that is, to enjoying mutual encourage-13 ment among you through each other's faith, yours and mine. 13 And I do not want you to be without the knowledge, brothers, that several times I intended to come to you and hitherto was prevented; I wanted to have some fruit in you too, as I had in the rest of the nations.
14 14 I owe a duty both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to wise men and 15 to stupid men; 15 thus I on my part am heartily ready to preach the gospel to you at Rome too.

16 16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel; for it is a power of God's for 17 salvation to everybody who believes, Jew first, Greek too; 17 for a righteousness of God's is revealed in it, coming out of faith, leading into faith, as it is written "But the righteous man shall have life out of faith."

18 18 For God's anger is revealed from heaven against every impiety 19 and crime of men, who keep the truth down by crime,— 19 because knowledge of God is manifest in them, for God manifested it to them; 20 20 for since the creation of the world what is invisible of him has been under observation, sensed by what he has made, his eternal power and 21 his divinity, 21 so as to make them inexcusable because when they knew God they did not glorify or thank him as God but ran into fatuity in their conceptions, and their unintelligent heart was darkened.

22 22 While professing to be wise they grew foolish, 23 and changed the glory of the imperishable God for the likeness of an image of perishable 24 man and of birds and quadrupeds and reptiles. 24 Wherefore God gave them up in their hearts' desires to the uncleanness of having their 25 bodies dishonored while they wear them, 25 whereas they exchanged God's truth for falsehood and revered and worshiped the creature 26 rather than the Creator—who is blessed forever; amen! 26 That was why God gave them up to dishonorable passions; for the females of 27 them changed the natural intercourse for the unnatural, 27 and so did the males too, leaving off the natural intercourse with the female, get inflamed with appetite for each other, males committing indecency with males and receiving in themselves the requital that they ought 28 to for their misguided course. 28 And as they did not think well of recognizing God, God gave them up to a mind that cannot be thought 29 well of, to do what ought not to be done, 29 crammed with all injustice, villainy, greed, viciousness, full of envy, murder, quarreling, fraud, 30 malice; 30 whisperers, detractors, God-haters, bullies, proud, pretentious, inventors of vices, disobedient to parents, 31 senseless, faithless, loveless, 31 pitiless — 32 who, aware of God's verdict that those who commit such things deserve death, not only do the things but even approve of 32 doing them.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 Wherefore you are inexcusable, man, any man that passes judgment; for in the judgment you pass on the other man you are condemning
2 yourself, for you who pass it are committing the same things. 2 And we know that God's judgment is truthfully against those who commit 3 such things. 3 And do you count on this, man passing judgment on those who commit such things and doing them, that you will escape God's 4 judgment? 4 or do you despise his wealth of kindness and tolerance and patience, ignorant of the fact that God's kindness is leading you 5 toward repentance, 5 but with your stiffness and unrepenting heart store up for yourself anger on the day of God's anger and revelation 6 of just judgment? 6 who will repay each man according to his deeds:
7 7 those who seek for glory and honor and immortality by way of steadfastness in good work, with eternal life; 8 but those who act by 8 self-interest and disobey the truth, but obey wrong, with anger and wrath; 9 distress and anguish upon every soul of evil-doing man, Jew 9 first and Greek too, 10 but glory and honor and peace for everyone who 10 does what is good, Jew first and Greek too, 11 for there is no favoritism 11 with God. 12 For as many as sinned without law will perish without law, and as many as sinned under the law will be judged by the law; 12 13 for it is not the audience of the law that are righteous with God, but 13 it is the doers of the law that are justified. 14 For when heathens who do not have the law do by nature what the law commands, these, not 15 having the law, are a law for themselves, 15 displaying as they do the work of the law in writing on their hearts, their own consciences joining in the testimony and their mutual thoughts bringing ac-16 cusations or, as the ease may be, defenses, 16 on the day in which God is going to judge what is covered up in men, in accordance with my gospel, through Christ Jesus.

17 But if you wear the name of Jew, and rest on the law, and boast 18 of God, 18 and know his will and are a judge of the things he cares 19 about, being schooled out of the law, 19 and feel assured that you are a 20 guide for blind men, a light for those who are in the dark, 20 a preceptor for silly men, a teacher for infants, having in the law the formulation 21 of knowledge and truth,— 21 then do you who are teaching somebody 22 else not teach yourself? do you who preach not to steal steal? 22 do you who tell them not to commit adultery commit adultery? do you who 23 abominate idols rob temples? 23 do you who boast of the law dishonor 24 God by violation of the law? 24 for God's name gets vilified among the nations because of you, as is written.

25 25 For circumcision is worth while if you live up to the law; but if you are a violator of the law your circumcision is turned to uncircum-26 cision. 26 So if uncircumcision keeps the prescriptions of the law, will 27 not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision, 27 and natural uncircumcision, fulfilling the law, pass judgment on you who with letter 28 and circumcision are a violator of the law? 28 For it is not the one who is visibly such that is a Jew, nor is it the visible, in the flesh, that is 29 circumcision, 29 but the Jew who is such in what is out of sight, and heart-circumcision in spirit, not in a literal sense; of which the praise comes not from men but from God.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 Then what is the Jew's special privilege, or what is the good of 2 circumcision? 2 Much every way. For, in the first place, that they had 3 God's revelation entrusted to them— 3 for what if some were faithless?
4 is their faithlessness to abrogate God's faith? 4 away with the thought, but let God prove true, and every man a liar! as it is written, "so that thou mayest be found to have been in the right in thy words, and mayest win when thou comest into court."

5 5 But if our wrongness brings out God's righteousness, what shall we say? is God doing a wrong when he comes down with anger?—I speak 6 from a human point of view. 6 Away with the thought, for how is God 7 to judge the world? 7 But if by my lie God's truth came out the more abundant to his glory, why am even I any longer judged as a sinner, 8 8 and not as the gibe against us goes, and as some do assert that we say, "Let us do the bad things so that we may have the good consequences,"—on whom judgment is well-deserved.

9 9 What follows then? are we outranked? no, decidedly. For we pre-10 viously indicted both Jews and Greeks as being all under sin, 10 as it 11 is written "There is not one single right-doer, 11 none that understands, 12 none that seeks God; 12 all have gone wrong, together they are good 13 for nothing; there is none that is acting humanely, not even one"; 13 "their throat is an open grave, they have used their tongues insidious-14 ly," "there is cobras' venom under their lips," 14 "whose mouth is full 15 16 of cursing and bitterness," 15 "their feet are swift to shed blood, 16 havoc 17 and wretchedness are along their roads, 17 and they have not known the 18 19 road to peace," 18 "there is no fear of God before their eyes." 19 And we know that in anything that the law says it is speaking to those who are within the law's jurisdiction, in order that every mouth may be 20 stopped and all the world become liable to judgment by God, 20 because out of deeds under the law no mortal will be justified before him.

For through the law comes recognition of sin.

21 21 But now apart from the law a righteousness of God's has been 22 disclosed, attested by the law and the prophets, 22 but a righteousness of God's through faith in Jesus Christ to reach all who believe; for there 23 is no distinction, 23 for all have sinned and come short of God's glory, 24 24 getting their justification gratuitously by his grace through the re-25 demption by Christ Jesus, 25 whom God put forward to be propitiatory through faith by his blood for a display of his righteousness, because of the way in which under God's forbearance previous sins had been 26 let pass; 26 with a view to the displaying of his righteousness at the present time, so that he should be righteous and be justifying the one who lives by faith in Jesus.

27 27 So what becomes of boasting? it is shut off. By what law? of deeds?
28 no, 28 but by the law of faith, for we count that a man is justified by 29 faith apart from deeds under the law. 29 Or is God the God of the Jews 30 only? is he not of the nations too? 30 Yes, of the nations too, if it be true that God is one, who will justify circumcised men on the basis of 31 faith and uncircumcised by means of faith. 31 Are we superseding the law by faith, then? away with the thought, we are making good the law.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 Then what shall we say that Abraham, our forefather in the way 2 of flesh, had found? 2 For if Abraham was justified as the outcome of 3 deeds, he does have something to boast of. 3 But not to God, for what does the text say? "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted 4 righteousness for him." 4 But one who works does not have the pay 5 counted to him in the way of grace but of debt; 5 but one who does not work but puts faith in him who justifies an impious man has his faith 6 counted for righteousness, 6 in the same way as David tells of the happy state of the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from 7 works: 7 "Happy they whose wickednesses are forgiven and whose sins 8 are covered up; 8 happy a man for whom the Lord does not count 9 sin." 9 Is this happy state, then, pronounced upon circumcision, or upon 10 uncircumcision too? for we are saying "Faith was counted righteousness for Abraham." 10 How was it counted then, when he was in circumcision or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision but in uncir-11 cumcision; 11 and he got the token of circumcision as a seal of his righteousness of faith in uncircumcision, so that he should be father of all 12 who believe while uncircumcised so that righteousness should be counted to them, 12 and father of circumcision for those who are not of 13 circumcision only but who also walk in the tracks of the faith our father Abraham had during uncircumcision. 13 For it is not through the 14 law that there is the promise to Abraham or to his descendants, that he is to be heir of the world, but through righteousness of faith. 14 For if 15 those who are on the basis of law are heirs, faith is nullified and the promise is superseded; 15 for the law evokes anger, and where there is 16 not law there is not violation either. 16 Hence, on the basis of faith in order to be in the way of grace, so that the promise may be securely settled to all the descendants, not only the line which is based on the law but also that which is based on Abraham's faith, his who is 17 father of all of us 17 (as it is written "I have made you father of many nations") before the God whom he believed, him who brings the dead 18 to life and calls what does not exist as though it did; 18 his who in a hopeless case had the hopefulness to believe, so as to become father of many nations in accordance with what it says, "Such shall your 19 descendants be," 19 and did not weaken in faith as he observed his own body gone dead, he being a hundred years or so old, and the deadening 20 of Sarah's womb; 20 but he did not unbelievably doubt at God's promise, 21 but had his faith invigorated, giving glory to God 21 and feeling convinced that what he has promised he is able to go on and do; 22 which 22 is why it was counted for righteousness to him. 23 And it was not written 23 on his account only that it was counted to him, 24 but on ours too, to 24 whom it is going to be counted, us who believe on the one that raised 25 from the dead our Lord Jesus, 25 who was handed over to death on account of our offenses and was raised on account of our justification.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 So, being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our 2 Lord Jesus Christ, 2 by whose agency we have also had the introduction into this grace in which we stand, and boast of the hope of God's glory.
3 3 And not only this, but we also boast of our distresses, knowing that 4 distress develops endurance; 4 and endurance, positive experience; and 5 positive experience, hope; 5 and hope does not put us to shame, because 6 God's love has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit that was given to us. 6 For while we still were weak Christ died for 7 impious men in time of need. 7 For one will scarcely die for a saint—8 for a good man maybe someone does even venture to die— 8 but God vouches for his own love to us in that while we were still sinful Christ 9 died for us; 9 much more, then, now that we have been justified by 10 his blood we shall be saved from God's anger through him. 10 For if when enemies we were reconciled to God by his Son's death, much more 11 when reconciled shall we be saved in his life; 11 and not only saved but also boasting of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we did now receive the reconciliation.

12 For this reason, just as it was through one man that sin came into the world, and, through sin, death, and thus death went on to all men inasmuch as all sinned— 13 for until the law there was sin in the world, but sin is not charged in the account when there is no law, 14 yet death reigned from Adam to Moses even over those who had not sinned in a way parallel to the violation by Adam, who is a, type of the one that was to be. 15 But the act of grace is not just as the offense was. For if by the one man's offense the many died, much more did God's grace and the gift in grace, the grace of the one man Jesus Christ, come amply to the many. 16 And what is given is not as in the case of the one's sinning; for the judgment followed from one to condemnation, but the act of grace from many offenses to justification. 17 For if by the one's offense death reigned through the one, much more shall those who receive the amplitude of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ. 18 So then as through one offense the consequence followed to all men to condemnation, so too through one deed of right it follows to all men to justification into life; 19 for as the many were rendered sinful through the one man's failure to obey, so too the many will be rendered righteous through the one's obedience. 20 And the law stepped in to play its part so that there should be plenty of the offense; but where there was plenty of sin there was superabundance of grace, 21 in order that as sin did reign in death, so too grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 What shall we therefore say? "let us keep on with sin so that there may be plenty of grace"? 2 away with the thought! We who died to sin, how are we to live in it still? 3 Or are you unaware that we, whoever were baptized into Christ Jesus, were baptized into his death? 4 so we were buried together with him through baptism into death, in order that as Christ was raised from the dead through the Father's glory, so we too should walk on the new footing of life. 5 For if we have come to be twinned with the likeness of his death, yet so shall we of his resurrection; 6 knowing this, that the old man of us was crucified with him in order that sin's body might be discontinued so that we should no longer belong to sin; 7 for he who has died is acquitted of sin. 8 And if we died with Christ we believe that we shall also live with him, 9 knowing that Christ risen from the dead does not die anymore; 10 death no longer has jurisdiction over him; because his dying he did to sin, once for all, but his living he is doing to God. 11 So you too: count it that you are dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus. 12 So let sin not reign in your mortal body to have you obey its desires, and do not present your organs to be sin's instruments for wrong-doing, 13 but present yourselves to God like men alive from the 14 dead and your organs to be God's instruments for right-doing. 14 For sin is not to have jurisdiction over you; for you are not under the law but under grace.

15 15 What then? are we to sin because we are not under the law but 16 under grace? away with the thought! 16 Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves as his for obedience, his you are, his whom you 17 obey? either sin's, for death, or obedience's, for righteousness. 17 But thanks be to God that you were slaves to sin but obeyed with goodwill 18 the pattern of teaching under which you were put, 18 and, set free from 19 sin, were enslaved to righteousness— 19 I use human language in view of the weakness of your flesh; for, as you did present your organs in servitude to uncleanness and wickedness for wickedness, so now present your organs in servitude to righteousness for sanctification.

20 20 For when you were in servitude to sin you were free as regards 21 righteousness; 21 so what fruit did you have then? things you are now 22 ashamed of. 22 For the end of those things is death; but now, set free from sin but enslaved to God, you have your fruit for sanctification, 23 and the end eternal life. 23 For sin's pay is death, but God's gracious gift is eternal life in our Lord Christ Jesus.

CHAPTER 7

1 1 Or are you unaware, brothers (for I am speaking to men who know the law), that the law has jurisdiction over man so long as he is alive?

2 2 For the wedded woman is bound to the living husband by the law;
but if the husband dies she is disengaged from the husband's law.

3 3 So while the husband is alive she will be called an adulteress if another man gets her; but if the husband dies she is free from the law so as 4 not to be an adulteress when another man does get her. 4 Hence, my brothers, you too were brought into death to the law through the Christ's body so that another might get you, he who rose from the 5 dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. 5 For when we were in the flesh the susceptibilities to sin that come by the law were at work 6 in our organism so that we should bear fruit for death, 6 but now we have been disengaged, having died, from the law in which we were held under, so that we serve in the new relation of spirit and not in the old relation of letter.

7 7 What shall we therefore say? "the law is sin"? away with the thought! but I should not have known sin except through the law.
For I should not know about coveting if the law did not say "You shall 8 not covet." 8 But sin, getting a start by the commandment, produced 9 in me a coveting of everything. 9 For without the law sin is dead; and I was alive without the law once. But when the commandment came 10 sin came to life, and I died; 10 and for me the commandment, the very 11 thing that led to life, was found to lead to death, 11 since sin, getting a start by the commandment, tricked me, and killed me through it.

12 12 Consequently: the law is holy, and the commandment holy and 13 just and good.— 13 Then did the good become death for me? away with the thought, but sin did, in order that it might appear as sin, producing death for me through the good, in order that sin might come out supremely sinful through the commandment.

14 14 For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am of flesh, sold under 15 sin. 15 For I do not know the product I am working out. For it is not just what I have a will for that I am busy at, it is just what I hate that 16 I am doing; 16 but if I am doing just what I have no will for, I agree 17 that the law is fine. 17 And now it is no longer I that work out what 18 ensues, but my inmate sin. 18 For I know that there does not reside in me, that is, in my flesh, anything good; for to will is within my reach, 19 19 but to work out what would be a fine thing is not, for I do not do the good thing which I will, but it is just the bad thing which I do not 20 will that I am busy at. 20 But if it is just what I do not will that I do, it is no longer I that work out what ensues, but sin residing in me.
21 21 I find the law, then, for me who have the will to do the fine thing, 22 that the bad is what is laid out for me. 22 For I am in sympathy with 23 the law of God as to my inward man, 23 but I see another law in my organism waging war with the law of my mind and taking me prisoner 24 to the law of sin that is in my organism. 24 Wretched man I! who will 25 deliver me out of the body that carries this death? 25 thanks be to God through our Lord Jesus Christ!—So then I myself belong in mind to the service of God's law, but in flesh to that of sin's law.

CHAPTER 8

1 1 Then there is no condemnation now for those who are in Christ 2 Jesus, 2 for the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has given free-3 dom from the law of sin and of death. 3 For, what was impossible to the law in that it was weak by the flesh, God, sending his own son in the likeness of sinning flesh and on account of sin, condemned sin 4 in the flesh 4 in order that the prescription of the law might be fully realized in us who walk along the line not of flesh but of spirit.
5 5 For those who are along the line of flesh are of the flesh's mind, but 6 those who are along the line of spirit are of the Spirit's. 6 For the 7 flesh's mind is death, but the Spirit's mind is life and peace. 7 For the flesh's mind is enmity to God, for it does not submit itself to God's 8 law, it even cannot; 8 and those who are in flesh cannot please God.
9 9 But you are not in flesh but in spirit, if God's Spirit does reside in you; but if anybody does not have Christ's Spirit, that man is not his.
10 10 But if Christ is in you, the body is dead on account of sin, but the 11 spirit is life on account of righteousness. 11 And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead resides in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will bring to life your mortal bodies too through his Spirit your inmate.

12 12 So then, brothers, we are debtors not to the flesh to live along the 13 line of flesh, 13 for if you live along the line of flesh you are going to die; but if by spirit you bring the body's practices to their death you will 14 live. 14 For as many as are led by God's Spirit, these are sons of God.

15 15 For you did not receive a spirit of slavery, back into fear, but you 16 received a spirit of adoption, in which we cry Abba, "Father." 16 The Spirit itself joins with our spirit in testifying that we are children 17 of God— 17 and if children, heirs too: heirs of God, and co-heirs with Christ, if we are indeed his co-sufferers in order that we may share also his glory.

18 18 For I figure that the sufferings of the present are not worth counting 19 in comparison with the glory that is going to be revealed for us. 19 For the expectancy of all creation is awaiting the revelation of the sons 20 of God. 20 For the creation became subject to futility not of its own free will, but for the purposes of him who created it, with the hope 21 21 that creation itself is to be set free out of slavery to decay, into the 22 liberty of the glory of God's children. 22 For we know that all creation 23 together is in groans and pangs up to now; 23 and not only this, but we ourselves too, having as we do the firstfruits of the Spirit, are groaning in ourselves as we await adoption, the redemption of our 24 body. 24 For we were saved by hope; but a seen hope is not a hope 25 (for who hopes for what he sees?), 25 but if we are hoping for what we 26 do not see we await it steadily. 26 And in the same way the Spirit too takes hold to help our weakness; for we do not know what prayers to make as we need to, but the Spirit itself intercedes by groans which 27 cannot be put into words. 27 And he who searches the hearts knows what is the Spirit's mind, that he is interceding in God's way for 28 God's people. 28 And we know that to those who love God, God gives all cooperation for good, to those who, as suited his purpose, are 29 called— 29 because those whom he foreknew he did also foreordain to be shaped into the image of his Son so that he should be firstborn 30 among many brothers; 30 and those whom he foreordained, these he also called; and those whom he called, these he also justified; and those whom he justified, these he also glorified.

31 31 So what shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who is 32 against us? 32 He who did not stop short of his own Son, but gave him up for us all, how should he do otherwise than bestow everything 33 on us with him? 33 Who will bring charges against God's chosen? it is 34 God that justifies, who is it that condemns? 34 It was Christ that died, or rather rose, he who is at God's right hand, he who is even inter-35 ceding for us; 35 who will separate us from Christ's love? will distress or anguish or persecution or hunger or nakedness or danger or the 36 sword, 36 as it is written "On your account we are being done to death 37 all day, we were rated like sheep for slaughtering"? 37 but in all these things we are overwhelmingly victorious through him who loved 38 us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life nor angels nor 39 governments nor present conditions nor future nor powers 39 nor height nor depth nor any other creature will be able to separate us from God's love in our Lord Christ Jesus.

CHAPTER 9

1 I am speaking the truth in Christ, I am not lying, as in Holy 2 Spirit my conscience bears me out in attesting, 2 that I have a great 3 grief and my heart an unceasing ache. 3 For I could pray that I might 4 myself be for God's doom cutting me off from Christ in favor of my 4 brothers, my kinsfolk in the way of flesh, 4 who are Israelites, to whom 5 belong the adoption and the glory and the covenants and the gift 5 of the law and the divine service and the promises; 5 whose are the 6 fathers, and from whom in the way of flesh comes the Christ, he who 6 is over everything, God blessed forever—Amen!

6 6 But it is not any such thing as that God's word has fallen through.
7 For it is not just everybody who comes from Israel that are Israel.
7 7 Neither because they are Abraham's issue are all of them children, 8 but "it will be by Isaac that issue shall be called yours"; 8 that is, it 8 is not just the children of the flesh that are children of God's, but the 9 children of the promise are counted as issue; 9 for this word, "at this 9 date I will come and Sarah shall have a son," is one of promise.
10 10 And not only this, but Rebecca too, having impregnation by one 11 man, our father Isaac,— 11 for when they were not yet born nor had done 11 any good or evil act, in order that God's purpose in the way of choice 12 might remain in force not on the basis of deeds but on the basis of 12 him who gave the call, 12 she was told "the senior shall be enslaved to 13 the junior," 13 as it is written "I loved Jacob, but Esau I hated." 14 14 What shall we therefore say? is there injustice with God? away with 15 the thought! 15 For he says to Moses "I will take pity on whom I do take 16 pity on, and have compassion for whom I do have compassion for." 16 So 17 then it belongs not to the one who has the will nor to the one who 17 does the running, but to God who takes pity. 17 For the text says to the 18 Pharaoh. "I raised you up for this sake, lor the sake of showing my 18 power on you, and of having my fame told of throughout the earth." 19 18 So then he takes pity on whom he will, but whom he will he hardens.
19 19 So you will say to me "Why does he go on finding fault? for who 20 stands up against his wish?" 20 Rather, man, who are you that answer 21 back to God? is the product to say to the manufacturer "Why did you 21 make me like this?" 21 Or does the potter not have a right to manage 22 the clay, to make out of the same mass part into a vessel destined for 22 honor and part into one for ignominy? 22 And if God, having a will to 23 show his anger and make known what he could do, endured with 23 great patience vessels for anger, adapted to go to destruction; 23 and, in 24 order to make known the richness of his glory upon vessels for mercy 24 which he had prepared for glory, 24 us whom he also called not only 25 out of the Jews but out of the nations too— 25 the same as he says to 26 Hosea "I will call him who was not my people my people, and her 26 who was not loved loved, 26 and in the place where they were told 'you 27 are not my people,' there they shall be called sons of the living God."

27 And Isaiah cries out about Israel "If the number of the sons of 28 Israel be like the sand of the sea, the remnant will be saved, 28 for the Lord will put a word in effect sweepingly and summarily on earth."

29 And, as Isaiah had said before, "if the Lord of Sabaoth had not left us seed we should have come to be like Sodom and a parallel to Gomorrah."
30 So what shall we say? That foreign nations, those that did not go in for righteousness, arrived at righteousness, but the righteousness 31 that comes of faith; 31 but Israel, going in for the law of righteousness, did not attain to the law. 32 Why? because they were not trying on the basis of faith, but as if on that of deeds; they struck on the "stone 33 to strike against," 33 as it is written "Here I am laying in Sion a stone to strike against and a rock to stumble over; and he who believes in him will not be put to shame."

CHAPTER 10

1 Brothers, my heart's goodwill and entreaty to God is in their favor 2 for their salvation. 2 For I testify that they have zeal for God, but 3 not with insight; 3 for, not knowing about God's righteousness and trying to make good their own, they did not let themselves depend 4 on God's righteousness. 4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every believer. 5 For Moses writes of righteousness on the basis of law "the man who does the things will have life" by it;
5 6 but righteousness on the basis of faith says thus: "Do not say to yourself "Who will go up to the sky?" 7 (that is, to bring Christ down;) "or 6 "Who will go down into the abyss?" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). 8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth 7 and in your heart"; that is, the word of faith which we are proclaiming; 9 because if by your mouth you acknowledge Jesus to be 8 Lord, and in your heart you believe that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For it is with a heart believing is done 9 leading to righteousness, and it is with a mouth acknowledgment is made leading to salvation. 11 For the text says "Anyone who believes 10 in him will not be put to shame"; 12 for there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same one is Lord of all, rich toward all who 11 call on him; 13 for "everyone who shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

14 How are they then to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have not heard?
15 And how are they to hear without a proclaimer? And how are they to proclaim unless they are sent? as it is written "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring the news of good!"

16 But they did not all listen to the good news; for Isaiah says "Lord, who believed what they heard from us?" 17 Then believing comes out of hearing; and hearing, through Christ's word. 18 But I say, did they not hear? why, "the noise of them went out into all the earth and their words to the ends of the world." 19 But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses says "I will challenge your jealousy with what is not a people,

20 provoke you with an insensate nation." 20 And Isaiah comes out boldly and says "I was found by those who were not looking for me, I showed 21 myself to those who were not inquiring of me." 21 But as to Israel he says "all day I have spread out my hands to a disobedient and dissident people."

CHAPTER 11

1 1 So I am saying, Did God reject his people? Away with the thought!
2 for I am an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe 3 of Benjamin. 2 God did not reject his people whom he foreknew. Or do 4 you not know in the story of Elijah what the text says, when he is 5 expostulating with God against Israel 3 "Lord, they killed thy prophets, 6 they demolished thy altars, and I was the only one left, and they are 7 after my life"—4 but what does the divine voice say to him? "I left myself 8 seven thousand men who did not bend a knee to the Baal." 5 Thus 9 then at the present time too there are leavings in accordance with 10 the choice made by grace. 6 But if it is by grace it is no longer on the 11 basis of deeds, else grace would no longer be grace.

7 7 What then? The very thing that Israel is hunting after, this thing it 8 did not win: the chosen ones did win it, but the rest turned callous, 9 as it is written "God gave them a spirit of trance, eyes not to see 10 and ears not to hear, up to this day"; 9 and David says "Let their 11 table become a trap and toils and the bait on a trigger and retribution 12 to them, 10 let their eyes be darkened out of seeing, and break down 13 their back all the time."

11 11 So I am saying, Did they stumble in order that they might fall?
12 Away with the thought; but by their falling into offense the foreign 13 nations get salvation to stir their jealousy. 12 But if their falling into 14 offense is wealth to the world and their failure is wealth to the nations, 15 how much more their full coming in! 13 But to you foreigners I say, 16 Then so far as I am an apostle to foreigners I make much of my office 17 14 in the hope that I may stir the jealousy of my kindred and save some 18 of them. 15 For if throwing them overboard means reconciliation for the 19 world, what will taking them in be but life from the dead? 16 And if the 20 piece taken out first is sacred, so is the batch; and if the root is sacred, 21 so are the branches. 17 And if some of the branches were broken out, and 22 you, being a piece of wild olive, were grafted in among them and came 23 to share with them the root of the olive-tree's fatness, 18 do not flout 19 the branches; if you do, it is not you that are carrying the root but 20 the root that is carrying you. 19 Then will you say "Branches were 21 broken out to have me grafted in"? 20 All right: they were broken out 22 by unbelief, and you stand by faith; do not get lofty ideas, but have 23 fears, 21 for if God did not spare the natural branches neither will he 24 spare you. 22 See, then, a kindness and a rigorousness of God's: toward 25 those who fell rigorousness, but toward you God's kindness if you 26 keep in touch with the kindness—else you too will be cut out. 23 And 27 they, if they do not stick to unbelief, will be grafted in; for God

24 is able to graft them in again. 24 For if you were cut out of the natural wild tree and grafted unnaturally into a quality tree, how much more shall these, the natural ones, be grafted on their own tree!

25 25 For I do not want you to be without the knowledge of this secret, brothers, in order that you may not feel sagacious, that there has come to Israel a partial callousing until the fullness of the nations 26 gets in, and thus all Israel will be saved, 26 as it is written "He will come out of Sion who shall execute deliverance; he will turn away crimes 27 from Jacob; 27 and this is the covenant from me for them, when I remove 28 their sins." 28 As to the gospel they are enemies on your account, but 29 as to the choice they are dear on account of the fathers; 29 for God's 30 gracious gifts and his call are not liable to a change of mind. 30 For as 31 you were formerly disobedient to God but now have come to receive 32 mercy by the disobedience of these, 31 so it was that these too were 32 disobedient now in order that by the mercy to you they too may receive mercy. 32 For God locked everybody up into disobedience in order that he may have mercy on everybody.

33 33 O the vastness of God's wealth in both wisdom and knowledge! how 34 unsearchable are his judgments and how untraceable his courses! 34 "For 35 who has known the Lord's mind? or who has been adviser to him?" 35 "or 36 who has advanced any sum to him and is to have it paid back?" 36 because out of him and through him and into him comes everything.
To him be glory forever; amen.

CHAPTER 12

1 1 So, brothers, I urge you by God's compassion to present your bodies a holy living sacrifice acceptable to God, your rational form of 2 worship; 2 and do not shape yourselves to fit in with these times, but be transformed by reconstitution of your mind so that you may be judges of what is God's good and acceptable and perfect will.

3 3 For through the grace given to me let me tell each man among you not to be more lofty-minded than is right, but to mind that he keeps 4 in his right mind, each as God has allotted him a measure of faith. 4 For as we have many organs in one body, but the organs do not all have 5 the same function, 5 so we who are so many are one body in Christ, 6 and individually organs of each other, 6 but having different gifts according to the grace given to us—be it prophecy in proportion to 7 faith, 7 be it servitorship in serving, be it the teacher in teaching, 8 be it the exhorter in exhortation; 8 the giver of his goods in largeheartedness, the manager of affairs in devotion to duty, the comforter 9 of misfortunes in cheeriness; 9 love with no sham about it; detesting 10 what is wicked, sticking tight to what is good; 10 in brotherliness mu-11 tually affectionate, in honor showing mutual deference, 11 in earnestness not slack, enthusiastic in spirit, conscious of being bound to the Lord's 12 service, 12 blithe in hope, steadfast in distress, devoted to prayer, 13 showing solidarity with the needs of God's people, forward in hos-14 15 pitality. 14 Bless your persecutors: bless and do not curse. 15 Gladness with 16 men who are being glad, weeping with weepers. 16 Interested along the same line, for each other; not occupied with thoughts of high things, but drawn into the interests of lowly people; do not feel as if you were great thinkers. 17 Not paying anybody back a bad turn for a bad, 18 keeping in mind what is going to be good before all men; 18 if possible, 19 as far as depends on you, keeping at peace with all men; 19 not taking your own revenges, dear ones, but leave room for God's anger; for it is written "Mine is vengeance, I will requite, says the Lord." 20 But "if your enemy is hungry feed him, if he is thirsty give him a drink, for in doing this you will be piling live coals on his head." 21 Do not be beaten by the bad, but beat the bad with the good.

CHAPTER 13

1 1 Let every soul be submissive to superior authorities; for there is no authority except by God, and those that there are are given their 2 positions by God, 2 so that he who sets himself against authority is opposing God's institution; and those who oppose it will have judgment 3 passed on them. 3 For rulers are not a terror to the good deed but to the bad; and you want not to be afraid of the authority? do the good, 4 and you will have praise from it, 4 for it is to you an agent of God's for the good. But if you do the bad, do be afraid, for it is not for nothing he wears his sword; for he is an avenging agent of God's for anger to him who commits the bad deed; 5 for which reason it is necessary to be submissive not only on account of his anger but also on 6 account of your conscience. 6 For this is why you pay taxes too; for they are servitors of God's steadily at work for that very purpose. 7 7 Pay everybody what is due him: for whom it is the tax, the tax; for whom the tariff, the tariff; for whom fear, fear; for whom honor, honor. 8 Do not owe anybody anything, except to love each other; for he who loves the other has fulfilled the law. 9 For "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet," and any other commandment, are summed up in this sentence, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." 10 Love does not do anything bad to a neighbor; so love is fulfillment of the law.

11 11 And this knowing the crisis, that it is already time you woke up out of sleep, for salvation is nearer us now than when we first believed. 12 12 It is far on in the night, and day is almost here; so let us throw off the activities of darkness and put on the armor of light; 13 let us behave respectably, as in daylight, not with wild parties and getting drunk, not with sexualism and indecency, not with quarreling and jealousy; 14 14 but put on the Lord Jesus Christ and do not make arrangements for the flesh for gratifications.

CHAPTER 14

1 1 And take in the one who is sickly in faith, not for decisions on 2 problems: 2 one man has the faith to eat everything, but the sickly 3 one eats vegetables— 3 let the eater not scorn the non-eater nor the non-eater pass judgment on the eater, for God has taken him in. 4 Who are you that are passing judgment on somebody else's servant? it is to his own master he stands or falls. And he will be kept standing, for God is powerful to keep him standing. 5 The one rates day above day, the other rates every day—let each have his own conviction. 6 He who recognizes the day is recognizing it for the Lord; and he who eats is eating for the Lord, for he thanks God; and he who does not eat does his not eating for the Lord, and thanks God. 7 For no one of us lives for himself and no one dies for himself; 8 for if we live we live for the Lord and if we die we die for the Lord. So, live or die, we belong to the Lord. 9 For it was for this that Christ died and came to life, that he might be lord over both dead and living. 10 But why do you pass judgment on your brother? or you, why do you scorn your brother? for we shall all be brought up before God's bench. 11 For it is written "As I live, says the Lord, to me every knee shall bend and every tongue shall make acknowledgment to God"; 12 each of us, then, will give account for himself.

13 So let us no longer pass judgment on each other; but do come to this decision rather, not to set anything to trip one's brother up. 14 I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unholy of itself, only that for the one who thinks something unholy, for him it is unholy. 15 For if because of an article of food your brother is pained, you are no longer going in the way of love. Do not by your food bring him to destruction, one for whom Christ died. 16 So do not have your good point made a butt for vilification. 17 For the Reign of God is not eating and drinking but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit; 18 for he who lives in this servitude to the Christ is acceptable to God and estimable to men. 19 So then we will aim at what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding; 20 do not tear God's work down on account of an article of food. Everything is clean, but it is a bad thing for the man who runs himself against a snag by his eating. 21 It is a good thing not to eat meat nor drink wine nor one thing that your brother snags himself on. 22 Have faith yourself, such as you have, on your own account before God; happy he who does not pass judgment on himself in regard to what he holds to be right. 23 But he who is in suspense, if he eats, is under condemnation because it is not on the basis of faith, but everything that is not on the basis of faith is

1 a sin. 1 And we powerful ones ought to carry the weakenings of the feeble and not to please ourselves; 2 let each of us please his neighbor in what is good toward upbuilding. 3 For neither did the Christ please himself, but, as it is written, "the insults of those who were insulting you fell on me." 4 For whatever was written before was written for our instruction in order that through the steadfastness and encouragement in the scriptures we may have hope.

5 And may the God of steadfastness and of encouragement grant you to take the same views among yourselves in Christ Jesus's way, 6 so that you may with one accord, with a single mind, glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore take each other in in the same way as the Christ took 8 you in, to the glory of God. 8 For I tell you that Christ was made a 9 serving-man to circumcised men on account of God's truth so as to 10 assure the promises made to the fathers, 9 and so that the nations 11 should glorify God on account of mercy, as it is written "Because of 12 this I will make acknowledgments to thee among the nations and sing 13 psalms to thy name"; 10 and again it says "Jubilate, nations, with his 11 people"; 11 and again "Praise the Lord, all nations, and let all the 12 peoples laud him"; 12 and again Isaiah says "There shall be Jesse's root 13 and he who is set up to rule the nations; upon him the nations shall 14 set their hopes." 13 And may the God of hope fill you with all joy and 15 peace in believing so that you may be plentiful in hope by the power 16 of the Holy Spirit.

14 And I am persuaded as to you myself, brothers, that you too are 15 replete with goodness, filled with all knowledge, able to admonish each 16 other yourselves. 15 But I have written to you, somewhat audaciously 17 in parts, by way of reminding you, because of the grace that was 18 given me from God 16 that I should be a chaplain of Christ Jesus's to the 19 nations, administering the sacramental service of God's gospel in 20 order that the nations' offering should become acceptable, hallowed 21 in Holy Spirit. 17 So I have my boasting in Christ Jesus as to God's 22 affairs; 18 for I will not venture to make any talk of what Christ did 23 not accomplish through me toward the obedience of the nations, by 24 word and act, in the power of tokens and wonders, 19 in the power of 25 the Spirit, so that from Jerusalem clear round to Illyricum I have 26 thoroughly spread the Christ's gospel, 20 and making it my ambition to 27 preach it in this way, not where Christ had been named, in order not 28 to build on somebody else's foundation, 21 but, as it is written, "they 29 shall see who had not been told of him, and they shall realize who 30 have not heard."

22 Which is why I have generally been blocked from coming to you.
23 But now, no longer having any place in these territories, and having 24 for several years past had a longing to come to you when I am on 25 my way to Spain— 24 for I hope to take a look at you as I pass through 26 and to be given a send-off on my way there by you, if I have first 27 had my craving for you partly satisfied— 25 now I am taking a trip to 28 Jerusalem on an errand of service to God's people. 26 For Macedonia and 27 Achaea have been pleased to do a certain act of solidarity toward the 28 poor among God's people at Jerusalem— 27 have been pleased to do it 29 and owed it as a debt; for if the nations came to partake of their 30 spiritual goods they ought also to do them service with material 31 goods. 28 So when I have got through with this and set the seal on this 32 fruit for them I will go to Spain by way of you; 29 and I know that 33 when I come to you I shall come in the fullness of Christ's blessing.

30 30 And I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love 31 of the Spirit, to join me in wrestling in prayer to God for me 31 that I may be delivered from the disobedient in Jerusalem and my errand of service to Jerusalem may turn out acceptable to God's people, 32 32 in order that I may come to you with gladness by God's will. 33 And 33 the God of peace be with you all; amen.

CHAPTER 16

1 1 And I commend to you our sister Phebe, who is withal a deaconess 2 of the church at Cenchreae, 2 that you receive her in the Lord in a way worthy of God's people and assist her in whatever affair she wants anything of you in; for she herself has proved a friend in need to many, including me.

3 3 Give my greetings to Prisca and Aquila, my co-workers in Christ 4 Jesus, who for my life laid down their own necks, 4 whom not I alone 5 thank but also all the churches of the nations; 5 and the meeting at their home.

Give my greetings to my dear friend Epaphroditus, who was the first of the province of Asia to come in to Christ.

6 6 Give my greetings to Mary, who did a great deal of hard work for you.

7 7 Give my greetings to my kinsmen and fellow-prisoners Andronicus and Junias, who are prominent among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

8 8 Give my greetings to Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord.

9 9 Give my greetings to Urbanus, my co-worker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.

10 10 Give my greetings to Apelles, the tried and true in Christ.

Give my greetings to those who are among Aristobulus's people.

11 11 Give my greetings to my kinsman Herodion.

Give my greetings to those of Narcissus's people who are in the Lord.

12 12 Give my greetings to Tryphena and Tryphosa, who are working hard in the Lord.

13 13 Give my greetings to Rufus the chosen in the Lord, and to his mother, who was a mother to me too.

14 14 Give my greetings to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hernias, and the brothers who are with them.

15 15 Give my greetings to Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all God's people who are with them.

16 16 Give my greetings to each other with a holy kiss.

All the churches of the Christ send you greetings.

17 17 And I urge you, brothers, to have an eye to those who are creating factions and sore points contrary to the teaching you learned; and 18 shun them, 18 for such are in the service not of our Lord Christ but of their own stomachs, and by their fair words and fine talk they turn 19 the heads of the unsuspecting. 19 For your obedientness has been reported to everybody; so I am happy over you; but I want you to be wise in

- 20 what makes for good and innocent in what makes for evil. 20 And the God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet.
- 21 21 The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you. My co-worker Timothy sends you greetings, and my kinsmen Lucius and Jason and Sosip<sup>er</sup>
- 22 ater.— 22 I, Tertius, who am writing the letter, send you my greetings
- 23 in the Lord.— 23 Gaius, my host and host to all the church, sends you greetings. Erastus, the city treasurer, sends you greetings, and Brother Quartus.
- 25 25 And to him who can fortify you in accordance with my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, in conformity with the revelation
- 26 of the secret that had been kept in silence through eternal times 26 but has now been disclosed and through prophetic Scripture, by order of the eternal God, made known throughout the nations for obedience
- 27 to the faith; 27 to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ,—to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

PAUL'S FIRST LETTER TO THE CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

1 I Paul, a chosen apostle of Christ Jesus through God's will, and 2 Brother Sosthenes, 2 to God's church at Corinth, men sanctified in Christ Jesus, holy men called,—with all who in every place invoke 3 the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, theirs and ours,— 3 grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 4 I am always thanking God for you on account of God's grace given 5 to you in Christ Jesus, 5 that in everything you have been enriched 6 in him, in all the gift of speech and in all knowledge, 6 as the testimony 7 of the Christ has become a settled thing among you, 7 so that you do not come short in any grace while you await the manifestation of 8 our Lord Jesus Christ, 8 who will also settle you to be entirely blameless 9 on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, through whom you were called into solidarity with his son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 10 But I urge you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, all to say the same thing and not to have rifts among you, but to be welded into the same mind and the same sentiments. 11 For it was stated to me about you by Chloe's people, my brothers, that there are dis-12 cords among you. 12 I mean this: that each of you is saying "I am a Paul man," "And I am an Apollos man," "And I am a Cephas man," "And 13 I am a Christ man"; 13 the Christ is broken up! Was Paul crucified for 14 you, or were you baptized into Paul's name? 14 I am thankful that I did 15 not baptize any of you but Crispus and Gaius, 15 so as not to have 16 someone say you were baptized into my name. 16 And I did baptize Stephanas's family too; after all, I do not know whether I baptized 17 anybody else. 17 For Christ did not send me to baptize but to bring the gospel; not in wisdom of language, in order that the Christ's cross may not be nullified.

18 18 For speech about the cross is foolishness to those who are headed 19 for destruction, but to us the saved it is the power of God. 19 For it is written "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment 20 of the discerning I will discredit." 20 What becomes of a philosopher?
of a scholar? of a scientist? did not God make the world's wisdom 21 foolish? 21 For since in God's wisdom the world had not through wisdom known God, God was pleased to save believers through the foolishness 22 of the preached message— 22 since Jews ask for tokens and Greeks look 23 for wisdom, 23 but we preach a crucified Christ, to Jews a thing un-24 mentionable, and to Gentiles foolishness, 24 but to the called themselves, Jews and Greeks both, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of 25 God; 25 because what is foolish of God's is wiser than men, and what is 26 weak of God's is stronger than men. 26 For, brothers, look at your calling, that it is not a case of many who are wise in a mortal sense, many 27 powerful, many aristocratic, 27 but God chose the foolish parts of the 28 world in order to shame the wise men, 28 and God chose the weak parts 29 of the world in order to shame the strong parts, and God chose the 30 lowborn parts and the scorned parts, the nothings, in order to super-31 sede with them the somethings, 29 so that no mortal should boast in the presence of God. 30 And from him you are something in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God, righteousness and sanctification and redemption, 31 in order to have it as is written, "Let him who boasts boast in the Lord."

CHAPTER 2

1 1 And I, brothers, when I came to you, came not announcing God's 2 testimony to you with a superior quality of language or wisdom; 2 for 3 I decided not to know anything among you but Jesus Christ, and him 4 crucified; 3 and I showed weakness and fear and much trembling 5 while I was with you, 4 and my language and my proclamation were 6 not with persuasive words of wisdom but with proof by Spirit and 7 power, 5 in order that your faith may not be based on men's wisdom but 8 on God's power.

9 6 But we do speak wisdom among those who are qualified; but a 10 wisdom not of this world nor of this world's supersedable rulers, 7 but 11 we speak God's wisdom in a secret knowledge, the wisdom hidden 12 away, which God foreordained for our glory before time was; 8 which 13 no one of this world's rulers knows,—for if they had known it they 14 would not have crucified the Lord of Glory,— 9 but, as it is written, what 15 eye has not seen and ear has not heard and man's heart has not 16 thought of, the things that God has prepared for those who love him; 10 for God has revealed them to us through the Spirit. 10 For the Spirit 11 searches everything, even the deep things of God. 11 For who of men 12 knows the things personal to a man except the man's spirit which 13 is in him? in the same way nobody knows the things personal to God 14 except God's Spirit. 12 And we received not the world's spirit but the 15 Spirit from God, in order that we might know the things granted 16 to us by God; 13 which things we likewise speak not in words taught by human wisdom but in Spirit-taught, matching spiritual with spiritual. 14 But an animal man does not accept the things that belong to God's Spirit; for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot know them, because they are to be spiritually examined; 15 but the spiritual man examines everything and is himself examined by nobody. 16 For "who knows the Lord's mind and will instruct him?" And we have Christ's mind.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 And on my part, brothers, I could not speak to you as spiritual men 2 but as flesh men, as infants in Christ. 2 I fed you milk, not regular 3 food, for as yet you did not have the capability; why, even now you do not. For you are still fleshly. 3 For where there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not fleshly and walking in human fashion?

4 4 For when one says "I am a Paul man," but another "I an Apollos man," are you not human?

5 5 What is Apollos, then! And what is Paul? Servitors through whom 6 you believed; and each as the Lord gave to him: 6 I did the setting out, 7 Apollos the watering, but God made the growth. 7 So that neither 8 the setter-out is anything nor the waterer, but God who makes the 9 growth. 8 And the setter-out and the waterer are one. But each will get 9 his pay appropriately to his labor. 9 For we are God's assistants; you 10 are God's farm—God's building. 10 In accordance with the grace given to me, like a wise master-builder I laid a foundation, and another is building on it.

11 11 But let each one look out how he builds on it. For nobody can lay any other foundation beside the one that has been laid, which is 12 Jesus Christ. 12 But if one builds onto the foundation gold, silver, fine 13 stones, wood, weed-stalks, straw, each man's work will show up. 13 For the day will reveal it, because in fire it is disclosed, and the very fire 14 will test what sort of work each man's is. 14 If anyone's work that he built 15 on it stands, he will receive payment; 15 if anyone's work burns up, he will be the loser, but he will himself come safe through, but in such 16 fashion as one comes through a fire. 16 Do you not know that you are a 17 temple of God, and God's Spirit makes its home in you? 17 If anybody undoes God's temple, God will undo him. For God's temple is sacred; and you are it.

18 18 Let nobody deceive himself. If anybody thinks he is a wise one among you, in these times let him become a fool in order that he 19 may come to be wise; 19 for this world's wisdom is foolishness in the presence of God, for it is written "he who clutches the wise in the 20 midst of their shiftiness" 20 and again "The Lord knows wise men's 21 ponderings to be futile." 21 Consequently let nobody boast about men.
22 22 For everything belongs to you, be it Paul or Apollos or Cephas or world or life or death or present or future: everything belongs to 23 you, 23 and you to Christ, and Christ to God.

CHAPTER 4

1 2 1 Let a man rate us as agents, and trustees of God's secrets. 2 Now then, what is wanted in trustees is that one should be found faithful.
3 3 But to me it is highly unimportant that I should be examined by you 4 or by a human investigation. 4 Why, I do not even examine myself; for I have nothing on my conscience, but I am not made out righteous 5 by this. But it is the Lord that is my examiner. 5 Consequently do not pass judgment on anything too soon; not till the Lord comes, who will both throw light on the things hidden in darkness and make the intentions of hearts visible; and then each will get his praise from God.

6 6 But in treating all this as though it applied to myself and Apollos I did it on your account, brothers, in order that you might learn on us not to go beyond the record, so that you should not be puffed up

7 one of you on one's behalf against another. 7 For who is differentiating you? and what do you have that you did not receive? And if you 8 did receive it, why are you boasting as if you had not? 8 You have had all you could hold already; you have already grown rich; you have come into the kingship without us—and I wish you had come into 9 the kingship so that we too might come into it with you. 9 For I guess God has put us apostles last on the program like men condemned to death, because we have become a spectacle for the world, men and 10 angels both. 10 We are fools for Christ, but you are intelligent men in Christ; we weak, but you strong; you in high standing, but we dis-11 reputable. 11 Down to the present moment we go hungry, go thirsty, go 12 naked, get hit with fists, go homeless, 12 work hard with our own hands, pronounce blessings while we are being abused, bear up while we are 13 being persecuted, give encouragement 13 while we are being disparaged; it comes to be as if we were the offscourings of the world, the scum of everything, up to now.

14 I am not writing these things to shame you, but to admonish you 15 as dearly-loved children of mine. 15 For if you should have ten thousand tutors in Christ, many fathers you would not; for I, through the gospel, brought you to birth in Christ Jesus. 16 So I urge you, be imitators 16 of me. 17 That was the very reason why I sent you Timothy, who is my dearly-loved and trusted child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways in Christ Jesus, as I teach everywhere in every church.
18 19 18 But some have been puffed up as if I were not coming to you; 19 but come to you I speedily will, if the Lord permit, and know not the words of the puffed-up ones but their power, 20 for the Reign of God is 20 not in words but in power. 21 What do you want? am I to come to you with a rod or in love and the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER 5

1 1 There is talk of such a thing as unchastity among you, and such unchastity as there is not even among the heathen, so that one has
2 his father's wife; 2 and you are puffed up, and did not rather go to mourning, so that the one who had done that thing would be got 3 out from your midst? 3 For I, absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as present, come to the decision—4 you and my spirit, together 4 with the power of our Lord Jesus, being assembled in the Lord Jesus Christ's name—5 to hand over to Satan the man with such a record, the one that did that in that fashion, for destruction of the flesh in 5 order that the spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord. 6 Your boast is not a good one. Do you not know that a little yeast makes the 6 whole batch of dough yeasty? 7 Clean out the old yeast in order that you may be a new batch as you are unyeasty men—for our passover 7 is sacrificed, Christ, 8 so let us keep the feast not with old yeast nor with yeast of viciousness and villainy but with yeastless bread of candor and truth.

9 9 I wrote to you in my letter not to be mixed up with libertines;

10 10 not in general, this world's libertines, or overreaching and grasping people or idolaters, since you would be obliged to go out of the world; 11 11 but I did tell you not to be mixed up if anyone who goes by the name of brother is a libertine or overreaching or an idolater or abusive or drunken or grasping, not even to eat with the one who is like that.
12 12 For what business is it of mine to judge the outsiders? do not you do 13 the judging of the insiders, 13 but God the judging of the outsiders?
Get the vicious man out of your company.

CHAPTER 6

1 1 Does anyone of you, when he has a difficulty with another, dare 2 to bring the case before the lawless and not before the holy? 2 Or do you not know that the holy will judge the world? and if the world 3 gets judged by you, are you unfit for petty trials? 3 Do you not know we shall judge angels? not to say secular matters.

4 4 Then if you do have secular cases to try, it is just those who do 5 not amount to anything in the church that you set on the bench! 5 I say it to your shame. Are you so totally without any wise man among 6 you who can decide between his brothers, 6 but brother goes to law 7 with brother, and that before unbelievers? 7 It is a blot on you anyhow, to begin with, that you do have lawsuits with each other; why not sooner have injustice done you? why not sooner have your rightful 8 dues held back? 8 But you yourselves do injustice and hold back rightful 9 dues, and to brothers at that; 9 or do you not know that unjust men will not inherit God's Reign? Make no mistake: neither libertines nor idolaters nor adulterers nor any who practice sodomy or submit to it 10 10 nor thieves nor overreaching or drunken or abusive or grasping people 11 will inherit the Reign of God. 11 And that is what you, some of you, were; but you were washed clean! you were sanctified! but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God!

12 12 Everything is free to me, but not everything is advantageous.
Everything is free to me, but I for my part am not going to be brought 13 into subjection by anything. 13 Foods for the stomach, and the stomach for foods—but God will supersede both that and those. But the body is not for unchastity but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body; 14 14 and God both raised the Lord and will raise us up by his power.
15 Do you not know that your bodies are organs of Christ? 15 So am I to take away the Christ's organs and make them organs of a loose woman?
16 away with the thought! 16 Or do you not know that he who has a connection with a loose woman is one body? for "the two shall become 17 one flesh," it says. 17 But he who has a connection with the Lord is one spirit.

18 18 Keep clear of unchastity! Any sin that a man commits is outside the body; but he who has unchaste relations sins against his own body.
19 19 Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit that you have in you, which comes to you from God, and you do not 20 belong to yourselves? 20 For you were bought and paid for. Glorify God in your body.

CHAPTER 7

1 1 But as to what you wrote about:
2 2 It is a good thing for a man not to touch a woman. But for fear of unchastities let each have his own wife and each woman her own 3 husband. 3 Let the husband pay to the wife what he owes her, and 4 likewise the wife too to the husband. 4 The wife is not entitled to control her own body, but the husband; and likewise the husband too 5 is not entitled to control his own body, but the wife. 5 Do not hold back each other's rightful dues, unless it may be temporarily by agreement in order that you may have a while for prayer and again be 6 7 together, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your incontinence. 6 But this I say in the way of tolerance, not as an order; 7 but I wish all men to be the same as I myself am—but each has a gift of his own from God, one in this way and one in that.
8 8 But I say to the unmarried and the widows, it is a good thing 9 for them if they remain the same as I am; 9 but if they are not masters of themselves let them marry, for it is better to marry than to be 10 burned. 10 But married couples I enjoin, not I but the Lord, that wife 11 must not separate from husband— 11 or if she does, let her remain unmarried or make up with her husband—and that husband must not 12 divorce wife. 12 But to the rest I, not the Lord, say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife and she is satisfied to live with him, let him not 13 divorce her, 13 and whatever woman has an unbelieving husband and he 14 is satisfied to live with her, let her not divorce her husband. 14 For the unbelieving husband is consecrated in the wife and the unbelieving wife is consecrated in the husband; else your children would be un-15 clean; but in fact they are holy. 15 But if the unbeliever separates, let him; the brother or sister is not fettered in such cases. But it is in 16 peace that God has called us. 16 For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?
17 17 Only, as the Lord has allotted each his share, as God has called each one, so let him walk. 18 And so I direct in all the churches. One was called in circumcised condition—let him not obliterate the mark; one was called in uncircumcised condition—let him not get himself 19 circumcised. 19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; 20 but the keeping of God's commandments. 20 In the call that came to each, 21 in that let him remain. 21 You were called as a slave—do not be concerned about it, but if you do have the chance to become free, prefer 22 to carry on. 22 For the slave who has been called in the Lord is the Lord's freedman; likewise the freeman when he is called is Christ's 23 slave; 23 you were bought and paid for—do not become slaves of men.
24 24 Let each one, brothers, as a member of God's household remain in what he was called in.

25 25 But as to maidens I do not have any order given by the Lord, but give my judgment as one to whom the Lord has granted the 26 mercy of being trusted. 26 I think this is best, then, in view of the straits 27 we are in: it is best for a man to be so. 27 You are bound to a wife—do not try for release; you are free from a wife—do not try for a 28 wife. 28 But if you do marry you have not sinned, and if the maiden marries she has not sinned; but such will have distress for the flesh, 29 and I am having consideration for you. 29 But this I do say, brothers, the times are under pressure, so that hereafter those who have wives 30 should be as if they did not have them, 30 and those who weep as if they were not weeping, and those who rejoice as if they were not 31 rejoicing, and those who buy as not having obtained title, 31 and those who deal with the world as not having the use of it; for this world's shows are transient.

32 32 But I want you free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious 33 over what belongs to the Lord, how to please the Lord; 33 but the man who has married is anxious over what belongs to the world, how to 34 please his wife, and is divided. 34 And the unmarried woman and the maiden is anxious over what belongs to the Lord in order that she may be holy both in body and in spirit; but the woman who has married is anxious over what belongs to the world, how to please her 35 husband. 35 But I am saying this in your own interest, not in order to put a halter on you but with a view to what will be respectable and favorable to undistracted listening to the Lord.

36 36 But if anybody feels that he will be acting discreditably toward his maiden if she is overage, and that is the way it has to be, let him do 37 what he will, he is not sinning; let them marry. 37 But he who stands fast in his heart, not being under a compulsion but having freedom to go by his own will, and has come to this decision in his own heart, to 38 keep his maiden, will be doing well. 38 So that equally he who marries his maiden is doing well, and he who does not will be doing better.

39 39 A wife is bound for such time as her husband is alive; but if her husband goes to his rest she is free to marry whom she will, only in 40 the Lord; 40 but she is happier if she remains so, in my opinion. And I think I too have God's spirit.

CHAPTER 8

1 1 And as to meat from idol-sacrifices: we are aware that we all have 2 knowledge. 2 Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. If anybody thinks 3 he knows anything, he has not known yet as one needs to know. 3 But if anybody loves God, that man is known by him.

4 4 Well, then, as to the eating of meat from idol-sacrifices, we are aware that there is no such thing in the world as an idol-god and that 5 there is no God but one— 5 for, though it be a fact that there are so-called gods whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many "gods" 6 and many "lords"), 6 yet for us there is one God, the Father, out of whom comes everything and into whom come we; and one Lord, Jesus

7 Christ, through whom comes everything, and through him we. 7 But not everybody has the knowledge in him; and some, by habituation to the idol-god heretofore, eat as from an idol-sacrifice, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8 And a food will not be a recommendation to God for us: we are neither in inferior standing if we do not eat nor in especially good standing if we do. 9 But look out that this right of yours does not possibly become a snag for the feet of the weak. 10 For if one sees you, the one who has the knowledge, taking a meal in an idol-temple, will not his conscience, weak as he is, be built up into eating meat from idol-sacrifices? 11 why, by your knowledge the weak one is perishing, the brother on whose account Christ died! 12 And so, sinning against the brothers and battering their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. 13 Wherefore if a food is tripping my brother up I will go without meat forever in order not to trip my brother up.

CHAPTER 9

1 1 Am I not a free man? am I not an apostle? have I not seen our 2 Lord Jesus? are not you in the Lord my work? 2 If for others I am not an apostle, for you anyhow I am; for you in the Lord are the seal of 3 4 my apostleship. 3 My defense to my examiners is this: 4 Do we not have 5 the right to eat and drink? 5 do we not have the right to take around a wife who is one of the sisters, the same as the rest of the apostles 6 do, and the Lord's brothers, and Cephas? 6 or do Barnabas and I alone 7 have no right not to work? 7 Whoever serves in the army and pays his own expenses? who plants a vineyard and does not eat the fruit of it, or who tends a flock and does not eat any of the milk of the 8 flock? 8 Am I talking like this from a human point of view, or does 9 not the law too say this? 9 For in the law of Moses it says "You shall 10 not muzzle a threshing beast." 10 Does God care for the beasts, or is it distinctly on our account that he says it? Why, it was put in on our account, because the plower ought to plow in hope, and the thresher 11 in hope of coming in for a share. 11 If we sowed the spiritual things for you, is it anything great if we are to harvest the material things 12 from you? 12 If others come in for a share of rights over you, do not we all the more?

But we did not use those rights, but are putting up with everything in order that we may not cause any obstruction to the gospel of the 13 Christ. 13 Do you not know that those who do the sacred work eat the sanctuary's supplies, those who attend the altar participate with the 14 altar? 14 in the same way the Lord prescribed to those who were an-15 nouncing the gospel that they should live by the gospel. 15 But I have not availed myself of any of this. And I did not write this in order that it should come so in my case, for I had better die sooner than—16 nobody shall make my boast an empty one. 16 For if I preach the gospel it is no boast for me, for I am under compulsion; for there is a woe 17 for me if I do not. 17 For if I do this voluntarily I get pay, but if in-18 voluntarily I have a stewardship entrusted to me. 18 What is my pay then? that in my preaching I shall render the gospel free of expense, so as to make no use of my rights as preacher.

19 19 For when I was free from everybody I enslaved myself to everybody in order to get the greatest number; 20 and I behaved to the Jews like a Jew in order to get Jews, to those under the law like one under the law when I was not myself under the law, in order to get those under the law, 21 to the lawless like a lawless man when I was not lawless for God but law-abiding for Christ, in order to get the lawless; 22 I became anything to anybody in order anyhow to save some. 23 And I do everything on account of the gospel, in order to become a fellow-participant in it.

24 24 Do you not know that those who run in the races all run, but one gets the prize? Run in such a way that you may arrive. 25 And everybody who goes into the contests masters himself in every respect; they, indeed, aiming to win a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. 26 26 Well, then, I run not in aimless fashion; I spar not in the way of shadowboxing, 27 but bang my body about and make a slave of it, for fear that after I had been herald to others I should myself fail to make good.

CHAPTER 10

1 1 For we do not want you to lack the knowledge, brothers, that our fathers were all of them under the cloud and all went through the sea 2 and all had themselves baptized to Moses in the cloud and in the sea, 3 and all ate the same spiritual food 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink (for they drank out of a spiritual rock that went along with them; and the rock was the Christ), 5 but God was not pleased with most of them; for they fell along the desert road. 6 And in these respects they were types of us, so that we may not take to desiring bad things as some of them did. 7 And do not become idolaters, as did some of them, as it is written "The people sat down to eat and drink and stood up to play." 8 And let us not go into sexual debauchery, as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day. 9 And let us not put the Lord to a test, as some of them tested him and perished by the snakes. 10 And do not grumble, as some of them grumbled and perished by the destroyer. 11 And these things befell them by way of types, and were recorded for admonition to us, in whom the ages have reached their goal. 12 Consequently, let him who thinks he is standing look out that he does not fall. 13 There has not any temptation caught you but such as is the lot of man. And God is faithful, who will not let you be tempted beyond your power, but with the temptation will also make the way out so that you may be able to stand it. 14 14 Wherefore, my dear friends, flee from idolatry.

15 15 I speak as one does to sensible men; judge of what I say yourselves. 16 16 The blessing-cup that we bless, is it not participation in the blood of the Christ? the loaf of bread that we break, is it not participation in 17 the body of the Christ? because we, many as we are, are one loaf, 18 one body; 18 for we all share in the one loaf. Look at Israel, Israel in the fleshly sense: are not those who eat the sacrifices participants with the altar?

19 19 What am I saying then? that an idol-sacrifice is anything, or that 20 there is any such thing as an idol-god? 20 no, but that what they sacrifice they sacrifice to demons and not to God. And I do not want you to 21 become participants with demons. 21 You cannot drink the Lord's cup and demons' cup! you cannot share the Lord's table and demons' table!

22 22 Or are we teasing the Lord into jealousy? are we stronger than he?

23 23 Everything is permissible, but not everything is advantageous.
24 Everything is permissible, but not everything is constructive. 24 Let nobody look after what is for himself, but what is for the other man.

25 25 Eat anything that is offered for sale at a market, without making any 26 inquiries for reasons of conscience; 26 for "the earth and all that fills it 27 belong to the Lord." 27 If one of the unbelievers invites you and you choose to go, eat anything that is brought to the table without making

28 any inquiries for reasons of conscience. 28 But if somebody tells you 29 "this is sacrifice meat," do not eat, because of him, the one that in-30 formed you, and for reasons of conscience— 29 and I do not mean one's own conscience but the other man's; for to what purpose is my liberty 30 judged by another conscience? 30 If I partake with gratitude, why am I vilified over what I give thanks for?

31 31 So, whether you are eating or drinking or doing anything, do 32 everything to God's glory. 32 Have nothing about you that either Jew 33 or Greek or the church of God could stub their toes on, 33 in the same way as I am pleasing everybody about everything, not looking out for my own interests but for those of the many, that they may be

CHAPTER 11

1 saved. 1 Be imitators of me in the same way as I am of Christ.

2 2 And I praise you that you thoroughly remember me and stick to 3 the correct line as I passed it on to you. 3 But I want you to know that 4 every man's head is the Christ, and a woman's head the man, and 5 the Christ's head God. 4 Any man praying or prophesying with anything 6 on his head is disgracing his head. 5 But a woman praying or proph-7 esying with her head uncovered is disgracing her head, for it is one 8 and the same thing as a shaved woman. 6 For if a woman is not covered, 9 let her have her hair cut too; but if having her hair cut or shaved is 10 disgraceful for a woman, let her be covered. 7 For a man ought not to 11 have his head covered, he being the image and glory of God; but 12 woman is the glory of man, 8 for man does not have his being out of 9 woman but woman out of man; 9 for, also, man was not created on 10 account of the woman but a woman on account of the man. 10 For this 11 reason the woman ought to have a safeguard over her head because 12 of the angels. 11 There is not in the Lord, though, woman apart from man nor man apart from woman; 12 for as the woman comes out of the man, so does the man too come through the woman; and everything comes out of God.

13 Judge in your own consciences: is it proper for a woman to pray 14 uncovered to God? 14 Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man 15 has long hair it is a dishonor to him, 15 but if a woman has long hair it is a glory to her, because she is given her hair to serve as a wrap?

16 But if anybody sees fit to be disputatious,—we do not have such a custom, and neither do God's churches.

17 But this injunction I give without praise for your way of coming 18 together not for the better but for the worse: 18 for, in the first place, when you come together in a church meeting I hear there are divisions 19 among you; 19 and to some extent I believe it, for there do have to be factions among you in order that it may become apparent among 20 you which ones are of the right kind. 20 So when you meet together there 21 is no eating a supper of the Lord's, 21 for each one is getting a start in the eating to take his own supper, and one goes hungry and another 22 has had too much drink. 22 Why, have you no houses for eating and drinking? or are you despising the church of God and shaming those who have nothing? What am I to say to you? am I to praise you over this? I do not.

23 For I received from the Lord that same thing that I handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night when he was to be arrested, took 24 bread 24 and gave thanks and broke it and said "This is my body that 25 goes for you; do this in remembrance of me"; 25 in the same way the cup too, after eating the supper, saying "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, as often as you drink, in remembrance of 26 me." 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you are 27 announcing the death of the Lord, until he come. 27 Consequently one who eats the Lord's bread or drinks his cup in unworthy fashion will 28 be liable for the body and blood of the Lord. 28 But let a man see how he is to be rated, and in such fashion eat from the loaf and drink from 29 the cup; 29 for he who eats and drinks is eating and drinking a judg-30 ment upon himself when he does not distinguish the body. 30 That is why there are among you many weakly and sick, and a number have 31 gone to their rest. 31 But if we saw how we stood, we should not be 32 judged; 32 but in being judged we are being disciplined by the Lord, in order that we may not be condemned with the world.

33 Consequently, my brothers, when you come together to eat wait 34 for each other. 34 If anybody is hungry let him eat at home, in order that your coming together may not run you into judgment. And as to the rest I will give directions when I shall come.

CHAPTER 12

1 And about the workings of the Spirit, brothers, I do not wish you 2 to be ignorant. 2 You know when you were heathen you were carried 3 away to the voiceless idols, however it was done. 3 For this reason I make it known to you that nobody speaking in the Spirit of God says

"Jesus is accursed," and nobody can say "Jesus is Lord" except in Holy Spirit.

4 5 4 But there are different lines of gifts, but the same Spirit; 5 and 6 there are different lines of service and the same Lord; 6 and there are 7 different lines of divine workings and the same God, he who works 8 everything in everybody. 7 But each one is given such a manifestation 9 of the Spirit as will be advantageous. 8 For one through the Spirit is 10 given words of wisdom, and another words of knowledge after the 11 same Spirit, 9 somebody else faith, in the same Spirit, and another 12 gifts of healing, in the one Spirit, 10 and another miracle-workings, an-13 other prophecy, another discrimination between spirits, somebody else 14 different kinds of languages, and another the translating of languages.
15 11 But in all these one and the same Spirit is at work, distributing to 16 each individually as it wishes.

17 12 For just as the body is one and has many organs, but all the organs 18 of the body, many as they are, are one body, so it is with the Christ; 19 13 for we too were all baptized in one Spirit into one body, be we Jews 20 or Greeks, be we slaves or freemen, and were all given one Spirit 21 to drink in.

22 14 For neither is the body one organ, but many. 15 If the foot says "Be-23 cause I am not a hand I am no part of the body" it is not on that ac-24 count no part of the body, 16 and if the ear says "Because I am not an 25 eye I am no part of the body" it is not on that account no part of 26 the body. 17 If the body were wholly eye, where would be the hearing?
27 if wholly ear, where the smelling? 18 But now God did put the organs 28 each one of them in the body as he chose; 19 and if all were one organ, 29 where would be the body? 20 but now there are many organs but one body.
30 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand "I have no need of you," or again 31 the head to the feet "I have no need of you," 22 but, much rather, what 32 seem to be weak organs of the body are necessary, 23 and it is just what 33 we think are less honorable parts of the body that we invest with 34 special honor, and the indecorous parts of us have special decorum, 35 but the decorous parts of us stand in no need. 24 But God commingled 36 the body, giving special honor to what came short, 25 in order that 37 there might not be division in the body, but the organs might feel 38 the same solicitude for each other; 26 and be it that one organ suffers, 39 all the organs suffer with it; be it that one organ is decorated, all 40 the organs rejoice with it.

41 27 And you are Christ's body, and, individually, organs; 28 and in the 42 church God has put some, first, as apostles; secondly, as prophets; 43 thirdly, as teachers; then miracles, then gifts of healing, assistance, 44 management, different kinds of languages. 29 Are all apostles? are all 45 prophets? are all teachers? do all work miracles? 30 do all have gifts 46 of healing? do all speak languages? do all translate?

47 31 But aspire to the greater gifts. And let me point out to you an

CHAPTER 13

1 even preeminent course. 1 If I speak the languages of men and angels but do not have love, I turn into a gong sounding or a cymbal clashing; 2 and if I have prophecy and know all secrets and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, 3 I am nothing; 3 and if I give all my possessions in charity, and if I give up my body in order to boast, but do not have love, I am none the better. 4 Love is patient, kind; love is not jealous; love does not show off, does not get inflated, 5 does not shock people, does not look out for its own interests, does not get provoked, does not count its injuries, 6 is not glad at a wrong deed but glad to have the truth made glad, 7 stands everything, believes everything, hopes everything, holds out through everything. 8 Love never drops away; but as for prophecies they will be superseded, as for languages they will come to a stop, 9 as for knowledge it will be superseded; 9 for it is in part that we know 10 and in part that we prophesy, 10 but when the complete comes the 11 partial will be superseded. 11 When I was a child I used a child's language, took a child's views, made a child's calculations; since I have 12 become a man I have superseded the child's ways. 12 For we see now by a mirror, as a puzzle to be guessed at, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I shall be aware in the same way as he was 13 aware of me. 13 And now there remain faith, hope, love—these three. And greatest of these is love.

CHAPTER 14

1 1 Aim at love; but aspire to the manifestations of the Spirit, but 2 preferably that you should prophesy. 2 For he who speaks a language is speaking not to men but to God, for nobody understands, but in 3 spirit he is speaking secrets; 3 but he who prophesies is speaking up- 4 building and exhortation and comfort for men. 4 He who speaks a language is building himself up; but he who prophesies is building 5 up the church. 5 And I want to have you all speak languages, but preferably to have you prophesy; and he who prophesies is superior to him who speaks languages, except in case he translates so that the church may get an upbuilding.

6 6 And now, brothers, if I come to you speaking languages what good shall I do you unless I speak to you either in revelation or in knowl- 7 edge or in prophecy or teaching? 7 It is the same with lifeless sound- 8 producers: be it flute or be it harp, if it does not make a distinction 8 in the notes how will the tune that is being played be known? 8 For, 9 again, if a trumpet makes an unclear sound, who will get ready for 9 war? 9 So with you too: if by your tongues you do not produce plain 10 speech, how will the meaning that is being spoken be known? for you 10 will be talking into the air. 10 There are so many kinds, say, of sounds 11 in the world, and none unvocal; 11 if, then, I do not know the force of 11 the sound, I shall be senseless to the speaker and the speaker senseless 12 to me. 10 In the same way you: since you are aspirants to spirit-gifts, try 12 to excel for the upbuilding of the church.

13 Wherefore, let him who speaks a language pray that he may trans-14 late. 14 For if I pray in a language, my spirit is praying but my mind is 15 not fruiting. 15 So what is the thing to do? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the mind too; I will sing with the spirit, and I 16 will sing with the mind too.— 16 Since if you bless in spirit, how is he who occupies the commoner's place to say the Amen to your thanks, 17 since he does not know what you are saying? 17 you are giving thanks 18 well, but the other man is not being built up. 18 I thank God, I speak 19 languages more freely than any of you; 19 but in meeting I had rather speak five sentences with my mind, in order to enlighten others too, than ten thousand sentences in a language.

20 20 Brothers, do not be children in intelligence; as to viciousness do 21 be childlike, but in intelligence be adult. 21 In the law it stands written "By men of alien language and by alien lips I will speak to this 22 people, and not even so will they listen to me, says the Lord." 22 Consequently languages are for a token not to believers but to unbelievers, 23 but prophecy not to unbelievers but to believers. 23 If then the whole church meets together and all are speaking languages, and commoners 24 or unbelievers come in, will they not say you are crazy? 24 But if all are prophesying, and some unbeliever or commoner comes in, he is re-25 proved by all, he is put through an examination by all, 25 the things hidden in his heart come out; and thus he will throw himself down on his face and do reverence to God, declaring that God really is among you.

26 26 So what is the thing to do, brothers! When you come together, each has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has a language, 27 has a translation—let everything be so done as to build up: 27 suppose somebody is speaking a language, let it be done by twos or at most 28 threes, and one after another, and one translate; 28 but if there is no translator, let him keep silence in meeting, and speak to himself and 29 to God. 29 And of prophets let two or three speak and the others assess; 30 30 but if a revelation comes to another who is in the seats, let the first 31 keep silence. 31 For you can all prophesy one at a time, in order that all 32 may learn and all receive exhortation; 32 and prophets' spirits subordinate 33 themselves to prophets, 33 for God is not a God of disorder but of peace.

34 34 As in all meetings of God's people, let the women keep silence in the meetings; for it is not permissible for them to speak, but let them 35 subordinate themselves, as the law too says. 35 But if they wish to find out something, let them put questions to their husbands at home; 36 for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in meeting. 36 Or was it from you that the word of God started, or did it arrive at you alone?
37 37 If anybody is supposed to be a prophet or gifted with the Spirit, let him recognize what I am writing to you as being a commandment 38 of the Lord; 38 but if somebody discredits it, discredit that.

39 39 Consequently, brothers, aspire to prophesying, and do not bar 40 speaking languages; 40 but let everything be done in a respectable and orderly way.

CHAPTER 15

1 1 But, brothers, let me make you acquainted with the gospel I preached to you, the same that you received, the same that you stand 2 on, 2 the same that you are saved by, in what terms I preached it to you, if you are holding to it—except in case you believed for nothing!
3 3 For I handed on to you as a foremost thing the same thing I received, 4 that Christ died for our sins in accordance with scripture, 4 and that he was buried, and that he rose the third day in accordance with 5 6 scripture, 5 and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve; 6 then he appeared to above five hundred brothers at a time, of whom the majority are with us until now, but some have gone to their rest; 7 8 7 then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles; 8 and last of all, 9 as it were to the runt born by abortion, he appeared to me too. 9 For I am the most insignificant of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, 10 10 because I persecuted God's church; but by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me was not a failure, but I out-toiled all of them—yet not I, but God's grace with me.

11 11 So, be it I or they, we preach that way and you believed that way.
12 12 But if Christ is preached to have risen from the dead, how do some among you say there is no such thing as resurrection of the dead?
13 13 But if there is no such thing as resurrection of the dead, not even 14 Christ has risen; 14 and if Christ has not risen, then our preaching 15 has nothing in it, your faith has nothing in it either, 15 and into the bargain we are found to be false witnesses against God, because we testified as to God that he raised the Christ, whom he did not raise 16 if we are to take it that the dead do not rise. 16 For if the dead do not 17 rise, not even Christ has risen; 17 and if Christ has not risen, your faith 18 is futile, you are still in your sins. 18 Then those who have gone to 19 their rest in Christ perished too. 19 If we are hoping in Christ in this life only, we are most pitiable of all men.

20 20 But now Christ has risen from the dead, first to come in of those 21 who have gone to their rest. 21 For since death came through a man, 22 resurrection of the dead came through a man too. 22 For as by Adam all are dying, so too by the Christ all are going to be brought to life, 23 23 but each when his turn comes: Christ the first to come in; then those 24 who belong to Christ, at his coming; 24 then the end, when he hands the empire over to God the Father, when he has superseded every 25 government and every authority and power, 25 for he has to reign "until 26 he has put all enemies under his feet." 26 Last of the enemies death is 27 superseded. 27 For "he has subjected everything under his feet"; but, when it says "everything" is subjected, evidently exclusive of him 28 who subjected everything to him. 28 But when everything has been subjected to him, then the Son himself too will be subjected to him who subjected everything to him, in order that God may be everything in everything.

29 29 Because what will those who get baptized for the dead do? if dead men do not rise anyhow, why go the length of getting baptized 30 31 for them? 30 Why, too, do we ourselves run risks every moment? 31 I am 32 dying day after day, I swear it by the boast of you, brothers, which 33 I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. 32 If as far as men were concerned I 34 fought the beasts in Ephesus, what good does it do me? if dead men do not rise, "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die." 33 Make no mistake; "keeping bad company spoils good characters"; 34 sober up honestly and do not sin; for some folks are sheer materialists—I speak to stir your sense of shame.

35 35 But somebody will say "How do the dead rise? and with what sort 36 of body do they come?" 36 Silly man, what you yourself sow does not 37 come to life unless it dies; 37 and of what you sow you sow not the body that is to come but a naked grain, of wheat say or some one of the 38 rest; 38 and God gives it a body as he has willed, and to each of the seeds 39 a body of its own. 39 Flesh is not all of it the same flesh, but there is one of men, and another flesh of cattle, and another flesh of fowl, and 40 another of fishes. 40 And there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is of one type and that of the earthly is 41 other: 41 one glory of the sun and another glory of the moon and another 42 glory of the stars, for star differs from star in glory. 42 So too the resur-43 rection of the dead: it is sowed in dissolution, it rises in imperish-44 ability; 43 it is sowed in ignominy, it rises in glory; it is sowed in weak-45 ness, it rises in power; 44 it is sowed an animal body, it rises a spiritual 46 body. 45 If there is an animal body there is a spiritual too. It is written 47 so too, the first man Adam "became a living soul"; the last Adam, 48 a life-giving spirit. 46 But there is not first the spiritual, but the animal, 49 then the spiritual. 47 The first man was out of the earth, a figure of 48 clay; the second man, out of heaven. 48 Such as the figure of clay, such also are those who are of clay, and such as the heavenly one, such 49 also are those who are heavenly; 49 and as we have worn the likeness of the figure of clay, let us wear the likeness of the heavenly one also.

50 50 But this I do say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the 51 Reign of God, nor does dissolution inherit imperishability. 51 Here I 52 tell you a secret: we shall not all go to our rest, but we shall all be 53 changed in an instant, 52 in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will rise imperishable, and we shall be changed. 53 For this that is perishable has to dress itself in imperishability, and this that is mortal to dress itself in immortality.
54 54 But when this that is mortal does dress itself in immortality, then the 55 words that are written will come true, "Death has been swallowed up 56 in victory." 55 Where is your victory, death? where is your sting, death?
57 But the sting of death is sin. 56 And the power of sin is the law.
58 57 And thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 58 Consequently, dear brothers, be firm in your footing, not easy to knock about, always abundant in work for the Lord, knowing that your labor does not come to nothing in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16

1 And as to the collection for the members of the church, do the same 2 as I directed the churches of Macedonia: 2 the first day of every week let each of you lay by to accumulate whatever he is prospered to, in order that when I come there may not be taking up of collections 3 then. 3 And when I arrive, whomever you approve I will send with 4 letters to take your kindness to Jerusalem; 4 and if it is worth while 5 for me to go too, they shall go with me. 5 But I will come to you when I have been through Macedonia; for I am going through Macedonia, 6 6 but with you I shall maybe stay a while or over the winter, in order 7 that you may give me a send-off wherever I may be going. 7 For I do not want to pay you a passing visit now; for I hope to stay with you 8 some time, if the Lord permits. 8 But I shall stay in Ephesus till 9 Pentecost; 9 for a great door for effective work has been opened to me, and there are many opponents.

10 10 But if Timothy comes, see to it that he is free from fear among 11 you; 11 for he is working at the Lord's work the same as I am, so let nobody scorn him, but start him on his way in peace to come to me, 12 for I am expecting him with the brothers. 12 But as to Brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers, and it positively was not willed that he should come now, but he will when he gets a chance.

13 13 Keep awake, stand firm in the faith, be manly, take on strength.
14 14 Let everything you are concerned in be done in love.

15 15 But I urge you, brothers,—you know Stephanas's family, how it was the first to come in in Achaea and they charged themselves with 16 service to God's people,— 16 that you too put yourselves at the disposal of folks like that and of everybody who cooperates and does the hard 17 work. 17 And I am glad of the arrival of Stephanas and Fortunatus and 18 Achaicus because these filled out the shortage of you; 18 for they set my spirit at rest, and yours too. So recognize folks like that.

19 19 The churches of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Prisca, with 20 the meeting at their home, send you many greetings in the Lord. 20 All the brothers send you greetings. Give my greetings to each other with a holy kiss.

21 21 Greeting with my own hand from me, Paul. 22 If anyone does not 23 love the Lord, let him be for God's destruction. 23 Maran atha. The grace 24 of the Lord Jesus be with you. 24 My love is with you all in Christ Jesus.

PAUL'S SECOND LETTER TO THE CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

- 1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through God's will, and Brother Timothy, to God's church at Corinth with all the people of God in all 2 Achaea: 2 grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and God of all encouragement, 4 who encourages us upon all our distress so that we may be able to encourage those who are in any distress with the encouragement that is given to us ourselves 5 by God, 5 because as the Christ's sufferings are coming plentifully to us, so through the Christ our encouragement too comes in plentiful 6 measure. 6 And be it that we are distressed, this is for your encouragement and salvation; or be it that we are encouraged, this is for your encouragement, which takes effect in the steadfast endurance of the 7 same sufferings that we too undergo, 7 and our hope is firm for you, knowing as we do that as you are included in the sufferings, so too you are included in the encouragement.
- 8 For we do not want you to go without the knowledge, brothers, as to our distress in Asia, that we had an extraordinarily hard time, too hard for our powers, so that we had no prospect of even living, 9 but have had in our own selves the answer of death, 9 in order that we may not be confident in ourselves but in God who raises the dead, 10 who delivered us out of that awful death and will do so; 10 on whom we have set our hope. 11 And he will deliver us still, while you cooperate helpfully on our behalf by petition, in order that from many faces thanks for the favor bestowed on us may be given through many on our behalf.
- 12 For this is our boast, the testimony of our conscience that it was in God's holiness and candor, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, that we lived the life we did in the world; and very specially 13 in relation to you. 13 For we do not write anything else to you but what you read or even recognize, 14 and we hope will recognize to the full, 14 as you did in part recognize us to be your boast, the same as you are ours on the day of our Lord Jesus.
- 15 And in this assurance I wanted to come first to you, in order that 16 you might have a second glad time, 16 and to go through to Macedonia by way of you and come from Macedonia to you again and have you 17 see me off for Judea. 17 Wanting to do this, then, did I act capriciously? or is it in the way of flesh that I plan what I plan, so that with me 18 there should be "O yes" and "O no"? 18 But, as God is faithful, our 19 words to you are not yes-and-no. 19 For God's Son Jesus Christ, who was proclaimed among you through us, Silvanus and Timothy and me, has not shown himself a yes-and-no, but in him there has been a Yes.

20 For in him is the Yes to as many promises of God as there are; for which reason through him also comes the Amen for glory to God 21 through us. 21 And the one who brings us with you into a settled position 22 in Christ and has anointed us is God, 22 the same who sealed us and gave us the Spirit in our hearts as earnest-money.
23 23 But I call God as witness against my own self that it was out of 24 consideration for you I broke off coming to Corinth. 24 Not that we have any control over your faith, but we are cooperators in your joy; for

CHAPTER 2

1 it is by faith you stand. 1 But I made this resolution, not to come to 2 you with an annoyance again. 2 For if I annoy you, then who is it 3 that gladdens me but the one who is annoyed by me? 3 And I wrote that very thing in order that I might not, when I come, have annoyance from those over whom I ought to be rejoicing, being confident 4 of you all that my joy is that of all of you. 4 For in much distress and heartache I wrote to you with many tears, not in order that you might be annoyed but in order that you might know the love I specially 5 feel toward you. 5 And if anyone has caused an annoyance he has caused it not to me but in part, not to come down too hard, to all of 6 7 you. 6 For such a one this rebuke by the majority is sufficient; 7 so that on the contrary you should rather be condoning and encouraging, 8 for fear such a one should be crushed with excessive grief. 8 For which 9 reason I urge you to take the line of love toward him; 9 for this was what I wrote for, in order to ascertain your quality, whether you are 10 obedient on all points. 10 But to him to whom you condone anything, so do I—for what I have condoned, if anything I have, has been on 11 your account before Christ's face, 11 in order that we may not be over-reached by Satan; for we are not unacquainted with his contrivances.
12 12 But when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and had a 13 door opened for me in the Lord, 13 I did not have any relief for my spirit owing to my not finding my brother Titus, but bade them fare-14 well and went out to Macedonia. 14 But thanks be to God who is always leading us about in his triumph and through us diffusing in every 15 place the odor of the knowledge of him, 15 because we are Christ's genial scent to God among those who are being saved and among those 16 who are being lost— 16 to these an odor from death, to death, but to 17 those an odor from life, to life. 17 And for this who is adequate? For we are not like so many, peddling God's word for a living; it is as in honor bound, it is as from God, in God's presence, in Christ, that

CHAPTER 3

1 we speak. 1 Are we beginning to recommend ourselves again? or do we want, as some folks do, letters of commendation to you or from you?
2 2 You are our letter, inscribed on our hearts, known and read by all

3 men, 3 manifested to be a letter of Christ's delivered by us, inscribed not in ink but in Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on heart-tablets of flesh.

4 5 4 But we have such assurance through the Christ toward God, 5 not that we are adequate of ourselves to count anything as from ourselves, 6 but our adequacy is from God, the same who made us adequate as servants of a new covenant not of letter but of spirit; for the letter kills but the spirit brings to life. 7 And if the service of death, in letters, imprinted in stones, came in glory so that the sons of Israel could not fix their eyes on Moses's face because of that glory of his face 8 which was being superseded, 8 how shall the service of the Spirit not 9 be more greatly in glory? 9 For if the service of condemnation is glory, 10 much more surpassing in glory is the service of righteousness; 10 for the glorified is even gloryless in this aspect, on account of the glory 11 that outdoes it. 11 For if what is superseded comes in glory, much more does what remains stand in glory.

12 13 12 So, having such a hope, we practice great frankness, 13 and do not do as Moses did when he put a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel should not set eyes on the end of what was being superseded; 14 but their senses became callous, for to this very day the same veil remains over the reading of the old covenant, not thrown back—because it is superseded in Christ, 15 but to this day when Moses is read a veil lies over their heart. 16 But when he returns to the Lord the veil is taken off. 17 And the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Lord's Spirit is, freedom is. 18 But we all of us, viewing the reflection of the Lord's glory with face freed from its veil, are transfigured into the same likeness, from glory into glory, as should be the case from the Lord's Spirit.

1 1 For this reason, having this service to perform as mercy was 2 granted to us, we do not give up trying, 2 but have renounced the concealments of shame, not walking in trickery nor adulterating God's word, but by giving publicity to the truth commending ourselves to 3 every human conscience before God. 3 And if our gospel be veiled, it 4 is veiled in the case of those who are being lost, 4 in whose case the god of this world has blinded unbelievers' senses so that they should not eye the refulgence of the gospel of the glory of the Christ, who is 5 image of God. 5 For we are not preaching ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves servants to you on Jesus's account, 6 because it was God, he who said "Light shall shine out of darkness," that shone in our hearts to produce the refulgence of the knowledge of God's glory in the face of Christ.

7 7 But we have this treasure in earthen jars, in order that the surpassing power may be God's and not out of us: 8 every way hard 9 pressed but not cornered, perplexed but not baffled, 9 persecuted but 10 not deserted, felled but not ended, 10 always carrying about in our body

Jesus's deadness in order that Jesus's life too may be made visible 11 in our body. 11 For we who are alive are all the time being sent to death on Jesus's account, in order that Jesus's life too may be made visible 12 in our mortal flesh, 12 so that death is at work in us but life in you.
13 13 And, having the same spirit of faith, in accordance with the written words "I believed, for that reason I spoke," we too believe and it is 14 for that reason we speak, 14 knowing that he who raised Jesus will raise 15 us too with Jesus and present us together with you. 15 For everything is on your account, in order that the grace, growing vaster by the greater number, may make thanksgiving the more abundant to the 16 glory of God. 16 Wherefore we do not give up trying, but though our 17 outer man be perishing our inner is renewed day by day, 17 for the light pressure of our present distress is producing for us in un-18 paralleled richness an unequalled weight of eternal glory; 18 while we look not to the seen but to the unseen, for what is seen is temporary

CHAPTER 5

1 but what is unseen is eternal. 1 For we know that if our earthly housing in the tent is pulled down we have a building that comes from God, 2 an eternal unmanufactured house, in the heavens. 2 For this is what we groan about, longing to be clothed with the overgarment of our 3 habitation from heaven, 3 if we are to have put it on and not be found 4 naked— 4 for we who are in the tent are weighed down and groan over our wish not to be stripped but to be clothed with an overgarment in 5 order that mortality may be engulfed by life. 5 And the one that framed us to this very end was God, he who gave us the Spirit as earnest-6 money. 6 So, being always ready for anything, and knowing that while 7 at home in the body we are abroad from the Lord— 7 for we are walking 8 by faith, not by a sight, 8 but we are ready for anything and willing, more willing, to be abroad from the body and at home with the Lord; 9 9 for this reason we make it our ambition too, whether at home or abroad, to be pleasing to him. 10 For we all have to come out to the bar 10 of the Christ, each to get the payment for what he has done with his body, be it a good thing or a bad thing.

11 11 So, knowing the fear of the Lord, we are persuading men but are displayed in our true colors to God, and, I hope, in your consciences 12 too. 12 We are not recommending ourselves to you again, but giving you material for boasting about us, in order that you may have something to say to those who boast of what they have to show and not of what 13 is in them. 13 For if we are out of our senses it looks toward God, and if 14 we are of sound mind it looks toward you. 14 For Christ's love puts a pressure on us, our conclusion being that one died for all, hence all 15 died, 15 and he died for all in order that those who are alive may no longer be alive looking toward themselves but toward the one who 16 died and rose for them, 16 so that we, from now on, do not know anybody in the way of flesh. Even though we have known Christ in the 17 way of flesh, yet now we no longer do. 17 So that if one is in Christ it is a new creation, what originally existed is bygone, here have new 18 things come into existence. 18 But everything is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the errand of com-19 municating the reconciliation, 19 how God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not counting their offenses against them, and consigning to us the word of the reconciliation.

20 20 So we come as ambassadors for Christ, as if it were God appealing to you by us; speaking for Christ we beg you, be reconciled to God.
21 21 Him who had not known sin he made into sin for us in order that

CHAPTER 6

1 we may become righteousness of God's in him. 1 And in cooperation too we appeal to you not to give God's grace such a reception as will 2 make it amount to nothing; 2 for he says "At a time of acceptance I listened to you and on a day of salvation I helped you." Here is the 3 time of acceptance now, here is the day of salvation now. 3 And we do not give anything for people to object to in any case, in order that 4 the business we are on may not be found fault with, 4 but in every case are commending ourselves as agents of God, in holding out through many hard things, in distresses, in necessities, in tight pinches, 5 5 in beatings, in imprisonments, in mobbings, in hard work, in sleepless 6 nights, in foodless days, 6 in integrity, in knowledge, in patience, in 7 kindness, in Holy Spirit, in unfeigned love, 7 in words of truth, in God's power, by the right-hand and left-hand armament of righteousness; 8 8 through glory and dishonor, through denunciation and commendation; 9 9 as deceivers and truthful, as unknown and noted, as dying and here 10 we are alive, as punished for discipline and not put to death, 10 as grieving but always glad, as poor but enriching many, as not having anything but in possession of everything.
11 11 Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians, our heart is expanded.
12 12 You are not narrowed down in us but narrowed down in your own 13 sympathies. 13 But in due requital, I say as speaking to children of mine, be expanded yourselves.
14 14 Do not be in incongruous yoking with unbelievers; for what have righteousness and wickedness in common? or what solidarity has light 15 with darkness? 15 and what agreement between Christ and Belial is 16 there? or what does a believer share with an unbeliever? 16 and what unity is there between a temple of God and idols? for we are a temple of the living God, as God said "I will live among them and walk 17 among them, and will be their God and they shall be my people; 17 wherefore come out from their midst and separate yourselves, says the 18 Lord, and do not touch an unclean thing, 18 and I will take you in and be father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says

CHAPTER 7

1 the Lord Almighty." 1 So, dear friends, having these promises, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of flesh and spirit, working out holiness in the fear of God.

2 2 Find room for us; we did not wrong anybody, wreck anybody, 3 overreach anybody. 3 I am not saying it by way of condemnation; for 4 I have said before that you are in our hearts to live and die with us.
4 4 I have great confidence in speaking to you, great boasts on your 5 account; I am filled full of encouragement, I have superabundant 6 gladness with all our distress— 5 for when we came to Macedonia our 7 human nature had no relief; but in distress at every point—outwardly 8 fights, inwardly fears— 6 but he who encourages those that are brought 9 low, God, encouraged us with Titus's arrival, 7 and not only his arrival 10 but also the encouragement he had over you as he reported to us your 11 longing, your lamenting, your jealousy for me, so that I had more of 12 gladness; 8 because if I did grieve you in my letter, I do not regret it; 13 if I did regret it (I see that that letter did, if only momentarily, 14 grieve you) 9 I am glad now, not that you were grieved but that you 15 were grieved into repentance. For you were grieved in God's way, in 16 order that you might not be in any respect the worse off by us; 10 for 17 grief that is felt in God's way causes repentance into salvation, which 18 there is no regretting, but the world's grief produces death. 11 For look 19 what earnestness, nay, words of self-defense, nay, indignation, nay, 20 fear, nay, longing, nay, jealousy, nay, castigation! every way you 21 kept your skirts clean in the matter. 12 So then if I did write to you it 22 was not on account of the one who did the wrong nor of the one who 23 was wronged, but for the sake of having your earnestness on our be-24 half made apparent to yourselves before God. 13 For this reason we have 25 felt encouraged; and along with our encouragement we were all the 26 gladder at Titus's gladness because his spirit has been set at rest 27 by all of you, 14 because if I have made any boast to him about you I 28 was not put to shame, but as we told you everything truthfully, so 29 too our boasting before Titus proved true. 14 And his sympathies are 30 most pronounced toward you as he remembers the obedience of all of 31 you, how you received him with fear and trembling. 16 I am glad to 32 say that on every score I am in good spirits as regards you.

CHAPTER 8

1 1 But let us make you acquainted, brothers, with God's grace that 2 has been given among the churches of Macedonia, 2 that under a great 3 test of distress the plentifulness of their joy and their deep poverty 4 became a plentiful source for the wealth of their liberality, 3 because 5 to the extent of their power, I can testify, and beyond it, they gave 6 voluntarily, 4 imploring us with strong appeals for the favor and the 7 participation in the service to God's people— 5 and not as we had hoped, 8 but giving themselves first to the Lord, and to us by God's will, 6 so 9 that we invited Titus, as he had made the first start, so too to bring to 10 completion in you this grace too. 7 But as you are plentiful in every-11 thing, faith and the gift of speech and knowledge and all earnestness 12 and love on our part toward you, try to be also plentiful in this grace.
13 8 I do not say it in the way of an order, but to get proof, through the

9 earnestness of others, of the genuineness of your love too— 9 for you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, how on your account he became poor when he was rich, in order that you might become rich by 10 his poverty— 10 and as this is what I am doing I offer an opinion; for this will be good for you, who made the first start last year not only 11 in doing but also in wanting to. 11 But now bring to completion the doing too, so that to the heartiness of wanting to there may correspond 12 the completion that comes from having the wherewithal; 12 for if the hearty readiness is there it is acceptable on the basis of what one has,
13 not of what he does not have. 13 For the idea is not that others are to get an easy time, you a hard one, 14 but to have it on an equality, your 14 surplus coming in just now for their shortage in order that their surplus may also come in for your shortage, so that there may be 15 equality, 15 as it is written "The one who had taken more had no surplus and the one who had taken less had no shortage."

16 But thanks be to God who is putting into Titus's heart the same 17 earnestness on your behalf, 17 because he has accepted the invitation and, so earnest he was, has gone off to you on his own initiative.
18 And we sent with him the brother whose praise in the preaching of 19 the gospel runs through all the churches, 19 and, besides, who has with a view to the glory of the Lord himself and our hearty preference been elected by the churches as our fellow-traveler in the matter of 20 this grace that is being administered by us, 20 to avoid having anybody find fault with us in the matter of this bounty that is being ad-21 ministered by us; 21 for we are keeping in mind what is going to look well not only before the Lord but also before men. 22 And we sent with 22 them our brother whom we have many times found by many evidences to be energetic, but now much more energetic by the confidence he 23 has in you. 23 As to Titus, he is our comrade and co-worker for you; 24 our brothers, they are church delegates, glory of Christ. 24 So when you give the demonstration of your love and of our boast about you to them, it is in presence of the churches.

CHAPTER 9

1 For about the service to God's people it is superfluous for me to 2 write to you, 2 for I know your heartiness, as to which I am boasting of you to the Macedonians that Achaea has been prepared ever since last year, and rivalry with you has stirred up the greater part of them.
3 3 But I send the brothers in order that our boast of you may not be made an empty one in this respect; in order that you may, as I said, be 4 prepared, 4 for fear that if Macedonians should come with me and find you unprepared we (not to say you) should be shamed about this 5 pledge; 5 so I thought it necessary to request the brothers to go to you in advance and get this already promised bounty of yours into shape in advance to be ready in that way, as a bounty and not as a grab.
6 6 But there is this, he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, 7 and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. 7 Each as he has his mind made up, not in annoyance nor under compulsion, for 8 God "loves a cheerful giver." 8 And God is powerful to make all grace superabound toward you, in order that you, always having in every respect all sufficiency for yourselves, may superabound to every good 9 work 9 (as it is written "He scattered, gave to the poor, his sainthood 10 lasts forever"; 10 and he who furnishes seed for the sower and bread for eating will furnish your sowings, and that abundantly, and make 11 the produce of your right-doing grow), 11 enriched with everything for 12 all liberality, which through you produces thanksgiving to God 12 because the dispensing of this service not only supplements the shortages of God's people but also through many thanksgivings superabounds 13 to God; 13 glorifying God, through the evidence of this ministration, with the good discipline of your professed allegiance to the gospel of the Christ, and the generousness of your solidarity to them and to 14 everybody, 14 and their prayers for you as they yearn over you because 15 of God's surpassing grace upon you. 15 Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift.

CHAPTER 10

1 1 —And I Paul myself urge you by the Christ's gentleness and reasonableness, I who face to face am a nobody among you, but at a 2 distance am stouthearted toward you— 2 but I beg that I may not at close quarters be stout with that assurance with which I reckon on venturing against some people, those who reckon us as walking in the 3 way of flesh. 3 For, while we walk in flesh, we do not carry on our 4 campaign in the way of flesh; 4 for the weapons of our campaigning are not fleshly but divinely powerful for the demolishing of fortified 5 positions, 5 demolishing argumentations and every high structure raised against the knowledge of God and taking every idea prisoner into 6 obedience to the Christ, 6 and all ready to deal out penalties for every noncompliance when your obedience has come to the full.

7 7 Look at what you see before your faces. If somebody feels confident that he belongs to Christ, let him think this over again to himself, 8 that we belong to Christ just the same as he does. 8 For if I boast more or less freely about our authority, which the Lord gave for building 9 you up and not for demolishing you, I shall not be shamed; 9 —not to 10 speak as if I were sort of scaring you by my letters, 10 because "the letters," he says, "are impressive and strong, but the personal presence 11 is weak and the talk does not amount to anything." 11 Let such a man think this over, that what we are like in talk by letters while absent is just what we are like in action when present.

12 12 For we do not venture to put ourselves in the same class with, or compare ourselves with, some of those who are recommending themselves; but they, measuring themselves by themselves and comparing 13 themselves with themselves, do not see what is what. 13 But we will not boast beyond the range of measurement, but suitably to the measurement of the yardstick of the measure God gave us, to come clear 14 through to you. 14 For we are not overstretching ourselves, as we might be if we were not coming through to you; for we did get clear through 15 to you in preaching the Christ's gospel; 15 not boasting out of measure on the basis of other people's hard work, but having a hope that as your faith grows we may be greatened in you, conformably to our yardstick, 16 to a further extension, 16 to preach the gospel in the places out beyond 17 you, not in somebody else's yard to brag of ready-made progress. 17 But 18 "let him who boasts boast of the Lord." 18 For it is not he who recommends himself that rates as up to the standard, but he whom the Lord recommends.

CHAPTER 11

1 I wish you would put up with a little bit of silliness from me; yes, 2 do put up with me. 2 For I am jealous over you, feeling God's jealousy.
For I betrothed you to one husband, to present you to Christ a pure 3 virgin; 3 and I am afraid lest, as the snake befooled Eve by his trickery, your sentiments should be seduced away from Christ-directed single-4 mindedness and purity. 4 For if the one who comes preaches another Jesus whom we did not preach, or you get a different spirit that you did not get, or a different gospel that you did not receive, you are 5 quite right in putting up with him. 5 For I figure that I have in no 6 respect fallen behind the superlative apostles. 6 And even if I am uneducated in talk I am not in knowledge, but in everything we have made it manifest by everything on all occasions among you.

7 7 Or did I commit a sin by lowering myself to have you upraised, in 8 that I preached God's gospel to you gratis? 8 I looted other churches, 9 taking pay for service to you; 9 and when I was there with you and was in want I did not squeeze anybody, for the brothers came from Macedonia and supplemented my shortage; and in everything I kept 10 myself from being a load on you, and will do so. 10 It is gospel truth what I am telling you, I am not going to have this boast blocked 11 against me in the territories of Achaëa. 11 Why? because I do not love 12 you? God knows. 12 But what I am doing and will do is in order to cut away the foothold of those who desire a foothold to start from, in order that in the point they boast of they may be found to be the 13 same as we are. 13 For men of that sort are false apostles, tricky work-14 men, reshaping themselves into apostles of Christ's— 14 and no wonder, 15 for Satan himself reshapes himself into an angel of light, 15 so it is no great thing if his agents too reshape themselves like agents of righteousness; their end will be suitable to their deeds.

16 16 I say again, do not any of you think I am silly. But if you do, at least give me a silly man's hearing so that I too may do a little 17 boasting. 17 What I am saying I am not saying along the Lord's line 18 but, so to speak, in silliness, in this insistence on boasting. 18 Since 19 many are boasting along the line of flesh, so will I. 19 For you do like 20 to put up with silly people, you being so sensible; 20 for you put up with it if one enslaves you, if one eats you out of house and home, if one takes things, if one holds his head high, if one strikes you in the face.

21 I am speaking in terms of disrespect as if the point were that we had been weak. But as to what anybody presumes on, I say in silliness, so do I presume. 22 They are Hebrews—so am I. They are Israelites—so am I. They are descendants of Abraham—so am I. 23 They are Christ's messengers—I am out of my senses to say it, more so I, with an uncommon amount of hard work, an uncommon number of imprisonments, a record-breaking number of beatings, a great number of deaths. 24 At Jews' hands I five times received forty stripes lacking one; 25 three times I was beaten with Roman rods; once I was stoned; three times I was shipwrecked, I have spent a day and a night in the deep; 26 often on the move, in dangers by rivers, dangers by robbers, dangers from those of my blood, dangers from foreigners, dangers in the city, dangers in the wilderness, dangers on the sea, dangers among pretended brothers, 27 in toil and drudgery, with many a sleepless night, with hunger and thirst, many times without anything to eat, with cold and nakedness. 28 Apart from the things outside me, there is what takes up my mind day after day, anxiety about all the churches. 29 Who is sick and I am not sick? who trips up and my face does not burn? 30 If I have to boast I will boast of things connected with my weakness. 31 The Lord Jesus Christ's God and Father knows, he who is blessed forever, that I am not lying: 32 at Damascus King Harithath's sheik had a force in the city of the Damascenes to arrest me, 33 and I was let down in a basket through the wall by a window and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12

1 I have to boast; it is not good for me, but I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2 I know of a man in Christ fourteen years ago, whether in body I do not know or whether outside the body I do not know, God knows,—of that person's being snatched up to the third heaven; 3 and I know that man (whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, God knows) 4 to have been snatched up into Paradise and heard unutterable words which it is not permissible for a man to speak. 5 As to that person I will boast, but as to myself I will do no boasting except of my weaknesses. 6 For if I do choose to boast I shall not be silly, for I shall be speaking the truth; but I am holding back for fear somebody should rate me above what he sees me to be or hears from me by the very extraordinariness of the revelations. 7 For which reason, in order that I may not feel too lofty, I was given a thorn for my flesh, a messenger of Satan's to bang me about in order that I may not feel too lofty. 8 As to this I appealed to the Lord three times to have it leave me; 9 and he has said to me "My grace suffices you; for power comes to its completion in weakness." Most gladly, then, will I boast rather of weaknesses, in order that the Christ's power may settle on me. 10 For which reason I welcome weaknesses—brutal treatment, necessities, persecutions, and tight pinches for Christ; for when I am weak, then I am powerful.

11 11 I have become silly; you drove me to it. For I ought to be getting recommendations from you. For there is nothing in which I have fallen behind the superlative apostles, even if I do not amount to any-12 thing. 12 The tokens of the apostle have been produced among you 13 with all perseverance, by tokens and wonders and miracles. 13 For what point is there in which you were left worse off than the rest of the churches, except that I did not personally squeeze you? excuse me 14 for this unfairness. 14 This makes the third time now that I have been ready to come to you, and I will not squeeze you, for I am not after what is yours but after you. For the children ought not to be laying 15 by for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15 And I will most gladly spend and be expended for your souls. If I specially love you 16 am I less loved?— 16 But say I did not burden you myself, but, foxy that 17 I am, I caught you by trickery. 17 Of those that I have sent to you 18 has there been anyone through whom I took an advantage of you? 18 I invited Titus to go, and I sent the brother with him; did Titus take any advantage of you? did we not walk by the same spirit? in the same steps?

19 19 You have been thinking all along that it was to you we were making our defense; it is before God that we have been speaking in Christ.
20 20 But everything, dear friends, has been for your upbuilding; for I have been afraid that possibly when I come I may find you not such as I want to, and have you find me such as you do not want to; that possibly quarreling, jealousy, fits of passions, schemes of church 21 politics, detractions, whisperings, inflated airs, disorders—21 that when I come again God is going to humble me in your presence and I am to mourn over great numbers of those who had previously sinned and have not repented over the nastiness and unchastity and indecency they have practiced.

CHAPTER 13

1 1 This makes the third time I am coming to you. "Every point shall 2 be established at the mouths of two witnesses, and of three." 2 I have said beforehand, and am saying beforehand, the same now that I am away as when I was there the second time, that if I come again 3 I will not spare, 3 since you are looking for evidence of the genuineness of the Christ who speaks in me—who is not weak toward you, 4 but is powerful in you; 4 for he was crucified as a result of weakness, but he is alive as a result of God's power; for we too are weak in him but shall live with him as a result of God's power toward you.
5 5 Make the test of yourselves, if you are in the faith; see about your own genuineness. Or do you not recognize in your own case that 6 Jesus Christ is in you?—unless you are counterfeit, 6 but I hope you 7 will find that we are not counterfeits. 7 But we pray to God that you may not do anything bad, not in order that we may show up as genuine but that you may be doing what is good and we be as if we 8 were counterfeits; 8 for we cannot do anything against the truth, but 9 for the truth. 9 For we are glad when we are weak but you are powerful; this is the very thing we are praying for, your advance to sound-10 ness. 10 That is why I write this while I am away, so that when I am there I may not act rigorously under the authority which the Lord gave me for building up and not for demolishing.

 11 11 For the rest, brothers, be joyous, sound, cheerful, unanimous, peace-12 ful, and the God of love and peace will be with you. 12 Give my greetings to each other with a holy kiss. All God's people send you greetings.
 13 13 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

PAUL'S LETTER TO THE GALATIANS

CHAPTER 1

- 1 I Paul, an apostle not from men nor through a man but through 2 Jesus Christ and God the Father who raised him from the dead, 2 and 3 all the brothers who are with me, to the churches of Galatia: 3 Grace 4 and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ 4 who gave himself for our sins in order to take us out of the present vicious world in accordance with the will of our God and Father, 5 5 to whom be glory world without end; amen!
- 6 6 I wonder that you are so quickly shifting from the Christ who 7 called you in grace to another gospel, 7 which is not another one, unless there are some who are disturbing you and wanting to turn the 8 gospel of the Christ another way. 8 But even if we, or if an angel from heaven, preaches to you a gospel inconsistent with the gospel we 9 preached, let him be for God's destruction. 9 As we have said before, now too I say again, if anyone preaches to you a gospel inconsistent with what you did have given to you, let him be for God's destruction.
- 10 10 For am I now persuading men or God? or am I aiming to please men? If I were still pleasing men I should not be Christ's property.
- 11 11 And I give you notice, brothers, as to the gospel preached by me that 12 it is not along human lines; 12 for I did not even take it over nor receive teaching from a man, but through a revelation of Jesus Christ.
- 13 13 For you have heard about my life back in my Jewish days, that I was extraordinarily active in persecuting and ravaging God's church, 14 14 and went further in Jewishness than a good many in my race who were of my age, being a very special zealot for the traditions I had 15 from my fathers. 15 But when he who had set me apart before I was born and had called me by his grace was pleased 16 to reveal his Son in me in order that I might preach his gospel among the nations, at once 17 I did not consult flesh and blood 17 nor go up to Jerusalem to those who had been apostles before me but went off into Arabia, and came 18 back again to Damascus. 18 Then, after three years, I went up to Jeru-

19 salem to look up Cephas, and stayed at his house a fortnight, 19 but did not see another of the apostles, except the Lord's brother James.
20 And in what I am writing to you God knows I am not lying.
21 Then I came into the Syrian and Cilician neighborhood. 22 But I was unknown by face to the churches of Christ in Judea; 23 but they only heard "He who once persecuted us is now preaching the gospel of the faith he used to ravage," 24 and glorified God over me.

CHAPTER 2

1 Then, after fourteen years, I went up to Jerusalem again with Barnabas, taking Titus along too. 2 And I went up in accordance with a revelation; and I laid before them the gospel I am proclaiming among the nations, but privately before those who had reputations, for fear that I should be or had been running a bootless course; 3 but there was no requirement that even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, should be circumcised. 4 But because of the intrusive false brothers who had in-truded themselves to spy on our liberty that we have in Christ Jesus, in order to enslave us,—5 to whom we did not for a moment give way in submission, in order that the truth of the gospel might remain with you. 6 But from those who had the reputation of being something (what they were makes no difference to me; God does not defer to a man's personality)—for those who had reputations propounded nothing to me, 7 but on the contrary, as they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel message for the uncircumcised as Peter had with that for the circumcised, 8 for he who had inspired Peter to the apostleship 9 for the circumcised had inspired me too to the nations, and finding the grace that had been given to me, James and Cephas and John, those who had the reputation of being pillars, shook hands with Barnabas and me on a partnership, we to address ourselves to the nations and they to the circumcised; 10 only we were to remember the poor, which is just what I have made a point of doing. 11 But when Cephas came to Antioch I opposed him face to face because he was recognizably in the wrong; 12 for before a certain person came from James he ate together with the foreigners, but when he came he flinched and separated himself, being afraid of the circumcised party, 13 and the rest of the Jews played the hypocrite together with him, so that even Barnabas was carried along with their hypocrisy; 14 but when I saw that they were not taking a straight line by the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before everybody "If you, when you are a Jew, are living in foreign fashion and not in Jewish, how is it you are forcing the foreigners to go Jewish? 15 We, as by natural birth Jews and not sinful foreigners, 16 but knowing that a man is not justified as the outcome of deeds in observance of the law but only through faith in Jesus Christ, even we put our faith in Jesus Christ in order that we might be justified as the outcome of faith in Christ and not of deeds under the law, because out of the deeds under the law no mortal will be justified. 17 But if in seeking to be justified in Christ we ourselves

17

18 have been found sinful too, then Christ is an auxiliary to sin! away 19 with the thought! 18 For if I build up again what I did break down, I 20 certify myself a transgressor. 19 As for me, through the law I died to the law in order that I might be alive to God. 20 I have been crucified with Christ; and no longer I am alive, but Christ is alive in me; and insofar as I am now alive in flesh I am alive in faith on the Son of God who 21 loved me and gave himself up for me. 21 I do not disregard God's grace.
For if there is righteousness through the law, then Christ died super-fluously."

CHAPTER 3

1 1 You stupid Galatians, who hypnotized you, you who had had it 2 advertised before your eyes that Jesus Christ was crucified? 2 I want to find out this one thing from you: was it as the outcome of deeds in observance of the law that you received the Spirit or was it as the 3 outcome of listening in faith? 3 Are you so stupid as this? when you 4 began by Spirit are you now finishing by flesh? 4 Did you undergo so 5 much for nothing?—if for nothing it was! 5 Does he who furnishes the Spirit to you, then, and who works miracles among you, do it as the outcome of deeds in observance of the law or as the outcome of 6 listening in faith? 6 As Abraham "believed God, and it was counted 7 as righteousness for him." 7 Know, then, that it is the men of faith 8 who are sons of Abraham. 8 And the text, foreseeing that God is justifying the nations as the outcome of faith, gave Abraham the antici-9 patory gospel message "In you all the nations shall be blessed," 9 so 10 that the men of faith are blessed with believing Abraham. 10 For as many as are on the basis of deeds in observance of the law are under a curse; for it says "Accursed is everyone who does not persist in everything written in the book of the law to live up to it." 11 And that 11 in the law nobody is justified in God's presence is obvious, because 12 "the righteous man shall have life by virtue of faith" 12 and the law is not by virtue of faith but "he who practices them shall have life 13 by them." 13 Christ bought us off from the curse of the law, becoming a curse for us (because it says "anyone hanging on wood is accursed"), 14 that in Jesus Christ Abraham's blessing might be on the nations, that we might receive the promised gift of the Spirit through faith.

15 15 Brothers, I speak from a human point of view; it is the same with a human engagement: when it has been validated, nobody ignores it 16 or adds new conditions to it. 16 But the promise was uttered to Abraham "and his seed"—he does not say "and seeds" as referring to many, 17 but, as referring to one, "and your seed," who is Christ. 17 And this is what I am saying: when an engagement had been previously validated by God, the law that came into existence four hundred and thirty years later could not invalidate it so as to supersede the promise.
18 18 For if the inheritance is on the basis of a law it is no longer on the basis of a promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by a promise.
19 19 How about the law then? It was added with a view to transgressions, 20 until the Seed to whom the promise was made should come, and was 21 prescribed through angels by the hand of an intermediary. 20 But an 22 intermediary is not the intermediary of one. 21 But God is one. So is the law in antagonism to God's promises? away with the thought!

For if there had been given a law that could bring life, righteousness 22 would really be by the law; 22 but the text has shut up everything under sin in order that as the outcome of faith in Jesus Christ the fulfillment of the promise might be given to those who believe.

23 23 But before faith came we were kept in custody under the law, 24 shut up to be ready for the faith that was going to be revealed, 24 so that the law has been our conductor to Christ in order that we might be 25 justified on the basis of faith. 25 But now that faith has come we are no longer under a conductor.

26 26 For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For all 27 you who have been baptized to Christ have clothed yourselves with 28 Christ; 28 there is no such thing as Jew or Greek, there is no such thing as slave or free, there is no such thing as male and female, for all 29 of you are one in Christ Jesus. 29 And if you belong to Christ, then you

CHAPTER 4

1 are seed of Abraham, heirs by promise. 1 But, I am saying, for so long as the heir is an infant he is no different from a slave though 2 he is master of everything, 2 but is under guardians and stewards 3 until the date that the father sets; 3 in the same way we, when we were infants, were enslaved under the elementary things of the world.
4 4 But when the full time had elapsed God sent out his Son, born of 5 a woman, born under the law, 5 to buy off those who were under the 6 law, so that we might receive our adoption as sons. 6 And because you are sons God sent out his Son's spirit into our hearts crying "Abba," 7 Father. 7 So that you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son, an heir too through God.

8 8 But then, not knowing God, you were in slavery to those who in 9 nature are not gods. 9 But now when you do know God, or rather are known by God, how is it you are turning back again to the weak and cheap elementary things, to which you want to be in slavery over 10 10 again? 10 you watch days and months and dates and years. 11 I am afraid 11 of you, that I may have done my hard work on you for nothing. 12 Be-12 come like me, because I myself am becoming like you, brothers, I 13 beg you. 13 You did me no wrong; but you know it was because of a physical infirmity that I preached the gospel to you in the first place; 14 14 and you were not provoked to scorn or disgust by the temptation to you in my bodily condition, but received me like an angel of God, 15 like Jesus Christ. 15 What has become of your self-congratulation, then?
16 for I am your witness that if it had been possible you would have dug out your own eyes and given them to me. 16 So that I have become your enemy by telling you the truth!

17 17 They are jealous of you, not in a good sense, but they want to 18 shut you out in order that you may be jealous of them. 18 But it is a 19 good thing to have people's jealousy in a good cause at all times and 20 not only while I am there with you, 19 my children, with whom I am 20 in birth-pangs again till Christ takes shape in you. 20 But I wish I could be there with you now and change my tone, because I am at my wit's end about you.

21 21 Tell me, you that want to be under the law, do you not hear the 22 law? 22 For the text says Abraham had two sons, one by the slave-girl 23 and one by the freewoman, 23 but the one by the slave-girl had been 24 begotten in the way of flesh and the one by the freewoman through 24 a promise: 24 which things are said allegorically; for these are two 25 covenants, one from Mount Sinai, producing children for slavery, 25 which is Hagar (and Sinai is a mountain in Arabia); 25 and it cor-26 27 responds to the present Jerusalem, for that is in slavery with its 26 27 children. 26 But the Jerusalem above is free, which is our mother; 27 for it says "Jubilate, barren woman who bore no children; break loose and shout, you that felt no birth-pangs; because the deserted mother's 28 children outnumber those of the husbanded mother." 28 And you, 29 brothers, like Isaac, are children of a promise; 29 but just as then the one born in the way of flesh persecuted the one born in the way of 30 spirit, so now—but what does the text say? 30 "Turn out the slave-girl and her son, for the slave-girl's son shall not inherit along with the freewoman's!"

31 31 Wherefore, brothers, we are not children of a slave-girl but of the

CHAPTER 5

1 freewoman. 1 It was to freedom that Christ liberated us; so stand firm 2 and do not be held in a yoke of slavery again. 2 Here, it is I, Paul, 3 that am telling you: if you get circumcised, Christ will not do you 4 any good at all. 3 And again I declare to every man who gets circum-4 cised that he owes the performance of the whole of the law. 4 You are 5 disengaged from Christ, you who are being justified by the law; you 5 have dropped out of grace; 5 for we by the Spirit await on the basis 6 of faith a hope of justification. 6 For in Christ Jesus neither circum-6 cision nor uncircumcision has any effect, but faith active through 7 love. 7 You were running finely; who interfered with you to keep you 8 from obeying truth? 8 the pressure is not from the one who is calling 9 10 you. 9 A little piece of yeast makes all the dough yeasty. 10 But I am confident of you in the Lord that you will not take any other attitude; but he who is disturbing you shall bear the sentence he gets, whoever 11 he is. 11 But why am I, brothers, still being persecuted, if I am still preaching circumcision? then the difficulty of the cross is shelved.
12 12 It would be a good thing if those who are unsettling you would do something more to themselves than circumcision.

13 13 For you, brothers, were called on terms of liberty; only do not make liberty an opening for the flesh, but be in slavery to each other 14 through love. 14 For all of the law is fulfilled in one proposition, to 15 love one's neighbor as one's self. 15 But if you bite and eat each other, look out that you do not get used up by each other.

16 16 But I am saying, walk by the Spirit and you shall not fulfill the 17 desire of flesh. 17 For the flesh feels desire against the Spirit, and the 18 Spirit against the flesh; for these two are opposed to each other in 19 order that you may not do whatever you wish. 18 But if you are led by 20 the Spirit, you are not under the law. 19 And the activities of the 21 flesh are plain, which are unchastity, nastiness, indecency, 20 idolatry, 22 witchcraft, hatreds, quarreling, jealousy, fits of passion, schemes of 23 church politics, factions, dissensions, 21 envying, getting drunk, wild 24 parties, and things similar to these; as to which I forewarn you, just 25 as I did, that those who do such things will not inherit the Reign of 26 God. 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, 23 goodness, faith, meekness, self-mastery; 23 against such things there is 24 no law. 24 And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh 25 with its susceptibilities and desires. 25 If we are alive by the Spirit, let 26 us guide ourselves by the Spirit; 26 let us not grow pretentious, chal-

CHAPTER 6

1 lenging each other, envying each other. 1 Brothers, if a person does 2 get swept into some offense, straighten him out, you spiritual ones, 3 in the spirit of meekness, having an eye to yourself for fear you too 4 should be tempted. 2 Carry each other's burdens, and so you will fulfill 5 Christ's law. 3 For if one thinks he is something when he is nothing, 6 he is deluding himself. 4 But let each test his own work, and then he 7 will have his boast with regard to himself alone and not to the other 8 man; 5 for each will be carrying his own pack.

6 6 But let him who receives instruction in the word share everything 7 good with his instructor. 7 Make no mistake, there is no thumbing your 8 nose at God; 8 for a man will reap just the same that he sows, because 9 he who sows into his own flesh will reap out of the flesh decay, but 10 he who sows into the Spirit shall reap out of the Spirit eternal life.
11 9 And let us not give up doing what is good, for at the right time reap 12 we shall if we do not weaken. 10 So then let us, as we have opportunity, 13 practice good deeds toward everybody, and especially toward the 14 members of our family of faith.

11 11 See in what large letters I am writing to you with my own hand.
12 12 It is such as want to make a fine appearance in flesh that are com-13 pelling you to get circumcised, only in order that for the Christ's 14 cross they may not be persecuted; 13 for those who get circumcised do 15 not themselves keep the law either, but they want you to be circum-16 cised in order that they may boast over your flesh. 14 But far be it from 17 me to boast over anything but the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, 18 through which I have the world crucified to me and myself to the 19 world. 15 For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision amounts to any-20 thing, but only new creation; 16 and as many as shall guide themselves by this standard, peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon God's Israel.

17 Hereafter let nobody make me trouble; for I carry Jesus's brand on my body.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirits, brothers; amen.

PAUL'S LETTER TO THE EPHESIANS

CHAPTER 1

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through God's will, to God's 2 people at Ephesus, believers in Christ Jesus: 2 grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly sphere 4 in Christ, 4 as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world 5 that we should be holy and unblemished before him, 5 foreordaining us in love to adoption through Jesus Christ into himself according 6 to the pleasure of his will, 6 to the praise of the glory of his grace with 7 which he graced us in the Loved One! 7 in whom we have redemption through his blood, the pardon of offenses as befits the wealth of his 8 9 grace 8 which he has made to superabound toward us, 9 making known to us in all good sense and wisdom the secret of his will as was his 10 pleasure which he planned to realize in him 10 for the arrangement of all that fills time, to sum up everything in the Christ, what is in the heavens and what is on earth;—

11 11 In him in whom we received our allotment too, foreordained to it in accordance with the purpose of him who works in everything ac-12 cording to the planning of his will, 12 that we should be for the praise of his glory, we who had set our anticipatory hope on the Christ; 13 13 in whom you too, having heard the word of the truth, the gospel of your salvation,—in whom having believed too, you were sealed with 14 the holy Spirit of the promise, 14 which is the first installment of our inheritance, for redemption for preservation, to the praise of his glory.

15 15 Because of this I on my part, hearing of what there is among you 16 of faith in the Lord Jesus and love toward all God's people, 16 never cease to give thanks for you as I make mention of you in my prayers, 17 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of Glory, may 18 give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in awareness of him, 18 your heart's eyes lighted up so that you shall know what is the hope of his call, what the wealth of glory of his inheritance among his people, 19 19 and what the supreme greatness of his power toward us believers, 20 the like of that exertion of the mightiness of his strength 20 which he has put forth in the case of the Christ, raising him from the dead and 21 seating him at his right hand in the heavenly sphere, 21 up above every government and dominion and power and lordship and every name that is named not only in this world but also in the world to 22 come; 22 and he subjected everything under his feet and gave him as 23 head over everything to the church, 23 which is his body, the fullness of him who fills everything in everything.

CHAPTER 2

1 2 1 And you, when you were dead by offenses and by your sins 2 in which you once took your way to suit the times of this world, as suits the ruler of the dominion of air, of the spirit that is now at work in the 3 sons of disobedience; 3 among whom we too, all of us, once lived our life in the desires of our flesh, doing the things willed by the flesh and the mind, and were by nature objects of anger the same as the 4 rest. 4 But God, being rich in pity, because of his great love with which 5 he loved us 5 brought us to life together with the Christ when we 6 were dead by offenses—it is by grace you are saved— 6 and raised us together with him and seated us together with him in the heavenly 7 sphere, in Christ Jesus, 7 in order that in the ages that are coming on he might show the surpassing wealth of his grace in kindness 8 toward us in Christ Jesus. 8 For it is by grace you are saved through 9 faith; and not out of yourselves either—God's is the gift; 9 not on a 10 basis of deeds, lest somebody should boast. 10 For we are his making, created in Christ Jesus with a view to good deeds which God made ready beforehand so that we might occupy ourselves in them.

11 11 For which reason be mindful that once upon a time you, the foreigners in flesh, you who are called "uncircumcision" by the so-called 12 "circumcision," artificial, in flesh,— 12 that at that time, away from Christ, you were cut off by unrelation from citizenship in Israel and were strangers to the covenants of the promise, hopeless and godless 13 in the world; 13 but now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have 14 by the Christ's blood come to be nearby. 14 For he is our peace, he who 15 made both one and broke away the fencing-off party-wall, 15 the enmity, in his flesh, superseding the law of commandments in decree form in order to create the two in himself into one new man, making peace, 16 16 and to reconcile both to God in one body through the cross, killing 17 the enmity on it; 17 and he came bringing good news of peace to you who 18 were far away and peace to those who were nearby, 18 because through him we both of us have our presentation to the Father in one Spirit.
19 19 So then you are not strangers in an immigrant status any longer, but you are fellow-citizens of God's people and members of God's 20 family, 20 built in on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, the 21 cornerstone being Christ Jesus himself, 21 in whom all the work of the building is being so fitted that it grows into a holy temple in the 22 Lord; 22 in whom you too are being built together in the Spirit into a home of God.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 On this account I, Paul, Christ Jesus's man in prison for you 2 foreigners— 2 if you heard of the bestowal of that grace of God's which 3 was given me for you: 3 it was by way of revelation that the secret 4 was made known to me, as I wrote in brief above, 4 by which as you 5 read you can sense my insight into the secret of the Christ, 5 which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men as it has

6 now been spiritually revealed to his holy apostles and prophets, 6 the nations' being co-heirs and concorporate and co-sharers of the promise 7 in Christ Jesus through the gospel, 7 of which I became an agent in consequence of the gift of that grace of God's which was given me in 8 accordance with the working of his power. 8 I, the least fit of all God's people, was given this grace, to bring the nations the gospel of the 9 Christ's unfathomable richness 9 and to bring into the light what is the system followed with the secret that has from eternity been hidden 10 in God, who created everything, 10 in order that God's many-sided wisdom might now through the church be made known to the governments 11 and dominions in the heavenly sphere 11 in accordance with the eternal purpose he framed in the Christ our Lord Jesus, 12 in whom we have 12 boldness and the privilege of entering with assurance through faith in him; 13 for which reason I ask you not to give in at my distresses 13 for you, which are your glory.

14 15 14 On this account I bend my knees to the Father 15 from whom every 16 father's family in heaven and on earth takes its name 16 that he may grant to you, in accordance with the richness of his glory, to be 17 strengthened in the inward man with power through his Spirit; 17 to have Christ fix his home in your hearts through faith; with your 18 roots and foundations set fast in love, 18 that you may be enabled to perceive with all God's people what is the breadth and length and 19 height and depth 19 and to know the Christ's unknowable love, that you may be filled to all God's fullness. 20 And to him who can do more than 20 everything beyond the utmost limit of what we ask for or conceive of, 21 in accordance with the power that is at work in us, to him be 21 glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all the generations of endless time; amen.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 So I, the prisoner in the Lord, urge you to walk in a fashion worthy 2 of the call that was given you, 2 with all humility and meekness, patiently putting up with each other in love, 3 making a point of safeguarding 3 the oneness of the Spirit in the tie of peace. 4 One body and one Spirit, 4 as you were called in one hope too that belongs to your call; 5 one Lord, 5 one faith, one baptism; 6 one God and Father of all, he who is over all 6 and among all and in all. 7 But each one of us had grace given him in 7 the measure of the Christ's gift; 8 which is why it says "he went up 8 on high, brought a train of captives, gave presents to men." 9 And 9 what does "went up" mean if not that he also came down to the 10 lower parts, of the earth? 10 He who came down, he is the one also who 10 went up clear above all the heavens so that he should fill everything; 11 and he gave some to be apostles and some to be prophets and some 11 to be preachers of the gospel and some to be pastors and teachers for 12 the sound training of God's people, 12 for the work of service for the 13 upbuilding of the Christ's body, 13 until all of us attain to the oneness 13 of the faith and of awareness of the Son of God, to a grown-up man, 14 to the measure of the adulthood of the fullness of the Christ, 14 in order that we may no longer be infants, tossed and driven about by every wind of doctrine in men's jugglery of tricks governed by the devices of error, 15 but, telling truth in love, may every way grow up into him, 16 him who is the head, Christ, 16 out of whom all the body, fitted together and conjoined by every joint which connects the supply, in accordance with the working of each individual part in measure, produces the growth of the body to its self-upbuilding in love.

17 17 So this I say and protest in the Lord, that you are no longer to go the same way as the heathen do in their fatuousness of mind, 18 18 darkened in their thinking as they are, cut off by unrelation from God's life because of the ignorance they have in them because of their lumpish-heartedness— 19 men who, having lost all sensitiveness, have given themselves up to indecency to work at every sort of foulness as a competitive business. 20 But it was not in that fashion that you learned the Christ; 21 not if you heard of him and were taught in him as is truth in Jesus, 22 that as regards your former way of life you are to throw off the old man who is going bad along the line of the desires he is fooled into, 23 and be renewed in the spirit of your mind 24 and put on the new man who along God's line has been created in the righteousness and godliness of truth.

25 25 For which reason, laying aside falsehood, each speak truth with his neighbor, because we are organs of each other; 26 "be angry and do not sin," let the sun not go down on your exasperation, 27 and do not give the Devil a chance; 28 let him who has been stealing no longer steal but rather labor, putting his hands to work at what is good, in order to have something he can share with the one who is in need; 29 let no foul talk go out of your mouths, but any that is good, tending to the required upbuilding, to impart grace to the hearers, 30 and do not grieve God's Holy Spirit in which you have had the seal set on you to be ready for the day of redemption; 31 let all crossness and passionate-ness and anger and loud and abusive language be cleared away from you, with all viciousness, 32 and be kind to each other, good-hearted, mutually making allowances in the same way as God in Christ showed

1 2 grace to you. 1 So be imitators of God like dear children, 2 and walk in love in the same way as the Christ loved you, and gave himself up for us as an offering and sacrifice of genial odor to God. 3 But let unehastity and any sort of uncleanness or grasping greed not be even named among you, as befits people of God's; 4 and obscenity and foolery or ribaldry, which are not proper things; but rather, proper thankfulness. 5 For know this well, that any unchaste or unclean person or greedy grasper, which is the same as to say idolater, does not have an inheritance coming to him in the reign of Christ and God. 6 Let nobody deceive you with empty words; for it is on account of these 7 things that God's anger comes upon the sons of disobedience, 7 so do

8 not be sharers in them. 8 For you were once darkness, but are now 9 light in the Lord. 9 Walk as children of light (for the fruit of the light 10 is in every goodness and righteousness and truth), 10 studying what is 11 pleasing to the Lord; 11 and do not be a party to the unfruitful doings 12 of the darkness—rather even expose their character. 12 For it is ugly 13 even to mention the things that are done in hiding by them; 13 but 14 everything when it has its character exposed comes into view by the 14 light; 14 for everything that comes into view is light; which is why it says "Wake, you sleeper, and rise from the dead, and the Christ shall beam upon you."

15 15 So look to it carefully how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, 16 16 making the best you can of the crisis, because the days are wicked.
17 17 For this reason do not be silly, but understand what the Lord's will 18 is. 18 And do not get stimulated with wine, which carries dissipation 19 with it, but be filled by the Spirit, 19 talking together in psalms and 20 hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making music in your hearts 21 to the Lord, 20 giving thanks always for everything in the name of our 21 Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father, 21 submissive to each other in 22 the fear of Christ; 22 wives to their husbands as they are to the Lord, 23 23 because a husband is the wife's head the same as the Christ is the 24 church's. 24 He is the savior of the body; but as the church is submissive to the Christ, so let the wives also be to their husbands, in everything.

25 25 Husbands, love your wives, as the Christ in his case loved the 26 church, 26 and gave himself up for it in order to hallow it, cleansing 27 it by the bath of water with a word, 27 so that he might himself present the church to himself a glorious creature without a spot or a wrinkle 28 or anything of the sort, but holy and flawless; 28 so ought husbands too to love their wives as they do their own bodies. He who loves his 29 wife is loving himself; 29 for nobody ever hated his own flesh, but one feeds it up and keeps it warm, just as the Christ does with the church 30 30 because we are organs of his body. 31 "Owing to this a man will leave 31 father and mother and enter into a connection with his wife, and the 32 two will become one flesh"; 32 this secret truth is a great one. I am 33 saying it with reference to Christ and the church; 33 let each of you individually too, though, love his wife just as he does himself. And the wife should fear her husband.

CHAPTER 6

1 2 1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord; 2 for this is right. "Honor your father and mother," which is the first commandment with a 3 promise, 3 "so that it may be well with you and your time may be long 4 on the earth." 4 And fathers, do not be provoking to your children, but bring them up with the instruction and admonition of the Lord.
5 5 Servants, obey those who are your masters in the way of flesh with fear and trembling in single-heartedness as you do the Christ, 6 6 not in the way of eye-service as man-pleasers do but as servants of 7 Christ's, doing God's will whole-souledly, 7 serving in a friendly spirit

8 as doing it for the Lord and not for men, 8 knowing that each one, if he does anything good, will have it coming to him from the Lord, 9 be he slave or freeman. 9 And masters, do the same toward them, going easy as to threatening, knowing that in the heavens is the master of them and of you, and there is no favoritism with him.

10 Henceforth be valiant in the Lord and in the mightiness of his strength; 11 put on God's armor so that you can stand up to the Devil's devices, 12 because our match is not with flesh and blood but with the governments, the dominions, the cosmocrats of this darkness, the spiritual essences of wickedness in the heavenly sphere; 13 for this reason take God's armor in order to be able to defend yourselves on the wicked day, and after you have fought every bit through to stand your ground. 14 So stand your ground with your waists belted with truth and wearing the cuirass of righteousness, 15 and with your feet shod with preparation for carrying the gospel of peace; 16 withal taking the shield of faith, on which you will be able to quench all the naming missiles of the Evil One. 17 And receive the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is God's word; 18 praying in the Spirit at every time with every kind of prayer and petition and keeping on the alert for it with all intentness and fullness of petition regarding all God's people, 19 and for me, that I may be given power to speak with open mouth to make known outspokenly the secret 20 for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may speak it out as I ought.

21 But in order that you may know of my affairs, how I am getting on, Tychicus, the dear brother and faithful errand-runner in the Lord, will acquaint you with everything; 22 I have sent him to you for this express purpose, to let you know about us and to let him cheer your hearts.

23 Peace to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 24 Grace be with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ imperishably.

PAUL'S LETTER TO THE PHILIPPIANS

CHAPTER 1

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, to all God's people 2 in Christ Jesus at Philippi, with their visitors and deacons: 2 grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
 3 I always thank my God at all recollection of you, 4 in all my petitions 5 for you all making the petitions with joy 5 at your cooperativeness 6 toward the missionary work from the first day till now, 6 being confident of this very thing, that he who has started a good work in you 7 will carry it through till the day of Christ Jesus, 7 as it is right for me to be thus minded about you all because I have it at heart that both in my imprisonment and in the defending and guaranteeing of 8 the gospel you are all of you my fellows in grace. 8 For God is my 9 witness how I yearn over you all in Christ Jesus's tenderness, 9 and pray for this, that your love may superabound yet move and more in 10 insight and the use of every sense 10 so that you shall be judges of the things worth caring about, in order that you may be clear and un-11 tainted for Christ's day, 11 filled with fruit of righteousness such as comes through Jesus Christ, to God's praise and glory.
 12 But I wish you to know, brothers, that my affairs have come into 13 such shape as more to advance the gospel work, 13 so that my imprisonment has become well known in connection with Christ throughout the 14 Praetorian Guard and to everybody else, 14 and so that most of the brothers, resting confident in the Lord, are venturing to speak God's 15 word all the more fearlessly for my imprisonment. 15 Some are preaching Christ for sheer enviousness and rivalry, and some for sheer good-

16 will; 16 the one group out of love, knowing that the defense of the 17 gospel is what I exist for, 17 but the others are delivering the message of 18 the Christ from motives of church politics, not honestly, thinking they 19 are fomenting distress for my imprisonment. 18 What of it? anyhow, 20 be it in pretense or in truth, the message of Christ is being delivered, 21 and of that I am glad; 19 and I will be glad too, for I know this will 22 turn out to be for my salvation through your petitions and the sup-23 port of Jesus Christ's spirit, 20 in accordance with my expectation and 24 hope that in no respect shall I be put to shame, but with all straight-25 forwardness Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether through 26 life or through death, now too as he always was. 21 For to me living 27 is Christ and dying is profit-taking. 22 But if it is just living in flesh 28 that means fruit of work for me, then I cannot tell what to choose; 29 23 but I am caught between the two things, having the desire for getting 30 away and being with Christ—for it is a very long way better—24 25 24 but staying in the flesh is more needful on your account; 25 and this I 26 know with assurance, that I shall remain and stand by you all for 27 your advancement and joy in the faith, 26 in order that you may in 28 my case have the more to boast of in Christ Jesus through my ar-29 rival to be with you again.

27 Only lead a life worthy of the gospel of the Christ, in order that 28 whether when I come and see you or while I am away I may hear of 29 you that you are standing your ground in one spirit, united in whole-30 souled teamwork for the faith of the gospel, 28 and not frightened as to anything by your opponents, which is an omen of perdition for them but of your salvation, and that from God, 29 because you have been given the grace that for Christ you should not only believe in him but also suffer for him, 30 facing the same contest such as you saw in my case and are now hearing of in my case.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 So if there is any encouragement in Christ, if any comfort of love, 2 if any fellowship of spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, 2 make 3 my gladness complete by being concerned for the same things, having 4 the same love, united in soul, of one mind; 3 nothing along the line of 5 church politics or of pretentiousness, but in humility regarding each 6 other as superiors; 4 not each keeping his eyes on his own interests but 7 on those of others too. 5 Have in you, each of you, this same mind as 8 in Christ Jesus, 6 who, when he was in the form of God, did not regard 9 equality with God as a prize, 7 but emptied himself, taking slave form, 10 coming into the likeness of humanity; 8 and, being found as it were a 11 man in guise, he humbled himself to become obedient down to death, 12 the death of a cross; 9 for which very reason God raised him supremely 13 high and granted him the name above every name, 10 that at the name 14 of Jesus every knee of what is in heaven and what is on earth and 15 what is underground should bend 11 and every tongue acknowledge 16 that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Consequently, dear friends, as you always did obey, not as if only in my presence but now much more in my absence, work out your 13 own salvation with fear and trembling; 13 for it is God who is at work in you to produce both the willing and the working for his pleasure.
14 15 14 Do everything without grumblings and questionings, 15 in order that you may come out irreproachable and innocent, faultless children of God in the midst of a devious and shifty generation among whom 16 you show like luminaries in the world presenting the word of life, 16 to give me a ground for boasting on the day of Christ that I did not run 17 a bootless race nor toil bootlessly; 17 nay, if I am even going to be poured out as the wine over the sacrifice and service of your faith, 18 I am joyous, and share in the joy you are all having. 18 The same joy to you too, and a share in my joy!

19 19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send you Timothy speedily in order 20 that I too may be in good spirits by knowing about you. 20 For I have 21 nobody his equal in soul who will genuinely take care for you; 21 for all of them are looking after what will be for themselves, not what will 22 be for Jesus Christ. 22 And you know by experience that as a son would 23 for a father he did his service with me toward the gospel work. 23 So I 24 hope to send him right away when I see how it goes with me; 24 and I feel assured in the Lord that I myself shall come speedily.

25 25 But I have felt it necessary to send Epaphroditus to you, my brother and co-worker and fellow-soldier and your delegate and 26 agent in service to my needs, 26 since he was longing after you all 27 and was uneasy because you heard that he was sick— 27 for sick he was, very close to death; but God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me too, in order that I should not have one grief upon another.
28 28 So I have been the more intent on sending him, in order that at 29 seeing him you may be glad again, and I be freer from grief. 29 So receive him in the Lord with all rejoicing, and hold such men in honor, 30 30 because for Christ's work he came close up to death, endangering his life in order to fill out the shortage of you in the service to me.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 For the rest, brothers, joy to you in the Lord. To be writing the same things to you is no trouble to me and is a safe thing for you.
2 2 Look out for the dogs! look out for the bad workers! look out for 3 the concision! 3 for the circumcision are we, who worship in God's 4 spirit and boast in Christ Jesus and do not trust in flesh—4 even though as far as I am concerned I should have a trust even in flesh. If any-5 body else thinks he may trust in flesh, more so I, 5 circumcised on the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born 6 of Hebrews, as to the law a Pharisee, 6 as to zeal a persecutor of the church, as to righteousness under the law never found fault with.
7 7 But the things that were profit to me, these I have regarded as loss 8 on the Christ's account; 8 why, I even regard everything as being a loss in view of the superiority of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my 9 Lord, on whose account I have taken the loss of everything and regard it as garbage 9 in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that derived from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, righteousness de-10 rived from God, conditioned on faith, 10 so as to know him and the power of his resurrection, and solidarity in his sufferings, having myself 11 assimilated to his death in the hope 11 that I may attain to the resur-12 rection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already got what I am after or am already perfected; but I am driving ahead in the hope of eventually laying hold, seeing that I have myself been laid hold of 13 by Christ Jesus. 13 Brothers, I do not figure that I have laid hold as yet; but there is one thing, I am forgetting what is behind and 14 reaching out for what is before 14 and driving ahead toward the goal 15 for the prize of God's upward call in Christ Jesus. 15 So let us, as many of us as are full-grown, take this stand; and if your stand is otherwise in any respect, God will reveal to you this point too.

16 17 16 In what we have arrived at, though, follow the same line. 17 Be my imitators together, brothers, and keep your eyes on those who walk 18 in such a way as you have us for an example of. 18 For there are many walkers of whom I have repeatedly spoken to you, and am now 19 speaking even with tears, as the enemies of the cross of Christ, 19 of whom the end is destruction, whose god is their stomach and whose glory is in their shame—those who have earthly matters on their 20 minds. 20 For the state we are citizens of is in the heavens: wherefrom, 21 too, we are awaiting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21 who will reshape our body of humiliation to agree with the form of his body of glory in the working of the power he has to even subject everything to him.

CHAPTER 4

- 1 1 Consequently, my dear and much-missed brothers, my gladness and my garland, thus stand fast in the Lord, dear friends.
- 2 2 I appeal to Euodia and appeal to Syntyche to agree together in 3 the Lord. 3 Yes, and I ask you too, genuine Yokemate, lend them a helping hand, them who took part in my struggles for the gospel, with Clement too and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.
- 4 4 Joy to you in the Lord always; I will say it again, joy to you.
- 5 5 Let your reasonableness be conspicuous to all men. The Lord is near.
- 6 6 Do not worry over anything, but in everything let the things you have to ask for be made known to God by prayer and petition with 7 thanksgiving. 7 And God's peace beyond the highest reach of any mind will guard your hearts and thoughts in Christ Jesus.
- 8 8 For the rest, brothers, as many things as are true, as are worthy, as are honest, as are pure, as are lovable, as would sound well to speak of, whatever there is of virtue and whatever there is for praise, 9 take account of these things; 9 the same things that you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these things practice; and the God of peace shall be with you.

- 10 But it was a great pleasure to me in the Lord that after so long you came to a fresh start in your thoughtfulness for me—though for that matter you were being thoughtful but were finding no opportunity. 11 Not that I say anything along the line of having a shortage; for as to me I have learned to get along in the circumstances I find myself in. 12 I know both how to stand low and how to enjoy a surplus; in anything and everything I have got the secret both for having a full stomach and for going hungry, both for having a surplus and for running short. 13 I have the strength for everything in him who invigorates me. 14 You did well, though, to come into solidarity with my distress. 15 And you yourselves know, you Philippians, that at the start of the mission, when I went out of Macedonia, no church went into partnership with me on an account of giving and receiving but only you, 16 because even in Thessalonica you sent once and a second time for my needs. 17 Not that I am after the gift, I am after the fruit that is growing plentiful to your credit. 18 But I have received everything and have my surplus; I am filled out, having had from Epaphroditus what came from you, a genial odor, an acceptable sacrifice pleasing to God. 19 And my God will fill out every need of yours suitably to his wealth, in glory, in Christ Jesus. 20 And to our God and Father be glory forever and ever; amen.
- 21 Give my greetings to everyone of God's people in Christ Jesus. 22 All the brothers with me send you greetings. 23 All God's people send you greetings, and especially those who belong to Caesar's house. 23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

PAUL'S LETTER TO THE COLOSSIANS

CHAPTER 1

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through God's will, and Brother 2 Timothy, 2 to the holy and believing brothers in Christ at Colossae: grace to you, and peace, from God our Father.

3 3 We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, as 4 we pray for you, 4 hearing of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love 5 you cherish to all God's people 5 because of the hope laid up for you 6 in the heavens, about which you have already heard in the words 6 of the truth of the gospel 6 which has arrived among you as it also is 7 in all the world, bearing fruit and growing as it does among you too 7 since the day that you heard and recognized God's grace in truth 7 as 8 you learned from our dear fellow-servant Epaphras, who is on your 8 behalf a faithful agent of the Christ, 8 who also informed us of your love in the Spirit.

9 9 For this reason we on our part, since the day when we heard of it, never cease to pray for you and ask that you may be filled with 10 awareness of his will in all spiritual wisdom and insight 10 to walk worthily of the Lord to give him all pleasure, bearing fruit in every 11 good work and growing in awareness of God, 11 energized with all power in accordance with the mightiness of his glory for all persistence and 12 patience, 12 joyously thanking the Father who qualified you for your 13 share in the lot of God's people in the light; 13 who delivered you out of the jurisdiction of darkness and transferred you into the kingdom 14 of the Son of his love, 14 in whom we have redemption, the pardon of sins,—

15 16 15 Who is image of the invisible God, firstborn of all creation, 16 because in him everything was created in the heavens and on earth, the visible and the invisible, be it thrones or lordships or governments or dominions—everything has been created through him and to come 17 to him, 17 and before everything he is, and in him everything holds 18 together. 18 And he is the head of the body, the church, he who is the beginning, the firstborn out of the dead, in order that he may take 19 the first place in every respect, 19 because in him all the fullness was 20 pleased to make its home 20 and through him to reconcile everything to him, making peace through the blood of his cross, through him 21 whether it were the things on earth or the things in the heavens, 21 and you who had once been estranged and hostile-minded in your wicked 22 deeds, 22 but whom he has now reconciled by his fleshly body through death to present you holy and unblemished and irreproachable before 23 him 23 if so be that you keep to your faith, standing steady on solid foundations and not shifting from the hope of the gospel you heard, which was proclaimed in all creation under the heavens; of which I Paul became an agent.

24 I rejoice now in my sufferings for you, and what stopped short of completeness in the Christ's sufferings I am filling out in my flesh for his body, which is the church, 25 whose servitor I became in accordance with God's charge given to me as errand to you, to present God's word in its fullness, 26 the secret that had been hidden since the ages and the generations but has now been disclosed to his devout believers, 27 to whom God chose to make known what was the wealth of the glory of this secret design among the nations, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory; 28 whom we announce, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, in order that we may present every man complete in Christ, 29 to which same end I am toiling and struggling as befits his energy that is powerfully at work in me.

CHAPTER 2

1 For I want you to know what a struggle I am having for you and the ones in Laodicea and as many as have not seen my face in person, 2 that their hearts may be encouraged, 2 they being drawn together in love and instructed into the richest certitude of insight, to the recognition of God's secret, Christ, 3 in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden. 4 I say this in order that nobody may cheat you with plausible talk. 5 For even if I am physically away, yet I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing and witnessing your good order and the solidity of your faith in Christ.

6 So, in such fashion as you took over Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in him, 7 rooted and upbuilt in him and solidly settled in faith as you were taught, plentiful in thanksgiving. 8 Look to it that there be not somebody who carries you off by philosophy and empty deceit along the line of human tradition, of the world's elements and not of Christ, 9 because in him all the fullness of deity is resident in bodily form, 10 and it is in him you have been brought to fullness, him who is the head of every government and dominion; 11 in whom, also, you were circumcised with a circumcision not done by human hands, in the stripping off of the body of flesh,— 12 in the Christ's circumcision, being buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the activities of God who raised him from the dead; 13 and you, when you were dead with your offenses and the uncircumcisedness of your flesh, he brought to life together with him, condoning all our offenses, 14 canceling the bond over us in decrees, which was opposed to us, and has taken it away, nailing it to the cross. 15 Disarming the governments and the dominions, he made a public show of them, celebrating his triumph over them on it.

16 So let nobody pass judgment on you in matters of eating and drinking or in respect to festival or new moon or sabbath, 17 that are a shadow of what was to be—but the body belongs to the Christ; 18 let nobody contrive a decision against you with willful humility and 19 worship of the angels, entering into what he has seen, flimsily inflated by his flesh-mind, 19 and not keeping hold of the Head, out of whom all the body, supplied and conjoined through the joints and sinews, makes God's growth.

20 20 If you died with Christ away from the world's elements, why, as 21 if alive in the world, do you go in for decrees, 21 "do not take nor 22 taste nor touch,"— 22 altogether things that are bound to perish as they 23 are consumed,—in conformity with the commands and teachings of men? 23 which do have a show of wisdom in self-contrived religiousness and humility and severity to the body, not in some sort of honor for

CHAPTER 3

1 repletion of the flesh. 1 So, if you were raised with the Christ, aim at the things above, where the Christ is, sitting at God's right hand.
2 3 2 Have in mind the things above, not the things on the earth; 3 for you 4 did die, and your life is hidden in God with the Christ. 4 When the Christ, our life, comes to be seen, then so will you with him come to be seen in glory.

5 5 So give over to deadness the organism that rests on the earth, unchastity, uncleanness, passions, evil desire, and greed, which is 6 7 an idolatry—6 things on account of which God's anger comes; 7 with which you too occupied yourselves once upon a time, when you were 8 alive in these. 8 But now, you too, discard everything,—anger, pas-sionateness, viciousness, abusiveness, offensive language out of your 9 mouths, 9 do not lie to each other,—stripping off the old man with his 10 doings 10 and putting on the new man who is being reconstituted into 11 intelligence after the likeness of his Creator, 11 where there is no such thing as Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, alien, Scythian, slave, freeman, but Christ is everything and in everybody.

12 12 So, as holy and dearly loved chosen ones of God's, put on com-13 passionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, patience, 13 bearing with each other and mutually making allowances; if one has found a fault in somebody, in the same way as the Lord showed grace to you, do 14 you the like. 14 And over all these love, which is the connecting link of 15 perfection. 15 And let Christ's peace have the deciding voice in your hearts, that same peace into which you were called in one body; and 16 be thankful-hearted. 16 Keep the Christ's word abiding in you richly, teaching and admonishing each other in all wisdom, singing in your hearts to God in thankfulness with psalms, hymns, spiritual songs; 17 17 and as to anything whatever that you do in word or in act, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

18 18 Wives, be in such subordination to your husbands as is the proper 19 thing in the Lord. 19 Husbands, love your wives and do not be cross to 20 them. 20 Children, obey your parents in every respect, for this is a 21 winsome way in the Lord. 21 Fathers, do not nettle your children, so 22 that they may not be disheartened. 22 Servants, obey in every respect those who are your masters in the way of flesh, not in eye-services as 23 man-pleasers do but in single-heartedness, fearing the Lord; 23 whatever you are doing, work at it with a will, as doing it for the Lord and 24 not for men, 24 knowing that you will be paid up for it by the Lord in 25 your inheritance; 25 you are in the service of the Lord Christ. For he who does a wrong will have the wrong he did coming to him, and

CHAPTER 4

1 there is no favoritism. 1 Masters, let your servants have justice and equal rights, knowing that you too have a master in heaven.

2 3 2 Keep praying, be on the alert in it, with thanksgiving; 3 praying, along with the rest, for us too, that God will open us a door for the word, for speaking the secret of Christ, that same for which I am 4 5 in prison, 4 so that I may open it up as I have to speak. 5 Behave wisely 6 toward outsiders, making the best you can of the crisis; 6 let your talk be always in grace, seasoned with salt to know how you need to answer each one.

7 7 Tychicus, the dear brother and faithful errand-runner and fellow-servant in the Lord, will acquaint you with everything that relates 8 to me; 8 I am sending him to you for this express purpose, to let you 9 know about me and to let him cheer your hearts, 9 with dear and faithful brother Onesimus, who is one of you. They will give you the news about everything here.

10 10 My fellow-prisoner Aristarchus sends greetings, and Barnabas's cousin Mark, about whom you received injunctions,—if he comes to 11 you, receive him,— 11 and Jesus, known as Justus, these who represent the circumcised community; these are the only ones who are cooperators for the Reign of God, and they were a comfort to me.
 12 12 Epaphras, who is one of you, sends greetings, a servant of Christ Jesus who is always wrestling for you in his prayers that you may be made to stand complete and convinced in everything that is God's 13 will; 13 for I can testify that he is deeply concerned for you and those 14 at Laodicea and those at Hierapolis. 14 Dear Doctor Luke and Demas 15 send greetings. 15 Give my greetings to the brothers at Laodicea and to 16 Nymphas and the meeting at their house. 16 And when the letter is read to you, get it read in the Laodiceans' meeting too, and get to read the 17 one from Laodicea. 17 And tell Archippus "Look out for the office you were given in the Lord, to make good in it."

18 18 My greeting, Paul's, with my own hand. Remember my fetters.
 Grace be with you.

PAUL'S FIRST LETTER TO THE THESSALONIANS

CHAPTER 1

- 1 Paul and Silvanus and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace and peace to you.
- 2 We always thank God for you all as we make mention of you in our prayers, 3 continually recalling your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ before our God and Father, 4 knowing, brothers loved by God, your choosing, 5 that our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in Holy Spirit and profound conviction, as you know what we were like for your sake when we were among you. 6 And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word with joy over the Holy Spirit while in much trouble, 7 so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaëa. 8 For from you the word of the Lord has sounded out not only in Macedonia and Achaëa, but in every place the news of your faith toward God is out, so that we have no need to talk of anything; 9 for they themselves report about us what sort of entrance to you we had, and how you turned to God from the idols to belong to a live and genuine God 10 and to await his Son from heaven, the one he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us out of the coming wrath.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 For you yourselves, brothers, know about our entrance to you, 2 that it was not a failure, 2 but after we had suffered beforehand and been outrageously treated, as you know, at Philippi, we were bold enough in our God to speak God's gospel to you in a hard struggle.
3 3 For our exhortation is not a result of crankiness nor of uncleanness, 4 nor by way of a trick; 4 but as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel message, so we speak, not as pleasing men, 5 but God who assays our hearts. 5 For we never dealt in flattering talk, 6 as you know, nor in excuses for moneymaking, God knows, 6 nor tried to get glory from men, either you or others, when we could have 7 made ourselves important as apostles of Christ, 7 but behaved gently 8 in your midst; 8 as a woman cherishes her own children, so yearning over you we were willing to pass out to you not only the gospel of God, but our own lives too, because you had become darlings of ours.

9 9 For you remember, brothers, our toil and trouble: it was while working night and day so as not to be burdensome to any of you that 10 we proclaimed God's gospel among you. 10 You are witnesses, and so is God, in what godly and honest and irreproachable fashion we 11 behaved toward you who believe,— 11 you know how it was,—animating each one of you as a father would his own children and comforting 12 you and admonishing you 12 that you should walk worthily of the God who is calling you to his own reign and glory.

13 13 And for this reason we too thank God continually, that when you had from us a hearsay report of God you received it as not men's word but, as it positively is, God's, the same that is taking effect in 14 you believers; 14 for you, brothers, showed yourselves imitators of the churches of God that there are in Palestine in Christ Jesus, because you too suffered the same things from the men of your own race as 15 did they from the Jews, 15 those who both killed the Lord Jesus and drove us out, and do not please God and are in opposition to all men, 16 16 forbidding us to speak to the foreigners that they may be saved, so as to fill up their sins always. But wrath has overtaken them, absolutely.

17 17 But we, brothers, bereaved of you for a moment's space in face, not in heart, made it our very special concern, with strong desire, 18 to see your faces; 18 because we did mean to come to you—I, Paul, 19 once and twice too—and Satan blocked us. For what is our hope or joy or wreath of triumph, or are you not such, before our Lord 20 Jesus at his coming? 20 for you are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 For which reason we could stand it no longer, but were fain to be 2 left alone in Athens, 2 and sent Timothy, our brother and God's helper in the work of the gospel of the Christ, to reinforce your firmness and 3 encourage you in your faith, 3 for nobody to be flurried with these 4 distresses—for you know that this is what we are here for; 4 for even 5 when we were with you we told you beforehand that we were to be 6 distressed, and so it turned out, as you know. 5 This was why I myself 7 could stand it no longer and sent to find out about your faith, for 8 fear the Tempter had tempted you and our hard work would not 9 amount to anything. 6 But when just now Timothy came to us from 10 you and brought us the good news about your faith and love, and 11 that you always keep us in kind remembrance, longing to see us just 12 as we do to see you, 7 at this we were cheered up on your account, 13 brothers, in all our difficulties and distresses, by your faith; 8 because 9 we are alive now if you stand firm in the Lord. 9 For what adequate 10 thanks can we return to God for you in view of all the joy we feel 11 because of you before our God, 10 night and day making very special 12 prayers for the chance to see your faces and set right the short-13 comings of your faith? 11 And may our God and Father himself, and 14 our Lord Jesus Christ, clear our road to you; 12 and may the Lord 15 give you increasing and surpassing love for each other and for everybody, the same as we have it for you, 13 to stabilize your hearts in blameless holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his holy.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 For the rest, then, brothers, we request you and urge you in the 2 Lord Jesus that as you had word from us how you have to walk and 3 please God, just the way you are walking, you will do better and 4 better. 2 For you know what instructions we gave you by the Lord 5 Jesus. 3 For this is God's will, your sanctification, your keeping clear 6 of unchastity, 4 your each knowing how to get his own mate in a dedi-7 cative and respectful spirit, 5 not in passion of desire just the same as 8 do the nations who do not know God, 6 so as not to encroach and victim-9 ize one's brother in the business, because the Lord is an avenger of 10 all those things, as we told you beforehand and admonished you. 7 For 11 God did not call us on terms of uncleanness but in sanctification; 12 8 consequently the disregarder is not disregarding a man but that 13 same God who puts his Holy Spirit in us. 9 But as to brotherliness you 14 are in no need of being written to, for you yourselves are taught 15 by God to love each other— 10 for you do, all the brothers in all Macedonia. 11 But we urge you, brothers, to do better and better, and to make it your ambition to keep quiet and attend to your own affairs and work with your own hands, as we instructed you, 12 in order that you may behave creditably toward outsiders and not be in want of anything.

13 13 But we do not wish you to be ignorant about those who have gone to 14 their rest, brothers, in order that you may not grieve the same as 15 the others do, who do not have a hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and arose, so also will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have gone to their rest. 15 For we tell you this on the Lord's word, 16 that we the living who survive till the Lord's coming shall not be ahead of those who have gone to rest, 16 because the Lord himself will come down from the sky with a word of command, with an archangel's voice and with God's trumpet, and first the dead in Christ will rise, 17 17 then we the living who survive shall together with them be snatched up in clouds to meet the Lord in air, and thus we shall be with the 18 Lord always. 18 So cheer each other on with these words.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 But as to the times, brothers, how long and when, you are in no 2 need of being written to, 2 for you yourselves definitely know that as 3 a thief comes in the night, so comes the Day of the Lord. 3 When they say "peace and safety," then destruction is upon them suddenly, as the birth-pang comes upon a pregnant woman, and they shall not 4 escape. 4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness, to have the Day 5 catch you as a thief does; 5 for you are all of you sons of the light and 6 of the day. 6 We do not belong to the night nor to the darkness; so then 7 let us not sleep as the rest do, but keep awake and sober. 7 For sleepers 8 sleep in the night, and drinkers are drunk in the night; 8 but let us, who belong to the day, keep sober, putting on the armor of faith and 9 love and as helmet the hope of salvation, 9 because God did not destine us to his anger but to be preserved by salvation through our Lord 10 Jesus Christ 10 who died for us in order that whether we were awake 11 or asleep we might along with him be alive. 11 Wherefore cheer each other on and each one build the next one up, the same way you are doing.

12 12 And we beg you, brothers, to know those who do the hard work among you and take the lead in your affairs in the Lord and admonish 13 you, 13 and to hold them very specially in love because of their work.
14 Be at peace among yourselves. 14 And we urge you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, cheer up the fainthearted, stand by the weak, be 15 patient with everybody; 15 see that nobody pays anybody back a bad turn for a bad, but always make good your object, toward each other and toward everybody.

16-18 16 Be always joyous, pray continually, 17 give thanks in everything, 18 for 19 this is God's will in Jesus Christ toward you. 19 Do not put out the fire 20 21 of the Spirit; 20 do not scorn prophesyings; 21 but try the quality of every-22 thing, hold on to what is good, 23 reject every bad article.

23 23 And may he, the God of peace, sanctify you to perfection, and your spirits and souls and bodies be kept faultlessly safe and sound at the 24 coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 24 He who calls you is trustworthy, and do it he will.

25 25 Brothers, pray for us too.

26 27 26 Give our greetings to all the brothers with a holy kiss. 27 I adjure you by the Lord that the letter be read to all the brothers.

28 28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

PAUL'S SECOND LETTER TO THE THESSALONIANS

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 Paul and Silvanus and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians 2 in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: 2 Grace and peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brothers, as is right and proper, that your faith is growing sturdily and the love of each 4 one of you to the others is increasing, 4 so that we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith amid 5 all your persecutions and the distresses you endure, 5 an exhibit of God's just rulings so that you are to be deemed worthy of that same 6 Kingdom of God for which you are suffering, 6 if just it is by God's 7 standard to repay distress to those who distress you, 7 and to you who are distressed relief with us at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from 8 heaven with the angels of his power 8 in flaming fire to give punishment to those that do not know God and to those that do not obey the gospel
9 of our Lord Jesus; 9 these shall pay the penalty, eternal destruction 10 from the Lord's presence and from the glory of his strength 10 when he comes to manifest his glory among his holy ones and to be venerated among all those who have believed—because our testimony to you
11 was believed—on that day. 11 To this same end we are always praying for you that our God may deem you worthy to be called and may potently bring to full realization every impulse of goodwill and work 12 of faith, 12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus may have its glory manifested in you, and you yours in it, in accordance with the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2

- 1 1 But we beg you, brothers, as to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ 2 and our being gathered to him, 2 not to shake right out of your senses

nor be disquieted either by an inspiration or by an argument, or by a letter as being by us, with the idea that the Day of the Lord is upon us. 3 Do not let anybody deceive you in any way, because unless the apostasy comes first and the Man of Wickedness is disclosed, the man bound for destruction, 4 he who is in opposition to every so-called god or object of worship, so that he seats himself in God's temple, declaring himself to be a god— 5 do you not remember that while I was still with you I told you all this? 6 and you know now what is holding him back to be disclosed at his own time. 7 For the Secret of Wickedness is already at work; only he who is now holding things back— 8 until he gets out of the way, and then the Wicked One will be disclosed, whom the Lord will consume by the breath of his mouth and will supersede by the intervention of his presence; 9 whose presence is as is proper for Satan's working, in all power and tokens and wonders of untruth 10 and in all deceitfulness of wrong for those who are perishing, inasmuch as they did not accept the love of the truth 11 so that they should be saved, and for this reason God is sending them a working of delusion so that they shall believe the untrue, 12 that all may be judged who have not believed the truth but have been satisfied with wrong.

13 But we are bound to thank God always for you, brothers loved by the Lord, that God from the first chose you for salvation in sanctification of spirit and faith in truth, 14 to which same thing he called you through our gospel message, for preservation in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So then, brothers, stand firm and hold on to the propositions you were taught by either word or letter of ours. 16 And may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and graciously gave us an eternal encouragement and a good hope, 17 encourage your hearts and fortify them in every good work and word.

1 For the rest, pray for us, brothers, that the word of the Lord may speed on and show its glorkrasness the same as it does with you, 2 and that we may be delivered from criminal and vicious men; for it is not everybody that has faith. 3 But the Lord is faithful, who will fortify you and guard you from the Evil One. 4 And we trust to you in the Lord that what we are enjoining you to do you are also doing, and will do. 5 And may the Lord pilot your hearts into God's love and Christ's steadfastness.

6 But we enjoy you, brothers, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, that you are to avoid every brother that takes to irregular courses, not in accordance with the instruction you had from us. 7 For you know yourselves how you have to imitate us, that we did not live irregularly among you, 8 nor get our board gratis from anybody, but toiling and moiling night and day at work, for the sake of not burdening any of you— 9 not that we do not have a right, but in order that we might

- 10 give ourselves as a model for you to imitate. 10 For even when we were with you we gave you this injunction, If one will not work let him not eat either.
- 11 11 For we hear of some among you living irregularly, not working at 12 anything but frittering away their time; 12 but such we enjoin and 13 exhort to work quietly and eat bread of their own. 13 But for yourselves, 14 brothers, do not give up doing what is good. 14 And if anyone does not obey our words in this letter, note that man as a man not to be mixed 15 up with, in order that he may be ashamed of himself; 15 and do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
- 16 16 And may the Lord of Peace himself give you peace all the time in every way. The Lord be with you all.
- 17 17 Greeting in my own hand from me, Paul, which is a token in every 18 letter; this is the way I write. 17 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

PAUL'S FIRST LETTER TO TIMOTHY

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 Paul, Christ Jesus's apostle by order of God our Savior and Christ 2 Jesus our hope, 2 to Timothy my own child in faith: grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
- 3 3 As I urged you to wait on at Ephesus when I took my trip to Macedonia in order that you might instruct some people not to teach 4 erratic notions 4 nor devote attention to myths and endless genealogies, which give anybody more of fields for research than of attention to 5 God's affairs in faith,—5 but the object of the injunction is love, 6 out of a pure heart and good conscience and unfeigned faith, 6 things which some have failed to hit upon and have run off into futile talk, 7 7 wanting to be teachers of the law when they have no sense either of the things they say or of what it is they are being so positive about.

8 But we know that the law is a fine thing if one uses it in the lawful 9 way, 9 knowing this, that the law is not enacted for an honest man. but for such as are lawless and refractory, impious and sinful, unholy and profane, such as raise their hands against father and mother, 10 murderers, 10 libertines, homosexuals, kidnappers, liars, perjurers, and 11 whatever else is in opposition to sound teaching, 11 in accordance with the gospel of the grace of the blessed God which was entrusted to me.
12 I thank him who put power into me, our Lord Jesus Christ, that he 13 regarded me as faithful, assigning me to service, 13 when I had previously been a blasphemer and a persecutor and a ruffian; but mercy 14 was shown me because I did it ignorantly in unbelief, 14 and our Lord's 15 grace overtopped, with faith and hope in Christ Jesus. 15 The saying is a trustworthy one, and deserves all assent, that Christ Jesus came 16 into the world to save sinners. 16 Of whom I am the foremost; but this was why mercy was shown me, in order that in me the foremost one Jesus Christ might show utter patience, that I might serve as an outline sketch of those who were to believe on him for eternal life.
17 And to the King of the Ages, the imperishable, invisible only God, be honor and glory forever and ever; amen.—

18 This injunction I address to you, my child Timothy, in accordance with the prophecies that led the way to you, that under them you 19 should fight the good campaign, 19 having faith, and a good conscience, which some have thrown overboard and so come to shipwreck as to 20 the faith; 20 among these Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I handed over to Satan in order that they might be given a lesson not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2

1 I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, 2 thanksgivings, be presented for all men; 3 for emperors and all our superiors, in order that we may lead a still and quiet life in all piety 3 and propriety. 3 This is a good thing and a thing welcome to God our 4 Savior, 4 who wills that all men should be saved and come into aware-5 ness of truth. 5 For there is one God, one mediator too between God 6 and men, a man, Christ Jesus, 6 he who gave himself as a ransom for 7 everybody; 7 the attestation when the right time came, for which I was appointed a herald and apostle,—I am telling the truth, not lying,—a teacher of the nations in faith and truth.

8 So I wish to have the men pray in every place, raising godly hands 9 without anger and argument; 9 in the same way, to have women adorn themselves by virtuous self-restraint with modesty and discretion, 10 not by hairdressing and gold or pearls or expensive clothing, 10 but what befits women who profess religiousness, by means of good works.

11 Let a woman learn in quietness in all submissiveness; 12 but I do not 11 12 permit a woman to teach nor to dictate to a man, but to be in quiet-

- 13 14 ness. 13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve; 14 and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was befooled into violation of the command.
15 15 But she will be saved in her childbearing, if they remain in faith and love and consecration with discretion.

CHAPTER 3

- 1 1 The saying is a trustworthy one, "If one has an inclination to a 2 visitor's place, he is desiring a good work." 2 So the church visitor must be unimpeachable, husband of one wife, sober, discreet, well-3 behaved, hospitable, good at teaching, 3 not disorderly over his wine, not apt to come to blows, but reasonable, one who keeps out of fights, 4 4 who has no love for money, who manages his own household well, 5 having children behaving submissively with all correctness 5 (but if one does not know how to manage his own household, how is he to 6 take care of God's church?); 6 not a new convert, so that he may not 7 get his head turned and fall under the judgment of gossip. 7 And he must also have good attestation from the outsiders, so that he may 8 not fall under the gibes of gossip and into its trap. 8 Deacons, in the same way, dignified, not double-tongued, not interested in much 9 wine, not mercenary, 9 holding the secret of the faith in a clean 10 conscience; 10 and let these too be investigated first, then let them 11 serve as deacons when of unblemished reputation. 11 Women, in the same way, dignified, not scandalmongers, sober, reliable in everything.
12 12 Let deacons be husbands of one wife who manage their children and 13 their own households well. 13 For those who have done good service as deacons are securing for themselves a good standing and great boldness in faith in Christ Jesus.
- 14 14 I am writing you this in hopes of coming to you pretty soon; 15 15 but if I am long about it, in order that you may know how one has to behave in God's household, which the church of the living God, 16 pillar and foothold of the truth, is. 16 And, recognizedly, piety's secret is a great one: "he who was manifested in flesh, was vindicated in spirit, was seen by angels, was proclaimed among nations, was believed in the world, was taken up in glory."

CHAPTER 4

- 1 1 But the Spirit says explicitly that in later times some will drop 2 out of the faith, giving their attention to misleading spirits and the teachings of demons in the insincerity of falsifiers who carry a brand 3 on their consciences, 3 who forbid people to marry, and tell them to abstain from foods which God created to be partaken of with thanks 4 by those who have faith and awareness of the truth; 4 because every creature of God's is good, and nothing is to be rejected when it can 5 be received with thanksgiving; 5 for it is hallowed by God's word and invocation.
- 6 6 By giving the brothers this advice you will be a good agent of Christ Jesus's, training yourself in the words of the faith and of the 7 good teaching which you have listened to; 7 but ignore unsanctified 8 puerile fictions. And exercise yourself in piety; 8 for physical exercise is beneficial in a small way, but piety is beneficial for everything, 9 having a promise of life, life now and the future life; 9 the saying is 10 a trustworthy one, and deserves all assent. 10 For it is to this end we are toiling and struggling, because we have set our hopes on the living God, who is the savior of all men, especially of believers.

11 12 11 Enjoin and teach these things. 12 Let nobody despise your youthfulness, but set an example to the brothers in words, in life, in love, in 13 faith, in purity. 13 Till I come, give your attention to the reading, to 14 the exhortation, to the teaching. 14 Do not neglect the gift you have in you, which was given to you through a prophecy with the laying on 15 of the hands of the presbytery. 15 Practice on these things, take up your time with these, in order that your progress may be evident to 16 everybody. 16 Attend to yourself and to the teaching; keep on with them; for in doing this you will save both yourself and your hearers.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 Do not rebuke an elderly man but appeal to him as a father; 2 younger men as brothers, 2 older women as mothers, younger ones as sisters in all purity.

3 4 3 Honor widows who really are widows. 4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren let them learn first to show piety toward their own family and to make returns to their progenitors; for this is a 5 thing welcome to God. 5 But the real widow, left alone in the world, has her hope set on God and keeps up her petitions and prayers night 6 7 and day; 6 but the self-indulgent one is dead while she is alive. 7 Give 8 these injunctions too, in order that they may be unimpeachable. 8 But if one does not look out for his own, and especially those of his immediate family, he has disowned the faith and is worse than an un-believer.

9 9 Let a widow be listed as such when she is not less than sixty years old, widow of one husband, 10 well attested for good works, if she has brought up children, if she has practiced hospitality, if she has washed the feet of people of God's, if she has assisted persons in 11 distress, if she has been assiduous in every good work. 11 But decline younger widows; for when they get too high-strung for the Christ, 12 they want to marry, 12 incurring a judgment because they slighted their 13 first faith. 13 And at the same time they also learn to be idlers going the rounds of the houses, and not only idlers but also chatterers and 14 busybodies, talking of what they ought not. 14 So I would have younger ones marry, bear children, keep house, not give the opponent any 15 opening toward abusive talk; 15 for some have already turned off to 16 follow Satan. 16 If any believing woman has widows, let her assist them and the church not be burdened, in order that it may assist the real widows.

17 17 Let elders who have done well in management be deemed to deserve double honor, especially those who exert themselves in speaking 18 and teaching. 18 For the text says "You shall not muzzle a threshing 19 beast"; and a worker deserves his pay. 19 Do not accept an accusation 20 against an elder unless on the word of two or three witnesses. 20 Reprove publicly those who sin, in order that the rest may on their 21 part have something to be afraid of. 21 I notify you before God and Christ Jesus and the chosen angels to take care of these things with-22 out prejudging, not doing anything in the way of favor. 22 Do not be quick to lay hands on anybody, nor share other people's sins; keep yourself pure.

23 23 Do not keep on with water-drinking, but use a little wine on account of your stomach and your frequent illnesses.

24 24 Some men's sins are obvious, going ahead of them to judgment, and 25 some their sins follow up. 25 In the same way good works too are obvious, and such as are otherwise cannot be hidden.

CHAPTER 6

1 1 Let as many as are under a yoke in servitude regard their masters as entitled to all honor, in order that God's name and the teaching 2 may not be vilified. 2 And let those who have believing masters not be disrespectful to them because they are brothers, but be the more their servants because those who enjoy the benefit are believers and loved ones.

3 3 These things teach, and exhort to these. If one teaches erratic notions and does not apply himself to sound words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the teaching that is along the line of piety, 4 4 he is conceit-ridden, not knowing anything, but infatuated about arguments and disputed technicalities, out of which come grudges, 5 5 quarreling, vilification, base suspicions, frictions between men unsound in mind and bereft of the truth who suppose piety to be an economic 6 7 resource. 6 But a great resource is piety with contentment; 7 for we brought nothing into the world, because neither can we carry any-8 thing out; 8 but when we have food to sustain us and coverings to 9 protect us we shall be well enough off. 9 But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and a trap and many stupid and harmful desires 10 which sink men into destruction and perdition. 10 For the love of money is the root of all things bad; hankering for it, some have strayed away from the faith and stabbed themselves with many pains.

11 11 But for your part, man of God, keep clear of these things; and aim at honesty, piety, faith, love, constancy, meekness under provo-12 cation. 12 Play the great game of faith, grasp the eternal life to which you were called and made the good confession before many witnesses.
13 13 I enjoin you before God who gives everything its life, and Christ Jesus who before Pontius Pilate bore his witness to the good con-14 fession, 14 to keep the commandment spotlessly, irreproachably, till the

- 15 oncoming of our Lord Jesus Christ; 15 which, when the right time comes, the blessed only Potentate will display, the King of all who reign 16 and Lord of all who rule, 16 he who alone has immortality, who inhabits unapproachable light, whom none of men have seen nor can see; to whom belong honor and might eternal; amen.
- 17 17 Enjoin those who are rich in the present world not to have lofty ideas and not to have their hopes set on uncertainty of wealth, but on God, him who lets us have everything in rich measure to use and 18 enjoy; 18 to practice beneficence, be rich in good works, ready in sharing 19 19 what they have, loyal in solidarity, laying away for themselves a good foundation toward the future that they may have a hold on the life that is life.
- 20 20 Timothy, safeguard the deposit, turning off from the unsanctified nonsense and counter-propositions of what is miscalled knowledge, 21 21 which some have promised and therein missed the mark of the faith.
- Grace be with you and yours.

PAUL'S SECOND LETTER TO TIMOTHY

CHAPTER 1

1 Paul, apostle of Christ Jesus through God's will in accordance with 2 the promise that we are to have life in Christ Jesus, 2 to my dear child Timothy: grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, to whom I perform service with a clear conscience 4 as did my fathers, that I keep the mention of you so uninterrupted 5 in my prayers, 4 night and day longing to see you, remembering your 6 tears in order that I may be filled with joy 5 by getting a reminiscence of the unfeigned faith you have in you, which resided first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and does, I am persuaded, 7 in you too. 6 For which reason I am reminding you to brighten up the fire of the gift of God which you have in you through the laying on 8 of my hands; 7 for God did not give us a spirit of timorousness but of 9 power and love and discipline. 8 So do not be ashamed of testifying to our Lord nor of me his man in prison, but in the hardships of the 10 gospel work take a share appropriate to the power of God, 9 who saved us and gave us a holy call in accordance not with our deeds but with an intent and grace of his own, given to us in Christ Jesus 11 eternities ago 10 but now made apparent by the oncoming of our Savior Christ Jesus, who superseded death and gave the illumination of life and imperishability through the gospel. 11 For which I was appointed a 12 herald and apostle and teacher; 12 for which same cause I am suffering these things; but I am not abashed, for I know him whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to guard for that day 13 what I left in his care. 13 Have an outline of sound words heard from me; 14 in faith and the love that is in Christ Jesus safeguard the good 14 deposit through the Holy Spirit our inmate.

15 15 You know this, that everybody in the province of Asia turned his 16 back on me; among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. 16 The Lord grant mercy to Onesiphorus's family, because he heartened me up 17 over and over, and was not ashamed of my chains but, 17 when he was 18 in Rome, took pains to hunt me up and found me; 18 the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that day. And what services he rendered in Ephesus you know right well.

CHAPTER 2

1 So for your part, my child, be valiant in the grace that there is in 2 Christ Jesus; 2 and what you heard from me with many witnesses, those things commit to trustworthy men who shall be competent in turn to 3 teach others. 3 Take your share of hardships like a good soldier of 4 Christ Jesus. 4 Everybody in military service keeps clear of entanglement in the businesses of daily life so as to satisfy the one who en-5 listed him. 5 Or if one goes into an athletic contest either, he gets no 6 wreath unless he contends according to the rules. 6 The hardworking 7 husbandman has to be the first to enjoy a part of the crop. 7 Note what I 8 say, for the Lord will give you insight into everything. 8 Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, a descendant of David, in accordance 9 with my preaching, 9 in which I am having hardships to the extent of 10 imprisonment as a criminal; 10 but God's word is not imprisoned; for this reason I hold on through everything for the sake of such as are chosen, in order that they too may come in for the salvation that 11 there is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 11 The saying is a trust-12 worthy one, "For if we died with him, so shall we live with him; 12 if we are bearing the brunt, so shall we reign with him; if we disown 13 him, so will he disown us; 13 if we are distrustful, he remains trusty, for he cannot disown himself."

14 14 Remind people of these things, admonishing them before God not to wrangle over technicalities to no useful purpose, upsetting the 15 listeners. 15 Make a point of presenting yourself to God tried and true, a worker with nothing to be ashamed of, keeping the straight line 16 of the word of truth; 16 but stand away from outpourings of unsanctified 17 nonsense; 17 for they will go further in irreligiousness, and their talk will spread like a gangrene,—among whom are Hymenaeus and 18 Philetus, 18 who missed the mark of truth, saying that there has already 19 been a resurrection, and are wrecking some people's faith. 19 However, God's solid foundation still stands, having this seal, "The Lord knows the ones that belong to him" and "Let everybody who names the 20 Lord's name keep clear of wrong." 20 And in a great house there is not only gold and silver ware but also woodenware and crockery, and some 21 pieces destined for honor, some for ignominy; 21 so if one cleans himself out from these things he will be a piece for honor, consecrated, 22 useful to the owner, prepared for every good work. 22 But tear yourself away from the desires of youth, and aim at righteousness, faith, love, 23 peace, with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 23 But try to keep out of foolish and half-educated arguments, knowing that they 24 breed quarrels; 24 and a servant of the Lord's must not quarrel but be gentle toward everybody, a good teacher, a man to put up with hard 25 treatment, 25 educating opponents by mild methods in case God should 26 give them repentance into recognition of the truth 26 and they should sober up out of the Devil's trap, captured by him, into His will.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 But know this, that in the last days difficult times will come on;
2 2 for men will be selfish, money-mad, pretentious, proud, scurrilous, 3 disobedient to parents, thankless, graceless, loveless, implacable, 3 slan-4 derers, slaves of appetite, ferocious, disinclined to goodness, 4 traitorous, 5 headstrong, conceited, more devoted to pleasure than to God, 5 having a formulation of piety but denying its efficacy; eschew these too.

6 6 For to this class belong those who slip into houses and get into their hands females loaded up with sins, led along by miscellaneous desires, 7 8 7 always learning and never able to come to awareness of truth. 8 And in just the same way as Jannes and Jambres opposed themselves to Moses these too oppose themselves to the truth, men of ruined mind, 9 incompetent for matters of faith; 9 but they will make no further progress, for their senselessness will be evident to everybody, just as those men's came to be.

10 10 But you observed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, 11 love, steadiness, 11 persecutions, sufferings, what things happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra, what persecutions I underwent—12 and the Lord delivered me out of all. 12 And all who propose to live 13 piously in Christ Jesus will also be persecuted; 13 but scoundrels and impostors will make progress for the worse, misguiding and misguided.
14 14 But as for you, remain in what you learned and were given assurance 15 of, knowing from whom you learned it 15 and that ever since you were a baby you have known sacred literature such as could give you the 16 wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. 16 Every text is inspired by God and useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, 17 for training in doing right, 17 in order that the man of God may be a whole man, rounded out to fitness for every good work.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 I notify you before God and Christ Jesus who is to judge living 2 men and dead men, and by his oncoming and his reign, 2 proclaim the word; push in with a good opening or without, reprove, rebuke, exhort, 3 with all patience and along every line of teaching. 3 For there will be a time when they will not stand sound teaching, but to suit their own desires will pile up teachers for themselves as they get their 4 ears tickled, 4 and avert their ears from the truth and turn off to the 5 fictions. 5 But for your part be sober in every respect, bear hardships, do a gospel preacher's work, do your service thoroughly.

6 6 For as for me, I am a cup that is already being poured on the sacri-7 fice, and it is almost time for me to be getting away. 7 I have played the great game, I have run the race through, I have kept the faith: 8 8 what is left is that I have awaiting me the wreath of righteousness, which the Lord, the just judge, will deliver to me on that day. And not only to me but also to all who have been in love with his oncoming.

9 10 9 Try hard to come to me right off; 10 for Demas left me in the lurch, falling in love with the present world, and went to Thessalonica; 11 Crescens to Galatia; 11 Titus to Dalmatia; Luke is the only one with me.
Pick up Mark and bring him with you, for he is valuable to me for 12 13 errands. 12 And Tychicus I sent to Ephesus. 13 When you come bring the poncho I left at Troas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments.

14 14 Alexander the coppersmith injured me in many ways; the Lord will 15 repay him in accordance with his deeds. 15 Be on your guard against him yourself, for he opposed our words much.

16 16 At my first defense nobody rallied to me, everybody left me in 17 the lurch; may it not be counted against them. 17 But the Lord stood by me and put power into me in order that through me the procla-18 mation might be consummated and all the nations might hear, and I was rescued out of a lion's mouth. 18 The Lord will rescue me out of the way of every deed of evil and will save me into his heavenly kingdom; to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

19 19 Give my greetings to Prisca and Aquila and Onesiphorus's family.
20 Erastus stayed at Corinth; 20 and Trophimus I left at Miletus sick.
21 21 Try hard to come before winter. Eubulus sends you greetings, and Pudens and Linus and Claudia and all the brothers.

22 22 The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you and yours.

PAUL'S LETTER TO TITUS

CHAPTER 1

1 1 Paul, servant of God, and Jesus Christ's delegate for the matter of the faith of God's chosen and their awareness of truth along the line 2 of piety 2 in the hope of eternal life, which God, who has no falsehoods, 3 promised ages ago but disclosed his word at the right time by a 4 proclamation with which I was entrusted by order of God our savior, 4 to Titus my very own child by common faith, grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

5 5 I left you in Crete for this purpose, to have you straighten out what remained to be seen to and appoint elders in the different cities 6 as I directed you— 6 anyone who is of blameless reputation, husband of one wife, having believing children not under accusations of de-7 bauchery nor insubordinate. 7 For the church visitor must be of blameless reputation as God's steward, not high and mighty, not hot-8 tempered, not disorderly over his wine, not apt to come to blows, 9 not mercenary, 8 but hospitable, loving whatever is good, discreet, 9 honest, godly, master of his appetites, 9 in touch with the trustworthy 10 ideas that agree with the teaching, in order that he may be able both to exhort in sound instruction and to confute opponents. 10 For there 11 are many, insubordinate gabblers and delusionists, especially those of the circumcision, 11 whom one must silence,— people who wreck whole 12 families, teaching from mercenary motives what ought not to be taught. 12 One of them, a prophet of their very own, said 13 13 "The Cretans, ever liars, vile cattle, idle maws." This testimony is a true one. For which reason show up their errors rigorously in order 14 that they may be sound in the faith, 14 not giving their attention to Jewish fictions and the commandments of human beings who turn 15 their backs on the truth. 15 Everything is clean for clean men; but for polluted unbelievers nothing is clean, but both their mind and their 16 conscience are polluted. 16 They avow that they know God, but in their acts they disavow it, being abominated and disobedient and worthless for any good purpose.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 But as for you, speak what is appropriate to sound teaching: 2 2 that aged men be sober, dignified, discreet, sound in faith, in love, in 3 constancy; 3 aged women, in the same way, saintlike in demeanor, not 4 scandalmongers nor slaves to drink, 4 good advisers in order that they may train the young women to be affectionate to their husbands, 5 affectionate to their children, 5 discreet, pure, homemakers, kind, submissive to their husbands, in order that God's word may not be made 6 a butt for vilification. 6 In the same way exhort the younger men to be 7 discreet about everything, 7 setting an example of good works your-8 self, presenting in your teaching untaintedness, dignity, 8 irreprovable sound words, in order that he who takes the opposite side may be 9 shamed by not having anything harsh to say about us; 9 servants to be submissive to their masters in everything, to be pleasant, not 10 talking back, 10 not purloining but showing all good faithfulness, in order that they may in every respect adorn the teaching of God our savior.

11 11 For God's grace has come on the scene with salvation for all men, 12 12 schooling us to disown impiety and mundane desires and live dis-13 creetly and honestly and piously in the present world, 13 watching for the blessed hope and oncoming of the glory of our great God and 14 Savior Jesus Christ, 14 who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and cleanse for himself a people specially his own, zealous 15 for good works. 15 Speak these things and exhort to them and see to people's conformity to them, with all imperativeness; let nobody make light of you.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 Remind them to be submissive and obedient to governments and 2 authorities, to be ready for every good work, 2 to vilify nobody, to keep out of fights, to be reasonable and show all gentleness toward all 3 men. 3 For we ourselves were once stupid, disobedient, drifters, in servitude to varied desires and pleasures, leading a life of viciousness 4 and envy, odious, hating each other; 4 but when kindness and goodwill 5 came on from our savior God, 5 not as the outcome of deeds in righteousness that we did but in the way of his mercy he saved us by the 6 bath of rebirth and renovation by the Holy Spirit, 6 which he poured 7 out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, 7 in order that being justified by his grace we might become heirs with hope of eternal life.

8 8 The saying is a trustworthy one, and about these things I want you to be positive, in order that those who have believed God may take care to practice good works. These things are good and useful to men; 9 9 but stand away from foolish arguments and tracings of genealogies and quarreling and fights over the law, for they are useless and futile.
 10 10 Have nothing more to do with a troublemaker after one and a second 11 admonition, 11 knowing that such a man is perverted and is sinning when he is self-condemned.

12 12 When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, try to come to me promptly at Nicopolis; for I have decided to be there through the 13 winter. 13 Give Zenas the legist and Apollos your best send-off so that 14 they shall have no lack of anything. 14 And let our people also learn to practice good works for occasions of emergency, so that they may not be unfruitful.

15 15 All who are with me send you greetings. Give my greetings to those who love us in faith. Grace be with you all.

PAUL'S LETTER TO PHILEMON

1 1 Paul, Christ Jesus's man in prison, and Brother Timothy, to our 2 dearly loved friend and co-worker Philemon 2 and Sister Apphia and 3 our fellow-soldier Archippus and the meeting at your house: 3 grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 4 I always thank my God as I make mention of you in my prayers, 5 5 hearing of the love and faith you cherish toward the Lord Jesus and 6 to all the people of God, 6 that your solidarity in the faith may take effect in the knowledge of every good thing that there is in us toward 7 Christ. 7 For I felt great gladness and encouragement over your love, because the hearts of God's people have been set at rest through you, brother.

8 8 Wherefore, though I have in Christ plenty of claim to enjoin you 9 to do the right thing, 9 for love's sake I prefer to appeal to your goodwill. Being such as I am, Paul, an old man and now a prisoner for 10 Jesus Christ besides, 10 I am appealing to you about my child who has 11 been born to me in my chains, Onesimus, 11 the one who was once good for nothing for you but is now good for a great deal both for you 12 and for me; 12 whom I am sending back to you, him who is the heart 13 of my heart— 13 whom I wanted to retain with me in order that he might take your place in doing services for me during my imprison-14 ment for the gospel; 14 but I was not willing to do anything without word from you, in order that your goodness might not be in a sense 15 compulsory but in a voluntary way. 15 For maybe it was for this purpose he was parted from you for a moment, in order that you might have 16 him back eternally yours, 16 no longer as a slave but above that, a dear brother, dear to me but how much dearer to you both in flesh and in the Lord!

17 17 So if you count me as a comrade, receive him as you would me.
18 18 And if he did you any injury or owes anything, charge that to me; 19 19 I Paul write it with my own hand, I will pay—to say nothing of 20 your owing your own self to me into the bargain. 20 Yes, brother, let me have joy of you in the Lord; set my heart at rest in Christ.

21 21 I write you in assurance of your obedience, knowing that you will 22 do even beyond what I say. 22 But, at the same time, get a room ready for me; for I hope that through your prayers I shall be granted to you.

23 24 23 Epaphras my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, 24 and Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke, my co-workers, send you greetings.

25 25 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirits.

THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

CHAPTER 1

1 1 Fragmentarily and variously did God of old speak to the fathers 2 in the prophets, 2 but has in these latter days spoken to us in a Son 3 whom he has appointed heir to everything, through whom also he 4 made the universe; 3 who, being beam of his glory and imprint of his 5 essence, and actuating all things by his word of power, took his seat 6 at the right hand of the Majesty on high when he had made purgation 7 of sins, 4 becoming as much better than the angels as he has inherited 8 a more transcendent name than they. 5 For to which of the angels 9 did he ever say "You are my son, I have this day brought you to 10 birth," and again "I will be father to him and he shall be son to 11 me"? 6 and when he shall again bring in the firstborn into the world 12 of men he says "and let all God's angels do him reverence." 7 And as 13 to the angels he says "he who makes his angels winds, and his servitors 14 flame"; 8 but as to the Son "God is your throne forever and ever, and 15 the scepter of integrity is the scepter of his reign. 9 You loved rectitude 16 and hated wickedness; for this reason God, your God, has anointed 17 you with the oil of joy beyond your fellows," 10 and "You at the be-18 ginning, Lord, laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are 19 works of your hands: 11 they will perish, but you abide; and all of them 20 will grow old as a cloak does, 12 and like a mantle you will roll them 21 up—like a cloak, too, will they be changed; but you are the same 22 and your years will not come short." 13 But as to which of the angels 23 has he ever said "Sit at my right hand till I make your enemies the 24 footstool for your feet"? 14 Are they not, all of them, servient spirits 25 that are sent on errands in behalf of those who are to inherit sal-26 vation?

CHAPTER 2

1 1 For this reason we must pay special attention to what we have 2 heard, for fear we should drop away. 2 For if the word spoken through 3 angels proved sure, and every violation or nonobservance received vation? which, having begun to be spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who had heard it, 4 God adding his attestation by tokens and wonders and varied miracles and grants of the Holy Spirit according to his will.

5 For not to angels did he subject the future earth of which we are speaking; 6 because someone has somewhere testified in these words: "What is a man, that thou rememberest him? or a son of man, that thou dost look after him? 7 Thou didst make him a little inferior to the angels, didst garland him with glory and honor, 8 didst subject everything underneath his feet." For in subjecting everything to him he has left nothing unsubjected to him, but now we do not yet see everything subjected to him; 9 but him who was made a little inferior to the angels, Jesus, we do see garlanded with glory and honor so that by God's grace he may taste death for everyone. 10 For it befitted him for whom everything exists and through whom everything exists that in bringing many sons to glory he should perfect through suffering their leader in salvation. 11 For the sanctifier and the sanctified all come of one; for which reason he is not ashamed of calling them brothers, 12 saying "I will announce thy name to my brothers, in the midst of the congregation I will hymn thy praise," 13 and again "I will rest my confidence in him," and again "Lo, I and the children God has given me." 14 So, since the children have been sharing flesh and blood, he himself similarly participated in the same, that through death he might quell him who wields the might of death—that is, the Devil— 15 and deliver those who for the fear of death were doomed to slavery all their lives. 16 For he does not take up angels, methinks, but takes up the descendants of Abraham. 17 Whence he had to be made in all respects like his brothers, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest for our relations to God, to make propitiation for the people's sins. 18 For by the fact that he himself has suffered from temptation he is able to help the tempted.

CHAPTER 3

1 Hence, holy brothers, participants in the celestial call, look at Jesus the apostle and high priest of our confession, 2 faithful to the one who appointed him in the same way as Moses was faithful in his house. 3 For he has been awarded more glory than Moses insofar as he who constructed the house has more honor than the house. 4 For every house is constructed by somebody; but he who constructed everything is God, 5 and Moses was faithful in all his house as a servant for a testimony of what was to be spoken, 6 but Christ as a son over his house; whose house we are if we retain our confidence and prideful hope. 7 Wherefore, as the Holy Spirit says "Today, if you hear his voice, 8 do not harden your hearts as at the embittering, as on the day of the testing in the wilderness, 9 where your fathers made a test for approval and saw my deeds for forty years, 10 wherefore I was disgusted with that generation and said 'They are wrong-headed all the time and 11 do not know my ways,' 11 as I swore in my anger 'They shall not come 12 into my rest,'" 12 look to it, brothers, that there shall not be in any one of you a vicious heart of unbelief in breaking away from the living 13 God, 13 but exhort each other each day as long as "today" is so called, in order that there may not any one of you be hardened by the deceits 14 of sin; 14 for we have become the Christ's "fellows" if we hold firm to 15 the end the resolution we began with, 15 while it is said "Today, if you 16 hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as at the embittering." 16 For who did the embittering when they had heard? why, was it not all 17 who had come out of Egypt by Moses's agency? 17 and with whom was he disgusted for forty years? was it not with those who had sinned, 18 whose limbs dropped in the wilderness? 18 and to whom did he swear that they should not come into his rest except to those who had dis-19 believed? 19 and we see that they could not come in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 So let us be afraid lest when there is left a promise of coming into his rest any one of you should perchance appear to have fallen short—2 2 for we have heard a gospel, as they too had, but the words they heard 3 did them no good, they not meeting the hearers with faith. 3 For we believers come into rest, as he says "as I swore in my anger 'They shall not come into my rest'" though it was back at the foundation 4 of the world that the works were done. 4 For he somewhere says like this about the seventh day, "And God rested on the seventh day from 5 all his works," 5 and in this passage again "They shall not come into 6 my rest"; 6 so since it remains that some come into it, and those who 7 heard the gospel before did not come in because of disobedience, 7 he again defines a certain day, "today," saying in David so long afterward, as aforesaid, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden 8 your hearts." 8 For if Joshua had brought them to rest he would not 9 be speaking about another day afterward. 9 So then there remains a sabbath for God's people. 10 For he who has come into his rest is resting 10 from his own works just as God did from his. 11 So let us make it our 11 concern to come into that rest, in order that no one may fall by the 12 same pattern of disobedience. 12 For God's word is living and effective and a surer cutter than any two-edged sword, and penetrative to the 13 dissection of soul and spirit, of joints and marrows, and a judge of a heart's thoughts and conceptions; 13 and not a creature escapes his notice, but everything is naked and thrown flat on its back for his eyes of whom we are speaking.

14 14 So, having a great high priest who has gone past the skies, Jesus 15 the Son of God, let us hold on to our confession. 15 For we do not have a high priest that cannot feel our weaknesses, but one who has met 16 temptations of like nature in all respects without sin. 16 So let us come to the throne of grace with confidence in order that we may obtain mercy and find grace for timely help.

CHAPTER 5

1 For every high priest, taken from among men, is appointed on 2 men's behalf in their relations to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for 3 sins, 2 being able to take a reasonable attitude toward those who blunder 4 and stray since he too is beset by weakness 3 and because of it is 5 obliged to offer sin-offerings on his own account just as he does on 6 the people's. 4 And one does not take the honor to himself but enters 7 upon it at God's call in the same way as Aaron did. 5 In this same way 8 the Christ did not glorify himself into the office of high priest, but 9 he who spoke to him in the words "You are my son, I have this day 10 brought you to birth," 6 as he says in another passage too "You are a 11 priest forever in such station as Melchisedek's was." 12 7 Who, having in his days of flesh offered with strong outcries and 13 tears both petitions and supplications to him who could save him 14 from death, and having been listened to for his godliness, 8 learned 9 obedience by suffering, Son though he was, 9 and, perfected, became 10 for all who obey him the author of an eternal salvation, 10 being ad-11 dressed by God as a high priest "in such station as Melchisedek's was." 12 11 —About whom we have much to say, and hard to explain in the 13 saying, since you have come to be dull-eared— 12 for when you ought 14 to be teachers on account of the time that has elapsed, you are again 15 in need of having someone teach you the primary elements of God's 16 oracles, and have come to be in need of milk, not of solid food. 13 For 17 anyone who takes milk is unversed in the discussion of righteousness; 18 14 for he is an infant, but solid food is for grown men, those who from 19 experience have their senses exercised for discrimination between 20 good and bad.

CHAPTER 6

1 Wherefore let us drop primary propositions about the Christ and 2 push on to adult work, not re-laying a foundation of repentance 3 from dead works and of faith in God, 2 instruction about baptisms and 4 laying on of hands, resurrection of the dead and eternal judgment.
5 3 And this we will do if God permits.
6 4 For it is impossible to renew again to repentance those who were 7 once lighted up and tasted the heavenly gift and became partakers 8 in the Holy Spirit 5 and tasted God's good word and the powers of a 9 future age, and have gone off the track; 6 men that are recrucifying the 10 Son of God for themselves and making a spectacle of him. 7 For land 11 that has drunk the rain which came repeatedly upon it and brings 12 forth vegetation fit for the purposes of those on whose account it is 13 worked enjoys a blessing from God, 8 but such as puts out thorns and 14 thistles is worthless and close to a curse, coming in the end to burning.
15 9 But we are persuaded of better things about you, dear friends, and 16 things that go with salvation, though we do speak thus. 10 For God is 17 not unjust, to forget your work and the love you have displayed toward his name in the services you have rendered and are rendering 11 to his people. 11 But we wish each of you might display the same 12 earnestness with reference to certitude of hope to the end, 12 in order that you may not come out dullards but imitators of those who through faith and patience were granted the promises.

13 13 For in giving Abraham the promise God, since he had no way to 14 swear by any greater, 14 swore by himself "Verily I will bless you and 15 make you numerous." 15 And thus when he had been patient he won the 16 promise. 16 For men swear by the greater, and the oath is for them the 17 assuring end of all contradiction; 17 which being so, God, wishing particularly to show the grantees of the promise the immutability of 18 his plan, interposed with an oath, 18 in order that by two immutable things in which it is impossible for God to lie we might have a strong encouragement, we who have sought refuge in grasping the hope that 19 lies before us. 19 Which hope we have as an anchor for the soul, safe 20 and firm and going inside the curtain, 20 where Jesus went in for us in advance when he became high priest forever in such station as Melchisedek's was.

CHAPTER 7

1 1 For this Melchisedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who came to meet Abraham as he returned from the defeat of the kings 2 and blessed him, 2 to whom also Abraham apportioned a tithe of everything,—translated, in the first place, "King of Righteousness," and 3 then also "king of Salem," 3 which is "king of peace," fatherless, motherless, pedigreeless, not having either a beginning of days or an end of life but put in like condition with the Son of God,—remains 4 a priest in perpetuity. 4 And see what a man this was, to whom Abraham, the founder of the nation, gave a tithe out of the spoils!
5 5 and those of the sons of Levi who receive the priesthood have orders to tithe the people in accordance with the law, that is, to tithe their 6 brothers even though they have come out of Abraham's loins; 6 but he who does not count his ancestry from them has tithed Abraham 7 and blessed him who had the promises. 7 And beyond any dispute the 8 lesser is blessed by the better. 8 And here men who die receive tithes, 9 but there one who has it attested that he lives. 9 And, so to speak, through Abraham even Levi, he who receives tithes, has been tithed; 10 10 for he was still in his father's loins when Melchisedek came to meet him.

11 11 So if perfection was attainable through the Levitical priesthood (for the people has its legislation on that basis), what more need was there that another priest be set up in such station as Melchisedek's 12 was and not be said to be in such station as Aaron's? 12 for when the 13 priesthood is shifted there necessarily comes a shift of law too. 13 For he of whom these things are said is a member of another tribe, from 14 which nobody has tended the altar; 14 for it is a conspicuous fact that our Lord has arisen out of Judah, with reference to which tribe 15 Moses spoke nothing about priests. 15 And it is all the more evident if 16 in likeness to Melchisedek another priest is set up 16 who has become such not as determined by the law of a commandment for flesh but 17 as determined by the power of indestructible life; 17 for he has the attestation "You are a priest forever in such station as Melchisedek's was."

18 18 For there ensues abrogation of a prior commandment because of 19 its weakness and uselessness 19 (for the law did not complete anything) and introduction of a better hope through which we approach God.
20 20 And so far as regards its not being without the taking of an oath 21 21 (for those are priests made such without the taking of an oath, but he with the taking of an oath, through him who says to him "The 22 Lord has sworn, and will not revoke it, 'You are priest forever' "), 22 to 23 that extent has Jesus become guarantor of a better covenant. 23 And those have been a number of priests because prevented by death from 24 staying in their place; 24 but he, because of remaining forever, has his 25 priesthood inalienable, 25 wherefore he can totally save those who come to God through him, he being always alive to intercede for them. 26 For 26 such a high priest was the right one for us, godly, innocent, unpolluted, separated from sinners and risen to be higher than the 27 heavens, 27 who does not, like the high priests, have daily necessity to offer sacrifices first for his own sins, then for those of the people; for 28 this he did once for all in making the offering of himself. 28 For the law appoints men as high priests, men who have weaknesses; but the oath-taking word that came after the law a Son, perfected forever.

CHAPTER 8

1 1 And, the main point for what we are talking about, we have such a high priest as has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne 2 of majesty in the heavens, 2 a ministrant of the true sanctuary and 3 the true tent which the Lord pitched, not a man. 3 For every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices; whence it is necessary 4 that this one too should have something to offer. 4 If then he were on earth he would not be a priest at all, there being those who offer the 5 gifts in accordance with the law, 5 who perform the service of a model and shadow of the heavenly, as Moses had the revelation made to him when he was going to execute the Tent; for it says "See that you 6 make everything in conformity with the figure that was showed you on the mountain." 6 But now he enjoys a more transcendent ministry insofar as he is also mediator of a better covenant which has its legislation on the basis of better promises.
7 7 For if that first one had been irreproachable there would be no 8 looking for a place for a second. 8 For he says, reproaching them, "Here are days coming, says the Lord, that I will execute regarding the 9 house of Israel and the house of Judah a new covenant— 9 not like the covenant I made for their fathers on the day of my taking them by the hand to bring them out of Egypt, because they did not adhere 10 to my covenant and I left them to themselves, says the Lord; 10 because this is the covenant I will establish for the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord, putting my laws into their mind and inscribing them on their hearts, and they shall have me for their 11 God and I will have them for my people, 11 and they shall not be each teaching his fellow-citizen and each his brother 'Know the Lord,' because they shall all know me from the least to the greatest of them, 12 12 because I will be gracious to their wrong-doings and will no longer 13 remember their sins." 13 In saying "new" he has antiquated the first one; but what is being antiquated and showing its old age is somewhere near disappearance.

CHAPTER 9

1 1 So the first one did have ordinances of service and its sanctuary 2 of a mundane sort. 2 For a tent was constructed, the first one, in which the lampstand and the showbread were, which tent is designated as 3 Holy, 3 and after the second curtain a tent, the one designated as 4 Holiest of the Holy, 4 with a golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant coated all over with gold, in which there were a gold jar holding the manna, and Aaron's stick that sprouted, and the 5 tablets of the covenant; 5 and up on top of it cherubim of glory shading the mercy-seat,—about which things it is not practicable to tell in 6 detail now. 6 And, these things being thus arranged, into the first tent the priests are all the time coming in to go through with the services, 7 7 but into the second the high priest only, once a year, not without blood 8 which he offers for the people's indiscretions, 8 what the Holy Spirit meant to express being this, that the way to the sanctuary had not yet been brought to light while the first tent was still standing.
9 9 Which is a parable for the present time; in keeping with which there are being offered gifts and sacrifices that cannot perfect the worshiper 10 as to conscience, 10 only on the score of foods and drinks and different ablutions: ordinances for flesh, imposed till a time of rectification.
11 11 But when Christ arrived, high priest of good things that had come into existence, by way of the greater and more perfect tent, not 12 man-made,—that is, not of this creation,— 12 and not by virtue of blood of goats and steers but by his own blood, he entered the holy 13 place once for all, achieving an eternal redemption. 13 For if the blood of goats and bulls, and ashes of a heifer sprinkling the defiled, hallow 14 one as regards the cleanness of the flesh, 14 how much more will the blood of the Christ, who by the working of an eternal Spirit offered himself as a faultless oblation to God, cleanse our conscience from the 15 corpses of our deeds for worshiping a living God! 15 And this is why he is mediator of a new covenant, so that, a death having taken place to cancel the transgressions under the first covenant, those who had been called might receive the promised eternal inheritance.

16 For where there is a testament it is necessary that the testator's 17 death be put in evidence; 17 for it is for the affairs of the dead that a 18 testament is valid, since when the testator is alive it is not at the time 19 in effect. 18 Whence it comes that not even the first one was inaugurated 19 without blood. 19 For after every commandment had been spoken to 20 all the people by Moses in accordance with the law, he took the blood 20 of the steers and goats with water and scarlet wool and marjoram and 21 sprinkled the book itself and all the people, 20 saying "This is the blood 21 of the covenant which God commanded for you." 21 And he likewise 22 sprinkled with the blood the tent and all the vessels for the services; 22 and, broadly speaking, according to the law everything is cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood no exoneration takes place.

23 So there is a necessity that the models of what is in the heavens be 24 cleansed with these things but the heavenly things themselves with 24 better sacrifices transcending these. 24 For it was not into a man-made sanctuary, a reproduction of the true one, that Christ went in, but 25 into heaven itself, to appear in God's presence now for us; 25 neither was it with a view to offering himself repeatedly as the high priest 26 goes into the sanctuary year after year by another creature's blood, 26 else he would have had to suffer over and over since the foundation of the world; but now it is once, at the culmination of the ages, that 27 he has shown himself for the annulment of sin by his sacrifice. 27 And as surely as it is reserved for men to die once, but after this a judg-28 ment, 28 so too the Christ, offered once to take up the sins of many, will appear a second time, clear of sin, for salvation, to those who are awaiting him.

CHAPTER 10

1 For the law, having a shadow of the future good, not the very image of the things, can never year by year with the same sacrifices, 2 which they are offering, perfect in perpetuity those who come; 2 else would they not have ceased to be offered because the worshipers, once 3 cleansed, would no longer have had sins on their conscience? 3 but in 4 them there is a remembrance of sins year by year, 4 for it is impossible 5 that blood of goats and bulls should take away sins; 5 for which reason as he comes into the world he says "Sacrifice and offering thou hadst 6 no will for, but a body thou didst fit for me; burnt-offerings and sin-7 offerings thou didst not approve. 7 Then I said 'Here I come, in a roll 8 of a book it is written of me, to do thy will, God.' " 8 Saying above
"Sacrifices and offerings and burnt-offerings and sin-offerings thou 9 hadst no will for and didst not approve," which are offered according to the law, he has then said "Here I come to do thy will"; 9 he abolishes 10 the first to make good the second; 10 in which will we have been sanctified by the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest stands day by day performing his services and repeatedly offering the same sacrifices, which can never remove sins; 12 but this one, having offered one sacrifice for sins, took a seat in perpetuity at God's right hand, 13 thenceforth waiting till his enemies be made the footstool for his feet, 14 for by one offering he has brought those who were to be sanctified into perfect status in perpetuity. 15 And the Holy Spirit too gives us testimony; for after having said 16 "this is the covenant I will establish for them after those days, 16 says the Lord, putting my laws on their hearts and inscribing them on their mind," 17 comes "and will no longer remember their sins and their wickednesses." 18 But where there is exoneration from these there is no more offering of anything for sin.

19 So, brothers, having confidence for entrance into the sanctuary by 20 Jesus's blood, 20 which entrance he inaugurated for us, a fresh and living 21 passage through the curtain (that is, his flesh), 21 and having a great 22 priest over God's house, 22 let us come with a true heart in certitude of faith, our hearts sprinkled from bad conscience and our bodies 23 washed with clean water; 23 let us hold erect the profession of our faith, 24 for he who made the promises is faithful, 24 and let us observe each 25 other to stimulate us to love and good works, 25 not abandoning our assemblies as some have a way of doing, but cheering on; and the more as you see the day coming nearer.

26 26 For if we sin willfully after having had the recognition of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, 27 but a frightful waiting for judgment, and the jealousy of a fire that is to consume foes. 28 When one has disregarded Moses's law he dies without mercy at two or three witnesses; 29 how much worse a penalty do you think he will be deemed to deserve who has trampled on the Son of God and has regarded as unholy the covenant blood by which he was sanctified and has affronted the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know who it was that said "Mine is vengeance; I will requite," and again "The Lord will judge his people." 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of a living God.

32 32 But recollect the earlier days in which after you were given the light you held out through a hard grind of suffering, 33 for one thing being made a spectacle of with insults and distresses, and for another thing showing your solidarity with those who were leading such a life— 34 for you shared the suffering of the imprisoned and accepted cheerfully the pillage of your property, knowing that you have better belongings that stay by you. 35 So do not throw up your confidence, which has great wages payable. 36 For staying power is what it takes, that after doing God's will you may receive the fulfillment of the promise: 37 "for yet the least moment—he who is coming will come and not be belated. 38 And my righteous man shall have life out of faith; and if he flinches my soul takes no satisfaction in him." 39 And we are not for flinching that comes to destruction, but for faith that comes to soul-preservation.

CHAPTER 11

1 1 And faith is assuming the validity of hopes, putting unseen things 2 to the test. 2 For it is as to this the old-timers are vouched for.

3 3 It is by faith we apprehend that the worlds were set in order by 4 a word of God's, so that it is not out of observable things that what 5 we see was made.

6 4 It was by faith Abel offered to God more of a sacrifice than Cain, 7 through which he had himself attested to be righteous, God testifying 8 over his gifts; and it is through it he still speaks after he dies.

9 5 It was by faith Enoch was translated so as not to see death, and 10 was not to be found because God had translated him; for before the 11 translation he was vouched for as having pleased God, 6 but without 12 faith it is impossible to please; for he who comes to God has to be-13 lieve that he is and that to those who seek him he proves a paymaster.

14 7 It was by faith Noah, receiving a revelation about what could not 15 yet be seen, was on his guard and constructed an ark for the saving 16 of his family, through which he pronounced condemnation on the 17 world and became heir to the righteousness that comes in the way 18 of faith.

19 8 It was by faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to 20 a place he was to get for an inheritance, and did go out, not knowing 21 where he was going. 9 It was by faith he lived in an immigrant's con-22 dition in the country he had the promise of as if in a country not his 23 own, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the co-heirs of the same 24 promise; 10 for he was waiting for the city that has the foundations, of 25 which God is architect and artisan. 11 It was by faith Sarah herself 26 too received power for founding a line of descendants even out of her 27 time of life, since she regarded the giver of the promise as trust-28 worthy; 12 because of which, also, there were born from one—and one 29 who had gone dead, at that—descendants numerous as the stars in 30 the sky or as the uncountable sand on the seashore.

31 13 In faith all these died, not having received the promised things but 32 having seen and greeted them at a distance and avowed that on the 33 earth they were strangers living away from their home. 14 For those 34 who say things of that sort make it manifest that they are wanting 35 a home. 15 And if they had been remembering that one from which 36 they had gone out, they would have had a suitable time for going 37 back; 16 but as it is, they are bent on a better one, that is, a heavenly 38 one. For which reason God is not ashamed of them, of being desig-39 nated as their God; for he has got a city ready for them.

40 17 It was by faith Abraham, when put to the test, brought Isaac as 41 a sacrifice, and he who had taken the promises to himself, 18 to whom the 42 word had been spoken "it will be by Isaac that issue shall be called 19 yours," was sacrificing his only son, 19 counting on it that God is powerful enough to raise from the dead, wherefrom he did, figuratively speaking, receive him.

20 20 It was by faith, too, Isaac gave Jacob and Esau a blessing about future things.

21 21 It was by faith Jacob, when dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons, and did reverence on the top of his staff.

22 22 It was by faith Joseph, when passing away, mentioned the coming out of the sons of Israel from Egypt and gave a command about his bones.

23 23 It was by faith Moses, when born, was hidden three months by his parents because they saw the child was a pretty one, and they were not afraid of the king's order.

24 24 It was by faith Moses, when he grew up, renounced being known as Pharaoh's daughter's son, 25 choosing rather to share the hardships of God's people than to have temporary enjoyment from a sin, 26 regarding the insults given to the Christ as a greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt; 27 for he had his eye on the wages to be paid. It was by faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's rage, for he bore up as seeing the Invisible One. 28 It was by faith he celebrated the passover and the application of the blood so that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them.

29 29 It was by faith they crossed the Red Sea as if along dry ground; attempting which, the Egyptians were swallowed up.

30 30 It was by faith the walls of Jericho fell after seven days of circling around them.

31 31 It was by faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who had been disobedient, she having received the spies with peace.

32 32 And why say more? for the time will fail me as I tell about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, and David and Samuel and the prophets, 33 who through faith put down kingdoms, did service to the right, won promises, stopped lions' mouths, 34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were brought to powerfulness from weakness, became strong in war, routed camps of aliens. 35 Women received their dead in resurrection; and others were beaten to death and did not accept a chance of getting off, in order that a better resurrection might be theirs; 36 and others experienced derisive indignities and lashes, and chains and prison life moreover. 37 They were stoned, sawed in two, put to the sword; they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins, suffering want, distress, hardship, 38 they of whom the world was not worthy, wandering in deserts and mountains and caves and holes in the ground.

39 39 And all these, though by faith they had themselves vouched for, did not receive what was promised, 40 as God looked forward to something better regarding us, so that they were not to come to completeness apart from us.

CHAPTER 12

1       1 Consequently let us too, having around us such a cloud of witnesses, take off everything heavy, and trammeling sin, and run steadily the 2 race that lies before us, 2 looking to him who led the way in faith and brought it to completeness, Jesus, who for the joy that lay before him endured a cross, despising shame, and has taken his seat at the 3 right hand of God's throne. 3 For think over the ease of him who has endured such opposition from sinners against themselves, so that you may not lose your nerve and give out.

4       4 You have not yet stood up to your fight with sin till the blood 5 ran; 5 and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as sons, "My son, do not slight the Lord's discipline nor be dis-6 heartened when you are corrected by him, 6 for it is the one the Lord 7 loves that he disciplines, and he whips every son that he accepts." 7 It is for discipline that you have trials to endure; God is treating you 8 as sons; 8 for what son is there that a father does not discipline? but if you are without discipline, of which all have had their share, then 9 you are bastards and not sons. 9 And then, we had our bodily fathers as disciplinarians and stood in awe of them; shall we not much more 10 be submissive to the Father of spirits, and live? 10 For they disciplined us for a few days as they saw fit, but he for our advantage so that 11 we shall partake of his holiness. 11 Any discipline does not in its present aspect seem to be a thing for gladness but for pain; but afterward it yields a peaceful fruit to those who have had their training by it, the fruit of righteousness.

12       12 Wherefore, brace up the unstrung hands and the palsied knees, 13 and make straight tracks for your feet, 13 in order that what is lame 14 may not get a sprain but may rather heal up. 14 Aim at peace with everyone, and sanctification (without which nobody will see the Lord), 15 15 having an eye to it that nobody coming short of God's grace, no root of bitterness sending up its sprout, shall make trouble and thereby 16 the rank and file be polluted, 16 no libertine or unsanctified man like 17 Esau, who for one meal sold his rights as eldest son; 17 for you know how when he did afterward want to inherit the blessing he was ruled out; for he did not find a chance to change his mind though he tried for it in tears.

18       18 For you have not come to something tangible and burned with 19 fire and to darkness and gloom and thick air, 19 and trumpet-tone, and such a sound of words that the hearers declined to have more said 20 to them, 20 for they could not bear the charge that was given, "if even 21 a beast touches the mountain it shall be stoned," 21 and, so fearful was 22 the display, Moses said "I quail and quiver"; 22 but you have come to Mount Sion and the city of the living God, heavenly Jerusalem, and 23 tens of thousands of angels in festival throng, 23 and a church of firstborn sons registered in heaven, and God the Judge of all, and the 24 spirits of perfected saints, 24 and Jesus the mediator of a new covenant,

25 and a blood of sprinkling that speaks better than Abel's. 25 See to it that you do not decline him who speaks; for if those did not escape when they had on earth declined him who was giving the revelation, much more we, who turn our backs on him who is doing it from 26 heaven, 26 whose voice shook the earth then, but now he has promised 27 "One time more I will shake not only the earth but the sky too." 27 And "one time more" expresses the displacement of the shaken things as of things that have been made, in order that the unshaken may remain.
28 Wherefore, raised to the throne of an unshakable empire, let us have a thankful spirit, through which we shall worship God 29 acceptably; 29 with reverence and fear—for our God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER 13

1 2 1 Let brotherliness persist. 2 Do not forget hospitableness, for by it 3 some men had angels as guests before they knew it. 3 Remember those in prison, as being fellow-prisoners; those in hardship, as being in a 4 body yourselves. 4 Marriage, highly honored in all respects, and the bed unpolluted; for God will judge libertines and adulterers. 5 Character, unmercenary; getting along with what there is on hand, for he 6 himself has said "I will not neglect you nor abandon you," 6 so that we can say stoutly "I have the Lord as helper and will not be frightened; what is a man to do to me?"

7 7 Be mindful of your leaders who spoke God's word to you; whose faith imitate, viewing the way they passed out of the life they had 8 led. 8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, and forever.
9 9 Do not be swept along with miscellaneous peculiar doctrines; for it is a good thing that the heart be held firm by grace—not by foods, in which those who concern themselves with them did not get any 10 benefit. 10 We have an altar from which those who perform the service of the tabernacle have no right to eat. 11 For when the blood of animals is brought into the holy place by the high priest on account of sin, 12 the bodies of these are burned up outside the camp; 12 for which reason so did Jesus, in order to sanctify the people by his own blood, suffer 13 outside the gate; 13 well, then, let us come out to him outside the camp, bearing his ignominy. 14 For we do not have a permanent city here, but are trying for the future one.

15 15 Through him let us offer a sacrifice of praise to God all the time; that is, the fruit of lips making acknowledgments to his name. 16 And do not forget beneficence and solidarity; for with such sacrifices God is pleased. 17 Obey your leaders and defer to them, for they are on the alert night and day in behalf of your souls, expecting to have to account for them; in order that they may do that with gladness, not with 18 groans, for this would not pay you. 18 Pray for us; for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, intending to lead a good life in every respect. 19 And I more especially urge you to do this in order that I may be restored to you the more quickly.

20 And may the God of peace, who by virtue of the blood of an eternal covenant brought up from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep, 21 our Lord Jesus, 21 make you fit in every good quality for doing his will, bringing about in you what shall be pleasing before him through 22 Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever; amen. 22 But I beg you, brothers, take the word of exhortation in good part—for I have given you a short letter.
 23 23 Know that our brother Timothy has been released; with whom, if he comes pretty soon, I will see you.
 24 24 Give my greetings to all your leaders and all God's people. The 25 brothers from Italy send you greetings. 25 Grace be with you all.

THE LETTER FROM JAMES

CHAPTER 1

1 1 James, servant of God and the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes abroad, greeting.
2 2 Think it all gladness, my brothers, when you fall into varied temp-3 tations, 3 knowing that the test of your faith produces steadfastness.
4 4 And let steadfastness take complete effect, that you may be complete, 5 sound all over, not lacking in any respect. 5 But if one of you is lacking in wisdom let him ask of the God who gives wholeheartedly to all 6 and says no more about it. 6 But let him ask in faith, without any doubting; for one who doubts is like a swell at sea blown about and 7 tossing. 7 For let not that man think that he will get anything from 8 9 the Lord— 8 a man of two minds, fickle in all his courses. 9 But let the 10 lowly brother glory in his loftiness, 10 and the rich in his lowliness, be-11 cause he shall pass away like field flowers. 11 For the sun rises with the hot wind, and dries up the plants, and their flowers fall off and the beauty of their faces is gone; so the rich man too shall wither in his 12 wayfarings. 12 Happy is the man who endures temptation, because when he has stood the test he shall receive the wreath of life which God 13 has promised to those who love him. 13 Let no one, when he is tempted, say "I am being tempted by God"; for God feels no temptations to 14 evil, and himself tempts nobody. 14 But each one is tempted by being 15 enticed and allured by his own desire; 15 then desire becomes pregnant and gives birth to sin, and sin grows up and brings forth its offspring 16 17 death. 16 Do not be misled, my dear brothers. 17 Every good giving, every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of Lights, with whom there is no such thing as a variation or the shadowing of 18 a turn. 18 Purposely did he, by the word of truth, bring us forth as his offspring, to the end that we should be a sort of firstfruits of his creatures.
19 19 You know it, my dear brothers. But let every man be quick to 20 hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; 20 for man's anger does not practice 21 God's righteousness. 21 Wherefore, laying off all befoulment and pro-22 fusion of malice, receive in meekness the implanted word that is able 23 to save your souls. 22 But be doers of words, and not merely self-cheating 24 hearers; 23 because whoever is a hearer of a word and not a doer, he is 25 like a man looking in a glass at the face he was bom with; 24 for he 26 looks at himself and goes off and forgets at once what he was like.

27 25 But he who gazes into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and stays 28 by it, not showing himself a forgetful hearer but a doer in act, happy 29 shall he be in his doing. 26 If one thinks himself devout while not 30 bridling his tongue but deceiving his own heart, that man's devotions 31 are futile. 27 Pure and undented devotions in the eyes of God the 32 Father are these: to look after orphans and widows in their distress; 33 to keep one's self unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 My brothers, let it not be with partiality that you hold the faith 2 of our Lord of glory Jesus Christ. 2 For if there comes into a synagogue 3 of yours a man with a gold ring, in splendid dress, and there comes 4 in also a poor man in soiled dress, 3 and you take notice of the one 5 who wears the splendid dress and say "You sit here in a good place," 6 and say to the poor man "You stand there, or sit under my foot-7 stool,"—4 are you not in conflict with yourselves, and have you not 8 shown yourselves judges swayed by base influences? 5 Listen, my dear 9 brothers: did not God choose those who are poor as to the world to 10 be rich in faith and heirs of the royalty which he promised to those 11 who love him? but you have dishonored the poor man. 6 Do not the 12 rich tyrannize over you and do not they drag you before tribunals?
13 7 do not they blaspheme the goodly name by which you are called?
14 8 If, however, you fulfill the royal law according to the text "You 15 shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well; 9 but if you show 16 partiality you are practicing sin, being convicted by the law as 17 violators. 10 For whoever keeps the whole law but makes a slip in one 18 point has become guilty of all. 11 For he who said "Do not commit adul-19 tery" said also "Do not murder"; and if you do not commit adultery 20 but do commit murder you have become a violator of the law. 12 So 21 speak, and so do, as men who are to be judged by a law of liberty.
22 13 For justice is pitiless to him who has not showed pity; pity flouts 23 justice.

14 14 What is the use, my brothers, if one says he has faith, but does not 15 have deeds? can faith save him? 15 If a brother or sister be naked and 16 in lack of daily food, 16 and one of you say to them "Good luck to you, 17 keep warm and eat heartily," but you do not give them what is requi-18 site for the body, what is the use? 17 just so faith, if it does not have 19 deeds, is dead in itself. 18 But a man will say "You have faith and I 20 have deeds; show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you 21 my faith by my deeds. 19 You believe that there is one God? you do well:

20 the demons too believe, and shiver. 20 But do you want to know, hollow 21 man, that faith without deeds is idle? 21 Was not Father Abraham justified by deeds, in that he sacrificed his son Isaac on the altar?
22 22 do you perceive that faith cooperated with his deeds, and faith was 23 perfected by deeds? 23 and the text which says 'And Abraham believed God, and it was counted as righteousness for him, and he was called 24 God's friend' was fulfilled." 24 You see that a man is justified by deeds 25 and not by faith alone. 25 And in the same way was not Rahab the prostitute justified by deeds, when she took in the messengers and 26 sent them out another way? 26 For as the body without a spirit is dead, so also faith without deeds is dead.

CHAPTER 3

1 1 Do not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that 2 we shall come under greater responsibility. 2 For we one and all make many slips. If anyone does not slip in speech, that man is a complete 3 man, able to bridle the whole body too. 3 And if we put bits in horses' mouths to have them obey us, we bring around their whole body too.
4 4 Ships also, great as they are and driven by hard winds, are brought around by a little helm whichever way the steersman's push will have 5 it. 5 So is the tongue a small organ and boasts a great record. What a 6 great forest the least bit of fire will kindle! 6 and the tongue is a fire.
The tongue is set among our organs as the world of wrong, what spots the whole body and sets aflame the wheel of birth and is set aflame by hell.

7 7 For every species of beasts and of birds, and of reptiles and the creatures of the sea, is and has been subdued by the human species; 8 8 but the tongue no human being can subdue, unquiet evil that it is, full 9 of death-dealing venom. 9 With it we bless our Lord and Father, and 10 with it we curse men, who are made in the likeness of God: 10 out of the same mouth come blessing and curse; my brothers, these things ought 11 not to be so done. 11 Does a spring flow sweet and bitter out of the same 12 orifice? 12 can a fig-tree, my brothers, produce olives, or a grapevine figs?
neither can salt water produce sweet.

13 13 Who is there among you that is wise and intelligent? let him show 14 his deeds out of a good life, in meekness of wisdom. 14 But if you have bitter jealousy and contest in your hearts, do not flout the truth and 15 tell lies against it. 15 This wisdom is not heaven-descended but terrestrial, 16 animal, fiendlike; 16 for where jealousy and contests are, there is dis-17 order and every faulty action. 17 But the heaven-descended wisdom is first pure, then peaceable, reasonable, tractable, full of pity and good 18 fruits, with no misgivings and no insincerities; 18 and fruit of righteousness is sowed in peace for those who make peace.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 What is the origin of wars and fightings among you? is it not this, 2 your pleasures campaigning in your organism? 2 You desire and do not have, you murder and are jealous and cannot obtain—you fight 3 and make war. 3 You do not have because you do not ask; you ask and do not get because you ask wrongly, to spend it in your pleasures.

4 4 Adulteresses, do you not know that friendship to the world is enmity to God? so anyone who wishes to be a friend of the world becomes, 5 as such, an enemy of God. 5 Or do you think it is meaninglessly that the text says "The spirit that he has housed in us longs enviously"?
6 6 But he gives a greater grace; for which reason it says "God sets him-7 self against the proud but gives grace to the lowly." 7 So be submissive to God; but stand up against the devil and he will run from you.
8 8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Clean your hands, 9 sinners, and purify your hearts, men of two minds; 9 be miserable, and mourn, and weep; let your laughter be turned to mourning and 10 your gladness to abasement. 10 Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will uplift you.

11 11 Do not talk disparagingly of each other, brothers. He who disparages or judges his brother is disparaging and judging the law;
and if you judge the law you are not a doer of the law but a judge.
12 12 There is one lawgiver and judge, he who can save and can destroy;
but who are you, you who judge your neighbor?

13 13 Come now, you who say "Today or tomorrow we will go to such a 14 city and spend a year there and trade and make profits"— 14 when you do not know what the future holds; for what is your life? for you are vapor, that appears for a little while and then just disappears—15 15 instead of saying "If the Lord will we shall both live and do this or 16 that." 16 But now you are glorying in your great claims; any such 17 glorying is wicked. 17 So, when one knows enough to do right and does not, it is a sin of his.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 Come on now, rich men, weep and howl over your miseries to come.
2 2 Your wealth has rotted and your garments have become moth-eaten, 3 3 your gold and silver have rusted and their rust will be a testimony to you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have been hoarding in 4 the last days; 4 here the delayed pay of the laborers who reaped your acres is crying out, and the clamor of the harvesters has entered 5 the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. 5 You have been living in luxury and self-indulgence on the earth, you have been feeding your hearts in a 6 day of slaughter; 6 you have been condemning the man who was in the right, murdering him—he does not make any stand against you.
7 7 So, brothers, have patience till the Lord's coming. How the farmer waits for the precious crops of the soil, having patience over them 8 till they get the early rains and the late rains! 8 Have patience yourselves, fortify your hearts, because the Lord's coming is almost here.
9 9 Do not sigh against each other, brothers, that you may not be judged: 10 here is the judge standing at the doors. 10 Take as an example of fortitude and patience, brothers, the prophets who spoke in the name of

- 11 the Lord. 11 How we admire the condition of those who endured! you have heard of Job's endurance, and seen the Lord's ending, that the Lord is tenderhearted and compassionate.
- 12 12 And above all, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven nor by the earth nor any other oath; but let your yes be yes and your no no, that you may not come under judgment.
- 13 13 Is anyone among you having hardships? let him pray. Is anyone feeling cheery? let him sing hymns. 14 Is anyone among you sick? let him call in the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, putting oil on him in the name of the Lord, 15 and the prayer of faith shall make the sufferer well, and the Lord shall raise him; and if he has committed sins he shall be forgiven. 16 So confess your sins to each other and pray for each other that you may be healed. Great is the efficacy of a righteous man's strenuous prayer. 17 Elijah was a man subject to the same limitations as we are, and he specially prayed that it might not rain, and it did not rain on the earth three years and six months; 18 and he prayed again and the sky gave showers and the earth started to grow crops.
- 19 19 My brothers, if one among you strays from the truth and someone brings him back, 20 let him know that he who brings a sinner back from his straying course will save him from death and cover a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST LETTER FROM PETER

CHAPTER 1

- 1 1 Peter, apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen who are living abroad among the Jewish colonies of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and
- 2 Bithynia, 2 according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, to obedience and sprinkling of Jesus Christ's blood: Grace and peace be yours in abundance.

3 Blessed be our Lord Jesus Christ's God and Father, he who in 4 accordance with his great mercy has given us rebirth into a living 5 hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 into an 6 imperishable, undefiled, unfading inheritance that has been kept in 7 heaven for you 5 who by the power of God are guarded through faith 8 for a salvation ready to be disclosed at the last—6 wherein you exult, 9 though for a little while now, if need be, you have been saddened 10 in various trials, 7 that the quality of your faith may be found more 11 valuable than gold (which is a perishable thing, but is tested by 12 fire) for praise and glory and honor at the manifestation of Jesus 13 Christ, whom you love without having seen him; 8 believing in whom, 9 10 9 obtaining the end of faith, soul-salvation. 10 Concerning which sal-11 vation prophets sought and searched, who prophesied of the grace 12 11 that has reached you, searching to find out what time or what sort of 13 time Christ's spirit in them was pointing to in testifying beforehand 14 the sufferings to which Christ was destined and the glory after 15 these; 12 to whom it was disclosed that they were dispensing them not 16 to themselves but to you,—the things that have now been announced 17 to you through those who brought the gospel to you in the Holy Spirit 18 sent from heaven, things that angels desire to look into.

13 13 Wherefore, girding up the loins of your mind, keep absolutely sober 14 and hope in the grace that is being brought you in the manifestation 15 of Jesus Christ. 14 Like children of obedience, not conforming to your 16 old-time desires that you had during your ignorance, 15 but like the 17 Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves in all your life, 16 since it 18 is written "You shall be holy, because I am holy." 17 And if you invoke 19 a Father who judges impartially according to each one's doing, live 20 a life of fear for the time of your stay, 18 knowing that it was not with 21 perishable things, silver or gold, that you were redeemed from the 22 futile life your fathers handed down to you, 19 but with precious blood 23 as if of a lamb without defect or spot, Christ's blood, 20 who had been 24 foreknown before the foundation of the world but had made his ap-25 pearance at the latter end of time for the sake of you 21 who through 26 him are believers in God who raised him from the dead and gave him 27 glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. 22 Having purified your 28 spirits by obedience to the truth for unfeigned brotherliness, love 29 each other ardently from your hearts, 23 reborn not from perishable seed 30 but from imperishable, through the living word of God—living and 31 abiding, 24 because "all flesh is like the herbage of the field, and all its 32 glory like field flowers: the herbage withers and the flowers fall off; 33 25 but the word of the Lord abides forever," and this is the word that

CHAPTER 2

1 has been brought to you as gospel. 1 So, laying off all malice and all 2 trickery, and insincerities and grudges and all detraction, 2 long like newborn babies for unadulterated intellectual milk, that on it you may 3 4 grow to salvation, 3 if you have tasted that the Lord is kind; 4 coming to whom, a living stone condemned by men but in God's estimation 5 select and noble, 5 you too as living stones are being built to a spiritual house, for a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to 6 God through Jesus Christ. 6 Because there is a text where it reads

"Here I am laying in Sion a noble select crowning-stone, and he 7 who believes on him shall not be put to shame." 7 So the nobility is for you believers; but for disbelievers "The stone that the builders con-8 demned, that stone has come to be the top of the corner" 8 and "a stone to strike against, a rock to stumble over"—who stumble by 9 disobeying the word; which is what they were set for. 9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for preser-10 of darkness into his wonderful light— 10 you who had once been No Nation but are God's nation now, who had been Unpitied but have now had pity taken on you.

11 11 Dear friends, I exhort you, as men living abroad among an alien race, to abstain from fleshly desires, which wage a war against the 12 soul, 12 and to keep up a good life among the foreigners, that where they decry you as evil-doers they may in consequence of your good deeds, as they watch them, glorify God on the day of visitation.

13 13 Be submissive to every human institution for the Lord's sake, 14 whether to the emperor as sovereign 14 or to governors as sent through 15 him for punishment of evil-doers and praise of right-doers,— 15 because such is God's will, that by doing right you should silence senseless 16 men's ignorance; 16 — as freemen, and not as having freedom for a 17 cover to viciousness, but as servants of God. 17 Honor everybody; love 18 the brotherhood; fear God; honor the emperor. 18 Domestic, be sub-19 missive to your masters in all fear, not only to the kind and reasonable 20 but also to the cranky; 19 for it is a credit if one bears troubles for the 21 consciousness of God, when one suffers unjustly. 20 For what is there 22 grand about it if you endure when you do wrong and are cuffed? but 23 if you endure when you do right and suffer, that is a credit with God.
24 21 For this is what you were called for, because Christ too suffered on your account, leaving behind a, pattern for you that you might follow 22 in his track— 22 he who did no sin, nor was trickery found in his mouth; 23 23 who did not answer with abuse when he was abused, did not make threats when he suffered, but committed his case to him who judges 24 justly; 24 who himself carried our sins up to the tree in his body, that we might perish to sins and live to righteousness; by whose stripes 25 you have been healed, 25 for you were like sheep astray, but you have

CHAPTER 3

1 now turned back to the Shepherd and Visitor of your souls. 1 Likewise, wives, be submissive to your husbands, so that even if some are disobedient to the word they shall through their wives' life be won 2 3 2 without words when they watch your pure life lived in fear. 3 And be yours not the outward adornment of plaiting hair and wearing jewels 4 or putting on dresses, 4 but the secret person of the heart in the imperishable adornment of a meek and quiet spirit, which is worth a 5 fortune before God. 5 For so in former times did the holy women who 6 hoped in God adorn themselves, submitting to their husbands, 6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him "lord"; whose children you have 7 become when you do right and fear no terror. 7 Husbands likewise, live intelligently with womankind as a weaker thing, according them honor as co-heirs in the grace of life, so as not to have your prayers 8 hindered. 8 And finally, all be united, sympathizing, brother-loving, 9 kindly, humble, 9 not paying back hurt for hurt or abuse for abuse, but contrariwise blessing everybody; because this is what you were 10 called for, that you might inherit a blessing. 10 For "he who would love life and see good days, let him stop his tongue from evil and his lips 11 from speaking deceit, 11 and let him shun evil and do the good, seek 12 peace and pursue it; 12 because the Lord's eyes are upon the righteous and his ears are toward their petition, but the Lord's face is against 13 the doers of evil." 13 And who is it that will harm you if you show yourselves zealous for good?

14 14 But if you do suffer for right-doing, happy are you; and do not 15 stand in fear of them, nor be agitated, 15 but "magnify in your hearts the holiness of the Lord" (Christ), always ready to make your defense to anyone who asks you to give an account of the hope you 16 have in you, but with meekness and fear, 16 keeping a good conscience, that where you are decried those who are spiteful toward your good 17 life in Christ may be put to shame. 17 For it is better, if God's will will 18 have it so, to suffer in doing right than in doing wrong; 18 because so did Christ suffer for sins once, a saint for guilty men, to bring you to 19 God, being put to death in flesh, 19 but given life in spirit while he 20 went and preached to the spirits in prison too, 20 that had once disobeyed when in Noah's days God's patience was waiting while an ark was 21 being constructed, into which a few, that is eight souls, came safe through water— 21 what in the antitype is now saving you too, baptism, not flesh's taking off grime but a good conscience's inquiry after 22 God, saving you through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, 22 who is at God's right hand, gone to heaven, with angels and authorities and powers put under his control.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 So, since Christ has suffered in flesh, arm yourselves too with that same thought, because he who has suffered in flesh has come to a 2 stop in sins; 2 so as to live your remaining time in the flesh no longer 3 by men's desires but by the will of God. 3 For the bygone time is enough for having done the wish of the nations, going along in im-

4 moralities, lusts, hard drinkings, revels, carousals, and unholy idolatries, 4 in which business they find it surprising that you do not run 5 with them into the same inundation of debauchery, and they vilify 6 you; 5 but they shall account for it to him who is in readiness to judge 6 living and dead. 6 For it was for this that even dead men had the gospel preached to them, that they might be judged men's way in flesh, but live God's way in spirit.

7 7 But the end of everything is almost here; so be sane, and keep 8 sober for prayers, 8 above all having your love to each other ardent, 9 because love covers a multitude of sins; 9 hospitable toward each other 10 without grumbling; 10 as each has received a grant, giving each other 11 the benefit of it as good stewards of God's diversified grace: 11 if one speaks, speaking as communications of God; if one renders services, doing it as out of strength that God furnishes; that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong glory and might forever and ever—amen.

12 12 Dear friends, do not be taken by surprise at the fiery ordeal among 13 you coming upon you for a test, as if a surprising thing were hap-14 pening to you, 13 but, insofar as you are solidary with the Christ's 14 sufferings, be glad, that at the manifestation of his glory too you may 15 exultantly be glad. 14 If you are twitted with Christ's name, happy 16 are you, because the Spirit of glory, the Spirit of God, is resting on 17 you. 15 For let no one of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or a doer 18 of any harm, or as an intruder into other people's concerns; 16 but if it 19 is as a Christian let him not be ashamed, but glorify God for that name— 17 because it is time for judgment to begin with the house of God; and if it begins first with you, what is to be the end of those who disobey God's gospel? 18 and if the honest man barely gets through, where will the impious sinner appear? 19 Hence let those also who suffer according to God's will commit their souls in right-doing to a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 So I exhort elders among you, I a fellow-elder and a witness to the Christ's sufferings, a sharer too in the glory that is to be disclosed,— 2 2 shepherd God's flock that you have among you, not as a matter of 3 compulsion, but willingly, God's way; not mercenarily, but enthusias-4 tically; 3 and not as lording it over the parishes, but setting an example 5 to the flock; 4 and when the Head Shepherd makes his appearance you 6 shall obtain the amaranth-wreath of glory. 5 Likewise, juniors, be sub-7 missive to elders; and all of you wear toward each other the livery 8 of humility, because "God sets himself against the proud but gives grace to the lowly."

6 6 So humble yourselves under God's mighty hand that he may 7 uplift you in due time, 7 throwing all your anxiety on him, because he 8 cares for you. 8 Keep sober; keep awake. Your antagonist the Devil is walking around, like a roaring lion, looking for somebody to swallow 9 down; 9 stand firm against him, solid in faith, knowing that the same 10 series of sufferings is being gone through by your brotherhood in 11 the world. 10 And the God of all grace, he who in Christ called you to 12 his eternal glory, will himself, after you have suffered a little while, 13 look after your soundness, firmness, strength, foundation. 11 To him 14 belongs might forever and ever—amen.

12 12 By Silvanus, our faithful brother as I reckon him to be, I write 13 you these few words to exhort you and testify to you that this is the 14 veritable grace of God, in which stand firm. 13 Your sister in election at Babylon sends greetings, and my son Mark. 14 Give my greetings to each other with a kiss of love. Peace to you all, all that are in Christ.

THE SECOND LETTER FROM PETER

CHAPTER 1

1 1 Symeon Peter, servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those whose 2 lot it has been in the justice of our God and Savior Jesus Christ to 3 have as rich a faith as ours: 2 grace be yours in abundance, and peace, 4 in awareness of God and of Jesus our Lord, 3 as his divine power has 5 bestowed all the conditions for life and piety upon us through aware-6 ness of him who called us by his own glory and virtue, 4 through which we have the precious and immense promises bestowed on us, that by these you may become sharers in divine nature, having made your 5 escape from the ruin by desire which is in the world. 5 And on this 6 very account bring all your energies to bear and furnish virtue in your faith, and knowledge in your virtue, 6 and self-restraint in your knowledge, and endurance in your self-restraint, and piety in your 7 endurance, 7 and brotherliness in your piety, and love in your brother-8 liness; 8 for if you possess these things, and plenty of them, they render you not idle nor unfruitful toward awareness of our Lord 9 Jesus Christ. 9 For he who does not have these things about him is blindly nearsighted, oblivious of the purgation of his old-time sins.

10 Wherefore take the more pains, brothers, to make your call and 11 election sure; 11 for, doing this, you shall never stumble; for thus shall be richly furnished to you the ingress into the eternal reign of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I shall ever be reminding you about these things,—even though you know and are firmly settled in the truth you have with 13 you; 13 but I think it right, so long as I am in this tabernacle, to rouse 14 you with reminders, 14 knowing that the laying off of my tabernacle is 15 speedily due, as our Lord Jesus Christ too declared to me; 15 and I will 16 also do my best that after my departure you may at every time be able to call these things to mind. 16 For we were not echoing trumped-up myths when we made known to you the power and advent of our Lord Jesus Christ, but had been eyewitnesses of his 17 grandeur. 17 For as he received honor and glory from God the Father, when such a voice as this came wafted to him by the sublime glory, 18 "My dear son is this, in whom I take pleasure,"— 18 and this voice we heard come wafted from the skies when we were with him on the 19 sacred mountain. 19 And we have a surer thing, the word of prophecy, to which you do well to be attentive, as if to a lamp in a murky place, till day shall flush the sky and the Morning Star shall rise in your 20 hearts— 20 knowing this in the first place, that any prophecy in a text 21 is not a matter for particular interpretation; 21 for not by will of man was prophecy ever wafted to us, but, wafted by Holy Spirit, men spoke from God.

CHAPTER 2

1 But there came pretended prophets too among the people, the same as among you too shall be pretendant teachers who shall introduce ruinous ideologies, repudiating the very Master that bought them, 2 bringing upon themselves a speedy bane; 2 and many will follow the example of their immoralities, because of whom the path of truth 3 will be vilified; 3 and with rapacious intent they will exploit you by well-turned phrases—men for whom judgment is not inert from of old, and their bane is not napping.

4 For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but, engulfing them in Inferno's pits of darkness, committed them to be kept for 5 judgment, 5 and did not spare the primitive world, but reserved among seven others Noah, preacher of righteousness, while bringing a deluge 6 upon the world of the impious, 6 and, laying in ashes the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, doomed them to obliteration, making them the example 7 of men who should act impiously, 7 and delivered honest Lot, irked by 8 the immoral living of the conscienceless,— 8 for with sight and hearing the honest man, residing among them, day by day tortured his honest 9 soul with their lawless deeds,— 9 the Lord knows how to deliver pious men out of temptation but to keep doers of wrong under punishment 10 to the day of judgment, 10 and especially those who go after flesh in desire for pollution and despise lordship. Cynically audacious, they 11 do not quail at vilifying glories, 11 when angels, superior in strength and power, do not bring a defamatory charge against them before the 12 Lord. 12 But these, like brute beasts, creatures of nature born to be caught and to perish, vilifying what they are ignorant of, shall perish 13 too in their undoing, 13 suffering injury in payment for injuriousness.

Taking luxury for the day as their idea of pleasure, blots and blemishes, 14 luxuriating in their deceits while they feast with you, 14 with eyes full of a paramour who is another man's wife and unrelenting in sin, luring unsteady souls, their hearts expert in greed, children of a 15 curse, 15 they left the straight road and strayed, treading over again the road of Balaam the son of Beor, who fell in love with the pay of 16 wrong-doing— 16 but he had evidence of his dereliction: a dumb beast, 17 speaking with a man's voice, checked the prophet's craziness. 17 These are waterless springs and wind-driven puffs of mist, for whom the blackness of darkness is kept.

18 18 For, uttering extravagant futilities, they lure with the desires of flesh, with debaucheries, those who are making a narrow escape from 19 those that live a life of misguided wanderings, 19 promising them liberty when they themselves are slaves of vice; for what one is 20 beaten by he is enslaved to. 20 For if they make their escape from the pollutions of the world by awareness of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and are entangled in them again and beaten, they have the 21 last turn out worse than the first; 21 for it would have been better for them not to been aware of the path of righteousness than after being aware of it to revert from the holy commandment that had been 22 transmitted to them. 22 They have been through what the true proverb speaks of, "A dog turning back to its own vomit, and a bathed hog to wallowing in mud."

CHAPTER 3

1 1 This, dear friends, is the second letter I am writing you, in which 2 letters I am rousing your candid minds with reminders 2 to remember the words spoken beforehand by the holy prophets and the injunction 3 of your Lord and Savior's apostles— 3 knowing this in the first place, that in the last days mockers will come with mockeries, going by their 4 own desires 4 and saying "Where is the promise of his advent? for since the fathers went to their rest everything has remained as it 5 was since the beginning of creation." 5 For this they willfully ignore, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth, by the word of 6 God compacted out of water and by water, 6 whereby the world of 7 that time met its bane by being flooded with water, 7 but the present heavens and earth are by the same word stored with fire and kept for a day of judgment and the bane of impious men.

8 8 But do not you ignore this, dear friends, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day.

9 9 The Lord is not lagging back from his promise, as some take it for a lagging, but is having patience with you, not wishing that any should perish but that all should go to repenting. 10 But the Day of the Lord will come like a thief, the day on which the heavens will whiz away and the heavenly bodies will be parched and disintegrated, and earth and the works in it will be fuel for fire. 11 When all these things are thus to disintegrate, what men ought you to be in holy lives and pious acts, 12 expecting and speeding the advent of the Day of God, at which the heavens will disintegrate in fire, and the heavenly bodies parch and melt; 13 but in accordance with his promise we expect new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness resides.

14 14 Wherefore, dear friends, having these expectations, do your best to have him find you spotless and unblamable in peace, 15 and deem our Lord's patience your salvation, just as our dear brother Paul too wrote to you in accordance with the wisdom given to him, 16 the same as he does in all his letters, speaking in them of these things. In which letters there are some things hard to understand, which the ignorant and unsteady twist, the same as they do the rest of the scriptures, to their own bane.

17 17 So for your part, dear friends, being forewarned, keep on your guard against being carried along with the wanderings of the conscienceless and falling away from your own steadiness, 18 but grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and to eternity's day.

THE FIRST LETTER FROM JOHN

CHAPTER 1

1 1 What from the first there was, what we have heard, what we have seen with our own eyes, what we have gazed upon and our hands have 2 handled, about the Word of life— 2 and the life made its appearance, and we have seen and are testifying and reporting to you the eternal life which was where the Father is and made its appearance to us—3 3 what we have seen and heard we are reporting to you too in order that you too may have solidarity with us. And, too, our solidarity is 4 with the Father and with his son Jesus Christ. 4 And these things we are writing to you in order that our happiness may be made full.
5 5 And this is the message we have heard from him and are announcing to you, that God is light and there is in him no darkness 6 whatever. 6 If we say we have solidarity with him and are walking 7 in the darkness, we are lying and not living up to the truth. 7 But if we are walking in the light, as he is in the light, we have solidarity with each other, and the blood of his son Jesus cleanses us from every 8 sin. 8 If we say we do not have a sin, we are deluding ourselves and 9 the truth is not in us; 9 if we acknowledge our sins, he is loyal and fair 10 to forgive us our sins and cleanse us from every wrongness. 10 If we say we have not sinned we are making him a liar and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2

1 1 My children, I am writing you these things in order that you may not sin; and if one sins, we have a spokesman to the Father, Jesus 2 Christ, a righteous one; 2 and he is a propitiation for our sins, and not 3 only for ours but also for the whole world's. 3 It is by this we know 4 that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" and does not keep his commandments is a liar; in that 5 man the truth is not; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him God's love does really come to its completion. It is by this we know that we are 6 in him: 6 he who says he is dwelling in him ought himself to be walking in the same way as he walked.
7 7 Dear friends, it is not a new commandment I am writing you, but an old commandment that you had from the first: the old command-8 ment is the word you did hear. 8 Again, it is a new commandment I am writing you; this is true as to him and as to you, because the 9 darkness is passing and now the true light is shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness up to now; 10 10 he who loves his brother is dwelling in the light, and there is nothing 11 in him to bring him to a downfall, 11 but he who hates his brother is in the darkness and is walking in the darkness, and does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I am writing to you, children, because your sins are forgiven you 13 on account of his name. 13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know the one that has been from the first. I am writing to you, youths, because you have won victories over the Evil One. I have 14 written to you, boys, because you know the Father. 14 I have written to you, fathers, because you know the one that has been from the first. I have written to you, youths, because you are strong and God's word dwells in you and you have won victories over the Evil One.

15 15 Do not love the world nor what is in the world. If one loves the world the love of the Father is not in him, 16 because all that is in the world, the desire of the flesh and the desire of the eyes and the pretentiousness of our life, does not come from the Father but comes 17 from the world; 17 and the world passes, and so does the desire of it, but he who does God's will remains forever.

18 18 It is the last moment, boys; and as you have heard that there is an antichrist coming, so there have now come to be many antichrists, 19 from which we know that it is the last moment. 19 They went out from us, but they were not part of us; for if they had been part of us, they would have remained with us, but it was in order that it might 20 be made apparent that they are not any of them part of us. 20 And you 21 have an anointment from the Holy One, and you all know; 21 I have not been writing to you because you do not know the truth, but be-22 cause you know it and any lie does not belong to the truth. 22 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? this is the antichrist, 23 he who denies the Father and the Son. 23 Anyone who denies the Son does not have the Father either; he who acknowledges the Son has the 24 Father too. 24 For your part, let what you heard from the first dwell in you; if what you heard from the first dwells in you, so will you dwell 25 in the Son and in the Father. 25 And the promise he made to us is this:
eternal life.

26 26 These things I have written to you about those who are misleading 27 you. 27 And for your part, the anointment you received from him dwells in you, and you have no need that one should teach you; but as his anointment teaches you about everything, and is true and is not a lie, and as he did teach you, dwell in him.

28 28 And now, children, dwell in him, in order that if he makes his appearance we may have confidence and not be shamed away from him 29 at his coming. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you take knowledge

CHAPTER 3

1 that everyone who does right is born out of him. 1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God's, and are such! This is why the world does not know us because it did not know him.

2 Dear friends, we are children of God's now, and it is not yet made apparent what we shall be. We know that if he makes his appearance 3 we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is; 3 and everyone 4 who has this hope rested on him purifies himself as he is pure. 4 Every-5 one who commits sin is committing immorality too; and sin is im-6 morality. 5 And you know that he made his appearance to take sins 7 away, and there is no sin in him. 6 Anyone who dwells in him does not 8 sin; anyone who sins has not seen him nor known him. 7 Children, let nobody delude you. He who does right is righteous as He is righteous; 8 he who commits sin comes of the Devil, because the Devil has been 9 sinning from the first. It was for this the Son of God made his ap-10 pearance, that he might break up the Devil's work. 9 Anyone who is born out of God does not commit sin, because seed of his dwells in 11 him and he cannot sin because he is born out of God. 10 It is by this 12 that God's children and the Devil's children are evident: anyone who does not do right does not come of God, nor the one who does not love his brother, 11 because this is the message you heard from the first, that we are to love each other— 12 not as Cain came of the Evil One and cut his brother's throat; and cut his brother's throat on what account?
because his doings were wicked, but his brother's right.

13 14 13 Do not wonder, brothers, that the world should hate you; 14 we know that we have passed from death to life because we love the brothers.
15 He who does not love dwells in death. 15 Anyone who hates his brother is a killer, and you know that any man-killer does not have eternal 16 life dwelling in him. 16 We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us; and we are in duty bound to lay down our lives for the 17 brothers. 17 But one who has earthly resources and sees his brother to be in need and shuts his sympathies against him—how is the 18 love of God dwelling in him? 18 Children, let us not love with words 19 nor with the tongue, but in action and in truth. 19 By this we shall 20 know that we belong to the truth; and we shall persuade our heart before him 20 that if our heart finds against us, God is greater than our heart and knows everything.

21 21 Dear friends, if our heart does not find against us we have con-22 fidence to come to God, 22 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we are keeping his commandments and doing what is pleasing 23 before him. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love each other as he gave us a 24 commandment. 24 And he who keeps his commandments dwells in him, and he in him; and by this we know that he is dwelling in us, from the Spirit that he gave us.

CHAPTER 4

1 1 Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but put the spirits to the test, whether they come from God, because there have many 2 pretended prophets gone out into the world. 2 You know God's Spirit by 3 this: any spirit that acknowledges Jesus Christ to have come in flesh 4 comes from God, 3 and any spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus does 5 not come from God; and this is that of the antichrist, which you have 6 heard is coming, and it is already in the world now. 4 You come of 7 God, children, and have won the victory over them because he who 8 is in you is greater than he who is in the world. 5 They come of the 9 world; that is why they speak words of the world and the world hears 10 them. 6 We come of God; he who knows God hears us, he who does not 11 come of God does not hear us. It is from this that we know the spirit 12 of truth and the spirit of delusion.

13 7 Dear friends, let us love each other, because love is from God and 14 everyone who loves is born out of God and knows God. 8 He who does 15 not love never got to know God, because God is love. 9 God's love was 16 displayed in our case by this, that God has sent his only Son into 17 the world in order that we may live through him. 10 This is where 18 love comes in, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and 19 sent his Son to be a propitiation for our sins. 11 Dear friends, if God 20 loved us like that, we are in duty bound to love each other too.

21 12 Nobody has ever looked upon God; if we love each other God is 22 dwelling in us, and his love has been carried to perfection in us.
23 13 That we are dwelling in him and he in us we know by this, that he 24 has given us some of his Spirit. 14 And we have seen the sight and testify 25 to it that the Father has sent the Son to be savior of the world. 15 Who-26 ever acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God is dwelling in 27 him and he in God. 16 And we know, and have believed, the love that 28 God has in our case.

29 God is love, and he who dwells in love is dwelling in God and God 30 in him. 17 It is in this that love has been brought to perfection with 31 us, that we should have confidence on the day of judgment because 32 what he is we too, in this world, are. 18 There is no fear in love, but 33 perfect love throws fear out, because fear involves the idea of punish-34 ment and he who fears has not come to perfection in love. 19 We love 35 because he loved us first. 20 If one says "I love God" and hates his 36 brother he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has 37 seen cannot love God whom he has not seen, 21 and we have from him 38 this commandment, that he who loves God should love his brother too.

CHAPTER 5

1 1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born out of God, 2 and everyone who loves the sire loves him who is born from him. 2 It 3 is by this we know that we love God's children, when we love God 4 and live up to his commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that 5 we should keep his commandments; and his commandments are not 6 burdensome, 4 because everything that is born out of God comes off 7 victorious over the world; and this is the victory that has come off 8 victorious over the world, our faith. 5 And who is it that is victorious over the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

 6 This is the one that came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not in the water only but in the water and in the blood; and the Spirit is what testifies, because the Spirit is the truth—7 because it is three who testify, 8 the Spirit and the water and the blood, and the three concur.
 9 If we receive men's testimony, God's testimony is superior; 9 because 10 this is God's testimony, that he has testified about his Son. 10 He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in him. He who does not believe God has made a liar of him because he has not believed in the testimony God has borne about his Son. 11 And this is the testimony, that God has given us eternal life and this life is in his Son. 12 He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life.

13 I have written these things to you in order that you may know that you have eternal life, to you who believe in the name of the Son of God. 14 And this is the confidence we have for coming to him, that if we ask anything in accordance with his will he hears us; 15 and if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the things we have asked him for. 16 If one sees his brother sinning, a sin not for death, he shall ask and give life to him, to those who are sinning not for death. There is such a thing as a sin for death; it is not as to that that I say he is to solicit. 17 Every wrong act is a sin, and there is such a thing as a sin not for death.

18 We know that anyone who has been born out of God does not sin, but he who was born out of God keeps him and the Evil One does not touch him. 19 We know that we belong with God; and the world is all lying in the Evil One; 20 but we know that the Son of God has come and has given us a mind to know the True One; and we are in the True One, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. 21 Children, guard yourselves against the idols.

THE SECOND LETTER FROM JOHN

1 1 The Elder to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth, 2 and not I alone but also all who know the truth, 2 because of the 3 truth that abides in us and shall be with us forever: 3 grace, mercy, peace, shall be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love.

4 4 I have been exceedingly glad to find some children of yours walking 5 in truth as we received a commandment from the Father. 5 And now, lady, not as writing you a new commandment but the one we had 6 from the first, I pray you that we love each other. 6 And this is love, that we should walk in accordance with his commandments. This is the commandment, as you heard from the first, that you should walk 7 in it. 7 Because there have come out into the world many deluders who do not acknowledge that Jesus Christ is coming in flesh: that man is the deluder and the antichrist. 8 Look out for yourselves that you do not lose what we worked for, but get paid in full. 9 Anyone who moves on and does not remain in the Christ's teaching does not have God; it is he who remains in the teaching that has both the Father and the Son. 10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him in a house and do not say good morning to him, 11 for he who says good morning to him is in fellowship with his evil deeds.

12 12 While I have much to write to you, I do not wish to with paper and ink, but hope to be with you and speak face to face, that your joy 13 may be complete. 13 Your chosen sister's children send greetings.

THE THIRD LETTER FROM JOHN

1 1 The Elder to dear Gaius, whom I love in truth: 2 2 Dear friend, I pray that you may prosper about everything, and 3 have sound health, as your soul is prospering. 3 For I was exceedingly glad when brothers came and testified to your truth, as you are 4 walking in the truth. 4 I have no greater gladness than this, to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

- 5 Dear friend, you are doing a Christian thing in anything you are doing for the brothers who are at the same time strangers in your locality, who have testified to your love before the church; 6 to whom you will do well to give a send-off worthy of God, 7 for they went out for the Name, not taking anything from the heathen— 8 so we ought to contribute to the support of such, that we may become cooperators with the truth.
- 9 I wrote something to the church; but Diotrephes, who is so fond of being first among them, will not give us a hearing. 10 For this reason, if I come, I will bring up the matter of his actions in gabbling wicked words against us, and, not content with that, not giving the brothers a hearing himself, and also forbidding and expelling from the church those who would be willing to.
- 11 Dear friend, do not imitate what is wrong but what is right. He who does right comes of God; he who does wrong has not seen God. Demetrius is vouched for by everybody and by the truth itself; 12 and we too vouch, and you know our testimony is true.
- 13 I had much to write to you, but do not wish to write you by pen and ink; 14 but I hope to see you at once, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be upon you. Our friends send greetings. Give personal greetings to our friends.

THE LETTER FROM JUDE

- 1 1 Judah, servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, to the called who are loved in God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ: 2 mercy and peace and love be yours in abundance.
- 3 3 Dear friends, while I was doing my utmost to write to you about our common salvation, I have found it necessary to write you an exhortation to do battle for the faith once delivered to God's people.
- 4 4 For there have slipped in some men fore written of old for this doom, impious men who shift the grace of our God into immorality and repudiate our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. 5 But I would remind you, though you know the whole once for all, that after the Lord had saved a people out of the land of Egypt he in the second instance destroyed those who did not believe, 6 and angels who did not keep their prerogative but left their domicile he has kept under 7 darkness by everlasting fetters for the judgment of the Great Day, 7 as Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, having run into debauchery and gone after another flesh in like manner with these, 8 are on exhibition as an example, undergoing the penalty of eternal 9 fire. 8 However, in the same fashion these too, obsessed by dreams, 10 pollute flesh, and set lordship aside, and vilify glories. 9 But the archangel Michael, when he was arguing with the Devil over the body of 11 Moses, did not dare to prefer a defamation-charge, but said "The Lord rebuke you!" 10 But these vilify whatever they do not know; and what they do by nature make out like the brutes, in this they find 11 their undoing. 11 Woe to them, because they have traveled Cain's road, and streamed over Balaam's devious course for pay, and perished in Korah's sedition.

12 12 These are those "who in your love-feasts fearlessly feast with you, and are your sunken rocks," shepherds that feed themselves, waterless 13 clouds carried along by winds, twice-dead fruitless autumn trees uprooted, 13 wild sea waves frothing up their own shames, wandering 14 stars for which the blackness of darkness is forever kept. 14 And it was to these too that Enoch, seventh from Adam, prophesied "Here the 15 Lord has come with his holy millions 15 to do justice upon all and to call all the impious to account regarding all their impieties that they have committed, and regarding all the hard words that im-16 pious sinners have spoken against him." 16 These are faultfinding grumblers, going by their own desires, with mouths that pour out extravagant talk, deferring to persons for profit's sake.

17 17 But as for you, dear friends, remember the words spoken before-18 hand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, 18 how they told you "In the end of time there will be mockers going by their own desires for 19 impieties." 19 These are the discriminators, soul-men who have no 20 spirit. 20 But do you, dear friends, building yourselves up upon your 21 most holy faith, praying in Holy Spirit, 21 keep yourselves in the love of God, watching for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ which brings 22 23 us to eternal life. 22 And convince some by proofs when they doubt, 23 and save some by snatching them out of fire, and pity some with fear, hating the very garment spotted by the flesh.

24 24 And to him who can guard you safe from stumbling and set you 25 before his glory blameless and exultant, 25 the only God, our Savior, belong glory, majesty, might, and dominion, before all time and now and to all eternity; amen!

THE REVELATION TO JOHN

CHAPTER 1

1 1 Jesus Christ's revelation which God gave him to show his servants 2 what must soon take place, and which he sent by his angel and in-3 dicated to his servant John, 2 who testified to the word of God and to 4 the testimony of Jesus Christ, all that he saw. 3 Happy are he who 5 reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy and keep what 6 is written in it; for the time is near.

7 4 John to the seven churches in Asia: Grace to you, and peace, 8 from him who Is and Was and Is Coming, and from the Seven 9 Spirits that are before his throne, 5 and from Jesus Christ the faithful 10 witness, the firstborn of the dead and the ruler of the kings of the 11 earth. To him who loves us and liberated us from our sins with his 12 blood, 6 and made us into a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, 13 belong glory and might forever and ever; amen! 7 Lo, he is coming with 14 the clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they who pierced him, 15 and all the tribes of the earth shall wail over him. Yes; amen!

16 8 I am the A and the Z, says the Lord God; the one who Is and Was 17 and Is Coming; the Almighty.

18 9 I, John, your brother and fellow-participator in distress and royalty 19 and endurance in Jesus, was in the island called Patmos for the 20 word of God and the testimony of Jesus. 10 I was in the spirit on the 21 Lord's day, and heard behind me a loud voice, as if it were the sound 22 of a trumpet 11 saying "What you see, write in a book and send to the 23 seven churches, to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and 24 to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea." 12 And 25 I turned around to see the voice that was speaking with me; and when 26 I turned around I saw seven golden lampstands, 13 and in the midst of 27 the lampstands the like of a son of man dressed in a long robe and 28 belted at the breast with a golden belt, 14 his head and hair white like 29 white wool, like snow, and his eyes like flame, 15 and his feet like green 30 gold as if it had been refined in a furnace, and his voice like the 31 sound of much water; 16 with seven stars in his right hand and a sharp 32 two-edged sword coming out of his mouth; and his appearance like 33 the sun when it shines its strongest. 17 And when I saw him I fell at his 34 feet like a dead man; and he put his right hand on me, saying

35 18 "Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last, he who is alive and 36 was dead and is alive, lo, forever and ever, and has the keys of death 37 and the grave. 19 So write what you saw, and what is, and what is to 38 be after this. 20 The secret meaning of the seven stars that you saw 39 lying in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven 40 stars are the angels of the seven churches; and the lampstands seven, 41 seven churches.

CHAPTER 2

1 "To the angel of the church in Ephesus write, 'Says he who holds 2 the seven stars in his right hand, he who walks in the midst of the 3 seven golden lampstands: 2 I know your deeds and your labor and 4 endurance; and that you cannot bear bad men, and you tested those 5 who call themselves apostles and are not, and found them liars; 3 and 6 you have endurance, and have borne things on account of my name 7 and are not tired. 4 But I have against you your having left off your 8 first love; 5 so remember what you have fallen from, and repent and 9 do the deeds that you did at first; else you shall find me coming, and 10 I will move your lampstand out of its place if you do not repent.
11 6 But this you have, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I 12 too hate. 7 Let him who has an ear hear what it is that the Spirit is 13 saying to the churches. To the victor I will give the privilege of 14 eating from the tree of life that is in God's paradise.'

8 "And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write, 'Says the First 9 and the Last, he who was dead and came to life: I know your distress 10 and your poverty (but you are rich) and your vilification on the 11 part of those who profess to be Jews and are not but are a congrega-12 tion of Satan. 10 Do not be afraid of what you are to suffer: lo, the 13 devil is to throw some of you into prison that you may be tested, 14 and you shall have ten days' distress. Be faithful even to death, and 15 I will give you the wreath of life. 11 Let him who has an ear hear what 16 it is that the Spirit is saying to the churches. The victor shall not be 17 hurt by the second death.'

12 "And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write, 'Says he who 13 has the sharp two-edged sword: 13 I know where you live—where Satan's 14 throne is; and you hold on to my name, and did not deny my faith 15 even in the days of my witness Antipas, my faithful one, who was 16 killed in your town, where Satan lives. 14 But I have a few things 17 against you, because you have there people who hold the teaching 18 of Balaam, who taught Balak to lay a snare to trip up the sons of 19 Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to have immoral relations 20 between the sexes. 15 Just so you too have men who similarly hold the 21 teaching of the Nicolaitans. 16 So repent; else you shall quickly find me 22 coming, and I will make war on them with my mouth-sword. 17 Let him 23 who has an ear hear what it is that the Spirit is saying to the churches.
24 To the victor I will give a portion of the hidden manna; and I will 25 give him a white stone, and inscribed on the stone a new name which 26 no one but the receiver knows.'

18 "And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write, 'Says the Son 19 of God, he who has eyes like flame and feet like green gold: 19 I know 20 your deeds, and your love and faith and service and endurance, and 21 that your last deeds are more than your first. 20 But I have against you 22 your permitting the woman Jezebel, her who calls herself a prophetess 23 and teaches and misleads my servants to have immoral relations

21 between the sexes and to eat things sacrificed to idols, 21 and I gave her time to repent and she is not willing to repent of her immorality.
22 22 Lo, I will stretch her on a couch, and throw those who commit adultery with her into great distress if they do not repent of her dealings, 23 23 and will kill her children with an epidemic, and all the churches shall know that I am he who searches hearts and bosoms; and I will give to each of you according to his deeds. 24 But you others in Thyatira, as many as do not have this teaching,—those who do not, as they say, know the deep things of Satan,—to you I say, I put on you no other 25 26 burden; 25 what you have, though, hold till I come. 26 And to the victor, the man who keeps my dealings till the end, I will give dominion 27 over the nations, 27 that he should drive them with an iron rod as earthen dishes are shattered, as I too received from my Father; 28 and 28 I will give him the morning star. 29 Let him who has an ear hear what it is that the Spirit is saying to the churches.'

CHAPTER 3

1 1 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write, 'Says he who has the Seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: I know your deeds, 2 that you have the name of being alive and are dead. 2 Get awake, and strengthen what is left, that was about to die; for I have not found 3 work of yours accomplished before my God; 3 so remember how it was that you received and heard, and keep it and repent. So if you do not keep awake I will come like a thief, and you shall not know at 4 what hour I will come upon you. 4 But you have a few names in Sardis that did not soil their clothing, and they shall walk with me in white, 5 because they are worthy to. 5 The victor shall be thus clad in white clothing; and I will not blot out his name from the book of life, and I will acknowledge his name before my Father and before his angels.
6 6 Let him who has an ear hear what it is that the Spirit is saying to the churches.'

7 7 "And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write, 'Says the Holy, the True, he who has David's key, who opens and nobody shall shut, and shuts and nobody shall open: 8 I know your deeds; lo, I have set before you an open door which nobody can shut, because you have a little power and have kept my word and not disowned my name. 9 Lo, I grant men out of Satan's congregation, of those who profess to be Jews and are not but are lying,—lo, I will make them come and do 10 reverence before your face and know that I have loved you. 10 Because you kept my word of endurance, so will I keep you from the hour of testing that is to come all over the world of men, to test those who 11 live on the earth. 11 I am coming quickly; hold what you have, that no one may get your wreath. 12 The victor I will make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall never again go outside; and I will inscribe on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem that is coming down out of heaven from 13 my God, and my new name. 13 Let him who has an ear hear what it is that the Spirit is saying to the churches.'

14 14 "And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write, 'Says the Amen, 15 the faithful and true witness, the beginning of God's creation: 15 I know 16 your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold 17 or hot! 16 Thus, because you are lukewarm and neither hot nor cold, 17 I am going to vomit you out of my mouth. 17 Because you say "I am rich, my fortune is made, I am in no want of anything," and do not 18 know that you are the very one who is wretched and pitiable and 18 poor and blind and naked, 18 I advise you to buy of me fire-refined gold so that you may be rich, and white clothes so that you may be clad and the shame of your nakedness not be exposed, and eye-salve to 19 put on your eyes so that you may see. 19 As many as I love I reprove and 20 discipline; so be jealous and repent. 20 Here I am standing at the door and knocking: if one hears my voice and opens the door I will come 21 in to him and have supper with him, and he with me. 21 To the victor I will give a seat with me on my throne, as I too won the victory and 22 took the seat with my Father on his throne. 22 Let him who has an ear hear what it is that the Spirit is saying to the churches.' "

CHAPTER 4

1 1 After this I saw, and there in the sky was an opened door; and the first voice that I had heard, as if of a trumpet talking with me, saying "Come up here and I will show you what must take place after this." 2 2 At once I was in the spirit, and there a throne stood in heaven, and 3 on the throne one was sitting; 3 and he who was sitting there was in aspect like a jaspid stone and a sard; and a rainbow around the 4 throne, in aspect like an emerald. 4 And around the throne twenty-four thrones, and sitting on the thrones twenty-four aged men clad 5 in white clothes, and on their heads golden wreaths. 5 And out of the throne go lightnings and noises and thunderclaps; and there are 6 seven torches of fire burning before the throne, which are the Seven Spirits of God; 6 and before the throne is what seems as if it were a 7 sea of glass, like crystal; and in the middle of the throne and round 7 about the throne four creatures full of eyes before and behind, 7 the first creature being like a lion and the second creature like a steer, and the third creature with a face like a man's, and the fourth 8 creature like a flying eagle, 8 and all four creatures with six wings apiece; they are full of eyes all around and inward, and they have 9 no rest day and night saying "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the 9 Almighty, the one who Is and Was and Is Coming." 9 And when the creatures give glory and honor and thanks to him who sits on the 10 throne, him who lives forever and ever, 10 the twenty-four aged men will throw themselves down before him who sits on the throne and do reverence to him who lives forever and ever, and drop their 11 wreaths before the throne saying 11 "Worthy art thou, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, because thou didst create all things, and at thy will they were and were created."

CHAPTER 5

1 And I saw lying in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a book written on the inside and on the back, sealed up with seven seals; 2 and I saw a strong angel making proclamation in a loud voice "Who is worthy to open the book and break its seals?" 3 and nobody in heaven nor on earth nor under the earth could open the book or look at it. 4 And I wept much because nobody worthy to open the book or look at it was found. 5 And one of the aged men said to me "Do not weep; here, the Lion out of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has won the day to open the book and its seven seals." 6 And in the middle of the throne and the four creatures, and in the middle of the aged men, I saw standing a lamb looking as if it had been slaughtered, with seven heads and seven eyes, which are God's Seven Spirits sent out into all the earth; 7 and it came, and it took it out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne. 8 And when it took the book the four creatures and the twenty-four aged men threw themselves down before the lamb, having each one a harp, and golden saucers full of incense which are the prayers of God's people. 9 And they sing a new song, "Worthy you are to take the book and open its seals, because you were slaughtered and bought men for God with your blood out of every tribe and language and people and race, 10 and made them a kingdom and priests for our God, and they shall reign on the earth." 11 And I saw and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the creatures and the aged men; and their number was thousands of thousands and millions of millions, 12 saying in a loud voice "Worthy is the slaughtered lamb to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing." 13 And every created thing that there is in the heavens and on the earth and under the earth and over the sea, and everything in them, I heard saying "To him who sits on the throne, and to the lamb, belong blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever." 14 And the four creatures said "Amen"; and the aged men threw themselves down and did reverence.

CHAPTER 6

1 And I saw when the lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four creatures say in a voice that sounded like a clap of thunder "Come!" 2 And I saw, and there was a white horse with a rider that had a bow and was given a wreath and went out victorious and to win victories. 3 And when he opened the second seal I heard the second creature say "Come!" 4 and another horse went out, a red one, with a rider to whom it was given to take peace from earth and that they should slaughter each other; and he was given a great sword. 5 And when he opened the third seal I heard the third creature say "Come!" And I saw, and there was a black horse with a rider that had a balance in his hand; 6 and I heard what seemed to be a voice among the four creatures say "A quart of wheat for a shilling and three quarts of barley for a shilling; and do not injure the oil and the wine."

7 7 And when he opened the fourth seal I heard the voice of the 8 fourth creature saying "Come!" 8 And I saw, and there was an ashy horse with a rider whose name was Death, and the Grave followed with him, and they were given dominion over a fourth of the earth to kill by sword and by starvation and by epidemics and by the beasts of the earth.

9 9 And when he opened the fifth seal I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slaughtered because of the word of God and of the testimony that they had. 10 And they cried out loudly "How long will it be, holy and true Master, before thou wilt do justice and avenge our blood upon those who live on earth?" 11 and they were each given a white robe, and were told to rest a little while longer till the number of their fellow-servants and their brothers, who were to be killed the same as they had been, should also be completed.

12 12 And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black like haircloth, and the whole moon became like blood, 13 and the stars of the sky fell to the earth as a fig-tree shaken by a great wind throws off its green fruit, 14 and the sky broke away like a sheet of paper rolling up, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places; 15 and the kings of the earth and the magnates and the generals and the rich and the strong and every slave and freeman hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains, 16 and kept saying to the mountains and to the rocks "Fall on us and cover us away from him who sits on the throne and from the lamb's anger, 17 because the great day of their anger has come, and who can stand?"

CHAPTER 7

1 1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth holding the four winds of the earth, that no wind might blow 2 over the land nor over the sea nor on any tree; 2 and I saw another angel coming up from the eastern horizon with the seal of the living God, and he cried out loudly to the four angels to whom it was 3 given to injure the land and the sea 3 "Do not injure the land nor the sea nor the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their 4 foreheads." 4 And I heard the number of the sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel: 5 5 out of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand sealed, out of the tribe of 6 Reuben twelve thousand, out of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand, 6 out of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, out of the tribe of Naphtali 7 twelve thousand, out of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand, 7 out of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, out of the tribe of Levi twelve 8 thousand, out of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand, 8 out of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, out of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, out of the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand sealed.

9 After this I saw, and there was a great crowd, that no one could count, out of every race and tribe and people and language, standing before the throne and before the lamb, clad in white robes and with palms in their hands, 10 and they cried loudly "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne and to the lamb." 11 And all the angels stood round about the throne and the aged men and the four creatures, and threw themselves down on their faces before the throne and did reverence to God, 12 saying "Amen, blessing and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength belong to our God forever and ever; amen." 13 And one of the aged men answered by saying to me "Who are these that are clad in the white robes, and where did they come from?" Said I to him, "Sir, you know." 14 And he said to me "These are the ones who come from the great distress, and who washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the lamb. 15 This is why they are before God's throne and worship him day and night in his temple, and he who sits on the throne will spread his presence over them; 16 they will hunger no more and thirst no more, nor shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat, 17 because the lamb in the center of the throne will take care of them and guide them to springs of waters of life; and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

CHAPTER 8

1 And when he opened the seventh seal there came a silence in heaven for a half-hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God; and they were given seven trumpets. 3 And another angel came and took his stand on the altar with a golden censer, and was given much incense to use for the prayers of all God's people on the golden altar before the throne; 4 and the smoke of the incense went up before God out of the angel's hand for the prayers of God's people. 5 And the angel took the censer, and he filled it with fire off the altar and threw it on the earth, and there came thunderclaps and noises and lightnings and an earthquake; 6 and the seven angels that had the seven trumpets prepared to blow.

7 And the first blew, and there was hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was thrown on the earth; and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all green herbage was burned up.

8 And the second angel blew, and what seemed like a great mountain on fire was thrown into the sea; and a third of the sea turned to blood, 9 and a third of the live creatures in the sea died, and a third of the shipping was wrecked.

10 And the third angel blew, and there fell out of the sky a great star blazing like a torch; and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the 11 springs of water; 11 and the star was named Wormwood. And a third of the waters turned to wormwood, and many of the men died of the waters because they were turned bitter.

12 12 And the fourth angel blew, and a third of the sun was blasted and a third of the moon and a third of the stars, so that a third of them should be darkened and the day should not be light for a third of it, and likewise the night.

13 13 And I saw, and I heard an eagle flying in the zenith say loudly "Woe, woe, woe to those who live on the earth, from the remaining trumpet-notes of the three angels that are to blow."

CHAPTER 9

1 1 And the fifth angel blew, and I saw a star from the sky fallen to 2 the earth, and it was given the key to the well of the abyss. 2 And it opened the well of the abyss, and smoke came up out of the well like the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened 3 from the smoke of the well. 3 And out of the smoke grasshoppers came out upon the ground, and they were given such powers as the 4 scorpions on the ground have, 4 and were told not to injure the grass of the earth nor any green thing nor any tree, anything but the men 5 who do not have God's seal on their foreheads; 5 and it was given to them not to kill them, but that they should be tortured five months (and their torture was like the torture of a scorpion when it strikes 6 a man), 6 and in those days men should look for death and not find it, and should desire to die and death should be fleeing away from them.
7 7 And the semblance of the grasshoppers was like horses prepared for war; and on their heads were what seemed to be wreaths like gold, 8 and their faces were like faces of human beings, 8 and they had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions, 9 and they 9 had coats of armor like iron armor, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of many-horsed chariots galloping to war. 10 And they 10 have tails like scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is their power to injure men five months. 11 They have over them a king, the angel of 11 the abyss; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek language he bears the name Apollyon.

12 12 The one Woe has gone; two more Woes are coming after.

13 13 And the sixth angel blew, and I heard one voice from the horns 14 of the golden altar before God, 14 saying to the sixth angel, the one who had the trumpet, "Unchain the four angels that are chained at the 15 great river Euphrates." 15 And the four angels that were kept in readiness for the hour and day and month and year, to kill a third of 16 mankind, were unchained. 16 And the number of the armies of cavalry 17 was two hundred million; I heard their number. 17 And in my vision I saw the horses and their riders like this, with fire-colored and violet and sulfur-colored coats of armor; and the horses' heads like lions' heads, and out of their mouths went fire and smoke and sulfur-fumes.

18 18 By these three scourges a third of men were killed, by the fire and 19 the smoke and the sulfur-fumes that went out of their mouths; 19 —for the powers of the horses are in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like snakes, with heads, and with them they do injury.— 20 20 And the rest of mankind, those who were not killed with these scourges, did not even repent of the deeds of their hands, not to do reverence to demons and to golden and silver and bronze and stone 21 and wooden idols that can neither see nor hear nor walk, 21 and did not repent of their murders nor of their witchcraft nor of their unchastity nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER 10

1 1 And I saw another angel, a strong one, come down out of the sky, wrapped in a cloud, the rainbow on his head and his face like the 2 sun and his legs like pillars of fire, 2 and with a little open book in his hand; and he set his right foot on the sea and his left on the land, 3 and cried out loudly, as a lion roars. 3 And when he cried out, the seven 4 thunders spoke with their peals. 4 And when the seven thunders spoke, I was going to write, and I heard a voice out of the sky say "Seal up 5 what the seven thunders spoke and do not write it." 5 And the angel that I saw standing on the sea and the land lifted his right hand to 6 the sky and swore 6 by him who lives forever and ever, who created the heavens and what is in them and the earth and what is in it and 7 the sea and what is in it, that there should be no more delay, 7 but in the days of the blast of the seventh angel, when he was to sound, God's secret plan as he had communicated it to his servants the 8 prophets would be all done. 8 And the voice that I had heard out of the sky I heard speaking with me again and saying "Go take the open book in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and the land."
9 9 And I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little book; and he said to me "Take it and eat it up, and it shall turn your stomach bitter; but in your mouth it shall be as sweet as honey."
10 10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it up, and it was like sweet honey in my mouth; and when I had eaten it my stomach turned bitter.
11 11 And they said to me "You must prophesy again over many peoples and races and languages and kings."

CHAPTER 11

1 1 And I was given a reed like a staff, with the words "Rise and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and those who worship 2 in it. 2 And exclude the court outside the temple, and do not measure it; because it is given to the nations, and they shall tread the sacred city underfoot forty-two months. 3 And I will give to my two witnesses, 3 and they shall prophesy twelve hundred and sixty days, clad in sackcloth. 4 These are the two olive-trees, and the two lampstands, that 4 stand before the Lord of the Earth. 5 And if one intends to injure them fire goes out of their mouths and consumes their enemies: anyone who 5 intends to injure them must be killed in this way. 6 These have authority to shut the sky, that rain may not fall during the days of their prophesying, and have authority over the waters to convert them into blood, and to smite the earth with every scourge as often as they wish.

7 7 And when they have finished their testimony the beast that comes up out of the abyss shall make war with them and defeat them and kill them; 8 and their corpses lie in the main street of the great city that is spiritually called Sodom and Egypt, the same where their Lord 9 was crucified; 9 and men of the peoples and tribes and languages and races look at their corpses three and a half days, and will not let their 10 corpses be put in a tomb; 10 and those who live on the earth rejoice over them and jubilate, and shall send presents to each other, because these two prophets had tortured those who live on the earth."

11 11 And after the three and a half days a spirit of life from God came into them, and they stood up on their feet, and great fear fell upon 12 those who saw them. 12 And they heard a loud voice out of the sky say to them "Come up here"; and they went up into the sky in a cloud, 13 and their enemies saw them; 13 and at that moment there came a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell, and there were killed in the earthquake seven thousand persons, and the rest were terror-struck and gave glory to the God of Heaven.

14 14 The second Woe has gone; the third "Woe is coming quickly.

15 15 And the seventh angel blew, and there came loud voices in heaven saying "The empire of the world has come to be our Lord's and his Christ's, and he shall reign forever and ever." 16 And the twenty-four 16 aged men that were sitting on their thrones before God threw themselves down on their faces and did reverence to God, 17 saying "We thank thee, Lord God Almighty, who Is and Was, because thou hast 17 taken thy great power and begun to reign, 18 and the nations have 18 raged, and thy wrath has come and the time for the dead to be judged, and to give their reward to thy servants the prophets and the holy and to those who fear thy name, the small and the great, 19 and to make havoc of the havoc-makers of the earth." 19 And the temple of God in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was visible in his temple; and there came lightnings and noises and thunder-claps and an earthquake and a great storm of hail.

CHAPTER 12

1 1 And a great portent appeared in the sky, a woman clad in the sun, the moon under her feet and a wreath of twelve stars on her 2 head, about to have a child; 2 and she was screaming in her labor-pains, 3 in the torture of giving birth. 3 And another portent appeared in the sky: lo, a great fiery-red serpent with seven heads and ten horns 4 and seven crowns on its heads, 4 its tail dragging a third of the stars in the sky and throwing them to earth. And the serpent was standing before the woman who was to bear the child, in order to eat up her 5 child when she did bear it. 5 And she bore a son, a male, who is to drive all nations with an iron rod; and her child was snatched away 6 to God and his throne; 6 and the woman fled to the desert, where she has a place prepared by God where they are to feed her twelve hundred and sixty days.

7 7 And there came a war in the sky, Michael and his angels battling 8 with the serpent; 8 and the serpent and its angels battled, and did not 9 succeed, nor was there any longer to be found in the sky a place for 10 them. 9 And the great serpent was thrown down, the primeval snake, 11 he who is called the Devil and Satan, the misleader of the whole 12 world of men—thrown down to the earth, and its angels thrown down 13 with it. 10 And I heard a loud voice in the sky say "Now is come our 14 God's salvation and power and empire, and his Christ's dominion, 15 because the accuser of our brothers is thrown down: he who accuses 16 them before our God day and night, 11 and they won against him because 17 of the Lamb's blood and because of the word of their testimony, and 18 did not love their lives even in the face of death. 12 Therefore jubilate, 19 heavens and you that dwell in them! woe for the earth and the sea!
20 because the Devil has gone down to you in a great rage, knowing that 21 he has little time."

13 13 And when the serpent saw that it was thrown down to the earth 14 it chased the woman that had borne the male child. 14 And the woman 15 was given the two wings of the great eagle that she might fly to her 16 place in the desert, where she is fed for a time and times and half 17 a time to keep her from the snake. 15 And the snake threw out of its 18 mouth after the woman water like a river to sweep her off her feet; 19 16 and the earth took the woman's part, and opened its mouth and drank 20 up the river that the serpent threw out of its mouth. 17 And the serpent 21 was angry with the woman, and went off to make war on the rest of 22 her issue, that keep the commandments of God and have the testimony 23 of Jesus; 18 and it planted itself on the sand of the sea.

CHAPTER 13

1 1 And I saw come up out of the sea a beast with ten horns and 2 seven heads, ten crowns on its horns and names of blasphemy on its 3 heads; 2 and the beast that I saw was like a leopard, and its feet like 4 a bear's, and its mouth like that of a lion, and the serpent gave it its 5 own power and its throne and great dominion; 3 and one of its heads 6 as if it had had its throat cut and was dying; and its death-wound 7 was cured. 4 And the whole earth was fascinated over the beast; and 8 they did reverence to the serpent because it had given the beast the 9 dominion, and did reverence to the beast saying "Who is like the 10 beast? and who can war with it?" 5 And it was given a mouth uttering 11 big speeches and blasphemies; and it was given dominion to act 12 forty-two months; 6 and it opened its mouth for blasphemies against 13 God, to blaspheme his name and his tabernacle, those who dwell in 14 heaven. 7 And it was privileged to make war with God's people and to 15 defeat them; and it was given dominion over every tribe and people 16 and language and race; 8 and all that live on the earth shall do it 17 reverence, whoever has not had his name written in the Slaughtered

9 Lamb's book of life since the foundation of the world. 9 If anyone has 10 an ear, let him listen: 10 whoever leads into captivity proceeds into captivity; whoever shall kill with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the endurance and faith of God's people.
11 And I saw another beast come up out of the earth; and it had 12 two horns like a lamb, and it spoke like a serpent. 12 And it exercises all the first beast's dominion in its presence; and it makes the earth and those who live in it do reverence to the first beast whose death-13 wound was cured. 13 And it exhibits great tokens, so as even to make 14 fire come down out of the sky to the earth before men. 14 And it misleads those who live on the earth because of the tokens that it is privileged to exhibit before the beast, telling those who live on the earth to make an image of the beast that has the sword-cut and has come to life.
15 It is privileged to give the beast's image a spirit, so that the beast's image shall even speak and cause as many as do not do rever-16 ence to the beast's image to be killed. 16 And it causes everybody, small and great and rich and poor and free and slave, to have a stamp put 17 on his right hand or on his forehead, 17 and that no one shall be able to buy or sell except one who has the stamp, the beast's name or the 18 number of its name. 18 Here is wisdom: let him who has intelligence calculate the beast's number; for it is a man's number. 18 And its number is six hundred and sixty-six.

CHAPTER 14

1 1 And I saw, and there was the lamb standing on Mount Sion, and with it a hundred and forty-four thousand who had its name and 2 its Father's name written on their foreheads. 2 And I heard a sound out of heaven like the sound of much water and like the sound of loud thunder; and the sound that I heard was like that of harpers 3 playing on their harps. 3 And they were singing what seemed to be a new song before the throne and before the four creatures and the aged men; and nobody could learn the song except the hundred and 4 forty-four thousand who had been bought from the earth. 4 These are they who were not defiled with women: for they are virgins. These are they who follow the lamb wherever it goes. These were bought 5 from mankind as firstfruits for God and the lamb, 5 and in their mouths was found no falsehood: they are without a flaw.
6 6 And I saw another angel flying in the zenith with an eternal gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth and to every race and tribe 7 and language and people, 7 saying in a loud voice "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour for his judgment has come; and do reverence to him who made the heavens and the earth and sea and springs of water." 8 8 And a second angel followed, saying "She has fallen, she has fallen, great Babylon who gave all nations the wine of her rage of unchastity to drink." 9 9 And a third angel followed them, saying in a loud voice "Whoever is doing reverence to the beast and its image, and taking a stamp 10 on his forehead or on his hand, 10 he too shall drink the wine of God's wrath that is mixed undiluted in the cup of his anger, and shall be tortured with fire and sulfur before holy angels and before the lamb; 11 11 and the smoke of their torture goes up forever and ever, and they have no rest day nor night, those who do reverence to the beast and 12 its image and whoever takes the stamp of its name. 12 Here is the endurance of God's people, those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus."

13 13 And I heard a voice out of the sky say "Write 'Happy are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth—yes, says the Spirit, to rest from their labors; for their deeds follow with them.'"

14 14 And I saw, and there was a white cloud; and sitting on the cloud the like of a son of man, with a golden wreath on his head and a sharp 15 sickle in his hand. 15 And another angel came out of the temple, calling in a loud voice to the one who was sitting on the cloud "Out with your sickle and reap, because reaping-time has come, because the harvest 16 of the earth is dry"; 16 and the one who was sitting on the cloud threw his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 17 And another angel came out of the temple in heaven, also with a sharp sickle. 18 And another angel came out of the altar, he who has dominion over fire, and called loudly to the one who had the sharp sickle "Out with your sharp sickle and harvest the clusters of the 19 vine of the earth, because its grapes are ripe"; 19 and the angel threw his sickle to the earth, and harvested the vintage of the vine of the 20 earth and threw it into the great winepress of God's wrath. 20 And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress up to horses' bridles two hundred miles off.

CHAPTER 15

1 1 And I saw another portent in the sky, a great and wonderful:
seven angels with the seven last plagues—the last, because in them the wrath of God is finished.

2 2 And I saw what seemed as if it were a sea of glass mixed with fire; and standing on the sea of glass, with harps divine, those who have come off victorious from the beast and from its image and from 3 its name-number. 3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God and the song of the lamb: "Great and wonderful are thy deeds, Lord God Almighty; right and true are thy courses, King of the 4 nations. 4 Who shall not be afraid, Lord, and glorify thy name because thou alone art holy? because all nations shall come and do reverence before thee, because thy right-doing is made manifest."

5 5 And after this I saw, and the temple of the tent of attestation in 6 heaven was opened, 6 and out of the temple came the seven angels that had the seven plagues, dressed in bright clean flax and belted round 7 the chest with golden bells. 7 And one of the four creatures gave the seven angels seven golden saucers full of the wrath of God, who lives

8 forever and ever. 8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and nobody could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

CHAPTER 16

1 1 And I heard a loud voice out of the temple say to the seven angels "Go and pour out the seven saucers full of the wrath of God on the earth."

2 2 And the first went and poured out his saucer on the earth, and it became a rank malignant sore on the men who had the beast's stamp and who did reverence to its image.

3 3 And the second poured out his saucer on the sea, and it became blood like that of a dead man, and all animate life died, what was in the sea.

4 4 And the third poured out his saucer on the rivers and the springs 5 of water, and they became blood; 5 and I heard the angel of the water 6 say "Thou art just, O holy Who Is and Was, in that thou didst pro-7 nounce these sentences, 6 because they shed the blood of holy men and 8 of prophets and thou hast given them blood to drink: they deserve 9 it"; 7 and I heard the altar say "Yes, Lord God Almighty, true and 10 just are thy judgments."

8 8 And the fourth poured out his saucer on the sun, and it was given 9 to the sun to scorch men with fire, 9 and men suffered a great scorching 10 and blasphemed the name of the God who has dominion over these 11 plagues, and did not repent to give him glory.

10 10 And the fifth poured out his saucer on the beast's throne, and its 11 empire was thrown into darkness, and they chewed their tongues 12 for pain 11 and blasphemed the God of heaven for their pains and their 13 sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

12 12 And the sixth poured out his saucer on the great river Euphrates, 13 and its water was dried up that the road for the kings from the 14 sunrise might be prepared. 13 And I saw three unclean spirits, like 15 frogs, out of the serpent's mouth and out of the beast's mouth and out 16 of the pretended prophet's mouth; 14 for there are spirits of demons, 17 doing tokens, that go out after the kings of the whole world of men 18 to bring them together for the war of the great day of God Al-19 mighty.— 15 I am coming like a thief: happy is he who keeps awake and 20 guards his clothes, that he may not go naked and have people see his indecent condition.— 16 And he brought them together to the place called in Hebrew Har Magedon.

17 17 And the seventh poured out his saucer on the air, and there came 18 out of the temple from the throne a loud voice saying "It is done"; 19 18 and there were lightnings and noises and thunderclaps, and there was 20 a great earthquake, such an earthquake as there has not been since there was a man on earth, 19 and the great city went into three parts and the cities of the nations fell. And great Babylon was remembered before God, to give her the wine-cup of his fierce anger. 20 And every 21 island took flight, and mountains left no trace. 21 And great hailstones, about a hundredweight each, came down upon men out of the sky; and men blasphemed God at the plague of the hail, because it was a very great plague.

CHAPTER 17

1 And one of the seven angels that had the seven saucers came and talked with me, saying "Come here, I will show you the sentence
2 of the great prostitute seated on a great water, 2 with whom the kings of the earth debauched themselves and the inhabitants of the earth
3 were intoxicated with the wine of her unchaste embraces"; 3 and he carried me away to a desert in the spirit. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast full of names of blasphemy, with seven heads and 4 ten horns; 4 and the woman was clad in purple and scarlet and jeweled with gold and precious stones and pearls, with a golden cup in her
5 hand full of abominations and the filth of her prostitution, 5 and written on her forehead a name with a secret meaning, "Great Babylon, mother of the prostitutes and abominations of the earth." 6 And 6 I saw the woman drunk with the blood of God's people and with the blood of Jesus's witnesses. And great was my wonder at seeing her.
7 7 And the angel said to me "Why did you wonder? I will tell you the secret meaning of the woman and of the beast that carries her, that 8 has the seven heads and the ten horns. 8 The beast that you saw was and is not, and is to come up out of the abyss, and goes to destruction; and those who live on the earth shall wonder, those whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, as they see how the beast was and is not and shall make its 9 appearance. 9 Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are 10 seven hills that the woman is seated on; 10 and they are seven kings— five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come, and must remain a little while when he does come. 11 And the beast that was and is not is himself an eighth and one of the seven, and goes to destruction.
12 12 And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who had not yet received empire, but they do receive dominion as kings for one hour with the beast. 13 These are of one mind, and give their power and 13 dominion to the beast. 14 These shall make war with the lamb, and the 14 lamb shall defeat them, because he is Lord of Lords and King of Kings and those who are with him are called and chosen and faithful." 15 15 And he said to me "The waters that you saw, where the prostitute 16 is seated, are peoples and masses and races and languages. 16 And the ten horns that you saw, and the beast, these shall hate the prostitute and make her destitute and naked, and eat her flesh, and burn her 17 in a fire; 17 for God has put it into their hearts to do what is in his mind, and to concur unanimously in giving their empire to the 18 beast till God's words are all done. 18 And the woman that you saw is the great city that has empire over the kings of the earth."

CHAPTER 18

1 After this I saw coming down out of the sky another angel, one that had great dominion, and the earth was lighted up with his glory.
2 And he cried with a strong voice "She has fallen, she has fallen, great Babylon has fallen and become a home of demons and a haunt of every unclean spirit and a haunt of every unclean and odious 3 bird, 3 because all the nations have drunk the wine of her rage of unchastity and the kings of the earth have debauched themselves with her and the merchants of the earth have grown rich out of the 4 rush of her luxurious life." 4 And I heard another voice out of the sky say "Come out of her, my people, that you may not be a party 5 to her sins and may not share in her scourges, 5 because her sins have been crowded up to the sky and God has remembered her iniquities.
6 6 Pay her in the same coin that she paid in, and redouble to her the double of her own deeds; in the cup that she mixed in mix a double 7 draft for her; 7 for every bit of her self-glorification and luxury give her as much of torment and mourning. Because she says in her 8 heart 'I am enthroned queen, I am not a widow, I shall not see mourning,' 8 for this reason her scourges shall come in one day, pestilence and 9 mourning and starvation, and she shall be burned in a fire, because strong is the Lord God who has judged her. 9 And the kings of the 10 earth, who have debauched themselves with her and lived luxuriously in her company, shall weep and wail over her when they see the 11 smoke of the burning of her, 10 standing far away for the fear of her torture, saying 'Alas, alas, great city, Babylon, powerful city! be-12 cause in one moment your judgment has come.' 11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her because nobody buys 13 their cargoes any longer, 12 cargoes of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and lawn and purple and silk and crimson, and 14 every variety of sandarac-wood and every article of ivory and every article made of costliest wood and of bronze and iron and marble, 13 and 15 cinnamon and amomum and incense and perfume and frankincense and wine and oil and farina and wheat and cattle and sheep, and 16 horses and carriages and slaves, and human lives. 14 And your summer dainties of heart's desire are gone from you, and everything sumptuous 17 and splendid of yours has perished, and nevermore shall anyone find them. 15 The merchants of these things, those who had grown rich 18 from her, shall stand far away for the fear of her torture weeping and mourning, 16 saying 'Alas, alas, great city clad in lawn and purple 19 and crimson and jeweled with gold and precious stones and pearls! because in one moment such wealth has been desolated.' 17 And every 20 ship-captain and every voyager, and sailors and as many as get their living from the sea, stood far away 18 and cried, as they saw the smoke of the burning of her, 'Who is like the great city?' 19 and threw earth on their heads and cried, weeping and mourning, 'Alas, alas, great city where all who had shipping at sea grew rich out of her costly fashions! 20 because in one moment she has been desolated.' Jubilate over her, heaven! and God's people and the apostles and the prophets! because God has passed judgment on her in your cause."

- 21 And one strong angel took up a stone that seemed like a great millstone and hurled it into the sea, saying "Thus shall the great city 22 Babylon be hurled down with a plunge and never be found again. 22 And there shall never be heard in you again the sound of harpers and minstrels and flute-players and trumpeters; and there shall never be found in you again any master of any art; and there shall never 23 be heard in you again the sound of a mill; 23 and there shall never shine in you again the light of a lamp; and there shall never be heard in you again the voices of bridegroom and bride; because it was the magnates of the earth who were your merchants, because by your 24 witchcraft all the nations were misguided. 24 And in her was found the blood of prophets and holy men and of all who have been slaughtered on earth."

CHAPTER 19

- 1 After this I heard what seemed like the loud voice of a great crowd in heaven saying "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong 2 to our God, because his judgments are true and just; 2 because he has done justice on the great prostitute who debauched the earth with her prostitution, and has avenged his servants' blood at her hands";
3 and for the second time they said "Hallelujah!" 3 And her smoke 4 goes up forever and ever. 4 And the twenty-four aged men and the four creatures threw themselves down and did reverence to God 5 who sits on the throne, saying "Amen; hallelujah!" 5 And from the throne came a voice saying "Praise our God, all his servants, you 6 who fear him, small and great!" 6 And I heard what seemed as if it were the voices of a great crowd and the sound of much water and the pealing of strong thunders, all saying "Hallelujah, because the 7 Lord our God Almighty has come into his reign! 7 Let us be glad and exult and give him glory, because the Lamb's wedding has come 8 and his wife has made her preparations 8 and has been given the privilege of dressing in bright clean lawn (because the lawn is the 9 righteousnesses of God's people)." 9 And he said to me "Write 'Happy are those who are invited to the Lamb's wedding dinner'; and he 10 said to me "These words are true words of God's." 10 And I threw myself down before his feet to do him reverence; and he said to me "See that you do not! I am a fellow-servant with you and your brothers that have the testimony of Jesus; do reverence to God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."
- 11 And I saw heaven opened, and there was a white horse with a rider called Faithful and True, who judges and wars on the side of 12 right: 12 his eyes are flame and there are many crowns on his head, 13 and he has a written name which nobody knows but he, 13 and is clad 14 in a mantle dyed in blood, and is named The Word of God. 14 And the armies in heaven followed him on white horses, dressed in clean

15 white lawn. 15 And out of his mouth goes a sharp sword to smite the nations with, and he shall drive them with an iron rod; and he treads 16 the press of God Almighty's fierce anger-wine. 16 And he has on his mantle and on his thigh a written name, "King of Kings and Lord of Lords." 17 17 And I saw one angel standing in the sun, and he cried with a loud voice to all the birds that fly in the zenith "Come, gather to God's 18 great banquet 18 to eat kings' flesh and generals' flesh and strong men's flesh and flesh of horses and their riders and flesh of everybody, 19 freemen and slaves and small and great." 19 And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered for the war with the 20 rider on the horse and with his army. 20 And the beast was captured, and with it the pretended prophet who did before it the tokens by which he misled those that took the beast's stamp and that did rever-21 ence to its image: the two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur; 21 and the rest were killed by the rider's sword that came out of his mouth, and all the birds gorged on their flesh.

CHAPTER 20

1 1 And I saw an angel come down out of the sky with the key of the 2 abyss, and a great chain over his arm; 2 and he seized the serpent, the primeval snake, who is the Devil and Satan, and chained him for a 3 thousand years 3 and threw him into the abyss and locked and sealed it over him, that he might no longer mislead the nations until the thousand years are finished: after this he must be unchained a little while.
4 4 And I saw thrones, and they sat on them and were given a judgment to render; and the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and for the word of God, and such as had not done reverence to the beast nor to its image and had not taken the stamp 5 on their foreheads and hands, and they came to life and reigned with the Christ for a thousand years. 5 The rest of the dead did not 6 come to life until the thousand years are finished. This is the first resurrection. 6 Happy and holy is he who has a part in the first resurrection: over these the second death does not have dominion, but they shall be priests of God and the Christ and shall reign with him for the thousand years.
7 7 And when the thousand years are finished Satan will be unchained 8 from his prison 8 and will come out to mislead the nations in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them to the war; of 9 whom the number is like the sand of the sea. 9 And they came up over the breadth of the land and surrounded the camp of God's people and the beloved city; and fire came down out of the sky and devoured 10 them, 10 and the Devil their misleader was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, the same where the beast and the pretended prophet are,
and they shall be tortured day and night forever and ever.
11 11 And I saw a great white throne and the One who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heavens fled and there was no place to 12 be found for them. 12 And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened; and another book was opened, which is that of life; and the dead were judged out of 13 what was written in the books, in accordance with their deeds. 13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and the world below gave up the dead that were in them, and they were judged 14 each one in accordance with their deeds. 14 And death and the world below were thrown into the lake of fire: this is the second death, the 15 lake of fire. 15 And whoever was not found written down in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER 21

1 1 And I saw new heavens and a new earth—for the former heavens
2 and the former earth are gone, and the sea no longer exists— 2 and I saw the sacred city Jerusalem new, I saw it come down out of heaven 3 from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a loud voice out of the throne say "Lo, God's abode is with men and he will abide with them, and they shall be his peoples and he 4 will be God with them 4 and will wipe away every tear out of their eyes, and death will no longer exist, nor will mourning nor outcry 5 nor pain any longer exist, because former things are gone"; 5 and he who sat on the throne said "Lo, I am making everything new"; and 6 it said "Write, because these words are true and trustworthy." 6 And he said to me "The work is done. I am the A and the Z, the beginning and the end. I will give him who is thirsty free water from the 7 spring of the water of life. 7 The victor shall inherit these things, and I will be his God and he shall be my son. 8 But as for cowards and 8 disbelievers and scoundrels and murderers and libertines and witchcraft-users and idolaters, and all liars, their portion shall be in the lake burning with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

9 9 And one of the seven angels that had the seven saucers full of the seven last plagues came and spoke with me, saying "Come, I will 10 show you the bride, the Lamb's wife." 10 And he took me in the spirit to a great high mountain and showed me the sacred city Jerusalem 11 coming down out of heaven from God, having God's glory: 11 what it is lighted by is like a most precious stone, as if it were a crystalline 12 jaspid stone; 12 it has a great high wall, and has twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written on the gates which are those 13 of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel— 13 on the east three gates and on the north three gates and on the south three gates and on the 14 west three gates; 14 and the wall of the city has twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the Lamb's twelve apostles. 15 And the 15 one who spoke with me had a measure, a golden reed, to measure the city and its gates and its wall. 16 And the city stands as a square, its 16 length the same as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed for twelve thousand stadia: its length and its breadth and its 17 height are equal. 17 And he measured its wall, a hundred and forty-four 18 cubits, man's measure, which is angel's measure. 18 And the masonry of its wall was jaspid; and the city was pure gold like pure glass.

19 The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with every precious stone: the first foundation jaspid, the second lapis lazuli, the third diop-20 tase, the fourth emerald, 20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sard, the seventh topaz, the eighth beryl, the ninth peridot, the tenth chryso-21 prase, the eleventh sapphire, the twelfth amethyst. 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: each one of the gates was made of one pearl. And the avenues of the city were pure gold, that seemed as if 22 it were transparent glass. 22 And I did not see any temple in it; for the 23 Lord God Almighty is its temple, and the Lamb. 23 And the city does not need the sun or the moon to shine for it; for God's glory lights it, and 24 its lamp is the Lamb. 24 And the nations will walk through its light, 25 and the kings of the earth bring their glory to it; 25 and its gates shall 26 not be shut by day (for there will be no night there), 26 and they will 27 bring the glory and honor of the nations to it; 27 and there shall not enter it any unholy thing and doer of abomination and falsehood,

CHAPTER 22

1 but those who are written down in the Lamb's book of life. 1 And he showed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, running out of 2 the throne of God and the Lamb 2 through the middle of its main avenue; and on this side of the river and on that side were trees of life producing twelve crops of fruit, bringing in their fruit each month; and the leaves of the trees were for curing the diseases of 3 the nations. 3 And there will no longer be any ban. And the throne 4 of God and the Lamb will be in it; 4 and his servants, his name on 5 their foreheads, will worship him and see his face. 5 And there will no longer be night, and they do not need lamplight and sunlight, because the Lord God will light them; and they will reign forever and ever.
6 6 And he said to me "These words are true and trustworthy, and the Lord, the God of the prophets' spirits, has sent his angel to show 7 his servants what must soon take place. 7 And lo, I am coming quickly.
8 Happy is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book." 8 And it was I, John, who heard and saw these things; and when I heard and 9 saw, I threw myself down to do reverence before the feet of the angel who was showing me these things, 9 and he said to me "See that you do not! I am a fellow-servant with you and your brothers the prophets and those who keep the words of this book; do reverence to God."
10 10 And he said to me "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of 11 this book; 11 for the time is near. Let the wronger still wrong and the grimy still go grimy, and the righteous still do right, and the holy still act holily: 12 lo, I am coming quickly, with my pay with me to pay 12 each as his work is. 13 I am the A and the Z, the first and the last, the 13 beginning and the end. 14 Happy are those who wash their robes, that 14 their rights may extend to the trees of life and they may enter the 15 city by the gates; 15 outside are the dogs and the witchcraft-users and

- the libertines and the murderers and the idolaters and everybody who 16 loves falsehood and does it. 16 I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you this testimony over the churches. I am the root and line of David, the bright morning star."
- 17 17 And the Spirit and the Bride are saying "Come!" and let him who hears say "Come!" and whoever is thirsty, come! take water of life free, whoever will!
- 18 18 I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book that if one puts anything on to it God will put on him the 19 scourges that are written in this book, 19 and if one takes anything away from the words of the book of this prophecy God will take his portion away from the trees of life, and from the sacred city, that are written in this book.
- 20 20 Says he who gives this testimony, "Yes, I am coming quickly."
 Amen: come, Lord Jesus.
- 21 21 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with God's people.

THE TRANSLATOR

The translator of this version of the Holy Scriptures, Steven T. Byington, was born in 1868. When less than thirteen years of age, he made it his goal to translate the Bible into modern English. To this end, Steven Byington directed his education to fit him for the work of Bible translating.

He took the classical course in college, receiving the degree of A.B. and graduating summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Vermont. His postgraduate study included one year at Union Theological Seminary and a half year at Oberlin Theological Seminary. He specialized in Bible languages as far as the curriculums permitted. Thereafter he kept up his language studies in private.

About 1898 Mr. Byington felt that he could begin translating. It was then that he rendered the first chapter or two of Matthew into English. For some years he had little time for this work. But in 1906 he came into a position that enabled him to spend about forty-five minutes a day, six days a week, in actual translating. Other spare time was spent in studying the original-language text in preparation for what he planned to translate in coming days. This continued until 1940, at which time he retired from his regular job. In the next three years he was able to devote all his working hours to the translation and thus complete it.

Mr. Byington regularly attended a Congregational church that later merged with another church to form the United Church of Ballard Vale, Massachusetts. He had a deep love and respect for the Holy Scriptures. His purpose was to put the Bible into living present-day English. To bring out the flavor of the original-language words, he attempted to determine their specific meaning.

He also appreciated the importance of incorporating the divine name "Jehovah" in his work, especially since its omission from other translations definitely obscured certain texts. Regarding his use of the name "Jehovah," he said: "I see that the Hebrew is using a personal name, and the ruling principle of my translation is to make the English say just what the Hebrew said, in just the way in which the Hebrew said it, as exactly as English can be made to do it."

Mr. Byington looked forward to the publication of his entire translation, "The Bible in Living English," on which he had labored for some forty years. But his desire was not fulfilled during his lifetime.

After his death in 1957 the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society of Pennsylvania received the publication rights for the entire work. The translation was turned over to the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York for publication.

We, the publishers, are pleased to make Mr. Byington's complete translation available to the reading public for the first time. It is our prayer that "The Bible in Living English" may play a part in helping honest-hearted readers to come to know the supreme Sovereign of the universe, Jehovah God.
